WHILE affording all the advantages and facilities usual with other Offices, this Institution possesses special and attractive features peculiar to itself, and it has largely contributed to the extension of Life Assurance throughout the whole of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as British North America.

During the Twenty-six Years of its operations, the Association has been among the most successful of the Life Offices, and few of them during the last ten or twelve years have attracted so many Entrants.

The Life Policies now in force amount to	£5,570,767
Policies on Lives deceased, and Paid by the Association, already amount to upwards of	600,000
Profits already distributed in Cash to the Policy-holders during their Lives	235,000
Accumulated Fund Reserved on hand	853,766
Net Annual Premium Income, besides Interest on Investments	153,142

The System and Regulations

have been framed, and from time to time improved, so as to secure to the Policy-holders not only the utmost value for their Payments, but especially the following:—

As small outlay as possible by the Policy-holders.
No responsibility on the part of the Policy-holder, whether of partnership or mutual assurance.
No liability to Forfeiture, or so little that only gross carelessness by the Policy-holder can affect the Policy.
A Liberal Return to the Policy-holder, if he desire to relinquish his Policy, or,
The Loan of a Sum nearly equal to its office-value without cancelling the Policy.

THE EMINENT USEFULNESS OF THE INSTITUTION

Is apparent from its having paid, during last year alone, Policies on Deceased Lives, amounting to Ninety Thousand Pounds Stg.

Class A.

This Scheme was arranged expressly with the view of reducing the expense of Life Assurance, and that object has been attained with eminent success.

An allocation of profits is made every year to all participating Policy-holders—a considerable reduction of the premiums. The annual return of profit on Policies of first series has attained to 37½ per cent., or 7s. 6d. on 20s. Later Policy-holders have already obtained reductions of 25 and 27½ per cent.

Under the credit system, the assured may leave one-half, one-third, or one-fourth of the first six years premiums unpaid as long as he pleases, interest is charged on the amount unpaid at the low rate of five per cent., receiving at same time the same benefits and share of profit as if the full premium had been paid.

After six years, Policies in most cases become undisputable.

Class B.

This Scheme of unconditional Life Assurance obviates objections commonly urged against Life Assurance, such as omission to pay a premium by oversight; Restriction as to occupation and Residence. The Assurance becoming virtually non-forfeitable and unquestionable.

These material improvements give the policies an extraordinary value and importance.

PREFACE.

THE Publisher presents herewith the NEW BRUNSWICK DIRECTORY for 1865-6, which he trusts will meet the approval of those who have contributed so liberally to its support. Every effort has been made to issue the Book in the most complete and correct shape, and, as far as possible, it has been made thoroughly reliable. It will be found to contain a complete record of the inhabitants of the various parts of the Province, and also a full Miscellaneous Directory of general information.

The Publisher takes this opportunity of tendering his thanks to many gentlemen throughout the Province, for valuable assistance rendered. He is under especial obligations to John Howe, Esq., Postmaster of St. John, for his valuable aid in procuring and supplying information.

The second edition of the Directory will be published in August, 1867.

BRIEF NOTES ON NEW BRUNSWICK.

The Province of New Brunswick is a compact tract of country, nearly square in outline, situated between the parallel, of 45° and 48° North latitude, and the Meridians of 63° 45′ and 67° 50′ West longitude; and is bounded northerly by Canada and Bay Chaleurs, westerly by the State of Maine, easterly by the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and southerly by the Bay of Fundy and Nova Scotia. Its area is estimated at about 27,620 square miles, or 17,677,360 acres; its greatest length being 210 miles, and greatest breadth 180 miles.

The history of New Brunswick has yet to be written; its early annals are at present only to be gathered from various and scattered sources, chiefly relating to the history of Nova Scotia; of which Province New Brunswick once formed a part; and it is rather suprising, that after having been for upwards of eighty years a separate Province, no native of New Brunswick has yet undertaken to collect all the materials for her history, and to publish the result of his labours in a compact volume.

At the period of the earliest acquaintance of Europeans with New Brunswick, the country was inhabited by various tribes of Indians, of whom the remains of only two now exist, viz.: Micmacs and the Melicetes. The former speak a dialect of the Iroquois (or six nations,) and other Northern tribes; the latter are derived from a race of Delaware Indians; but their physical characteristics differ but little. Their numbers are now comparatively small, probably not exceeding one thousand in the aggregate, of whom the larger proportion are Micmacs. These aborigines are noted for great powers of endurance, especially in travelling long distances with heavy burdens; skill and sagacity in hunting, and in ascending and descending dangerous rapids in their light bark canoes; and for their remarkable quickness of perception in discovering and following the trail of animals and men. Both tribes are scattered in families in different parts of the Province, mostly leading a monadic life, and appear to be gradually diminishing in numbers; and superior as they are in many respects to many other uncivilized races, their probably inevitable extinction at no very distant period is matter for much regret.

The early history of New Brunswick is included in that of Nova Scotia; the two Provinces having originally formed a colony of France, under the name of Acadia. The oldest settlements in New Brunswick, (of which, however, very little is known,) appear to have been on the River St. John, and at Chignecto and Bay Verte. The first attempt at colonizing the Northern portion of the Province was make in 1639. In 1672 several small settlements were formed on the River Miramichi, by a few families of French emigrants, who also commenced the establishment of a fortified town, called Petite Rochelle, near the mouth of the Restigouche. Considerable settlements were also formed on Beaubair's Island and Point, (so called from Mons. Beaubair, the Governor of the Colony;) and all of these settlements flourished until 1757, when a succession of calamities commenced. English cruisers interrupted their export trade; their crops failed and famine succeeded; a pestilence was introduced among them from a vessel wrecked near the mouth of the Baie des Vents River; transport ships, conveying provisions from France for their relief were captured by the English; and the result was that 800 of these unfortunate people perished; and most of the survivors fled to Bay Chaleurs and other places.

Upon the expulsion from Nova Scotia, in 1755, of the disaffected Acadian French inhabitants, many of those who had escaped capture and forcible deportation, abandoned their homesteads and established themselves on the previously unsettled gulf coast of what is now the Province of New Brunswick. The French settlement at Petite Rochelle still existed, after the capture of Quebec by the British in 1759; but the following year was destined to witness its destruction. In 1760 a French fleet, intended to attempt the recovery of Quebec, being pursued by a British squadron, under the command of Captain Byron, took refuge in the Restigouche, at the town of Petite Rochelle. An engagement ensued, which resulted in the capture and destruction of the whole French fleet; after which exploit, the British commander demolished the town and razed its fortifications to the ground. Evidences of this conflict still remain, in cannon partially buried in the sand, and the relics of some of the French ships, which can be seen at low water; while arms and munitions of war of various kinds have from time to time been picked up. The civilization and comfortable circumstances of the former inhabitants of the town have also been evidenced, by the discovery among its ruins of silver forks and spoons, china and other articles of luxury.

From 1761 to 1764 numbers of emigrants from other colonies, and from the mother country, arrived and settled in this Province; among them a Mr. Davidson, a native of the north of Scotland, located himself at Miramichi, and received from the British Government a grant of 100,000 acres on the southwest branch of that river, where, being joined by a Mr. Cort from Aberdeen, the partners speedily established a valuable trade; the chief source of which was the abundant salmon fishery.

In 1764 Messrs. Simonds, White, and Peabody settled at the locality now known as St. John.

In 1765 the country bordering on the St. John river was erected into a county called Sunbury; whence it is now often said, that whereas the county of Sunbury once virtually included the whole Province, it is now the very smallest county in the Province. The first English settlement on the river St. John was founded by some families from Massachusetts, to whom the British Government had granted a township on that river, and who established themselves at Maugerville, in the district now known as the county of Sunbury; and this community was at various times during the American war increased by parties of British Loyalists and refugees. The first commission of the peace for this settlement bears date the 11th August, 1766; and the Courts of Common Pleas were held in Sunbury for many years after.

In 1775 the "Old Colonies," as they were called, rebelled against the dominion of Great Britain, and commenced the American Revolution; inaugurating their revolt by, among other acts, destroying the property of loyal British subjects on the St. John river, at Charlotte Town, P. E.

I., and several places in Nova Scotia. In this raid upon New Brunswick, the rebels landed at St. John, burned the fort and barracks, and captured a brig loaded with oxen, sheep, &c., intended for the British army at Boston. Martial law was then proclaimed by the local authorities; and early in 1776 the "Vulture," sloop of war, was stationed in the Bay of Fundy, between Digby and St. John, for the protection of the neighboring settlements on both sides of the Bay.

In July of the same year, Mr. Michael Francklin, on the part of the British Government, concluded a treaty of peace with the Indians on the St. John river; who then delivered up to him an agreement which they had entered into with the rebels, to furnish them with 600 fighting men. This treaty was renewed with the Indians in 1778; but in 1779 they again assembled in great numbers on the St. John river, threatening to make war on the English. But they were finally appeased by promises of presents from the Government; and this was the last threat of an Indian war.

In 1783 a treaty of peace was concluded between Great Britain and France; and in the same year several thousands of disbanded troops were removed from New England to New Brunswick. The great landing of the loyalist refugees, with their families, from the revolted colonies, took place on the 18th day of May, 1783, a day to be ever memorable in the history of New Brunswick. The landing was effected on the wilderness shores of Parr Town, in the harbour of St. John, where the great and flourishing city of St. John has since supplanted the original designation of "Parr Town."

In 1784 New Brunswick was separated from Nova Scotia, and made a distinct Province. Its first Governor was Colonel T. Carleton, who was sworn into office at Parr Town, and held his first Council on the 22nd Nov. in that year. Governor Carleton presided over the Province for nearly ten years; and by his judicious and paternal administration, mainly contributed to raising the country from almost a state of wilderness to a comparatively advanced condition of prosperity and civilization. The seat of Government was at first fixed at St. John, and the first and second sessions of the Legislature were held there in 1786 and 1787; after which the Government was removed to the new town of Fredericton, the site for which, on St. Ann's Point, had been selected by Governor Carleton in 1785.

The boundary between New Brunswick and the United States was for a long period of years a subject of dispute between the two countries.—The Treaty of Paris, in 1783, attempted to define the northwestern limit of "Nova Scotia," but did it in so ambiguous a manner as not to suit the country, and to offer only fertile grounds for differences of opinion; and thus each of the countries concerned claimed a large tract of most valuable land, which was long known as the "Disputed Territory." In 1794 Commissioners were appointed by both Great Britain and the United States to settle the dispute, but left it just where they found it. In 1815, at the Treaty of Ghent, it was agreed by both parties to submit the question to the arbitration of the king of the Belgians, and to be strictly bound by his decision. King Leopold made an award, much more favorable to the United States than the New Brunswickers considered just, giving to the former 7,908 square miles, and to the latter

4,119. Great Britain, however, was fully prepared to abide by the decision; but the other power refused to do so, and at once began to colonize the disputed territory, building forts, granting lands, and making settlements. In 1839 the British Government again appointed Commissioners, in the hope of putting a stop to a state of things daily becoming more serious. But as nothing would satisfy the United States but an unconditional surrender of the whole disputed territory, this attempt also failed. The latter force then made preparations to invade this Province, and a border war for some time appeared to be inevitable. New Brunswick appropriated her whole revenue for the defence of the Province, and Nova Scotia voted £100,000 and 8,000 men in aid of her sister colony. Through the wise and active exertions, however, of Sir John Harvey, the then Lieutenant Governor of New Brunswick, actual hostilities were averted.

The British Government then sent out Lord Ashburton, with full powers to make a settlement, who, after much negotiation, agreed to accept the line which now constitutes the acknowledged boundary between the two countries.

"While these negotiations were in progress," says one of the authorities from which we quote, "the American Senate held a secret discussion on the subject. From statements since published, it appears that this body gave its approval to the Ashburton Treaty with the full knowledge that it had no right to the land claimed."

It appeared that an official letter of Benjamin Franklin's on this subject, dated Dec. 6th, 1782, and referring to an accompanying map, on which the true boundary line was marked with a "strong red line," was discovered at Paris by an American gentleman named Sparks. The map itself was also found, and on it was delineated, by a "strong red line," the identical boundary line claimed by the British! This map was in the possession of the United States Government during the negotiation of the Ashburton Treaty; and "with such information the United States Senate hastened to ratify a treaty giving them 7,015 square miles of territory, of right belonging to the unsuspecting mother-country!" For the sake, however, of peace, and of the final extinction of a long and irritating source of rancour between the two nations, the much-enduring mother country accepted the sacrifice.

In noticing prominent historical facts, we must not pass over the great fire of Miramichi, which occurred in 1825, and which caused such tremendous destruction and desolation of both life and property. The summer of that year was unusually warm, rendering the dry underwood and fallen leaves of the forests, as well as the resinous quality of the timber, more than naturally combustible. The consequence was, that fires originating in the woods near the Miramichi river, spread with awful rapidity and fury, rapidly enveloping the towns of Newcastle and Douglastown, and extending even to the Nashwaak, near Fredericton, a distance of more than 100 miles in length. This frightful conflagration burnt over nearly 4,000,000 acres of land, destroying 160 human beings, 875 head of cattle, 595 buildings, and about £60,000 worth of property, besides many valuable groves of excellent timber. Even the very fish in the rivers were consumed by its ravages. Mr. Cooney, in his history of the Northern Counties of New Brunswick, remarks: "Thousands of wild beasts, too, had been destroyed in the woods, and from their putrescent carcases issued streams of effluvium and stench. Domestic animals of all kinds lay dead and dying in different parts of the country; myriads of salmon, trout, bass, and other fish, which, poisoned by the alkali formed by the ashes precipitated into the river, now lay dead, or floundering and gasping on the scorched shores and beaches; and the countless variety of wild fowl and reptiles shared a similar fate. Such was the awful conflagration at Miramichi, which elicited the prompt benevolence of very many philanthropists in the Old and New World, who subscribed £40,000 for the relief of the survivors, whose property to the extent of nearly a quarter of a million was destroyed." The evidences of this terrible conflagration are still to be seen in the neighborhood of Fredericton and thence to Miramichi, in the scathed and withered myriads of trunks of tall trees, standing like ghosts where they formerly flourished as blooming forests,

In 1828 King's College, at Fredericton, now styled, under the provisions of a Provincial Act of Assembly passed in 1860, "The University of New Brunswick," was established by Royal Charter, mainly procured through the instrumentality and exertions of Sir Howard Douglas, the then Lieutenant Governor. Sir Howard was the first Chancellor of the College, and founded a splendid prize of a Gold Medal, of the value of $40, to be annually bestowed on the author (being a student) of the best English essay on a given subject. Previously to the incorporation of King's College by Royal Charter, the institution had existed from the year 1800 as a Provincial College. Connected with the University is the Collegiate School at Fredericton, which prepares youths for entering on a collegiate course of study in the University, and which enjoys a high reputation as an educational establishment. Candidates for matriculation in the University are subject to no test or distinction in reference to religious profession, age, or otherwise. The University is supported by an annual grant from the Provincial Legislature, under the provisions of the Civil List Compact, of a sum equal to £2,000 sterling, and by a revenue arising from a large endowment of lands.

In 1836 the Baptists founded a public "Seminary," in Fredericton, for the youth of their denomination; and in 1843 the Wesleyan Methodists were presented with a similar establishment by the splendid munificence of a private individual, the late Charles F. Allison, Esq., who not only gave the site, but, at his own sole expense, founded, built, and endowed the "Sackville Academy," at Sackville, in the county of Westmorland, for the education of male youths. In 1854 this establishment was enlarged, by the foundation of a separate "Female Academy" at the same place. All these institutions are in a highly efficient and flourishing state.

In 1837 the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick sent two delegates to England, to represent to the parent government that the people of their colony had not sufficient control over the levying and disbursement of the Provincial taxes; whereupon the Crown entirely relinquished to the Province its inherent rights to the casual and territorial revenues, in consideration of a fixed civil list of £14,500 currency per annum being granted and guaranteed in permanency by the Provincial Legislature.

In 1849 the electric telegraph between St. John and Halifax was first established; since which other lines from St. John to the United States, by the way of St. Andrews and St. Stephens, to Fredericton and Woodstock, and, by way of Moncton, to Miramichi, have been constructed, and are in profitable operation.

In 1849, also, a company was incorporated for the construction of the European and North American Railway; and in 1853 the first sod was turned, with great ceremony and enthusiastic demonstration. This railway was originally intended to run from St. John westerly to St. Andrews and St. Stephens and the border of the United States, and north-easterly to Shediac, thence south-easterly to the Nova Scotia border line, there to connect with the railroad from Halifax to that line. As yet, however, only the portion from St. John to Shediac and Point du Chene, on the Straits of Northumberland (108 miles), has been completed; but the growing necessities of the commercial interests of the Province daily more and more strongly demonstrate, that the western extension of the line, i. e. from St. John to the American frontier, is a vital necessity, and must ere long be consummated. Another railroad in existence runs from St. Andrews to near Woodstock, called the New Brunswick and Canada Railroad, and was originally intended to embrace the whole route between these two places; but the early fulfilment of that design appears as yet very problematical.

In 1854 a treaty of Reciprocity, called the Elgin Treaty, was concluded between Great Britain, on the part of the British North American Provinces, and the United States, with the object of facilitating fishery privileges and commercial intercourse between these colonies and their republican neighbors; subject, however, to termination by either of the contracting powers, on giving twelve months' previous notice to the other party. This treaty has, in many respects, been mutually advantageous to both countries, but especially so to the Americans, who, under its provisions, have enjoyed the advantages of obtaining British registers for their ships, and participating in the coasting trade, while they have persistently denied similar privileges to us.

The Government of the United States have recently given the stipulated notice of their intention to terminate the Treaty, and it will, therefore, expire, unless in the meantime renewed with amendments, early next year.

New Brunswick is at present divided into fourteen counties, viz.:—York, St. John, Queens, Kings, Charlotte, Westmorland, Albert, Kent, Northumberland, Sunbury, Carleton, Victoria, Gloucester, and Restigouche; of which the county towns are (in the same order) as follows:—the City of Fredericton, the City of St. John, Gage Town, Kingston,* St. Andrews, Dorchester, Hopewell, Richibucto, Newcastle, Burton, Woodstock, Grand Falls, Bathurst, and Dalhousie.

The population of the whole Province was, at the last census, taken in 1861, 252,047. The progressive increase in the population (which of course includes both by births and immigration), will be demonstrated by the following statement of grand totals at different successive periods, viz.:

* Kingston is at present the County Town of Kings County, but it is probable that ere long, by virtue of a recent Act of Assembly, the County Town will be removed to Sussex.

Grand total	in 1783	11,457
Do	in 1803	27,000
Do	in 1817	35,000
Do	in 1824	74,176

Do	in 1840	156,162
Do	in 1851	193,800

It will thus be seen that the increase of population has been very remarkable, being three and half times in the last thirty-seven years, and two and a quarter times in the last twenty-seven years.

In 1845 Commissioners were appointed by Her Majesty's Government to explore and survey the route for a railway from Halifax to Quebec, across the Province of New Brunswick. In their Report, submitted to Parliament in 1849, signed by Major Robinson, R. E., the Province is thus described;

"Of the climate, soil, and capabilities of New Brunswick it is impossible to speak too highly. There is not a country in the world so beautifully wooded and watered.

"An inspection of the map will show that there is scarcely a section of it without its streams, from the running brook up to the navigable river. Two-thirds of its boundary are washed by the sea; the remainder is embraced by the large rivers, the St. John and the Restigouche. For beauty and richness of scenery, this latter river and its branches are not surpassed by anything in Great Britain.

"The lakes of New Brunswick are numerous and most beautiful; its surface is undulating, hill and dale, varying up to mountain and valley. It is everywhere, except a few peaks of the highest mountains, (and the cleared and cultivated tracts,) covered with a dense forest of the finest growth.

"The country can everywhere be penetrated by its streams. In some parts of the interior, by a portage of three or four miles, a canoe can float away either to the Bay of Chaleur and the Gulf of St. Lawrence, or down to St. John in the Bay of Fundy.

"Its agricultural capabilities, climate, &c., are described in Bouchett's work, in Martin's British Colonies, and other authors. The country is by them, and most deservedly so, highly praised."

One of the most important features in the topography of the Province is its extent of sea-coast, amounting to 400 miles, exclusive of the numerous undulations of the shore. This distance is nearly equally divided between the Gulf of St. Lawrence, including Northumberland Straits, and the Bay of Fundy. Along both coasts there are many excellent harbours, and many other advantageous localities for ship building, as well as for the prosecution of the fisheries and the timber trade—three of the great staples of the Province.

Along the Bay of Fundy the shores are mostly high and precipitous, and rocky headlands succeed each other with picturesque effect. On the St. Croix river, which is the boundary between the Province and the United States, is situated the port of St. Andrews; and at the head of the navigation of the same river is the port of St. Stephen, opposite to the American town of Calais, the two towns being connected by a bridge. The mouth of the Musquash river is a tidal harbour, and an outport of St. John. The port and city of St. John are the commercial emporium of the Province. Other important sea-ports are Chatham (Miramichi), Richibucto, Bathurst, Dalhousie, Shediac, and Sackville.

The Bay of Fundy, the principal bay of the Province, is 100 miles long, its greatest width being 45 miles; Chignecto and Cumberland Bays are extensions of the Bay of Fundy. Passamaquoddy Bay, at the southerly angle of the Province, divides it from the State of Maine. On the north-east of the Province are Bay Verte, and the Bays of Shediac, Cocaigne, Richibucto, and Miramichi, off-shoots of Northumberland Straits; and in the north-west is the spacious Bay Chaleur, 80 miles long and 27 miles in its greatest breadth.

As we have already seen, New Brunswick abounds in rivers and running streams, of all dimensions. Of these we can mention only the principal. The St. John river, whose sources are partly in the State of Maine and partly in Canada, after running a course 450 miles in length, debouches into the Bay of Fundy through the harbour of St. John. It traverses seven counties, receiving in its course numerous tributary streams, some of which are 100 miles in length, and navigable for a considerable distance from their confluence with the St. John. The rise and fall of the tide in the harbour of St. John is so very great, that it is impossible for ice to form in it; it is, therefore, always open, and ships of the largest size arrive and depart at all seasons of the year. The other principal rivers discharging into the Bay of Fundy are the St. Croix, 80 miles long, and part of the provincial boundary, as before mentioned; and the Petitcodiac, 100 miles in length, emptying into Chignecto Bay. On the northern coast, the principal rivers are the Restigouche and the Miramichi, each 200 miles long; and the Richibucto, 50 miles long.

Of the almost innumerable lakes of New Brunswick, we can only notice the Temiscouata, at the head of the river St. John, 15 miles long and from 2 to 3 miles in width; Grand Lake, 30 miles long and from 3 to 9 miles broad; and Washademoak Lake, nearly 20 miles long and averaging about three-quarters of a mile in breadth, both in Queens county; Belle Isle Bay, a recess of the River St. John, in Kings county; the Oromocto Lakes, in Sunbury and Charlotte counties; and the Loch Lomond Lakes, three in number, and connected by streams with each other, in St. John county.

New Brunswick is, for the most part, a level country, and therefore, peculiarly adapted for agricultural pursuits. In the principal parts of it, bounding on the Bay of Fundy, and for may miles inland, there are few hills of considerable size. For 200 miles on the north-eastern shore, between the Bay Chaleur and the Nova Scotian boundary, there is scarcely a hill exceeding 300 feet in height. The principal elevations form a range called the Tobique Mountains, running from that locality to the Canadian boundary. This chain consists of oval topped hills, varying from 500 to 800 feet in height, crowned with forest trees almost to their summits. Some of these eminences, indeed, attain to a height of 2,000 feet; Bald Mountain, the highest land in the Province, being 2,240 feet high.

New Brunswick, like other portions of the North American Continent, partakes of the extremes of heat and cold, and the variations of temperature are often extremely great and sudden. The winters, however, are less severe than those of Lower Canada; and the climate is exceedingly healthy. The greatest severity of cold in New Brunswick is far more endurable than the humid atmosphere of an English winter. The climate is highly favourable to health and longevity, and there is no disease peculiar to the country.

The general ranges of temperature are, at St. John from 23° below zero (Fahrenheit), to 88° above zero; at Fredericton, in the interior, from 35° below to 95° above zero.

On the shores of the Bay of Fundy there is much fog during the summer season, arising, it is considered, from the contact of the warmer waters of the Gulf Stream with the colder sea through which it runs; but this fog extends but a short distance into the interior. Thus the city of St. John is frequently enveloped in a dense sea-fog, whilst only a few miles distance the country people are enjoying cloudless skies and a brilliant sun. On the sea-coast the air is much warmer in winter and colder in summer than in the inland parts of the Province; the difference being caused by the influence of the neighbouring seas.

The winters in New Brunswick have greatly ameliorated during the last twenty-five or thirty years. Formerly winter commenced early in November, and lasted till the end of April, making about six months of winter; but of late years the season has been found never to be fairly set in before Christmas, and to break up at the end of March or early in April, making a winter of only about three months' duration. In this present year we have had a remarkably early spring; the ice of the river St. John having opened at Fredericton on the 6th of April; and the steamers commenced running between St. John and Fredericton on the 9th April.

The space allowed in this Directory for these "Brief Notes" is too limited to permit of our entering into a detailed notice of many interesting subjects, such as the Mineralogy and Geology of the Province, its forests and fisheries, agricultural and manufacturing interests, internal communications, commerce and navigation, political, municipal, judicial, and other institutions, and various other statistical items. A few brief memoranda must, therefore, close our present compilation.

Agriculture being, of course, a primary necessity in all countries possessing a fertile soil, a large proportion of the population of New Brunswick are profitably engaged in that honorable and healthy pursuit. Every kind of farm produce that can be brought to market always commands a ready and remunerating sale; and, as a body, the farmers of New Brunswick are a well-to-do people, many of them wealthy, all of them owners of the lands they occupy, and all at least in easy circumstances, enjoying an abundance of the necessaries and comforts of life. The Report of the compilers of the Census, taken in 1861, says: "There can be no doubt that there is a growing disposition, on the part of a very large proportion of our people, to engage in agricultural pursuits. As evidence of this, we find that the number of persons now reported as farmers, or farm laborers, exceeds the number similarly engaged in 1851 by 88.16 per cent., and that there is now 37.44 per cent. more land cleared and improved than there was in 1851. A proportionate increase will also be observed in the quantities of live stock, and the products of the farms."

After agriculture, the three great staples of New Brunswick are ship-building, and the products of the forest, and the fisheries.

The forests furnish the materials for its staple export of timber, and its principal manufactures, viz., ships and sawed lumber. The chief American timber for commercial purposes is of the genus pinus, which includes the resinous evergreens termed pines and spruces; the chief of which are the white pine, the red pine, the black pine, hemlock spruce, the spruce, the balsam or fir, the hackmatack, and the cedar. The New Brunswick forests also produce a variety of leafy trees, such as the gray and red oak, the walnut or buternut, the various maples, from which large quantities of maple sugar are annually made, the birch, the beech, the ash, the alder, the willow, the elm, dogwood, basswood, &c. Many of these woods are articles of export, the value of which in 1861 amounted to $2,920,000.

The fisheries of New Brunswick are an unlimited and inexhaustible source of wealth; although its products and privileges are greatly interferred with and participated in by foreigners, especially under the protective operation of the American Reciprocity Treaty. Cod, pollack, hake, haddock, halibut, salmon, mackerel, herrings, gaspereaux, and sea shad are the fish principally taken in our waters; besides lobsters and other shell fish in great abundance. In 1854, Mr. Perley estimated the annual value of the fisheries of the Province at £40,000 sterling; but in that same year, as it afterwards appeared, which was a year of great success, the export of fishery produce amounted in value to £55,000 currency, which was increased in 1859–60 to no less than £80,000. In 1861, as appears by the Census Returns, the produce of the fishers was $518,530.

Ship-building is a prëeminently special occupation and boast of the colonists of New Brunswick; and the local advantages for its successful pursuit were apparent to its earliest settlers. One of the first settlers in the harbour of St. John, Mr. Jonathan Leavitt, built a small schooner there in 1770, and named her the "Monnequash," which was the Indian name for the rocky peninsula on which the eastern portion of the city of St. John now stands. In 1773, Mr. William Davidson built a large schooner on the Miramichi, and named her from that river. From that time ship-building in New Brunswick has steadily advanced, until it has attained its present enormous extent and value, and the Province is now famous for constructing ships of the largest size, of the best quality, beauty of model, and swift sailing capacity, unsurpassed by builders in any other part of the world. St. John and Miramichi are the principal and most extensive ship-building ports, but vessels are also built at St. Andrews, at Teignmouth, and Quaco, and various other coves and harbours in the Bay of Fundy; on the banks of the river St. John, even up to 90 miles from its mouth; on the Kennebeckasis (a tributary of the St. John), and at the Grand Lake; on the banks of the Petitcodiac river, and at Sackville in Cumberland Basin. On the other side of the Province, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, ships are built at Shemgoue, Cocagne, Buctouche, Richibucto, Kouchibouguac, Miramichi, and Shippegan; at Bathurst and Dalhousie, within the Bay of Chaleur; and at Campbelltown, on the Restigouche. The value of the ships built and registered in the Province in 1861 was stated by the comptroller of the customs to be $1-, 674,000.

Comparatively but a few years ago, little or nothing could be said of the manufactures of New Brunswick, exclusive of ships. Of late years, however, the Province has made wondrous strides in manufacturing pursuits; the vast increase of the use of steam-power, the establishment of numerous branches of manufacture, and especially the supplying of the rolling stock for our railways, and the consequent extraordinary increase of iron castings and machinery, increased the value (say the compilers of the Census Returns,) of the manufactures of 1861, as compared with those of 1851, over 393 per cent. They state the total value of these productions, including cloth made by farmers, in 1851 at $1,269,626; and in 1861 at $3,130,898. We may here appropriately quote an extract from an editorial article, which appeared in the St. John Courier, on the 15th November, 1864:

"Comparatively but a few years ago, our only manufacturing staple was the building of ships: a great and glorious manufacture, which has wondrously contributed to our provincial wealth, and established our provincial reputation in that respect. But late years have seen a miraculous advance in our industrial pursuits. Formerly, within our own recollection, every candle burnt and every pound of soap we used were imported articles, and many other articles of common requirement were the same. What is the case now? How have time and enterprise altered the state of facts? We have no statistics at hand to refer to, and can, therefore, only jot down from memory a meagre catalogue of facts. Our several Provincial Exhibitions of industrial and mechanical produce have, of late years, brought wondrous facts to light; and New Brunswickers now find themselves manufacturers of soap, candles, carriages of all descriptions, spikes and nails of all kinds, ships, steamboats, axes, and every description of edged tools, steam-engines, boilers, locomotives, and all sorts of machinery, saws of all kinds, cotton and woollen goods of various kinds, paper, hats, caps, and all sort of clothing, fur goods, preserved meats and other edibles, confectionery of all kinds, patent medicines and remedies, stoves, grates, and all sorts of foundry work, agricultural implements of every description, and a variety of other articles which our memory at present fails to record. But we have said enough to shew what amazing strides in manufacturing operations New Brunswick has taken in recent years; how wondrously these operations have increased her material and permanent wealth, and to justify us in earnestly urging her sons and daughters to persist in increasing and multiplying the productive manufacturing energies of their country, so as to secure a sure basis and source of provincial wealth and prosperity on which they may safely rely, when the precarious resources of the forest and the lumberman shall gradually fail and die away."

VARIOUS MODES OF ASSURING.

Half Premium System without debt or interest.
Endowment Assurances.
Partnership Assurances.
Short Term Assurances.

THE "City of Glasgow Life Assurance Company," was established in 1838, by special Act of Parliament. It has now been conducted with much success for 25 years, which is attributable not only to the perfect security which it affords for the due fulfilment of every contract, but likewise to the Company's extensive and influential connexions, and to the liberality of its dealings.

The Premiums are equitably graduated. The profits are distributed with a due regard to the claims of all classes of Policy-holders.

The last declaration of Bonus was made 20th January, 1864, which is the close of the Company's financial year, when a Bonus at the rate of one and a half per cent. on the sums assured was declared for the past year. In place of the surplus being annually divided, the profits will in future be ascertained and allocated quinquennially. Policies participate from the date of their issue, but the Bonuses do not vest until they have been five years in existence.

Rates of Assurance and all other information may be learned from the Agent, Worm Lozenges.

We can with confidence point to FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES as the most elegant and perfect Remedy for Intestinal Worms in use. After years of careful study and experiment, we offer a Confection without a single fault, being Safe, Convenient, Effectual and Pleasant.

SAFE,—Because no injurious result can occur, let them be used in whatever quantity. They contain no Mineral Drug or Poisonous ingredient.

CONVENIENT,—Because they may be used without further preparation, and at any time.

PLEASANT,—Because children will eagerly devour all you give them, and ask for more.

EFFECTUAL,—Because they never fail in expelling Worms from their dwelling-place, and they will always strengthen the weak and emaciated, even when he is not afflicted with Worms.

With these facts before them, who can fail to acknowledge that

FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES

"Our Young Folks."

AN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

THIS Magazine was established to promote the interests of Boys and Girls—to furnish them rational AMUSEMENT and INSTRUCTION, combined in such manner as to render the one profitable, and the other pleasing. A want in this respect has long existed, and has been deplored by Teachers and others concerned in the education of youth. It was with the purpose of meeting this want that the Publication of OUR YOUNG FOLKS was undertaken. Its success has exceeded all anticipations thus far, and has fully justified the judgment of its Publishers as to what is required to make up a

FIRST CLASS JUVENILE MAGAZINE.

The Editorial management of OUR YOUNG FOLKS engages the attention of three editors: Mr. J. S. TROWBRIDGE, author of "Father Brighthopes"; GAIL HAMILTON, one of the most popular of female writers; and LUCY LARCOM, the gifted author of "Poor lone Hannah sitting at the window binding shoes." The list of contributors comprises the name of Capt. MAYNE REID, who has been called the Walter Scott of the Juveniles; Mrs. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE; EDMUND KIRKE, "Carleton"; R. H. STODDARD, "Oliver Optic," "Aunt Fanny," the author of "Seven Little Sisters," and many others who possess especial qualifications for instructing and entertaining children.

Each number of OUR YOUNG FOLKS contains from twelve to twenty-five Drawings, by the best artists, which illustrate the literary contents of the Magazine, and add to their attractiveness.

"Round the Evening Lamp," introduces a pleasing variety of Puzzles, Enigmas, Rebuses, etc., etc., which have proved remarkably popular with the Boys and Girls.

TERMS OF OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTION.—Two Dollars a year. Single Numbers, Twenty Cents.

CLUBS.—Three Copies for Five Dollars; Five Copies for Eight Dollars; Ten Copies for Fifteen Dollars; Twenty Copies for Thirty Dollars; and an extra copy gratis to the person forming the Club of Twenty.

POSTAGE.—The postage must be paid at the office where the magazine is received.

CLUBBING with the ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The ATLANTIC ($4.00 a year), and OUR YOUNG FOLKS ($2.00 a year), will be sent together to one address for Five Dollars.

☞ All subscriptions are payable in advance.

All letters respecting the magazine should be addressed to the Publishers.

MELODEON MANUFACTORY.

The great perfection which has been attained in the construction of Reed Instruments, should completely remove the prejudics against them formerly entertained by many musicians.

The increasing patronage awarded to us by tho public, as well as the uniform satisfaction which our instruments have given, wherever they have had a trial, testified by the numerous commendatory letters we are constantly receiving, a few of which we publish, is a sufficient evidence that for

and in fact all qualities desirable in instruments of this class, those manufactured at this establishment are in all respects equal to those of any other maker

We desire to call particular attention to the

"EXCELSIOR ORGAN."

Its combined power and sweetness of tone renders it suitable for a Church or parlor, and the best substitute for a pipe organ that can be obtained.

From W. E. Gould, Cashier International Bank, Portland.

PORTLAND, May 23, 1863.

For several years I have had frequent opportunities to notice the many good points in the Melodeons made by Mr. J. B. Cheney, of this city, and as the result I have urged my friends who were intending to purchase an instrument of this class, to procure one of Mr. Cheney.

W. E. GOULD.

PORTLAND, June 8, 1863.

SIR:—In compliance with your request, I have made a thorough trial and examination of the "Excelsior Organs" made at your establishment, and unhesitatingly pronounce them the best instruments of the kind I have ever seen. The novel arrangement of the swell-stop I consider a great acquisition, as the player is enabled to change the quality of tone from loud to soft without removing the hands from the key board. I also remarked the easy action of the bellows, which in instruments of equal power, I think, is rare to find. I most cheerfully recommend your instruments to all who desire to purchase.

G. W. MARSTON,
Organist of St. Luke's Church, Portland, Me.

The Combination Valve is applied to all our Instruments.

☞Persons ordering by mail, will get as good an Instrument as though selected by them personally. No charge for Packing.

REPAIRING and TUNING promptly attended to.

J. D. CHENEY, Manufacturer,

No. 135½ Middle Street, PORTLAND, ME.

C. P. KIMBALL,

Carriage Manufacturer.

The attention of the public is respectfully called to the enclosed Cut of my NEW STYLE PATENT JUMP-SEAT CARRIAGE—as used for two or four passengers—invented and patented by me. I have made a great number of these Carriages the past two years, ranging in weight from 325 to 425 pounds, capable of carrying four grown persons, and they are universally liked better than any Carriage ever before offered to the public. I manufacture these, as well as a great variety of other styles of Carriages, at my own establishment, and warrant them to be of the best material and workmanship.

Please read the following from the large number of recommendations I have received from gentlemen who have owned and used the Carriage.

I HEREBY CERTIFY, that I have used, the past season, the KIMBALL JUMP-SEAT CARRIAGE, on which Mr. C. P. Kimball obtained Letters Patent on the 15th of November, 1864. I take great pleasure in saying to all persons desiring a good, genteel and serviceable Family Carriage, that, in my opinion, the Kimball Jump-Seat far surpasses anything of the kind ever before invented—being very genteel in style, as light and well adapted for one or two persons as any single carriage, yet roomy and comfortable for four full grown persons—is also one of the easiest riding Carriages I have ever seen, either with two or four persons. The seats are so constructed that even a child can shift them, and so well proportioned and made that they do not get out of repair. I advise all to examine them before purchasing any other kind of Family Carriage.

LAFORME'S PATENT NURSING BOTTLE.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 29, 1859.

A. The Rubber Nipple. B. The flexible part of the Tube. C. The glass part of the Tube in the Milk, with rubber on the end.

The superiority of this BOTTLE over all others now used, will at once be made apparent when it is considered that they are entirely FREE FROM ALL METALLIC SUBSTANCES; and in whatever position held, the end of the flexible tube will always be at the bottom of the bottle, thereby preventing the child from drawing air, as is too commonly the case with other kinds. Price 50 cents.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

Let the Afflicted read, and know of the Astounding Efficacy of the GREAT HUMOR REMEDY!

HOWARD'S VEGETABLE CANCER AND CANKER SYRUP,

Surpasses in efficacy, and is destined to Supersede, all other known remedies in the treatment of those Diseases for which it is recommended.

It has cured CANCERS after the patients have been given up as incurable by many Physicians.

It has cured CANKER in its worst forms, in hundreds of cases.

It has always cured SALT RHEUM when a trial has been given it, a disease that every one knows is exceedingly troublesome, and difficult to cure.

ERYSIPELAS always yields to its power, as many who have experienced its benefits do testify.

It has cured SCROFULA in hundreds of cases, many of them of the most aggravated character.

It cures KING'S EVIL.

It has cured many cases of SCALD HEAD.

TUMORS have been removed by it in repeated instances in which their removal has been pronounced impossible except by a surgical operation.

ULCERS of the most malignant type have been healed by its use.

It has cured many cases of NURSING SORE MOUTH when all other remedies have failed to benefit.

FEVER SORES of the worst kind have been cured by it.

SCURVY has been cured by it in every case in which it has been used, and they are many.

It removes WHITE SWELLING with a certainty no other medicine has.

It speedily removes from the face all BLOTCHES, PIMPLES, &c., which though not very painful, perhaps, are extremely unpleasant to have.

It has been used in EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, and never fails to benefit the patient.

NEURALGIA, in its most distressing forms, has been cured by it when no other remedy could be found to meet the case.

It has cured JAUNDICE in many severe cases.

It has proved very efficacious in the treatment of PILES, an extremely painful disease.

DYSPEPSIA, which is often caused by humor, has been cured by it in numerous instances.

In FEMALE WEAKNESSES, IRREGULARITIES and diseases peculiar to that sex, it has been found a most potent remedy.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, from whatever cause, the Syrup can be relied upon as a most efficient aid.

It is a most certain cure for RICKETS, a disease common to children.

Its efficacy in all diseases originating in a depraved state of the blood or other fluids of the body is unsurpassed.

Its effects upon the system are truly astonishing and almost beyond belief to one who has not witnessed them.

This Syrup will as certainly cure the diseases for which it is recommended as a trial is given it, and the cure will be permanent, as it, by its wonderfully searching power, entirely eradicates the disease from the system.

The afflicted have only to try it to become convinced of what we say in regard to it, and to find relief from their sufferings.

PAPER BAGS.

Having enlarged our accommodations and secured a heavy stock, we feel sure you will find it for your interest to trade with us.

PAPER.—This department comprises a stock of Writing, Wrapping, Printing, Fancy, Manilla, Sheathing, &c., &c., too numerous to mention. Suffice to say, every class of trade or manufacture will find just what they want, on hand, or odd sizes and weights to order at short notice. We have the whole or part product of thirty mills making every variety, TWINE.—We shall endeavor to keep constantly on hand every variety of Flax, Cotton, Hemp, and Jute, used by Manufacturers, Grocers, and others, for Baleing, Bundleing and Sewing. We have a fine substitute for Cotton Wrapping Twine; it is Cheaper, Lighter and Stronger, being only two-thirds in price.

STRAW BOARD.—Of this we always have as large a stock as any firm in New England, and a greater variety of sizes than can be found anywhere. Quality equal to any—always at the lowest prices.

PAPER BAGS.—Machine Paper Bags have become an institution, and no good business can be done without them. Every variety of sizes always on hand, from quarter pound Spice Bag to quarter barrel Flour Bag. The Flour Bag has lately been introduced to take the place of cotton, being stronger and very much cheaper. Any orders, large or small, by mail or express, will receive prompt, personal attention, and will be filled as favorably as if the purchaser were present.

USE

DR. WARREN'S

BILIOUS BITTERS!

TO PURIFY THE BLOOD;

To Cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, and all Bilious Diseases; to Cure Dyspepsia Sour Stomach and Heartburn; to Restore the Lost Appetite; to Cure Costiveness, Headache, Dizziness, Faintness, and All-gone Feeling at the Stomach.

TO THE WEAK AND EMACIATED this Medicine is particularly recommended, as the most perfect Tonic and Invigorator the world has ever seen. The use of Dr. Warren's Bilious Bitters never fails to cleanse the system from all morbid and unhealthy secretions, thereby preventing or curing Diseases of the Skin, and all complaints caused by impure Blood, OBSTRUCTED CIRCULATION or an unhealthy state of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels.

For Lassitude, Drowsiness, Dizziness, Headache, General Weakness and Debility, and all complaints incident to the Spring season, it is believed that Dr. Warren's Bilious Bitters have no equal in the world.

Mr. DANIEL SMITH, of Barton, Vt., who had been out of health for a long time, and unable to labour, writes under date of August 27th, 1862:—"I commenced taking the Bitters first of July; having taken one bottle and part of another—find my health quite restored. My son has been troubled for years, with sores under his arms, and has been cured by taking one bottle of Dr. Warren's Bilious Bitters."

Dr. FRANK L. MASON, a very successful practitioner, in Suncook, N. H., writes March 27th, 1863:—"Having made extensive use of Dr. Warren's Bilious Bitters in my practice during the past two years, I have no hesitation in recommending them to the public as a very reliable and valuable family medicine, from the use of which can be obtained more satisfactory results than from any other compound with which I am acquainted." Subsequently, in conversation with the proprietor, Dr. M. says: "I should not know how to get along in my practice without Dr. Warren's Bilious Bitters."

Patented in the United States, England and France.

This Celebrated and Unrivalled FURNACE, now in so general use, for WARMING DWELLINGS, PUBLIC BUILDINGS, etc., stands pre-eminently ahead of all other known plans for thoroughly warming, with fresh, healthful heat, and at much LESS EXPENSE FOR FUEL, than can be secured by any other means of warming.

There is a large variety of sizes, for setting in Brick Work, as well as those for setting in Double Sheet Iron Casings, as Portables

PATENT DOUBLE OVEN COOKING RANGE.

The great improvements secured by five claims, patented in this superior Range, over any other Range known, makes, it the most perfect Kitchen Range in the world. Its extensive use proves it to be the universal favorite of the kitchen. Housekeepers will appreciate it on examination.

Several sizes of my NEW COOKING STOVES (for coal or wood) will be out this Spring, to which I invite the special attention of all who wish to see the greatest improvement yet made in Cooking Stoves.

a a represents the Steel Spring encircling the body. b. the arm connecting Spring and Pad. c. the Pad playing upon a ball and socket joint d. d, a ball resting in a cup or socket in the end of a lever lying under the plate of Pad c. e, the thumb-screw which depresses the lower end of the lever, forcing the checked socket in its upper end firmly against the ball d, thus holding the Pad securely in whatever position it is placed. f, a screw, by removing which, the arm b can be turned to the opposite side, making it right or left at pleasure.

WM. K. LEACH,

This Truss possesses the following advantages which render it superior to all others, viz.; 1st. Its ease of adjustment; the Pad moving freely upon a ball and socket joint, finds its proper bearing upon the body, and can then be retained in place by means of the thumb-screw. 2d. It can be made to fit either right or left side: an important consideration to those Dealers who keep but a small stock on hand. 3rd. Its lightness and elegance; rendering it the most attractive Truss yet offered to the public. 4th. The ease with which it can be worn. Those who have once used this Truss can never be induced to go back to the old styles.

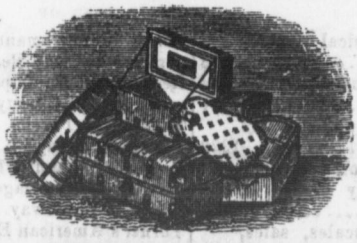

Orders from Physicians and Druggists respectfully solicited.

REED'S IMPROVED STEAM ENGINE.

We give herewith a neat and compact form of Mr. John A. Reed's steam engine, which seems specially designed for drilling and pumping oil wells and mines, also for printing-offices, manufacturing, sawing, ginning cotton, hoisting, etc., etc. This engine is so constructed as to reduce its weight twenty-five per ct., and dispenses with the working parts which are most easily deranged, making it one of the most durable, powerful, and safe engines known, and may be operated by men of ordinary experience as engineers. Since the extraordinary demand for engines of this character, over one hundred of these have been constructed by Mr. Reed, with his improvements. This engine has been, however, manufactured by Mr. Reed for the past twelve years, during which time he has given his entire attention to improvements in the use of steam.

Its universal application where power is required makes it the most economical and compact engine extant; hence less expensive for transportation to remote parts. Special care and attention appear to be devoted to the strength of the boiler, which he makes of the best boiler-iron, and has them tested, after completion, to carry over one hundred pounds of steam. For further particulars we refer the reader to the builder, 55 Liberty St., New York.
