THE O. L. O.

This spells "Chatham Lecture Course," whose first number—Ben Hur, by Montville Flowers—was so much enjoyed by the large audience last November.

Ralph Parlette, the Humorist, will give the second lecture of the series Monday next, in the Grand.

"A brilliant orator."
"A philosopher of sunshine."
"A greater than Bill Nye."
"Tears and laughter commingled."
"A wonderful word-painter."
Go and hear him next Monday. Plan opens at Brisco's on Friday. Tickets, 75 cents. Double ticket, $1.00.

EARLY SPRING

County Commissioner A. Stewart, of Chatham township, saw many signs of the early spring on Sunday. He killed probably the first garter snake of the year, saw two butterflies and four robins.

WORTHY CAUSE

Benefit Concert Given by Non-Coms. for Mrs. H. Burrill was a Delightful Success

The benefit concert, given in the Grand Opera House last evening by the 24th Regiment Band, was very largely patronized. Over $1.00 was realized, which sum will be presented to Mrs. H. Burrill, the unfortunate woman for whom the concert was given.

This concert was put on under the auspices of the Non-Coms. of the 24th Regiment, who have given much time and energy in making it the success it was. They were working in a noble cause and deserve great credit for the spirit they have shown throughout the whole affair. Mrs. Burrill has been left in destitute circumstances through the desertion of her husband, and is at present dangerously ill in St. Joseph's Hospital.

The new Regiment Band, under the direction of H. C. Philp, made their first appearance before a Chatham audience last evening and they created a very favorable impression. This band may well be called a "crack musical organization" and they have made wonderful progress under the able direction of Mr. Philp. The applause they received from the audience last evening showed that the first efforts were enjoyed and appreciated.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Wilfred Smith, the male quartet was unable to appear on the program. Mr. Smith was suddenly taken with a fainting sensation as he was responding to an encore given him after an excellent solo.

The program, as rendered, was as follows:—

God Save the King—24th Regiment Band, H. C. Philp, B. M.

Chairman's Address—Lt. Col. J. B. Rankin, O. C. 24th Regiment.

March, The Main Chance, Schramser—24th Regt. Band.

Selection—Ladies' Quartette, Miss Hollinrake, Miss P. White, Miss M. Groves, Mrs. M. Bogart.

Solo, Selected—Miss Mae Peate.

Grand Selection, Maratani, Mazzacapo—24th Band.

Solo, Selected—Miss G. Hollinrake.

Selection, Little Egypt, Lincke—24th Band.

Reading—Miss Hazel Bedford.

March, Steel King, F. J. Sinclair—24th Band.

Accompanist—Miss Flossie Hogart

DEATH OF MR LAPP

Franklin Lapp, for twenty-three years a spinner for T. H. Taylor & Co., and more recently mail carrier between Chatham and Big Point, died at his residence on Lorne Ave. on Tuesday, aged 56 years.

The deceased has been ill since Christmas, but a few days ago had a severe stroke of paralysis on his right side, from which he never rallied. He has been a resident of this city for thirty years, having formerly resided in Port Hope.

The widow, three sons and two daughters survive, and the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30.

RIVER RISING

The complete thaw which took place last week has set the ice in motion on the River Thames and inhabitants of Chatham are witnessing the unusual spectacle of a spring freshet in January.

Large quantities of ice and lumber are coming down and the river has risen from eight to nine feet in the last forty-eight hours. The Rankin dock is out of sight, being two feet under water, and buildings on the banks of the creek and river are already suffering for their close proximity to those badly behaved streams.

The Rankin dock is out of sight, being two feet under water, and buildings on the banks of the creek and river are already suffering for their close proximity to those badly behaved streams.

Some comment has been caused by the discovery of the fact that, although the city has built a special shed to accommodate the municipal belongings, the corporation's stone crusher, a valuable machine purchased at a high cost, has been overlooked, and is now standing on the river bank by Tecumseh Park, nearly covered with water.

In view of the expense incurred in obtaining these city appliances, it is certainly a matter for regret that oversights of this nature should occur.

Concert and Banquet Given in St. Joseph's Hall Last Evening—A Large Attendance

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Chatham branch of the C. M. B. was very fittingly celebrated last evening when a large banquet and concert was held in St. Joseph's Hall. The evening was a decided success in every way. The program was good, the attendance large, and the banquet was most elaborate. Father James acted as chairman of the evening and he gave universal satisfaction in this capacity. The evening's enjoyment was much enhanced by the presence of two officers of the society, I. I. Behan and D. J. O'Connor. These gentlemen both made interesting addresses. During the afternoon they were shown around the city by F. Eschirhart and Dr. Sullivan and they were much impressed with the up-to-dateness of Chatham.

Last evening they were made the recipients of the following address:

Chatham, Ont., Jan. 23, '06.
I. I. Behan, Esq.,
Grand Secretary,
and
D. J. O'Connor, Esq.,
Grand Organizer of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada:

Dear Sirs and Brothers,—On behalf of the officers and members of Branch No. 8, C. M. B. A., Chatham, Ont., we extend to you a most cordial welcome on this the occasion of your first visit to our Branch, and we greatly appreciate your presence with us on this the twenty-fifth anniversary of the institution of Branch No. 8, C. M. B. A., and we feel confident that your visit among us will give renewed activity to our members, and we know that this your first official visit to Branch No. 8, will be the means of increasing our membership and of developing the interests of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada.

Permit us, Dear Sirs and Brothers, once more to welcome you, and we beg leave to say that we fully appreciate your untiring efforts since assuming your respective honorable positions in our noble Order. Signed on behalf of the officers and members of Branch No. 8, C. M. B. A., of Chatham, Ontario.

WILLIAM PRIMEAT,
Chairman of Committee.

The program last evening was as follows:

CLUB AT-HOME

Vice President Smith Entertains Macaulay Club—Presentation to Departing Member

The members of the Macaulay Club—the Maple City's cultured and classic literary guild, which has enjoyed an existence for over a quarter of a century—with their friends, met last night by invitation at the home of their esteemed vice-president, Crown Attorney H. D. Smith, and spent a memorable and exceedingly enjoyable social evening together. It was one of the largest gatherings in the history of the Club and the membership was almost completely represented.

The earlier part of the evening was devoted to music and delightful social intercourse, following which an admirable impromptu program was contributed, the President, Dr. Geo. Musson, acting as master of ceremonies.

Captain Fred Stone read a very enjoyable selection from Browning, following which R. W. Angus rendered a splendid tenor solo, "The Cavalry Song." Dr. T. K. Holmes, one of the pioneers of the Club, gave a magnificent recitation; Vice-President H. D. Smith sang two admirable solos, while J. S. Lane, B. A., contributed a valuable essay. John R. Smith, who presided at the piano, was enthusiastically received when he finally played two of his own musical compositions.

The President then alluded to the early departure from Chatham of H. W. Anderson, editor of The Planet, who was a past President of the Club, and said it was the desire of the members to take the present occasion to give expression to the cordial feelings and good wishes which they experienced towards him.

Ald. Thomas Scullard, who is the oldest living member of the Macaulay Club, having an association extending for 25 years, then read the following address, accompanying which was the presentation to Mr. Anderson of the complete works of Shakespeare in forty volumes:

Chatham, Ont., Jan. 23rd, 1906.
To Mr. Harry W. Anderson,
Chatham, Ont.

Dear Sir—The members of the Macaulay Club learning that you are about to leave Chatham to take up your abode in Toronto, felt that they could not allow the occasion to pass without in some public way giving expression to the kindly feeling they bear towards you.

We congratulate you upon the distinguished position you have achieved in the field of journalism in Chatham and feel assured that the larger arena of our Provincial metropolis will afford you an opportunity of achieving still greater success in your chosen profession.

While we rejoice in the advancement of your own private interest, we regret that it should deprive us of the pleasures of comradeship.

During many years past not only has the Club had the advantage of the pleasure of your society, but its members are largely indebted to your own graceful and scholarly use of our mother tongue for the high standard of literary taste which prevails among them.

As an expression of our feeling and as a reminder of the pleasant hours we have spent together endeavoring "to smooth with classical art the rugged tongue," we ask you to accept this copy of Shakespeare, which we hope you will take in the same kindly spirit in which it is offered.

Wishing you all success and prosperity in your new field of labor,
We are, Dear Sir,
Your friends and comrades,
GEO. MUSSON,
President.

S. B. ARNOLD,
Secretary.

In a few feeling and appropriate words Mr. Anderson expressed his high appreciation of the beautiful gift and the friendship of so many true colleagues. He would ever treasure valued memories of the Macaulay Club of Chatham.
A delicious luncheon was served ere the gathering finally broke up.

DO HIM HONOR

On Monday evening the congregation of New St. Andrew's, Dover, met in the church and brought a very successful year's work to a close. Although the weather was somewhat inclement a great many interested in the noble work being done.

At the conclusion of the meeting the members of the choir paid a fitting tribute to their organist, Mr. Parkyn.

Their address to him was read by Miss Clara Ross, and then Miss Lillie Purke presented him with a handsome Austrian vase, as a token of their esteem.

Mr. Parkyn, although taken completely by surprise, answered the members of the choir, assuring them that any services he had rendered them had been nothing but a pleasure to him.

Refreshments, served by the ladies, concluded an enjoyable evening.

DRESDEN

The young ladies of the Mission Circle met at Mrs. J. B. Carswell's on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Watson gave a very interesting description of Africa and its different religions.

Clare and Kent Dover have recovered from la grippe.

SICK KIDNEYS

Means Aching Backs and Sharp, Stabbing Pains That Make Life Almost Unendurable.

An aching, breaking back, sharp stabs of pain—that's kidney trouble. The kidneys are really a spongy filter—a human filter to take poison from the blood. But sick, weak kidneys cannot filter the blood properly. The delicate human filters get clogged with impurities, and the poison is left in the system to cause back-aches, headaches, rheumatism, dropsy and fatal inflammation. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the one sure cure for sick kidneys. They make new, rich blood, which flushes them clean and gives them strength for their work. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills set the kidneys right, and make lame, aching backs strong and well. Mr. George Johnson, of the village of Ohio, N.E., says:—"My son, now eighteen, rich old, suffered from kidney trouble and severe pains in the back, which caused him many a sleepless night. We tried several medicines, but they did not help him, and he grew so weak that he could not do the work that falls to the lot of a young boy on a farm. We were advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this was the first medicine that reached the cause of the trouble. He took the pills for a couple of months, when every symptom of the trouble was gone, and he was as healthy as any boy of his age. I am satisfied Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure kidney trouble in its most severe forms."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new rich blood. In that way they strike at the root of anaemia, indigestion, kidney trouble, liver complaint, erysipelas, skin diseases, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, and the special ailments of growing girls and women whose health depends upon the richness and regularity of their blood. The genuine pills have the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box, and may be had from all dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OYSTER SUPPER

Over twenty guests assembled at Somerville's Refreshment Rooms last evening to do justice to a splendid oyster supper provided by Warden-elect Sturgis.

After the catables were disposed of, C. C. French, on behalf of the members of the County Council, presented S. Somers with a handsome pipe as a token of esteem and an acknowledgment of his many kindnesses to them in the past.

After this, several interesting speeches were made and Dr. Russell favored the assembly with a few songs. The happy party broke up at seven o'clock, voting Warden-elect Sturgis an excellent host.

RIGHT NOURISHMENT.

We think of nourishment as food—meats, soups, vegetables, etc., but that's only half. It's not the food alone that counts but the good that we get from food that furnishes nourishment. A pound of steak is of less value to a weak stomach than a crust of bread is to a strong digestion. But weak stomachs can be made strong. Begin by eating less; have regular hours for meals; avoid fancy things and about a half hour after eating take a tablespoonful of Scott's Emulsion. It's a fact of medical history that people have lived on not much else but Scott's Emulsion for a long time—not only lived but gained flesh and recovered their strength and health. From the pure Norwegian cod liver oil to the last drop of glycerine, Scott's Emulsion contains just the strengthening and health-building elements needed for low vitality, weak digestion and poorly nourished bodies.

"HAPPY WEEK" IS RIGHTLY NAMED

Everybody in this store to-day was smiling. Is "Happy Week" to be the most unusually successful and enjoyable event ever known in merchandising circles in this city. Just ask any who have spent an hour or two with us to-day.

There are five more days—with a hundred smiles each day (500 in all) still coming to you—even if you missed attendance to-day.

No matter what you want in good, timely, modish merchandise, you'll find it here, price so remarkably and agreeably that while you'll buy just what you want—what you need and must buy somewhere at once—you'll thoroughly enjoy paying the tiny price.

You'll smile all the time you're here—the spirit of good nature that will be everywhere throughout this store, will act as a veritable tonic to puzzled, blue, or discouraged people, but at the same time, apart from the smiling side of the occasion, there's an intensely practical and helpful side to the sale—and there is not one woman or man who reads this who can afford not to come to this store during "Happy Week."

THE STAGE ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At The Grand—
Dora Thorne—Jan. 25.
The Parting of the Ways—Jan. 27.
(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

"DORA THORNE."

What the Cincinnati Enquirer says of "Dora Thorne":

"A large audience gave its seat of applauding approval to this bit of stage literature last night. Judging from the applause, the production is just what the theatre-goers want. 'Dora Thorne' as a story, is too well known for comment, but it must be admitted that the playwright has improved upon the plot to such an extent that the play is far more interesting than the book. Dramatic license is somewhat elastic at times, to say the least, and in the play the dramatic and exciting points of the book are brought out with decisive action and clearness. Nor is the comedy found wanting much humor is intermingled with the episodes of the drama, making as a whole a play, novel and interesting in the extreme."

The company appearing in Dora Thorne are, Miss Marie Dale, who assumes the title role; Miss Isabel Sherman, Miss Edith Dombey, Mr. W. Sheffield, Mr. Geo. Denton, Mr. Jos. Schafer and others.

"Dora Thorne" will be seen at the Grand on Thursday, Jan. 25.

THE PARTING OF THE WAYS.

The mere announcement that the people's favorite play, "The Parting of the Ways," is coming to our city is a matter of importance to theatre-goers in our midst. No melodrama of modern times has enjoyed the vogue that has been accorded to Neil Twomey's solid substantial success, "The Parting of the Ways." The reason is apparent. The play is interesting from the rise of the curtain from the first act until the final curtain falls. The climaxes are very strong and exciting, and the story is one that will appeal to all classes of theatre-goers.

"The Parting of the Ways" will be seen at the Grand on Saturday, for matinee and night.

CARTER ON TRIAL.

Kirkfield Stable Trainer Gives Vivid

Description of His Fatal Quarrel

With "Dutch" Miller.

Toronto, Jan. 23.—In the Assize Court, Alex Carter was arraigned on the charge of manslaughter, for causing the death of Fred (Dutch) Miller by shooting him in the Searam Kitchen on Nov. 26 last. Justice Britton is presiding. All the evidence is in. Counsel will address the jury this morning.

A feature of the trial was the dramatic, graphic and exciting manner in which the accused gave his evidence. Carter's description of the fatal quarrel between him and Miller was vivid. He told how, after they were alone in the "kitchen," he called Miller "a big Dutch bully," and accused him of being ungrateful. More words followed. Miller went to his trunk, and while lifting the lid said: "I'll kill you."

Miller turned with the revolver and snapped it twice, while it was pointed at his (Carter's) head. They grappled and the struggle for the gun commenced. They turned and twisted. "I knew I was fighting for my life," said Carter. Both had hold of the weapon with both hands, their arms extending full length upwards. Miller had his finger on the trigger. The gun was pointed downwards when it went off. Miller fell back on the bed. Carter then went out on the street and asked some boys to hurry for a doctor.

Witness, in telling of this part of the fight, got down out of the box and described the position of himself and his opponent.

Dr. Caven, who made the post-mortem, testified that the shot which caused death was fired with the revolver pointing downward. He saw no signs of gun-powder. If a revolver was fired a foot from the object, one would naturally find to expect signs of powder. Fired at two feet there would be none shown on a towel coat.

Other witnesses testified that the dead man had from time to time made threatening remarks against the accused.

The accused is a trainer in the employ of the Kirkfield stable, and the dead man was employed by the Searam stable.

Guilty of Manslaughter.
In the Assize Court, Dominico Taberino, pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Judge Britton postponed sentence. Taberino was tried at the last Assizes on the charge of killing Amos Marlow at Mimico on Sept. 22 last. The jury disagreed.

BATTLESHIP SUNK.

Three Hundred of Brazil's Turret Ship

Aquidaban's Crew Go Down With

Her—Only One Officer Saved.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Jan. 23.—The

Brazilian turret ship Aquidaban has been sunk at Port Jacarepagua, south

of Rio Janeiro, as the result of an explosion on board.

Three hundred of her crew perished,

and only one officer was saved.

Four rear admirals perished on board the Aquidaban, which had been ordered for the accommodation of a number of supernumery officers and men

attached to the flotilla escorting the

cruiser Barroso, having the Minister of Marine and his staff on board, who

were inspecting the sites proposed for a new arsenal.

The explosion on the Aquidaban occurred in the powder magazine.

The vessel sank in three minutes.

212 Sailors Were Killed.

Later advices show that the number

killed in the blowing up of the battleship was 212, and that 98 of those aboard were saved.

The bodies will be brought to Rio

Janeiro and given a national funeral.

There is general mourning here, and

all the theatres are closed.

The following members of the commission which left the arsenal on board

the Aquidaban, accompanying the minister of marine, were drowned:

Rear-Admiral Rodrigo Jose Da Ro-
cha, Rear-Admiral Francisco Calheiros

Da Graça, Rear-Admiral Joao Candido

Brazil, and Capt. Alves De Larrigo.

Two commanders, two German photographers, and one reporter also were drowned.

PERIA'S HOUSE OF JUSTICE.

Shah Presides Over Representative

Elective Assembly.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—A constitutional Government for Persia, according to advices from Teheran received

here, is the outcome of a sudden exodus of a thousand merchants and mullah priests from the Persian capital and

a protest against the Shah's Government. The insurgents proceeded to the village of Shah-Abd-El-Asim, where

the Shah presided over a representative

assembly elected by the mulahs, merchants and landowners.

The assembly will be called the

"House of Justice," and exercise administrative and legislative powers.

The equality of all before the law

will be proclaimed. It is expected that the assembly will demand the dismissal

of M. J. Naus, the Belgian Minister of Customs and Posts, and the Belgian

employees of the customs.

He Knew His Life's Value.

Robert Burns was once standing on a long pier on the water front of Edinburgh. A well-known and wealthy merchant, walking by, stumbled and fell into the water. He could not swim

and so sank. When he arose for the third time nobody dared to save him,

but an old weather-beaten sailor, at

the risk of his own life ran up the

pier, and, jumping in, rescued the man.

The gentleman had been worked

over quite a while before he became

conscious, and when he realized the situation he rewarded his rescuer

with what in our money would amount to twenty-five cents. At this the crowd which had gathered, knowing

his wealth, hooted and jeered. But

Burns, who was standing by quitted

them and said:

"Surely the gentleman knows what

his life is worth!"

Fruit Cures Constipation

"Fruit-a-tives" cure Constipation because they are made of fruit.

Constipation comes from
just one cause—lack of bile.
It is the bile—flowing into the intestines—that causes the bowels to move. More bile is the only thing that can cure
Chronic Constipation.

Fruit acts directly on the liver. It stimulates and strengthens the millions of tiny liver cells—causes more bile to be made—and makes
the liver give up more bile to the bowels.

Mrs. KATE KURTZ, Dunville, Ont.,
writes stating that for years constipation
troubled her. "I have used
"Fruit-a-tives" with great benefit,
and they are a grand medicine for constipation of other stomach troubles. I would not care to be without them in the house.
they are so good."

Cathartics, pills, salts, aper-
ient waters don't reach the liver. They merely irritate the bowels and make the bowels move by irritating the lining membrane. Constipation is made worst by such drugs.

Fruit-a-tives

or Fruit Liver Tablets.

contain no calomel, cascara,
senna or other bowel irritants.
They are concentrated fruit
juices, combined and made more active medicinally by
our process of uniting them.

"Fruit-a-tives" are a liver
tonic. They tone up and stimulate the liver—and cause the liver to secrete more bile. This means a healthy bowel action
and a permanent cure for Constipation, Biliousness and kindred troubles.

All druggists should have them. Sent prepaid on receipt of price—50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50—by

Fruit-a-tives Limited,

Ottawa.

In the Interests of His Client.

It was his first jury case, and he had to defend his first client, who was a better-known food loss strength.

In an interval he approached a veteran member of the Bar and sought

for advice.

"And how long do you think I ought to make my speech to the jury, sir?"

"I should say about an hour," said

the old hand.

"An hour! Why, I thought 'ten minutes would be ample! Why say

long?" said his adviser. "You see,

they can't sentence him till you're

finished, and the longer you talk the

longer he'll be out of gaol!"—Montreal Standard.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN

HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia

and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has indigestion, food loss strength.

If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent

food eaten is digested and assimilated.

People can die of starvation who have

abundant food to eat, when the stomach and bowels are weak.

Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak,"

the body will be weak also, because it is

upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered

as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body.

If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished

that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc.

The liver will be torpid and inactive,

giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, nervous, feeble or irregular action of

heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache,

backache and kindred disturbances and weakness.

Mr. Louis Pato, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my

head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy

on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was dyspepsia, trouble due to dyspepsia,

and prescribed for me, and although I took

their medicine, I bought me a bottle and my wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's

Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment until I felt better.

My stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done

for me and I certainly give it highest recommendation. It was wheedled by a pushy-grabbing

dealer into taking inferior substitutes for

Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be 'just as good.'

MORE DOGS

A Resident of Joseph St. Would Like the Council to Deal at Once With the Dog Question

"Keep jogging the memory of the Council reference to dogs running at large," was a Joseph St. resident's kindly advice this morning. "That article on bad dogs which appeared in last night's Planet was along the right line and the aldermen would do well to consider the question to see them up at night."

"On Joseph St. the residents have a well grounded complaint in this matter. A couple of residents on this street keep dogs, and every night the canines for blocks around congregate and hold old-fashioned camp meetings. It is all very enjoyable for the dogs, no doubt, but it is a different story for the residents who in the meantime are trying to go to sleep."

"If the owners of these troublesome animals would only take the precaution to tie them up at night, I know some people who would rise up in the morning and call them blessed."

PRESENTATION

An Account of a Banquet Given in England to Mr. Tindall, Brother in Law of T. W. Smyth

The following is an extract from the Leeds Mercury, England:

"A presentation was made to Mr. Tindall, Hon. Secretary of the Yorkshire Union of Artists, by the members at the Hotel Metropole, Leeds. After a number of interesting addresses by Union officials, those present enjoyed a sumptuous banquet. The toast of the evening, 'Our Guest,' was given by the chairman, who paid a high tribute to the loyalty and devotion and courtesy of Mr. Tindall during the many years he had held the office of Hon. Secretary. In token of the esteem in which he was held by all his colleagues the chairman, on behalf of the Union, presented to Mr. Tindall two exquisitely beautiful solid silver flagons, and an equally beautiful solid silver bowl; while to Mrs. Tindall he presented a solid silver tea set on a silver tray. The whole of the articles were most delicate in design, and were the perfection of artistic execution."

"Mr. Tindall, who was enthusiastically received, expressed his appreciation of the regard in which his services were held by the members of the union, and said that nothing could have pleased him more than the inclusion of his wife in the presentation. (Applause.)"

Mrs. Tindall is the sister of Mrs. T. W. Smyth, of Wellington street, this city.

EGG CORNERS FAIL

Last year Detroit and Chicago speculators bought up all the summer surplus of eggs for storage, intent on controlling the winter supply at their own prices. The following extract from yesterday's Detroit Free Press shows to what extent they have succeeded:

DETROIT EGG PRICES.

Cold storage..... 11c doz. 20c 3c
Fresh..... 20c doz. 27c 30c

Cold storage eggs in car loads from Chicago are being sold just now at 11 cents a dozen because of the recent warm weather. The ice market looks bad, the hens are laying plentifully and the big cold storage thousands of ancient eggs on their and ice at high prices if an attempt is made to preserve them from complete demoralization. Wayne county hens are very fruitful just now and a cold storage man says that fresh country eggs are being sold at 20 cents a dozen.

The public can join the hen in a huge joke on the speculators this time. Locally eggs are at moderately high prices, but hens are still laying well for the time of the year.

Repose in Council Chamber.

Montreal, Jan. 24.—The remains of the late Hon. Raymond Prefontaine now repose in the Council Chamber where he ruled the administration for so many years. The funeral train reached here at 8.15 p. m. yesterday. The train, both in Montreal and in imposing Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who had just arrived from Ottawa; Hon. Messrs. Paterson, Brodeur, Emmerson, Lemieux and scores of federal and local members of Parliaments, made up the cortege.

Canada God's Country.

London, Jan. 24.—(C. A. P.)—"Canada is God's place for poor people," said Commissioner Coombs, who has just arrived. In regard to the Salvation Army emigration scheme he predicted that 1906 would be a record year in the number of emigrants leaving England for Canada. The first would leave in March.

Telephone Bill a Sure Thing.

Winnipeg, Jan. 24.—Hon. Robert Smith said last night in reference to a report that the Manitoba Government would introduce no telephone legislation this session, that the bill would be introduced in a few days. He said that for obvious reasons it was impossible to make it public beforehand.

Legislature Will Be Opened Thursday, Feb. 15—Short But Brisk Session Is Aimed For By Premier.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Mortimer Clark will formerly open the Ontario Legislature on Thursday, Feb. 15, at 3 o'clock.

This statement was made officially by Hon. J. P. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, last evening, and the proclamation was prepared last night.

Notices will be sent out to-day to all parties immediately concerned.

The Premier announced that it was the expectation of the Government to dispose of all the public business in a thorough way in time to prorogue the Legislature on Thursday, April 12, the day preceding Good Friday, making the session a brief but brisk one of just eight weeks.

An organized attempt will be made to do away with the delays which have in the past characterized dealings in connection with private legislation. The times of extension of bills will be shorter and members will be asked to get their notices in right away. Hon. Mr. Whitney would not say when the Government legislation would be brought forward, beyond that it would be "as soon as possible."

Attractive Kitchen Furniture.

Do you know that 83 per cent. of the women in this country do their own work? The 17 per cent. left have trouble in securing and holding servants. Consider carefully where the time at home is spent. We are in the dining room half an hour, three times a day. After the evening meal we go to the living room for two or three hours. This room is the best and most costly in the house. The wife and mother spends from seven to eight hours each day in the kitchen, working and planning for the rest of the family, who forget what her surroundings are when they are away. We are ready to supply just what is required to make more attractive kitchens, during January at special prices.

THE AUSTIN

January Clearance Sale

Is Meeting with Continued Success—Hundreds of Old and New Customers Respond to Our Advertisements of Facts.

WE SAY ANY—You can buy any overcoat you select here or any fancy suit you pick out at a reduced price. No other clothing concern offers you such a wide choice of definable goods at such great reductions.

THE OVERCOATS reduced are not alone the Tweeds and other easy-to-get Fabrics, but the worsted—those hard-finished scarce woollens that are hard to find in other stores even at regular prices.

If You Buy Now

For next winter you save not only the 25 to 35 per cent. off our regular prices, but also the 15% advance you will have to pay next winter, because of the increasing cost of wool and work.

$15 and $16 Suits and Overcoats now $12.00
$12.50 to $13.50 Suits and Overcoats now $9.99
$10.00 to $12	$7.50
$7.50 to $8.50	$6.49
$5.00 to $7.50	$5.00
$5.00	$3.95

NOTE—This week is specially directed to the selling of BOYS' SUITS and OVERCOATS at reduced prices. See East King St. Window

The Letter-Box

WORD FROM THE GIRLS.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—In the pages of your
G. H. J., a few days ago there appeared an article on keeping the students of the C. C. I. outdoors on disagreeable mornings. We are sure that the students of the Institute who pass by the Tillson's coal yard on Adelaide St.
would far rather have that very
very bad sidewalk mended.
The citizens of Chatham are undoubtedly proud of their Maple City, but it is a perfect shame that a public street
like Adelaide should be disfigured by such a sidewalk.We pass there every morning, and
anyone who does the same will agree
with us that it is about the worst sidewalk in Chatham, not only on muddy, sloppy days, but every day.
We are mistaken in calling it a sidewalk; it is merely planks and rotten ones at that—laid along the road.The road has not been scraped for nearly a year and people who pass thunderstruck to see any such performance. Both these things should be speedily attended to by the Board
of Works.Yours respectfully,

TELEPHONE POLLS

"Ald. Scullard's reference, at the Council meeting, to the Bell Telephone Company was a timely one,"
was a ratepayer's comment this morning."If Chatham is to receive as many concessions from this company as
are received by other cities of the same size, the Council should wake up that corporation and see that we get them. In Stratford, a place smaller than Chatham, all of the telephone poles have been removed from the business streets. This is not the case in Chatham, and while the aldermen are on the question
they might make an effort to have the telephone poles taken off King street."

Mr. W. H. G. Colles, I. P. S., visited our school Wednesday morning and delighted the scholars by giving them a half holiday.

Mrs. Strath-Millar, of Chicago, is spending a few weeks at her father's, Mr. Arthur Bobier.

A hockey match was played on the river here on Saturday, Thamesville Juniors vs. Kent Bridge. Score 3-2 in favor of the former.

The sympathy of the entire community is with Mr. Moorehouse and family in their recent sad bereavement. The remains of the late Mrs. Moorehouse were brought from London on Wednesday and after the funeral service, conducted by Rev. Mr. McKelvie in the Methodist church here, were interred in the Shaw cemetery.

We regret to note the death of Mr. Wm. Shaw, one of the oldest settlers in these parts. The funeral took place on Thursday, conducted by Rev. Mr. Hare at the old home-stead.

Miss Eva M. Shaw has returned from the Chatham General Hospital. Miss Lila Gregory was a Chatham visitor on Saturday.

Mr. Ed. Worth, Jr., of Toronto, made a flying visit home on Sunday.

A meeting was held in the hall here on Saturday evening for the purpose of reorganizing the Polemical Society. About a dozen members were present and elected the following officers: President, Mr. Clifford Langford; vice-president, Dr. A. W. Seighon; treasurer, Mr. Sherman Langford; secretary, Mr. F. L. Arnold. A list of subjects suitable for debate will be drawn up and submitted to the society at the next meeting on Friday evening.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

SAVED SUFFERING AND BROUGHT BACK HEALTH—DR. AGNEW'S GREAT HEART CURE AND CATARRHAL POWDER DEFY DISEASE AND NEVER FAIL IN THEIR MISSION OF HEALING

"I feel so thankful at the restored health of my daughter that if any use can be made of this I shall be pleased." This is what Mr. George Weels, of Elora, Ont., says in giving his testimony to the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. Mr. Weels' daughter was a great sufferer from heart disease and nervousness. She was unable to lie on her left side. She ran down in health and her recovery was a source of anxiety. Induced by friends, who had proved its worth, she obtained Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart and before one bottle had been taken, an absolute cure was pronounced. Yes, this great remedy is a cure for all ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, and the instantaneous relief given by it has snatched thousands from death's grasp. Don't trifle a minute if you have the slightest evidence of heart disorders, such as palpitation, fainting or uneasiness. This remedy will relieve such troubles immediately and will cure the stomach and nerves.

"When I know a thing is worthy of a recommendation I consider it my duty to tell of it." The Rev. James Murdock, of Harrisburg, Pa., says this after having been cured of a very malignant form of catarrh by Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powders. What he can say of its healing powers thousands of others have said and can say of it. Don't neglect "only a little cold" in the head. It may lead to chronic catarrh. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder relieves in 10 minutes and is easily applied. Keep it near you if you are a "cold" in the head" subject.

DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT cures all skin troubles. DR. AGNEW'S PILLS—40 doses 10 cents. SOLD BY W. W. TURNER AND C. H. GUNN AND CO.

The LUST of HATE

BY GUY BOOTHBY

Author of "A Beautiful White Devil", "A Bid For Fortune", "The Marriage of Esther," "Dr. Nikola," Etc

As soon as we had pushed off from the shore I turned the boat's head, and taking up the oars, set to work to pull out to sea. It was not altogether an easy task, for the boat was a heavy one and the morning was strangely warm. The sky overhead was innocent of cloud, but away to the west it presented a hazy appearance; the look of which I did not altogether like. However, I stuck to my work, all the time keeping my eyes fixed on the rapidly advancing ship. She presented a fine appearance, and it was evident she was a vessel of about three thousand tons. I hoped she would turn out to belong to our own nationality, though under the circumstances any other would prove equally acceptable. At present she was distant from us about six miles, and as she was still heading directly for the island I began to feel certain she had observed our signal. For this reason I pointed my boat's head straight for her and continued to pull with all the strength I possessed. Suddenly Miss Maybourne uttered a little cry, and seeing her staring in a new direction I turned in my seat to discover what had occasioned it.

"She is leaving us," cried my companion, in agonized tones, pointing to the vessel we had been attempting to intercept. "Look, look, Mr. Wrexford, she is leaving us!" There was no need for her to bid me look, I was watching the ship with all my eyes. Heaven alone knows how supreme was the agony of that moment. She had gone about, and for this reason it was plain that those on board had not seen our signal. Now unless I could manage to attract her attention, it would be most unlikely that she would see us. In that case we might die upon the island without a chance of escape. At any cost we must intercept her. I accordingly resumed my seat again and began to pull with all my strength. Fortunately the breeze was light and the sea smooth, otherwise I should have made no headway at all. But when all was said and done, with both wind and tide in my favor it was but little that I could accomplish. The boat, as I have already said, was a large and heavy one, and my strength was perhaps a little undermined by I had gone through in the last two or three days. But, knowing what depended on it, I tolled at the oars like a galley slave, while Miss Maybourne kept her eyes fixed upon the retreating ship. At the end of an hour I gave up the idea of giving the chase as hopeless. My strength was quite exhausted, and our hoped-for saviour was just showing hull down upon the horizon. Realizing this I dropped my head on to my hands like the coward I was and resigned myself to my despair. For the moment I think I must have forgotten that I was a man. I remembered only the fact that a chance had been given us of escaping from our prison, and that just as we were about to grasp it, it was snatched away from us. For some moments we had made our terrible discovery, neither of us spoke. Then our glances met and we read our terror in each other's eyes.

"What are we to do? What can we do?" cried Miss Maybourne, running her eyes round the horizon and then meeting my gaze again. I shook my head and tried to think before I answered her. "For the moment I am as powerless as yourself to say," I replied. "Even if we could fix the direction, goodness only knows how far we are from the island. We may be only distant ten miles or so, or we may be twenty. It must be nearly four o'clock by this time, and in another four hours at most darkness will be falling. The cover of the night we may miss it again. On the other hand we cannot exist here without food or water. Oh, Miss Maybourne, to what straits have I brought you through my stupidity. If we had stayed on the island instead of putting off on this fool's chase you would be safe now."

"You must not blame yourself, Mr. Wrexford," she answered. "Indeed you must not! It is not just for I was quite as anxious as yourself to try and intercept the vessel. That we did not succeed is not our fault, and in any case I will not let you reproach yourself." "Alas! I cannot help it," I replied. "And your generosity only makes me do so the more." "In that case I shall cease to be generous," she said. "We will see how that plan works. Come, come, my friend, let us look our situation in the face and see what is best to be done. Believe me, I have no fear. God will protect us in the future as He has done in the past."

A Film-Flam Game.

Toronto, Jan. 23.—In the P. M. Court yesterday the preliminary investigation of the loan agents for conspiracy to defraud came to a sudden stop. Magistrate Denison thought the evidence showed that S. A. Anderson, Loan Co. practically flim-flamed their accusers out of their money, and he will send them for trial.

Captain Accused of Incompetence.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 23.—Serious charges of incompetency and intoxication have been preferred by the crew against Capt. Davidson of the lost ship King David, and in connection with her loss they direct attention to the necessity for machinery for investigation at first hand of responsibility for such a mishap.

The less some people have to say the more talking they do.

of the oars. There was something indescribably awful about the utter absence of noise. It was like the peace which precedes some great calamity. It stretched the nerves to breaking point. Indeed, once when I allowed myself to think what our fate would be if by any chance we should miss the island, I had such a shock as almost deprived me of my power of thinking for some minutes.

For at least an hour and a half I pulled on, keeping her head nearly as possible in the same direction, and expecting every moment to hear the roar of the breakers ahead. The fog still remained as thick as ever, and each time I paused in my work to listen the same dead silence greeted me as before. Once more I turned to my work, and pulled on without stopping for another quarter of an hour. Still no sound of the kind we hoped to hear came to us. The island seemed as difficult to find in that fog as the proverbial needle in the bundle of hay.

The agony of mind I suffered was enough to turn a man's hair. If only the fog would lift and let us have a glimpse of where we were, it would have been a different matter, but no such luck. It continued as thick as ever, wreathing and circling about us like the smoke from the infernal regions. At last I drew in my oars and arranged them by my side. Under the circumstances it was no use wasting what remained of my strength by useless exertion.

From that time forward—that is to say for at least six hours—we drifted on and on, the fog remaining as dense as when we had first encountered it. Throughout that time we kept our ears continually strained for a sound that might guide us, but always without success. By this time it must have been considerably past three in the afternoon, and for all we knew to the contrary we might still be miles and miles out of our reckoning. All through this agonizing period, however, Miss Maybourne did not once complain, but bore herself with a quiet bravery that would have shamed the veriest coward into at least an affection of courage. How bitterly I now reproached myself for having left the island to pursue that vessel I must leave you to imagine. But for that suicidal act of folly we might now be on dry land, if not perhaps as luxuriously housed as we should have liked, at least safer than we were now. The responsibility for that act of madness rested entirely upon my shoulders, and the burden of that knowledge was my continual punishment.

At last I was roused from my bitter thoughts by my companion exclaiming that she thought the fog was lifting a little in one particular quarter. I looked in the direction indicated and had to admit that the atmosphere certainly seemed to be clearer there than elsewhere. Still, however, there was no noise of breakers to be heard.

The light in the quarter pointed out by my companion was destined to be the signal for the fog's departure, and in less than a quarter of an hour, starting from the time of our first observing it, the whole expanse of sea, from horizon to horizon, stood revealed to us. We sprang to our feet almost simultaneously, and searched the ocean for the island. But to learn how it was not to be seen. We were alone on the open sea without either water or food, any real knowledge of where we were, or without being able to tell from which quarter we might expect assistance to come. A more dreadful situation could scarcely be imagined, and when, I considered the sex and weakness of my companion, and reflected what such a fate would mean for her, I could have cursed myself for the stupidity which had brought it all about.

For some moments after we had made our terrible discovery, neither of us spoke. Then our glances met and we read our terror in each other's eyes.

"What are we to do? What can we do?" cried Miss Maybourne, running her eyes round the horizon and then meeting my gaze again.

I shook my head and tried to think before I answered her.

"For the moment I am as powerless as yourself to say," I replied. "Even if we could fix the direction, goodness only knows how far we are from the island. KIDNEY DISEASE AND ITS DANGERS

CAN BE QUICKLY CURED BY

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Kidney disease comes on quietly, it may have been in the system for a long time before you suspected the real cause of your trouble. There may have been backaches, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as, brick dust deposit in urine, highly colored, scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent urination, stings in bladder, etc.

Perhaps you did not know that these were symptoms of kidney disease, so the trouble kept growing worse, until Neuralgia, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Dropsy, and worst of all, Bright's Disease have taken hold of your system.

Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken at the first sign of anything wrong. There is no other safe way, (plasters and liniments are useless), as the trouble must be eradicated from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills go to the seat of the trouble, strengthen the kidneys, and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble. Mr. Thomas Mayhew, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with my kidneys, and my back got so lame I felt miserable all over. After taking five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was as well as ever." Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

CURE BY CUTICURA"No tongue can tell how I suffered
for five years with itching and bleeding eczema, until cured by Cuticura,
and I am so grateful I want the world
to know, for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again
with the most terrible pain and itch-
ing. I have been sick several times,
but never in my life did I experience
such awful suffering as with this eczema. I felt that death was near, and longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, when my mother insisted that I try Cuticura. I felt better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. I continued with the Soap and Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. Any person having any

M. REVOIL KEEN FENCER

Count Von Tattenbach Parries
With Downright Speech.Beginning of Fresh Controversies Between Germany and France Through the Unsympathetic Personalities of These Delegates—Five of 16 Articles
In the Report of the Committee on Contraband Arms Adopted.Algiers, Jan. 23.—The plenipotentiaries were entertained at yesterday's sitting of the Moroccan conference by an almost continuous skirmish between M. Revoil, head of the French delegation, and Count Von Tattenbach,
the second of the German delegates.
While the amenities were carefully observed, the other delegates were conscious that the day was the beginning of fresh controversies between France
and Germany, which are likely to be long protracted and of increasing earnestness.The styles of fence displayed by the two plenipotentiaries suggested their differences of races. M. Revoil was keen, analytical of mind, skilful in diplomatic phrasing and with a grace
of expression that was a winning personality. Count Von Tattenbach, on the other hand, was a blunt, soldierly
man, trusting to the solidity of his ideas and to his facts.The two plenipotentiaries are not in sympathy, and draw apart outside the council room. Both are of the imbu-
tion, and it will be difficult for either
to yield to the other.

Messages of Hope.

The conference reassembled at the Town Hall. The presiding officer, the Duke of Almodovar, Spanish Minister for Foreign Affairs, read messages from the Spanish Senate and Chamber of Deputies, expressing hope for a successful issue of the conference. The Marquis Visconti Venosta, head of the Italian mission, replying in the name of the delegates, made a significant reference to the international character of the agreement to be concluded here.
This was interpreted as referring to the Franco-German difficulty over the question of the international control of Morocco.The conference adopted five of the 16 articles contained in the report of the committee on contraband arms.
Discussion of the remaining articles
then went over until Wednesday, today being reserved for the ceremonies
attending the feast day of King Alfonso.

Spoke in Arabic.

The discussion brought out a lengthy discourse from Sidi Mohammed El Mokhr, the second of the Moroccan delegates, expressing Morocco's general attitude towards the conference.
He spoke in Arabic, and the delegates
decided to have a translation made of his remarks.The drafts of the report under discussion, besides providing for the conservation of Morocco's general attitude towards the conference, the Moroccan customs authorities with the repression of contraband along the coast. Before seizing a foreign ship
they must notify the legation of the country to which the ship belongs, and
pending action on the part of the legation at Tangier, the Moroccan authorities shall install a guardian on board
the ship. Upon the legation's approving the seizure, the proceeds going to be condemned, the proceeds going to the Moroccan treasury.

France Given Control.

The draft gives France exclusive
control over contraband on the Algeri-
an frontier, and gives Spain exclusive control along the frontier of Spain's possessions in Morocco.The general principle of the plan is to leave the coast surveillance with the Moroccan customs, but as the question
of France's administering the customs
comes up later, the Franco-German contention remains open.

French Fight the Chinese.

Marseilles, Jan. 23.—The Chinese
mail which arrived here yesterday
brought an account of the invasion of Tonkin, French Indo-China by Chinese
regulars who encountered a French
force numbering 400 men, of whom 150
were Europeans. A three-hour battle ensued, resulting in the defeat of the Chinese, who lost 300 killed and 500
wounded. The French lost 16 men of the foreign legion, and 29 Annamites
killed.

Nominations at Kingston.

Kingston, Jan. 23.—The nomination of E. J. B. Fennell as the candidate for the Liberals, and of Donald M. McIntyre for the Conservatives in the by-
election, took place in the City Hall
yesterday at 1 o'clock. At this hour
only a few persons were present, and the preliminaries were limited to the legal requirements. At 2 p. m. the hall was comfortably filled, and in 20 minutes more it was packed. Besides the candidates J. T. Rigney for Mr. Mc-Intyre, and Dr. Richardson for Mr.
Fennell, spoke.

Get rid of it at once by taking

Dr. Wood's
Norway
Pine SyrupObstinate coughs yield to its grateful soothing action, and in the racing, persistent cough, often present in Consumptive cases, it gives prompt and sure relief. In Asthma and Bronchitis it is a successful
remedy, rendering breathing easy and refreshing sleep, and often effecting a permanent cure.We do not claim that it will cure Consumption in the advanced stages, but if taken in time it will prevent it reaching
that stage, and will give the greatest relief
to the poor sufferer from this terrible malady.Be careful when purchasing to see that you get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway
Pine Syrup. Put up in a yellow wrapper,
three pine trees the trade mark.
Mr. Wm. O. Jenkins, Spring Lake,
Mich., writes: "I had a very bad cold
settled on my lungs. I bought two bottles
of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup but it only required one to cure me. I have never met with any other medicine as good."
Price 25 cts., at all dealers.

King's Accession Day Celebration.

London, Jan. 23.—The fifth anniversary of the accession of King Edward was celebrated throughout the United Kingdom with salutes, flag flying and bell ringing.The King and Queen, who are now
at Windsor Castle, attended the annual memorial service yesterday in honor of the late Queen Victoria, which was held in the Frogmore Mausoleum.
Toronto, Jan. 23.—Flags were flown
from civic and Government buildings,
and, in memory of the departed sovereign, the Daughters of the Empire
placed a wreath of violets on the statue in Queen's Park with the inscription, "Victoria, beloved by her people,
Jan. 23, 1901."

ARE YOU COUSTIVE?

If you know how bad for health
constipation is you would be more careful. Irregular bowels cause appendicitis, jaundice, anaemia and a thousand other diseases, too. Sooner or later it will bring you to a sick
bed. The use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills changes all this quickly. They are made to cure constipation in one night, and always do so. By taking Dr. Hamilton's Pills you are sure of a keen appetite, splendid color, jovial
spirits and sound, restful sleep. Gentle
in action; good for men, women
or children. 25c. per box, or five for $1.00. At all dealers in medicine.Some people do everything so well that they lose the credit due them.Between the ages of fifteen and forty-five, the time when womanhood
begins and motherhood ends, it is estimated that the aggregate term of woman's suffering is ten years. Ten years out of thirty! One-third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed!
Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal
the bloom from the cheeks, the fairness from the form. They write their record in many a crease and wrinkle. What a boon then to wa-
man is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promotes perfect regularity, dries up debilitating drains,
heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate wa-
manly organs in vigorous and permanent health. No other medicine
can do for woman what is done by
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.Trifling with temptation has a

CANADIANS IN DEFEAT

Capt. Campbell and Mr. Wyatt
Share in Unionist Rout.

Austin Chamberlain Is Elected by a Big Majority—Rosebery Junior's Fate in the Balance Over Home Rule—Tuesday's Returns Include One Conservative Gain, One Labor Gain and Two Liberal Gains.

London, Jan. 24.—(C. A. P.)—The following was the standing of the parties at last night:

Liberals	289
Labor	38
Conservatives	132
Nationalists	89

Liberal Gains	159
Labor Gains	31
Conservative Gains	10
Nationalist Gains	2

Seats unfilled 144.

London, Jan. 24.—Two more Canadian aspirants for the House of Commons fell yesterday. They were Capt. D. F. Campbell and H. Fraser Wyatt, both Conservatives. This disposes of the list of new Canadian candidates in this fight. The net result is the addition of two to the House—Hammer Greenwood and Boulton, both Liberals. All the four Conservatives have now shared the fate of so many of the party and gone down to defeat.

Capt. Campbell was defeated in a three-cornered fight in Mid-Lanark by a majority of 2,776. The seat has always been held by Liberals with majorities of 71 to 1,063. This time the Labor candidate was in the field, but his candidature was repudiated by the official labor men. The Liberal candidate declared that the Conservatives were paying the expenses of the Labor men, but this the Conservatives strongly denied. The result was that James Caldwell, the Liberal, polled 7,246; Capt. Campbell, Conservative, 4,470, and Gibson, Labor, 758.

Mr. Wyatt also fought an even stronger Liberal seat in the Rushcliffe division of Nottinghamshire, where the majorities in the past have ranged from 446 to 2,636. He was opposed by J. E. Ellis, Under Secretary for India in the new Government, whose majority is 3,634. The vote stood—Ellis 9,090, Wyatt 5,450.

Tuesday's Gains.

Other returns last night include one Conservative gain; one Labor gain, and two Liberal gains.

W. Mitchell Thompson, Conservative, secured the seat by a majority of 675 in Northwest Lanark over C. M. Douglas, Liberal, who held the seat by 291. The Labor candidate secured 3,291 votes, and is therefore blamed for defeating the Liberal candidate.

Labor gained the Newton division of Lancashire, J. Scudde defeating Col. Richard Pilkington, Conservative, by 541, the former Conservative majority being 1,504. Labor also scored in the Heywood division of Lancashire. E. H. Holden defeated Capt. M. P. M. Barker by 1,112 and in the Tottenham division of Middlesex Percy Alden secured 2,947 over Horace W. Chatterton, who started with a lead of 2,712. The Liberals also hold the Loughboro division of Lancashire, Maurice Ivey being elected by 1,780.

Irish Question Bobs Up.
Other ridings were decided yesterday, but are not yet announced. The most interesting fight occurred in Midlothian, where Lord Dalmeny, elder son of Lord Rosebery, was fighting for the seat once held by Mr. Gladstone. The Irish question caused trouble, though Lord Dalmeny's utterances were sympathetic to the Irish cause, and in line with Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's pronouncement. He is held responsible for his father's strong antagonistic views and the official Irish leaders issued a manifesto against him. The last Liberal majority was 214, and the Irish vote numbers over a thousand. It is not thought the manifesto will do more than split the Irish vote in the most.

The standing of the parties is—Liberals 289, Labor 31, Conservatives 126, Nationalists 80.

Austin Chamberlain In.

The east, or Bromsgrove, division of Worcestershire has re-elected Joseph Austin Chamberlain, Liberal Unionist, eldest son of Joseph Chamberlain, and former Chancellor of the Exchequer, by over 4,000.

Donald MacMaster, K. C., the defeated candidate at Leigh, and a former Canadian, addressing the meeting after his defeat, said they had been beaten this time by false cries and the landslide.

The future was theirs. They must take to heart the lesson of the fight, and improve their organization. It was a gentlemanly to jeer at a defeated candidate as the crowd had done at him. Conservatives were bound to win at the next swing of the pendulum.

Military Men Alarmed.

Kingston, Jan. 24.—Military men hereabouts are alarmed at the way Imperial officers are being called into the Canadian service. Gen. Lake is credited with the plan of getting the British officers places in the colony. The latest rumor is that Gen. Parsons is to be given command at Halifax, superseding Col. Drury, C. B. The announcement of English officers getting the staff places in the Royal School of Gunnery here has added consternation.

ACUTE STEP IN QUARREL

Balkan Situation Has Become Serious Once More.

Austria-Hungary and Turkey Try to Break Up Coalition of the Balkan States—Servian Cattle Barred Out of Austria-Hungary, Its 90 Per Cent. Market—Turkey Takes Action—King Peter Must Go Soon.

Vienna, Jan. 24.—A despatch received late Monday night from Belgrade says that the Austro-Hungarian frontier has been closed against Servian cattle. This marks an acute step in the quarrel between Austria-Hungary on one side, and Bulgaria and Servia on the other, as the result of secret negotiations between the Balkan States for a mutual customs union.

All the efforts of Austria-Hungary to terminate the negotiations looking to the conclusion of the customs union have been unavailing. In its last note on the subject the Servian Government declined to be guided by Austria-Hungary's suggestion in the matter. The negotiations between Austria-Hungary and Servia for the conclusion of a commercial treaty were officially broken off Monday because of Servia's persistence in endeavoring to form the union with the other Balkan states.

The closing of the Austro-Hungarian frontier against the importation of Servian cattle into Austria-Hungary is clearly an aggressive movement for the purpose of making Servia understand that Austria-Hungary is firmly opposed to the proposed neutral customs union of the Balkan states. Ninety per cent. of the Servian cattle are marketed in Austria-Hungary.

Turkey Makes Demands.

London, Jan. 24.—Telegraphing from Sofia Monday, The Times' correspondent says:

"Contending that Bulgaria has no right under the provisions of the Berlin treaty to conclude such a convention, Turkey has presented a note requiring that Bulgaria abandon the Servia-Bulgarian convention. Bulgaria refuses to comply with the request. "Turkey's intervention, apparently, is attributable to Austro-Hungarian inspiration, and introduces a new factor in the situation; but it is not known whether Turkey is ready to enforce the demand by frontier regulations."

Special despatches from Vienna to yesterday morning's London newspapers are inclined to attribute the strained relations between Austria-Hungary and Servia partly to the waning influence of King Peter. The King will be expelled. King Peter's court is virtually boycotted by the European courts, owing to suspicions that he had foreknowledge of the murder of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and already a strong party is trying to place a German prince on the Servian throne.

Days Are Numbered.

The correspondent of The Daily Mail says:

"It is believed in Austria that the days of the Karageorgevitch dynasty are numbered, and that before a year has elapsed King Peter and his family will be expelled. King Peter's court is virtually boycotted by the European courts, owing to suspicions that he had foreknowledge of the murder of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and already a strong party is trying to place a German prince on the Servian throne."

Mayor of London Appointed.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—A Royal Commission was issued yesterday morning, appointing Joseph C. Judd, mayor of London, and a member of the firm of Meredith and Judd, solicitors, a commissioner to inquire into the charges and counter charges which have been made against S. T. Bastedo and J. S. Webster, of the Fisheries Department. Mayor Judd of London was at the buildings yesterday arranging the preliminaries. Charges on both sides must be submitted by Friday morning. Commissioner Judd will peruse the copies of their charges against each other between Friday and 10 o'clock Monday morning, when each side must be ready with their witnesses to appear before him at the Parliament buildings.

Pastor's Diamonds Found.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—Rev. D. M. Martin, Cannington, Ont., on the 16th Dec. placed his valise on a seat in the Union Station. It contained three stick pins, gold watch, set with diamonds, diamond sunburst, wedding ring, diamond ring, string of pearls, string of corals, beads from South America, and other ornaments. The valise disappeared. Yesterday Maurice Morden, who said he worked for the C. P. R. at one time, was seen in Hamilton trying to dispose of the watch for a few dollars. Detective Sackett will bring him back. Sgt. Duncan has located the sunburst, diamond pin and the valise in Toronto.

Worst in Fifty Years.

Galt, Jan. 24.—The earliest and worst spring flood on record for fifty years is now raging on Grand River, which has risen 15 feet. Happily there is little heavy ice, otherwise the damage would be great. All the factories north and south of the water are shut down by reason of flooded premises. The G. T. R. tracks are submerged, and traffic is stopped. There is considerable damage to the contents of cellars. The flood came wholly unexpectedly.

Five Killed by Snowslide.

Silverton, Colo., Jan. 24.—Five Italian miners employed at the Sunnyside Mine lost their lives in an immense snowslide late Monday afternoon. There are eleven slides between Silverton and Elk Park. The slides average from seven to thirty feet deep and from 50 to 450 feet wide.

Conservative Convention.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—It is said a movement is on foot to call a Conservative provincial convention for some time early in March, when the Legislature will be in session.

MUST BE A GODLY MAN

Dr. Torrey States the Great Essential of a Minister.

Preaches There is a Personal Devil to One of the Greatest of Massey Hall Crowds—Saloons, Theosophists, Christian Scientists, Dowies and Spiritualism Evidences That He is a Match For Any One of Us.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—The Torrey ministerial conference opened yesterday at the Metropolitan Church. Nearly 500 ministers and theological students were present. Dr. Torrey said that the great responsibility of winning souls dwelt on himself personally. "If the ministers get right, the churches and sinners will all be converted and the greatest revival ever heard of would begin right in Toronto," he said.

The great essential of a minister was to prove his ministry by saving souls. He must be a Godly man, at all times preaching under the guidance of the Spirit of God. Under such men the church prospered and under other leaders the church declined.

Province Packs Hall.

Massey Hall was packed in the afternoon with workers and laymen from all over the province.

The necessity and possibility of the baptism of the Holy Spirit in order to undertake any kind of Christian work was the theme of Dr. Torrey.

In the evening Evangelist Torrey gave one of his sermons to the largest crowd yet seen in the auditorium.

He told every man and woman present that sometime or other they would need a hiding place from the peril hanging over them. To-day many needed a hiding place from the accusations of their own consciences. The conscience might sleep, but it would never die and woe to the man or woman who had no hiding place when the divine spark wakes.

There is a Devil.

"I believe in a personal devil," said Dr. Torrey, "and you need a hiding place from his power and cunning. Many people say there is no devil. I know there is because the Bible teaches there is and my own observation has shown me there is. The footprints of the devil are all over this city. Look at the saloons. What means these strange delusions of the day. Theosophists, Christian Scientists, Dowies, Spiritualism. It means that there is a devil. That devil is more than a match for any of us. Many in Toronto believe there is no hell. My common-sense tells me that there is a hell and if there is not there should be."

Someone in the audience applauded and the evangelist said: "Don't applaud, I want that to sink into every heart in Toronto."

ALEX. CARTER NOT GUILTY.

A. R. Walton on Trial on Four Charges of False Pretences.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—After deliberating for over four hours, the jury decided Alex. Carter was not guilty of the charge of killing Fred ("Dutch") Miller. The verdict seemed a surprise to the court and its frequenters, who rather expected a disagreement.

Justice Britton, in discharging Carter, advised him to have more control over his temper in the future. "There might have been a more serious charge against you, which might have cost you your life. The dead man was only willing to fight when you wished him to. Let this be a lesson to you."

The afternoon session was one of continuous objections. A. R. Walton was put on trial on four different charges of obtaining goods by false pretences from Ambrose Kent & Co., Ltd. Mack, Ryrie Bros., and the Julian Sisk Co.

The first charge taken up was obtaining a diamond pin from the Kent firm. The firm was never paid for it, but paid $30 to redeem it from the Buffalo pawnbroker.

Senator Cox denied being mixed up with Walton in anyway, any more than giving him two letters of introduction.

A Coking Main.

St. Catharines, Jan. 24.—The police authorities of Grimsby Village yesterday laid information against some thirty-four men who, it is claimed, were interested in a coking-main which was held at that place Jan. 2. A large number of sports from Grimsby, Beamsville, Winona, St. Catharines and Buffalo were present, and some parties whose names are prominent in the county are on the list.

Fire at Dundalk.

Dundalk, Jan. 24.—About 1 o'clock yesterday morning, fire destroyed the brick store on Main street owned by James Carson and occupied by Barton & Arnold, furniture dealers. The general store of J. D. Brown, on one side, and S. McCullough's office, were more or less damaged.

Conference Takes Day Off.

Algiers, Jan. 24.—The delegates to the Moroccan conference devoted the time yesterday to a series of brilliant functions commemorating King Aïssa's feast day.

Old Man Missing.

Peterboro, Jan. 24.—Daniel Eagan, of Peterboro, is missing. He is about 70 years of age and was last seen in Hastings.

ATTACKED BY BLIGHT.

Great Patches of Ontario's Pine Forests Declared to Be Affected.

Ottawa, Jan. 24.—Officials of the Dominion geological survey have made the sensational announcement that a blight has struck the great pine forests of the Temiskaming district.

They say that great patches of the grand white pines are losing their foliage through some unknown cause. The needle-like leaves of the affected trees were turned in some cases to a yellow color, and in others to a deep red brownish.

In some cases the entire foliage of gigantic forest monsters was so affected, in others the enemy had only attacked in patches, but in all cases appearances pointed to the early death of the trees, which would expose them in a year, or two to the ravages of the "borer," an insect that perforates deep timber in a manner that makes it absolutely worthless, except for firewood.

The discoverers of this condition were Dr. Barlow and W. J. Wilson of the geological survey, both of whom were engaged during last summer in different parts of the Temagami country.

Dr. Barlow communicated his observations upon his return to Hon. Mr. Cochrane, Provincial Minister of Lands and Mines, who expressed his intention of looking into the matter.

PROVINCIAL RIGHTS CONVENTION

Presents Ex-Premier Haultain With $1,000, Which He Refuses.

Moosejaw, Sask., Jan. 24.—An enthusiastic Provincial Rights convention was held here yesterday, when 250 delegates gathered from all parts of Saskatchewan. It was decided to form a permanent Provincial Rights association. The party, in a strong resolution, laid down as one of the main planks in its platform, the nationalization of the school system.

The principle of public control of railways was also set forth.

The convention presented Haultain with a purse of $1,000, which he absolutely refused.

J. K. McInnis, editor of The Regina Standard, was elected president of the new association.

Cured of Drunkenness

How a Montreal lady cured her husband of drunkenness with a secret home remedy.

I want to tell you that I have cured my husband of drunkenness so quickly and simply that I am astonished. How glad I am that I could be of any help to you and your family. I got from you checked my drinking, and before I had used the full treatment he was permanently cured. I gave him the remedy in his tea, and as I had no taste or smell, he never knew he was taking it. I want others to know; so you can use this letter, but please not my name yet. I may say that my husband's health is better in every way than for years.
