CHRISTMAS,
THE MORNING OF CHRIST'S NATIVITY.
(By JOHN MILTON.)
This is the morn'g, and this the happy morn,
Wherein the Son of Heaven's Eternal King,
Of wedded Maid and Virgin Mother born,
Our great redemption from above did bring:
For so the holy Scriptures do declare,
And with this feast the Church doth ever celebrate,
That he our deadly forfeit should release,
And with his Father work us a perpetual peace.
That glorious form, that light unsufferable,
And that far-beaming blaze of majesty,
Wherewith he sate at Heaven's high council table,
To sit the midst of Trinal Unity,
He laid aside; and here with us to be,
Forsook the courts of everlasting day,
And chose with us a darksome house of mortal clay.
Say, heavenly Muse, shall not thy sacred vein
Afford a present to the Infant-God?
Hast thou no verse, no hymn, no solemn strain,
To welcome him to this his new abode,
Nor while the heaven by the sun's team untrod,
Hidest no print of the approaching light,
And all the spangled host keep watch in squadrons bright?
See, how from far, upon the eastern road,
The star-led wizards haste with odours sweet:
O run, prevent them with thy humble ode,
And lay it lowly at his blessed feet:
Hail thou the hon'our'd infant Lord to greet,
And join thy voice unto the Angel choir,
From out his secret altar touch'd with hallow'd fire.

HELENA GRAHAM, —OR— THE BRIDE'S SACRIFICE.

CHAPTER XIII.

When Herbert and the doctor entered, Jessie, who had anxiously waited for this opportunity, seeing Mrs. Ben busily engaged, touched her husband's arm, and whispering "follow me" left the house. He unhesitatingly obeyed, and overtook her near the end of the garden, where, pale and troubled, she stood, leaning against a tree.
"Well, Jessie, what is it?" he asked, in surprise.
"Herbert," she said, lifting her reproachful eyes to his face, "Helena Graham was here last night!"
"Well," he said, starting, and coloring deeply.
"O Herbert! she told me all—how you had deceived her, and deceived me! O Herbert! how could you do so?"
"Deceived her—deceived you? I do not understand, Jessie," he said coldly.
"O Herbert! you do! You promised to love only her—and marry her; yet you deceived her and married me!"
"Well, a moment ago, you said I deceived you, likewise. And how, I pray you, madam? Go on," he said, with a sneer.
"You made me your wife whilst pledged to another!"
"Which, doubtless, causes you a great deal of sorrow," he said, in a tone of slight pique; for, though his passion for Jessie was dying away, he could not endure the thought, as yet, of her forgetting him.
"O Herbert! you know being your wife is the greatest happiness on earth for me; but when I saw her last night so wild, passionate, and despairing, I felt as if I could have died for very shame, to think I had been the cause of her misery!"
"Then she did seem despairing?" he said, while his face flushed.
"Oh, yes! almost crazed, mad, frenzied. Her eyes seemed killing me!"
"Who could have told her?—not you?" he exclaimed, suddenly.
"Oh, no—no! I do not know how she heard it; but she knew all."
"What! our marriage and all?" he cried, starting up, and speaking in a tone that made Jessie start back.
"No; she did not know that. But—" "You did not dare to tell her?" he said, almost threateningly.
"Oh! why will you speak to me in that tone, dearest Herbert? I did not mean to reproach you."
"It is very like it, however," he said bitterly.
"But may I not tell her, Herbert? She wanted me to give you up; and I thought she would have killed me because I refused. I fear she may come again; and indeed, such another interview would kill me! If she knew all she would desist. O Herbert, dearest, will you not tell her—or may I not tell her?"
"Not for the world—not for ten thousand worlds. Would you ruin me Jessie?" he exclaimed impetuously.
"Ruin you, Herbert?" she said, faintly.
"My worldly prospects, I mean. My—Oh, the thing is impossible!" he said, vehemently. "I will not hear of it for a moment."
"But you promised—" she began, in a choking voice.
"And will keep that promise when the proper time comes. At present it is impossible—utterly impossible. I tell you, you must have faith in me, and wait, Jessie."

Faith! Was he worthy of it? The thought arose in the mind of Jessie, to be instantly banished, as she heroically kept back her rising tears, and strove to say, in a calm voice—
"Wait! But for how long? Herbert, this secrecy is dreadful—this deception weighs on my heart like lead!"
"I do not know—I cannot tell. How often have I said, when the proper time comes, when I may safely avow it, all shall be revealed! Jessie, you are selfish—you have no consideration for any one but yourself. If I loved you better than Miss Graham, you should be the last one to reproach me with it. Take care that many such scenes as this do not banish that love altogether!"
His deeply-fenced tone sent the coldness of death to the very heart of Jessie. She had not meant to anger him, and now he was deeply displeased. He had never looked nor spoken to her so before. And totally overcome, she covered her face with her hands, and wept aloud.

He was not proof against her tears. All the old tenderness returned at the sight, and going over, he removed her hands, saying, gently—
"My dearest love, forgive me. I was vexed, surprised, grieved and in the wrong. Look up, little wife—lift those blue eyes, and say you forgive me."
Before she could reply, a footstep was heard approaching, and she had only time to bestow on him one look of love and pardon and dart away ere Captain Graham came in view.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND—a chemical food and nutritive tonic. This elegant and agreeable preparation is perfectly reliable in all cases of nervous prostration and general debility, arising from mental or physical exertion, intemperance, irregular habits, chronic wasting diseases depending upon indigestion, mal-assimilation of food and impoverished blood. It is composed of the most valuable elements for the formation of the system, and being purely physiological in its action, may be taken safely under all circumstances, as it builds up the constitution radically and permanently in the same manner as our daily food.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM

Is the great modern remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CHRONIC and ACUTE. It is recommended by Physicians everywhere, who are acquainted with its great usefulness.

Dr. A. L. Seville, of Cincinnati, Ohio, says:—
"I have witnessed its effect on the young and the old, and I can truly say that it is by far the best expectorant remedy with which I am acquainted. For coughs, and all the early stages of lung complaints, I believe it to be a certain cure; and if every family would keep it by them, ready to administer upon the first appearance of disease about the lungs, there would be very few cases of fatal consumption. It causes the phlegm and matter to rise without irritating those delicate organs (the lungs), and without producing constipation of the bowels. It also gives strength to the system, stops the night sweats, and changes all the morbid secretions to a healthy state."
Sold by all Druggists. Price 51 per bottle.

Specific Medicine

Cures all Nervous Diseases, such as Tremors, Debility, Prostration, etc., which, in many cases, are produced by over indulgence in the use of tobacco and alcoholic spirits; but the Specific Medicine is more especially recommended as an unfailing cure for Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrhoea, Impotency, and all diseases that follow as a consequence of Self Abuse, or Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pain in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, and many other Diseases that lead to insanity or consumption, and a Premature Grave, all of which, as a rule, are first caused by deviating from the path of nature and over indulgence.

The Specific Medicine is the result of a life study and many years of experience in treating these special diseases. Full particulars in our pamphlet, which we desire to send free by mail to every one.

The Specific Medicine is sold by all Druggists at 21 per package, or six packages for $5, or will be sent by mail on receipt of the money, by addressing

WILLIAM GRAY & CO., Windsor, Ont., and by all Druggists, Northrup & Lyman, Toronto, J. Winsor & Co., Hamilton, Wholesale Agents.

$500 PER MONTH TO LIVE—MEN. SEND $3 for Agent's card, which will sell for $10, or money refunded.

The Peabody Institute has also published a new book, resting exclusively on NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASES, more than two hundred royal octavo pages, twenty elegant engravings, bound in substantial muslin, clothed in leather. Either of the above books are sent by mail to any part of the world, closely sealed, postage paid, on receipt of price, or all three books to one address at the same rate of postage of only $4. Here is offered over eight hundred and fifty pages of the shiest and best oriented and bound popular medical science and literature, on subjects of vital importance to all, for only $4—barely enough to pay for mailing, and it is borne in mind that these great medical works are published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, an honored institution, established with large funds for the sole purpose of doing good.

These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whether they be printed or Single of either sex can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced, to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the New Discoveries of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any man, are given in full. No person should be without these valuable books. The press throughout the country, the clergy and the medical faculty generally highly extol these extraordinary useful works. The most fastidious may read them.

G. B. FRASHER.

Being the only merchant in Guelph who attended the Great Auction Sale in Montreal, can state with confidence that he can show Goods at prices much below their regular value.

Parties buying at FRASHER'S will save more money than they would elsewhere.

Strangers to his store should try the experiment. FRASHER keeps a general store where all can be supplied without having the trouble of going all over town.

CALL and SEE THEM.

Guelph, Nov. 4, 1874.

G. B. FRASHER.

FRASHER'S store is crammed from cellar to attic with cheap goods. The rush of customers to FRASHER'S for the cheap smoked goods is enormous, which causes other merchants to grunt and growl. Still FRASHER is determined to look after the wants of his customers, no matter what others may think.

In consequence of the late great fire in Montreal, Messrs. McIntyre, French & Co. have sold the balance of their stock saved from the fire $250,000 at auction, of which G. B. FRASHER bought largely at such low prices as will enable him to sell.

Dry Goods this Winter much Cheaper than any other Store in Guelph!
