LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Let every tiller of the soil Pate in his hat the axiom true:
That every one who does not toil, Must beg or steal from those who do.
That every combine is a thief.
Protection is not even dealing.
That labor always comes to grief In company with uneven dealing.

—Beautiful weather.

—Shooting parties are numerous.

—Christmas will be here six weeks from to-morrow.

—Now that the block pavement on King street has been completed, that thoroughfare is a favorite for afternoon drives.

—Messrs. Dignam, of London, have settled on their farm at Hemlock City, which will again be adding to the population. (Lacknow Sentinel).

—Careless Grant and assistants have been at work lately clearing up the fallen leaves at Victoria Park, thus making the place look as presentable as possible at this late season.

—No time of the year like the present for a good invigorating walk. It puts bloom on people's cheeks and takes money out of our purse," remarked a leading city doctor as he inhaled the fresh morning air.

—Old Subscriber—Mr. Harrison, of Toronto, has just been appointed analyst for Western Ontario. He is salaried by the Government, but he has not yet begun his duties. The post has been vacant for several years.

—Mr. A. O. E. Fuller, of Owen Sound, formerly traveling for Elliott & Sons, of this city, has entered the floor and feed business in that town, having purchased the business of Messrs. Wilson & Co. Mr.
Fuller has many friends in London who will wish him success.

—Before the proceedings of the council began last evening Mr. Thos. F. McGuigan, city clerk, was called into the mayor's office, where a very pleasant event took place. On the table was a beautiful marble mantel clock, which, with a well-filled purse of gold, Mayor Oppenheimer presented to him with an address. (Vancouver World). Mr. McGuigan has many friends in this city. Dr. McGuigan, who practiced here for a number of years, being his brother. He was formerly a resident of Stratford.

—Mrs. McLaughlin, a returned missionary from Telegu, India, addressed a meeting in the Talbot Street Baptist Church last evening held under the auspices of the Young People's Missionary Society. Her remarks were confined almost exclusively to the missionary work of India, and were very interesting, extending over a period of eight years, the information given being derived by the speaker from personal experiences.
The proceeds of the meeting will be applied to missionary purposes.

—The names of the candidates writing at the custom house yesterday, under the Inspector Boyle, are: Messrs. W. F. Wilson, Woodstock; J. C. McDonald, Parkhill; James Clarke, Millbank; John Agnew, Kincardine; J. W. Biss, London; W. West,

Henry Bernard, J. P. Brinscombe, J.
Chalmers, T. Cochill, Arch. Galbraith, W.
Garrett, T. Glover, W. A. Gray, R. B.
Hewson, J. J. Kincaid, W. J. Loughrey
and W. Thompson, of this city.

—The members of the Y. P. C. I. Society, in connection with the Wellington Street Methodist Church, spent a very enjoyable time at the residence of Mr. John Croden, jun., last evening. A good programme added much to the general pleasure. Those taking part were: Instrumental, Misses Martin, Alice Croden (violin), Potts, vocal, Misses Raymond and Minnie Croden, and Messrs. Fleming,
Jones and John Croden; recitations, Miss Alice Allen and Mr. Wyatt.

—In the "Y" rooms last evening was commenced a course of lectures on "Physical Culture." The suggestions offered were varied and practical, and the necessity of systematic exercise in early life strongly urged. It had been stated on good authority that one-seventh of the population die of consumption, and as this disease almost incompatible with perfect lung development this rate could be reduced to a minimum by proper attention to physical culture. Some appliances for exercise will be exhibited next Tuesday evening.

—Mr. Geo. Buskin, of the Algoma and Northwest Evangelical and Colportage Mission, is again visiting London in the interests of the work. Since his former visit here last year there have been supplied in the district about 1,000 Scriptures and Scriptural books in eight languages. Five small Scriptural educational books have been published in five languages. Religious services have been conducted in various parts of the district and religious tracts distributed in various languages. A mission room has also been opened for the workmen on the Saint Ste. Marie Canal. The missionary thankfully acknowledges $43.12 contributed last year in London in aid of the work and again respectfully renews the appeal. Communications can be addressed to him care of Secretary Sayer, Y. M. C. A., this city.

The Call Sustained.
Moderator Savers, of Westminster, presided over the special meeting of the London Presbytery held in the First Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon. The business of the meeting was the consideration of the call extended by the congregations of Dorchester and Crumlin to Rev.
Mr. Cook, a probationer, who has been in Aylmer for about two months. It was decided to sustain the call. The induction services will be held shortly in the Dorchester church. Rev. Mr. Brown, of Belmont, will preside at the services, and Rev.
Mr. Cameron, of Belmont, and Rev. Mr.
Sawers will address respectively the people and the pastor. The salary promised is $750, together with a free manse and one month's holidays.

Service of Frauds.
Excellent music and a large audience, the elements essential to the success of a service of praise, attended the entertainment given in St. Andrew's Church last evening. The church choir was supplied by a number of the leading city vocalists, and under Mr. Charles E.
Wheeler, as organist and director, it added not a little to the enjoyment of the evening.
Following the opening number by Mr.
Wheeler came the chorus "Harken Unto Me," solo of which was feelingly rendered by Mr. F. Soper. Mr. Millour was in excellent voice, and rendered her numbers very artistically, the first, Ambrose's
"Abide With Me," being considered by many of the best of the genre. In the second, "The Better Land" (Cowan) Mr. Anderson added to his popularity gained by the excellent rendition of the duet with Miss Mutch and Mr. Soper. Miss Mutch sang very acceptably in the duet, but nervousness had an unpleasant effect in her solo.
Piccolini's "Heavenly Father, Hear Our Prayer" gave Miss Hiscott an opportunity of displaying to a considerable advantage her contralto, while Mr. Belcher acquitted himself very satisfactorily in Rodney's composition.
The following was the programme presented:

Organ Solo—First Sonata (D Minor).....Gullmant.
Solo and Chorus—"Harken Unto Me".....Sullivan.
Soprano Solo—"Abide With Me".....Holden.
Bass Solo—"Thou Art My Rock".....Stainer.
Duet—"Love Divine".....Miss Mutch and Mr. Soper.
Bass Solo—"Thy King".....Rodney.
Alto Solo—"Heavenly Father, Hear Our Prayer".....Miss Hiscott.
Organ Solo—"Scene Pastorale" (The Storm).....Lott.
Solo and Chorus—"Come Thou Fount".....Parker.
Soprano Solo—"Come Thou Fount".....Millard.
Miss Mutch.

Organ Solo—.....Schaefer.
(b) Andante (Symphony of M. J. Haydn).
Solo and Chorus—"Oh, for a Closer Walk With God".....Miss Gilmour.
Tenor Solo—"The Better Land".....Cowan.
Organ Overture—"Gullmant's Tale".....Romani.
Chorus—"The Lord is Great in Zion".....Best.

Will Appeal to the Judge.
The final sitting of the London West Court of Revision was held at the Temperance Hall last night, the following Duff, Spence, Brodie, Clerk, Minton, Assessor Wattam and Collector Lord. The following cases were dealt with: Catherine Keenan, against $750 on Wharfedale road, confirmed; W. F. Peters, against $1,500 for ten acres, south Oxford, confirmed; Wm.
Dutton, against $850 on Blackfriars street, reduced to $775. The C. P. R. wrote, giving notice that they intended to appeal to the county judge from their assessment as fixed by the Court of Revision at $6,000 for nine acres. The action of the last court was confirmed and the matter allowed to go before the judge. This concluded the work of the Court of Revision and the business of the Council was then taken up. Collector Lord made a return of the roll stating that $2,800 had been collected, leaving a balance of $2,800 uncollected. He was instructed to collect the balance of the unpaid taxes according to law. The Reeves, Councilors Brodie and Spence were appointed a commission with power to make arrangements for the appointment of a constable for the village. The Clerk was instructed to notify the secretary of the Gun Club to pay their annual license.

Broke His Pipe.
"Would you be so kind as to replace this piece of piping?" was the request of Mr. H.
Hing held under the auspices of the Young People's Missionary Society. Her remarks

Will Appeal to the Judge.
The final sitting of the London West
Court of Revision was held at the
Temperance Hall last night, the following Duff, Spence, Brodie, Clerk, Minton, As-
following cases were dealt with: Catherine Keenan, against $750 on Wharfedale road, confirmed; W. F. Peters, against $1,500 for ten acres, south Oxford, confirmed; Wm.
Dutton, against $850 on Blackfriars street,
reduced to $775. The C. P. R. wrote, giving notice that they intended to appeal to
the county judge from their assessment as
fixed by the Court of Revision at $6,000
for nine acres. The action of the
last court was confirmed and the
matter allowed to go before the
judge. This concluded the work of the Court of Revision and the business of the Council was then taken up. Collector
Lord made a return of the roll stating that
$2,800 had been collected, leaving a balance of $2,800 uncollected. He was instructed to collect the balance of the unpaid taxes
according to law. The Reeves, Councilors
Brodie and Spence were appointed a com-
for the appointment of a constable for the village. The Clerk was instructed to notify the secretary of the Gun Club to pay their annual license.

Broke His Pipe.
"Would you be so kind as to replace this
piece of piping?" was the request of Mr. H.
Hing held under the auspices of the Young People's Missionary Society. Her remarks
were confined almost exclusively to the
missionary work of India, and were very
interesting, extending over a period of eight years, the information given being derived
by the speaker from personal experiences.
The proceeds of the meeting will be applied
to missionary purposes.

—The names of the candidates writing at
the custom house yesterday, under the
Inspector Boyle, are: Messrs. W. F. Wil-

son, Woodstock; J. C. McDonald, Park-
hill; James Clarke, Millbank; John Agnew, Kincardine; J. W. Biss, London; W. West,
Henry Bernard, J. P. Brinscombe, J.
Chalmers, T. Cochill, Arch. Galbraith, W.
Garrett, T. Glover, W. A. Gray, R. B.
Hewson, J. J. Kincaid, W. J. Loughrey
and W. Thompson, of this city.

ciety, in connection with the Wellington Street Methodist Church, spent a very enjoyable time at the residence of Mr. John Croden, jun., last evening. A good programme added much to the general pleasure. Those taking part were: Instrumental, Misses Martin, Alice Croden (violin), Potts, vocal, Misses Raymond and Minnie Croden, and Messrs. Fleming,
Jones and John Croden; recitations, Miss Alice Allen and Mr. Wyatt.

—In the "Y" rooms last evening was
commenced a course of lectures on "Physical Culture." The suggestions offered
were varied and practical, and the necessity of systematic exercise in early life
strongly urged. It had been stated on good
authority that one-seventh of the popula-
almost incompatible with perfect lung
a minimum by proper attention to physical culture. Some appliances for exercise will be exhibited next Tuesday evening.

—Mr. Geo. Buskin, of the Algoma and
Northwest Evangelical and Colportage Mission, is again visiting London in the interests of the work. Since his former visit here last year there have been supplied in
the district about 1,000 Scriptures and Scriptural books in eight languages. Five small Scriptural educational books have been published in five languages. Religious services have been conducted in various parts of the district and religious tracts distributed in various languages. A mission room has also been opened for the workmen on the Saint Ste. Marie Canal. The
missionary thankfully acknowledges $43.12
contributed last year in London in aid of the work and again respectfully renews the
appeal. Communications can be addressed
to him care of Secretary Sayer, Y. M. C. A., this city.

The Call Sustained.
Moderator Savers, of Westminster, presided over the special meeting of the London Presbytery held in the First Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon. The business of the meeting was the consideration of the call extended by the congregations of Dorchester and Crumlin to Rev.
Mr. Cook, a probationer, who has been in Aylmer for about two months. It was decided to sustain the call. The induction
services will be held shortly in the Dorchester church. Rev. Mr. Brown, of Belmont, will preside at the services, and Rev.
Mr. Cameron, of Belmont, and Rev. Mr.
Sawers will address respectively the people and the pastor. The salary promised is $750, together with a free manse and one month's holidays.

Service of Frauds.
Excellent music and a large audience,
the elements essential to the success of a
service of praise, attended the entertainment given in St. Andrew's Church last evening. The church choir was supplied by a number of the leading city
vocalists, and under Mr. Charles E.
Wheeler, as organist and director, it added
not a little to the enjoyment of the evening.
Following the opening number by Mr.
Wheeler came the chorus "Harken Unto Me," solo of which was feelingly
rendered by Mr. F. Soper. Mr. Millour was in excellent voice, and rendered her
numbers very artistically, the first, Ambrose's
"Abide With Me," being considered by many of the best of the genre. In the second, "The Better Land" (Cowan) Mr. Anderson added to his popularity gained by the
excellent rendition of the duet with Miss Mutch and Mr. Soper. Miss Mutch sang
very acceptably in the duet, but nervousness had an unpleasant effect in her solo.
of displaying to a considerable advantage her contralto, while Mr. Belcher acquitted himself very satisfactorily in Rodney's composition.
The following was the programme presented:

Organ Solo—First Sonata (D Minor).....Gullmant.
Solo and Chorus—"Harken Unto Me".....Sullivan.
Soprano Solo—"Abide With Me".....Holden.
Bass Solo—"Thou Art My Rock".....Stainer.
Duet—"Love Divine".....Miss Mutch and Mr. Soper.
Bass Solo—"Thy King".....Rodney.
Alto Solo—"Heavenly Father, Hear Our
Prayer".....Miss Hiscott.
Organ Solo—"Scene Pastorale" (The Storm).....Lott.
Solo and Chorus—"Come Thou Fount".....Parker.
Soprano Solo—"Come Thou Fount".....Millard.
Miss Mutch.
