POLICE GRAFT

Is Disclosed to a Further Extent in New York--The Evidence is Said to Implicate Some Men Who are Higher up.

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The trail of police graft which District Attorney Chas. S. Whitman started last summer, is declared by him to-day to have emerged from the thick of the minor exposures to an open road leading to men higher up. Through the remarkable confession which Police Capt. Thos. W. Walsh made in the presence of the District Attorney last night which will be repeated to the grand jury, indictments will be sought against a police inspector and others as alleged graft takers on a large scale. If obtained these indictments would be the most important developments in the exposure of the "system" since the city was aroused to the alliance of its police with gambling and vice by the murder of a "smuggling" gambler at the instigation of Police Lieut. Chas. Becker last July.

Walsh's confession was made on his sick bed. It was forced in part by charges made by Police Inspector Fox, who pleaded guilty to graft collection last Monday, and turned upon Walsh as the man next above him. Fearing that a heart weakness with which he has long been troubled might foreshadow his death, and wishing to purge his conscience, Capt. Walsh is declared to have admitted that he took vice graft to the extent of perhaps $100,000 in a single police precinct and shared half of the amount with a police inspector above him.

THE VERY LATEST DESPATCHES

Instantly Killed on the T. H. and B. Railway--A Severe Storm in Saskatchewan--Fatal Result of a Tobogganing Mishap--A Railway Construction Foreman is Beaten to Death.

(Courier Leased Wire). WINNIPEG, Feb. 6.—In the T. H. and B. Railway, the fatal result of a tobogganing mishap, a railway construction foreman is beaten to death. Mr. Wickham will also establish a school of aviation at the coast.

Under Arrest (Courier Leased Wire). ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Five leaders of the garment workers strike, Abraham Zeitler, Jos. Coleman, Bennie Cerulli, Harry Schrebnick and Izador Miller, are under arrest to-day charged with inciting riot and Valentine Sauler, proprietor of a clothing shop, is also imprisoned on a charge of first degree murder, following the riotous attack on his shop last night when Ida Berman, one of the strikers was killed when Sauler fired into the crowd. Eight others were injured in the affair, but none seriously.

MOOSEJAW, Sask., Feb. 6.—By far the worst storm of the winter has been raging in the Rockies since Monday, and the trains from the West are from three to ten hours late arriving on the Prairies.

RELEASED FROM CENTRAL (Courier Leased Wire). WELLAND, Ont., Jan. 6.—Samuel P. Morris, of Buffalo, convicted on a charge of personation at the Hydro-Electric voting last August, was released from Central Prison on January 14, a month before his six months' term was up. His name was ordered by the under-secretary.

BAD STORM (Courier Leased Wire). MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—The Duke of Connaught has expressed his intention of attending next Saturday's hockey game here between Wanderers and Tecumsehs. He will be accompanied by the Princess Patricia.

ANYONE WITH NERVE (Courier Leased Wire). VANCOUVER, Feb. 6.—Anyone with the nerve—and $25 in cash—may this coming summer take the trip from Vancouver to Victoria by airship on any fine day. This is stated positively by R. Wickham, a well known English aviator, who has been spending some months in the locality. Mr. Wickham will also establish a school of aviation at the coast. Mr. Wickham expects that the trips will be commenced in two or three months and one will be made each day, weather permitting. He says that from Vancouver to the capital he would follow pretty closely the steamship route and the trip would take about an hour.

TURKS DEFEATED

Another Reverse Given Them by the Balkan Allies---The Forces of the Sultan Retreated in Great Disorder.

(Courier Leased Wire). SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 6.—The Turkish army occupying the peninsula of Gallipoli, and depending on the Dardanelles, suffered a defeat at the hands of the Bulgarian troops to the south of the River Kavak yesterday according to semi-official statements made at the Bulgarian War Office.

The Ottoman troops are said to have retreated in disorder toward the town of Bulair, a small place to the northeast of the city of Gallipoli. They were pursued hotly by the Bulgarians. The statement concludes that as the result of this success of the Bulgarian troops nearly the whole coast of the Sea of Marmora as far as Bulair is now in the hands of the Balkan Allies.

(Courier Leased Wire). LONDON, Feb. 6.—The main object of the Bulgarian armies apart from the reduction of the fortress of Adrianople was disclosed in a despatch from Sofia to-day. They are endeavoring to reach the Dardanelles Straits and to clear them for the passage of the Greek fleet into the Sea of Marmora, whence it will be able to attack Constantinople directly from the sea.

From the reports of the fighting to the north of the peninsula of Gallipoli it can be seen that one of the columns of King Ferdinand's troops is marching straight for the City of Uskup which was taken from the Turks by the Servian troops and is now occupied by them.

VANCOUVER

Proposes to Return a Library Grant to Carnegie---The Matter is Likely to Come to a Vote on the Part of the People.

(Courier Leased Wire). VANCOUVER, B.C., Feb. 6.—Andrew Carnegie's laudable determination to rid himself of his burdensome wealth before he dies, promises to meet with a further obstacle likely to be put in his path by the Vancouver library board. The board proposes to refund to the Laird of Skibo $50,000 which he gave some years ago for the erection of a library building here.

Vancover's Carnegie library was erected 12 years ago, the million-dollar building which at that time the site has become immensely valuable through the development of surrounding territory, and it is now proposed to sell the site and erect a more suitable building on a less valuable location. It is felt that the only way in which this may be done is by paying back to Mr. Carnegie the amount he contributed towards the building with interest for the period the city has had it. This would free the board from any obligation to maintain the present building for all time. There is also a deep rooted objection held locally to the designation "Carnegie Library." In labor union circles there is strong objection against the city being indebted for a public building to a man whom they believe to be opposed to organized labor. It is probable that a vote of the ratepayers on the proposition will be taken.

Baptist Church in Wingham is Guttled by Fire

(Courier Leased Wire). WINGHAM, Feb. 6.—The Baptist church was gutted by fire which broke out shortly before six o'clock last evening. Only the walls are left standing, and the handsome new organ installed a short time ago is a heap of ashes.

Chief Dinsley and his men were on hand quickly after the blaze was noticed, but it had apparently been eating its way through the building for a long time, and had made such headway that nothing could be done. The loss will reach about $7,000. Rev. G. V. Collins is the pastor. It is expected that a new and larger church will be erected as soon as possible.

Annual Meeting of Zion Church Congregation

The 6th annual meeting of Zion Presbyterian church was held in the Sabbath school room last night and was very largely attended by members of the congregation. The Pastor Rev. G. A. Woodside opened the meeting with devotional exercises. Mr. J. C. Spence was requested to act as chairman of the meeting. Reports from the different organizations were presented and adopted, showing a very healthy state of affairs, and that much progress had been made during the past year under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Woodside.

The following were elected to the Board of Management to replace those retiring this year: M. McPherson, D. S. Gibson, E. C. Tench, F. A. Howard, F. J. Calbeck, Jas. Adams. A resolution was unanimously adopted expressing the highest appreciation of the services of the Rev. and Mrs. Woodside and of the cordial relations which existed between pastor and people. Rev. Mr. Woodside led in prayer, and the gathering was brought to a close.

Full Rigged Ship is Found With Not a Soul on Board

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The steamer Roumanian sighted the Remittent in latitude 40 degrees, 30 minutes and longitude 27 degrees, 30 minutes, riding a heavy swell without a hand to guide her before a fresh breeze. Capt. Claridge set out in pursuit. While the Roumanian was coming up on her the Remittent, with tiller banging and to and fro, and blocks strutting on her decks, was running wild in dashes and bounds, first to one point of the compass and then to another. The Roumanian lowered boats to take a line and capture the barque.

After more than an hour's jockeying, during which the Remittent sailed in swoops and dashes, now stopping dead, a tremble in the eye of the wind, and then bounding away to the crackling of what canvas was unfurled, the pursuing small boat finally caught her coming around broadside on and boarded her.

WELSH BILL Carries in the British House of Commons.

(Courier Leased Wire). LONDON, Feb. 6.—The Welsh Disestablishment Bill passed its final reading in the House of Commons yesterday and was sent on to the House of Lords. Vigorous work by the Government whips brought a big attendance at the final reading in the Commons, and a motion to reject the bill on its third reading was defeated by a vote of 347 to 240.

The bill then passed its third reading without division. Later, it formally passed its first reading in the House of Lords.

Startling Figures With Regard to Ottawas Power and Light Plant

(Courier Leased Wire). TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 6.—Mayor EHIS of Ottawa, who is also a member of the Ontario Legislature, stated to-day that Ottawa's surplus for the past year from her power and light plant will be $35,000. This he says, is significant in view of the fact that in 1911 the surplus was $27,000 and the larger surplus followed upon a reduction of the rates amounting to nearly 20 per cent.

This surplus has been put back into the plant in extensions which aggregate about $100,000 in the past seven years. The sinking fund amounts to $155,000 and the bonded indebtedness to $500,000. When the city of Ottawa started its municipal plant the rates were more than twice what they are now. The total revenue the first year was $35,000. In 1911 it was $150,000 and when the rates were cut 18 per cent. the revenue for the year 1912 grew to $186,000.

Helen Keller is to Make a Public Address

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Helen Keller, born deaf and dumb and blind, has almost fully surmounted one of her handicaps, and is to make her first public appearance on the lecture platform at a socialistic meeting in Montclair, N.J., to-morrow night. Although Miss Keller has been able to speak to a certain extent during the past year, the development of her voice under the care of a singing teacher has now reached the stage where her words will carry in an auditorium.

"The belief that the loss of one's sense increases the powers of the others is a fallacy," she said in a very understandable way last night. "The habit of patience is the only thing that helps me to bear the limitation." Miss Keller's teacher explained that the delicate vibrations of her lips, nose and throat, which enabled a pupil to hear with her fingers were too illusive to be produced. It was only by saying the sound over and over again until she got it right and then repeating until the right way became a vocal habit, that she learned to talk. "I must not only get the sound right, but I must fix it in my memory by thousands of repetitions," Miss Keller said.

A HERO

Is the Mayor of Essex---He Was the Means of Helping to Save the Lives of a Mother and Her Two Young Children.

(Courier Leased Wire). WINDSOR, Ont., Feb. 6.—Dr. Bowie, Mayor of Essex, proved the hero of a fire which for a time threatened to destroy that town, at an early hour this morning. Dr. Bowie was awakened shortly after 2 o'clock by crackling of flames. Rushing from his house in zero weather clad only in his night clothes, he found the home of his neighbor, N. Wall ablaze. Mrs. Wall and her two young children were trapped in their bedroom, all means of escape having been cut off by the burning of the stairs. Summoning Dr. Brian to assist him Mayor Bowie stood beneath the window, and in his arms caught the two children who were tossed from the second story window by their mother. Mrs. Wall then jumped, but her weight proved too great for the men, and she fell heavily suffering a badly sprained ankle. The fire department had been summoned by this time and with the assistance of the townspeople succeeded in gaining control of the fire. Only after Dr. Bowie's residence, the butcher shop and the home of Mr. Wall, the drug store of R. Tweedle's was nearly destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss was estimated at $70,000.

A Destructive Fire Takes Place in St. Thomas

(Courier Leased Wire). ST. THOMAS, Feb. 6.—One of the most destructive and most spectacular fires seen in St. Thomas for some years broke out at nine o'clock this morning on the premises of the Baldwin-Robinson Company Limited, originating in the furnace room. The building is in the heart of the town, and the street railway system was completely tied up. Hospital Jewellery Company next door, moved their stock out and the Merchants Bank got ready to vacate. Assistance was wired for to London and a portion of the fire department was despatched by a special Pere Marquette train. The whole interior of Baldwin-Bobinson's was soon a mass of flames, accompanied by a thick smoke. The firm carried a large stock of pianos and musical instruments, and the building and contents will be a total loss. The fire was under control at noon.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB BANQUET.
An event of more than ordinary interest took place Tuesday evening at St. Basil's Young Men's Club rooms, Crown St. in the form of a banquet, as a fitting close to a most successful membership campaign which had been conducted by the members of the club during the past few days. Among the guests of honor were Very Rev. R. E. M. Brady, D. D., and Rev. Father Padon, who addressed the young men in very appropriate and fitting words, expressing their earnest approval of the progress being made by this young and flourishing organization, not only by the increase of their membership but also by the individual development of their members physically, intellectually and morally.
A most appropriate toast list was prepared by the committee in charge and very ably and efficiently carried out under the leadership of Toast Master John C. Walker, whose genial and pleasing manner brought forth many expressions of appreciation. The following is the Toast List:
The Pope—Very Rev. R. E. M. Brady, D. D. and Rev. Father Padon.
The King—National Anthem.
Canada—Mr. Louis T. Ryan.
Our Club—President, Mr. Roy McGraw.
The Ladies—Vice-President, Mr. Herbert Henderson.
At the conclusion of the above toasts, the Toast Master, at the request of those present, called upon Mr. Father Clohecy, who has been so instrumental in the organization and maintenance of this flourishing club. In a few well chosen words, Father Clohecy thanked the young men for the grand co-operation and interest and support they have manifested towards him at all times and which has had considerable to do with the success and progress which has accompanied St. Basil's Young Men's Club since its inception.
In short the evening was most enjoyable and very entertaining. Great credit, indeed, is due to those who were directly responsible for the banquet, and each one left the Club Rooms buoyed up with great hopes for the Club's unlimited success in the near future.

"YOU'LL SUFFER ALL YOUR LIFE"

That's what the Doctor told him
"Fruit-a-tives Cured Him"

CHESTERVILLE, ONT., Jan. 25th 1913
"For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease, and the doctors told me they could do me no good, and that I would be a sufferer for the rest of my life.

I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but none of them suited my case.
Nearly a year ago, I tried "Fruit-atives". I have been using this fruit medicine nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured.

I give "Fruit-a-tives" the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible.

I am now seventy-six years old, and in first class health."

GEO. W. BARKLEY.
In all the world, there is no other remedy that has cured so many cases of so-called "incurable" kidney disease, as "Fruit-a-tives". This famous fruit medicine acts directly on the kidneys—beating and strengthening them—and ridding the system of the waste matter that poisons the blood.

was any disproportionate sickness, but that this splendid institution is now more freely used by residents of the city and county alike.

The members of the board are all busy men, many of them with large interests to look after, but they regard the business of the hospital as something which it is a pleasure and a duty to conserve.

One excellent feature is the inclusion of two representatives from the county and they have proved most valuable in the matter of attendance and advice. The Trades and Labor Council have also been carefully represented and the same is true of the other delegated governors from various bodies.

In Miss Carson and Miss Blott the Board has been exceedingly fortunate in securing the services of two most competent officials.

TEN MILLIONS FOR AGRICULTURE.

Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, introduced last week his bill to encourage agriculture. It provides for an expenditure of ten million dollars spread over ten years and to be spent in co-operation with the provincial governments largely on agricultural education. This means another promise kept by the Borden Government.

In his manifesto of Aug. 14, 1911, before the last election, Mr. Borden said that if he were Premier he would provide for "the granting of liberal assistance to the provinces for the purpose of supplementing, and extending the work of agricultural education, and for the improvement of agriculture."

This was the promise and it is being carried out to a dot. The general plan for co-operation between the provinces was explained by him in his speech.
It follows the recommendations of Mr. C. C. James, former Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, who was appointed to report on a plan for co-operation between the provinces and the Dominion. Mr. James reported in favor of a liberal grant to be spent in agricultural education.

Mr. Burrell made an exceptionally fine speech in explaining his bill and his proposals. The grant starts with an expenditure of $700,000 to be increased by $100,000 a year until 1917, when it reaches $1,100,000. From then until 1923 the amount remains at that sum. There is the plan of distribution of $700,000 for this year.

First $20,000 is to be shared among the veterinary colleges of the country. They are in a sense national institutions and attract students from all parts of the Dominion. This leaves $680,000. Each province irrespective of population gets $20,000 a year.
This is with a view to aiding the smaller provinces which have a large rural population and whose main industry is agricultural. There are nine provinces, which leaves $500,000 still to be divided. This sum is apportioned among the provinces according to population.

The proportion of each province
by this plan is as follows:
1913 Increase 1917-23
Yearly
P. E. I. $26,529.85 $1,306 $31,753.73
N. B. 44,509.93 4,002 64,117.87

DON'T STAY GRAY! SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFULLY

A Mixture of Sage and Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally;
so evenly. It is also splendid to remove dandruff, cure itching scalp and stop falling hair.

Preparing this mixture, though, at home is a messy and troublesome task. For about 50 cents a bottle you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called, "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy."
Some druggists put this mixture up themselves but make it too sticky, so insist you want "Wyeth's" then there will be no disappointment.

You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time.
Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application of two becomes beautifully darkened and more glossy and luxuriant than ever. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and you'll look years younger. Inquiry shows all pharmacists in town here sell lots of it.

The money is to be spent by the provinces on various forms of agricultural education. Wide latitude is allowed in spending the money. Here are some of the avenues of expenditure contemplated:

Establishing agricultural, dairying,
and horticultural schools.

Developing short courses in agriculture.

Agricultural teaching in the elementary schools.

Work by qualified instructors, travelling or located.

Demonstration trains.

Nature study.

Domestic science.

To further develop the work, Mr.
Burrell proposed an annual conference of representatives of the provinces and the Dominion, and also suggested the establishment of a publication office to disseminate information as to agricultural progress.

Mr. Burrell in his exceedingly thoughtful speech showed a splendid grasp of the agricultural problems which face Canada to-day.
"Two problems," he said, "especially confront us to-day, as they confront other nations,—the ever increasing cost of living, with its heavy burdens, and the increase of urban as against rural population.
To analyze their cause is not less difficult than to provide their remedy. Free Trade England is not less afflicted in this respect than countries with protective tariffs. The two things are intimately related. Congestion in the cities is both an economie and a social menace. The swelling of urban population with a diminution in the ranks of the producers has its sequence in the added cost of living, in the increase of squalor, hunger and crime, and—in a country to which thousands of immigrants come—in the concentration of large masses of the foreign born who, when unassimilated and unrelated to our national life, constitute both a political and social danger."

"What is to be done," he contin-ed, "to better the lot of the farmer and keep the young men on the farm. Insofar as this government is concerned we have come to the conclusion that we can best help on this great work by freely and generously assisting the cause of agricultural education. We propose to develop what we call the direct work of the federal department by assisting and developing the live stock, dairying, fruit growing, and other industries,
along the line of investigation, research, improvement in transportation, markets, and so on."

Oh natural gas, trinit of thee I sing,
For when its cold you're a most unnatural thing.

Mr. J. P. Pitcher, the retiring chairman of the Collegiate Board, has proved himself one of the most active and progressive occupants of the post on local record. Dr. Hart, his successor is also an excellent man. If there is anybody more popular in Brantford than "Doc", he hadn't been heard of up to the time of going to press.

CLEANS THE HAIR AND MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

In a few moments your hair looks soft, fluffy, lustrous and abundant—No falling hair or dandruff.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly, long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have, pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Could Not Heal The Wound

For many years Dr. Chase's Ointment has had an enviable reputation as a means of healing ulcers, sores and wounds that refuse to yield to other treatments.

In this letter you will read of a case in which doctors failed to heal a wound made in operating. All sorts of treatments were tried in vain, until Dr. Chase's Ointment came to the rescue and made a cure. Mr. G. E. Leslie, brakeman on the C.P.R., and living at Grand Falls, N.B., writes: "I have given Dr. Chase's Ointment a most severe test, and do not believe there is any treatment so successful as a healer of the skin. I was operated on for a tumor, with the result that a wound was left which refused to heal, in spite of many preparations tried. Dr. Chase's Ointment healed the wound rapidly. So thankful am I for the cure that I want others to know about this wonderful ointment."

Is the New Chairman of the Collegiate—Mr. J. Pitcher Retiring Chairman Receives Much Deserved Praise.

The inaugural meeting of the Brantford Collegiate Board took place at the Institute last night. Present were John P. Pitcher, Dr. Hart, Dr. Palmer, R. E. Ryerson, E. Sweet, G. Pickles, W. H. Lahey, Principal Burt and John Buskard.

Mr. Pitcher, the retiring Chairman, called the Board to order and asked Mr. John Buskard to occupy the chair and call for nominations for Chairman for the ensuing year.

Dr. E. Hart Elected
It was moved by J. P. Pitcher, seconded by R. E. Ryerson, that Dr. E. Hart, be chairman. As there were no further nominations, the doctor was declared Chairman of the Board for 1913 and immediately took his position at the head of the board.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Finance Committee
Mr. G. Pickles read the report of the finance committee, which showed an overdraft of $1,100, caused by a number of unforeseen heavy expenditures during the year, also grants had been given the B. C. I. Cadets, natural history, art specimens, and added to this a half year's grant from the County of Brant was not forthcoming.

Moved by G. Pickles, seconded by Dr. Palmer that the chairman of the finance committee and the secretary-treasurer be a committee to prepare and draft estimates and make the necessary requisition upon the city this year, and that a special meeting be called to consider same.

There being no further business, the retiring chairman, Mr. J. P. Pitcher, arose and asked the members of the board to journey to the Kerby House and partake of a complimentary banquet.

The members thanked Mr. Pitcher for his hospitality, and the meeting then adjourned, and the board took a car to the Kerby House. Here the board was joined by Dr. Frank, who on account of a professional engagement, was unable to attend the meeting at the Collegiate.

Complimentary Banquet
The jolly party then wended their way to the dining room and partook of a dainty complimentary banquet given by the retiring chairman, John P. Pitcher.

After all present had done justice to the good things provided for their use, Dr. Hart called the gathering to order, and it was moved by the speaker, seconded by Robert E. Ryerson, that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered the retiring chairman.

The Doctor spoke in flattering terms of the good work done at the board by Mr. Pitcher and the interest he took in the welfare of the technical classes at the night sessions.

Mr. E. Sweet, Dr. Frank and others complimented Mr. Pitcher for his untiring efforts in bringing the work at the Institute to such a high standard.

Before Mr. Pitcher replied, Mr. E. Sweet spoke on the technical question, and was pleased that the board had succeeded so well in their plans which he said that he would like to see a little more enthusiasm in these matters. Mr. Sweet referred to the great educational work that could be done by having good night classes.

INSTANTLY KILLED
(Courier Leased Wire).
WELLAND, Ont., Feb. 6.—Stach Preck, 30 years of age, was almost instantly killed last evening while alighting from a T. H. and B. train after bidding a couple of friends, who are returning to Russia, farewell. The train was beginning to pick up speed before the unfortunate man noticed it and when he jumped he slipped under the wheels, his right arm being severed and his chest cut open. An inquest will be held.

FIRE LOSSES
(Courier Leased Wire).
TORONTO, Feb. 6.—The Monetary Times' estimate of Canada's fire loss during January, amounted to $3,013,385, compared with December loss of $1,760,005 and $3,002,650 for the corresponding period of last year. The following is the estimate of January losses:

Fires exceeding $10,000: $1,021,506; small fires $1,481,438; estimates for unreported fires $510,441. Total $3,013,385.

This loss has only been exceeded twice during the last two years, viz., in July 1911 when the Forcupine conflagration increased the loss to $5,384,300 and in June 1912 when the destructive Chicoutimi blaze sent the total for that month up to $4,329,472.

During January there were 22 fires where the loss exceeded $10,000, the largest being that which destroyed the Burns' Packing plant at Calgary, Alta., contributed half of the total Ontario's for the month totalled $85,000 and Quebec's only $167,152.

The deaths from fires for the month were relatively few numbering 14, compared with 27 for the same month in each of the three years preceding.

Hamilton had charge of 1,000 men, most of whom are foreigners, engaged in building the new Battleboro, Vermont and Hinsdale, N.H. bridge of the Boston and Maine Railroad. Yesterday was pay day, but the foreman did not handle the money and no motive for the attack upon him is apparent. He was 35 years of age and is survived by a wife, mother and brother, who live in Rochester. The contractors have offered $5000 reward for the detection of the murderers.

SOME CHIEF THIS.
(Courier Leased Wire).
VANCOUVER, Feb. 6.—Since Chief Mulhern took charge of the local police force on the first of this year, more than three hundred gamblers—white, yellow, brown and black—have been arrested and the city's exchequer has been enriched by fines to the extent of more than $80,000.

In the police station there are now more than thirty heavily armed, well made doors, all of them acting until a few days ago as barriers between the police and illegal gamblers.

A few weeks ago one could not make his way down the alleys or streets of Chinatown without being accosted by the runners for the gambling houses. Now this part of the city is as orderly as any other.

I Will Stake This Medicine Against Your Time

A Few Days Will Be Sufficient to Prove That You Are Curable

A few minutes of your time for a few days and I will demonstrate to you, without expense to yourself, that I have a medicine that drives Uric Acid poison from the system and by so doing cures kidney trouble, bladder trouble and rheumatism. I don't ask you to take my word for it, but simply want you to let me send you some of this medicine so that you can use it personally.

I am trying to convince sufferers from these diseases that I have something far better than the usual run of remedies, treatments and such things, and the only way I can demonstrate that fact is by sending you a sample of compounding the medicine and sending it out free of charge. This is my plan to do for any sufferer who will take the time to write me. Understand, I will not send you a so-called "sample" proof or test treatment, nor will I send you a package of medicine and say that you can use some of it and pay for the rest, but I will send you a supply free of charge and you will not be asked to pay for this gift nor will you be under any obligations.

You will agree when you have used it that it dissolves and drives out uric acid poison. It tones the kidneys so that they work in harmony with the bladder. It strengthens the bladder so that frequent desire to urinate and other urinary disorders are banished. It stops rheumatic aches and pains immediately. It dissolves the acid crystals that so back and muscles no longer ache and ache. It reconstructs the blood and nerves so that you feel better and more vigorous, sleep better and eat better and have more energy. It does all this and yet contains nothing injurious and is absolutely pure. Sufferers from these dreadful and dangerous diseases can surely afford to spend a few minutes each day for a drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous droppings in the throat and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in Ely's Cream Balm, and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

few days to demonstrate to their own satisfaction if they are curable, especially when you consider no expense is involved, and I willingly give you my time and my medicine. All any fair-minded afflicted person wants to know is if a certain thing will cure HIM or not, and here is an opportunity to find out without cost, obligation or import-ant loss of time. THESE FEW DAYS may be the turning point in your life.

All who are interested enough to write me for the free medicine will also receive a copy of my large illustrated medical book, which describes these diseases thoroughly. It is the largest book of the kind ever written for free distribution, and a new edition is just being printed. I will also write you a letter of diagnosis and medical advice that should be of great help to you, but in order to do this I must know that you need my medicine. Write me the names of your symptoms that trouble you, and your age, and I will promptly carry out my promise. Show me an inclination to be cured and you will be cured.

EXPERT ADVICE

Money spent on keeping time pieces "on the job" is really a necessary expenditure. Plenty of good watches aren't doing their best work, simply because they can't. Many a fifty or hundred dollar watch is being slowly but surely ruined, because it needs a dollars worth of cleaning. If this reminds you that your watch is in that shape, let it also remind you that our repair dept. can attend to your needs on short notice.

His Avenger

A Story of the Cuban Revolution

By CHRISTOPHER ARNOLD

When I was in college I formed the acquaintance of a young Cuban, with whom I became chummy. His name was Enrique Molina. He was a member of the class ahead of mine, but this did not make any difference in our intimacy. There was a malintencion about Enrique (or Henry) Molina that I did not mind and a gentleness that drew me to him. At that time Cuba was in a state of discontent with Spanish rule which had become chronic, and my chum was greatly interested in the cause of the coming revolution. It seemed to me that if his countrymen should make an effort to throw off the yoke of Spain he would be an active participant. When we parted after graduation Molina exacted a promise from me to visit him, and the next winter I determined to do so. I had some property and thought I might find in Cuba an opportunity to invest in a way to increase it. This idea was vague, but my desire to see my old chum was real.

I found Molina living on his father's plantation. The premonitions of a serious conflict between the Cuban rebels and the Spanish government were much more clearly defined than when we were in college, and Henry's interest in it had also become intensified. But I was surprised to find that he was not openly advocating the Cuban cause. Whether the interest of his family, fearing destruction or confiscation of the estate, prevented him from doing so, I did not know. I judged that the daughter of a neighboring sugar planter had something to do with his failure to come out as an advocate of throwing off Spanish rule. This young lady, Concha Sierra, was the gentlest little bird in the world. She must have carried northern blood in her veins, for she had not the dark complexion of a Cuban. Indeed, she was a veritable blond, with light hair and blue eyes. It occurred to me that she would restrain the man she loved from taking risks, and that she loved Molina was evident to me the moment I saw them together.

I soon found that there was another force drawing Henry in the opposite direction. This was Inez de la Barra, one of a family whose members, all except herself, supported the Spanish cause. Inez was bitter in her advocacy of the Cuban cause. Unlike the Molinas, the La Barras had little or nothing to lose by Spanish antagonism, were poor, though in Spain they had formerly been grandees. It was this latter fact that kept them loyal to Spain. Why Inez sympathized with the Cuban cause I could not understand.

Notwithstanding our intimacy Henry Molina did not give me his confidence in these matters. Evidently there was a rivalry for him between the two girls. The one drew him by silken cords, the other by glistening chains. Inez de la Barra was entirely Spanish. Her complexion was olive, her hair jet black, while over her dark eyes veiled the long lashes of a Spanish woman.

While I was in Cuba General Weyler began his efforts to strangle the revolution by a vigorous prosecution of those who sided and abetted it. Though I knew that Henry Molina was one of its advocates, outwardly he remained neutral. Whether his family or Concha Sierra restrained him I did not know, though I fancied that Senorita Sierra was the chief cause of his remaining inactive. Nevertheless he was much with her rival, and whenever I saw him and Inez together I noticed that they conversed with a great deal of intimacy and usually in a low tone.

These were dangerous times in Cuba. General Weyler had cut off branches from the Spanish government to imprison or execute as he liked, and I felt uneasy for a Cuban who possessed my friendship. Though protected by my United States citizenship, I would have left Cuba had it not been for this little drama in which my chum was playing the principal part. Many on both sides were looking to see for which cause he would declare, and both sides claimed him.

One night as I was going to bed Henry followed me into my room, shut the door and said: "I must leave you here to be entertained by others of my family, for at daylight in the morning I go to put in operation a scheme for which I have been preparing. I have secret information of a force of Spanish troops who are about to make a descent upon a number of prominent Cuban patriots and gather them in for the bloodthirsty Weyler. Joined by some of my neighbors and those they control, we are to oppose the passage of this Spanish force till our friends can arrange either to get away or prepare for defense."

While he spoke I was thinking of the two influences that had been drawing him, the gentle Concha and the aggressive Inez.

"Where did you get your information as to this move of the Spaniards?" I asked.

A singular look came over his face, a look in which I fancied I saw something of doubt, of pain, as he replied: "I have the right to tell you anything that concerns only myself. I have no right to implicate another."

"Well," I added, "you have taken sides at last. I hope you have decided for the best."

"That remains to be seen."

We parted with a firm hand grip. I went to bed, but not to sleep.

There was a faint glimmer of dawn at the windows when I heard sounds without—the tread of horses' hoofs, men talking. Then there was a loud rap on the main door below. It was not answered and was followed by a kick. Then a window was shattered.

I arose, threw on a double gown and went downstairs. The hall was lighted and filled with Spanish soldiers, dressed, and as I looked was marched away. It was plain to me what had happened. The wily governor had through his spies learned of his contemplated move, nipped it in the bud and possessed himself of its leader.

My view of Henry Molina passing out of his home to go to prison ended my immediate cognizance of what was leading up to a tragedy. If I could have got my friend out of the clutches of General Weyler I would have taken some chances to do so. It seemed wise for me to depart and leave the struggle going on in Cuba to those directly interested. So I sailed away from Havana and felt that I could draw a free breath as soon as I was out of the harbor.

But the blowing up of the Maine gave our people an interest in the Cuban struggle for independence that led to its attainment, and I was one of those who went to the island for the purpose. It was not till it was all over and I had been mustered out of the United States service that I returned to Cuba with a view to learning what had become of Henry Molina.

I gathered the story gradually. The first part of it I heard was that Henry had been taken to Morro castle at Havana and had been condemned to death, but had escaped the day before he was to have been executed. How he escaped I did not learn, but it was reported that a boy some seventeen or eighteen years old had visited his prison and managed to convey to him saws with which to remove a bar in his window. He had joined the revolutionary forces, but had done more for the cause in other ways than as a commander. This I could understand, remembering his education at an American university.

The next chapter in the story was that Inez de la Barra had been found on the grounds of her home with a bullet hole in her left breast and in a dying condition. She had been assassinated, but could not or would not tell who had been her assassin. It was well known, however, that she had been a spy of General Weyler, and the Molina plantation having been confiscated by the Spanish government, she had received a large sum of money. Lastly, I heard that my chum had regained possession of his estate, his father having died, and the son had just been married to Concha Sierra.

Naturally I put these facts together and filled out the story in my own way, but I could not tell how far I was right or how far wrong. I lost no time in going to the Molina plantation, where I found the owner recovering, where I found the privations he had endured since I had parted with him. He was rejoiced to see me, and after I had been received by his wife, he took me apart and told me that Inez de la Barra had entrapped him and caused his arrest. He gave me a surprise when he said that Concha had been the means of his escape from Morro castle, having gone there disguised and bribed a guard to give her secret access to her lover.

All this interested me, but the climax to the drama, the assassination of Senorita de la Barra, was what I wished to have explained.

"Who killed the woman who betrayed you?" I asked.

A singular expression came over Henry's face in which I fancied there was something of pain. He turned his eyes away from me and did not reply.

"One question," I added, "and I will ask no more. Surely you did not do this deed?"

"No," he replied. "I did not."

I made my own inference as to who had avenged her, but since I may be mistaken and do not wish to name the wrong person, I leave my reader to make his or her own inference.

DOOMED MAN'S SHIP.

Japanese Murderer's Last Toy a Remarkable Piece of Work.

Of the making of curious ship-models—as of books—there is no end. Every bona fide sailor retired from sea is as certain to possess a model of some sort of a favorite vessel as he is sure to have an anchor tattooed upon his brawny arm. In the design and materials of such models much ingenuity is customarily displayed. Everyone has seen the favored nautic decoration of a full-rigged ship enclosed in a bottle of glass, and puzzle models and models that are entitled to rank in the freak class or otherwise are "too numerous to mention." For novelty of materials, delicacy and thoroughness of design, and strange incidental circumstance, a model which at present adorns a table in the office of British Columbia's Attorney-General, Hon. W. J. Bowser, would, however, be hard indeed to outclass. It is a steamer model, true in every detail of line, housework and equipment. The maker was the Japanese Takahashi, executed at the Kamloops jail in early August for the shooting of a compatriot named Omori, the sequel of a bunkhouse jangle chiefly produced by drink. Takahashi was an ex-sailor and so soon as he was placed in the condemned cell to await the execution of his crime on the scaffold, employed his time in modelling two ships, one of which he expressed a wish to have sent to the Hon. Mr. Bowser after his execution, with his compliments. It was accordingly forwarded by Warden Viers, who, in an accompanying letter, wrote: "I am sending you by express the model of a steamer made by Takahashi, who was executed two weeks ago. I may say that it is entirely made of scraps of wire with the exception of a little thread for the wireless aerials and rigging, and that it is glued together with the prisoner's porridge. He had no knife or scissors, only bits of thin paper and porridge and a little thread. I consider it a very clever piece of work. I have one myself, but it is not nearly as good as this. We gave him a little paint to finish it up with." Takahashi's crime was the shooting of another Japanese lumber camp worker, K. Omori, at Furber, near Kamloops, on April 27, last. Both had been drinking, and Takahashi's explanation was that Omori had repeatedly bullied and beaten him, finally attacking him with a knife. He added: "I shot, not intending to kill or shoot him, but only to scare him."

Road Building in Alberta.

Work has been completed on Alberta's new trail from Edmonton north, and it is possible to drive an automobile to Athabasca, Alta., 100 miles, in four and a half hours. Permanent is the keynote of the improvement, which is being carried on under the direction of John Stocks, Deputy Minister of Public Works for Alberta. J. R. Boyle, a member of the Provincial Parliament, also has devoted much time to the work.

The Provincial Government has made large expenditures in the Athabasca district during the last few years. It is more difficult to build good roads in this district than in other parts where there is no timber. The rapid development of the country on every side has created a constant demand for wagon roads. The work accomplished this season is far more comprehensive than that of any previous year, especially in converting old trails into wagon roads. The main freight roads are being put into condition following the heavy traffic of last summer.

The road work at and near Athabasca has been extensive and will afford better transportation facilities than ever. The road from the landing to Willey and Hayes has been completed.

Calls Metal Canadian.

A Scotchman, A. G. French, has discovered a new element in the Nelson district of British Columbia. The metal, to which the discoverer gives the name "Canadium," belongs to the group of elements of which platinum and palladium are members. It occurs comparatively abundantly in certain minerals in the form of grains of varying dimensions.

Various samples that have been assayed yielded from about one-sixth of an ounce to three and a half ounces to the ton. The metal seems to be unaffected by moisture, and it is impossible to make it tarnish or oxidize in a blowpipe. It is more ductile and more malleable than lead and its melting-point is lower than that of this metal.

Scalps of the new metal have been sent to the University of Glasgow for further study. The element seems to be quite distinct from platinum, palladium, ruthenium, and osmium, and the mine from which it was taken appears to be rich in other metals of this group.

The serious illness of Lt.-Col. H. R. Smith has removed for the time being a picturesque figure from the House of Commons. Visitors to the House will readily recall to memory the soldierly figure of the Sergeant-at-Arms, whose breast covered with medals and his sword trailing by his side. The Sergeant has seen many prominent men flash over the political horizon, some to shoot like comets across the sky of public affairs, and others to remain fixed stars. For forty-one years Col. Smith has been in the service of the House. He was appointed Deputy Sergeant in 1872, and for the last twenty-one years he has borne the Mace before the Speaker. He is a Fenian Raid veteran, and saw service in the Northwest Rebellion, where he gained the honor of being "mentioned in despatches."

NAME, ADDRESS,

functions of "Poetry House." The man who has planned and will carry it on is a poet himself, and no ordinary poet either. His name is Harold Munro, and he has published three volumes of poetry, so far, extracts from which have been deemed by Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch worthy of a place in the New Oxford Anthology, which "Q" has edited. Munro is an enthusiast on the subject of poetry and some time ago started a monthly devoted to eulogy and expression of the art which is called the "Poetry Review." Until a while back he edited it at Danmoo—famous for the "blitches" of bacon given there to folk who can prove that they are happy though married—but a short time ago he decided to give the "Review" a London home. Meanwhile he reflected that there was small use in urging the public to read the world's poetry unless there was some place where the public could be sure of obtaining it (which one can't at the ordinary bookshop) and thus came the idea of combining poetry-factory with poetry-shop, which Munro expressed as follows:

"We want poetry to become articulate. Poetry is meant to be heard. There are hundreds of people who do not care for poetry simply because it has never been brought before them in the right way. In our Poetry Bookshop if a purchaser is at a loss what to buy, we will advise him or he can hear the poetry he wishes to buy read aloud by someone who loves and understands it. Or he can come to our poetry recitals, which will be held twice a week, to which all interested will be welcome. We hope that the Poetry House will do for poetry what concerts do for music and art exhibitions for painting."

Now, however, for the most picturesque feature of all in connection with the Poetry House. Not content with booming poetry and selling the works of poets, Munro is prepared to take bards as lodgers. Yes, actually he is going to "let apartments"—to poets only. It seems that when he had fitted up his poetic clearing house on the ground floor of the building on Devonshire street, and established his editorial sanctum on the one above, two more floors remained available, so what idea popped into this poet's mind, but that of fixing up the rest of his stronghold as apartments for poets, where bards who were weary of uninspiring lodgings and garrulous landlords might seek rest and refuge. No sooner said than done. Bedrooms of austere simplicity were fitted up in "Poetry House," and Munro has a number of poets as lodgers already, though he declines to mention their names nor to disclose if they are "minor" or "major."

He that judgeth of all things as they are, and not as they are said or taught of God rather than of men.—Thomas A. Kempis.

A "POETRY HOUSE."

London, Feb. 6.—Poetry purveyed and poets "put up." This is a pleasantly alliterative proclamation that might be posted up over the portals—go on with "ps"—of something really unique in way of a bookshop, which recently was opened in London.

"Leave prose behind all ye who enter here," might appropriately be added, for the new "Poetry Bookshop" or "Poetry House," as it will be called, which is situated in Devonshire street, Bloomsbury, and which was opened by that distinguished versifier, Professor Henry Newbolt, will deal in the outpourings of bards and in no other form of literature. The poetry of the whole world will be on sale there, and one will only have to mention the name of a versifier, whether he sings in St. John's Wood, in Kankakee, or in Nazasaki, to have a complete set of his works placed before one and to hear excerpts read from them, if the would be purchaser is "so disposed," by an expert elocutionist. During the process of selection, moreover, the customer may rest at his (or her) ease on a luxurious "settee" of the pre-Victorian pattern, for the "Poetry House" is the last word in artistic cosiness, having been designed by Romney Green, on eighteenth century lines.

To be an almost ideal poetry shop, however, is only one of the destined

The Woman's Century

A noted French writer in a recent article on the feminist movement said that the twentieth was to be undoubtedly the woman's century. Anyone who is watching at all closely the trend of events cannot but admit that this is true. The world over, women are arising and throwing off the bonds of centuries and marching onward to a freer, fuller life. The other afternoon at the Women's Club there was a short symposium on Olive Schreiner's book "Women and Labor." One of the members read the author's dream in which she sees a woman as a huge beast tied to the earth but at last awakening and struggling painfully to her feet. Never has the position of woman been so forcibly portrayed. Another member drew attention to the fact that man can rise no higher than woman, so strongly are they tied together. Olive Schreiner shows this also in her dream for the bonds of the woman extend to the man standing beside her who struggles and hinders her efforts to rise, not through oppression, but through ignorance. This is also profoundly true. Man too often hinders because he does not understand the motive of her unrest and the consequences of her emancipation. If he understood he would help and not hinder.

Suppose we look for a moment at this movement and try to shed a little light on it for the benefit of our Canadian brethren. Havelock Ellis in his book, which every man and woman should read "The Task of Social Hygiene," says: "The commercial and industrial system and the general diffusion of education that has accomplished it, and which also has its roots in economic causes has been the chief motive force in revolutionizing the status of women." They have come to see that in justice to themselves, to their husbands, to their children, they must move onward to a newer and higher platform. As it is now the man with five or six daughters is looked upon with compassion and men and women alike wonder if the mother will succeed in finding husbands for them all. This is a wrong point of view and one which the advanced women of the day are protesting against by making daughters economically independent as sons. An educated, enlightened, self-supporting womanhood is as advantageous to the men of the race as it is to the women, and the Canadian women look to the example of the English women to this high ideal—Agnès Chestley in the "Montreal Daily Star."

CURES RHEUMATISM

Quickly Eases Stiff, Sore Swollen Swollen Joints and Muscles—Drives Rheumatic Pains Away.

It is needless to suffer any longer with rheumatism, and be crippled up, and bent out of shape with its heart-wrenching pains, when you can easily avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak, inactive kidneys, that fail to filter from the blood, the poisonous waste matter and uric acid; and it is useless to rub on liniments or take ordinary remedies to relieve the pain. This only prolongs the misery and can't possibly cure you.

The only way to cure rheumatism is to remove the cause. The new discovery, Croxone, does this because it neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped up, inactive kidneys, so they can filter the poison from the blood, and drive it on and out of the system.

Croxone is the most wonderful medicine ever made for curing chronic rheumatism, kidney troubles, and bladder disorders. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered, it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find relief from the first few doses, and you will be surprised how quickly all your misery and suffering will end.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle at any first class drug store. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive money-back guarantee. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst back-ache or overcome urinary disorders.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed hearing is a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, Send for circulars, free.

HE COULD NOT HOLD A CUP OF TEA

Doctors Agree Toronto Nurse Had Bright's Disease.
Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her After Five Years Suffering—Felt a Benefit After First Box.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 3.—(Special)—Mrs. Alberta Giffin, a nurse living at 40 Wright Ave., this city, has been interviewed in regard to her reported cure of nervous or kidney trouble by Dodd's Kidney Pills. She states that the report is true in every particular.
"My sickness," Mrs. Giffin says, "was caused from a nervous breakdown and what the doctors called incurable Bright's Disease brought on by cold and long weeks of nursing. I suffered for five years.
"I was treated by three doctors and was a patient in two hospitals but gradually got weaker. Reading the experiences of other sufferers like myself led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. At that time I was so weak and nervous I could not hold a cup of tea without spilling some of its contents.
"I felt a benefit after taking the first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and eight or nine boxes cured me completely. I can now walk a mile without fatigue.
"If you haven't used Dodd's Kidney Pills yourself almost any of your neighbors will tell you they always cure Kidney Disease in any form.

Rev. Mr. Morrow preached in the evening, his text being found in Isaiah 55: 1. The music for the day was especially good. Solos were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Cook and Miss Vera Heaman. Both of Brantford. The choruses by the choir were appropriate and well rendered. Anniversary services will be held on February 16th. Rev. Mr. Foote of Fonthill, who was a former pastor on this circuit, will conduct the services.
League was held on Monday evening, Miss Annie Hawley occupied the chair. A paper on "The Bible" was read by Rev. Mr. Morrow.

About sixty of their old friends and neighbors took the opportunity of giving them a royal send-off and wishing them God-speed in their new surroundings, and a very pleasant evening was spent in games and dancing, after which a bounteous supper-was served and the jovial host and his hospitable wife were presented with a fine oak rocker to carry with them for comfort to their new home. The following was the address read:

To Mr. and Mrs. Cole:

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Lady Marjorie's Love

CHAPTER VI The blinds were still down at Castle Marling. The funeral was over; the last Earl of Marlingford lay in the great family vault in the green depths of the park, which had last been opened fifteen years ago to receive the body of his young wife, but the Earl's comes no one had attempted to let light into the sombre stately old rooms. Her ladyship had given no orders, and there would be time enough for that by-and-by, the servants in authority said. The reaction, the hysterical return to cheeriness, which so generally marks the day following a funeral had not taken place at the Castle. Men and women clustered in corners, whispered to each other mysteriously, with wondering and uneasy faces. Something unknown, threatening, was in the very air, vaguely eloquent of disaster. More than one had made excuses to cross the hall that they might glance cautiously and curiously at the curtain shrouded door of the library, wondering what it was that her ladyship that Mr. Petherick could be discussing there alone.

Marjorie was not there; she lay on a sofa in her darkened room, motionless and mute. Since the shock of her father's death, the girl had been like one stupefied; beyond the one crushing dread fact, she had ceased to realise nothing and cared to realise nothing. She had scarcely asked a question, even when told of the circumstances of her father's death, but had listened with a dull apathy that seemed motionless. Not in the midst of a conversation with his wife had he dropped back gasping on his pillows, and was dead before the startled servants could respond to their mistress's loud summons on the bell. Terribly sudden, appalling even, as the death was, it was the death which had long ago been prophesied by his doctors as the probable end of Lord Marlingford. Since his youth the heart had been affected—affected in a way which science could not help—and which time could only render worse. As he had died now he had been liable to die any time in any day in the next twenty years. If there was anything to marvel at it was that, with such a sword over his head and ever ready to fall, he had yet lived to complete his fifty-second year.

The door of Marjorie's room opened softly and some one came gently on tiptoe to the side of her sofa. Jack sat up with a slight remonstratory growl, but his mistress, although she slightly moved her head upon the pillow, did not open her eyes. The movement had been enough to show that she was not sleeping, and the intruder—her ladyship, she had seemed to say—her ladyship sent me to say would you come down to the library, please.

"What do you say, Alice?" Marjorie sat up, putting her hand to her eyes for the brilliant shaft of sunlight which pierced through the slats of the closed blind dazzled her. "The Countess wants me," she asked vaguely. "Yes, if you please, my lady. If you were not asleep would you go down at once, I was to say," returned the girl.

"Yes, very well." Marjorie rose slowly, with a shiver as though she were cold, and stood apathetically still while Alice's deft fingers straightened the tumbled folds of her black dress. The paleness of her small face made her brown eyes look pathetically big, dark, and wistful; her rosy coloring, her brightness and dimples were gone. She shook her head when the maid would have arranged her tumbled hair, and pulled herself away.

"Oh never mind Alice. What does it matter?" she said wearily. "I don't care how I look, I never shall care any more, I think. Did you say the Countess was in the library?" "Yes, my lady, with Mr. Petherick."

"Mr. Petherick?" Some faint surprise appeared in her face as she echoed the lawyer's name. "Why should he come to-day I wonder? He was here yesterday. I suppose it is because I did not see him then. It is business of course, but I wish he had let it wait a little longer." All this she had said, but now at the door she turned and addressed the maid. "I am so wretchedly confused, Alice, my head aches so that I don't know what has really happened and what has not. Mr. Bight has left, I think?" "Oh, yes, my lady. The dog cart took him to the station in time for the twelve o'clock train."

"That is what he said when I saw him last night. I remember now." Marjorie murmured wearily, leaving the room. Worn out and stupefied by her sorrow, she had, in truth, not felt sure but that her last night's short interview with her lover had not been part of some disordered dream.

MRS. SCOTT'S SUFFERING OVER

Doctors Advised An Operation. How She Escaped Told By Herself.

Buckner, Mo.—"For more than a year I suffered agonies from female troubles and the doctors at last decided there was no help for me unless I went to the hospital for an operation. I was awfully against that operation, and as a last resort wrote to you for special advice and I told you just what I suffered with bearing down pains, backache, shooting pains in my left side, and at times I could not touch my foot to the floor without screaming. I was short of breath, had smothered spells, felt dull and draggy all the time. I could not do any work, and oh how I dreaded to have an operation.

"I received a letter full of kind advice, which I followed, and if I had only written her a year ago I would have saved so much suffering, for today I am a well woman. I am now keeping house again and do every bit of my own work. Every one in this part of the country knows it was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that has restored me to health, and everywhere I go I recommend it to suffering women."—Mrs. Lizzie Scott, Buckner, Mo.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HOCKEY

In what proved to be a fast although rather rough game of hockey the Bank of Hamilton Hockey Team defeated the J. H. Hall and Sons, by the score of 4 to 0 at the Alfred St. Rink last evening.

Although the losers were much the heavier, they lacked team work, and with a little more practice should give a better account of themselves.

The Bank of Hamilton proved to be a well balanced team and play good combination. Line up and players: Goal, Cleator; point, Lonni; cover point, Schaefer; rover, McGraw; centre, Beckett; left wing, Pearce; right wing, Simpson.

Toronto 2, Ottawa 0.

TORONTO, Feb. 6.—Toronto started their long stretch of losing games last night at the Arena with a victory, blanking Ottawa by 2 to 0. The score does not indicate the play, the locals having the better of it by a good margin. Lesueur, in goal for the Senators, saved Ottawa from a worse defeat.

In back checking the locals had it all over the visitors, the Senators contenting themselves with loafing, for none of which they were penalized. On the other hand the local forwards were of great assistance to the defence. In this respect McGiffen was the star.

Quebec 4, Wanderers 3

QUEBEC, Feb. 6.—Last evening the Stanley Cup holders turned the tables on their old rivals, the Wanderers by defeating them by the close margin of one goal, the match ending Quebec 4, Wanderers 3. The first period was hotly contested, the play being both fast and even, the Wanderers having slightly the better of it, but in the other periods the Quebec men were well to the fore.

Royes, the Wanderer's goalkeeper, was given a major penalty for hitting "Bad Jack" Hall over the head with his stick. Both teams played creditable combination during the match and despite the fast pace there was little roughness and few penalties.

A Regular Donnybrook

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—In a game, starting under the rules of the National Hockey Association, and finishing under the rules of the Marquis of Queensbury, with certain amendments, the Tecumsehs fought their way to a 5 to 4 victory over the Canadiens at the Arena last night.

From start to finish the play was marked with unnecessary roughness, which is best shown by the penalty list. The real fireworks started when Laviolette, after being cross checked by Vair, rushed across the ice and struck him over the head with his stick. Shortly after this foul was committed Vair and Donald Smith started another fight by mixing it up at the face-off, and went at it. Both were ruled off. Smith was evidently not satisfied with this and decided to continue the fight by skating over to the Tecumsehs' bench, when he again started in with Vair. This brought about a general mix-up, and had it not been for the better judgment of the officials in charge of the game it might have ended seriously.

Referee Eddie Phillips and his assistant, Reg. Percival, rushed in among the fighting players and separated them as best they could, while one or two of the police officers on duty lent their assistance in restoring order, so that the remaining few minutes of the match could be played out.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—London O. H. A. intermediates defeated Paris team here last night 8 to 0.

The game was fast and provided many features. The score at half time was 4 to 1 in favor of the Tecumsehs who, by the way, proved that they can "come back" when there is a real referee officiating at the game. The outcome of this game now puts the London team right in the running for the group championship. Referee Caldwell had little difficulty to catch the little over-skating and offside tactics of the visitors. He sent every offending player to the penalty box without hesitancy.

BASEBALL

Edward McKernan, manager of the Battle Creek South Michigan League Baseball Club, has offered five of his best players to the London Club. Since the low salary limit under which the newly organized Michigan League will work this season it has been found impossible to carry the players they have in the past seasons. This is the reason for the proposed deal with the London club. The players offered for sale include an outfielder, two infielders, a pitcher and a catcher as follows:

Gilbert, outfielder, who hit .302 last season.

Norcabba, a right-handed pitcher, who won 18 games out of 28.

Potts, utility infielder, who batted over .285 and stole 40 bases in the South Michigan League last season.

Callahan, shortstop, a fast man and fair hitter. His average in 1912 was .272.

Nevitt, a young catcher, one of the most promising shortstops in the League; built on the style of Snyder, who was bought from Flint last season by the St. Louis Nationals.

These players will be unloaded by the Battle Creek club to teams which will pay the most for them, because the salary limit will not warrant carrying them this season.

President Stevely has forwarded the communication to Manager Denau, who is acquainted with the whole situation in the South Michigan League, and in all probability something will be arranged for the best players in this batch.

Neale's Friend Writes.

A friend of Oskia Neale, a big first baseman, has written to the London club for a tryout next spring. Gilles is the player's name and he is not merely a youngster, but a man who has played in the Blue Grass and Mountain leagues. He stands six feet high and weighs 165 pounds. His letter comes from Parkersburg, W. Va., where Oskia is going to college; but Gilles' home is in Belpre, Ohio.

BOWELS BAD, LIVER TORPID? CASCARETS

IF CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, STOMACH SOUR, GET A 10 CENT BOX OF CASCARETS.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, a bad taste, foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy disordered stomach or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse and regulate the stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—do good—never gripe or sicken.

HOW TO PRESERVE YOUTH AND BEAUTY.

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such for instance, as "The People's Common Sense Medical Advice," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressing Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

The womanly system is a delicate machine which can only be compared to the intricate mechanism of a beautiful watch which will keep in good running order only with good care and the proper oiling at the right time, so that the delicate mechanism may not be worn out. Very many times young women get old or run down before their time through ignorance and the improper handling of this human mechanism. Mental depression, a confused head, backache, headache, or hot flashes and many symptoms of derangement of the womanly system can be avoided by a proper understanding of what to do, in those trying times that come to all women.

Mrs. G. H. Williams, of Lynnhaven, Va., wrote: "It is six years since my health gave way. I had female trouble and all the doctors (I employed three) said I would die. I was not able to do my work, had to hire someone all the time. Finally, I read in the paper about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and decided to try it. I had not taken but one bottle until I found it had done me good. I took in all five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am able to do all my household work, and have gained fourteen pounds. I advise all women who suffer from female trouble to try your 'Favorite Prescription.' It's the only medicine on earth."
