City of London Election.

C. S. HYMAN

The People's Candidate.

The Political Situation.

West Huron Liberals Nominate M. C. Cameron.

Premier Greenway Gives His Views Regarding the Riding.

Writs Issued for Elections in Vaudreuil and Two Mountains, Que.

CORNWALL, Feb. 6.—Mr. R. R. MacLennan, M. P. for Glengarry, is confined to his bed at the Rossmore House from a relapse of grip. Dr. Bergin, M.P., is attending him.

TWO MORE WRITS ISSUED.

The writ for Two Mountains, Que., was issued Friday; nomination Feb. 13, polling Feb. 20. The writ for Vaudreuil is also issued; nomination Feb. 15, polling Feb. 22.

WEST HURON.

GODERICH, Feb. 5.—At the Reform convention at Dungannon to-day, M. C. Cameron, the ex-member for West Huron, was unanimously nominated to contest the riding at the coming election. The convention was the largest ever held in this section, and the name of Mr. Cameron was enthusiastically received. The political battle promises to be one of the hottest ever held here. Nomination on the 16th and polling on the 23rd inst.

NOTES.

The annual meeting of the Reform Association of South Huron, as constituted for Dominion purposes, will be held in Dixon's Hall, Brucefield, on Saturday, Feb. 13, at 1 o'clock p.m.

Premier Greenway, of Manitoba, now is in Ottawa, and was interviewed about the chances and possibilities in the coming bye-election in West Huron. Mr. Greenway was himself a representative of Huron in the House of Commons during the Mackenzie Administration. He said that in his opinion the Liberals had every reason for regarding the result of the bye-election in West Huron as a foregone conclusion in their favor. Even if Mr. M. C. Cameron did not run he thought that Mr. J. M. Garrow, the local member, could carry the constituency against any Conservative comer.

Mr. Thomas Murray, the recently unseated member for Pontiac, is in Ottawa. He says he does not think he will protest the judgment unseating him, but will probably go to the people and let them record their judgment at the polls.

TWO MARINE DISASTERS.

A Schooner Sunk and Several Men Drowned.

The Schooner Venezuela Goes Ashore on the Jersey Coast.

WOODS HOLE, Mass., Feb. 5. — The steamer City of Savannah, from Boston to Savannah with merchandise and passengers, and the schooner Lucy Jones, Capt. Gross, of and from New York for Bucksport with brimstone, collided near Crossrip lightship last night. The Lucy Jones sunk almost immediately. At the time of the collision one man was asleep in the forecastle and the remainder of the crew were on deck. The man in the forecastle rushed on deck, and climbing into the rigging; he and the captain were saved just as the vessel sank. The mate and two seamen were washed overboard and drowned. The rescued were brought here by the City of Savannah.

The names of the men lost from the schooner Lucy Jones are: Mate Harry West, of Rockland, Me.; Albert Johnson, steward of vessel; Cyrus Thompson, seaman, a native of Nova Scotia. The vessel hailed from Rockland and was valued at $10,000, and her cargo at $6,000. There is no insurance on either.

STEAMER ASHORE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The steamship Venezuela, from Venezuelan ports via Curacoa for New York, is ashore on the Brigantine Shoals near Atlantic City, N. J. The ship had a crew of 45 and eleven passengers on board. Her cargo consists of coffee and hides. The two Brigantine life-saving crews are endeavoring to float her, but have not yet succeeded. It is doubtful whether she can be floated, and if not her passengers will be landed on Brigantine Beach to-night.

$21,000 for Lawyer's Fees.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The tangled litigations over the attempt of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. Stephen in West Forty-sixth street to unite with Holy Trinity Church of Harlem have cost the former church $21,000 in counsel fees. Yesterday it obtained permission from Justice Beach of the Supreme Court to mortgage the property for $36,000. Of this sum $15,000 will go to wipe out another mortgage, and the $21,000 to lawyers, ex-Surrogate Daniel G. Rollins, Booraem, Hamilton & Beckett, and David Bennett King.

HON. ALEX. MACKENZIE.

The Veteran Statesman More Seriously Injured Than at First Supposed.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—Hon. Alex. Mackenzie is very much worse than was at first supposed in consequence of his fall on Tuesday last. Early this morning he became delirious and physicians were sent for. A consultation was held between Drs. Thorburn and Richardson, when it was found that, while no direct injury to his thigh had been sustained from the fall, the shock was too much for his advanced age and had affected the brain. The delirium continued all day.

He was quieter during the evening, and at 10 o'clock it was reported there was every prospect of his passing a quiet night. His brother, Charles Mackenzie, M. P. P. for West Lambton, has been telegraphed for.

Robbing the Farmers.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 5.—Representative Fithian (Ill.) introduced in the House a resolution instructing the Ways and Means Committee to report a bill at an early date placing all kinds of agricultural implements on the free list. A preamble to the resolution recites that it has been established by satisfactory evidence that manufacturers of farm implements in this country are selling their implements abroad and to jobbers for export for a less price than is paid by farmers here. The preamble also recites that "under this system of plundering the farmers of our country" they are compelled to pay more for their implements than the farmers abroad whose products are marketed in competition with the products of our farms, and that the duty upon farm implements is an unjust discrimination against American farmers, and is, therefore, legalized robbery.

THEY ARE NOT INVITED,

And Secretary Blaine Says Negotiations for Reciprocity Are Not To Be Reopened Now.

In regard to the alleged mission of Canadian politicians to Washington, a dispatch says: There seems to be a serious difference of opinion as to the report from Ottawa that the Canadian Ministers are to come to Washington at the request of the United States Government to consider reciprocity. Certainly the President has not invited them, and the Dominion Ministers will soon learn, if they do not know it now, that the President is the Government. A close friend of Secretary Blaine's said to-day that there was absolutely no truth in the report that negotiations on this subject are to be resumed in about a fortnight. He added: "The situation has not changed essentially since the President and Mr. Blaine postponed their conference with Sir Charles Tupper and the other British envoys. Secretary Blaine has never been convinced that the Conservative Cabinet, now headed by Premier Abbott, was sincere in desiring to secure reciprocal trade relations. He has therefore, as his friends express it, refused to assist the Conservative Cabinet in deceiving the Canadian people by encouraging the pretense of negotiations which could not be fruitful. If another proposition should be made by the British Minister upon the subject the reply would be polite, but would virtually amount to a refusal to treat further under existing conditions. Secretary Blaine would be more ready to welcome a proposition coming from the Liberal party if it were in power in Canada, because he has always the assurances of their leaders that they favored a broad and generous policy of reciprocal trade relations."

Farmer Shall, of Coffee county, on learning last Tuesday that cotton was still declining, set his crop on fire and then committed suicide by jumping over a bluff. John Williams, a farmer of Limestone county, took his seed cotton to Athens to sell, but because the price offered was too low, he dumped it into the river.

His Services Were Remembered.

CLINTON, Feb. 5.—James Turnbull, who now resides in Toronto, was requested to visit this town a vew days ago and was publicly presented with a beautiful silver service by the officers and members of Willis Presbyterian Church, with which he had long been connected. Mr. Turnbull had been principal of the Collegiate Institute here since 1868 and resigned on Jan. 1. The Collegiate Board also called upon him with a finely engrossed address.

Afraid to Trust the Banks.

CLINTON, Conn., Feb. 6.—A short time ago there died in the Horse Hill district of Westbrook a man about 70 years of age known as Bill Deane. Horse Hill consists of a few houses and deserted farms. Deane was a bachelor, and was believed to have sold liquor on the sly. After his death his friends, in looking over the house, came across money stowed away to the amount of nearly $10,000. It was found in closets, over beams and rafters in the garret, and under loose boards in the floor. One hundred dollars in bills were found that had been chewed by a young dog. When his affairs were investigated it was found that his estate would amount to fully $16,000. There are several heirs.

F. B. Sargent, of Terre Haute, Ind., Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

The recent meeting in New York of a grand convention of 2,000 delegates, representing the Order of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and the Order of Railway Telegraphers, has attracted much attention throughout the country. This was due to the fact that one of the purposes of the meeting was to discuss plans for the formation of a grand amalgamated organization of all the separate bodies represented at the convention. The principal champion and advocate of this idea is Grand Master F. B. Sargent, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, whose home is at Terre Haue, Ind. There is an increasing probability that the movement thus inaugurated will culminate in the extension of the union idea through the establishment of a central and consolidated organization embracing all the railway employes in the United States.

Shaping the Speech

The British Cabinet Spend Three Hours at the Job.

A Summary of the Document's Portentious Utterances.

Dreary Outlook for the Tory Tail, Alias the Dissidents.

Harcourt Scores Salisbury—The Queen in Poor Health—Imperial Match-Making.

McCarthy Re-Elected.

DUBLIN, Feb. 5.—At a meeting to-day of the McCarthyite section of the Irish Parliamentary party Justin McCarthy was re-elected president.

Disastrous Gale.

MADRID, Feb. 5.—A violent gale raged to-day at Bilbao, causing much damage to small shipping. A boat was capsized in the harbor and three sailors drowned.

Professional Poisoners.

BUDA-PESTH, Feb. 5.—A judicial inquiry recently held at Newsazat, Hungary, has resulted in the indictment of three men named Pioniski, Kurjakov and Kernacz for the murder of ten peasants. It is charged that the crimes were instigated by the wives of the victims. The inquiry showed the existence of a class of professional poisoners living in villiages in Southern Hungary.

Death of a Noted Scholar.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Rev. George Phillips, D.D., president of Queen's College, Cambridge, and ex-vice-chancellor of the university, died to-day. He was born in 1804. He was the author of a number of works, including "A Syriac Grammar," a brief treatise on "The Use of a Case of Instruments," and "A Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the Psalms." He edited and translated several works from the Syriac and contributed a number of articles to different periodicals.

Taking Salisbury's Measure.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt spoke to-day at Southampton. In the course of his address he took occasion to denounce Lord Salisbury's "unjust references to the Catholic Irish" in his speech at Exeter on Tuesday last. He pronounced the Premier's remarks under that head as "disgraceful, and worthy a violent, drunken Orangeman," adding "that such an appeal to the wicked passion of national hatred was not only shameful but mischievous on the part of statesmen in Lord Salisbury's position." Sir William declared that if the Premier had indulged in such remarks with regard to Canada or Australia those dependencies of the empire would not remain 24 hours in allegiance to the Queen unless British claims on their fealty were supported by cannon and bayonet.

Shaping "the Speech."

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Cabinet sat for nearly three hours yesterday shaping the speech from the throne with which Parliament will be opened on Tuesday. The unusual length of time spent over the document is attributed to a difference of opinion as to whether any reference should be made to the coming session as bringing the present Parliament toward the close of its career. It was finally determined that nothing should be said on that subject. The speech opens with a reference to the sympathy of the nation for the royal family over its recent bereavement; alludes to the death of the Khedive as not altering British relations with Egypt; refers to the continued prosperity of the country, and says there is no reason to fear that England will be ultimately affected by foreign tariff legislation, and congratulates the country upon the prospect of an early settlement of the Bering Sea dispute and upon the pacific aspect of foreign affairs generally. The speech mentions the Irish local government and education bills as adding completeness to a series of measures for securing order in and the welfare of Ireland. Other measures announced are a small holdings bill, a district councils bill and bills to reform the India council and Scottish private legislation. This last measure has importance beyond its application to Scotland as affirming and extending the principle of local government. It proposes to remove Scotch private bills from the consideration of the House of Commons committees to judicial committees sitting in certain districts in Scotland. The Archbishop of Canterbury has a clergy discipline bill which the Government will support. This constitutes the business of the session.

The leaders of the Opposition do not intend to move any amendment to the address. Mr. Gladstone will not appear in the House of Commons in the first week of the session. He has delegated to Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt the task of questioning the Government of its intentions in regard to the dissolution of Parliament. If the reply is indefinite, Mr. Gladstone will make the question the subject of a great party fight.

A meeting of Dissidents will be held at Devonshire House on Monday, at which Mr. Chamberlain will be formally accepted as leader in the House of Commons. In the evening the Duke of Devonshire will give a dinner to a few adherents.

A Dreary Outlook for Dissidents.

No political section in the whole country is in a more dismal condition than are the Dissidents. The prospect of their extinction in the coming elections is increasing. The local Conservatives of Worcestershire (now represented by Dissidents) have declared for purely Conservative candidates, rejecting the claims of Austin Chamberlain. The Conservatives in other constituencies are showing fight against Dissidents nominated by the party managers.

The Irish Party.

Messrs. Sexton, Dillon, O'Brien, T. M. Healy, Sheehy, Abraham, Arthur and T. P. O'Connor were to-day elected a committee to advise Mr. McCarthy. Yesterday evening a report which was accepted as probable gave to Mr. Sexton the right of succession to the chairmanship of the Irish party.

The Queen in Poor Health.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Queen is suffering from a more acute form of rheumatism than usual, especially in her knees. She is subject to long spells of depression, varied by attacks of irritability. Her physicians, however, deny that there is any cause of alarm.

Imperial Match-Making.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—Ex-Empress Frederick will come to Windsor Castle in the spring with Princess Margaret, when it is expected the latter's marriage with Prince George will be settled. Princess Margaret has the reputation at court of being the most English of the ex-Empress' daughters.

Viscount Chelson, son of Earl Cadogan, who was suitor for the hand of Princess Maud of Wales, has become engaged to Mildred, daughter of Lord Arlington. This marriage will unite the families of the two greatest ground landlords in London.

TO TEACH KINDNESS.

The Humane Society Propose to Have Bands of Mercy in the Schools.

Changes in the Teaching Staff—Extra Pupils at Lorne Avenue School To Be Provided For.

The Finance Committee of the new Board of Education held their first meeting last evening. They have evidently made good resolutions for the new year, as there was a quorum present earlier than usual. Chairman Allaster and Messrs. Dr. Wilson, Jeffery, Dr. J. B. Campbell, R. J. Blackwell, Dewar and Stephenson, Inspector Carson, Principal Merchant and Secretary Abbott were prsent.

An account for plumbing done by James Greenway, amounting to $49 15, caused the committee to decide to order the janitor to be a little more careful. Mr. Merchant explained that the work done at the Collegiate Institute was caused by the pipes bursting during the Christmas holidays. An account of $74 72, from H. Boyd, for stoves, etc., was referred back to the Board for explanation.

Messrs. F. W. Matthews, D. S. Perrin and Talbot Macbeth, a deputation from the Humane Society, asked that they be allowed to organize bands of mercy in the schools. They proposed that a copy of a book called "The Aims and Objects of the Toronto Humane Society" be placed in the hands of each teacher. The work would not occupy more than a half hour each week. The teachers would be instructed first, and they would endeavor to have as many pupils as possible sign the accompanying pledge. The inspector explained that half an hour was just one-fiftieth of the time spent by pupils and teachers during the week. Some time was usually spent Friday afternoons reading stories to the pupils, and that time could be devoted in teaching the children to be humane.

James M. Waters' name was placed on the list of substitute teachers. Miss Jennie McNeill's application to be added to the list of assistant kindergarten teachers was referred to the inspector.

Miss Charlotte A. Cannell applied for an increase in salary as first assistant at Simcoe street school. She is at present receiving $400 a year, and others doing the same work, she claimed, are being paid $450, which amount the inspector thought each teacher in her position should receive. Action deferred.

A circular was read from the Guelph Board of Education, asking the Board to co-operate on having the minimum age of pupils raised from 5 to 6 years. Filed.

Mrs. M. J. Gahan applied for the appointment of assistant examiner of the entrance examination papers. Action deferred.

Inspector Carson's report (previously published) was read. It was decided to instruct No. 2 Committee to procure a room for the accommodation of extra pupils at Lorne avenue school.

As a result of Inspector Carson's recommendations, Miss Dennis was transferred to Queen's avenue school, and Misses Grant and McNeil were sent to Talbot street school.

Mr. Jeffery moved that this committee draw the attention of each member of the Board to the fact that any expenditure of school moneys must be reported to the Board at its first meeting and that there should be regular forms provided for the Board. Carried.

Inspector Carson submitted a statement of the amount of supplies required for each school during 1892. The total amount needed was: Crayons, 100 boxes; ink, 264 quarts; pens, Falcon, 58 boxes; pens, No. 292, 180 boxes; pens, No. 303, 15 boxes; paper, 100 reams. Messrs. Carson, Allaster and Blackwell were appointed a committee to call for tenders for the supplies.

THE VILLAGE EDUCATIONALISTS.

Meeting of the London West School Board—Vote of Thanks and Sympathy Tendered Mr. Pudney—The School Attendance.

The regular business meeting of the London West School Board was held last night. Members present: R. A. Jones (chairman), Messrs. Murdock, Leigh and Davidson, and Head Master Liddicoatt. In the absence of Setretary W. L. Brown, Mr. Liddicoatt kept the minutes. Accounts were presented from: Wm. Spence, furnace, $114; J. R. Gurd, coal, $125 50; Jas. I. Anderson & Co., stationery, $5 30; Jas. Campbell, coal, $18 87; F. Bartlett, 75 cents; Wm. Pryce, $2 99; J. R. Gurd, $4 11; Miss Fleming, $4. On motion of Messrs. Davidson and Leigh all were ordered to be paid but the first three—these were referred to the Finance Committee for verification.

The head master's report was read showing an enrollment of 344 pupils, with a daily average of 268 for January. This was adopted as read, on motion of Messrs. Murdock and Davidson. The Board decided to procure some new maps for the school, and Mr. Murdock moved with Mr. Davidson as seconder, that the secretary get prices of those required. Carried. They also moved that new blinds and a new desk be got at once for Miss Platt's room, and two thermometers for the use of the school. Carried.

The head master asked a question in regard to the remission of certain non-resident fees, but a motion was passed, with Messrs. Murdock and Davidson as movers, that the fees were to be collected in advance each month according to the school law if the school was open.

Messrs. Davidson and Murdock moved that the London West Council be asked through the secretary of the Board to lay a sidewalk along the school property on William street, from Ann street, with suitable approaches. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Davidson, seconded by Mr. Leigh, that the Management Committee lay a sidewalk from the door of the school house to the gate on the east side, and that they procure the lumber necessary for the same at once. Carried.

The chairman here vacated the chair, which was then taken by Mr. Davidson. Mr. Jones moved, Mr. Leigh seconded, and the Board adopted unanimously the following resolution: That a vote of thanks to Mr. E. Pudney, chairman during 1891, for his efficient services in that position be passed, and a note expressive of their sympathy with him in his present illness be sent him by the secretary of the Board. The Board adjourned at 9:45 p.m.

THE LONDON SHOEMAKERS.

Condition of the Business Under Trade Restriction.

A Workman Supplies a Few Timely Facts on the Situation.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

In reply to a letter in the Free Press of Feb. 4, on boots and shoes, the writer seems to know more about wages paid than shoemakers themselves and how the business is when he says we make from $10 to $15 a week. Now, I say there is not a half dozen shoemakers in the city making those wages and the majority of them don't average $7 a week the year round. Talking about the bill of wages paid in London this smart genius knows nothing at all about it. He says there are three wholesale shoe factories in the city. Now, I say there are only two; one is Sterling Bros., and the other is Stevens, Clarke & Stevens. The first named factory manufacture nothing but pegged and rivet work. All the other lines they buy from other places, and the other factory (Stevens & Clarke) manufacture all the work they sell. The Rochester wages are not paid in this city, only on hands and turns. I will give you a few names of the London shoemakers that have gone to the United States to work and have all got a good job: H. Hunter M. Kelley, T. O'Connor, J. O'Connor and C. O'Connor, F. Friendship, James Friendship, F. Morrison, C. Colby, J. Pudney, F. Sullivan, J. Hamilton, James Hilton, James Harris, W. McCormack, N. Lachapelle. All these are shoemakers who have gone to Detroit, Chicago and other places, and are earning from $18 to $25 a week. This is no election letter, but the straight facts, which any shoemaker can tell you.

A SHOEMAKER.

RIOT IN A PRISON.

The Trouble Was Caused by the Overcrowding of the Institution.

BOSTON, Feb. 5.—"Send us 50 policemen, quick." Such was the telephone message received from Deer Island by Superintendent Eldredge, of the Boston police department, Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock. Before 8 o'clock half a hundred policemen were on their way to the reformatory down the bay, where the biggest riot ever seen there was in progress. Three hundred prisoners had overcome the guard and took possession of the reformatory and were recklessly destroying property when the police arrived.

The trouble began the night before, when one of the officials named Morrill tried to put a prisoner in the guard house. There was a concerted rush with the intention of rescuing the prisoner. Morrill drew his revolver and shouted, "Stand back, or I'll blow your brains out!" Other officers came running up, and then the prisoners discreetly dispersed and went to their dormitories, where they passed the night in smoking, singing, shouting and dancing. All night the men had their clubs with them, and the officers failed to interfere.

Next morning after breakfast the prisoners rushed into the yard 300 strong. They broke into the store sheds and seized pick-axes, chisels, hammers and iron drills, all of which they threw into the harbor. They then attacked the guard house and nearly demolished it, and were breaking windows when the Boston police arrived.

All but about 200 went quickly to their cells. The others massed themselves to resist the police, and with their pick-axes, crowbars and ice picks made a formidable appearance. The police charged upon them with clubs drawn, and for fifteen minutes there was a red hot scrimmage in which nearly two score of men, all prisoners, has their heads laid open and were taken to the hospital for repairs. Half a dozen policemen were somewhat bruised, but none were seriously hurt.

After the men had been overpowered in the big hall and were being placed in their cells they again resisted and renewed the attack upon the officers. The outbreak, however, was quickly quelled.

"A VERITABLE LIFE PRESERVER: I would not be without it for any money"—Rev. Miles Grant. We have published hundreds of letters to like effect; sold thousands; do not know of one dissatisfied purchaser. No other system has effected such positive cures of Consumption, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Catarrh, Kidney Diseases, Headache, Nervous Prostration and general and nervous debility, and certainly it has no equal in preventing or cutting short an attack of Typhoid or other fevers, breaking up La Grippe, or ridding the system of its baneful effects; mitigating the severity of all acute and exhausting diseases, and vicious practices—such as sexual abuse. Simple and easy of application without previous training or skill, and does not interfere with either work or diet. We refer to the Wilford Hall "New Process"—as unfolded in our "Microcosmic Health Pamphlet." Dr. Hall still charges $4 for it, and certainly cheap to any family at $5, but we want to put the system within the reach of all, and will therefore continue our half-price offer through February, and will mail the enlarged edition of the Health Pamphlet to any address on receipt of $2, and will refund the money if not satisfactory after one month's trial, purchaser agreeing never again to use the treatment. Remember, the expense of any other system—especially drug treatment—has to be repeated, generally until the purse gives out or the patient dies, whereas the trifle of $2 paid for the "New Process" has never to be repeated, and completely does away with the need or use of any other medicine whatever. Eight-page paper, history, testimonials, etc., free. Save $2 by remitting to-day and register your letter at our risk. Address, THE SIMPSON PUBLISHING COMPANY, TORONTO. 68-bu-eod

Is the reason always given to induce people to buy patent medicines.

People are becoming too enlightened now to be satisfied with this reasoning.

What is the cause of every disease? Inflammation.

What produces inflammation? An excess of acid in the system. If the blood does not circulate properly it ferments, producing an acid. If food taken into the stomach does not digest, it ferments, producing and acid.

The above facts are proven by chemical tests. Brunton's Curative Fluid (internal) and Curative Absorbent (external) are combinations of potasses. They neutralize the acid, thereby removing the inflammation, and the disease ceases.

Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, la Grippe, Rheumatism, Eczema, Sores, Skin Diseases, fly like chaff before the wind if the sufferer uses Curative Fluid and Curative Absorbent.

All druggists keep it.

Thos. Simons, alias Pascoe, alias Harris, was arrested at St. Thomas Wednesday on the charge of forgery and defrauding insurance companies, on a warrant issued by Judge Hughes. Simons was arrested through the instrumentality of Dr. Day.

Archibald McGlashan, a native of Scotland, residing in Yarmouth for 56 years, died Wednesday of la grippe, aged 84 years. He leaves a son and two daughters.

ESSEX.

A bay horse 4 years old, top buggy and set of new harness with heavy bridle, were stolen from D. McMillan's, West Lorne, Tuesday night.

LAMBTON.

The East Lambton license commissioners for 1892 are Thomas Kerfoot and Robert McLeary, of Watford, and H. S. Pettypiece, of Forest.

Engineer Hillman, of the G. T. R., was in Alvinston during the past week inspecting the site for the bridge over the Sydenham, and in answer to an inquiry said that the work of building the bridge would be commenced at once.

Cornelius A. Terry, the man with five wives, has been convicted of bigamy in the Circuit Court at Port Huron. The wives were present, including the Sarnia one. Some wept, some laughed, but the prisoner nearly fainted.

James Stewart, of Sarnia, recently engaged at the Grand Trunk shops at Fort Gratiot, was badly injured on Wednesday by becoming entangled in the belting. His left arm was broken and his head very severely bruised and cut.

E. Menzie & Co. have made an offer to the Point Edward Council that, providing the municipality bonuses the company to the extent of $5,000, they will construct and operate salt works in the village of sufficient capacity to give employment to 35 employes. They agree to have the works running within a year.

At a meeting of the creditors of the Joseph Lowrie estate at Sarnia a statement of the present condition of the estate was submitted by the trustees. An interim dividend of $25 cents on the dollar was declared, and a resolution passed by the meeting approving of the course taken by the trustees, and further empowering them to continue the winding-up of the business and also to deal with the real estate.

NORFOLK.

John Charlton's recent sale at Lyndock was quite a success; although the day was very cold a large crowd gathered and things went off very well. The proceeds amounted to about $2,500.

OXFORD.

The shipment of 10,000 bushels of barley from Princeton is making things lively there.

The difficulty with the Presbyterian Church, Chesterfield, has only begun, and there is no telling where it will end. There are about 240 church members, and a sweeping majority of these signed a call to a Rev. Mr. Elliott. Those who signed the call, and a petition afterwards, represent three-fourths of the number and of the wealth of the congregation. The minority have so conducted themselves that they have disgusted Mr. Elliott, who now says that he will have nothing to do with Chesterfield Church.

Thomas Workman, of Dakota, U. S., accompanied by his wife, is in Plattsville visiting friends. He is a prosperous farmer of that State. He threshed 10,000 bushels of wheat, 2,000 of oats and 1,000 of barley last season.

DOWN BY THE LAKE.

Bonanza in Port Stanley for the Harbor Commissioner Only.

Appropriation Made for Repairs, But No Tenders for the Work Called For—Brilliant Address by George C. Gibbons—A Startling Announcement by Hon. David Mills.

It's the same old story down at Port Stanley. To influence the coming election in East Elgin, the volunteer camp was taken to St. Thomas last summer, and an appropriation to improve the Port Stanley harbor has since been made by the Government, and to aid a good Tory contractor, the work of expending the money granted has been placed in his hands without tender. Captain John Ellison is in luck, and can afford to allow a nice little margin of his receipts to apply towards paying the expenses of the contest in East Elgin. It is a game that is very easily worked by those who have experience enough to know how to engineer it. Capt. Ellison's instructions are to continue the work until the money has been expended, and his opinion is that after repairing about 200 feet of the present superstructure there may be enough money left to plank the west pier and repair the east one. A well-known Conservative grain buyer says the expenditure will be made mainly in the interest of the contractor, whose boat will be tied up at that part of the pier that is under repair. The interests of individual friends of the Government, and of needy candidates such as is Mr. Ingram, are considered of greater importance than the welfare of the public.

The combat is waxing warm, but Dr. Wilson is making a plucky fight and is everywhere receiving great encouragement. At an immense gathering in St. Thomas on Thursday evening the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and the Journal publishes a report of an eloquent address on the trade question delivered by George C. Gibbons, Q.C., of this city, round after round of applause testifying to the appreciation of his argumentative dissertation.

Following Mr. Gibbons' eloquent peroration came the Hon. David Mills with an electrifying announcement. "It matters not," said Mr. Mills, "how this bye-election goes, as far as the Government is concerned, or if one hundred bye-elections go against us. The Government will be hurled from power within one month after the assembling of Parliament. Iniquitous as was the Pacific Scandal it falls into insignificance when compared with the iniquitousness of Ministers of the Crown in the present Government. They are prosecuting McGreevy and Connolly when it is the Ministers themselves who should be prosecuted—be behind prison bars. I have seen a bond signed by several Ministers showing that in 1878 $478,000 was given by one institution to the Government to be used in election purposes. They have been guilty of the most outrageous means to secure their election. It is a monstrous conspiracy against the good government of this country, against the well being of the people of this country. Had they properly conducted the affairs of this country the population would have been 6,000,000 instead of 4,500,000. They have driven our citizens across the border. I can give you but a faint impression of the means employed to defraud and demoralize the public sentiment of this country. Our position is a perilous one. The public mind has been debauched. I have seen sufficient evidence to convince me that not a Minister in Quebec, since Confederation, had spent $1 on his election, but had drawn large sums from the public funds. The election of one Minister cost $30,000. It is all well enough for them to make war on Mercier, but we shall not be turned from the track of prosecuting the men who are responsible to us. Let the dead bury its dead. Let Quebec take care of Quebec. Let the people of this country demand purity of government and honesty in the conduct of the public affairs of this country. It is important that we have free trade, but it is far more important that we have men to conduct the affairs of this country who will not bring shame and disgrace upon it in every civilized country in Christendom." Mr. Mills took his seat amidst rounds of applause.

FREE PRESS ON MR. CARLING.

On 26th January the London Free Press told this story to illustrate the anxiety of Mr. Hyman's friends to have Mr. Carling run. Said our contemporary:

AT A GRIT CAUCUS.

A Grit spy bounds breathless into the room. On his ashen face is a look of despair. "Mr. Carling ain't going to run," he gasps.

Consternation fills the room and the people in it.

"We'll keep up a bold front outside, boys, anyhow."

"Easier said than done," growls another inmate of the little room.

This was the Free Press' view of it then, when it is thought Mr. Carling had been successfully frozen out by the efforts of Mr. Hyman's fearful opponents. It makes the position of the paper laughable now. "Oh, these sharp curves," sighs the unhappy editor.

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower have cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

ANOTHER MINISTER DIRECTLY IMPLICATED.

The statement made by our Toronto correspondent, in his dispatch on Friday afternoon, is borne out by the Globe of this morning. It has two full pages of a statement by "The director of one of the leading monetary institutions of this country," which, with accompanying documents, show that another member of the present Administration received large sums of money to aid in debauching the electorate in Dominion elections. The name of the Minister is Sir Adolphe Caron, who has just been appointed Postmaster-General, and the photographic fac-similes of his receipts for the money obtained from Thomas McGreevy are given, putting beyond any possibility of doubt the genuineness of the documents.

It is alleged that all the money and more paid out to the constituencies was obtained by grant from the public treasury, over $110,000 having been disbursed in the 28 constituencies looked after by Sir Hector Langevin and Sir Adolphe Caron. Thus the whole of the leaders of the trade restrictionist party profited by this expenditure, for but for it Sir Adolphe Caron, Mr. Carling and their associates would have been driven from office long ere now.

Further revelations are promised, as the documents are arranged. But enough has been laid bare to warrant the people in a demand that Sir Adolphe Caron shall be placed side by side in the dock with those who connived at the robbery of the Dominion treasury, and who acted as the disbursers of the funds for the benefit of Sir Adolphe and the other recipients.

Further, the independent members of Parliament—Mr. Hyman must be one of them, for he did yeoman service in the interests of the public last session—must demand that the scandalous wrongdoing shall be further investigated by Parliament, and that the whole of the evidence now brought forth, or that may be yet obtainable, shall be laid bare. Till that is done any prosecution of the intermediaries must be regarded as of small account.

BE FAIR TO ALL PARTIES.

Every time that the members of the combines and their dependants meet in solemn conclave, they pass resolutions in favor of trade restriction, and talk as if the country would go to the dogs if the taxes were not kept high for their special benefit. But when a company of farmers assemble, as did the Central Farmers' Institute the other day, and discuss the great trade question, and the influence of high taxation on imports on their industry—the great staple industry of the Dominion—they are promptly pounced upon by the newspaper apologists for the combines, and told that they are traitors to their class and to their country. Surely, there should be fairness on both sides. If the trade question must be ignored by the farmer gatherings, why should it not be prohibited at the meeting of men engaged in cotton spinning, oil refining, or rubber manufacture?

EAST MIDDLESEX ELECTION.

On Thursday next, the election to fill the vacancy caused by the unseating of Mr. Marshall takes place in East Middlesex. There are but two candidates: Mr. Marshall, who supports the combines, and Mr. Taylor, an independent candidate, who is in favor of the greatest possible freedom of trade and the combatting of the combines by every means possible.

Many Liberals would have preferred the nomination of an out-and-out member of their party to oppose Mr. Marshall, and there seems no reason to doubt that if such a one had come forward, and both candidates had remained in the field, he would have been elected. But no one was disposed to take that stand, and the two contestants of last March are left to fight it out.

The great question in this contest is the trade issue, and it is in regard to it that the two candidates differ most. Mr. Marshall still sticks to the side at Ottawa which is tied to the combines. Mr. Taylor pledges himself to vote for the reduction of duties on all necessaries of life. As between the two platforms, we can see no reason why any intelligent voter in the riding should support that of Mr. Marshall. We trust that every elector will go to the polls and record his vote. It is a bread-and-butter question. No one can afford to remain unheard. Let the full vote come out.

THE NECESSITY OF THE HOUR.

There is no one better capable to judge of the condition of the farmers of this country than the farmers themselves. They know whether their bank accounts are growing or not, whether their mortgages are being paid off or not, whether store accounts and other floating debts are burdening them or not. How they feel was very clearly shown by the discussion which took place at the meeting of the Central Farmers' Institute at Toronto the other day. An officer of the Dominion Government was present to address them on the subject of markets, and it was natural enough that he should advise them to cultivate the British markets, seeing that the Government whose servant he is will take no steps to get for them a better one at their own doors—nay, has taken a course to close that market against them by a challenge to higher "protection."

No greater folly could have been committed by the Government of a country situated as Canada is than to provoke retaliation, as was done in the case of Mr. Foster's tariff of 1890. The gauntlet he cast down was promptly taken up by Mr. McKinley, and as a consequence we have a tariff which taxes Canadian beans going into the United States 40 cents per bushel, Canadian barley 30 cents per bushel, and Canadian horses of the poorest sort $50 per head, with other products and animals in proportion. The farmers of Ontario know what this means to them better than any officer in the service of Mr. Carling can instruct them; and they know very well, moreover, that there is no prospect of their finding a market for barley, beans or horses in Great Britain. At the same time they recognize how helpless they are as long as the Government of Canada will obstinately refuse to make terms for a trade treaty with the United States, and circumstances impel them to advocate the policy best suited to themselves. They have no faith in the National Policy; that much is quite clear, for by a vote of nearly four to one they have declared unqualifiedly for free trade. In this matter they are studying their own interests, and we do not doubt that had they the settlement of the question in their own hands free trade would soon be the policy of Canada. Possibly some combine interests might suffer for a time if we had free trade with the world, for the conditions which favor the production of manufactures are not the same everywhere. The lower cost of labor in Great Britain would give that country an advantage over us at the outset, and that is one reason why free trade with the United States is to be preferred. The conditions are so nearly similar in the United States and Canada that whatever disturbance might follow the removal of trade barriers must of necessity be of brief duration; an equilibrium would be speedily established.

In the long run, no doubt, free trade with the world would prove to be the better policy for all classes. The same results which it has worked out in Great Britain it would work out here also, but we should prefer to try it tentatively. Free trade with the United States would enable us to take the larger step without risk of a crisis. And so for the present at least we prefer that measure. But the Government at Ottawa may depend that the farmers will not much longer endure to be harrassed by the restrictions imposed by the N. P. The day of their deliverance is not far off when we see such unanimity of opinion as was exhibited at the Central Farmers' Institute. And there is this to be said also, that whatever measure benefits in the largest degree the farmers of the country will be the best for all classes.

The prosperity of London depends very closely upon the prosperity of the farmers in the counties whose trade is tributary to the city. Twelve years of restriction have wrought a vast deal of mischief to the industries of city and country, as the records of business failures and of the Government census clearly attest. Let any one compare the progress of the county of Middlesex in the decades 1871-81 and 1881-91 as revealed by the census, and he needs no better evidence to persuade him of how far short of its promises the National Policy has come in our own home—the center of the most favored portion of Canada.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

THE Ingersoll Chronicle says Mr. Hyman "is a young man and possessed of abilities that will do credit to the Forest City."

FREER trade relations with the United States are coming on with the resistlessness of Fate. The march of destiny cannot be impeded by one Cabinet Minister nor by ten, by one bye-election nor by a dozen.

ONLY seventeen days to the meeting of Parliament. The apparent intention is to prevent London from being represented when the House of Commons reassembles. The people can draw their own conclusions.

REV. ALEX. WEBSTER, of Edinburgh, gives a curious statement of how the word "Rev." came to be applied to clergymen. He affirms that "reverend" was first affixed to the names of judges, but that after the establishment of a State Church in Britain the preachers took the title away from the lawyers!

The Sherbrooke Gazette (Conservative) considers that it would be recreant to principle did it not express its disgust that men, "some of whom should be justly held responsible, to a certain extent, for the proved corruption at Ottawa, are still retained in power. A Minister of the Crown, like Cæsar's wife, should be above suspicion." The latest revelations give force to this contention.

IT would be rather interesting to know whether certain things often made much of in elections really change any person's vote. When one sees a great deal of attention paid to some alleged hasty street remark, or when a series of interviews is founded on the loan of a few benches, one wonders whether these intellectual efforts pay for themselves in votes. If they do, the inference is not particularly complimentary to persons who can be so influenced. If they do not, the inference is not particularly complimentary to those who spend their campaign strength in such a fashion.

ONE of the most interesting annuals is the "Presbyterian Year Book for the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland, for 1892," edited by Rev. George Simpson, well and favorably known to many ADVERTISER readers, and published by the Presbyterian Printing and Publishing Company, Toronto. This is the seventeenth year of publication, yet the editor finds plenty of interesting material to give his readers. There is a sketch and picture of Dr. Wardrope, the genial moderator for the year, and many interesting contributions on church affairs by prominent Presbyterians. A novelty is introduced in the fac-simile of an autograph letter from Rev. Dr. Chalmers, the famous leader in the Free Church movement. The roll of Synods and Presbyteries and the alphabetical list of ministers shows the great expansion which the Presbyterian Church has undergone. It now has eleven Presbyteries in the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, one in the Island of Trinidad, 34 in Ontario and Quebec, seven in the Northwest and British Columbia, one in India, and one in China. The Year Book should be regarded as a necessity in every Presbyterian household.

WHAT IT MEANS.

[Ottawa Journal.]

Lincoln is a sweet morsel for the Liberals. It will be rolled over lusciously by them. Undoubtedly it means that the free trade feeling is stronger than ever along the border.

LOST TO THE EMPIRE.

The London Times, in commenting upon the results of the Canadian census in the Maritime Provinces, finds itself impelled to say that the extent to which the people lost by those Provinces have also been lost by the British Empire is a "burning question."

THE SAME OLD FARCE.

[Hamilton Times.]

Mr. John Carling has finally consented to accept the nomination for London. He will now go through the farce of resigning his seat in the Senate. After Mr Hyman beats him as he did before, Mr. Carling will resume his seat in the Senate.

SOON FOUND OUT.

[Montreal Witness.]

Some light has been shed upon the character of one of the Ministers since last session. Sir John Thompson has become the champion of Mr. Haggart and the paymaster of the Connollys at election times. Sir John posed last session as the adamantine purifier of his party. He has turned out to be a mere poseur.

DOUBLED IN PRICE.

[Hamilton Times.]

If consumers could only be made to realize the extent to which they are plundered of their honest earnings by their paternal Government, they would vote for the party whose policy it is to cheapen the necessaries of life as well as the innocent luxuries. Mr. Charles Schmidt, of this city, the other day imported some mustard which cost him $5. The package cost 75 cents. The duty and entry cost $6 80—or 118 per cent. on the cost of the goods and package. Mustard is not the only commodity doubled in price in order that there shall be plenty of funds at Ottawa for the Connollys and the McGreevys.

THE LAST CITY ELECTION.

Testimony as to the Manner in Which Mr. Hyman's Friends Conducted It.

A good many innuendoes and false statements have been circulated by Mr. Carling's friends with regard to the manner in which the last Dominion election was fought. But it is a noticeable fact that those upon whom the allegations are fathered are generally anonymous scribblers, who have not the manliness to come out into the open. When names are mentioned we all know how speedily the slanders are met and disposed of. There were the unfounded charges made in the election bill of particulars. In that list were placed the names of almost every leading citizen known to be favorable to a greater measure of trade freedom than we now enjoy. The list was printed, and a number of those libeled at once took action against the Free Press, which had to publish a confession and apology, in which it said:

"The trial, at which the petitioners had an opportunity of proving, is now over, and during its progress it has not been shown that the gentlemen named were guilty of the charges mentioned in the particulars printed by the Free Press.

"It is, therefore, only fair to the gentlemen named to say that they are free from all personal corrupt practices.

"The Free Press is glad to be able to entirely exonerate them from complicity in the alleged wrongdoing, as it is satisfied that an error was made in placing these charges in the particulars."

Many other citizens were traduced in the same "bill of particulars," as the Free Press characteristically calls it, by "an error." Even ministers of the Gospel were charged with participating in bribery. It is needless to say that there was no truth in the indictment, but the fact that such methods were resorted to is but a proof of the desperation of the petitioners.

If further testimony of the fairness with which Mr. Hyman's responsible supporters conducted the election were needed, it would be found in the declaration of the Toronto Telegram, an independent Conservative newspaper, which, after reviewing the evidence, remarked that the London contest "was fought as fairly as such contests ever are." The same Conservative paper further added:

"Canada would be better off if there were no graver impurities in its politics than those revealed at the London election trial."

"JACK THE LOVEMAKER."

Universal Proposals Cause Excitement Among Cranberry Citizens.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Feb. 5.—The village of Cranberry, this country, is in an uproar over the actions of a letter-writer who has addressed endearing epistles to nearly every marriageable girl in the place. So obnoxious has the writer become that Postmaster McDowell was appealed to.

He traced 48 letters from the letter fiend to as many residents of the village. The letters were all similar in language, being brief and to this effect:

"My dear miss, I am seeking a partner in life. Are you available? Answer to Jack the Lovemaker."

Miss Jennie Martin, who had received three letters of this character, sought out Constable Silvers and employed him to watch the postoffice. Silvers thought he had located the letter-writer, and chased a farmer's son across a ten-acre field before he discovered his mistake. In the evening mail Silvers was warned to absent himself from the postoffice in the following terse but threatening letter:

"Keep off my preserves or you are a dead man. JACK THE KISSER."

Beware of carelessness; no fortune will stand it long. You are on the high road to ruin the moment you think yourself rich enough to be careless.

ANOTHER MINISTER DIRECTLY IMPLICATED.

The statement made by our Toronto correspondent, in his dispatch on Friday afternoon, is borne out by the Globe of this morning. It has two full pages of a statement by "The director of one of the leading monetary institutions of this country," which, with accompanying documents, show that another member of the present Administration received large sums of money to aid in debauching the electorate in Dominion elections. The name of the Minister is Sir Adolphe Caron, who has just been appointed Postmaster-General, and the photographic fac-similes of his receipts for the money obtained from Thomas McGreevy are given, putting beyond any possibility of doubt the genuineness of the documents.

It is alleged that all the money and more paid out to the constituencies was obtained by grant from the public treasury, over $110,000 having been disbursed in the 28 constituencies looked after by Sir Hector Langevin and Sir Adolphe Caron. Thus the whole of the leaders of the trade restrictionist party profited by this expenditure, for but for it Sir Adolphe Caron, Mr. Carling and their associates would have been driven from office long ere now.

Further revelations are promised, as the documents are arranged. But enough has been laid bare to warrant the people in a demand that Sir Adolphe Caron shall be placed side by side in the dock with those who connived at the robbery of the Dominion treasury, and who acted as the disbursers of the funds for the benefit of Sir Adolphe and the other recipients.

Further, the independent members of Parliament—Mr. Hyman must be one of them, for he did yeoman service in the interests of the public last session—must demand that the scandalous wrongdoing shall be further investigated by Parliament, and that the whole of the evidence now brought forth, or that may be yet obtainable, shall be laid bare. Till that is done any prosecution of the intermediaries must be regarded as of small account.

BE FAIR TO ALL PARTIES.

Every time that the members of the combines and their dependants meet in solemn conclave, they pass resolutions in favor of trade restriction, and talk as if the country would go to the dogs if the taxes were not kept high for their special benefit. But when a company of farmers assemble, as did the Central Farmers' Institute the other day, and discuss the great trade question, and the influence of high taxation on imports on their industry—the great staple industry of the Dominion—they are promptly pounced upon by the newspaper apologists for the combines, and told that they are traitors to their class and to their country. Surely, there should be fairness on both sides. If the trade question must be ignored by the farmer gatherings, why should it not be prohibited at the meeting of men engaged in cotton spinning, oil refining, or rubber manufacture?

EAST MIDDLESEX ELECTION.

On Thursday next, the election to fill the vacancy caused by the unseating of Mr. Marshall takes place in East Middlesex. There are but two candidates: Mr. Marshall, who supports the combines, and Mr. Taylor, an independent candidate, who is in favor of the greatest possible freedom of trade and the combatting of the combines by every means possible.

Many Liberals would have preferred the nomination of an out-and-out member of their party to oppose Mr. Marshall, and there seems no reason to doubt that if such a one had come forward, and both candidates had remained in the field, he would have been elected. But no one was disposed to take that stand, and the two contestants of last March are left to fight it out.

The great question in this contest is the trade issue, and it is in regard to it that the two candidates differ most. Mr. Marshall still sticks to the side at Ottawa which is tied to the combines. Mr. Taylor pledges himself to vote for the reduction of duties on all necessaries of life. As between the two platforms, we can see no reason why any intelligent voter in the riding should support that of Mr. Marshall. We trust that every elector will go to the polls and record his vote. It is a bread-and-butter question. No one can afford to remain unheard. Let the full vote come out.

THE NECESSITY OF THE HOUR.

There is no one better capable to judge of the condition of the farmers of this country than the farmers themselves. They know whether their bank accounts are growing or not, whether their mortgages are being paid off or not, whether store accounts and other floating debts are burdening them or not. How they feel was very clearly shown by the discussion which took place at the meeting of the Central Farmers' Institute at Toronto the other day. An officer of the Dominion Government was present to address them on the subject of markets, and it was natural enough that he should advise them to cultivate the British markets, seeing that the Government whose servant he is will take no steps to get for them a better one at their own doors—nay, has taken a course to close that market against them by a challenge to higher "protection."

No greater folly could have been committed by the Government of a country situated as Canada is than to provoke retaliation, as was done in the case of Mr. Foster's tariff of 1890. The gauntlet he cast down was promptly taken up by Mr. McKinley, and as a consequence we have a tariff which taxes Canadian beans going into the United States 40 cents per bushel, Canadian barley 30 cents per bushel, and Canadian horses of the poorest sort $30 per head, with other products and animals in proportion. The farmers of Ontario know what this means to them better than any officer in the service of Mr. Carling can instruct them; and they know very well, moreover, that there is no prospect of their finding a market for barley, beans or horses in Great Britain. At the same time they recognize how helpless they are as long as the Government of Canada will obstinately refuse to make terms for a trade treaty with the United States, and circumstances impel them to advocate the policy best suited to themselves. They have no faith in the National Policy; that much is quite clear, for by a vote of nearly four to one they have declared unqualifiedly for free trade. In this matter they are studying their own interests, and we do not doubt that had they the settlement of the question in their own hands free trade would soon be the policy of Canada. Possibly some combine interests might suffer for a time if we had free trade with the world, for the conditions which favor the production of manufactures are not the same everywhere. The lower cost of labor in Great Britain would give that country an advantage over us at the outset, and that is one reason why free trade with the United States is to be preferred. The conditions are so nearly similar in the United States and Canada that whatever disturbance might follow the removal of trade barriers must of necessity be of brief duration; an equilibrium would be speedily established.

In the long run, no doubt, free trade with the world would prove to be the better policy for all classes. The same results which it has worked out in Great Britain it would work out here also, but we should prefer to try it tentatively. Free trade with the United States would enable us to take the larger step without risk of a crisis. And so for the present at least we prefer that measure. But the Government at Ottawa may depend that the farmers will not much longer endure to be harrassed by the restrictions imposed by the N. P. The day of their deliverance is not far off when we see such unanimity of opinion as was exhibited at the Central Farmers' Institute. And there is this to be said also, that whatever measure benefits in the largest degree the farmers of the country will be the best for all classes.

The prosperity of London depends very closely upon the prosperity of the farmers in the counties whose trade is tributary to the city. Twelve years of restriction have wrought a vast deal of mischief to the industries of city and country, as the records of business failures and of the Government census clearly attest. Let any one compare the progress of the county of Middlesex in the decades 1871-81 and 1881-91 as revealed by the census, and he needs no better evidence to persuade him of how far short of its promises the National Policy has come in our own home—the center of the most favored portion of Canada.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

THE Ingersoll Chronicle says Mr. Hyman "is a young man and possessed of abilities that will do credit to the Forest City."

FREER trade relations with the United States are coming on with the resistlessness of Fate. The march of destiny cannot be impeded by one Cabinet Minister nor by ten, by one bye-election nor by a dozen.

ONLY seventeen days to the meeting of Parliament. The apparent intention is to prevent London from being represented when the House of Commons reassembles. The people can draw their own conclusions.

REV. ALEX. WEBSTER, of Edinburgh, gives a curious statement of how the word "Rev." came to be applied to clergymen. He affirms that "reverend" was first affixed to the names of judges, but that after the establishment of a State Church in Britain the preachers took the title away from the lawyers!

THE Sherbrooke Gazette (Conservative) considers that it would be recreant to principle did it not express its disgust that men, "some of whom should be justly held responsible, to a certain extent, for the proved corruption at Ottawa, are still retained in power. A Minister of the Crown, like Cæsar's wife, should be above suspicion." The latest revelations give force to this contention.

IT WOULD be rather interesting to know whether certain things often made much of in elections really change any person's vote. When one sees a great deal of attention paid to some alleged hasty street remark, or when a series of interviews is founded on the loan of a few benches, one wonders whether these intellectual efforts pay for themselves in votes. If they do, the inference is not particularly complimentary to persons who can be so influenced. If they do not, the inference is not particularly complimentary to those who spend their campaign strength in such a fashion.

ONE of the most interesting annuals is the "Presbyterian Year Book for the Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland, for 1892," edited by Rev. George Simpson, well and favorably known to many ADVERTISER readers, and published by the Presbyterian Printing and Publishing Company, Toronto. This is the seventeenth year of publication, yet the editor finds plenty of interesting material to give his readers. There is a sketch and picture of Dr. Wardrope, the genial moderator for the year, and many interesting contributions on church affairs by prominent Presbyterians. A novelty is introduced in the fac-simile of an autograph letter from Rev. Dr. Chalmers, the famous leader in the Free Church movement. The roll of Synods and Presbyteries and the alphabetical list of ministers shows the great expansion which the Presbyterian Church has undergone. It now has eleven Presbyteries in the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, one in the Island of Trinidad, 34 in Ontario and Quebec, seven in the Northwest and British Columbia, one in India, and one in China. The Year Book should be regarded as a necessity in every Presbyterian household.

WHAT IT MEANS.

[Ottawa Journal.]

Lincoln is a sweet morsel for the Liberals. It will be rolled over lusciously by them. Undoubtedly it means that the free trade feeling is stronger than ever along the border.

LOST TO THE EMPIRE.

The London Times, in commenting upon the results of the Canadian census in the Maritime Provinces, finds itself impelled to say that the extent to which the people lost by those Provinces have also been lost by the British Empire is a "burning question."

THE SAME OLD FARCE.

[Hamilton Times.]

Mr. John Carling has finally consented to accept the nomination for London. He will now go through the farce of resigning his seat in the Senate. After Mr Hyman beats him as he did before, Mr. Carling will resume his seat in the Senate.

SOON FOUND OUT.

[Montreal Witness.]

Some light has been shed upon the character of one of the Ministers since last session. Sir John Thompson has become the champion of Mr. Haggart and the paymaster of the Connollys at election times. Sir John posed last session as the adamantine purifier of his party. He has turned out to be a mere poseur.

DOUBLED IN PRICE.

[Hamilton Times.]

If consumers could only be made to realize the extent to which they are plundered of their honest earnings by their paternal Government, they would vote for the party whose policy it is to cheapen the necessaries of life as well as the innocent luxuries. Mr. Charles Schmidt, of this city, the other day imported some mustard which cost him $5. The package cost 75 cents. The duty and entry cost $6 80—or 118 per cent. on the cost of the goods and package. Mustard is not the only commodity doubled in price in order that there shall be plenty of funds at Ottawa for the Connollys and the McGreevys.

THE LAST CITY ELECTION.

Testimony as to the Manner in Which Mr. Hyman's Friends Conducted It.

A good many innuendoes and false statements have been circulated by Mr. Carling's friends with regard to the manner in which the last Dominion election was fought. But it is a noticeable fact that those upon whom the allegations are fathered are generally anonymous scribblers, who have not the manliness to come out into the open. When names are mentioned we all know how speedily the slanders are met and disposed of. There were the unfounded charges made in the election bill of particulars. In that list were placed the names of almost every leading citizen known to be favorable to a greater measure of trade freedom than we now enjoy. The list was printed, and a number of those libeled at once took action against the Free Press, which had to publish a confession and apology, in which it said:

"The trial, at which the petitioners had an opportunity of proving, is now over, and during its progress it has not been shown that the gentlemen named were guilty of the charges mentioned in the particulars printed by the Free Press.

"It is, therefore, only fair to the gentlemen named to say that they are free from all personal corrupt practices.

"The Free Press is glad to be able to entirely exonerate them from complicity in the alleged wrongdoing, as it is satisfied that an error was made in placing these charges in the particulars."

Many other citizens were traduced in the same "bill of particulars," as the Free Press characteristically calls it, by "an error." Even ministers of the Gospel were charged with participating in bribery. It is needless to say that there was no truth in the indictment, but the fact that such methods were resorted to is but a proof of the desperation of the petitioners.

If further testimony of the fairness with which Mr. Hyman's responsible supporters conducted the election were needed, it would be found in the declaration of the Toronto Telegram, an independent Conservative newspaper, which, after reviewing the evidence, remarked that the London contest "was fought as fairly as such contests ever are." The same Conservative paper further added:

"Canada would be better off if there were no graver impurities in its politics than those revealed at the London election trial."

"JACK THE LOVEMAKER."

Universal Proposals Cause Excitement Among Cranberry Citizens.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Feb. 5.—The village of Cranberry, this country, is in an uproar over the actions of a letter-writer who has addressed endearing epistles to nearly every marriageable girl in the place. So obnoxious has the writer become that Postmaster McDowell was appealed to.

He traced 48 letters from the letter fiend to as many residents of the village. The letters were all similar in language, being brief and to this effect:

"My dear miss, I am seeking a partner in life. Are you available? Answer to Jack the Lovemaker."

Miss Jennie Martin, who had received three letters of this character, sought out Constable Silvers and employed him to watch the postoffice. Silvers thought he had located the letter-writer, and chased a farmer's son across a ten-acre field before he discovered his mistake. In the evening mail Silvers was warned to absent himself from the postoffice in the following terse but threatening letter:

"Keep off my preserves or you are a dead man. JACK THE KISSER."

Beware of carelessness; no fortune will stand it long. You are on the high road to ruin the moment you think yourself rich enough to be careless.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

Simcoe's August Turf Meeting—Swimming Tank for Horses—Australian vs. English Cricketers.

THE TRIGGER.

REDPATH'S GREAT SCORE.

There was a good crowd, plenty of enthusiasm and some pretty fine shooting at the London Gun Club's weekly event yesterday afternoon. The occasion was a special one, as prizes were offered for the winners, and competition was keen. In the handicap sweepstake, A class shot at 24 targets, B at 27 and C at 30, from three unknown traps. Redpath's 24 out of 24 was the best performance ever seen on the London grounds, and he was heartily congratulated for this fine exhibition of shooting, which won for him the first prize—100 shells. Winfield showed up in improved form and scored 19 out of 30, getting the Hobbs Hardware prize of one pound of powder. Greener defeated Brewer by two shots. The following score tells the tale:

Evans and Vernon shot against Cloud and Redpath in the live bird race—ten each—and the former won by a combined score of 17 to 13. The winners' shooting was very good. The losers were at somewhat of a disadvantage. Redpath's own shooter did not reach him in time, and he had to shoot the first six rounds with a strange gun. Cloud had an unpleasant recoil from the first shot, which rather razzle-dazzled him for the remainder of the contest. Following was the score:

Vernon .... 1 1 1 0 1 1 1 1 1 1—9
Evans .... 0 1 1 1 0 1 1 1 1 1—8
Redpath .... 0 1 1 0 1 0 1 1 1 1—7

Secretary Coffy, of the St. Thomas Gun Club, and some friends from that town visited the grounds and took away some pointers from London's model equipments to apply to their own club, which has just been organized. They pronounced the London Gun Club a credit to the city, and were much pleased with the interest taken here in sporting matters. No doubt a friendly match between the clubs will be arranged during the season.

HORSE TALK.

The Windsor Driving Park has selected June 28 to July 1 as the date for its summer meeting.

A swimming tank for horses has been built on the Souther farm, near San Leandro, Cal. It is for the purpose of developing speed.

The Simcoe Driving Park Association will open the following stakes for their August meeting, at which time additional races will be given: One hundred and fifty dollars guaranteed stake for pacing foals of 1890, mile heats, 2 in 3; $150 guaranteed stake for trotting foals of 1890, mile heats, 2 in 3; $200 guaranteed stake for trotting foals of 1890, heats 3 in 5. Horse distancing the field will be entitled to first money only, and only first money paid for a walk-over. Only amount of guaranteed stake paid. The right reserved to declare any stake off that does not fill satisfactorily, in which case entrance money will be refunded. Winners will be charged enough to make 10 per cent. of the stake.

THE KENNELL.

The steamship Runic brought to New York two St. Bernard dogs valued at $2,500, consigned to Jacob Ruppert, the brewer. The dogs were purchased in England from a member of the Westminster Kennel Club, and are beautiful specimens of their species. The dogs were in good condition after their voyage across the Atlantic.

At the second annual meeting of the Hamilton Kennel Club, held Thursday, a resolution was adopted protesting against the rules recently passed by the Canadian Kennel Club relating to champion and novice classes.

CRICKET.

The defeat of a representative team of English cricketers is evidence that Australian cricketers are good enough, but some of the authorities are of the opinion that still they are not as good as they used to be. One of the most entertaining and accurate of cricket writers in the Antipodes is "Felix," and he says: "It is incontrovertible that we are now weaker than when Spofforth, C. Bannerman, Murdoch, Massie, Evans, Palmer, McDonnell, Bonner, Midwinter, Boyle, and others were at the zenith of their fame. These fine players have gone from us or have given up the game, and they have been succeeded by an inferior type of players, lacking in bowling skill, in hitting power and in variety of stroke—all of which, it is hardly necessary to say, are main essentials to success in first-class cricket."

FOOTBALL.

President Ed. Bayly, secretary R. K. Barker and Messrs. Logie, of Hamilton, and Marsh, of London, were the Ontario Rugby Union Committee that adjusted the rules to make them harmonize with the changes and amendments made at the annual meeting last November. An informal discussion took place on the tie system for next year and the general opinion prevailed that the first round would be fought out with home and home matches the same as last year. This session will complete the work of the Ontario Rugby Union, both on and off the field until September, when the next committee meeting takes place and the draws will be made for the championship season.—[World.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The President has issued his proclamation promulgating a reciprocity treaty with the British West India colonies, Trinidad, Windward and Leeward Islands.

The agreement went into effect on the 1st inst. as far as it relates to the British colonies of Trinidad (which includes Tobago), Barbadoes, the Leeward Islands (consisting of the islands of Antigua, Montserrat, St. Christopher, Nevis, Dominica, with their respective dependencies and Virginian Islands); the Winward Islands (consisting of St. Lucia, St. Vincent and their dependencies, but exclusive of Canada and its dependencies) and the colony of Jamaica, and with British Guinea after April 1.

Expenses of a Society Belle.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Marie Louse Harris and her brother, Henry Wilson Harris, a student at Yale College, are each entitled to more than $400,000, out of the estate of their grandfather, Charles Morgan, who died in 1879. Maria and Henry have been allowed from $5,000 to $7,500 a year each for their support since his death. The son is nearly of age. To ascertain whether Maria, 18 years old, needs $15,000 a year to properly maintain her, Justice Beach, of the Supreme Court, has appointed Augustus C. Brown referee to conduct the inquiry. The application for this allowance is made by her mother, Mrs. Emma A. Ryan, widow of Charles M. Harris, who says this sum is necessary to maintain her daughter in the manner of life to which she has been accustomed. Mrs. Ryan says that it is necessary for her to support two establishments for her daughter, one at East Orange and another at Quissett, Mass., for summer use.

The Finest in America.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Franklin Murphy, a member of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in Broad street, Newark, has presented to that church a stained glass window, which is said to be the largest in America. The subject is the sermon of St. Paul at Athens, and there are many heroic figures. The figure of St. Paul stands in the center light, and is nine feet high. His arms are uplifted, and he is appealing to the multitude about him. The widow is 35 feet high and 25 feet wide. The center light is seven feet wide and 25 feet high; and the two side lights are each seven feet wide and eighteen feet high. The space around these three lights is filled in with intricate tracery, appropriate both in color and pattern to the central subject. The window was made by J. & R. Lamb of 69 Carmine street. The whole cost of the window is nearly $10,000. It will be unveiled next Sunday.

WORDS THAT BURN.

THE WIND.

Whichever way the wind doth blow,
Some heart is glad to have it so;
Then blow it east or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

My little craft sails not alone;
A thousand fleets from every zone
Are out upon a thousand seas;
And what for me were favoring breeze
Might dash another, with the shock
Of doom, upon some hidden rock.
And so I do not dare to pray
For winds to waft me on my way,
But leave it to a Higher Will
To stay or speed me, trusting still
That all is well, and sure that He
Who launched my bark will sail with me
Through storm and calm, and will not fail,
Whatever breezes may prevail,
To land me, every peril past
Within His sheltering heaven at last.

Then, whatsoever wind doth blow,
My heart is glad to have it so;
And, blow it east or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

NOT AFRAID OF EVIL TIDINGS.

Give me, O God! that fixedness of heart
Which shall not swerve before calamity.
Give me a trust forbidding me to start
With fear of evil on the way to me.

Thou art and wilt be—let this mighty thought
Be of my trembling heart the citadel;
From earth's four points whatever news be brought,
Within that stronghold I shall bear it well.
—[Charlotte Fiske Bates.

KISSING THE ROD.

O heart of mine, we shouldn't
Worry so!
What we've missed of calm we couldn't
Have, you know!
What we've met of stormy pain,
And of sorrow's driving rain,
We can better meet again
If it blow.

We have erred in that dark hour
We have known
When our tears fell with the shower,
All alone—
Were not shine and shower blent
As the gracious Master meant?
Let us temper our content
With his own.

For, we know, not every morrow
Can be sad:
So, forgetting all the sorrow
We have had,
Let us fold away our fears,
And put by our foolish tears,
And through all the coming years
Just be glad.
—[James Whitcomb Riley, in the Indianapolis Journal.

GLAD TIDINGS.

India. Sir Charles A. Elliott, the new Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, speaking at Simla, has added his testimony to the value of missions as judged from the standpoint of high Indian officials. "I make bold to say," were his words, "that if missions did not exist it would be our duty to invent them." This is what was said by the famous men who built up the administration of the Punjab, and who, when it was annexed in 1849, among their first requirements, along with courts and codes and roads and police, wrote home to the Church Missionary Society for a supply of missionaries.

"The Name Above All Others." The Rev. W. F. Bainbridge tells the following touching story of a Brahmin convert he met in India: "As he talked of his work and urged me to labor hard in the interests of heathen evangelization, I felt that it was not he, but Christ speaking through him. Last month a Conconada brother wrote to me of his death. He had just officiated at a wedding. A sudden sickness came on before he had signed the marriage certificate. 'Just your name, brother,' they said, as they put the paper under his hand and the pen between his fingers. 'Name?' said the dying Brahmin, 'name? There is none other name given under heaven among men whereby we must be saved.' 'Yes, but we want your own name. Quick! Write it.' 'My name? I have none other name than the Lamb's name written in my forehead.' And the pen moved and the hand dropped, and the spirit was gone; and they looked, and he had written 'Jesus.'"

Trouble in Turkey. There is trouble also in Turkey, appealing to the prayers of Christian people everywhere. The Government seems desirous to check moral and intellectual progress, and therefore is assuming an unfriendly attitude toward missions. Several acts have been committed which show this hostility. Missionaries have been arrested without cause and kept in close confinement, as if they were guilty of some grave offense. The Government also confiscated a large number of hymn-books and Bible dictionaries belonging to the American mission. In October last the Sublime Porte issued an order prohibiting the holding of public worship or conducting of schools in dwelling-houses. As many missionaries conduct worship and schools in their own dwellings, this order, which has not yet been executed, but which at any time might be, is one which may cause serious trouble. These outcroppings of a persecuting and intolerant spirit show a disposition at least to trouble and interfere with the work of missions in that old country.

Another View. There is a view of the benefits of foreign missions which may appeal even to worldly men. General Armstrong says: "America, through the American Board, expended in 50 years $1,250,000 to evangelize Hawaii, and during that time has received about $4,000,000 a year in trade. England's missions are said to bring back £10 in trade for every pound given to convert the heathen. Christianity means a demand for clothing and utensils. The first sign of grace in a penitent savage is a request for a shirt."

A Marked Change. The Record says: "The Universite de Paris (the organ of the Students' Association of Paris), the Figaro, the Journal des Debats and the Temps have each asserted in their own way that French students, as a whole, have ceased to be Voltarians. There is an evident recoil from the frivolous skepticisms of the past and a tendency toward mysticism, although not toward Catholicism." Viscomte E. M. de Vogue shows that even in those schools which have been the citadels of irreligion, sympathetic investigation is taking the place of mere mockery. "Our predecessors," he says, "too easily threw aside an entire domain of ideas which they deemed anti-scientific; but we must see." "In other words," says the Record, "French students are willing to read the credentials of Christianity; let us do our utmost to present them.

Dr. Morrison, principal of Glasgow Free Church Training College, was recently presented with an illuminated address and £360 to signalize the completion of 40 years' service as principal of that institution.

Ex-Provest Hall, Galashiels, died at his residence, Ryefield, on Jan. 22. Through a long and useful life he was one of the best known men in Galashiels, alike for his business as a building contractor, and his connection with the municipal affairs of the town.

He was the grandson of the eminent lawyer and judge, Sir James Scarlet, on whom the peerage was conferred, and was born in 1826. When 20 years of age he entered the Scots Guards, and served in the Crimea campaign, for which he received a medal with four clasps, fifth class of the Medjidie, and Turkish medal. He took a great interest in the local affairs of Inverness-shire, and at the time of his death was chairman of the Parochial and School Boards of Kilmoncraig. THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

As Reported by Correspondents of the Mercantile Agencies.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Bradstreet's says general trade is only moderately active in the Province of Ontario. In the Province of Quebec the reverse was true, renewals being quite conspicuous. Business failures in the Dominion of Canada this week number 34, against 44 last week and 58 one year ago.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Dun, Wiman & Co.'s weekly trade review says: In spite of much dullness and complaint in some branches trade is gradually enlarging. The West is steadily increasing orders for manufactured products, and is likely to buy more largely in the next five months than ever before. Eastern consumption is also fairly up to the maximum, as labor is well employed. The stringency at the South owing to over-production of cotton and speculation in the past is at present the only force retarding the general improvement. The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 273 and for Canada 46, or a total of 319, as compared with totals of 297 last week and 322 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 306, representing 262 failures in the United States and 45 in the Dominion of Canada.

She Married Her Uncle.

ELMIRA, Feb. 6.—On May 18, 1890, Kittie H. Meek, aged 20, daughter of Leonard G. Meek, a leading citizen of Allenwood, Pa., went out for a walk and did not return. More than a week later her parents received a letter from her saying that she was in Carleton, Neb., with her uncle Charles. Her uncle Charles was her mother's brother, and the girl has been in Carleton ever since. A few days ago her father was told that his daughter was married in Elmira before she went West. He came to this city, and at the city clerk's office was amazed to find an entry certifying that on May 19, 1890, the Rev. Allen F. D. Camp, of this city, had married Charles H. Brown, of Carleton, Neb., to Kittie H. Meek, daughter of Leonard G. Meek, of Allenwood, Pa. The bridgroom was the uncle of the girl. He was 30 years old, and had met his niece only once before the marriage, the father said, having lived all his life in the West. He visited his sister, the girl's mother, a few weeks before the girl left home, but only for a day.

FREE POSTAL DELIVERY TO FARMERS.

That was not a bad idea of Ex-Mayor Taylor's, in his nomination speech, that there should be a daily free postal delivery to the dwellers in the country as well as to the dwellers in the city. At first blush, the project seems bold, but, as pointed out by the ex-mayor and by Mr. Zavitz, the farmer deserves as much consideration as the citizen, and surely it is desirable to bring every advantage to the farmer if it be true, as we all have to admit, that upon the efficiency and contentment and well-being of the farm all our fortunes ultimately rest. The idea is a good one. If not, why not?

"WIVES AND DAUGHTERS."

This publication has succeeded so well that it has been found necessary to give it more special attention than has hitherto been possible. To that end, Mr. H. C. Symonds has accepted the business management of "Wives and Daughters," and will have the entire oversight of all matters connected with its advertising and its circulation. Though "Wives and Daughters" is issued from this office, its ownership as well as its circulation are quite distinct from those of the ADVERTISER. There are many lines of business which could profitably employ "Wives and Daughters" as an advertising medium.

—"This election suspense has killed our business," said a leading ticket agent. "People don't want to go away until after the battle. It would be a mercy to business men if the Government party would rush the contest on as soon as possible."

—James De Wolfe, an employe at Wortman and Ward's foundry, fell a distance of twenty feet from the top of the steps in front of the building to the ground on Wednesday. Luckily a number of painful cuts and bruises were the only result.

Mr. Rennie, at the request of the members, will continue the subject at the next meeting.

—The revival services are still in progress in the Wellington Street Methodist Church. From the very first the interest and attendance have been steadily increasing. The pastor is assisted by Evangelist Ranton, who preaches every night. His presentations of Gospel truth are clear, pointed and convincing. Many are being converted at every service and it is estimated that between 100 and 150 have already decided to lead the Christian life.

—James Lovering a few days ago shipped from this city to Manitoba a carload of stock, including nineteen head of horses, a number of short-wool sheep, Berkshire and large improved Yorkshire pigs. Two very fine young Yorkshire sows were purchased from Mr. Baker, Littlewood, of the famous Landers Spence strain.

Emerald Beneficial Association.

The biennial convention for 1892 will be held in London early in May, when several very important amendments to the present constitution will be considered and decided upon. The said amendments have been sent to the various branches for their consideration previous to their delegates attending the convention. From the interest members are taking in them there is every reason to believe that, if not adopted, they will at least be the means of drawing out some others that will make the E. B. A. the best Catholic beneficial association in Canada.—[Irish Canadian.

A CRUSHING REPLY.

Mr. Gibbons, Q.C., on Mr. Foster's Fallacies.

Facts and Figures That Cannot Be Combatted by Juggled Wordishness.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Mr. Foster at St. Thomas wanted to know where I lived and what I read that I should assert that the foreign trade of Canada had not increased as it should.

Well, here are the figures since 1873 from the public accounts:

1873	$217,801,203	1883	$230,339,829
1874	217,565,510	1884	207,863,531
1875	200,957,262	1885	193,179,847
1876	170,176,781	1886	189,675,875
1877	175,203,335	1887	202,404,017
1878	172,405,454	1888	201,097,630
1879	153,455,682	1889	204,414,098
1880	174,401,208	1890	218,607,339
1881	203,621,663	1891	218,384,934
1882	221,556,703

So that our foreign trade now is only the same in volume as it was in 1873-4, under a 15 per cent. tariff, and it has not increased in eighteen years. It has varied from year to year according to the character of our crop. When that was bountiful it went up, when poor down. But there have been only two stages since 1873-4 when the foreign trade has been as great as in those years, i.e., in 1882-3 and 1890-1.

How does this compare with the rest of America? The foreign trade of the United States since 1870 has increased from $913,000,000 to $1,613,000,000, or 76 per cent.; Mexico has increased $23,000,000, or 38 per cent.; Central America 39 per cent.; the West Indies $65,000,000, or 34 per cent. The South American countries show an increase of $396,405,645, or 90 per cent.

How is it that we alone are stagnant? The Free Press accounts for the greater increase of population in the United States by saying that they have a dozen Ontarios and we only one.

Then why is it that their Ontarios increase many times as fast in population as ours? Let us see: Ontario has increased 186,000 in ten years. In the same period

Michigan has increased	453,000
Ohio has increased	468,000
Kansas has increased	427,000
Minnesota has increased	520,000
Massachusetts has increased	450,000
Nebraska has increased	604,000
New York has increased	898,000
Pennsylvania has increased	966,000

and so on. No State that is to be compared to Ontario but has increased several times in population what we have.

Yours truly, GEO. C. GIBBONS.

THE MARKET FOR FINE BUTTER

Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, M.P.P., says: "With reference to butter our best market for fine fresh creamery butter is undoubtedly the United States. None of their finest is shipped to England. They have a large enough well-to-do population who are willing to and do pay an extra price for fresh butter, which is altogether above the export basis. The finest fresh fancy creamery butter is now 33 cents a pound in New York. You cannot pay that price and export a pound to England except at a loss because our butter cannot arrive there in that fresh, rosy condition which the English market requires for high-priced butter. Butter is not like wine. It does not improve by age. I regret I was not present when Professor Robertson addressed the convention, but I am informed, he stated, that a large percentage of Canadian cheese was sold for English cheddar. Such is not the case. That there are dishonest men in the provision trade as in every other and that an odd individual may do so I do not doubt, but that it is done by any respectable house or to any extent I deny. My business takes me once, sometimes twice, every year to England. During my visits I have mixed with those engaged in the business and looked into everything relating to it. I therefore know whereof I speak."

Why McCarthy Was Selected.

DUBLIN, Feb. 6.—The Independent (Parnellite) says: The re-election yesterday of Justin McCarthy as chairman of the section of the Irish Parliamentary party opposed to the policy of the Parnellites, was due to a compromise arrived at to avoid offending the numerous aspirants for the chairmanship, none of whom could command a majority, but whose defeat would have split the McCarthyites into several sections.

A Niagara Falls Ship Canal Wanted.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Feb. 6.—The nineteenth annual convention of the New York State Grange, that has been in session here since Tuesday night, adjourned last night. It was resolved, "That we, the members of the State Grange of the State of New York, do respectfully request our representatives in Congress to use their influence and vote in support of any measure favoring a ship canal around the falls of Niagara, and as well to support the further construction of a deep waterway from Lake Ontario to the Hudson River for the accommodation of commerce of our State and country."

BRITISH OPINION IN CANADA.

The Great English Newspapers on the Ottawa Scandal.

Men Guilty of or Aiding and Abetting in Public Plunder Should Be Driven From Power.

The leading newspapers in Great Britain, without regard to political predilections, have condemned in the strongest terms the wholesale corruption that was laid bare at Ottawa during the last Parliamentary session. They have also condemned the crookedness exposed at Quebec. For the plundering of the people of Canada, to the extent, we believe, of millions of dollars, the men in power at Ottawa must be held responsible, and the people of the Dominion, by their votes, must punish them. As for the boodling in Quebec, the punishment of those guilty of wrongdoing must be left to the people of that Province, just as in Ontario the Provincial Government, when put on trial, must be condemned or indorsed by the people of this Province by their votes at the polls.

Seeing this is the state of affairs, it will do no harm, and may effect much good, to reflect upon the views of the great English papers after studying the disgraceful exposures at Ottawa, which, by the way, will have to be resumed when the House reassembles this month. Here are a few of the many declarations made by these exponents of British public opinion:

From the London Telegraph (Independent-Conservative):

Enough, unfortunately, is already known in England to make it clear that only the most resolute and drastic purification can redeem public life in Canada from the taint of corruption the like of which we have not seen in our own country for hundreds of years.

From the London Echo (Radical):

No country can prosper where public departments are in league with fraudulent contractors, where Ministers are open in offers, and parties will bargain their support for a mess of pottage.

From the London Graphic:

It is no longer possible to doubt that corruption in its worst form is rampant in a large portion of the Canadian civil service, and is even on something more than nodding terms with politicians in the Dominion.

From the London Morning Advertiser (Conservative):

Taking the most favorable view which is possible of the disclosures, they are alarming enough.

From the St. James Gazette (Conservative):

The whole administrative service—if, indeed, we must not add to the entire public life—of the Dominion seems to be an Augean stable which is still awaiting its Hercules.

From the London Times (Conservative):

The blow to Sir Hector Langevin's influence cannot fail to be injurious to the Conservative party. * * * * Here in the mother country there can be only one feeling—that of deep regret for the wrong done to the fair fame of the eldest of our daughter-nations by the lax morality of her politicians.

From the Daily Chonicle (Independent):

Canada is passing just now through a crisis which may have lasting effects on the future of that country. The corruption which has been disclosed at Ottawa, and which the investigations before a Parliamentary committee have shown to be so widespread, must have an injurious effect for a long time. Lord Stanley's speech, which was, of course, written for him by his Ministers, according to constitutional practice, does not quite convey the impression that the Canadian Government fully realize the duty cast upon them by recent revelations. It is all very well to say that the extensive frauds upon the Government are much to have been regretted and to express a hope that the punishment meted out to some of the delinquents, and the operation of the new law against corrupt practices in Government departments will have the effect of preventing a recurrence of corruption; but it is scarcely satisfactory to be told that the outcome of it all is the appointment of a commission to inquire into the organization of the civil service.

From the London Chronicle (Liberal):

It is all very well to say that the extensive frauds upon the Government are much to be regretted, and to express a hope that the punishment meted out to some of the delinquents and the operation of the new law against corrupt practices in Government departments will have the effect of preventing a recurrence of corruption; but it is scarcely satisfactory to be told that the outcome of it all is the appointment of a commission to inquire into the organization of the civil service. Such punishments as have been inflicted have fallen only upon persons in very humble positions.

From the Newcastle Journal (Conservative):

But it is to the Minister of Public Works the scandal is really traceable, for passive connivance—though too strong a phrase to meet the view of the majority or of Parliament—is probably as near as so very vague a phrase can be to an accurate description of the "it's all right as long as I'm not in it" sort of sentiment that is at the bottom of a good many scandals in this world.

From the Manchester Courier:

John Bull is likely to look with sorrow upon the disgrace his offspring has got into until she adopts his honorable example in political life.

From the Birmingham Gazette:

Rascals out of office defraud the public in order to bribe rascals in office, and the rascals in office prostitute themselves, sacrifice their honor and forsake their trust in order to keep on good terms with the rascals out of office.

From the Newcastle Chronicle:

The statesman who in any way connived at the corruption now exposed should be no longer tolerated.

These are the views of the principal British newspapers, which have no interest in Canadian politics beyond the welfare of the great nation in which they circulate. What is the reply to them given by Mr. Caring and his associates? Simply that the rascalities tolerated, condoned, indorsed by the men now holding on to power by the skin of their teeth are scarcely worthy of notice! Sir John Thompson, at Halifax, asserted that "far greater disclosures of corruption" in the public service had been made in recent years in Great Britain. Challenged to support that statement with evidence, what was the reply of the knight. He has remained silent from that day to this. He knows that no administration would be tolerated for a day in England—whether headed by a Salisbury or by a Gladstone—that would keep in office or whitewash men like Haggart, Langevin, Cochrane or Chapleau, or would vote down an inquiry into the serious charges made by Mr. Lister, M.P., on his responsibility as a member of the House of Commons.

And more revelations are looked for at any moment.

WOODS' FAIR.

Great clearing sale to reduce stock and make room for large importations of spring goods, which will arrive early next month. The numerous lines we shall offer at cut prices we will continue to sell all this month, or until the present stock is closed out. We have in stock about 500 pairs of oil window shades, plain and decorated borders; they are of the very best material. We will offer them this month only, with Hartshorn spring rollers complete, at the unheard-of low price of 49c each. We have also a few expensively-gilded patterns among this lot we shall offer at merely a trifle higher. Children's sleds, we have at the present time every variety to select from, and although we have sold them all the season cheaper than the cheapest, we now make the sweeping offer to close the remainder at two-thirds price, or, in other words, at 66c on the dollar. This is cheaper than bankrupt sales. Best patent stovepipe, to close, 6 or 7 inch, your choice 7c per length; gilt-banded 16-inch coal hods, just think of it, only 18c; a lot of $5 and $8 violins (it seems suicidal to do it, but we will for this month only offer you your choice) at $1 98; violin strings and violin fittings at about one-quarter of what you will pay elsewhere. Lovers of violin music, now is your time; elastic silk garter web at 1 c per yard; 5 large cakes of fire lighters (will light 30 fires without the use of kindlings), 5c; 8 oz carpet tacks, 4c per paper or two papers for 7c; leather heads, 2 papers for 5c; Webster's original unabridged dictionary, $1 59; till recently this book was sold for $8 and $12. School books, scribbling books, pens and other school materials at lowest prices in the city. Heliotrope and Baby's Own soap, 10c per cake; table oilcloth, 25c per yard; best web halters, 25c; cow ties, 8c. But perhaps one of the greatest drives is a special line of extra quality of writing paper, 5 quires (120 sheets) for 17c. Do your own bronzing and decorating; best prepared gold paint, only 25c per bottle. Best American barometers and thermometers, from 13c to 29c; best goods in the market, very cheap. We will not attempt to enumerate further, but would invite you to call at Woods' Fair before purchasing, where you can buy good goods at less than bankrupt prices. The trade supplied.

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST MIDDLESEX.

Gentlemen.—In compliance with the solicitations and requests of a large number of the electors of the Electoral District of East Middlesex, I have again consented to become the Independent candidate for the representation of this riding in the Parliament of Canada, believing as I do, that at no time in the history of our Dominion has there been a greater necessity for independent thought and action than at present. I would, if elected, support a liberal trade policy between Canada and Great Britain, thereby tending to strengthen the bonds of union that exist between the Dominion and the mother land. A tariff for revenue purposes only, is all that should be maintained. I would favor the obtaining by every legitimate effort, of a favorable reciprocity treaty between Canada and the United States. The freest trade relations possible should exist between the two countries, that would be consistent with the position we hold as a part of the British Empire. I am opposed to all combinations that advance the value of the necessaries of life to consumers. The freest possible exchange of productions should be brought about between the farmer and the manufacturer. The farmer has a right to obtain the full value of his earnings, and the produce of the country should be carried to the seaboard for a just consideration. The system of granting railway charters requires amending, and attention will have to be paid to protect the public from railway monopolies. The public lands should be reserved for actual settlers. Not another acre should be given to railways. While the church is entitled to entire freedom in its own domain. I will oppose the granting to any creed or nationality of privileges not equally enjoyed by all. I believe in complete separation of Church and State, and will defend to the utmost the rights and privileges that have been handed down to us by our forefathers. A simpler and less expensive method than the present system of preparing the voters' lists is desirable, and the principle of one man one vote and the purity of elections I would heartily support. If elected I will support all good measures that may come before the House, independent of party consideration. As a retired farmer who has successfully carried on farming operations for a considerable portion of my life, I can well understand and appreciate the requirements of a farming community, and should the electors of this riding confide their trust in me by securing my return as their representative the interests of the electors of this constituency shall be my first and last thought. The will of the people should be supreme in all matters of legislation and government and, I am therefore in favor of submitting to a vote of the electors of the Dominion, whenever petitioned for the question of prohibition of the liquor traffic or other matters of vital importance to the country.

Trusting to meet with the approval of the electors in this my native riding, and asking for their support as an independent candidate, I have the honor to be. Yours respectfully

George Taylor.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

Fate of Sir Hugh.

"Nothing will help me," he returned, in the same muffled voice; but she would not be repulsed. She swept back the dark hair from his forehead and kissed him. Did she not share his sufferings? Could anyone sympathize with him as she could? "Oh, if mother were only here," she sighed, feeling her inability to comfort him. "Mother is so sorry for you, she cried about it the other night."

"Yes," he answered, "mothers are like that;" and then was silent again. What was there he could say?—he was in no mood for sympathy. The touch of Fern's soft arms, her little attempt at consolation, were torture to him. His idol was gone in another man's possession. He should never see again the dark southern loveliness that had so enthralled his imagination; and the idea was maddening to him.

In a little while he rose, but no speech seemed possible to him. A wall of ice seemed to be built up across his path, and he could see no outlet. "I cannot stay now," he said, and his voice sounded strange to his own ears. "Will you give my love to mother, Fern?"

"Oh, do not go," she pleaded, and now the tears were running down her face. "Do stay with me, Percy."

"Not now; I will come again," he answered, releasing himself impatiently; but as he mounted his horse, some impulse made him look up and wave his hand. And then he rode out into the gloom.

It was too early to go home; besides, he did not care to face people. The fog seemed lifting a little. His mare was fresh and she might take her own road, and follow her own pace—a few miles more or less would not matter to him in this mood.

Black care was sitting behind him on the saddle, and had taken the reins from his hands; and a worse gloom than the murky atmosphere was closing round him.

She had told him that his life was before him—that he could carve out his own future; but as he looked back on his past life—on the short tale of his four-and-twenty years—his heart was sick within him.

What a pitiful part he had played. Was it possible that such a woman as Crystal could ever have loved him? Had not his cowardly desertion of his mother only won her silent contempt? and now it was too late to redeem himself in her eyes.

His fate was frowning on him. His position at Belgrave House had long been irksome to him. His grandfather loved him but not as he loved Erle; and in his heart he was secretely jealous of Erle—if it had been possible he would have supplanted him. Only he himself knew how he had tempted him, and the subterfuges to which he had stooped. He had encourged Erle's visits to Beulah Place from motives of self-interest, and had been foiled by Erle's engagement to Evelyn Selby.

How he loathed himself as he thought of it all. Oh! if he could only undo the past. Young as he was, ruin seemed staring him in the face. He had squandered his handsome allowance; his debts were heavy. He had heard his grandfather say that of all things he abhorred gambling; and yet he knew he was a gambler. Only the preceding night he had staked a large sum and had lost; and that very morning he had appealed to Erle to save him from the consequences of his own rashness.

As he rode on, his thoughts seemed to grow tangled and confused. His life was a failure; how was he to go on living? All these years he had fed on husks, and the taste was bitter in his mouth. Oh! if he could make a clean breast of it all. And then he repeated drearily that it was too late.

His reins were hanging loosely on his horse's neck. His high-spirited little mare had been following her own will for more than an hour now, and had relapsed into a walk, as Percy roused himself to see where he was. He found himself on a bridge with the river on either side of him. He was miles away from Belgrave House; and for the moment he was perplexed, and drew up to ask a boy who was loitering on the footpath what bridge it was.

There was a steamer passing; and a little lad had clambered on the parapet to see it go by. Either he overbalanced himself or grew giddy, but, to Percy's horror, there was a sharp scream, and the next moment the child had disappeared.

In an instant Percy was off his horse, nd, with the agility of a practiced athlete, ad swung himself on the parapet. Yes, e could see the eddy where the child had unk; and in another moment he had dived nto the dark water.

"It was a plucky thing to do, sir," bserved a navvy who had seen the whole proceeding, and who afterward retailed it o Erle Huntingdon; "I don't know as ever saw a pluckier thing in my life. Ay, and he poor young gentleman would have done t too, for any one could see he knew what e was about; for he dived in straight after he child; and then, that dratted steamer—ou will excuse me, sir, but one's feelings strong—what must it do but back to ick up the child; and the poor fellow, he ust have struck his head against it, for he ent down again. Oh, yes, the child was ll right, and the young gentleman would ave been all right too, but for that nasty low; it stunned him, you see."

Yes, it stunned him; the young ill-spent fe was over. Did he call upon his God for uccor as he went down into his watery lave? Who knows what cry went up to eaven? The old epitaph that was engraved on the tomb of a notorious ill-liver speaks quaintly of hope in such cases,

"Betwixt the saddle and the ground
He mercy sought and mercy found."

and Raby quoted them softly to Crystal as he wept over the fate of her unhappy over.

"His last act was to try and save nother; God only knows how far this ould go to redeem a faulty past—God nly knows. Do not cry so bitterly, daring. Let us trust him to the All Merciful; nd, as the good bishop said to the mother f Saint Augustine, 'the child of so many rayers cannot be lost.'"

Erle Huntingdon had passed an anxious, ncomfortable day. Percy's confession of s gambling debts had made him seriously neasy. It was in his power to help him is once, he had said, with unusual sternss, but he would soou be a married man, d then Percy must look to himself; and rcy nettled at his tone, had answered newhat shortly, and in spite of Erle's nerosity they had not parted friends.

But this was not all. After luncheon . Huntingdon had called Erle into his dy, and had shown him a letter that he just received from some anonymous respondent. Some unknown friend and l-wisher had thought it advisable to n Mr. Huntingdon of his grandson's tless doings. Erle looked dreadfully ked as he read it; and the expression oncentrating anger on Mr. Hunting-s face frightened him still more.

Perhaps it is not true," he stammered, then the rembrance of his conversation Percy silenced him.

True," returned Mr. Huntingdon, in hard rasping voice; "do you not see the writer says he can prove every ? And this is my grandson, whom I taken out of poverty. Well, well, I t have known the son of Maurice ord would never be worth anything."

OF THE FUTURE.

10 Band Mills sold in Canada in 1891 where one was sold in 1890. We predict an equal increase in 1892.

Our present orders indicate it, so place your orders early.

The Circular Saw 22 years ago was as much a novelty and as difficult to run as the Band Saw is to-day. With the experience gained in handling the Circular, knowledge of the Band Saw is much more readily acquired. Special improved tools also facilitate the work. We furnish an expert with each mill to instruct in the use of tools and work on saw.

The adjoining cut illustrates our NO. 1 BAND SAW MILL, capacity 10,000 to 20,000 feet in 10 hours. Our No. 2 mill is much heavier—capacity 20,000 to 40,000 feet per day.

BRENER BROS.' NEW LEADER.

The National Melodrama Brand, PATROL, Is Sure to Be a Winner.

Messrs. Brener Bros., the successful manufacturers of Nos. 182-190 Horton street, London, are in the field with a new leader, which has been happily named "THE PATROL." They intend to make this cigar popular wherever the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes float. It is a Cuban hand-made cigar, of which the filler is all Havana, mild and fragrant. The label, which is the design of the Patrol Co., is strikingly original. The words in which the names of the manufacturers occur at appropriate intervals. Nothing in the way of a label that is so simple, and at the same time so rich and attractive, has been originated, and it would be impossible to present to the trade a more elegant package. "The Patrol," cigar is certain to win instant recognition, and to increase largely the annual output of its manufacturers.

For sale at 182-190 Horton street, London; 63 College street, Montreal; 9[illegible] Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich.; 206 Lasalle street, Chicago. 1z has two pipes, one covering the valve rod (dry pipe) and the one conveying the water to the spout (wet pipe). The rod in this hydrant is actuated by a brass screw and handle above, and raising plunger the smallest fraction of an inch, closes waste before any water can enter discharge pipe. With the valve open we have the full and unobstructed flow of water through the hydrant which can well be compared to a straight way valve or round-way cock. Closing the valve empties all water from wet pipe through dry hole. To repair hydrant or washer remove top cap or plate and withdraw plunger valve. It can be readily repaired without digging up.

Rev. J. V. Smith, of the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, formerly of this city, presided. Two months ago Mr. Lanceley had asked his congregation to give a liberal collection at the anniversary, and the result has been that the trustees have now in hand a sum of $2,125, and a promise of an equal sum at next anniversary. This will more than liquidate the debt of $4,000 on the new and beautiful church edifice.

The St. Thomas Railway Victim.

Stephen Delacey, the victim of yesterday morning's accident in St. Thomas, was born in Lower Canada, and is about 57 years of age. He is a carriage maker by trade. Since coming to Ontario he has resided in Lambeth, Shedden, Talbotville, Fingal and other points. He moved to St. Thomas two years ago. For about two years he was employed in Heard's factory, and for the past three or four weeks has been employed in the M. C. R. shops. He resided on Elysian street, at the corner of Penwarden street. He leaves a wife and five children—three sons and two daughters. He was a member of the A. O. U. W., depositing his card in Antiquity Lodge last week. He is insured in the order for $2,000.

He Must Pay the Note.

Judge Hughes, of St. Thomas, has given a written judgment in the case which was tried at the last Division Court and argued since then in chambers. The defendants, Frank Counter and Charles Counter, were under age at the time they purchased a binder from Elliott & Son, of London, and gave the note sued upon in payment. The defendant, C. Counter, is still under age and could not be held liable, but as to Frank Counter, the judge holds him liable to pay the note, because he did not within a reasonable time after he came of age repudiate the transaction.

Talling, of this city, on "God's part and purpose in the Endeavor movement."

Osgoode Hall Decision.

Re Duncombe vs. Heyd.—Judgment has been given on motion by the defendant for prohibition to the Division Court at Waterford, in the county of Norfolk, on the ground of want of territorial jurisdiction. The defendant at Brantford called the plaintiff, who was at Waterford, to the telephone and made the proposition which was then and there accepted by the plaintiff, and which forms the ground of the act judge held that this was if the defendant had sent a letter gram, or had gone himself to Water and so the contract was made in W terford; as the debtor was bound to see out his creditor, the place of payment was in Waterford, where the plaintiff resid e, and so the whole cause of action arose there, and the Division Court there had jurisdiction. Motion refused with costs. Heyd (Brantford) for the defendant. E. T. English for the plaintiff.

Progressive Dairying.

The directors of the Blanchard Cheese and Butter Company held a public meeting at the town hall in that township recently, for the purpose of discussing winter dairying and butter making by the separator process. John S. Pearce, of London, attended the meeting by prior arrangement, and exhibited a No. 8 Alexandra hand separator, to the entire satisfaction of the audience, illustrating and explaining its working, and also tested samples of milk with the Babcock tester, by which he showed the close and perfect work done by the separator. Samples of milk before and after skimming were tested, the former showing over 6 per cent. of butter fat, and the latter, after going through the separator, only 1-10 to 2-10 of 1 per cent., which is virtually nothing. He also gave them an address on winter dairying, the silo and ensilage, and what varieties of corn to grow and how to cultivate them. The meeting broke up after passing a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Pearce for his kindness attending and the information given.

A Treat the Grand To-Night.

The pe le of London are always ready to patroniz first-class performance when they know to be such. The presentation at the Gran Opera House to-night is one that can be nestly commended, and Londoners shou not miss the chance of enjoying a music extravaganza that for some seventeen yes has been a great favorite in the met politan centers. There are about 50 peop in the company, including some of the most prominent actors and actresses on the American stage and a grand chorus. Miss Ruth Davenport, one of the demure auties of the stage, who can be as amu g in her acting as she is interesting in d eanor, enacts the beautiful Evangeline. Principals and characters are to be arraye n new, tasty and costly costumes. "E geline" has also been freely furnished th new scenery, all of it beautiful and app priate. In short, nothing has been left done for the rejuvenation of one of the ost famous, acceptable and popular of m ern burlesques.

A DETROIT MIRACLE.

A Great Triumph for Canadian Medical Science.

Particulars of One of the Most Remarkable Cures on Record Described by the Detroit News—A Story Worth a Careful Perusal.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 29, 1892.—A case has just come to light here, the particulars of which are published in the Evening News, which will be read with considerable interest by all Canadians, as it records the remarkable achievement of a Canadian medical discovery, which has already, in its own country, won great and enduring fame. At this added triumph, there is no doubt that the fellow-countrymen of the proprietors will rejoice, as it sheds luster on Canadian science. The story is told by the News as follows:

The following paragraph, which appeared in the News a short time ago, furnished the basis of this information—a case that was so wonderfully remarkable that it demanded further explanation. It is of sufficient importance to the News' readers to report it to them fully. It was so important then that it attracted considerable attention at the time. The following is the paragraph in question:

"C. B. Northrop, for 28 years one of the best known merchants on Woodward avenue, who was supposed to be dying last spring of locomotor ataxia, or creeping paralysis, has secured a new lease of life and returned to work at his store. The disease has always been supposed to be incurable, but Mr. Northrop's condition is greatly improved, and it looks now as if the grave would be cheated out of its prey."

Since that time Mr. Northrop has steadily improved, not only in looks, but in condition, till he has gained his old-time strength.

In had been hinted to the writer of this article, who was acquainted with Mr. Northrop, that this miraculous change had been wrought by a very simple remedy called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. When asked about it Mr. Northrop fully verified the statement, and not only so, but he had taken pains to inform any one who was suffering in a similar manner when he heard of any such case. Mr. Northrop was enthusiastic at the result in his own case of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It was a remedy that he had heard of after he had tried everything he could hope to give him any relief. He had been in the care of the best physicians who did all they could to alleviate this terrible malady, but without any avail. He had given up hope, when a friend in Lockport, N. Y., wrote him of the case of a person there who had been cured in similar circumstances by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The person cured at Lockport had obtained his information respecting Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from an article published in the Hamilton, Ont., Times. The case was called "The Hamilton Miracle," and told the story of a man in that city, who, after almost incredible suffering, was pronounced by the most eminent physicians to be incurable and permanently disabled. He had spent hundreds of dollars in all sorts of treatment and appliances, only to be told in the end that there was no hope for him, and that cure was impossible. The person alluded to (Mr. John Marshall, of 25 Little William street, Hamilton, Ont.,) was a member of the Royal Templars of Temperance, and after having been pronounced permanently disabled and incurable by the physicians, was paid the $1,000 disability insurance provided by the order for its members in such cases, for years Mr. Marshall had been utterly helpless, and was barely able to drag himself around his house with the aid of crutches. His agonies were almost unbearable and life was a burden to him, when at last relief came. Some months after he had been paid the disability claim he heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and was induced to try them. The result was miraculous; almost from the outset an improvent was noticed, and in a few months the man whom medical experts had said was incurable, was going about the city healthier and stronger than before. Mr. Marshall was so well known in Hamilton that all the city newspapers wrote up his wonderful recovery in detail, and it was thus, as before stated, that Mr. Northrop came into possession of the information that led to his equally marvelous recovery. One could scarcely conceive a case more hopeless than that of Mr. Northrop. His injury came about in this way: One day nearly four years ago he stumbled and fell the complete length of a steep flight of stairs which were at the rear of his store. His head and spine were severely injured. He was picked up and taken to his home. Creeping paralysis very soon developed itself, and in spite of the most strenuous efforts of friends and physicians the terrible affliction fastened itself upon him. For nearly two years he was perfectly helpless. He could do nothing to support his strength in the least effort. He had to be wheeled about in an invalid's chair. He was weak, pale and fast sinking when his timely information came that veritably snatched his life from the jaws of death. Those, who at that time saw a feeble old man wheeled into his store on an invalid's chair, would not recognize the man now, so great is the change that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have wrought. When Mr. Northrop learned of the remedy that had cured Mr. Marshall in Hamilton, and the person in Lockport, he procured a supply of Dr. William's Pink Pills thr Messrs. Bassett & L'Hommedieu, 95 Woodward avenue, and from the outset found an improvement. He faithfully adhered to the use of the remedy until now he is completely restored. Mr. Northrop declares there can be no doubt as to the Pink Pills being the cause of his restoration to health, as all other remedies and medical treatment left him in a condition rapidly going from bad to worse, until at last it was declared there was no hope for him and he was pronounced incurable. He was in this terrible condition when he began to use Dr. William's Pink Pills, and they have restored him to health.

Mr. Northrop was asked what was claimed for this wonderful remedy, and replied that he understood the proprietors claim it to be a blood builder and nerve restorer; supplying in a condensed form all the elements necessary to enrich the blood, restore shattered nerves and drive out disease. It is claimed by the proprietors that Pink Pills will cure paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, palpitation of the heart, headache, and all diseases peculiar to females, loss of appetite, dizziness, sleeplessness, loss of memory, and all diseases arising from overwork, mental worry, loss of vital force, etc.

"I want to say," said Mr. Northrop, "that I don't have much faith in patent medicines, but I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The proprietors, however, claim that they are not a patent medicine in the sense in which that term is used, but a highly scientific preparation, the result of years of careful study and experiment on the part of the proprietors, and the pills were successfully used in private practices for years before being placed for general sale. Mr. Northrop declares that he is a living example that there is nothing to equal these pills as a cure for nerve diseases. On inquiry the writer fonnd that these pills were manufactured by Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Morristown, N. Y., and the pills are sold in boxes (never in bulk by the hundred) at 70 cents a box, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, from either above addresses. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment with them comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies, or medical treatment. This case is one of the most remarkable on record, and as it is one right here in Detroit and not a thousand miles away, it can be easily verified. Mr. Northrop is very well known to the people of Detroit, and he says he is only too glad to testify of the marvelous good wrought in his case. He says he considers it his duty to help all who are similarly afflicted by any word he can say in behalf of the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If any of the News readers want any information we feel sure Mr. Northrop would willingly oblige them as he has the writer in relating these fac to him.

The Opinion of All

Who have tried Polson's NERVILINE, the gre pain remedy, is that it is never-failing in pa of every description. Neuralgia, toothach cramps, pain in the stomach, and kindred co plaints are banished as if by magic. Rap and certain in operation, pleasant to tak Nerviline stands at the very front rank remedies of this class. A trial bottle may purchased for 10 cents, a very small amount any case; but the best expenditure you c make, if a sufferer from any kind of pain, i 10 or 25-cent bottle of Nerviline at druggi and country dealers.

Twice Their Natural Size.

For twelve years Mr. Edward Eva formerly employed by Davey & Moo glass manufacturers, London, Eng., suffe from the worst form of rheumatism. was treated at infirmaries, but was alwa discharged as incurable. His legs and han were swollen to twice their natural si He could not walk; the pain drove h almost frantic, and he felt as if hot ir were passing through his bones. The fi application of St. Jacobs Oil relieved hi and continuing its use the swelling left limbs; in a week he could walk, all pain vanished and he went to work.

The proportion of pure Anglo-Sa words in the Bible is 97 per cent. of whole.

A farmer once asked his herd why was lying at the windy side of the dy "Fat w'y cud a ken the win'y side o' dyke, fin a've only been a week aboot toon ?" was the reply.
