He Exposes Sectionalism Cry by Which R. B. Bennett Hopes to Secure Election in Calgary.

Dealing With Question of C. P. R. Taxation He Said: "I Will Take C. P. R. Solicitor at His Word, and Am Quite Willing to Impose on the C. P. R. a Tax of Not $60,000, but $120,000."—Dr. McIntyre Delivers Rousing Speech—Liberal Candidate Will Win Wetaskiwin.

Bulletin Special
Wetaskiwin, March 16.—A crowd of about 2,000 people gathered in support of the candidature of Mr. Chas. Olin, the Liberal nominee. It was very enthusiastic character and the repeated cheers that were given for Mr. Olin and the Rutherford government augurs well for the success of Liberalism next Monday.

The candidate, Mr. Olin, was the first speaker. He said he had always taken a straight party line, but his opponent, J. G. Anderson, was towing the district-uttering all kinds of slanders and insinuations. Last fall he labelled himself as a farmer's candidate, although he was running on a ticket principally composed of Socialists and anarchists. Mr. Anderson's success in that, so he went after the Conservative nomination and then entered the field as an independent, and then an independent.

Last fall Mr. Anderson had a sorry platform, and he had a worse one now. Last year he said he was in favor of abolishing the liquor law, which might perhaps suit Mr. Anderson, but none of the other electors of the district.

In this election there are seven constituencies north of the Red Deer line out of a total of 41, thus again making 41 per cent. of representation north of Red Deer. If the vote population north of Red Deer was 41 per cent., and the constituencies north of Red Deer were 41 per cent., how could the Conservatives justify the claim that representation was not according to population?

Dr. McIntyre paid a splendid tribute to the schools of Alberta, which he said were incomparably better than those of the other provinces. For that

PREMIER BRANDS BENNETT'S STATEMENTS AS UNTRUTHS

THE PROVINCE BEFORE PARTY.
"I appeal to you for the elimination of selfish and partisan considerations. I appeal to you, not as a Liberal or Conservative, but as Albertan. The Province must stand before party."—Premier Rutherford at Clareholm.

The province first of all! No narrow creed, no time-serving critics, jealousy and hate. The baser thoughts that meaner minds create, Must rob Alberta of her golden mead!

The province first of all! No envious greed Of slanders' tongues, each seeking pride of place, Honor and truth forgotten, past all trace, Can stem the tide nor victory impede.

The province first of all, while years shall roll! No sordid aims, in selfish spirit born, Urged by a party, leader or reform, Can hide the splendor of the distant goal!

The province first of all, for weal or woe! True to her utmost, time-serving critics, Her citizens obey the Premier's call, And challenge the advance of every foe!

GERMANY CHALLENGES GREAT BRITAIN'S SUPREMACY ON SEA

Premier Asquith's Pronouncement Strikes Consternation Into House of Commons. Two-Power Standard Already Lost by Germany's Great Naval Expansion. England Must Drain Her Resources to Maintain a One-Power Supremacy.

London, Mar. 17.—Not within living memory has the House of Commons been so profoundly agitated as it was by Premier Asquith's statement last night regarding the Anglo-German naval rivalry. His pronouncement, when speaking of the new Dreadnaughts, that "Great Britain's 'two-power standard' was gone, and that Germany's rate of progress England would find all her resources to maintain a one power standard," was listened to in stupefaction.

The Radical element had planned a vigorous protest against the Premier's speech, but no one was allowed to speak.

Mr. Asquith said that the government had given the distinct declaration that this declaration was to be maintained, and that the government would not correct a programme based on the assumption that this declaration was to be maintained. It must, however, be admitted that Great Britain no longer enjoyed the superiority in ship tonnage which she thought she held, and this vast, horrible, devastating and sterilizing expenditure was a supreme necessity of national security.

BOSTON EXPRESS CRASHES INTO A MONTREAL STATION

Huge Engine Plunges Through Stone Wall of Windsor Station Into the Waiting Room. Five Already Known to be Killed and Others Are Thought to be Buried in the Debris of the Wreck. Explosion of Ejector Incapacitated Engineer and Fireman.

Montreal, Mar. 17.—At a speed of forty miles an hour the Boston Express, on its way to Montreal, plunged through the stone wall of Windsor station into the waiting room. Five already known to be killed and others are thought to be buried in the debris of the wreck.

The train was moving northward on the Windsor branch, which runs parallel to the main line. The engine, tender and baggage car were smashed out of recognition, presenting a scene beyond description.

At the present time it is known at least that one girl and woman is dead, and several were severely injured, a dozen more or less seriously injured.

Crashed Through Flooring.
The tender and front part of the baggage car crashed through the flooring and are half way between the Orleans street level of the station and Donagha street. The injured are: Mark Cunningham, engineer, from Montreal West, compound fracture of the skull, will probably die, unknown to the police; Robert Buckingham, 54 Clarke avenue, Westmount, scalp wounds and internal injuries, may recover; Cecilia Dele, Indian girl from Caughnawaga, scalp wounds, bruises and internal injuries, ear almost torn off, broken ribs and wounds; William Paine, 304 St. Andre street, ribs fractured and may recover; Alice Goodleaf, Indian girl from Caughnawaga, struck by falling debris, injured about head and shoulders; C. R. Christie, Cowansville, slightly injured.

Unconfirmed reports say that several children are buried in the basement under the wreck.

Cause of the Accident.
The only cause known for the wreck is the fact that the injector or other apparatus exploded, knocking the engine high on the tracks, injuring the fireman so severely as to make it impossible for him to get the engine under control. The rest of the crew stuck to their posts and attempted to stop the train using the emergency brakes unsuccessfully.

Later returns say that three are known to be killed. They are the un-

TO MOVE ON BELGRADE.

Austria Preparing to Administer Spanking to Serbia.

Paris, March 16.—La Liberté says today that it has learned from a reliable source that the Austrian government has been making preparations for three days to occupy Belgrade, the capital of Serbia, as well as bringing about a solution of the present difficulty.

Powers Will Remain Neutral.
Berlin, March 16.—Reports received at the foreign office today concerning the Austrian relations with regard to Hungary and Serbia indicate that the crisis is still acute. Austria-Hungary is about to make another effort at Belgrade with an object of bringing Serbia's view to accord with her own. The nature of these representations not disclosed, but it can be said that the dual monarchy will demand a clear explanation of Serbia's intentions. Officially, it is said that if Serbia makes this, the negotiations will pursue a peaceful course, but that if not, hostilities are inevitable and the present passing of military supplies through the Dardanelles.

Mr. Blow, M. S. McCarty and R. Bennett were the speakers, but it was to hear the most heralded bomb explosion of the last named that the majority were present, only to be disappointed. Mr. Bennett had bluffed long and well, but when that bluff was called last night he fell down. He had promised to let how the Calgary election had been stolen from him four years ago, but last night he was compelled to admit that he had stolen it entirely alone and confine himself to the Gleichen by-election, which has been already threatened until it is now in the ancient history class.

Yet so well did he cover his retreat and smother up his come down in an overwhirl of words and picturesque language that by the time he had reached the end of his harangue on subject of the Gleichen election, whether he meant the Gleichen by-election, the last Calgary election or the coming election on the 22nd.

Perhaps the most serious of his misrepresentations was when Attorney-General Cross and his relations to the Canadian Northern were dealt with by Mr. Bennett.

Waving a list of cases in which the Canadian Northern had been forced to prove that the firm of which Mr. Cross is a member was still acting for the railroad in question. Mr. Bennett had a list of cases all right, but he had no dates. If they were there they were not mentioned, and the reasons of these cases being ignored were that since the firm of Short, Cross & Biggar had severed their connection with the Canadian Northern there had been no cases of litigation against or instituted by the railroad.

As a masterly bluff the statement was superb, but it did not show that Short, Cross & Biggar did not sever their connection as agents for the solicitors of the Canadian Northern at the time that the government first entered the negotiations with the railroad for the guarantee of its bonds.

Says "Liar," But Has No Proof.
Although the speaker called Mr. Cross a liar, he was unable to prove his statement, and the statement of the Attorney-General, that his firm absolutely severed all connections with the Canadian Northern and its subsidiaries, and that he was guarantying the company's bonds was broached, still stands undenied and uncontradicted.

Mr. Bennett also made an exposure of certain alleged shortcomings and triflings with ballot boxes during the by-elections between E. H. Riley and C. W. L. Walsh. He spoke of mishandled ballots, showed some of them, declared the boxes had been tampered with and that one box had been filed open. Mr. Bennett said he could get names of the voters who had filed the lock and that although he would not yet expose the names of the guilty parties he would do so at a higher tribunal.

CALLS HIM LIAR WITHOUT PROOF

R. B. Bennett Fiercely Assails Attorney-General. Political Bomb Did Not Explode.

Calgary, March 16.—The Conservative meeting at the Lyric Theatre last night was the largest of the campaign up to the present time. The advance notice that a political bomb was to be exploded was a good advertisement. Mandates were turned away and an overflow meeting at the Lyric Theatre was well filled.

Dr. Blow, M. S. McCarty and R. Bennett were the speakers, but it was to hear the most heralded bomb explosion of the last named that the majority were present, only to be disappointed. ### TO WITHHOLD AID TO C. N. R.

Fort William Appeals to Governments to Bring Canadian Northern to Time.

Fort William, Mar. 16.—The city council held a special meeting last night and passed resolutions asking the provincial and federal governments to give no aid to the C. N. R. until a daily passenger mail and freight service is inaugurated between Winnipeg and Fort William, and the terms of the Dominion bonus exalted. Another motion asked the authorities to take steps to have stations erected on the C. N. R. in adjoining townships and to supply transportation facilities, as the lack of cars to convey produce and livestock has caused the farmers considerable loss.

Germany Forced Naval Expansion.
London, March 16.—Naval Minister McKenna, discussing the navy estimates for 1909-10, said that the Government intended to increase the size of the fleet by the addition of four more battleships and four more cruisers.

MORE RIGID INSPECTION.

POSTAL DEPARTMENT STRIKE.

In France is Effectively Tying Up Services.
Paris, March 16.—The general strike of telegraph, telephone and postal employees of the state was not fully effective this afternoon, but the men, although at their posts, effectively tied up the service, doing little or no work. Early this afternoon it was apparent that the strike was extending. Mail trains are inadequately equipped and in some instances they had to be abandoned. It was admitted that telegraph communication with Vienna, Germany, Frankfurt, Berlin, Marseilles and Milan was interrupted and that there was great delay in communication with London. Letters and telegrams from the province are not delivered. The measures proposed by Mr. Simon have been unanimously approved by the cabinet. The government shows no signs of yielding. On the contrary, Mr. Simon, under secretary of the state, announced that such a revolt on the part of the servants of the state cannot be tolerated. Every official refusing to work or disobeying the regulations will be dismissed without the usual appearance before a court of discipline. There is reason to believe that the cabinet will forbid further meetings of postal employees, temporarily on the ground that such gatherings endanger the public service.

C. N. R. IN NORTHERN ONTARIO.

Mackenzie Will Build Line for Land and Cash Bonus.
Toronto, March 16.—The Canadian Northern railway is to ask the Ontario government for a subsidy of 2,000 acres a mile and $3,000 cash a mile for building the extension of its road from Sellywood north of Sudbury to Fort Arthur, a distance of 50 miles. This means 200,000 acres and $1,500,000 cash. Wm. Mackenzie, president of the railway, said tonight that he considers the terms proposed very reasonable. He says the Ontario government is very anxious to open up the north country which is the only clay left in the wilderness and that the government has made overtures to the government to build the line.

PITTSBURG SCANDAL PROBED.

Grat Charges Are Being Aired and Many Arrests Are Expected.
Pittsburg, Pa., March 15.—Today the county grand jury in a special session began its probing of the scandal and before the day was over, not less than a dozen of the leading business world had been before the jury. Not only this, but councillor John Benkers, Vilsack and Ramsey, also convicted, were called before the jury and charged for hours. George T. Oiler, who will tomorrow be formally elected United States Senator from Pennsylvania, at Harrisburg taking the place of P. C. Parry, is supposed to have answered scores of questions. James W. Friend of the Farmer's Deposit Association, Bank of Pittsburg, from whom Cassin Chadwick was alleged to have gotten $800,000, was subjected to a long grilling, as were some of the waiters from his bank. Emil Winter was another witness. There were others who were slipped past newspaper men and persons who leave by a side door. Every effort was made to keep their names from the public.

TO INSURE MOVING GRAIN.

Deputation Wants Amendments to Shipping Legislation.
Montreal, March 16.—A deputation from the Winnipeg board of trade arrived here today on its way to Ottawa, where the members will interview Sir Richard Cartwright, asking for an amendment to the Manitoba grain act, to provide for the insurance of grain in elevators from other losses than fire, and also to protest against the new bill of amendment proposed by the Dominion Marine association in which ship owners decline liability for more than a small loss in weight of grain cargo. The grain men contend that if they secure the amendments regarding insurance of grain in elevators, it will make the new bill of liability unnecessary. They will be joined tomorrow by delegation of the Montreal Corn Exchange, and will meet the minister of trade and commerce in its afternoon.

Famous Studio Collection For Auction.

New York, N.Y., March 15.—Paintings, together with other studio property, belonging to the estate of the late William Edgar Marshall, of this city, are shown at the Anderson auction rooms, where they are to be sold Wednesday evening. Books and autographs from the collection of Wm L. Stone, of Mount Vernon, N.Y., were sold during the afternoon. The sales room of the same company, an autograph letter signed by Roosevelt dated at Washington, 1894, brought $8.75, while a letter from Paul Revere brought an insignificant price.

Cuban Negroes Want Offices.

Havana, Mar. 15.—The executive committee of the negroes of Santiago province has addressed a demand to President Gomez to fulfill his "disregarded promise" to give 30 per cent of the offices to negroes. The special session of the Cuban congress adjourned today without taking action on any important pending measures. The body will reconvene on April 4.

SLANDER POLICY MEETS WITH JOLT

Conservative Speakers Crouch in Hotel While Nanton Welcomes Liberal Speakers.

Nanton, Mar. 16.—P. J. Nolan, of Calgary, addressed two meetings yesterday. In the afternoon, sponsored by Jas. Miller, of Moose Jaw, he spoke to a representative meeting of citizens of Stavely and district. Mr. Nolan's visit to Stavely was opposed, as only the night before a disgraced government employee had spoken to the electors and had rashly charged that for his services in this company Mr. Nolan was to be made crown prosecutor.

SLANDER POLICY MEETS WITH JOLT

Mr. Nolan dealt with this man in a deservingly manner. He took pains to personally seek that this ex-government employee, whose name is Adamson, has not been the party. He dealt with the charges in a slashing style. Although both this man Adamson and A. Robertson, M.P., were in the town at the time of the meeting both declined to attend, claiming that other business required their attention. In spite of this, Mr. Adamson kept to his room on the appearance of Mr. Nolan and did not have to go to the dining room for his evening meal until the meeting had been in progress for some time. Both Mr. Miller and Mr. Adamson came in for a great deal of harsh criticism from the electors for their cowardly action in refusing to meet the man they had maligning on the public platform. When cornered Mr. Adamson made some statements on the strength of a message he had received from Calgary. Personally he had no objection to change and that he would not have made such remarks only he was instructed to do so from Calgary.

SLANDER POLICY MEETS WITH JOLT

This man said Mr. Nolan in dismissing the subject, "claimed he was too honest for the job he held, but he held on to till he was fired, and after he was dismissed he wrote a pious letter saying he knew he was being fair enough for the situation he held, but would be very glad of any other in any disposition to be so good as get it. Bright and clear of countenance, like a man, he is sulking under the bed in his hotel despite the fact that he has not been charged with anything. Mr. Miller called on him to come here and repeat the charges."

SLANDER POLICY MEETS WITH JOLT

Mr. Miller's speech at a meeting confined his remarks to replying to other statements made by Messrs. Adamson and Robertson. Mr. Miller's speech of the night before had done nothing but stir up the party and only ordinary stated that the premier was as clay in the hands of Hon. Mr. Cross, who, he said, was a man of very questionable character. Also that the premier was suffering from mental aberration and was a fit subject for a lunatic asylum. Mr. Adamson had been very full of statements but had no evidence to produce when asked for the same. This, Mr. Miller claimed, was the dirtiest kind of campaigning and reflected a great deal of discredit upon the party who adopted these tactics.

"Liberal principles," he said, "stood for the common people and the future and prosperity of this country lies with the common people." He cited the law reforms, educational and agricultural facilities, improvements in public works, etc., and examples of the work in favor of the general public, accomplished by the Rutherford government.

MORANG TEXT BOOK ENQUIRY AT REGINA

Royal Commission Investigating the Charges Made by F. W. G. Haultain—So Far No Evidence Has Been Adduced to Substantiate in Any Way Statements Made.

Regina, Sask., Mar. 11—The inquiry into the contract made by the Saskatchewan government, with the Morang Educational Company, Toronto, for the supply of school readers, and the charges made by H. W. G. Haultain, leader of the opposition, against Hon. Mr. Calder, minister of education, in connection therewith, opened here today before Commissioners Chief Justice Wetmore and Justice Newlands. J. A. Allan, Regina, appeared on behalf of the Saskatchewan government; I. Pitblado, Winnipeg, appeared on behalf of the Morang company; and F. W. G. Haultain appeared to watch the case in his own behalf.

Spencer Page, clerk of the legislative assembly, was the first witness called. He produced copies of the votes and proceedings of the legislature containing a resolution of the House calling for the appointment of a royal commission and rectifying statements made by Haultain with reference to the appointment of Dr. Charlton, provincial analyst and chemist, gave evidence of comparisons made by himself of the Morang books and sets submitted by the Canada Publishing Company, the Copp Clark company, the W. J. Gage & Co., and MacMillan and other publishers, to the number of pages in the various sets, the weight of paper, the weight of covers, the square inches of printing surface and so forth.

Superiority of Morang Readers. This evidence, which showed the superiority of the Morang Alexander readers over the other sets tendered on. For instance, Mr. Charlton admitted figures showing that the Alexander readers contain 264 more pages than the Canadian Publishing Company readers, and 240 more than the Victorian books. In weight of paper they have over 39 square inches more cover, 15.82 square inches more paper weight, 19.10 more ounces more paper, 8.54 square inches more printing surface than the Canadian Publishing Company production. Compared with the Victorian readers they show 9 square inches more cover, 12.09 square inches more paper, 21.21 more ounces more paper, 5.172 square inches more printing surface, and 240 more pages than the Canadian Publishing Company production.

As Good as the Best. On the other hand, he declared the Alexander primer, both as to quality of illustrations and as to the use of the English language, as good as the best set of readers he had ever seen, and he had seen very many. The Alexander primer was, he said, a masterpiece of the art of book-making, and he knew that that class of books is of the highest type of readers, the other a set of ordinary type of readers, far from the Canada Publishing Company's book being nearly twice as expensive as the Alexander primer, he would judge that the public school reader cost about a third less than the Alexander primer. The witness developed comparisons between the two sets of readers, taking them book by book in their order, and concluded that in layout and printing the Alexander set was far superior to the other, while in the matter of binding the Alexander books were more substantial than any set of readers he had ever seen in his life. They were specially reinforced and thickened in this precaution, while adding to the cost of manufacture.

Agreement Possible. In reply to Mr. Haultain, Mr. Reidboud said that although not a director of the American Book company, he knew the company and his speech, with or without agreement, was not for the benefit of the company. Asked further by Mr. Haultain whether it would not be possible for the American Book company to be connected with any other concern. In the same line of business, witness replied that it would be possible to have an arrangement whereby the company would be a subsidiary of the American Book company, and if such an arrangement would be desirable for doing business in many States of the Union, he would be pleased to discuss it with them. The witness went on to say that the American Book company had never borrowed a dollar from them nor ever asked for a dollar from them. The Alexander readers were not made in the shops of the American Book company and the American Book company had no share in the American Book company. The Alexander readers were made in the shops of the American Book company, and the American Book company had no share in the American Book company.

Contract With Morang. Wilson Brainard, of New York, who said his business was the making of books, main text books and educational, stated that he had contracted with the Morang company for the manufacture of the Alexander series, but had no connection financially, or otherwise, with the American Book company, nor they with him. For the Alexander series, his contract with Morang covered certain preparatory work at the start and shipping of the books. There was no contract covering all this. The part of the work he performed was the Alexander series was to obtain drawings and photographs, have the engravings of them made and assist in what was called the layout of the paper and approved it when it was delivered, and he gave the order for printing the binding and shipping. The books were shipped to Regina, Edmonton and Toronto, those consigned to Regina having been addressed, he believed, to the department of education.

IN THE FEDERAL HOUSE

Saturday's Session.

Ottawa, Mar. 14.—Should the Manitoba government maintain its present attitude of refusing to accept the division of Keewatin territory as laid down in a resolution passed by the Federal parliament at a recent session, it is understood that there will be no legislation brought down by the government this session to extend the boundaries of Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec.

Manitoba's Claim.

The Manitoba government insists on a still larger share of Keewatin territory than that which was sanctioned last session and in addition it proposes as well for a substantial extension of the territory that would include Manitoba and Saskatchewan as compensation for the withholding of Dominion lands within the province from provincial ownership.

The federal government believes that the division of the district of Keewatin between the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba as delimited by the resolution of last year is the fairest one that can be devised and that whether or not the extension of boundaries will be made or not, therefore, the federal government is not prepared to discuss the Manitoba government's demand for a still larger share of Keewatin territory.

The subject of proportionate representation was introduced by R. D. Monk (Conservative, Quebec) who moved a resolution advocating the appointment of a committee to study the question of proportionate representation in the House of Commons.

Mr. Monk's remedy, proportional representation, was put forward tentatively as worthy of legislation. It was in force, he said, in Belgium and for electoral purposes in Switzerland.

Ottawa, March 15.—An effort to steal a little party capital by appearing in the role of champion of the farming interests of the west was made by the western Opposition members in the House of Commons tonight.

Mr. G. H. G. Graham pointed out that all claimants in the west were interested in the problem of transportation and the duties of the railway commissioner were not to insure a fair deal to farmers alone, but to all classes of the community.

keeper of the legal conscience of parliament. Mr. Clarke, while denying that the bill was retroactive, did not object. Samuel Sharpe protested vigorously on the ground that the policy holders had had no opportunity to make their wishes known, and he suggested that the bill stand over until the next session to allow the policy-holders to be heard.

LACOMBE JUDGING

One of the most interesting features of the short course school at Lacombe conducted by the provincial department of agriculture was the judging competitions which marked the closing of the school on Saturday.

The grain judging, which occupied all morning, was conducted by Messrs. Hutton, MacKillop and Henderson. The grains judged were spring and winter wheats, oats and barley.

The cattle for best judging were kindly loaned by Mr. Palmer, Hereford breeder of Lacombe, and were excellent specimens.

After the cattle came the light and heavy horses, which were judged in the same way by dividing the students and changing them about.

The light horses were loaned by Messrs. Hutton and Seck, and the heavy horses by Mr. Hutton of the experimental farm, and were all high class valuable animals.

Students Express Thanks. This interval was occupied by some speeches by the students, especially good were the addresses given by Messrs. Grant, Carman and Hutton, Sr., who said they wanted to express their hearty thanks to the department for holding the school at Lacombe; to the staff for their unvarying courtesy and painstaking efforts...

did improve the time that he won the cup for horse judging. W. K. Winslow of Lacombe, did not surprise his friends by securing for his own the cup given by Mr. Hutton last year. He is known to be an enterprising and hard working farmer, and a credit to the district covered by the association.

No previous effort of the government seems to have given more general satisfaction than this short course. It has been pronounced by all, an unqualified success, and has placed the Dominion in its endeavor to improve agriculture.

A question frequently asked, "said Mr. Craig was when can I get letters on this subject?" It was easily seen that the great majority of those present were inspired by the work and went home with a determination to improve on old methods.
