FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 5, 1872

Town and County News.

CHALMERS' CHURCH STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—Remember Chalmers' Church Strawberry Festival in the Drill Shed this evening. Lots of strawberries, ice cream and other good things. The Band will also be present.

LYCEUM THEATRE.—We learn that Messrs Halford & Felton intend to give a theatrical performance in the Town Hall, Guelph, on Monday evening next, when the company from the Toronto Lyceum will perform Robertson's well-known play of "Caste," to be followed by a vocal and instrumental entertainment. Particulars in advertisement to-morrow.

THE SHOOTING CASE.—The man Bennett, who shot Private Isles of the Artillery Company for crossing his field while at the camp at Windsor has been committed for trial at the Essex Assizes. Isles came home with his company on Thursday and is rapidly recovering from the effects of the shot.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. George Beale, of Pilkington, died on Tuesday morning from the effect of injuries received by being thrown out of his wagon. He was taking home a load of lumber from Guelph, when by some means he was thrown from the wagon and three of his ribs broken and other injuries sustained, one of the broken ribs penetrating his lungs, from which he died, in spite of all that medical skill could do.

The Editor of the Dundas Banner joins in jubilation with Guelph over the defeat of the "Baltimore" at the base ball match on Monday, and in the exuberance of his joy further states that our citizens intend to present each of the Guelph "boys" with 1,000 acres of land within the corporation limits, which is to be utilized for the purpose of growing silver championship balls and bats.

NORTH RIDING REGISTRY OFFICE.—Our correspondent writes that the people of Arthur Village are getting uneasy about the Registry Office, as the season is getting pretty far advanced, and no action has yet been taken in commencing the building of the office. In reply we may state that as soon as the Committee can settle about the tenders the work will be commenced.

CENTRE WELLINGTON.—At the Reform Convention, held at Elora on Tuesday, the following gentlemen were appointed conveners of meetings in the different municipalities:—Peel, Wm. Sturridge; Pilkington, east side of Grand River, Henry Dunbar; west side, Robt. Cromar; Nichol, east side of Grand River, Alexander Monroe; west side, James Burnett; Elora, John Mundell; Garafraxa West, south side, Peter Rennie; north side, H. Cull.

PRESTON MINERAL BATHS.—We are glad to see that Mr. Kress, the new proprietor of the Preston Mineral Baths, is at present doing a large business. The house is admirably kept this season, the fare first class and abundant, excellent attendance, and the rates much lower both for boarders and casual visitors than they were last year. No better place for relaxation and health can be found in this locality, and as it is very convenient to Guelph, we have no doubt many of our citizens will visit the Baths during the hot weather.

THE COUNTY ASSESSMENT.—In this case, against an appeal from the Town of Guelph against the County assessment, His Honour Judge Macdonald yesterday decided to hear evidence. Mr. John Beattie, County Clerk, was subjected to a long examination, and Mr. Charles Davidson was kept five hours in the witness box by Mr. Guthrie. To-day the Court was resumed at 10 o'clock, when Mr. D. Foot, Assessor for Elora, Mr. Jas. Laird, Hero of Guelph Township, and Mr. Edward Johnston, Deputy Reeve of Erin, were examined.

THE POTATO BUG.—The Potato-bugs are extending their ravages rapidly in this section. Fields and plots that were a few days ago entirely clear of the pest, are now invaded in perfect armies. The most effectual mode of destroying them is by sprinkling a mixture of Paris Green and Plaster on the leaves of the plants. Mr. Charles Davidson's man applied this cure on a path of potatoes a couple of days ago, and now there is not a bug to be seen. The mixture must be put on while the dew is on the leaves. The proportions of the mixture are one pound of Paris Green, to ten pounds of Plaster.

ACCIDENT.—It appears that the Sabbath School Teachers belonging to the Congregational Church held yesterday (Thursday) a picnic up the river at "Paradise," proceeding to their destination in boats. After the amusements of the day were concluded, Mr. Pilcher, of Raymond's Sewing Machine Factory, ascended one of the trees to unfasten the rope which had been used as a swing and in so doing somehow lost his hold and fell from a considerable height on to the ground, receiving in his fall severe bruises about the broad of the back, left eye and side of the face. He remained insensible for some time after the accident, but gradually regained consciousness. We understand further that one of the boats on the return homeward got stuck amidships on a sunken log in the river, and the boat after many revolutions on its axis, to the no small discomfort of the oarsmen, (who were quite unaccustomed to this peculiar style of water-logging and log-rolling) was ultimately relieved from its eccentric situation, and the party managed to reach home without any further serious contrivance.

Fruit Growers' Association of Ontario.

The annual meeting of this Association was held, according to previous announcement, in the Town Hall, Guelph, on Thursday, at two p. m. There was a tolerably good attendance of Provincial fruitgrowers, amongst whom were Messrs. John Goldie (Ayr), E. B. Morden, Bauer (Hamilton), Allen (Kingston), Saunders (London), Bennet (Brantford), Col. Magill (Oshawa), Hamilton, Gray (Toronto), Denton (London), Chisholm (Halton), Sheriff Davidson, H. E. Jackson, Roy (Burlingame), Charles Scott (Elora), A. Newton (Woodstock), Bauman (Preston), Goldie, Allan, Elliott, Murton, Sharpe, James Anderson, J. A. Wood, F. J. Chadwick, D. Sorby, B. Fairley, Alex. Glass, W. Stevenson, W. Phin, W. Benham, sr., R. Forbes, Robert Melvin, &c.

The President, Rev. Robert Burnet, in the chair. Mr. D. W. Beadle, Secretary. The first question on the card was that of the COLLIDING MOTHS. Mr. Allen (Kingston) said that the collid moths had not been so troublesome in his neighborhood as formerly.

Mr. Chisholm (Halton) said in his neighborhood they were getting worse. Had no remedy to propose beyond what has been done already.

Mr. Morden said that the russet varieties seemed to be more exempt from the collid moths than the softer varieties, such as snow apple, &c.

Mr. Bennet (Brantford) had been much troubled with the collid moth, but this year they were not nearly so troublesome; either the severe winter or the birds were the cause of their disappearance, in his opinion; he had found collid moths in the crop of the cat bird.

Mr. Denton (London) thought the collid moth was more prevalent in old than in young orchards.

Mr. Caldwell (Galt) thought the ravages of these insects were on the decline, probably owing to the severity of the winter. He thought they should be careful to pick all affected apples and pay attention to cleaning trees, &c.

Mr. James Anderson (Punshing) said his orchard was young and not much troubled with the moth. He found the snow apple more easily affected; he found none at all on the Duchess of Oldenburg, or the red astrachan.

Dr. Cross (St. Catharines) said his orchard was young, and found that out of 25 varieties he cultivated, not one escaped the ravages of the collid moth. He thought this insect was doing more harm than all the other insects put together.

Mr. Saunders having stated some interesting particulars regarding the history of the moth, mentioned that he knew that it fed on the plum, a matter that, perhaps, was not generally known. He had no remedies beyond what had already been advised.

Mr. Roy (Berlin) found that the only variety that escaped the collid moth was the swaizise pomme de gris. Two years ago he had not a collid moth on his premises. He did not believe in the artificial remedies proposed, but regarded the only effectual means to get rid of these pests was by the careful protection and production of birds.

Mr. Saunders did not think the birds would be very effectual in destroying the collid moth, as the larvae were buried in the apple. He thought it would be unwise to let the idea go abroad that artificial means were useless. He thought that we should use the intelligence God has given us to aid nature in keeping down the undue multiplicity of these insects.

Mr. George Elliott (Guelph) had suffered severely from collid moths, and found all varieties of apples more or less affected. He used as a remedy tying pieces of carpet, &c., round the trees, and found that the insects accumulated there, and at the end of a week or so gathered and destroyed them.

A very lively discussion arose as to the Parliamentary law prohibiting the shooting of all birds, many fruit growers contending that they were all more or less insect devourers, whilst other gentlemen contended for the opposite; in fact Mr. Allen, of Kingston, (who seems well posted in their habits) declares that some of these birds devour quite as many of our friends as our enemies; and advocated strongly permission being given to every one to protect his own orchard from the depredation of birds who are epicures enough to prefer a dainty dish of ripe fruit to even the tempting morsel of a hairy caterpillar!

Much amusement was afforded by our venerable friend Mr. Benham "chaffing" the worthy Secretary of the Guelph Horticultural Society with shooting 150 birds to preserve a pint of cherries!

Moved by Mr. Saunders, seconded by Mr. Morden, that in the opinion of this Association it is highly necessary that some united effort be made by fruit growers in districts where the collid moth prevails, and would urge upon its members the use of the proper time of the remedies which have been suggested to lessen their numbers. Carried.

PEAR BLIGHT. Mr. Allen (Kingston) found the bartlett (a little tender), Louise bonne, Flemish beauty, belle lucrative, seckel, Osage beauré to answer in his district.

Mr. Caldwell (Galt) thought the cultivation of the pear as easy as that of the apple, and thought by the timely application of the knife diseased limbs would speedily bring the tree into healthy activity. Found bartlett, rossiézier, Flemish beauty, Duchess D'Angouleme, Louise bonne, ester bonne, white doyenne, sheldon, seckel, the latter particularly, hardy and growing in cold northern districts and producing fine fruit. Whenever the pear tree becomes hide bound use the knife freely in the bark just as the sap is beginning to rise. Had strong objections to stimulating manures for pear trees; preferred a compost of ashes, and a good washing of soft soap.

Mr. Morden preferred standard to dwarf trees.

Mr. Denton drew clay on his land where he grew pears, and found that the pear trees did not do well where the clay was put on too thickly. The natural soil where his pear trees grew was sand.

Mr. Lee found the Flemish beauty the best to grow.

Mr. Fairley (Guelph) thought there ### was not sufficient care taken in planting the trees; the soil should be well slackened for a considerable distance round the roots.

Mr. Benham has grown pears for the last 25 years; lost his first trees; succeeded well for the last 15 years with dwarfs. Dwarfs generally have not been planted deep enough. Cultivates the bartlett (tender), Louise bonne (good and abundant) Howell, Dewborn's seedling, seckel, Stevens Genesee, vicar of Wakefield, keeps well, Beurre D'Anjou, chamortelle, worthy of cultivation, and it was mentioned by Mr. Allen, of Kingston, that he had known pears of this variety to sell at 18 guineas per dozen in England.

Dr. Cross (St. Catharines) found that he was likely to have a poor crop of pears this year: prefers standards; Marie Louise has failed; Duchess D'Angouleme has failed; keeps ground well cultivated; soil clay never had the Duchess blight.

Mr. Merton considered Guelph soil well adapted for the growth of pears, although his own experience was not of the most flattering nature. He had seen in this district some excellent specimens of bartlett, Flemish beauty, Louise bonne, Beurre Diez. The Beurre D'Anjou was ruined badly this season. He regarded raw manure as most destructive to the trees.

Mr. Ellicott (Guelph) his soil was clay and cultivated 15 varieties; prepares the soil well, using the pickaxe to break up the subsoil, plants deep, and mulches both summer and winter with proper manure which keeps the soil moist in summer and protects from frost in winter.

Mr. Roy (Berlin) cultivates a few reliable varieties, such as Flemish beauty, (hardiest), beurre, seckel, rossiézier, beurre diez, Elliott's early, from Mr. Dougall, Windsor, stands winter well, quality good; has the supreme de guimper, tender small; manna d'ete not worth cultivating; ester beurre diez; glut morosau never blights; duchess does not succeed with him; graslin good and hardy; kingsing tender; has some seedlings; mulches well, applies liquid manure; double works the bartlett on the grey doyenne, beurre rose has been worked on summer rose stock.

Mr. Stevenson (Guelph) places Flemish beauty first, is hardy, productive, and profitable, (2) seckel, (3) Louise bonne de Jersey, (4) glut morosau; likes the Kirkland, (5) the Duchess d'Angouleme, on good stock. Buffan, very fine and does not crack. Belle lucrative not equal in flavor to his anticipations, finds large and small fruit at the same time. Duchess Anjoule does not succeed well; Napoleons do well, so does the white doyenne, has a tendency to crack. Beurre Diez rather tender.

Mr. Alex. Glass, finds the bartlett an indifferent grower, and tender. White doyenne does well, does not crack. Osband spare bearer. Bergamotte cadette hardly the best summer bearer. Stevens Genesee is had for being troubled with the collid moth. Van Buren good samples but poor bearer. Vicar of Winkfield good, Doyenne D'Ete, Blapp's favorite, healthy but not yet fruited.

Sheriff Davidson, finds the Duchess an indifferent grower, has damped off this year; the Flemish beauty very hardy, very few this year, should be worked on a pear stock. Osband's summer succeeds well in his district, ripens about the middle of August, is pretty and abundant bearer, prefers to any other summer pear; winter nelis bears abundantly, is hardy and well adapted for preserving; the seckel does well and is hardy; feeds well, and cuts back well. Mulches every winter and removes in the spring; prefers spring pruning, prunes severely.

Mr. A. W. Wone prefers the bartlett to any; finds the winter nelis better before time for gathering; has the jammiette but not hardy. Onondago acid, beurre, hardy rough in flavor.

Mr. Jackson (Berlin) cultivates a few pears, complains that the varieties preferred do not turn out as named when bought; prefers the D'Ege to the bartlett; the Flemish beauty lacks flavor; Osband's summer, Beurre Giffard bears well; Clapp's favorite does well, bartlett very generally grown in his quarter; Doyenne D'Hiver does well but not fruited yet; Stevens Genesee good but rots at the core; seckel has not succeeded with him; Vicar of Winkfield bears well.

Mr. Saunders has suffered from the breaking off of the Louise bonne de Jersey at the junction of the stock and graft; the Duchess d'Angouleme has suffered from frozen sap blight.

Mr. Roy has had similar experience with the Louise bonne, and found the Duchess very tender.

Mr. Stevenson found the bartlett very tender to grow.

The next subject taken up was the

PEAR BLIGHT. Mr. Caldwell thinks it arises from the winters severity.

Mr. Saunders agreed with Mr. Caldwell. The Secretary asked how could the winter affect seedlings that never saw a winter, and yet were affected by the blight?

Mr. Allen wished to know if the blight was bad where the land was richly manured?

Mr. Saunders replied that he thought it was due to certain atmospheric influences; various varieties were killed; he banded them up with clay and cowdung, and found the results beneficial.

Mr. Stevenson agreed with Mr. Beadle that firelight attacked seedlings.

Col. Magill (Oshawa) observed that pears were equally strong on light and heavy soils; old trees had died from it, and thinks that the summer has a good deal to do with it.

The President mentioned a curious circumstance communicated to him by Mr. Bennett, of Brantford, namely that towards evening in dry weather he used a hydrant with a very fine rose so that the water fell on the trees like a gentle distilling rain, and ever since he adopted this plan did not suffer from blight at all.

Mr. Hamilton (Toronto) has had pear blight on light but not on heavy soil.

It being now six o'clock, the meeting adjourned till seven o'clock.

General Tom Thumb is said to be worth two million dollars.

SCULL RACE AT BUFFALO.

The 4th of July in London.

The Crisis in France Abating.

Fires, Sunstroke, and Shooting in New York.

Buffalo, July 4.—A special single scull match yesterday, two miles, between Schaff, of Pittsburg, and Timming, of Toronto, was won easily by the former in 15 minutes and 37 seconds. In the single scull race, open to all, Berry, of Toronto, felled and was upset by Coulter, of Pittsburg, giving the race to Dinmore, of Pittsburg. The four oared, first-class, was won by McKee, of Pittsburg, New Dominion, of Toronto, second.

London, July 6.—The American shipping in the Thames, bureaus of American journals, and offices of bankers connected with the United States in this city, and also in Liverpool, were gaily decorated with flags and bunting yesterday in honor of the day.

J. Bancroft Davis has arrived in this city and put up at the Clarendon.

Paris, July 5.—The excitement caused by the fears of a premeditated crisis is abating. Thiers' determined stand has weakened the coalition formed against him by the faction of the Right in the Chamber. Marshall McMahon has expressed his objection to entering Trinitario unless both forms of Government receive the sanction of the plebiscite.

New York, July 5.—During the 24 hours ending at ten o'clock last evening, there were 35 fires, 9 of which were serious; 24 persons died from the effects of the heat, 66 persons prostrated, 24 persons wounded by careless use of firearms, 16 members of the National Guards sun struck during parade yesterday, some of whom will probably die.

Local and Other Items.

A GENTLEMAN FROM PORT HOPE intends, we believe, to start a fanning mill factory in Wingham.

The ground for the Wingham station, W. G. & B. Railway, has at last been selected, on the east side of the gravel road running from Wingham to Teeswater, and not far from the residence of Mr. Seder.

A NUMBER OF THE moneyed men of the town of Goderich have formed a company under the "Limited Liability Act," with a capital of $50,000, under the name of "The Goderich Foundry and Manufacturing Company." The foundry business will be carried on in Mr. Runceiman's stand.

The Air Line bridge over Otter Creek is within a few days of completion. The Home Journal says it is the longest on the road, and is said to be the largest wooden bridge in Canada. Its height from sills to the bottom of railing is 110 feet; its length is 1,860 feet, consisting of 11 spans of Howe truss and 280 feet of trestle work; and the timber used in its construction measures 1,700,000.

We are glad to learn that the Globe Printing Company have in press, in folio sheet, the speech of the Hon. Edward Blake in the House of Commons on the Washington Treaty, and his recent speeches in South Bruce in review of the whole political situation. These will be furnished at $7.50 per thousand. A copy should be put by the Reform Association of Ontario into the hands of every elector. Mr. Blake's Treaty speech should be circulated in every province.

ANOTHER GRAND TRUNK ACCIDENT.—On Thursday morning, four cars of a freight train, passing up west, went off the track at the crossing on the line near the Whitby station. The wheel of one car was off the track on the south side all the way from Oshawa. After considerable delay the eastern and western bound passenger trains transhipped passengers, express goods and baggage. Two freight cars had to be left on the side of the track. The line was got clear about noon. Nobody hurt.

THE OSAGUE.—The Collingwood Bulletin says:—The new organette in the Wesleyan Church was opened last Sabbath, and gave the utmost satisfaction to all who heard it. Although the instrument cost only $255 it is quite as powerful as a $500 pipe organ. The tone produced by the qualifying tubes was universally admired, and received the unequivocal approval of Herr Heinrich, Professor of music, and Mr. H. G. Gilmore, late organist at St. Paul's, Buffalo. These organettes are a new invention, manufactured by W. Bell & Co., Guelph.

THE CANADA SOUTHERN.—The war of right of way between the Great Western and Canada Southern still continues. The track is nearly all graded and ready for the iron on that portion between Clifton and Stamford, owned by the Southern; but near St. David's the Great Western own a small piece of land which the Southern are trying to get hold of, but which the former are trying to prevent. Every night the camp fires of the Southern may be seen, and the grim sentinels walking backwards and forwards, to prevent the tearing up of tracks or rails. The sooner this unfortunate business is ended the better it will be for the public, who are the sufferers.

The ex-king of Naples has had two divorces, and is now after another.

The Grand River is very low at present.

Salmon trout fishing on Lake Huron is said to have been very successful so far this season.

The Fourth of July was duly observed in the United States on Thursday.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Hereafter parties who have contracted advertisements in the WEEKLY MERCURY must bring in their fresh advertisements, or give us notice of the same, on Saturday, before the first side of the next week's paper is printed.

The Elections and the Issues.

The exact time when the elections will be brought on is still uncertain. One report states that the dissolution will take place on the 16th of this month, and another is that the writs will be issued between the 1st and 15th of August, and will be returnable within forty days, which would bring all the elections within the months of August and September.

Any one looking back over that record cannot fail to see that the Government has grossly abused the trust reposed in it by the people. Every act of the Ministry has been devised and carried out with the sole object of strengthening their position. The constitution and the rights of the people have been wantonly trifled with or ignored.

It is the duty of the people to carefully examine the Government record for the past five years, and having done so, they cannot, if true to their country, support men who would vote to keep such a corrupt Government longer in power, to trifle with its best interests, and sacrifice them in order that they may more firmly secure their seats.

Mr. Hugo Kranz, Reeve of Berlin is the only one spoken of as likely to oppose Mr. Bowman in North Waterloo.

The Quebec Chronicle (Ministerial) admits that the Opposition will carry a majority of representatives in Ontario, but hints that they will be fought up by the Government.

It is stated in political circles that the writs were signed by Lord Lisgar before leaving Ottawa, and that the House will be dissolved on the 16th inst.

This Ottawa Free Press regrets to learn that Sir George E. Cartier has been indisposed for a few days past by an attack of drowsy. His physician, Dr. Wood, is of opinion that with proper care no danger need be apprehended.

His Excellency Lord Dufferin inspected the camp at Laprairie on Thursday, and in the evening took his departure from Montreal to Quebec. It is said he will reside for the most part in Montreal.

Host Dr. Tupper is among his constituents in Cumberland. He is alarmed at the dissatisfaction with himself and the Government, and will probably have the elections postponed some time to enable him to try to conciliate the electors.

The Galt Reformer speaks thus flatteringly of the Reform nominee for North Brant. The Reformers of North Brant are to be congratulated that Mr. Fleming has consented to become their standard bearer. At this particular crisis no more fitting candidate could have been chosen.

His business, can now devote a portion of his leisure to public affairs. Studious by habit, well versed in the politics of the country, and a clear and logical debater, he will prove a candidate of whom his supporters will have reason to be justly proud.

An old lady who inquired for the "dollar Yarden hat" went away sorrowing when the clerk told her that they were just out, but he had plenty "six dollar Yardens."

The Strathroy Age says: "Abe Robinson, who pleaded guilty to poisoning 'Bay Jack,' received six months imprisonment in the county jail."

The dying gift of Bennett, of the New York Herald, was $250,000 towards completing the Catholic cathedral in New York city.

It is said that Sir Hugh Allan will be a candidate for the Commons for the county of Huntingdon.

The Whig says that during the month of May, over 700 emigrants, chiefly English, arrived at Kingston, and were distributed to satisfactory places in the district.

The Athenaeum says: "By the death of the editor of the New York Herald American journalism loses at once its chief Ishmaelite, and, unless Mr. Greeley be excepted, its most salient historical figure."

The famous "Cool Burgess" of Ethiopian Minstrel celebrity, has started with his family for California to make the grand tour of the Pacific coast. His present engagement brings him $250 a week.

The Galt Reporter states that the grasshoppers have again made their appearance in West Dumfries in countless swarms, and are doing great injury to the growing crops. Oats in particular appear to be suffering, the leaves being completely eaten off the plant in many of the fields, while grass is attacked in a manner that threatens its total destruction.

The young son of Mr. John Wells, Galt, aged only 13 months, fell into a well 40 feet deep on Sunday morning last. His father went down after him, and brought him up more dead than alive. He was however brought round, and is now in a fair way towards recovery.

A case of what appears to have been a "justifiable homicide" occurred in New Brunswick on Thursday. A man named Clayton endeavored to resist a process of law, and fired three times at the Sheriff's deputy. The official then drew his revolver, and shot Clayton dead upon the spot.

The Globe's correspondent describes the camp at Lewis as a big humbug, and the men to a large extent, uneducated and ununiformed. Our new Governor-General would, no doubt, acquire some idea of how singularly things are managed in Canada from what he saw in this camp. Talbot, in declining to march through Coventry with his ragged regiment, had more sense than our militia authorities seem gifted with.

As the Boston Jubilee has been now going on for some two weeks, it is possible to make a pretty fair estimate of the results. The audiences, to begin with, which at first were small, owing to the high price of the tickets, have swollen to enormous proportions, and there is no particular reason to suppose that there will be any severe loss of money to the projectors of the undertaking—unless the coliseum blows down or up, or something of that kind. Indeed, Mr. Gilmore will probably make a handsome little sum out of the enterprise, as he did out of the last one.

SOUTH RIDING OF WELLINGTON. MEETING OF REFORMERS.

A meeting of the members of the Reform Party of the South Riding of the County of Wellington, will be held at the TOWN HALL, GUELPH.

On Tuesday, 9th day of July, at 2 o'clock, p. m., to take into consideration, in the interest of the Party, the question of the representation of the Riding in next Dominion Parliament.

In consequence of the recent change in the bounds of the Riding by which Erin and Franconia have been added to it, it is hoped that the Reformers in these Townships will see it to be their duty to take as active an interest in the political affairs of the Riding as they did when formerly belonging to it.

NO intelligent mind can fail to observe how the various and ever varying wants of the community are attended to by the enterprising merchants of Guelph. Instantaneous Hardware, in Mr. Horsman's Establishment, so noted for many years as the Emporium of everything in his line of business, it is somewhat astonishing to take a comprehensive view of the variety of his stock:— Guns, Pistols, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, House Furnishings, Floor Oil Cloths, Mats, Ivory Table Cutlery, Plated Ware, Bird Cages, Flower Baskets, Smoothing Irons, Tea Trays, Wringers, Mangles, Lamps, Mechanics' tools. Besides the great assortment of Farming Implements, Scythes, Snaths, Rakes, Forks, Hoes, Building and General Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Oils, Paints, Colors, Varnishes. One gets from this a slight idea of what it is to carry on with enterprising spirit a large Wholesale and Retail Hardware Establishment. Every want for House, Farm, Trade or Manufactory can be supplied Wholesale and retail at Mr. Horsman's. See advertisement.

The Foster Brother; OR The Orphan of the Wreck.

CHAPTER IV. THE TWO BROTHERS—THE FACTOR'S JOURNEY—HOMEWARD BOUND.

The bit of cigar lying smoking at his feet sufficiently explained the cause of his disturbance.

"By Jove, Thomas, did the cigar hit you?" exclaimed Malcolm.

"Yes, sir—right in the eye, sir."

"Didn't see you, 'poor my soul; but here is something to buy a lotion for it."

And with a light laugh he tossed out half a sovereign, which fell exactly where the cigar lay.

Of course, after such munificent compensation, a further manifestation of distaste would have been ungracious, so Thomas took his hand from his inflamed optic and picked up the coin, thinking he could afford to have his other eye struck on the same terms.

He then gave the letter-bag into Stephen's outstretched hand, and walked away.

The contents of the bag that evening were more than usually numerous—consisting of a whole lot of papers and letters which he tumbled out in a heap upon the table.

On examining the address it was found that the mislaid were for both brothers in about equal proportions; and the necessary separation having been made, Stephen pushed Malcolm's share towards him, and drawing his own to the opposite side of the table sat down to open and read.

Some expressions of disgust escaped from the lips of both, for the greater portion of their letters were from creditors eagerly pressing for payment.

"Hilloa!" cried Malcolm suddenly. "Here is one for you amongst mine—a black-bordered one—postmark, Ardrossan. Some one there you know, must be dead."

"I know nobody at Ardrossan," replied Stephen.

"Don't you; then who can it be?" "By Jove!" he added, with sudden emphasis "the address is the handwriting of that beggar Bruce."

"Art sure of that?" asked Stephen. "I could swear it."

"Then pitch it into the fire." "What! without opening it? It is a black-bordered letter. What if it announces Lucy's death?"

"Bah, no such thing. He must have got to know of uncle's death, and thinks there may be a legacy for Lucy. Into the fire with it, I say."

"Well—but—may it not be as well to make sure that it is from him?" "Of course it is from him. They have been away all summer, and Ralston told me he had heard they were in Ayrshire. The fellow is painting daubs of pictures there for a livelihood, I suppose."

"Am I to throw it into the fire, then?" asked Malcolm turning towards the grate. "Undoubtedly."

Malcolm moved his hands to chuck the letter upon the flaming coals and threw it, but it fell short, and alighted only within the fender. He rose to complete the act, and lifting it up, was about to drop it into the heart of the grate, when a doubt as to the propriety of destroying it unopened again crossed his mind.

"I do think that you should see that its contents are such as you imagine," he observed, holding it irresolutely in his hand.

"Will satisfy yourself by opening it," growled Stephen, "only I tell you before hand that my supposition is correct."

And, with the utmost indifference, he went on with the perusal of an epistle from a brother officer, when suddenly a loud exclamation from Malcolm made him pause and look up.

"What's the matter?" he cried startled at the sight of Malcolm's extraordinary appearance. His brothers face was pale as ashes, and his eyes, opened to their full extent, seemed to leap from his head.

"My God!" exclaimed Malcolm, with a spasmodic gasp. "Good heaven, what is it? Does it announce Lucy's death?"

"It announces cousin George's death," roared Malcolm.

"What?" shouted Stephen, leaping to his feet and making a bound to Malcolm's side and grasping his arm.

"Speak, man, speak. Are you raving? You said George's death?"

"Yes; George's death. The Eglantine was wrecked in the storm the other night—wrecked on the Ayrshire coast, and every one drowned but a man and a child. George's body came ashore, and is lying in the house where Kenneth and Lucy are staying. At least, I think that is the purport of the letter so far as I have read; but I am so doped shaly that—"

Malcolm clutched at the letter, and holding it together, they each, in silence and with reeling eyes, made themselves acquainted with its contents. Then when they had read it to an end and fully understood its purport, they sunk like logs of wood into their respective chairs, and gazed at each other speechlessly.

The effect of the intelligence was rushing and struggling tumultuously in their minds. It was not grief for the death of their cousin which agitated them—it was the result of that event to themselves. What a change it would bring—what alteration in their circumstances and position?

The same light seemed to dawn on their minds at once. The same thought grew and grew upon them, and manifested itself in the expression of their countenances, till each read it in the other's looks—in the gleaming eyes, the flushed brow, the forcibly compressed yet almost bursting exclamation. They saw that each had realized the same fact, yet they uttered it not in words. Stephen could not, and Malcolm in his frenzy of excitement lacked the power.

They sat thus one against each other for fully a minute. At last Malcolm spoke, and the expression of his face, far more than the tones of his voice, indicated the feelings under which he labored.

"Ardrossan is yours."

"Ha!" shouted Stephen, bounding to his feet with an uncontrollable impulse. "It has been spoken at last. The air has received and proclaimed the news—Ardrossan is mine—mine—mine! Ha, ha, ha! Malcolm, I must repeat it, and repeat it, or the weight of the shock will undo me. Ah, this—this will steady my nerves."

And with shaking hands he seized a decanter, poured out a large quantity of wine, and drank it at a draught.

Malcolm likewise applied himself to the same relative, and the liquor, which should in common circumstances have intoxicating, had upon them a sobering effect.

The death of the veteran city missionary of Boston, Father Cleveland, was one of the events of the past week. Had he lived sixteen days longer he would have reached the great age of one hundred years. There is scarcely one in that city and neighborhood who does not feel as if bereaved by the loss of this Christian patriarch.

FUNNY.—The blarney and whimsical editor of the radical Standard, of this city, now of the Tory Herald, of Guelph, make jokes occasionally. Here is his last. It is a brilliant effort. — Perhaps some of his contemporaries can see where the laugh comes in. — What funny names! Crit candidates have! — Hans, in North West, is painfully suggestive of baneful influences upon the party. Frizzle, in East Hastings, is sufficiently comical without explanation; while Stripp, of Kent, outstrips them both, and leaves the party naked, without a rag of principle or strength! — And all under such a blank leadership, as our Irish editor would say. Poor fellows, we hope that they won't take cold, while under canvas amidst so much inclemency. — Hamilton Times.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY HOGS ROASTED ALIVE.—A fire in the pork and provision establishment of Jacob Daid, 139 and 140 Michigan street, on 82 and 84 West Market street, Buffalo, on Sunday last, completely gutted the building, a four story brick building on Michigan street, and a three story brick building on West Market street. Loss about $75,000, partially insured. One policy for $25,000 is said to have expired at noon the same day. One hundred and fifty hogs in the upper story were roasted alive.

The Mail characterises the Westworth handicap race at Hamilton as "the most disgraceful and fraudulent race ever run in Canada." Hamilton goes to the head again.

With an exhibition of energy, whether of the mind or body, there is a coincident change or waste of nervous element, and as this element may be restored as rapidly as it is expended by the judicious use of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, persons may study or otherwise work with impunity comparative while using it.

Breakfast—Epps' Cocoa—Grateful and Contented.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which will save us many heavy doctors' bills. — Chief Service Cocoa. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps' Milk Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

A gentleman afflicted with the chronic rheumatism says: "No description of my case can convey the vast amount of benefit I have received from the use of John's Anodyne Liniment. I believe it is the best article in the world for rheumatism."

If a horse has a good constitution, and has once been a good horse, no matter how old or how much run down he may be, he can be greatly improved, and in many respects made as good as new, by a liberal use of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND

FLUORIDE OF PHOSPHATE AND GALLIUM.—This elegant and agreeable preparation has recently become a favorite on account of its great reliability in the cure of Diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. It relieves at once, pain and a sense of fullness after eating, flatulence, acidity, or heartburn, headach, and constipation of the bowels, all of which arise from feeble digestion, and occasion poor blood. It enables the stomach to digest food perfectly, and in sufficient quantity to nourish the system thoroughly, and prevent decline, and running down with chronic wasting diseases. In consumption and scrofulous cases, in women prostrate from family care, and in delicate children, it will act like a charm in restoring vitality to all the organs and invigorating the general health. It will restore all those who for a long time have been in a feeble condition of the system, wasting energy and disposition to exertion. It cures by means of purifying the blood, and building up all the tissues of the body. Sold at $1 by all Druggists. dtw

SECOND GRAND GIFT CONCERT

IN AID OF THE

Public Library of Kentucky,

At Louisville, Kentucky.

By authority of the act of the Legislature incorporating the PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY, the Trustees will give their SECOND GRAND GIFT CONCERT in the great hall of the Public Library building in Louisville, Ky., on ### SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1872.

This magnificent hall, known as Weisiger Hall, is the largest, most centrally located, and best arranged for large and fashionable audiences of any in Louisville, and is fitted up in superb style. The building has a front of 108 feet on Fourth street by a depth of 20 feet, four stories in height, and was recently purchased for the Public Library at a cost of $210,000. Three large rooms are now fitted up for a library, and contain about 20,000 volumes and a museum of 100,000 specimens, now open and free to the gratuitous use and enjoyment of all citizens of every State in the Union. It is the purpose of the Trustees by the GRAND GIFT CONCERT now announced to raise the money with which to pay the balance of the purchase money due upon the Public Library building, to enlarge the library, and to so employ the institution as to make it self-sustaining and forever beyond the necessity of calling upon any individual who uses the building for the exhibition of a single cent toward its support.

100,000 TICKETS OF ADMISSION will be issued at $10 half tickets, 25 quarter tickets, $2.50; 11 whole tickets for $100; 28 for $25; 56 for $50; 112 for $100; 224 for $200; 448 for $400; 896 for $800; no discount on less than $100 worth of tickets at a time.

Tickets will be sent, when requested, by registered letter. The money for them may be sent by Adams Express Co. and its connections, P. O. money order, registered letter or bank draft.

The holder of each ticket, or fraction of a ticket (a half or a quarter), is entitled to admission to the concert and to the gift awarded to it. During the concert the sum of

will be given to the holders of tickets by distribution of lot of ONE THOUSAND GIFTS as follows:

Total, 1,000 Gifts, all cash, - $500,000

This Concert, like the first of the 18th December last (which was so decidedly successful, and at which the first grand gift was drawn) will be held at the Public Library of Memphis, Tenn. in the benefit of the public library of Kentucky.

The Trustees and Drivers' Bank is Treasurer, and the corporators and supervisors are all representative men, and are among the most respectable and distinguished citizens of the State. Should any tickets be left unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be sold to the Public Library of Kentucky, and the one thousand gifts of $100 each will be drawn and paid, but diminished in value in proportion to the percentage of unsold tickets. For instance, if only three fourths of the tickets are sold, the capital gift will be reduced to $750,000, and all others in proportion.

The Hon. Thos. E. Bramlette, late Governor of Kentucky, has consented to represent the Trustees in the management of this Second Grand Gift Concert, and he will personally see that the money from the sale of tickets is deposited with the Treasurer, that the drawing is fairly conducted, and the gifts justly awarded and promptly paid.

The drawing will take place in public, in full view of the audience, and under the immediate supervision and direction of the officers and trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky, and the following named eminent and disinterested citizens, who have consented to be present, and see that all is fairly done:

Hon. M. A. Hardin, Judge Court Appeals, Ky.

Hon. J. P. Knott, late M. C. Lebanon Dist. Ky.

Hon. H. V. Bruce, Judge Ninth Judicial District, Ky.

Gen. E. H. Murray, U. S. Marshal, Dis. Ky.

Hon. T. B. Cochrane, Chancellor Louisville Chancery Court
