SAT UP TO WAIT FOR THE THIEF, AND CAPTURED HIM

Hugo Hayedorn, a German Sailor, Caught in the Act of Robbing for the Third Time the Cash Register in Speardakes' Fruit Store.

Hugo Hayedorn, an eighteen year old German sailor, was early this morning caught in the act of robbing the cash register in John Speardakes' fruit and ice cream store on Charlotte street. The German admitted the theft and said he had broken into the store three successive nights, robbing the place on each occasion.

The young sailor was in no way backward in telling how and when he robbed the store, but objected to being charged with stealing four or five dollars, as he said his gain was only $2.25 and seven packages of cigarettes.

John Speardakes the proprietor of the store testified in court this morning that his pool room and store had been robbed on a number of occasions. He and his clerk left the store shortly after midnight Saturday, and when the clerk returned Monday morning, they found that the cash register had been opened by the "No sale" key and robbed of about half a dollar in change.

On investigation it was found that entrance had been made through a cellar window on Charlotte street. The window is left unfastened to allow the ice men to put in the ice early in the morning. On Monday night some small change was left in the register, and Tuesday morning it was found to have been stolen. Last night Mr. Speardakes decided to put a guard on the store and two clerks, Peter Economy, and Thomas Arnolotes were detailed for that duty, and were successful in capturing the thief.

They notified the proprietor who gave Hayedorn in charge of night Detective Charles Marshall. Mr. Speardakes informed the court that his pool room has been robbed six or seven times. Hayedorn admitted to the fact that he had robbed the cash register on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights.

Peter Economy, a clerk in Speardakes' store, gave evidence that he and Arnolotes were on watch last night, but at 12 o'clock this morning Detective Marshall passed the store and a half hour later witnesses were awakened by his companion, who had the thief covered by a revolver. The two tied the burglar's hands, and Mr. Speardakes, who was in the store, gave the German in charge of Marshall.

Thomas Arnolotes could not speak the English language and, Chris Nicholas acted as interpreter. Arnolotes said that while his companion was asleep behind the piano, he kept guard, and about 4:30 o'clock he saw the hatch from the cellar raised, and Hayedorn appeared. He walked to the cash register, and took out sixty cents. At this moment witness levelled his revolver at the thief and saw him drop the money. The German then called out to the burglar "Hand up." So taken by surprise was the German that he dropped the money on the floor and started for the hatchway to make his escape. The clerk took hold of him and after some little difficulty tied his hands with a piece of cord. He was finally handed over to the police.

The prisoner told the court that he arrived here from New York on a vessel and was paid off with $20. He got drunk and the vessel which was bound with coal, went to Fredericton. His clothing is still on board. He said he never entered Speardakes' pool room, but admitted entering the store on the three occasions mentioned, by way of the cellar window. Seven packages of cigarettes and $2.25, he said, was all he stole.

He was remanded to jail and the magistrate remarked that if he could be shipped back to Germany he might save going to prison.

Only thirty-eight cents and some trinkets were found on the prisoner when arrested.

John Speardakes, in mentioning about the frequent robberies, said that only last Sunday his pool room was entered and a box containing 500 cigarettes and valued at $4.25 was stolen.

CAPT. SLOCUM'S YACHT BRINGS VALUABLE CORAL

The Little Vessel, Which Sailed Around the World, Arrived in New York With Valuable Specimen.

NEW YORK, June 2.—What is believed to be the largest and most valuable piece of coral reef ever gathered for any institution in the world, was brought here today by Captain Joshua Slocum in the little ten ton yacht Spray in which he has formerly sailed alone around the world. The piece of coral, which weighs nearly two tons, is the property of the American Museum of Natural History. It was examined by Dr. B. Dahlgren, who spent several weeks off the coast of Andros Island, exploring reefs, gathering coral and getting photographs for the museum. Dr. Dahlgren arranged with Captain Slocum to bring the specimen to New York on the Spray.

For several winters, since his lonely trip around the world, Captain Slocum has cruised in the West Indies. During the voyage up from the Bahamas, the Spray experienced very heavy weather, particularly north of Hatteras, but the little craft rode out the storm and tempt like a duck, Captain Slocum said.

UNITED STATES CITIZEN BADLY TREATED IN FRANCE

Philadelphia Man Unjustly Accused of Theft, Suffered in Prison—Protest Entered.

LILLE, France, June 2.—Charles Von Milevich, of Philadelphia, has been languishing in jail here for the past fortnight on an extradition warrant from Tournai, Belgium, charging him with robbing his father-in-law of $400, while visiting him at Frasnes, Belgium, early in May.

The authorities of Lille have treated Von Milevich, who protests his innocence with great harshness. They refused to permit him to see his wife and for a time they would not allow him to communicate with the United States Consular Agent here. Later they ignored a communication from Mr. King, the Consul, transmitting a confession from Von Milevich's sister-in-law, declaring that she took the money in question to enable her to accompany Von Milevich to America. Mr. King has asked U. S. Ambassador White and Consul General Mason at Paris to intervene in the matter.

PARIS, June 2.—Ambassador White has made energetic representations to Foreign Minister Pichon relating to the case of Charles Von Milevich, of Philadelphia, who is held a prisoner here. He protests against the action of the Lille authorities in disregarding the confession made by his sister-in-law, in refusing to allow Von Milevich to communicate with the American Consular representative and in not permitting the extradition of M. Von Milevich upon the charge of the Tournai authorities.

LOBSTER FISHERMEN HAVING A GOOD SEASON

Steel and Coal Companies Raising the Limit of Production

SYDNEY, June 3.—For the month of May the output of coal from the four collieries of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co., the output from November 4 is gradually increasing, having almost doubled the output of the previous month. The figures are as follows: No. 1, 21,258; No. 2, 23,784; No. 4, 1,116; No. 5, 7,350.

The output of pig iron at the blast furnaces was the largest since the company's existence, 40,647 tons. A prominent lobster packer says that the fishery in Cape Breton this year is unusually plentiful, the fish being larger, and the market holding firm, and the demand for the canned product continuing steady.

FIGHTS DUEL WHEN HE COMES OF AGE

Young Man, Never Before on Field of Honor, Seriously Wounds a Veteran.

PARIS, June 2.—A strange "coming-of-age" duel was fought in Paris this morning, which differed from the ordinary French duel in that one of the principals was seriously wounded.

The combatants were M. Ravines and M. de Villette, both expert swordsmen, who quarreled several months ago and sent their seconds to each other.

M. Ravines was under age, however, and M. de Villette refused to fight with him until he obtained his majority. Accordingly the fight was postponed.

Although the fight was twenty-first birthday, meanwhile M. Ravines practiced fencing on every possible occasion, and although a left-handed swordsman, attained remarkable proficiency under M. Hirschoffer, the famous fencing master.

When the combatants met this morning near the Great Wheel, it was not noted that Ravines, although appearing for the first time as a principal, was much cooler than his opponent who had already fought fourteen duels.

From the beginning it was evident that the combat was much more serious than the usual French duel. After they had been fighting for several minutes, M. Ravines wounded his opponent by a clever thrust through the right lung for a distance of three inches.

Although the fight was immediately stopped, it was with difficulty that the seconds could induce M. de Villette to withdraw from the field. Despite his protests, a doctor examined the wound which was found to be serious, and M. de Villette was removed to a hospital.

May is the most popular month in the year for duels in Paris, and there have been at least twenty more or less preliminary encounters during the last fortnight, chiefly between engaged dramatics, critics and theatrical managers.

HUNDREDS OF HOMES ON THE MISSISSIPPI FLOODED

HANNIBAL, Mo., June 3.—Hundreds of homes along the Mississippi River in this vicinity have been abandoned and citizens protective associations are being formed throughout the bottom lands to prevent looting. It is estimated that 200 persons have been compelled to abandon their homes and seek shelter on the table lands. In many cases they have been unable to remove their valuables and thieves have been busy. The Alexandria Bottoms, a rich cucumber and tomato country, are under two feet of water and the damage is estimated at $1,000,000. Ten thousand acres of corn and wheat have been destroyed by the high water.

FRANCE WILL ACCEPT THE NEW CONGO TREATY

BRUSSELS, June 3.—It is reported here that the Congo annexation treaty will be accepted by France provided that certain modifications are made relative to the Franco-Belgian Congo frontier and a reduction is made in railroad freight for goods entering and leaving the French Congo. Premier Foch and Minister of Justice Hanotaux have agreed to submit to King Leopold further changes in the treaty necessitated by changes made in the parties by the recent election.

LATEST WEATHER REPORT Don't Like to Say

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 3.—At West Quincy, Ill., the Mississippi River is reported to be three miles wide and great damage has been done by the floods. A special police patrol has been sent from Quincy to protect property. Every available boat has been pressed into service to carry families from the flooded lands. So far as known no lives have been lost.

INTERESTING LEGAL POINT IN PLACIDE RICHARD'S CASE

PROMISING CLUE IN PARIS MURDER CASE

Barber Tells of Men Looking Like Artists' Models Who Had Their Beards Shaved and Hair Cut off.

PARIS, June 2.—A nurse in the employ of Mme. Steinhilf made the statement today that while her mistress was asleep last night she was seized with a horrible nightmare, in which she had a vision of the crime. She awoke shrieking: "Assassin, assassin, unhand me, you hurt me. Have pity." It was announced at a late hour this afternoon that the police were not on a clue and that an arrest was imminent. The man arrested Sunday night has been released.

PARIS, June 2.—The police have secured what is believed to be the most promising clue so far in the Steinhilf murder case. A barber of Montmartre, one of the lowest quarters in Paris, has given the information that two men with full beards and long hair, the color of the hair of one of the men being red, came into his shop on Monday morning and had their beards shaved and their hair cropped, completely changing their appearance. The barber declared that the men looked like models and that his attention was first attracted by their peculiar behavior. He came to the conclusion that they were criminals recently released from prison and later when he saw the description of the murderers in the papers, his suspicions were aroused and he communicated with the police.

MONCTON, June 2.—A novel point taken yesterday in the county court at Dorchester relating to bias on the part of magistrates and judges will, if upheld, result in an entire change in the police commission of Moncton by substituting other persons for Judge Wells and Magistrate Kay, who are now members of the board, and will also effect other police commissions of which judges and magistrates are members.

The point was taken in the case of Placide Richard, of Moncton, charged with obstructing the police in making an arrest. A true bill was brought in and immediately upon indictment being found, C. Lionel Hanington, counsel for the accused, moved to quash the indictment, his principal ground being that a magistrate who held the preliminary enquiry was disqualified on the ground that he was a member of the police commission, which had entire control over the policemen of Moncton, and as such would be an interested party, and that proceedings on the preliminary enquiry were consequently void; that Judge Wells being likewise a member of the commission, was disqualified to sit on the case. Judge Wells gave as his opinion that there was no disqualification, but as Judge McLatchy was coming to try another case which was before the court, King vs. Phillips, he decided that he would let Judge McLatchy try this case. If the point is reserved for the supreme court and a verdict is found against Richard, the matter will probably be argued at the present term of the supreme court at Fredericton.

A storehouse at Camp number one on the Grand Trunk Pacific construction near here was broken into last night and a value belonging to James Darmach stolen. It contained clothes valued at fifty dollars. The matter will be reported to L. P. Farris, commissioner of C. T. P., which is the first case from this section of the transcontinental.

SOLDIERS MURDERED CUBAN FISHERMEN

Special Military Court Trying Three American Soldiers Who Killed Two Fishermen in Cuba.

HAVANA, June 2.—Before a special military court at Camp Columbia, now trying the American soldiers, Corporal Cooper and Private Gwinnell, on the charge of having murdered two Cuban fishermen, Private Fearnly, who has turned State's evidence, was subjected today to a vigorous cross-examination by Lieutenant Davis and Attorney Durant, who represents the prisoners, but his testimony was unshaken.

Captain Frank Parker, 11th Cavalry, gave evidence damaging to the defense. He said that Cooper and Gwinnell, after two days' absence from camp, returned and reported that they had gone to the town of Coloma with Fearnly, intending later to return to camp. They hired a sail-boat, on which after a dispute over money, the fishermen drew knives and they themselves used their pistols in self-defense.

Continuing his testimony, Captain Parker said that Fearnly had repeated his story, but that on being taken to the scene of the crime by Parker, who accused him of lying and told him that it was impossible to believe that two Cubans would attack three armed American soldiers, he broke down and weeping, declared that Cooper and Gwinnell had shot the Cubans in cold blood. They agreed to unite in telling the story devised by Cooper.

DR. PUGSLEY TO MR. FENNIG

Insists Whole Claim be Arbitrated

Names Seven Leading Lawyers, One of Whom to be Chosen as Arbitrator

In answer to Hon. J. K. Fleming's response to his suggestion for the arbitration of his claim against the provincial government, Hon. Mr. Pugsley has sent the following letter:

Dear Sir—Previous to receiving your telegram of the 26th ultimo, I had written you, forwarding check for $500, as promised in my telegram to you of the 25th ultimo. While I am pleased at your agreement to leave to arbitration the items contained in my telegram to you of the 22nd and your offer to pay one-half the expense of the arbitration, I trust that upon reflection you will agree with me that it is only fair that the arbitrator should also be equitable and just and that I should be paid for my services and disbursements in connection with Eastern Extension claims. The objection which you raise to this in your telegram is that I waived any claim on account of such and to quote your telegram "having been paid a very large sum in connection therewith."

This, it seems to me, is no answer to my request that the matter should be referred to the arbitrator. While I had made up my mind under the circumstances to waive my claim in respect to this, yet you must bear in mind there was no consideration for my doing so, and at the time I had no reason to suppose that the facts in connection with my account with the province would be so distorted as they have been in papers supporting your government. In view of this, and in order that the public may fully appreciate the ground which I had for claiming that I was entitled to the larger sum you should, in my opinion, be asked to refer the matter to the arbitrator. As to whether, in the finding has been made, you should be to waive the claim if any is found to be due me is fairly a matter for future consideration. With regard to the arbitrator, I recognize Mr. Campbell's high standing as a barrister, but would respectfully suggest that the following names be suggested: J. K. Fleming, B. A. Lawlor, K. C. H. A. Powell, K. C. N. Skinner, K. C. L. A. Curry, K. C. C. and Jas. G. St. John, K. C. and Jas. G. St. John, and some one of them selected by lot or in some other manner to be mutually agreed upon. By doing business with banks by the arbitrator who shall then be chosen will be regarded as our mutual choice.

WILLIAM PUGSLEY, Honorable J. K. Fleming, Provincial Secretary, Fredericton, N. B.

COLONIAL CATTLE KING ON VISIT TO ENGLAND

Remarkable Career of Man Who Started Life at $2.50 Per Week.

His Ambition is to Have the Largest Stock of Cattle in the World.

LONDON, June 27—On the Australian steamer Asturias, which reached London last evening after calling at Plymouth, was an unusually interesting personality, Sidney Kidman, who has been described as the "Cattle King" of Australia, with his wife, son and three daughters.

Mr. Kidman has come to England with the idea of spending ten or twelve months' holiday, during the course of which he intends to visit America and study ranching methods there. Never before has he been in this country, although he was born in Australia in May, 1857. Mr. Kidman is a typical colonial, and is withal an extremely modest man. When he was seen by a reporter the "Cattle King" was very much disinclined to talk about himself, but on the other hand, he was enthusiastic in his praise of Australia, which, he said, was the most free and best country in the world.

"There," he said, "are thousands of miles of territory where any man with energy and pluck can make a good living. All that is wanted to secure the future success of Australia is to get the land settled. It is a country of long leases and low rents. Nowhere in the world can such crops of wheat be grown as in South Australia within a radius of 150 miles along the coast from Adelaide to Georgetown."

Mr. Kidman, whose home is at Adelaide, started work very early in life, and at 14 years of age was earning 10 shillings a week when the Broken Hill Mine was discovered. Then he had a single horse; today he owns or is interested in 42,225 square miles of country, the acreage being something like 31,688,880. Beginning life as a teamster, he has worked his way up until he is the largest horse breeder and the greatest cattle owner in Australia. He owns 100,000 head of cattle and 10,000 horses. He is master of 29,548 square miles of territory in Queensland, over 7,887 in South Australia, and more than 21,000 in New South Wales, the northern territory and elsewhere. He has thirty-two cattle runs, and at his home in Kapunda, he has the largest horse sales in the world. Several times over 2,000 horses belonging to him have been sold at the sale, and next year he expects that he will have 3,000 horses at the sale.

His animals have been exported to India, Colombia and other places. Last year at one time Mr. Kidman had 20,000 cattle on the road, and paid the railway $2,314 for their transit.

SMALL BEGINNINGS.

Speaking about the early days of his career, the "Cattle King" said that he received $2.50 a week for a year or two when he asked for a rise. He was paid off, but later got a job at $5 a week. He saved enough to buy a team of bullocks, and then with the drought coming on as much as $75 to $125 a ton was paid for carting. At 21 he came in for $2,000 and later secured a contract with a subsidy of $100,000 for carrying the mail from New South Wales, South Australia and Western Australia. Twelve hundred horses were employed, and at one time he had to pay as much as $2,500 a month for condensed milk for 140 men.

At the famous Broken Hill Mr. Kidman had a section which he sold for $750. Six months afterwards it was resold for $2,250,000.

"I continued to buy," he said, "stations till now I own more than 9,000 horses. I own more horses than any other person or firm in Australia, and am able to sell a couple of thousand every year. I am breeding from 1,200 to 1,400 a year. As far as cattle are concerned, I have traveled bullocks as much as from 1,700 to 2,300 miles to the markets for sale.

In conclusion, he said it was his desire to build up a big herd of cattle. His ambition was not to be rich, but to be the possessor of the largest stock of cattle and horses in Australia, if not in the world.

Another cattle house was in attendance at the Cedar last night, and applauded the interesting programme that is being offered this week.

The pictures change today and the subjects include "The Deserter," an absorbing story of army life, with a love tale replete with heart interest and many thrilling situations. Another subject of interest is "The Shepherd," a beautiful pastoral drama of the hills in the far away East. "The Sack of Cord," as the title suggests, is a humorous subject, which induces a hurricane of merriment during its recital, while "The Crusader's Return" shows a comparison between the seamy side of life and the straight and narrow path.

Miss Glenmore, the little comedienne and singer, requests that all the young gentlemen in St. John with light blue coverings will be in attendance and occupy the hundred front seats to hear her new song, "The Blood Young Man," tonight.

On Thursday night, by special request from a large number of Cedar patrons, Barrett and Glenmore will present for that night only their most popular playlet, "The Lost Dog."

The game of the Inter-Society League between St. Peter's and St. John the Baptist, postponed from Monday, will be played this evening on the Shamrock grounds. Love and Rogers will be the battery for the St. Peter's. When the teams met last they played an excellent game, which ended in the score of 2 to 1 in the St. John's favor. The game will be heard in the Courtland will meet and a fast game is expected.

AN announcement which will read with pleasure by local theatre-goers, is that Mr. Theodore H. Bird and the company of local amateurs which, last year, scored such a success in the production of Caprice will produce another in the city during the last week in June. On this occasion the offer of the company of local amateurs which, last year, scored such a success in the production of Caprice will produce another in the city during the last week in June.

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

Tomorrow night Kirt Brown will be seen in another magnificent scenic production of "The Sign of the Cross" at the Opera House.

Mr. Brown has demonstrated that the theatre-going people of this city will not lose their interest in amusements if they are presented with works of art of any other high class character that visits St. John. His great character of "Raffles" in "Raffles" the Amateur Crackman, served to convince his first night's audience that this young actor was capable of essaying such a great character as "Napoleon" in "The Sign of the Cross," which was one of the reasons why this play has become so popular in the repertoire.

A special matinee will be given Friday when Mr. Brown will present his great scenic production of "East Lynne." The promise of this play taken into consideration with the fact that it is not a difficult matter at any time for Mr. Brown to surprise his audience with his creditable performances. His recent engagement here served to prove this, as he played to more people in St. John than at any other place. THE PICTURE HOUSES.

The question of increasing license fees on moving picture houses has been referred back to a committee of the Common Council. At the meeting on Monday afternoon Alderman Hamm volunteered the information that they ought to get after that fellow in the Mechanic's Institute who banks eight or nine hundred dollars a day. Accepting the alderman's estimate, the other shows in town ought to bank between an equal amount of perhaps a little more, say sixteen or eighteen hundred dollars in all as the daily receipts in the picture houses. This is obviously ridiculous, but perhaps the alderman calculates on the basis established by the very stable man. The admission to any of the show houses is five cents. It is apparent then that to take in $100, two thousand people must be admitted; to make a total of $1600 in one day from all the entertainments $2000 would have to attend. As a matter of fact when the Nickel plays to 2000 people in a day it is doing an excellent business. If the Princess gets 800 the managers are satisfied. The Unique can probably manage to pay a dividend with an average daily attendance of 800. The running of a picture house in the city, it is apparent, therefore that if the license fees on each day's performance. An ordinary circus takes in between $5,000 and $6,000 a day and practically none of this is left in the city excepting the amounts paid for railway fares, rental of grounds and license fees. More money goes away with a circus in one day than from all the picture houses in a month. The present places of amusement are for the poor people and any excessive increase in license fees on the part of the Council will prevent many from enjoying the entertainment offered.

THE CENTRAL RAILWAY.

Aside from all correspondence which has passed between Hon. Wm. Pugsley and officials of the G. T. P., aside from all dealings which took place over the proposed leasing or purchase of the Central Railway by the Trans-continental line; even taking away from New Brunswick's former premier all the credit for what he has done to advance the interests of St. John in this affair, the real business side of the central proposition still remains. The G. T. P. is being built to Montreal. It must find an ocean port. St. John is the only point available, and a railroad now exists forming the connecting link between the line of the G. T. P. and the wharves at St. John. The heads of the railway must be looking in ordinary business sense if they fail to at least attempt to secure running rights over the Central. It is not a question of politics; it is one of hard cash. Dr. Pugsley conducted the first negotiations for this province and clearly showed the prospective lessees that a splendid opportunity was awaiting them. It is the duty of Hon. Mr. Hazen to continue the business so well begun.

ONTARIO SCHOOLBOOKS.

The Times last evening was pleased to credit the Whitney Government with introducing free school books in the province of Ontario. Having its praise on a reported statement by T. W. Crothers, chairman of the Ontario schoolbook commission, and an ardent politician. The paragraph would have been more effective if it had contained the often neglected element of truth. Mr. Crothers never promised free schoolbooks, nor did he make any such intimation of the authority of the Whitney Government. What he did say was that that government would be pleased to see such a system introduced. This is slightly different, but then the Whitney people are wont to regard declarations of policy as actual accomplishments.

The Royal Society in session in Montreal adopted a resolution asking the federal government to provide an amount annually which might be used for travelling expenses by members. It is felt that the distances in Canada are so great that proper representation cannot be secured at the meetings if the members are compelled to pay all expenses out of their own pockets, and that as this society is of value to the development of science and literature a reasonable amount of travel will be set apart for its support. The committee should apply not to the Federal government, but to Mr. R. L. Borden and Mr. Foster, who at present imagine they are running the country.

IN THE PARK.

I wandered gayly in the park, where all was green and fair, My heart was joyous as a lark, I breathed the dustless air. The path was warm, I turned one side among the trees to pose, Alas, this pleasure was denied by signs: "Keep Off the Grass!"

"Give me a penny, sir, for something to eat. But you've got sixpence in your hand now. What's that for?" "Oh, that's to tip the waiter, sir."

"Aw, me good man," affably spoke the foreign tourist, putting his head out through the car window, as the train stopped at a station, "may I ask the name of this charming little village?" "Rubberneck," said the rude native on the station platform.

"Mrs. Jones had a most delicious bit of scandal to tell Mrs. Brown, and the latter wouldn't give her a chance to let go of it."

CONSCIENTIOUS MAYER.

PARIS, June 2.—A Mayor in Paris finished a marriage ceremony yesterday with the words, "You are united."

MAGISTERIAL MALPROP.

BUDAPEST, June 2.—In sentencing a peasant named Hoshof for a theft from the parish priest, the magistrate of Neograd, Hungary, reproved him for being in danger of their lives, the gendarmes used their weapons. Refrainments to both parties soon reached the scene and in the fight two revolvers were killed and six wounded. Four gendarmes were wounded.

BRIEF DESPATCHES.

BOSTON, Mass., June 2.—Schooner Margaret Thomas, which arrived here today, from Baltimore, encountered a heavy gale, when 40 miles off Block Island, during which she lost her foremast, had half broken, and sailed her cargo, causing a sharp lat to port. She was towed to an anchorage in the lower harbor by tug Mercury.

PORTLAND, Me., June 2.—With the exception of the United States Senate, the entire Republican ticket has been elected. The senatorial contest returns show some changes from last night's figures but the indications are that Chamberlain (Democrat) will defeat Cate (Republican) by about 1,000 majority.

DETROIT, Mich., June 2.—Westbound Pere Marquette passenger train No. 5, is reported to have been wrecked at Bulliken, by running into an open switch. Three cars are reported overturned. It is not known whether any passengers were killed or injured. A relief train has been sent from Grand Rapids.

PARIS STUDENTS IN FIERCE FIGHT.

PARIS, June 2.—A riot occurred yesterday at the Sorbonne on the reappearance of Professor Andler, who recently conducted a party of students to Germany, where he and his followers fraternized cordially with the Germans, and even visited the garison church at Potsdam to look at the flag captured from the French in the Franco-German War.

LIVING ON THREE CENTS A DAY.

LONDON, June 2.—The Rev. J. D. K. FLORIDA TEST WAS NOT VERY CONVINCING, SAYS THE NEW YORK SUN

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Sun commenting editorially on the shooting of the Monitor Florida, says: "The military mast came through the ordeal of five shots without a suspicion that the system of fire control was impaired. This experiment was satisfactory so far as it went, but did it go far enough? But when we compare the pounding of the British battleship Hero at the Kentsh Knock on November 20, 1907, with the Florida test, a suspicion will intrude that the latter was not pushed far enough."

THOMAS JEFFERSON AS RIP VAN WINKLE

An Artistic Performance of the Old Play at the Opera House Last Evening.

Joe Jefferson is not dead. As Rip Van Winkle in the darkness of the mountain night passed from one life to another, so in Thomas Jefferson has the power of his father been renewed. Those who have seen both, the few who have admired the unique ability of three generations of this talented family, prophesy for the present bearer the roses of a name equal to that of the late actor who in the history of the stage is now remembered as the greatest and especially that of sympathy of those who witnessed last evening's performance at the Opera House is to compare the work of Thomas Jefferson with that of his father. In this case the comparison is scarcely fair, for the latter's success was greatest towards the close of his career, while the present Rip is still a comparatively young man. Yet he has all those qualities—especially that of sympathy—which are necessary for the proper interpretation of the part. Thomas Jefferson is a great actor now; he will become greater when time brings with it a more intimate acquaintance with the weaknesses of age which is so necessary to the fullest portrayal of Rip Van Winkle's second life among men. Mr. Jefferson carries a strong supporting company, the proper stage equipment, and in his performance due attention is given to all mechanical details. But throughout the entire course of the piece he is the central figure, and the other players are simply incidental. Yet Mr. Harrington who took the part of Derick, Miss De Veaux as Gretchen, and above all the two children Edna Hamel and Oscar Johnson as Meenie and Heinrich are deserving of every praise, for their parts were taken in an eminently satisfactory manner. The gradual development of the old story, old yet always new, with its intermingled pathos and humor, its tragic and its lighter moments, was artistic, and afforded such a treat as is enjoyed all too rarely. The very seats due no doubt to the very disagreeable weather. The standing room sign should be up early tonight for the entertainment deserves a crowded house.

Earning His Fee.

By COLIN S. COLLINS.

Copyright, 1908, by M. M. Cunningham. "What are you doing there, Alma?" demanded Blake as he ran across his little hostess in the conservatory.

"He has been annoying you," explained Mrs. Thearle, "but I don't believe that he is a count for all of his splendid letters of introduction. He stole Bessie Vardon's bracelet—you know the one with the diamonds. I saw him slip it from her wrist. She does not know it yet. She thinks she lost it. I have asked her to say nothing about it for the moment, and I came here to think what I could do."

"That's just it," was the tearful response. "The count is a sort of star feature, and to have him discovered as a thief would be to make the whole affair a failure."

"I think I have an idea," he said after a moment of thought. "I don't suppose the count knows that you saw him?"

GREEK BOY DID NOT OBEY INSTRUCTIONS

Young Fellow With a Great Name Would Not Remain With his Brother at Pete's Shop.

Savas Kundras, the proprietor of a Dock street shoe shine parlor, was before the court this morning charged with enticing a young Greek boy away from Peter Petropoulos. The latter informed the court that early last March two young Greeks named Belicopoulos were sent to him from Salem, Mass., by their father. Petropoulos presented letters from the boys' father which said that he held Petropoulos responsible for the safe keeping of his sons, that they were to work for Petropoulos at shoe shining and to get paid a monthly salary. He also told Petropoulos that in case any person was to take one or both of the boys away from him to notify the police, and that his sons must not be separated.

A short time ago the younger of the sons left Petropoulos and went to work and live with Kundras.

The boy, through an interpreter, told the court that the reason he left Petropoulos' care was because he could not get along with his brother who is a year older, and that they used to fight.

The magistrate told the boy that he must return to his older brother and that both must remain under the guardianship of Petropoulos. His honor also told Kundras that he must not harbor the boys in the future.

With tears in his eyes the young Greek left the court with his brother and his guardian.

PROSPEROUS FARMER DIED FROM SMALLPOX

Alfred Holmes, of Bath, died Monday after a few weeks' illness of smallpox, which he contracted at Plaster Rock. Dr. M. E. This is the first fatality in that section from smallpox.

Two new cases were reported yesterday but upon inquiry were found to be false alarms. Mr. Holmes was a well-to-do farmer, and about 55 years of age. He remains very quietly buried last night.

GARDNER PLEADED GUILTY TO THEFT OF STOCK

Farmer P. E. Island Man Says Drunk Has Ruined Him

Reference was made a few days ago to the arrest in New York of Hedy J. Gardner, a former Charlottetown man, on the charge of having stolen 13,300 shares of the Bay State Gas Company's stock. Gardner has been taken to Boston for trial and appeared in the municipal court there to answer the charge made against him. He was held for the grand jury in bail of $1,500.

A Boston paper has the following paragraph:

When asked by the court if he wished to be examined on the charge, he dejectedly shook his head, and tears sprang from his eyes. While his frame shook with sobs, he was led away to the county jail. Gardner's own story to the police was most pathetic. A graduate of the Royal Bank of Canada, with a royal commission as far as he says, lost him his position, and brought about his downfall. The larceny of the stock in question, he claims, was a drunken prank. He is being closely watched for fear that he may attempt suicide.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST TO BE OBSERVED FRIDAY

Hebrew Residents Will Attend Special Services—The Origin of the Celebration.

The Hebrew congregations of St. John will on Friday of this week observe the Feast of Pentecost. The biblical name for this day is Shavuot, the feast of weeks, for on this day is celebrated the period of seven weeks from Passover, which time, according to Mosaic ordinances, had been devoted to the work of harvesting the crops from the fields. The completion of the harvest was regarded as the most auspicious time for a festival day. The feast of the first fruits (Biblicum, num. 28-29), for the reason that of the many kinds of fruit the first ripe ones were in this season brought as a thank offering in the temple. In the course of historical development the day lost its original significance and other ideas higher and nobler than that in the first instance became connected with the day, the institution of Pentecost.

The people of Israel celebrated this feast as one of sublime importance commemorating the time when God blessed Israel with holy law, proclaimed the ten commandments, Mount Sinai and formed the people into a nation. This took place on the sixth day of the third month (Sivan), following their emancipation from Egypt. This year the feast commences at sunset on Thursday, June 4th, and continues for two days. During this time members of the congregations are not supposed to perform any work. Services will be held in the Hebrew Avenue Synagogue on both days. Rabbi Bernard L. Amdur will speak in English at 10.30 a. m. on Friday on the subject, "Old pictures in new frames."

HARBOR MASTER FARRIS BURIED THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of the late Captain John E. Farris took place this afternoon from the residence of his son-in-law, T. A. Armour, 48 Adelaide street. The funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. D. L. Hutchinson and Rev. Nell McLaughlin.

There was a large gathering of friends to testify to the respect and esteem in which the late harbor master was held, and there were many beautiful floral tributes.

After the conclusion of the service at his late residence the funeral proceeded to Fernhill Cemetery, where the interment was made.

Havelock Murphy received notification a few days ago requesting him to appear before the divorce court in the case of Mrs. J. J. where his wife Christina is suing for a divorce, on the grounds of non-support and desertion. It is nearly four years since Mrs. Murphy left her husband and went to the United States. Up till noon today Mr. Murphy had not received any word from Providence as to the outcome of the suit.

At Katz, Kings County, at an early hour this morning, the death occurred of James Y. Briggs, second son of Alice and Henry Briggs, in the 29th year of his age. Besides his parents he leaves a wife and two small children, four sisters and five brothers to mourn their loss. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Thursday from his father's home, Katz, Kings County.
