A NUMBER in this district have adopted the plan of naming their farms. The idea is a good one and should be followed by every farmer. The farmer's name should also be on the front gate. If a man has a well-kept farm he should place his name on the front just the same as a merchant has his name on his place of business.

THAT account at Swift's needs receipting and they need the money.

THE ups and downs of life often follow each other rapidly. WHEN a Sarnia auto party were returning from Watford Friday night by the Fourth Line they encountered an obstruction on the road in the shape of a rail off the fence which was placed across the roadway. Two piece suits, a special at $7.50.—SWIFT'S.

THE Watford Silver Band, under the direction of Bandmaster F. K. Matthews, has been giving an excellent account of itself lately. The program given on the band stand on Friday evening last was especially good and thoroughly enjoyed by all those who heard it. The progress made under the new leader is surprising. It is expected that they will have plenty of work this summer, and a number of engagements are already booked. Any church or organization wishing the services of the band should arrange for the same at once.

CANON DOWNIE, of Fort Stanley, foreman in Hamilton, Ont., was of the following motion, that he will introduce at the meeting of the Anglican Synod to be held in Stratford next week:—"The synod of the Diocese of Huron, duly assembled, cordially indorses the declaration of the archbishops and bishops on the subject of the ne l'emere decree, and would hereby record its most solemn protest against the decree, and against the enforcement in this country of its provisions, constituting, as they do, an intolerable interference with the ordinary law, and a grave menace to the social life of our people."

It may not be generally understood that teachers who obtain limited third class certificates after attending a Model School will not be at liberty to engage, to engage in any school where trustees may be willing to employ them. These limited third class teachers will only be eligible to engage in schools where normal trained teachers cannot be had. As long as there is such a teacher willing to engage in a school, the trustee cannot employ a "Modelite," and no holder of one of these Model School certificates will be allowed to take charge of any school until the inspector is satisfied that no normal trained teacher is available.

Do you need a carpet or rug? Swifts have the stock.

MONTREAL HERALD: There is wild excitement in Hamilton, Ont., because policemen have been posted at the doors of churches on Sunday night to prevent young men from "picking up" their best girls as they come out after service. Seeing that this is the nearest that a good many young men get to attending divine service, it seems a pity to discourage them by means of police force. It is really up to the girls, who, if they had a better developed sense of self-respect would decline to be called for after church by young men who could not do them the compliment of sitting through the service with them.

It must be a matter of keen regret on his part that Mr. J. E. Armstrong, M. P. for East Lambton should have to deny himself the honor and privilege of being one of the representatives from the Canadian Parliament at the Coronation. He was among the number selected but owing to the urgent and pressing duties connected with his work as manager of the Canning Co., he has reluctantly had to forego the honor. His constituents will also feel general regret that their representative could not go, but they will at the same time appreciate the great work he remains home to look after and perform the general interest of this great and growing country that is now on the eve of such growth and development of her resources.—Petrolia Advertiser.

ONE of the worst electric storms of the year passed over this section on Sunday night, lasting nearly four hours, putting the electric light plant out of business for the night but doing no further damage. The lightning was very vivid and was accompanied by a heavy rainfall which was very welcome to the farmers. The streets were rivers of water, the walks in some places were covered, and those who had the misfortune to be out had a merry time getting home. The damage in the immediate vicinity was not very great. J. Smith, 3rd con., lost a number of porkers by lightning. Geo. Kirkpatrick of the 10th Enniskillen lost some sheep, E. J. Neely, 8th Enniskillen 2 cows, and the barn of E. Klimer, 2nd con., N.E.R., Warwick, was destroyed. These are all the casualties that have been reported so far. Altogether this section seems to have got off remarkably well.

Daughters of the Empire.
A most pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Miss Ross, Main Road, on Tuesday, where the Daughters of the Empire were entertained in a most enjoyable manner. There were twelve members and seven visitors present. On their arrival a splendid program was presented, which consisted of nine numbers. First, "The Maple Leaf," by the Chapter; Solo by Miss Ross, "There's a Land"; paper by Mrs. T. G. Mitchell, "Repose"; instrumental by Miss Anderson; solo by Miss Ross; instrumental by Mrs. Lorne Williams; solo by Miss Ross; paper by Mrs. Brown, "Curable and Incurable Diseases"; instrumental by Mrs. Lorne Williams. Our appetites sharpened by the pleasant drive out were fully appeased by the very dainty luncheon served. The Chapter is pleased to have Mrs. Lorne Williams as a new member. The July meeting will be taken by Mrs. Harris. The Chapter decided to hold a picnic on Coronation day down by the bridge. The meeting closed in the usual way by singing "God Save the King."—ANNA C. The screams of the lady brought the owner of the horse to the rescue, but the horse had devoured most of the rat before it could be taken away from him. The lady made a quick disappearance.

He thought nothing of the injury until his finger commenced to pain and swell very much. Then he went to London for treatment. DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Canifton, Ont.—"I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was ulcers of the uterus, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods, and never was regular, and the bearing-down pains were terrible. I was very ill in bed, and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life."—Mrs. LETITIA BLAIR, Canifton, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to suffering women.

A Sure Thing.

All Canadian Government Annuities are payable for life no matter how long the Annuitant may live, but the Guaranteed Annuity, that is an Annuity which for a slightly increased payment is guaranteed to be paid for 5, 10, 15 or 20 years as may be desired should the Annuitant die before the period mentioned had expired, enables a purchaser to provide for the contingency that someone may be dependent upon him at the time the Annuity falls due. For example, a man 75 years of age recently purchased an Immediate Annuity of $300 to be guaranteed for ten years for which he paid $2,643. If he should die at, say, 80, the $300 a year will be paid to his heirs for the remaining five years, but in any case he will receive the Annuity as long as he lives should he live to be one hundred or more. This means in other words that the sum of $300 is guaranteed to be paid whether he lives or dies. The $2,643 had been invested at 6 per cent, and was yielding an income of $158.58; so that his income is now almost double that which he form-

If You Want to Rise.

If you want to rise in the world, you must raise something. If you want to rise in business, raise the business you are in. Don't imagine that when you have given your life to the lifting up of a business, the house will try to keep you down. A house cannot rise and keep down the man who raised it any more than a man can rise out of the water and keep down the life preserver that raised him.

No man can do a dollar's worth of work for a dollar. When you are working for nothing but a dollar, your work will not pan out at more than fifty cents. To do a dollar's worth of work you must work for a dollar and something more. You must work for the love of the business, or for the love of something—for something more than the dollar. A mere hireling never does more than fifty cents' worth of work for a dollar, because he has nothing to work for but the dollar. He may meet the requirements as to quantity, but never as to quality. So long as a man thinks of himself as a hireling, he will never hitch his wagon to anything but a pay envelope.

A large employer said the other day that he never distributes his pay envelopes without putting in them an inspirational leaflet—just a bit of printed matter to encourage his men, to spur their ambition, to incite them to higher endeavor. Men need something more than money. They need an encouraging word. They need antidotes for the blues. They need stout backbone braces. They need a friendly handshake, a handshake with a grip in it that helps a man get a new grip on himself.—The Young Man in Business.

Hair Beautifier. Refined Women the World Over Use It.

Every woman knows that there is nothing so good for hair and scalp trouble as Parisian Sage. If Parisian Sage is used two or three times a week it will keep the scalp nice and clean and remove dandruff. It makes the hair lustrous and fluffy, and keeps it from falling out. We urge every woman who loves radiant and fascinating hair to go to T. B. Taylor & Sons to-day and get a large 50 cent bottle of Parisian Sage. They guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

The Lure of Dress.

From the Baltimore American.
If parents would only impress upon their daughters the fact that the possession of personal charm calls for little in dress other than a refined taste, they would do much for the correction of the 'wrong ideas of young girls, which ideas breed discontent and cause dress to become infatuation—often with a tragical sequel. Yet the mothers in many instances have no ideas of taste themselves. They do not know how to get the best color compliments from the simplest materials, to fashion attire so that it will really enhance the personal attractiveness of their daughters. So they see these daughters with or without their consent—in most cases at first under parental protest—resort to cheap beautifiers and to taudry attire. The time comes when the girl is no longer satisfied with merely pretentious attire—she must have actual quality. Her tastes have developed in the direction of her desires and she finds herself engulfed in the maelstrom of unsatisfied vanity. It is not necessary to follow the story to the end, its end is sad enough. It is the end of the lure of vanity.

These girls need several things. They need most of all to be taught that beauty resides in simplicity, sincerity and artlessness. They need to be taught to avoid that which takes the bloom out of their complexions. They need to be taught that character lies at the base of attractiveness. They need to be taught that dress and adornment in excess are detractions from charm. They need to be taught in a word to make the most of their truer personality as well as the most of their personal attractiveness.

A two-piece mold by which poultrymen may make their own nest eggs from clay, has been patented.

Names in Electricity.

Electricity is the one branch of science that honors the great names in its fundamental terminology. Andre Marie Ampere was the French physicist who first measured the current and for whom the unit is named. The ohm bears the name of George S. Ohm, a German man of science who discovered the law on which the unit of electrical resistance is based. The volt is named for the Italian Volta, the greatest electrical authority of the eighteenth century, who was the first man to construct a rude electric battery. The farad, the unit of electrical capacity, is named in honor of the English physicist, Faraday; the coulomb, the unit of quantity, for the French physicist Colomb; and the unit of power, for James Watt, the Scotch inventor, who improved the steam engine.

To his many discoveries Thomas A. Edison has added the secret of longevity. "A man is just beginning to live at 65," says Mr. Edison. "Eat as much as you want, forget your troubles and never carry your business to bed with you. If you have a good carrier's appetite, take a good carrier's exercise to work it off." By conforming with this simple rule of living, Mr. Edison hopes to live to the ripe old age of 150.

A GOOD NAME IS TO BE PRIZED.—There have been imitations of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil which may have been injurious to its good name, but it so, the injury has only been temporary. Goodness must always come to the front and throw into the shadow that which is worthless. So it has been with Electric Oil: no imitation can maintain itself against the genuine article. m

The fact that it is possible now to telephone from New York to Denver, a distance of 2,611 miles, is a hopeful sign. Soon it will be possible to speak to any part of the continent, and then telephoning across the ocean will be introduced. Science is doing much to wipe out distance. With a network of wires stretching around the world we shall be able to call up anybody anywhere, and to hear the voice of the far-away friend or relative. Dr. Graham Bell laid in Brantford the foundations for a revolution, the consequences of which are tremendous.

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N.S., writes:

"For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial.

They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

"What's flour gluten, Bud?"
"It's what makes your dough rise, Rose."
"Yes"—she encouraged.
Added Bud very sagely:
"Makes it rise in the mixer and expand in the oven. It's the elastic part of flour—absorbs all the water and milk
—and things."
Rose grew interested.
"FIVE ROSES, said Bud, is exceedingly rich in gluten. I s'pose because it's all made from Manitoba wheat. Takes up a lot more water — makes those fat loaves — lasts longer too."
"Saves money, doesn't it?" asked Rose.
Bud in a big voice:
"The fat loaf makes the fat pocketbook."
Use FIVE ROSES always.
And Rose said YES.

$3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers

WHEN you enter the Canada Cement Prize Contest, your dealer will assist you. Consult him in reference to conditions of the contest. Refer all questions of doubt to him to decide. Confer with him when his experience and advice and his knowledge of our plan would seem helpful.

Don't hesitate about doing this. We have requested him to assist to the best of his ability any farmer in his locality competing in this contest—whether it's a matter involving the application of cement, or how to go about winning one of the prizes offered in this contest. Do you realize that you have as good a chance as the next man to win one of these prizes? There are four for each Province, as follows:

PRIZE "A"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who will use during 1911, the greatest number of bags of "CANADA" Cement. PRIZE "B"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who in 1911 uses "CANADA" Cement on his farm for the greatest number of purposes. PRIZE "C"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes us with photograph showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "CANADA" Cement. PRIZE "D"—$100.00 to be given to the farmer in each Province who submits the best and most complete description of how any particular piece of work shown by accompanying photograph, was done.

Contest will close on November 15th, 1911, and as soon as possible thereafter, prizes will be awarded.

Be sure and get a copy of our Contest Circular, telling all about the contest. Ask your dealer for one or use the attached coupon, if you find it more convenient.

In writing us, mention whether you have received your copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete," a profusely-illustrated 100-page book, which tells you how to build with concrete, so that you can do much of the work yourself. It's a mighty handy and useful book, and should save you many a dollar. Farmers who have received it, say it is splendid. Write to-night and it will go back to you with Prize Contest Folder, by return mail.

Young America's English.
 "What is the most incorrect sentence any of your children ever get off?" asked a Glenwood schoolteacher recently at the Schoolmen's club.

"One of mine got this off not long ago," responded a young man who teaches at the Robert Morris school: "It ain't him like, but yours."

"My best," said another teacher, "ran something like this: 'Rare roast beef is meat what there ain't none what's any underdunner.'"

The best one of the afternoon was furnished by a Germantown teacher. "Here is one," he said, "which has the old classic, 'He seen his duty and done it noble,' beaten forty ways: 'Leytenant Grant hearn the enemy in his bed, but he smuck up on him and killed him without know'n' who, where or what he was.'"—St. Paul Dispatch.

Young Eagles.
 An eagle lives from 80 to 100 years. The young birds are driven forth by their savage parents to provide for themselves as soon as they are able to fly. No training is given them of the old bird. That is left to their wild instincts, which hunger and necessity develop. There is no "going back to the old home" for the young eagles. The mother bird tears up every vestige of the nest, and if they emit plaintive shrieks the old birds dart at them and push them off the crags or rocks and thereby make them take to their wings. It takes three years for a young eagle to gain its complete plumage and strength.

The Variable Star Algol.
 The most noted variable star in the universe is Algol, which changes its brilliancy so remarkably that it was noted by shepherds of Mesopotamia many years ago. It is now known that Algol is not one star, but a double one. There are two suns revolving around a common center, one of which is blazing like our sun and the other is dead like the earth. Thus when the dark sun partially intervenes between us and the burning Algol much light is cut off.

How to Live Long.

With healthy kidneys, one has a good chance to live long; but weak kidneys afflict old age with great discomforts. The back becomes bent and lame, rheumatism is chronic, eyesight fails and too frequent or involuntary passages of the urine cause embarrassment by day and loss of sleep at night. Booth's Kidney Pills bring new strength to old backs and quick relief to weakened kidneys. They banish backache and rheumatic pain, regulate the bladder and urine.

Booth's Kidney Pills are for sick kidneys in old or young and are guaranteed by the proprietors, the R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. Sold everywhere, 50c a box. Free trial sent on request.

Years and Years.
 The music hall artist was visibly annoyed by the "booming" of a few cockneys in the rear of the theater. Finally she advanced to the footlights and shouted in anger:

Overcrowded.

 "That is so," agreed his companion. "You and I must leave it!"—Stray Stories.

FOR FAMILY USE

An Ideal Remedy for Coughs, Sore Throat, Catarrh, Weak Chest.

After having made a special study of the treatment of the throat and lungs for twenty years, Prof. D. Jackson states that in his opinion no preparation for general family use is so efficient, so healing, so certain to cure as Catarrhoxone.

As his reasons for making this claim for Catarrhoxone, Dr. Jackson says: "Catarrhoxone is free from opium. The patient can breathe its rich, balsamic fumes direct to the diseased spot. It is a remedy that treats and cures causes—prevents disease spreading. Reaches the innermost recesses of the throat, nose, bronchial tubes, and lungs. Alleviates chest soreness. Stops coughing instantly. Prevents bronchial irritations. Relieves clogged nostrils. Cures sniffles and nasal catarrh. Prevents La Grippe. Has proven itself a cure for weak lungs, loss of voice, speakers' sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, coughs, colds, and winter ills."

Catarrhoxone is unquestionably the world's greatest breathable cold, cough, and catarrh medicine, and being free from all drowsy drugs, entirely safe for children and old folks; it makes an ideal family remedy. Recommended by the medical profession, and sold by all reliable dealers. Beware of imitations, get "Catarrhoxone" only; large size lasts two months, and is guaranteed, price $1; smaller sizes 25c and 50c. By mail from The Catarrhoxone Company, Kingston, Ont.

Miss Bessie Beaton and Miss Mayme Strrett visited friends in Sarnia last week.

Mrs. Taylor, Markham, is a guest at the home of her cousin, R. J. McCormick, M.P.P.

W. J. Mackenzie, M.D., son of Mr. R. Mackenzie, left last Saturday for Red Deer, Alta., where he will follow his profession.

W. Jones, reeve, and W. G. Hall, deputy reeve, are in Sarnia this week attending the June session of the County Parliament.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mary's church, Warwick, will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Stewart on Wednesday, June 14th, from 2 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. W. H. Luckham and little daughter Amy returned home on Wednesday last week after spending a week with friends in London, Glencoe and Alvinston.

NOTICE.—Will the person who took the spectacles from the home of Mrs. J. Scott, 2nd line, Warwick, kindly return same without further notice as the party is known.—WALTER SCOTT.

Miss Rosy Thompson and her brother Albert, and Miss Kate Bryson and her brother James, of Plympton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bryson, of Watford, spent Sunday at their relatives, the Brysons of Wisbeach.

Miss Ethel Anderson, who has completed a four years' course at the University, Toronto, is spending the vacation at her home here and will leave for the West in the fall, where she will take a position in one of the Collegiate.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Campbell, daughter of Mr. Robert Campbell, 2nd line, and Mr. Garnet Cutler, St. Anne, Que., took place on Tuesday of this week, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Frank Campbell.

Mrs. Amasa Hagle is recovering nicely from the fall which she had two weeks ago while cleaning windows. She was standing on a step-ladder which slipped, throwing her to the ground. Besides the shock she received a cut an inch and a half long on the forehead. Dr. Copeland was quickly summoned and after some time succeeded in stopping the flow of blood.

Roy P. Hickson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Zealand Hickson, 4th line, S.E.R., Warwick, who has been at the Sarnia General Hospital for five weeks, suffering from typhoid fever, died Wednesday morning, aged 18 years, 8 months and 6 days. The remains were brought home and the funeral will be held from the family residence, lot 3, con. 4, on Friday at 12:30 for Bethel cemetery.

One day last week Mrs. John Hall, con. 3, N.E.R., had occasion to kill a rooster, nearly a year old, for the table. When the bird was being dressed a wire nail, nearly two inches long, and a carpet tack were found imbedded in the liver. It is not unusual to find such things in a gizzard, but the liver of a chicken is a new place for them. H. McFarlane, of Forest, father of Mrs. Hall, vouches for the correctness of this statement.

Mack, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, had a narrow escape from drowning last Friday, when he fell into the cistern which had been uncovered for a few minutes. The little fellow was running backwards and fell over the low curbing. Fortunately Mrs. Hall saw him but was not near enough to prevent his falling into the cistern. It was with great difficulty that Mrs. Hall reached the child as he came up the second time, while her two young sons pluckily held on to their mother to keep her from falling into the cistern, and it was with considerable struggling that she succeeded in getting up with the little boy.

The death of Annie Myrtle, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith, occurred on Friday, June 2nd, after two weeks' illness from pneumonia, aged 1 year, 1 month and 15 days. Interment took place at Bethel cemetery on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Fair, pastor of Bethel church, conducting the service. Four little boys viz.—Willie Cable, Macklin Bell, Fred Graham and Charlie Phelps were pallbearers. Those attending the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. I. Burns and daughter Verna, Sarnia, Mrs. William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Smith and little daughter Bessie, Mr. G. A. Smith and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tappier, all of London, Mr. and Mrs. Smith wish to thank their friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown them during the illness and the time of the death of their little daughter.

PLYMPTON.

Mr. Albert Donnelly is preparing to build a cement block cottage on his five-acre plot.

McIntyre Bros. have lost two spring colts, and the mother of one, in all a loss of about $300.

The Shirk Bros., 6th con., are making preparations for the erection of a brick mansion with all modern improvements. Wm. Warwick, Watford, is the contractor.

The electric storm Sunday night did little damage in this vicinity. Wm. McCormick's house was struck, demolishing the chimney and tearing off some shingles.

The Ketch baseball team is coming to the front, and has already beaten the Reece's boys two successive games. They are open for games with Wyoming or Watford, come on Macdoff.

Duncan McDougall about a month ago went west as far as Edmonton to see the country, and returned last week. He reports seeding not finished in many places, and snow two feet deep in some places. Duncan is of the opinion that Ontario is good enough for him and intends setting away for good. The trip no doubt has been a benefit to him.

Mr. Will Forbes, London Road, had his new barn raised on May 31st. It is a 40 x 56 feet with cement foundation nine feet high, 20 ft. posts. Everything went together without a hitch. About 100 men were present, the captains being Will Capes and Elliot Grieves. The heavy rain in the forenoon did not deter the contractors and the men went to work with a will and everything went along like clockwork until the parlor plate was in place. Each side worked like heroes to see who would get to the table first. Mr. Elliott's side won out by one rafter. David O'Brien and staff were the contractors.

Some good playing was done on both sides, but the Kingscourt nine proved their superiority over the Easterners by trimming them to the tune of 18-6.

Johnson—Johnson.

A most happy event took place on Thursday, June 1st, 1911, at 10:30 a.m., at the home of Mr. D. Johnson, Forest, when his daughter, Margaret M. and Donald Johnson, the well-known fruit grower of Forest and President of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, were united in holy wedlock. The day was most auspicious and the bride beautifully gowned appeared charming under the spruces in the grounds of the lovely old homestead where the ceremony was performed. The Rev. J. S. Leckie, of Forest, officiated, Miss Lena Johnson, sister of the bride, made a charming appearance as bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by Prof. J. W. Crow, of the O. A. College. The wedding party was made up almost of personal friends and relatives. Among the guests there were present: Mr. Alex. McNeil, Chief of the Fruit Department, Ottawa; Mr. Carey, also of the Fruit Department, Ottawa, and Mr. S. E. Todd, of the Department of Agriculture, Petrolia. A dainty luncheon was served after which toasts to the bride and groom were drunk and suitably responded to by the groom and Professor Crow. The bridal party left by automobile to take the train at Forest for a trip to Toronto and Montreal by boat down the lake and river. The most hearty congratulations and wishes for a long and prosperous life accompanied the happy pair from all their hosts of friends as they enter upon the new life before them.

Smith—Oakes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Oakes, cont. 43, Brooke, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday, June 1st, 1911, when their only daughter Lulu May, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Smith, of the 10th line, Brooke, in the presence of about 30 guests. Promptly at 6:30 p.m., to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Annie Nigh, consist of the groom, the bridal party took their places on the lawn. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in cream paillette silk with embroidered veil and orange blossoms. Miss Helena Shirley, who was attired in pale blue taffeta, attended the bride, while Mr. Archie Fisher supported the groom. The Rev. R. C. Burton tied the nuptial knot. After the company had given their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Smith they retired to the dining-room where they sat down to a sumptuous repast. The many beautiful presents testify to the esteem in which the young couple are held. Amidst showers of confetti Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the evening train for Niagara Falls and Canandaigua, N.Y. On their return they will take up their residence on the 10th concession of Brooke. They will be home to their many friends after the 15th of June.

FAREWELL PICNIC.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matthews, of Watford, gather at their old home and present an address and two beautiful chairs.

(From the Tillsonburg Observer.)

Kinglake, May 31—On May 24th the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matthews met at their home to say farewell before they took their departure for their new home in Watford, Mr. Matthews being one of the most prominent men in the township, having held the positions of councillor, reeve and treasurer, resigning the last named position on account of moving away. Mr. Matthews was also connected with the militia, holding the rank of captain of No. 4 company, 39th battalion. He was secretary-treasurer of the school board and also of the Kinglake Methodist church. He was a Justice of the Peace, and his advice was always taken in matters of dispute.

By noon on Wednesday about 200 people had gathered, the ladies all coming with well-filled baskets. Tables were soon erected on the lawn, and after the inner man was satisfied part of the afternoon was spent in playing ball by the younger people and in social chat by the older people.

Mr. Joseph Stansell was chosen chairman and filled the position in his usual pleasant way, after making a few remarks, called on the following gentlemen for addresses: Thomas McCord, Councillors Maguire and Collinson, Reeve Barron, John Frost and Alex. Millen, all of whom spoke in the highest terms of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews. After the speech-making was concluded, Harry Stansell was called and read the following address:

Kinglake, Ont., May 24th, 1911.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matthews, Dear Brother and Sister—It is with feelings of regret that we witness your departure from our midst. You have been with us so long in business and social life that we do not yet realize what a vacancy your going will cause. Your places will not be taken by others, but eventually we will accustom ourselves to your absence.

We do not believe in showing our regret at your departure by tears and long faces, but rather like the scriptural injunction that tells us to be "glad to rejoice when a good man passes away," so we are going to keep what sorrow we have to ourselves and rejoice with you and be glad that you are going to a larger field of endeavor, we will respect your judgment and enter heartily into the spirit of your enterprise with you.

We beg of you to accept these chairs as a tangible token of our affection and we pray that a full measure of success may attend your enterprise, and that you will find a place in the community to which you are going, as you have in the one you leave. We trust, also, that your new friends will be even more to you than we have been.

We sincerely trust that the goodness of God will follow you to your new home and keep us still one in spirit till we meet where friends part no more.

Signed on behalf of the community in general by J. W. Maguire, John Frost, T. H. McCord, Joe Collinson and John Barron.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews both replied, thanking their friends for the kindness they had shown them.

The Green Lamp A Story For St. Patrick's Day By Clarissa Mackie

Daniel Delavan sat on the edge of his bed and clicked his heels in monotonous rhythm. Beside him on the counterpane there curled three one-dollar bills. The wavy mirror above the bureau reflected a handsome face with worried lines around eyes and lips.

He had selected the ring last October in a jewelry store and paid a small deposit on it, but shortly afterward there had come an appeal for help from a relative in the old country, and a goodly share of Daniel's wages had gone across the water to ease the last days of the aged uncle and finally to furnish decent burial when the days were numbered.

warehouse where he worked as shipping clerk there was a florist who offered tempting bargains. It was down on Fourth avenue that he saw the auctioneer's flag fluttering in the doorway of an antique shop.

"Ladies and gentlemen," vociferated the auctioneer, "I now offer you a wonderful bargain. You see before you what? A little battered vessel of brass so covered with verdigris that it is as green as the fellow who misses buying this bargain at his own price! What is it? A lamp, an ancient brass lamp—see, here is the place for the wick—which was found in a junkshop in the city of Bagdad, Turkey. You all remember the story of Aladdin and his wonderful lamp? Well, this is said to be the veritable lamp of Aladdin!"

"No, sir! This is not a gravy boat. It is nothing less than the lamp of Aladdin, and whoever rubs it hard will be attended by those—those mystical beings who granted every wish that young Aladdin desired."

Aladdin, and whoever rubs it hard will be attended by those—those mystical beings who granted every wish that young Aladdin desired.

"Why don't you rub it yourself?" inquired one skeptic. The auctioneer grinned impudently. "The reason I don't summon the spirit of this lamp is because I'm afraid he'll realize the value of the bargain and run off with it as well as the whole shop. Now, gentlemen, who will give me a bid on Aladdin's lamp?"

"Is that straight?" asked Daniel of his neighbor. "Of course," returned the other, grinning. "I'll take a chance on it, then," said Daniel grimly, and presently the lamp was sold to him for the sum of $150.

A block away the elevated trains rattled and thundered along. All around him was the busy hum of traffic, and, unseeing, unhearing, Daniel Delavan walked along in a dream of fairies and friendly giants, who combined to hasten his wooing of Nellie Burns and bring it to a happy termination.

"It came as easy as could be," he whispered to her after he had related his doubts and fears and the loss of the emerald ring. "It's all that blessed old lamp," sighed Nellie. "We will always have that on the parlor mantelpiece, and we will always believe in fairies and giants, won't we, Danny?"

"Sure! Because if it hadn't been for the lamp of Aladdin I might not have been engaged to you this moment," said that happy young man. Kaiser and Cafetier. The Kaiser possesses the property at Corfu known as the Achilleion, which was once the villa of the ill-fated Empress Elizabeth of Austria.

They sat together on the sofa while Daniel and Nellie looked at the lamp. "You are not?" stared Nellie. "I like you for having fancies like that, Daniel. I'll admit I have a sneaking belief in fairies myself. Now, let us rub the lamp and make wishes. Who knows what will happen?"

Nellie solemnly rubbed the paste on the coat of verdigris. The spot she rubbed grew brighter and brighter. "Now wish!" she said suddenly. Daniel grew red and nodded his head affirmatively. Nellie was thoughtful for a moment and then bent seriously to her task.

"That you'd marry me," flashed Danny, whirling around. "What did you wish, Nellie?" "That you'd ask me—why, Danny?" Her radiant face was buried on his shoulder. "It came as easy as could be," he whispered to her after he had related his doubts and fears and the loss of the emerald ring.

"It's all that blessed old lamp," sighed Nellie. "We will always have that on the parlor mantelpiece, and we will always believe in fairies and giants, won't we, Danny?" "Sure! Covered With Eczema CURED BY TWO BOTTLES D. D. D.

On March 21st, 1910, Mr. Angus McMillan, of Port Hood, N. S., wrote us: "My little boy three years old was covered from head to foot with eczema. I tried over twenty different kinds of salves and washes but could not get any improvement—in fact it seemed to be getting worse. I was about discouraged and had lost faith in all kinds of so-called eczema cures, when I saw an advertisement about D. D. D. Prescription. I sent for sample bottle and the third application convinced me that I had at last got a sure cure. Two bottles effected a complete cure."

Many a man who boasts of his genealogical tree can't even spell it without the aid of a dictionary. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY, Toledo, O. LIVER LAZINESS

Those Who Lack Energy and are Unsuccessful Should Read This Closely.

"I am only thirty years old, yet for almost two years I have felt more like seventy-five. I have found it difficult to sleep at night and in the morning feel so depressed and heavy that effort was difficult. My hands were always clammy and perspiration on slight effort would break out all over me. It was not unnatural that I should begin to brood over the chance that I should soon be unfit to do my work, and this dread made my sleepless nights perfect misery. After repeated trials of medicine and mixtures Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me the first gleam of hope. From the very first I could see they were different in action from other pills. They didn't gripe and acted as naturally as if nature and not the pills were cleansing my clogged up system. My spirits rose, I felt much better, the sluggish action of the system gave way to normal activity. Dizziness and headaches ceased, appetite, good color, and ambition to work returned and have remained. I am like a new man and I thank Dr. Hamilton's Pills for it all." This was the experience of J. E. Parkhurst, a well-known grocery dealer in Jefferson. Follow his advice, use Dr. Hamilton's Pills for your stomach, kidneys, and liver, and you'll enjoy long life and robust good health. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, in yellow boxes, 25c. per box, from The Catarrozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

ETIQUETTE AND LOVE

A Lesson That Effie Admitted She Needed.

It was characteristic of Ross Brady that he laughed, although somewhat bitterly, as the gaudy autocar dashed by. He had received but the merest nod of recognition from Miss Danvers. "Ross, my boy," he soliloquized, "you must have made a mistake in thinking you were invited to join this festive crowd." He took a small envelope from his inner coat pocket and read portions of the note in a mumble, adding caustic comments as he proceeded. "My dear Ross! M'm, dear Ross feels pretty cheap—about 23 cents' worth at the present moment! There will be a small party of us at Wiers from the 10th to the 27th. Well, I'm only two days in the rear—not bad for a laboring man! It would be very pleasant if you could be there at the same time! M'm, please! I wonder just where the pleasure comes in! Well, here we are. Ross, brace up!" He furtively slicked the dust from his shoes and ran lightly up the broad terraces to the hotel piazza. He had hoped that Effie would wait for him. She must have known that he was on his way to call upon her. The torturing minutes seemed hours after he had sent up his card, and he felt the scarlet blood mount to his forehead again and again as some laughing girl stole a second glance at his handsome face and stalwart figure.

PHYSICIANS Failed to Cure Rheumatism

Miss Flora Chapman Vividly Describes Her Sufferings and Ultimate Cure With 'Nerviline.' "After being an enthusiastic user of Nerviline for years, I feel it my duty to tell you personally what your wonderful preparation has done for me. "I suffered torture from rheumatism and heart trouble, tried scores of so-called remedies, consulted for weeks and months with Toronto's most eminent physicians, but derived only slight benefit. "A friend insisted on my using Nerviline, and to my surprise a vigorous rubbing of this powerful liniment eased the pains and reduced the stiffness in my joints. I continued to use Nerviline and was permanently cured. I am now for three years have had no rheumatism at all. I know many families where no other medicine but Nerviline is kept. It is so useful in minor ailments like earache, toothache, neuralgia, coughs, colds, lumbago, and scalds. I call Nerviline—my 'Life Guard,' and urge all to try its merit." Dec. 17th, 113 Palmerston Avenue, Toronto.

NERVILINE Cures Rheumatism

Miss Van Vance introduced him with an air of proprietorship. "My friend, Mr. Brady," adding as she presented him to Miss Danvers, "the fact that you are both Vermonters ought to be an immediate bond between you two." Poor little Effie colored and faltered. She dared not say they were old time friends in the face of Brady's somewhat formal acknowledgment of the introduction. With delicate tact Miss Van Vance drew out Brady's gift for narrative, and he was soon in the midst of an absorbing story of a wild fox hunt. The other two young men of the party were seated in the bow of the launch, smoking. Suddenly a sheet of flame shot high into the air. A lighted match had ignited the gasoline in the escape basin, and an explosion of the main tank seemed inevitable. The young fellow employed to run the launch was paralyzed with fear. The girls shrieked in terror, and two or three sprang upon the seat to leap into the water. "Sit down!" shouted Brady sternly. He plunged his hand into the fire and turned the valve, thus stopping the flow of oil from the main tank. Then he threw himself against the flames wherever they appeared, beating them out with his coat and bare hands. The other men, recovering from their momentary panic, wet their caps and assisted him. Then some one screamed again, and Miss Danvers' clothing was seen to be on fire in the back. Brady instantly threw his arms around her, smothering the flames against his own body. No one was more than slightly injured, except Brady. His arms and hands were quite badly burned, and the physician looked grave as he dressed them. "I hope you will pardon the manner in which I embraced you, Miss Danvers," said Brady nonchalantly. "I fear it was hardly according to etiquette," glancing humorously at Miss Van Vance. "You are a splendid hero!" cried Mrs. Lyons hysterically. "Effie should be proud to be embraced by such a man." "Even if he is an utter stranger," added Miss Van Vance significantly. Effie threw back her girlish head defiantly and stepped to Brady's side. "He is not a stranger!" she exclaimed, putting her hand caressingly on his shoulder. "Ross and I have been engaged ever since we were children. Only I—I—" "Never mind, Effie," interrupted Ross tenderly; "you needn't try to explain." "I congratulate you both," said Miss Van Vance cordially, "only, teasingly, as she held Effie's hand warmly in her own—" "Only, Miss Danvers, your manner of announcing your engagement is so wholly without regard to—" Effie smiled brightly through her tears. "I know, Miss Van Vance, and I deserve a lesson. You have been a good friend to me." "Better than you know, little Effie," murmured Miss Van Vance to herself as she turned away, "and the temptation was greater than you can possibly understand."
