WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act in the following manner; Therefore Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:

I. Notwithstanding any thing to the contrary in the thirteenth section of the said Act, headed "Fences," or in any other part thereof, the Company shall be bound to make and place framed gates in the fence on each side of the Railway, at each place where it crosses any farm or land, for the use of the proprietor of such farm or land; and any provision of the said Act which might be construed to authorize the Company to substitute bars or openings or other contrivances instead of such framed gates, is hereby repealed.
