Butcher's Moves his Concentricities after Saturday. Excited and jammed as the butcher's office is, that he will be most successful beyond question. He and the company give three more of their excellent performances at the Horticultural garden, beginning to-night at eight o'clock. The programme is an extra performance, viz., a Saturday matinee, with cheap prices—15c, 25c, and 35c—will afford the many who have not heard the opera a opportunity.

Liquor Licenses. After two long months of weary waiting, the liquor committee have at last issued their list of applicants to whom licenses were granted. The board granted 181 hotel licenses and 97 shop licenses, the number of applications therefor being 208 and 116 respectively. The number of licenses of old stands were lopped off, but it is understood that if their proprietors establish a restaurant in connection with the bar they will receive a permit.

Two Dangerous Men Disposed of. Wm. Norton and James H. Horton, known in police circles as dangerous men, were yesterday disposed of for a year. They came up for sentence before Judge Boyd, having been convicted of two charges of larceny. Since their arrest the detectives had ascertained that the pair were confidence men of the worst kind. Norton, whose real name is Billy Beaufort, is wanted on the other side for half a dozen confidence games, and his partner is equally unscrupulous. The judge alluded to this fact in sentencing the prisoners to one year each in the central prison.

Mill Another Drowning Accident. A young man named Wm. Thompson, who lived on Bathurst street, engaged a skiff at Noverra's last night and took two ladies over to the island. Returning about 10.30 the boat was seen to be in the water and the whereabouts of Noverra's boat house and rowed into the eastern pier of the Argonaut club house. Thompson left the ladies in the boat and stepping on the first knocked at the side door of the club house. The place was dark and when the young man turned to walk back to the boat which was not fifteen feet away he stepped off the boat and it is probable, struck his head against the piling. As he uttered no cry it is believed that he was stunned in the fall and came up under the boat. This is his second trip. He has been thoroughly overhauled this spring and looks one of the trimmest craft on the lake.

Police Court Penitentials. Twenty-three drunks were disposed of at the police court yesterday. Mary Murphy, one of the amusements of Lombard street, struck Louis Hardyman on the head with a water-pitcher and was charged $8.85 and 10 days, Louise Buckley, an unwomanly woman, was taxed $7.85 or 90 days for calling Charlotte Hennes had names. Jane Clarke, aged half a hundred, was charged with stealing $4 from Elias Thompson, an old man, and was fined $10. Thomas O'Brien, charged with feloniously wounding a Mrs. McVoy with a club, was sent to the central prison for trial. Pat Healy and Mrs. Lyons charged with assaulting and robbery of $11 from William Thompson (better known as "Billy the Bull") at No. 80 Centre street, were discharged. Johannes Fitzpatrick assaulted James Fitzpatrick and was ordered to pay $8.85 or 30 days. Peter Smith, assaulting Mattie Flinn, was similarly dealt with. Jas. Thompson, larceny, discharged. A number of other cases were adjourned, including eleven cases of breaches of the cow bye-law.

A Conspiracy that does not affect Pettey. The weather has been wet enough of late, and Messrs Oates and the Editor of the World have conjointly prophesied seventeen days of rain in July, but no such conspiracy as this prevents large numbers of ladies and gentlemen in need of midsummer raiment presenting themselves daily at Pettey's ample counters and having their wardrobe looked in front of them on the first day, but some of the cut flowers were rather faded and wilted look. A new feature was a handsome refrigerator, in which Mr. Colin Pettey exhibited some wreaths, crosses and bouquets of cut flowers very artistically arranged. It was well worth a visit to the store, and the band played in the evening.
