National Industrial Conference Commences Probe of Social Unrest in Canada

NEED OF CLASS STRONGLY URGED UPON INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE

Opening of Nation-Wide Gathering at Ottawa is Marked by Important Speeches on Labor Problems—Premier Borden Urges Necessity of Co-operative Spirit.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The first day's proceedings of the national industrial conference came to a rather abrupt close at four-thirty this afternoon, an hour ahead of the scheduled time, when it was found that the employers' group had not the names ready to submit for their nominees for the special committee on the various subjects coming before the conference for discussion. The labor group was all ready, and Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, offered to put in the employers' names for the committee before adjournment. The meeting, however, decided to wait and take them all together.

During the day, some splendid addresses were heard, and perhaps none struck home so much as did the brief talk of Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who followed W. Jett Lauck, former secretary of the United States War Labor Board.

There is a real social unrest, in the opinion of Mr. Stone, and a buried spark of trouble which only requires a very little to fan into a dangerous flame. At the root of the whole trouble is the cost of living.

Brother's Reply. A 20 per cent increase in the pay envelope and a 40 per cent increase in the cost of living only aggravates the trouble, said Mr. Stone. "The cry, 'Am I my brother's keeper?' was never so heartfelt as it is today, and there is a great need for the man to arise, big enough and broad enough, to put the word 'brother' back in the brotherhood of man."

The need for some basis of agreement in Canada, whereby the plan of labor would be raised to a higher level and the present unrest banished; the progress in labor legislation in the United States; and the progress of the Whitley councils system in England were all dealt with during the day's session.

Premier Absent. Premier Borden was absent owing to illness, tho he had hoped to preside, and his message was read by Senator Robertson, a legislator who is vice-chairman of the conference. In it he referred to the need of unity among all classes in striving to better labor conditions in Canada, and said that while it was hoped that the peace treaty overseas was being peace to the entire world, the peace of labor in Canada should also be made secure by the results of the present gathering.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King urged, among other things, that the rights of four parties to labor problems be recognized. These were labor, capital, management and the public interest, represented by the community which provided the laws without which industry could not progress and which also provided the means of transportation and communication so important to the development of every industry. The labor problems were too big for any party feelings to creep into efforts for their solution, said Mr. King, and he urged the delegates in their deliberations to get down to the human side of things.

Permanent Solution. Hon. A. L. Sifton, minister of public works, and Hon. N. W. Rowell, president of the privy council, also spoke briefly. The former told of the work of the Canadian delegates on the labor clauses of the treaty of peace. Mr. Rowell spoke of the pressing need of a permanent solution of Canada's labor unrest which had resulted in many strikes during the past year. However, Canada had been more fortunate than many other countries and he felt that Canadian labor's record during the war years would in no way be blemished by its record during the reconstruction period.

Mr. Lauck outlined the progress made in efforts to aid in reconstruction work in the United States and told the delegates that the nation across the border would watch the proceedings here very closely. More especially as a similar conference is to be held in Washington next month when it is hoped that the results of this conference will guide the American employer and employees to a great extent in solving their troubles.

Big Attendance. There were upwards of 200 delegates in attendance when the meeting opened. (Continued on Page 5, Column 2).

SOLDIERS' GRATUITY UP IN HOUSE TODAY

Col. Currie Deferred Motion Owing to the Absence of Gen. Mewburn.

Special to The Toronto World.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The subject of the $2000 gratuity for the returned veterans is still very much in the air, and may be the subject of a prolonged debate tomorrow. On the opening of the house this afternoon, Hon. N. W. Rowell moved for the printing and distribution of 500,000 copies of the statement he made to the house on behalf of the prime minister on this subject last Friday afternoon. The statement included the correspondence between Sir Robert Borden and Secretary MacNeill of the G.W.V.A., as well as voluminous tables and diagrams, showing that Canada was dealing more generously in the matter of pensions and gratuities with the returned soldiers than any other nation. The statement is practically the government's case for refusing to entertain the application for the additional gratuity of $2000.

It was understood that Colonel John A. Currie, Unionist member for North Simcoe, would move the adjournment of the house this afternoon to discuss the statement in relation to the $2000 gratuity. He was in his place, but before he could make his motion, Judge Doherty, who was leading the house, showed that Canada was dealing more generously in the matter of pensions and gratuities with the returned soldiers than any other nation.

LET COURTS DECIDE RIGHTS OF POLICE IN BOSTON STRIKE

Feeling Among Certain Union Members That Sympathetic Strike Inadvisable Yet.

Boston, Sept. 15.—There were grounds for hope tonight that a general strike, in sympathy with the police who quit their posts last Tuesday, would be averted. These were found largely in the sentiment which favored recourse to the courts in an effort to have the strikers reinstated.

Strike sentiment is known to be strong in certain union quarters and Frank H. McCarthy, New England organizer for the American Federation of Labor, and President Michael J. O'Donnell of the Central Labor Union, in a formal statement tonight justified the action of the police in striking and attributed to Police Commissioner Currie complete responsibility for the lawlessness that ensued. They also pointed out that the commissioner's rule forbidding the affiliation of the police with the American Federation of Labor was not promulgated until after a charter had been sought and that the commissioner had been warned three weeks before the strike of what would happen if he attempted to enforce his new rule.

Think Courts Should Decide. There is a feeling among members of various unions affiliated with the former police officers, many believing that before drastic action is decided upon, it should be made to the courts to determine whether the police acted illegally in abandoning their posts without provision for another meeting before next Sunday of the Central Labor Union was accepted as indicating that a general strike was not imminent. At the worst this would not be declared until the central body had canvassed the votes of the various unions.

Meantime the recruiting of a new police force is proceeding expeditiously and the first of the new men in training will appear on the streets next Monday. With the state guard and the volunteer police on duty until the new department is thoroughly organized, it is believed that the city will not see a repetition of the disorders, at least unless a general strike is declared.

O'CONNOR CERTAIN THAT HIS EFFORTS WILL REDUCE COSTS

Tells Hamilton People Strong-Arm Methods to Aid Commerce Board.

Hamilton, Sept. 15.—The high cost of living investigating committee, appointed by the city council last Tuesday evening, is to be abolished and its place taken by a local fair price board, W. F. O'Connor, chairman of the board of commerce, informed members of the committee at a conference at the city hall this afternoon that the council committee could not gather any facts that would be of use. His task at present was the forming of fair price committees in the various communities visited, while the board of commerce was busy on the larger program of bringing down prices.

As explained by Mr. O'Connor, his plan is to have the mayor appoint a number of representatives from the community to be known as the fair price board, representative appointed by Mr. O'Connor would then select representatives of various branches of the tradesmen's association to be known as the fair price board, representative appointed by Mr. O'Connor would then select representatives of various branches of the tradesmen's association to be known as the fair price board.

COMMONS TURNS ATTENTION TO COST OF LIVING PROBLEMS

Hohenzollerns May Be Reunited And Live Together in Holland

Amerongen, Sept. 15.—Former Princess Cecilie of Germany, with her two sons, has left for Amersfoort, Holland, on her way back to Germany. They traveled on an ordinary train.

The possibility of the entire former royal family of Germany making their home in Holland was discussed at conferences taken part in by Cecilie and the former emperor and empress at the Von Bentinck castle during her visit here, it is understood. Nothing definite, however, was decided upon. The former crown princess spent much time with the former empress, and yesterday morning, before the church services in the castle chapel, there was a long conference at the family breakfast in the garden summer house. As the conversation progressed William Hohenzollern appeared somewhat angry.

The children greatly enjoyed their stay in Amerongen, driving about the countryside in dog carts and playing in the garden of the castle, where they could watch their grandfather at his wood-sawing.

Lively Time in Queen's Park When Gratuity League President Charges Field Secretaries With Betraying Returned Men—Turley Refused Hearing.

Betrayal of returned soldiers by G. W. V. A. officials was alleged in a speech by J. Harry Flynn, president of the Returned Soldiers' Gratuity League, at a meeting in Queen's Park last night. He charged that the field secretaries of the G.W.V.A. are receiving $3000 a year each from the government, and considered this a gross betrayal of the returned soldiers. He charged that the government was trying to have this organization in its grasp.

W. F. Maclean Warns Members That Price Lowering and Soldiers' Re-establishment Are of Greater Importance to People Than Fine Points of Constitutional Law.

Special to The Toronto World.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The house of commons was awakened from its trance-like apathy this afternoon by Mr. W. F. Maclean, Unionist member for South York, who warned the members that this session of parliament had so far accomplished nothing of benefit to the people. There had been elaborate dissertations on international and constitutional law, but the people of this country were not so much worried about the Canadian constitution as they were about the high cost of living. The house, he said, must interest itself in social and economic questions. It must deal with soldiers' civil re-establishment and with the ever-present problems of the high cost of living and the unrestrained pillage of the profiteer. Mr. Maclean contrasted the activity of the United States government with the inactivity of our Dominion government. The trouble here, he said, was that we had no federal enforcement of federal law. The Dominion parliament passed laws, but the Dominion government instead of enforcing the laws, passed the buck to the provinces. He also urged the government to speedily acquire the Grand Trunk, The National Railway System of Canada, he said, belonged to the people and it should go out aggressively for business and call upon the people to patronize their own road.

Debate on the subject of soldiers' civil re-establishment and with the ever-present problems of the high cost of living and the unrestrained pillage of the profiteer. Mr. Maclean contrasted the activity of the United States government with the inactivity of our Dominion government. The trouble here, he said, was that we had no federal enforcement of federal law. The Dominion parliament passed laws, but the Dominion government instead of enforcing the laws, passed the buck to the provinces. He also urged the government to speedily acquire the Grand Trunk, The National Railway System of Canada, he said, belonged to the people and it should go out aggressively for business and call upon the people to patronize their own road.

Mr. Maclean's speech was contributed to the debate on the address which was resumed this afternoon by Edmond Froulx, Liberal member for Prescott. Speeches were also delivered by Mr. Leger, Liberal member for St. John's; Mr. LaSalle, Liberal member for Quebec county, and Mr. McInnes, Unionist member for Kings, P.E.I.

Mr. Maclean arrived in the city this evening after a two months' vacation in England and was in the chamber during a portion of the debate.

Froulx Pleads Economy. Mr. Froulx (Prescott) resuming the address, debate upon the address in reply to the speech from the throne said the great need of the country was more economy in public and private expenditure. The people, however, could not be expected to economize so long as the government was an example of extravagance nor would they be able to economize at all unless the government did something to reduce the cost of living.

Leger (Kent) complained of the way in which the military budget had been administered in his part of the country. He said that farmers' sons, who had been exempted by the tribunals, did not understand that they were still liable to conscription. They had, therefore, ignorantly disobeyed the law and had been punished with undue severity. He said the Acadians had done bravely and had lost one family in consequence of which seven or eight sons had been killed.

Maclean (South York) said he had every reason to believe that the Acadians, not only in his own district, but also throughout the country, had done their duty during the war. The Acadians, he said, were French-Canadians distinct from the French-Canadians of Quebec. They had preserved their identity for centuries and had made good citizens of the Dominion.

Maclean Discusses M. C. of L. Turning then to the high cost of living, Mr. Maclean said it was a pressing problem now before the people of Canada. It was no less important than the problem of soldiers' civil re-establishment and indeed it was the high cost of living which made it so difficult to solve. He said that the government had not yet proposed any plan to solve the problem and that the Dominion government was being directed towards solving this most important problem and already results had been accomplished. The attorney-general of the United States and his district attorneys all over the country were having the profiteers indicted and bringing them to trial in two federal courts.

Need Federal Enforcement. Mr. Maclean said he had no desire to belittle the newly-created board of commerce, but he knew the profiteers were among the members of the board and the government. The board was called a court, but it had no power to either fine or imprison. It could only complain of some profiteer to a provincial attorney-general. In the United States the whole national government, from the president down, was engaged in a crusade against profiteering, and we had already witnessed a decline in the price of beef, pork, flour and other commodities. Canada got some benefit from this by a sympathetic decline in prices, but he was sorry to see our people looking for relief to Washington instead of getting relief from Ottawa.

Uppermost Question. The people of this country, including the housewives, are well satisfied with the right now, Mr. Maclean continued, that they would never get any reduction in prices unless they put the responsibility squarely on the federal government and brought the question into federal politics.

How to Do It. Mr. Maclean: I would have this parliament pass the necessary laws, and I would have this government enforce these laws, instead of casting the burden of their enforcement upon a province or a private prosecutor who would have the minister of justice a public prosecutor, like the attorney-general of the United States, who is now in New York.

Favors G.T.R. Acquisition. Mr. Maclean then turned to the subject of railway nationalization, and favored the immediate acquisition of the Grand Trunk.

National Merchant Marine. In closing Mr. Maclean advocated a national merchant marine, a reform in our banking and currency, a reform in the modernization of our postal savings banks.

Mr. Maclean was followed by Lavigne, Liberal member for Quebec. After referring to the report by the committee on the National Transcontinental railway, Mr. Lavigne said that the committee had never made any use of it; had expended one million dollars in building huts for soldiers which no soldier ever occupied; had constructed expensive railway shops at St. Malo and had never opened them for business.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 15.—The suggested national political strike October 8, which western labor men yesterday held a convention for at Madison, Wis., as a possibility in case Thomas J. It will remain in force until the United States is ready to deal with the whole question of the future status of Turkey.

Successor Not Appointed. Mr. Lloyd George will leave for London this evening. His successor in the council is not yet officially appointed, although it is unofficially stated that Sir Eyre Crowe will take his seat.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

YORK TOWNSHIP SIDEWALK TENDERS MUCH TOO HIGH

York Township Council Refuse to Award Any Contracts. Tenders submitted by several contractors on sidewalk construction work were so far above the engineer's estimates that the suspicions of York township councillors were aroused yesterday.

Mr. Maclean was followed by Lavigne, Liberal member for Quebec. After referring to the report by the committee on the National Transcontinental railway, Mr. Lavigne said that the committee had never made any use of it; had expended one million dollars in building huts for soldiers which no soldier ever occupied; had constructed expensive railway shops at St. Malo and had never opened them for business.

Several of the lowest tenders were at least 50 per cent. higher than the engineer's estimate of what the work should cost. They figured over $8 a foot against $1.50 paid for the work a short time ago.

Council will hold a special session in a few days to look into the question and award the contracts so the work can be carried out this fall.

A vigilance committee has been formed in the Grimby district to protect the fruit growers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 15.—Whether the strike in the steel industry called for next Monday, will be deferred until after the industrial conference summoned by President Wilson to be held at Washington, October 6, will depend upon reports to be made at the meeting of the committee for organizing iron and steel workers meeting here Wednesday.

Labor leaders here interested in the proposed steel strike said they were not sure that the wishes of President Wilson, who desires the postponement of the strike, will be carried out. It all depends upon reports to be made at the meeting of the leaders said.

G.W.V.A. OFFICERS ATTACKED BY FLYNN

There Saturday. He said the impression they had obtained from the press was not quite as it should have been. "They came so outnumbered and distorted the facts as to create a wrong impression in your minds." He got into touch with Sir Robert Borden on the telephone. The prime minister saying he had got out of bed to answer the call and that his physician did not allow him to speak. With reference to a conference Sir Robert said he would confer with his physician and they would know what arrangements were made. In the meantime the deputation saw a number of members of parliament who, said Mr. Flynn, were satisfied that the men were entitled to the $2,000, but the government could not afford it. (Laughter.) "We made them admit their jobs in Ottawa were going to depend on the returned men," declared the speaker.

Continuing, Mr. Flynn told how Sir Robert Borden had, thru his secretary, arranged an interview with the speaker and Hon. C. J. Doherty, acting premier, and members of the cabinet. "We told them we favored the G.W.V.A. resolution," declared the speaker. "We also demanded the only fair way to the men who fought to keep them in the jobs in Ottawa was that the question of gratuity should be fought out on the floor of the house. (Hear, hear.) Mr. Doherty, with crocodile tears in his eyes, told us we regretted very much that Sir Robert Borden, himself, and members of the cabinet had taken the matter of gratuity into consideration, and examined it from every side, and that the government could not afford to grant the $2,000. I thanked God right there in that council room that we were not under an absolute monarchy, but had a parliamentary form of government. In spite of the impression conveyed by the newspapers, the question of gratuity is not dropped, we are just at the beginning of the fight. The fight is now on and we are going to enter into it with all the might of the returned men behind us, and we are going to show that the returned men have the power. (Cheers.) In Ottawa today the members of parliament and these members of the cabinet are afraid of you, and I can tell you that the question was fought out that you could be suppressed."

Mr. Flynn then went on to criticize G. W. V. A. officials, and in particular referred to newspaper interviews with C. G. McNeil, secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association, in which, said Mr. Flynn, that official made it known to the members of the returned men throughout the country had come to the conclusion that the government had already been very generous that they were to receive that generous treatment. "Oh, Oh!" but that there were a few things in the soldiers' minds which should be straightened out. They tell you they are going to fight for the bill before parliament and for a parliamentary resolution. "Oh, Oh!" but Mr. Flynn, who asked what the bill dealt with, and replied: "First, with hospitals, second, with government wood lot lands, and third, eyes—laughter—third, with medical treatment of returned men. It does not deal with the question of gratuity. It deals primarily with soldiers' re-establishment. It is a big bluff to hold you over with a parliamentary commission and with this bill, until the whole thing is settled upon and the government put into power again. And then they will turn round and say, 'The honored fools, we've fooled them again.'"

"We must stop right here or go ahead," proceeded Mr. Flynn. (Cries of "Well go ahead.") The G.W.V.A. appointed officials whom they thought would be true to them, and these officials have betrayed them into the hands of the politicians. I wish to make known this fact, having obtained information at Ottawa, that six field secretaries of the G.W.V.A. are receiving $3,600 a year each from the government. (Loud boos.) Is any government going to pay six men of an organization $3,600 a year each, to go out and fight against them? (No, no, no.) Isn't that alone—six field secretaries who are appointed by the government—sufficient proof that the government wants to have that organization in its grasp, where they can deal with you as they see to better their own ends and don't care about you?" Mr. Flynn told of a long interview with Col. John A. Currie, M.P., who had promised to bring the matter up in parliament.

Mr. Flynn stated that within the next 24 or 48 hours he might call a meeting in Ottawa where he would discuss ways and means to form one great league of returned men. If he could get away on Saturday he was going to Ottawa to address a big meeting in front of the parliament buildings.

After Mr. Flynn finished, W. E. Turley, provincial secretary of the G. W. V. A., whose attitude on the gratuity question has been much criticized, attempted to address the crowd, but had a hostile reception. "Ladies, comrades and gentlemen," was all the length he got, there being a veritable storm of boos.

There was no chance of him getting a hearing and Mr. Flynn remarked to the crowd: "I am afraid we will have to disappoint Mr. Turley and ask him to call another meeting. The provincial secretary of the G.W.V.A. then got into an argument with Mr. Flynn, saying the latter was making an effort to get the crowd to hear him. Mr. Flynn said his undertaking was to allow Mr. Turley an opportunity to speak if the crowd would listen to him. The audience greeted this with the shout that they didn't want to hear him, and Mr. Turley left the bandstand amid jeering from the crowd.

He was accompanied by J. V. Conroy, district command G.W.V.A., and was again attempted to speak, but his words were drowned by the boos and hisses from the crowd that had followed him. Acting on the advice of Inspector Miller of the police, he, with his friends, left the park, the crowd booing and hissing him as he went to Eglar street, where the party boarded a street car. No one attempted to hurt him in any way.

V. K. Keenan, vice-president G.A.C., told the gathering that their franchise was their most valuable possession. You can use it to turn out the politicians if they do not use it fairly," he said. He spoke on points in connection with their visit to Ottawa on Saturday, and urged that the fight be waged on constitutional lines at all times. "At Ottawa," he said, "the committee at the house of commons, which was the only one that represented the mass of returned men, I asked certain members of the house why they did not want to be on the whole system, especially the Forestry Corps, as 'rank and rotten.'"

Lieut. F. C. Mills of the 4th Battalion, formerly a teacher at Upper Canada College, who has returned from overseas, yesterday made charges of patronage in the appointments of officers overseas. He characterized the whole system, especially the Forestry Corps, as "rank and rotten." Lieut. Mills did considerable recruiting work in connection with the 220th Battalion, which never became strong enough to go overseas. Wanting to reach the front, the officer obtained permission to transfer to a Forestry company, which he did, and proceeded to England. In England he was told that he did not have the technical qualifications to be in a Forestry company, and the officer was put in charge.

Determined to reach the front, he reverted from the rank of captain to that of a lieutenant, and for the privilege, had his pay dated back five months. "I paid $250 to give up my rank and go to the western front. I got killed, while many officers who would not revert, but returned to Canada, held down soft jobs here. I'm not the only officer who became a strong officer was put in charge."

More Soldiers Return From Overseas

About 291 soldiers and dependents from the Saturday and Cedric arrived from the Dominion Station yesterday morning. One hundred and twenty-seven of them were for the west, seven for eastern points and 169 for Toronto. Amongst those arriving was Pte. L. McCullough of the 2nd motor transport who told of the birth of a baby on the ship he returned by, the child's father was the captain of the motor transport who are now in Halifax, had the child christened "Cedric" after the name of the boat. The captain stood as godfather and gave his godchild a present of $50, whilst the passengers subscribed a sum of $95 as a birthday gift to the child.

Another interesting arrival was Pte. Ernest Tombs, 122 Belmont street, who was away five years ago when only a young boy. He brings home with him a wife and two children—one a wee daughter Margaret, and a four-year-old boy named Donald, the son of an imperial soldier killed in action, and whom Pte. Tombs has been wounded twice during the war.

EXCUSE FOR NOT LAYING PAPELINE

Acting-Mayor Thinks There is Something Behind This Report.

The report of Engineer Middleton of the Ontario Railway Board, condemning 91 miles of Toronto Street Railway tracks, has occasioned a good deal of interest at the city hall. Controller Maguire, who was in charge at the city hall yesterday in the absence of Mayor Church, remarked: "The report is brought out as an excuse for the company not laying Pape avenue line, but it only shows that they should do both—lay the new line and replace the dangerous old ones." Ald. Honeyford, who has been active in his campaign on behalf of Pape avenue district.

Mr. R. J. Fleming, general manager of the Toronto Street Railway, in an interview stated, regarding the construction of the Pape avenue line, "It is not an effort on our part to evade the contract, so far as we believe some other part of the city needs the rails more."

As to the question of going ahead with the reconstruction of the Pape avenue line, Fleming said that was a matter for the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board. "They will deal with the matter," he said. They had not the money to pay for rails for the Pape avenue line and those for necessary repair work as well. They will take blood out of a stone," he declared.

Asked if the board decided that the repair work should be done how much would the company be able to do this year, he replied, "about four or five miles."

Thousands of people suffer from baldness, and many of them have tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair-grower without results, have resigned themselves to the fact that baldness is a permanent condition, and attendant discomfort. LABOR NEWS

RADICALS OPPOSE BIG UNION IDEA

Some of the Most Advanced Men Stated by A. F. of L.

Herbert Lewis is one of the men nominated (not yet elected) for the office of business manager for the Machinists' Union in Toronto, the idea being, according to information received from authoritative sources, to have two instead of one as at present. Ald. Honeyford, who has been active in his campaign on behalf of Pape avenue district.

This news is significant in that it shows the position of even the most radical members of the A. F. of L. toward the new organization, the one big union. It is stated to be evidence of the fact that the A. F. of L. is more conservative or radical (according to official opinion) a man may be in Toronto. He believes that the hour is not yet ripe for the organization of a big union in Toronto. He said that a few days ago official of the Butcher Workers' Union in Toronto took pains to deny the rumor that the butcher workers in Chicago had seceded from the A. F. of L. He said he was present today as ever, but receives no credence from well informed circles in Toronto. The information has been given to the A. F. of L. by a man who has been in touch with the labor situation in the United States, but the significance of that local representative of the American Federation of Labor choose to ignore it, and that in this they they are being misled by the Canadian Federation of Labor.

G.A.C. INDEPENDENT.

That the Grand Army of Canada has no intention, at present anyway, of operating with the Labor party and that the question of opposing labor in the coming election, which could be decided only when occasion arose to consider such action, was the statement given to The World yesterday by President Brown of the returned soldiers' association, who pointed out that it was impossible to do so at this juncture whether or not his association opposed the government. "We have no intention of either co-operating or affiliating with any party," said Mr. Brown, "and intend to run a political independent campaign. We have no power over members as individuals, but this is our policy as a political party, and we will stand with any other political body."

TORONTO NEXT YEAR?

John Noble, John Curran and A. Farquhar have been elected to the international convention of the Electrical Workers' Union which is being held at New Orleans, Louisiana, an endeavor will be made to make Toronto the next port of annual call.

CONCILIATORS MEET TODAY.

The board of conciliation, which meets at the city hall today at 10 o'clock to take up the grievances of the telephone operators in Toronto, will have an important bearing generally upon the field of electrical work in this city.

HELPING LABOR POLITICS.

James T. Gunn, business manager for the Electrical Workers' Union, may address the Toronto Trades Congress and other points of interest during the session of the Trades Congress of Canada in Hamilton. It is understood that he will attempt to bring known members of the labor movement to address political meetings while the congress is in session, are meeting with the best of success.

POLITICALLY HARMONIOUS.

U.F.O. and C.I.P. delegates to the convention at Weston next Tuesday night will decide upon a candidate for West York at that convention. This constituency is expected to show how harmonious are the relations between labor and farmer politically.

CO-OPERATORS VERY BUSY.

Co-operators will meet at the Labor Temple on Tuesday evening further details of organization will be dealt with. This is a new association which promises to develop on a very large scale. It was stated yesterday afternoon that shares were selling at $5 a share.

WAS REPORT UNFAVORABLE?

One of the most important matters up before the board of conciliation, under consideration during the past six weeks has been the question of concurrent contracts for the men, and at which begin and end at the same time as each other. The committee of the council has been at work upon the matter for some weeks past, and yesterday afternoon at the regular session of the council presented its report upon the feasibility of the idea. It is understood that the report was unfavorable, but no official word was handed out to the press.

HALIFAX TURKEY FOILS ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL

Halifax, Sept. 15.—Eleven prisoners at the county jail here made an unsuccessful attempt to break out of the jail this morning, when the ring-leaders were up for trial.

On Saturday morning, when the turkey opened a wad door, the eleven prisoners faced him and ordered him to give up the key, instead of complying, Hood locked the door and threw the keys out of an open window. He then called for help, and one of the jailers opened the door with his own key, and, armed with a baton, speedily cowed the conspirators.

Australia May Compel Peace Loan Subscriptions

Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 15.—Subscriptions to the peace loan have so far been unsatisfactory, and compulsion is threatened.

GAS WORKERS ARE NOW ORGANIZING

Express Themselves as Tired of Poor Pay and Bad Surroundings.

Various branches among the employees of the gasworks are seriously considering the advisability of organizing on a thoroughgoing scale. One prominent labor man stated last night that conditions surrounding the work and wages were intolerable. Service men, he said, were so ill paid that it was more than difficult to make ends meet when a man was single; much more so in the case of the married men. "The average wage for outside men, service men, was said to be $17 a week when the weather was good, and $15 a week in bad weather because of climatic conditions. The general average during the months in the year was $15 a week; during the other three months there was no work, and the employees were forced to make shift as well as they could."

Stokers, who did work equal to that of the rolling mill men, continued the strike, received 55 cents an hour on an eight-hour day basis, with seven days a week, making a total for the day of $30.40 a week. If a stoker took a day off his work, he received 55 cents considered dismissed. Inside men such as those in the stock rooms were no better off. One man related that last week he received one day's work because he laid off. His total for the week amounted to $14. There was no doubt, he said, that the gasworkers were the worst paid of any men in the game.

HOME-SHOP WORK TO BE ABOLISHED?

Journeyman Tailors' Union Fighting With This End in View.

Local 132, Journeymen tailors recently initiated twelve new members and last night reported an organization of 100 per cent. The union is presently in a position to request the government of Canada to abolish the policy of home shop work, an ally of the piece-work system. Such resolutions have been pressed home to the government many years, and altho no direct action has been taken in the matter inspection has been made by the Trades Congress, Harry Eickert of Hamilton will represent the union at this year's session of the congress.

WELCOMING WELL ORGANIZED

KEEP SMILING IF YOU'D AVOID "FLU"

New York's Health Department Issues Sound Warning and Advice.

New York, Sept. 15.—As a measure of preparedness against a recurrence of influenza, as predicted by the United States Health Service, the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor began yesterday distribution of leaflets containing rules for health and personal hygiene.

The leaflets are being distributed among 12,000 families under the care of the organization's nurses, visitors and dietitians. Among the rules are: They all regulations of the city health authorities.

Avoid crowds. Stay away from anyone having a cough or cold. Drink plenty of fresh water. Keep the home well ventilated and be sure there is plenty of fresh air day and night.

Sleep with the windows open. Avoid fatigue and get plenty of rest, in particular, of the stomach and excessive eating of unsuitable foods. Sleep is one of the most important things, and the thing that is most neglected.

Be as much as possible in the open air and walk to your work if practicable. Eat three uniform meals a day and avoid a breakfast of mere coffee, and a mere piece of cake or something of the kind for lunch. Special precautions should be taken against going at dinner-time, when the stomach is least able to cope with the largest meal of the day, and which practice is bound to lower the resistance of the system.

Keep warm and keep dry; wrapping up the neck or exposing the neck and arms unduly are undesirable in the changing weather of the fall. Bathe frequently. The skin is part of the breathing system of the body, and must be kept in good condition.

Exercise regularly, both in the open and indoors if possible. Avoid the common drinking cup or glass. If you feel sick and have a cold coming on, go to bed. Call the doctor. Stay in bed until the doctor says you can get up, and don't receive callers or visitors until the doctor says that danger of infection is passed.

Above all things, try and keep cheerful.

TWO RETURNED MEN STRUCK BY MOTOR CAR

Two returned soldiers undergoing treatment at the General Hospital were struck by an automobile on University avenue, near Christopher street, at 8 o'clock last night. Thomas Cowan, 37 Melville avenue, was wheeling his chair, Roy Heppenstall, in a motor chair north on the road of University.

The motor car was northbound and the driver was dazed by the reflection from front lights of the automobile. Cowan was struck and hurled to the pavement, and the chair was turned over, throwing Heppenstall on the forehead. Heppenstall recently underwent a skull operation and he is suffering from shock and lacerations.

Robert Walker, 246 Robert street, driver of the automobile, gave a statement to Detective-Sergeants Koster and Williams, and later was allowed to go. Both injured men were taken back to the hospital.

YOUNG GIRL ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Louisa Jordan, an 18-year-old Hamilton girl, was arrested last night by plainclothesmen Ward and Koster on a charge of concealment of birth of a child. It is reported that the young girl came here a few days ago and rented a room on McGill street. Saturday morning she gave birth to a child, without receiving medical attention.

After the infant was born, according to the police, the girl got out of bed, and, wrapping it in one of her waists, placed it in her trunk. Yesterday afternoon she got up and went out for a walk. The landlady entered the room, and, after seeing the condition of the room, called the girl aside and questioned her. It is alleged that the girl confessed and admitted that she had placed the baby.

The police were notified, and in a statement from them the girl declared that the baby was dead when it was born. Chief Coroner Johnson ordered the girl removed to the General Hospital for treatment. The body of the child was removed to the morgue, where a post-mortem examination will be performed prior to the holding of an inquest. The prisoner stated that her mother was dead, but her father and sisters were living in Hamilton.

JEWELRY AND CLOTHING STOLEN FROM STUDENTS

Charged with the theft of over $600 worth of jewelry and clothing, Walter Ellsbury and his wife Amy were arrested last night at a house on George street. The police claim that the prisoners were keeping house for a number of returned soldiers living on St. George street, and attending the university.

A few weeks ago Ellsbury and his wife left the house which could not be located. A search of trunks and the rooms by the students revealed the news that their belongings had been taken. The detectives were informed and yesterday Policeman Cowan was told that the Ellsburys had returned to the city and where they were staying. The arrest was then made. Ellsbury told the police that he had been staying in Campbell, Ont.

ed, and these were representative of every branch of industry and labor. The speeches and proceedings are being followed with a close interest, and it is expected that the sessions will continue morning and afternoon until Saturday. Sir William Hearst was among those present at the opening sessions, and it is expected that more of the provincial premiers will be on hand when the meetings are resumed tomorrow morning.

"I hope some man will rise big enough and broad enough to put the word 'brother' back into the brotherhood of the people," said Sir William Hearst, "never had such a vital meaning as today," concluded Mr. Stone.

Hon. R. Robertson, reviving briefly the reasons for which the conference had been called, spoke of the serious nature of the reconstruction period. "Half a million men and women in Canada have been displaced from their work after November 11, 1918, said Senator Robertson. With the repatriation of the soldiers this was regarded as a prodigious task.

Previous to the war, said Senator Robertson, the alien had been employed largely in construction work, and this work ceased with the opening of the war these men drifted into the factories. When war ceased and the men were returned in many cases to their former positions or better ones—Canada's record in this regard was better than that of most countries—no particular hardship to anyone had resulted, and this year we are absorbing the labor displaced by the return of the soldier, instead of absorbing immigrants. In a short time, said Senator Robertson, we were expected to be seeking immigrants to fill our demand for laborers. Views and ideas of employers and labor had been found not widely divergent in Canada as had been expected last year when representatives of these two classes met in Ottawa and agreed on representations to be made to the government.

Hon. A. L. Sifton, speaking briefly, told the conference of the fight made by Canada at the international labor conference for recognition. He asserted that it had taken six weeks for the Canadian delegates to gain their rights. The Dominion delegates asserted that they would have nothing to do with the conference excepting on the basis of equality.

Hon. N. W. Rowell regarded the gathering as a "Canadian peace conference." He thought it a matter of congratulation that there had been less unrest in Canada than in other countries. There must, he said, be co-operation between capital and labor.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King voiced his regret because of the absence of Sir Robert Borden and expressed the hope that the prime minister would speedily recover. He expressed confidence in the outcome of the deliberations of the gathering and declared that in its deliberations party politics should be avoided. The Liberal party, he said, had adopted as part of its platform the labor features of the peace treaty. Mr. King emphasized the desirability of avoiding insofar as possible the danger of class division in the realms of industry.

Mr. King predicted that no class group formed with the purpose of controlling government could permanently succeed and asserted that any man who refuses to negotiate with other men should be regarded as a public menace. In closing he said there were four classes to industry: labor, capital, management and the community. Each of these four was entitled to a voice in the shaping of industrial policies and there must be consideration of the rights of the community without which industry could not progress.

Speech by Col. Carnegie. Col. David Carnegie, formerly of the imperial munitions board, Ottawa, but more recently concerned with industrial development in England, dealt with the progress of Whitley councils in English industries. They had proved the best means for bringing together masters and men, breaking down suspicion and averting strikes. He said that the recent big strike had occurred in industries where there were no Whitley councils and he felt that if Whitley councils or some similar plan were introduced in Canada it would be a very great step towards solving the labor problem.

Some sections of labor feared the Whitley councils would affect their rights; that they do not give them the controller profit expected, or that their labor unions give them sufficient bargaining power. There are, however, the classes of labor who either look forward to a fight against capital and those who believe they can deal with the employers without consulting the unions.

Some employers feel they are able to settle any difference with their staffs without an recourse to Whitley councils, while others who have had little trouble with their employees have but little regard for the need of councils.

Councils Bring Co-operation. The councils have created an attitude of co-operation instead of the hostility of Col. Carnegie, strikes have been prevented and often those who formerly had suspicions and almost involved of one another have got together for their mutual benefit.

Col. Carnegie said he had been impressed by the value of having employers and employees meeting in common discussion and he gave several instances where either side had given way on vital points for the benefit of both.

At the afternoon sitting of the industrial conference, R. G. Henderson said the delegates were glad to see the delegates at the absence of Premier Borden thru illness. Those present at the conference had wished for his attendance and confidence for it was hoped, it would have such important effects. Speaking as a member of the employers' group, Mr. Henderson said he had no objection to the hope that great good would result. He concluded with a resolution of thanks to those who had addressed the conference.

All Cards on Table. President Tom Moore of the Trades Congress, in seconding Mr. Henderson's motion, said he hoped the conclusions of the conference would be of the best for the country as a whole. The conference had been called, he said, for the purpose of bringing ideas into realities.

For years the workers had been attempting to reach a position where they could discuss their problems openly and with all cards on the table. If the employers came in similar spirit, he felt that the objects of the conference could be reached. Another important matter was that any necessary legislation decided upon should be enacted by the government without delay. He asked that there should be an assurance from the government that there would be action by all the governments, federal and provincial, where such was needed.

The resolution, expressing regret at the illness of Sir Robert Borden, was then put by Senator Robertson, who said the prime minister sincerely desired to be present and carried with loud applause.

Social Unrest in U. S. Senator Robertson spoke of the importance of transportation to industry and called upon Mr. Warren S. Stone, president of the National Association of Locomotive Engineers in the United States. Mr. Stone said the problems on the other side of the line were the same as here. The social unrest was only

Have You A "Twenty Pay Life Policy?"

A true story of a Canada Life Policy issued over forty years ago.

At age 30 he secured his $5,000 Twenty Pay Life Policy.

At age 35 he received his first Dividend, which was added to the Policy.

At age 50 he received notice that his Policy, with 20 years' Dividends, was fully paid for.

At age 60 his Policy, still earning Dividends, helped him to finance the purchase of a new home.

At age 70 he withdrew the Cash Value for his own personal use. He received a Canada Life cheque for $6140 in return for his $2830 paid in premiums. For many years his home had been protected by insurance of $5,000 and Dividends.

A Policy on your life may do much that you intend to do—if you live. It may pay off the mortgage, supply food and clothing for your family, keep the children at school and prevent a forced sale of your other property.

It may be all that is left of your life work—to keep you in comfort in your old age. But—your Policy must be large enough.

The Twenty Payment Life

Our new up-to-date policy provides—

- 1. That premiums will cease in 20 years.
2. That dividends will be paid during the 20 years, and afterwards.
3. That if you should be totally and permanently disabled before age 60, all premiums will be cancelled, and a monthly income paid to you.
4. That such monthly payments will not be deducted from the policy at your death.
5. That after 3 years you may take a Cash Value, or receive a paid-for policy or pledge the policy as security for a loan.
6. That the policy cannot lapse while a cash value exists; that the policy is indisputable after one year; that you may reside or travel in any part of the world or engage in any occupation without affecting your insurance.

(There are many other valuable privileges.)

An Immediate Estate

The great advantage over any other form of investment is that a small percentage paid yearly creates immediately an estate of $5,000, $10,000 or more.

These active, progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be more easily met.

Twenty years is a convenient period and premiums spread over that length of time are moderate and easy to handle.

Do not delay this important matter. Ask for particulars today.

EXPLAINS THE REASON WHY CABINET RESIGNED

Belgrade, Sept. 15.—Liouba Davidovich, the premier, has made public his letter to Prince Regent Alexander by which ministry resigned. The letter, which was dated Friday, September 12, says the latest news from the peace conference has been unfavorable, and the "cabinet has been unable to obtain the suppression or attenuation of the clauses dealing with minorities, which infringe upon national sovereignty, and cannot sign a document of an international character which does not proscribe reciprocity."

GRAND DUKE WITH KOLCHAK

Paris, Sept. 15.—Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the former Russian emperor, who made his escape from Perm, where he was imprisoned by the Bolsheviks, has reached Admiral Kolchak's headquarters, according to Humanite. He is known only to a few of Kolchak's officers, the paper adds, and is preparing to act in the role of pretender to the imperial throne.

Has Cut Railway.

London, Sept. 15.—A Russian communique received by the war office says an airplane reconnaissance shows that General Kamontov, commander of anti-Bolshevik Cossacks, who about the middle of August broke thru the Bolshevik lines, is still operating behind the Bolshevik 100 miles west of Pskov. He has cut the railway seriously interfering with Bolshevik ammunition and supplies.

MAKING PRIN. MORRISON PRINCIPAL AT LARGE

Principal Morrison of Pape Avenue Public School will be made a principal at large, with full salary but no school, if the action of the finance committee of the board of education yesterday afternoon is concurred in by a majority of the members of the board of education at the regular meeting on Thursday night. It is expected that if this wedge can be driven into Principal Morrison's hold upon his position as a principal on the school staff, that it will eventually lead to his withdrawal. Some observers, however, assert that the fight over the Morrison case has only just begun.

In response to an appeal from a York township deputation, it was decided to waive the payment of high school fees for two weeks, pending action by the township council.

A BETTER PRICE FOR PORK IN BRITAIN

Packer in Winnipeg Probe Says He Gets More for Export Product. Winnipeg, Sept. 15.—Mr. Gordon, president of Gordon, Ironsides & Fares, at the morning session of the board of commerce, admitted that pork products exported to Great Britain bring a much better price than the local wholesale price. Mr. Gordon did not give comparative figures, but promised to produce them at a later hearing. Sixty per cent. of his produce is sent to Great Britain, he declared, and the remainder is sold in Canada. None is sent to the United States.

"We would make many thousands more if we could ship all our bacon to England," he stated. "It is the price which keeps up the price here." Earlier the witness had testified that he had three million pounds of bacon packers which he keeps up the price here. "We are waiting to see if the British ministry is going to raise us or give us a living price for it," he commented. Mr. Gordon said he was glad of the opportunity to give facts of his business, as he expected to prove that the packers were responsible for the high cost of living to the extent which they were believed to be. Examining A. H. McLean, manager of the Canadian Packing Company, Harry Whitla, K.C., representing the government, attempted to prove his theory that it was competitive bidding by wholesalers which made it possible for producers to get such a high price for their eggs and butter. Mr. McLean admitted that it was. He had to bid as high as the "great bidders" before he could get eggs or butter at all from the farmers. They were demanding 50c for strictly fresh eggs, and 40c per pound for the best grade of butter, he said.

KEEP AND STRENGTHEN FREE-EMPIRE UNION

Lord Milner's Message in "The Future" to United Kingdom and Dominions. London, Sept. 15.—Lord Milner, colonial secretary, contributed the following message to "The Future," in which Premier Lloyd George issued a message to the British nation urging it to redeem its promise to the dead soldiers who fought for a new world.

"The United Kingdom and the dominions are partner nations, not yet united, with equal power, but for good and all of equal status. A time may come when one or more of these dominions will equal or even surpass the United Kingdom in wealth and population as they already surpass in geographical extent. It is the paramount duty of British statesmanship to see that the free union between them and us which has been so gloriously maintained during the war, shall be continued and strengthened in the years to come."

Both The Daily News and Daily Express enquire who pays for the cost of the Future. The Daily News says that the message is bound to be mischievous and thinks it betrays an appeal which will only stir up hatred instead of promoting a joint effort.

Uncle Wiggly and Roly-Poly

BY HOWARD R. GARIS. Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Nurse Jane Fussy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper, as she saw the bunny rabbit gentleman jumping down off the front porch of his hollow stump bungalow on day. "Oh! just for a hop thru the woods to see if I may have an adventure," answered Mr. Longears. "Yesterday I saw the Toddle Bug teach Croko, the baby frog boy, how to be brave and jump. Who knows what may happen today?" "Very true," answered Nurse Jane. "Who knows? But I know one thing, Uncle Wiggly."

"What is that?" the bunny wanted to know. "That is unless you get me a new broom I cannot sweep your bungalow very clean," answered the muskrat lady. "My old broom is worn out."

"Then you shall have a new one," answered the bunny, giving a kindly twinkle to his pink nose. "Over the fields and thru the woods he hopped until he came to the broom store. There he looked at the broom sweeper for Nurse Jane, and he was on his way home with it, carrying it over his shoulder as a soldier carries his gun, when all at once the muskrat gentleman heard a grilly-growly noise in the bushes.

"Dear me! thought Uncle Wiggly, 'I hope that isn't the scaly-scaled alligator with the double-jointed tail.' Carefully he peered around the corner of an old stump and there on the ground the rabbit gentleman saw Nippy. Nippy was the little puppy dog brother of Jackie and Peete Bow Wow, the doggie boys. And Nippy and Uncle Wiggly were good friends.

"Hello there, Nippy!" called Uncle Wiggly joyfully, when he saw the little doggie. "What are you doing, Nippy?" "Gawing my bone," answered the little doggie. "You see I am just learning how. First I could only gnaw old shoes, but now I can gnaw my mother's broom. But she took hold of the handle and pulled it away from me."

"And what did you do?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "Oh, I held on by my teeth as hard as I could and I pulled, too," answered Nippy. "That's how the rabbit gentleman saw my jaws strong and my teeth sharp. And now I can gnaw a bone."

"That's good," howled the bunny. "Well, it's like everything else. Little frogs like Croko, first have to learn to take little jumps and perhaps have a toddle bug show them how to walk on their spidee web. Little puppy dogs first gnaw shoes and books and brooms, and then they can gnaw hard bones. Well, you have a good time, Nippy. I must hurry home with this new broom for Nurse Jane."

So the rabbit gentleman hopped on to his hollow stump bungalow and Nippy stayed in the deep, cool green grass, gnawing his bone. Now about an hour after this, when Nurse Jane had finished sweeping the

CANNOT SECEDE, SAYS PREMIER SMUTS

Has Sharp Contest With Nationalist Leader at Debate in Union Assembly. Capetown, South Africa, Sept. 15.—There was an interesting passage at arms between Premier Smuts and Gen. Hertzog on the question of the separation from the empire during the debate in the assembly. When Gen. Hertzog proposed that the nationalist congress must decide on the secessionist policy, General Smuts thrilled at the house with his absolute and decisive statement.

"South Africa has not the right to secede from the empire. Under clause 19 of the constitution secession is impossible and unconstitutional. The assembly cannot secede from the King. Gen. Hertzog shouted: "Can it remain the King?" General Smuts: "No, it is not a question of status, but of the constitution. In the terms of the constitution the King cannot give up the assembly."

The premier concluded by uttering warning of the seriousness of not declaring openly to the people what the nationalist policy was and what it meant.

New York, N.Y., Sept. 15.—The city's one hundred thousand employees soon will present demands for increased wages "without violence or threat," according to a statement by George H. Stansfield, an organizer of the Municipal Employees' Association, at a meeting of 25,000 employees already had been enrolled. He predicted the rest would be listed within two weeks. The organization was formed to appeal to the American Federation of Labor, he said.

TO FORBID AUTO TRAFFIC

Berlin, Sept. 15.—The government is planning to forbid automobile traffic on Sundays and at night between midnight and 6 o'clock in the morning on account of the shortage in petrol. The action is to be taken because motorists have disregarded the government's appeal to use cars for business purposes only. Physicians are to be excepted from the rule.

PRICE DROPS ALL YOU WANT FOR CANADA

Declares, at Calgary, Nothing But Failure of Classes to Co-operate Can Hinder Growth.

Calgary, Sept. 15.—His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales today spoke straight to Canadians of their national duties and problems. At the civic luncheon he spoke of his enjoyment of the atmosphere of the prairie and his appreciation of the magnificent spirit of the western Canadian people from the earliest pioneers to the present. He urged the assimilation of alien human material and asserted that nothing could set Canada back except the failure of different classes and communities to look to the wider interests of the Dominion as well as their own immediate needs.

Calgary's welcome to the Prince of Wales at the official opening of his visit to this city this morning was only the warmest of the fact that his royal highness had been in town 24 hours before the mayor formally read the city's address of welcome in the presence of nearly 85,000 citizens in Victoria Park.

Greeted With Enthusiasm. King's speech and a ringing visitor fired the enthusiasm of the people of Calgary to a high pitch, and the strictly formal nature of the ceremonies could not deter the crowd from its gaily and friendliness in the presence of the popular prince.

Having acknowledged Calgary's address of welcome, the prince proceeded to review the veterans of the V. A. D. cadets and Boy Scouts, visited the hospital and then proceeded to the civic luncheon for George Lane's ranch, the "Bar U," near High River, where he will spend thirty-six hours, which he will spend private visit, during which he will see a round-up of cattle and other incidents of ranch life. He will return to Calgary Tuesday evening for the military ball, leaving immediately afterwards for Banff.

Will Use All Means TO ROOT OUT BOLSHEVISM. Dresden, Sept. 15.—Gustav Noske, minister of defence in an address tonight before the convention of the Saxon majority socialists, said he would oppose with the utmost means any attempt to introduce the Russian system of Bolshevism into Germany.

"If it becomes necessary to jeopardize the lives of a few thousand men in order to protect hundreds of thousands of peaceful citizens," said Noske, "I shall act exactly as I did in Berlin, Hamburg, Bremen and Munich."

Noske described the idea of a world revolution as "a soap bubble" and the motion of a government with the independent socialists at this moment as unthinkable.

The Vestris sailed on Sept. 4 for Rio Janeiro and Buenos Aires. All the passengers had been landed safely.

The instrument indicated that the disturbance was 1,800 miles due south, and the announcement given by the station was probably in or around Guatemala.

JOURNALISM BECOMES SUDDENLY POPULAR

"People get to be writers in such rapid Berlin," says Anne Herendeen, in an amusing review of the gentle art of passport hunting. "There was the young man whose aunt once met a famous editor at quite a big reception. He made the editor a big sporting proposition about being his foreign correspondent. His aunt he would be sure if they never printed a line he sent."

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

POLYANNA AT PRINCESS

Viola Harper makes a startling entrance onto the stage at the Princess Theatre last night when she appeared as the "glad girl" in "Polyanna."

The earnest and rather laborious glad girl of the game is interrupted by some flashes of humor from Nancy, the Irish maid with her thousand Irish salutes to call upon her and her habit of cursing.

Allice Baxter is a beautiful and graceful young girl. Catherine Roberts takes the maid with vim and Garland Gaden makes a jolly doctor.

INGENIOUS OCCULT PLAY.

"Eyes of Youth" by Robins. "Players Delights Large Audience at Royal Alexandra."

"Eyes of Youth," the ingenious occult-play by Robins and Charles Guernon, was put on at the Royal Alexandra last night by the Robins Players, assisted by Miss Maud Pealy.

The implications of the play include the folly of trying to please others in deciding one's life's course.

The excitement of the play hinges on an accident in which Polyanna is severely hurt and goes to Europe for five years.

Wilbur Mack and Company, in "A Pair of Tickets" present an amusing little comedy at Shea's this week.

Generous applause at the close of yesterday's performance testified to the excellent support in Loulli Holley and George Harris at the piano.

Judging from the excellent expression of an audience's approval, Zelaya, pianist, made a wonderful hit.

In the role of a girl who yields to every impulse dainty and diminutive Ethel Clayton is shown at her best in the feature film "A Sporting Chance."

Wonderful Pageant of Fabrics and Designs at Eaton's.

Milady Fashion visited the T. Eaton Company yesterday and in a sumptuous pageant of fabrics and designs showed her votaries what she had in store for them in the coming season. Hundreds filled the seats on the fourth floor at 2 p.m. and for two hours remained rapt in admiration as the procession of mannikins paraded in a charming procession of varied costumes.

Contrast was afforded by the jubilee dresses with which the pageant opened and those that followed in the up-to-the-minute style of today. The gown of fifty years ago was of cloth of gold, the tight pointed basque waist of yellow satin and many frills of the lace on the skirt. Another gown of the days of our grandmothers was of lavender taffeta with a flowered pattern of the same material forming the puffed panier overskirt, touches of green bows forming the finishing. These crinolined concoctions faded from the platform to the accompaniment of a voice singing Tosti's "Good Bye," the outgoing mannikins showing the slim silhouette and the skirts to be worn in the autumn of 1919.

Richness of material and warmth of coloring were features. Wonderful brocades in which gold and brilliant metallic effects were plentifully used, generous use of fur on coats and suits, velvet and a revival of rich laces, a return of French models, touches of color that suggested the art of the Orient, buckles on shoes and heels covered with diamonds—these were a few of the things noted. Also that skirts generally are longer than last season, coming well down to the top of the boots, and that long gloves for evening wear are "good" with a promise of short gloves and uncovered arms as the season advances. A novelty was seen in a satin costume featuring the divided skirt with cuffs brocaded in gold banding the limbs below the knee. A return to the high collar was seen on a gown of black satin with lace borders, the collar being boned and fitting well into the neck.

A beautiful evening gown was of a charming shade of blue, brocaded in a large pattern with silver, the waist altogether of silver, the skirt draped and the long train falling freshly away from the under dress. Another gown was of green and silver, the train being veiled in green chiffon, a shawl of the same falling from the pointed ends, the ends being finished with tassels. A simple but exceptionally striking frock was of deep American blue, the bodice made without train, the elbow sleeves banded with fur and a wonderful girlie of silver tied at the side with a bow and another design in tango crepe with tango feathered trimmings showed the popularity of the shade. Doucet had an odd but charming combination in champagne satin and silver grey and a periwinkle or periwinkle blue, in taffeta was still another rare note in coloring.

B'Well and Rheumaticide Surely Saved My Life

I received a telephone call from Mr. Borrowsman on Oct. 10. He had just read my advertisement in The Evening Telegram, and he wanted to know if I was open. It was 10 p.m. I told him I would be open for about half an hour yet. He arrived in about fifteen minutes, and this is the conversation that took place. He said, "Well, I was reading your ad in the newspaper tonight, and I thought, well, lots of people will doubt the truth of it. I can say it's true. I was suffering from B'Well and Rheumaticide. I had a very bad cold for some weeks. It settled on my bronchial tubes, and was very much like asthma. I lost my voice, and was coughing and wheezing, and nearly dead when I called on you and got your B'Well and Rheumaticide. It surely saved my life. I was in awful misery. I could hardly breathe, and my breath was so short I could hardly walk. I have come here tonight for another bottle of B'Well to be used on my chest. B'Well and Rheumaticide are all right. You can use my name as you like. I am only too glad to recommend medicines that save life." Mr. E. Borrowsman lives at 23 Argyll St., Toronto, Ont.

Patrolman Sergeant Finch said that Fleming was under the influence of liquor at the time, but the accident had only one small drink, of which he did not feel the after effects until after the accident.

CITIZENS' LIBERTY LEAGUE

Is Absolutely Opposed to a Return of the Old License System

The Citizens' Liberty League, consisting of prominent men and women in Ontario, qualifiedly opposed to any measures that tend to bring back the bar and the unrestricted sale of spirituous liquors.

On the other hand, the Citizens' Liberty League sincerely believes that the present situation demands a repeal of the unsatisfactory Ontario Temperance Act, and the inauguration of sane, moderate temperance legislation.

These leading men and women, with no selfish ends to serve, and having in mind only the best interests of all the people in Ontario, are convinced that the true solution to the temperance problem is to allow the general sale of more appetizing, non-intoxicating beer and light wines, with the sale of spirituous liquors placed under proper Government regulations and restrictions.

Unite with the Citizens' Liberty League in its earnest, sincere endeavor to obtain temperance legislation which meets the needs of all but curtails the liberties of none.

ALBANIANS IN GREEK OVERBREEK ADVANCE

Fearing a Recurrence of Massacres, Population is Hurdledly Fleeing.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Albanian refugees arriving in Paris from Koritza and the surrounding district bring reports of the terror inspired by the advance of Greek troops into that territory, which formerly was controlled by the French, who entered the district in 1914 and gave pledges they would be considered a part of Albania.

Repeated protests have been made to the peace conference against Greek advances into territory awarded to Albania by the London Conference, but no replies have been forthcoming, and lack of information concerning the plans of the entente, it is asserted, is causing much uneasiness to the Albanians, who are in fear of some secret agreement as regards Albania.

About 122,000 Albanians have lived in the Koritza district, which the Greeks are now entering. Fearing a recurrence of the massacres of 1914-15, the Albanians are fleeing before the Greeks with the assistance of Italian and French troops and officials, who are enabling the terrified population to escape to Italy. The flight of the populace, according to reports, has been proceeding for more than ten days. The population of Koritza is reported to have been amazed by announcement of the French withdrawal August 20 that the district of Koritza would be handed over to the Greeks.

The Albanians have asked the peace conference to keep French officials in the district until the conference has settled the Albanian question, or to send a small American force there to steady the situation. As far as can be learned, the peace conference has not yet arrived at any decision as to the future of Albania.

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ PAYS VISIT TO CAMBRAL

Paris, Sept. 15.—President Poincaré received Cambral yesterday and was received most enthusiastically. British and French troops formed the guard of honor. After inspection of the devastated parts the president proceeded to the town hall where he bestowed the Legion of Honor on the town.

In the course of a speech he said that Cambral had been the victim for four years of every form of torture until the night of Oct. 19, 1918, when French and Canadian troops attacked and occupied the town, but not before the Germans had set fire to the heart of the city and burned down 1,200 houses. The president deeply sympathized with the town in its sufferings.
