The Late Lance Corporal Tucker

Water is one of the greatest aids in medicine. Intern bathing has saved thousands in case of fever, auto-in-loxication and partially has been any uses such as sprains, etc. Of water is an aux-liary in the form of bath, effusion, or wet sheets, reduces preternatural heat. Where it has a drole influence: First, the are permitted to take the following extracts. It is dated Oct. 28th. To the sorrowing parents the letter must be a profound consolation. The young Corporal nobly did his duty, paying the price of citizenship and loyalty to Empire and Humanity with his life; and paying it without grudge or regret. The message he leaves is one and paying it without grudge or regret. The message he leaves is one that will ring out in every hamlet in the Island:—"I would rather be in the condition I am," said the dying hero, "than to have failed to fight for my country." It is because of these words, so faithfully recorded by his kind and sympathetic physician, that we urged of tryphus fever it specession with it. permission to publish the following extracts. Lance-Corporal Tucker did not live to achieve victory over the foes of Humanity, but he did achieve but a single patient.

OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a try-ing one to most women and marks dis-tinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one In Use For Over 30 Years oman in a handred is prepared or un-reads now to properly care for her-ic. Of course nearly every woman newadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard, to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazardte health or beauty.
