

respectively. The Northern Democrats favoured strong measures for throwing Hays out and seating Tilden, but their Southern allies held back, and refused to enter upon the dangerous strife, believing, as has been frequently pointed out, that they could squeeze as much concession to the South out of the former as they could out of the latter, and without running any risk. The Republican leaders, on the other hand, have been equally divided, in effect, that Hays has betrayed them, and hence division in that party too, the vast majority being clearly with the party's parliamentary leaders and against the President. A change in the air is now apparent, however, as the State Conventions speak out, and the Republican party, to begin with, is getting drawn together again. The idea of uniting upon Grant, and making him the party standard bearer again in 1880, is spreading, and appears to be taking hold of the masses, but at the Illinois Convention the other day, these notions were completely dispelled along with a likeness of Grant.

THE ENGLISH MAIL.

Meropoli Dates to June 26th.

THE GREAT FOR ARMS IN IRELAND. The Irish authorities seem to be apprehensive of serious movements. For some time it is noted, a series of demonstrations have been paid to persons living in Dublin, Dunmore, Milltown, and the neighbourhood. Houses and shops were pelted with stones, and "prowled" with iron rods, and the result so far has been the discovery of a few rusty pistols, and a special warrant issued by the Lord-Lieutenant under the Irish Arms Act.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

PARIS, JUNE 19. The Canadian Trophy has at last been opened to a highly appreciative public, and we may claim it to be one of the most attractive objects in the Exhibition. This structure besides being pleasing to the eye in its construction, architectural light and graceful in its decorative proportions, has moreover a strikingly imposing appearance rising above all its surroundings high into the dome; typical it is to be hoped of Canada's great future, of which there can be no doubt, if she takes the upright and dignified, so well represented in the Dominion's design, as her motto. The Dominion's design, as her motto. The Dominion's design, as her motto.

THE ST. MARY'S POISONING CASE.

DR. FORD ADMITS TO BEING.

At the coroner's inquest on the morning before Chief Justice Harrison, Mr. Jones, who was charged with the poisoning of the children at St. Mary's, admitted to being the author of the crime. He stated that he had given the children a quantity of medicine, which he said was a mixture of opium and other drugs, and that he had done so in order to relieve their suffering.

GENERAL.

CANADIAN.

Western exchanges say that between Galt and Ingersoll, on the Credit Valley railway is being rapidly pushed. Tenders for the Georgian Bay branch were opened on Saturday. There were 100,000 copies of the new edition of the usually large number of tenders, and it is usually not transpire for several days.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Baseball.

The professional baseball season of 1878 has commenced in the positions of several of the clubs. The following is the record to date:

Table with columns for Club Name, Wins, Losses, and Games Played. Includes teams like Buffalo, Toronto, and Montreal.

Outrage at Niagara. Incestuous, Ont., July 3.—About two o'clock on the morning of the 2nd inst. a party of five men, who were placed in front of the McMurry House. Some colored barbers called for liquor, and they were refused. The party then proceeded to the bar, and the proprietor, Mr. McMurry, in endeavouring to quiet them, was seized and held in the body slightly, and made several blows in his arm. Chief Constable McGraw, who was on duty, took the party to the police station, and they were held in custody.

Extradition Treaties. The report has been issued of the Royal Commission on Extradition Treaties. The Commission suggests that extradition treaties should no longer be held in force, and that the Government should negotiate new treaties with the United States, which should be more liberal and more equitable.

AMERICAN NEWS IN ENGLAND. The following significant advertisement appears in a Liverpool daily paper: "The Subscribers' Magazine and Export to the English Market Broom and Bush Handles." The advertisement is for a company that manufactures brooms and brushes, and is located in Liverpool.

THE VERY REV. ARCHBISHOP DANIEL. The Very Rev. Archbishop Daniel, Dean of Cork, died on Monday, at the residence of the late Archbishop, at the age of 82. He was a member of the House of Commons, and was appointed to the see of Cork in 1867. He was a distinguished scholar and a devoted clergyman.

THE NEW YORK HERALD. The New York Herald of Saturday published the following account of the death of a man named John Smith. The man had been suffering from a long illness, and died on the morning of the 4th inst. at the age of 70.

DEATH OF M. P.'S. Mr. H. W. F. Bolokov, M.P., died at St. Petersburg on the 2nd inst. He was a member of the Russian Parliament, and was known for his liberal views and his efforts to improve the condition of the peasantry.

GIFTS TO ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN. A case has come before Vice-Chancellor Malins which illustrates the dangers which are incurred by parents who give gifts to illegitimate children. The case involved a large sum of money, and the court ruled that the gifts were invalid.

THE CANADIAN TROPHY. The Canadian Trophy, which was presented to the Dominion of Canada by the British Government, is now on display in the Exhibition. It is a magnificent work of art, and is highly valued by the Canadian people.

THE NEW YORK HERALD. The New York Herald of Saturday published the following account of the death of a man named John Smith. The man had been suffering from a long illness, and died on the morning of the 4th inst. at the age of 70.

THE NEW YORK HERALD. The New York Herald of Saturday published the following account of the death of a man named John Smith. The man had been suffering from a long illness, and died on the morning of the 4th inst. at the age of 70.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT QUESTION IN SCOTLAND. The London correspondent of the Scots Mercury writes: "A petition of a very important character, sent up to London by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, will, I understand, be presented to the House of Commons tomorrow." The petition relates to the disestablishment of the Church of Scotland.

