TRAGIC DEATHS.

TWO WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE PASS AWAY.

Mrs. Joseph Harvey, of Centreville, fell down stairs last Friday receiving injuries from which she died on Monday morning. She had for a couple of years been in poor health, and after her fall did not regain consciousness. James Harvey of Woodstock is her son. She also has a daughter living in Boston who arrived at Centreville on Tuesday.

Charles Good of Jacksonville, one of the best known and most prosperous farmers of the county dropped dead in Baker's stable at Woodstock on Tuesday evening. The cause of his demise is ascribed to apoplexy, to which his family have been predisposed. He, with his daughter, had taken tea with Chas. Comben at Woodstock and he had gone to the stable to get his horse. Up to his death he was in apparent good health. Though he was 70 years of age he was as erect and his step as elastic as that of a man 50. He leaves two daughters, Miss Helen, and Mrs. Schurman of Charlottetown. He has been widowed many years; his wife was a daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Hartt.

M. R. Keenan of Johnville, came down yesterday to meet the express which carried the dead body of his son, John E. who some little time ago was kicked by a horse and died from the result on Wednesday. The young man was 24 years of age and held a responsible position as book keeper with a Lewiston, Me. firm. Deceased was wellknown in the upper part of the county as an amiable and upright young man.

Kent Parish S. S. Convention was held in Bath on Thursday.

Rev. J. B. Daggett's regular preaching service in the F. C. B. Church tomorrow evening—7.00.

L P Fisher of Woodstock has returned from Boston where he had gone to spend the winter, and by poor health is confined to the house. He will not be able to get out until spring.

The Trustees of this district have found it necessary to open another school in the village. This is truly a wise move for the number of pupils in attendance is certainly too large for two teachers. Mr. Matheson's hall is being fitted up temporarily for a school room and in which Miss Susie Pass will be teacher.

On Thursday Miss Eva Cluff's many friends gathered at the home of C. H. Taylor, and spent a most enjoyable evening on the night previous to her departure. Miss Cluff who has been in our midst as a milliner since last spring has made many friends and she will be much missed from the circle she cheered and brightened.

BOARD OF TRADE.

A MEETING OF THOSE INTERESTED.

It has been decided to call a meeting of those interested in the organization of a Board of Trade and the date is fixed for next Monday and the place the ADVERTISER office. Every merchant, business man and citizen, interested in the welfare of the village and county is invited to attend. The object of organization is to seek to improve the business of the village: to call for a reduction in freight rates, to agitate the Bridge Question, to encourage and foster new and old industries of general benefit to the village and country, to unify the interests of the business men and the farmers. The ADVERTISER has been apprised of the meeting only as it goes to press and not in time for a careful write up. But it urges upon all the fact that the question is of great importance and the meeting should be at least representative of all lines of business.

DIED OF FEVER.

INSANITARY CONDITIONS AND BAD PORK

Up along the line the chief topic of conversation is the fever that originated in McNair's lumber camps. Four of the victims have died since coming out, and others are in a critical state. The insanitary condition of the camps is supposed to have been the exciting cause, but whether McNair's camps are worse in this respect than others our informant does not state. Much of the sickness originated in the the pork as before mentioned and the ADVERTISER hears that Mr. McNair has instituted a claim for $2000 against the packers. It is true the brine had been drained off and that would help the meat to spoil, but it is said it was bad when first received. This affair will be a serious blow to Mr. McNair's business and may break up his winter's operations.

TO DISCUSS WHEAT-GROWING.

The Woodstock Dairy Association will meet in Cedar Hill school house on Monday evening next, and will discuss the wheat-growing problem. They have put the question thus: Resolved that the farmers of Carleton Co. should raise their supply of wheat rather than import flour. At the meeting of the People's Agricultural Union in Matheson's Hall next Thursday evening, this question should be argued. There are some farmers in this vicinity who could tell interesting and profitable experiences in this most live issue.

Stanley Sutton of Andover spent Christmas in the village.

Samuel Harmon of Fort Fairfield is stopping in the village.

HOW CHRISTMAS WAS SPENT.

There was little more stir on Christmas than marks the quietude of a peaceful Sabbath. No religious services were held. The rink was open afternoon and evening, and had a splendid attendance and several have remarked on the excellent order maintained. There was no visible drunkenness throughout the day.

THE CHRISTMAS TRADE.

The traders all report a holiday trade fully up to the average. Considering the entire absence of snow this is a good record. The three days previous to Christmas each store was literally thronged with buyers, and many merchants were forced to employ extra clerks. Had there been sleighing and safe crossing on the river the Christmas trade would have been in excess of the last few years.

A PROSPEROUS FARMER.

Rainsford Birmingham is one of our most successful farmers. He works scientifically and reasonably. He does not sell his hay and grain but feeds it to his stock. Wednesday he drove seventeen head of cattle to Woodstock and sold them for a good figure. This makes thirty-six head he has sold this season. He did not raise them all, but brought them and fattened them. Some he brought already fattened and fed them and made them fatter. Mr. Birmingham has farming down fine and the Tiser calls for a speech from him for next Thursday night's Agricultural Meeting.

ORANGE PARADE FORBIDDEN.

Sir Herbert Murray, Governor of Newfoundland, has issued a proclamation forbidding an Orange procession projected for next Sunday because in 1883, the last time an Orange parade took place, a riot ensued in which seven men were killed.

OBITUARY.

The death of Robert, son of Frederick Jenson, of Upper Brighton, occurred on the evening of the 23rd inst. after one year's lingering illness supposed to have been some form of decline. He had numbered 23 years of life. Judging from the throng of people at his funeral, especially those of his age it would appear that he was held in good esteem by his acquaintances. The large congregation were sympathetic, thoughtful and solemn through the service necessarily impressive from the age and suddenness of the death. The text itself 'Prepare to meet thy God,' adding to the solemnity of the occasion. The young man bade his friends 'good night' saying he should not be there in the morning. With God we leave the dead and to the Mercy of Christ we commend the living. G. J. Watson took charge of all the matters pertaining to the burial as well as to funeral supplies. The pall bearers were: Dudley Day, George Bubar, Scott Hallett and Elverson Hallett. The religious services were conducted by Rev. S. W. Bennison of Hartland. —Com.

News-Notes.

FROM ROUNDABOUT.

BLOOMFIELD.

The repairs on the Methodist Church are about completed and we expect to have it re-dedicated next Wednesday.

The special services in the Baptist Church closed this week. A basket social was held there Wednesday evening. The proceeds will be given to the pastor, Rev Joseph Cahill.

The sum of five dollars was raised at the Necktie social last week, and the thirty or forty persons present spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mr and Mrs James Fleming spent Christmas at Lindsay at the home of her father Mr Robert Briggs. Edward London and family spent the day at Digby with Mr and Mrs Gideon Merrithew. Mr and Mrs Wilmot Jewett went to his father's at Florenceville. Mr and Mrs H A Stokoe were guests of her father Thomas Cheney of Lindsay.

Arnold Flemming is suffering from vaccination this week.

Last evening the choir of the Methodist Church met at Mr Hubert London's to practice some music for the dedication services.

SOMERVILLE.

E J Branscombe who teaches this school invited the scholars to his house on Christmas eve to a tea party that proved very pleasant. He also presented each with a cup and saucer, while there was fruit and confectionery galore, and merry games were indulged in. The scholars presented Mr Branscombe with a pretty cup and saucer and Mrs B. with a nice vinegar canister.

An ordinary cough or cold may not be thought much of at the time, but neglect may mean in the end a consumptive's grave. Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine will not cure Consumption when the lungs are riddled with cavities; but it will stop the cough, will cure Consumption in its early stages, and even in its last stages gives such relief as to be a perfect Godsend to those whose lives are nearing a close.

Aroostook is a trifle frost-bitten on potatoes. She refused to sell on the supposition that no potatoes were to be had elsewhere, and placed her prices very high. But the west and the Provinces have potatoes to sell and $1.25 to $1.35 is about all the Maine potato county can realize on its tubers. To know just when to buy—that is wisdom.—Brighton News.

Go to Keswick's for a nice Xmas present at low prices.

SANTA CLAUS.

(New York Sun.)

"We take pleasure in answering at once and thus prominently the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of the Sun:

"Dear Editor: I am eight years old.

"Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus.

"Papa says, 'If you see it in the Sun it's so.'

"Please tell me the truth; is there a Santa Claus? Virginia O'Hanlon.

"115 West Ninety-fifth street."

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the scepticism of a sceptic age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus. It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance, to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not; but that is no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders that are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You may tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived could tear apart. Only faith, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God; he lives and he lives forever. A thousand years from now he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

It is said a committee from the 67th Battalion will soon examine the Hartland Cornet Band in contemplation of giving it the appointment of playing at camp this season.

NEWS-NOTES.

FROM ROUNDABOUT.

LOWER WINDSOR.

Yesterday was the coldest day of the season, the thermometer registering ten below zero and the wind blowing a gale.

War has been declared amongst the Turks, and there will be great slaughter within the next few days.

Coles Padgett had a valuable mare about ruined by being kicked. The flesh was lacerated in a terrible manner. Dell Belyea V S of Rockland, dressed the wound.

Some of our young men are expected home Christmas, which will cause some one down the road to smile.

Wayman Shaw, who has been threshing at Pembroke has returned home.

The semi-annual examination took place on Thursday and there was a large number of rate payers and other visitors present. The afternoon was spent in reviewing the school and a program which was well rendered gives great credit to the teacher, Miss May Ericson, in the way she has trained the young. The trustees have engaged her for the next term, which will make four terms she has taught here,

Dec. 20th. 1897.

FORT FAIRFIELD.

The Holiday season is here, and the stores are visions of beauty, with their Christmas goods, although potatoes have dropped to $1.25 per bbl. The buyers know that people must have a little money, so they take the advantage of the poor farmer.

We have been and are having fine union meetings, much good is being done by Rev Mr Allen, Methodist, and Rev F Bradeen, Free Baptist. The meetings are held in the different churches respectively.

Besides there are two dancing schools running once a week, and two Whist clubs in progress, so all classes can be suited.

Three of our citizens (it is said) will go to the Klondyke in March. Dr. Bell, Mr. Haley of the Windsor Hotel, and Mr. Wellington. Mrs. Haley will accompany her husband.

Aroostook is very much exercised just now, over the barley question. Are the farmers of this county going to raise barley another year for Frank Jones the Brewer? The Grangers say we must not. The Good Templars say, we must not, but of course, there will be a large amount of seed sown. At a parade in Houlton, there was an open car representing a cell. In it was a man breaking stone, on the outside was written in flaming letters, "The result of Frank Jones' Aroostook barley."

We are troubled here with what the ADVERTISER spoke of, viz; a person selling an inferior article, gets the same price, as the one selling a good article, so there is no inducement for a farmer to put up a good article, (unless it is a clear conscience) A lady bringing in a plump well dressed fowl, gets no more per lb, than the one who brings in the poor pinfeathery one. This should not be so and it is not the case in some places

To New and Old Subscribers!

A
Special
Offer

We have made arrangements to get for our subscribers a valuable set of premiums, and are able to offer them almost free of cost.

FARM NEWS.

Regular subscription price, 50 cents. Farm News now reaches more than 80,000 families. It holds this large and loyal following of subscribers because they regard it as one of the chief essentials of their success in farming. It keeps in touch with the most progressive agriculture of the day, it is scientific in its spirit, and at the same time is never obscure in its meaning, nor stilted in its style. It's the kind of a paper the farmer values in his every day work, because in it he finds what other successful farmers are doing, and how they do it. Its 16 pages contain no "dead weight"—no "fillers." Every line counts. If you know anything about the farm and farm life, examine Farm News and you will understand how much its subscribers appreciate it. And how it grows better every number. Compare it with any other farm paper, and it stands ahead in practicability and real value.

WOMANKIND.

Regular subscription price, 50c. A handsome 20-page magazine containing stories, poems sketches, bits of travel, and such generally literary matter as appeals most strongly to the average reader, who wants pure and wholesome literature of the entertaining kind. Its practical departments devoted to the kitchen, the flower garden, the care to children, dressmaking, home decoration, etc., are greatly valued by every woman who has ever read them. Extensive improvements have been made in Womankind during the past year, and as a result its circulation has been increased from 20,000 to 60,000—a growth that could only possibly be obtained by giving the people what they want. We invite comparison of Womankind with other papers of its kind.

OUR PREMIUM BOOKS

"Butter Making."

A series of prize essays in which farmer's wives and daughters, who are in the habit of getting the top prices in the markets, tell how they feed their cows, how they care for their milk, how they make their butter. It is a most valuable book.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Womankind Cook Book.

This Cook Book covers the entire range of the culinary art. The recipes in it were selected from the favorite recipes of Womankind readers so that in this you have the best things from several hundred practical housekeepers.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Farm News Poultry Book.

Written to meet the needs and demands of the farm poultry pard, rather than that of the fancier. It tells all about different breeds, their characteristics and what may be expected of them; tells about feeding and hatching, about diseases and their cures, and is, in short, a complete guide to making hens pay.

OUR CLUBBING OFFERS.

The ADVERTISER, Womankind, and Farm News, with three useful books, see ad., for $1.10.

The ADVERTISER and Family Herald and Weekly Star, the best combination on earth, for $1.25.

The ADVERTISER and Montreal Weekly Witness, for $1.20.

The ADVERTISER and Toronto Weekly Globe for $1.20.

The ADVERTISER from Oct. 1897 to Jan. 1899 for 75 cents; or until the end of the 19th century for $1.75.

Send all money direct to the ADVERTISER, Hartland, Carleton Co., N. B.

The grand old Earth has completed one more journey around its orbit, and, without slowing up for fuel or water or inspection of wheels, has again started away at full speed and already has covered thousands of miles on another trip. What a gigantic merry-go-round! What shall the New Year bring us? To each some joy; to each some sorrow; to all more knowledge, more experience, a closer approach to Old Age. Sad it is, but surely to some will come more sorrow than the heart can bear, and they will die in their grief, cursing life. But the cheeriest, merriest, happiest way too to look at the New Year is that it is to be an era of prosperity and good times to all. This is what the ADVERTISER wishes for its friends. The year that has just past has been no more unfavorable to Hartland than any of its predecessors. It brought a somewhat increased activity in business, it saw the population of the village increase by a considerable percentage, it saw the establishment of a bank, the reading room, cash produce market, and early in the year the ADVERTISER came to light.

From this date all our clubbing offers are withdrawn with the exception of the "Farm News" and "Womankind," and the Montreal Witness combinations. These two offers are remarkable values and actually worth much more than the price stated.

The Montreal Daily Witness ranks among the best newspapers in America. It is eminently first class and high tone, while as a critic it is respected and influential. As a family news and literary paper it surpasses any other. In size it consists of from 12 to 28 six column pages every day, and has many splendid illustrations. The subscription price is only $3.00 per year, and we have made arrangements for clubbing the ADVERTISER with it for that amount—$3.00—sent direct to this office.

Our Fort Fairfield correspondent sends us the price of farm produce in his town. Pork brings 5 cents, oats 24 cents, butter 17cents, hay $8. and potatoes $1.25. So much for the "garden of New England." Well might the farmers who became disgusted with Carleton county farming and sought better things in Aroostook wish they were back under the Union Jack. Produce is bringing slightly higher prices, but so does hired labor and the goods the farmer has to buy, while taxes are incomparably higher.

The present arrangement of trains affords excellent accommodation for Hartland people desiring to go out of town, while at the same time it is conducive to our business welfare. Woodstock people can come to Hartland on any train and likewise return. Those from up river desiring to transact business here can arrive at 12.17 and return at 1.30, or at 5.25. It is apparent that the number of those coming from up river to do business here is rapidly increasing. This is more noticeable since the bank began doing business here.

With what has been written to the ADVERTISER, and spoken on the street it would seem that most, if not all, the business men are in favor of a Board of Trade. Why, then, not get about in the matter and organize? Surely this is the proper way to work up the Bridge Question, and if anything is expected of the next session of Legislature it is high time to go to work!

New York City has one hundred Italians at work transferring 50,000 dead bodies from the Union cemetery to the Cedar Grove cemetery. This should be a ghoulis job, and brings to mind the Scriptural text: "Let the dead bury their dead."

Services are being arranged for the week of prayer in many towns, and it ought not to be amiss for the custom to be observed in our own town.

AND OTHER MATTERS.

A Happy New Year!

County Council meets one week from next Tuesday.

The Methodist parsonage at Kingsclear was destroyed by fire on Christmas Eve.

Campbell's new mill at Upper Brighton will be ready for operation in about two weeks.

Shaw & Dibblee are busy this week but not too busy to attend to your wants if you need anything in hardware.

The 3-cent letter rate to Great Britain will not go in effect today as was at first stated, but will at a later date.

Porter & Gibson, Woodstock's popular merchant tailors, have sent the ADVERTISER a very fine calendar for 1898.

Do not forget the Farmer's meeting in Matheson's Hall next Thursday. It should be the interest of everyone to attend.

The News is the name of a daily paper just started at Calais by Chas. M. Hutchinson. It is hoped the venture will be a success.

The engagement is announced of the good looking traveller of a leading city wholesale house with a popular young lady of Woodstock.

The ADVERTISER learns with regret of the illness, at his home in Woodstock of Daniel Tapley, the popular track-master of this section of C. P. R.

The Restigouche Telephone came out last week with a nice illustrated supplement containing portraits of the town and several fine church edifices.

C. Humphrey Taylor wishes to buy 1,000 bushels of Buckwheat, to be hauled first good roads. Any wanting to sell please write or call and see him.

Walter Jackson, who scales lumber for D. H. Nixon, went into the woods on Monday for the season's work. He says Mr. Nixon will cut but half as much this year as last.

The passenger traffic on the C. P. R. during the holidays has been heavy, but freights have been light on account of the roads preventing the farmers from marketing their produce.

Allen Rideout, besides teaching the Normal Class in the Union Sunday School, has a class of young ladies. Last Sunday they presented him with a very pretty gold and pearl pencil, with the compliments of the season.

The Woodstock Press is accountable for the statement that gold has been discovered on the farm of Geo. W. Brown, at Middle Northampton. Prospecting is in progress on that and adjacent farms and claims are being applied for.

The "Y's" made up boxes, containing clothing, toys and confectionery for a number of poor families living within a few miles of the village. Allen Rideout and Ed Morgan conveyed the gifts to their destination and they say the surprise and joy of the children was pleasant to see.

John T. G. Carr takes this opportunity of thanking his numerous customers for their liberal patronage during Xmas week. Through lack of snow business was not as rushing as it otherwise would have been but he appreciates the large share of patronage given him and hopes still to retain the confidence of the buying public.

Mrs. Richard Alexander, of Farmington, who, for a long time has been ill of cancer of the stomach, died on Dec. 24. Before marriage she was known as Rebekah Smith, and at one time taught the Somerville school. She was a native of Fredericton Junction, where her sister, Dr. Seord, resides. The latter attended the deceased during her illness. The funeral was held on Sunday.

Last week an Orange Lodge was organized at Waterville and the following officers were elected for the year 1898:—A. E. Plummer, W. M.; Bennett Cowen, D. M.; Geo. Fred Jewett, R. S.; M. Dewitt, Chap.; Charles Gray, F. S.; James McLeod, D. C.; Byron Kimball, Lect.; Howard Palmar, 1st committee man; Horace Kimball, 2nd committee man; John Dewitt, 3rd committee man; Wm. Culbertson, 4th committee man; Harding Kearney, 5th committee man.

Six men and twelve horses left here Friday by the C. P. R. for Calais, to work on the Shore Line Railroad. The men were Thomas Dorsey (whose wife accompanied him) and four or five other Dorsey men on the South road. They carry their own oats. One of the number has 600 bushels and they bought enough more to load a car. They are furnished carts, scrapers, etc. and are paid $3.00 per day for man and span of horses. . . . Mrs. Fanny Tibbitts, widow of the late Frank Tibbitts, Esq., of Andover, N. B., died of typhoid fever at her home in that town Thursday last, aged about seventy-five years. The deceased was a sister of Mr. W. H. Estabrook, late of this town, now of Presque Isle.—Ft. Fairfield Leader.

Woodstock Lodge, No. 11 F. and A. M., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its organization in Masonic Hall last evening. Most excellent frater, P. D. G. M. W. F. Dibblee, who was present at the organization of the Lodge fifty years ago, and the only person now living who took part in the organization, gave an historical address. Short speeches were made by Rev. C. T. Phillips, D. McLeod Vince and others. George Anderson and Frank Morton each gave a song, and the latter a recitation. A rich collation was served in the hall by John Williamson. The officers installed by G. P. G. M. Scott, with P. M. C. W. Jenner as D. of C., were: J. R. Murphy, W. M.; Thomas Allan, S. W.; G. H. Harrison, J. W.; Donald Munroe, S.; W. Fisher, T.; Frank Currie, S. D.; Dr. D. W. Rankin, J. D.; Geo. Anderson, S. S.; A. Gibson, S. J.; A. Henderson, D. of C.; Wm. Scott, J. G.; Rev. J. T. THE POPE'S ENCYCLICAL.

In the encyclical published at Rome on Christmas Eve the Pope says:

"The Pope condemns a school system based on religious neutrality, praises the zeal the bishops have displayed on the question, regrets that the Roman Catholics are not equally united, owing to political passions, and admits that the authorities have done something to diminish the inconveniences of Manitoba school legislation, but his His Holiness declares this to be inadequate, and exhorts Roman Catholics to persist in claiming all their rights though they must not refuse any partial reparations obtainable with the view to reduce the perils of the education of youth.

In conclusion, the Pope in the encyclical, says that in the event of these being unobtainable, Roman Catholics should provide their own schools, and adopt, under the guidance of their bishops, a programme of study, reconciling it with their religion and all literary and scientific progress."

But the Toronto Globe, the government organ, says, 'So far as Federal action is concerned the matter is settled and cannot be unsettled by any ecclesiastical decree.'

PREPARING FOR AN ORGY.

'Look at me,' said the Clark street 'toucher.' 'I ain't got clothes enough to pad a crutch. I couldn't flag a pie wagon with these rags.'

'Well, you don't need clothes,' said the sympathetic citizen. 'Summer's coming on.'

'Don't try to jolly me,' said the 'toucher.' 'You're like a man I met yesterday. I asked him for a penny and he asked me what I wanted it for. I told him I wanted a roll, and he told me to go up to Lincoln Park and take a roll in the grass.'

'Did you do it?'

'No, but I told him I would if he'd hand me car fair.'

'Well, suppose I give you a dime, what will you do with it?'

'What difference does that make to you? Suppose I go and have a small bird and a large bottle, you wouldn't care, would you?'

'No, but I'm afraid you'd gamble.'

'No, I only take one chance a day, and I took that when I tried to stand you up for a piece of money. I'll tell you what I'll do, mister. If you give me ten cents I'll go and get a square meal and the rest of the money I'll send home to mother to help pay off the mortgage on the old place.'

'You'll take a drink, that's what you'll do.'

'Well, maybe that would be better. After I get about two bowls of that carpet tack whiskey into me I'll forget all about the mortgage.'

'I haven't got a dime. There's a nickel.'

'All right, mister, but remember if I drink myself to death it's your fault.'—Sel

A HENRY GEORGE STORY.

'Henry George,' says the Westminster Gazette, 'had a quaint humor of his own, and could tell a good story against himself. During his Australian tour one of his friends in Sydney suggested to the secretary of a local racing club that it would be a graceful thing to send Mr. George a complimentary ticket for the race meeting then at hand. The papers were at the time devoting many columns to reports of George's meetings and discussions on his doctrines, but the sportsman had evidently not read them. 'Who is Mr. George?' he asked. 'I never heard of him before.' 'Why he's a man of world wide celebrity.' Does he own a horse?' queried the secretary. 'Yes; two very fast trotters, "Progress" and "Poverty."' 'Oh, all right,' said the now satisfied secretary; 'here's a ticket for him.'

GETTING EVEN.

Little Johnny Steeter, who had only seen four short summers, was very naughty one afternoon and his mamma whipped him. Johnny was very much offended with her for this mode of procedure, and treated her with the strictest silence for the remainder of the day, eating his supper without deigning to notice her in any way.

When his bedtime came she called him in and undressed him for bed, he still maintaining much dignity. He knelt down, as was his custom, to say his "Now I lay me down to sleep," and, after asking God to bless his papa, grandpa, grandma, aunt and even the servant girl, he turned to his mother and said with emphasis, "You ain't in it."

AN EASY PLACE.

I received a letter from a lad asking me to find him an easy berth. To this I replied:—"You cannot be an editor; do not try the law; do not think of the ministry; let alone all ships, shops and merchandise: abhor politics; don't practice medicine; be not a farmer or mechanic; neither be a soldier nor a sailor; don't work; don't study; don't think. None of these are easy. Oh, my son! You have come into a hard world. I know of only one easy place in it, and that is the grave."—Ex.

A BEAUTIFUL THING.

The lady in her elegant victoria drove up to the great dry goods store, and, stepping daintily out, she walked into the busy place. Approaching a weary looking girl at one of the counters, she said:

"What time do you get off duty?"

"Usually at 6, madam," replied the astonished girl, "but today at 5."

"Don't you get very tired working so long?"

"Yes, madam, but I must work or starve."

"Well, will you let me take you for a drive for an hour after you are through today? I'm sure it will do you good."

The girl, knowing the wealth and social position of the lady, blushed with pleasure and she was only too glad to accept the invitation so politely and kindly extended, and the lady, with a cheery smile and bow, walked out.

Then the man who dreamed this woke up and wondered how the mischief people could dream such improbable and ridiculous things.—Detroit Free Press.

Packed Without Glass. TEN FOR FIVE CENTS.

This special form of Ripans Tablets is prepared from the original prescription, but more economically put up for the purpose of meeting the universal modern demand for a low price. DIRECTIONS.—Take one at meal or bed time or whenever you feel poorly. Swallow it whole, with or without a mouthful of water. They cure all stomach troubles; banish pain; induce sleep; prolong life. An invaluable tonic. Best Spring Medicine. No matter what's the matter, one will do you good. One gives relief—a cure will result if directions are followed. The five-cent packages are not yet to be had of all dealers, although it is probable that almost any druggist will obtain a supply when requested by a customer to do so; but in any case a single carton, containing ten tablets, will be sent, postage paid, to any address for five cents in stamps, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York. Until the goods are thoroughly introduced to the trade, agents and peddlers will be supplied at a price which will allow them a fair margin of profit, viz.: 1 dozen cartons for 40 cents—by mail 45 cents. 12 dozen (144 cartons) for $4.32—by mail for $4.82. 5 gross (720 cartons) for $20.52. 25 gross (3,600 cartons) for $100. Cash with the order in every case, and freight or express charges at the buyer's cost.

It is rumored that wolves are around. Some men employed by David Gibson, Northampton, report having found three deer with their throats cut and badly mangled. They claim that this can only be accounted for by the presence of wolves.

All those who subscribed to the Reading Room Fund are requested to hand in the amounts stated to the secretary, Geo. H. Campbell. The Reading Room is fairly well patronized, but not so much as had early closing gone into effect, so says the secretary, who should know.

W. E. Thistle has just received a new stock of the celebrated B. Laurence spectacles, in gold steel and alloy frames. Mr. Thistle, who has just taken a graduate course on optics, can guarantee those suffering from impaired vision as perfect a fit as can be obtained in the county.

Richardson, Porter & Co. and Estey & Curtis handed new advertisements in too late for this issue. The former wish to state that they are thankful for the generous patronage extended to them in their first season, and wishing all their patrons a Happy New Year ask for a continuance of custom.

Keith & Plummer are offering the balance of their fur goods at greatly reduced prices, and has many real bargains. The lamp will be given away on January 22nd. Every person making cash purchases to the amount of $1.00 will be entitled to guess the number of cents in the jar. The first correct guess will capture the lamp, which is a beautiful one.

HEAD A MASS OF SCABS

COULDN'T GO NEAR THE STOVE.

Treated by Different Doctors.

CURED BY DR. CHASE.

The most intractable and distressing skin diseases which defy all manner of treatment—even the best medical skill—are readily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. MRS. JOS. QUERIN, hotelkeeper's wife, at Ethel, Ont., was troubled with Eczema of the Head and Face for about 9 years, and was so bad at times she could not go near the hot stove to do her cooking. Her head was one mass of scabs, and although she treated with doctors it kept getting worse. On hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment, she got some, and was delighted to find the first application did her good. She used two more boxes of the Ointment, is now free from disease, can do her own cooking, and would not begrudge $200 for the good it has done her.
