PLEASANT EVENING RECREATION HALL

Splendid Entertainment Carried Out Under Auspices of the Baptist Church

On Tuesday evening, February 21st, a very pleasant evening's entertainment was held in the Recreation Hall under the auspices of the Baptist Church for the benefit of the inmates of the County Institutions. The evening's programme was a most interesting and varied one, and carried out in a most creditable manner. The hall was, as usual, packed to its full capacity, and if there were any among the number who were afflicted with the blues (whether inmates or those who pass unadvisedly), before the beginning of the concert, they must be described as hopelessly chronicle if they were not considerably animated at the close. Those who were responsible for the evening's entertainment seem to have had the subject of "Well make your troubles vanish", and in this they were certainly successful, as all were evidently happy at the close. Those who are familiar with the affairs of the Institutions cannot but be impressed with the fact that the people of Bridgetown and vicinity are ever willing to contribute their talents and support toward bringing a measure of brightness in the lives of those confined in these Institutions; would that this interest were manifested in other parts of the Municipality, and in those Counties where Institutions of the like are situated, and under whose jurisdiction they exist. The Rev. Clyde W. Robbins performed the duties of chairman during the evening. He thanked all those who took part in the entertainment, in his own behalf, and also that of the management; he also announced that another entertainment would be held under the auspices of the Gordon-Memorial Church some time in April, notice of which will appear in due season. The following is a copy of the evening's programme:

Piano Solo—"Silent Thee Flag," Mrs. B. E. Clute, Mrs. W. A. Warren.
Reading—"What William Henry Did," Mrs. W. A. Warren.
Song—"When You Come Home," Miss Flora Cole.
Quartet—"Listen to My Tale of Woe," Paradise Quartette.
Song—"One Fleeting Hour," Mrs. S. Purdy.
Comic—"The Orchestra," Messrs. Young, Dodge, Michie, Young.
Sketch—"Joint Household," Mrs. W. A. Warren, Mrs. F. E. Path.
Quartette—"Mah Puckki Sue," Male Quartette, Paradise.
Comic—"Kitchen Orchestra—Medley (Comic)," National Anthem.

HINDU STREET SCENE IN LYELL PICTURE

A Hindu street scene in "The Price of Redemption," Bert Lyell's new Metro picture, which will be seen Friday and Saturday at the Primrose Theatre, is an exact reproduction of a street in the town of Baroda, India. Dr. H. R. M. Maddock, who spent many years in India in British Army service, was technical advisor for the picture. The set was constructed under the supervision of A. W. Alley. The street, covering in all about three hundred feet, is formed in an angle. The houses and stores in various colors, are made of cement and stucco, the lowest about twenty feet high, the tallest about seventy feet. As many of the inhabitants of the town are English, the signs on the stores are printed in both Hindu and English script. When the scenes were photographed by Sol Polito in the Hindu street more than five hundred persons appeared before the camera. A Hindu fete was pictured, showing the English inhabitants of the town looking down from a high portico upon the festive activities below. Riding upon elephants and camels, and their ilk passed between groups of scrapping beggars and ragged children and haughtily acknowledged the salutes and salaams of the nether world. The night scenes were obtained by the use of Indian torches and house lights and the weird actions of Hindu gods after dark, their slinking gait and furtive, mysterious glances and

PROF. MUNRO AT ANNAPOLIS ROYAL

Audience Delighted With Dalhousie Man's Fine Interpretation of British Foreign Policy

Annapolis Royal, Feb. 25.—Last evening we enjoyed another intellectual feast at the I. O. D. E. room in the Academy Building. It was the third lecture of the Dalhousie University Extension Course. What an uplift it has been to listen to these masters unfold their wealth of knowledge upon the timely topics they have discussed. Of course, one lecture on a study that naturally would occupy college students for a year or more is merely an introduction, or a bare outline of a theme that needs to be filled in, and elaborated. It is something like reading over the table of contents of a pandemonium work, with this difference, those contents are made to stand out and fascinate the mind by the side lights and comments of a living speaker who is overflowing with his subject, and knows how to make the dry bones of fact, breathe and throbs a new life of the spirit. The revelations make the auditor turn again to the subjects with a more intelligent interest.

The lecturer last evening was Prof. H. F. Munro, and his subject was "The British Foreign Policy." International Law, being his specialty, something extraordinary was expected, and his auditors got much more than they anticipated. In historic review, discriminating definitions and pointed interruptions the lecture was certainly a masterpiece. After listening to the learned Professor it is easily understood why he is so popular as a lecturer on international themes. Prof. Munro is an educationalist of whom all his fellow Nova Scotians can be justly proud.

ZEDELER SYMPHONIC QUINTET

Musical lovers of Bridgetown had an opportunity on Monday evening of attending one of the finest concerts that ever came to the Maritime Provinces, when the Zeidler Symphonic Quintet, under the leadership of Mr. Nicolai Zeidler, former Cello Soloist with the New York Symphony, visited the Court House.

The following programme was exquisitely rendered by this famous quintet, and the tremendous ovation which each number received showed the appreciation of the audience. Space does not permit of personal descriptions but Mr. Zeidler can rightly claim to be one of the world's foremost cello soloists.

Mr. Zeidler expressed his keen gratification of the splendid reception given by the audience, and hopes to have the privilege of visiting Bridgetown at some future date. Great credit should be given to Mr. Kenneth Leslie who was responsible for giving Bridgetown such a wonderful opportunity of hearing the extraordinary talent and ability of this concert party.

VESSEL AND TUG SEIZED WITH CONTRABAND LIQUOR

Grace And Ruby And A Canadian Tug Are Seized By U. S. Cutter—Tug Was Consigned To St. John.

Calais, Me., Feb. 23.—Two hundred cases of Canadian whiskey, valued at ten thousand dollars, were seized today by United States customs inspectors in a Maine Central freight car at Polway Sliding, near Dennysville. The liquor was hidden under bundles of shingles.

Boston, Feb. 23.—A saucy little schooner, the Grace and Ruby, of Yarmouth, with a cargo of contraband liquors aboard that customs authorities said were intended for landing at New England ports, was caught loafing outside this harbor early today by the coastguard cutter Tampa.

CONCERT FOR MEMORIAL FUND

The Entertainment Given Under the Management of Mrs. W. D. Lockett Proves a Success

The Bridgetown Branch of the G. W. V. A. wish to take this opportunity of thanking the Bridgetown Junior Dramatic Club for the splendid entertainment provided in the Primrose Theatre on Friday last, February 24th. Too much praise cannot be given to Mrs. W. D. Lockett who conceived the idea of a play given by the Junior Dramatic Club, as a means of raising money for the Bridgetown Memorial. During the past two weeks Mrs. Lockett has devoted a great deal of time and energy to make the proposed entertainment a success, and the unanimous applause and the pleasure efforts were appreciated.

Mr. Deane Hatfield, of Wolfville, came at the request of Mrs. Lockett, and as an eloquentist, he is undoubtedly one of the finest ever heard in Bridgetown.

To all the members of the Junior Dramatic Club we are very grateful for the excellence of their play, "My Cousin Timmy", or more properly "Professor Timothy Addles". The fact that they were asked to give the play at Lawrenceton is a splendid tribute to their brilliant performance.

Mrs. H. Ruggles and Rev. E. E. Underwood greatly delighted the audience with their local duets, and it is regretted that time did not permit of encores.

The Bridgetown orchestra largely contributed to the success of the evening, the selections from "The Bohemian Girl" being particularly well rendered.

To all the others who assisted we express our appreciation. Harry Carter very kindly donated the program, and the Dramatic Club wish to express their gratitude for the same. The proceeds of the evening will help to provide some permanent memorial of which Bridgetown will be proud.

The Local Branch of the G. W. V. A. will meet the Town Council very shortly, when it is hoped a definite scheme will be arranged to commemorate those who paid the supreme sacrifice during the war.

Suggestions as to the form this memorial should take will be welcomed by any members of the Local Branch.

MONDAY'S MATINEE

At the request of a number of people who were delighted with the play "My Cousin Timmy" given by the Bridgetown Junior Dramatic Club in the Primrose Theatre on Friday evening, a matinee performance was held on Monday afternoon.

Through the kindness of the clergy, the matinee was announced in the Sunday Schools and Mr. Archibald permitted one of the committee to notify the school children on Monday morning.

About one hundred and fifty people availed themselves of the opportunity afforded them, and the concert was greatly enjoyed, especially by the school children.

All the artists gave their services again, and the proceeds, in spite of the inclement weather, were sufficient to defray all the expenses in connection with the production.

One member of the Zeidler Company which gave a concert in Bridgetown on Monday evening, was present, and was most enthusiastic in regard to the excellent professional manner of all who took part in the afternoon's entertainment.

Girls and boys are invited to attend a Living Gay Life Appeal To All Parents.

WHISKEY AND GIN THAT FILLED HUTCHES AND CABINS, THE GRACE AND RUBY REPRESENTED THE MOST VALUABLE PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT CATCH MADE ON THIS COAST

At bootleggers' valuation, customs officers said her cargo is worth one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. They announced their conviction that it was from the same vessel that seventy thousand dollars worth additional liquor was transferred Monday night and placed aboard a motor scow for landing at Salem. The scow was captured there yesterday, and its contents seized when it grounded on the mud flats. John Le Parre, Liverpool, who jumped overboard, was captured and brought here to answer charges in connection with the incident.

The capture of the Grace and Ruby, which supplements sails with an auxiliary engine, followed a day and night hunt for her, by two customs cutters. The Osprey chased up and down the coast until fog set in last night. Then the Tampa was added to the pursuit and, while poking around in the fog off the outer harbor here this morning, found the Grace and Ruby lying to. She was taken in tow, rained to customs officials, and her crew detained.

Captain Wiley Ross, of the Grace and Ruby, said the schooner was owned by Walter Sweeney, Yarmouth, N.S., and that her cargo was consigned to parties at St. John, N.B.

The schooner, a former fisherman, once a familiar figure in the fisheries here, in the Bahamas, on February 11th. Her manifest showed that she had aboard at that time two thousand and twenty-five packages of whiskey, six bottles to a package, and three hundred cases of gin. Examination by customs authorities to-day showed only one thousand eight hundred packages of whiskey aboard. The gin was apparently not disturbed.

The whiskey was marked as of the "Calvert Rye" brand, distilled by the Maryland Distilling Company in 1912 and bottled in 1919, and "for export." A Canadian tug was also seized.

SCHOONER SAILED FROM YARMOUTH

Yarmouth, Feb. 23.—The Grace and Ruby left Yarmouth last November, presumably for Newfoundland for a cargo of herring to come back to Liverpool. As near as could be learned, she went to Lunenburg instead, had her ballast taken out there, and called for the Bahamas. She has not been back here since that time.

It is rumored here that she was under charter to American parties, one of her owners being in Boston at the present time. The schooner was owned by the K. and S. Shipbuilding Company, and has recently been captained by Harry Ross, Wylie Ross, well known in this district, was formerly the captain, but according to fishing men here, she has been in command of his brother since he, Captain Wylie Ross, left this place. Members of the crew who sailed from here are, Nelson Raymond, Jack Tefeyre, Forman Outhouse, and Walter Murphy.

GRAND MASTER WOOD VISITS CLARK'S HARBOR

Clark's Harbor, N.S., Feb. 23.—Mr. C. L. Wood, of Windsor, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. for the Maritime provinces, paid an official visit to the Oddfellows' Lodge here on Tuesday evening. Rebekah Lodge's visit also present at this meeting. Mr. Wood delivered an able address on Oddfellows' work, touching on its past, present, and future. The initiatory degree was conferred on one candidate. Refreshments were served by Sister Rebekahs. Then followed a musical programme which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The gathering broke up at a late hour with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

THIRTY-FOUR LOST LIVES WHEN DIRIGIBLE EXPLODES

The United States Dirigible Rovers crashed two hundred feet to the earth in flames on February 21st, at a United States Army base near Norfolk, Va., causing the death of thirty-four of the forty-five passengers, and members of the crew of board. Three of the eleven survivors were unhurt. The accident was caused by an explosion following some rudder trouble when 1,500 feet in the air.

NEGLECTING SCHOOL WORK

"We do not want the young people to think we are depriving them of all their pleasures, but we do know that Detroit high school boys and girls are indulging in too much gaiety for their own good," Mrs. Downey says.

"I have personal knowledge of boys and girls between fifteen and seventeen who are going to parties two and three evenings a week. Why can't they be kept at home on week days and allowed to have their good times on Friday and Saturday evenings?"

"No child who has been to a party until late one night is at all fit for school next day. High school boys and girls need sleep, and plenty of it. It does not seem to me that the mothers are as interested in the welfare of their children as they used to be. Young folks have too much liberty. What they really need is a little more parental supervision and co-operation."

FEARS FOR "MODERN" GIRL

Mrs. C. H. Key, President of the Democratic Women's Club, condemns severely the modern high school girl who "rouges, smokes, drinks, parks her corsets, and lies to her mother as glibly as she would to a stranger. I cannot imagine what has come over the young people of to-day. They belong to a race never seen before in all history," Mrs. Key says. "I say to mothers, keep your children at home if you possibly can, and the worse for them."

Men wearing Chesley limbs are working in the coal mines of Cape Breton, the lumber woods of Queens County, on ocean liners, in department stores and in many other locations. A clergyman who had both arms amputated at the shoulder turns the leaves of the Bible and hymn book with "Chesley" arms. A Major who lost a leg in France was fitted with a "Chesley" limb and now joins his comrades on all public occasions, keeping up with the best of them.

A sea captain from Pictou who wears a "Chesley", commands a big steamer in western waters. A captain from Lunenburg, for many years high liner of the Lunenburg fleet, with a leg off above the knee, frequently goes to the masthead to have a look around equipped with a "Chesley" artificial limb.

During the war the activities of this company were exclusively given to creating man power from men who were minus a limb, and it made no difference if he could pay or not, he got a limb.

ROYAL WEDDING IN LONDON, ENG.

Princess Mary Became United in Marriage to Viscount Lascelles Yesterday

The Union Jack at The MONITOR Office, together with those at the public school and several stores and private residences, were flying yesterday in honor of the Royal wedding which took place in Westminster Abbey, London, England, at 11.30 a.m., when Princess Mary, only daughter of King George and Queen Mary, was united in marriage to Viscount Lascelles, son and heir of the Earl of Harewood; the ceremony being performed by the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Archbishop of York, and the Dean of Westminster.

The chances are that no more popular wedding ever took place within the Royal circle. The fact that the only daughter of the King and Queen should choose one of her own countrymen and he not a "royalty" was enough in itself to catch the popular mind. But added to this was the fact that the Princess is, by common consent, one of the most popular young women in England, and Viscount Lascelles is not far behind as a man.

This undoubtedly accounts for the wonderful accumulation of wedding gifts which have been on view at Buckingham Palace, (jewels predominating) and which came not only from all parts of the British Isles and from all classes therein, but also from every part of the British Empire. Yet likely none was more appreciated, and certainly none had a more democratic flavor about them, than two received from Battersea—the one from a dozen or so little girls each named Mary, and consisting of a Sachet ornamented with "pearls", and the other from a like number of boys named Harry (Viscount Lascelles is familiarly known as Harry) consisting of a home-made cigar box.

The children were all poor, but presented a neat appearance as they arrived at the Palace singing at the top of their voices:

"Oh, what a pal is Mary,
Oh, what a pal is she;
An Angel of love came down from above
And brought her here to me."

It was unfortunate that the Princess was out of town at the time, but the youngsters were received by the ladies-in-waiting, and it is safe to say that no incident in connection with the wedding has so captivated the popular imagination or better voiced the sentiments of all classes in the motherland.

Although far from the scene, The MONITOR feels that it is but expressing the thoughts of its readers when it wishes the happy pair long and blessed wedded life.

DAUGHTER HAD TO HELP MOTHER

Now Can Do All Her Housework Alone Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Jasper, Minn.—"I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it because I was having such pains in my stomach and through my back that I could not do my work. I had tried other medicines, but none did me the good that your Vegetable Compound did. Now I am able to do all my work alone while before I had my daughter staying at home to do it. I have told a number of friends what it has done for me and give you permission to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. JESSE PETERSEN, Route 1, Jasper, Minn.

There is no better reason for your trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than this—it has helped other women. So if you suffer from displacements, irregularities, backache, nervousness or are passing through the Change of Life remember this splendid medicine. What it did for Mrs. Petersen it may do for you.

The Vegetable Compound stands upon a foundation of nearly fifty years of service.

A very interesting event took place on Tuesday at Deep Brook when Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Suits celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. It was at Deep Brook on February 14th, 1872, Albert Gilpin Suits, son of Jeremiah and Jane (Boyer) Suits, and Elizabeth Ruggles, daughter of William and Charlotte (Eason) Ruggles, were made man and wife by Rev. William Godfrey, then rector of the parish of St. Clement, Clementsport. Of those present at the wedding, exclusive of the bride and groom, who helped celebrate the anniversary, were Mrs. James Ray and Charles Ruggles, of Deep Brook, sister and brother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Suits brought up a family of nine children and the first grand child did not take place until three years ago, when the youngest of the family, Frederick O., died, aged twenty-five years. Of the other eight, six were present at the anniversary on Tuesday, as follows: Miss Clara M. Suits, Deep Brook; Mrs. Louise A. Suits, of Annapolis Royal; Mrs. B. C. Clarke, of Deep River; Mrs. Frank Roop, of Newville; Mrs. Mary J. Suits, of Newton Centre, Mass.; and Mrs. Elizabeth Hines, of Brookline, Mass. The happy couple were the recipients of many telegrams and letters of congratulation, as well as more tangible marks of esteem, including a purse of $60 in cash (mostly in gold) from the children, grandchildren, and friends, and a handsome bouquet of carnations from the children. All the gifts were placed in a basket and the presentation was made by Mrs. Frank Roop, one of the daughters.

CLEGGYMAN QUILTS CHURCH AFTER WIFE DESECTS

Louisville Woman Tires Of Being Curate's Wife And Goes Home
New York, Feb. 12.—The Rev. Arthur W. Brooks has resigned as curate of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah, in Brooklyn, of which the Rev. St. Clair Hester is the rector. Mr. Brooks took the step to save the church from embarrassment because he and his wife, Mrs. Virginia McKinley Brooks, are living apart. Mrs. Brooks is now with her parents at Louisville, Ky.
"Mr. Brooks has told me something about the trouble between him and his wife," said Dr. Hester. "I did not know it was so serious and I am very sorry it has become public. I might bring matters to such a point that his continued connection with the church might tend to embarrass it, so he tendered his resignation."
"I believe that twice before he had fitted up a fine comfortable home for her and each time she became upset about something and went back to her parents. This makes the third time. I have found nothing in the conduct of Mr. Brooks to merit criticism."
Mr. Brooks said it was true that his wife had left him. "The only reason I can ascribe for her action is a mental strain," he said.
"I think that of the secret of it all is that she is tired of being the wife of a clergyman. The salary is limited."

WINS VALUABLE PRIZE IN BIG SALESMANSHIP CONTEST

Mr. C. B. Tupper, of Bridgetown, who sells the Rawleigh Good Health products in Annapolis County, is being congratulated by his friends for his success in winning a valuable prize in a three months' salesmanship contest conducted by his company. This is both an honor and a distinctive achievement for there are nearly 5,000 people in all parts of the United States and Canada engaged in distributing the products of The W. T. Rawleigh Company direct to the homes of approximately 20,000,000 users. The contest commenced from October 1st to December 31st, and the prizes were awarded to those retailers who secured the largest number of points for sales, collections, days of selling, payments made, prompt reporting, and recruiting new sales people.
The prize won by Mr. Tupper is a beautiful and valuable oil painting which he highly prizes as a souvenir of his successful participation in so large a contest.
The sales organization of The W. T. Rawleigh Company was divided into sixteen districts for the contest and six principal prizes were set aside for the leaders in each district. Most of the prizes were selected from Rawleigh's Oriental shop at Freepost, Ill., and were personally selected and bought by the President, Mr. W. T. Rawleigh during his extended business tour abroad in 1920. They consist of Oriental rugs, Venetian glassware, Vienna bronzes, Vienna oil paintings, Turkish pottery, beaded bags, silk scarves, Elkhorn smoking stands, Alfrons, marble statues and bill books.
Mr. Tupper has been selling Rawleigh products for two years, calling upon his customers about four times a year. He is enthusiastic about his business and his line of about one hundred and fifty Rawleigh products which he says never fail to give satisfaction. He is particularly proud of The W. T. Rawleigh Company, the largest, strongest, most complete and the leading company of its kind. Its home office and main laboratories and factories are located at Freepost, Ill., with large branch factories at Memphis, Tenn., and Winnipeg, Man., and distributing branches at Chester, Pa., and Oakland, Calif., Minneapolis, Minn., London, Ont., and Montreal, Quebec.
Mr. Tupper says that retailing Rawleigh's products is a pleasant, healthful, independent, permanent and very useful business and that he has had good success and has prospered in it because of his industry and the real service he renders to his customers in supplying them with the Rawleigh Good Health products. These products consist of food products, flavors, extracts, spices, soaps, toilet accessories, household medicines, veterinary preparations, disinfectants, insecticides, and poultry preparations, which are all of the very highest quality and practical and useful in every home.
Customers of Mr. Tupper are especially pleased with his success and good fortune in winning such a prize.

WESTERN STAR LODGE HAPPY AGAIN IN NEW HOME

Grand Opening Of Splendid L. O. O. F. Lodge Rooms At Annapolis Royal.
Annapolis Royal, Feb. 14.—Last night was a grand occasion for Western Star Lodge, I. O. O. F. The big fire of September 7th destroyed the splendid suite of rooms in the Runciman Block, occupied by the Lodge for a number of years. These rooms were attractively furnished, and provided a very homelike place for the meeting of the boys. But the fire changed all that. Since it was burnt out, the Lodge has met in the old room in the O'Dell Building, at the head of the Ferry Slip, where it was organized forty-eight years ago, and for succeeding years held its weekly sessions.
But now the Lodge has a new home in the King Building, opposite the Post Office. The opening of A. M. King's new theatre has been previously reported and commented upon. The I. O. O. F. rooms are on the second floor, and are just completed. The room in which the Lodge will meet is over forty feet square. It has a metal ceiling in an attractive design and a finished hardwood floor. There is also a commodious robing room in addition to the other rooms there is a well finished hall in the front of the building, about thirty feet square, that is available for entertaining purposes.
Last night this whole building, with all its spacious rooms, was occupied by the Oddfellows. They first put on a movie show, consisting of Charlie Chaplin's latest comedy, "The Idle Class," and the six- reel feature, "The Witching Hours."
From the theatre the company went upstairs to the new Lodge room, where the dedication ceremonies were conducted by the Grand Master, Charles L. Wood, of Windsor. This was a very impressive service. An interesting feature of the proceedings was the fraternal greetings and congratulations of the Annapolis Royal Lodge of A. F. & A. M., conveyed by the appointed representative, Dr. L. B. W. Braine.
The Grand Master, in his address, spoke with feeling of the morning after the fire looking upon the ruins of the old Lodge rooms, where he had been initiated into the mysteries of Oddfellowship, and congratulated the Lodge upon so soon being able to move into their new building. During the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces have been burned, but the Western Star is the first one to move into its new home.
After the dedication ceremony, the front hall was occupied by a happy band of dancers. Grey-haired grandfathers mingled with the budding maids in their teens, and joined in the sidly swirl. The easy grace with which these veterans tripped off the light fantastic was in striking contrast to the stooped and apparently unready step in the street.
The evening's entertainment closed with a splendid collection of refreshments. Thus by a grand variety of entertainment the Oddfellows were inducted into their new home in the King Building.

WHAT DOES YOUR MIRROR REVEAL?

Does It Tell You That Your Blood Is Thin and Watery

When a growing girl becomes pale, complains of exhaustion, dizzy spells, headache and stomach trouble, she should know that these things are evidences of anaemia or bloodlessness. A glance in the mirror will tell the story. There is immediate need for a tonic, a system builder that will completely restore the missing qualities to the blood that every part of the body will share in the benefit. A good example of the result of wise treatment in cases of this kind is given by Mrs. George R. Smith, of Queensport, N.S., who says: "I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly for what they have done for my three daughters. My eldest daughter, Edna, at the age of fourteen, became run down, and I got her three boxes of the pills, and by the time she had taken them she was in good health, and is now a healthy married woman. My second daughter, Martha, at the age of sixteen, was awfully run down and pale. In fact she had always been a delicate child, but gradually became worse. At last she could not go upstairs without having to sit down and rest, and could not even do any kind of light work without being greatly fatigued. Finally I gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking them we found they did her more good than all the other medicine she had taken, and she is now in good health. Than my youngest daughter, Greia, now fifteen, became so run down that she had to stop going to school. But after taking eight boxes of the pills she is now a healthy girl. I feel that after what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done in my home there can be no doubt of their value, and I hope someone else will benefit from our experience." You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail, post-paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WEDDING BELLS

PURNELL-CALDWELL
(Philadelphia, Friday, Feb. 11, 1922.)
A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Colvin, when Miss Bessie Elizabeth Caldwell, formerly of Burlington, N.S., and Mr. Archie James Purnell, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage by the Rev. Bertram B. Shay. The bride looked charming gowned in white georgette, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Clara Lynn, while Mr. Lewis Shall acted as best man. After a reception attended by their many friends, they left for Washington, D.C., and the Middle States, where they will spend their honeymoon, and on their return will reside in Philadelphia at 5317 Rhineland St. West.

S. S. Bear River arrived at Bear River from St. John on Thursday, but was unable to get through the ice in the river until Friday evening. She sailed for St. John, via Digby, on Monday.

LENENT PASTORAL ISSUED BY THE ARCHBISHOP OF NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax, Feb. 20th, 1922.

To the Members of the Church of England in the Diocese of Nova Scotia:

My dear brethren: During the War it was often said that one good thing to emerge from the mass of surrounding horror would be an arousing of the world from the indifference into which it had been slipping and an awakening from its religious slumber.

Amid the fearful catastrophe of that war, the wrecking of human fortunes, the destruction of happy homes, and the maiming and killing of useful men, to say nothing of the wanton butchery and barbarous treatment of women and children we were brought face to face with the reality of life and death and compelled to take account of the relative value of our surroundings.

The church then in all faith and earnestness opened wide the door and pointed out the never failing satisfaction which the Incarnation gives and ever can give to questioning humanity.

Now that three years have passed since the close of the war we have to acknowledge a large measure of disappointment and regret that the hopes which at one time were so high have not been realized to the extent expected. But in the midst of the unsatisfactory condition of the world to-day the church holds out the message of the Gospel as the one ground of confidence that all will yet be well. That Gospel points not only to the present and the past, but to the future. It bids us ask ourselves seriously a very serious question. Is the material side of the world all we have to work for and to live for? Is man to be only what, unaided by spiritual or supernatural power, he can make of himself? And when his physical and mental strength fail has he nothing to depend upon? Is there a "Strength and stay upholding all creation Who never doth unmoved abide." When a leading scientist acknowledges that "personality persists beyond bodily death" we can feel that it is not mere poetry to say "There shall never be one lost good. What was, shall live as before. The evil is null, what was good shall be good. On the earth the broken arc, In Heaven a perfect round."

Keen mentality, human experience and the art of genius, no less than deep spirituality, and inspiration, earnest explanation and content as Holy Scripture draws aside the curtain and reveals the truth. "God giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" for "So God loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, to the end that all they believe in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Therefore it is worth while to struggle and suffer and endure for the cause of right, which alone shall endure forever.

In holding this out, the church calls us to make use of these well-tried means of grace which she received from Christ and has faithfully preserved ever since. She calls upon us especially in the Lenten season to truer worship, more earnest prayer and deeper devotion, not because it is Lent, nor because the Church so directs, nor because it is the fashion, but because it is an opportunity for a closer walk with God. If prayer implies fellowship with Him let us use it as much as we can, and if His House is the House of prayer let us be there whenever we can, for the oftener we are with Him and under His pilotage the less likely are we to take a wrong course and the more likely to strive for the things that are of the greatest value.

During the war there was an eagerness to read about and hear about the historical and economic questions involved, and ever since a new interest in books that were before disregarded, except by students, has been aroused. The calamity eclipsed every other subject, and gripped the world. Amid the shower of books that has been descending upon the hard dry facts and stern realities and unsolved problems, let us turn to the Word of God for enlightenment and refreshment, and perhaps the true cause for existing conditions may be found either in the fact that a genuine struggle with the great enemy of our souls, the Prince of evil, is being avoided, or we are allowing ourselves to be totally unprepared for entering upon it.

Lent is a time for rectifying this. Its discipline can make us "Strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might" for it brings us to self-examination, which will convince us of the real influence of our lives that lurks around, and by perilously near we are sailing in the area of deadliest mines; it brings us to prayer and sacrament which can best fit us for defence against the enemy. "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood but against principalities, against powers against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the

RHEUMATISM GONE; WALKS WELL AS EVER

Manitoba Man's Legs Were Stiff as Boards and He Ached From Head to Foot--Had Suffered Five Years

"I heard so many people telling what Tanlac had done for them that I tried it in my own case and I am convinced it is a wonderful medicine," said David Wellington, a well-known drug clerk, Harperston, Manitoba.

"For five years I had been a sufferer from rheumatic fever. I simply ached all over from head to foot and my bones felt like they were going to crack. My knees were so stiff actually I used to walk like I had wooden legs, and I just dragged one foot after the other. Everything I ate seemed to sour on my stomach and I was bothered a good deal with back ache and headaches.

"I began to improve gradually from the first dose of Tanlac and kept it up until my stomach was in perfect condition and the rheumatism had left me. I am in splendid health now and feel that it is only right that I should tell my experience so that others who suffer as I did may know where they may get relief, too."

Tanlac is sold in Bridgetown by S. N. Wease, and by leading druggists everywhere.

I earnestly invite your consideration of the list of services in your church, and urge you to resolve to attend some of them, not spasmodically, but regularly and systematically. While still enjoying in moderation the good things which God has given us, let us take some time from our pleasures to rest with Him, and learn how

"His greatness flows around our incompleteness, Around our restlessness His rest."

I hope, therefore, that through the Diocese the Lent of 1922 will be kept sincerely and sensibly, and, at its close, one and all may feel they have received a blessing and have been a blessing to others.

Very truly yours,
CLARE L. NOVA SCOTIA.
