Blair Was Only Dreaming Of a State-Owned Railway

But Other Members of the House, Backed by the Public, Are in Earnest.

Ottawa, June 10.—(Special).—This afternoon the House took up Mr. Blair's resolution to aid the Canadian Northern Railway by guarantee of bonds.

The aid to be given is a guarantee of bonds to the extent of $13,000,000 per mile, bearing interest at 3 per cent. and secured by mortgage on the property.

Mr. Blair explained that the section from Grand View to Edmonton passed through a country of wheat 90 per cent. was capable of growing the best of wheat.

Mr. Blair said that in view of the promising future of the town and district of Edmonton, it was necessary to retard its development. But in view of the large sum involved, a capital of $2,000,000 was required.

Mr. Blair said he would be happy to bring down any possible information on the subject, and had no objection to the final passage of the resolution being delayed until the paper had been referred to the committee.

SOME ROAD PLANNING IN FAIR ROSEDALE Chamberlain Won't Resign Balfour Jumps the Crisis

Extensive Operations on the Macpherson Estate Are Already Being Projected.

A NEW CRESCENT OF A NEW KIND The Future of an Old Site To Become the Basis of Some Fresh Splendor?

So many of the older homesteads of Toronto have already disappeared—swept out of existence by the advancing front of the city.

Falling in this method of disposition, there seems to be no question, from other already made, that practically an immediate sale can be effected at any time later on in smaller lots by carrying out the original plan of sweeping a branch of Cluny-avenue down still farther to the south.

The property whose future alternatives are thus outlined, is from five to six acres in extent, having a depth of about one-eighth of a mile with some five hundred feet or more of ravine frontage, smiling splendidly down upon the Park beneath.

It is on this estate it is to be found the plan to plant to commemorate the birth of Queen Victoria, a tree whose size and spreading magnificence now might patently a palace.

A Goal Attained. To look back, first along Crescent-road itself—now become, one might almost say, an avenue of the West.

In the meantime, to supply the demand for more moderate lots, ranging from 50 feet or less to 100 feet, now practically exhausted on the two first opened streets—all the land lying to the north of Roxborough-street and east of the Old Highway.

THE ROMANCE OF THE UN-EMERGED. Indeed, the result of this laying out is a number of lots of such adaptable irregularity and variety of aspect, that it cannot but come as a surprise to those accustomed to the more regular, promising range of the squares.

WATER SCOTT OF WEST ASHBOLEIGH congratulated the government on the announcement that it was giving to the Canadian Northern Railway.

Mr. Blair said he would be happy to bring down any possible information on the subject, and had no objection to the final passage of the resolution being delayed until the paper had been referred to the committee.

Retains an Open Mind on Fiscal Policy and Defends Chaplin's Amendment

London, June 10.—By a dexterous and extraordinary speech, Premier Balfour tonight temporarily smoothed over the differences in the cabinet, re-elected Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity resigning, and, for the moment, averted a crisis, which threatened the Unionist party.

Henry Chaplin's amendment, which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 396 votes, composed of Unionist, Liberal and Labour members.

In a whimsical vein, Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on, was because the government wanted money to support the war.

Reverting to the charges of vacillation made against him, the Premier declared that he himself had never lever in free trade, was absolutely of an open mind regarding the necessity for alterations in a system which was founded on suit conditions of 50 years ago.

Three Phenomena. They were continued the Premier, by three great phenomena: Huge tariff walls against the United Kingdom, the growth of the trusts, and the desire of the colonies for closer fiscal union with the Mother Country.

He also said it is now up to the government to see that his rights are protected. He is the "institution." He was particularly disabled in a system which was founded on suit conditions of 50 years ago.

Hamilton, June 10.—(Special.)—Every officer on the police force is wearing broad smiles to-night, because Bob Young, a troublesome pickpocket, was convicted at the General Sessions this afternoon. When the Duke and Duchess of York were here, October 24, 1902, Bob Young had been picked up by Acting Detective Miller caught him picking a purse from a lady's pocket and collared him on the spot. With the aid of a good lawyer Bob has managed to dodge his trial until today, when he faced 12 men, who found him guilty. His troubles are only beginning, for to-morrow he will have to stand trial on the charge of breaking into Mrs. Wilson's house.

ONE STATE UNIVERSITY

NO DUPLICATION OF AND Premier Ross, However, Believes in Keeping Up School of Mines at Kingston.

University matters and the relationship existing between the School of Mines at Kingston and the government were discussed in the legislature yesterday. The matter occupying the attention of the House occupied the attention of the House for about an hour. Mr. Penne presided at the discussion, and got from the leaders of both sides clean-cut declarations as to the assistance that might be expected from the Province towards the Kingston University. Premier Ross said there would be no duplicating Provincial aid to universities, and expressed the strong hope that the various Provincial institutions would federate with the State University. Mr. Whitney emphatically urged that greater resources be placed at the disposal of Toronto University, and that the Provincial institutions be placed upon such a footing as to ensure their permanent success, no attempt should be made to divide the aid the Province can afford to give.

NOT PECUNIARY, ONLY A MISTAKE

In giving evidence in the trial of an action in the High Court of Justice on May 29, a witness, M. F. Smith, stated that he had, in making a statutory declaration, committed perjury. The witness, Smith, in admitting under oath that he had committed perjury, explains that he did so under the belief that an incorrect statement made under oath, whether innocently or inadvertently, was perjury. The facts in regard to the incorrect declaration admitted by Smith to have constituted perjury, are as follows: Smith made a statutory declaration as to the amount of the pack of the Oshawa Canning Company for the year 1900, relying for the amount upon an employee; that subsequently, the witness Smith checked the figures of his employee and found the amounts stated in the declaration to be in excess of the actual amount of the pack. The parties interested in the circumstances connected with the making of said declaration, and have admitted that the witness, Smith, before any money or other advantage could accrue to him or to the Oshawa Canning Company, made the matter right, and that Mr. Penne, who benefited was obtained by the said witness, Smith, or the Oshawa Canning Company, as a result of such error in said declaration.

THAT'S THE TIME

When Proper Food is Necessary. Proper food is never more necessary than when recovering from a wasting sickness, when over-eating would be fatal and yet the body needs nourishment and plenty of it. At this time the condensed food, Grape-Nuts, is shown to be one's most powerful friend. Four test-patients of Grape-Nuts and cream will sustain a healthy man for half a day and a less quantity in warm milk will build up the convalescent wonderfully. No stomach is too weak to digest and relish Grape-Nuts. "I was taken sick with typhoid fever and after several days had this disease knows how weak and lifeless a person feels when beginning to recuperate. "I had to be very careful about my diet and could eat only very light foods. These did not seem to nourish me, and instead of getting better every day I was just at a standstill and everyone began to fear a relapse. One day, while lying in bed very much discouraged, my sister, who was reading to me from the paper, read an article about Grape-Nuts and we decided to send for a package. "From the very first meal of Grape-Nuts began to improve, strength came in bounds and leaps, with the result that I was soon out of bed; my tongue for the better seemed simply marvelous. My mind is clear and strong and my body sturdy. I am now entirely recovered." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich. There is a reason. A dessert that helps the body, that's the thing! Any number of them in the little recipe book in each package of Grape-Nuts.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, June 10.—(From Our Own Man.)—The weather to-day was superb. It was warm, however, in the afternoon, and the cavalry proceeded to send their heavy sergeants while at drill over in the trenches, where, with pickaxe, spade and shovel, they were engaged in the men labored and perspired. It was no soft job, and many heaved a sigh of relief, as they recalled the easy times they left behind on the farm, where they enlisted in His Majesty's militia, in the summer.

ONLY A FRIENDLY RIVALRY

The Minister of Education spoke briefly, devoting the major portion of his time to combating the idea that there was any league between Queen's and Toronto University. There was nothing more than a friendly rivalry, he said. He also took to himself credit for having converted the leader of the opposition to an issue of the needs of Toronto University. Mr. Pattullo was criticized for finding fault with the trustees for the grant of the two Greek Letter societies. In 1901, an act was passed, giving the trustees the power to establish a new society, and the trustees have done so.

ELECTRICAL CONVENTION ON PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

A tremendous maple leaf, inscribed C.E.A., over the entrance to the King Edward, secures the attention of the passer-by. It signifies the presence of the members of the Canadian Electrical Association...

Ald. Starr, in the absence of the Mayor, welcomed the convention to Toronto. He suggested to the delegates that one problem they might discuss with profit was the question of cheap Niagara power for the city.

Ald. Ward was also present as chairman of the Reception Committee. A. Dion of Ottawa responded, thanking the aldermen for the kind reception accorded the convention.

President Hesse's annual address was the feature of the meeting. He spoke at some length upon the grave question of public ownership. Long discharges power transmission had, he said, engaged the minds of the great capitalists for the past year or two.

This was so to a degree that this past spring, perhaps, than at any other time. A number of large plants were under consideration or were already being constructed, and progress was being made very rapidly.

President Hesse's annual address was the feature of the meeting. He spoke at some length upon the grave question of public ownership. Long discharges power transmission had, he said, engaged the minds of the great capitalists for the past year or two.

The speaker felt that the rank and file of the association were not doing all that lay in their power to support the movement in opposition to public ownership. The association's committee were working hard, but individual work was what was needed most.

Secretary Treasurer C. H. Mortimer's report showed a membership of 344, an increase for the year of 28. Receipts had been $1308.11 and disbursements $488.30.

The association was in favor of the Connee Act. The principles of the act could be considered reasonable protection to those whose funds were invested in the development of power.

In the afternoon, C. F. Scott, chief electrician of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, read a paper by Paul Lincoln of Pittsburg. It was on the training of the high tension engineer, and dealt chiefly in a deprecatory manner with weak points of the college-trained man.

C. E. Scott in a few remarks following the reading of the paper, dwelt on the recent development of high tension engineering. It had practically arisen in the last ten years, or even five.

Where was the ground-level experience to come from? Great credit must be given to the technical institutions that helped to develop engineers in this branch. He pointed out some of the mistakes that might be made by men who had gained a practical experience in other lines and attempted to apply it to high tension transmission.

At an organization meeting at Hamilton yesterday, it was decided to erect a branch of the Westinghouse factory for the manufacture of air brakes and electrical apparatus. The company is to be capitalized at $2,500,000. Canada's rapid growth in this branch of power has prompted the step.

CONNEE AND DAILY TIMES. Application for Particulars in Libel Suit Dismissed—At Osgoode Hall.

James Connee, M.L.A. of Port Arthur, is suing The Daily Times-Journal of that place for libel, and yesterday asked the Master-Chambers to strike out certain charges, made during a campaign, in the alternative, to order the paper to give him full particulars of the charges. The defence is made that the allegations complained of were only the usual political charges, made during a campaign, and that Connee wished them to state facts. The Master, however, denied his application, and the case goes to trial.

The Divisional Court has upheld the decision of Chief Justice Patonbridge in the case of Kelly v. Aldous and Wilson. Testimony was given by the witnesses, and the most ardent advocates of public ownership.

GRAND ORANGE LODGE NOW IN SESSION AT WINNIPEG

Addresses of Grand Master and Secretary Testify to Order's Progress.

Winnipeg, June 10.—The seventy-fourth annual meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of British America is now in session in the Scott Memorial Hall, a new building just opened as the centre of Orange work in Western Canada. Owing to the distance, the representation from Eastern Canada is not so heavy, but the contingent from the West is very large. The gathering shows a great advance since the last Grand Lodge was held in Winnipeg fifteen years ago. Usually, the Grand Lodge concludes its labors in two days, but owing to the amount of business left over from last year, this meeting may take three days.

Grand Secretary's Address. T. S. Sproule, M. P., M. W. Grand Master and Sovereign, in his address, touched upon the events of the past year, as relating to the affairs of the order.

After complimenting the City of Winnipeg on its maintenance and substantial character, he said: "It is a source of pride to me to see in this magnificent hall in which we are meeting being a worthy monument to our late brother, Thomas Scott, who looks so important part in one of them, when he fearlessly and loyally gave his life as a sacrifice for the principles of our order and in defence of the Crown. All honor to his name, and all honor to the institution which has so nobly and so indelibly and successfully brought to completion this splendid Memorial Hall, about to be dedicated to his memory."

After regretting that the meeting of the Triennial Council in Dublin and other things had made it impossible to have the meeting of the Grand Lodge during the time of the Winnipeg Exhibition, and after a touching reference to those brethren who, in the past year, had gone to the order, he was called upon to mourn, the Grand Master referred to the coronation of the King last summer, and the satisfaction that His Majesty had taken the same oath and coronation declaration as his predecessors since the reign of William III.

Continuing, the address said: "The interesting conflict now being waged in France between the state and the Roman Catholic Church, is a source of regret to me, and the suppression of religious orders, affords another convincing proof of the baneful influence to the state by allowing the church to become supreme, and leaving her to care the education and training of the rising generation. The suppression of these orders has resulted in an exodus from France that has done more to depopulate the country in the future may afford them an asylum, provided they are permitted to become reorganized in the field, and allowed to carry on the same work. Germany is conducting a vigorous campaign against the Jesuits, expelling them from the country. These things should teach us the lesson to be drawn from the present vigilance is the price of Liberty."

Home Rule Resolution. Another incident of note which took place during the session, was the persistent tenacity with which Irish agitators avail themselves of every opportunity to keep alive disturbing questions and endeavor to embarrass the British parliament in its management of the affairs of the United Kingdom, was the introduction by the Hon. John Costigan of the Home Rule resolution in the House of Commons. As far as the introduction of it, the speaker seems to have taught him nothing, for, like others of his type, he must keep alive disturbing questions, seeing that, for like such, he would ever remain unknown to fame. The displeasure of the House was clearly indicated by the vigorous protest which was the outcome, and of the unwelcome fringing away the time of parliament in dealing with what exclusively pertained to Imperial concerns, and about which we have no right to interfere. It was pleasing to note that all our brethren in the Home Rule cause opposed it at the time, as well as many more who assisted them by both voice and vote.

Inter-Imperial Trade. Within the past few weeks the whole world has been stirred into activity by the policy enunciated in the speech delivered by the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary, regarding Inter-Imperial trade. This policy is fraught with great possibilities for our Dominion, because, as was clearly and distinctly pointed out by the Colonial Secretary, it was intended to show all foreign nations that they cannot have vengeance on any British colony, without settling with the British empire.

The Visit to the Pope. While we as Orangemen—loyal supporters of the Crown—should be very chary about criticizing the action or conduct of our ruler, it seems to me, as head of this great order in Canada, in

HE SUMS UP THE COFFEE CASE

A judge of Creeds, Va., announces himself as a "reformed coffee toper" and gives authority to make the following public statement:

"For years the coffee habit had been growing on me until my condition was getting serious. I have considerable writing to do and had become so nervous that I had to depend almost entirely upon my wife to do the writing. Sometimes when it was imperative that I sign my name my hand trembled so I could scarce do it.

"I had severe headaches, stomach trouble, heart trouble, also some rheumatism. A friend, Rev. —, one day sent me a package of Postum Coffee, with request that I give up coffee and make a fair trial of Postum.

"I took the advice and the headaches ceased, also the stomach trouble. I now have no heart trouble at all, except when I use coffee for a time. My old nervousness is a thing of the past.

"My wife also suffered for years with heart trouble and extreme nervousness. She has found relief by leaving off coffee and using Postum. We now think it a much better drink than either coffee or tea. I have known of a number of cases that have been entirely cured or greatly benefited by leaving off coffee and using the food beverage, Postum."

But Mr. St. John Did Not Care to See the Man Who Threw the Challenge.

WORRY CONFLICT IN COMMITTEE

Some Interesting Side Lights Upon the Selling of Timber Limits.

"That's cowardly? You come outside and I'll show you a coward."

The first remark came from Mr. St. John, the stalwart representative of West York in the legislature, and the man who uttered the bold challenge was Mr. Conmee, the stalwart member for Port Arthur.

No one went outside, however, Mr. St. John being too busy with affairs before the Public Accounts Committee to engage in such a trifling exercise mopping the sweat with the bulky form of "Sunny Jim."

The committee had met as usual to have some more light thrown on the affairs of the Crown Lands Department. Donald Cameron of Killarney, the first witness called to tell what he knew about Capt. John Sullivan's $3000 limit.

He had originally had the right to cut all sorts of timber on the limit, but for the last two years, this privilege had not been offered the limit at the time it was sold, and he was disappointed.

George Cole, a fire ranger, said he advised Sullivan not to be in a hurry to sell the limit, as Mr. Sparrow of Lansing, who owned the surrounding timber, would pay a thousand, but worth the ordinary cost of getting the timber out was $3 a thousand, but, under some circumstances, it might cost as high as $10, and last year was very unfavorable for this particular limit.

Colonel Matheson moved that F. Short, manager of the Bank of British North America, at Midland, and Mr. Craig, manager of the Western Bank, Midland, be summoned by telegraph to appear before the committee on Thursday to give evidence regarding the purchase and sale to Murray Brothers of the limit in the Township of Chaprel, and to produce all accounts, books, papers, etc., in connection with the purchase and sale of the said limit.

Both Messrs. Davis and Latchford protested that this would be an interference with private rights, but the colonel said his object was to get the value of the limit. They wanted to know the price for which the limit was sold, and whether it was sold to Murray Brothers sold to Munro, being forced by the government to do so, for $25,000 or $32,000, and whether afterwards disposed of the limit for $70,000.

The motion was carried, after the members on both sides had made some rather excited and uncomplimentary allusions to one another, of which the wrothy air between Messrs. St. John and Conmee is a fair sample.

Telegrams were read, notifying the committee that C. H. Burns and George Cole could not be located in time to give evidence on the Chevreau limit.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Railway Companies Will Construct Sidings Into Union Stock Yards.

FISHED THE MASSEY TROUT STREAM

Horse Backed Thru Plate Glass Window—East Toronto

Notes

Toronto Junction, June 10.—A. J. Anderson, town solicitor, and Andrew Dods, solicitor for the Union Stock Yards Company, have returned from Montreal, after interviewing Manager Hays of the Grand Trunk Railway in reference to running a siding into the stock yards from the line at Carlton station. It appears that last week, when Mayor Chisholm was in Ottawa, Manager Hays only arrived about three hours before the mayor was ready to depart, and was quite anxious to meet the mayor and discuss the situation. After he had departed Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Hays endeavored to find the deputations from the Junction. One of the matters discussed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the question of running a siding into the Union Stock Yards. Manager Hays claims that the Grand Trunk Railway cannot be charged with the expense of common carriers and that it is incumbent upon the railway company to make a connection. This will be done, but there are a few details yet to be arranged between the Union Stock Yards Company and the Grand Trunk Railway in reference to the building of a siding, and the privileges to be extended to the railway company. This agreement has been submitted and likely to be accepted by them, so that it will only be a short time before the Grand Trunk and the Union Stock Yards Company will be handling stock at these yards. The offices of the company are fast being completed and in a few weeks the yards will be in a position to accommodate the cattle trade of the province.

The horse backed and the strap tightened on the bit, which caused the horse to back still more until he backed the wagon into the plate glass window, smashing it completely.

YORK COUNTY COUNCIL

Diseases Grant to Markham Fair and East Toronto High School.

After enjoying a pleasant excursion to Niagara Falls with Warden Boag, the members of the York County Council resumed their June session yesterday morning. The two matters of importance discussed during the day were, making a grant to the East York Fair and consenting to establish a High School at East Toronto.

Grant to Markham Fair.

The population of East York, York and Markham Agricultural Society consisted of James Eckhardt, president, T. Hood, treasurer, J. Slater, J. B. Gould and S. G. Little, directors. They urged a grant of $500, to assist the society in their present position in which they find themselves at the present time. The conditions of the lease of the Fair Grounds were $1 per year, so long as the Franklin House was a licensed hotel, or $100 per year if the hotel was not licensed. The hotel has been abandoned, and the nominal fee dropped, so that this year the society finds itself in the position of raising $100 per year for the buildings erected by them will be on leased land. The problem to consider is, what to do with the present buildings? and the society is face to face with the question, shall we buy the buildings at a cost of $2750, and they will spend in the erection of buildings and in the purchase of $5000. Markham Township Council has granted $1500 towards the cost, and the county is asked to contribute the balance of $1250. The society is asking the county to contribute the balance of $1250. The society is asking the county to contribute the balance of $1250.

East Toronto High School.

John Richardson, Mr. Ross and Mr. Gibbens were the deputation from East Toronto, requesting that a grant be given to establish a High School in that town. Reasons for establishing the High School were the fact that the town is a growing town, and the fact that the town is a growing town, and the fact that the town is a growing town.

Other Business.

The request from the Industrial Exhibition Association for a contribution of $2000, was left over until this morning. The money is to be used for prizes, and not to be used in the general conduct and management of the Exhibition.

Councillor Lumley gave notice of motion that he will move that the Metropolitan Railway Company be instructed to establish a telephone line along its route so that employees may know where the cars are.

The Council meets at 10 o'clock this morning when the good roads' question will be discussed.

AS REGARDS THE STEEL VOTE.

F. H. Clergue said yesterday that as the question was a political one, he did not care to discuss it. He had not given up hope that the government will themselves take action on the question during the present session.

Hon. George A. Cox characterized Mr. Bonser's attack on him and Mr. Ross of Montreal as being responsible for the fluctuations on the markets of Steel stock, as usual. He had nothing to do with the speculation, never gave any advice, and holds no practical stock, as usual. He originally subscribed for.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

"As You Like It."

The great clime of the University garden proved an unwelcome substitute for the "green-robed senators of mighty woods" under one of which the music-dramatist Colley Cibber (London) lay like a dropped acorn. With just a sufficient grace for a brief hour from the stucco of the work-a-day western world into the serene atmosphere of the forest of Arden. Fortunately, James Nature yesterday afternoon was in her most auspicious mood. There was something of the success of the first out-of-door performance in Toronto of this most delightful of Shakespeare's comedies. "As You Like It."

Mr. Street and his company in their quest after novelty have rendered all lovers of English literature their debtors. In the old morality play of "Everyman," they revived for a twentieth century audience a play that under one of which the music-dramatist Colley Cibber (London) lay like a dropped acorn.
