OBJECT OF FAITH.

Faith is a virtue infused by God

Baptism, whereby a man is enabled to believe without doub ing all that God has revealed.

And belief for the Catholic extends only to those things which God bas revealed. What are those things? St. Paul tells us in the first verse and chapter of the Epistle to the Hebraws: "God who at -undry times and in divers manners to us by His Son."

It is the things which God has revealed by His Son that go to make up what is called the "deposit of Faith." And it is this and neither more nor less, that we as Catholics must hold in order to be saved.

The old calumny about the tyranny of the church which compelled men to believe whatever it bade them ; the popular superstition still extant that the church enslaves the intellect; the common error among non-Catholies that the Church keeps the masses of the people in ignorance because they would all leave the Church if they without, All these lies, errors and fallacies vanish, when one knows that all Catholics are obliged to be that outside that they are free to find truth as they can and may, under he domain of pure reason.

The writer knows a person, who irst was attracted to the Church, by finding out that it does not compel its members to believe the stuff that its enemies say it does. This person's informers about the religion of the Catholic Church were misinafter this enquiry when this person

The Brisson Government held power for barely four months; it was the 85th. ministry since the inauguration of the present Republic, twenty-seven years ago. So frequent, indeed, have been the changes of Government that the downfall of a French Premier, after a few months tenure of office has come to be regarded as a matter of course, and ordinarily creates little surprise. Such frequent changes, however, indicate an extraordinary fickleness and want of a great nation, and are well allowed to the public affairs of a great nation, and are well allowed to the property of the variety of the steamer and the corridors. The Pontifical Gendarunes keep order in the corridors. The Pontifical Gendarunes keep order in the want to go; he acts the part of "Young Napoleon," and desires to continue imposing his imperious will on the people of the North West, as well as on his colleagues in the Cabinet. It may reasonably be assumed that the Liberals are fervently praying he may accept the Lieutenant Governorship and thus prevent serious trouble for the party.

The endden death of Mr. John Hagan has been a great shock to his many friends in and about Charlottetown. A few days previous to his death he was about his work as usual, and little did his friends think that in a few days he would be taken from their midst. Ha was about his work as usual, and little did his friends think that in a few days he would be taken from their midst. He was a devout Catholic, a truly Christian man who lived up to the principles of his religion. A quiet, unasuming person, he gained the esteem of all who knew him. In his transactions with his fellow men he was always found to be upright and honest. Some years ago he was enployed in the late Donald McKinnon'stanuery, and later on he and his brother started a Tannery business under the name of Hagan Brothers, and by strict application to business and honest dealing, combined with good business ability, they built up a thriving business. By his death Charlottetown loses a good citizen, the business community a good business man, and the Church a go.d member. His funeral took place on Thursday, Oct. 27, and the high esteem in which he was held was shown by the large number of people who followed his remains to their last resting place.—Com.

PUT YOUR FINGER ON YOUR PULSE.

It is Weak or Pregular don't Hesi-tate to Start the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills at once.

With a strong, steady, regular pulse we may expect vigorous health.

With a weak, irregular, intermittent pulse we can tell at once the vitality is low—that Dizzy and Faint Spells, Smothering and Sinking Sensations and similar conditions are bound to ensue.

By their action in strengthening the heart, toning the nerves and enriching the blood, Milbūrn's Heart and Nerve Pills relieve and cure all those distressing conditions just enumerated.

Mrs. B. Croft, residing on Waterloo Street, St. John, N.B., says:

"For some time past I have suffered from pallor, weakness and nervous prostration, I had palpitation and irregular beating of the heart so severe as to cause me great alarm. I was treated by physicians, but got no permanent relief.
