The Peel County Council, at its last sitting, voted twenty-five cents per day to each volunteer, during the time he is on camp duty.

CHATHAM is shipping a cargo of soft maple logs to Liverpool. This description of timber has hitherto been regarded as nearly useless.

In round numbers, there is some nine times as much coffee consumed in the United States as in Great Britain, but only about one-third the amount of tea.

On Monday last, a man named John McGregor, was tearing manure for Mr. Clay, near Norval, and the horses having run away with him, he was afterwards found dead.

The Berlin Fire Company have resigned. This action was caused by some unjust reflections cast upon the firemen by individual members of the Fire and Water Committee as well as some of the citizens.

A LARGE and influential meeting was held at Kingston on Saturday. Resolutions were passed condemnatory of Sir John A. Macdonald, and the "capitulation at Washington." The nomination of a candidate for the Commons was postponed till June.

DRAYTON STEAM MILL.—The new steam mill to be put up at Drayton is to be built near the station. The amount of stock is $15,000, divided into shares of $25 each. The officers are Wm. Startridge, President; W. C. Wortley, Vice; D. McDonald, Secretary; J. Montgomery, Treasurer.

THE Atlantic cables of 1865 and 1866 show a considerable decrease in their insulation, although not to such an extent as to interfere with their use for the transmission of messages. This is, however, a matter of considerable moment, and the Directors of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company have adopted the best means for ascertaining the exact condition of those cables.

STATISTICS OF GUELPH TOWNSHIP.—The following is a copy of amount of assessment made by the assessors for this year for the Township of Guelph:—Real property, $1,053,680; personal property, $172,240; income, $11,450—total $1,237,370, being nearly 30,000 of an advance over last year. Population, 2,530; cattle, 3,693; sheep, 4,319; hogs, 1,525; horses, 1,259; dogs, 246; hitches, 11. The non-resident roll only shows 124 acres, valued at $530.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Enterprise says:—On Thursday last, a boy about 11 years of age, the son of Mr. Clayton, farmer, 8th con. Peel, was killed in a shocking manner, whilst at work in the field. The unfortunate boy was engaged in rolling a field, and was seated on the roller driving the team. A stump tripped up one end of the roller and threw him forward under the horses' feet. He was pushed forward some distance by the roller, which then passed over his body. He was picked up in an insensible state, and died shortly afterwards.

STRUCK OIL.—The Drayton Enterprise says: Whilst digging post holes in Dr. Smith's garden in this village on Tuesday, Mr. Murray observed at a depth of about three feet, oil floating on the surface of the water which oozed out of the clay. This oil in smell and appearance strongly resembles petroleum. The creek which flows near the place and a spring in the vicinity, also give indications of the presence of the "flood." We may mention that Mr. Allen has long maintained that his well contains Coal Oil, and about twelve months ago offered to subscribe two hundred dollars towards sinking a test well. We understand that a quantity of the fluid is to be sent to Mr. Sterry Hunt, the Dominion Geologist, at Ottawa, to be tested by him. If the report favorably, a company will be formed to utilize the discovery.

Methodist New Connexion Conference.

TEA MEETING.

At six o'clock on Friday evening the commodious basement of the church was well filled with guests. Tables loaded with luxuries were presided over by a committee of young ladies and gentlemen. At 7:30 o'clock the chair was taken by Robert Irwin, Esq., of Montreal. The choir of the church sang an anthem, and rendered valuable services throughout the evening.

The chairman said he felt pleased to meet with old friends at these Conference services. He was not as young as he might appear, but he felt young when associated with his brethren. He hoped all will meet in Heaven, where there will be no condition of separation.

Rev. G. Jackson was the first called on. After a few preliminary remarks he announced as his subject, "Some of the most prominent wants of the present christian age." He said that was a condition of certain kinds of existence, of progressive existence, and of imperfect existence. On this account necessarily still exists in the mechanical world, and in the religious world likewise. It is with the latter we as ministers and christian laymen have to do. We want a good christian spirit. The body of christianity is large, and a right spirit will pervade it, and give no occasion at all. Even the name of pure religion without its nature is tyrannical and cruel. Persecution has made men tremble in the past, and its spirit is not yet dead, and can only be eradicated by a christian spirit. We want more religious faith and a proper direction of it. If the world is ever brought to God, it must be by human instrumentality. Then there is a great work for the church yet to do. Her foes are legion, but she should work on the right way. Here the speaker referred somewhat sarcastically to the seces of the church, which had led to foster vanity and pride rather than the conversion of souls. He said religion needed not extravagance in church decoration, but liberty in relieving the needy. "We want union." Not so much of an organic kind (though a little of that might do good as a union of aim and spirit). He referred to the union of the Scotch Grey and Emu-skilled Dragoons as an illustration of the union we wanted in the church. We want a right recognition of religious principles. The speaker here referred to the greatness of the British nation to show the nature of religious principles. He said that we as the subjects of Victoria should cherish our respect for them. The speaker concluded by hoping his own denomination would be an example of these things. If so it would not live in vain. Men might call it small, but when he saw how cold and selfish the world was, he was thankful that there was a small body to belong to.

The choir rendered "Beautiful land of rest."

Dr. Cocker was then called on. He said he discovered why the chairman was so often elected to the position. The symbol—that of the flower on his person—was not associated with malevolence, but with truthfulness and purity. One of the sweetest memories that he (the speaker) would have after leaving Canada for England would be that of the British flag floating in the breeze. His heart swelled with emotion in the morning when the President called on the Conference to sing the "National Anthem." Victoria is great because of her goodness—this is her highest charm. And the highest tribute that could be paid her—consists in the name of her King, Albert Cochrane. He had formed strong attachments to Canada in the six years of his sojourn, and if matters did not go just right in England he might return and claim "parish rights." The speaker here referred to the union discussion and preferred it to the fruitless form of disunion. He would say good-bye to those he might not see again, and hoped their friendships formed on earth, under the sanctifying influence of religion, may at length grow up into eternal friendship in the heavens.

The choir sang, "How beautiful upon the mountains."

The next speaker introduced was Robt. Wilkes, Esq., of Toronto, who spoke for a short time on the external of Christian worship. He had just come from an extensive tour in Europe, and observed that much attention was paid to decoration and while he would not advocate every kind and degree, we might make the surroundings of Christian worship more tributary to the interests of the church, by making it more in harmony with the thoughts and feelings of the worshippers. He observed that the music in Europe was chiefly artificial and paid for. Many through the long drawn aisles of those old cathedrals to listen to the orchestra. The best types are in the mother country, where, as in Mr. Spurgeon's Tabernacle, the congregation sing. The singing in Mr. Beecher's church in Brooklyn is, perhaps, the best in the world. It is a wave of transport, like the sound of many waters. In a word he would say we should bring the surroundings of life more in sympathy with spiritual things.

SATURDAY MORNING SESSION.

was one of deep interest, as it was expected to be the subject of a resolution which would be reached on the subject of Methodist Union. The discussion yesterday had brought about a spirit of unanimity. The motion and amendment introduced by Dr. Cocker and Mr. Robert Wilkes respectively were withdrawn, and a motion by Dr. Cocker, seconded by Mr. Wilkes, was introduced as a substitute, and carried without dissenting vote. It was as follows: "That having again considered the subject of Methodist Union, this Conference would review its experience as to the desirableness of an organic union of the various Methodist bodies in Canada, and whilst adhering to the action of our last Conference in regard to the basis recommended by the United Com-mittee, this Conference feels bound to say that we could not accept any scheme of Union by which restrictions would be imposed upon the legislative powers of a General Conference—the right of the laity to co-operate with the ministry in such Conference in all acts of legislation and discipline."

The Conference indicated its gratitude by singing with great heartiness the doxology. Thus an issue that had been productive during the year of warm discussion has been satisfactorily settled. The Committee on Methodist Union

French Communists Executed.

New York, May 25.—The Times' Washington special says:—One principal amendment of the Supplemental Article to the Treaty of Washington is a change of language covering the agreement with reference to the indirect claims for the future so as to include all indirect and incidental claims in the rule as proposed by Great Britain. In the words "such claims" a strict interpretation would have confined the agreement of the parties to such indirect claims only as are the subject of the present controversy, therefore it is provided that the rule shall cover in broader terms than no indirect incidental claims shall be presented by the one nation against the other for failure to observe neutrality. The vote was strictly non-partisan. The Democrats divided about evenly, Thurman declining to vote. Schurz voted aye, Sumner and Edwards voted no. Howe and Carpenter who were absent would have voted against it. Trumbull did not vote.

Washington, May 27—1 a. m.—The probabilities are that the lowest barometer north of Lake Huron will continue moderately steady; increased cloudiness and southerly winds are veering to westerly over the New England and middle States, with rain over the northern portions and possibly over the southern portions; rising barometer westerly to northerly winds, and clear and clearing weather will extend south-eastward to Ohio Valley and Lake Erie by Monday evening; clear and pleasant weather from Tennessee to North Carolina southward; dangerous winds not anticipated.

Madrid, May 25.—Marshal Serrano has declined to form a Ministry, and Admiral Topete has consented to perform the duty. The New Government will be composed of the Unionist party. Topete will exercise the functions of Minister of War ad interim.

Paris, May 25.—Perre, Bon and Bonheur, three men who were tried on a charge of participating in some of the most atrocious acts committed in this city during the reign of the Commune, and sentenced to death were executed this morning at Salory. The exhibited no emotion whatever, and died crying "Vive la Commune."

Base Ball Match.

A match was played on Friday last, the 24th inst., near the Butchers' Inn, Puslinch Place, between the Ontario of Guelph (formerly the Young Canadians of Guelph Township), and the Star Club of Guelph Township. The ground was in capital order notwithstanding the recent heavy rains. The game opened by the Ontario going to the bat, who retired with a goose egg. The Stars followed and kept at the bat till they were credited with six runs in the scorers' books. In the second innings the Ontario were credited with one run, and in the second, third, and fourth innings the Stars were consecutively whitewashed. At the close of the fifth innings the score was even, but the Ontario were by this time varnished up to their work, and by their superior fielding and catching easily led during the remainder of the game, but at no part of their game did the Stars evince anything like the play of their opponents, who, however, accepted a couple of goose eggs very gracefully. T. Hewer was, as usual, unapproachable on the first base, and few and far between were the balls that escaped his grasp. In the second innings a red hot ball, caught by James Hewer on the second base and returned to the first base, was an excellent instance of double play on the part of the Ontario. Hutehinson, Teahan, Craig and G. Penfold also distinguished themselves in their respective positions. Mr. F. Devaux, of Guelph, officiated as umpire, and discharged his duties to the satisfaction of both clubs by the very impartial manner in which he gave his decisions. At the conclusion of the match the score stood, Ontario 35, Stars 25.

POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Saunders Esq., P. M.

MONDAY, June 27th.—Samuel Bolden (coloured) charged with assaulting his wife. A fine of $1 and costs and to find sufficient surety for good behaviour for twelve months. In default, committed to jail.

Daniel Slater and wife arrested by Chief Constable Kelly on Saturday night for stealing a blacksmith's hammer, the property of Nath. Cross. Hammer found in house of Slater. Discharged, prosecutor not appearing.

Mrs. Moon was charged by John Chambers with assault. The evidence showed that on the 23rd inst. plaintiff was ploughing on a lot adjacent to defendant's residence. When he was absent for a drink of water, a little boy threw a small willow branch across the fence into the defendant's premises. On his return she charged him in a violent tone with having thrown the branch. Angry words ensued, when defendant threw an old spade at plaintiff, which struck him on the back of the neck. Defendant was fined $1 and costs. Mr. J. P. McMillan for plaintiff, Mr. Peterson for defendant.

Greeley Accepts.

Mr. Greeley's letter accepting the nomination for President has been published, and is generally accepted by the Republican papers, as well as a large portion of the Democratic organs, as an honest, straightforward and satisfactory exposition of his views. After referring to the (to him) unexpected approval of the Cincinnati Platform, and of his nomination both North and South—which he hails as the harbinger of better days for the Republic—he gives a clear and forcible summary of the Platform, and concludes as follows:

"These propositions, so ably and forcibly presented in the Platform of your Convention, have already fixed the attention and commanded the assent of a large majority of our countrymen, who joyfully adopt them, as I do, as the basis of a true, beneficent National Reconstruction—a New Departure from jealousies, strifes and hates, which have no longer adequate motive or even plausible pretext, into an atmosphere of Peace, Fraternity, and Mutual Good Will. In vain do the drill-sergeants of decaying organizations flourish menacingly their truncheons and angrily insist that the files shall be closed and straightened; in vain do the whippers in of parties once vital because rooted in the vital needs of the hour protest against straying and bolting, denounce men whose inferiors as traitors and renegades, and threaten them with infamy and ruin. I am confident that the American people have already made you their own, fully resolved that their brave hearts and strong arms shall bear it on to triumph. In this faith, and with the distinct understanding that, if elected, I shall be the President not of a party, but of the whole people, I accept your nomination, in the confident trust that the masses of our countrymen, North and South, are eager to clasp hands across the bloody chasm which has too long divided them, forgetting that they have been enemies in the joyful consciousness that they are and must henceforth remain brethren."

The Supplemental Treaty Accepted by the Senate.

After a protracted debate the United States Senate, by the requisite two-thirds vote have adopted the Supplemental Treaty, and recommended the President to accept the additional articles to the Treaty of Washington on the basis recently proposed by the British Government with a few slight alterations, which however, do not affect the principle of the Treaty. The amendment is designed to secure reciprocity of obligation on both Governments, without detriment to either, and without placing the United States in the attitude of receding from their position as if in compliance with the requirement of the British Government. The President and Secretary Fish were at once officially advised of the action of the Senate, and a telegram was sent by the latter to Minister Shenck, acquainting him with the facts, for the information of the British Government. It is expected that on Monday a response will be received from London, when the Senate will ratify the additional article to the Treaty. The N. Y. Times says the verbal amendments cannot be objected to by England, and the final settlement may be considered certain. It adds that the Senate has earned the gratitude of the mercantile community, and the majority of the Senators have acted in sympathy with the great mass of the people, who wished the Treaty to succeed. The Herald on the other hand pronounced the Senate's action a national humiliation, and questions whether the people will accept the amended treaty as a final settlement of the account with England.

Benefaction of St. George's Church.

One of the old landmarks of Guelph is about to be removed. St. George's Church, now the property of Dr. Clarke, is about to be pulled down. Workmen commenced to take out the pews to-day (Monday), and as soon as the interior fittings are removed, the walls will be razed to the ground. Yesterday the last services were held in the Church, which was filled by large congregations at both diets of worship. The Rev. Mr. Alexander preached in the morning, and the Ven. Archdeacon Palmer in the evening. Both sermons were appropriate to the occasion—the Archdeacon, especially, making feeling reference to the many hallowed associations connected with the Church in which they had so long worshipped, and which was now to echo with the voice of praise and prayer for the last time. The congregation will worship in the Court House till the basement of the new Church is ready for occupation.

Before St. George's Church disappears forever from its well-known site on Wyndham Street, it may be well to briefly recall its history, in connection with the site. Soon after Archdeacon Palmer was appointed as Minister of the Church in Guelph—now forty years ago—a frame Church was erected on the site where the present Church now stands, the Canada Company, and the Society for promoting Christian knowledge materially aiding in its construction. As the congregation increased, it was found to be too small, and a design for a new stone Church was procured from the late Mr. Thomas, of Toronto. The foundation of the new Church was laid on the 17th July, 1851. As the work proceeded, it was found that the cost of the new design would greatly exceed the architect's estimate. The portion of the new church was then con-

Thomas, but it was found that the cost would be nearly double the sum which it was thought in the first instance the building could be erected for, and so nothing was done. In 1853 the proposal to rebuild the church was revived, but the feeling, as expressed at the Vestry meeting there was to sell the old site, which being situated on the leading thoroughfare was not well adapted for a Church site, and in the following year the lot on Woolwich-st., on which the new Church now stands was purchased. Several offers were made for the purchase of the site on Wyndham Street, but nothing was done till 1871, when Mr. John Hogg bought the site and building which he afterwards sold to Dr. Clarke, the present owner. As our readers are aware, the new church on Woolwich street was commenced last year, and it is expected the basement will be ready for occupation in the fall. From the above it will be seen that it is nearly 22 years since the foundation stone of the church which is about to be pulled down was laid.

We have not learned what sort of a building Dr. Clarke intends to put up on the site of the old church, but we hope that some arrangement may be made with him by which it will be left open, and made a part of Wyndham Street.

PARTIAL AMNESTY.—The United States Senate has passed a partial amnesty bill, by which over 150,000 men, active in affairs and recognized by the Southern people as leaders and formers of public opinion, are released from political disabilities which have restrained them since the close of the war. They are eligible to office, and are henceforth restored to all the privileges enjoyed by any citizen of the United States. There yet remains some 400 or 500 persons politically disabled under the clause which excepts from the provisions of the bill Senators and Representatives in the 37th and 38th Congresses; officers in the Judicial, Military and Naval Service of the United States; heads of departments, and Foreign Ministers of the United States.

It is rumored in Ottawa that the Hon. A. A. Dorion has signified his intention to retire into private life.

HELEN MOIR

OR— LOVE AND HONOUR.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.

With four men bearing, and one on each side carrying a torch, the little procession was formed, and began to move forward on the road to Guelph.

Terrible as the scene was to both of them, but especially to Helen, they pressed forward in the anxiety to hear news of Hermann.

At last she found him. Was it instinct or Providence who guided her to the place? Who shall tell? But in a little hollow, and thickly surrounded by others of the 33rd who had fallen, she saw a form stretched on the ground which she instantly recognized as his.

She thought he was dead, her wail was that of wild passionate bereavement but a surgeon who was called to the spot gave her the joyful intelligence that he lived, and under his directions he was carried to the rear, where the horses stood by the wayside.

Such in brief words was the tale to which Edwin listened; then he had his to tell of all that had befallen them since they came to the front.

What was the packet contain, about which he is so solicitous? asked Edwin. "I cannot tell," replied his uncle musingly.

"I would have it cleared up if I were you," counselled Edwin. "To what intent. Only perchance, to recall sad unpleasant memories, which had better be forgotten, as I desire a great portion of the past to lie."

"Possibly not," sighed his uncle. "I have ever found him impervious to kind words, yet the approach of death may change him, and at all events I will satisfy the impulse of my own heart by retaining good for evil."

The lights of the town were now in view, and soon the heights were descended and they entered the narrow noisy streets where the bustle and confusion continued without intermission.

Notwithstanding the beating of the Ministerial press, the Government by no means feel confident of success at the coming elections. Several of their supporters have intimated that they will not face the music again.
