McGILL-CHUTE

The wedding took place in the Baptist church at five-thirty on Saturday last, of Marjorie Parker Chute, second daughter of Rev. A. C. Chute, D. D., of Acadia University and Mrs. Chute, to Chester William McGill, an electrical engineer of Boston. The church was decorated by the girl friends of the bride with ferns, golden rods and golden glow.

The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, assisted by Rev. T. W. Savary, B. A., rector of St. James church, Kingston, Ont. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Captain Arthur Hunt Chute, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Principal Silver.

The bride wore a going away gown of blue velvet, gray hat with jade plume and gray shoes, carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Misses Frances Keirstead, Dorothy Holmes and Marguerite DeWitt acted as ushers.

INCREASE IN IMMIGRATION EXPECTED

A statement of immigration policy was issued Tuesday night by Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of the Department of the Interior. With the certainty of a bountiful harvest, which in Western Canada exceeds that of any previous year, and the prospects of better times returning, not only for farming but also for other industries, says the statement, plans are being laid for next season, in the expectation that immigration to Canada will show a marked increase.

HANTSPOUR NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. George Swaine, Miss Dorothy and Jack Swaine, left for Wolfville last week, where they purpose residing for the winter. Miss Swaine is a student at Acadia.

NEW FOUND RECORD

Which Furnishes Interesting Data Regarding Wolfville in Former Years

Search has been made at various times since the burning of old College Hall on Dec. 2nd, 1920 for a box containing current records placed under the cornerstone when it was laid over forty years ago. In excavating this week, these records were finally unearthed. Among the contents was a description of Wolfville in 1878 prepared by a then citizen who has since gone to his reward. The writer Professor A. E. Coldwell, a former member of the faculty of Acadia University and afterwards for years an efficient Town Clerk and valued resident, was an exceedingly well informed man whose picture of Wolfville at that time, will be found well worthy of approval.

Description of the Village of Wolfville, N. S.
to be deposited in the corner-stone of the new College Building—July 9th, 1878.

Wolfville, extending from "Scott's Corner" westwardly to Greenwich hollow, or "The Willows", a distance of two miles, has a population of 700.

It contains four Houses of Worship, 125 dwelling houses, 4 hotels, 16 stores, 1 Bank Agency, 22 mechanics' shops, 1 school house, 1 temperance hall and 2 public halls.

There live in the village 7 clergymen (5 of them not in charge of churches), 2 physicians, 2 lawyers, 6 dry goods merchants, 7 grocers and flour dealers, 2 dealers in iron and tin ware, 1 book seller, 4 tailors, 2 harness makers, 2 tin smiths, 1 baker, 3 blacksmiths, 7 carpenters, 2 watchmakers, 3 shoemakers and 1 carriage-maker.

The Baptist Church, numbering about 320, has been under the pastoral care of the Rev. S. W. deBlois, A.M., for over 20 years. They worship in a rather elegant and commodious building to which an addition was made this year to hold a pipe organ, costing $1500, the gift of The Methodist Society worship in a very tasteful and convenient building on Chapel Street. The ministers on the circuit are the Revs. Joseph Coffin and I. Mellich, the former living at Grand Pre.

The Presbyterians meet in a small but showy Gothic house, built through the exertions of the Rev. Robert Somerville. They have no settled minister but are under the pastoral care of the Rev. Mr. Logan, of Kentville.

The adherents of the Church of England have a small "church" near the East end of the village in which services are conducted by the Rev. Mr. Ruggles, of Kentville.

HATS AND THEIR ACCESSORIES

As shown in the Wolfville Millinery Rooms

Warm and varied are the colorings of the autumn head dress, and beautiful are the new hats both large and small.

Ribbon hand made flowers embroidered in bright colors on dark velvet chapeaus; chanelle and metallic embroidery on diaphanous shapes are some of the new styles. While Spanish lace in black or brown or silver is an up-to-the-minute trimming for larger models.

Miss Saxtons is shown a model in silver gray panne velvet with a drape of black lace held by a silk rose of gray color shading to pearl.

Another really Spanish type at Miss Saxtons, brown panne velvet and the rose wreath is veiled with brown lace. Small mushroom shapes of toast color velvet are trimmed in ostrich pompoms and tortoise colored clasps. A moire velvet toque is in olive green with a brilliant pheasant mount.

Black velvet picture hats, this season, are bandied with silver or gold metallic cloth and trimmed in ostrich feathers either hanging from the brim, or in pompom mounts. The ostrich trimmings come in many beautiful iridescent tints, as well as in black and are displayed on lovely models at both Miss Saxton's and Miss M. Hobson Smith's.

Veils with silk and metallic embroidery drap many new hats. Plaited moire garbans (parlez-vous in Francaise?) are smart feature of many larger hats.

In the new colors, lacquer red with green march in the fore front and greens and browns come following.

CHUTE-KINSMAN

An interesting social event occurred at high noon on Thursday last week, at the Baptist Church, when Hilda Margaret Kinsman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kinsman, was united in marriage to Austin Aubrey Chute, second son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Chute.

The bride, who looked most charming and attractive in her wedding gown of white Canton crepe trimmed with rhinestones and bright beads, with the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and who carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, came in on the arm of her father, to the familiar strains of the wedding march, rendered by Mrs. J. D. Chambers.

She was attended by her maid of honor, Hortense Griffin, of Bridgetown, a classmate at Acadia Seminary, who wore orchid tulle with hat to correspond and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The groom was accompanied by Dr. Murray Kinsman, of Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, Boston.

The ceremony was officiated in by Misses Margaret Chute, Margaret Ford and Rita Kinsman.

The mother of the bride was attired in lavender with handsome stole and hat of black velvet, while the mother of the groom wore black lace with ermine fur. Dr. A. C. Chute, father of the groom performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and guests.

After a delightful reception at the home of the bride, on Westwood Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Chute left for Milford where they will remain a fortnight before driving to Boston, where Mr. Chute is on the Faculty of a private school in Newton. They were the recipients of numerous presents of cut glass, silver, fancy-work and china. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Dana, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Keirstead, Toronto; Rev. W. and Mrs. Savery and Master Reginald, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hunt Chute, Bermuda.

THE MINAS BASIN SERVICE

The Kingsport-Parrsboro service of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, SS "Prince Albert" in commission, with its increased accommodation for carrying automobiles and its arrangements for serving light lunch and teas, has grown in popular favor this present season.

As the "Prince Albert" steams along Minas Basin and skirts around majestic Blomidon, one's admiration of nature's handiwork reaches the point of sublime ecstasy. The dykes and undulating topography of the country, the fleeting glimpses of Cape Split and myriads of enchanting scenes as the steamer glides along, form a panorama of beauty rarely surpassed anywhere. Parrsboro shores and town, as you reach them, complete a rare treat of a sail over unique Minas Basin.

The reduction in the rate on autos carried on the SS "Prince Albert" between Kingsport and Parrsboro, effective August 10th, will be appreciated by automobile owners. For details of rates and reservations, apply D. A. R. ticket agent at Kingsport or Parrsboro. 47-41

THE BOY SCOUTS' TRIP TO CHESTER BAY

The second annual trip to Chester, that grand prize of the Wolfville Boy Scouts, is now a thing of the past.

The winners of the competition this year were the patrol known as No. 2 Baptist, the leaders being Ronald Prescott and Claire McKenna.

The work done by the members of this patrol during the past year was excellent, their attendance at Church, Sunday School and Weekly Meeting ("All three") being almost perfect.

All of these scouts were frequently reported for "good terms" and some of them were especially mentioned for good work at school.

At 8 o'clock on Thursday, Aug. 23rd the following scouts, Ronald Prescott, Claire McKenna, Avard Wallace, Blair Harrington, Ralph Rathbone, Harold Spencer, Lorraine Jackson, Horace Brown with Assistant Scoutmaster Henry Watson and Scoutmaster E. P. Brown left the Club Room in two cars for Chester Basin via Windsor.

After a pleasant drive over a fairly good road the party arrived at their destination, the hospitable farm house of Mr. Colin Borgal, which for the third time has been made the headquarters of the Wolfville Scouts.

The afternoon was spent in securing a suitable sailboat and rowboat. The boys were fortunately able to obtain the small schooner yacht "Beatrice B.", which they had found so satisfactory the year before.

Provisions and bedding were taken on board immediately after supper and the whole party of ten slept, or tried to sleep on board the boat. Early Friday morning a start was made for the cruise along the shore and among the many islands of the bay.

There was no wind so Engineer Watson was called upon to start the engine, the village of Chester Basin being first revisited to fill up the larder and the gasoline tank.

The course was then laid due South past the treasure island of Capt. Kidd, (Oak Island), which was visited later, and through narrow channels past Murder's and Indian Points, names suggestive of such events as history tells us took place at Covey's Island at the entrance to Mahone Harbour.

As this island was passed the Scoutmaster told the boys the well known story of the murder there in 1756 of Lewis Poyntz and the carrying away by the Indians of his wife and their three sons.

Four miles farther down the bay is Sacrifice, the haunted isle where the Indians are said to have once offered a white child as a sacrifice. This island is one known as Hobson's Nose named either because of its peculiar shape or because it has a red light on its point.

From here the course lay easterly through a remarkably succession of salt water lakes and rivers for a distance of some seven miles to Lunenburg back harbour.

As the accommodations on board the "Beatrice B." had proved rather cramped the preceding night a tent was pitched near the wharf and three of the boys occupied that. They thus escaped the torture of "Slip's" harmonious snoring and "Muley's" heavy kicking.

During the evening everybody paid a visit to Lunenburg where they witnessed the grand return of the Sunday Schools of the town from their annual picnic. They had taken a lesson from Wolfville and had combined this year for the first time. It is only fair to say that although the town is three times the size of Wolfville the showing of the Sunday Schools was not nearly equal to ours. It was to be noted however that in the case of Lunenburg the whole town band, a very fine one, was present.

Saturday was spent in exploring the fine old town of Lunenburg, looking at the fishing vessels lying at anchor in the front harbour or discharging their cargoes of fish at the wharves and inspecting the many points of interest about the town. Late in the afternoon a trip was taken to the commons, a barren piece of land not far from the town and famous for its blueberries. A bucket of the berries was soon picked and everybody felt repaid for their labors when they tasted the "Blueberry Grunt" served for dessert on Sunday. All attended service at St. John's (Anglican) Church on Sunday morning dressed in full Boy Scout uniform and many favorable comments were heard on the appearance of the boys. The remainder of the day was spent quietly on the boat and at the wharf and in the evening, when the fog shut in thick, all went on board the boat, sang hymns and listened to reading by the Scoutmaster.

Monday morning dawned bright and clear, the boys were aroused early and soon as porridge had been cooked a start was made for Bridgewater, a distance of over 40 miles.

Breakfast was eaten on board; a good breakfast it was; but all too soon given to the fishes for the heavy swell of the Atlantic proved too much for these amateur sailors and before West Ironbound was sighted almost all were hanging out to leeward. West Ironbound, or La Have Ironbound as it is commonly called, lies at the entrance to the LaHave River and is about 17 miles from the town of Bridgewater.

Probably there is not a more beautiful sail in the world than this trip up the La Have River. Entering between the high rock-bound shores of Ironbound on the left and Gaff Point on the right, the surf continually breaking in a sea of foam over the black and forbidden rocks of both, are passed into comparative shelter, but yet with enough of the Atlantic to keep the sea-sick ones off their feet. However passing Oxner's Head a few miles further on and finally into the river proper between Fort Point on the left hand and the prosperous settlement of Riverport on the right, one forgot that he was not on some inland waterway and at once demands were made for dinner. The river at this place is about a mile wide and maintains this width for about six miles or half way to Bridgewater. Prosperous settlements and neat looking farms line both banks. Just enough woods are left to please the eye and to prevent the scenery from becoming monotonous.

Finally, round a bend in the river, partly hidden behind piles of lumber on the one shore and pine clad hills on the other, Bridgewater comes into view. We still consider Wolfville the most beautiful situated town in Nova Scotia, but Bridgewater comes a close second. Monday evening and Tuesday were most pleasantly spent in Bridgewater. The young ladies of the town were particularly pleasant and the Scoutmaster and his Assistant had their hands full in seeing that "Smiley" and others did not give him the "Slip".

The Boy Scouts of Bridgewater were greatly in evidence and by their courteous treatment of their Wolfville brothers won the admiration of all. The time at this town passed much too quickly and many hearts were sad when on Wednesday morning early a start was made to retrace the way towards home.

A very strong south-west wind was blowing and when the shelter of the islands was left behind "Doc" and "Hodge" kept up their reputation by a rush to the rail. All but one or two followed suit and even they had nothing to brag about and were very glad when the shelter of Tancook Island, at the mouth of Mahone Bay was reached.

REBUILDING ACADIA

Active Operations Begin On New College Hall

The contract for the erection of the new College Hall has been awarded to Rhodes-Curry Limited. It is said the cost will be approximately $350,000 and the work is to be completed by October of next year.

The building will be 182 feet by 80 feet which exceeds the old building in size by 40 feet and 15 feet. It will be constructed of interlocking tile made at the Shaw yards and will be covered by white constructed stone. In style the building will be Early Colonial, with Corinthian porches.

A recent issue of THE ACADIAN contains an illustration of the building as it will appear when finished.

The work of preparing the foundations was begun last week and a large force of men are already engaged. It is proposed to have the first story completed before winter sets in. This will be a big undertaking and will make lively times.

It is understood that Mr. Byron Bent, who has superintended many of Wolfville's biggest building operations will have charge of the work.

When completed the building will have provision for an echo organ. There will be class rooms and faculty offices. An auditorium will seat two thousand persons and there will be chapel accommodation.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held at the Council Chamber on Monday evening, having been postponed from the preceding Monday on account of Labor Day.

Those present besides the Clerk and the Town Manager were Dr. Eaton, chairman, Coun. Balcom, Commissioner Vaughn and Principal Silver.

The Clerk reported the appointment of Miss Ella Warren as assistant principal and that provision had been made for her receiving the necessary permit from the Education Department, as no licenced teacher could be secured.

The Clerk also brought up the matter of the annual school census, which, we understand, should have been taken in August so that a copy might be placed in the hands of the principal at the beginning of the school. Arrangements were made for the work to be done as speedily as possible.

It was voted that Miss McWhinney be granted the proportion of her government grant which she lost because of the school opening last year at a date later than understood by her.

The following bills were read and ordered paid:
E. F. Mahaney ..... $ 2.00
Insurance premium ..... 35.50
A. M. Wheaton (coal) ..... 1283.45
Davidson Bros ..... 1.50

The bill of Porter Bros. for supplies was ordered paid when properly checked. Mr. Stairs reported on the condition of the tower of the old building, the repairing of which was left to the chairman and manager.

Principal Silver reported the attendance at the opening of the school, 422 pupils, distributed as follows in the different departments:
Grade 1A, 35; Grade 1B, 40; Grade 2, 45; Grade 3, 46; Grade 4, 43; Grade 5, 33; Grade 6, 33; Grade 7, 31; Grade 8, 37; Grade 9, 25; Grade 10, 31; Grade 11, 23.

Pupils from outside the town are in attendance as follows:
8 in Grade 11; 4 in Grade 10; 7 in Grade 8; 2 in Grade 7; 2 in Grade 6; 4 in Grade 5; 1 in Grade 3; 1 in Grade 2.

SCOTCH COMING TO N. S.

Two hundred thousand Scottish Highlanders will be transported from Scotland to Nova Scotia and P. E. I., if the plans of Angus Robertson, President of the Highland Association, who has just returned to Scotland after attending the celebration at Pictou, is carried into effect.

Mr. Robertson in a statement, based on his visit to Nova Scotia, comments on the Scottish atmosphere which prevails at home in such a country. His national characteristics and mode of living are all there ready, waiting for him when he arrives; he has landed in another Scotland, only it is a much better one.

fully situated town in Nova Scotia, but Bridgewater comes a close second. Monday evening and Tuesday were most pleasantly spent in Bridgewater. The young ladies of the town were particularly pleasant and the Scoutmaster and his Assistant had their hands full in seeing that "Smiley" and others did not give him the "Slip".

A Swiss Secret

The famous flavour of Swiss Milk Chocolate is not altogether a question of ingredients, but also of grinding them so fine they are velvet smooth.

Moirs have imported their machinery direct from Switzerland and with the aid of the finest material are turning out the authentic milk chocolate coating that is loved so well. The 5c. bar is an example. And many XXX Chocolates now come milk chocolate coated.

There's an art is eating to get all the taste out of an article. Don't swallow all of a Maltose Biscuit at once. Nibble it and bring out the full flavor.

Moir's plant, devoted to the manufacture of Chocolates, Confectionery, bread, biscuits and cake covers 7 acres of ground.

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

THE CURFEW AGAIN

Our recent reference to the need of a curfew ordinance in Wolfville evidently met with very general approval. Had it been otherwise it would not have affected the fact that allowing present conditions to continue is bound to result in serious evil. Society cannot defend itself by the claims that the direction of the child life is the function of the home. The community also must bear its share of responsibility. Evidences are not wanting of the direful results of allowing children to wander the streets at all hours of the night, and it is high time that steps were taken to bring about a better condition of affairs. To say that a curfew regulation could not be enforced is to confess inability on the part of the civic administration.

THE I. O. D. E. FAIR

The I. O. D. E. Fair, which is becoming an annual institution of the town, takes place this year on the 27th and 28th of the present month. Every public-spirited citizen will be anxious to do his or her part to make it a huge success. The Daughters of the Empire is an organization that has rendered splendid service in the matter of community interest and deserves the hearty support of Wolfville people. The program which has already been announced is an ambitious one and its carrying out successfully will not be accomplished without a great deal of effort on the part of those having the arrangements in charge. However, with a hearty co-operation on the part of everybody what seems like a strenuous undertaking will be easily accomplished and prove a credit to all concerned.

POSTPONING HOLIDAYS

The ACADIAN has before referred to the importance of a full understanding and proper observance of our National Days. One of the practices sometimes followed, which we have felt called upon to protest against, is that which for business or other reasons provides for a postponement of the celebration to a more convenient date than the actual anniversary. In our opinion such a procedure tends to render ineffective every principal for which the holiday stands. For instance who would care to celebrate one's birthday at any other time than on the actual date. We notice that the proposition is made this year to celebrate Armistice Day, which falls on Sunday, on the following day. Public opinion should render its objection to a postponement of an anniversary which carries with it such important teachings. Sunday is a perfectly proper day for celebrating Armistice Day, which this year should be more generously regarded than ever before.

"THE FLOWER OF REMEMBRANCE."

The Provincial Executive of the G. W. V. A., are making a special effort this year to establish everywhere the custom of wearing the Poppy "The Flower of Remembrance" on Armistice Day. It is generally recognized that the Soldier Organizations should have an exclusive right in the management of this enterprise. Their interest in it should certainly be more active, as it commemorates events which live in undying memory. Besides that, the poppies which they handle are made in Vet Craftshops by disabled comrades, who make their living in this way, and the profit from the sale of them is used to relieve the necessities of unfortunate comrades.

It can easily be seen that this distribution of poppies all over Canada, being so large a business will bring in its train a host of competitors from this trade, and this year an organized effort is being made to supply to all Canada a line of poppies at a price to undersell the Vet Craftshops. These poppies are said to be German made and imported from United States, where such poppies were detected last year and their sale prevented.

In places where the G. W. V. A. exists, the exclusive right to sell poppies is being asked of the authorities, and is generally granted. The public is asked to take notice and to aid the Soldier Organizations by purchasing from their sellers.

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

Is advertising as potent a force as its advocates claim? Is the lack of consistent and carefully executed advertising a weakness in retail trade? Let the following answer:

According to Herman Rosenfield, advertising manager for Sears, Roebuck & Company, the big Chicago mail order house, this firm has one bureau employing several persons whose duty is to read every week the country newspapers from all over the United States. "There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory that our bureau does not get," Mr. Rosenfield recently stated. "This bureau looks over these papers carefully, and whenever we find a town where the merchants are not advertising to any great extent in their local papers, we immediately flood that territory with our literature. This always brings results that are far in excess of those obtained by the same efforts in territory where the merchants advertise."

The Credit Men's Journal is the organ of an organization, the object of which is to preserve the prosperous and sound state of retail business, and the journal's comment upon the illustration is as follows: "If this be true, it presents an unanswerable argument in favor of the retailer advertising regularly in his local newspaper."

And still some merchants lose sleep trying to evolve some fantastic and impracticable scheme to combat the mail order invasion.

THE COST OF GASOLENE

Motorists from the United States who visit us—and they are legion these days—express surprise at the price which they are required to pay for gasolene. In their own country the price paid in the northern sections approximates from sixteen to eighteen cents per gallon, while in some of the southern states it sells as low as ten cents. There is to be considered, of course, the difference in the measure which would make the price in Canada one-fifth more, but even then the price demanded here appears to them as out of all proportion to that paid at home. They cannot understand why it is that when they fill their tanks with gas in this country they are called upon to hand out twenty cents or more per gallon in excess of what they are obliged to pay in order to fill them at home.

This is a matter that evidently requires adjustment not only in the interests of "the stranger within our gates" but more especially in behalf of the local car-driver who finds the present price of gasolene a heavy burden. In British Columbia they are placing an extra tax of two cents per gallon on gasolene and reducing the provincial tax on automobiles in order to more equitably provide for highway maintenance. It is claimed that the motor tax should be made proportionate to the amount of travel instead of in accordance with the style of the car and it is thought a tax on the gasolene consumed furnishes the most logical method of arriving at this. The idea appears to be a good one and if the existing taxes here can be modified is well worthy of consideration.

BRITISH EMPIRE EXHIBITION

THE ACADIAN had the pleasure of an interview with Mr. J. S. McKinnon, of Toronto, Director of Industrial Exhibits at the British Empire Exhibition to be held at London, England next summer, who was a recent visitor to our town, a guest at the Villa. Mr. McKinnon gave us a most interesting account of what is going on. The British Empire Exhibition, he said, was conceived by Lord Strathcona, who laid plans for its consummation in 1913, but was forced to postpone it at the outbreak of the war. It was again brought up by a committee of influential English leaders three years ago, who induced the Imperial Government to put up a guarantee fund, which relieved the promoters of financial responsibility. The Overseas Dominions were invited to participate, and practically all responded, the Canadian Government appropriating a million dollars for the expenses in this country's interests.

The purpose of the exposition, from the national standpoint, Mr. McKinnon went on to say is to give Canadian-made goods an opportunity for a wider market. In crossing Canada, he said, he found that many factories were operating at sixty to seventy per cent capacity. An increase of 20 per cent, in his opinion, would revolutionize the industrial life of the nation, and an increase was possible only through building up of a stronger export trade. With buyers from all parts of the world there was no possible reason why the excellence of Canadian products could not be pushed in all the markets of the world. Mr. McKinnon just concluded a trip across the Dominion, from Vancouver to Halifax, and reports that wherever he has presented the proposition, he has met a most enthusiastic response, both from the industrial men and from the provincial governments, most of whom have guaranteed financial assistance to supplement the Federal appropriation.

In sending displays, the exhibitor is at no expense except for the small rental fee. The Dominion government will bear all the expense of transportation to and from London from any Canadian point, will help arrange exhibits with the assistance of experts and will place the name of the exhibitor over the booth.

The Canadian Building will measure 400 feet on the front, being 300 feet deep and will be divided into two sections. The front will be devoted to the natural products of the Dominion, including agricultural, fishery, lumber and mineral products and water power. There will be a panoramic view of a typical Canadian farm and one of a Canadian port, large enough to have the water, a miniature railway, boats and elevators, the idea of this being to show how our wheat is loaded. The purpose of this section of the fair is to show the British investor the raw material of Canada and the possibilities which invite capital, as well as give the would-be emigrant an idea of the opportunities of Canadian farm lands.

There will be no provincial exhibits as such, Mr. McKinnon said, but most of the provinces are preparing literature which will be printed and distributed at the expense of the Dominion government. Besides the Canadian Building, the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National Railways will have their buildings flanking the larger one, while a restaurant building will be erected, where Canadian foodstuffs alone will be served.

There is a strong friendly competition between the various Dominions in their efforts to have the best displays, and from all indications, according to Mr. McKinnon, Canada stands well in the race. Mr. McKinnon came to Wolfville at the request of Mr. Comeau, of the D. A. R., to look into the fruit-growing industry and secure its representation at the big show. From here he went to St. John. To THE ACADIAN he expressed himself as delighted with this section of Nova Scotia.

IF YOU WOULD HAVE SPARKLING GLASS

Pressed glass which often looks quite attractive when new, is apt to grow dull and ugly looking after it has been in use for a while. This can be avoided by having a soft brush on hand and washing the glass with this in place of the dish cloth, which is likely to leave a greasy film in the creases. Wash in soapy water and rinse in clear water to which a few drops of ammonia have been added. Dry on a soft, clean towel. The glass will sparkle its thanks.

The same rule should be used in washing cut glass. Polish with tissue paper which has been softened and crumpled in the hand. It is the ammonia in the water which makes the glass sparkle.

SOUND ADVICE

Writing on "Advertising in the Local Paper", the Hardware and Metal Magazine gives the following sound advice not only to hardware merchants but also to every man in the retail trade: "For a hardware dealer to omit the employment of his local newspaper is just as sensible as his non-use of the railway train to travel a journey of twenty-five or more miles. The fact is that a newspaper goes into a thousand or two thousand or five thousand homes without a particle of effort on the part of the man who advertises in it. The merchant must pay for the space he uses and write the advertisement that fills the space, but having done this, all the rest of the matter of getting this message of the hardware dealer's distributed is the business of the newspaper publisher. The local newspaper renders local merchants a wonderful service, and that at an absurdly small cost. It means that from three to five families can be solicited for a single brown cent; and that a five-cent piece pays for the solicitation of from fifteen to twenty-five families. What cheaper solicitation is possible or desired? Many a hardware dealer has spent a dollar weekly to solicit the favor of some young lady in whose affection he would have a high place. He has spent a dollar or more weekly—perhaps a longer period—to have the favor of a single individual; yet has balked at spending an equal sum to solicit the favor of one thousand or more families whose address would quickly return to him the cost of solicitation. One wonders why so many men in the retail business neglect the solicitation of one thousand to two thousand community families by the agency of newspaper advertising."

BE CAREFUL, GIRLS

No young lady ever lost her hero because her hands happened to be a little calloused from wielding the broom or stained from dipping them in dishwater.

No girl ever fell down a lot in the estimation of her hero because she stayed at home all afternoon and helped her mother with the work, instead of coming down town and putting on a parade of eight miles.

No girl ever lost her hero because she made life more pleasant for Dad and smoothed the wrinkles from his brow and caused him to look forward to the evening at home with pleasure.

No girl ever lost her hero because she wasn't an adept at using all the latest and most popular slang of the day. There is nothing in slang for a young man to admire and much less a young lady. If the young lady wishes the company of a worth-while fellow she will avoid slang as she would poison. She will shun the girl or the young man who uses the slang of today.

No girl regrets losing a hero who was a common, cheap, tinhorn sport and had better be a kitchen queen for dad and mother all her life than a broken-hearted drudge of a slave for such a brainless first a single day.

Just because a girl arrives at gray hairs and faded cheeks in single blessedness is no sign she didn't have a chance. More than likely it is because she kept posted in market values and refused to sell her heart and happiness for a mess of pottage.

ADVERTISE IN THE ACADIAN

MOST SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION

(Continued from last week.) A unique feature of the Convention was a meeting Saturday evening, when all delegates to the Convention gathered about the ruins of old college hall for a service of dedication to the upbuilding of Acadia.

At a platform meeting in the church later it was announced that the women of the Wolfville church had pledged a thousand dollars toward the new Acadia building.

The perfect weather which greeted all as the morning dawned made Sunday an ideal day for the closing session of the convention. At 9.45 o'clock a large number gathered in the church where licentiate S. M. Hirtle, Pastor of the church at Canso, N. S., was publicly ordained to the work of the Gospel ministry.

A solo was most effectively rendered by Miss Curry. The prescribed questions to the candidate were read by Dr. Macdonald. The ordaining prayer, accompanied by the laying on of hands was offered by Dr. W. C. Goucher.

Rev. F. L. Orchard read the letter addressed to the church at Canso, this letter to stand as the "charge to the church". Rev. G. C. Warren welcomed Rev. S. M. Hirtle to the ministry of the denomination.

A capacity house assembled for the service at 11 o'clock when the convention sermon was preached by Rev. A. L. Huddleston, of the First Baptist church, Halifax. The full choir of the Wolfville Church led in inspiring music, an orchestra of six pieces adding charm and power to the music.

Pears are practically a failure, and plums are generally very poor. Such early blossoming varieties as Prince of Wales, Goliath and Monarch are reported to be bearing fair crops.

Despite the intense heat a well filled house assembled at four o'clock for the memorial service in honor of the late Rev. Atwood Cohoon, D. D., acting President Rev. G. C. Warren presiding.

A large congregation assembled for the closing session of the United Baptist Convention at seven o'clock at which service Rev. W. J. Hurlow, of New Glasgow, was the preacher.

The marriage occurred at Vancouver on August 20th, of Dorothy Mildred Reynolds Harrington, daughter of the late Dr. F. G. Harrington, a former resident of Wolfville, to Mr. Lestock Charles Lee, of Peterborough, Ont.

FORMER ACADIA STUDENTS MARRIED

HALIFAX, Sept. 6th.—One of the prettiest of the September home weddings was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. The principals were Joseph McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Boyer, of Victoria, N. B., and grandson of the late Joseph McLeod, of St. John, and Helen Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ganter, 312 Robie.

Miss Dorothy Schurman, of Truro, gave a fine rendition of the wedding marches, while Miss Mildred Harvey, of Wolfville, sang the wedding hymn, "Because".

Both bride and groom studied at Acadia together; the groom was also a student at Edinburgh University.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boyer and two sisters, Ada and Marjorie, of Victoria; Mrs. Arthur Rogers, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. G. Rex Ganter, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ganter, Sydney; Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLeod, St. John, and the Misses Dorothy Schurman and Mildred Harvey.

NOW THAT ROBB IS ON THE JOB

The translation of the Hon. James Robb to the portfolio of Immigration and Colonization is a cheerful sign. For many years now it has been the custom to assign a Western statesman to this post, with the result that all our Federal immigration took on a western squint.

Once upon a time the prairies offered a great chance to the man who was looking for cheap land, and had nothing but a shoe-string to play on. But with the march of the years, conditions have changed, and Mr. Robb may well devote some of his attention to other parts of Canada.

The New Poor, that class of Englishmen whose incomes have contracted during the War, should find splendid opportunities in our older provinces. Here, without losing touch of the civilization to which they are accustomed, they will find all the freedom of a new country to make their fortunes again.

New Brunswick might attract them as a sheep raising country. Ontario and Quebec can provide them with all the comforts of an old settled country, or all the adventure of new and undeveloped Northlands. British Columbia, likewise, should be an attractive spot for the migrating Englishman with a comfortable money-stake.

The prairie is still our great open space, a fact which the new Minister of Immigration will keep in mind, but we can trust him to remember that all Canada is a field for new citizens, and that every Province should get its share.—Montreal Standard.

CANADA GOLDENROD

The Canada Golden Rod is quite common throughout the Dominion and is a favorite with those who love bouquets of wild flowers. Its old name was Solidago, and was derived from a Latin word meaning "To make Whole" from the supposed healing qualities of the plant.

That tawny Incas for their gardens wrought Heavy with sunshine, droops the Golden-rod.

The plant seeds are carried freely by winds and birds. Rootstocks also spread with great rapidity. The only means of eradication is by preventing the seeds from maturing, and cultivation.

Text: 'The Real Reason for A Pretty Skin', 'Why is it that one girl has a fresh smooth complexion and another a skin which is lifeless, dull and sallow? Is it a gift of nature or some guarded beauty secret? It is a secret, but an open one in which every woman may share. It consists in knowledge of the care which keeps the skin free from clogging, poisonous accumulations. In the removal every day of all dirt, oil secretions, excess dandruff, powder and rouge. To do this, use mild soap, massage it thoroughly into your skin and remove with many rinsings. The mildest soap you can choose for this purpose is Palmolive. It contains Palm and Olive oils. These rare oils are the mildest cleansers nature ever produced. They are the oils used by Cleopatra thousands of years ago. Their combination in Palmolive produces a profuse, creamy lather which penetrates every tiny pore, removes every trace of dirt, oil, rouge and powder and leaves the skin smooth and fresh as a rose. You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first-class dealers.'

Advertisement for Japan and Nova Scotia Fruit Orchards. Features several images of orchards and people. Text: 'Attractive Scenes in Blossom Time', 'JAPAN AND NOVA SCOTIA FRUIT ORCHARDS VIE', 'EVANGELINE IN ANNAPOLIS VALLEY ORCHARD', 'LAKE CHUZENJI—JAPAN'S LAKE LOUISE', 'JAPANESE BEAUTIES', 'CHERRY BLOSSOMS', 'JAPAN has so distinctly put herself "on the map" that the well travelled person is now compelled to put the "Land of the Rising Sun" into his life's itinerary. Improved trade relations and growing interest in things belonging to the other side of the globe, make a closer study of the countries there of prime importance. Transportation, trans-continental and trans-Pacific, has become so highly developed that it is as easy to get to Japan as to Italy. Ninety-two hours from Montreal to Vancouver, trans-Canada, and the fastest time across the Pacific—a trifle more than nine days—puts the traveller into Yokohama, the chief port of the Land of Nippon. Here the sights are unusual. Jinticks-has jostle one another in their competition to get the few cents charge for running the traveller in and out among the narrow streets amid crowds of strangely garbed people, curious shops, street hawkers, endless numbers of brilliant kimono-clad children, and carts drawn by men and beasts. Adding to the natural beauty of Japan is the cultivation. Japanese are the best agriculturists and gardeners in the world. Tomes have been written about Mount Fuji and the mountains, lakes and streams of the country. Lake Chuzenji is the Lake Louise of Japan and Mount Fuji, the Mount Rainier, although not so high. The cherry blossoms are not so wonderful as those of this country—if one remembers the hundred miles of orchards in Nova Scotia's Evangeline Land and Annapolis Valley. Those who are contemplating an early summer holiday might well select Evangeline's Land, Nova Scotia, for a trip. For miles and miles along the Dominion Atlantic Railway the land is one mass of apple blossoms, Cherry blossoms, too, dot the scene, making a sight that is wonderful and refreshing. The bulk of the Nova Scotia apple crop goes to Great Britain, but great quantities of British Columbia apples are exported to the Orient. The cherry trees in Japan are raised for their flowers and not for their fruit, as, strangely enough, they bear no fruit. Although the voyage from Vancouver to Yokohama is longer than the four days at sea from the Eastern seaboard via the St. Lawrence River Route to Europe, the Canadian Pacific Express steamers, largest and fastest on the Pacific, are so thoroughly comfortable that the time slips away quickly. All of these steamers are so equipped that most all of the amusements to be had on land are also to be found on board. April marks the beginning of the best season in Japan and even further down the Chinese coast to Manila.'

ANOTHER FIRE

Shortly before two o'clock yesterday morning the building west of the railway station which has been used for the past two or three years as a factory for making hockey sticks was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was at once sounded but the flames had made such progress that it was found to be impossible to save either the building or its contents. No reason can be arrived at for the cause of the fire unless it was set by sparks from a passing engine, as the plant had not been occupied for some time. The building was purchased by Mr. A. V. Rand for Mr. R. A. Jodery some time ago and was equipped with valuable machinery. It also contained a quantity of material for making into hockey sticks later in the season. Mr. Rand informs THE ACADIAN that his loss will be in the vicinity of fifteen hundred dollars in excess of the insurance.

TWO CHANGES IN STAFF AT ACADIA

At a meeting of the executive Board of Governors on Saturday, two important appointments were made to the staff of Acadia University.

W. T. Ostome, B. A. (Cornell), B. P. E., International College, Springfield, was appointed instructor of physical education. Mr. Ostome succeeds C. B. Russell.

Max Saunders, B. A., B. Sc., was appointed to succeed Carl Borden as instructor in engineering. Mr. Borden was appointed superintendent of building and premises.

These new members of the faculty come well equipped to assume their duties. Mr. Saunders is expected to arrive this week. In view of the one hundred and twelve new registrations already filed, this promises to be a banner year for Acadia.

Souvenir folders, containing sixteen pictures of Wolfville and vicinity, on sale at THE ACADIAN Store. Price only 20 cents.

Items Of Local Interest

The Teachers of Acadia Seminary will be glad to receive calls from their friends on Wednesday afternoon, September 13th, from four to six.

Parsons living between Wolfville and Avonport who are sending their children to the Wolfville schools may learn something to their advantage on sending the names to Mr. Barratt, Avonport.

Rev. Edwin Simpson, B. A., Acadia 1789, preached Sunday in the Baptist Church. Mr. Simpson has just returned from a tour of the world and attended the Baptist World Convention at Stockholm.

Dr. B. C. Borden, former President of Mount Allison University, has purchased the estate of H. C. Graham at Annapolis, and takes possession the first of October. Dr. Borden has sold his place at Avonport to Mrs. Malcolm, an English lady.

Every $1000. borrowed from us on our Installment Plan, say for a term of 10 years, only costs you $472 in interest. You pay $73.60 on each $1000.00 every half year for that term. The Eastern Canada Savings & Loan Co. Apply through, R. B. Blauvelt, Wolfville, N. S.

A meeting of the congregation of the Wolfville Baptist church was held on Wednesday Evening, for the consideration of a call to a pastor to succeed the Rev. Dr. MacDonald. Considerable discussion took place and a number of votes were taken, but no decision was arrived at.

Last Friday afternoon, Mrs. George R. Nowlan received for the first time since her marriage at her home, on East Main street, Mrs. C. R. Nowlan assisted in receiving, while Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Chisholm poured tea. In the dining room dainty refreshments were served by the Misses Perry, Grant, Duncanson, Welton and Wickwire.

Mrs. Herrington of Toronto, Organizing Secretary of the Girl Guide movement in Canada, is touring the Maritime Provinces in the interests of her work. Friday she met with the Executive of the Women's Council (who are organized in connection with the Guides) and later addressed the Guides who were in uniform, telling of the origin of the movement.

Trade may be quiet in some lines at the present time, but the demand for MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE Tea is bigger than ever. The explanation of course is that every day more people are developing a fondness for this particular tea. Once you try MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE, you are not likely to be satisfied with any other tea.

A Business change recently effected in Wolfville has resulted in a change in the management of "The Palms". Mr. George Bennett, who for more than a year has conducted this popular establishment, has sold out to Mr. F. M. Newcombe, of Bridgewater, who last week took charge. It is the intention of the new proprietor to carry on along the most up-to-date lines, and he invited public patronage through an adv. which appears elsewhere in these columns. THE ACADIAN gladly welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Newcombe to Wolfville, and solicits for them a full measure of business. May they find life in this town happy and profitable.

The equipment of the Vally Laundry Company's plant here is proceeding favorably. Necessary changes in the building have been completed and the machinery is now practically all installed. The new enterprise will open for business on Monday, Sept. 24th, when teams and trucks will call upon householders soliciting work. The management have been so fortunate as to secure the services of the well known laundryman, Mr. M. B. Vail, of Amherst, who will have full charge of all the finished product, which is in itself a sufficient guarantee. We bespeak a liberal patronage for the new undertaking which fills a very necessary place in the community.

A bird sanctuary for the preservation of some rare and valuable species of birds has been established at Seal Flat, Round, Mud and Noddy Islands, lying about 18 miles west of Cape Sable, and off the county of Shelburne, Nova Scotia. During recent years the complete extermination of some of the species of birds found on these islands was threatened by the collection of their eggs during the breeding season, and to prevent this the Government, on recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, has now passed an order preventing the killing or molesting of game birds on these islands. It is further provided that all rocks or waters within five miles shall be included in the bird sanctuary.

GRAND PRE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The September meeting of the Grand Pre Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Woodman with the president Mrs. Harris in the chair. A large representation of members were present also several visitors. An invitation to meet with the Port Williams Institute was read and accepted. The Institute decided to support and encourage the children to compete in the County Exhibition. Tuesday, Sept. 18, was appointed for all who wished to meet at the home of Mrs. W. A. Woodman, to sew for some of the needy families. All contributions of either old clothes or new material will be gratefully accepted.

After the business of the meeting Mrs. Ayrton Johnson read the opening ode. Miss Green, Boston, Massachusetts, and Miss Laura Barron each rendered two delightful piano selections. Rev. G. W. Whitman gave an interesting address on Child Welfare particularly from the educational and spiritual view point. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Oscar Harris.

Miss Ada Reynolds, who has been a guest of her Aunt, Mrs. Dickie Truro, motored to Amherst on Saturday with Mrs. Dickie and friends, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dickson this week. Governor and Mrs. Grant, Halifax, are guests at The DeWitt House, Blomidon. The Salvation Army had a house to house canvass on Friday for funds. Many friends of Mr. Earl Spicers were pleased to read of the success of his Recital in Berwick. Mr. Spicer was assisted by two of our Artists from Canning, Mrs. Charles Sennett, accompanist, and Mrs. Frank Chute, violinist. Miss Stella Mahar and Miss Marjory Mahar, who have been spending their vacation in Peregau, were guests at the Waverley Hotel on Tuesday of last week, returning to Halifax on Wednesday morning. A large Schooner is unloading coal for Blenkhorn and Son. Mr. Joseph Kerwin arrived from Boston, where he has spent the last few months, and is a guest at The Waverley Hotel. Mr. Isaac Porter, Spencers Island, is a guest at the Waverley Hotel. Miss Francis Jesse, Kentville, is a guest of Mrs. Mamie Ellis, Scotts Bay. Mrs. John Ross entertained at a delightful afternoon tea in honor of Miss Gosse on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paton and family, returned to their home in Melrose, Mass., on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Paton motored from Melrose about two weeks ago and have enjoyed the trips through the Valley while in town. Mrs. Sophia Paton has recovered from her recent illness and is able to be out again. Miss Marion Eaton was a guest of her aunt Mrs. Lawrence Eaton, Wolfville, on Monday. Mrs. Alvin Robinson, Boston, Mass., is the guest of her sister Mrs. Fred Borden, Sheffield Mills. Mrs. Best, Waterville, returned to her home on Saturday after a pleasant visit with her friends Mr. and Mrs. Harold North and Mrs. Avery Wood, North Avenue. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Millett on the arrival of a son. Miss Muriel Lockhart, Peregau, is attending the Maritime Business College, Halifax, and is the guest of Mrs. Rasley, 847 Robie St. Miss Edith Lockhart, Peregau, has taken a school at Town Plott, and is a guest of Mrs. Rand. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dimock and three sons, who have been visiting relatives in Hants Co., returned to Worcester, Mass., on Tuesday via Canning, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meek. Miss Hattie Hunter, and Mr. Harold Cook, Halifax, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox, for the week end. Mr. William Brown, New York, son of Dr. Brown, Bermuda, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Spurr Woodworth. Mr. Brown is visiting his many relatives. Partridge seem to be very plentiful. They are getting very tame in the orchards. Driving to Peregau two or three large flocks were seen crossing the street in front of a car. At first it was thought they were a flock of chickens, but when they flew up into the trees, they were seen to be a flock of young partridge. A great many young ducks are flying over the river at Canning. Sportmen will soon be able to recover some of these. Mrs. D. J. Lancy Sheffield is able to be out again after an illness of several months in Halifax and Canning. Her many friends are glad to see her around once more. Mrs. Frank Harris, of Sask., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert North, left on Thursday and is now a guest of Mrs. Frank Sheffield. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dickie Hillaton, entertained at a very pleasant Lawn Tea on Friday afternoon. A large number of guests from Canning were present. Mrs. John T. Murdock, Portland, Oregon, Mrs. Bath, of Bridgetown, who have been visiting Mrs. John Kinsman, returned on Tuesday, to Bridgetown. Mrs. Gilliat has returned from making a visit with Mr. Gilliat's parents Mr. and Mrs. David Gilliat, Digby. Major Slack, who is at Aldershot, made a short visit in Canning on Friday. Mr. William Irving, who has conducted a shoe repairing business, has gone to Boston. Mr. Pickard, who has been doing business in one of Miss Hennigar's stores has moved into Mr. Irving's store. Mr. Irving has leased his house to Mr. Pickard. Mr. Irving's son will accompany his father, the remainder of the family moved to Boston a few months ago. The farmers are busy getting ready for apple picking. Quite a number of extra help have arrived already to gather the fruit. Hundreds of empty barrels are being moved to be ready for packing. In some of the barrel factories the men are working night and day to fill their orders. Mr. Clifford Kelley met with an accident on Thursday, a log falling and crushing his foot. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellis, and party motored from Sydney on Saturday and were guests of Mr. Ellis parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis. Mr. Ellis is manager of the Royal Bank, Sydney. They returned on Monday. Mr. W. J. Tompson, Liverpool, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Payzant this week. Canning is beginning to brighten up again. Mr. Albert Harris has given his house a new coat of paint. Mr. David Dickie has built a large verandah on the back of his house and taken down the verandah in front making a very attractive entrance and when the painters are through it will be one of the prettiest houses in Canning. A full Band played on our New Band Stand on Thursday evening of last week. Hundreds of cars brought lovers of music to listen. Although the Band is composed mostly of small boys and has been playing only this summer, it is a credit to Canning. The Band will play every Thursday evening during the month of September. Come and judge for yourselves next Thursday evening. During the drilling at Aldershot our band was not up to strength, the boys being at Aldershot. Mr. Foster and daughter, Miss Stella, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parker, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Newcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Palmeter have returned after a delightful motor trip to Lockport. Miss Margaret Weaver was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newcomb, Church Street this week. Miss Freda Redden is visiting at Freeport. Mr. Augustus Dickie, Mr. Howe Dickie and party attended the ball game at Middleton last week. Mr. William Lyons arrived home on Monday with his horse from the racing track, Middleton. Mr. and Mrs. Roy DeWolf spent the week end in Canning. Mrs. Lyons and Miss Mary Lyons returned home on Monday after spending a very pleasant week in Kentville with her daughter Mrs. Tooney. Rev. H. T. Wright returned to Canning on Monday after spending a week with his parents in Liverpool. Miss Rand is a guest of Mrs. Starr Eaton.

Mr. Cox preached in St. John's Church on Sunday morning and at Kingsport Sunday evening. Many friends welcome Mr. and Mrs. Cox. Miss Meriam Cox, New Hampshire, arrived on Friday and is the guest of her mother Mrs. William Cox. The friends of Mrs. William Cox, Canning, gave Mrs. Cox a large surprise party on her birthday Monday. Tea was served by her family. Kingsport Mr. Gordon Arnold, of the C. V. R., is on his holidays. Conductor Augustus Dickie is taking his holidays. Conductor Cleaveland, Yarmouth relieving him on the C. V. Railway. Mr. William Hiltz, Mr. Thomas Ellis, Kingsport, went to Boston on Saturday by D. A. R. Miss Graves, of Aylesford, who taught last year at Kingsport, has returned to her home. Mrs. Bowman Rafuse, son Mander, and nurse, Bridgewater, are guests at The DeWitt House. Governor Ballard, Mrs. Ballard and party of Kentucky spent Sunday at The DeWitt House, Blomidon. Miss Josephine Harris and Miss Dorothea Harris, Canning, spent the week end with Mrs. Charles Robertson, Kingsport. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Chute were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter, Kingsport on Sunday. Mr. William Brown, New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter, Kingsport. Sheffield Mills A Cable was received by Mr. Carol and Miss Ruth Baker, Sheffield Mills, on Monday evening from their parents Mr. and Mrs. King Baker England, that their son Mr. Charles Baker and Mrs. Baker were safe, who reside in Tokio, Japan. Their many friends will be glad to hear such good news as there was great anxiety regarding Mr. and Mrs. Baker. OUR FLAG The following essay, which received the first prize at the Habitant School Exhibition last July, was written by Ellen Miller, aged 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Miller, Habitant. The Union Jack the "Meteor Flag of the British Isles", the banner of freedom and liberty which in one form or another has "Braved a thousand years, the battle and the breeze". The Union Jack is the flag of the entire British Empire which all of whose citizens have the right to fly, therefore it is the flag of Canada. In itself it tells the story of the development of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. The Union Jack is formed by the union of the crosses of St. George for England, St. Andrew for Scotland and St. Patrick for Ireland. Before the United Kingdom became into being, and when the three Kingdoms were separate the flag of England was the banner of St. George and red cross upon a white field. St. George was a Grecian warrior. He became England's Patron Saint through the success of a British Officer who had seen a vision of St. George fighting the foe against heavy odds and was so encouraged that he himself was victorious. St. George saved the King's daughter from being killed by a dreadful dragon, he afterwards married her. The banner of St. George has been used since 1194 but was not generally accepted till 1274. In the days of the Crusades English Soldiers often used to wear a badge like this on their arm or decorated the front of their fighting dress with this emblem. There is no doubt that as soon as flags became a part of the outfit of an army or fighting ships, the English carried a St. George's cross as the emblem of England, so that by degrees St. George became recognised as the Patron Saint of England and St. George's cross was gradually adopted as the National Ensign. This simple but grand old flag was used for many years without change. After Queen Elizabeth died in 1603 King James VI of Scotland also became James I of England. Scotland at this time also had its Patron Saint whose name was Andrew and his banner was a white cross on a blue field. St. Andrew was one of the twelve apostles. The saint considering it far too great an honour to be crucified as was his Lord gained from his persecutors the concession to a saltire instead of a latin cross. After his martyrdom his remains were preserved as relics. A Greek Monk, having been warned in a vision to carry these away in a ship was wrecked on the shore of Scotland about 370 A. D. Achaia King of the Scots went barefoot and vowed to adopt the Saints cross as the National emblem 987 A. D. Confusion naturally arose on the accession of James, some of his subjects flew the St. George's cross, some flew the St. Andrew's cross and some flew both. So it was decided April 12, 1606 to design a new National flag for Great Britain. This flag was called The Union Jack. The red cross of St. George was placed upon the St. Andrew's cross and that all round the red cross is a small white edging separating the red from the blue. The foundation of our Great Indian Empire and of the Dominion of Canada were laid in the days of the first Union Jack. This flag remained for nearly 200 years with the exception of a short time during the Commonwealth. On Jan. 1, 1801 a change became necessary because of the Act of the Union of Ireland passed in the previous year. Ireland also had its Patron Saint St. Patrick. His flag was a diagonal red cross on a white field, St. Patrick was Scotch according to tradition. St. Patrick drove all the snakes out of Ireland. The X like cross was gotten from the sacred monogram on the labarum of Constantine the Great where the X is the first letter in the latin word for Christ. It was adopted as the general emblem 1690. In 1801 the flag of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. The Union Jack may be flown by all British subjects private or official on land. The red ensign so often flown in Canada is the Merchant Marine Flag, and the Union Jack is the only proper flag to be flown in Canada ashore. In hoisting the Union Jack, the white point to be remembered is that the wide white arm above the red must be placed next to the top of the pole, when this is reversed it becomes a signal of distress.

The flag is twice as long as it is wide the red cross of St. George is one third the width of the flag, the white border of St. George's cross is one and one third of that of the red cross, the red cross and the white border equal one third of the whole flag, the diagonal cross of St. Patrick with the white edges of St. Andrew equal the width of the red cross of St. George. These again are sub-divided into six parts, four being white and two red; thus one half is white and of the remaining half two thirds red and one third (narrow edge) white. The position of the white edged of St. Andrew's cross is always above the red of St. Patrick's cross on the inner half next to the flag staff (called the hoist) and below the red cross of St. Patrick's on the other half of the flag (called the fly). The reason that we should love the Union Jack is because it is the Emblem of British Rule. It recalls the great deeds done in war and peace to make our country strong and keep it free. Its colours remind us of the virtues on which our Empire rests—red signifying bravery, white purity, Blue truth. IMMIGRATION INCREASED Immigration returns for the current year show a very large increase in the number of new settlers coming to Canada from Great Britain, United States and European countries. Indigenous to Old Cathay. (Above) Hong nong from the 'Peak, and, inset, a picturesque freight Junk. (Circle) C.P.S.S. "Empress of Canada" in between that port and Canton. WHEN you make your trip to the Far East, in which China must be embraced, you will be sure to visit Hong Kong and Canton, for both places are renowned in poetry and prose the world over. You cannot, very well, call at Hong Kong without "making your number" at Canton, for the places are only eighty miles distant from each other. The Canadian Pacific "Empresses" call at Hong Kong and from there you can proceed to Canton by either train or river steamer. Those in the "know" usually go by train and return by steamer, or vice versa. By the train you will be able to feast your eyes on southern China inland scenery and village life. By the steamer you go up or down the Canton river. Both journeys are interesting; but the run on the Canton river will be more enjoyed. A number of the Canton river steamers, as well as being large, fast and spacious vessels, will take a lot of beating regards accommodation, table and general service. There is at all times plenty of excellent company on board - visitors like yourself, and European residents in various parts of Asia - in whom you will discover charming and instructive companions. There will be so much to attract your attention in Hong-Kong that your heart's desire will be to "just see every place of interest at one time." As your steamer glides into the magnificent harbour hundreds of Chinese junks will be thrust upon your view, under sail, tacking, "going about" and at anchor. They are all picturesque to a degree, with their rich brown sails, peculiar rig—strictly indigenous to Old Cathay—and their hulls with an eye on the port and starboard sides of the bow, for, as the Chinese will explain to you; "Suppose no got eye, no can see." Stretched before you, as your steamer passes to her wharf at Kowloon, is the noble Praya—now named Connaught Road—or waterfront. The denizens of Shanghai call their waterfront, The Bund. Part of the Praya, to the left, is land reclaimed from the sea! Splendid buildings, with their tiers of verandahs, have been erected upon it, among which is that of the Hong Kong Club, one of the most luxurious social institutions in the world.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING

Previous to the meeting of the Town Council last week a meeting of the Board of Health was held with all the members present.
Town Manager Stairs read the report of the Health Officer regarding conditions adjacent to the reservoirs and recommending that the property be acquired and the present occupants evicted, in the interests of the public health. The report was referred to the Water Committee for action.
Reference was also made to conditions relative to the town's ice supply regarding which the following resolution was passed: Resolved by the Board of Health of the Town of Wolfville that the Town Clerk notify Mr. Freeman Leslie that hereafter it will be necessary to comply with Sec. 98 of chapter 57, Nova Scotia Public Health Act, and that unless conditions be so improved, as to insure pure ice by the next ice harvest season, satisfactory to the Health Officer, action will be brought for violation of such section.
A letter was read from the Provincial Health Department respecting sewer conditions at the west end of the town and stating that in the interests of the public health that section of the town should be completely sewered.

TIMELY TIPS

A new broom—Before using a new broom, soak it in boiling water with salt. This will toughen the bristles and make it last much longer.
Iodine stain—A very hard stain to remove is iodine. It can be done though if soaked in milk, occasionally rubbing the spot.
Clothespins.—If you will boil your clothespins once or twice a month you will find they last much longer.
Oatmeal—A little sugar added to oatmeal while it is cooking will improve the flavor.
Fruit stains.—If powdered starch is applied instantly to fruit stains, it will usually remove them.
Short stemmed flowers.—To prevent flower stems going down too deep in a tall vase roll some ordinary newspaper into a loose ball. The flowers will then stand up. It will hold the moisture, if replenishing the water is forgotten, which is a double benefit.
Ironing pongee.—Pongee, unlike most materials, should not be dampened when ironed. It should be thoroughly dried and ironed on the wrong side for a really good effect.
For sticky substances.—If when grinding raisins or any such sticky substances a few drops of lemon are squeezed into the food grinder first the difficulty will be removed.
Broken Glass.—If a glass is broken don't try and pick up the small pieces. Instead lay a wet woolen cloth on the floor where the fragments are and pat it. The tiny particles will adhere to the damp cloth and that can easily be burned. A piece of glass in the flesh might cause no end of trouble not to mention the pain.
To keep stove bright.—Rub your stove off daily with an ordinary piece of newspaper and the polish will remain twice as long.

DEATH OF C. R. HIGGINS

On Sunday, August 19th, Mr. Charles R. Higgins, of Astoria, Oregon, passed away at his home in that city. Mr. Higgins was well known in Wolfville where he was born and educated, graduating from Acadia in 1891. He was the youngest son of the late W. J. Higgins and a brother of the late Mrs. A. E. Caldwell. He is survived by his wife and young daughter, his sisters Mrs. George Baldwin and Miss Linda Higgins, of Vancouver, and his brothers Thomas and William of Portland, Oregon. Mr. Higgins who was in his 56th year, had attained prominence in his adopted city being president of the Astoria National Bank and a leader in every good work.

KANSAS EDITOR MADE ERROR IN ISSUE OF WEEKLY PAPER

Was Told About It By a Good Subscriber, But Had Good Come-back

We made a mistake in last week's issue of The Sentinel, said the Editor of the Glen Elder, Kansas, Sentinel. A good subscriber told us about it.

The same day there was a letter in our post office box that didn't belong to us. We called for "98" over the telephone and got "198". We asked for a spool of No. 50 thread and when we got home found it was No. 60. The train was reported thirty minutes late. We arrived at the depot twenty minutes after train time and the train was gone. We got our milk bill and there was a mistake of ten cents in our favor. We felt sick and the doctor said we were eating too much meat. We hadn't tasted meat in two months. The garagemen said the jitney was missing because it needed a new timer. We cleaned a spark plug and it's run fine ever since.
Yes, we made a mistake in last week's issue of the paper.

USES OF PAPER

Aside from the ordinary uses of paper for news print, books, magazines, wrapping and the usual lines of stationery and office supplies, there are some special uses of interest—packing for gas engine and hydraulic work; in the shoe business for box toes, counters, heel board, etc.; in candy factories for imprinting trade marks on the bottom of sweets; in the novelty trade for flowers, new wall papers and all kinds of fancy goods.

In fact paper is now made into waterproof, greaseproof and even fireproof articles, among which are spoons, dishes, cups and saucers, table covers and napkins. A great part of the celluloid business is based on the manufacture of that product from paper. Starting with baby carriages made from so-called Japanese fiber, which is nothing more nor less than paper, and ending with the crepe paper-lined casket, our lives cannot be separated from the use of paper products.

"Pardon me," said the little man, "but are you quite sure it was a marriage license you gave me on the tenth of March?"
The clerk prepared to turn up particulars.
"I believe so, sir," he said, "but why do you ask?"
"Well, I have led a dog's life ever since, that's all."

SIXTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MARITIME CHEMISTS' ASSOCIATION

(Report as Printed in September issue of Canadian Chemistry and Metallurgy official publication of Canadian Institute of Chemistry)
The Sixth Annual Meeting of the Maritime Chemists' Association and First Meeting of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry was held in the Annapolis Valley, Nova Scotia, August 23rd and 24th. The previous meetings of the Association have been held in the chief manufacturing centers in the Maritime Provinces. This meeting was held in the chief apple-growing region, and was appropriately devoted to the study of the applications of chemistry to orcharding and apple-growing.

The party assembled at Annapolis Royal at noon, August 23rd. After having lunch together, the members inspected the Dominion Entomological Station in that town, and then proceeded by auto easterly through the Valley, inspecting at several points orchards which had been treated with insecticide and fungicide dusts and sprays of various formulae. At Aylesford a visit was paid to the canning, cider and vinegar plant operated by the United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia. The party reached Waterville early in the evening, had supper at Parker's Hotel, famous for its table, and later proceeded to Wolfville to spend the night. The next morning was spent at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Kentville, looking over fertilizer experiments of several types, and treatments for various plants diseases. After dinner a visit was paid to the insecticide and fungicide dust-mixing plants of the United Fruit Companies. This followed by a trip through the Gasperaux Valley, visiting en route the Gasperaux Power Plant and ground wood pulp mill, and arriving at Wolfville early in the afternoon. During the trip the members of the convention were much indebted to Prof. W. S. Blair, Superintendent of the Kentville Experimental Station, and to Dr. W. H. Brittain, Provincial Entomologist, for conducting the party and explaining the experiment at many of the places visited.

No account of the trip could be complete without reference to the clear bracing weather, and the stimulating effect of the scenery of the Valley, gloriously varied, but with unity given to the whole by the steep south escarpment of the North Mountain always in sight of the party from Digby Neck on the west easterly to its abrupt termination in massive Blomidon, which juts out into Minas Basin opposite Wolfville.

The business meeting of the Maritime Chemists' Association was opened at three o'clock in the Carnegie Science Hall of Acadia University, President C. C. Forward in the Chair. The visiting chemists were welcomed by Dr. F. W. Patterson, President of Acadia, who in a brief speech showed a keen appreciation of the public importance of their work, and extended to them the freedom of the University.

The important items of business were as follows:
The Treasurer's report showed a balance from August 29th, 1922 of $21.35, dues collected since that time amounting to $33.00, Bank Interest of $1.10, making the total receipts $55.45, and expenses of $12.30, leaving in the Treasury a Balance of $42.65.

In accordance with the resolution passed by the 1922 meeting of the Association, the Secretary moved the following resolution, notice of which had been sent to all members along with the preliminary announcement of the present meeting: "Resolved that, inasmuch as, since the establishment of the Maritime Chemists' Association, the Canadian Institute of Chemistry has been founded and has been incorporated by letters patent, and whereas a Maritime Provinces Branch of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry has been established and is now fulfilling most of the purposes for which the Maritime Chemists' Association was established, be it resolved that the Maritime Chemists' Association dissolve itself and hand over its record books, correspondence, money and other property to the Maritime Provinces Branch of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry to become the property of this Branch". The resolution was seconded by Mr. K. L. Dawson. In response to questions the Secretary stated what he believed to be the mind of the late Dr. Eben Mackey, the founder of the Association, with respect to its future relation to a larger organization, and reviewed the gradual progress of events which had led up to the formation of a Branch of the Institute at the last meeting. Prof. Arthur C. Neish, President of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry, spoke of the ideals and probable future of the Institute, calling attention to the potentialities suggested by the history of the American Chemical Society. All of the members present seemed to feel that the substitution of the Branch of the Institute for the independent Association was in line with the policy of the Association from its beginning and that the Institute could be trusted to refrain from making by-laws which would interfere with local anatomy. The resolution was passed unanimously.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

The meeting was immediately opened as the first regular meeting of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Institute of Chemistry by Mr. Forward, the Chairman of the Branch.

The following officers were elected: Chairman—Arthur Kelsall, Annapolis Royal, N. S.

Secretary—Treasurer—Prof. D. U. Hill, Wolfville, N. S.

Executive—Prof. H. E. Bigelow, Sackville, N. B.

G. C. Lordly, St. John, N. B.

Dr. John S. Bates, Past President C. I. C., Bathurst, N. B.

C. E. Wallin, Member of Council, Sydney, N. S.

C. C. Forward, Past Chairman, Halifax, N. S.

Messrs. Bigelow, Wallin and Hill were appointed a committee on By-Laws. This concluded the business of the meeting.

Prof. L. C. Harlow then read a paper on "Crude Gas Liquor as a Nitrogenous Fertilizer". The paper embodied the results of many experiments which had been made as a consequence of the getting together of Prof. Harlow and Mr. Dawson of the Nova Scotia Tramways Company at the meeting of the Association two years ago.

The meeting then adjourned to 7 P. M. At the evening session Dr. H. B. Vickery read a paper on "Vitamins" illustrated by lantern, which was heard with appreciation by many of the citizens of the town as well as by the members of the Branch.

The second paper was on "Sulphur and the Regulation of Soil Reaction", by W. A. DeLong of the Truro Agricultural College, read by K. L. Dawson in the absence of Mr. DeLong.

Mr. F. A. Herman of Ottawa gave "An outline of the work relating to insecticides and fungicides contemplated and in progress by the Division of Chemistry". Mr. Herman's paper will appear in "Canadian Chemistry And Metallurgy".

This concluded the programme. The chemists present at the convention were: C. C. Forward, Food and Drugs Laboratory, Halifax, N. S.

A. Kelsall, Entomological Station, Annapolis Royal, N. S. G. C. Lordly, Atlantic Sugar Refineries, St. John, N. B.

L. C. Harlow, Truro Agricultural College, Truro, N. S. H. B. Vickery, Conn. State Experimental Station, New Haven, Conn.

Mr. M. K. Ellis, Belcher St., has returned from his trip to Quebec.

CHURCH UNION IN THE WINDSOR DISTRICT

The Windsor District of the Nova Scotia Conference met in the Methodist church, on the sixth instant, the Rev. Douglas Hemmeon presiding. A large number of delegates, both clerical and lay, were present.

The most interesting and significant events of the session were the formal presentation of two deputations on the question of Church Union.

One of those was from the Methodist church at Kentville requesting the approval of the District thinking of creation resolutions passed by its officials looking toward the union of the Presbyterian and Methodist church in that town.

The other was a deputation from the Presbytery of Halifax on the same matter in a wider area. The deputation was introduced by the Rev. D. McDorum, and after interchange of greetings a committee composed of the Revs. D. McDorum, G. A. Logan, G. W. Miller and R. B. Layton, Presbyterians, and the Revs. C. A. Munro, B. J. Porter, Dr. Scott, and Mr. Withrow, Methodist was appointed.

This committee presented the following resolution which was passed, none dissenting:

"After discussing the situation in the District, the committee reached the conclusion that in view of the fact that the union in Kentville will be consummated on June 30th, 1924, a simultaneous movement should take place in the 'Valley', and recommends that the representatives of the co-operating churches be asked to visit Wolfville and Horton to ascertain the views of these congregations regarding union, to see if they would agree to enter union co-incidentally with Kentville. Regarding Hantsport we recommend that the representatives visit them to get their opinion on the question there. Regarding Canard, Canning and Kingsport, that representatives of the churches visit them also.

Further, that in all these and other unions, the small rural appointments be not allowed to suffer.

(Signed) C. A. Munro, Chairman
R. B. Layton, Secretary
Other matters of interest were settled and the District adjourned at five o'clock.

THE BUSS LAMP

GREENWICH ITEMS

The first big frost of the season came on Tuesday night, September 4th.

Mr. Stewart Moore, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, who was born in Greenwich, being a son of Mr. Stephen Moore, who also is now a resident of Winnipeg, being 85 years old, very recently visited in Kentville, motoring through here, after an absence of forty-one years. He enjoyed his visit to his native county in this province.

Miss Jessie Bishop, we are glad to know, was successful in winning her 'C' at the Provincial examinations and she is now taking the 'B' work at Wolfville High School. Alex Andrew was successful in winning his 'D'. Congratulations to both.

Mrs. Edward Manning, has been visiting the past two weeks in Amherst, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sutherland.

Mrs. Havelock Meisner and two daughters, Gertrude and Helen, of St. John, N. B., recently called upon friends here.

They in company with others, forming two large auto parties motored from their homes in St. John, through N. B. and eastern part of N. S. to Halifax, making a stay of a couple of days then to Falmouth, where they all stayed for several days at the home of Rev. John Meisner, the parties having a large tent with them for camping out when needed. They motored up to Kentville and a few places in Kings Co., intending to motor back to St. John via Truro.

Mrs. Thomas Arbuckle, of Somerville, Mass., visited all last week with her mother here, Mrs. Annie Reid.

Mrs. Harlan Forsythe, of Wolfville, was calling upon friends in this place last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence Spinney, of Wolfville, was a guest last Thursday for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Fraser.

Miss Freda Ritcey, our school teacher and Miss Bessie Fraser of the School Exhibition Committee, attended a Committee meeting at Port Williams last Friday afternoon. We understand the day of the Exhibition is Friday, Sept. 21.

A number of the Young people of the place also a few from Wolfville, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Bishop last Thursday evening, dancing being the chief entertainment of the evening.

Mrs. Harris Forsythe, is enduring an attack of the Whooping Cough we are sorry to learn. The two youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Forsythe are also ill with it.

Mrs. Grace Andrew is now much improved in health and able to enjoy an auto ride each day for over a week. Her friends are glad to know she is so much better and hope for full recovery soon.

Mr. Grant Murphy, of our post office staff and assistant station agent, has returned to his duties after a vacation.

Dr. Clarence Davis, a successful dentist of Boston, is visiting his step-father, Rev. Raleigh Bishop. Dr. Davis motored all the way in his large Cleveland automobile and has been enjoying many interesting trips to various parts of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Bishop accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lovitt Forsythe, of Port Williams, also Mr. Harris Forsythe with his auto accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. E. Forsythe and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Forsythe, all motored to Aylesford on Sunday and called upon former residents of this place, namely Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Wellner.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lockwood and little daughter, Thelma, motored to Coldbrook on Sunday, visiting relatives there for the day.

An enjoyable "Sing" was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop on Sunday evening, a good number being present.

FRUIT CONDITIONS

The apple crop conditions in the Annapolis Valley still continue favourable but there has been considerable development of apple spot and the Aphid and Green Apple Bug have done some injury. The estimates now therefore place the crop at about 1,600,000 barrels or 200,000 barrels less than one month ago. The fruit is ripening 10 days later than last year, but is colouring fairly well. The present indications are that the apples will be smaller this year although the weather now is favourable for growth.

This week will see the picking of the Gravenstein crop away to a good start, and from now on the harvesting of the fruit crop will be the industry of prime importance throughout the length and breadth of the Valley.

The S. S. Digby carries this week the first export shipment for overseas, consisting of approximately 5000 barrels, mostly Dutchess.

The Nova Scotia Fruit Shipping Company, which has its headquarters in Berwick, shipped their first car of Gravensteins on Saturday. They expect to ship at last one car a day, of this early variety, from now on.—Register.

MARRIED

LITTLE—FRASER—At Winnipeg, on Sept. 5th., Francis Edward Little, of Selkirk, Man., was united in marriage to Bertha Grace Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser, Greenwich, Nova Scotia. Rev. W. C. Smalley officiating.

ACADIA SEMINARY OPENING

As announced the opening of the Fall Term of Acadia Seminary took place Friday, Sept. 7, 1923. By the time all students are here the Residence will be filled. This is extremely gratifying in view of financial conditions.

The Department of Household Science is crowded almost beyond capacity. A new course, a modification of the Home Makers will probably be introduced sometime during the year.

We welcome as new Teachers, Miss Olive Chown and Miss Clara Lockhart in the Department of Household Science; Miss Rachel Johnson in Piano forte. This latter department is practically filled and the employment of an additional teacher is indicated.

A later note will speak of proposed changes and improvements.

NOTED VISITORS

Lieutenant-Governor Ballard, of Kentucky, accompanied by Mrs. Ballard and daughter, Mrs. Morton, with her two sons and daughter, arrived Saturday by motor and remained until Tuesday.

Mrs. Ballard is a great grand-daughter of Father Theodore Harding who laid the corner stone of the first Acadia College building and she came to visit the birth-place of her father, the late Theodore Harris. Mr. Harris went to Kentucky as a lad and by his own efforts obtained wealth and prominence in his adopted country.

Mrs. Irene Fitch and Mrs. G. O. Gates, of this town are also granddaughters of the late Father Harding. Sunday the Kentucky party motored to Pereaux to call on Governor Grant.

NEW FALL COATS

"Now for a Fall Coat" is the thought uppermost in one's mind at present.

A variety—fashioned in imported fabrics in Camel hair tweeds, and Duvetynes. Smart styles for automobiling, travelling or street wear. Also, a good assortment of dressy coats.

A rich Black Klosky has a sable collar with side to side ties, and heavy metal clasps. Set in lined throughout. Length 48 inches.

A Navy Duvetyne is banded with Fitch fur at collar and cuffs, and smartly finished with clusters of tucking.

A Reindeer Velour features a wrappy cape collar, braid trimmed, lined and interlined throughout.

Soft toned smartly tailored Tweeds are much in demand and meeting the approval of those who have seen them.
