REPORT.

THE tenth year of the existence of the INCORPORATED ALUMNI OF KING'S COLLEGE having expired, it becomes the duty of the Executive Committee to lay before the members of the Association a Report of their proceedings during the year 1855.

That Report must necessarily be brief, since, under the improved condition and management of the College, no new measures nor special exertions for its benefit, have been necessary—as was the case during the earlier years of the Association, when the very existence of the Institution was in jeopardy, when its funds were at the lowest ebb, and its staff of Professors was extremely small. Then it was, that those who had been educated within its walls, animated with affectionate attachment and ardent zeal, came forward to its relief, and formed this Association, which has been the means of stirring up such a wide spread sympathy and lively interest in the welfare of the Institution, as never existed before. Let it not be forgotten that the ALUMNI made the first effort to recruit its exhausted funds; that, especially, with them originated the scheme so successfully carried out in 1854, of raising TEN THOUSAND POUNDS for the permanent endowment of the College. They also set on foot the movement which has resulted in the remodelling of the Government of the Institution, and its adaptation to the wants and altered circumstances of the Country. Your Committee feel that all this may well be the subject of satisfaction to this Association, and may convince its members, that their expenditure, and their labours, have not been in vain.

It will be recollected, moreover, that from year to year very important aid has been afforded to King's College from the funds of the Alumni. One half of the salary of the Professor of Modern Languages has been paid by them; besides yearly assistance to the Academy, and the establishment of annual prizes for the encouragement of the Youth in both Institutions—by which means a wholesome stimulus has been brought to bear on the various departments of study—and the welfare of the College has been largely promoted. Your Committee would remind the members, that, although the necessities which called forth this Association at first, are happily in some measure lessened, and great improvements have been achieved, still their occupation is by no means gone. It would appear, from the comparatively small number of Students, resorting to King's College, notwithstanding the reduced expences and enlarged privileges offered to all, that there are still existing, in the public mind, some remains of old prejudices fostered by the former exclusiveness of the Institution, (long since removed,) and which requires the continued efforts of its friends to subdue, by setting forth its altered character, and enlarged means of education, and by diffusing on every side, more correct information than it is believed is even yet possessed, especially by residents in the more remote districts of the Provinces.

It is believed that the operation of the two Bodies, of Governors and Alumni, independent and distinct in Constitution, yet acting in harmony together for the attainment of one common object, has been found, and will continue to be found, wholesome in its influence, and highly beneficial in keeping alive those sympathies in behalf of the Institution, in the minds of our people, without which it can never flourish. Moreover, the pecuniary aid of this Association is still very important, as hitherto applied, and also in reference to other objects which have formed the subjects of correspondence with the Governors during the past year. The Alumni have likewise offered to assist in the enlargement of the Library by the addition of modern works in the various departments of Literature—a list of the most desirable of which, was communicated to the Governors by a Committee, of which Mr. Shannon was Chairman.

This offer has been met by the Board in a corresponding spirit, with the assurance, that the subject had already engaged the attention of the Governors, and that as soon as the state of their funds will permit, they will be happy to co-operate with the Alumni in so important an object. At the same time it is satisfactory to know, that during the year, the Governors have expended about £120, in additions to the Chemical and Theological Departments of the Institution.

In this connexion it becomes the duty of your Committee to call the most serious attention of the Association to the state of their funds. It appears by the Treasurer's account that the

Total Income of the year has been	£188 18 3
And the expenditure	194 18 3
Leaving a balance due the Treasurer of	£6 0 0

The obligations of the Corporation at present are as follows :

Balance of Grant to Principal of Academy	£25 0 0
Half year's salary to Professor of Mod. Lang.	31 15 0
Prizes	20 0 0
Balance due Treasurer as above	6 0 0

(Besides incidental expenses) £82 15 0

The only funds that can be calculated upon to meet this amount are Subscriptions due by members residing out of Halifax. There is a large amount of arrears due from these annual Subscribers, for which application has been repeatedly made; but while many have promptly and cheerfully responded to the call, others, to the amount of £100, have not yet done so. Your Committee cannot but still hope, that when the crippled resources of the Association are duly considered, all members in arrears, who possess the ability, will speedily liquidate their respective dues, and thus put it in the power of the Committee to meet existing demands and carry out projected improvements.

Your Committee, in conclusion, beg to remind the Association that at this time the very important duty devolves upon the members, of electing two Governors of King's College, according to the terms of the Act of Incorporation. The two gentlemen who go out, but who may be re-elected, are the Hon. M. B. Almon and Hugh Hartshorne, Esq.

It likewise becomes the duty of the Association at this General Meeting, to elect a Vice-President in place of Dr. Almon, and three members of the Executive Committee in place of Rev. G. Hill, Rev. J. C. Cochran and Rev. Dr. Shreve, who however may all be re-elected.

All which is respectfully submitted.

P. C. HILL,
Secretary.
