Might Make a Quick Passage Through the Suez Canal and Attack Dewey at Manila.

Blanco Calling for Provisions-Work of the Prize Court-Rich Bounties for Dewey's Men-Exciting Incident at Manila.

Washington, May 11.-Dispatches were last night sent to Capt. Sampson via Port-au-Prince, Hayti, informing him that reports to the state department finally located the Spanish fleet at Cadiz, and for him to commence operations against the batteries immediately. The president, Secretary Long and all of the cabinet secretaries, army and navy officials were greatly relieved when yesterday afternoon reliable advices from Madrid stated that the Cape Verde fleet of seven vessels had returned to Cadiz. Not because the fleet is feared, but because the uncertainty as to its whereabouts have prevented the formation or execution of any well defined plans for either the army or navy, but now that it is definitely ascertained that the Spanish var vessels are on the other side of the Atlantic, and could not cross within ten or twelve days' time, this government vill strike vigorous blows from which Spain will be unable to recover. In the first place San Juan is to be aken. This will not be a difficult matter for the powerful vessels in Sampson's squadron.

THEN HAVANA. When the batteries have been reduced several of the vessels in Admiral Sampson's fleet will be left to harass the Spaniards, if they attempt to re-That's what Merrill's System Tonic | mount their big guns. With the other by this time 60,000 or more regular Veterinary Surgeons.

This is the plan outlined by an army officer yesterday, and he is confident that Havana will be taken before June 1. If the combined Spanish fleet crosses the Atlantic to Blanco's relief, Sampson, reinforced by Capt. Schley and his flying squadron, as well as the magnificent battleship Oregon, the Marietta and the Nichtheroy, will meet and destroy it before it can reach Porto Rico. In the minds of naval officers, there is not the slightest doubt of the outcome of such a battle royal on the high seas. In the American fleets there will be

THROUGH THE SUEZ CANAL. Washington, May 11.-It was suggested by some of the members of the war board today that there was just a possibility that the Spanish squadron might make a quick passage into the Pacific through the Suez Canal and attack Dewey at Manila. It is said that, contrary to the common understanding, the Suez Canal is open to the warships of belligerent powers, so that if the Spanish choose to take this course they would have a long start of any pursuing fleet from our side of the Atlantic. It is scarcely believed, however, that the Spanish are willing to take the great risk of exposing to attack their own home ports by the withdrawal of so considerable a proportion of their naval strength as would be required to overmatch Dewey. BLANCO WANTS PROVISIONS. Madrid, May 11.-Capt.-Gen. Blanco has cabled an urgent request for considerable supplies of provisions.

FINANCIAL SURPRISE. New York, May 11 .- A dispatch from San Sebastian says: There is great excitement here on account of a phenomenal fall on the exchange in favor of Spanish money. Yesterday the rate was 215, whereas this morning it fell to 195, and at the close offers were refused at 150. I am informed on most excellent authority that a well-known banking house has come to the rescue and advanced the Bank of Spain 100,000,000 pesetas. London, May 11.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily News says: The latest news is good and bad. The good is the rise in the peseta. Yesterday at 3 o'clock a French journalist changed 200 francs at the Credit Lyonnaise at 112. Half an hour later exchange had dropped to 80. The bank refused to cash foreign checks until the end of the week, not knowing where exchange will be the next minute. In fact, changing money is a pure gamble. The reason of the fall of the peseta was the se of foreign bills by the Bank of Spain to meet the coupons. Nobody until yesterday suspected how much gold existed in Spain, a country where you may live for years and never see the yellow coin. The effect of the recent rise in exchange has been to draw out the hoarded gold. Yesterday morning crowds might have been seen in front of the Credit Lyonnaise and all foreign banks, offering for ex-change nondescript coins, 20, 25 and 10 years old, Spanish, Portuguese, French and English. The financiers were taken by surprise, and probably there are substantial hoards left. The bad news is the bread agitation. The rise in bread must be prevented at all costs on political grounds. The government is negotiating for the purchase of 100,-000 sacks of flour in Belgium.

EXCITING INCIDENT. New York, May 11.-A dispatch from Hong Kong says: The most exciting incident of the battle at Manila was the intended attack of two torpedo boats which came out, lying in wait for the Olympia. They were discovered leaving the breakwater, and the Olympia's secondary battery was concentrated on them, but they advanced until the Olympia was within 500 yards of them, One was struck astern by a shot. A terrific explosion followed. The vessel sank with all aboard. The other torpedo boat was beached and disabled. In the afternoon the Petrel was sent to the inner harbor behind the fortifications, and destroyed all the warships not already fired by the morning engagement. She captured the storeship Manila, valued at $500,000, and many small steamers. The Manila's cargo consisted of 600 tons of coal. On Monday morning a tug under a flag of truce brought an offer to surrender from the commandant of the Corregidor. The Baltimore and Raleigh went to accept the surrender. They found the commandant alone, his men having deserted and all the guns of the fort having been blown up.

In Spain.

EIGHT PROVINCES UNDER MAR-TIAL LAW. New York, May 11.-A Madrid crible says eight Spanish provinces have now been declared under martial law. Barcelona has been placed in charge of the military authorities, for fear of an outbreak on the arrival of Gen. Primo Rivera, captain-general of the Philip-A CONFESSION OF IMPOTENCE.

There was a stormy session in the chamber to debate the war funds. Senor Salmeron (Republican) declared that his party were ready to form a government. A great uproar followed. The appeal was answered with a general affirmative cry. At midnight the war credits were defiantly adopted. DEFENDS THE SPANISH ADMIRAL

MOST LIKELY. London, May 11.-There is no confirmation of the report that the Spanish fleet from the Cape Verde Islands has returned to Cadiz, but it is generally regarded as the most likely movement to be made, and as an indication that Spain has decided to let her West Indies possessions go. The question is generally asked: "What possible use has Spain for continuing a hopeless struggle?" as it is considered next to impossible that she has any alternative plan or that the retreat of the Quadron hides some strategic design.

New York, May 11.- The prize commissioners have decided to recommend the release of the steamer Miguel Jover, on the grounds that she carried an American cargo, and that the time for her departure from an American port had not elapsed. The Miguel Jover is one of the finest vessels captured by the blockading squadron, and her release means the loss of nearly $700,090 to her captors.

Rear Admiral Dewey destroyed some of these vessels, and perhaps all of them, but if he did not, then a number were destroyed by the enemy. Admiral Montejo was increasing the bounty fund with every vessel he sank, and Spain will undoubtedly have to pay for those losses in making up the indemnity at the close of the war. THE NEW YORK WORLD SAYS HAVANA IS TO BE FIRST. ATTACKED.

New York, May 11 .- A dispatch to the World from Washington says: After a conference of the naval board it was decided that Rear Admiral Samp-Rico, but should return to Key West and begin operations at once against Havana. Admiral Sampson will reach Porto Rico, tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon. A scouting vessel will put into St. Thomas, 40 miles distant, for instructions from Washington, and will immediately return to the flagship with is at Cadiz, and to return to Key West. All of the ships of the squadron be gathered together and will sail for American waters, arriving off Key West about Monday. The administration will let Porto Rico alone and consolidate all of its power on the coast of Cuba. After the island has surrenreded, should Spain desire to continue the war, a strong fleet will be sent to

The invasion of Cuba will have begun in earnest by Tuesday of next week. Rear Admiral Sampson will begin an attack on Havana about the middle of the week. Gen. Shafter's land forces Orders were sent to Capt. Clarke, commander of the battleship Oregon, at Bahia, Brazil, that the Cape Verde fleet had been located at Cadiz, that the coast was now clear, and to proceed home. Capt. Clarke will put into another port in about a week, where he will get further instructions. The Oregon and her consort, the gunboat Marietta, will probably reach Key West in fifteen days.

TO RELIEVE THE PHILIPPINES. New York, May 11.-A special to the World from Cadiz says: The war and | the death of his wife. naval departments are advancing preparations for a relief expedition to the Philippines, which is said will be comsed of 8,000 regular soldiers and two battalions of marines. Instructions have been sent to Gen. Augusti to hold out as long as possible, 40 days being required for the arrival of an expedition going by way of the Suez Canal and the Red Sea.

Spain's reported project of sending a relief expedition to the Philippines is treated by military and naval experts here as a mere bluff. In the first place, it is considered that the Spanish Government needs all the troops it can polled congress, and finds that the muster to maintain its dynasty at home. Secondly, the reserve squadron cannot possibly be ready for a month. Thirdly, there would be the insuperable coaling difficulty for the ships for a voyage of 8,000 miles.

THE FAST LINE. London, May 11 .- Petersen's fast Atlantic company prospectus will be issued next week. The capital will probably be $7,700,000. Hawthorne, Leslie. & Co., of Hebburn-on-Tyne, have received an order to build four large steamers for the service, subject to certain conditions. Two boats of 10,000 tons, of 21 knots speed, are to begin the fortnightly service on May 31, 1899. The remaining two start a year later. The contractors now undertake to have all boats ready to b gin the weekly service on May 1, 1900. BRITISH STEAMER LOST. London, May 11.-Advices have been received here announcing that British steamer Amarapoora (Captain Cameron), which was last reported put into Yokohama on Nov. 20, in distress, while bound for Vancouver from Taku, and which was discharged at Yokohama for a survey, has been wrecked on the Shan Tung coast and is a total loss. No mention is made of the fate of her crew. The Amarapoora was an iron vessel, built at Greenock in 1874. She registered 1,620 tons, and hailed from Glasgow.

the beach for five years, and sidewalks had been laid at the expense of the municipality along the beach. This was the case for the plaintiff. For the defense, Mr. John Purdom said he had known the beach for 30 years, and it had always been public property. He had owned lot 3 in the Orchard Beach for four years, and the beach had always been used. The beach was used fifteen years ago as a

John Campbell, miller, had owned property on New Orchard Beach for six years. During that time, till last summer, when Mr. Robinson put up the fence, the beach was generally used for walking, driving and bathing. D. K. McKenzie, K. W. McKay and W. Browman were also examined and gave similar testimony. After argument of counsel his lordship gave judgment, finding that the plaintiff was entitled to an injunction restraining defendant from crossing his beach. The verdict carries costs. OTHER CASES. Ostrander vs. McPhail was an action rought by Edwin Ellis Ostrander, laborer, of Dutton, against Ernest Me-Phail, merchant, of Beamsville, claiming $3,000 damages for the seduction of his daughter, Mabel Gertrude Ostrander, in the year 1896. Consent verdict entered, defendant paying plaintiff $300

Chandler vs. M. C. R., was an action brought on behalf of William Chandler by George Washington Thomas against the M. C. Montreal, May 11. - The captain of the steamer Montezuma, which has just arrived here, reports that the purser, Thomas Charles Hill, jumped overboard in midocean, when the vessel was three days out from Liverpool, and was drowned. Hill came of a wealthy family ,and was an employe of the Elder-Dempster Co., at Liver-pool. He had overworked himself, and came over as purser of the com-pany's steamer Montezuma for the sake of his health. The first day out strange manner, and a seaman was told to watch him. On the third to his stateroom, and the watch saw him safely to bed. The sailor then came on deck. About half an hour afterwards a splash was heard on the port side of the ship, followed by a loud cry, and then all was silent. Everything was done to save the unfortunate man, who was now known to be Hill, as his room was empty, but he was never seen again, and the captain ordered full steam ahead and proceeded to Montreal. Cost of Lost Opportunity. We know that many of our friends say that the country is indignant at the Dominion Senate for the folly which the majority of that body has committed in burking the government | Canada Now Stands High in measure to provide an all-Canadian route to the Yukon, and are willing to sit down and let the Senators feel all the consequences which are flowing from that narrow-minded and unpatriotic action. But it must not be forgotten that the United States are in possession of the entrance to our gold ent the adventurers to the Yukon able one is opened up to them through Canadian territory.

If the Dominion Government and Parliament do nothing, an active effort will undoubtedly be put forward to construct a railway having its initial point in the United States. A large town will be built up on United States soil, and will be supported by the trade established through the facilities afforded for entering our terricory from United States possessions on the coast. Thus the people of Canada will find that the opportunity of building a road upon their own territory, furnishing ingress and egress to the trade of their own possessions will have been thrown away.

It is only at rare intervals that the chance comes to a state to push with great success its own fortunes, and men ought to have the courage to assume the responsibility that the opportunity calls for.

Canadian Press and the War. With one or two exceptions, the eat bulk of the newspapers of Canare in line with the evident deof the Imperial authorities to note friendly relations with the ited States. At a time like the resent, it is the part neither of comnon sense nor of patriotism for any newspaper to endeavor to thwart this desire by attack on the United States. The great volume of popular feeling throughout the United States, as attested by Mr. John A. Ewan, the Globe's able correspondent now moving about from State to State, is strongly friendly both to Great Britain and to Canada. Our plain duty, as Canadians, and our pleasant opportunity as well, is to adopt the advice of Tolstoi, by returning this good will in full measure. Let the dead past bury its dead. No good end whatever can be served by nagging and insulting remarks directed by Canadian newspapers against the United States in connection with gaged. We are proud of the good feeling and common sense in this regard displayed, with only two or three exceptions, by the united press of the Dominion.

Britain.

The London Times of April 28 refers in terms of the warmest commendation to the progress made towards establishing preferential trade between the Heart of the Empire and the outlying possessions. "It is no exaggeration," says the Times, "to speak of the movement which has thus declared itself as a definite step towards the commercial union of the empire. Canada and South Africa have led the way in making concessions to British trade in an enlightened spirit of Imperial self-interest. They ask for no reciprocal concessions inconsistent with the principles of fiscal liberty upon which the industrial preeminence of Great Britain has been carried to its present height, but they recognize the ultimate value of mutual support. We have seen that the anticipations upon which they have been led to act show no sign of being discredited by the result. Prosperity waits upon a policy which refuses to embarrass the future by haggling for immediate returns."

The unprecedented condition in which the United States is now involved adds great force and interest in the mind of every thinking man to the weighty and well-considered words in which Hon. By this term he means that the United States, one of the great powers of the earth, purposely keeps aloof from the European family circle of nations, avoids the responsibilities of its place, and loses its advantages; at the same time it commits the sharp practice of claming to share commercial or political benefits that have been obtained by the other powers, and for which it refuses Examination Into the Legal and Other Attendant Expenses.

[C. P. R. Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, May 11.-Mr. E. L. Newcombe, deputy minister of justice, was examined at the public accounts committee in respect to legal and other expenses in connection with the prose cution of certain election frauds in the Province of Manitoba. Bills from lawyers, principally in Winnipeg, amount ed in all to $10,325. Newcombe said that he taxed these bills at the instance of Sir Oliver Mowat and redunced them to $5,760. The bailiff's fees were $1,200, which were allowed. Fees of witnesses, including railway fares, were $4,405. The total disbursements were $7,146, which, added to $5,760. made the total $12,906. Sir Hibbert Tupper said that in connection with the payment of this account, $6,964 was transferred by Sir Oliver Mowat to Mr. Sifton from the miscellaneous appropriation of the department of justice to meet part of the expenses. Sir Hibbert said, and Mr. Newcombe admitted, that it was not customary to transfer amounts in this department for another minister to expend. Sir Hibbert maintained that the prosecutions were started by the at-torney-general of Manitoba, Mr. Sifton, and that the Dominion had little o do with them. Mr. Newcombe said that about all he knew of the matter was the taxing of Mr. Hodgins, of the department of justice, will appear at the next meet-

CHICAGO, May 10.—A tremendous approval of the supplementary contract with Messrs. Peterson, Tate & Co. in burst of Liberal enthusiasm, they tions for July, the chief option fell to $1 06. However, there was a big rebound, and the closing price was $1 14. It was a market seldom equaled for wildness even in war times. When scarcity of offerings had pushed the July figures up to $1 25, there appearto come an impulse on the part of holders to take profits. The liquidation did not cease till the decline resulting from the sales had carried the market back to $1 06. The worst of the break was in the last half hour of trading. Foreigners were said to have been among the largest takers of profits. Accelerating the break was a cable saying bakers and millers took no wheat at Liverpool, and that India would increase its shipments.

Canada's New

The Contract Approved By the House of Commons.

Mr. Dobell Says They Will Revolutionize Trade.

Mr. Edwards reminded the Conserva-

Ottawa, May 11.—The house yesterday approved of the new contract between the government and Messrs Petersen, Tate & Co. for the establishment of a fast Atlantic steamship ser-temporary slump in the price of wheat with Messrs. Peterson, Tate & Co. in occurred today. The fall amounted to regard to the fast Atlantic steamship line. He explained that some unimportant changes had been made in the contract. The only really important one was that the time for the completion of the first two steamers had been extended. The original contract promised to have two steamers completed supply. on May 31, 1899, and four by May 1, 1900. Instead of that the new contract calls for the completion of the four of fishery officers, under which head a steamers by May 1900. He pointed out score of opposition members took the that the original contract provided opportunity to bring forward cases of that in the event of a strike in the shipbuilding trade there should not be forfeiture of the contract or deposit. Such a striks had occurred, and her Majesty's government had suffered in common with this one in consequence. Another clause provided that the vessels may call at a port in Ireland. Sir Charles Tupper did not think Petersen, Tate & Co. could finance the project. Sir Charles again covertly attacked the governor-general by insinuating that Lord Aberdeen's brotherin-law was the president of the new steamship company. Sir Charles chafed at the delay, and said if the former government's contract had been carried out, Canada would now be getting a large share of foreign traffic. blamed the governor-general for not ratifying that contract. Sir Wilfrid Laurier maintained that, considering everything, satisfactory progress had been made. He refuted the idea of the Allans being in a position to carry out their contracts. That firm wanted the Canadian Government The contract with the Allans was not ratified by the governor-general because Mr. Chamberlain though it wise to have the new Canadian Government consulted on the matter. When the new government assumed office they thought they could make a better bargain than that proposed, and they did so with Messrs. Petersen, Tate & Co. Mr. Dobell asked the house if there could be a more practicable, honorable and respectable set of men got together to carry out this contract than those whose names appear on board. Mr. Dobell further made the interesting statement that Mr. Johnson, head of the great Mediterranean line of steamships, has told him in conversation that the new type of boats proposed for this service would revoluionize the Atlantic steamship trade. Mr. Davin took the position that Canada's needs would be better served by a slower process with the best possible freight accommodation. The motion passed without further discussion. During the discussion Sir Richard Cartwright said the subvention was given by the Imperial Government on the understanding that the vessels could be used as cruisers, and for this purpose they had to be built according

THE VACANCY IN BAGOT. Sir Charles Tupper again called attention to the fact that although two months had elapsed since the death of Mr. Dupont the writ for a new election in Bagot has not yet been issued. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said an election held at once would be upon lists under which at least 25 per cent of the electors would be disfranchised, whereas at the end of the session the election could be held upon fresh lists. Mr. Bergeron taunted the govern-ives that when he was unseated in December, 1887, Russell was allowed to remain unrepresented until almost the close of the succeeding session. Dr. Landerkin triumphantly reminded the opposition that in the five byewould carry Bagot, too.

"Yellow Journalism." Mr. Varley Speaks on Flippant

Police Reports.

A Handsome Apology to The Advertiser -Wants a Healthy Press.

Mr. Henry Varley preached to another large audience at the Auditorium last evening upon the subject of unbelief and the besetting sins of the age, and their effect upon society. As a preface to his remarks, he said: "Yesterday afternoon I had in my hand two of your afternoon papers. In one of them there is a police office report which certainly is not edifying reading. It is flippant and written to make it exciting. It is written in such manner as to make light of drunkenness and other objectionable cases that are brought up at the police courts. most inadvertently stated that I thought I had read it in the columns of The Advertiser. I was very grateful to hear that it was not in The Advertiser. I felt very grieved, and I am thankful to be able to correct the statement. I am sure it must have grieved those who knew that I had made a mistake, and that the statements made last night could have no reference to The Advertiser. I am glad to have the opportunity to express the regret I felt over the mistake. I understand that The Advertiser is very careful in its statements and not given to making light of these things. In going over the country I cannot help noticing what is written rm it is only from a desire to see a

as an introduction for police court cases—items that make jests of them. If I refer to these cases on the plathealthy press.' Mr. Varley gave a strong address on his subject proper. ### DARING DRIVER

Fights Off a Robber With His Whip-Was Shot in the Face, but Worsted His Assailant.

Redding, Cal., May 11.-Just at dawn an attempt was made to hold up the stage running from Alturas to place. When about three miles from town, the driver, Wm. Connery, became aware that someone was climbing on his stage from behind. As the driver turned, the would-be robber fired point blank in his face, the bullet passing through his cheek, and carrying away several teeth and a portion of the roof of the mouth. A hand-to-hand contest occurred, the driver using his heavy whip, while the robber shot three times more at his intended victim. A second bullet grazed Connery's face, and a third shot burned his neck. The fourth bullet flew wide. Connery finally succeeded in forcing the robber to the ground, and the horses dashed away, carrying the plucky driver out of harm's reach. He is in a precarious

A Tilsonburg Barber Charged With Breach of Promise.

Defendant in an Action for $2,000-No

Defense Put In. Messrs. Crawford & Crawford, of Aylmer, have secured permission from the judge to have the following breach of promise case entered for trial at the Elgin assizes, now in progress: VANBUSKIRK VS. McFARLANE. This is an action brought by Miss A. Vanbuskirk, stenographer, of Aylmer, burg, claiming $2,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage. The plaintiff's solicitors, Crawford & Crawford, of Aylmer,in their pleadings, body is permitted to cross the gates or and the 29th day of March, 1297, the defendant frequently promised to marry the plaintiff, who, on her part, though coy at first, finally gave her consent and promised to marry the defendant. The engagement between the plaintiff and the defendant to marry continued, it is alleged, from the date of such promises by the defer and consent by the plaintiff, till March 29, 1897, when the defendant married Miss Hillicker, and the plaintiff says that until the defendant went off and married another she was always ready to marry him. The pleadings say that previous to the engagement the plaintiff was taking a course of music on the plane, with a view to obtaining a situation as teacher of piano in a college, or, in the alternative, to adopt teaching the piano as a profession, but shortly after the said engagement, and in view of the intended marriage between herself and the defendant, and at the defendant's request, she abandoned her studies, preparatory to fitting herself for the said situation at college or for a professional teacher of the piano, and from that time forward, spent her money, amounting to $250, in the purchase of inen, bedding and other such things which she considered necessary for housekeeping, and her time and money in preparing her clothing and other matters for the said marriage. For loss of chance of preparing for a profession, oss of said marriage, benefit of time and expense incurred, besides being injured in her health and feelings, the plaintiff claims $2,000 damages, such other relief as the nature of the case may require." The defenedant put in no defense. Crawford & Crawford, Aylmer, for

The force of the collision caved in the front end of the open car and smashed the glass in the partition. A car had to remove it to the barns. The other car was but slightly damaged, and was able to proceed. The motorman escaped with slight bruises. The passengers received a good shaking-up, but none of them were injured.

-At the police court this morning, Charles Cook, alias J. W. Clark, alias Brooks, the man who worked the flimflam on Mr. Wm. Barron at Smyth's cigar store, and robbed J. B. Cox and James Kilgour of $1 10 each, was arraigned, after spending a week in jail. He would answer no questions this morning, and was remanded for another week. Thomas Bradley and Fred Mosley, two vags, found sleeping in the barns at the rear of the Scribner organ works, were reprimanded. Bradley was released and Mosley remanded for a week. The two young men charged with damaging Mrs. Shephard's house on English street, were bailed in $200 each to appear next week. Two women charged with keeping and being inmates of a disorderly house were discharged, to leave town. DEATH OF J. S. MURPHY. Mr. J. S. Murphy, of Quebec street, city, died at his home on Friday last. Mr. Murphy was well and favorably known throughout Western Ontario and particularly London. For the past twenty odd years he spent a considerable portion of his time in this city, making it his headquarters for some months each year. He was a wholesale dealer in lumber and timber, and had extensive dealings throughout this district. He was greatly liked learned with deep regret. Mr. Murphy was about 60 years of age, and leaves a widow and family. THE W. C. T. U.

In spite of the downpour of rain, 28 ladies met in Somerset Hall Tuesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., the president, Mrs. G. Wright, in the chair. As the subject for the day was "Systematic and Proportionate Giving," Dr. Lucas gave a very helpful Bible reading on that sub ject. The minutes of last meeting, the secretary's and treasurer's reports were read, after which the provincial superintendent on systematic and proportionate giving, Mrs. (Rev.) Geo. McAllister, of Watford, gave a very profitable and practical talk on that department of work, showing how much more it is in accord with God's Word. and more profitable to ourselves, both temporarily and spiritually, to give systematically and proportionately of the Lord's to the Lord, than to give in a haphazard way. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded her, after which the meeting closed by Mrs. Hopkins leading in prayer.

Why didn't you let me see you? And why, oh, why did you let them tell me I had k-k-killed you? Think of it! Think of it! The horror of that thought is comething you can never imaginenever understand."

"When my mother first told you that," answered Sir Geoffrey, gravely, "she thought it was true. I was very ill, you know, long after they had extracted the bullet. I was too ill to see you even if she had let me. And when you had been sent away, I suppose my mother meant to punish you by letting you think as she did."

"Ah, but it was brutal to let me think "I am afraid it was!"

"But you-when you knew-when at last she told you what I had been taught, didn't you see yourself how cruel it was?"

Sir Geoffrey was silent. He did not wish to own to Dorothy what he was forced to acknowledge to himself, that his mother had deceived him as egregiously as she had done his wife; that, in pursuing her own revengeful and selfish ends, she had gone near to wrecking both their lives. But something, some part of her work, was bound to become known; and he had reluctantly to see that the intercourse between his wife and his mother could never be anything but strained.

"I had been led to believe," admitted he, "that your hatred of me was so great, your fear of me too, that even the idea that I had died would not affect you long." She shuddered, and abruptly withdrew her hand from his. I never meant that you should bear the burden so long. When you rebelled and insisted on going away from the place where my mother had put you, I had been sent abroad for my health. When I came back you were gone, and my mother told me you were traveling abroad. But I was already hungering for a sight of you, anxious to see you, to find out whether there was really no prospect of reconciliation for us. And as I found my mother unwilling to help me, I went away, but not abroad as she thought. I had found out where you were, and I determined to settle down near you, and to keep watch for an opportunity of approaching you and finding out that one thing which was more important than anything else in life to me-whether my young wife was ready to forgive her old husband, and to welcome him back to life!" At these words he paused. Dorothy, her face glowing with deep feeling. went down on her knees and lifted her swimming eyes to his. "If you could have known-if you could have looked into my heart!" she

"Ah! my darling, how could I know? used to watch you from the lane. waiting for hours for what glimpses I could catch of your face through the trees. Then one night, when I was prowling about the place, thinking of you, it came into my head that if I could look on your face while you slept, and call to you, I might speak to you while you were half awake, and tell you what was in my heart, and prepare you for finding that I was alive. So I climbed up to your window and looked

"Ah! That was what I thought was a dream! I saw you!" Yes; you were not asleep. You looked at me with such a stare of horfor and alarm that I was afraid of the effect of my own act, and I dropped left behind. down to the ground. But someon looked out from an upper window-it was your housemaid, Annie; and next day I met her, and, seeing that she recognized me as the person she had seen the night before, I told her who I was. Fortunately she had seen my portrait hanging in a room of the house

—a locked room, she told me—so that she was ready to believe me." 'Ah!" cried Dorothy. "And this knowledge that you kept my portrait gave me hope. The girl promised to get me the key of the oom in which it was hung, and to eave a window open by which I could get into the house that night." Dorothy looked up with rather wide

eyes. "These sentimental girls!" exclaimed

Dorothy stared. "Did she see you? Did Mabin see ou?" she asked, breathlessly. "She not only saw me, she gave hase, and nearly caught me! I was overed with confusion. But since then he young lady, who is a very charmng one, and I have come to an ex-

"I've come to ask for an explana-ion," said he, standing very erect, and speaking in a solemn tone, tempered by flerceness.
"An explanation? Of what?"

"Various points in your conduct." "Oh!" cried Mabin, turning quickly face her accuser, and evidently ready with counter accusations. "In the first place, why have you

"I won't promise," said she. "It's too risky.' "You haven't much faith in me,

"I haven't much faith in-myself. If I were to see you again apparently absorbed in a very beautiful woman and her misfortunes, I should feel the same again. Especially a widow!" "But Mrs. Dale was not a widow!" "Well, a married woman. They are

And, although Mabin was astonished and rather alarmed by the suggestion, he argued her into consent to his proposal that he should write to Mr. Rose that very day.

It was astonishing how quickly the neighbors got over their prejudices against the color of "Mrs. Dale's" hair when they discovered that the lady in black was the wife of Sir Geoffrey Mallyan. And although odd stories got whispered about as to the reason for her stay in Stone under an assumed name, it was in the nature of things, as they go in the country, where each head weaves its own fancy, that the truth never got known there. Before the newly-united couple left the Towers they were both present at the wedding of Rudolph and Mabin, who were married by the vicar under the offended eyes of Mrs. Bonnington.

Indeed, it is doubtful whether she would ever have consented to the marriage if the accident to Mabin's ankle, although it left no worse effects, had not made it impossible for her ever to ride a bicycle again. And then, very quietly and without warning, Sir Geoffrey and his wife, Dorothy, went away, telling nobody where they were going. There was a breach now between them and old Lady Mallyan which could never be entirely healed. But in order that they might have a little time to themselves before they even pretended to forgive her, husband and wife went off in in Europe. Wales together. And under the tender care of his wife Sir Geoffrey began age farm was very problematic. They quickly to recover his health, the loss were not sure whether they should bitterly repented.

Sewer Committee Addressed by Representative of a Montreal Company-Action Deferred.

The sewer committee met last night. and discussed the means of completing the new sewer system. A material deviation from the plan recommended by Consulting Engineer Chipman was considered at some length. Finally, a sub-committee was appointed, including Ald. Douglass, Cooper and Belton, the mayor. Engineers Chipman and Graydon, to go into the matter and report before anything is done in the way of providing permanently for the whom the members of the committee had been called together, was also present, and described the International Sewage Purification System, which he wished to introduce. An incident occurred at the outset, which though in itself not an unusual thing at meetings of the sewer committee, terminated in a way that gave It more than usual interest. Mr. Pritchard has at almost every meeting raised the question as to whether he and Dr. Campbell, being representa-tives of the board of health, have a right to vote at the committee. Last night, the chairman, while waiting for Aid. Belton to arrive, was asked to proceed with the meeting, and said: "There isn't a quorum," and this remark Mr. Pritchard interpreted as a ruling that Dr. Campbell and himself not members of the committee. When Ald. Belton entered, Mr. Pritchard urged the committee to decide as will enable answers to be made to the point, saying he did not choose to be "continually under the slur of the chairman." After some diplomatic fencing on the part of the chairman, and persistent reiteration on the part of Mr. Pritchard.

it was decided on motion of the mayor to obtain the city solicitor's opinion and to have the matter settled. Mr. McDougall addressed the comwith reference to his plant for Sabbath school fund. disposing of sewage by chemical treatment. To dispose of 3,000,000 gallons of sewage a day, six settling tanks, 35 feet in diameter, and 15 feet deep, would be required. construction of the tanks was described, and photographs and designs submitted to the committee. Mr. McDougall said that in this climate it would be well to have wooden buildings over the filters on account of the frost. Replying to the mayor, Mr. Chipman said there were no systems like this in this country. Mr. McDougall assented, but said there were over four hundred at work of which Dorothy remorsefully traced run the sewage in the river four the mad act of which she had so months in the year, or eight months, or run it on the farm for the whole year. The question should be fully considered before spending $25,000 or $30,000 to conduct the sewage to the farm. If they intended to turn it into the river, then they might as well run be held in the city of London, and if it in at Evergreen avenue. In answer to questions about the cost, Mr. McDougall said that for labor and chemicals, the cost per year would not exceed $6,000. It would not be an experiment for the city, as the comcost of building the plant would be $83,-Dr. Campbell-After a good many months' investigation, the city council approved of a certain system for disposing of the city sewage. That was the system approved of by the people, and the one which the legislature gave the council power to construct. The council may now have the right to change it, but it is a mistaken idea to think the matter was gone into in a haphazard way. The opinions of the best engineers were obtained, and they all agreed as to the plan which had been adopted. Continuing, Dr. Campbell said that Mr. McDougall's system was simply adding chemical treatment to the city's scheme of filtration, and he objected to it mainly because it would be too costly. The city had al-ready expended about $121,000. They were responsible for $10,000 more for land purchased, and $14,000 or so for engineering expenses and extras, and the council had taken $7,500 of the fund. This left from the $205,000 raised by debenture $42,500. If they adopted this new system, he said, they would have to plant the precipitation works at the west door of the city, and they would also have to meet the question of disposing of the sludge, which, if allowed to accumulate, would become a nuis-Mr. McDougall said no nuisance would be created. Ald. Carrothers said the amount paid for land was $11,600, and a number of other properties had to be purchased. The mayor wanted to know how they could get $100,000 out of the balance if they couldn't get $30,000. He understood that according to the plan $100,000 would be required if the sewage farm is de-

Mr. Pritchard found a good deal of fault with the sewers, and moved that in the opinion of the committee, the very unsatisfactory state of public n on the sewer system warrants us in deferring action. No seconder. Engineer Chipman said to complete the system would take $80,000, and there would be very little left for increasing the sewage farm above the acres recommended. The cost of the sewage farm would be $40,000, and the monthly operating expenses $400.
This was for the treatment of 1,500,000 gallons of sewage daily, which was a liberal estimate.

Finally a committee, comprising the mayor, Ald. Belton, Cooper and Doug-lass, with Engineers Chipman and on, was appointed to investigate nt Pellets. the matter and report. Engineer Chipman informed the Canadian Depot: PABST MALT EXTRACT committee that the South street sewer defect lies in the easterly 60 or 70 feet. The sewer had been laid to a fair grade, but horizontally it was all out of line, and there are some broken pipes which should be taken out.

The Fiftieth Anniversary of Dr. Proudfoot's Ordination

To Be Celebrated in This City-Sunday School Recommendations.

The Presbytery of London met in Knox Church, St. Thomas, on Tuesday, May 10, at 9 a.m., the moderator, Mr Kelso, of Wallacetown, presiding. Mr. Ross gave a report on the conference of Young People's Societies within the bounds of the Presbytery, held on the previous Monday afternoon and evening. It appeared that some $2,000 had been contributed by these societies, about half of which had gone to the schemes of the church. The report was received and adopted. Mr. R. Johnson gave a report of committee appointed to visit Kintore in reference to Mr. Munro's resignation. The report was simply a statement of facts, but the committee had no recommendation to offer. Mr. Currie moved that a committee consisting of approved by the presbytery, and it was Messrs. Johnson, Ross, Henderson and the mover be appointed to prepare a deliverance on the matter. Mr. Dewar, of Ailsa Craig, who is in Denver, Col., was granted leave of absence for three months. Pulpit supply

Rev. Dr. Proudfoot resigned his commission to the general assembly on account of ill-health. This was accepted, and the next name in rotation, that of Mr. Sawers, was appointed as commissioner.

On the matter of Mr. Wilson's resignation coming up, it was decided that Mr. Wilson be heard. He stated that the congregation had strongly urged the withdrawal of his resignation, and with the permission of Presbytery, he wished to accede to that request. On motion such permission was given. clerk read cards from various Presbyteries as to applications to be made for the reception of different ministers into the Presbyterian Church in Canada. AFTER THE WAR.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: Will you allow space for a few words on the much-worded Cuban question: "What is your mind on the situation regarding Cuba and the United States?" has been asked me many times. The seriousness of the matter is not in the destruction of that great city, whose walls are in the center, instead of around the city, as the city has flowed over the city walls on every side. Matanzas is one of the most important points in the United States, plan of invasion, not Havana, as the Spanish soldiers have been withdrawn from the interior, and concentrated around Havana, where they are going to be caged. when a force sufficient is landed to cut off supplies. Then "Cuba shall be free" will come in. But the after consequences are the most serious. The intensely loyal Spanish regard with pride the Bonna Daria (Spanish flag), with an undying love. The captain of a vessel in which Mr. John Wrigley and the writer spent some days, wrap-ped the fiag around his body under his clothes. These men will be ready to die for Spain. Don Carlos would suit Spain better than the present dynasty, which gave Cuba liberty only when it had to. But the living, moving princi-ples, call them by what name you will, of free constitutional right, are today working in Spain herself, and we see it in the Spanish Parliament itself. Voiced or not voiced, it is there, and will not be held down. The aghting is there. And France will not say them nay, even with the power of moneyed men in the background. After the fight is over, who will settle the Cuban affairs? The intensely loyal will still Rev. Canon Dann, of London, be asked have to be considered, and are Spanish to accept the rectorship of the church. ever. The colored men will have to be held down, by whom? The Chinese will also have to be attended to, for they are many, and some say they should not be there. Mr. Editor, these are the points most troublesome when the war is over. Yours, etc.,

yesterday morning at about 8 o'clock. He was at work at the London box factory, Bathurst street, and was standing on a ladder in the act of replacing a belt, when he fell some ten feet, alighting on the handle of a planer, which pierced his leg and held him suspended until removed by some of his fellow employes. A nasty gash of considerable length tore the leg, and his shoulder was badly dislocated by the force of the fall. Nothing serious is expected unless blood poisoning should follow. The unfortunate man was removed to the hospital, and Dr. Balfour dressed his injuries. This was only Mr. Gunn's second day of work at the factory, having started Monday. He is reported to be doing nicely this morning.

Ottawa Again'

Another Junketing Trip for the City Council.

A Deputation Will Go to Support the Promoters of the London and Lake Huron Electric Railway in Their Request for a Bonus.

The city council met yesterday afernoon and appointed a large deputation to wait upon the grovernment at Ottawa and join the promoters of the London and Lake Huron Electric Railway in petitioning for a bonus. Messrs. T. H. Smallman, C. B. Hunt and John Labatt were the representatives of the company present, and the former addressed the council. He said it was intended to build the railway through Lucan and Centralia, with the terminus at or near Grand Bend. It would be through a section Trunks, Valises, Bags, etc., splendid of the country which now has no railway facilities, and would be a great benefit to London by bringing a great many people here who now come rarely if ever. Farm produce and fruit would also be brought in largely. "If we can't get this bonus, I may tell you it is a foregone conclusion that the road will not be built," said

Mr. Smallman in conclusion. Ald. O'Meara thought that there was a possibility of the road being injurious instead of beneficial to the city. He feared it would be booming Grand Bend as a summer resort to the detriment of Port Stanley.

Ald. Dreaney was strongly in favor of assisting the company. The proposed road would be through the finest bit of country in the province, he said. Mr. Smallman, in answer to Ald. O'Meara, said that if the sole object of the road were to boom a summer resort, it would never be built. But even were a summer resort established all the supplies therefor would naturally be secured in London.

Ald. Belton moved that the mayor, Ald. Taylor, Douglass, Stevely, Carrothers, Graham, Dreaney, Gerry and the mover constitute a delegation to go to Ottawa about the matter. Ald. O'Meara moved in amendment that the mayor and Ald. Winnett be appointed. He did not see that a large deputation would do any good, and, speaking generally, he was opposed to the large deputations at the city's ex-"This matter of slushing at the city's expense where no good can be done is played out, and it's about time it was recognized," he said. Ald. Cooper seconded. He objected to the expense, and reminded the ald-ermen that this was a year when they nadn't a cent to spend for music in the park and hardly a dollar for the sidewalks and streets. Ald. O'Meara's amendment was defeated upon the following vote:

Yeas—Ald. O'Meara, Graham, Cooper and Hunt-4. Nays—Ald. Taylor, McPhillips, Belton, Douglass, Jolly, Carrothers, Stevely, Dreaney and Gerry—9. Those present were: The mayor,

Important To the City.

What Are the Switching Privileges Under L. and P. S. R. Lease?

City Solicitor Says the Question Is a Nice One to Decide-Position of the G. T. R. to be Ascertained-Costly Litigation Probable.

The London and Port Stanley Railway Board met yesterday afternoon and discussed the appeal of the L. E. and D. R. R. against right of the G. T. R. to charge for switching to warehouses on their tracks. The L. E. and D. R. R. claim that under the 99-year lease held by the city they are entitled to free switching. They were getting t for a while, but Manager Hays in-terpeted the lease differently, and they are now charged $2 a car. Last year the item amounted to $840, and it is estimated that before their twentyyear lease expires the cost will reach several thousands. City Solicitor Meredith said the point at issue was the interpretation of the 99-year lease. It was a question ipon which it was difficult for any out a railway expert to give an opinion on, and if the opinions Mr. Barker, a railway expert, had expressed to Mr. Leggatt as solicitor for the essees, were correct, they were no doubt paying a large sum they should not pay. It was to the city's interest to have the matter settled now rather than at the expiration of the twentyyear lease, though he did not think the

Rev. Dr. Lucas Says It Is "A They were heartily appreciated. Ex-Man of Straw"

To Frighten Prohibitionists - Some Interesting Figures-The Liquor Traffic an Evidence of National

Some two hundred people gathered in the city hall last evening to hear Rev. Dr. Lucas give an able discourse in the temperance cause. His subject was. "Will Prohibition Hurt Business was, "Will Prohibition Hurt Business be the most perfect railway system in or Increase Taxation?" The speaker America. All trains run solid from said that his main object would be to Show that the cry about taxation and St. Catharines, Hamilton, Woodstock, revenue in the event of prohibition is a man of straw. This is simply put up to frighten us by those who benefit by it. "I wish to show that the liquor traffic is an evidence of national stupidity-and the nation is not as wise as it should be that permits it to exist."

Muscle and wealth, the speaker said, were the two great props on which a commonwealth rested. Of the two, muscle was of the most value, although money was nearly of equal value. Crude nature had been placed before the peo-ple by God, to be put, by the exercise of muscle, into a useful form. Dr. Lucas then cited the sad story of a family in Quebec, to illustrate the way in which the world was deprived of muscle, through the use of liquor. The Bible says, we are expected to live seventy years, whereas the aggregate age of four members of this family, who died from the liquor curse, was 130 years, lars yearly to bring more muscle in, 'Phone 1,226.

while liquor is driving it out-through death. Cases were also cited by Dr. Lucas of cities where the abolition of the saloon would mean a loss in revenue, but a saving of double the amount by the reduction of one-half of the police expenses. He next showed that $40,000,000 was annually spent on liquor, and believed in the event of prohibition than at least half of this, $20,000,000, would be immediately turned into legitimate and useful industries of the country, and create a boom. $7,000,000 revenue—supposing that 5,000,-000 people had to make it up by paying $1 50 a head in direct taxation-with prohibition, the $20,000,000 saved from the saloon and going into the pockets of the people would mean $4 each, or $2 50 to the good. This the speaker contended, was the way to look at the prohibition movement — from a business and common sense point of view. Mr. Wilfrid Lucas, son of the lecturer, gave two choice solos and recitations.
