KARL LIEBKNECHT SEVERELY WOUNDED IN BERLIN RIOTS

All Civilians Will Be Armed to Defend Berlin From Spartacans.

FIRST RESTORE ORDER

When Berlin is Normal, Troops Will Be Sent to Original Destinations.

London, Jan. 14.—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, one of the Spartacan leaders, was severely wounded in the fighting in Berlin, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam. The report gives no details.

A German wireless despatch received here says that all civilians will be armed to defend Berlin.

Gustav Noske, in charge of the government's defensive measures, delivered a speech in front of the foreign press today, thanking the troops for what they have accomplished. He said the troops had been collected for threatened troubles in east, but they had been employed in Berlin instead. It was impossible to restore order at the frontiers while in the capital might was going before right.

Noske added that as soon as Berlin was normal the troops would be sent to their original destination, but a sufficient number would be retained to safeguard the elections in the assembly. The speaker concluded by saying the German Government had not forgotten for an instant its duty to its brethren in the east, and had done everything to protect them in the future securely and lastingly against "Polish despotism."

THROPS SHOW NO MERCY TO THE SPARTACANS

Berlin, Sunday, Jan. 12.—The Ebert Government tonight was confident of its physical ability to defend the elections to the national assembly next Sunday, Jan. 19, against violence from Spartacan and Independent Socialist sources.

The insurrection generally, it appeared tonight, had been effectually put down, chiefly because the new troops called in by the government had taken matters in hand, and were determined to give the followers of Liebknecht no quarter. The next few days, it is declared, will witness the inauguration of further drastic military measures calculated to stamp out the Bolshevik contagion.

One of these measures covers the illegal possession of arms and ammunition, and it is proposed to make this offense punishable with immediate death. The military men now cooperating with the government propose to show the insurgents no mercy, and they amply demonstrated this policy during the recapture of the Vorwaerts building and police headquarters.

It is declared by credible eyewitnesses that the new government troops in both actions, Sunday and Monday, were Spartacan guards, beat down with bayonets, and with clubs, and otherwise killed scores of men who were Spartacan guards or civilians caught with arms. In both actions persons already have been arrested, and are facing severe penalties.

Robbery and Looting.

The last ripple of the tidal wave which has swept over Berlin in the past seven days now are being felt in the spread of robbery and looting which is being carried on by soldiers and sailors, who detached themselves from Spartacan units. The section of Berlin radiating from the police headquarters in the past 48 hours has been

Toronto Eastern Railway, Another of Mackenzie Group's Properties, Has Also Been Acquired—Necessity of Feeders Evidently Reason for Purchases.

The Canadian National Railways is acquiring the Toronto Eastern Ry. Co.'s charter and other property, which are also controlled by Sir Wm. Mackenzie and associates. This line is projected to run from Toronto to Cobourg, Ont. A contract was let and construction started in 1914, grading being done from Bowmanville west to Pickering Village, 19.5 miles, and track was laid and ballasting done from Bowmanville to Whitby, 14.5 miles. No overhead or other electrical work was done, and, owing to the war, all construction was stopped.

"The Chatham, Wallaceburg & Lake Erie Ry., also controlled by Sir Wm. Mackenzie and associates, will not, it is said, be taken over by the Canadian Northern. Its Toronto offices, heretofore in one of the C.N.R. buildings in Toronto, have been removed to 43 Victoria street."

Say "Proteslaus" Safe Due Vladivostok Today

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—The British troopship Proteslaus, which was reported in difficulties owing to a broken propeller, is safe and proceeding to Vladivostok under her own steam. A naval department cable came from the naval transport officer at Vladivostok and states that the Proteslaus is safe and steaming to Vladivostok. A militia advice sent by General Emsley stated that the Proteslaus reported by wireless: "No assistance required."

General H. C. Bickford is believed to be a passenger.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—Cable advices have been received by the militia department that the steamer Empress of Britain, with 3,127 Canadian soldiers on board, left Liverpool for Halifax on January 12. There are on board 71 officers, 60 cadets, 2,996 other ranks and one civilian for Halifax. The classification by military districts is as follows:

For Toronto district there are 16 officers, 9 cadets, and 799 men of other ranks. For London there are 1 officer and 222 men.

SIX STATES NOW NEEDED TO RATIFY PROHIBITION

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Seven states today completed ratification of the prohibition constitutional amendment and brought the number taking such action to thirty. The number necessary for ratification is thirty-six.

Arkansas, California, Illinois, Kansas, Indiana, North Carolina and Alabama were the states joining the "dry" column.

In addition, the Nebraska senate and the Utah house voted for ratification. In California, however, attorneys for the Grape Growers' Protective League filed suit for an injunction to restrain the governor from certifying the ratification. In support of the suit it was urged that all acts of the California Legislature must be submitted to a referendum.

BIG INCREASES TO BE DEMANDED BY BRITISH MINERS

Advance in Pay That is Expected to Range From 30 to 50 Per Cent.

WANT SIX-HOUR DAY

Demands Will Be Made Today at Meeting of Federation at Southport.

Special Cable to Toronto World and N. Y. Tribune by Chester M. Wright. (Copyright).

London, Jan. 14.—Pay increases that may range from thirty to fifty per cent, and demands for a six-hour day are expected to be made by the miners' federation of Great Britain at the Southport meeting tomorrow. In justification of the demands for a liberal wage increase, President Greenwell of the Lancashire and Cheshire Miners' Federation, points out that government figures show that while profits increased during the war from 120 to 130 per cent, the wage increases granted the miners were only 75 to 83 per cent, the maximum wage now being twelve shillings five pence, or about $3 a day.

Delegates attending the Southport conference will represent about 85,000 men, in the most strongly organized labor body in the British Isles. The demand for more pay and shorter hours has been growing for some time. There is no dissension in the ranks of the miners regarding the making of heavy demands. The only dispute among the pitmen concerns the amount of increase to be asked. Some of the district federations hold that a full 100 per cent increase should be demanded.

As the executive of the federation, however, believe that 50 per cent is the proper figure, it is to be believed that increase to be demanded is not far from that figure, although there is certain to be rebrunations from the more ardent delegates, who are convinced that the time is ripe for audacious action.

In Strategic Position.

The shortage of coal in Great Britain is such as to place the miners in a strategic position to press their demands in a manner not possible under conditions more favorable to the government and the mine owners.

The shorter work day movement is not confined to the miners. Since the signing of the armistice the movement has become general among the stronger unions.

On Feb. 1, the railway men will begin work under an eight-hour day schedule, the application of which has presented a feature which would be unthinkable in Canada and the United States. In making the railway service conform to the new work day middle of the night trains are to be abandoned, it is said, the outlook being for two eight-hour shifts, outside which no trains will run. Obviously the short runs of England make the situation in the respect entirely different from that in America.

The machinists and shipyard workers have obtained a 47-hour week since the signing of the armistice, and other labor organizations are making moves in the same direction.

ALL SUBMARINES MUST BE GIVEN UP

THREATEN DEATH TO SWISS HOSTAGES

Bolsheviks Send Ultimatum Demanding Release of Thirty Reds Now in Prison.

Geneva, Jan. 14.—The Bolshevik government in Petrograd has telegraphed an ultimatum to the Swiss federal authorities, saying that unless thirty Bolsheviks, who were arrested and imprisoned in the fortress of Savatan, in the Canton of Valais, are released before Feb. 1, thirty Swiss citizens in Petrograd will be shot without trial.

Paris, Jan. 14.—The conference of President Wilson with Premier Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law and A. J. Balfour this afternoon gave opportunity for a most satisfactory exchange of views on the subjects coming up for settlement at tomorrow's session of the supreme war council. The hope is expressed that it will result in giving greater speed to the work of both the supreme war council and the inter-allied peace conference.

It is expected that the sittings of the war council will occupy the entire day. One of the questions to be discussed is the official language to be used during the sessions. It appears also that the question of representation has not been entirely solved, and this matter will come up for further discussion.

It is said tonight that the supposition that the French language has been decided upon as the only tongue to be used in the conference is at least premature.

Settle Language Question.

The opening session of parliament and the cabinet meeting today took up the attention of Premier Clemenceau and his collaborators so that little opportunity was afforded for another conference with the French statesmen before tomorrow's meeting. It is thought that there will be any difficulty in settling the question of language, procedure and representation, in view of the number of nations represented and the varying interests, the question of representation may develop a somewhat lengthy discussion.

A report presented to the council having charge of the carrying out of naval terms of the armistice stated, according to the morning newspapers, that the inter-allied commission, which visited Kiel and Wilhelmshaven district in ships, which the enemy thought would be overlooked. The report stated that the Germans contended that they the underwriters of the armistice.

According to the report, the discovery at Kiel and Wilhelmshaven led to the finding of other vessels and consequently the new terms of armistice will require the surrender of submarines already built and the destruction of those on the ways.

Russian Polish Question.

The supreme war council is now handling the Russian Polish subject gingerly thus far, so it has been a fruitful matter of discussion in the various exchanges.

There is no change of policy indicated in the case of either Russia or Poland and it is stated as quite certain that no American troops will be sent to Poland at this stage at least.

In connection with the armistice extension provision has been made for the opening up of water routes for troops and supplies into Poland, which the Germans have been trying to obstruct, but so far as troops are concerned this applies only to Polish troops who have been in the entente ranks on the western front.

Plans for League of Nations.

Nearly forty different plans for a league of nations are now before the American delegates. Each has points of merit, but many contain sections directly at variance with the ideas forming the basis of the other schemes.

In order that the inter-allied conference may benefit by all this matter, it is to be laid before a committee created for the purpose; it is even probable that it will be submitted separately to each delegation. In order to hasten a conclusion.

The meetings of the supreme war council during the last two days have been a source of satisfaction to conference circles as indicating a spirit of accommodation and an outlook for rapid and harmonious work.

One of those present at the conferences said today that there were no formal speeches; that the members had, about exchanging views familiarly, as at a club. At no time was there any sharp exchange or evidence of friction.

Did Good Work.

Respecting Monday's meeting of the supreme war council, Premier Clemenceau said:

"We finished, first of all, with the armistice, and there, I think, we did good work. Then we continued our examination of the procedure for the conference, notably the representation of the small powers. As to the conference itself, which should meet on Thursday, it had been postponed until Saturday on account of the absence of the Italian premier, Signor Orlando."

Discussed Procedure.

At yesterday's session if the council, the question of representations settled. It was decided, for example, that the procedure. A proposal by President

ADMIRALTY TELLS STORY OF SUBMARINE CRUISERS

Two Thousand Tons, Carry Four-Inch Guns, and Are a Match Even for Destroyers on the Surface.

London, Jan. 14.—The admiralty today permitted to be made public the real story of the submarine cruisers which the British successfully constructed at the time the Germans were boasting of their super-submarine.

The British craft have two funnels and a 12-inch gun, also the details of his craft have not been made public. The craft was built with the idea of making it possible to fire the gun, the new ideas embraced in the construction including the "cushioning" of the boat to withstand the terrific concussion of the gun. This idea is represented unofficially as having been successful. So far as is known the new craft was never employed against any enemy vessel.

Resume Burlington Radial Announces the Corporation

Hamilton, Jan. 14.—With the threatening shadow of the Hydro-Electric commission of Ontario hovering over them and every day bringing them nearer to being "hydro-ized," the officials of the Dominion Power and Transmission Company are trying to avert the landslide by making terms with the Town of Burlington, which, for the past month, has been practically cut off from Hamilton.

The World was informed tonight by a prominent official of the corporation that arrangements were being made with Burlington to resume the service at the earliest opportunity and that the following rates would be put into effect for one year: 25 cents for an individual commutation, 35 cents for a family commutation and 50 cents for a straight return.

As Soon as Possible.

Asked if the service would begin this week, he said: "Well, it will start as soon as possible, but we are not just yet in a position to definitely announce the date. There is a tremendous amount of ice on the tracks and it will take some time to remove."

Down in Burlington today the residents were jubilant as a result of their victory over the corporation, owing to the fact that the arrangement with the company means that their now famous bylaw still stands as firm as the rock of Gibraltar.

Every second ratepayer told "The World" that the cars would be running sometime this week, and that the next step would be the taking over of the line by Sir Adam Beck. They are thoroughly in sympathy with the "hydro-izing" scheme, and both the ratepayers and the town council have declared themselves in favor of the Hydro absorbing the radial.

Good Hydro Investment.

That the radial line at its old rates would be a sound investment for both the Hydro and the ratepayers, is evident from a comparison of the Hamilton, Oakville line, and the London and Port Stanley Hydro Railway, which in 1918 showed a surplus of $23,000, to be divided among the various municipalities bordering it. The London and Port Stanley line gives a rate of 45 cents return (book tickets), a distance of 50 miles, and an excursion rate for two days in the week of 30 cents for 50 miles. On the basis of mileage the 45 cent rate would be less than a 20 cent rate here, and the 30 cent rate less than 15 cents here.

"Considering the receipts of the Hamilton Electric Radial per mile, I cannot see why the Hydro could not operate the line at the old radial rate, or even less," declared Chief Engineer Gaby, of the Hydro-Electric Commission, to a member of Burlington's council. The capitulation of the corporation to the little town is due to the fight put up by the old council, ex-Town Solicitor Cleaver, Reeve Cleaver and The Toronto World, in bringing forward the scheme for "hydro-izing" the line, and is only an indication that the company officials are able to read the writing on the wall. They see their former glory as a corporation for the capitalist fading and are attempting to fend fate off by respecting Burlington's agreement and rendering service. The signs of the times, however, point plainly to the fact that they are too late, and with the City of Hamilton lining up to take its stand behind Sir Adam Beck, it will not be long before the Dominion Power and Transmission Company and its holdings will be run "for the people and by the people."

HOGS FAIRLY STEADY ON REASSURING NEWS

At the Union Stock Yards nobody can be found that will hazard an opinion as to the probable course of the hog market in the next few days, but if yesterday's market indicates anything, it is that confirmation or otherwise of the alleged cancellation of bacon and lard contracts, there will be some buying at any rate. Yesterday on the Union Stock Market there were about 400 hogs bid from up country points, besides quite a lot from farmers' sleighs, the price running at about 17 cents, fat and watered.

At this figure, the market is off from 11-14 to 11-2 cents, as reported in Toronto evening papers. Buffalo and other big American centres have not shown any very startling break, and this is said to be due to the fact that the American Government have guaranteed the farmers 17-1/2 fed and watered for 1919. If this is true, it is undoubtedly tend to stabilize the Canadian market as well. In the meantime, it is safe to say that for down-country, and it is not confined to the farmers still.

They are thoroughly in sympathy with the "hydro-izing" scheme, and both the ratepayers and the town council have declared themselves in favor of the Hydro absorbing the radial.

Good Hydro Investment.

That the radial line at its old rates would be a sound investment for both the Hydro and the ratepayers, is evident from a comparison of the Hamilton, Oakville line, and the London and Port Stanley Hydro Railway, which in 1918 showed a surplus of $23,000, to be divided among the various municipalities bordering it. The London and Port Stanley line gives a rate of 45 cents return (book tickets), a distance of 50 miles, and an excursion rate for two days in the week of 30 cents for 50 miles. On the basis of mileage the 45 cent rate would be less than a 20 cent rate here, and the 30 cent rate less than 15 cents here.

"Considering the receipts of the Hamilton Electric Radial per mile, I cannot see why the Hydro could not operate the line at the old radial rate, or even less," declared Chief Engineer Gaby, of the Hydro-Electric Commission, to a member of Burlington's council. The capitulation of the corporation to the little town is due to the fight put up by the old council, ex-Town Solicitor Cleaver, Reeve Cleaver and The Toronto World, in bringing forward the scheme for "hydro-izing" the line, and is only an indication that the company officials are able to read the writing on the wall. They see their former glory as a corporation for the capitalist fading and are attempting to fend fate off by respecting Burlington's agreement and rendering service. The signs of the times, however, point plainly to the fact that they are too late, and with the City of Hamilton lining up to take its stand behind Sir Adam Beck, it will not be long before the Dominion Power and Transmission Company and its holdings will be run "for the people and by the people."

RESUME BURLINGTON RADIAL ANNOUNCES THE CORPORATION

Hamilton, Jan. 14.—With the threatening shadow of the Hydro-Electric commission of Ontario hovering over them and every day bringing them nearer to being "hydro-ized," the officials of the Dominion Power and Transmission Company are trying to avert the landslide by making terms with the Town of Burlington, which, for the past month, has been practically cut off from Hamilton.

The World was informed tonight by a prominent official of the corporation that arrangements were being made with Burlington to resume the service at the earliest opportunity and that the following rates would be put into effect for one year: 25 cents for an individual commutation, 35 cents for a family commutation and 50 cents for a straight return.

As Soon as Possible.

Asked if the service would begin this week, he said: "Well, it will start as soon as possible, but we are not just yet in a position to definitely announce the date. There is a tremendous amount of ice on the tracks and it will take some time to remove."

Down in Burlington today the residents were jubilant as a result of their victory over the corporation, owing to the fact that the arrangement with the company means that their now famous bylaw still stands as firm as the rock of Gibraltar.

Every second ratepayer told "The World" that the cars would be running sometime this week, and that the next step would be the taking over of the line by Sir Adam Beck. They are thoroughly in sympathy with the "hydro-izing" scheme, and both the ratepayers and the town council have declared themselves in favor of the Hydro absorbing the radial.

HOGS FAIRLY STEADY ON REASSURING NEWS

At the Union Stock Yards nobody can be found that will hazard an opinion as to the probable course of the hog market in the next few days, but if yesterday's market indicates anything, it is that confirmation or otherwise of the alleged cancellation of bacon and lard contracts, there will be some buying at any rate. Yesterday on the Union Stock Market there were about 400 hogs bid from up country points, besides quite a lot from farmers' sleighs, the price running at about 17 cents, fat and watered.

At this figure, the market is off from 11-14 to 11-2 cents, as reported in Toronto evening papers. Buffalo and other big American centres have not shown any very startling break, and this is said to be due to the fact that the American Government have guaranteed the farmers 17-1/2 fed and watered for 1919. If this is true, it is undoubtedly tend to stabilize the Canadian market as well. In the meantime, it is safe to say that for down-country, and it is not confined to the farmers still.

HEAR "OLD CHIEF" PROCLAIM POLICY

Sir Wilfrid, in Excellent Form, Addresses Eastern Ontario Liberals.

WILLING TO RETIRE

Would Give Place to Younger General, But Has "Kick Left."

Special to The Toronto World. Ottawa, Jan. 14.—Eastern Ontario Liberals organized this afternoon with apparent enthusiasm and unanimity for a vigorous renewal of political campaigning, and unanimously re-elected Sir Wilfrid Laurier as the trusted leader of the Liberals of Canada. Tonight they heard the "Old Chief" proclaim the principles of Liberalism, condemn the Union Government's departure from the safeguards of responsible government, urge more adequate and prompt measures for the payment of the state's debt to those who fought and those who fell in the war, re-annulate the Liberal tariff policy, outline the social and industrial problems of statesmanship ahead, invite Union Liberals to forget past differences with Laurier Liberals, and be all united Liberals once more, and finally declare his willingness to retire in favor of a younger general, the still willing to serve in any capacity, and still asserting that he had "a kick left in him."

"We look not at the past, our only horizon is that of the future," declared Sir Wilfrid. As for the past he justified his own stand on the conscription issue. "If anybody could have been in my place," he said, "knowing as I know, perhaps better than any other living Canadian, all the complications and different elements of our population, I believe he would have done what I did. It was a question of judgment, not a question of loyalty. I took the stand I thought would help most all things being considered, to win the war." He declared the Liberals had been consistent through the tariff policy enunciated in 1892, a tariff for revenue only, and not a tariff for protection. "We proceeded step by step towards the goal of a tariff for revenue only," he asserted. "This was our policy in the past. It is our policy today. And the evidence he adduced was contained in the specific tariff reductions, the British preference and the reciprocity agreement as cited in the tariff resolution passed by the convention, which resolution received his full endorsement."

Capital and Labor. In the matter of specific policies, Sir Wilfrid's most important declaration was in connection with the relations of capital and labor. The resolution passed by the association in the afternoon declaring that "to democratize the government of industry so as to give to the workers and consumers a larger share in the government of industry is the task that lies ahead," said Sir Wilfrid, was "the keynote." And that keynote, he said, had been struck by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, "the only real minister of labor Canada ever had." Whereupon Sir Wilfrid passed on to refer to his own leadership and his personal desire to resign the task to younger hands. "I feel every day," he said, "that I am getting riper and riper for heaven. But I will still do my share in any position and complete my task cheerfully in any position, whether as general, captain, lieutenant or private in the ranks."

Sir Wilfrid's emphasis upon the new task ahead of Liberalism in regard to social reconstruction and the bringing together of capital and labor with his tribute to Hon. Mackenzie King lends significance to his reference to the turning over of the leadership to younger hands. It is perhaps significant, too, that all the speakers today carefully noted that there was no longer any need for differences between Union Liberals and Laurier Liberals, and that the president-elect, H. J. Horsey, was a conscriptionist Liberal candidate in Prince Edward County in the last election. So far as today's convention shows the two wings of Liberalism in eastern Ontario are evidently getting together again with a tariff for revenue only and social and industrial reform policies as the main planks. The questions of public ownership, railway nationalization or prohibition were not touched upon.

The total amount alleged to have been misappropriated approximates $33,940, most of which has been recovered.

BRITISH COLONEL ACCUSED OF MURDER

Is Charged With Killing Major Miles Seton of Melbourne.

London, Jan. 14.—A sensation was caused in military circles today when it was learned that Lieut.-Col. Norman Cecil Rutherford had been arrested charged with the wilful murder of Major Miles Charles Seton of Melbourne. The murder occurred at the residence of Major Seton's cousin, Malcolm Cotter Seton, secretary of the judicial and public department of the Indian office, last night. Col. The police were sent for a few minutes later, and when they arrived there they found Major Seton dead, with three bullet wounds in his body. The reasons for the shooting have not been disclosed.

TO SOLVE PROBLEM OF CONSTANTINOPLE

Greek Delegate to Conference Proposes City Should Be Temporarily Given to Greece.

Special Cable to The Toronto World and New York Tribune by Ralph Courtney, Copyrighted. Paris, Jan. 14.—M. Politis, Greek foreign minister, and one of the three Greek plenipotentiaries to the peace conference, is reported by a Paris newspaper correspondent to have declared that the natural solution of the problem of Constantinople would be to adjudicate the city to Greece for a time—at the same providing guarantees for the freedom of the Straits of the Bosphorus. Regarding Bulgaria, M. Politis is quoted as follows: "Here there must be no complications. Access to the Aegean must be refused to her for the sake of the security of western Europe. Without this the Austro-Germans will again take up their dream of dominating the east."

SCORE'S GREAT "BALACLAVA" TOPCOAT SALE

The first of the three days' sale of Score's "Balacava" Slip-on Topcoats was certainly an undeniable warrant of its quality. The sale continues today with prospects of still greater interest, and certainly the quality, the styles and the workmanship warrant what is said of these coats of distinction; and the prices are as attractive as the coats are great in all points that go to bear out the Score's standards. ### RAYMOND E. JONES, BANK PRESIDENT

Was Formerly Head of New York Agency of Royal Bank of Canada.

Special to The Toronto World. New York, Jan. 14.—Raymond E. Jones, first vice-president of the Merchants' National Bank, was elected president of that institution tomorrow, according to present plans of the directors. Mr. Jones will succeed Hon. Ephedore E. Burton, who is expected to be made chairman of the board, an office which will enable him to carry out personal plans for lecturing on economic and political subjects. Mr. Jones, who is thirty-four years old, will rank as the youngest bank president in the financial district. This distinction was formerly held by Harvey D. Gibson as president of the Liberty National Bank. Mr. Jones came to the Merchants' National two years ago, when the bank was reorganized as the result of a change of control. Before that time he was head of the New York agency of the Royal Bank of Canada. He is a native New Yorker and has made a specialty of American banking methods, particularly in their relations to foreign business. During 1918 the bank's deposits increased more than $7,000,000 to $29,750,650. Most of the increase has been in mercantile accounts. At the annual meeting of stockholders today the retiring board of directors was re-elected.

terrorized by armed men, who pilfered food shops, cigar stores, and public buildings. Three sailors walked into a postal sub-station yesterday and carried off 120,000 marks. Gunmen and criminals from all parts of Germany hurried to Berlin in the first days of the revolution, according to reports, and enlisted in the Spartacan forces at the police station, which served as a base for private undertakings when the men were not engaged in obeying the orders of the Spartacan leaders. During the handling of all criminal records, official documents and rogues' galleries at police headquarters were destroyed. Berlin at one time ranked as one of the best policed cities in the world, tonight it is virtually defenseless against lawlessness.

News-papers Area Crowded. Today the promenaders deserted Unter den Linden, and crowded into the newspaper area, where the publishers were busy getting their badly disheveled plants into order for Monday's issue. The material loss and disorder caused by the rebels was especially heavy in the plants of The Vorwaerts and The Tageblatt. Even the business offices were invaded. Records and accounts were strewn about and the bulky ledgers were jammed into windows to serve as barricades for riflemen. The Vorwaerts building was converted into a veritable fortress, and arsenal combined. After a breach had been blown in with cannon, the Spartacans began to weaken, and later gave in. The military discipline of the Spartacans is said to be irreproachable as long as they are permitted to rob and plunder at will. That they had a rather easy time of it is attested by the stores of foodstuffs, cigars and clothing found in premises recaptured from the Spartacans by the government forces.

Order Restored. Order has been completely restored in cities outside of Berlin where the Spartacans had established themselves, according to reports received here today. Spandau, which has been placed under martial law, is quiet. Fifty-five Bolsheviks have been arrested, one of their leaders killed and

GERMANY HAS LOST WILD ANIMAL TRADE

New York, Jan. 14.—Deprived of her source of supply, Germany's hold on the wild animal trade of the world has been broken by the war, according to a report made tonight at the annual meeting of the New York Zoological Society by Madison Grant, chairman of the executive committee. Zoos and circuses are now turning to British dealers to fill cages, the fill cages of which died during the period when importation of birds, beasts and reptiles was prohibited. The war has not only depopulated the great zoological gardens of Europe, said the report, but it has reduced collections in this country 50 to 60 per cent. The New York Zoological Park has felt the effects of the war since 1914, but until 1918 "collections had been kept well up to their original standards."

TWO DELEGATES FOR DOMINIONS

Will Have Representation at Conference Apart From Great Britain.

THREE FOR BRAZIL

Given in View of Fact That She Represents South America in the War.

Paris, Jan. 14.—France, Great Britain, the United States, Italy and Japan will each have five representatives in the peace congress. This was decided upon today by the supreme council engaged in the preliminary work of organizing the peace program. The British dominions, it was decided, will be represented apart from Great Britain; Canada, Australia, South Africa and India will have two representatives each, and New Zealand one.

which merely broke off diplomatic relations with Germany were given one delegate each.

Subject to Revision. The representation of the various nations in the inter-allied conference, although virtually arranged, as shown in the unofficial list that has been published, is still subject to revision. In order to avoid humiliation to any nation, the representation of which it may be found advisable to reduce, the supreme council has refrained from officially making public the tentative list.

It is possible that some efforts may be made by nations not entirely satisfied with the number of delegates assigned them in the unofficial list, to secure some amendment, but it is said that strong reasons must be adduced to secure any such change. Inasmuch as no issues before the conference will be decided by voting, but only by unanimous action, which will be requisite to secure the final adoption of any plan or project, the large number of British delegates resulting from the decision to allow colonial representation has not actually increased Great Britain's strength. At the same time, it is believed, because of the similarity of views held by the Americans, Canadians, Australians and New Zealanders, for instance, their presence would add moral strength to the American plans.

gave most valuable service in the war in affording naval protection against German raiders to the South Atlantic trade routes and the east coast of South America, but that she represents the South American continent in the ranks of the belligerents.

ONTARIO FARMERS GATHER AT GUELPH

Attend Annual Meeting of Agricultural and Experimental Union.

Guelph, Ont., Jan. 14.—The fourth annual meeting of the Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union, opened at Massey Hall this morning, being attended by delegates from all over the province as well as by many of the students. The meeting opened with the report of the secretary, Prof. C. A. Zavitz. The co-operative work in agriculture has been conducted for thirty-three years, during which time there have been 92,235 distinct tests made throughout the province.

Following the president's address, Dr. C. A. Zavitz reported on co-operative experiments in agriculture for 1918. R. L. Defries, secretary of the Canadian Flax Growers' Association of Toronto, urged the farmers to grow more flax, thereby assisting in the developing the flax industry in the work of the past season, stated conditions throughout the year had been unusually favorable for the prosecution of farm work and Ontario farmers had produced a crop that for yield and quality of grain has never been equaled with the exception of winter wheat. He gave due recognition to the part played by farm women. He also gave recognition to the work of boys and girls of the schools and also city women.

Mr. Webster called for greater production from the farms. The development of basic industries, he claimed, should be the first national undertaking and that the resources of lake, forest, field and mine contribute to the national finances. Reference was made to the return of the soldiers and the factor that would be in increased production, to the readjustment of economic conditions and to the real discontent among the farmers because of the labor situation and the abnormal cost of farm machinery. He maintained that the tariff should be adjusted so that agriculture would be enabled to pay the same interest on the capital invested and give equal satisfaction for the energy expended as obtained in other industries.

Need for Flax. Following the president's address, Dr. C. A. Zavitz reported on co-operative experiments in agriculture for 1918. R. L. Defries, secretary of the Canadian Flax Growers' Association of Toronto, urged the farmers to grow more flax, thereby assisting in the developing the flax industry in the provinces. There were, he stated, almost unlimited possibilities in building up a large export trade.

At the afternoon session Prof. W. R. Graham gave a very interesting address on "Increase in Egg Production in the Winter Season," giving the result of experiment in the use of electric light in the hen houses, thereby getting an increased production of eggs.

London, Ont., Jan. 14.—Speaking today at the formal opening of London's technical and art school building, Hon. Dr. Cody, minister of education, said that he hoped the Dominion Government would see its way clear to include aid for technical education in its reconstruction program. "If they do this we can go ahead in this work by leaps and bounds," he said. Canada, he added, is launched definitely in the stream of world life. These technical schools are designed to meet the demand that Canadian workmen shall be the best trained workmen in the world.

Among the things discussed at the 11th annual meeting of the Social Welfare Congress, which opened yesterday morning with a business meeting of the Ontario Social Service Council in Guild Hall, were "Community Service," "The Juvenile Court," "The White Slave Traffic," and other subjects dealing with general citizenship.

Right Rev. J. F. Sweeney, D.D., who presided at the morning session, spoke on the need for communication between the various provinces and the problems that would have to be met with the coming of a new influx of citizens. A report of the year's work was read by the general secretary, Gilbert Agar, B.A., who told of the appointment of four more secretaries and of four new districts into which Ontario had been divided, with headquarters at London, Toronto, Hamilton and Ottawa. A resolution was passed that 5,000 subscribers be secured for the Social Welfare Magazine. On motion of Dr. Shearer, it was moved that a committee for "community service" be formed.

DICKENS FELLOWSHIP

Dickens lovers turned out in large numbers to the January meeting in the Conservatory of Music Hall, and had a treat given them by the Dickens Players, who presented some six scenes from "Bleak House." As the hall was packed, and as it is possible some were unable to obtain admittance, it is expected the scenes will again be given at an early date in a larger hall, when the general public will have a chance to see the clever actors. All did exceptionally well, but special mention might be made of Mrs. C. Spencer as Lady Deadlock, Mrs. E. W. Stafford as Mrs. Rouncewell, A. J. Rostance as Chadband, Miss Grace Webster as the maid, Gustar, Miss Vera Walker as the crossing sweeper, Miss M. Day as Mrs. Gowan, French maid Hortense, Mr. Marchant as Tulliver. Others who took their parts as the manor born were Miss Paton, Miss Stafford, Mrs. Rostance, Mr. Moody, Mr. Baker, Mr. Southwick and Mr. Bumsted.

Out of this amount $2,500 was sent to the Y. M. C. A. in India, $7,500 was spent in sending comforts and work boxes, $2,000 on the Red Triangle Club, while other smaller amounts have been utilized in providing furnishings for the Y. M. C. ### HOPEFUL VIEW OF FUTURE BY SIR EDMUND WALKER

President of Canadian Bank of Commerce Surveys Financial and Business Conditions at Annual Meeting—Sir John Aird Reviews Bank's Progress—Three Directors Added.

The annual meeting of shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce is an event of interest not only to the shareholders themselves, but to the financial and business world in general. The annual address by the president, Sir Edmund Walker, is recognized as a most valuable analysis of trade conditions, and his views on the outlook for the succeeding twelve-month are followed with close attention throughout the country. With Canada entering upon the reconstruction period, the remarks of Sir Edmund at yesterday's meeting are of even more than usual moment. It will be noted while he acknowledges the seriousness of the problem being faced, he believes that, with proper caution, they will be satisfactorily solved.

The address by Sir John Aird, general manager, was equally gratifying. He pointed out the substantial growth of the bank, despite the strain of aiding the government's war financing. The action of the board of directors at their annual meeting in placing the dividend on a straight 12 per cent. basis makes it evident that confidence is felt that the earning power of the institution will not be impaired in the present year. In recent years the regular dividend has been ten per cent., with a two per cent. bonus added.

The directors have been enlarged by the addition of three members to the board. The new directors elected at yesterday's meeting are Thomas Findley, Toronto, president and general manager of the Massey-Harris Company, Limited; W. W. Hutcheon, Montreal, vice-president of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, Limited; and H. B. Silver, Halifax, president of H. B. Silver, Limited.

Sir Edmund Walker, in his address, said that, while recognizing the labor problem as complex, he was not at all pessimistic about it. The most difficult problem was the finding of employment for the men and women who had been employed in munitions, but he was quite convinced that in the end there would be work for all. As far as the returning soldiers were concerned, the immediate employment given them was at least partly relieved by the allowance they would receive, in some instances amounting to $100 a month.

While strongly urging the development of the export trade, particularly in view of the large interest charges payable on Canada's debt to other countries, now amounting to about $185,000,000 annually, he was equally strong in pointing out that success in this respect could only be obtained by efficiency in production in order to bring down costs and enterprise in the prospecting of foreign markets. It was equally important, on the other hand, that we should carefully consider how far we can replace with articles of home production those which we now import, an accomplishment which he felt was quite possible. Referring to the high premium obtaining in Canada on New York exchange, he pointed out that it was "because with all our exports we cannot command enough international money to keep the balance even."

That Sir Edmund Walker's much impressed with the readiness with which Canadians subscribed to the various bond issues offered during 1918 was quite evident from his remarks upon the subject. The total amount subscribed for in Canada, including Victory, provincial, municipal and public service corporation issues was $724,828,216, or 94.7 per cent. of the total bonds floated. "This," he remarked, "as compared with anything in our past, is very surprising." Be-

Preparations, considered to be entirely adequate, have been completed by Canadian National Railways to handle as expeditiously as possible the troops returning on the Olympic, which is expected to dock at Halifax on Wednesday. Approximately 150 cars have been provided, to be sent out in 15 trains, to start as promptly as possible after the work of ship-side is finished. Thirteen of these cars are for Toronto.

CONCERTED ACTION TO EVADE SERVICE

Alleged Deserter Tried to Obtain Exemption by Purchasing Farm.

Elmer J. Weber, son of Reeve Weber of Neustadt, head of Weber Bros. retail hardware merchants, was charged before a general court-martial presided over by Col. W. F. Butcher, in the armories, yesterday with desertion from the army, having failed to report when ordered to do so.

N. F. Davidson, the representative of the minister of justice, in opening the case said: "The prisoner was apprehended in Saskatchewan at the beginning of last December, charged with deserting from the army in May, 1918. There will be evidence to show that for a long time before the act of desertion there had been concerted action by the accused, his father and brother and a determined attitude of mind never to submit to military service."

A statement made by the accused while in custody in the London police station was produced by D. H. Reynolds, investigating officer of the Dominion Police, in which he admitted having received $2,000 from his father with which to purchase a farm as "the best way to get exemption from military service more easily by being employed on farm work."

PERMISSION REQUESTED TO HOLD TWO TAG DAYS

All the members of the board of police commissioners were present at the weekly meeting yesterday afternoon. A number of ladies waited on the commissioners, asking that they be allowed to hold a tag day to raise funds for the maintenance of the Salvation Army, or of blind soldiers. The request was granted. Col. Dinick was given permission to hold a tag day in the interests of the Salvation Army on the 24th of this month.

BUY A COLLAR-BUTTON OR THREE HAVANAS

Robert J. Dunstan, owner of a barber shop on Broadview avenue, appeared in police court yesterday morning on a charge of running a lottery. It consisted of a campaign of cardboard with a number of collar buttons affixed. For every nickel that was paid the customer was allowed to select one of the buttons. The maximum penalty in Ontario for a lottery is $2,000, but the magistrate fined Dunstan $10 without costs.

Free Speech.

Dr. Watson very adroitly replied to his censor in the Methodist Church who demanded that he would not discuss "spirit return" in his Bible class, by noting the difficulty he was under by this prohibition of discussing the resurrection. He pointed out that John Wesley also had messages from "the dead." Without expressing any views on the merits of the case it does appear to the ordinary outsider that the constituted authorities always make a grave mistake by trying to enforce a policy of silence.

A few days ago we spoke of heresy-hunting and referred to the weakening that necessarily occurs in the membership of any body that insists on driving out all the progressive, active-minded and original men who may venture to express their views. It has never been shown that the twelve apostles were "orthodox." Some of their views were obviously heretical. But they were not expelled from the fellowship on that account. Even Judas Iscariot was permitted to take his course. Gamaliel was of the opinion that it was better to let the tares and wheat grow together till the harvest, when he pronounced his celebrated dictum: "quite another line of thought it is interesting to find such a man as Captain Peter Wright, rich in experience and knowledge of men and affairs, declaring for free discussion of all sorts. He trusts the good sense of the whole people. This is the democratic principle, as opposed to the class principle which would make one class possess privileges over another—the essence of Bolshevism."

Captain Wright is all for freedom of speech, now that the war is over, and in this he follows the British tradition. In fact, experience shows that the louder these fanatics are allowed to rave the less attention they receive, while repressive measures only make martyrs of them. No one ever heard of Skidmore or Watson until heavy sentences were imposed upon them. They got a little brief notoriety by this means, and their views are lime-lighted. Anything of basic value in the ideas and opinions of men of this class is invariably to be found in the systems of wiser and more practical men, and open discussion shows this, and dissipates the chaff and the refuse.

The Labor men make the mistake of making a fight over personalities, also the generosity of the instinct to do so must be recognized. The true fight is for the principle of free speech, which is founded on the eternal confidence that truth will prevail and humbug will find its level. Church and state should be at one on this issue.

Uncle Sam, Banker.

The Federal Reserve Bank system has provided a great blessing to the business and the business men of the United States. The system embraces twelve regional banks with a paid-in capital of eighty million dollars, and is probably the most thoroughly governmentalized bank in the world.

These banks are not only widening credits, furnishing abundant capital, and in every way helping the small farmer and the small business man as well as the big corporations and the government itself to carry on, but they are making money at an astonishing rate for our Uncle Sam.

The government holds the majority of the stock, the minority stock holders being the member banks. The minority stockholders get their six per cent. dividend, and the net profits over and above that are distributed in this way: One half goes to the U. S. Treasury, and one half goes to build up the bank's reserve. After a regional bank in this way acquires a reserve equal to 40 per cent. of its paid-in capital, all the net profits over and above the 6 per cent. dividend go to the public treasury for the redemption of national currency and government bonds.

The New York Reserve Bank has already acquired its 40 per cent. surplus, and The Wall Street Journal argues that the law should be amended so as to permit each bank to build up a reserve as large as its paid-in capital. This would in the near future result in a government banking system with eighty million dollars of paid-in capital and eighty million dollars of surplus or reserve.

This would make the Federal Reserve Bank the biggest in the world. In any event it is one of the most successful. Yet people who favored a Federal Reserve Bank system in the United States a few years ago were regarded as visionaries and dreamers, and anything but practical business men. Even today few men in Canada have the courage and foresight to advocate a state bank of issue and redemption.

Baron Kondon of Japan On Way to Peace Conference

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 14.—On board the liner Fushimi Maru, which is expected to reach this port Thursday morning, from the far east, is Baron Kempe Kondon, president of the Japanese Red Cross, and also the Japanese representative to the peace conference at Versailles.

RETRIBUTION.

count. But it will come in Canada as it did in the United States, and our bankers as well as our people will claim its success! At present we have laid the foundation of such a system, but the minister of finance and the banks dare not call it by its right name. How many of our people know, for instance, what the so-called Central Gold Reserve is that is hidden somewhere in Montreal, and by means of which our banks issue an excess of their own notes against federal legal tender from the government. It's all camouflage, perhaps. Sir Thomas White will "lift the cover" in a few weeks.

The Salvation Army Huts.

A campaign has been opened by the Salvation Army to raise a million dollars to carry on the work that has been done by the Army, in conjunction with other agencies, among the military forces at the front and in Britain and elsewhere. A tag day has been appointed by the civic authorities, and some official assistance will be given. But the Army relies, as ever, on the voluntary assistance of the public, and the great bulk of its needs, and that reliance is based on the practical nature of the work done and the assistance given to all and sundry.

The various churches, the Y.M.C.A., and other bodies have all engaged in the work in which the Army has taken part, but there is general testimony to the acceptance with which the work of the Army has been met by the soldiers. It is stated that the Army has never had any complaint of any kind about their service, and this is a wide assertion, but it appears to be well substantiated. From the soldiers themselves comes the universal verdict that the S. A. is all right.

Most of the work has been associated with the Army Huts, and it is believed that there will be room for this work for a long time to come. The armies of occupation in Germany are almost more in need of something to occupy themselves with than when they were under the more arduous discipline of the trenches. It is by no means likely that an early settlement of the problems of occupation and a withdrawal of the troops is likely, so that there still remains a wide field, and a prolonged period of necessary activity to be provided for.

Toronto has always regarded the Salvation Army as among the most useful of social agencies, and in this new campaign of welfare and reconstruction we feel sure that it can rely on the sympathy and assistance of the people. If the testimony of the military forces bears any weight with the people, the response to the appeal will be no further stimulus. It will be lavish and complete.

Dear Old Pine Tree.

Dear old pine tree, you stand so high
Your branches pointing to the sky
And why do you stand so tall?
The little birds are lulled to rest,
Protecting them from harm they meet.
Dear old pine tree.

Dear old pine tree, you stand serene,
And many a winter you have seen
And smiling, with its cleansing showers
And summer with its wealth of flowers,
And autumn with its golden gleams,
Dear old pine tree.

Dear old pine tree, I love you so
My inmost thoughts you seem to know,
And I cry out in wild unrest
I heard thy moaning sympathy.
Dear old pine tree.

Dear old pine tree, you stand it ease
Your branches swaying in the breeze
And underneath thy tender shade
And lovers' vows have oft been made,
And secret thoughts been told to thee,
Dear old pine tree.

Dear old pine tree, long may you stand
To keep guard over the quiet land
And live to greet each coming day
I would that I might live with thee,
Dear old pine tree.

WILL CONTINUE ISSUING IMPERIAL SERVICE BADGE

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—Some misunderstanding appears to have been caused by a statement in the press to the effect that the Imperial Silver Badge issued by the Imperial Service Soldiers' Association, which is now being issued by the Canadian authorities, was to mark the Canadian walking around in civilian clothes during the war period in which they were discharged because of wounds or sickness after service in England, whereas it is not granted generally on demobilization. ## Overseas Y.M.C.A. Makes Answer To Complaints by U. S. Soldiers

New York, Jan. 13.—The most emphatic answer that the Y.M.C.A. can make to charges of profiteering which have been made by returning soldiers is that the organization has distributed free $1,000,000 worth of canteen supplies, William Sloane, chairman of the organizations national war work council, said in a statement issued here today.

This total, he said, is exclusive of a loss of $322,181 in operating soldiers' stores in Great Britain.

GERMANS MUST PAY FULL COMPENSATION

Lloyd George, on Departure, Presented with Memorial by Chambers of Commerce.

London, Jan. 14.—Before his departure for Paris, Premier Lloyd George was given a motor and a unanimous address by the Associated Chambers of Commerce, embodying the views of chambers in all parts of the country regarding peace terms. The following points were urged in the memorandum:

The payment by the enemy of all war expenditures, Compensation for loss of property and damage to property arising out of the war.

Compensation for all personal injuries, including a sum, representing the cost of all pensions paid to disabled men, women and children.

Compensation for the loss in national power caused by the death or disability of potential producers and by the disorganizing of means of production and transport.

Still remaining on the outside, the moderate view, a Liberal paper of moderate views, a supporter of Union government, considers the convention premature, and does not think it likely that the Laurier Liberals and the Unionist Liberals will be able to get together.

MAY FORCIBLY CURB SINAI FEIN ACTIVITY

London, Jan. 14.—The intention to forcibly suppress the Sinai Fein organization is attributed to the British Government in certain quarters in Ireland, according to a Dublin despatch to The Mail. Moderates there, the correspondent says, are speculating anxiously as to what developments may be expected from a meeting of the council, which the governor-general called Monday night at Dublin Castle.

The correspondent adds: "Sober-minded men take a very gloomy view of the situation. It is feared that the government is about to embark on a new campaign of repression, which includes the forcible suppression of the Sinai Fein, with such results as are to be expected when the government takes up arms against a movement which is regarded as having given the 'coercionists' a predominant influence in the state and has created the belief that Ulster will be suppressed, determining British treatment of Irish affairs. Viscount French, governor-general, is also credited with the intention to exercise his authority in accordance with military, rather than political considerations."

UKRAINIAN DIRECTORATE IS SAID TO HAVE FALLEN

London, Jan. 14.—An unconfirmed wireless message from Kiev says that the Ukrainian Directorate has fallen. The power in the city is now in the hands of the Bolsheviks.

Luxemburg, for Six Hours, Possessed a Republic

London, Jan. 14.—The republic of Luxemburg, which was proclaimed on Thursday by the committee on public health, lasted only six hours, according to a report to the Express from Brussels, which adds that French military authorities restored order in the grand duchy.

Kingston Troops Claim Honor Of Being First to Cross Rhine

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 14.—Letters received from Kingston members of the 21st Battalion state that the 21st was the first Canadian battalion to cross the Rhine into Germany. It was billeted at Bonn. The colors presented to the 21st in Kingston four years ago are now with the battalion and are paraded before the Boche.

Chatham Inaugurate Movement To Have Chamber of Commerce

Chatham, Jan. 14.—Mrs. William Anderson has been the first lady to be appointed to civic office. She has been made a member of the Chatham Chamber of Commerce, which is now being organized. The board of health: Dr. T. L. McRitchie, M.O., Dr. R. V. Bray, W. H. Leith and Frank Appleyard, and Mayor Hammond. A movement has been inaugurated to merge the Chatham board of trade into a chamber of commerce. It is planned to secure a membership of three hundred.

MOTHER, FATHER AND CHILD DIE.

Belleville, Jan. 15.—Ex-Mayor C. Bogart of this city received a message yesterday that his daughter, Mrs. Grace Dickinson, had died at Killarney, Manitoba, from the flu and pneumonia. The board of health: Dr. T. L. McRitchie, M.O., Dr. R. V. Bray, W. H. Leith and Frank Appleyard, and Mayor Hammond. A movement has been inaugurated to merge the Chatham board of trade into a chamber of commerce. It is planned to secure a membership of three hundred.

EXONERATE DRIVER.

Kitchener, Ont., Jan. 14.—A coroner's jury here today exonerated Arthur Heiser in connection with the death of Stanley Morris who was killed here on Saturday, when the sleigh on which he was coasting ran under the wheels of a motor truck. The jury recommended that the city set aside winter playgrounds where children can enjoy winter sports in safety.

POLITICAL NOTES AND VIEWS

After much backing and filling, hemming and hawing, parliament has been summoned for the despatch of business on Thursday, Feb. 20. This is a month later than had been anticipated and probably means a session lasting until July 1. The government press hastens to assure us that all controversial questions will go over to a fall session, and that parliament this spring will only be asked to vote supply, validate some orders-in-council and best it back home as quickly as possible. They seem to forget that it is the opposition, and not the government, which determines the length of the session. If the Laurier Liberals have summation to fire and shells to explode, there will be no way to head them off. Neither will it be possible to prevent their bringing up tariff reduction, the repeal of the War Times Election Act, and other subjects more or less disconcerting.

WILHELM GROWS A BEARD TO SAVE HIS SORE EAR

Amerongen, Jan. 14.—Wm. Hohenzollern, the former German emperor, is growing a beard and has in which was recently operated upon. The former emperor's facial appearance, therefore, is undergoing a radical change. Hohenzollern is affected ear is badly influenced by the climate here.

The former emperor's beard is in gray in color and while it is still quite short, it makes Herr Hohenzollern look considerably older. The distinguished fugitive shows improvement in health and is able to continue his walks in the garden of the chateau, where he is living. While strolling he wears a great fur coat.

A False—Then a True—Peace Proclamation

CHAPTER CXXXVIII.
Ruth was quietly working, one morning, not long after Brian had been decorated, when the sirens and bug whistles began to blow; when all the bells in New York pealed out the news which quickly spread to all the business houses that peace had come. War was over!

Like the other houses, Mandel closed his store for the day. He called Ruth called up Mrs. Clayborne, asked her to meet them and then went to one of the gay restaurants to watch the hilarity, and to join in the gladness the news had brought.

"All of these outcasts all personal feeling save that of happiness in the country; and for the lives which would be saved by this early peace. (Early as far as America was concerned)."

Mandel took them home in his car, and they had a very quiet evening at the restaurant, driving through the streets where the crowd had not made going impossible. All that evening Mandel and Ruth talked of the wonderful news, of what it would do to the country, to them, and to others, and what it would mean to Mrs. Clayborne. "It will cost a lot to bring the wounded home and what it will mean to Mrs. Clayborne," she remarked. "It will cost a lot to bring the wounded home and what it will mean to Mrs. Clayborne," she remarked. SEVENTH-SECOND ISSUE OF CANADIAN ALMANAC

The Canadian Almanac for 1919, being the seventh-second of the series, has just been issued by the Copp, Clark Company. It is bound in neat uniform covers as formerly and contains much information which can be found in no other volume of so compact and small size. Since 1848, the Almanac has been published con- tinuously and for many years has been edited by Mr. Arnold W. Thomas.

Many persons have already their opinion as to what really is the greatest thing in life; and they will be doubly interested in finding out just what D. W. Griffith, one of the world's greatest students of human nature, thinks it is.

ROYAL FAMILY DEMOCRATIC. Queens and Princess Mary Shopped Recently in London Shops Without Any Stir.

There have been many evidences lately of how democratic the members of the royal family really are. They delight to be among the people. The other day the Queen and Princess Mary were to be seen at Messrs. Goring's establishment in Buckingham Palace road, making pur- chases, just as ordinary customers do.

Her majesty and her daughter were, of course, recognized by the crowds around the counters, but no restrictions were put upon them, as the royal couple seemed to enjoy the freedom and absence of any fuss.

FUTILE EXASPERATION.

Parkdale G.W.V.A. at its session Thursday evening at Khaki Hall, Queen street and Dovercourt road, will discuss a resolution calling for a minimum standard wage, and express- ing the opinion that in view of the strenuous fight for existence it is nothing less than an act of futile exasperation to offer any impaired veteran a pension of less than $10 a month.

Secretary Warwick of the soldiers' aid commission officers at 116 College street has received a letter from the Canadian Sunbeam Lamp Company, stating that returned soldiers employ- ed by that organization have proved themselves to be industrious and effi- cient, and thanking the commission for their service in supplying the men.

According to figures announced to- day December was the busiest month so far experienced by the local office of the Ontario Soldiers' Aid Com- mission. Five hundred and seventy- nine calls were made last month by visitors from the commission. The sol- diers' dependents and many cases of suffering were relieved. Two hun- dred and thirty-five letters were com- missioned for employment and out of these 157 were placed in satisfac- tory employment. The commission also announced that up to the end of the year over 100,000 veterans or their dependents had obtained relief since the soldiers' aid commission of On- tario was formed by the Hon. W. D. McPherson, in November, 1915.

The provincial G.W.V.A. is investi- gating into the alleged cancellation of reduced fares for soldiers in uniform. It had been understood that hospital patients would still be allowed this privilege, but there is no certainty on this point.

Representatives of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, Great War Veterans' As- sociation and labor conferred with Dr. W. A. Ridgell, superintendent of the trades and labor department of the provincial government yesterday and discussed the labor situation as it prevails at the present time. No definite action was taken. The delegates heartily endorsed the pro- posed act of the government to do away with all private employment bureaus as a means of creating bet- ter opportunities for returned men.

Among the repatriated soldiers who reached England yesterday were Pte. J. A. Selby, Reg. No. 141,773 125 Win- chester street; Trooper Frederick P. Bewick, 247 Symington avenue; Cor- poral Edward McCurdy, Reg. No. 113, 421, 54 Conduit street; Pte. Benjamin Moore, Reg. No. 799,373, 187 Erie ter- race; Pte. Geo. Morrison, Reg. No. 794,925, 282 Eastcourt avenue; and Lieutenant John R. Zeiman, 146 Main street.

The members of the Sportsman's Pa- triotic Association escorted the com- pany playing at the Star Theatre this week to the Davisville Military Hospital yesterday afternoon. The efforts to entertain the patients were most appreciated.

Montreal G. W. V. A. recently pas- sed a strong resolution calling for the substitution of Canadian and British films in place of American movie scenes.

R. A. F. DISSATISFIED.

Discharged members of the R. A. F. decided at last evening's meeting at the Labor Temple to ask the Grand Army of Canada to call a special meeting for the purpose of discuss- ing the situation among the R. A. F. men. Several hundred members of the R. A. F. are expected to be pres- ent at this meeting, and a large num- ber of them will undoubtedly join the G. A. C.

The deputation which was appoint- ed to interview Major Denton of the R. A. F. reported that it had been officially confirmed that the clothing allowance for discharged soldiers would be $35, and that all discharged men with over one year's service would receive a gratuity covering one month's pay with allowances. The question of the gratuity was still left in abeyance to see what the C. E. F. authorities would do for their men.

Many of the men who are dis- satisfied with these conditions, and believe that a man who has served two years or less in the R. A. F. should be granted a gratuity covering three months with pay and allow- ances for men with two years or less, and two months' pay for those with service of one year or less.

DEFERRED PAY CASE TOO LATE.

One of the sad cases which are met with from time to time by the Sol- diers' Aid Commission, is that of returned soldier who has been dis- charged, notwithstanding several special en- deavors which were made to save her life. It appears that this veteran, thru negligence, did not receive his money for some time after his re- turn and not until the Soldiers' Aid Commission had finally, after re- peated attempts, been able to straighten out his financial affairs. When this result was finally ac- complished, it was discovered that the young man had over $1,000 com- ing to him. Immediately on its re- ceipt, he had his mother, who was in a very ill condition, removed to one of the hospitals and every attempt made by operations and special treatments to save her life. It was finally decided by the doctors in the case that her condition had become so undermined that no hope could be held out and the bulk of the vet- eran's pay which was used by him to save his mother's life, had been spent to no avail.

Since the 2nd of January, 48 dis- abled and discharged soldiers have entered the classification of returned men provided by the Ontario Soldiers' Aid Commission.

W. W. Nichol, superintendent of education for returned soldiers, re- turned from London yesterday morn- ing, where he attended the opening of the new London Technical School and initiated the classes for returned sol- diers which will be under the admin- istration of the Ontario Soldiers' Aid Commission.

At the next meeting of the Ontario Soldiers' Aid Commission, which will be held tomorrow at the head office, 116 College street, the annual report

"WE ARE NOT LIONS, NOR PETS, BUT MEN"

The following portions of a Toronto soldier's letter throw a little light on the soldier's point of view. The writer is Corp. Victor Gnanelli, formerly with the National Trust Company, and now of the Princess Pats. The letter was sent to G. W. Hill, 197 Fern avenue.

This piece talks the vagaries, bring- ing to my mind a question that is very important to the soldier, especially the working man, and that is "How will the public and the powers-that-be recognize the soldier who has fought for his country?" I imagine that the pub- lic's idea is to lionize and pet him and to make him a pet of the country.

Of course, it is desirable that the soldier should receive their due now, but it is much more important that the soldier should be recognized as a man who has done his duty, and wants a man's due. Of course, it is desirable that the soldier should receive their due now, but it is much more important that the soldier should be recognized as a man who has done his duty, and wants a man's due.

The reply of the "upper class" is to lionize and pet him, and to make him a pet of the country. But the cry that we hear now, "We are not lions nor pets, but men," is the same cry but in a new form. It is the cry of the soldier who has done his duty, and wants a man's due.

At the time the cry was heard "We don't want charity, we want the right to live a wholesome life." The reply of the "upper class" is to lionize and pet him, and to make him a pet of the country.

But we leave that to the editors of the press. We are not lions nor pets, but men; is the same cry but in a new form. It is the cry of the soldier who has done his duty, and wants a man's due.

We have a good chance to redeem the errors of "before the war," but what makes me think we are not the right track is the remark of one of our originals, who has just returned from Canada. "I was given a good time, but what see, when this war is over it will be just as it was after South Africa. We will be so much dirt." I wonder?

But we'll leave that till after. The idea now is to get Kaiser Bill, and believe me, we sure are on his tracks.

CARRY MILITARY PAPERS IS ORDER FROM OTTAWA

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—Important regula- tions under the Military Service Act, which are officially stated, are still in force. These include the regulation which requires each person of apparent mili- tary age and description to carry docu- ments proving his status under the act. They include also the regulations per- taining to the duty of employers to notify registrars regarding class one men.

A number of other regulations passed under the act have been sus- pended. Men becoming 17 years of age, Americans, British subjects com- ing to Canada to reside and men be- coming widowers are no longer re- quired to register. It is also unneces- sary for any class one men to make any further applications whatever in connection with exemptions.

The provision requiring registrars to obtain permits to leave Canada is suspended. Registrars are issuing a uniform pro- tection certificate to all men under their jurisdiction. This certificate will replace all exemption and protection certificates previously issued by reg- istrars. With the exception of a nucleus staff registration offices are to be closed on Feb. 15.

Sir Joseph Flavelle Pays Tribute to Indomitable British.

BRONZE MEMORIALS

Sir Edmund Walker Urges Fitting Commemoration of the Dead.

In future conferences of the em- pire, Canada will play an important part and our voice will be the in- fluential voice of the overseas do- minions, because of the part played by our forces in the great war. This declaration by Sir Joseph Flavelle was made during the course of an address at the banquet of the repre- sentative managers of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at the King Ed- ward Hotel last night. Sir John Aldred, general manager of the bank, in introducing Sir Joseph to reply to the toast, "Canada and the Empire," stated that his services during the war had been almost superhuman.

Sir Joseph paid tribute to the men overseas and the women at home who had taken such a noble part in the prosecution of the war to victory. Canada, he declared, had gained a consciousness of strength, which would permanently affect her activi- ties in the future. He described the vision here in Canada and cause us to hold with insufficient respect, our birthright in this great empire.

One Mr. Leimbauer, of the war purchasing commission, outlined the activities of the organization since its inception. Everybody, he said, recently seemed to have forgotten the existence of the commission and that for the two past sessions no ques- tions had been asked concerning its operations in the house. This, he considered, a good sign. With the signing of the armistice the commis- sion canceled orders to the value of $12,000,000, which had been recently placed for war goods. This had been accomplished at an expenditure of $1,000,000 in reimbursement to those who would suffer financial loss from the cancellation of the orders. Every- body was satisfied.

Sir Edmund Walker replied to the toast, "The Bank," by outlining briefly the history of the bank. Sir Edmund urged the raising of memo- rials to commemorate the members of the bank who had given up their lives in France. He hoped that each branch through the country would place in their offices a bronze tablet in remembrance of those who had in- scribed the names of the fallen from that office. Further, he advised the placing in the buildings in To- ronto and Montreal, of a great memo- rial in bronze to commemorate in an ideal way, the sacrifice made by the men of the bank and that of every office through the Dominion.

Others who spoke were Z. A. Lash, Senator Cox and Capt. Cameron.

SOLD CLOTHING FOR FARE.

A woman who recently arrived in London from Petrograd after many hardships tells the story of how the streets of Petrograd, among other Britishers, sold various belongings in the streets of Petrograd. A woollen jersey bought in London for $1.50, fetched $25. Her porridge bowl was bought by a sailor who begged her not to wash it, as some particles of porridge still remained in it.

Registrars are issuing a uniform pro- tection certificate to all men under their jurisdiction. This certificate will replace all exemption and protection certificates previously issued by reg- istrars. With the exception of a nucleus staff registration offices are to be closed on Feb. 15.
