National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, atc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant per le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

HE Subscribing and Corresponding Members of the Society, in Great-Britain and Foreign Parts, are about 500; to which were added, in the Year 1740, Twenty-two Subscribing, and Twenty-four Corresponding Members; an Increase, which has been in good Measure owing to the Lord Bishop of London's Recommendation of their Designs, in the following Letter to his Clergy:

GOOD BROTHER,

Whitehall, April 3, 1740:

HE Decay of Piety and Religion, and the Increase of Sin and Vice, are so visible in our Days, notwithstanding the Endeavours of the Parochial Clergy to prevent them; that no additional Expedients ought to be omitted, which may help, in any measure, to preserve among our

People a Sense of Duty, and a Spirit of

ONE of these Expedients is, the putting into their Hands, as Occasion shall be found, some short and plain Trasts upon Religious Subjects; such as being short, they are like to read, or may easily procure to be read to them; and being also plain, they cannot sail of understanding; and moreover, being always at hand, and read over often, they will naturally make a deeper Impression upon their Minds, than Instructions and Admonitions, either from the Pulpit, or by Word of Mouth.

' It was with this View, that feveral Bifhops, Clergymen, and other ferious Perfons among the Laity, did long fince form themselves into a Society, for printing and dispersing such practical Tracts in great Numbers. And for the difperfing them more effectually, they have from time to time admitted, and continue to admit, several Persons in all Parts of the Kingdom, whom they call Corresponding 'MEMBERS; and who are intitled to have a Supply of them, to be disposed of among fuch of the Neighbouring Clergy or Laity as defire them; the Bound Books, mentioned in the Society's Catalogue, at the prime Cost in Quires, the Society being at the Charge of Binding; and the Stich'd Books, at one Half of the Price there set down, as the prime Cost of each; the other Half of the Charge being born by the standing

And the Privilege of sending for and receiving those Books and small Tracts, onthe Terms before-mentioned, is common to-all the Corresponding Members, as such, whether they be Subscribers, or not; on-'account of the Trouble they are content to take, in aufwering the great Ends of the Society, by conveying the Tracts into many Hands, and on the same easy Terms; without any Advantage to themselves, besides the Pleasure of doing Good.

"This Society has subsisted many Years, under the Name of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. And, as by their Endeavours in that Way, great Good has been already done to Religion, so much more would probably be done, if the Defign, and their Methods of carrying it on, were more generally understood and attended to.

And because some of the Clergy may not:

know that there is such a Society, and many others may be unacquainted with the true-End and Manner of it; I defire that those

N. B. This Book, and the Bishop of Sodor and Man's plain Account of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, may be had by all the Corresponding as well as Subscribing Members, upon the Terms of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, who meet every Tuesday, at their House, N° 5, Bartlett's-Buildings, Holborn.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

F the following Essay doth in any meafure answer its Title and Design, the Reader must know, that it was, through the divine Direction and Bleffing, owing to a short, but very entertaining Conversation, which the Author, and fome other Gentlemen, had with the Honourable General Oglethorpe, concerning the Condition, Temper, and Genius of the Indians in the Neighbourhood of Georgia, and those Parts of America; who, as he assured us, are a tractable People, and more capable of being civilized, and of receiving the Truths of Religion, than we are generally made to believe; if some Hindrances were removed, and proper Measures taken to awaken in them a Sense of their true Interest, and of their unhappy Condition, while they continue in their present State.

And though this may be thought a very difficult Work, yet God, who would have all Men to be faved, and to come to the Truth as it is. in Jesus, hath, pursuant to his gracious Design. made all Men capable of receiving fuch a Measure of Christian Knowledge, as will be sufficient for their Salvation.

Accordingly, some Instances may be given of Heathens in the darkest Corners of the Earth, who have even at this Day, been awakened and converted, by the Bleffing of God upon the Labours and Conversation of fome very m derately learned, but pious Per-These honest and well-meaning Christians, by their good Examples and Patience in explaining the great Truths of the Gospel. have engaged Men of very brutish Passions, and fuch as before were supposed to be of an unconquerable Ignorance, not only to acknowledge the true God, and his Son our Lord 'fefus Christ; but also join with them in endeavouring to convince and convert others.—And how this Grain of Mustard-seed may grow, and increase and spread, God only knows:-But blessed are they that have sown it!

As to this Performance the Author will fay little in its Defence; it is called an Essay only; —and indeed, it was finished amidst other Business of Moment, which hath occasioned so many Defects in it, that he has been sometimes ready almost to wish it had not gone Abroad. But he hopes these Defects may set some better Hands at work, to perfect what hath here been attempted.—And if even that Good be done by it, the Author will be very thankful to God, for having enabled him, in any measure, to promote a Work of such Importance, as is the Salvation of Souls, which Jesus Christ hath purchased with his most precious Blood.

There have been, it is true, many excellent Books published, which give a larger and more learned Account of the Christian Religion: But then some of these have been written in a Style above the Capacity of the less Learned; and others mixed with Controversies, improper for such a Work, as being too apt to distract the Minds of both Teachers and Learners, and to divert them from attending to the great and saving Truths of Christianity.

It will easily be seen that the Author's Defign doth not lie this Way; he has taken what Care he could, to give no Offence to any serious Christian, who may have different Sentiments from himself; and to express his Thoughts in Terms suited to the meanest Capacity. And, indeed, he hath sailed of his Purpose, if the Truths, here recommended, have not been made plain even to the Understanding of an Indian, who shall be desirous to learn the things that concern his immortal Soul, and is disposed for eternal Life.

His chief Aim was to follow the Example of our great Master,—by giving Instructions suitable to the present Necessity and Strength of such as were to receive them.

And if this short and plain Attempt may but serve for a fort of Index or Common-place, of the Heads that are proper to be insisted on, and which may be more largely explained, it is to be hoped it will be of some Advantage to such Missionaries, or others, who shall think fit to consult it.

4 Had

· Had this Essay been intended for the sole • Use of Heathens, many things might have been omitted: But when one sees, even

' among the Professors of Christianity, of almost all Denominations, too many, who with respect either to Knowledge or Practice, are not much better than Heathens,—who understand not why they are called Christians, or what Need they have of a Saviour;

but as the Apostle describes the then Pagan World, are without Christ, expecting ono Benefits from his Sacrifice, and therefore without Hope and without God in the World:

· -Upon this mournful Confideration, it was thought proper to add many things, which, through the Blessing of God, might be of · Use to awaken such miserable and un-

' thoughtful People.'

With respect to the manner of the Performance;—As the Holy Spirit, by Moses, did not begin the History of the Creation, nor St. Paul the Conversion of the Gentiles, with Proofs of the Being of God, supposing, that every Man, who had the Use of Reason, would acknowledge, that there must of Necessity be such a Being; it was not thought necessary nor convenient to begin these Instructions with such Proofs, which might consound and have often staggered the Faith of simple Men.

There may be in the Christian World Atheists, at least such as would wish there was no God, to punish them for their wicked Lives:—But

and un-

Atheists, no God, s:—But we have no certain Account, that there are any such among the Heathens:—The very Hottentots, who are supposed to be the dullest of Mankind, even these, as we have been informed by those who have been amongst them, do very naturally appeal to One who is above those who injuriously treat them.—And we have been lately told, that some of these very People have been awakened and converted to the Christian Faith.

The Proofs of the Christian Religion, made use of in this Essay, are not founded upon such Arguments as are above the Capacities and Reasonings of plain and unlearned People,—but upon what they know and feel within themselves;—Upon the Corruption of human Nature;—Their Pronenes to Evil;—The Fears that attend such a sad State;—And upon the Experience of their own utter Inability to deliver themselves out of this State of Bondage;—Arguments which every thoughtful Man, though never so unlearn'd, yet awakened, feels the Force of.

And fuch Convictions as these will very naturally lead Men to desire, and consequently close with, any reasonable Proposal of a Way to free them from the Doubts and Fears that attend them; and dispose them to embrace such Evidence, as shall be brought to prove the Truth and the Blessing of Christianity.—

Indeed the Conversion of the Heathen's may appear at first Sight, a very discouraging

raging Undertaking, considering the many Difficulties such a Work is like to meet with.

But God, whose Kingdom ruleth over all, having given his Son the Heathen for his Inberitance, and the utmost Parts of the Earth for his Possession;—and having assured us, that all the Ends of the Earth should remember themselves, and turn unto the Lord;—as he is able, so He will most certainly perfect this in his own good Time, and by such Instruments as shall be most proper for accomplishing this great Event.

But whether the Churches of the Gentiles, which at present are so far departed, not only from the Zeal and Practice, but many of them from the Truths of primitive Christianity, so that even themselves want to be converted:—Whether these shall be made the Instruments of so glorious a Work is much to be doubted.

Or whether, when the Times of the Gentiles shall be fulfilled, Luke xxi. 24.—that is, as the learned Grotius understands the Prophecy, when God's Patience and Long-suffering with the Churches of the Gentiles, whom, when he rejected the Jews, he made his peculiar People, shall be at an End, and they shall have filled up the Measure of their Sins;—Whether God will not then look upon his everlasting Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, Gen. xvii. 7. and cause the Jews to be converted, and make Them the Instruments of publishing the Gospel to all Nations of the World, amongst whom his Providence hath already scattered.

scattered them; it is Matter worthy of Consideration, and seemed to the very learned Mr. Foseph Mede no improbable Supposition *.

He supposed St. Paul's Conversion to be a Type of the Calling of the Jews, when their Tribulation and long Dispersion shall be ended; and that the same Almighty Power and Grace which converted him, and from a most bitter Enemy and Persecutor of Jesus Christ, and his Church, made him an Apostle and Preacher of the Gospel to the then Gentile World,that the same Almighty Power and Grace can, and it is probable may, after the like manner, make the Jews, tho' never so great Enemies to Christ at present, Preachers of the Gospel to the yet unconverted Nations;—and endow them as he did St. Paul, with sufficient Powers, to convince and convert all such as are disposed for eternal Life.

But this must be as it shall please God.— In the mean Time, whoever among Christians fears God, and loves the Lord Jesus Christ in Sincerity, cannot but desire and endeavour, that all Nations may come to the Knowledge of their Maker and Redeemer, and adore and glorify him.

This is indeed what every Christian prays for, when he says, Thy Kingdom come; — but to how little Purpose, if he does not, by some Acts of his own, and as far as God hath put it into his Power, endeavour to gather and increase the Number of Christ's Subjects, and enlarge his Kingdom, by the Conversion of the yet unbelieving Nations?

We know it will be natural for People to ask, What can be done by most Men, more than to pray,—That fuch as fit in Darkness, and in the Shadow of Death, may be delivered by what Ways God shall think fit? More, much more, most certainly, may be done, by almost all good Christians, towards the promoting of fo glorious a Work, ----were they only to remove the Stumbling-blocks which lie in the Way of the Heathens, and hinder their Conversion.

For Instance;—It cannot but be acknowledged with Shame and Sorrow, that the little Progress which the Gospel hath made among the Indians and Negroes in the Western Parts of the World, had in a great measure been owing to the bad Lives of many of those Christians with whom they have so long conversed:—For let the Missionaries, or any other good Men say never so many true and affecting things of the Excellency of Chriftianity, and the Bleffings attending it; those People will always judge of the Religion fo zealously recommended to them, by the Lives of the Generality of those who profess it, which, if wicked, give such a Wound to Christianity, as all the Arguments to recommend it cannot heal.

Heathens can reason as well as Christians, in Matters of so natural a Consequence; and will make this plain Conclusion;—That if such Christians as they converse with, do really hope, as they pretend, to be happy when they die, no Persons need be much concerned how they live here, or fear being miferable hereafter.

Such Men as these would do well to confider the sad Doom pronounced by the Son of God against those who give this Offence, and hereby occasion the Loss of so many Souls.

All Christians, who live in the Neighbourhood of the Heathens, ought to conclude that they are placed there by a special Providence, which doth nothing by chance, or in vain, to give those People an Opportunity of coming to the Knowledge of the true and only God; and, by their instructive Conversation, and good Lives, to dispose them to receive the Gospel that they may be saved,—that God may be glorisied, and his Kingdom enlarged, and his Name become excellent in all the Earth.

Then indeed those Heathens will have Reafon to say, what Moses supposed the Nations would say of the Israelites,—Surely these are a wise and an understanding People, who have the Lord so nigh unto them, in all they call upon him for;—and what Nation is there so great, that hath Statutes and Judgments so righteous?

It was certainly for such great Ends as these, that Joseph sirst, and afterwards Jacob, and his whole Family, were brought into Egypt, by unforeseen Providences, that the Egyptian Nation, which was given altogether to Idolatry, might have a savourable Opportunity of coming to the Knowledge of the true and only God.

For this Reason also it was, that the same Providence of God, who alone can bring good out of Evil, did afterwards punish the Sins of his own People, by sending them Captives into Babylon; and at the same Time that he punished them, and effectually cured them of the Sin of worshipping Idols, he gave their Conquerors a merciful Occasion of coming to the Knowledge of Himself, and of his glorious Attributes;—and by the wonderful Miracles which he publickly wrought, delivering his faithful Servants Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abeddego, from Death, he gave many Nations and Kingdoms sufficient Reasons to see the Folly of their absurd and stupid Idolatry, when their very Kings were forced to declare, that there was no God but the God of Israel, who was able to deliver after that manner; and forbad all the People of their Dominions to speak any thing against the God who could do such Wonders.

And how earnestly is it to be wished, that such Christians, who by the same Providence, and by various Ways, have been sent amongst the Heathens, in these latter Days, would seriously consider what great Good or Evilthey are capable of doing, by their virtuous or vicious Behaviour, the one hardening them in their Unbelief, the other disposing them to receive the Gospel!

As to the Negroes, the Descendants of Ham and Canaan, who, according to one of the most ancient Prophecies (Gen. ix. 25.) are become Slaves to Christians, the Descendants of Japheth;—surely the only righteous Recompence that can be made them, for having been forced from their native Country into a strange Land, and for their Labours there, will be to endeavour to bring them to the Knowledge and Worship of the true God, the God of the Spirits of all Flesh, who would have all Men be saved, and with him is no Respect of Persons.

And indeed, if this is not fincerely endeavoured, it will be very difficult to justify the Trade of BUYING, TRANSPORTING, and SELLING them as Beasts of Burthen.

For tho' it should be allowed to be a Blesfing for these ignorant, rude and uncivilized People, who can hardly be more miserable in any Country than in their own, to be brought even in the Condition of Slaves, into a Country of civilized People, where Mens Lives and Liberties are fecured by Laws, and where they may be supposed, in time, to be qualified to receive Instructions of every kind, both for the Benefit of Society, and for the Salvation of their own Souls;—yet it would be great Barbarity and Injustice, to make a gain for ever of their Labours, and those of their Children, and neither to take Care of their religious Instruction themselves, nor contribute to the Support of those who do this charitable Work for them.—This would shew too plainly, that the Profits gained by the Labours of their Slaves are more valued by their Masters, than the Glory of God, or than the Salvation of their own, or their Servants Souls; FOR-GETTING THAT THEY THEMSELVES HAVE A MASTER IN HEAVEN.

But the true Way, which all wife and good Masters will take with their Slaves, and will recommend themselves and their Labours to the Blessing and Protection of God, is,—To endeavour that their Slaves may have the Ties of of Religion and Conscience, to oblige them to be faithful, peaceable, and contented with their Condition.—And nobody ought to question, but that these People are as capable of receiving religious Instructions as any other Gentiles, or even as we ourselves were, when the Gospel was first preached to us.—And they who instructed instructions as any other Gentiles, or even as we ourselves were, when the Gospel was first preached to us.—And they who instructed in the Reproach of our Lord, and the Power of his Grace, that the Conversion of the Negroes will either be impossible, or be of no Advantage to their Masters, have much more to answer for, than they seem to imagine or to apprehend.

And those Masters who grudge their Slaves Time sufficient for their Instruction in the Way of Life and Happiness, and compel them to profane the Lord's Day, in procuring Necesfaries for their Support, in direct Opposition to God's Command, given in Compassion both to Man and Beast;—such Masters have no Reason to expect the Blessings of either this World or the next.

These are some of the Obstacles which lie in the Way of the Conversion of the Negroes and Indians, and cause that glorious Work to go on so slowly: And, certainly, they who are concerned to remove them, and who do not, will be looked upon as Enemies to God, and his Christ, and as such shall be treated at the last Day.

The Want of Missionaries, both for Number and Qualifications, to undertake

fo difficult a Work, is another Reason which delays their Conversion, and greatly to be lamented.—These cannot be hoped for without Affistances equal to the Work.

In order to this, it pleased God to put into the Hearts of our Princes, TO ESTABLISH, BY A CHARTER, A SOCIETY FOR PROPA-GATING THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS, which hath hitherto been encourag'd, and kept up, by many worthy but voluntary Subscriptions, and Benefactions. --- And may God increase their Number, and bless the Substance of all such Benefactors! --- But Experience hath convinced those who are chiefly concerned in carrying on this good Work, that a much greater Income than they have yet had, will be necessary to supply the Number of Misfignaries that are wanted, and are every Day pray'd for by fuch People as are well-disposed. but not able of themselves to maintain such as may instruct them.

In the mean Time we hope and have Reason to expect, that this excellent Undertaking, in which the Glory of God, and the Good of Men, are so nearly concern'd, will meet with still more and greater Encouragement from Christians of all Denominations, when they confider the Obligations upon every one to put to their helping Hand, according to their Ability, as a Proof of their Love for our Lord Jesus Christ, and of their zealous Concern for the everlasting Salvation of the Souls of Men.

Obligation to support and encourage this excellent Work, who draw great Riches from the Traffick and Labour of the Negroes, and from the Nations and Countries of the Indians, whether they live here, or in the Indies.

And indeed one cannot but believe, that these Gentlemen, who reside in the great and trading Towns of England, and are generally of a very liberal Disposition, and ready to every good Work, do only want to be made sensible of the Good they are able to do this Way, and the Obligations which lie upon them to promote so pious a Work;—whereby they would be most certainly intitled to the especial Blessing of God in this World upon their Trade, their Ships, themselves, and their Families, as well as that they might have leave to hope for Blessings of an higher and a nobler kind.

In short, one would hope, that all People who value the Blessing of an ingenuous and Christian Education, will countenance this Work, some by their Assistance, all by their Prayers:—Especially when they consider that his very State of Darkness, and deplorable Igarance, must have been our own Case to this Day, had not God in Mercy seat Missionaries instruct the Generations before us.

And although there are many Christians, ho differ in Opinions from one another, metimes in Matters of little Moment; yet fure all such as agree in the great and saving Truths of the Gospel, will unite to weaken the Power of Satan, who still exerciseth his Malice over so great a Part of Mankind.

And it will be a prevailing Motive to endeavour this, when we confider how far this Charity may extend; for as we ourselves do now enjoy the Blessings and Fruits of their Charitable Labours, who so long since preached the Gospel to these Nations, so we have Reason to hope and believe that the Generations to come, in the miserable Countries we are now concern'd for, will in God's good Time, and by his Blessing upon this Society, offer up many Thanksgivings to God, for having touch'd our Hearts with a Sense of the wretched Condition of their Foresathers, and having helped them out of it.

These, and the like Considerations will, one would hope, prevail with all such well-disposed Christians, as shall come to the Know-ledge of this Society, to enable its Governors to send and encourage Missionaries, sufficient for so great and extensive an Undertaking, and such as are endued with a truly Christian Spirit, and with a prudent Zeal for the Glory of God, and the Salvation of Men.—And indeed, If this is not to honour God with our Substance, we shall be at a loss to find a better Way.

be forgotten, inding Christian, tian, who by the Providence of God, is placed among the Heathens, or is in any Way Concern'd with them, may be capable, in some measure, of becoming a Missionary, and may receive, at least from God, a Missionary's Reward; by endeavouring to dispose such People to bethink themselves, why they were sent into the World, and what may become of them when they leave it.

For Example: Every such serious Christian may, in his Conversation with Heathens, endeavour to convince them,—that the Gods they worship are indeed evil Spirits, which will be their Ruin for ever, if they do not renounce and forfake them:-That they are these Evil Spirits which lead them, and all wicked Men, to do such Things as an Holy and Good God must be displeased with, and which he hath declared he will punish most feverely in the Life which is to come. - He can further inform them, That the God we worship is he who made us, and all the World: -That he is most worthy of their Love, and their Obedience, -fince he hath commanded nothing but what is necessary for our Good: -That he would have all Men, without Respect of Persons, to be happy; and that he will make all Men happy, who will do what he hath commanded them. — And at the same Time he can let them know,—That the Wrath of this Great and Holy God is greatly to be feared, above all Things, by fuch as do not obey his ComCommands; so that they ought not to be easy till they know how to obtain his Pardon, and to be restored to his Favour.

He can, in conversing with them, let them know further,—that our God and Maker hath been so exceeding good and kind, as to fend his own Son from Heaven, to make himself, and his Will known unto Men;—To make Atonement by his Sufferings and Death for their Sins, and to teach them how they ought to live, so as to please their Maker;—and! how they may be restored to his Favour, when they shall have done any thing to displease: him: - And (to make us all more attentive to thefe Truths) That the Son of God did affure us Christians,—That this is not the only World and Life we are all made for, but that there is another. World: after this; and that the present Life is only a State of Trial, which is defigned to fit us for a much better Life. if we are not wanting to ourselves :- For God: hath affured us, by this bis Son, that he hath determined to raise all Men that have ever: lived, to Life again, to call them to Account, . and to judge them either to Happiness or Mifery in the next World, according as they have behaved in this;—and that all fuch as have obeyed God, believed in Christ, and led a good Lives, or who, being fensible they have done Evil, have truly repented of it,, shall be happy for ever; but that such whether: Heathens or Christians, as have despised the Proposals

Proposals of the Gospel, led careless and wicked Lives in this World, and have not truly repented, and amended their Ways, shall be doom'd to everlasting Fire.

By such Hints as these, and a thousand other Truths which the good Spirit of God will put into the Hearts of such pious Christians as love God, and desire to have him known and gloristed,—by such Hints as these it will be proper to raise in their Minds a Fear for themselves, and a Desire to know more of the Will of God;—To know what they must believe,—and how they must live, so that they may be happy when they die.

And certainly, they who have Negroes in Servitude, will find it the best Way to secure their Fidelity; - First, to convince them, that their State of Bondage, even in a strange Land, amongst People who are governed by Laws, s far better than always to have lived in their own Country, where no Man can live in Safety, except a few lawless People, who kill or make Slaves of all whom they can overcome; whereas now they may live in Security, and have, tin their own Power to come to the Knowledge of the true God, who will affuredly make them full amends in the next World, for what they want or fuffer in this, if they shall bear their Condition, in which his Providence hathplaced hem, with Patience, and obey his Commands.

And now, if any thing in the following Essay shall be of Use, either to such well-disposed posed People as we have been speaking of, or to any of the Missionaries sent by the Society, or to those who have called themselves Christians, tho' they have hitherto liv'd without Fear of what must come hereaster:—In a Word,—if it may serve in the least Degree to enlarge the Kingdom of God, which we daily pray for:—Let all the Praise be to Him, for whose Glory it was undertaken, and who by the weakest Means can, when he pleases, do the greatest Good.

All the Author desires for himself is,—
That he may have the Prayers of all such as shall receive any Benefit by these Papers; and in return he will not forget to pray for them, That we may one Day meet in the Paradise of God, to praise Him to all Eternity.

INDIAN.

HY are you to earnest in persuading me to become a Christian?

Missionary. Because I know for certain, that is the only sure Way to preserve you from Misery, and to make you happy both here nd hereafter.

Ind. 'I shall be very thankful, if you will be so kind as to explain what you say concerns me fo very much.'

Miff. That I will most freely do: For my leart's Desire is, that all Persons may have the me Knowledge of God, and his Will, as we ChrifChristians have; and besides, by instructing you, I myself shall be a very great Gainer.

Ind. 'I do not understand what you mean by that.

Miss. I will tell you then: The Great God, whom we Christians worship, He who made the World, and all Things in it, and in whose Hands our Breath and Life is*, and who would have all his Creatures to be happy,—He has promised an exceeding great Reward to all such as shall endeavour to make Him, and His glorious Perfections, and His most gracious Purposes, known unto men, especially to such unhappy People as you, who know not for what End you were made, and sent into this World; who know not what Duties you owe to your Maker, nor on what Conditions He will keep you from Misery, and make you for ever happy when you die.

Ind. 'Be pleased then to tell me what you know more than we do, concerning the God you worship; for we know and believe that there must be some GREAT POWER above

· us, who made us and does govern all things

Miss. But we Christians know much more of that Great Power above, than you in your prefent State of Ignorance, can possibly do. We were indeed once as ignorant of Him (and of our most unhappy Condition on that account) as you now are; but He has been so good as

Ind. 'May I ask you one thing?—Why did not that good Being, whom you call your God, make all this known to us as well as to you?"

Miss. I must tell you once for all, that we poor Creatures ought not to expect, that the GREAT GOD should give us an Account of every thing he has thought fit to do. It is enough for us to know for certain, that He is good and just in every thing he does or permits to be done.—And be affured, that sooner or later, every Tongue shall confess, and every Soul acknowledge, the Justice and Equity of God's Proceedings with Mankind.—At present it concerns you much more to know what we Christians believe of God, and his Will, according to the Account which he himself hath given us.

Ind. This, Sir, is what I now defire you to instruct me in.

Miss. That I will most gladly do; for the Knowledge and Belief of God is the Foundation of all true Religion, and of the Happiness of Men.

First then, We know the God we serve to be the most persect of all Beings; and that there is no other God beside to be feared, loved, or worshipped.

That it is he who made the World; and that he preserves, and governs, and orders all things by his wonderful Wisdom and Power.

That amongst other Creatures he made Man to be Partaker of his Happiness; in order to which, he gave him Reason, that he might understand, and adore, and obey his Maker.

And that Men might know him more perfeely, and love and fear him as they ought, he has given an Account of his Government of the World ever fince he made it.—By which Account it appears,—That he is Almighty,—i. e. is able to do whatever he thinks fit:--That he is exceeding Wife, and Good, and Just; and therefore can command nothing but what is for our Advantage; and will most furely reward fuch as comply with his Laws, and punish those that disobey We thereby also know, that he is a most Holy Being, and has ever been displeased with wicked Men. He is also most kind and compassionate to those, who, having offended him, are truly forry for it, and return to their Duty: That he sees and knows all the Actions of Men, whether good or bad; and that even our very Thoughts are known to him: - That he not only knows things past and present, but even all things which shall ever happen bereafter: - Lastly, That he

Ind. 'I confess this Account of the GREAT and Good God seems most agreeable to Reason; now you have put me upon considering it so particularly.

Miss. But there are other Truths of the greatest Moment, which God has also in that Account made known to us, and which our Reason could never have clearly discovered; such as these that follow;—That there will be another Life after this;—and that the true Happiness or Misery of Men will not be fully known till after they are dead.

Miss. Yes, we do, and that most certainly.

—We know, that this short Life is only a Life or State of Trial, in order to change and mend our corrupt Nature, that we may be fit for a much better World when we die; and be for ever happy there, if we behave ourselves as we should do, while we live here.—For God has made known to us, that after Death the Souls of all good People go to a Place of Rest, and Peace, and Happines;—and the Souls of wicked People to a Place of Sorrow and Misery, there to remain till the End of this World, and the Day of Judgment.

Ba

Ind. 'Pray, what do you mean by the End of the World, and by the Day of Judg-

Miss. Why, God has assured us, that this World should have an End;—that then there will be a Resurrection of the Dead, both of the Just and Unjust*, both of good and bad Men; that all who have ever lived shall then be raised to Life, and give an Account for whatever they have done in this World, whether Good or Evil:—And that such as have done Good shall be made happy for ever;—and such as have done Evil, that is, have led wicked Lives, and have not repented in due Time, shall be for ever miserable.

Ind. 'These indeed are Truths which we know nothing of; and if they be really true,

it certainly concerns me, and every Man

' living, to think of them in good earnest, and to order his Life accordingly. ——But · let me ask you, - Do all you Christians know these things, and believe them to be true?'

Miss. It is at the Peril of their Souls, if they do not.—But I know why you ask that Question, and I promise to answer and satisfy you upon that Head hereaster.—In the mean time, it is certainly your best and wisest Way to take care of yourself, in an Affair of the highest Importance to you; and not to neglect this Opportunity, which God of his Mercy and Goodness gives you by me, of

We therefore (knowing these things, -- and that we must all appear before the Judgment-seat of God, and receive a Sentence according to what we have done in the Body, whether it be good or bad*,) We, knowing these things, endeavour to persuade Men to be afraid for themselves, and to live an holy and virtuous Life bere, so as to escape being miserable hereafter.

Miss. I told you nothing but the Truth; and I am not forry for your Uneasines;—fince that may prove in its Consequence the greatest Blessing of your Life.

Ind. 'I do not understand how that can be.'

Miss. But this you can easily understand, —That they who are in Health, and think them-selves in no Danger, will not look out for a Physician and other Help; but they that are sick, and sensible of their Disease, will be glad of Advice and will be apt to follow it *,—when once you are sensible, that of yourself you are an ignorant, helpless, sinful Creature †,—incapable of either knowing or performing the Will of your Maker, or of reconciling yourself to him, whenever you have offended him.

That the more you are asraid for yoursels,

Miss. God made Man, that he might have a Creature upon Earth endued with Reason, and capable of adoring his Maker, and of imitating his Perfections; and fit to partake of his Bounty and Happiness.

Ind. ' Pray what is the Happiness you

Miss. It is the Happiness of going to a Place of perfect Knowledge, Goodness, Love, Joy, and Peace, which is to last for ever.

As nothing is more defirable than Life, nothing should more forcibly work upon Human Nature, than the Hopes of Everlasting Life.

Which Life God himself has set forth to us by all such things as we are most commonly affected with:——As a Crown,—a King-Dom,——a Treasure,—an Inheritance undefiled, that fadeth not away;—and a State of everlasting Joy and Pleasure.

Men for to forfeit

Miss. They do it by being guilty of Sin; this is,—by transgressing the Law which God has given them.

Ind. 'Has God given us any Law?'

Miss. Yes, surely.—He hath given you and all Men Reason, which is instead of a written Law or Rule, by which you ought to live, and may, in some measure, know what is Good, and what is Evil; what will please, and what will displease, an boly, just, and good God.

Ind. 'But it is too plain, that People do not always observe this Rule or Law.'

Miss. It is so, and that is their Sin, by which they displease God, and debar themselves of his greater Favours, and are in Danger of being miserable, even beyond what they can imagine.

Ind. But is not this the Case of many ' Christians, as well as of us?'

Miss. It is surely so,—and they must suffer severely for it; God having given them plainer Rules, and greater Helps, to overcome and cure that Corruption of Nature, which is One great Occasion of all the Wickedness which we see in the World.

Ind. Pray what do you mean by THE CORRUPTION OF OUR NATURE †?

Miff. That I will now tell you;——and what by your own Reason and Experience you must acknowledge to be true.—By the Corruption of Nature we mean, a strong Inclination to Evil, which we not only see and blame in other People, but very sensibly seel in ourselves; that is,—something within us, which often opposeth our Reason (and the other Laws which God hath given us;) so that we are often tempted and prevail'd upon, to do what our own Judgment condemns us for, at the Time of doing it.

Ind. 'This indeed is too plainly the Case.'—Men follow not their Reason, but their 'Passions, their Inclinations, and their own perverse Wills; and which too often they · have Cause to repent of.

Miss. You cannot but have observed, that this Inclination to Evil is often foviolent, that Men commit all Iniquity with Greedines; and this is the Occasion of all the Wickedness which we fee and hear of; ——All the Cruelty, the Oppression, the Pride, the Injustice, the Malice, the Covetousness, the Lewdness, the Impurity, Murders, Drunkenness, and all other Sins, by which Men dishonour their Maker and themselves, and are a Plague to others; insomuch that it is found necessary to have severe Laws made, even by Men, to hinder Wicked People from hurting one another;—of which Laws there would be no occasion, if Reason had been fufficient to govern Men; which sad Experience shews it is not;—there being too many, whom no Reason, no Advice, no Prospect of Danger,

Ind. 'I confess there is Truth in what you fay.—But sure this is not the Case of all · People.

Mill. I must tell you,—That the Wickedness of others shews us plainly what all Men are by Nature. - All Men have the Seeds of Evil within themselves, which would spring up and appear upon every Temptation if not hindered by fomething more than their own Reason; and they that are not so wicked as others, may be thankful to a Power above, who restrains them.—And your own Heart and Experience must tell you, that such as are not so wicked as these we have been speaking of, are forced to strive hard against the Temptations they meet with, before they can follow what their Reason tells them they ought to do or avoid;—that they are but too often unwilling to follow the LIGHT of REASON, which God hath given them; and too-too often make use of it only to burt and over-reach one another.— All which shews, that our Nature is strangely corrupt;—so that no Man can say he is free from Sin, or not guilty before God.

Ind. 'I must confess, indeed, that, according to my best Understanding, there is Truth

' in every thing you have told me.'

Miss. Well then, let this Truth fink deep into your Heart; for without a firm Belief of this, you will never have any true Notion of the

the Goodness, Justice, or Mercy of God to Men; nor will you ever know the Value of Christianity.

Ind. 'But how Man, the Creature of so holy and good a God, should come to have a Nature fo corrupt and disordered, and prone to Evil,

• — This indeed, furprizes me.

Miss. Far be it from any Man to imagine, that a good and holy God, who hateth Sin, should be the Cause of this Corruption of our Nature, and of the Evil it occasions!—No,—He made Man at first upright, boly, just and good, and capable of doing every thing that became a reasonable Creature; but how he fell into this wretched and distempered Condition, you shall know in due Time.

Ind. 'But fince Sin and Wickedness are displeasing to God, why does he suffer Sin and Sinners to be in the World?

Miss. You do not consider, that, all Men being Sinners, God must either suffer Sin to be in the World, or destroy the Sinners; that is, all the Race of Men—But when you come to know the Christian Religion, and what God has done to cure this great Disorder of our Nature, you will find, that God can take occasion from the Sins of Men to display the Greatness of his Mercy and Compassion for Sinners;—and you will have Reason to admire and adore his wonderful Wisdom and Mercy, and Goodness, to all such as shall lay hold on the Offers

And this is One Reason, that I have taken so much Pains to convince you of the Corruption of our Nature, and of the Danger we are in on this Account, that you may have no Eafe in your Mind, until you know how to be delivered from so bad a Bondage, and the Fears which ought to attend it.

There is another Danger, which we are all exposed to, and which you ought to know; and that is, the Power, and Malice of Evil Spirits.

Ind. What do you mean by Evil Spi-RITS?

Miss. God has made known to us, that there are Creatures, both good and bad, which we call Angels or Spirits, and which are ever about us, though we do not fee them, they having no Bodies, as we have. - The Good Spirits are appointed by God, to take care of his Servants; -and the Evil Spirits are such as have rebelled against their Maker, and, having utterly lost his Favour, strive to tempt Men to all manner of Wickedness, that they may be as miserable as themselves.—And through their Temptations the Wickedness of the World was grown fo great,—that God was provoked at one Time to drown all the People of the Earth except one Good Man, Noah, and his Household t;—and at another Time, to

Ind. 'These, indeed, are reasonable Proofs of the Power which EVIL SPIRITS may have over wicked Men, and of the great Danger

we are in of being ruined by it.'

Miss. But it is necessary that you should know these things; for whoever is not a Worshipper of the only true God, whom Christians serve, is a Slave to these evil Spirits, and too often is a Worshipper of them, tho' he does not know it.—When you consider these things, you will have Reason to be concerned and afraid for yourself.

Ind. And so indeed I shall be, if this is our Case.'

Miss. This is, in Truth, the Case of every one who is ignorant of the true God, and of the Way of Salvation which he has revealed to his unhappy Creatures, the Way by which they may be prevented from ruining themselves, and losing that Happiness which he has provided for such as love and obey him.

Ind. 'I do most earnestly intreat you, that at your Leifure you would give me an Account of the Christian Religion, which you

You ought therefore to pray to the Great God, to enable you to lay hold of this Opportunity of being happy.

The PRAYER.

DIALOGUE III.

The Proofs of the Christian Religion.
INDIAN.

AM come again, Sir, to trouble you, fooner, I believe, than you expected.—
You faid, that it was good for me, that I was in

in Fear for myfelf; I cannot chuse but be so, fince you told me, "That my Happiness or

" Mifery will depend upon my embracing or

" rejecting the Offer now made me of becoming a Christian."—I own I am not satisfied with mypresent Condition;—I am not ratisfied by my Reason, as well as by what you told me, that we were made to be an Honour to the

Being that made us, by living according to that Light and Reason which he hath given us.—For my own Part, I fear I have not done fo; and if he shall be displeas'd with me, I know not how to help myfelf, or make

' my Mind easy.'

Miss. * Assure yourself, this is the Case of every thoughtful Person, who has no Knowledge of Christianity.—And therefore our great and good Creator, in Compassion to those unhappy Men who labour under such Doubts and Fears, has graciously pointed out the Way by which they may be freed from them; viz.—By embracing the Christian Religion.

Ind. 'What does the Christian Religion propose to us, to cure us of those Fears?'

Miss. I will first tell you in short, and afterwards explain myself more sully.—In the first Place,—It will lead you to the Knowledge of the true God, the Maker of the World, and convince you of his great Love for his unhappy Creatures, and of his earnest Endeavours to keep them from ruining themselves.—It shews us also how we must answer the End for which God made us, and fent us into the World .-It sets before us the miserable Circumstances into which we are funk by Nature, the Dangers we are liable to, and teach as its the Way to escape them.——It makes known to us those Laws by which God will judge the World, that Men may order their Hearts and Lives accordingly. It shews us how we may be restored to the Favour of God;—It gives us all Rules necessary to make us happy when we die, and promifes us all necessary Assistance to observe those Rules.—It directs us in the Course of our Lives, how we may obtain the Pardon of God, whenever we shall have been so unhappy as to have offended him-by our Sins, which we are but too apt to do.—It affures us, That God is a bountiful Rewarder of all such as seek to please him *. In short, -Christianity is the only Remedy to cure all the Disorders and Dangers, and Miseries, which we are subject to in this Life; to support us in the Hour of Death, and secure our Happiness in the future State; in fhort,--it is the only fure Means, where it is ferioufly embraced, of correcting and reforming this World, and leading men to a better.

Ind. 'This is, Sir, a most desirable Account you have given me of the Christian Religion — Will you be pleased, as you promised, to explain these things more fully?

Miss. You must know then that we are called Christians, from professing ourselves to be the Disciples and Followers of a most holy and divine Person Jesus Christ, who being the Son of God, was sent by him from Heaven, to make his Will and gracious Purposes known unto Men.

In order to this,—He being a pure Spirit, it was necessary, that he should take a Body like one of ours, that he might be seen by and converse with Men.—He therefore submitted to be born of a Woman, and he took the Soul and Body of a Man, and in that Nature He lived among Men, and made known to them the things which I have already mentioned to you.—Particularly, He gave them a clear Knowledge of their Maker; and by his most perfest, innocent, and boly Life, shew'd what an excellent Creature Man was, when he was first made, before he fell into Sin, and became prone to Evil, as he now is.

He assured them that he came as a Peacemaker betwixt God and his rebellious Creatures, who by their Disobedience had lost his Favour; and forseited the Happiness he had prepared for them.

And in order to reconcile them to God and to the Duty and Obedience which they owed to him, He brought them this most gracious Message;—'That all such as became sensible of their Error and Misery, and were willing to give themselves up to the Son of God as their that Happiness which they had forfeited by ' their Offences.'

Ind. 'These are indeed wonderful Proofs of the great Goodness of God.'

Miss. But then you are to know, that all such as despise this surprising Goodness of God, are not only to be deprived of his Favour, but are to be punished with Torments exquisite beyond all we can now imagine. For you must never forget what I told you before, and what Jesus Christ has assured us of,—
'That this short Life is only a l'assage to another, which is to last for ever:' and where every Man is to be rewarded or punished according to his Behaviour in this World.

Ind. 'I have not forgot that.—But give 'me Leave, Sir, to ask you one Question:

'-How are you Christians sure,—that THIS EXTRAORDINARY PERSON was the SON OF God, and came from him with this Mes-

' fage to Men?'

Miss. It is necessary, that every one who intends to be a Christian should have the greatest Assurance of it; for on this Truth the Christian Religion is founded.

You must know then, that this DIVINE PERSON, in order to give Men all possible Assurance, that he was what he declared himfelf to be, --- performed before their Eyes fuch wonderful Works, as shewed that in Him dwelt all the Fulness of the Godhead bodily. For Example,—He healed all manner of Sick: ness and Diseases with the Word of his Mouth. —He gave Sight to fuch as were born blind.— To fuch as were dumb and deaf, he gave the Power of Speech and Hearing; -and He made the Lame to walk.—He fed and satisfied the Hunger of many Thousands of People more than once, with a few Loaves and small Fishes, which they faw multiplied before their Eyes, fo that Thousands were at one Time all live-witnesses of this Miracle.—He commanded the Winds, the Storms, and the Seas, and they obeyed his Word.—He raised to Life those that had for some time been dead.—He convinced those with whom he conversed, that he knew the very Thoughts of their Hearts, which none but God can do.—Lastly,—the great God himself did more than once, by a Voice from Heaven declare, -That he was his beloved Son; and commanded, that as such he should be heard and obeyed.

Ind. Indeed these are most sure Proofs that THIS DIVINE PERSON was what he said he was; and that whatever he taught must be true.

Miss. But I have other Evidences to give you, in order to confirm your Faith or Belief in this Divine Person, and his Message.

h He foretold That notwithstanding the wonderful Works which he had done before their Eyes, his Enemies would put him to Death; but that within Three Days he should rise again to Life.— Accordingly, after they had treated him with all the evil Usage that Spite and Malice could invent, they did most barbarously murder and crucify him:—And after Three Days he rose again from the Dead, and conversed with his Disciples and Followers,—with no less than Five Hundred at one Time, many of whom lived very long after, and bore Witness of his Refurrection, at the Expence of their Lives.

Ind. 'I should be glad to know some more Particulars relating to so Divine, Holy, and

· Wonderful a Person.'

Miff. JESUS CHRIST, after having conversed with his Disciples many Weeks, and in the Sight of many of them—He ascended into Heaven.—But, before his Departure from them, He promised them, that He and bis. Father would fend ANOTHER DIVINE PERSON (not in the Form or Fashion of a Man, but) as a pure Spirit to dwell in them; to guide and comfort, to inspire them with all Truth necesfary to be known by them, and to enable them, for the Confirmation of fuch Truths to Others, to do all fuch mighty Works as he had done among them: According to which Promise, Ten Days after he had ascended into Heaven, THAT DIVINE SPIRIT descended .upon upon them after a most wonderful Manner, and enabled them to understand and speak all the Languages of the then known World, to which they went in order to carry those good Tidings;—whereby we and many other Nations were brought out of Error, Ignorance, and Darkness, into the clear Light and true Knowledge of God, and of his Son Fesus Christ, and of that Holy Spirit, which enabled them to preach this joyful Doctrine to all the World:

—That Christ has made our Peace with God, if we submit to be governed by him, and by his Laws, and put our whole Trust in him.

Ind. Well, Sir, you have given some Ease to my Mind.——I believe, that what this Holy Person said must be certainly true;

and I suppose all that know these things,

' are Christians.'

Miss. Indeed they are not; and yoù will not wonder at it, when you consider what it is that hinders People from being Christians,—There are many who never think of their Maker, or what must become of them when they die.—Many indeed hearthese things; but their Affections are so set upon this World, its Pleasures and Prosits, that they do not lay them seriously to Heart.—And too many are so fond of their own perverse Ways, to which they have been long accustom'd, that they see not the Truth of what is proposed to them.—Besides all this;—the Apostles taught many things, which wicked People would not hear

DIALOGUE IV.

The wonderful Success and Progress of the Gospel, when it was first preached to the World.

INDIAN.

Promised to let me know what fol· lowed the DESCENT or Coming down of that Holy Spirit upon Christ's Apostles; and how the Christian Religion was received in the World.

Miff. You must know then, that when this happened, there were People out of all Nations at Ferusalem, the City to which they were come to worship the great God*. --- Now when all these heard the Apostles of Christ (who before that time knew no Language but their own) declaring the wonderful Works of God, in the Language of every Nation then present, they were astonished; and being convinced that fuch Men must have been divinely inspired, they therefore gave heed to them, while they declared God's most gracious Purposes—of Mercy, Pardon, and Happines, to all fuch as would obey the Message he had sent to them by his Son; ——infomuch that no less than Three Thousand embraced the Christian Religion that very Day, and Five THOUSAND more, immediately after; and these Converts became so many Witnesses of these wonderful things to the several Nations, from whence they came thither to worship.— After this the Apostles went into all Nations, making known this joyful Message of God to Men, ' — That he would have all Men to be faved, and to come to the Knowledge of the Truth, or the Christian Faith; '-that he was ready to be reconciled to all fuch as had offended him; and that he would make them happy for ever, if they would be perfuaded to forfake their evil Ways, believe in Jesus Christ, and be governed by such Rules as he had given them.—So that, in all Nations, all fuch Persons as were truly concerned for themselves, and disposed to receive the Truth, became Christians; and very great was their Number every where. And indeed Christ himself foretold it would be so though at that time it feem'd the most unlikely thing in the World,—that all Nations should receive a Religion opposed by their RULERS and PHILOSOPHERS, upon the Preaching of a few poor Strangers, who had no worldly Power, Riches, or Learning, to induce People to believe and follow them; and who at the same time required all Men to forfake the Customs and Religion of their Forefathers, to embrace the Salvation proposed by this divine Messenger Jesus-to restrain their Appetites, and govern their Passions,—to leave leave their impious Ways of living,—and to lead fober, honest, and good Lives, and to suffer Death, rather than deny the Truths they told them:—Now does not the miraculous Success they met with in propagating such a Religion under such Circumstances, demonstrate it to be the Work of the GREAT GOD?

Ind. Pray will you inform me how I may be fure that these MIRACLES were performed by the Apostles of Christ?'

Miss. The MIRACLES recorded in the New Testament recommend themselves to our Belief upon many Accounts.

They were wrought by Persons who appealed to God, and declared beforehand that they would perform them.

They were performed in a publick Manner, and by Persons known to be of a low Condition, destitute of great Friends and powerful Patrons.

They were wrought in a learned Age, before Enemies, or Unbelievers, who were not safily to be imposed upon, or deceived.

The Writers of the New Testament, when they relate the Miracles, often name the Time, the Place, the Occasion, the Diseases that were removed, the Persons healed or raised from the Dead, the Persons who were present, and the Things that were said and done, by Friends and Foes, on the Occasion, giving Men a fair Opportunity to enquire into the Facts, and to disprove them, if they were able.

Thele

These MIRACLES were wrought for no worldly Advantage, but, on the contrary, subjected the Apostles of our blessed Lord to many Injuries, Afflictions, Persecutions, and cruel Deaths.

They were wrought in Confirmation of Doctrines good and useful to Mankind, and were intended to destroy, All Atheism, Idolatry, Profaneness, and Immorality.

They prevailed upon many People to quit the Religion in which they had been educated.

To forego Ease and Pleasure, and worldly Conveniencies, and to leave their Friends, Relations and Country, and to suffer all kinds of Temporal Evils, and often the Loss of Life itself.

These Miracles were likewise attested by proper Witnesses.—The Disciples of Christ saw the Miracles of their Master, and died in Confirmation of the Truth of them, particularly of his Resurrection from the Dead.

They were foretold ages before by the PRO-PHETS, that they were fuch Miracles as the fews expected, and had Reason to expect from their Messiah, when he did appear.

Lastly, the Persons whose Miracles are recorded in the Gospel, foretold many Events, some of which did not come to pass till a considerable Time after the Books of the New Testament were written, and the Writers themselves were dead.——And this is a still stronger Confirmation of the Truth and Certainty of the Miracles related in those Books.

 C_3

Ind.

. Ind. ' Pray, Sir, what became of these

"Apostles after this?"

Miss. As they had taught all others to suffer Death, rather than deny the Truths which they had received from God by Jesus Christ, so most of them laid down their Lives for those Truths they had preached. But, before they suffered, they appointed others to fucceed them in publishing these Truths to all Nations; - by which Christianity has continued unto this Day;—and we are assured by Christ himself, will continue unto the World's End.——And a very great Change for the better has been made in all Nations where it has been received.

Ind. 'You will oblige me, if you will let ' me know in what the World is become bet' ter by this Religion?'

Miff. Inthefirst Place, it gave the Thoughtful and Penitent Satisfaction how their Sins might be forgiven, and their Persons accepted and faved by a righteousand holy God.— They who then embraced the Christian Religion professed that they were Strangers in this World, and therefore looked upon this Life only as: a Journey to a much better, which they expected after Death.—This made them content with any Condition, which God should think fit to place them in. - This kept them from being covetous, or over-much concerned for the things of this World; - they believed, that if they were poor, or in Misery, God

Life, what was wanting, or they had fuffered in this. ——Their great Rule given them by Christ was this, -- THAT THEY SHOULD DEAL WITH ALL OTHERS, AS THEY THEM-SELVES WOULD DESIRE TO BE DEALT ' WITH.'-This made them very just in all their Actions,—and careful not to wrong or oppressany Person .- Defrauding, Cheating, and Lying, were not fo much as known among them.—Their Religion obliged them to be at Peace with all Men as much as possible. -So that Quarrels, and Wars, and Murders, they utterly abhorred.—On the contrary, they were kind and compassionate even to their Enemies;—never returning Evil for Evil. They had always a tender Compassion for such as were in Want, or in Misery; -Cloathing the Naked, feeding the Hungry, and lodging the Stranger, according to their Ability.—As to themselves, they were exceeding sober and temperate, not given to Gluttony or Drunkeuness, which they knew God would be highly displeased with. -- They were chaste and modest, both Men and Women; all kept strictly to their own Wives and Husbands, as God had appointed, who had declared, that no Adulterer or Whoremonger must hope for Heaven or Happiness.——And then in their strictest Conformity to these Rules of Uprightness, they humbly acknowledged their many Failings, and great Unworthiness; and-Lastly,

Lastly,——they suffered all manner of Torments, and even Death itself, rather than they would renounce the Religion which they had embraced, on a full Conviction, that it came from God.

Ind. 'Indeed, Sir, this is a most wonderful Account of those who first professed the Christian Religion.—One cannot surely imagine, that such good Men should have any Enemies.

Miff. But indeed they had, and very many; -for those EVIL SPIRITS, which I told you of before, tempted all Sorts of wicked People to destroy them and their Religion, if possible; and would certainly have done it, but that the great and all-powerful God hindered it; - and caused, that the more it was persecuted, the more it increased. All such as had been brought up in any other Religion, became their mortal Enemies, especially such as worshipped Idols, false Gods, or Evil Spirits, which the greatest Part of the World then did, and too many do to this Day.—Beside these, Men of wicked Lives hated and perfecuted those who professed the Christian Religion, because they declared, that God would most furely call them to an Account, and adjudge them to a Misery that would never end, if they did not forfake their Sins, and lead better Lives.

On these, and on many other Accounts, Christians were every where persecuted, and vast Numbers were most barbarously mur-

Ind. ' Pray, Sir, are Christians still used

after this cruel manner?'

Miss. No: -- For in time the Kings and PRINCES of the World became Christians: and, when they favoured and protected that Religion, their Subjects followed their Example, the it was not always in order to fave their Souls, but for other unworthy and worldly Ends. -- And it was then, that many began to call themselves Christians, who in their Hearts and Lives were far from being such: By which Christianity became extremely corrupted, and Men outwardly professed the Christian Religion, at the same time as they lived in those Sins, which it forbids on Pain of Damnation.

Notwithstanding this, the Christian Religion, where it is truly professed, is still the fame; and it is the only Method of restoring Men to the Favour of God, and bringing them to the Happiness which we all wish to enjoy.

We have the fame just and holy God to worship, that those first Christians had; a God who loveth the Good and Pious, and bateth the Wicked; who will most furely call all Men to an Account, judge them according to their Works, and reward or punish them as they have deserved.—And we have the same

Jesus for a Saviour, who is able to save us to the uttermost;—so that every Man who has any concern for himself, and would escape the Anger of an offended God, will not only be a Christian in Name, but in good earnest will live as a true Christian ought.

Ind. 'I most heartily thank you, Sir, for this Account you have given me of the Christian Religion,-Now one would hope, that, if our People knew these things they might be prevailed on to become Christians, as casily as those Nations were who first em-

Miss. We may wish and pray for this;—but there are some Reasons which you may know hereafter, that we fear may, for the present hinder so general a Conversion and Blessing to your People; but a Time will certainly come, when you will all know and worship the true God, the Maker of Heaven and Earth, and His only Son, whom he has ordained to be the Judge of the Living and Dead.——In the mean while, take you care for yourself, and beg of God that you may not lose the Favour which is offered you at this time by me, one of his unworthy Servants.

Ind. I hope I shall do so, and shall not forget what you have said to me at this time.

And I believe I shall very soon wait on you again for your further Instruction.

thought then all Christians believed as surely as any thing they see with their Eyes.

Miss. And so, I assure you, all true Christians do. But what old they say against your Purpose of becoming a Christian?

Ind. 'Tho' I am almost afraid to tell you, yet I must do it, both to ease my Mind, and

'In the first Place, they made a Jest of my Purpose;—but I told them, that if what I had been taught was true, as I did believe it was, it concerned me so much, that I should 'not be laughed out of my Intention.

'Then they told me plainly,—The Chriftians would have you believe what they do onot believe themselves.—For is it likely, that People, who are fully persuaded of such things as they tell you, would lead fuch Lives as they commonly do?—What, faid they, does it fignify to know the God which they worship, and the good Rules he has given them,

38 them, if those Rules are not able to make them better than other People?—Are they not as careless, as if they were fure that no-tians did really believe what they told you, there would not be a wicked Man among them;—and yet many of them are as bad,

if not worse, than those who know nothing of the Religion they pretend to, or of the Happiness or Misery they speak of.—Are not the same Wickednesses seen among them, as among the worlt of us?—They make no Conscience to cheat and defraud even one another:—And where they have Power, they oppress without Pity .- Whoredom and Drunkenness, Falseness and Deceit, Lying,

Curfing, and Swearing, and calling upon the God they worship to damn each other, upon every foolish Occasion: - These and many others are the Crimes common among these very People who tell you, that the great God will call all Men to an Account, and reward or punish them according to their Works.—Can you think that they themfelves believe this?'

Miss. Well, what Answer did you give them?

Miss. I hope however, that you will change your Mind when you have heard what we have to fay to these Objections.

In the first Place, all good Christians know this, and are grieved to see how much the Christian Religion must suffer by the bad Lives of such People, by whose evil Doings, the Name of Godand of Christ is blasphemed.

However, suffer not yourself to be too foon discouraged:—Nor judge of our Religion by the disorderly Lives of these People you have mentioned; -- for, affure yourfelf, that all are not true Christians who go under that Name.—There are too many who live in a shameful Ignorance both of the Truths and Duties of Christianity; and will not be at any Pains to confider the Religion they profefs, nor the fad danger they themselves are in.-And many there are, who have been instructed in the Way that leads to everlasting Happiness; but the Cares of this World, the Deceitfulness of Riches, or the Love of worldly Pleafures, have blotted the Remembrance of the Truths they had learned out of their Minds.— Nay, there are too many, who even strive to forget fuch Truths, becausethey condemntheir ungodly Lives.—They therefore endeavour to cast off all Fear of God, and provoke him to give them up to a Mind void of Judgment, to commit all Iniquity with Greediness.

Lastly,—Many profess to know God, but in their Works do deny bim.—These, and all such as these, are an Abomination in the Sight of God, and a Grief to all true Christians.

Ind. 'But you know, Sir, that these will take it ill, if they are not called Christians.'

Miss. They will so; but that is, because they think it a name of Credit and Respect in the Place where they live; and they content themselves with the Name, without thinking seriously what it is to be a Christian.

Ind. Since so many go under the Name of Christians, and are not such, how shall we know who are true Christians?'

Miff. The God whom Christians worship hath given them a Rule 'v which every one may know who are tru Christians.—The Rule is this: LET ERY ONE THAT NAMETH THE NAME OF CHRIST DEPART FROM INIQUITY*.' Whoever does not do fo, is no true Christian in the Account of God;—and they, and they only, are true Christians, who not only believe the Truths, but also obey the Laws, of the Christian Religion:—That is, such as love the God that made them with all their Hearts, and fear to displease and offend him; who love, obey, and trust in Jesus Christ his Son, their Saviour and their Lord; and bring forth the Fruits of the Holy Ghost in all Kinds of Goodness, Righteousness and Truth; and lastly, such as, having always a Conscience void of Offence towards God and Men, dare not for all the

But then, that you may not be offended with the Infirmities, Faults, and Failings, of those that are even good Christians, you must remember what I have already often told you, concerning the Weakness and Corruption of human Nature. For the best of Christians are Men of like Passions with others, and may, thro' the Weakness of their Nature, or for want of Consideration, be sometimes overtaken in a Fault, of which they afterwards truly repent.—But a true Christian will not, cannot live or continue in any known Sin, or bad Way of Life.

Ind. 'Pray then, good Sir, what Answer fhall I give to our People, who, to be fure, will endeavour to diffuade me again from hearkening to your Instructions, by such Arguments as I have already mentioned?

Miss. Ask them whether THE GREAT GOD has not given every one of them Reason and Understanding, in order to judge betwixt Good and Evil?——Surely they will not say, that Reason, the Good Gift of God, is in fault, when many of their own People do such wicked things as their Reason forbids and condemns. No more ought they to blame the Christian Religion, because some that call themselves Christians lead such Lives as are a Reproach to Christianity.

Ind

Ind. It may be, they will tell me, That if neither Reason nor Christianity can keep

People from being wicked, I need not be at the Pains of learning the Christian Reli' gion, or hearkening to Reason.'

Miss. Well then, I will shew you in a few Words, that of all Means the Christian Religion is most likely (even better than Reason itself ever can be in its present State) to make Men wise and good, unto their Salvation and Happiness.

Ind. Sir, I do most heartily thank you.

You have given me great Ease of Mind;—and I hope I shall meet with no more such Discouragements from hearing your Instructions—But some sew things I have to ask you, for the Confirmation of the Truths I am to believe.

Miss. Come when you will, I shall be ready to instruct you. And may God bless my Endeavours with Success;—and do you pray for yourself in the following Words:

The PRAYER.

Miss. Of very great Use most certainly-It will keep you from being imposed upon, when any thing is proposed to your Belief, as coming from God; ---- you will be able to judge whether you have sufficient. Proof to receive it as such:—And then, if you find you have, your Reason will convince you, that it must be necessary for your Happiness, because a God of Truth and Goodness cannot deceive his Creatures, or require any thing of them but what must necessarily be for their Good.

Ind. 'It is on this very Account, Sir, I am now come to you, not only to learn from you, by what other Ways God has made his Will known unto Christians; but to enquire whether those Ways be such as no Man of common Sense and Reason ought to call in question.

Miss. I hope I shall give you all the Satisfaction in those things, that unprejudiced Reafon can desire. — You will remember then what I told you before,—That the Great God, in Compassion to his poor bewildered Creatures, fent his own Son to let them know how far they were departed from the Ways of Reason and Truth; and that they would be for ever miserable, if they did not return to the Duty they owed their Maker: -And, laftly, that God was in Christ-reconciling the World unto bimself, and would pardon Mankind upon Condition of their Faith in him, their Repent-

Days I will rife again from the Dead; which also came exactly to pass.

Ind. 'I do remember all all this.—But how can you be fure that this was really fo, it being fo very long fince thefe things were done?

Miff. You yourfelf shall judge—You must know then, THAT DIVINE PERSON, when he was on Earth, appointed feveral Persons to be Witnesses of every thing which he did, said, taught, or suffered;—and that the most necessary of these things were put in Writing, and published by some of them, even at the Time when great Numbers were alive, who had been Witnesses of his Words and Actions, and while his Enemies, who had put him to Death, were also alive; and yet no one charged them with having written any thing that was not true. Miss. we are well assured they did so; because they were directed and assisted to write those things by God himself, who bore them Witness, by Signs, and Wonders, and Miracles, and other Gifts of the Holy Spirit, that he was with them *.——And they were themselves so well convinced of the Truth of what they had written, and what they taught, that they chose to suffer any Death, rather than be silent or deny what they had seen with their Eyes, and beard with their Ears.

Ind. 'Pardon me for asking you one Question more:—How can you be assured, that those Writings, which you now have, and call the Holy Scriptures of the New Testament, are the very same which those Persons who conversed with Christ, did then write? May they not have been altered since that time?

Miss. We have this Assurance, that they are the very same, and that they have not been altered:—Those Writings were copied at that time by many Christians, and carried with them into divers Countries, and distant Nations which had no Knowledge one of another, and were put into their several Languages; and they all continue to be the same in Substance, where-ever they are sound to this Day.

Besides all this,—from that very Time to this, there was also ONE DAY IN SEVEN appointed, and very strictly observed by Christians, on purpose, amongst other things, to read these Scriptures in public, and to keep up the Memory of these things which I have told you of; so that if any body had attempted to add or alter any thing of Moment, it would have immediately been taken notice of by all good Christians.

Ind. 'Indeed, Sir, a Man must be very unwilling to believe these things who will not be satisfied with this Account of the Truth of these Writings; especially, if they contain nothing but what is highly worthy of the Great God to command his reason-able Creatures.'

Miss. That you will be convinced of, when you come to know what he has commanded them to believe and do.

Ind. 'But is it true, Sir, that Christians' themselves are not agreed about them?'

Miss. Pray, consider,—that as long as Men have corrupt Hearts, and different Capacities, and Inclinations, and Interests, they will differ with one another, not only in what concerns Christianity, but in all other Matters.—But assure yourself, that all Christians are agreed in these necessary things;—That these Scriptures are the very Word and Will of God, being the Revelation of his Holy Spirit.

Ind. 'In what is it then that they differ

• among themselves?' -

Miss. Some differ about Words only, and often about Matters of no great Moment.-Many are of a contentious Spirit, and exercise their Wits about foolish Questions, which minister Strife*, rather than the Design of God in his Word, which is to fave us from Ruin. -Many take upon them to be Teachers of others, without understanding what they say, or whereof they affirm : Many will expound the Scriptures as will best fuit with their own private Opinions or corrupt Ways, inventing Ways of serving God, which he has not commanded.-And laftly, too many are brought up in gross Ignorance, and either are not permitted or will not be at the Pains, to see and know the Truths which concern their Salvation.—These and many such are the Causes of Christians differing among themselves. But be affured of this, -That an All-wife and Good God can make these very Differences serve most bleffed Ends; bis Glory and the Good of his chosen and faithful Servants—For by these he tries their Faith, whether they will give Credit

to his Word, or to the Delusions of those Evil Spirits, which lead the Simple into Error.—

By these he makes his true Servants more careful of their Ways, and to place their whole Dependance upon him, and his Grace, which they therefore pray for more earnestly.—Lastly, these Differences have had this good Effect, that forasmuch as all Parties of Christians do acknowledge these Scriptures to be from God—they have been ever jealous of one another, that nothing he added, omitted or altered, by any Party of Christians.

And remember what I tell you for a certain Truth,—that the Differences amongst Christians are not always of such a Nature as to deprive 1 in of God's Favour.—For he knows all our Hearts, and the Reasons of Men's Mistakes;—and no doubt will pity and pardon such Errors and Mistakes as are not wilful, and do not plainly tend to deprave their own Manners or the Lives of other People.

Ind. 'I have only One Favour more to ask you concerning these Scriptures:—What is the great Use and Necessity of them?'

Miss. In the first place, They are graciously given by God to supply the Defects of our Reason, and to hinder us from abusing and perverting that great Blessing and Gift of God, which thro' our Lusts and Passions, we are but too apt to do, to the Hurt of ourselves and others.

—In the next place, be affured—that you can have no full and true Knowledge of the GREAT God, or of his Will and Purpojes, and gracious Designs, but from his own Son, and from what He has made known to us in these Scriptures*.

By these Scriptures, as in those of the Old Testament, wherein holy Men spake and acted. as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, we learn how Sin and Wickedness, Sickness, Miseries, and Death itself came into the World; - and how Men lost their Innocence, and forfeited that Happiness for which God made them.— And in the Scriptures we have also a most particular Account, how God in Mercy to his unhappy Creatures, in his own good Time, fent HIS OWN SON, to shew poor Sinners their miserable Condition; to deliver them out of it; and by a most wonderful Way, as I shall shew you hereafter, to reconcile God to them, and them to God.—And in order to awaken all who come to the Knowledge of these things, and engage their Attention to them, these Scriptures give them the utmost Assurance, that God has prepared for them who believe in his Son, and are willing to receive Salvation at his Hands, and who can make this appear by loving him, and obeying his Commands, an Happiness which passeth Man's Understand. ing; and that fuch as will not regard thefe things, sha llbe miserable for ever.—And for asmuch as in the Issue, this Happiness and Mifery will depend upon Men's good or bad Behaviour in this Life, - thefe Scriptures contain that Law by which God has determined to judge the World, that all Men may order their Lives accordingly.—They teach us what Service is due from reasonable Creatures to their Maker;—how we must Live so as to please him;—what is truly just, and good, and acceptable to his Divine Majesty; - as also, what is wrong, and what he has forbidden upon Pain of his everlafting Displeasure.—They contain many wonderful Examples of God's Care of those that love and obey him, and of his Displeasure against such as neglect or despise his Commands.—In short, these Scriptures are a most invaluable Bleffing, without which we should be ignorant of those things that are of the greatest Concern to the Glory of the great and eternal God, and our own everlasting Welfare.

Ind. 'Well Sir, you have raised in me a very great Desire of knowing more of these 'Scriptures, which contains things wonderful and unknown to us indeed.'

Miss. You must give God the Thanks for that Desire, if it be fincere—I can only speak to your Ears; it is God alone that can speak to your Heart.—Forget not therefore, to beg of him to make himself and his Will known to you, and to bless the Endeavours of such as desire to instruct you in the Ways of Truth and Happiness.

What

What therefore he has made known to us in the Holy Scriptures, is: - That after he had made this World, and all things in it, in Six Days, and that he might have Creatures capable of praising him for his wonderful Works. he made one Man and one Woman, called ADAM and EVE, determining to make of one Blood all Nations of Men to dwell upon all the Face of the Earth*; all which are the offfpring of that one Man and Woman.-He has also made known to us, That these Two Persons were at first made after the Likeness of their Creator, being endued with Reason in Perfection, and other heavenly Gifts-We learn also, that these our First Parents, being thus made perfect and good, and capable of living for evert, were placed in an happy State called Paradise, with a Promise of Life, and Happiness, as long as they continued obedient to their Maker's Commands. Now these Two Persons were in a State of Trial and Probation, as we all are at this Day, though in a Manner quite different from ours:—For they, coming out of their Maker's Hands perfect, that is, endued with clear and strong Apprehensions of their indispensable Obligation to perform all the great Points of Morality, could not well be supposed to lie under any Temptation of violating that chief Part of their Duty. -It was therefore necessary, that some other Test, fuitable to the Place and Circumstances they * Acts xvii. 26.

were in, should be required of them, to prove what was in their Hearts; and whether they would chuse, under the most tempting Offers, to break an express Commandment of God, their Creator, Preserver, and Governor,—even the the Reason of such a Commandment was not made known unto them.—A positive Injunction of this kind, God was pleased to give them;—at the same time enforcing their Obedience to it, by Threats of a most dreadful Penalty, if they should ever transgress it.

And we are to confider the Command given to Adam concerning the Forbidden Tree, not as if God only spoke concerning That, but he herein commanded him this One thing,—OBEY MY VOICE:—That is, You are to do whatever I shall declare to be the Duties of your Life:—For it was necessary that Man should obey the Divine Being, and never be left to his own Guidance, but to be always kept in the Hand of God's Counsel.

How long our First Parents continued in their Duty, we are no-where told; but at length by yielding to the Temptation of an Evil-Spirit, and not regarding the Command of their Maker *, they did fall from that holy and happy Condition they were in; and by that most grievous Crime (for so it appears by the Punishment a most righteous God inflicted on them for it) they highly displeased their Maker, who left them to themselves;—and, having lost their Innocence, and that Image of God in which they were created *, their Nature became sadly changed for the worse.—And the Children which they afterwards begot, being born of sinful Parents, became even like their Parents, disobedient, and prone to Evil, as you see they are at this Day: All which these FIRST PARENTS OF MANKIND brought upon themselves, and their Posterity.

It was thus that Sin and Evils of every kind, and Death at last, entered into the World, as the just Punishment of their Disobedience to the Commands of God;—by which all Right to his free Promise of eternal Life and Hap-pinels was forfeited and left.

Ind. 'This is indeed a plain Account how: Sin and Wickednessentered into the World; and we ought to believe it to be a just Account, fince God has made it known to you? in his Revealed Will.'

Miss. As to the Corruption of our Nature, and the Sin that does so easily beset us, your own Experience will convince you of the Truth of it.—And no other reasonable Account can be given how it came into the World.——And you will learn by what sollowed this Act of Disobedience, how displeasing to God it was, and the Punishment it deserved.

Ind. Will you be fo kind as to let me know what followed this fad Calamity?

* Gen. v.

Miss. You will easily conceive how misera. ble the Condition of these our First Parents. was now become: They knew that they had failed in their Duty to their Maker: their Reason could not inform them how to help themselves: The Loss of their Innocence, and of their Maker's Favour; their Forfeiture of the Happiness they had enjoyed,with their dreadful Apprehensions of that Death which was threaten'd:—the Sense of these things would most certainly have overwhelmed them, had not the Goodness of God immediately interposed to keep them from Despair. — For tho' his perfect Holiness could not but bate the Sin, yet his Goodness inclined him to have Compassion on the Sinner; and from thence he took Occasion to make known another of his most glorious Perfections, his infinite Mercy.

Ind. I am most desirous to hear how that ' was done.'

Miss. Why, as a Remedy for what had been done amiss, and could not be undone, their Maker was pleased to enter into a New Covenant with them;—so that neither they, nor any of their Posterity, should, on account of their Disobedience, be ruined, except it was purely their own Fault.

Ind. 'That was indeed a most kind Offer of their Offended Maker;——Pray, what

Ind. 'You will now be fo kind, as to let e me know what followed this Promise of God to his finful Creatures.

Miff. You must know then—that some of their Children and Posterity, exercising themfelves in Repentance of Sin, depending on this promised Saviour, keeping up a Sense of these things, and an Expectation of this Promife, lived in the Fear of God +.—But many others of them, through the Corruption of their Nature, became exceeding wicked: One of their own Sons murdered his Brother; for which God, to keep others from committing fuch horrid Crimes, banished him from his Presence, and he spent his Days in Misery.

At last, Wickedness increased to such an Height, and became so general, that God was provoked to destroy the whole Race of Men by a Flood (except one upright Man, whose Name was Noah t, together with his little Family) as I hinted to you before.

By this good Man and his Family, the whole Earth was again filled with People, as it is this Day—And while his good Instructions, and the Memory of that dreadful Judgment, lasted, Men lived in the Fear of God:—but too foon fell into Wickedness again:—And most of these, losing the Knowledge of the true God, fell into Idolatry, a Sin which God principally abhors, as most dishonourable to his Nature, Authority, and Glory, and as leading Men into all other Wickedness *.

Ind. ' Pray what is that Sin of Idolatry,

' which God so hateth?'

Miss. It is the giving that Honour and Worship which is only due to the true God, to his Creatures, to the Sun and Moon, and to evil Spirits—and to the Images representing these.

Notwithstanding this,—God never lest himself without Witnesst; but gave continual Proofs of his Hatred against Wickedness, and of his Favour and Protection of good Men, in all Ages, and amongst all Nations, even unto this Day.—And thus it is,—that Calamities of all kinds are brought upon Earth; that one Nation makes War upon another; these being only Instruments in the Hands of God, and by his wise and just Appointment for the Punishment of their Sins.

· Know-

' Knowledge of the true God, and of the Worship due to him?'

Miss. Yes, indeed they had. For the Holy Scriptures inform us, that-God made Choice of a certain Person, whose Name was ABRA-HAM*, and called him and his Family, from the midst of a Nation given to Idolatry; that to this Man he made himself, and his glorious Perfections known; and for his encouragement to persevere in his Duty, he promised,— That out of his Loins in due Time the DELIVER-ER OF THE WORLD from Sin and Death should proceed, and that in the mean while He would make bis Descendants a great and numerous People; —all which was made good in a most wonderful Manner. His Posterity increased exceedingly; and where-ever they travelledthey communicated the Knowledge of the true God, -- and told Men how he ought to be feared and worshipped; fo that many Nations might have known these things, had it not been their own Fault; ——for God caused them often to wander, that they might make him known amongst Men, and cure them of their Wickedness and Idolatry.

It was in the Time of that good Man, that God shewed his Hatred of Wickedness, and his Displeasure against great and hold Sinners, after a Manner the most frightful and astonishing.—There were several considerable Cities, the chief of which were Sodom and Gomor-RAH, the Inhabitants of which, through Pride, ^{*} Gen. xii.

Fulness of Bread and much Idleness, fell into all manner of Wickedness; which provoked God to make them an Example of his Displeasure against such Sins;—for he rained down Fire and Brimstone upon them *, and utterly destroyed both them, their Towns, and their whole Land, the dreadful Marks of which are to be seen at this Day.—At the same time, God, to shew his Care for those that seared him, sent his Angels, and delivered One good Man whose Name was Lot, and his Family, out of that fearful Destruction †.

After this the Children of ABRAHAM, to whom the Promise was made, multiplied exceedingly; to whose Posterity God gave very particular Laws and Directions, how they might live so as to please their Maker, and not hurt one another;—and wrought most wonderful Things before their Eyes, when he delivered them out of a most cruel Bondage;—to convince them, and all other Nations, that should hear of these things,—that the Idols, and evil Spirits, which they worshipped, were no Gods—and that there was no God, but the God of this People.

Ind. Pray, what were the Laws and Directions that God gave this People and Nation?

Miss. The chief of them were these that follow:—That they should neither have nor worship any other God but him who had done such Wonders for them;—That they should

Soon after God had given his peculiar People these Laws, he settled them after a most wonderful Manner, and in a fruitful Land, which he had long before promised to Abraham their great Forefather, and blessed them exceedingly, while they observed his Laws.—But even these People, through the Corruption of Nature, often transgressed his Commands, and were as often punished, and upon their Repentance pardoned;—till at last, they growing incurably wicked, he permitted their Enemies to destroy most of them, their Cities, their Land, and their Place of Worship;—

and they are at this Day dispersed over the Face of the Earth, without any sure Settlement.

Now, a few Years before this happened, the Time was come when the Great God was pleased to send into the World—'That Person or Prophet, whom he had promised to our sirst Parents, and who had engaged to make Satisfaction to the Divine Justice, for their great Offence.'—But a particular Account of this Person and Blessing will take up more Time than I believe you have now to spare: I shall therefore defer it till you come next to me. In the mean Time pray earnestly to God, that he may not suffer your Heart to be hardened, but that you may ever believe his Promises, and stand in awe of his Judgments.

The PRAYER.

I Believe: Lord, increase my Faith, and give me Grace that with a holy Life I may adorn the Religion I profess.—Keep me stedfast in this Faith, that no Errors may separate me from thee;—But that thy love, O merciful God; —Thy Grace, O blessed Jesus;—Thy Fellowship, O Holy Ghost, may defend and comfort me in all Dangers and Adversities, until I attain the End of my Faith, even the Salvation of my Soul. DIALOGUE VIII.

JESUS CHRIST, the MEDIATOR and SAVIOUR of the World, and the Head of all Christians.

INDIAN.

K T O U shewed me, Sir, when I waited on you last, how Man came to fall from that upright and happy Condition in which he was created; and how he, and all his · Posterity, became subject to Sin, to Misery, and to Death: -As also, how their Maker fpared the Lives of our First Parents, although they had deserved immediate Death, on account of One who was engaged to fatif-' fy the Divine Justice for their Transgression, and for the Offences of all their Posterity, upon the most merciful Conditions.—And I ' lest you with a more earnest Desire of knowing more of that SACRED PERSON, who was to come into the World for that End; ' and, as you intimated to me, did come about that Time, when God had, for their Sins, cast off that People, whom he had so long ' and so remarkably, favoured and protected, ' above the other Nations of the World.'

brought themselves and their Posterity, by their Disobedience to their Maker;—how dreadfully sad their Punishment would be, and of what an invaluable Happiness they would be deprived;—He, by God's most gracious Appointment, undertook to satisfy the Divine Justice by submitting to such Sufferings as God was pleased to accept by way of Atonement for the Sins of Men.

Ind. ' Pray, Sir, how did Jesus Christ do c this?'

Miss. As I told you before, he, out of Love to his otherwise lost Creatures, took the perfect Nature of a Man, both Body and Soul, into Union with his Divine Nature, and was born of a pure Virgin that he might be seen, and converse with Men, and in their Nature be capable of suffering for the Sins of Men.

Now, in that Body, here upon Earth, in the First Place, he let Mankind know God's wonderful Goodness, and his Readiness to forgive Offenders, even the greatest Offenders, upon their Repentance, Belief in him and his Undertaking, and Return to their Duty; as also, how they ought to live so as to please God, and be an Honour to their Maker.—And by his most wise and holy Life, and Doctrine, and Example,—He shewed what an Excellent Creature Man was, before he lost his Innocence, and fell into a State of Sin and Corruption; as also how hateful to God Sin must be, since so Divine a Person, which, you

o God Sin which, you will see hereaster, was the Son of the Most High God, was obliged to come down from Heaven, to satisfy God's Justice, and to save Men from the Punishment it deserved.—For his Divine Nature, tho' it could not suffer, yet being thus divinely united to his Humanity, gave such a Virtue and Value to the Sacrifice, as render'd it a proper and sufficient Atonement to the Divine Justice for our Sins.

After he had in his public Ministry sully declared the Design of his Coming and performed such miraculous things as were sufficient to convince all well-disposed People, that he was the Son of God, and sent by him to declare his Father's Will to Men;—after this, that, as Son of God, he might make sull Satisfaction to the Divine Justice, since no less a Sacrifice could do it, He willingly laid down his own Life, for his otherwise undone Creatures.

Ind. 'I begin now to understand what before I was amazed at, Why God would suffer bis own Son to be put to Death by wicked Men; and why his Son would chuse to be so dealt with, when he could have hindered it: I fupposed it was because he had undertaken the Cause of Sinners, and suffered Death to make an Atonement for them, and to satisfy the Justice of his offended Father, who

'therefore permitted him to be put to Death.'
Miff. You understand it right.—And the GREAT God, to convince the World, that his Justice was satisfied by this most worthy Sacrifice,

fice, raised him from the Dead, the Third Day after he had been crucified and buried;—by which he was in the most convincing and powerful manner, declared to be the Son of God *; of all which the Holy Scriptures give us a particular Account,—and, for our Comfort, declare,—that God hadlaid on him the Iniquity of us all †; that be tasted Death for every Man ||, i. e. for every penitent Sinner, from the First Man that was made to the last that shall be born into the World;—lastly, that he has saved us by his Blood, out of every Kindred, and Tongue, and People, and Nation ‡.

Ind. 'It feems then, that we also have an Interest and Right in the Blessings which he ' has purchased by his Death.'

Miss. Most certainly you have;—for so he hath declared,—that the Gentiles, such as were Strangers to the true God, should be Fellow-heirs with his chosen People, and of the same Body, and Partakers of his Promise in Christ §.

Ind. ' Pray what is meant by the Gentiles being of the same Body?'

Miss. The Meaning is this:—That you should be of the same holy Society with God's chosen People; and that as we are the Creatures of one and the same God, and Children of one and the same Father,—and redeemed by the same Saviour, you shall now be made Members of the same Body, an holy Society,

Ind. I should be very thankful if you would explain that to me more particularly.

Miff. You must know then,—That after the Son of God had by his Death made an Atonement for the Sins of Mankind, he commanded his Apostles to offer the Blessings he had purchased unto all the Nations of the Earth, in order to take out of them a People for the Glory of God *; - and to let all Men know the merciful Favours which the Great God offered them by his Son, which were, -Repentance on Mens Part, and Forgiveness of Sins on the Part of God; and that this should be preached in his Name among all Nations +; and that all fuch as would receive him as their Redeemer and Lawgiver, should be entered into One Society, called the Church or Body of Christ, because he is the Head of this Body, and Governor of this Society, which is made up of all true Believers in all Nations of the World; that as he had redeemed them, he might protest, and govern, and keep them in the Way of Life and Happiness; and lastly, that the great Truths of Christianity, and the holy Scriptures, in which they are contained, might be preferved, being to be constantly read, explained, and preached among them.

Ind. 'But, good Sir,—how can People of fo many distant Nations, and different Laws

Miff. They are all of One Society, as they all agree in One Faith, and profess to be governed by One Law of Jesus Christ;—as they all engage to renounce the Devil, and all the Ways of an evil World, and to worship the One and only true God;—as they all profess to receive the holy Scriptures to be the only Rule of both their Faith and Manners; as they all are redeemed by the same Sacrifice;—as they all pray to One and the same God, in the Name, and for the Sake of the same Mediator and Advocate;—as they are all received into the fame Society, by one and the fame Ordinance of Baptisin; and are under the Direction and Influence of the same Holy Spirit; -and as they all hope to meet together hereafter in the same Place of Joy and Felicity, the Kingdom of Heaven.

pose of living as a Christian ought to do, all your past Sins will be forgiven you; -and, if you afterwards fall into Sin (as you will be but too apt to do,) you will have Jesus Christ an Advocate with his Father for your Pardon, upon your Repentance and Return to your Duty * .- Beside this, you will be under the special Care and Protestion of God; -you will have the Ministers of Christ to instruct you, and God's all-powerful Spirit to direct, support, and comfort you in all your Distresses. - You will have an Interest in all the Prayers and Blessings of that Society throughout the World; every Member of that Society being bound to feek the good of the whole Body, to relieve the Necessities of such as are in Want, or in Miseries, and all being mutually obliged to pray for each other .-Lastly, you will have a most fure Title to eternal Life and Happiness atter Death.

Ind. 'There is no Man, sure, who is in his right Mind, but would most earnestly desire to be a Member of such a Society if he could hope to do what will be required of him as a Christian.— For, as I remember, you told me, that a Christian has many Enemies and

' Difficulties to strive with.'

Miss. That is true.—But then take this most certain Truth along with you,—That a righto-ous and good God will not require any thing of his Creatures, but what he will enable them to do, if they will but use their own Endeavours;—every

And, forafmuch as we must be made boly, as ever we hope to be happy, it is this Good and Holy Spirit, that must make us so.—Which he doth,—by putting into our Hearts good Defires and Purposes of pleasing God, and a Fear of offending him; -by convincing us, that nothing is required of us but what is abfolutely necessary for our Good and Happiness. -by helping our good Endeavours, and defending us against the Malice and Power of evil Spirits; — by fetting home upon our Hearts the Joys and Happiness that are proposed to us, and the dreadful Misery which will be the Portion of such as despise them: -All which that Holy Spirit doth perform in us by a fure, tho' an invisible power.

Ind. ' Pray make that plain to me.'

Miss. Do not you know a Tree by the Fruit it bears? -- Doth not a good Tree bring forth good Fruit? - Doth not a corrupt Tree bring forth bad Fruit *? - Just so, when a good Spirit governs any Person, you see it plainly by his Life and Conversation; -as also, when you fee any Man lead an evil Life, you may be fure he is governed by an evil Spirit.

Ind. 'I understand you very well;—and would be thankful, if you would let me ' know what are the Fruits which distinguish

' a good Spirit from one that is evil?'

Miff. The fure Signs, that the Holy Spirit of God governs any Man, are these following Fruits: A Love of God, and of Men for his Sake;—Living in Peace as much as possible, with all others +; — Forgiving those that have injured us, as we hope to be forgiven our many Offences against God;—A Readiness to do good to all Men,;—A constant Endeavour to mortify our corrupt Affections, our Lusts, and evil Defires; Being content with our Condition; Being bumble, meek, and temperate;

Holy Spirit of God *.

On the other Hand,—the fure Signs of a Man's not being under the Influence of the good Spirit, are such evil Fruits as these sollowing: Adultery, Fornication, Idolatry, Witcherast, Envy, Hatred, and Malice; a Disposition to Revenge and Murder, Drunkenness, Revelings, Hardness of Heart, Unbelief, and Contempt of the Gospel, and such Sins as these;—God having expressly declared, that they who do such Things shall never be happy, but shall have their Portion with those evil Spirits, by whose wicked Suggestions they had been seduced to commit them.

Ind. 'If I remember well, you told me, that all Men are subject to Sin, even Christians, as well as others, tho' they have received that holy Spirit for a principle of a new Life.'

Miss. I told you so, and I told you nothing but the Truth; for so they are, until, by the Influence of that good Spirit, they are made completely holy, which is not to be expected till we die, and go to Heaven.—I told you also another Truth:—That a Christian is not one who has no Failings;—but he is one, who, by the Power and Favour of that Holy Spirit, watches and strives against the Corruption of his Nature continually, so as never to live in any known Sin whatever.

Ind. 'I remember you told me fo before; and I am convinced of the Truths you have now explained to me. And I must beg of you, at your Leisure, to let me know, what will be required of me in order to my being baptized, and made a Member of that Society, to which you have convinced me fo many Biessings have been promised by the Great God.'

The PRAYER.

Merciful God, and Lover of Souls, bless the pious Endeavours of such as are appointed to instruct me in the Ways of Truth and Godlines:—Leave me not to my own Choice, but give me a Heart always open to receive the Truth, and a constant Resolution to observe and obey it: And that I may remember thee my Creator all my Days, chearfully embrace Salvation by thy Son our Lord, and submit to his Government,—let thy Holy Spirit ever accompany me, and inspire me with sound Principles of Virtue, Religion, and Holiness, for thy Mercy's Sake in Christ Jesus. Missionary. I would now do it, but upon fecond Thoughts I am of Opinion, it will be best for you, that I put you again in mind of the Truths you have already learned, and affented to, that you may be able to answer it to your own Reason, and to every one who shall ask you,—' Why you chuse to be a ' Christian?' --- And that your Faith being furely established, you may be convinced, that it is your Interest, as well as Duty to make fuch a Choice; and that you may not hereafter become a Scandal to the Christian Religion, or be tempted to forfake it, on account of any Difficulties you may meet with, or the bad Examples of wicked Men who profess it. Ind. 'I heartily thank you for so kind a Miss. You have declared already that you are fully convinced, that there is but one God of all the Nations of the World;—that is—a Being most wise, most powerful, most boly, most just and good,—who after he had made the World, and all things in it, by his great Power, made Man, and endued him with Reason and Understanding, to the end he might have a Creature on Earth capable of knowing and honouring his Maker.

Ind. ' I am most fully convinced of this,

' and do most firmly believe it.'

Miss. How then do you think it comes to pass, that so many People endued with Reafon are so far from being an honour to that God on whom they depend for Life and Breath, and all things which they enjoy, or hope for,—that they neither fear, nor love, nor bonour, nor are concerned to please bim?

Ind. ' I have not, Sir, forgot the Account you gave me,—how this came to pass; how the first Parents of Mankind came to fall from that happy Temper and Condition in which they were made,—by yielding to the Temptation of an evil Spirit, and breaking a strict Command which their Maker had given them for a Trial of their Obedience: - And what a fad Change and Diforder was thereby made in their Nature, and in the World, infomuch that both they, and their Posterity, which inherited their corrupt Nature, became prone to Evil, and subject to Sin and Death, and to all the Sorrows, Miseries, and Afflictions which lead to Death; and that this was the true Occasion of all the Mischiess and Wickedness which we see and hear of in the World." Miss. I am very glad you remember this fo well.—For indeed, without the Knowledge of this unhappy Fall of Man, and the Corruption of our Nature, which followed, you can never fully understand, nor truly value, the Wiscom, the Justice, the Mercy, and the Goodness of God; nor would the Christian Religion appear to you so great a Blessing as it really is.

Ind. 'You will be so kind as to explain this to me a little more particularly; that I may embrace it with full Satisfaction, and never forsake it.'

Miss. You will remember then what I told you before: That we know and are assured of this by a Writing which came from God, of which we have most undoubted Proofs, and by which we are informed, how merciful God was in sparing the Lives of these our unhappy Parents which they had sorfeited by their great Offence, and this for the Sake of his beloved Son, who undertook to see his suffice fully satisfied, and to use all proper Means to make Men sensible of their Offences, and bring them back to the Duty they owe to their Maker.

That, in order to this, His Son, who is called Christ, and from whom we Christians have our Name, came down from Heaven to Earth, and was made Man, and conversed with Men;—and declared unto them, as he was the Son of the Most High God, and had a tender Compassion for poor Sinners, so he had undertaken to be a Peace-Maker between God and them;—and that he was a Messenger sent from him to make his Will known unto Men;—and that God had committed the Government of all Manking to him.

All which God himself confirmed by a Voice from Heaven *.—And his Son, when on Earth, convinced all who were disposed to receive the Truth, that these things were true, by his doing such wonderful Works as none but God could do;—by the Holiness of his Life; by the most righteous Laws which he gave unto Men;—and above all, by his Rising again from the Dead, after he had, by wicked Hands, been murdered.

Ind. 'All this I remember, and only defire you will repeat the Message which this 'Wonderful Person brought from God to " Men.

Miss. In the First Place, be made known to them their miserable Condition by Nature and Practice: And that it was yet a Condition not without Hope.—That as his Justice could not let Sin go unpunished,—so his Goodness would not let his unhappy Creatures be ruined, except they obstinately refused to accept of the merciful Terms proposed to them.

That therefore God had been pleased, for his Son's Sake, to promise,—that all such as should be made sensible of their bad Condition, and would return to the Duty which they owe to their Maker, shall have all their past Offences pardon'd, shall be received into his Favour again, and be made for ever happy with him:—But that all who know this, and would not receive, and thankfully comply with, so kind an Offer, shall die in their Sins, and be punished without Mercy. Ind. Will you now, Sir, be so good as to let me know the Way which this Wonder-ful Person did make use of to prevail with Men to embrace this most kind Message of

' God to Men?'

Miss. In the first Place,—he shewed them, what a tender Compassion God had for his unhappy Creatures, who were wilfully going on in the Way of Ruin, without perceiving it:—And that he was so good as to send his own Son from Heaven to save them from Destruction.

He told them further,—That the Sins of Men were so many, so great and universal, that no less a Satisfaction would be accepted for their Pardon than the Death of his own Son; that therefore he had taken upon himfelf the Cause of Sinners, and put himself in their Place and Stead, that he might suffer and die for them.

And God, to shew Men how well he was satisfied with his Son's Sufferings for the Sins of Men, raised him from Death, and set him at his own Right-hand; where he liveth for

Ind. This I remember, and I cannot but admire the great Love of God and Christ for fuch unworthy Creatures.—Pray, have any other Ways been taken of bringing Men to a Sense of the Duty they owe to their

• Maker, and of promoting their Happiness?'

Miss. I hope you have not forgot what I told you,—that Christ, after his Ascent into Heaven, sent down the Holy Ghost upon his Apostles in a most wonderful Manner, who established that Society which we call the Church of Christ, as the most proper Means of bringing Men to the Knowledge of the true God,—of Salvation by his Son,—and of engaging in the regular and faithful Discharge of the several Duties they owe to God, to themselves, and to all Mankind.

For in that Society he has appointed certain Persons bis Ministers, who are to watch for the Souls of Men, as they that must give account of them †;—to let them know what they must do to be saved;—to minister to Men the Means of Grace and Salvation; —to instruct the Ignorant;—to comfort and help the Weak, and raise up them that fall;—to offer up to Gad Supplications, Prayers, Intercessions, and Thanks for all Men;—and, in one Word, to endeavour that all Men may attain that Happiness, which Jesus Christ has purchased by his most precious Blood.

'This I have not forgot:—Nor what you told me further,—That forasmuch as God had determined to judge Mankind according to their Behaviour in this Life, he has given to Christians certain Laws and Rules, by which they shall be judged to Happiness or Misery, at that great Day; and that these Laws and Rules are to be found in that Book which you call The Word of God, because it was written by Men appointed of God. May I beg you to give me a short account of that Book?'

Mill In the First part of those Scriptures, called The Old Testament, we have an Account of the Creation of the World, and of God's infinite Power, Wisdom, Justice, and Goodness in the Government of it: - We have there an Account, as I told you, of the original Happiness of our First Parents, and of their finful Fall from that Condition; -we have alfo encouraging Notices of the Recovery of Mankind from this lad Condition; - and are informed how, in all Ages, God has often protected and bleffed the Good and punished the Wicked; -in order to convince Men, that he fees and ordereth all things for his own Glory, and the Good of his Creatures.

In that Part of the Scriptures which we call The Gospel,—we have a particular Account of the Life of Christ; -his most perfect Example;—his most holy Precepts;—some of his numberless and wonderful Miracles; - how he was approved of God to be his Son, and the Messenger of his Will to Men;—how he was by wicked Hands crucified and flain: That he died, was buried, and that all these his Sufferings were a proper Atonement for our Sins; that he rose again the Third Day from the Dead; -conversed with his Followers, and in their Sight ascended into Heaven; from whence he fent down the Holy Ghost, who enabled them to speak all Manner of Languages;—that they might by this astonishing Miracle prove their Mission, and be able to teach all Men these wonderful Things, and bring them to the Knowledge of the Truth, that they might be faved;—and lastly, how great Numbers of all the then known World embraced the Christian Religion;—that is, all fuch as feared God, and were concerned to fave themselves from that wicked Generation, faw plainly, that the Christian Religion was most agreeable to Reafon; and the Bleffings it proposed to Men, greater than all the World besides could give them.

Ind. Will you be so good as to repeat again the chief of those great Truths, and the Bleffing you speak of?'

Miss. The Truths which concern us to know, and which the Christian Religion, and that only, teaches us, are such as these:—That we are fallen under God's Displeasure, and yet may be restored to his Favour, and have all our Offences pardoned thro' the Satisfaction

In short,—The Christian Religion proposes a Remedy for all the Evils we are subject to, which we either feel or fear;—and is designed to restore Men to that holy Temper which is absolutely necessary to fit them for Heaven and Happiness;—that is, to make them truly good and just, wise for themselves, kind, suber, chaste, and temperate, peaceable and useful in their Generation.—And it will be purely their own Fault if they are not such;—for this Religion affords them all the Encouragement and Assistance, that their Case can possibly demand, or their Hearts can reasonably desire.

Miss. After what you have already learned, you can tell them with Truth,—That you found you wanted something which you had not in yourself, to make your Mind easy, and your Condition safe;—that your own Reason convinced you,—that such a Creature as Man could not be made, and sent into the World, only to eat and drink, and live and die, as the Beasts of the Field;—that you had often wished to know for what End the Great God made Men;—What Service they owe him;—whether the Way you were in was pleasing or displeasing to him;—and often wished to know;—What becomes of Men after they die, and leave this World.

You can tell them, that none with whom you had converfed, could give you any reasonable Satisfaction concerning these Matters,until, meeting with fober People among Christians, you have been convinced,—That you and many other People and Nations, bad lost the Knowledge of the only true God, who made the World, and all things in it; --- and that Christians have among them A WRITING, which gives them a full and most worthy Account of that great and good Being; - how he made of one Blood all the Nations of the Earth + ; - what excellent and innocent Creatures he made the First Parents of Mankind 1; and how they and their Posterity came to be changed so much for the worse, and subject to such evil Dispo-

You can tell them moreover, -That God has made known in these Writings, what Men endued with Reason ought to do, and what to avoid, if they hope to please their Maker, and their Lord;—what great Happiness they will deprive themselves of, if they strive not to knew, and do his Will;—for that such as repent of their Sins, believe in the Saviour he has fent, and obey his Commands, will, when they die, be happy for ever :—free from Fear; from the Malice of their Enemies, from Pain, from Sorrow, from Cares, from Oppression, from Sickness, and from Misery ofter Death; and enjoy all the Blessedness of which their Nature is capable.——And that fuch as have not been careful to please their Maker, shall be condemned to everlasting Mifery.

If they ask you, as to be sure they will,—how Christians can be assured, that these Writings and Truths came from God?—you may assure them,—that if any Man sincerely desires to know God's Will be shall find such Proofs, as shall convince him, that these Writings, and the

If they tell you, as they did before, that many who call themselves Christians live as if not one Word of those Scriptures were true: you may affure them, —that all good Christians are much concerned for the Offence these give to you, and to others; — That indeed they are not true Christians, but such as, being unwilling to forfake their Sins, and resolved to follow their Lusts without Disturbance, - strive to forget the Truths they have learned, because the Remembrance of them makes them uneasy; -- and being by a just Judgment of God left to themselves, they have at last lost all Sense of the dreadful Punishment which hangs over their Heads:—That this falling away of Christians from their Holy profession, and turning the Grace of God which teaches them to deny all Ungodliness, and worldly Lusts, into Wantonness, is so far from being an Objection to the Truth of Christianity, that it is an Argument for it;—fince this was foretold by the divinely inspired Penmen of the Holy Scriptures,—that there would be fome, who would hold the Truth in Unrighteousness, -and others that would draw back to Perdition, and quite forfake the Holy Commandments.

Miss. That I will gladly do when you come to me again.—And may that Good Spirit, which has put this Purpose into your Heart, keep you in this good Disposition!—And do not yourself forget to beg of God—That He may perfect the good Work which he has begun in you.

The PRAYER.

A Lmighty God, who alone canst order the unruly Wills and Affections of finful Men, grant me Grace to withstand the Temptations of the Devil, the World, and the Flesh, that I may never follow, nor be led by them; -Keep it ever in the Heart of thy Servant,—That it is indeed an evil and bitter thing to forfake the Lord, that I may never return to the Sins I have repented of.—Make me ever mindful of my infirmities, that I may look up to Thee for Help and Affiftance; and grant that we, to whom Thou hast given an hearty Defire to pray, may, by thy mighty Aid, be defended and comforted in all Dangers and Adversities,—through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. Of BAPTISM, and the LORD'S SUPPER: The CREED, the LORD'S PRAYER, and the TEN COMMANDMENTS, explained.

DIALOGUE X.

Of BAPTISM.

MISSIONARY.

A M glad to see you here again so soon. 'Tis a good Sign you are in earnest, and fincerely desirous of becoming a Christian.

Ind. Indeed, Sir, fo I am.—You have convinced me, that it is my Interest as well as Duty to be a Christian.

Miff. I must not suffer you to be under such a Mistake; —it was not I alone that could convince you; -it was the Good Spirit of God, who V. AL

I am only his Messenger to you, and, I hope, for your everlasting Good.

Ind. 'I hope so too.—And therefore am now come to be instructed,—" How I may be admitted into the Society of Christian

" People."

Miff. You must know then, that CHRIST, the Son of God, and the Head and Governor of that Society, has appointed Two Holy ORDINANCES, which we call SACRAMENTS, to be of perpetual Use in his Church,—as Signs, Seals, and Pledges of God's fulfilling his Promifes of Bleffing upon our Compliance with the Rules of our Duty; and by which he has determined to bestow his Favours and Bleffings on fuch as are worthy of them:—The one is called BAPTISM, or the Washing of Water, a Figure of Regeneration, by which all that are well disposed and qualified are to be received into his Church, which is the Society of all Christian People throughout the World:-The other Sacrament is called—The Lord's Supper, and appointed by Christ himself as an especial Means, by which that Society is to keep up the Remembrance of what he has done and fuffered to redeem them from Misery.

By the Sacrament of Baptism, God is graciously pleased to enter into COVENANT with his poor Creatures, whereby he promises, on bis Part, to take them under his especial Protection, and to give them all that is necessary to fit them for Heaven and Happiness, when they die;—and Christians, on their Part, bind themselves to become Christ's faithful Servants unto their Lives End.

Ind. 'Sir, you often mention our being 'God's Servants, and ferving God:—Does God 'want any Service that we can do him?'

Miss. No, truly: he stands in no need of our Prayers, our Praises, or our Services.— They cannot prosit him:—But he having given us certain Commands about our addressing ourselves to Him in Adorations, Supplications, and Thanksgivings; when we obey these Commands (tho' purely for our own Good) He is graciously pleased to deem it serving, homouring, and glorifying him, tho' in Truth we only prosit ourselves hereby.

Ind. You will be pleased to let me know when and how Christ appointed the Sacra" ment of Baptism?"

Miss. Just before he left this World, he gave his Apostles, who were his Ministers, this Command:— Go ye, and make Disciples of all Nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the · Holy Ghost;—teaching them to observe all things what soever I have commanded you \s.'

Now here are several things, which I would have you carefully to observe and remember:

—First,—the absolute Necessity of believing and receiving the Message, which God sent to the World by his Son:—Secondly,—The Necessity of being joined to his Church by Baptism, when that Blessing can be obtained:—Thirdly,—The dreadful Condition of such as obstinately continue in their Unbelies, when the Gospel is preached to them:—And lastly,—Observe the very strict Command of Christ to his Ministers, first to teach, but then to teach only, whatever he has commanded; by which true Ministers of Christ are to be known from salse Teachers.

Ind. ' How is Baptism administered?'

Miss. By dipping the Person under Water, or pouring or sprinkling Water upon him, at the same Time pronouncing these Words; I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Ind. 'What do you mean by being bap-'tized in the Name of the Father, Son, and

' Holy Ghoft?'

Miss. It is to shew that Men, who through the Corruption of their Nature are no more worthy to be called the Children of God, are, by the Washing of Regeneration, and Renewing of the Holy Ghost, born as it were again, made new Creatures, and thus admitted into a new Covenant, on Condition of their entering into a solemn Engagement, to believe and obey whatever is commanded in the Gof. pel of Christ, in the Name, or by the Author rity, of God the Father, who created them: of Godithe Son, who redeemed them; and of God the Holy Ghost, who enlightens and fanctifies them.

Ind. Are all Persons capable of Baptism? Miff. Yes: -Both Infants and grown Perfons.

Ind. 'What is required of those Persons who are grown to years of Difcretion, in order to their Baptism?

Miff. Faith, and Repentance; that is, to believe fincerely all the Doctrines of the Gofpel, and to repent of all former Sins.

Ind. 'But what if he full again into Sin?'

Miss. It is then necessary that he should restore himself to the Benefits of his Baptism by a Renewal of his Repentance.

Ind. But why are Infants baptized, who ' are not capable of these Qualifications?'

Mill. Tho' they are not capable of Faith and Repentance, they are capable of being admitted into Covenant with God, as the Children of the Jews were, by the especial Appointment of God, by Circumcision.

Ind. What is meant by washing with "Water fuch as are baptized?"

Miff. 'It is an outward Sign or Token, fignifying, and affuring sus, from Christ himself, that as our Bodies are made clean by Water, fo furely the Souls of all, who are true Believers Dial. Ind. Pray, Sir, explain this a little clearer and fuller to me.

Mill. You must know then, that-The walhing with Water, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghoft. confirms and feals to the Person thus washed. the Covenant of Repentance for the Remisfion of Sins, of which Covenant Christ is the Mediator; for by him only we have Access to the Father. - We are born in Sin, and liable to the Displeasure of our Maker; but, by embracing and complying with the Terms of the Gospel, we become Children of God, according to the new Covenant \; -and by outward sensible Signs or Sacraments are confirmed in the Hopes of eternal Life, the free Gift' of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord: -But then remember, If you do not endea-& Gal. iv. 7. Miss. It ought always to bring to your Remembrance, that you are a Christian: That you have a New Name, and New Powers. given you, on purpose that you may become a New Creature.

If you are indeed a Child of God you will think what a dutiful Child ought to do. You will fear his Displeasure, and trust in his Love; you will pray to him for what you want, and be thankful for what he gives; and you will own his Affection when he corrects; as well as when he smiles upon you.

That you will receive and believe the Truths and Message which God sent unto Menby his Son, which are contained in the Holy Scriptures of the New Testament, and summed up in what we call The Apostles Creed.

And lastly.

You must promise to use the utmost Diligence, and sincere Endeavours, to keep the Commands of God all the Days of your Life.

And here, as on one Hand I would not discourage you, so on the other I must tell you the Truth,—that these Things are not so easily performed as promised.

Ind. I remember what you told me concerning the Devil, and his evil Spirits;

-that they were such as rebelled against their Maker, and for that Sin were cast out of Heaven;—that their evil Nature leads them to tempt and draw Men from the true God;

—and that God permits them to try the and evil Examples, to lead us to forget or

Miss. I am glad you remember these things so well.—I must therefore now give you the necessary Advice, which our Lord Christ has given to all fuch as defign to become Chriftians;—that is,—to do what all wife Men will do, who have any thing of Moment to undertake,—' To fit down and confider, what it is to be a Christian *.'-Lest afterwards you expose yourself to Shame, and disgrace the Religion you profess, as too many do.

Ind. I heartily thank you, Sir, for this · Caution and Advice;—and beg you will let " me know the Sins I may be tempted to;

· —and how I may oppose and avoid falling

' into them.'

Miff. The Sins to which the Devil and his evil Spirits are most eagerly bent to tempt Men,—are first of all, to forfake the true and only God, to trust in themselves, and to fear and worship other Beings .- This is called I Do-LATRY, and provokes God to give fuch Perfons up-to a Mind void of Judgment,-to commit all Iniquity with Greediness t .- This is the fad Case of all the Nations of the World, who worship not the true God.—They are under the Power of Satan, his Angels, and his Agents; and so are you, until through the Favour and Mercy of God, and in the proper Exercise of Faith and Obedience, you are received into his Church and Family.

against, as a Sin more especially hated of God.

—If you are injured, or oppressed, you must leave your Cause to God:—He, and he only, knows what Punishment every Injury and Injustice require; and will call Offenders to an Account in his own proper Time.—It is true, Revenge is sweet and tempting to our corrupt Nature; but corrupt Nature you must not follow, if you resolve to be the Servantof God.

Another Sin, which the Devil tempts Mento, is Lying: HE IS THE FATHER OF LIES, and would have all Men like himself; because he knows that God has declared, that such as love and make Lies +, shall have no Inheritance in his Kingdom. This you will consider and resolve against, as you hope for the Favour of God.

There is another very dangerous Error, to which Men are strongly tempted;—that is, to be proud, and to have an high Conceit of their own Reason, Wisdom, and Ability to know and to do what is good, and best for themselves. Now this Pride and Self-Conceit takes Men off from their Dependance upon God, his Will and Word, by which alone we can know what we must do to be saved;—upon what Terms God will pardon a Sinner; and what will become of us when we die. Now nothing can provoke God more, than for us poor Creatures to think, that we want not his Help, his Grace, and Light.

+ Rev. xxii. 15.

Laftly;

Lastly, You must know,—that the Devil hath his Agents in every Place:—These are Men of wicked Lives, and wicked Principles;—who make a Mock of Sin; who fear not to blaspheme that God, who can destroy both Body and Soul in Hell.—Now the Spirit of God has assured us, that Conversation with such Persons will corrupt good Manners +.—Here then will be your Trial;—and you ought to consider before hand, whether the Pleasure of such Company should prevail with you to neglect the Counsel of God; which is, to avoid them as you would avoid your own Destruction:—Or whether you will run the Hazard of being ruined for ever, by conversing with such wicked Persons.

The next thing, which at your Baptism, you promise to renounce, is—' the World, and all its evil Customs and Manners;—as s also, all the Sinful Lusts of the Flesh, so that you will not follow nor be led by them.

Ind. I am afraid, Sir, that without your Instructions, I shall not understand this as I ought.

Miss. You will remember,— that this is not the World for which you were chiefly made; —nor must you look for any true and lasting Happiness here.—Nor will you meet with many things in the World which will tempt you with an appearance and shew of Happiness; and if you are not resolved to avoid

Ind. You will be so kind as to let me know what these are.'

Miss. The Spirit of God will tell you:—
They are 'The Lusts of the Flesh,'—that is,
—all finful, unchaste, and impure Pleasures, and whatever leads to such Sins.—Secondly,— 'The Lust of the Eyes,'—that is—all finful and covetous Desires, and Love of Riches.—
And, Thirdly,—'The Pride of Life †;'—or an excessive Value of themselves, accompanied with an unreasonable Desire of the Esteem of the World.

Ind. ' Pray let me know more particularly what are the Lusts " of the Flesh," which ' I am to resolve against.'

Miss. I will repeat to you the very Words of God, that you may be convinced I do not tell you any thing but what will be necessary to your Salvation.—Now these Works of the Flesh are manifest; that is, they may easily be known by any considering Person, the never so unlearned, to be displeasing to a good and holy God.—Such are Adultery, Whoredom, Idolatry, Witchcraft, Drunkenness, Hatred, Malice, Revenge, Strife, Seditions, Murders, Revellings $\frac{1}{2}$, and such-like.—Now however tempting many of these Sins may be,—you must sit down, consider, and resolve against them, or never hope for the Favour of God.

F

Ind.

Ind. 'You will now let me know what is

" meant by—" The Lust of the Eyes."

Mill. I told you before, that it is the eager and covetous Desire of Riches. you may be convinced how dangerous a Sin this is, you shall hear what Christ himself has faid, -That it is very hard for rich Men to be good Christians *; because they are so much exposed to many Evils and Temptations, fuch as these following:—They that have Riches are apt to love them too much,—to put their Trust in them, and to forget their Dependance upon God; to Lord it over and oppress their Inferiors;—and to make Provision for the Flesh, to Kulfil the Lusts thereof: - And this may be the true Reason, why our blessed Saviour fays it is so hard for a rich Man to enter into the Kingdom of God;—because, being exempted from all the Toil and Care of Life, he is apt to enter too far into the Pleasures of it, and to fay to bis Soul, Soul, take thine Ease, and enjoy the good Things before thee;—whereas our Portion here is Labour and Exercise, not full Enjoyment .-

The Business of our Salvation is a great Work, which cannot be effected without Diligence, and Zeal, and earnest Contention; but he that is unacquainted with Labour, will scarce take the Pains that is required, towards working out his Salvation, and making his Calling and Election sure.

Besides

Besides all these.—Great Wealth is often attended with such Cares as choak the Good * Seed sown in the Hearts of Men, that is, the holy Desires, and good Resolutions, which are wrought in Men by the Spirit of God, so that this good Seed becometh unfruitful.

And tho' Riches may be made use of to good Purposes, yet it will require a more than ordinary Grace of God so to use them;—which extraordinary Grace is seldom asked by, and therefore seldom given, to such whose Hearts are possessed with the Love of Riches.

Ind. One would conclude then,—that Christians ought not to desire Riches so eager as generally they do;—nor ought they who want them to think themselves unhappy or not beloved by God.

Miss. That is very true. And they who will not be convinced of these Truths, by what God has declared in his Word, will one Day be convinced by sad Experience, when it may be too late to do them any. Service.

Ind. 'Must then every Man who would' fave his Soul, renounce the Thoughts of " Riches.?

Miss. No: Riches may be used to many good Purposes. A great Apostle of Jesus Christ tells you how; — Charge (says he) them who are rich in this World, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain Riches, but in the Living God, who gives us Richly all

Miss. That you may not endeavour by unjust Ways to better your Condition, you will find these Words of Jesus Christ in his Gospel;—What will it prosit a Man if he should gain the whole World and lose his own Soul.

To moderate your Desires, consider that the more you have, the more you must account for.

To make you more contented, you must know, that Men are not happy, because they have a great deal, but because God gives them Power to enjoy what they have, be that more or less.

Let this be ever in your Mind, that Sin is the worst of all Evils:—For all other Evils will have an End, at farthest when you die; but Sin will make you miserable for ever.

Remember that you are naturally inclined to Sin, that the Devil will tempt you to it, and that God only can fave you.

And then you will never trust in your own

Strength, but in the living God.

To him therefore you will constantly pray for Help; and if you draw nigh to him, he will draw nigh to you +.

And yet you must not expect God's Assistance without using your own Endeavours; for that is to tempt the Lord.

If Sinners entice you, you must not consent unto them ‡: For they are the Devil's Instruments.

Ind. 'You will now be pleased to explain to me THAT PRIDE OF LIFE, which a Chris' tian renounces at his Baptism.'

Miss. By the Pride of Life is meant,—that great Opinion, which through the Corruption of Nature, all People are apt to have of themfelves;—with an eager, restless, and immoderate Desire after every Thing that may distinguish them from others, which may set them high in the Esteem of the World.

Now this Pride of Life is the Occasion of many Evils, which are highly displeasing to God, and must be resolved against by every good Christian.

The Evils are these that follow:—They who are under the Power of this Vice, are more concerned for the Esteem of the World, than how to please God:—They are therefore too often tempted to support the good Opinion of the World, by laying that out on Vanity, which should be the Support of their Families, or of the Poor:—And they are too apt to despise the Poor, as if they were not Creatures of the same Kind with themselves.—They look upon all

Ind. Since this Pride of Life and Heart is so natural to us, what can cure us of it?

Miss. Nothing but the Grace of God, and possessing your Heart with Things of greater Moment.

Consider, that you are liable to Eternal Misery:—That your great Business in this World is to prepare for a happy DEATH, and the DAY OF JUDGMENT; and you will be very indifferent about several things, which you now take too much Pleasure in.

For which Reason you will neither study to be vain, and foolish in your Dress, nor singular and conceited in your Opinions, but imitate such as are sober-minded; as knowing, That the Ornament of a meek and bumble Spirit I is in-therefore be your great Concern.

And then, if you remember,—that you have nothing that you have not received *,—nothing but what you must give an Account for, you will have more Reason to fear, than be proud of your Advantages.

Ind. Well, Sir, I see sufficient Reason, why every one, who purposes to become a Christian, should renounce the Devil, and all bis Works, -the Vanities of the World, -and the Lusts of the Flesh .- I am also convinced of the great Advantage those will reap, who are able to overcome these Difficulties.—

But then I am discouraged exceedingly, when I see so many, who have undertaken to be Christians upon these Conditions, in a manner renounce that Religion afterwards, —either finding it impossible to observe these Conditions, or thinking that they are not fo very necessary to Salvation as you fay they are,

Miss. Believe not this, because of our saying so only; but because the God of Truth and Mercy hath so said, who would have all Mencome to the Knowledge of the Truth, and requires nothing to be done or avoided by Christians, but what is absolutely necessary to their Salvation;—and which he will enable them to perform, if it is not plainly their own rault.

As

As for fuch as call themselves Christians, but do not the things which Christ has commanded, you must not judge of the Christian Religion by them, but by your own Sense, and Want of a Redeemer .- The Christians you speak of have never truly considered the extreme Danger they are in ;—nor what the Son of God has declared: -That it were better for them, that a Mill-stone was banged about their Necks, and they cast into the Sea, than they should be the Occasion of Offence to well-disposed People +.—And indeed none ferve the Defigns of Satan more than such fort of Christians: -and who have no other Choice, but a true and timely Repentance, or everlasting Misery. ----And Repentance, one would hope, they would chuse, if they would consider the great Patience of God, which ought to fill their Eyes with Tears and their Hearts with that Shame and Sorrow, which is the Work of true Repentance.

Do but remember what I have told you before, that a true Faith in God, and in his Word, will enable you to overcome all the Difficulties you can possibly meet with.

It is for this Reason that every one, before he takes upon himself the Christian Profession, is obliged to give an Account of his Faith, without which it is impossible to please God.

DIALOGUE XII

The Articles of the Christian Faith practically explained.

INDIAN.

OU told me, Sir, when I left you last,

That without Faith no Man can please God*, nor ought to be admitted into the Society of Christians,—I am therefore now, come to learn of you, What that Faith is,— which Christians profess to believe, before they are baptized.

Missionary. You must know then, that there are many things which Christians believe, and which you will know hereaster, when you hear the HOLY SCRIPTURES read and explained.—In the mean time there are certain Truths necessary to be known and believed, before you can be baptized.

Ind. 'How shall I know what these Truths are?'

Miss. For the Benefit of young Beginners, and for such as cannot read or remember many things, Truths of the greatest Moment are contained in this following short Account, which we call THE CREED, or the ARTICLES OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH; and I must prevail with you so to fix them in your Memory,

* Heb. xi. 6.

An INSTRUCTION Dial. 12. 116 that you may not forget them as long as you live: For the Belief of these will be a powerful Means to make you boly, righteous and happy.

The CREED, or The ARTICLES of the CHRISTIAN FAITH.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth: -And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, -who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, -born of the Virgin Mary, - fuffered under Pontius Pilate, -was crucified, dead and buried;—he descended into Hell; -the third Day he rose again from the Dead; -he afcended into Heaven; -and fitteth at the Right-hand of God the Father Almighty; -from thence he shall come to judge the Quick and the Dead.

Communion of Saints;—the Forgiveness of Sins;—the Resurrection of the Body;—and the Life everlasting. Amen.

Ind. 'I will endeavour to learn them by 'Heart;—and I hope I shall remember them as long as I live.—And now I shall be very thankful, if you will shew me,—How the Knowledge and Belief of these things are necessary to make Men good, as you very justly say, all Christians ought to be?'

Miss. Remember then,—That to believe in God, is not only to profess, that there is such a glorious Being, who made the World, and all things in it;—but also to believe whatever he hath made known to us, either concerning himself, or the Duties we owe to Him, ourfelves, and others; which is all contained in the Holy Scriptures, written by the Inspiration of God*, who can neither be deceived, nor deceive us.

Now in these Scriptures he hath made known to us,—That he never left bimself without Witness +; but hath given sufficient Proofs of his Almighty Power, Wisdom, Justice, Goodness, and Truth, in all Ages of the World.—He hath made known to us,—that by bis Almighty Power he created the World and all things in it;—and that, by bis most wonderful

* 2 Tim. iii. 6. + Acts xiv. 17.

Wisdom,

Wisdom, he has governed and preserved it ever fince it was made.

That he is the Author of our Being, and of all the Good we do, or ever can enjoy *.

That he is perfectly Holy, and requires all his Servants to be Holy †.

That he sees us where-ever we are, and whatever we do, so that if we pray to Him we are sure to be heard; if we sin we are sure to be punished ||.

For his Power is mighty to reward his faithful Servents, and punish the Disobedient 1.

That he is just in all his Ways; commandeth nothing but what is for the Good of his Creatures: and never punisheth, but when they truly deserve his Displeasure §.

That he is Long-suffering, and ready to receive all that are sensible of their Misery 4.

And, That he is a faithful God; whatever he has promised, will certainly be performed; whatever he has threatened, will surely come to pass ||||.

For he governeth all things, both in Heaven and Earth; and nothing is too hard for him that he thinks fit to do II.

Now the Belief of these Truths is necessary to give us such worthy Thoughts of the Great and Glorious God, as may humble us in our own Eyes;—and make us fearful of offending, and

Ind. Why is God called the FATHER?

Miss. Because he is the Maker and Preserver of all Creatures, which, with the Care and Affection of a Father, he watches over continually.

Ind. ' Why then do Evils befal Men?'

Miss. Very often to punish them, and tobring them to Repentance; but especially to wean our Hearts from being too fond of this Life; and that we may think of, delight in, and prepare for a better.

Ind. ' Doth God govern the Seasons? Do ' not Summer and Winter, Spring and Harvest, return certainly at their appointed Time?

Miss. —They do:—But then, to put Men in mind that they depend upon God only, and not upon the Seasons, for their daily Bread, the Summer sometimes returns without its usual Heat, and the Harvest without its Fruitfulness t.

they are to be known and believed, in order to make Men fear before him,—and to love

Miss. But you have not perhaps confidered—what little Comfort the Belief of these things will be to a Man who knows himself to be a Sinner, and that as such he must needs be under the Displeasure of this holy, just, and powerful God;—and yet knows not how to be restored to his Favour.

Ind. 'That is indeed a perplexing, tormenting Thought;—and I remember what you told me before,—That until God was pleased to let Men know upon what Terms

he would accept of their Repentance, and pardon them, the wifest Men on Earth could onot find it out, so as to make the Minds of Sinners easy.

Miss. This will convince you of the great Blessing of Christianity,—and the great Goodness and Mercy of God in delivering Mankind from the fear of Death, and what will certainly follow;—which without the Gospel was the Torment of Sinners, and kept them in Bondage all their Life long *.—How God has delivered us from this Bondage, you will understand in the next Article of the Christian Faith.

Miss. That I will do.—But I must be obliged to repeat some Truths of Moment, which I have told you before:—That after the First Parents of Mankind had lost their Maker's Favour by their Disobedience, and brought Sin, and Misery, and Death, into the World,—God in great Pity promised them a Saviour; one who would satisfy his Justice, for the Dishonour done to him by their Sins, and would restrain the Power of that evil Spirit, which had tempted them to so great a Sin.

Now this promised Saviour is the very Person, in whom we Christians profess to believe, when we say,—We believe in Jesus Christ, the only Son of God our Lord.

For when the World was grown exceeding wicked, and ignorant of the only true God, this his Son took upon himself the Nature of Man, by being born of a Virgin, that as a Man he might be capable of suffering for the Sins of Men for which from the Beginning of the World he had engaged to suffer +, to save us from being lost for ever.

Accordingly, the Rulers and the Generality of the People of the Jews, amongst whom he was born and lived, being grown very corrupt and wicked, did not only reject Him, and the Message of Salvation that he brought them from God, and the Holy Rules of Living which he assured them were necessary to please God; but they also used him most barbarously, and at last prevailed with Pontius Pilate, the Roman Governor, to put him to Death, even against bis Conscience; - which Death the Son of God submitted to; for be could easily have delivered bimself out of the Hands of his Enemies .- Now. by willingly offering himself to Death, he became a Sacrifice acceptable to God for the Sins of the whole World; - and restored Mankind to the Favour of their Maker, upon most reasonable Conditions.—And that all such as do believe in him might be affured of this—God raised bim the third Day from the Dead, and shewed bim openly.—And by this most powerful Proof—declared bim to be bis Son;—and that whatever he had said, or done, or taught, was agreeable to his Will and Appointment.

After this, in the Sight of many, He ascended into Heaven, and was set at the Right-hand of God, having all Power granted him for the Benefit of his Church, to give eternal Life to all such as shall believe in, and obey him t.—And last, We believe that this our Saviour shall come again at the End of the World, to judge the Living and the Dead.

Ind. You will now be so good as to shew me,—what Effects this Belief ought to have upon those that know these things.

Miss. You cannot but perceive the powerful Influence, which the Belief of these things must needs have upon every thoughtful Christian.

In the next place,—we receive Jesus Christ for our Lord;—we are therefore no longer our own Masters;—but we are to do what he hath commanded.—Nor must we pretend to serve two Masters, that is, our Lord, and our owns displeasing it is to God, and what Punishment it must have, if it be not repented of.

But then, for our Comfort, we have this Assurance, that tho' our Sins be never so great, they cannot be greater than the Price the Son of God has paid for our Pardon, if we do repent, and return to our Duty.

By the Resurrection of Christ, and his As. cension into Heaven, our Belief in him is confirmed beyond any Doubt;—and he having all Power with God-(for that is the Meaning of fitting at his Right-hand) he is able to do for us more than we can ask or think.

You believe that be died, was buried, and rose the third Day from the Dead.

Then you are fure, that God can raise the Dead; and therefore we hope, both for ourfelves and Friends, that we shall live again: For them that sleep in Jesus, shall God bring

If God raised Christ from the Dead, then are we most fure, that whatever he taught was true; -- whatever he promised, will be performed;—whatever he threatened, will come to pass;—Otherwise God would not have raised him from Death to Life;—for that would have been to have deceived his Creatures.—

And will not this awaken you, and make you seriously prepare for that great Day, by a

Can you think of Judgment, and Wrath to come, and will not this terrify you from following your Sins?

If the Secrets of all Hearts will then be disclosed, will not you be afraid to indulge such Thoughts, and such Designs, as will not bear the Light, and Judgment of God?

And, above all, consider that you must then be judged, not as the World judgeth of things, but by the Word of God; by which, therefore, you must resolve to live, and not according to the soolish Opinions, and sinful Customs of the World.

Lastly,—This belief hath Comforts as well as Terrors; for the we shall indeed be called to a strict Account, yet we are sure to be heard with Favour, and treated with Compassion, if our Case will bear it:—For He who knows our Insirmities,—He that died to save us, is to be our Judge.

In one Word, you may fee, that THE SON OF GOD has given Christians the greatest Reafon to love and adore him, that they might have the greatest Reason to obey him, and trust in him as their LORD and REDEEMER, and by doing so, by him be made happy for ever.

And this is the Reason why you see so many even among Christians,—upon whom neither the Fear of an Almighty and just God,—nor the Love of Christ his Son, who has saved them, has any Power to keep them in their Duty.—And altho' they have had the Holy Spirit to direct, santtify, and govern them, yet him they grieved by their wilful Sins, and forced him to forsake them, so that they commit all Iniquity with Greediness to

to explain

Miss. That I will do .- But I must be obliged to repeat some Truths of Moment, which I have told you before :- That after the FIRST PARENTS OF MANKIND had lost their Maker's Favour by their Disobedience, and brought Sin, and Misery, and Death, into the World,— God in great Pity promised them a Saviour; one who would fatisfy his Justice, for the Dishonour done to him by their Sins, and would restrain the Power of that evil Spirit, which had tempted them to so great a Sin.

Now this promised Saviour is the very Perfon, in whom we Christians profess to believe, when we fay, --- We believe in Jesus Christ, the only Son of God our Lord.

For when the World was grown exceeding wicked, and ignorant of the only true God, this his Son took upon himself the Nature of Man, by being born of a Virgin, that as a Man he might be capable of suffering for the Sins of Men for which from the Beginning of the World he had engaged to suffer t, to save us from being lost for ever.

Accordingly, the Rulers and the Generality of the People of the Jews, amongst whom he was born and lived, being grown very corrupt and wicked, did not only reject HIM, and the MES-SAGE of Salvation that he brought them from God, and the Holy Rules of Living which he assured them were necessary to please God; but they also used him most barbarously, and at

I have already shewn, that, before JESUS CHRIST afcended into Heaven,-He promised his Disciples to send another Divine Person, the Holy Ghost, to supply his Place and Presence with them. - Accordingly, this HOLY SPIRIT descended upon them in a most wonderful manner, and enabled them to speak. all Languages, as also to remember the Truths which Christ had taught, and the Works which he had done, and to write them truly for the Benefit of Mankind.

He also assisted and directed the Apostles of Christ to lay the Foundation of the Society of Christians, which are now spread over the whole Earth, and are called the Holy Ca-THOLICK CHURCH, because it consists of Christians of all Nations and Languages, who ought all of them to be holy. All Christians, thus dedicated to God, are one Body, under one Head, THE LORD CHRIST;

Ind. Will you, Sir, now be pleased to make me understand, what are the natural

Fruits of such a Faith, and what such a Be-

Miss. Remember then,—That the Holy Ghost is he, to whom, with the Father and the Son, all Christians are dedicated in Baptism;—that it is this Holy Spirit who is to sit Men for Heaven and Happiness;—which he does,—by convincing all such as are disposed for eternal Life, and will attend to his holy Motions,—by convincing them that they are Sinners, that, as such, they stand in Need of a Redeemer:—As also, by putting into their Hearts the Fear of God,—a Love for his Laws,—and a serious Concern for their Souls;—by restraining them from Evil,—and changing their Dispositions from Evil to Good.

Ind. But it is plain, Sir, that this Holy Spirit doth not thus govern and direct all Christians.

Miss. That is too true;—but then, as I told you before, the Fault is purely in themselves.

They neglect to use the Means God has bestowed upon them, and the Graces he has provided for them; and then they become useless, and be often takes them away †.—Too many grieve the Holy Spirit by their evil Deeds, and force him to forsake them:—And very many,

And here take notice of a Truth I now tell you, that every Soul of Man is under the Influence either of good or evil Spirits:—But then these good Spirits may be provoked by our evil Lives to forsake us; and then the evil Spirits are always ready to take Possession of such as they find forsaken of God, and not under his immediate Protection.

Miss. Every Christian must keep in his Mind the Promise he made when he was baptized; and, in every thing wherein he fails, he ought forthwith to beg Forgiveness of God, lest, continuing in Sin wilfully, he become a Slave to Satan and his Angels, instead of being a Servant of God.

I shall only mention another Blessing which we receive from the Holy Ghost, and the Effect it ought to have upon us.—It is from him we have the Holy Scriptures, which are therefore very truly called the Word of God;—and the Word of Our Salvation.—
These Scriptures, therefore, every one who would continue in the Favour of God, must Miff. It is plain from the Holy Scripture. That it was the Design of our Lord Jesus Christ to deliver to Mankind the whole Will of God, so far as their Salvation was concerned in it.—All these things which were thus revealed, is called the Christian Religion:-And this Religion was taught to the World by our Saviour, and by his Apostles; and this Religion was put into Writing by inspired Men, and is now extant amongst us in the Books of the New Testament.—It was our Lord's Defign, that all who should embrace this Religion of his, should be united among themselves, and with this Head Jesus Christ, and so become One Body by the Means of One HOLY SPIRIT, which should actuate and influence them.—And it was our Lord's Defign, that all Believers, all that professed his Religion, should be admitted to the Participation of this Spirit, and so be made Members of this Common Body, by the Sacrament of BAP-TISM, and receive continual Influence from the same Spirit, by eating and drinking in the Sacrament of the Communism of his Body and Blood; or what we call the LORD's SUPPER.

By the Church then is meant the whole Multitude of those Persons, whether Jews or Gentiles, that doembrace and profess the Christian Religion, and are join'd together by the Means of these Sacraments, in one Body or Society, under one Head Jesus Christ.—This Church was to extend throughout all the World, and to be made up of all Nations.

Ind. ' Pray what is meant by the Catholick' Church?'

Miss. By Catholick is meant Universal, so that whenever we name or speak of the Catholick Church, we mean by those Words, the whole Multitude of Christians throughout the World, that profess the common Faith, and enjoy the Administration of the Word and Sacraments.—All these People wherever they live, or by what Name soever they call themselves, make up together that one Body of Christ, which we call the Catholick Church.

The Church is called holy, because every Member of that Society obliges himself, by the gracious Assistance of Gods Holy Spirit,—to be holy.—He that is not so, or does not immediately repent, and become such, is but a rotten Member, and is in Danger of being cut off.

As to the Communion of Saints:—As every Person owes something to the Society of which he is a Member, so especially in the Society of Christians, every one is bound, by the Laws of the Gospel, to use the Talents and Advantages which God has given him, whether of Knowledge and Learning, or Power, or Riches, or Grace, for the Good of the whole Body:— To pray for them;—to affift those that are in Want;—to instruct the Ignorant, and them that are out of the Way;—and to study the things that make for Peace, and for mutual Edification †.

Ind. 'You told me before, that in the Church of Christ there is a Promise of THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

Miss. And a mighty Blessing sure it is,— That Men, who on account of their many Sins, are liable to the Displeasure of God, may be assured, that in the Church of Christ they will obtain the Forgiveness of their Sins upon most merciful Conditions;—upon a true Repentance, and Return to their Duty; —and a ready Disposition to forgive others, as they themselves do hope for Forgiveness from God.

THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY, and AN EVERLASTING LIFE AFTER DEATH—These are Truths which Jesus Christ has made known to his Church:—And they are as certain as God himself is true. And that they may make the greater Impression upon your Heart, I will repeat to you the very Words of Christ:—'The Hour is coming, in which all that are in the Graves shall hear his Voice and come forth; they that have done Good,

Ind. Well, Sir, I fee plainly the Reason why every one who desires to be a Christian,

' should believe these Truths.'

Miss. These things are true, and will at last be found to be so, whether Men believe them or not.—And if a Man is lost for ever, for want of giving Credit to them, or for not considering them, it will signify little whether he was called a Christian, or an Heathen.

Ind. Indeed one would wonder, that for many Christians, who know these things, can be so easy, and so careless of their Sal'vation.'

Miss. Be you careful for yourself, and continue so, when you are a Christian.—In the mean time, I tell you again,—the true Reasons, why so many among Christians forget the Promises they made at their Baptism, are these:—Through the Corruption of Nature they fall into Sin;—they do not what they ought to do, that is, repent and turn to their Duty immediately;—and continuing in Sin, these Truths are uneasy to them, because they put them in mind of their Ingratitude to THE GOD who made them; -to GOD THE SON. who died for them; - and to GOD THE HOLV GHOST, whom they had grieved by obstinately perfifting in a vicious Course of Life.— They will not confider, that without Holiness, i. e. without keeping the Commands of God, and doing his Will, no Man can be faved: and, besides this, these Truths put them in said of an endless Life of Happiness, which they are not disposed to prepare for,—and of a miserable Eternity, which they have Reason to fear above all things:—Therefore they frive to forget the Truths they have known and believed: - and if the Goodness and Longfuffering of God does not lead them to Repentance, - " These Articles of their Faith will. " be the Articles of their Condemnation.", Truths are most powerful Motives, where they are known and believed, to oblige Mento keep the holy Will and Commands of God.

INDIAN.

YOU told me, Sir, that my believing the Truths of the Gospel will not quality me to become a Christian, unless I pro' mise to obey the Will of God, and endea-

Miff.

Miss. I told you the Truth:—For althouse firmly believe, that it is only on the Account of what his Son Jesus Christ has done and suffered for us, that God will pardon our Sins, and receive us into Favour;—yet it is on this Condition, that we repent and forsake our Sins and obey his Commands.

Ind. I hope you will continue your kind Instructions, and let me know what his Will and Commands are.'

Miss. We learn from the Holy Scriptures. that when almost all Mankind had lost the Knowledge of the true and only God, and the Way of worshipping him, which he had appointed, it pleased him to make himself and his Will known again, at first to one Man, whose Name was Abrabam*, and afterwards to his most numerous Posterity, after he had convinced them, that he was the true and only God, by many amazing Miracles and Judgments upon their Oppressors, and by delivering them out of a most cruel Bondage and Slavery.—After which, in order to preserve this Knowledge among them, and to keep them from being corrupted, he gave them certain Commands, in a manner so dreadful, and astonishing, that they could not but be convinced, that they were the Commands of a most holy, and an all-powerful God, in difobeying of whom they were fure of exposing themselves to the greatest punishments.

I. I am the Lord thy God.— Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.

Ind. 'Why do these Commands begin with these Words,—I am the Lord thy God?'

Miss. That we may prepare our Hearts to receive his Commands, with the greatest Concern, Attention, and Reverence.

When the Lord of Heaven and Earth, of Life, and Death, speaks, sure his Creatures will bear, and obey, for Conscience-sake—that is—because God commands them—

The full Import of this grand First Command is,—That we should have the Lord for our God; and that we should have no other besides him.

Ind. 'What is it to have the Lord for our God?'

Ind. How ought we to think of God?'

Miff. As of an Eternal and All-perfett Being, the MARR and PRESERVER of all things, and our most Gracious and Merciful FATHER, in and through his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

You are forbidden by this Law to depend upon your self, upon your own Labour and Care for Prosperity,—upon your Friends for Security; upon your Wealth for Happiness:—For these are Blessings, only when God is pleased to make them so.

You are also, by this Command, forbidden to murmur at God's Dealings with yourself or others; for be is Lord of All.

Miss. -No, there is not; nor does this Commandment at all suppose that there is. But, when these Commandments were delivered, the World generally believed in, and worshipped, other Gods besides the LORD, who was almost utterly forgotten by them.-And therefore it was highly necessary, that the Great God of Heaven and Earth should, in the First Place, caution his People, and, in them, all future Generations, against this Folly, Impiety, and Idolatry,

This following was the Second Command:

Earth: Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them; for I the Lord thy Godama jealous God, and visit the Sins of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me; and shew Mercy unto Thousands, in them that love me and keep my Commandments.

Ind. 'You will be fo good as to let me know the Meaning and Reason of this Command.'

Miss. You must know then, through the Suggestions of the Devil, most Nations had been led into a vile Custom of representing and worshipping God by Images; by which they came to have mean and unworthy Thoughts of the Divine Majesty, as if he were like any of his Creatures.

Now, by this Command, God has forbid all that love and fear him, even to attempt to represent him by any Image or Picture, or to worship him before such; and this on Pain of his most high Displeasure upon them, and their Posterity, who shall disobey this Command;—promising an especial Blessing to them and Miss. You are to worship God, after a Manner suitable to his Spiritual Nature; -God is a Spirit, and they that worship him must worship bim in Spirit and in Truth *: - That is to fay, -with Sincerity, Love, and Purity of Heart:with the Inward Devotion and Fervor of the Mind, without which the Outward Exercises of Prayer and Adoration will be of no Worth.

Ind. ' How must I behave myself in God's

Miss. Confider seriously—That you go to Church to alk fuch things, which you cannot want without being miserable,—

Therefore your Behaviour must be such, as may be apt to procure in yourfelf and others a great Regard for God, and an humble Opinion of yourfelf. —

You must with great Humility ask God's Pardon and Bleffing, and praise him for his

You must carefully attend to what is read and explained to you out of the Scripture— For it is the Word of God.

And then you will return home with God's Bleffing upon your Self, your Family, and your

Miss. Yes.—It shews us, That the Piety of Parents shall be remembered for the Good of their Children, to many Generations:

That the best Portion Children can receive from their Parents, is God's Bleffing:

And that such Parents as are not careful to love God, and to keep his Commandments, do leave Calamities to their Posterity.

The Third-Command is this:

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

The Intent of this Command is,—to preferve the great Regard which all Men ought to have for God, forbidding them to speak of him, or even to use his Holy Name, without Fear and Consideration.

Ind. What are the necessary Occasions which Men have to make of the Name of God ?'

Ind. 'Why are People obliged to take an Oath before a Magistrate?'.

Miss. It is to put an End to Strife amongst Men; ——it being God's Pleasure, that the Truth should appear, and Justice be done to every one.—Now the likelieft Way to come to the Truth is this,—To put Men in mind, when they are going to fwear,—That they are in the Presence of that Great God, who has declared, - That a Curse shall enter into the House of him that sweareth falfly by his Name to confume it *. Which is, furely sufficient to oblige every Man, who believe and fears God, to speak the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth, as they hope to escape that Curse, and God's Vengeance.—As for those who out of an evil Custom do swear or curse, blaspheme, or speak lightly of God, fuch Persons have no other Choice, but Repentance and Amendment, or Damnatica. And where these Sins are become common, and are not punished, that Nation and People may expect public and beavy Judgments to fall upon them †.

more dreadful than Words can express; however common it is, and little regarded.

Ind. What are we commanded in this · Law?'

Miss. To speak of God, and of religious Matters, after such a serious Manner, that People may learn to have the most devout and reverent Thoughts of Him, and his Service.

We come now to the Fourth Command:

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-Day; Six Days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the Seventh Day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt do no Manner of Work, thou, and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy Man-fervant, and thy Maid-servant, thy Cattle, and the Stranger that is within thy Gates;—for in Six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and rested the Seventh Day; Wherefore the Lord bleffed the Seventh Day, and hallowed it.

Ind. 'You will be fo good as to fliew me the Reason and Intent of this Command.'

Miss. Remember what I told you before, —That after God had made this World in Six Days, and Man the Governor of it, he ordained by a perpetual Law, That the Seventh Day should be set apart, and kept holy in Memory and Honour of him, the Creator, and Maker of all Things.

Now, in Process of Time, this Command, through the Corruption of Man's Nature, became neglected, and the true God forgotten, and Wickedness and Idolatry increased every where, which is the miserable Case of very many Nations to this Day.

But when God separated the People of Israel from the rest of the Nations, he renewed this Command, so that the Knowledge of the only true God, the great Creator of Heaven and Earth, has been preserved among them through all Ages.

Ind ' Do Christians observe that Day?'

Miss. Christians do, according to the Design of the Law, observe One Day in Seven, which we call the Lord's Day, because on that Day the Lord Christ our Redeemer rose from the Dead;—And on the same Day sent down the Holy Ghost, to guide his Church unto the World's End;—The Apostles of Jesus Christ therefore set apart that Day, calling it—The Lord's Day. Ind. ' Why are we bid in an especial Manner to keep this Law?'

Miss. Because if this Holy Day should be forgotten, all Religion would soon be forgotten with it, and the very Knowledge of the true God (as it is in many Nations) would be lost amongst us, were not this Day set apart, and Persons appointed to bring to our Remembrance Truths of the highest Consequence both to our present and everlassing Interests.

Lastly,—That it is purely by God's Permission, that we prosper in our daily Labours;
—That therefore we ought to serve him truly all our Days.

Ind. ' How is the Lord's Day profan'd?'

Miss. By neglecting to go to the Place where the Great God is publickly worshipped; by neglecting Family and private Devotion; by not meditating upon, and recollecting in private, what we are taught, or pray for, in public;—by Idleness, and trisling Conversation;—unnecessary Business, and Journies;—and by vain Sports and Gaming, unbecoming the Seriousness of the Day, and of Christianity.

Ind. It is well, if too many Christians will not think this a hard Command, and neglect it, when they must lose so much Time, in which they might increase their Wealth, or enjoy their Pleasures.

Miss. They must be Christians then of very little Knowledge and Faith;—and do not consider the Power and the Promises of God, and of his Son *, to make them sufficient Amends for the Loss of their own and their Servants Labour. And especially when the Respite of One Day in Seven would enable their Servants to perform the Business of the other Six Days with more Chearfulness and Vigour.

The PRAYER.

Love, give me Grace that I may never forget Thee, nor thy glorious Perfections; but that I may ferve Thee according to thy Word, in Sincerity and godly Fear;—That I may never mention thy facred Name without Reverence;—That I may not spend thy Holy Day in Vanity and Idleness, nor in a customary Attendance at thy House only;—but that I may serve Thee with my Soul as well as with my Body, through Jesus Christ our Lord. INDIAN.

AM come to desire you to explain to me those Commands that relate to my ' Duty to my Neighbour.'

Missionary. The Fifth Command is this:

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy Days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Ind. 'I beg you will explain these Commands to me, and let me know the Design of them.'

Miss. The Design of this Fifth Command is,—to teach us, from our very Childhood, to show Honour and Obedience to our Parents; that when we grow up, we may know how to respect and honour all who are our Betters;—that Subjects may honour their Governors;—Servants may obey their Masters; and all may love and esteem their Spiritual Pastors and Teachers.—And the Peace and Good of the World do so much depend on the Discharge of these Obligations, that God for Encouragement hath promifed an especial Blessing to such as shall observe them faithfully.

Ind. 'Why is the Duty of Children to their Parents only mentioned?'

Miss. Because that is a Duty first learned, and best understood:—Children very naturally love their Parents, and are generally kept in Subjection by them; and therefore when they are commanded so to bonour Others, as they do their Parents, they easily know what That meaneth, and will more readily pay the Duties owing to all their Superiors.

Ind. ' How must I bonour my Father and · Mother?

Miss. You must in all lawful things chearfully submit to them, be careful not to grieve them by stubborn or evil Courses:—You must shew them all due Respect, and thankfully acknowledge their Kindness to you;—bear with their Insirmities,—bide their Failings,—supply their Wants,—and pray for their present and everlasting Happiness:—Which if you do, in Obedience to the Command of God, you may expect to live to be a happy Parent yourself.

Ind. 'What would then be my Duty?'

Miss. The Duty of Parents is, to bring up their Children in Obedience, and in the Fear of God;—To take care that they be instructed in true Religion;—To provide for them by all lawful Ways;—To admonish and correct them when they say or do things which are amiss;

Ind. 'What is the Duty of Servants?'

Miss. The Duty of Servants is, to be obedient to their Masters, diligent in their Business;

—Not with Eye-service, as Men-pleasers.—
But to use the same Industry and Integrity in their Master's Absence, as they would do if he was present with them;—To be as careful of their Master's Goods, as if they were their own;—Neither wasting them, nor suffering Others to do so:—To be no Tale-bearers; but above all, to be bonest, not only for Conscience, but for Credit's sake;—Deceit and Pilsering, and Stealing, being abominable Qualities, never forgotten by others, and very hardly lest off by those who give Way to them.

Ind. 'What is our Duty towards them that have the Rule and Government over us?'

Miss. Your Duty is to obey them, not only for Fear of Punishment, but for Conscience-sake *;—Not to speak Evil of them, but to shew them all becoming Respect;—And to pray that God may bless them, and make them. Instruments of great Good to the World.

Miss. To respect them *, for their Master's fake, and for their Work's sake. Your Duty it is to attend at the public Service of the Church, and hearken to their Instructions;—and to pray that God may bless their Labours.

Ind. Whom else must I honour?"

Miff. All that are your Superiors, by reafon of their greater Age,—their Learning,—their Places and Stations,—to whom you must shew a just Regard.

Ind. 'What is the Meaning of the Pro-'mife which God hath made to fuch as keep 'this Command?'

Miss. That God will bless them in the Way they shall go, which will be a Means of prolonging their Lives:—On the Contrary,—He that despiseth his Father and Mother the Ravens shall pick out his Eyes *;—that is, this Sin has a Tendency to lead Men into such Practices as will bring them to an unnatural, untimely, and ignominious Death.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

This is the Sixth Command;—and is intended to fecure the Life of every Man from the Malice, Revenge, and Violence of others.—This is a Sin most odious to God, and a sure Vengeance has been frequently observed to follow those who send Men out of the World, by a violent Death, sooner than God and Nature intended.—And for the same Reason we are not to shorten Mens Lives by Oppression, Injustice, or any other evil Dealings,—for a Man may be murder'd, and his Heart broken, by these, as well as by Violence;—as also by Intemporance, Gluttony, and Drunkenness.—By these we may shorten our own, or other Peoples Lives, which is absolutely forbidden by this Precept.

Self-murder is also forbid by this Command. For consider, That the Great God, the Maker of all things, has assumed to Himself the Power and Lordship of Life and Death,—'I kill, and I ^{*} Prov. xxx. 17.

: make alive *.'—'Tis God fends us into the World, and He expects that we should wait his Will, to fend us out of it.—He has the only Right to determine the Time of our Continuance in it, and when we shall remove out of it: -And it is a gross Invasion of that Di. vine Right and Prerogative, for us to appoint the Time for ourselves, without his Order, and contrary to the Rules He has given us for our Government.—As this Action is highly criminal in the Sight of God, so remember, that whoever is fo hardy as to commit ic. fends himself out of the World with the Guilt of a wilful Sin.—And a wilful Sinner, thus dying impenitent, has no bopes of Salvation: And this is a dreadful Confideration.

There are several other Practices, too common in the World, which have a Tendency to this Sin of Murder, and which, in some measure, partake of the Guilt of it, tho' the Sinner himself does not intend Violence against his own Life: Particularly that pernicious and fatal Custom of drinking Rum, Gin, and other Spirituous Liquors, which kills, every Year, many Thousands of the lower Part of Mankind. This is a Practice which you must abhor, as you would do Poison itself; for so it actually is in its Consequence. It is highly to be wished, that the Governors of every Country would have a strict Eye to the bold Encroachments of this terrible Destroyer, by

Ind. 'What is the Duty required in this Commandment?'

Miss. It is your Duty, as much as in you lieth,—To live peaceably with all Men*;—To avoid the Company of angry, passionate and contentious People;—To deliver the Oppressed †;—To be merciful to such as are in Misery;—To forbear and forgive one another ‡;—And be well pleased with the Welfare and Happiness of all Men.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

This is the Seventh Command. In order to understand the Reason of this, you must know that God, at the Beginning of the World, did appoint Marriage, for the Increase of Mankind, and for the Society, Help, and Comfort of a Man and his Wife.—Now you cannot but observe the great Goodness of God in commanding, on Pain of his Displeasure, That neither the Man, nor his Wife, should be unfaithful to the Marriage-bed;—which would occasion infinite Troubles and Calamities in Families, and, after all, a very bitter Repentance, or Damnation.—By Virtue of this Command we are likewise bound to abstain from Fornication, and from all manner of Lewdness, Wantonness, and Debauchery; from all lascivi. ous Actions, immodest Words, and impure Desires, and whatever else has any Tendency towards the heinous Vices of Whoredom and Adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

This is the Eighth Command:—And is intended by a Righteous God, to secure to every Man what is his own;—He having declared, That a Curse shall enter into the House of a Thief and a Robber, even to consume it *; and which is worst of all, such Persons must not expect to go to Heaven, but to Hell.

Ind. ' How is this Command further transgrefs'd?'

Miss. Not only by Thest which is a base Vice, and openly abhorred;—but by Oppression, Deceit, Concealing of sound Goods,—receiving Goods knowing them to be stolen;—defrauding the Public by Running of Goods, and buying or receiving such as we know are run, and for which the King's Custom is not paid;—wearying Men out of their Rights by vexatious Law-suits, by Power, Interest, Bribery, or Crast;—which are Crimes too often committed by those who never expect to be punished for the Breach of this Command;

Lastly, to depend upon God's good Providence, which takes Care of all Creatures, and will certainly reward the honest poor Man, who chuses to beg, if he cannot labour, rather than steal.

Ind. 'What is the Duty of one who is senfible of his Sin, and sorry that he hath

IX. Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour.

This is the Ninth Command:—And whoever considers the Mischiefs Men are capable of doing to the Lives and the Estates of their Neighbours, by false Oaths and Perjuries, or concealing or disguising the Truth, when they are lawfully called upon to declare or attest it; must see how kind and good God has been to Men, to forbid, on Pain of his Displeasure, such Sins as these, which are the Occasion of so much Sorrow and Loss to the unhappy Sufferers.

Ind. ' Is any thing more forbidden, than the being a false Witness?'

Miss. Yes: You are hereby forbidden to fay any thing of other Men, which may hurt them, unless it be with an honest Design, to bring them to Repentance, or to hinder them from doing great Mischiefs to others.

Therefore to invent Stories, to add to them, and to set them abroad; To encourage Talebearers;—To give Men ill Names;—To publish their Infirmities;—To make their Faults worse than they are; are all condemn'd by this Law, and in many other Places of the Holy Scriptures;—as the very Work of an evil

This Sin proceeds from a base Disposition;—fome People love Mischief, and are pleased, the more there is of it in the World:—Sometimes from a busy Temper; from Pride; from evil Designs:—And sometimes People do it for Diversion.—But from whencesoever it proceds it is a Sign of a very evil Heart, to speak Ill of others, as if such Men bad no Faults of their own;—to jest with a Man's good Name, which is more valuable than his Estate;—To set Friends at Variance, and to disturb the Peace and Happiness of Families;—and therefore Revilers are reckoned amongst those, that, without Repentance, must not go to Heaven.

This is the Tenth and last of these Commands, -Now the gracious Design of God, in this Command, is to lay a Restraint upon the very Desires of our Hearts, which are all known to him, forbidding us to covet, that is, to fet our Hearts upon, that which is another's Right, and which he is not willing to part withfor an unjust Defire, through the Temptation of the Devil, has too often been followed by an unjust Attempt to get what we desire, either by Fraud or Violence.—So kind is God in putting a Stop to the very Beginning of Sin, which is in the Heart *.

Gamino is certainly a Violation of the Tenth Command.—It is a Vice that has always its Root in Covetousness, and which in its greedy Wishes devours—its Neighbour's Houses and Lands, and every thing else that is his.

This Sin is often found to go still further, to bring Men at last to downright Stealing, Robbery, and Murder:—and when the near Prospect of Death obliges these wretched Creatures to confess the Evil of their Ways, it may be observed, that a Caution against this abominable Vice of Gaming always makes one Part of their dying Admonitions, as it hath always been one main Road that led them to that miserable End.

Ind. ' What does this Law require?'

Miss. That you keep your Heart with all Disligence, because out of it proceedeth all manner of Wickedness, I Kings xxi. Prov. iv. 23.

That you be contented with your own Lot, as that which is appointed you by a wife and just God.

Lastly,—That you set God-always before you, who seeth the very secrets of your Heart, and will punish all its sinful Lusts and Appetites.

Ind. I am convinced, Sir, of the Truth of what you told me before,—that these Commands of God are boly, just, and good, and necessary to keep the World in Order.

Miss. But I must tell you besides,—That by these Commands as they have been explained by Jesus Christ, and his Apostles, we must all be judged at the last Day to Happiness or Misery; these being the Foundation of the Duty which Men owe to God, to their Neighbour, and to themselves.

Ind. ' Are these Duties hard to be under-flood and remember'd?'

Miss. You shall judge yourself, when I have repeated them to you, which I will do the next Time you come to me: In the mean Time use the following Prayer.

The PRAYER.

PEN mine Eyes, O Lord, that I may fee that thy Law is holy, just, and good, and that I may keep it with my whole Heart;—that I may love and honour all those whom thy Providence hath made my Betters;—That I may do Violence to no Man;—That I may abhor all unchaste Desires, Words, and Actions;—all Deceit and Oppression;—all the Evils of a lying Tongue, all covetous Desires, and first Beginnings of Sin.

Lord, have Mercy upon me, and write all these Laws in my Heart, I most humbly be-feech thee. Amen.

Duty towards God explained.

INDIAN.

HE last Time I was here, you promised to explain to me what was my Duty to God.

Missionary. Your Duty to God is,

To believe in him, to fear him, to love him, with all your Heart, with all your Mind, with all your Soul, and with all your Strength: To worship him, to give him Thanks, to put your whole Trust in him, to call upon him, to honour his Holy Name, and his Word, and to serve him truly all the Days of your Life.

Now this should be fix'd strongly in your Memory, so as never to be forgot; and it will direct you, on all occasions, how to live so as to please God:——These Words often repeated, and imprinted upon your Memory, will also awaken your Conscience, when at any Time you do amiss, that you may repent, and amend, and obtain Forgiveness of your Sin, through God's infinite Goodness and Mercy, and the Merits of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ind. '—Is a Christian's Duty hard to be understood?'

Miss. By no means;—Religion being the Business of all Men.—A plain Man, if he is well disposed, may know his Duty, and be able to perform it, as well as the greatest Scholar.

Ind. 'This is a comfortable Truth: Pray

" make me sensible of it."

Miss. Do not you see, that all necessary Knowledge lieth in a very narrow Compass?—Your Duty to God,—and to your Neighbour; is contained in a few Words, very easy to be understood and remembered, where People truly believe in God, and heartily defire to be faved.

Ind. 'Then I trust I shall not perish; for I do believe in God,—and I heartily wish to be saved.'

Miss. You must not be deceived in a Matter of so great Moment.—It may be you do not believe in, nor fear, nor love God with all your Heart, tho' you are persuaded you do.

Ind. Can you, Sir, direct me how to know for certain, when I do, or do not my · Duty?'

Miff. You must consult your Life to know this,—and compare your Way of Living with these Rules of your Duty.

Miss. Your Duty is to believe in God; that is, to keep these great Truths in your Mind,—That God is most Powerful, most Holy, Just, Merciful, and Good; and that none of our Thoughts, Words, or Actions, can be hid from him;—that therefore his Displeasure is more to be feared than all things; -and that his Love and Goodness to us require all posfible Acknowledgments on our Part.

Now you will very eafily fee, that you do not fear God as you ought, if you are more afraid of Men than of God; -or if you wilfully do any thing which he has forbidden, or which you know will displease him; -or lastly, -if you do not immediately repent when you have done amis, and return to your Duty.-Nor must you say, that you love God,—if you do not often think of him, of his Mercy and Goodness, and of the Happiness he has promised to them that love him; -if you do not take Delight in doing what you believe will please him-rejoice to see him obeyed and honoured, and be troubled to fee him difhonoured by his own Creatures.

It may be you think --- You love God above all things; - but if you are not concerned to keep his Laws, and angry with yourfelf when you break any of them;—then you do not love God;—For this (fays the Apostle St.

Ind. 'Must I trust in God, and believe that he careth for me, tho' I am in Poverty?'

Miss. You must do so:—For Riches are not always a Sign of God's Favour, nor Poverty of his Displeasure.—

To comfort yourself, and confirm your Faith, consider, that this is the Will of God;

—That he can make you sufficient Amends in —That he can make you fufficient Amends in the next World, for what you want in this. Think of these things, and you will be Again, You will not fay, that you trust in God, if you are not well pleased with his Providence, so far, at least, as chearfully to submit to what his infinite Wisdom and Goodness order as the very best for you, and for all other.

You will not imagine, that you worship God as you ought to do, if you content your-self with having an high Esteem for him in your Heart, without paying him the Honour due unto his Divine Majesty, both in your secret Retirements, as well as in the public Assemblies of Christians,—acknowledging before the World, that you are a miserable Sinner, and daily stand in need of his Mercy and Pardon;—that you owe him all possible Thanks for the Blessings you have received from him;—and that you want his Grace and Help every Day of your Life.

Lastly, You yourself will not say,—That you bonour God's Name and his Word, if you take an Oath without Thought and Fear; or speak of God, and of what belongs to him, after an idle Manner, and without Reverence;—or delight in the Company of such as do so—You cannot but know, that this is not the proper Behaviour of one who purposes to serve

And if you often remember, that the BIBLE is a Book given by God, to teach us what we are to believe, and how we are to live, that we may attain eternal Happiness;—and that your Salvation depends upon knowing what that Book containeth;—you will often read it, or hear it read and explained, and whenever you do so, you will attend to it carefully, as the Rule of your Life;—endeavour to sollow the Directions it gives you, never repeat any Part of it but to serious and holy Purposes; and so you will delight in, and bonour his boly Word.

Ind. ' Pray what is meant by loving God with all the Heart, and Soul, and Mind, and · Strength?'

Miss. This is for the great Comfort of such as sincerely strive to do their Duty;—they shall be accepted of God, tho' they attain not to that high Degree of Love and Obedience, which God himself commands in his Law, or even to that which some others arrive at, provided they love, and fear, and serve God, with all their Hearts, that is, as well as they are able.—God will proportion their Rewards to their Endeavours.

INDIAN.

reverently to all your Betters;—to

Ind. 'Now Sir, if it would not be too much Trouble, I would beg you would explain to me that Love which Christians owe to themselves and to their Neighbour, that is, as you told me, all Mankind.'

Miss. In the first Place observe,— That this is a Rule to such only as first love and fear God:
—Thou shalt love thy Neighbour, as Men fearing God love themselves;—that is, 'to do to others as 'we think they ought to do to us in the like Case.'

Now

Now God being the God and Father of Mankind, he would have every one to be fecure in his Life and Estate, easy in his Mind, goed and holy while he lives, and happy when he dies.— For this Reason he has given this Command, —Thou shalt love thy Neighbour as thyself; which, if truly observed, would have a most happy and blessed Essect, and be a Direction to the most unlearned, how to behave himself to others, so as to please God *.

Ind. 'You will, I hope, explain this a little more particularly.

Miss. Consult then your own Reason, and you will acknowledge the Justice of this Command—That Men should love and deal with others as sincerely as they would have others to love and deal with them:—And that they should do nothing which they themselves would condemn as hard and unjust, if done by another Person.

For Example;—your own Desire is, that all should respect and love you;—that none should oppress, wrong or deal deceitfully with you;—should take Advantage of your Ignorance, or Necessities;—or should take tedious, spiteful or expensive Ways to keep you from your Rights. You would have nobody to bear Malice, or imagine Evil in their Hearts against you:—You are concerned for your own good Name and Credit;—you grieve to be despited by those above you, as well as to be

Now as you, and every Man living, is thus affected towards himself, so will every Man living be condemned by God, and his own Confcience, who does not thus deal with others, and act by this short and plain Rule.

Men cannot live without the Affistance and Support of one another. -- Their Governors protect them.—The Concern of Parents for their Children,—the Care of Masters for their Servants,—the Account that Pastors must give of. their Flock are great and necessary; and if all these are not bonoured and obeyed, the World would every Day grow more and more wild and wicked, and we ourselves, as well as others, should be Sufferers, and miserable.

Ind. ' Are Christians obliged to love those ' that do not love them?'

Miss. Yes, most certainly, or they are no better than Unbelievers—for these love those that love them. - But God so loved us, when we were Enemies to him by our evil Deeds, as to give his only-begotten Son to die for us; and therefore he most reasonably requires, that we should love one another.

Ind. ' How may we attain to fuch a Chrif-

' tian Temper?'

Miss. You must take all Occasions of wishing well, and doing Good to others, continually exercifing your Compassion by relievdif-

ing the Poor, helping fuch as are in Distress, comforting the Afflicted, and mourning with them that mour; which will fweeten your Temper, and in you to this happy Disposition.

You must beware of taking Pleasure in the Calamities of other Men, tho' your greatest Enemies: For that would make you inhuman and hard-hearted.

But, above all, confider that this is God's express Command,—That we love one another; And it is greatly enforced by his amazing and condescending Love to us.

When you have gain'd these good Dispositions, you will find, that being obedient and dutiful to your Governors, Masters, and Betters, civil to your Equals, and kind to your Inferiors, is the true Way of being easy and happy yourself.

Ind. What is my Duty, if my Neighbour

" fpeaketh Ill of me?"

Miss. If you are indeed abused, you ought privately to reprove him that hath done it; and if he should not amend, your Duty is to bear the Injury patiently, to return Good for Evil, to forgive and to pray for him.—For so hath Christ expressly commanded *.

to abuse their innocent Neighbours?'

Miss. It is probable it will not *.—However that be, we are not to be more concerned for our own Reputation, than for the Honour and Commands of Jesus Christ; who hath also set us an Example, that we should follow his Steps, who when he was reviled, reviled not again, but committed his Cause to Him that judgeth righteously †.

Ind. Will my Duty to my Neighbour oblige

• me at all times to conceal his Faults?

Miss. No: Sometimes it is your Duty to speak of them;—but then it must be with a good Design of leading them to Repentance,—by bringing him before such Persons as have Authority to call him to an Account;—otherwise you are a Slanderer or Backbiter, and, as such, reckoned among st the most scandalous Offenders.

Ind. May I not be true and just in my Dealings, and yet make myself as good a Bargain

'as I can?'

Miss. Only consider, that if the Person you deal with makes himself an ill Bargain, out of Ignorance, Necessity, or out of Fear, it is a wicked thing to take Advantage of him; and tho you may defend it by Law, you cannot answer it to God.

Ind. 'Must I always speak the Truth?'

Miss. Yes, sure; for if you consider what Mischief is done by Falsehood,—how ill you take it to be deceived yourself,—you will be convinced, that Lying is a base Vice, and that there is great Reason for those terrible Threatenings, which we find in God's Word against such as are guilty of this Sin.

—They know also, that God, to whom all things are possible, will not let them want any Assistance, which they sincerely desire, and ask for. But they who are not willing to forsake their Sins, are not disposed to beg that Help of God which is necessary to enable them to break their Bonds; and such Persons, by a just Judgment of God, are often lest to their own evil Dispositions;—and this is the great Occasion of so much Wickedness as is seen among Christians.

Therefore, as ever you hope to do the Will of God, and by him be made happy, keep these Truths in your Mind and Memory;—

That such is the Corruption of our Nature, and Proneness to Evil;—that we cannot of to me the Commands of God, and convinced me of the Necessity of observing them in order to be happy.—At the same Time you told me, That we cannot observe them as we ought to do, without the Grace of God, which I must seek by diligent Prayer.'

Missionary. So indeed it is:—For such is the Disorder and Weakness of our Nature, and the Temptations to Sin so many, that neither our Reason,—nor the Goodness of God's Commands,—nor the Authority of so powerful a Being,—nor the Happiness which he proposes,—nor the Danger of our Disobedience, are sufficient to keep us within the Bounds of Duty without God's especial Grace: which he is so good as to promise to all such, as being sensible of their Wants, do pray for his Grace and Assistance.

Ind. ' Pray Sir, what do you mean by the · Grace of God?'

Miss. We mean every Favour which God freely bestows on us, in order to make his Ordinances and Commands effectual for our Salvation.

For Example—God gives us his Holy Spirit to be the Author of a new and holy Life.—This Holy Spirit has made known to us in the Scriptures the Ways of Life and of Death,—the Bleffing and Happiness of such as love and obey God,—and the miserable End of the Wicked and Disobedient—These are the first Graces and Favours of God.

Besides

Besides these,—to all such as are well disposed, and receive these Truths, the Spirit of Godenlightenstheir Understandings;—touches their Hearts with a Fear of God and with a Fear for themselves, on account of their Sins, and the Corruption of their Nature;—he shews them the Necessity of a Saviour, and what he has done to deliver them from Misery, and to make them happy for ever.

In short,—whatever saving Truths Men know, whatever Good they do, whatever Evils they avoid,—these and many, very many more, are the Effects of the Grace and Favour of God, and the effectual Workings of his Good Spirit on our Hearts and Minds.

Ind. ' What do you mean by Prayer?'

Miss. We mean,—the laying our Wants and Defires before God, and begging of him to hear and help us, and particularly to give us the Assistances of his Holy Spirit.

Ind. Doth not God know all our Wants,

• before we lay them before him? — And doth not he give his Blessings to many that never

' pray for them?'

Miss. God doth most surely know our Wants much better than we ourselves do;—He also often gives us those things which we neither desire nor deserve;—and yet he has commanded us to pray, and hath made it a Part of the Duty we owe to him;—and that for our own Sake, and that we may be made more worthy of the Favours which he designs us, and that we may not forget (as too many do) our Dependance upon him for Life, and Breath, and all things.

For, being obliged to pray to God daily, we can hardly chuse but think of Him often; -of his Power to help us; of his Goodness and Promise to do so; -of his Wisdom to give what is best for us;—and of his Justice to punish those that live without God in the World: We can hardly help thinking of our own Sinfulness and Unworthiness of any Fayour at the Hand of God;—and we are led to remember the only Way by which every Mercy is to be obtained; even through the Merit and Mediation of our Lord Jesus Christ.—By all which we are taught to know, to love, to bonour, to obey, to rely upon, and to praise our Maker every Day more and more perfectly, in all our Ways to acknowledge him, and live in an entire Dependence upon him; —which is the fure Way to be happy for ever.

Ind. ' Hath God promised to give Christians what they pray for?'

Miss. He hath promised to give them whatever they ask agreeable to his Will, and whatsoever he in his infinite Wisdomshall think proper for them *.—And because through our Ignorance, and the Corruption of our Nature, were we lest to ourselves, we should be tempted to pray for such things as might hurt both ourselves and others, and which would not be for the Honour of God, or for his Goodness, to grant, therefore his Son, and our merciful Saviour, hath given us a Pattern of Prayer, in order to direct us what to pray for, so as to please God.—And this Prayer is so short, that the most unlearned Christian may get it by heart, and, by a very little Help and Attention, may understand it so well, as never to be at a Loss what to ask of God.

Ind. 'I hope you will be fo good as to teach me that Prayer, and to explain it to me.'

Miss. I will do so, and endeavour to make you understand the Reason and Meaning of every Petition:—You must know then, that it is called the LORD'S PRAYER, because it was given by our Lord Christ to his Disciples, for the Use of them and his Followers; and it is in these Words:

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father which art in Heaven; —Hallowed be thy Name.—Thy Kingdom come.—Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven.

Ind. 'I should be much to blame, indeed, 'if I should not get so short a Prayer by heart. 'You will now be so kind as to explain it to 'me.'

Miss. Before I do that, I must first observe to you, That we are not taught to say my Father, but Our Father,—because God, who is the God of all Mankind, would have all of us to love and to be concerned for one another;—and to increase and confirm our Love, he hath taught us, when we beg any Favour for ourselves, to pray for all others, that he may be gloristed by them, as well as by us;—and that none may be deprived of those Blessings which Jesus Christ hath purchased for Mankind.

You will also observe, that God hath permitted us to call him our Father, to the end that we may pray with an humble Confidence of being kindly received:—Being assured, That as a Father pitieth his own Children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him *.

But then we are to confider,—That this FATHER, is the GOD OF HEAVEN, who sees

our Behaviour, and the very Thoughts of our Hearts; which should oblige us to approach him with Reverence, and godly Fear,—because He is in Heaven, and We are upon Earth, which is his Footstool.

Lastly,—observe—That in the Three first Petitions we pray for the Glory of God; that we, and all People, may know him, worship and obey him, as we ought to do.—And in the Three last Petitions we pray for ourselves,—for the Necessaries of Life,—for the Pardon of our Sins, and Grace to do our Duty,—and for God's Protestion and Deliverance from the Evils we either suffer, or fear.

And therefore I beseech Thee, O Heae venly Father, not for myself only, but for all thy Children, That we may all live worthy of the Relation which we bear to Thee; -That we may not fin, knowing that we are accounted thine, nor wilfully offend fo great, fo good, fo tender a Father:—But that we may love Thee not as Slaves, but as Children; That we may put our whole Trust in Thee, and depend upon thine infinite Power, Wisdom, Goodness, and Promise to take Care of us:—That we may leave it to Thee to chuse what is best for us, and bear with Patience and Refignation all thy Fatherly Corrections.—And that we may ferve Thee with Comfort and Pleasure all our Days, in Hopes of the everlasting InDial.

heritance which thou hast promised to thy obedient Children.

Hallowed be thy Name.

Now in this first Petition we pray,-That all Men may have a very high Regard for the Divine Majesty of God, and for his Honour: ---- And especially, that all Christians, to whom he has made Himself and his Will known by no less a Person than his own Son. may honour him, by a firm Faith in him, and by leading just and boly Lives, as becomes the Children of God, that others, seeing their good Works, may be converted, and glorify their Father which is in Heaven,-And, for their Encouragement in doing this, God hath declared,-That them who honour him be will honour *; that is,—he will bless them, and make them happy.

Let us ever remember, O God, That thou art our great Creator, our absolute

Lord, our merciful Saviour, and our all-feeing Judge. May we stand in Awe of thy almighty Power, thine all-feeing Providence, and thine angry Justice, and love thy boundless Goodness, and be always thankful for thine innumerable Benefits, and trust in thy Wisdom and Truth, and call upon thy Name, as long as we live!'

Thy Kingdom come.

* 1 Sam. ii. 30.

In order to understand this Petition, you must know,—That wherever the Christian Religion is received, there is the Kingdom of God, because God is there obeyed, feared, and loved.—We pray, therefore, in these Words, That all the Nations of the Earth may come to the Knowledge of the true and only God, the Creator and Preserver of all things;—and that the Gospel of his Son, which contains the Laws of his Kingdom, may everywhere be received to the Glory of God, and the Good of Mankind;—and that every one of us may labour to advance the Kingdom of God and his Honour.

And thus, O Lord, Let thy Kingdom

come.—Let it be as universal, as the Pro-• PHETS foretold it should be, and extend to every Corner of the Earth, and reach every

Man's Heart and Soul: And may the Days come, when no Perfecution, Division, or

Schifm, no Evils or Troubles of any kind fhall be known in it!—And may none who are called by thy Name, oppose this Coming of thy Kingdom by any Scandal, or by refift-ing the Power and Efficacy of it in himself!'

How meanly and basely do those act, who profess themselves Members of this Kingdom, and yet have no Care or Concern for the Conduct of it;—but withal how inconsistently, while they are bidding open Desiance to their Lord, to wish, as they do in this Prayer—for his Coming.

We are also supposed to pray in this Petition,—That God would be pleased to remove whatever hinders so glorious a Work;—That he would restrain the Power of the Devil, who leads so many Nations captive at his Will:—That all such as are yet ignorant of the true God; may no longer want the necessary Means of their Conversion;—and that all Christians may, by their good Lives, convince Unbelievers, how happy they are in being under the Laws and Government of their Maker.

Ind. 'But pray, Good Sir, how can that be called the Kingdom of God, in which there are fo many wicked Subjects?'

Miss. God permits it to be so for the present, in this Sate of Trial, to make all Men see what they would be without the Assistance and Help of his Grace; to shew his Goodness and Patience, by which many of the Wicked are brought to Repentance; whereby also the Power of his Grace is both seen and gloristed.—By these also he tries the Sincerity of his saithful Subjects.—But a, Time is coming, when a Separation will be made of the Wheat from the Tares, the good Seed from the bad, and the Justice of God will appear in the dreadful Punishment of all such as now give Offence to his good Subjects, and hinder the propagating the Gospel.

Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven.

This is the next Petition;—by which we pray,—That God by his Grace may dispose the Hearts of all his Subjects to a chearful Obedience to his Laws, and an entire Submission to his Will and Direction;—and to a Performance of their Duty in that State of Life, in which his Providence hath placed them;—and this as chearfully as his Angels do their Duty and obey his Will in Heaven;—by which God will be greatly glorified,—his Kingdom enlarged,—his Angels delighted, and all who obey him will be prepared for eternal Happiness.

Now we come to the three last Petitions which concern our own Wants, and which none but God can supply.—And these I shall explain to you the next Time you come.—In the mean Time address yourself to the Throne of Crace in the following Words of. Grace in the following Words.

INDIAN.

A M now come to defire you would explain to me the remaining Part of the Lord's Prayer.

Missionary. The Three last Petitions concern our own Wants, and which none but God can supply. The first of these is,

Give us this Day, our daily Bread.

In which Words we pray, That God would be pleafed to give us all things which are either needful or convenient for the Health and Support of our Bodies, and for the Good of our Souls.—Bread, being of most necessary and universal Use, has obtained not only in Scripture, but in common Discourse all over the World, to be put very often for all the Necessaries of Life.—Thus, Poverty is expressed by Want of Bread, and Prosperity by Fulness of Bread.

Miss. Because we have by this an Occasion of remembering our daily Dependence upon God, and of giving him Thanks for his Favours to us every Day of our Lives; and forasmuch as we acknowledge that we depend upon God's Blessing on our honest Endeavours to us for our daily Bread, we should not for our Lives attempt to take such Ways for a Livelihood as we cannot hope God will bless.—And lastly,—we learn by this Prayer,—not to be too much concerned or anxious for ourselves for the Time to come,—because God ever liveth to supply our Wants.

Ind. 'It seems then that Christians are ont to pray for great Riches, Honours, and for their daily Bread.'

Miss. It is certainly so: For these things should be lest wholly to God's Wisdom, since Men cannot, and none but God can, know what Use any one may make of such things.— Not but that, if God gives Men such things, they may receive them with Thanks, and should use them to good Purposes.

Ind. ' How may they do that?'

Miss. By assisting, with their Riches, those that are in Want:—By defending, with their Power, such as are oppressed, &c.—And taking Care always to remember God in the Midst of their Abundance, and the Account they must give to him of both the Use and Abuse of it.

We look up unto, and depend upon Thee, O Heavenly Father, for all the Necessaries, Conveniencies, and Comforts of this Life;—And may our Bodily Wants engage us to go daily to the Throne of Grace,

' for the Wants of our Souls!'

Let thy Blesling go along with our honest Endeavours, and keep us from all unjust Ways of bettering our Condition; and that with all thy other Favours, give us, we beseech thee, the Blessing of a thankful and contented Mind!

The next Petition which concerns ourselves, is this following:—

Forgive us our Trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us.

Now in these Words we pray,—That God for Christ's Sake would be merciful unto us, and forgive us our Sins, whether known or unknown, and that he would not punish us as we deserve.—And, to shew our Thankfulness for this great Mercy, we oblige ourselves to forgive, and love, and do Good to those who have any way injured us, as sincerely as we hope for Pardon from God.

Ind. 'And may a Christian be affured, that God will pardon his Sins, provided he

God would deal with him?

Miss. We have his faithful Promise by his Son, that, upon our true Repentance, he will do so *:—By which he hath, as it were, put our Pardon into our own Power, and lest us to consider, that there will be no Mercy for him who will not shew Mercy.

Forgive us those Sins, O Heavenly Father, which separate us from thee: Forgive us every Day of our Lives, for every Day we stand in need of Pardon;—Give me and all Christians, a forgiving Temper,

• me and all Christians, a lorgiving Temper, • – that we may fulfil the Condition of our

Pardon.—Thou art good and merciful in forgiving us;—Grant that we may all live in the same charitable Temper, in which we hope and defire to die.'-

The last Petition of this Prayer is:

Lead us not into Temptation; but deliver us from Evil.

That is, we pray that God would so order things in the Course of his Frovidence, that we may not be exposed to great and dangerous Trials, which may prove hazardous to our Virtue.—That he would not suffer us to be tempted above what we are able, but would with the Temptation make a Way for us to escape, that we may be able to bear it.

adly, Everlasting Misery.

Now you will observe from this Petition, that it is not sufficient to beg Pardon for our past Offences,—but that every good Christian must pray God to enable him to keep out of the Way of Temptation, and not suffer him to fall again into the Sins he has repented of:
—And that whenever he suffers us to be tempted for the Trial of our Faith and Trust in him, he would in Mercy deliver us from the Power and Snares of the Devil;—from our own corrupt Inclinations;—from the ill Examples of a wicked World;—and from everlasting Misery, the most dreadful of all Evils whatever.

And the Reason why this Desire is by our Lord expressed in these Words—And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from Evil, is this:

To admonish us, that even the best of us are in Danger of falling into the same Sins, that we have once, much more that we have often, been guilty of; and that, because there are several Temptations, which in the Course of our Lives we shall surely meet with; and therefore, that none of us are to be secure, but ought always to watch and pray, and K 2 stand

Ind.

Rand upon our Guard, and to look well to ourselves, that we be not overcome.

And you will be further convinced of the absolute Necessity of this Petition, when you see so many, even amongst those who bear the Name of Christians, running headlong into everlasting Ruin, for want of God's gracious Assistance, which can only be obtained by constant and diligent Prayer.

O God, who hatest Iniquity, and knowest

our Infirmities,—leave us not to the Malice

and Power of the Evil one the Devil, to deal with us as he pleaseth;—Leave us not, O merciful Father, to ourselves, and to our own corrupt Hearts and Lusts, lest we rashly run into Temptations;—Keep us always under the Protection of thy Good Spirit;

Guard, nor tempted above what we are able to bear ;-Give us Grace to relift the World,

We conclude this Prayer with these following Words; which are a solemn Form of Praise, and an Acknowledgment to Him to whom we have been praying.

—To Thee, therefore, we give all Honour, Praise, and Thanks, and wish that all the World would do the same. Amen.

Ind. I observe, that you conclude all your

• Prayers with that Word - AMEN.'

Miss. We do so.—By which we express our most earnest Desire, that God would grant us what we have prayed for;—which we sirmly believe he will do, so far as may really promote his Glory and our best Interest;—forasmuch as we are assured, That no Man did ever trust in the Lord, and was confounded *, or disappointed of his Hopes; and therefore we conclude all our Prayers with saying Amen, or So be it, let it be as we have prayed, and do dessire.—

and give Praise to God; whereby he owns his Dependence upon him, for every thing he wants, and returns bis-Thanks for all the Blesfings he receives.

Now every Man, even the most unlearned, cannot but know, that he is subject to be tempted to Sin, and that God only can deliver him from it.—Every one knows, that it is God only that can bless his honest Endeavours for a Livelihood;—that God therefore ought to be fought to for these Blessings, and that every one is obliged to be thankful to him when he receives them.

A very Child can tell his Father what he wants; and you see God permits us to call him Our Father, that we may lay our Desires and Wants before him after the best manner we are able, and leave it to him to help us:—He knows our Wants, however imperfectly we express them with our Tongues.—And we may be assured, that, when we devoutly use this very Prayer, God will hear and answer us, not according to our weak Understandings; but in a manner suitable to our real Necessities, and according to the Love of a Father for his Children.

Ind. 'Do Christians think, that they are bound to pray every Day?'

Ind. 'Is it expected, that such as cannot

' read, should pray?'

Miff. It is an Unhappiness that People cannot read; but God forbid; that should hinder them from praying!—Whoever hath Sense to know that he is a Sinner, or that he wants God's Help, is bound to pray as well as he can.—If such a Person wants a Kindness from his Neighbour, he will find Words to ask it in: - If he is to ask it of his Betters, he will think of doing it in a becoming Manner, and will wait with Patience, and receive it thankfully.—Let him fo behave himself towards his Maker; and God, who is always pleafed with the Defires of a Heart truly fenfible of its Mifery and Wants, will favourably answer his The state of the s Requests.

Ind. I observe that you make Thanksgiving also a Duty, and a Service, which you

"owe to God."

Miss. God bimself bas made it so *,—and it is agreeable to our Reason.—We expect Thanks from one another, when we have done a Kindness.—And if Christians would take Notice of, and give God Thanks for, the Mercies and Blessings they receive daily from his Bounty, they would engage the Divine Goodness to multiply his Favours, which they often binder by their Ingratitude.—'But then they must shew their 'Thankfulness, not only with their Lips but 'by their Lives.'

Ind. ' How often should we pray?"

Miff. We should pray without ceasing t; that is, we should let no Day pass without begging God's Bleffing; and giving him Thanks for his Mercies; - for every Bleffing we receive; for every Danger we escape;—and for every Affliction we meet with, and are supported under. Our Meals should put us in mind,that we do not live by Bread alone; that therefore God's Bleffing must make our Meat to do us good!.—In our Business we should remember, that it is but lost Labour, to rife early, and take little Rest,—if God blesses not our Endeavours | .- In the Morning, we should pray to God to bless our Labours all the Day; and, in the Evening, return our humble Thanks for all the Mercies of the foregoing Day, and pray for Preservation, and the other Mercies of the Night.

Miss. Indeed it is of so very great Moment, that JESUS CHRIST himself has appointed an HOLY ORDINANCE to be observed by all Christians, on purpose that they may always remember the wonderful things he has done, and the great Blessings he hath obtain'd for them :- Particularly the Sacrifice of his Death, and the Benefits which we receive by it; viz. the Pardon of our Sins, and the fure and certain Hope of everlasting Life. - When, therefore, you come again to me, I will explain this to you more fully, than I can do at prefent for want of Time.

Miss.

Miff. I have now Time to do it. You remember, I hope, what I have told you before; -that there are two special Ordinances of the Christian Religion, which we call SACRA-MENTS, appointed by Christ himself as necesfary Means of Salvation, when they may be regularly had. These are BAPTISM, and the LORD'S SUPPER. By Baptism we are introduced into the Christian Character; -at which Time we enter into a Covenant with Godi wherein, on our Part, we promise, - to believe in him, to fear, to love, and obey him all our Days:-And God, on his Part, receives us into his Family, which is his Church, and promiseth to treat us as his Children, -to protest us, while we live, and, when we die, to make us happy, if we have behaved ourselves as his dutiful Children ought to do; and thus we give ourselves up unto Christ.

Ind: This I have not forgot.

Miss. But then, forasmuch as this high Favour hath been bestowed upon Christians—to be called and treated as the Children of God, not for any thing they have done to deserve it,
but purely for the Sake of what his Son Jesus.
Christ bath done and suffered for them.——
He hath appointed another Sacrament which we call the Lord's Supper, in order to keep up the Remembrance of what he hath done for us:—His laying down his Life for us to redeem us from the Wrath of God, to purchase us to himself to be a People zealous of good Works.

Ind. 'Why do you call THIS SACRAMENT by the Name of the LORD'S SUPPER?'

Miss. Because our Lord Christ did appoint THIS ORDINANCE at bis Last Supper with his Disciples, the Evening before he was crucified, to preserve the Memory and the Reasons of his Death; the Knowledge of which is the Foundation of the Christian Religion, and that on which the Happiness and Salvation of all Mendoth depend.

Ind. You will not wonder, if I am very defirous to know all that is necessary concerning this Ordinance.'

Miss. That you may do so, you must carry your Thoughts back to what I have already told you of, ___ the first Parents of Mankind; ----that they rebelled against their Maker's Command;—that they lost his Favour, and all Right and Title to the Happiness which he had promised them;—that this very Nature became prone to Evil;—and both they and their Posterity became subject to Sin, to Mifery, and to Death:—And lastly that the Son of God, pitying their Calamity, undertook to redeem them,—to satisfy his Father's Justice, and to fuffer in his own Person for their Sins; as also to impart to them a Spirit and Principle of a new Life, in order to renew that Nature which they had fo fadly spoiled. In order to which he was made Man; and, having put himself in the Place of Sinners, he offered himself to suffer Death for their Redemption; by which he restored them to his Father's Favour, and to a Possibility of obtaining the Happiness for which they at first were made.

By which wonderful Goodness, and most worthy Sacrifice, God was so well pleased,—that he hath, for bis Son's Sake, promised to pardon all penitent Sinners, and to make them happy for ever.

Ind. All this I now remember you explained to me; and I thank you for putting me again in mind of it: and I hope now I shall never forget it.

Miss. It will certainly be your Interest to remember it; for indeed your Happiness depends upon it.

Ind. Is it sufficient for me to remember in this Sacrament, that there was such a Perfon as Jesus Christ?

Miss. No, surely; much more is contained in it.—We are to call to mind his wonderful Love to Mankind, which engaged him to take our Nature upon him, and to submit to the Infirmities and Miseries of it; which made him content to live amongst us, and to die for us:—It is to call to mind his un wearied Patience and Diligence in doing Good;—healing the Diseases, and instructing the Ignorance, of Men; and particularly his most grievous grievous Sufferings and Death, by which he made an Atonement to his Father for the Sins of Mankind.—He was made Sin for us, who knew no Sin, that we might be made the Righteougness of God in him. And if we truly remember him, we shall endeavour to copy the Example of his Virtues, and especially those which were most conspicuous in his Life.

Ind. Where shall I learn the History of his Life and Actions, that I may follow his Example?"

Miff. In the Four Gospels, or in what is called the New Testament.

Ind. ! What do you mean by the Gospels?"

Miss. I mean Four small Treatises, in which the Life and Actions of our Saviour are written for the Benefit of all succeeding Christians; and, when it shall be your Happiness to read them, you will there find abundant Matter and Reason for the perpetual Remem-

Ind. What need was there of this Sacrament, fince it feems impossible for Menever to forget fo great a Benefactor?

Miss. Jesus Christ, who knew our Nature better than we ourselves do, and how very apt we are to sorget the greatest Favours of God, has by this HOLY ORDINANCE provided, that such as have any Sense or Regard for his Love, or even for their own Happiness, shall never want a proper Occasion of remembering what

Ind. 'You will now, Sir, be pleased to let

Miff. Our GREAT LORD and SAVI-OUR JESUS CHRIST, the Night before he was crucified, 'took Bread, and bleffed and brake it, and gave it to his Disciples, and faid, Take, eat; this is my Body, that is given for you: - Do this in Remembrance of me.—After Supper also he took a Cup of Wine, and gave Thanks, and gave it to them faying, Drink ye all of this;—for this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the Remission of Sin .- Do this, as often as ye shall drink it, in Remembrance of me. For as oft as ye shall eat this Bread, and drink this "Cup, ye do shew the Lord's Death till he come;

Ind. You will now, Sir, let me know how this Sacrament is observed amongst Christians.

Miff. They do it after this Manner: - First, the Minister of Christ placeth, or causeth to be placed, upon a Table in our Churches, a Portion of Bread and Wine, in the Sight of all Allin

the

the People. This Bread and Wine, which are to represent the Sacrifice of Christ's Body and Blood, are sanctified, or set apart, for this holy Use, by giving Thanks to God for all his Favours, and especially for having sent his only Son to redeem us by his Death; and by begging of him, that when we receive, and eat and drink this Bread and Wine, we may be fo far made Partakers of the Sacrifice of his most blessed Body and Blood, as to share in all the Benefits which he hath obtained for us by his Death. At the same Time he breaketh the Bread into Pieces, and poureth the Wine into a Cup, to represent unto our Senses, by these outward and visible Signs, the Death of Christ, whose Body was broken, and Blood poured out, upon the Cross.

Ind. ' Pray, Sir, how doth he, after this, dispose of this Bread and Wine?'.

Miss. This Bread and Wine, being santified by the Word of God and Prayer, he distributes among those who are there present;—putting them in mind, that Jesus Christ died for them, and for their Salvation;—preserring their Happiness to his own Life;—that therefore they ought never to forget so great a Kindness, but to keep up the Remembrance of bim, after this Manner, which he hath appointed, until his Coming again.

Ind. 'Is this all that is required of Christians,—"To keep up the Remembrance

" of Christ, and of his Death?"

f Chrismbrance Miss. No, surely;—no serious Christians think that alone sufficient.—They know that it is an humble Heart in which Christ delights to dwell;—they therefore look upon this Sacrament as a proper Occasion of humbling themselves before God, and of abhorring those Sins which cost Jesus Christ his Life and Blood.

They know also, that the Blessings obtained for us by Christ's Death, of which this Sacrament is a Remembrance, are as much the Food of the Soul, as Bread and Wine are of the Body—that this Food or Support we receive by a lively Faith in his Merits; and do therefore, at this Time, more especially acknowledge the Efficacy of his Death .- This is the true Bread, which nourisheth to eternal Life *. - That God who spared not his own Son, but gave him up for us all, will be not with bim freely give us all things?

Besides this, every penitent Christian will look upon this as a proper Time to remember and comfort himself with the great Extent of God's Mercy declared by his Son, and this even with an Oath,—' That all Sins shall be for-

' given unto the Sons of Men †.'

Every humble Christian also, who feels in his Soul the Want of God's Help to support him against the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, will think this a very proper Time to beg of God his Son's Promise,

That he will give the holy Spirit to them that ask him.

Lastly,—Every Christian must be supposed to receive this Sacrament in Token that he acknowledgeth Jesus Christ to be his Lord and Saviour—to be his Lawgiver bere, and his Judge bereafter.

Ind. I remark, that Christ commanded this Ordinance to be observed by his Follow-

is meant by that?'

Miss. W. as I have told you before, we Christians do know, and firmly believe, that Jesus Christ will come again at the End of the World—TO JUDGE THE LIVING AND THE DEAD;—to call all Men that ever have lived to an Account for the Use they have made of the Favours which God has given them; and to reward or punish them, as they have lived well or ill in this World.

And this Intimation he gave his Followers, when he appointed this Ordinance, that they may confider, every Time they go to this Sacrament, what Account they will be able to give of themselves, 'when he shall come to judge the World in Righteonsness.'

Ind. 5 Is there any thing else required of Christians, before they go to this Sacra-

Miss. Yes:—They ought, in the first Place, to consider what Sort of Life they have led fince they took on them the Christian Charac-

e first Place, ey have led tian Character: ter;—at which Time they obliged themselves to make the Laws of God the Rule of their Faith, and Life, and Actions: —And to examine themselves, whether they have not led a wicked, at least an idle, useless Life;—or whether they now live in any known Sin;—because they are bound, when they go to that Sacrament,—seriously to acknowledge their Offences and Sins before God, and to beg his Pardon, with a sull Purpose of Amendment of Life; otherwise they will receive nothing there, but their own Condemnation.

A Christian is obliged also to have a grateful Sense of God's Goodness, by considering his Mercy in sending his own Son to redeem us, whom by his Death he hath reconciled to his Father, and put us in a Way to be for ever happy, it it is not merely our own Fault.

And lastly, Jesus Christ having expressly commanded, That all his Disciples should love one another, as he hath loved them, and given his Life for them *,'—every Christian is bound, before he goeth to this Sacrament (the chief End of which is to put him in Mind of this great Instance of Christ's Love, every Christian, I say, is bound), to consider whether he hath any thing in his Heart, contrary to this Pattern of true Love, and Command of his Saviour.

Ind. Do you believe, that Christians are generally careful to prepare themselves for

^{*} John xiii. 34.

Miss. All serious Christians are so:—But, too many, it is to be feared, are not.—And this is the Reason why so many receive no Benefit from this Sacrament;—for otherwise, This Ordinance would be a most powerful Restraint to keep them from leading a thought. less and an evil Life,—by affording them so many blessed Occasions of remembering and renewing their Covenant with God, laying them under continual Obligations of leading a new and Christian Life, and obtaining Grace from God to do so.

Ind. What do you think of those Christians that never go to this Sacrament?

Miss. Why they are generally to be esteemed in the Way of Ruin, without seeing their Danger.—They do not consider, that, as they are Sinners, God cannot be pleased with them;—and that there is no Pardon for Sinners, no Salvation to be hoped for, but only through the Merits of Christ's Death, which is commemorated in this Sacrament.

Ind. But sure, Sir, all Christians are not fo thoughtless;—they must have some Rea-

you feem to represent it.'

Miss. There may be Reasons and Scruples for absenting for a Time;—but, generally speaking, some of these following are the true Reasons, why Men turn their Backs upon the Lord's Supper when invited to it, let them pretend what they please.

Either they live in some known Sin, which they will not at present resolve to forsake; or this World, its Bufiness or Pleasures, have taken such Possession of their Hearts, that they have no Time even to think of their Souls, or of what must come hereafter:-Or lastly, they delude themselves with a faint Purpose, that thus it shall not always be with them; that some Time or other they will make the Care of their Souls their great Concern, But such Persons should consider, that while they thus despise one of the greatest Instances of God's Love, they continue in a Sin which too nearly refembles the Denial of their Lord and Saviour: More particularly they should reflect, that by persisting in such a wilful Disobedience to Christ's positive Command, they have no well-grounded Assurance that any of their Prayers will be granted: For as Christ's Death is the only solid Foundation of Favour with God, so his MEDIATION is the only Channel through which it is to be conveyed to Christians. Whether, therefore, those who refuse to commemorate the one, can lay any just Claim to the other, is left to every Man's ferious Meditation: - And they should consider with what Face they can bereafter appear before their Saviour in Judgment, whom they refused to remember in his Ordinance bere on Earth; -it having been observed, -That whatever keeps a Man from the Sacrament. after be has been instructed in the true Nature of it, will, generally speaking, binder bim from going to Heaven.

Ind. Can a Christian know whether he hath gone to this Sacrament as he ought to have done, so as to hope for the Blessings attending it?

Miss. That will best be known by the Manner of his Life afterwards: - If a Person went as a true Penitent, he will be very careful of falling into the Sins he hath repented of.—If. he was indeed grieved with the Remembrance of his Sins, and the Burthen of them was intolerable; if he did in good earnest purpose to lead a new Life, he will be more careful to beg of God to enable him to do so.—If he went with a lively Faith in God's Mercy through Christ, that Faith will appear in a better Obedience to God's Laws.-If be bad a thankful Remembrance of Christ's Death,—the grateful Acknowledgment of that invaluable Bleffing will confirmin him to live fo as to please his merciful Redeemer.—Laftly, If he went with a truly charitable Disposition to the Sacrament, he will afterwards make the Love of Christ the Pattern of his Love to all others, he will forgive, and give, and love as becomes a Disciple of Jesus Christ.

Ind. Will not the Bleffings which Christ hath obtained by his Death, as represented by this Sacrament, encourage Christians to Miss. Ignorant and unthoughtful People may delude themselves with such vain Hopes; but all well-instructed Christians should know,—that the Christ died for the Salvation of all, yet those only shall actually enjoy the Benefits of his Death, who live according to the Will and Commands of him who died for them; that there will be no Forgiveness of Sins without Repentance, and a thorough Resormation of Life; and that the strictest Adherence to this or any other positive Ordinance of God will not avail, without an earnest and sincere Endeavour to perform the whole Will of God, as it respects Him, our Neighbour, and Ourselves.

Ind. I cannot, Sir, but be very thankful for the great Pains you have taken to infiruct me, and to make me understand the Nature and Benefit of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper;—and indeed, Sir, I am very desirous to be baptized, if you know of nothing that ought to hinder me.

you sensible of, before I would encourage you

Ind. 'I am very thankful for your Con-'cern for me, and I shall hear with Attention the Instructions you will be pleased to give,

Miss. You must know then,—that the Christian Religion is intended by God to cure the Corruption of our Nature, and to make us happy, by making us holy, just, and good;—by making Christians the best Neighbors, the truest Friends,—the kindest Masters,—the most faithful Servants, the best Husbands and Wives,—the most careful and tender Parents, and the most dutiful Children,—the justest Magistrates, and the most faithful and obedi-

Miss. But you must not forget, That your Faith, and the Increase and Continuance of it, is the Gift of God; which you must pray for, as ever you hope to be preserved free from Error.

Ind. Well, it is strange, however, that People of Understanding in other things, who cannot but fee how much we are apt to be mistaken in the common Affairs of Life, fhould, in Matters of the greatest Concern, wholly depend upon their own Wisdom and ' Power, even where God hath undertaken to direct and affift us.

Miss. You will not wonder at this, if you remember, what hath been so often repeated and proved;—that such is the Corruption of our Nature, that when any Man, through a proud Conceit of his own Wisdom and Strength, shall provoke God to forsake and leave him to himself, that Man will be capable of believing and doing the most unreasonable things, to which an evil Spirit, or his own corrupt Heart, can tempt him.

Miss. There are too many, who, for want of Attention to the good Instructions which are given them, consider not how they live, nor what will become of them when they die;—who know not the Evil of Sin, nor the Mischiefs it has brought into the World;—how hateful it is to an holy God,—how strict his Commands are to avoid it, and what the Portion of Sinners in the next Life is to be;—and therefore propose no other End to themselves, in this Life, but only to live and die as easy as they can.—Beside those who walk in Darkness, and know not whither they go*, and are secure, because ignorant;—there are others, that are even afraid of being instructed.

Ind. ' That is strange indeed."

Miss. But it is true: And the Reason is, because, if we deal faithfully with Sinners, we must testify against them, that their Deeds are evil †, and that they are in very great Danger, if they do not forsake their beloved Sins; and then they will hate both us, and those unwelcome Truths, which condemn them, and their Way of Life:—No wonder therefore, that both these Sorts of Christians, by their unrighteous Lives, surnish Unbelievers with Arguments for persisting in their Obstinacy,—and hazard their own Salvation.

* John xii. 35, + John vii. 7.

L 4 There:

There are others also, who have been better informed, and perhaps well inclined; but. fuffering their Hearts to be possessed with the Love of the World*, its Business, Riches, or Pleasures, they lose thereby the Knowledge and Remembrance of the Truth, and forget their good Purposes, and fall into the Way of Living which the Christian Religion condemns, and which will be punished with the Loss of Heaven and Happiness. And there are too many, who, having not cast off all Fear of God, and Concern for their Souls, do yet content themselves with a punctual Performance of the external Part of Religion, vainly thinking that an outward Shew of religious Worship will atone for the Want of that inward Purity of Heart, which is indispensibly required from every Christian.

Ind. ' I would be glad to know who this Sort of mistaken Christians are.'

Miss. Beside those already mentioned, there are many, who, tho' they know themselves not to be in the Way of Salvation, make their Minds easy, by purposing to repent, and be converted; foolishly supposing that Repentance is absolutely in their own Power;—at the same Time provoking God, who alone can give them the Grace of Conversion, to leave them to their own Choice and Destruction.

Others flatter themselves, that Repentance, and a Change of Life, are only required, where Sins, such as Murder, Adultery, and the like;

—not considering that a Man, who is innocent of great Crimes, may be far from being a true Christian, and in the Way of Salvation;
—the best of Men standing in need of Repentance and Pardon, and of the Mercy of God.

Ind. 'I have heard, that Christians do depend very much upon the Goodness and

' Mercy of God.'

Miss. And so they may, and ought to do, provided they do we deceive themselves, by abusing his Mercy, which is intended to lead Men to Repentance, and Amendment of List.

Ind. ' Pray, how do Men abuse this Mercy of God?

Miss. When they continue to live in any known Sin, or wilfully neglect any Duty; and yet hope, that God of his great Mercy will forgive them.

Ind. 'You have often mentioned the Corruption and Weakness of human Nature; will not this plead our Excuse, and prevail with so good and merciful a Being to pardon fuch as have not done what he hath com' manded?'

Miss. Yes: And he hath faithfully promised, that upon Condition of their Repentance, and Amendment of Life (according to the Terms and Conditions in the Gospel) he will pardon the greatest Sinners.

Ind. 'Perhaps they will fay, that they are not able to perform these Conditions.'

Miss. What would you think of one who should make that an Excuse, and yet would be forry to be made able, only because he is unwilling to part with his Sins?

Ind. Such an one, to be fure, complains without Reason, and his Ruin will be from himself.'

Miss. And yet this is the Case of all careless and wicked Christians .- God would have all his Creatures happy;—he knows that Man can never be happy, till his corrupt Nature be mended;—he has therefore, as I told you before, appointed the Christian Religion, as the most effectual Means of our Recovery from Sin unto Holiness. - By which we are taught to depend upon the Almighty Power of God, even that Almighty Power which raised Jesus Christ from the Dead*,—to raise us from the Death of Sin unto the Life of Righteousness; by enabling us to fee, to refift, to overcome, and to rect out whatever is evil in us, and to restore us to the Image of God, in which Man was at first created.—Christians, therefore, do but delude themselves, and blaspheme God, when they pretend they cannot do what he requires of them, in order to their Happiness.

And to name no more Ways at prefent, by which Men deceive themselves to their Ruin:

upon a Death-bed Repentance, for the making their Peace with God, and fitting themselves for Heaven;—living in the mean Time without God in the World, neither fearing his Anger, nor regarding his Promises.

Ind. 'Indeed, Sir, these are all sad Mistakes; and I hope I shall not fall into any s of them.

Miss. I hope so too;—but then you must be very bumble, and always fear for yourself, and beg of God to keep you from such Mistakes, which are the Ruin of so many, who yet calk and think themselves to be Christians;—otherwise your being made a Christian will not seure you from Danger.

Ind. Pray, Sir, what are the things which are most likely to offend the good Spirit of God, and force him to forfake fuch as are-

6 dedicated to him, and put under his Pro" tection?"

Miss. In the first Place, Christians do grieve that good Spirit,—by neglecting to improve the Graces bestowed upon them;—for, as I told you before, this is a Rule of the Gospel,—That to him who makes good Use of the Favours which God hath given him, God will give more; and he that will not do so, shall lose what he had*.

Ind. 'I hope I shall not forget this Rule of Fruth.'

* Matt. xiii. 12:

228

Miss. In the next Place, a Christian runs the Hazard of losing the Help and Comfort of the Spirit of God, by returning into that Way of Life, and to those Sins, which he renounced at his Baptism;—especially when he falls into, and continues in, any known and wilful Sin;—for then he will naturally hate God, and God will forsake him.

Ind. ' Hate the God that made us!'

Miss. Why, as monstrous a Sin as you think that is, it is certainly true:—For any Man, whose Conscience tells him, that he is always doing that which must offend an holy, just, and powerful God, cannot but wish there was no such Being to call him to an Account, and to punish him; nor can he possibly love such a Being.

Thirdly;—Another Way of grieving the Holy Spirit is by neglecting, which in Truth is despising, those Means of Grace, which Jesus Christ hath appointed to bring Men into, and to keep them in, the Way of Salvation.

Ind. 'I have not forgot what you have formerly told me;—That the hearing and

' feriously thinking of the Word of God, in which a Christian's Duty is contain'd, as well as the Promises to encourage, and the Punishments to deter us, is one of those Means you speak of, most proper to convert Men, and to keep them in the Favour of God.

Now, as the Use of these Means, join'd with earnest Prayer to God, for Light to discover what is evil in us, and for Power to root it out, is the sure Way of preserving the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit;——so, when any Christian depending upon his own Reason, Wisdom, or Power, and forgetting that all our Sufficiency to do any Good is of God*, does neglect these Means, the good Spirit will forsake such a Person, and leave him to himself, and to the Delusion and Government of evil pirits, which, without a sincere Repentance, will be his Ruin. And most of all, when he trusts to any thing he has done as meritorious in the sight of God, instead of that which Christ has done and suffered for him

Christ has done and suffered for him.

Ind. This, I hope, will be a Warning to me never to neglect these Means of Grace and Safety.'

Miss. And I hope too, that you will never forget to give God the Glory of all the Good you do; for be assured of this,—That neither the Reasonableness of any Duty, nor the Baseness of any Sin, nor any other Consideration, can enable you to do what is good, and well-pleasing to God, or to avoid what is evil, but only his Grace, and that good Spirit to which you are

When, therefore, you see Men pay a great Regard to God and his Laws, honouring his Holy Name, and his Word, and every thing belonging to him;—when you see them just, and kind, and merciful, and not given to Revenge, but ready to forgive, and give, and love, as becomes the Followers of Christ;—when you see them temperate and chaste, modest and bumble, and dealing with others as they themselves would be dealt with;—you will have Reason to take these for good Christians, if you are convinced, that they do these things out of Love and Obedience to God; and as the Fruit of: Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

On the other Hand,—if you fee among those who call themselves Christians, such as make no Conscience of their Ways, but lead careless, idle, or useless, disorderly Lives; -exceeding fond of the World, and its Vanities ;and striving to be rich and great, at any Rate; -if you fee any that live in Adultery, or Fornication, or that are Drunkards, Spendibrifts. Covetous, or Oppressors;—if you see Parents unconcern'd for their Children's eternal Welfare, -Husbands and Wives forgetting or breaking their Marriage Vows; - Masters and jervants acting in the Course of their Behavious, as if they were insensible that they have a Master in Heaven; -if you see Men in Power regardless of the Honour of that God whose Representatives they are; -you may be fure, that thefe, and fuch as thefe, - ARE CHRISTIANS WITHOUT CHRISTIANITY, and will be liable to a most severe Judgment, for their opposing the gracious Deligns of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ.

Ind. ' Pray, Sir, what do you mean by that?

Miss. Why, God is so good and merciful, That he would have all Men to be faved, and to come to the Knowledge of the Truth *.

Now, all such as, usurping the Name of Christians, do lead unchristian Lives, these oppose their Maker in his most gracious Designs, bringing an evil Report upon Christianity, as if nothing good were to be got by it—making the ignorant Heathens to take that for Christianity, which is far from it,—by which they hinder such as might otherwise desire to become Christians;—they confirm Unbelievers in their Insidelity, and serve all the Designs of Satan in opposing the Kingdom of Christ;—and therefore must of Necessity be more bateful to God, and their Punishment be greater, than that of the Heathens, as much as they now despite those poor People.

Ind. 'You have convinced me, Sir, of the "Danger of being a Christian without Christianity."—Will you be so kind as to shew

e me how I may avoid falling into fuch a Way of Life, as, it feems, too many do?'

Miss. In the first Place, consider what a Blessing it is, that you are not still in Darkness, but that you are come to the Knowledge of your Maker, and of the Way to please him; whereby you will be happy when you die, whatever your Lot may have been in this World.

And, in the next Place, keep it always in your Mind,—That THIS God, whom you have chosen to serve, is every where present; so that if at any Time you offend him, you offend in his very Presence a Being, who hath Power to punish you for ever.

Be careful to keep yourself always Sober: DRUNKENNESS and INTEMPERANCE disorder our Reason, and make us forget our best Resolutions.

Do not set your Heart upon this World, its Honours, Riches, or Pleasures; for, besides that you must soon leave them, they will be apt to make you forget what you will gain or lose by being a good or bad Christian.

Never fancy that any Sin is small; ' for the · least known Sin continued in, will lead to a greater;' and, if you should provoke the Spirit of God to forsake you, you will be capable of committing the very greatest Crimes. Human Nature, as it is now corrupt, is the same in all Men ;-Weare all subject to Temptations; - and if ever, by our repeated Crimes, we should force the Spirit of God to leave us to ourselves, no Man can tell, no Man can foresee, what barbarous Wickedness he shall be tempted to commit; -nor what unwelcome, unlook'd for Calamities he may bring upon himself while he goes from Sin to Sin, till he meets with Destruction.-

For no Man continues long at one certain Pitch of Wickedness; for not only one evil Habit begets another, but the more a Man fins, the less capable he makes himself of judging what Sin is, and the dreadful Consequences of continuing in it.—And the Influences of God's Holy Spirit, and the gracious Interpolitions of Providence have still less Effect upon his Mind and Soul, till he has quite forgotten his Maker,—till he has fill'd up the Measure of his Iniquities,——and till he meets with Destruction, generally in this World, as well as the next.

Whenever, therefore, you are sensible you have done amis, delay not one Moment to beg of God to pardon you for Christ's Sake, and to give you Grace to do so no more.

And forget not an excellent Rule, which I have formerly mentioned, to direct you in most Actions of Moment:— Do not, at your Peril, undertake any thing, which you canon not with Confidence beg of God to bless and

' prosper you in.'

Lastly, and above all, remember, what cannot be too often repeated, That without Faith, — a Faith which depends on the Merits of Jesus Christ for Salvation,—a Faith which worketh by Love, which purifies the Heart, overcomes the World, and keeps the Commandments of God; you cannot possibly live as becomes a true Christian.

Ind. I beg you will explain what you mean by this.'

Miss. By this Faith we mean a—deep, real Sense, and firm Belief, of the Mercy and Love of God, for his poor fallen and lost Creatures; and his kind Proposal by his own Son to make them happy for ever.—This is that saving Faith, which will lead a Christian most powerfully to love God, and obey his Son Jesus Christ, to whom he hath given all Power in Heaven-

Miss. Lastly.—Will you dedicate and devote yourself to the Holy Ghost, that good Spirit, that he may, by his all-powerful Grace and Help, keep you from Sin and Wickedness, and assist you in the Way of Holiness and Happiness, that you may never be a Reproach to that Religion which you are going to profess?

Ind. I will most thankfully dedicate my-

A seasonable Instruction.

PUBLIC and Private Prayers, and Thankfgivings, are an Homage and Duty, which all Men owe to God as their Creater, their Lord and King; and by which they are to acknowledge their Obedience to, and their Dependence upon him, for Life, and Breath, and all things which they enjoy or hope for.

This, therefore, God hath made our indifpensible Duty:—And it will be a downright Rebellion, for any Man to resule his Homage any Day of his Life;—the wilful Neglect of this being, in Effect, to disown his Power over us,—His Goodness to help us in our Necessities,—And his Justice to punish such as transgress his Commands;—And to question the Faithfulness of his Promise to pardon the truly penitent Sinner, and to reward all such as sincerely strive to please him.

This Neglect and Disobedience is very often punished by God's leaving Men to themselves, and to their own wicked Ways; which ever did.

PRIVATE

did, and ever will, end in their Ruin,—very often in this World, but always in the World to come, without a Miracle of Grace, which fuch Sinners have no Reason to hope for.

The Cause of which is plain:—The Constant and wilful Omission of this Duty is a sure Way to lose the Knowledge and Remembrance of God, of his Word and Promises:— And then Men will have no Motives to sear or to love God, nor any Reason to hope for any Good from him.

It will also very naturally lead such People to depend upon themselves only;—To forget their own sad Condition and Misery;—That they are liable to God's Wrath, and even to Damnation; which Knowledge is necessary; and for this End was revealed, even to awaken and humble Sinners, that, by a true Repentance, they may escape the bitter Pains of eternal Misery.

Now the Spirit of God threatens, that such as will not retain God in their Knowledge (which can be done only by praying to him daily,) shall be given up by God to a reprobate Mind, that is, to a Mind void of Judgment—To do what is right in their own Eyes, let what will sollow.

And the Event will certainly be this:—They will fall under the Power and Government of Satan, and his evil Angels, who will lead them, as he did the Heathen World, to commit all Iniquity with Greediness, till they are fit for no Place but Hell.

Now, if these be Truths of the Gospel, as most furely they are, one would hope, there would need no other Words, to persuade every one who is in his right Mind, and not already in the said Condition before mentioned,—To beg of God to keep him, by his Grace, from falling into such dreadful Circumstances.

The most sure Way to avoid it is, — To dedicate some Time every Day of our Lives to the Worship of God:—Humbly to acknowledge our Dependence upon him:—To confess our own Weakness to help and govern ourselves:—To beg Pardon for having offended him:—To pray for his Grace, and Protection, and Blessing:—And to give him Thanks for his Mercies and Favours to us.

By doing this, we shall retain God in our Knowledge:—This will be a true and solid Foundation of Peace, and Comfort, and Happiness:—Provided it be performed out of a deep Sense of our own Wants and Miseries:—With a firm Faith in God's Promises to fulfil the Desires of them that fear bim:—And with an Eye to the Blood of Jesus our Redeemer, for whose Sake, and thro' whose Sufferings, we are reconciled to God, and God to us.

The following Devotions are here added, that they who stand in need of such Helps, may be directed what to pray for, every Morning and Evening of their Lives.—Not but that every serious Christian will find Occasion to ask many more Favours and Blessings, than

For this Reason there are added, after every Prayer, some short Instructions, as also proper Texts of Holy Scripture, with short Meditations upon them, to the Devotion of such as are well-disposed, and also to lead them into a Way of Profiting at all times, by the Holy Scriptures heard or read by them or others, which we all too often hear without being bettered by them.

Thanks and Glory be to Thee, my God and Father!

Gracious God, continue to me these, and all other thy Blessings, so long, and in such a Measure, as shall be most for thy Glory, and my Salvation.

Possess my Soul, I beseech Thee, with a true and saving Faith, and with such a Sense of thy Goodness to me, and of my Dependence upon Thee, that it may be my Delight, as it is my Interest and Duty, to serve and obey Thee.

But that I may serve Thee with a quiet Mind, forgive me all my Sins, I beseech Thee, for thy dear Son's Sake, and with-hold the Judgments of which my Conscience is asraid.

Keep it ever in the Heart of thy Servant, that it is an evil thing and bitter, to forfake and offend the Lord. And, above all things, keep me from wilful and deliberate Sins, that I may never grieve thy Holy Spirit, nor provoke Thee to leave me to myself:

Let thy restraining Grace preserve me from the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil;—That I may fall into no Sin, nor run into any kind of Danger;—but that all my Doings may be ordered by Thee, that I may do always that which is righteous in thy Sight;—And that I may live and act as having Thee, O God, the Constant Witness of all my Thoughts, Designs, Words, and Assions.

May

May I never render myself, by new Sins, unworthy of thy Guidance and Protection!— Suffer me not to go astray, or bring me back by such Ways as to Thee shall seem meet.

May I love Thee with all my Heart, and all Mankind for thy Sake!—And may I ever have this fure Proof of thy Love abiding in me, that I study to please Thee, and to keep thy Commandments!—And that I may forgive, and love, and do Good to my Neighbours, as becomes a Disciple of Jesus Christ!

Affist me, by thy Grace, faithfully to perform all the Duties of my Calling; and thankfully to receive, and patiently to bear, whatever thy Providence shall order for me.

Preserve me from an idle and useless Life; ever remembering,—That the Night cometh when no Man can Work:—And that now is the Time in which to provide for Eternity.

And grant, O Lord, that no worldly Pleafure, no worldly Business, may ever make me lose the Sight of Death.

And may the Thoughts of Death oblige me to be truly and fincerely good;—To mortify all Pride and Vanity,—Covetousness, Hatred, Envy, and Malice;—To be serious, sober, and watchful, while I continue in this State of Trial!

John xvi. 23. Verily Isay unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my Name, He shall give it you.

VERY thing is promifed to this Duty, when we pray as we ought to do; i. e.—
In the Name, and through the Merits, of Jesus Christ;—Out of a Sense of our own Wants and Miseries;—with the Humility of sinful Creatures;—And with a full Purpose of doing what we know will please God.

Prov. iii. 5, 6. Lean not unto thine own Underfranding; in all thy Ways acknowledge God, and he shall direct thy Paths.

Do Thou, O God, direct my Paths, and teach me to guide my Affairs with Charity, Discretion, Justice, and Piety. Shew me the Way that I should walk in, and give me Grace to follow the Conduct of thy good Spirit, for the Sake of Jesus Christ.

1 Cor. xv. 33. Evil Communications corrupt good Manners.

No Man must say, that he has any Respect for God, or Fear for himself, who chuseth the Conversation of wicked Men.—Their idle and prosane Discourses will leave evil Impressions upon the Mind.—Their indecent Freedom with the Name of God, and things sacred, will lessen the Reverence we owe to the Divine Majesty.—Their filthy and lewd Talk will destroy Modesty, and every Grace and Virtue; and will not fail to wear off the Thoughts and Fears of what may come hereafter.—May thy Grace, O God, keep me from a Conversation so displeasing to Thee, and so destructive to the Souls of Men; grant this for Christ's Sake!

The Duty and Benefit of Evening PRAYER for a Person in Private.

SLEEP, said a great Man, is so like Death, that I dare not trust it without faying my Prayers.—And indeed, for fear of the worst, a thoughtful Christian will take care to make his Peace with God, before he goes to fleep;— And put himself under God's Protection every Evening of bis Life, that he may be lake from Fear of Evil.

An Evening PRAYER.

Most Gracious and Merciful God, I give Thee Thanks, that it has pleafed Thee to add another Day to the Years of my Life, and that none of thy Judgments, to which for my Sins I am justly liable, have fallen upon me.

Bleffed be thy Goodness, that my Sins and Ingratitude have not prevented thee from bringing me safe to the Evening of this Day!

O God, infinite in Mercy, pardon my Sins of the Day past, whether in Thought, Word, or Deed, which I have committed through the Fraud and Malice of the Devil, or thro' my own Weakness and Frailty: And grant that they may never rise up in Judgment against me.

Prepare me, I befeech Thee, for the Continuance of thy Favours, by giving me the Grace of a true Repentance, and a thorough.

Amendment of Life.

Make me truly sensible of the Weakness and Corruption of my Nature; and the Need I have of thy Gracious Help, that I may pray for it continually.

May I ever make a right Use of the Time which thy Goodness shall yet vouchsafe me, and not dare to abuse thy Patience and Long-Morning PRAYER for a Family.

Josh. xxiv. 15. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.

 God's Bleffing in this World, or in the World to come.

Let one devoutly read or say what followeth, the rest of the Family seriously attending.

HE Lord hath brought us fafe to the Beginning of this Day: Let us give him Thanks for this, and for all his Mercies.

Let us pray, that we may live in the Fear of God, and continue in Love and Charity with our Neighbours:

That his Holy Spirit may direct and rule our Hearts, teaching us what to do, and what to avoid:

That the Grace of God may ever be with us, to support us in all Dangers, and carry us through all Temptations:

That the Lord may bless all our honest Endeavours, and make us content with what his Providence shall order for us: And that we may continue his faithful Servants this Day, and all the Days of our Life.

For all which Bleffings let us devoutly pray,

Then all devoutly kneeling, let one fay,

Most Gracious and Merciful God, by whom the World is governed and preferved, we give Thee humble thanks for thy fatherly Care over us; in preferving us from the Dangers of the Night past, and in bringing us safe this Morning to see another Day.

We gratefully acknowledge our Dependence upon thee, for all the Necessaries, Conveniencies, and Comforts of our Life;—for all the Means of our Well-being bere, and of our everlasting Happiness bereaster.

We give Thee Thanks for the Light of thy Gospel, and the Help of thy Grace, and for the Promise Thou hast made us of Pardon and Forgiveness thro' thy Son Jesus Christ, on our sincere Repentance and Amendment.

Give us, we befeech Thee, such a Sense of these and all other thy Mercies to us, as may make us truly thankful to Thee for them.

Give us Crace that we may ever walk as in thy Sight.—Make a Conscience of all our Ways;—And, fearing to offend Thee, may never fall into the Sins we have repented of.

Enable us to resist and overcome the Temptations of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil;—To follow the Motions of thy good Spirit;—to be serious and holy in our Lives;—true and just in our Dealings;—watchful over our Thoughts, our Words, and our Actions;—diligent in our Business, and temperate in all things.

Give us Grace honestly to improve all the Talents which Thou hast committed to our Trust;—and may no worldly Business, no worldly Pleasures, divert us from the Concerns of the Life to come!

May thy Bleffing be upon our Persons, upon our Labours, upon our Substance;—

Evening PRAYER for a Family.

Let one of the Family read or say distinctly what followeth, the rest seriously attending.

Py the Favour of God, we are come to the Evening of this Day; and we are so much nearer our latter End.

Let us feriously consider this, and pray God to prepare us for the Hour of Death.

Let us, with penitent Hearts, befeech him to pardon our Offences, and to deliver us from the Evils which they have deserved.

Let us resolve to amend whatever we have done amis, and pray God, that his Grace may keep us from returning to those Sins which we have repented of:

And then we may be fafe under his Protection who alone can defend us from the Powers of Darkness.

For all which Bleffings let us devoutly pray,

Then, all devoutly kneeling, let one distinctly say,

LORD, and Heavenly Father, we acknowledge thy great Goodness to us, in sparing us when we deserve Punishment;—in giving us the Necessaries of this Life, and in setting before us the Happiness of a better Life.

O merciful God, parden our Offences, correct and amend what is amiss in us, that as we grow in Years, we may grow in Grace, and the nearer we come to our latter End, the better we may be prepared for it.

In the Midst of Life we are in Death.

Lord, grant that these Thoughts may make us careful how we live, that we may escape the bitter Pains of eternal Misery.

Luke xiii. 24. Strive to enter in at the straight Gate; for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

May we never flatter ourselves, that the Way to Heaven and Happiness is easy, and that the Generality of Christian People are in the Way of Salvation, when Thou hast declared the contrary!—O may thy Spirit convince us that our Salvation is not to be secured without great Watchfulness and Care, without Labour, Pains, and Diligence: And that, on these Conditions, thy Goodness will enable us to overcome all the Difficulties we can possibly meet with!

Luke ix. 13. If ye being evil, know bow to give good Gifts unto your Children; how much more shall your Heavenly Father give good things, and his Holy Spirit, to them that ask Him!

O Heavenly Father, let it be unto us according to this thy Son's most faithful Promise.—

Thee to give us!—And grant that we may never grieve thy holy Spirit;—never rejects his godly Motions, or render ourselves unworthy of his Abode with us, by living in any known Sin.

Rev. iii. 19. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten.

Kindness to us, in all the Dispensations of thy Providence! Our corrupt Nature will not let us see this:—It is thy Grace alone which must convince us, that a Father so good would not suffer Afflictions to fall upon his Children, without an absolute Necessity.—Convince us, therefore, O God, that we stand in need of thy Rebukes, to awaken and amend us:—And enable us to bear all the Afflictions of this Life with Patience, and an entire Resignation to thy Wisdom and Goodness, and make them powerful Means of our eternal Salvation. Amen.

A short and necessary Instruction for the Lord's Day, in the Morning.

HE Lord, who s bleffed One Day in Seven, bleffeth all those that keep it holy: and very terrible have been his Judgments upon them that have profaned it.

It is your Duty therefore, on this good Day, to lay afide as much as possible, all worldly Business; all worldly Thoughts; all worldly Pleasures; that you may honour your Creator to the best of your Power; by owning your Dependence upon him; by hearing his Word, and his Commands; by asking his Blessings, and giving him Thanks for his Favours.

If then it is our Interest and our Happiness, to serve God, it is our Duty to be at his House before his Service begins; to shew that we fear his Majesty, and dare not offer him a lame Sacrifice; to shew, that we do indeed desire his Blessing, and take Delight in ferving him.

When therefore you come into the House of God, and first kneel down, say secretly this short Prayer.

A short Prayer at your coming into Church.

amongst us, that we may serve him with our Hearts as well as with our Bodies, and that our Prayers may be heard, for the Sake of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen.

After this, attend diligently to what is faid, and pray'd for; remembering that they are your Prayers which are offered up to God; but that you have no Share in them, if you do not mind what is asked in your Name.

That your Heart may go along with your Prayers, say softly, Amen, So be it, to every This is what the most Unlearned Petition. may do, and it may be the most Learned cannot do better, to keep their Minds intent upon-

When you confess your Sins, do it with great Seriousness and Concern, remembering that you are for ever undone, if you are not forgiven. And then hear with Comfort upon what Condition God will pardon you: If you repent and believe the Gospel, you are sure to be forgiven.

When the Word of God is read or preached, be careful to mind it, that you may know your Duty, and the Reward of doing it; that you may observe the Way of God's dealing with Mankind, in punishing the Wicked, and in protecting and rewarding the Righteous; that you may know the Manner of our Redemption, and the great Love of God in bringing it to pass; that you may see the Dangers.

Rom. x. 17.

And be fure to behave yourself with great Reverence and Devotion, while you are in the House and Presence of God; for if, when you should be on your Knees, asking God's Pardon and Blessings, or standing to praise the Creator of Heaven and Earth; if, instead of doing so, you sit and sleep away the Time, or carelessly gaze, and think of other Matters, then you will return from God's House with a Curse, and not with a Blessing.

And yet the very best of us, after all our Care, have Cause to beg Pardon even for the Faults of our Devotions. Therefore, before you rise from your Knees, say privately this

HE good Lord accept of our Duty, and Service; pardon our Sins and Infirmities; give us what is needful for our Souls, and for our Bodies; and keep us evermore under thy Protection, for the Sake of Jesus Christ our Saviour! Amen.

Then will the Lord be with you, to bless you in the Way you go; to preserve and to prosper you. For this is what he hath declared, Them that honour me, I will honour; and they that despise me, shall be lightly esteemed, I Sam. ii. 30.

A Prayer for Sunday Morning.

LORD, who hast consecrated this Day to thy Service, give us Grace so to observe it, that it may be the Beginning of an happy Week to us; and that none of thy Judgments may fall upon us for profaning it. Fix in our Hearts this great Truth, that here we have no Abiding-place, that we may seriously and timely provide for another Life; and grant that this great Concern may make us very desirous to learn our Duty, and to do what Thou requirest of us. And blessed be God, that we have Churches to go to, that we have such Times set apart for the more public Worship

Worship of our Creator, and that we have Pastors to teach us! The Lord prosper their Labours, and give us Grace to profit by them, that they and we may enjoy an everlasting Sabbath with thy Saints in Heaven, for Jesus Christ's Sake. Amen.

A plain and useful Instruction for Sunday Evening.

Concerning the Providence of God, or his Wifdom and Goodness in governing the World.

THAT God is great, and to be greatly feared, we know by the World he hath made, and from his dreadful Judgments.

That God is good, and to be loved and worshipped, we are convinced from his Care of the whole Creation.

For his tender Mercies are over all his Works, Pfal. cxlv. 9. Therefore have his Creatures the Comfort of the Rain and Sun, of Food and Shelter; the Earth yields Increase, and the Seas are stored with Creatures innumerable.

In the Hand of God are these and all other. Blessings, which he with-holds, or giveth, according to his good Pleasure, to teach us, that we wholly depend on him; that Man liveth not by Bread alone, nor by his own Industry, but by the Providence of God, who orderethe all Conditions of Life for the best, for those that cannot chuse for themselves.

And if he suffers some to be poor, it is because that Condition is best for them now; but he will make them a great Amends in the next World for what they want in this, if they will be content and honest, neither murmur at their own Lot, nor envy that of others.

When God giveth Riches, it is not to make them an Occasion of our Ruin, but to try our Virtue; for, if we are not high-minded, if we trust not in uncertain Riches, but in the living God; if we do Good with them, and readily distribute to the Necessity of others; then are Riches a real Blessing, and help to bring us to eternal Life, I Tim. vi. 17.

If he bringeth us into Affliction, it is not that he ispleased with the Miseries of his Creatures, but he is shewing them their Transgression, he is opening their Ear to Discipline, that they may return from Iniquity, and save their Souls from Death eternal, Job xxxvi. 9.

If he suffers us to be tempted, it is not that we might fall, but to make us more sensible of our own Weakness, that we may come to him for Help, on whom we depend, who will not suffer us to be tempted above what we are able to bear; and who will reward our poor Endeavours with unspeakable Happiness.

If we have Friends, it is the Favour of God to us; and, if we have Enemies, they are Rods in his Hands, either to correct us, or to make us careful of our Ways.

The Devil himself, that powerful Spirit, is under God's Command, to execute his Judgments upon wicked Men, while they that trust in the Lord have nothing to fear, for he hath no Power to hurt them.

Happy are we, who know these things now; and we shall be for ever happy, if we live according to this Belief.

For then we shall trust in the Lord with all our Heart, and not lean unto our own Understanding.

We shall call upon him for what we want, and thankfully receive what he is pleased to send. For shall we receive Good at the Hand of God, and shall we not receive Evil? Job ii. 10.

We shall hope for his Favour when we mean well, and never expect his Bleffing when our Designs are evik

We shall look upon God's Time as the best, and not grow impatient when our Desires are not answer'd.

We shall acknowledge his Hand in every thing that befalleth us, and hope for his Mercy even when he is angry, knowing, that all things shall work together for Good to them that love God, Rom. viii. 28. Thus shall we dwell under the Defence of the most High, and shall be secure from fear of Evil.

A Short ADMONITION to All, and especially to Masters of Families.

Mongst the many growing Vices of this profane Age, one wretched and ungodly Custom is too common; viz. of People's falling to their Meals, as Beasts do to their Fodder, without any Thoughts of God, or Thanks for his Blessings *.—And even too many of those who have not quite laid aside this Christian Duty, perform it after such a slight and negligent Manner, as makes it as sinful as the Omission.

When a Man, like ourselves, bestows a Favour, we naturally give him Thanks.—Are not Food, and the Supports of Life and Health, mighty Blessings?—Is not God the

All Christians, who have any Regard to the Example of their Saviour, who always glorified God, and gave Him public Thanks for his Blessings;—or to the Example of St. Paul, who would not omit this Duty, tho' in Bonds, and in the presence of a numerous Company of Heathens;—All Christians, seeing the Reasonableness of this Duty, and the Sin of omitting it, or of not performing it after a serious Manner, will be inexcusable before God, if they neglect to glorify Him at their Daily Meals.

Now, that the most unlearned may not want Words to express their Thanks, and beg God's Blessing upon themselves, and their daily Food, these following may be made use of.
