REV. MR. MARSHALL CRITICISES THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Says Liquor Men Have More Weight With Its Members Than the Church of God—Believes St. John Merchants Pay Scott Act Fines of Convicted Moncton Dealers Whom They Supply With Liquor

The Evangelical Alliance met in St. Andrew's church this morning. Those present were: Revs. David Lang, W. S. Pritchard, S. Howard, T. F. Forthright, Dr. Wilson, T. Marshall, D. Hutchinson, N. McLaughlin, Jas. Crisp, J. C. B. Appel, Frank Bishop and Rev. Mr. Combes. After the opening prayer the business of the meeting came up.

Rev. W. S. Pritchard, who has resigned from the Congregational church, will remain in the city during May and he will continue to be chaplain of the Boys' Industrial Home until the first of June when his successor will be appointed.

Prof. A. H. Nichols, who has been lecturing in the city for several days, was present at the meeting and he was called upon to give an address. He chose as his subject "The Church and the Liquor Traffic." Prof. Nichols stated that the liquor problem was the most important question now before the church. The liquor traffic is known to be a hindrance to the work of the church and therefore this stumbling block must be removed. The saloon will destroy the church if it can and the church will destroy the saloon. When an assembly passes resolutions against the liquor traffic, said the professor, it doesn't do much good. The practical man who is not one of those who attended the assembly wants to see what the church is actually doing and not what its feelings is, as expressed in resolutions.

The law which the church wishes to enforce is not to forbid a man from drinking, but to prevent liquor from being sold. No man is forbidden to eat diseased meat, but the law does not permit him to sell it.

"It will be a long, hard fight," said Prof. Nichols, "but in time we hope to remove that great stumbling block to the Church of God."

WINTERPORT SEASON OF 1906-07 ENDS TONIGHT; A FALLING OFF IN EXPORTS.

Valuation is $5,000,000 Less Than That of Last Year Owing to Exceptional Conditions in the West—Passenger Traffic and Import Freight Shows a Marked Increase

With the sailing tonight of the C.P.R. steamship Montreal, the winter port season of 1906-07 is brought to a close. In many respects it has been a busy one, but, owing to exceptional conditions which prevailed throughout Western Canada, the amount of freight outward has not been anything like the total for last year.

It is unfortunate that during the past winter the management of the C.P.R. has decided that hereafter no detailed records of shipments will be kept in St. John. All such information will be tabulated at the head office in Montreal, and as a result it will be practically impossible for St. John people to have the privilege of studying such clearly condensed statements as have been presented in the past. It was found that this work was being duplicated, and as the information must be kept on record in the general office it was decided to discontinue the custom here.

The report of the business done during the winter shows that in all lines of export there has been a large falling off from last year, due to the unusually severe winter in the west, and the freight congestion. The markets have had nothing to do with the decrease, for trade conditions have been just as favorable at any time in the past. On the other hand, there has been a marked increase in imports, and the number of passengers handled has been greatly in excess of last year's total. The season started on January 1st, 1906, and closed on April 30th, 1907. The total amount of freight handled was $22,515,000, this season it was $18,387,300; in 1904-05 it was $14,830,851. Last season the grain handled amounted to 7,088,225 bushels; this season it is 3,249,162 bushels, the actual shipments being 3,318,799 bushels. Last year there were in all 31,429 car loads of import and export freight handled over the Atlantic division of the C.P.R. This year the total is 25,988 car loads.

Briefly last season's total freight valuation was $22,515,000; this season it is $18,387,300; in 1904-05 it was $14,830,851. Last season the grain handled amounted to 7,088,225 bushels; this season it is 3,249,162 bushels, the actual shipments being 3,318,799 bushels. Last year there were in all 31,429 car loads of import and export freight handled over the Atlantic division of the C.P.R. This year the total is 25,988 car loads.

FIGHT STAMPEDES WOMEN'S CLUBS

Federation Indorses Bill to Equalize Pay for Teachers.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Women teachers, advocates of the White bill for the equalization of teachers' salaries, stamped the thirteenth annual convention of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, which was yesterday held in the Hotel Astor, and voted a delegation which favored an amendment.

It was after the five hundred delegates had debated and voted until they were hoarse that Miss Grace Strachan, chairman of the Executive Board of the Interborough Association, started the ball rolling. Then the opposition, personified by Mrs. S. P. Leveridge and Mrs. W. T. Mandell, jumped into the fight, and Miss Elizabeth O'Brien accepted a challenge issued by Mrs. Mandell.

"I'm perfectly astounded," said Miss O'Brien, "that women who are so well educated should be so ignorant of the bill that favors women. Who is the Miss Opposition?" Evidently meaning Mrs. Mandell.

"I never heard of her before, and as for her being a member of the Interborough Association, I am treasurer and I never knew there was such a member."

Miss O'Brien's next remarks were more personal and elicited a chorus of "shes." Seeing the trend of sentiment, she said somewhat apologetically, "Oh, well, we do have associate members."

Many bitter arguments were made forward, and finally the resolution favoring the White bill was passed.

Other resolutions adopted covered a score of subjects, from the bridge crash to the use of explosives on the Fourth of July. Mrs. Robert Francis Cartwright, of the Midway Club, proposed the resolution in reference to the bridge crash. It asks Mayor McMillan to provide escalators with a view to the safety of the thousands of people who pass over the bridge every hour each and steps eighteen inches deep, to prevent crowding.

On motion of Mrs. Clarence Burns, of the Philanthropic Committee, the Board of Estimate and Apportionment was petitioned to approve an appropriation of $8,000 which has been agreed upon by the Board of Aldermen, to erect stands in the park where pasteurized milk may be sold for babies and children.

Mrs. Belle de Rivera spoke in behalf of a hotel for working women. Of the $12,000 needed, she said only $3,000 had been subscribed; that if $5,000 could be obtained the project could be put into operation at once. So enthusiastic was the women became that a sufficient amount was subscribed to warrant the starting of the hotel.

But Only After Bitter Attack by Instructors

—Would Build Stands in New York Parks for Children.

Rev. D. Hutchinson moved a vote of thanks to Prof. Nichols.

Rev. Thos. Marshall, in seconding the vote of thanks, made several stirring remarks about the recent session of the legislature. He stated that he had arrived at the conclusion that liquor sellers (the number granted licenses in St. John) had more weight with the government than the Church of God. He said that the N. B. Temperance Federation had sent written complaints to the government, and that Premier Piquet, "in his great wisdom," had remarked that no complaints had been made. "The only thing the government did was to change the time for the granting of licenses," said Mr. Marshall. Rev. Mr. Marshall, again rising, said that in their work, as to vote of parties who supported the cause of temperance.

Rev. Mr. Bishop asked what would be done if the candidates for both parties were not temperance supporters.

Rev. Mr. Marshall replied that a third party should then be brought out on a temperance ticket.

Prof. Nichols here stated that in some places the homes fee had been increased to one thousand dollars, but this did no good. The thing we want is prohibition, he said.

After the assembly wanted to see what the church is actually doing and not what its feelings is, as expressed in resolutions.

The law which the church wishes to enforce is not to forbid a man from drinking, but to prevent liquor from being sold. No man is forbidden to eat diseased meat, but the law does not permit him to sell it.

"It will be a long, hard fight," said Prof. Nichols, "but in time we hope to remove that great stumbling block to the Church of God."

ELLEN TERRY AGAIN A BRIDE; THE THIRD TIME

Married James Carew, Her Leading Man, Last March — Marriage Kept Secret.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Announcement was made today that Ellen Terry, the English actress, is again a bride. She was married to James Carew, her leading man, in Pittsburgh, on March 22. Mr. Carew made the announcement. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace.

For reasons that have not been disclosed announcement of the marriage was deferred until the famous English actress was on the sea bound for her native land. She sailed on Saturday, and Mr. Carew, who was obliged to remain in America to look after urgent business, with her consent of course, to make the fact known forthwith. In years Mr. Carew is the junior of his bride. He is 25 years old, while she is 53. She has already been married twice. Nevertheless it is understood by all their friends that it was purely a love match, the beginning of which was soon after their first meeting.

Mr. Carew, who is a native of Indiana, is well known on the stage.

STREET CAR MEN STRIKE IN SAN FRANCISCO

Fifteen Hundred Motormen and Conductors Stop Work and Cause Tie-up of Entire System.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 5.—Street car motormen and conductors struck today, tying up the street car system of San Francisco. In places of cars all sorts of vehicles from automobiles to express wagons were used by the public.

The fifteen hundred motormen and conductors of the United Railway and Investment Company early today voted to declare a strike, after having failed to obtain an 8 hour day and a flat wage of $1.

The strikers have been reinforced by the stationary firemen, who demand recognition of their union and an increase of wages from $2.75 to $3.25 a day.

President Patrick Calhoun says that the railway will operate its line independently of the Carmen's Union and if resisted, will demand from the city and state authorities the full protection guaranteed by the law.

MANY DOGS ARE BEING POISONED AT GONDOLA POINT

GONDOLA POINT, May 6.—Many people of this place have been experiencing a great deal of trouble with dog poisoners and several valuable and harmless animals have been destroyed. Recently a spaniel dog belonging to a lady visiting in St. John was enticed away and poisoned. The owner of the dog declares that if found out the guilty parties will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

The Donaldson line Indramat passed Bray Island this morning and is expected about three o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. H. D. and Mrs. Marr, of the West Side, will have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends in the death of their little son, which took place yesterday. The child, who was about two years old, was badly burned a week ago Sunday, and though for a while it was thought that his injuries would not prove fatal, the little fellow died yesterday.

FOUND DEAD IN FREDERICTON JAIL

Intoxicated Man Put in Cell Last Night Evidently Drank Prussic Acid—His Companion Relieved

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 6.—Last night at 11 o'clock Officer Wright found two men in an intoxicated condition on Westmorland street and placed them under arrest. At the police station the men gave their names as Patrick Nugent and Arthur Brown and each was placed in separate cells. At 11 o'clock this morning when the cell occupied by Brown was visited he was found on the bench dead. Coroner Weaver was immediately notified and the coroner summoned Dr. Bridges. The latter stated that the man had been dead for some hours. An examination of the unfortunate man's clothing went to establish the fact that his real name was James E. Hickey. His key tag bore this name as well as other articles. There was also found in the pockets a railway ticket from Hartland to Fredericton Junction, a five cent piece, a number of postal picture cards addressed to Miss Gillespie, Parrishon, N. S., and a small empty vial which the physician announced had contained prussic acid.

The supposition is that Hickey took this acid which resulted in his death. Hickey was a young man of about 24 years of age with light brown hair and rather prepossessing appearance. It is

COMMITTED SUICIDE

ST. ALBANS, Vt., May 5.—Deputy Sheriff Reuben I. Greene, turned out the Franklin county jail, committed suicide by hanging today. His body was found late this afternoon suspended by a length of clothes-line from a hook in the basement of the Franklin county court-house which adjoins the jail. His death is ascribed as the cause of the suicide. Mr. Greene was 43 years old. He had been married only about two weeks.

Year. Bushels.

1902-03	5,933,146
1903-04	3,919,693
1904-05	2,953,251
1905-06	2,908,229
1906-07	3,249,162

IMPORTS.

Statistics of imports are not kept at the custom house, and the increase can only be judged from the number of car loads of freight sent westward, which information is obtained from the general offices of the C. P. R. During the season of 1906-07 there were 9,544 car loads sent west, which was an increase of 979 cars over the previous season, while for the one just ended there were in all 11,469 forwarded, an increase of 19,210 cars.

TONNAGE.

The 117 steamers arriving during the past season represent a total tonnage of 456,432 as against 112 steamers with a tonnage of 389,696 last year and 102 steamers with a tonnage of 366,737 in 1904-05.

PASSENGER TRAFFIC.

The total number of persons landed here this winter was 30,625 and of these, the C. P. R. steamers have carried by far the greater majority. During the season the C. P. R. steamers from Liverpool, London and Antwerp have landed in St. John 25,032 passengers as against 15,894 last year. Of this number, not more than 2,415 were destined for United States points. In 1904-05 the C. P. R. brought to St. John 12,271 persons, so that last season's traffic showed an increase of 4,533 while this year the continued increase amounts to 8,652.

The Allan Line land the great majority of their passengers at Halifax and forward them by rail through St. John to the west. In 1904-05 there were brought to St. John by the Allan Line a total of 3,868 persons. Last season's number had fallen to 2,146, a decrease of 1,123, while in the season of 1906-07 here by the Allan steamers number all 1,836, an increase of 737. The arrivals this winter were made up of 474 saloon, 147 second cabin and 515 steerage passengers. These represent less than ten per cent. of the total carried.

The Donaldson Line which really took up the passenger business last year, has gone into this branch of the work more extensively, and the presence of the new steamer Cassara on the route materially helped the business. The Donaldson Line brought to St. John last year 550 persons and in 1906-07 brought only 174. This year the arrivals by these boats number in all 2,927 an increase of 1,153.

These are the only steamship lines doing Transatlantic passenger business to St. John and it will be seen that the total carried by all of them for 1906-07 is 30,625 as compared with 19,913 last year, and 15,753 in the season of 1904-05. It is worthy of note that the number of imports has materially increased during the past year. The following shows the number of passengers who arrived in St. John during the past few seasons.

Year. Total.

1904-05	8,253
1905-06	11,894
1906-07	19,913
1906-07	30,625

TABLE OF SAILINGS.

The following gives the number of sailings as compared with last year, and shows an increase of four. It is worthy of note that in spite of talk of other ports of insufficient water here, there has not been one mishap even of trivial importance during the whole winter.

Line	1905-6	1906-7
C. P. R.	33	48
Allan	23	18
Donaldson	21	21
Head Line	8	6
Manchester	9	8
South African	5	5
Furness	15	13
Total	113	117

This total of 117 is, it will be seen, four greater than last year's. The Allan dropped four, and the Head and Furness lines dropped two sailings each, the Manchester dropped one, the C. P. R. added thirteen, and the others remained the same. The only change in the ports has been the addition of the Havre service of the Allan line which came to St. John for the first time.

The C. P. R. sailings were as follows—

Liverpool	22
Bristol	11
London and Antwerp	12

GRAIN SHIPMENTS.

There has been a very marked decrease in grain shipments this year, while last season was an exceptionally good one.

Shipped during season	3,318,799
Nov in elevator	50,283
Total bushels handled	3,348,182
Last year's total	7,088,225
Decrease during 1906-07 amounts to	3,692,967

The grain handled during the past few years has been as follows:

Imports by Lines.

Estimating the amount of freight carried by the different lines according to valuation the following results are found. In round numbers:

Line	Amount.
C. P. R.	$12,500,000
Allan	2,000,000
Donaldson	2,350,000
Manchester	1,000,000
Furness	120,000
Head	500,000
South African	1,000,000
Total	$19,470,000

It thus appears that the C. P. R. with 37 per cent. of the sailings carried 53 per cent. of the outward freight; the Allan Line with 17 per cent. of the sailings handled 19 per cent. of the exports; the Donaldson Line with 18 per cent. of the sailings had 12 per cent. of outward freight, and the four other lines with 28 per cent. of the sailings handled 13 per cent. of the business.

Dr. Torrey After Apologizing to Norman Murray for Libellous Statements Had to Pay Costs

MONTREAL, May 5.—In one of his addresses last week, Rev. Dr. Torrey, the evangelist, was interrupted by Norman Murray, a well known local character. In answering him, Dr. Torrey remarked that there was divine forgiveness for everybody, not excepting Murray, even if he had been charged with distributing obscene literature. Murray promptly consulted a lawyer, and Dr. Torrey demanded that his costs be paid, and this not having been done, his lawyer on Saturday took out a seizure before judgment on Dr. Torrey's baggage.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 6, 1907.

THE WINTER FORT SEASON.

The C. P. R. liner Montreal will, it is expected, get away today. This sailing brings to a close the season of 1906-7, a winter in which St. John in common with all other parts of Canada has suffered by the exceptionally severe weather. Commerce generally has been in a flourishing condition, the markets have been steady, and there was, last autumn, every ground for the expectation that the season which has just ended would prove the banner one in the history of St. John's shipping. But most unfavorable conditions arose; violent storms in upper Canada and the west hindered the prompt handling of freight and passenger business; serious congestion ensued and the result has naturally been a falling off in the amount of traffic. It has also been clearly demonstrated that Canadian railways, even in the most favorable circumstances, are incapable of carrying the business now offering; that great additions must be made to rolling stock and that road beds must be improved. This is more urgent than the building of lines into new districts, and there is reason to believe that for some time at least the railroads will devote attention to bettering their equipment rather than in seeking additional business. St. John during the winter has been able, after the usual November excitement to accommodate all the steamers arriving. There have been no delays nor, with the exception of minor labor troubles, has anything arisen to interfere with the progress of the work. It is a season so deplorably marked by marine disasters there has not been even a trivial accident to any steamer arriving at or leaving St. John. The records of the past few years would seem to show that with the exception of the winter of this harbor is as safe for shipping as any on the coast.

The benefit of this winter traffic is becoming more and more apparent. The men who find employment during the entire season number at least three thousand and the effect of this abundance of work makes itself felt upon general business. Good times prevail in St. John during the winter months, money is plentiful, and no man need be idle.

The Star presents today a summary of the business done during the season now ending. The statement while necessarily incomplete in certain respects is as perfect as it can be made at the present time. The decision of the C. P. R. to henceforth tabulate all statistics at Montreal may prevent the preparation of those valuable reports heretofore issued. It is, however, to be hoped that this may be overcome. But at the present time it is impossible to obtain definite and accurate figures of import and export freight tonnage, and the increase or decrease must necessarily be estimated from the numbers of carloads and by railroads.

Considering the conditions which have prevailed in all Canada there is every reason for congratulation in the statement which The Star presents today.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT DENMARK.

Considerable amusement has been created in England by the action of the Lord Chamberlain in ordering the suppression of "The Mikado." The reason given is that in this comic opera there are passages and situations caricaturing the Japanese court, which might give offence to Britain's latest allies. It is worthy of note, however, that no suggestion of anything of the kind has come from Japan, but on the contrary opinion in that country, judging from newspaper comment, is that the Lord Chamberlain has unconsciously created a more amusing situation than is to be found in the opera.

A few days ago a member of parliament drew the attention of the government to the fact that a famous drama, Hamlet, contained passages which might be offensive to Denmark. He was gravely assured by Sir Edward Grey that Hamlet would be undisturbed, but that the Mikado decision could not be reconsidered.

The Russian government has decided to double track the entire Siberian railroad, and will as well, increase the ferry service across Lake Baikal. The comparatively small sum of $11,500,000 is the estimated cost, but this is explained by the announcement that convict labor will be used. There are thousands of exiles in Siberia to whom death would be preferable.

America has watched in sympathy the despairing efforts put forth by Dr. Marvin of Dover, in the search for his little four year old son. The father's grief, and the great anxiety under which he has labored, touched many hearts. The finding of the child's body will end the suspense, and whether the manner of the little one's death is ever learned or not, there is relief from the hopeless search.

RUBAIYAT OF "OLD PROB."

(Munsey's Magazine.)
The Weather Prophet writes, and having writ
Besignly back amongst His Clouds doth sit;
Nor all the Cold Sarcasm of the Press
Can hinder Him from thinking He is It.

And that Inverted Bowl we call the Sky
He rules from Day to Day with varied Lies!

Lift not Your hands to Him for Help
—for He
As little really knows as You or I!

Myself when Young did eagerly Peruse
The "Weather Indications" in the News
For Plencis and for Balls; but evermore
What they did promise, I did surely lose.

I sometimes think that never glows so red
The Dawn as when the Weather Clerk
Has said:
"Tomorrow—Cloudy; Heavy Winds and Showers!"

And Sol comes out Right darsingly, instead.

Ah, Love! couldst Thou and I somehow conspire
To grasp this Weather Bureau Scheme entire;

Would we not quickly get onto the Job?
And then remold it to our Heart's Desire?

For He no Question makes of Ayes and Nods,
But anything that strikes His Fancy goes;

What Others think is neither Here nor there—
He knows about it all—He knows—He knows.

UNPLEASANT BUT TRUE.

Enrique Creel, the new Mexican Ambassador, said at a dinner in Washington apropos of unpleasant truths:

"Why should we ever tell them? They are always unnecessary, and how they would! I have heard of an American Countess or Duchess—I forget, which—who said to her noble husband, fondly:

"You were embarrassed when you proposed to me, Perceval, were you not?"

"Yes, the man answered; 'I owed $300,000.'"

COULD NOT CHANGE THE COURT.

One of the Justices of the Supreme Court tells of a young lawyer in the west who was trying his first case before Justice Harlan.

The youthful attorney had evidently conned his argument till he knew it by heart. Before he proceeded ten minutes with his oratorical effort the Justice had decided the case in his favor and had told him so. Despite this, the young lawyer would not cease. It seemed that he had attained such a momentum that he could not stop.

Finally Justice Harlan, leaned forward, and in the politest of tones said: "Mr. Blank, notwithstanding your arguments, the court has concluded to decide the case in your favor."

IT WAS BEHIND BEFORE.

Two members of the Princeton faculty during a recent hurried trip to New York were on a Broadway car when it was stopped by a blockade.

As they were near their destination they decided to get out and walk. The block was, however, soon lifted and the car overtook them.

"When we left the car," said one of the "highbrows," who, by the way, has a bit of the Celt in him, "I thought we should get on better by getting off. But after all we should have been better off if we had stayed on."

JUST LIKE ST. JOHN.

A lot of poor children were at a farm. The farmer gave them some milk to drink, the product of a prize cow.

"How do you like it?" he asked, when they had finished.

"Gee, 'tis fine!" said one little fellow, who added, after a thoughtful pause, "I wish our milkman kept a cow!"

IN THE WRONG PLACE.

Mrs. Flanagan—Well, I suppose we'll soon be having policemen and then you'll be out of a job.

Police Constable Flanagan—No, my dear, I fancy you'll find the strong arm of the law will always be wearing the trousers!

HEAR THE DEFENCE.

"But," said the lawyer, "your case seems hopeless. I don't see what you can do for you. You admit that you beat your wife."

"Yes," replied the defendant, "but my wife's testimony will discount that. She'd never admit that she was beaten."

AS GOOD AS A DOZEN.

Mrs. Crowsfoot—How many lodges does your husband belong to?

Mrs. Kawler—Only one, I think, but it meets six nights in the week.

BROTHERS MEET AFTER 40 YEARS' SEPARATION.

Parted During Civil War, They Fail to Recognize Each Other.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., May 4.—After being separated for forty years, two brothers, Samuel and Daniel Fisher, met here today. The brothers were parted during the civil war. After peace had been declared Samuel failed to return to his home here, and was presumed as dead. He went south, however, and located at Galveston, Texas.

Not until today did Samuel return to the scenes of his boyhood days. When the brothers met they failed to recognize each other. Samuel is the chief engineer of a large ocean steamship, which reached New York harbor yesterday from Galveston. It was his first trip north and gave him the opportunity to see his brother.

HYPNOTISM IS BLAMED FOR BIGAMY BY WOMAN.

Declares Husband No. 2 Made Her Believe She Obtained Divorce From First.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 4.—On the plea that she was hypnotized by her second husband and made to believe that she had been properly divorced from her first, Mrs. Pethelen Von Lentzen, alias Helen Stohl, and known here as Mrs. Lawson Herrmann, hopes to obtain freedom from the charge of bigamy preferred against her by the Rhode Island authorities.

That Mrs. Von Lentzen has fully recovered from the hypnotic powers of her second husband, who is a hypnotist, theatrical manager and, until recently, proprietor of a large manufactory, is shown by her activity in having husband No. 2 arrested on a charge of wife-beating.

Professor Herrmann tells an entirely different story from his wife, declaring that he taught her hypnosis and that she is now hypnotizing the authorities who have married her in Cranston, R. I., in 1903, she saying that she had been divorced from Joseph Stohl, the manager of a playhouse at Passaic, N. J. Since that time he says she has quarreled frequently, and she has followed him about the country bent on prosecution. The double hypnotic story will be related in court here next week, when the woman gets a hearing on the bigamy charge and Herrmann for wife-beating.

BACHELORS OFFER BILL MAKING GIRLS ACCEPT.

Want Fine Imposed if Danlike Women Refuse to Wed or Receive Wowers Graciously.

DANVILLE, Ill., May 2.—An ineffective move has been made by the bachelors of Danville in the fight to prevent the appeal of the single men going to the court.

In a counter petition the bachelors ask that the City Council enact an ordinance making every unmarried woman who turns down a wife-seeking man $50. They also ask that council formulate some plan by which the unmarried woman will be forced to meet the bachelors and give them an opportunity of pressing their suits.

While Mayor Lewman, unharmed, has been suffering great humiliation as a result of the attempt of the single men to force their ordinance, he is not alone now. At first the women thought they would make the mayor their sole subject of attack, but now they have turned upon two candidates for other offices.

The two are John Torrence, past 50 years, candidate for City Clerk on the Republican ticket, and O. Mann, single and hopeless, candidate for City Attorney on the Democratic ticket.

Both men have been made by the women the target of signs of changing their ways before election day, tomorrow, they will be moved under by a storm of votes in favor of their married opponents that their friends will not recognize them.

The notification of the candidates Mann appeared at a ball accompanied by a woman.

SUFFRAGETTES TAKE A MAN.

And Will Try to Get Him Into Parliament Since Women are Barred.

LONDON, May 4.—Owing to the failure to secure the immediate admittance of women to the House of Commons, the National Union of Women's Suffrage Clubs has decided that the next best thing to do is to represent the women in the House of Commons by man. It will, therefore, run a Parliamentary candidate of its own in the person of the Hon. Bertrand Russell, who will contest the Wimbledon division on behalf of suffering women as a Liberal Free Trader.

Hundreds of suffragettes are preparing to descend upon Wimbledon and start an energetic campaign in support of Mr. Russell, who is the brother of Earl Russell and married Alva, daughter of H. Parnell Smith of Philadelphia, in 1878.

The executive committee of the Liberal party has decided not to share in the contest at Wimbledon. Mr. Russell's opponent is Mr. Henry Chaplin, who has twice been a member of Conservative cabinets. The Liberals will allow him to withdraw, although he is not appealing to the electorate on this ground.

MR. AND MRS. CARDINAL WOLSEY.

LONDON, May 4.—Cardinal Wolsey is the name of a prospective bridegroom whose bands are being published at St. Luke's church, Kingston-on-Thames.

OLD MAIDS SET UNWED.

PASTOR WILD; RESIGNS.

Femininity Swarms Around Him Like Bees—Seeks Other Charge.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 4.—The Rev. Dr. Gould, of Jamestown, N. Y., who is married and has a daughter, is to succeed the Rev. Dr. Edmund B. Patterson as pastor of Grace Church, Dr. Patterson resigns to go to Louisville, Ky., because many young girls and old maids swarmed around him like bees because he would not marry. A few of his amoyers got married, but some of the chronic callibates continued to trouble him, so he thought it best to resign.

Most of the congregation of the Grace Church prefer to have a benedict preach for this reason. When the board looked around for a successor to Dr. Patterson, the main requirement was that he be married.

"HAMLET" WON'T GO.

Not to be Barred in London for Fear of Offending the Danes.

LONDON, May 4.—In the House of Commons today V. P. Kennedy, member for Gavan, asked the government with reference to the suppression of "The Mikado," whether the minister was aware that in a certain popular play called "Hamlet" the King of Denmark is portrayed as a murderer and whether he would direct the Lord Chamberlain to prohibit its further production as calculated to offend a friendly power.

Sir Edward Grey, replying in behalf of the government, said the Lord Chamberlain had acted on his own responsibility in suppressing "The Mikado," which suppression he would not reconsider, for obvious reasons.

The Lord Chamberlain's ban against the production of "The Mikado" was not entered in the House of Commons, where D'Oyly Carte's company performed it before a crowded and enthusiastic audience. Other productions are announced.

The outcry against the suppression of the piece continues. Several leading actors have published expressions of regret at the action of the Lord Chamberlain. It is noteworthy that no hint of disapproval of the interdiction, setting it aside, has been expressed by the Japanese themselves. He appeared, although some have been quoted as saying they were astonished by the interdiction, setting it aside for it. The situation is generally regarded as more Gilbertian than the opera itself.

WIDOW GIVES $5,000 TO DENTIST FOR LOVE; SUES

Declares He Failed to Marry Her, and Wants Her Money Back.

PITTSBURGH, May 4.—Mrs. R. L. Fraser, a wealthy and comely widow, entered suit today against E. D. Butterworth for $5,000, with one year's interest.

A strange tale of trusting woman was brought out in the bill. Mrs. Fraser sets forth that a year ago she was in love with Butterworth, who was a struggling dentist, and that she was also in love with the glorious climate of southern California. It was suggested that she give to Butterworth $5,000 to make good his business losses; that he would then sell out his business and marry her, going with her to Los Angeles, where they would coo and bill the rest of their life away, she having the money to keep hubby from work.

She alleges that she paid Butterworth this money, and that he went through some sort of a fake sale, but really did not give up his business or marry her. So she wants her $5,000 back.

DIVORCES IN MICHIGAN

BREAK ALL RECORDS

Secretary of State Reports 3,189 in a Year, a "Sad Commentary."

LANSING, Mich., May 4.—Divorce statistics compiled by the secretary of state's department for 1906, show that 3,189 decrees were granted during the year, an increase of 38 over 1905.

This is the greatest number returned in Michigan for any year since the registration of divorces began in 1867. This corresponds to a rate of 5.6 persons divorced per 1,000 population, and is about one-eighth of the marriage rate for the year. The bulletin says: "This is a striking commentary on the condition of social life in the state, and especially in the viciousness and hardness of heart which must characterize a large proportion of the population when we consider that nearly 50 per cent. of these cases involve, at least for the purpose of making an official court record, the charge of extreme cruelty."

How Detroit Officials Got Rid of a Foreigner They Considered Undesirable.

WINDSOR, May 4.—Peter Tavitel, an Albanian resident of Detroit, where he is employed in his brother's restaurant, came over here yesterday afternoon to visit some friends. On attempting to return to Detroit he was refused admission by the immigration officials, on the ground that he was suffering from trachoma. The man procured a certificate from a Windsor specialist that he had no disease of the eyes, but the Detroit officials declined to accept the certificate and sent Tavitel back here, saying that he must remain out of the United States, at least until he is free from trachoma.

PLEA OF SPANISH LABORERS

Demand Release of Ferrer and Nakens, Implicated in Attack on Alfonso.

MADRID, May 4.—Resolutions were passed at most of the May day meetings in the provinces demanding the release of Ferrer and Nakens, who are charged with being implicated in the attempt that was made by Morales upon the lives of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria when they were returning from their wedding ceremony.

Ferrer, who was the director of an anarchistic school at Barcelona, is accused of knowing that Morales was to throw the bomb at the royal pair and of arranging means for Morales' escape after the deed, and Jose Nakens, who was editor of the Republican paper El Motin, published in Madrid at the time, acknowledged that he gave Morales a letter after the bomb-throwing recommending him to the good offices of friends. As Nakens had been believed to be an enemy of anarchism his confession made a great sensation.

FROM EDITORIAL IN United States Trade Reports. We hear so much these days about the "Ground Floor" and yet very few realize how much has been accomplished in the building of fortunes by this "Ground Floor" idea, in fact almost every one of the great fortunes of today, originated from some lucky opportunity or far-seeing thought which enables some one to know where to place a few dollars which will quickly jump into hundreds. When we learn of an opportunity which is beyond the ordinary we feel we are doing a service to our readers in pointing it out. By far the best thing we have heard of for many months is the proposition of the Cove Hydro-Electric Co., whose offices are at 104 Tremont Bldg., Boston, Mass., and 128 Prince William street, St. John N. CURIOSITIES OF MEASUREMENT. Different Lengths of a Mile - How a Standard Was Determined. The standard yard prevails throughout the United Kingdom, but the lengths of the English, Scots and Irish miles are different in each, which is the more curious, seeing that the English and American miles are identical. But the occasional local variations in our English miles are even more remarkable. These were perhaps originally crystallized in customs of which some, not to say arbitrary, practices, sometimes varied.

COMMON FALLACIES. To the Editor of The Star:—Dear Sir,—That armies and navies are as long as poles are, and are used as long as poles are, is a fallacy. Police will be needed until the millennium. Militia will be needed as long as there are rioters and tramps; but armies and navies might be banished in the immediate future. Police do not punish criminals, but use only that minimum of force necessary to bring them to an impartial court. Armies and navies, on the contrary, settle cases themselves by brute force, without reference to evidence or justice. National armies and navies will diminish gradually, to be replaced at last by a small international force of European and Japanese troops at their disposal.

FOR A MILLION OF MONEY

By Arthur W. Marchmont.

(Continued) now tell me something of your life at Silverbeach. That was the name I think? Olive told him at some length, giving a few details of her daily life there and mentioning such names of people and places as occurred to her. "Wonderfully circumstantial and clear. Quite surprising. Quite." "Wonderfully," agreed the other doctor. "One would really imagine—" "I think you are agreed on that," interrupted the specialist quickly. "And so, on your lamented father's death, you found yourself suddenly without means of any sort. Most distressing, indeed. And how did you propose to—?—to maintain yourself?" "I sold nearly all my jewellery to obtain money to accomplish a certain task, I may tell you. Certain matters were alleged against my father, and as I believed them to be untrue, I am seeking the truth. Mr. Casement knows all this.

"It is intensely to be regretted that he is not here. And you are kind enough to Sheffield where, by a strange coincidence, this Mrs. Tisley lives?" "I came because I have certain things to find out." "Yes, I see. The task you have set yourself. Of course. Then you are afraid there is some—what shall I term it—some sort of wrong-doing of which he was the victim? Some conspiracy against him as well as against yourself, in fact?" "My object is only to ascertain the facts." "Yes, yes. That we perfectly understand. It is a most worthy mission for any young lady to undertake," he declared indulgently. "Now, have you any idea as to the persons who are concerned in this scheme against you?" "Yes, a very clear idea, indeed. But I do not wish to mention any names." "Better not, perhaps. But you do not suppose that Mr. Casement is in any way mixed up with it?" "Certainly not. He is my best friend," said Olive, with a smile. "Until yesterday I had never seen her." "For Mrs. Merridew?" "Olive hesitated. "I would rather say no more about that." "Very well. Very well. Of course you would care to speak against a lady in whose care we find you just now. Now, why do you suppose Mr. Casement, being such a friend as you think him, should have sent this sort of message?" "I have already told you. I do not believe he has had my message. I am sure he has not."

HORACE MARVIN'S BODY FOUND NEAR HIS HOME MISSING SINCE MARCH 4.

The Place Had Been Searched on Several Occasions—Body Was Frozen and the Child Was Dressed the Same as When He Disappeared—There is a Suspicion of Foul Play.

DOVER, Del., May 4.—Lying in a marshy place of land, the body of little Horace Marvin, son of Dr. H. N. Marvin, whose mysterious disappearance from the Bay Meadows farm, near Dover, had baffled solution since March 4, was found about half a mile from the Marvin farm today, by Ollie Pleasanton, a farmer. Pleasanton, who lives on a farm adjoining the Marvin's, came upon the child's body while out gunning. The child lay face downwards in a patch of meadow grass. There was no mark upon the little boy's body morning nor play. It was in a good state of preservation, suggesting that it had been frozen. Pleasanton says he was about a distance of twenty feet from where gunners had passed often before. The spot where the boy was found is midway between the Marvin home and the Delaware river. When Ollie Pleasanton came upon the child's body he found the clothing intact. His tiny woolen sweater was buttoned up securely about the body and not an article of clothing which he had on when he disappeared was missing. His knit cap was pulled over his face and his mittens were in his hands. Dr. Marvin says he searched over the same marsh nearly every day since the disappearance and that with detectives burned the grass of the plain four weeks ago, but saw no signs of the body. The theory that the body has been recently placed where it was found is supported by the fact that the child was dressed in the same manner as when they buried the tall dead grass from it. Further than this the child has been trampled over time and again within the past week by neighbors, and no signs of the child were seen. Dr. Marvin went on to the place described by Pleasanton and gently picked up the little form, called the coroner to the scene to make sure that it was his boy. Being satisfied that it was his son, the doctor wrapped the body in a sheet and carried them to the house, where he notified the family. Dr. Marvin is convinced that his son met with foul play. He said: "Though I am unable to examine Horace closely because he has been buried, I am certain that he was murdered, his body brought back and left lying on the marsh to give the impression that he wandered out there and died. The clothing shows no signs of having been worn. The shoes were new and had the body lain there when the fire swept over the marsh."

SOMERVILLE WOMAN MURDERED BY HER NEPHEW

Other People in the House at the Time Knew Nothing of the Tragedy—Mrs. George Smith the Victim—The Murderer Afterwards Committed Suicide.

BOSTON, May 5.—Through the suicide of Albert L. Smith, a Somerville motorist, just after he was placed under arrest for the murder of Mrs. George Smith, the wife of the young man's uncle, at a lodging house at 61 Hancock street, just across the street from the state house. Mrs. Smith's resistance to the young man's advances, which during the past few weeks are said to have separated between her and her husband, is thought to have led to the crime. Mrs. Smith's body was found about noon yesterday lying across the threshold of her room with the jugular vein severed, the breast slashed and the right wrist cut. Under a sofa was found an overcoat with blood on the sleeve, and by night the garment had been identified as belonging to young Smith. The police searched all the evening through Somerville for the suspect and about two o'clock this morning finally located him at the house of A. L. Littlefield, just over the Medford line. He was very nervous when informed of his arrest, but managed to obtain a glass of water from Mrs. Littlefield which he used. It is thought, in taking a dose of corrosive sublimate. A few minutes later while on the way to the station with the officers he fell to the ground, became unconscious and died about three o'clock in a nearby hospital. The victim of the murder was about 43 years old and had been married about five years. Three days ago, following the separation from her husband, she took a position as housekeeper for Herbert W. Dayton on Hancock street. The Dayton family keep a boarding house, and the inmates were in their rooms while Mrs. Smith's assailant was behind her when she opened the door and tried to call the neighbors across the back yard. Had help arrived instantly it is possible that Mrs. Smith might not have met her death. But she closed the

BRIGANDINE MYSTERIOUSLY BURNED WHOLE CREW ARE UNDER ARREST

AFFAIR HAPPENED OFF THE NEWFOUNDLAND COAST

The Henri de Cancale Anchored off Cape St. Mary's a Few Days Ago, Her Mission Not Being Known—A Boy Who Was on Board is Dead—Inquiry is Being Made

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 4.—The destruction by fire of the French brigantine Henri de Cancale, one mile off Cape St. Mary's, and the suspicious death of one of her crew, a lad of 17, are being investigated by the Newfoundland authorities. The vessel was burned late last night, and today 25 members of the crew who landed on the Newfoundland coast, were taken into custody on a charge of feloniously destroying the brigantine. In one of the boats which was rowed ashore was the body of a French boy, who is supposed to have come from France with the vessel when she came to St. Pierre some time ago for the purpose of joining the French fishing fleet which makes its headquarters at this port. The members of the crew do not speak English, but through an interpreter they explained the boy dropped dead of heart failure due to the excitement which followed the breaking out of the fire. As the vessel was destroyed within the waters of the colony, the Newfoundland authorities have jurisdiction in the matter. They have ordered an inquest in the boy's death, but it is probable they will invite the co-operation of the French governor of St. Pierre, Mr. The residents of Cape St. Mary's, which is on the extreme northern end of Newfoundland and 100 miles east of St. Pierre, say that the brigantine approached off the coast early Thursday and dropped anchor one mile off the cape. The brigantine remained at anchor two days, and according to local fishermen at Cape St. Mary's no information could be obtained as to the reasons for her remaining so close to the shore. Late last night the residents of the cape were startled by a sudden illumination, which it was developed afterwards was caused by a fire which broke out on board the Henri de Cancale. The flames spread rapidly to all parts of the vessel, and within two hours the body of a boy, who, they said, had dropped dead after the vessel had been abandoned. The authorities have no jurisdiction in such a case on board a foreign vessel outside of the colonial waters, and should they find they have no jurisdiction, the matter will undoubtedly be referred to the French consular authorities. The Newfoundland government, however, has jurisdiction and undoubtedly, if it can be shown that the vessel was deliberately burned within Newfoundland waters, the trial will take place in Newfoundland. The authorities suspect that a number of French fishing vessels have been sunk by their crews within the past year, but as no colonial laws were violated, no action has been taken. Last week the French schooner Arbonnais of St. Pierre sank off Cape Ray, at the western end of Newfoundland. The crew landed at Cape Ray, and the government was notified that the sinking of the vessel was suspicious, but investigation showed that the schooner went down four miles from land and outside of colonial jurisdiction. Within the past year four French vessels have been lost off the Newfoundland coast. ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 5.—The mystery of the destruction by fire of the French fishing brigantine Henri de Cancale off Cape St. Mary's last Friday night, and of the suspicious death of a boy who was a member of her crew, remain unexplained today by the investigation which the Newfoundland authorities are conducting. The autopsy of the physicians on the body of the boy will be held tomorrow, however, and it is expected to determine definitely whether or not the death of the lad was due to natural causes, as is asserted by the sailors of the vessel. According to the statement of the brigantine's captain, the death of the boy occurred after the discovery that the vessel was in flames and was apparently due to heart failure caused by the excitement of the moment. After she had burned to the water's edge, the remainder of the boat went down in about 25 fathoms of water. Fishermen at Cape St. Mary's say that the brigantine was anchored off the cape two days only a short distance from the village and that if the vessel was in distress, no attempt was apparently made to communicate with the shore. The weather it is said was fair during the time the brigantine lay off shore. On Friday night, a short time before the burning of the vessel, the coastal mail boat Prospero also anchored off Cape St. Mary's, but saw no signals displayed. A half hour later the crew of the Prospero discovered that the brigantine was ablaze, and returning the Prospero circled about the doomed craft, but was unable, on account of the heat of the flames to approach closely. The crew of the French vessel had then gone ashore.

GAS JET LEFT OPEN; THREE MEN ARE DEAD

A Tragedy in a Montreal Lodging House

Match Went Out and Man Forgot to Turn Off Gas

MONTREAL, May 5.—Three men were found dead in a bed room in the boarding house of Mrs. Smith, 242 St. James street, this morning. Death was due to asphyxiation, a gas jet being found open. All three, whose surnames only are known, were recent arrivals in the country, the two former having come from Glasgow and Brindis hailing from Manchester. They retired after midnight last night, and at one o'clock this morning Brindle was seen in the hall. It is supposed that he evidently turned on the gas while attempting to light it, and that the match going out extinguished the idea and forgot to turn the valve.

SUNDAY DRUNKS IN POLICE COURT

Magistrate Ritchie Finding These Very Often

Three Were Arrested Yesterday—Adjutant Bowering Shakes Dice—North End Police Hear Bad Language.

Drunkness, bad language, relating the police, fighting, and common vagrancy was the assortment in the police court this morning. There were six cases, three of which were dealt with by the police Saturday and Sunday. Of the number seven were only charged with drunkenness, but three of these were arrested on Saturday despite the fact that the bars are closed on that day. A week ago Sunday four drunks were arrested.

One of the yesterday drunks was too full for utterance when arrested last evening, but when he came to his senses this morning he informed the police that a colored man gave him the liquor on the back shore. He explained to the court that he thought he was going to Fairville when the conductor of the street car put him off at Sheffield street. He went to jail for a month in default of paying $5.

Another Sunday drunk was brought in from out the road by two other men and left on Market square to sober up, but he fell into the hands of the police and got an eight-dollar fine. The other drunks were fined the usual amount for the next two months.

Adjutant Bowering of the Salvation Army shook dice on Saturday night. A Scotchman giving his name as John Dice has been a boarder in the Travellers' Home for the past three weeks, but because of his bad actions Saturday night the adjutant has shaken his society and the county jail will have Dice for the next two months. Theophilus Marshall is credited with using Theophilus language that the North End police have heard in a long time. He was also charged with drunkenness. For the two charges he was asked to pay $24 or go to jail for three months.

Edmund Cahill was crazy drunk on Main street Saturday night and when placed under arrest the young man gave Policeman Merrick a kick on the ear, tore the officer's coat and made him lively until Policeman Finley aided Merrick in holding Cahill on the ground until Policeman Semple went to a stable, hitched up a span of horses to a big sloop and the wild drunk was carted to the station. He was fined $5 for drunkenness, or one month's jail, and $10 or two months' jail for resisting the police. He was also charged with drunkenness. For the two charges he was asked to pay $24 or go to jail for three months.

When this morning's docket was cleared four remanded cases were taken up.

Phoebe Dukshire and Margaret Mansfield charged with soliciting men on Sheffield street were brought before the court. The evidence of Policeman Jones was taken and the reputation that he gave the women was bad. They were again remanded until tomorrow when more evidence against them will be heard.

Thomas Goodwin, who a couple of weeks ago was drunk and disorderly on the Boston express was told he was liable to eight months in jail but was fined $20 or two months jail.

The case against Samuel Barton, charged with stealing liquor from the C. P. R. was also disposed of. The magistrate said that from the evidence he had concluded that Barton was guilty of the theft. He wished that all persons take warning that a long term of imprisonment will be dealt out to persons found guilty of stealing from the wharves, ships or railway. Barton was before the court on the evidence of a number of good recommendations had been sent to the court about him from prominent citizens. A very prominent physician who attends the prisoner's family spoke highly of the man and stated that at present there was illness in the home. It was fortunate that the physician communicated with the court or Barton might have been sent to jail for six months.

Taking all things into consideration Barton was released on probation and entered into recognizance to appear. His sentence within a year if wanted. His future good conduct is all that will save him.

ENGOENIA WEEK AT THE U. N. B.

Great Preparations Being Made at the University—The Glee Club and the Annual Play

The engoenia week of the University of New Brunswick is being looked forward to this year with great interest by all those interested in the old state university, as great preparations are being made by the students of that college to make the week a banner week in the history of the college. The graduating class is one of the largest in the history of the college, nine girls being in the number. The remainder of the class is equally divided between engineers and art students.

Special interest is being taken this year in the annual college play, which will be the three act farce "Tom Cobb." Prof. Geoghegan plays the leading part, being ably assisted by ten of the students. The Glee Club during the evening will give a number of selections. The Glee Club is especially good this year, there being over fifty male voices, who will be in the choruses on the evening of the play. The other features for the week are being carefully planned and an excellent week is expected.

DOG OWNERS SHOULD TAKE OUT LICENSES

Magistrate R. J. Ritchie in the police court this morning called the public's attention to the fact that persons who have not taken out licenses on the first of May should do so. He referred especially to dog licenses which must be taken out before June 8th or a four dollar fine will be imposed. Persons who intend sending dogs to the country had better do so immediately and not wait until they are reported. If this is done the streets and squares will probably be clear of a number of dogs this summer. His honor said that he had also noticed that through the activity of the police warnings some of the streets are being kept clear of pieces of paper, old fruit, etc., but there were some streets that were dirty as the result of careless citizens. He wished to warn people to be careful of throwing stuff on the streets for it was the intention of the police to send those who were not careful.
