SECURITY MEETINGS IN BLAZE OF GLORY

EXPECTATIONS ARE EXCEEDED BY RESULTS

A New Europe Seen by French Foreign Minister

UNANIMITY SEEN

Chamberlain Greatly Moved During Closing Hours of Conference

LOCARNO, Oct. 17.—Europe's security conference ended early this morning, literally in a blaze of glory. Throughout the night there were fireworks, music and dancing to commemorate the initiating of the pact which the Allied and German statesmen have formulated with the idea of a new Europe arising from the old slough of discord.

Not alone the people, but all the delegates have shown their belief that real friendship and co-operation and the burial of past differences easily can be achieved by continuing the good spirit which was given birth in Locarno. The statesmen are unanimous that the results attained at the security conference exceeded their secret expectations.

NEW ERA VISIONED

Dr. Stresemann, German Foreign Minister, joined M. Briand, France's Foreign Minister, in declaring that Locarno must mark the beginning of a new era in the peaceful development of the lives of nations, based on mutual confidence and good will.

Particularly felicitous were the speeches of the leading delegates at the final conference last night, when the remaining details of the compact had been agreed to and adjournment was taken with the understanding that the treaties would be signed in London, on December 1.

A new Europe must rise from Locarno, Mr. Briand said. Then referring to Germany and France, he added: "Between our two countries there remain indications of the friction of misunderstanding. The pact signed today must be a balm for these wounds. All difficulties must pass away."

CO-OPERATION NEEDED.

With reference to France's occupation of the Rhine, M. Briand said that all Frenchmen wanted to see appeasement, and he was certain that they would lead to the development of states and peoples be secured. This, for no part of the earth, is so important, as for the great European continent.

We assume the responsibility for the political result of these agreements will benefit the German people, alleviating the conditions of their political life."

St. Hon. Austen Chamberlain, British Foreign Secretary, usually unperturbed, was overwhelmed with emotion during the final proceedings, as he fanned upon what the decisions of the Locarno conference meant for the harmonizing of the world's his words were almost unintelligible.

WILL BENEFIT GERMANY.

"We assume responsibility for initiating because we are convinced that only by the path of peaceful neighborly life, can the development of states and peoples be secured. This, for no part of the earth, is so important, as for the great European continent."

ONE KILLED, 21 HURT IN KENTUCKY STORM

Eighty-mile Gale Sweeps State, Leaving Wreckage in its Wake.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—Traveling at eighty miles an hour, a terrific wind storm swept over four counties in the south central part of Kentucky late yesterday, severely injuring 21 persons, one fatally, uprooting trees, demolishing houses and farm buildings and completely destroying telephone communication.

Early today, communication with the stricken area had not been restored, so no definite estimate of the extent of the casualties or the amount of the property damage, could be made. Estimates early today, however, placed the toll of injured at more than 25, and the property damage at tens of thousands of dollars.

New York Pastor and Brother Badly Hurt, Sister Dies In Airplane Crash

HUSBAND SCORED AS WOMAN IS CONVICTED

Many Farm Implements and Autos Shipped Through U. S.

BY A. M. BELDING

TORONTO, Oct. 16.—Although I only arrived here this morning I have had no difficulty in locating some of the valuable Canadian traffic, apart from grain, flour, packing houses and cheese, which flows through United States ports.

HUNDREDS upon hundreds of carloads of automobiles go from Ontario plants to New York for export. Large quantities of agricultural implements go the same way, as well as rubber goods and some kinds of canned goods. No doubt I shall learn in the next few days why the routing is through the American port. "New York," said one business man, "is at their back door, and Saint John and Halifax seem far off; but, of course, there is always the matter of steamship service and low ocean rates to be considered, and these rates are not infrequently made very attractive by lines out of New York." The shippers will have an opportunity to explain these matters.

I have met with a very cordial reception from the Toronto daily papers, whose editors express hearty sympathy with the Maritimes, and a desire to get a clearer understanding of our problems. I found Secretary F. D. Tolhard of the Board of Trade busy dictating letters in relation to the coming conference at Winnipeg, but he found time to give me some valuable information, as did H. G. Buchanan and A. Morice of the Canadian Pacific trade department. The opportunity will be given me to address several organizations.

Accomplished At Locarno

Approved the "Rhine pact," which, in effect, binds France and Germany never to fight again. Endorsed by France, Belgium and Germany, it provides recognition of a demilitarized Rhineland zone 50 kilometers wide by the three nations, which by its terms pledge themselves to arbitrate all quarrels. Great Britain and Italy sign as guarantors, agreeing to aid either party which is the victim of aggression by the other.

Negotiated four conventions providing for arbitration of disputes between Germany and Belgium, Germany and France, Germany and Poland, and Germany and Czechoslovakia.

Approved two agreements between France and Poland and France and Czechoslovakia, which, without prejudice to the arbitration conventions, guarantee to France the right to help her eastern allies in the event of flagrant aggression.

Buried the hatchet of the great war, creating a spirit of mutual confidence and good will between the states of the former enemy countries, which, with the operation of the treaties, is declared to assure the restoration of peace and security in Europe.

Convicts Are Returned To Cells After Three Weeks Holidays

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Fifty convicts at Maidstone jail were given three weeks' holiday in the Isle of Wight as a reward for good conduct. They were lodged at the Camp Hill Penal establishment, where they did only light work during their vacation and where they were in the midst of beauties of Parkhurst forest. They returned to Maidstone last night in an ordinary motor coach and attired in ordinary civilian dress, but they resumed their old positions as prisoners in the jail.

MRS. JAVISSE IS GUILTY OF MAN SLAUGHTER

WIFE COLLAPSES

Is Carried Into Court To Hear Verdict—Lies on Bench In Dock

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 17.—While Mrs. Ruth Janisse, tried for the killing of Clayton McMullin, the "other man" in a love triangle, sobbed hysterically in the witness box, the jury in Mr. Justice Grant's court, after an absence of four hours, last evening, returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter.

Shaken with wild sobs, Mrs. Janisse was carried into the court room a few minutes before the jury was due to enter. She was too weak to sit and was allowed to lie on the bench in the dock. Her frantic weeping continued, despite efforts of the police men to calm her.

CARRIED FROM COURT

The verdict given, Mr. Justice Grant deferred sentence until later in the session. He expressed satisfaction and appreciation of the verdict. The prisoner broke into renewed hysterics, and was carried from the court room by her cell below. At that moment, all eyes were turned upon Mrs. McMullin, widow of the slain man. She collapsed and had to be carried through a side door. Her sobs echoed back up the stairs.

Thus ended another dramatic chapter in what is probably the most sensational case in the recent history of Essex county.

Clayton McMullin was shot to death on the night of August 18, after being called out of a friend's room, and was killed in the arms of his wife, Mrs. Janisse. It was the first time she had left the court room all day, as she was too weak to be taken out at noon and spent the entire noon recess lying on a make-shift couch on the prisoners' bench.

JUDGE IS CAUSTIC

During the afternoon, while the judge was charging the jury, she maintained the same reclining position, paying little or no apparent attention to what was going on about her. Mr. Justice Grant occupied himself with several references to Arthur Janisse, husband of the accused woman, were accompanied by caustic comment in the court's summary.

Referring to the fact that Janisse had apparently done nothing after discovering the relations between McMullin and his wife, last January, and had become friendly with McMullin again, the court commented: "Janisse's conduct in this matter is reprehensible. Perhaps you can. It is incomprehensible to me."

BLAMES HUSBAND.

The court also pointed out in relation to Janisse that it was he who brought his wife and McMullin together after a lengthy separation following the events of last January.

"They were apart for four or five months," the court said. "During that time, they saw each other occasionally, but they were to all intents and purposes separated. There was no remainder of the intimacy which had formerly existed. Then, in response to repeated requests or expressions of desire on the part of his wife, Janisse arranged for them to meet again. What ever has happened has happened more or less, by reason of the fact that Janisse brought them together after those months of separation."

FIRE INQUIRY STILL GOES ON

Marshal McLellan Will Resume Hearing in Matter Tonight

Busy Today on Reports Current—Status of Projection Booth in Theatre.

H. H. McLellan, provincial fire marshal, was busy today running down rumors and reports in connection with his investigation into the recent disastrous fire at the City Hall, West Saint John.

The investigation yesterday disclosed that the booth in the Empress Theatre located in the building was not of standard fireproof construction, but was of ordinary one-inch masonry.

A new machine had been installed and a projection hole cut through the wall of plaster and lath for this purpose, the opening being left unprotected from fire.

METAL LINED. The booth was of very cheap construction and was well below standard, the fire marshal said.

The regulations require that theatre projection rooms should be covered with two plies of asbestos and with one ply of sheet metal, Factory Inspector Kenney said.

Louis McCourt, the operator, said yesterday that he had been in error when he informed newspaper men the booth was of concrete. He added that, to his knowledge, the booth was of wood covered with metal. He did not know whether or not there was any asbestos covering.

Besides Mr. Thorne, Inspector Kenney and Mr. McCourt, the witnesses heard were Harold Olsen, manager of the theatre; Charles Clark, deputy chief of the fire department; the chief operator of the Imperial Theatre staff and two of the assistants at the Empress.

It was brought out in the evidence that the machine was still running 15 minutes after the firemen reached the burning building.

CASE DISMISSED. Bernard O'Donnell appeared before the Police Magistrate this morning for driving past a street car while passengers were alighting at the corner of Prince Edward and Clarence streets at 9 p.m. on Oct. 15. William Shippey, motorman on the street car, told of stopping at the corner and seeing a lady passenger being forced to jump back toward the street car as an automobile passed. Policeman Covay told of stopping the automobile, but the driver said the defendant was not the driver as it was a colored man named Clarence McCarthy. The magistrate dismissed the charges against O'Donnell.

RED CROSS DRIVE. That there is in sight $600 from Saint John as the result of the drive for members and funds for the New Brunswick Red Cross was the opinion of Mrs. James H. Doody, general convenor, this morning. Many new members joined the ranks in West Saint John and the whole effort was received with cordiality by the people. More than $400 was in hand today, and with the receipts to come from East Saint John and Fairville, where the workers sent optimistic accounts of their reception, the sum of $600 does not seem to much to hope for, Mrs. Doody said.

Mrs. James Brittain of 105 Duke street, West Saint John, is celebrating her 93rd birthday today. "HONEST COP" GETS 4 MONTHS IN JAIL

Westbrook Caught in Bribery Case Over Favors to Beer Barons.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The law has spent more than half its upholding reputation on the "Honest Cop," Wesley H. Westbrook, when Federal Judge Wilkerson sentenced him to four months in jail for contempt of court for accepting bribes from and for helping Jerry Drugan and Frank Lake, rich young beer barons. Peter M. Hoffman, sheriff of Cook County (Chicago) and for 20 years a police officer, was also sentenced to the federal penitentiary with a jail sentence of 30 days and fine of $2,500.

One new figure was brought into the contempt hearing only one escaped punishment, Arthur Pendi, former jail guard who accepted $100 after he had accepted Lake to Lake's sister's funeral.

Dr. Percival was held to the federal grand jury in $3,000 bail.

FOR GRAND JURY. Hoffman, Westbrook, Drugan, Lake, Henry Foerst, formerly Westbrook's secretary and confessed collector of bribes and H. Thompson and James Fitzgerald, former assistant jail warden, also were ordered held to the federal grand jury in $3,000 bail each for violating four sections of the federal law.

Drugan, Lake and Foerst testified to payments of thousands of dollars in bribes for removal from cells to hospital wards, a day and overnight at the police station, and for the release of prisoners. Foerst admitted he retained several thousand dollars, and Westbrook also was accused of having fixed $2,000 a month, divided into $1,000 payment on the first and sixteenth of months as the amount necessary for "consideration" of Drugan and Lake.

The evening was pleasantly enlivened by a meeting of the Little Mary Roderick, Hilda Connors and Ethel Kierstead, and card games and singing. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Mary McGowan, Miss Mabel McKay and Mrs. Frank Doherty.

PROPOSAL TO PROTECT AIRMEN

Britain Plans Armor for Machine Gun Operators in Planes.

Either Steel Turret or New Bullet-proof Outfit Suggested.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The newest of all forms of warfare, flying, is to go back to medieval times for an idea in the protection of combatants.

Our modern fighting men, the occupants of swift, fast-climbing aeroplanes, are to ascend to their aerial duels clad in armor like the knights of old.

Aerial "combats," in which machine-guns expose films instead of firing bullets, are now revealing the vulnerability of gunners in the exposed cockpits of big war-planes when attacked by fast single-seater scouts.

As one of these fighters comes swooping down upon a big bomber it is found to afford an extremely small effective target. The pilot offers as a mark to the enemy's fire little more than his head, just showing above the cockpit, the rest of his body being protected by the shield of metal direct-ly in front of him represented by his big, high-powered motor.

On the other hand, airmen operating machine-guns from their cockpits in the bomber's bulk, present a far larger target. Not only their heads and shoulders, but a good part of their bodies, are in fact exposed.

It is now proposed that gunners of big machines should either be protected by small revolving metal turrets, or shields, or else that they should be provided with a new form of bullet-proof helmet and a specially-designed type of body armor.

The Prizes for the G. W. V. A. Fair Are in Everett's Charlotte St. Window

When the Veterans' officials wished to provide prizes of outstanding merit for the patrons of their big fair, which opens Oct. 28, they decided upon housefurnishings, and wisely came to Everett's to make their selection. The results of that selection are now shown in our window, and, judging by the exclamations of admirations from the crowds which are gathering to view them, their choice has certainly been a popular one.

The first prize is a magnificent three-piece Chesterfield suite, solid mahogany as to frame and upholstered in Walnut, Mohair, of highest quality, with the reversible spring cushions in a rich Cameo Mohair. Next comes a handsome, cedar lined Walnut Hope-chest, filled to overflowing with an assortment of linens and garments which would gladden the heart of any woman, while the third prize is a beautiful Chesterfield Lamp completely fitted with two lamps and silk shade.

We are proud to have had the opportunity to supply such magnificent gifts for the friends of the G. W. V. A. and to assure the public that every article is of the very highest quality obtainable.

Old Saint John Hotel Ballroom Danced Out of Shape—Tragedy at Head of King—Bustin's, Gable's and Golden Ball, Where Booth Once Played

IN A SECOND ARTICLE on the names of the street corners of Saint John, written after the one which was quoted in The Times-Star on last Saturday, the late Ven. Archdeacon Dr. W. O. Raymond wrote as follows:

"At the head of King street was the Saint John Hotel corner, known as such until the wooden building which had given it the title was destroyed in the great fire of 1877. There is so much recorded history in connection with this hotel that columns would be required to do it justice. It was built for a Masonic Hall, the corner stone having been laid in September, 1816, and was the property of a joint stock company. It was a three storey structure, being 50 feet front on King street and 60 feet on Charlotte street, or what was then known as Studholme street. The company did not raise funds to complete it, however, and in 1819 it was sold at Sheriff's sale, Israel Lawson becoming the purchaser.

"MASON'S MET THERE. "He completed it and provided a lodge room for the Masonic body which served as well as a ball room and for other gatherings. In 1827 the building was opened as an hotel by the Saint John Hotel Company and was an hotel for the remaining 40 years of its existence. It was the pioneer hotel of Saint John for previous to that time the houses of entertainment had but limited accommodation for travelers. The hotel, as it originally was, had its entrance by a centre door and portico on King street. The roof was flat. In later years the lower storey was converted into shops and the entrance to the hotel portico was by a side door at the southern end on Charlotte street.

"DANCED A LOT. "The hotel was far ahead of anything in its line for many years and was the scene of many notable gatherings. The ball room was in great demand and the evidence of its continued use was apparent in the building in the last years of its existence, the third floor having settled so much in the centre that the floors of the rooms at the sides were steep inclined planes reminding one of the cabins of a vessel which had a heavy list.

"Prior to 1877 there was a popular fire proof, for it had been on fire so often without any serious damage resulting that it seemed to bear a charmed life. It went fast enough, in the big blaze, however, and apart from the fact that a building with a history, was no great loss, for it had seen its best days and was no ornament to such an important part of the city.

"THE HUMBERT TRAGEDY. "A tragedy which occurred at the Saint John Hotel corner was a fatal encounter between two parties of young men which resulted in the death of William Humbert, a well known member of the fire department. Mr. Humbert was in company with several friends who are well known citizens at the present day, when they met a crowd with whom a quarrel ensued and blows were struck. In the melee Humbert was either hit on the head and knocked down or kicked on the head when he was down and subsequently died of the injury. One man was tried and acquitted for want of evidence and it has never been quite clear how or by whom Humbert was struck, though there have been various theories in the matter. One of these is that the blow was accidentally given by one of his own party.

"THE COMMERCIAL HOTEL. "Opposite the Saint John Hotel was what used to be known as the Commercial Hotel corner. In the early history of the city the house of Thomas Millidge stood on the corner, but after the death of Mr. Millidge, in 1838, the premises were converted into the Market Hotel by Israel Fellows. This hotel was subsequently called the Commercial, and was in fact with people from the country. The building was burned in a fire which did much damage to that part of King street on the night of Feb. 26, 1849. There was a strong wind blowing at the time and sparks were carried to Trinity church, which then had a wooden cupola instead of a steeple. This cupola took fire and had to be cut down to save the church. While this was being done

A BETTER OUTLOOK.

Despatches from Locarno, where the Security Conference came to an end this morning, tell of great rejoicing on the part of the delegates, and affirm that all the statesmen who have been in attendance are unanimous in saying that the results attained have exceeded their secret expectations.

This is an age of bewildering speed. In 1900 the mails were carried from New York to San Francisco in a little more than three weeks. To-day the trip is made by airplane inside two days.

The Flapper's First Vote

(P. W. Luce in Vancouver Province.) One vote is as good as another these days, and sometimes a damned sight better.

It is now well known that the old saying, "Business Before Pleasure," has been changed to "Business Before Everything."

POOR SPORT.

The long history of human warfare has produced no kind of military adventure more picturesque and thrilling than the struggle between opposing airforces during the great war.

But there is a wide difference between such employment where the combatants are fairly evenly matched and the work being done by American—and perhaps also by British and Canadian—aviators who have taken service under the Sultan of Morocco and have been engaged in bombing the Riff villages.

Aside altogether from the legality or international propriety of the enterprise, there are other considerations which must be weighed. As the Springfield Republican presents it, "the lure of adventure to high-spirited and well-to-do young men can be understood and allowed for, but while military aviation is thrilling it is not sportsmanlike under the actual conditions."

The Sanitary Age. (F. B. in Vancouver Province.) It is not long since some medical nut declared that silk stockings were dangerous because their continued use over the next few centuries would, undoubtedly, cause a thickening of the female ankle.

"He's suspected of Liberal leanings," I explained.

"Oh! Then I think I'll vote for Mr. Woodward. I got a real bargain in his store last 95-cent day, a pink canister."

"Hush! Hush!" I begged. Mr. Woodward can't sit in two parliaments at the same time.

"I think that's very unfair," pouted Alys. "I want to beat H. G. Macpherson, who should be wearing a hat in his picture when asking ladies for their votes."

"I thought all candidates had to throw their hats in the ring. . . . This is General Clark, now; what dreamy eyes he has! I bet he shakes a mean ankle. Doesn't look at all like a Conservative, does he?"

"What does a Conservative look like?" I parried.

"Here's a typical Conservative face," answered Alys, showing a bold picture of Jerry McGeer. "He's got lots of jaw. . . . Oh, isn't he a Tory? He's responsible for the freight rates, isn't he? Put through a big bill in Ottawa some time ago."

"From Ottawa," I explained. "For legal services."

Quite innocently, Alys next turned up John Oliver.

"The old dear," she purred. "I always feel as if I want to pull his whiskers. I cried when he had a shave last May. . . . Oh, isn't he taking the count this time? I'm so sorry."

"Here's Harry Stevens," she went on. "Wasn't he mayor last year? . . . Of course, I know all about Harry Gale; he helped Mr. Stevens win in Vancouver Centre last time. And I remember Leon Lader, too. Lovely name, that! I wonder if he's married? Anyway, I'll vote for him if he shows off his moustache and combs his hair the right way. I hope he beats that man R. P. McLennan, who looks much too severe for a politician."

"Oh, look! Here's a real shiek! Dr. King, minister of public works. Does that mean he works the public? . . . Okanagan? Can't I vote for him in an absentee booth? . . . I have only one vote and there are 245 candidates! Well, I think that's an outrage."

Alys studied her pictures a while longer, then declared: "Here's my ideal! Look at his smile, look at—"

"That's not a candidate," I broke in. "That's Alonzo Weebrah, who was cured of indigestion by taking five bottles of Dr. Dope's Patent Medicine. If you vote for him you'll spoil your habit!"

Alys gave me a mean look, turned up her nose and sniffed her way out.

The Best of Advice

BY CLARK KINNAIRD

MORE VALUABLE THAN GOOD MANNERS IS GOOD SENSE.

GOOD MANNERS. Jonathan Swift observed in beginning an essay now 200 years old, "is the art of making those people easy with whom we converse."

"Whoever makes the fewest persons uneasy is the best bred in the company," he decided.

As the best laws are founded on reason, so are the best manners.

And as some Lawmakers have introduced unreasonable things into the law, so likewise many Teachers have introduced absurd things into common Good Manners.

Read, with eye unawed by any Social Register Name on the title page, some of the ponderous Guides to Etiquette being sold to the Great American Public in vast numbers, and you will find an assemblage of impressive instructions largely nonsense.

THE principal part of what is known as Good Manners is to suit the behavior to the three degrees of men: our superiors, our equals, and those below us.

Fine manners need the support of fine manners in others.

PRIDE, ILL NATURE, and WANT OF SENSE, are the three great sources of ill manners; without some one of these common human defects, no man will behave himself ill for want of experience.

GOOD sense is the foundation of good manners; but because it is a quality of very few among mankind are possessed, civilized people have

Poems That Live

THE CHAMBERED NAUTILUS.

This is the ship of pearl, which poets feign, Sails the unshaded main— The venturous bark that flings, On the sweet summer wind its purple wings In gulfs enchanted, when the Siren sings, And coral reefs lie bare, Where the cold sea-molds rise to soothe their streaming hair. Its webs of living gauze no more unfurl; Wrecked is the ship of pearl! And every chambered cell, Where its dim dreaming life was wont to dwell, As the frail tenant shaped his growing shell, Before thee lies revealed, Its irised ceiling rent, its sunless crypt unsealed! Year after year beheld the silent toil That spread its lustrous coil; Still, as the spiral grows, He left the past year's dwelling for the new, Stole with soft step its shining archway through, Built up its idle door, Stretched in its last found home, and knew the old no more. Thanks for the heavenly message brought by thee, Child of the wandering sea, Cast from her lap, forlorn! From thy deep lips a clearer note is born Than ever Triton blew from wreathed horn. While on mine ear it rings, Through the deep caves of thought I hear a voice that sings— Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul, As the swift seasons roll! Leave the low-vaulted past! Let each new temple, nobler than the last, Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast, Till thou at length art free, Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea! —Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Dinner Stories

For many long weeks the drought had vexed Robinson, who grew fruit to provide a living for hard-working insects. And now at last a beautiful shower was falling, and the features of Robinson expanded into a satisfied smile. Suddenly it faded away, and a spasm of pain passed over his face. One man was still at work in the orchard.

"Come in out of the rain," he shouted. "Do you hear?"

"Bless ye, master," said the zealous worker. "I would take more than this to hurt me!"

"I desay," said Robinson, "I desay, but I want all the rain on the land. Come in!"

Little Louis had completed his first day at school and had climbed upon his father's lap to give dad his impressions thereof.

"Well," said dad, "how do you think you will like school?"

Whereupon the countenance of Louis took on a most serious expression.

"To tell you the honest truth, dad," he answered, "I believe I've started something I can't finish."

Who's Who

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

KING GUSTAF V. OF SWEDEN.

IN THESE days of republics and tottering thrones there is one king who still retains his popularity. He is King Gustaf V. of Sweden. A great deal of his time is spent incognito on the continent. A devotee of tennis, he usually is an entrant at the tennis tournaments of the Riviera as "Mr. G."

He was born at Drottningholm, Castle in 1858, the son of King Oscar of Norway and Sweden. After spending his youth in the army and travel he married Princess Victoria, daughter of the Grand Duke of Baden.

In 1907 he succeeded his father who had renounced the throne two years before.

Sweden's ruler is an honorary general in the Danish army and an honorary admiral of the British navy.

History of Word "Charge" Proves Interesting

THE everyday word "Charge" has gone through many changes of usage, which give it an interesting history. This word is akin to the French "charge" and similar words in Spanish, Portuguese and Italian, all having the original meaning of "Charge." The original meaning in our language was a load or weight. From this it came to be used as denoting a quantity, as in speaking of a "charge" of powder for use in a weapon.

In still another sense the idea of "burden" was conveyed, by adopting the word to designate an expense, or financial burden, as when we speak of the inmates of an almshouse as public "charges" or public "burdens."

From this use the word came to be applied to "the sum to be paid as the price of an article" as in the phrase "my charge will be three dollars." Another step took the word into use as a "duty or care," as when a person is "charged" with a certain responsibility.

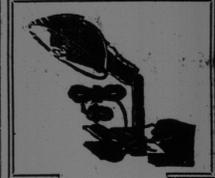

Still another step introduced the use of the word for an order or command, as "I charge you to do this work."

Similar usage is found in speaking of a "charge" of a bishop to the clergy, or the "charge" of a judge to the jury. A more recent application was the use of the word to denote a sharp attack in warfare, as a "charge against the enemy."

TERENCE sums up the matter in one line: "Suit your manner to the occasion."

This is the significance of "when in Rome, do as Romans do."

Mutual Investments Help Men Sleep at Night

THE MUTUAL LIFE OF CANADA has had the benefit of shrewd, far-sighted counsel in the placing of its investments. Government bonds, Municipal bonds and debentures and such securities form a very large proportion of the total investments of the Company. Many of these, purchased during the war period and its aftermath, will yield high interest for long terms to come.

The strength of these selected investments means absolute security for Mutualists. The profitable income they assure lowers the cost of Mutual insurance, because under the Mutual principle, the entire net profits are paid back to policyholders.

MEIGHEN AND LEADER SPEAK AT JOINT MEET

Tariff Question is Prominent as Different Views are Expressed

CONSERVATIVE CHIEF RAPS RECIPROCITY

Declares It Was Time Canada Took Similar Stand to United States

Canadian Press Staff Correspondent. LUNDAY, Man., Oct. 17.—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, concluded a strenuous day's campaign in his own constituency with Harry Leader, Progressive candidate, who is opposing him, for election in the constituency of Portage La Prairie.

A statement by Mr. Leader that he favored reciprocity drew the retort from the Conservative leader that he was "getting tired of the talk of reciprocity with a country that was out first to look after its own."

It is time, he said, "that Canada took a similar stand."

BLAMES LOW TARIFF. The lack of stability in the tariff was the cause of much depression, Mr. Meighen asserted, declaring that the depression caused lack of employment in the cities which fell back on the farmers, who thus found their home markets narrowing.

In his reference to reciprocity, Mr. Meighen said there had been an agreement with the United States, regarding wheat and potatoes. This agreement had not been in force six months, before the United States government put a "red ink pen" through the agreement, and placed a duty of 42 cents on wheat and 35 cents on potatoes.

LEADER APPEALS. Mr. Leader, who preceded Mr. Meighen on the platform, attacked the attitude of the Conservative leader toward the McKewen-Oliver order on freight rates, declaring that Mr. Meighen had opposed that order, as "an unfair concession."

He appealed for election, stating that his return to the house would have an important effect as proving that the farmers were against high tariffs.

Weddings

Newcomb-Steeves. The marriage took place quietly on September 10 at the home of the bride, 90 Exmouth street, of Henry R. Newcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Newcomb, of Hopewell Hill, and Mrs. Eleanor V. Steeves, of Saint John, formerly of Plymouth, Mass., Rev. E. E. Styles officiating. The bride, who was attired in a jade green silk, was given in marriage by her aunt, Mrs. Mary Steeves. Rene Steeves and Allison Graves were witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb will reside in Boston, Mass. Mrs. Newcomb was employed at the Imperial Theatre and wishing to fulfill her engagement to the staff. Mrs. Newcomb was greatly pleased with the thoughtfulness of her associates, who expressed regret that her marriage would take her away from the city. Many good wishes were extended to Mrs. Newcomb and her husband.

Burden-Prescott. HOPEWELL HILL, Oct. 16.—(Special)—A wedding of interest to friends in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Upper Canada, was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Prescott at Albert on Thursday, Oct. 15, at 12.30 p. m., when their daughter, Kathleen Rebecca, was united in marriage to Walter Douglas Burden, of Ottawa. Owing to the ill health of the bride's father, only immediate relatives were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. N. Maxwell, of Hopewell Hill, N. S., an intimate friend of the groom. The bride was gowned in ivory satin with veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Jean MacIntyre, niece of the bride, dressed in yellow tulle and carrying a basket of roses made a dainty little flower girl. During the signing of the register Miss Amy Prescott, of Wolfville, a cousin of the bride, sang very sweetly "Tanzania's 'At Dawning.'" A luncheon was served after the ceremony and immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Burden left by motor for Quebec City. They will reside in Ottawa.

EXPECT 150 HERE AT CONFERENCE

Three Day Session of C. G. I. T. of Three Countries

Will Begin On Friday of Next Week in Queen Square United Church.

Commencing on Oct. 23 and continuing until Sunday, Oct. 25, there will be a girls' conference meeting in the Queen Square United Church in Saint John under the auspices of the New Brunswick Girls' Work Board, and it is expected that there will be about 150 delegates from C. G. I. T. groups of Saint John, Kings and Queens counties attending the conference. The entertainment for the delegates will be provided by the Saint John Girls' Work Board, of which Mrs. J. S. Bonnell is president.

The conference in Saint John is the third in a series of 14 to be held throughout the Maritime Provinces, the first having been held in Prince Edward Island and the second having been a conference for Victoria, Carleton and Madawaska counties. Miss Marjorie Trotter, Maritime girls' work secretary, who arrived in the city yesterday, had recently come from the second conference. She spoke of the great success which had attended the other conferences and of the enthusiasm of the girls.

CHIEF SPEAKER

Miss Trotter will be the chief speaker at the conference to be held here next week. The conference program has been issued. On Friday evening at the opening of the conference at 7.30 there will be a sing song preceding the opening period of worship for which the theme will be "Dreaming True," which is the general theme of the conference. After the election of delegates stories of some great dreamers will be told and there will be an address entitled "Suppose We Dream."

On Saturday morning the conference will be divided into groups for sight-seeing in and around Saint John. The afternoon session on Saturday will commence at 2 o'clock, when there will be discussion groups for leaders conducted by Miss Trotter, and other discussion groups for girls and for girl officers. The subject of the summer camps will be taken up and former campers will have charge of an hour devoted to this theme.

CONFERENCE SUPPER. The conference supper will be held in the church rooms commencing at 6.30 and registered delegates will attend. After group songs the following toasts will be proposed and responded to: "The Home Dream, Love," "The Church Dream, Service," "The Community Dream, Brotherhood," "The World Dream, Peace," and the "C. G. I. T. Dream, The Girl God Meant."

The delegates will attend church services and Sunday school sessions in the city on Sunday and at 4.15 will meet for the vesper service which will mark the close of the conference and will be open to the public. The theme of the address will be "Dreaming With the Master Dreamer." The closing message will be given by Miss Trotter. A special C. G. I. T. devotional service will be followed on Friday evening and Sunday afternoon.

Three Race Train and Catch Two Suspected Car Thieves

HALIFAX, Oct. 16.—Three men in a small sedan car raced the Dominion Atlantic Railway express train for 55 miles from Port Williams to Bedford, 10 miles from here this afternoon, and apprehended two suspected automobile thieves who had been fugitives since yesterday afternoon. One of the men was James C. Burgess, 338 Washington Street, Roxbury, Mass., according to documents in his possession, but the other refused to give his name.

C. H. Kilcup, of Kentville, Kings county, whose car was stolen last month, noticed the two men with a car bearing the number 624,817 Massachusetts, 1925, in a Kentville garage yesterday afternoon. He recognized some of its accessories as those carried on his own car. When he questioned the two men they drove away. With a police officer, and a friend Kilcup pursued them and the Massachusetts car was wrecked some time later and abandoned. The men took to the woods and were traced to Port Williams, where their pursuers arrived in time to learn that the fugitives had left for Halifax on the express train which had been gone some time.

After a swift chase the train was overtaken at Bedford and the men were arrested.

Housing Board in England Cuts Rent For Big Families

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Tenants on the Guildford Rural District Council's housing estate who have three or more children will pay less rent under a novel scheme which the council has asked the Ministry of Health to sanction. A debate of 12 cents per week for each child after the first two is suggested.

The council, in permitting tenants to sub-let, stipulate that the rent for each room shall not exceed 6 cents unfurnished or 8 cents furnished, and that the tenant shall agree to pay 16 cents a week extra rent for each room sub-let.

AIRPLANE DEVICE PREVENTS STALLING

British Authorities Propose to Equip Several Machines With New Invention. LONDON, Oct. 17.—The number of fatal accidents in the Royal Air Force during the last few weeks, gave significance to the recent demonstration before experts at Hendon Aerodrome of the Savage-Bramson anti-stall gear, a device designed to eliminate the inadvertent stalling which has caused 90 per cent. of all flying accidents.

The R. A. F. test pilots have reported favorably on the value of the instrument, and the Air Ministry has ordered a number for type tests. It is probable, too, that the gear will shortly be fitted to one of the air liners operated on the Continental routes.

The device jerks forward the control lever in the pilot's hand, should he unconsciously allow the machine to slow to stalling speed. The machine slips automatically and regains flying speed. M. L. Bramson, the inventor, said yesterday that the device would keep a machine in the normal flying position even if the pilot were to faint in the air, provided that he did not fall against the control lever. The complete device weighs only 6½ pounds.

Puts Scholarship in Forefront and Says, "Never Had Canada More Need Than Today For Disciplined Intellect in Every Branch of Our National Life" Canadian Press Despatch. TORONTO, Oct. 16.—Delivering his annual address at the annual prize-giving at Upper Canada College here today, Principal Grant said: "I make no apology for putting scholarship in the forefront. Never had Canada more need than today for disciplined intellect in every branch of our national life; and the boy who has won a university scholarship has at least the beginnings of intellectual discipline and even of intellectual distinction. Statistics thoroughly disprove the fallacy which one so frequently hears that distinction in the classroom is no sign of success in after life.

What Can Be Done With a Gossipy Neighbor?—How to Treat a Friend Who Flirts With Your Husband—Shall She Take Her Third Husband at 65?

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Is there any way to stop an otherwise fine woman from gossiping? I have such a neighbor, who keeps tab on me, and I cannot even go downtown to do some shopping but what she greets me with "You've been downtown all day, haven't you?"

I am a good housekeeper, my children are properly taken care of, my husband is a happy and contented man, and if I attend to my own business and please my own family, I do not see that my coming and going out is any affair of hers.

But her constant surveillance annoys me very much. MRS. A. B. C.

ANSWER:

I have heard that, in certain savage tribes, they cut out the tongues of the women who gossip. That is the only way you can ever stop a meddling lady's tongue, and, unfortunately, that is a remedy that is a little too strenuous for our effete civilization.

Everywhere you will find small-minded women who have no resources within themselves, have to find their amusement in poking into the affairs of their neighbors.

The only way to deal with them is just to adopt the motto of the old Dutch shipowner who suddenly became very rich and built him a fine house, over whose doorway he carved this legend:

"They say, they will say, let them say."

And that was all the information that his curious neighbors got about how he acquired his fortune.

So "they say, they will say, they will be saying" about us all, no matter what we do, and the only thing to do is just to disregard it and to go on doing our own way so long as it is the right way.

As you have a clear conscience about doing your duty to your family, what does it matter what your neighbor thinks about whether you go downtown too often or not? It is foolish to let a silly, gossiping woman dictate to you about what you do or don't do, or make you uncomfortable.

The only person's approval that you are absolutely bound to have is your own. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—My best friend takes pleasure in flirting with my husband, and when I ask her to quit and tell her how disgusting it is to both my husband and myself she tells me she does it for fun and means no harm. My husband tells me to break off our friendship, but she is such a good friend to me and we like her husband so much, and we have such good times together, that it is hard for me to give her up. What should I do? PEGGY.

ANSWER:

I advise you to get out your Aesop and read the old fable about what happened to the man who warmed a serpent in his bosom. If you don't want to get bitten, drive that female snake out of your house forthwith, before she gets in her claws and tries to win his admiration and show her preference for him. He is bound to feel sorry for the poor, dear little thing who prefers him to her own husband, and it may end up in his responding to her advances.

There is no such thing as an innocent married flirt. The married woman who makes eyes at other men is tired of her husband. She is bored with him. His kisses and caresses no longer thrill her and she is out hunting for other game. She is trying out her fascination on other men, seeking to seduce them away from their wives and make them fall in love with her.

The more she can do this under the cover of friendship, the greater latitude it gives her and the farther she can go.

And remember that "safety-first" is a good motto for the home as well as the boulevard. Your husband may be disgusted, to begin with, at your friend's overtures, but it is bound to flatter any man's vanity for a woman to single him out for her favors and try to win his admiration and show her preference for him. He is bound to feel sorry for the poor, dear little thing who prefers him to her own husband, and it may end up in his responding to her advances.

It may be fun for your friend to flirt with your husband, but it is not very amusing for you. DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Is a woman of 65 too old to catch a third husband? If she gets the chance of marrying a good man with money, would it be wrong for her to marry him without love if she likes and respects him? I shall go no further until I hear from you. PERPLEXED.

ANSWER:

My goodness, but you must be a reincarnation of Ninon de L'Enclos if you can still charm the men at 65 and get a third husband when girls of 16 can hardly get one!

But I like your pep, and if you have any such eligible suitor as you describe, I see no reason why you should not again become a blushing bride, provided, of course, the man is older than you are, for at your age I should not advise taking a boy to rear.

And don't worry about not being romantically in love. At 65 we are done with thrills and tremors, and there is no reason why you should not feel that for some man and have the last lap of the journey made delightful by his companionship. Heaven bless you, my children! DOROTHY DIX.

WOMAN SPENDS $125,000 LEGACY

Had No Idea How to Manage Money, Declares Lawyer

Gets Fifteen Months' Sentence; Children Found in Rags in London.

MANCHESTER, Oct. 17.—A woman who squandered a fortune of $125,000 in Paris, and whose three children were afterwards found clad in rags in a London slum, has just been sentenced at Manchester to fifteen months' imprisonment in the second division for obtaining clothing by false pretences from a local firm.

She was Mary Maud Annie Stott, born 30 years ago at Cheshire. "She had no idea of how to manage money when she inherited the fortune," said Mr. Bierley, defending the woman. "Her husband helped her to spend the money, and she had a number of unfortunate business experiences."

MARRIED OFFICER. It was stated that the woman married an army officer shortly after she came into her fortune, and the couple began to live an extravagant life in Paris. At one time they had two motor cars, and they also went into the motor car business.

Mrs. Stott was in the habit of ordering such large quantities of clothing that she could not wear it all. Husband and wife were soon heavily in debt, and numerous writs were issued against them. They agreed to separate, and the wife went to live in Somerset and London.

There were three children, who, when their mother asked that they should be sent to her for a holiday, were found in a London slum. They were in rags, as their clothes had been sold.

COOKING WITH LIGHT BULB

Here is a new invention that may cut the fuel bill but register more on the electric meter, making it possible to cook and bake with the heat of an ordinary electric light bulb. The photograph shows Arthur Williams, of the New York Edison Company, watching dough become bread with only a bulb to guide it. The table was centred with a richly embroidered piece of handwork from Japan, upon which was placed a green Venetian glass vase, holding pink roses.

Around this clustered tiny individual vases, containing each a single rosebud of pink. With antique silver candles of rich design, holding lighted green candles, the effect was unusually pretty and artistic.

He declined to allow the officials to enter, and the authorities are now expected to take out a search warrant.

The result is a unique mellow sauce that is irresistible. After all it's the flavor that counts.

TAX ON CAPITAL IS HINTED BY HERRIOT

French Premier Gets Support of Radical Socialists at Nice Convention.

NICE, Oct. 16.—That the party of the Left will continue in power in France, seems perfectly clear from the reception of the delegates to the Congress of Radical-Socialists here given to former Premier Herriot's opening address, intimating that France's debts can be paid only by a tax on private fortunes.

Consequently, it is asserted, if Finance Minister Caillaux wishes the support in parliament of a majority drawn exclusively from the parties of the Left for his financial measures, these must include some form of tax on capital.

OFFICERS PLAN REUNION HERE

Expect 400 or 500 in Saint John for Armistice Day

Local Committee Arranging for Big Get-Together of Maritime Officers.

Among the outstanding events which are being planned for Armistice Day celebration this year will be a reunion dinner of all the officers of the Maritime Provinces who served overseas during the war, as well as other ranks who saw active service and are now commissioned in the Canadian militia. Preliminary arrangements were made last evening at a meeting held in the office of Norman P. MacLeod, in the post office building.

The event will take place on the evening of Armistice Day in the Admiral Beatty Hotel and a committee now has the arrangements well under way. It is anticipated that between 400 and 500 officers from all parts of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island will be attendants. It is the aim of the committee to have as guests of honor prominent Canadians who held high rank in the Canadian corps during the European war, and already some invitations have been sent out, but no announcements will be made until acceptances have been received.

COMMITTEES.

The committee having the arrangements in hand consists of: John Gale, general chairman; Norman P. MacLeod, vice-chairman; E. C. Armstrong, secretary. Sub-committees appointed include: Catering, Mr. MacLeod, chairman; E. J. Cronin and A. G. Rainnie; publicity, F. J. Nisbet, chairman; F. X. Jennings, W. J. Ryan and Atwood Bridges; tickets, G. G. Anglin.

In order to ensure a representative attendance from all parts of the three provinces and from all branches of the service, arrangements are being made to have committees men appointed in all the principal centres in the Maritimes. According to the present plans, the proposed celebration promises to be one of the largest events of its kind held in the lower provinces since the close of the war.

MORE HYDRO ENERGY EXPECTED SOON IN MARITIME PROVINCES

Of 550,000 Horse Power so Far Discovered in Seaboard Section 111,000 Has Been Developed—Existing Plants Detailed

Since the days of the early settlers, water power has held an important place in the lives of the inhabitants of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, says a recent article in The Gazette, Montreal, which continues as follows: Of the innumerable rivers and small streams nearly all have been the scene at one time or another of small saw-mills or grist mills meeting local needs, with here and there one more pretentious supplying lumber for provincial or export trade. The great number of small mills in existence even at the present time is a feature of the country.

Until quite recently, however, water power has been chiefly of local interest only, but by 1914, public interest in the subject resulted in a request to the Dominion Water Power Branch to extend its investigatory work into Nova Scotia. Since then, with subsequent extensions to New Brunswick, investigatory work has been continuingly carried on by this branch of the Department of the Interior in co-operation with local authorities.

550,000 H. P. DISCOVERED.

To those who thought the water power resources of these provinces negligible, the results have been surprising. Available power to the extent of 550,000 horse power has so far been investigated in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the list is constantly growing.

As a result of information made available by these investigations, public interest was stimulated, legislation was passed and government bodies formed in both New Brunswick and Nova Scotia with power to develop or otherwise acquire electric energy for sale to municipalities or others desiring it.

DEVELOPED 34,000 H. P.

The Nova Scotia Power Commission was created in 1919, and the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission the following year. Since then moderate hydro-electric developments with a total installed capacity of 34,000 horse power have been developed by these bodies, all of which is in actual use. At present, further projects are planned in both provinces. The most important is at Grand Falls in New Brunswick, the largest in the Maritime Provinces. Plans for new developments and extensions are active in Nova Scotia also, such as extensions to the St. Margaret's Bay and Sheet Harbor systems. Studies are in hand for new developments on the St. Croix River, Bear River, Liscomb River and Mersey River taken over on the last named river taken over as a whole constitutes a concentrated source of power comparable with that at Grand Falls on the Saint John River in New Brunswick.

TOTAL DEVELOPMENT $10,900

The total water power development in the three provinces at February, 1925, was estimated by the Dominion Water Power and Reclamation Service at 110,900 horse power, of which 44,600 was in New Brunswick, 64,000 in Nova Scotia, and 2,375 in Prince Edward Island. For the total population of over a million the power development amounts to 150 horse power per head in the three provinces as compared with 527 in Quebec and 518 in Ontario. Excepting Prince Edward Island, where the power sites are small and water power in the Maritime Provinces as compared with some of the other provinces is not due to lack of water power resources. That is evident from the figures of available power on the files of the Dominion Water Power and Reclamation Service. It is quite probable that an abundance of coal has been the principal deterrent factor. But with the rising costs of coal and a knowledge of the resources available, has come a decided change in attitude. In fact, the utilization of hydro-electric power for the operation of coal mines is in contemplation of industries based on hydro-electric power has tended to stimulate coal consumption.

GROWTH EXPECTED.

There is little doubt that the figures just given for the developed power in 1925, will be greatly exceeded in a short time. In both Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, the plans are toward a transmission system between industrial centres to which generating stations will be connected as needed so that an ample supply of potential energy will be available for any of the industries or manufacturing activities for which this district by reason of its abundant raw material and unexcelled shipping facilities, is peculiarly adapted.

At the present time, a large amount of raw material is shipped out in its natural state for manufacture in other parts of the world, but already with the certainty of ample power being available, there are concrete evidences of a tendency to manufacture within the Maritime Provinces, where raw material is abundant, labor conditions are good, and shipping facilities excellent.

SUPPLIES HALIFAX.

The developments at Sheet Harbor and St. Margaret's Bay, are examples of the type of development on the ordinary small river and of the amount of power available from small drainage basins in this district. The total drainage area tributary to St. Margaret's Bay is only 100 square miles, but large storage permits of complete regulation of the large run-off and two small generating stations supply nearly at the head of the falls will give a head of 132 feet. The power available is estimated at 140,000 horse power. Other modern developments of considerable size are the Maine and New Brunswick Power Company's plant of 8,400 horse power at Aroostook Falls; Fraser's Limited on the Madawaska, 2,700 horse power; The Canadian Cottons Limited on the St. Croix, 8,000 horse power; The Bathurst Co. Limited, at Great Falls, on the Nepisiguit River, 9,000 horse power; The St. George Pulp and Paper Co., on the Magaguadavic, 2,700 horse power, and the Avon River Power Co., near Windsor, of 2,300 horse power.

FOSTER, IN NATIVE VILLAGE,
EXPLAINS MARITIME RIGHTS

Promises to Advocate Sale of C. N. R. Line From Canada to Portland, Me., to Benefit
Dominion Harbors

ST. MARTINS, N. B., Oct. 16.—The new Minister for New Brunswick, Hon. W. E. Foster, Secretary of State, was right at home tonight. He was born in St. Martins, spent his boyhood and obtained his early education here and to many of the older people who gathered to listen to his eloquent address this evening, he was the fair-haired boy whom they used to know as active in manner and in speech throughout the village. R. T. Hayes, the other Liberal candidate in Saint John-Albert, also spoke.

Whether the new minister was encouraged by the splendid reception given him or by the recollections of his early days and the fact that the St. Martins boy had reached the honorable position of an advisor of the Crown in the federal cabinet, his speech was one of the best that his hearers have listened to for a long time.

MARITIME RIGHTS.
Tonight, if he dwelt on one point any more than another, it was "Maritime Rights" and in his conclusion he summed up what he considered as the meaning of "Maritime Rights." According to Dr. Foster the meaning of "Maritime Rights" is as follows:

- 1. Maritime Rights means the right to a tariff that will reduce the cost of production and lower the cost of living.
- 2. Maritime Rights means greater use of our Canadian railways for the increasing and encouraging of export business through Maritime Provinces.
- 3. Maritime Rights means the right to import British goods under the British preference through the ports of the Maritime Provinces.
- 4. Maritime Rights means the right to build up trade in the markets of the world, utilizing our natural position fronting the great highways of the ocean to send our trade out to all parts of the globe.
- 5. Maritime Rights means Maritime markets.

DISCUSSES ITEMS.
In discussing these Maritime Rights at considerable length, Dr. Foster took up reduction of the tariff which, he said, was of particular interest to the people of the Maritime Provinces because of the fact that their industries were mainly based upon those things which were natural to the different provinces, viz., lumbering, fishing and agriculture. It was most important, in his opinion, that the very articles needed for the promotion of our natural industries and for the necessities of life should be taxed at a low rate.

One or two pleasant candy-like "Cascarets" taken any time will mildly stimulate your liver and start your bowels. Then you will both look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

When You Wake Up
Tired--Look Out for Chronic Fatigue

Many a man and woman who is always weak and tired, who goes to bed exhausted, and gets up weary and unrefreshed in the morning—many, yes, thousands of these haggard, nervous, worn-out people are victims of chronic fatigue—and do not know it.
Chronic fatigue is entirely different from the ordinary, "healthy" fatigue you feel after vigorous exercise. Chronic fatigue—this serious kind—comes from within. Your nerves, muscles, organs, etc., have become de-vitalized and cannot function properly. That is why you sleep doesn't rest you as it should.
To conquer chronic fatigue—its terrible tired feeling—you must get at its cause—in the blood. For it is the blood that carries nourishment to all your nerves, muscles and tissues. And it is almost invariably when your blood is thin and pale, lacking in sufficient organic iron that your whole system becomes weakened, and you suffer from

The Wisest Doctor
Can't Explain Why Most People So Carelessly Neglect Their Eyes. What Eye Specialists Have To Say About This.

People who would consider themselves guilty if they neglected to care for their eyes usually never even realize that they ought to take care of their eyes. You can get new teeth, or have injured or decayed teeth made as good as new. But not so with your eyes. Once injured, your sight remains impaired. You do not see with your eyes; you see with your brain. For it is the mechanical arrangements and, like all such, need constant attention. Exposure to dust, dirt, chemical fumes, present in the atmosphere, germs, dusting in the air, rough winds, glare of artificial light, all tend to irritate the eyes, causing them to itch, burn, smart, pucker, blur; the lids become inflamed and swollen. These danger signals are not only annoying, but they warn you that, if neglected, such external irritation will in time seriously affect the internal mechanism which is necessary to enable your brain to see. Headache, dizziness, and other symptoms necessary to enable your brain to see. Headache, dizziness, and other symptoms necessary to enable your brain to see. on is the lumber industry, and the Government have reduced the duties upon the sawmill machinery, logging machinery, blocks and tackle, and practically all machinery used exclusively for logging operations. The same thing with regard to the fishing industry, manila ropes, which used to pay a duty of 20 to 25 per cent, is now free. The same way with marine.

TELLS OF REDUCTIONS.
"And it is upon this principle that the Liberal Government policy is mainly based. Here are some of the reductions made in the taxation of the implements of production, in other words the relief that has been afforded the producers of the country: on moving machines, on cultivators, on plows, farm rollers, hay loaders, stumping machines, potato diggers, axes, scythes, spades, rakes, pronged forks, shovels and hoes, fertilizers, articles which enter into the cost of the manufacturer of fertilizers, roller iron, spraying machines, incubators for hatching eggs, milk cans and milking machines.

OTHER REDUCTIONS.
The Liberal Party pledged themselves by the resolution I refer to, to decrease the cost of living, and they did so by the reduction of the duty upon articles used in the every day household. A few of these follow: flannels, yarns, wool fabrics, under-clothing, stockings, blankets, cotton goods, etc. As I said, I am not a protectionist. I am, though, for reasonable protection to certain industries, but I am not first to protect the man who has from a tariff to down children to look after and clothe.

INTEREST TO WOMEN.
"But now," he said, "we come to something particularly of interest to women, that is the abolition of reductions that have been made upon the sales tax on a large number of articles. As in the case of the abolition of the sales tax is confined to the necessities of life, such as buckwheat meal, pea meal, salt, rolled wheat, sago and tapioca, rice, macaroni, canned vegetables, canned fruits, biscuits of all kinds and many other articles.

INCOME TAX.
Dr. Foster said he was sure all must be particularly interested in the announcement made the other day by Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, when he stated in a speech that in his next budget he would make provision for a reduction in the income tax.

WIDER MARKETS.
"Now, hand in hand with the tariff policy of the Liberal Government goes the policy of the extension of markets for our surplus products. From our farms and from our factories we pro-

Mr. Hayes, in his address, dealt with the tariff and conditions in the two central provinces, Ontario and Quebec. He had just arrived from a trip through those sections, and he felt that there was no doubt about the result of the Liberal campaign in Quebec, while in Ontario the Tories were standing out for a high tariff.

MR. HAYES SPEAKS.
Mr. Hayes is connected with a large shoe business. He said that only five per cent of the boots and shoes sold in Canada were imported, and the most of these came from Great Britain under the preferential tariff. He spoke of what it would mean, not only to the City of Saint John, but to the Province of New Brunswick, to have a minister elected and representing the people in the councils of the country.

DR. RODGERSON DIES.
While dispensing medicine to a patient in his office this afternoon, Dr. J. A. C. Rodgerston, Hunter River, suffered a hemorrhage and died almost at once. He was 60 years old.

CORNS AND CALLUSES

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.
Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, and it is so simple to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Gleamy, Thick, Wavy
Hair in a Moment

Girls! Try this! When combing and brushing your hair, just moisten your hair brush with a little "Dandarine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! You can dress your hair immediately and it will appear twice as thick and heavy, an abundance of gleamy, wavy hair, sparkling with life, incomparably soft, fresh, youthful.

URGES SALE

"Even now, when the suggestion is made that the Government might sell its terminals there along comes Mr. Meighen and advises us to hold on to them. He no doubt still wants to them if it is at all possible on terms that will protect us. While they are there they will always be a temptation to the railway officials. Substitute in their place increased facilities at Halifax and Saint John."

PORT IMPROVEMENTS

The Secretary of State spoke of improved facilities that were under way for the Port of Saint John and alluded to the sale of up-to-date terminals that would take care of such business as should and would come over the Canadian National Railways to our port. "I need not remind you that away back in 1898 we had a struggle with the Conservative Government over this very question."

PROMISES ADVOCATED.
"When we have the proper facilities to handle it I believe that traffic can be moved cheaply over the Canadian National Railways to Saint John as to Portland and with greater benefit to Canada, when consideration is given to the fact that over the line to Portland, Me., are grades of one and a half per cent. Consider the fact that from the moment this business leaves

Most Powerful Car
of Its Size and Weight
—a One-Profit Value

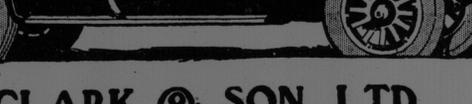

THERE are (as you probably know) only two manufacturers who actually build their cars complete—make all their own bodies, engines, clutches, springs, gear sets, differentials, steering gears, axles, gray iron castings and drop forgings.
One of these is Ford—in the low priced field. The other is Studebaker in the fine car field.
This one-profit principle of manufacture makes possible four great advantages.

- 1. It eliminates the extra profits and overhead that many other manufacturers have to pay and include in the purchase price to you. This keeps Studebaker prices low.
- 2. It enables us to build a better car because the vital parts are designed, engineered and manufactured complete by one organization. Being built as a unit—Studebaker cars function as a unit, with all of the advantages of unit-over-assembled construction.
- 3. It makes possible finer quality because Studebaker, being an independent manufacturer, with no subsidiary or allied companies to favor, is free to buy on the open market, demanding the finest materials at the lowest possible price. Studebaker purchasing agents are unrestricted in their search for quality and value. Studebaker designers and engineers are unhampered by outside interests.

The Standard Six Coach shown below is a splendid example of One-Profit value.

It offers greater power than any other car of its size and weight, based upon the rating of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. And luxurious riding comfort made possible by the big balloon tires, resilient springs, comfortable cushions and ample roominess.
But the only way to judge this car is to sit in it! Feel the luxurious upholstery. Sit in the deep, soft, comfortable seats. Experience the surge of its tremendous power. And then compare it with other coaches.
The recent Studebaker price reduction and policy of "no yearly models" only serves to emphasize the logic of this reasoning.
If you seek a bargain in a quality car—by all means see this One-Profit Coach.

See Prosperity in Canada at Present

Canadian Press. VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 17.—"In spite of all the murmuring and declamations of pessimism, there seems to be peace and prosperity and happiness throughout the land," declared Sir Arthur Currie, principal of McGill University, addressing a largely attended luncheon of the Canadian Club yesterday. His message was that the qualities which made for Canada's great success in the war, were applied to her general activities in peace, the troubles of the spirit with which she is unnecessarily beset, would disappear.

WALL STREET TRADING

Blocks of 1,000 to 3,000 Shares Change Hands in First Few Minutes.

MONTREAL TRADING HEAVY AND STRONG

Steamships Preferred and Consolidated Smelters Active Leaders.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Speculation in stocks broke forth with increased fury at the opening of today's market, with the motors again assuming the leadership of the advance. Blocks of 1,000 to 2,000 shares were quite common in the first few minutes of trading. Hudson Motors opened two points higher, at 104, a new top, and initial sales of one to three points being registered by Dupont, American Safety Razor, Jordan Motors and Cushman's Bakery.

IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—Trading was heavy and prices stronger at the opening of the local stock exchange this morning.

Steamships preferred and Consolidated Smelters were the active leaders. The former firm set a half at 62 1/2, and the latter came out with an overnight gain of one-quarter at 165 1/2. Brillian closed 1/2 at 78. National Breweries was up a quarter at 64. Atlantic Sugar at 35 1/2 was up one-eighth. Asbestos common eased a point at 95, but the preferred at 118, was up a half.

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The success of the Locarno convention no doubt was one of many influences which resulted in the tremendous volume of business transacted yesterday on the exchange.

The commercial agencies were unanimous in stating that the trade of the country is better than at any time in many years. Although rates for call money are fairly high, no anxiety is expressed in banking circles as to the future. The fact that advance was led by G.M.O. and U. S. Steel is looked upon as a favorable indication, as both these stocks are affiliated with the most prominent banking houses in New York.

As to U. S. Steel, rumors are current that consideration now is being given to a plan for the distribution of large surplus in the hands of corporations. Some stocks lagged, but it was encouraging to see that rails did better yesterday. Endeavors to buy oils have not met with much success. Another strong market is expected today.

Brokers' Opinions

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Houseman & Co.—We expect special interest to continue to concentrate on the buying side and think equities are likely to become more of a feature.

Hornblower.—We have stated until now would be an important group among the new leadership stocks. Hold them. Despite the big advance in G.M.O., we would hold it on the possibility of its reaching 150 next month. Fisher Body will follow G.M.O.

Pynchon & Co.—Steel stocks are way behind in the bull movement to date and the impressive buying in U. S. Steel is conducive to the view that a new forward movement is about ready to start in the steel group.

Tobey and Kirk.—No doubt there is a lot of good profit-taking and caution is, of course, advisable, but this is a bullish market and further advances are to be expected.

Poultrymen Want Planes To Fly Higher

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Oct. 16.—Poultrymen in Sonoma County are starting a campaign to make airmen fly higher.

Low flying planes, they say, are demoralizing the chicken business. The chicks scurry for cover and suspend egg-laying activities when the great hawk-like shadows pass with a roar.

Sir James Dunn for High Protection

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—High protection, the kind that has made the United States the richest nation in the world, is what Canada needs today, in the opinion of Sir James Dunn, international banker, of London, England, who came here after a visit to his native province of New Brunswick.

"I do not feel that the great natural resources of this country can be developed except under a policy of high protection; protection of the Canadian markets, under which the strong business men of this country can feel confidence that their investments in the industries of the country, and particularly the new industries, are going to have the kind of protection that similar people have in the United States when they start in to develop an industry, and under which they will be more confident of making their investments. Then Canada should take a new step forward in prosperity of great farming and industrial population of the country."

DROWNING WOMAN RESCUED BY HORSE

Both go into Lake; Animal Swims Near to Mistress, Drags Her Ashore.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—An amazing instance of a horse rescuing its mistress from drowning is reported from Blackfield, a village near Southampton. Miss N. Musselwhite, a well-known local horsewoman, was driving alone in a four-wheeled vehicle alongside Mopley Lake when the horse stopped to drink at the water's edge, lost its footing on the steep bank, and fell in, dragging the vehicle and Miss Musselwhite after it.

She was thrown several yards out into the lake, where she was out of her depth, and, owing to her inability to swim, in great danger of drowning. As she afterwards related to a friend, Miss Musselwhite saw the horse struggling furiously to free itself from the vehicle, and when she came to the surface after sinking twice, the animal swam to her, and she was able to clutch its mane and the reins. The horse then swam ashore, dragging its almost unconscious mistress to the bank, and then well up on to dry land.

English Report On N. B. Lumber

Farnworth & Jardine's Wood Circular, dated Liverpool, Eng., Oct. 1, states:—"New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Spruce Deals, etc.—There was a very small import during the last month of the Mersey, viz., 1,040 standards, of which 80% went to Manchester. Consumption showed slight improvement, with the result that stocks are down to 5,020 standards, in comparison with 11,880 standards for the corresponding month of 1924. Forward business at shippers' prices was extremely difficult to arrange in competition with the comparatively cheap Archangel deals. Spruce parcels arriving by the liners from Halifax were considerably curtailed, and values appreciated. Ocean tonnage offered fairly freely, but few fixtures reported. Pine Deals, etc.—Small import, and the business was unimportant. "Birch"—Logs—The import of 8,000 cubic feet came to Manchester. Deliveries disappointing; stocks remaining practically unaltered. No material change in values. Planks, etc.—Steady import, with fair consumption. Stocks, however, still remain heavy, viz., 218,000 cubic feet. Values fairly steady."

HOSPITAL CASE
DRAWS COMMENT

Doctor Needed to Tend the Poor, Says J. King
Kelley

Hon. J. R. Armstrong Writes
Commissioners—Action on Coal Tenders Deferred.

At a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the General Public Hospital yesterday afternoon a signed statement regarding the evidence at the recent investigation into charges that a patient had been subjected to dangerous delay in being admitted to the hospital was given each commissioner. The statement showed that there had been no undue delay and no blame-worthy action on the part of any one connected with the hospital.

With reference to this case J. King Kelley said that he had contended for years that there should be a doctor to tend to the poor in their need. We are paying quite enough for health now," he declared. "It ought to be somebody's duty to protect the poor and this case is a criticism of which is not due us. This community lost a life because the mother was moved when she never should have been moved. Dogs are better treated in this city than lots of good women."

FREE CARE.
The members of the board severely censured the keeper of the boarding house. It was pointed out to Mr. Kelley that there is now elsewhere in the city, provision for free maternity care but that the patient had not wanted to go to any other institution.

M. E. Agar, president, was in the chair. Others present were J. L. O'Brien, Mrs. J. V. McLellan, J. King Kelley, Dr. W. F. Roberts, and R. H. Gale, superintendent.

Hon. J. R. Armstrong, who was a patient in the hospital for more than two months, wrote to express his appreciation of the care he had received, especially commending the surgical, medical, nursing and orderly services. He pointed out some trivial facilities in the private rooms which he thought could be remedied at a cost of about 50 cents a room and tended to irritate a patient in a nervous state. The letter was referred to the commissioner of the month and Mrs. McLellan for consideration.

IMPROVEMENTS.
The Saint John Iron Works are retubing one boiler in the power house at a cost of $645 and will pay $8 a ton for the old tubes. The project was made that it should not be necessary to replace more than one or two tubes a year and that the expense which had been undertaken on the engineer's advice was characterized as foolish. It was pointed out that the board's responsibility was greater because of the nature of the institution and the lives involved in case of accident. In view of the cost of retubing one boiler it was agreed the consideration of the purchase of a new boiler previously recommended, should be deferred until next year.

F. S. Walker's bill for $2,200 for installing new pipes for the heating system was received and payment authorized.

REPORT READ.
Dr. E. J. Ryan's report as a member of the pharmacopoeia committee was read. He wrote that he was of the opinion that visiting doctors should be required to use the standard drugs in the hospital pharmacy and not permitted to order special brands of drugs. The brands were to be selected by the medical profession. This letter was ordered forwarded to the pharmacopoeia committee without comment for action by the committee.

A request for the fall supply of new linen was referred to the commissioner of the month and Mrs. McLellan with power to act.

Coal tenders were opened. Seven city firms tendered and the board went into committee to discuss the matter of the awarding of the contract. The tenders were referred to the coal committee to report on the quality of the coals being experimented with and to bring in a recommendation with regard to the awarding of the contract for 1,500 tons of coal.

BUILDING WORK TO BE STARTED MONDAY

Film Exchange Structure For Princess Street—Contract is Signed.

Work on the fire-proof film exchange to be erected in Princess street for the Famous Lasky and Regal film companies is to commence on Monday and it is expected that the building will be occupied before the end of the year. Garnet W. Wilson is the architect and H. O. Clarke the contractor for the building and the contract for the work was signed yesterday. The building is to be one-storey with specially constructed fire proof vaults. It will be of a similar type to the many film exchanges which the company has erected throughout Canada and the United States. In every room there will be two exits so that should an exit there will be an exit in the opposite side of that room and any occupant can make his escape before the fire spreads.

OFFICES ALSO.
The building is to contain a suite of offices as well as storage vaults and is the shipping centre for the film company in this district, supplying the various picture houses throughout the territory which it serves.

The film exchange will occupy the site of the L. A. McAlpine residence which was partially destroyed in the disastrous fire of last winter when half the buildings facing Princess street on that block were wiped out.

A large filling station has been erected on the larger part of the fire swept area and the new film exchange will take the remainder of the vacant space.

A GREAT PLAY

One of the Outstanding New York Successes of the Past and Current Seasons

166 NIGHTS AT THE BIJOU THEATRE NEW YORK
The play has its locale in a small city in the middle west, and the story has to do with a pair of dotting parents who have sacrificed everything for their children's welfare. The two youngest members of the Ingals family are undergraduates, irresponsible pleasure-seeking youngsters, devoid of any responsibility; and an elder son who is making his own way supposedly, but ever leaning on the older folks for emergency assistance. Then comes the crash in this happy household. When father gives up his political position, under pressure, and has no money and no prospects, his children emerge bravely from their day dreams of castles in Spain, to the world of reality. How they plan to come to the rescue and right the turmoil of their home, is deftly told in the latter part of this delightful play, that with all its abundance of comedy, has its serious moments and above all a natural happy ending.

National Drug & Chemical Company of Canada, Limited—Toronto, Canada.

Canadian Press Despatch.
MONTREAL, Oct. 16.—Capt. J. E. Bernier, commander of the Canadian Government steamer Arctic, one of the oldest sea captains in the world still on duty, being nearly 74, today told a gathering of radio men at luncheon that the Eskimos on Greenland are 600 years ahead of other Eskimos, having their own parliament and newspapers. It will be a very long time, he said, before Canadian Eskimos reach this advanced stage.

The veteran skipper described the many trips he had made to the frozen North during the past 21 years, explaining that each of these expeditions usually lasted 15 months during which time he and the members of his party travel from island to island, covering approximately 4,700 miles.

The addition of a radio to the ship equipment, he said, was an inestimable boon to everybody. Captain Bernier believes the magnetic pole is "wobbling," owing to the changing of the earth's center. He explained that millions and millions of tons of ice were constantly changing position and, the world being a ball, he did not see how it could fall to affect the poles.

As Hiram Sees It

MONTREAL—Well, sir, when you think about there bein' as many people in what they call Greater Montreal as the places in sight from the top o' Mount Royal as we hev in the hull three Maritime Provinces, you begin to understand why we haint got the big smoke in chimneys down there—an' aint a-gonto git 'em. The more I snoop around here the more I see that we'll hev to figger on gittin' markets somewhere else than up here. Yes, sir—we got to look over the water an' find places we kin trade with. This market up here is all right fer some things—but we got to hev a better string to our bow. They like our fish—an' the's more we could sell if we tried. I seen a carload o' British Columbia apples down to Sherbrook last week. When I git back to The Settlement I'm gonto tell the folks a few things—yes, sir.

CHILDREN GIVE ALARM OF FIRE

Call Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Daley to Outbreak in Kitchen

Newly Remodelled Double House in Leinster Street in Grip of Flames.

Frank W. Daley and wife of Leinster street, living between Sydney and Carmarthen streets, came nearly losing their recently rebuilt home about 7 o'clock this morning, when fire, supposed to have originated in the kitchen, burned the ell badly and caused the double-home structure to be seriously damaged. Mr. Daley is the proprietor of the Ideal Lunch, King Square, and his tenant downstairs is Daniel P. Morrissey, night manager of the same establishment.

The cause of the fire has not been determined, but what Mr. Daley's very young children said suggests one of the little ones may have been playing with matches. The fact that the parents had of the blaze was when one of the children ran into the front of the house in his nightclothes and told them there was a fire in the kitchen.

FIRE BURNED QUICKLY.

The children had been in the habit of getting up early. They were playing in the ell of the house whilst their father was dressing. The possibility of defective electric wiring had not been investigated this morning, and, on the other hand, the theory of the children attempting to light the morning fire in the stove could not be well founded. In any case when the adults reached the blaze it had gained sufficient headway to penetrate the roof a very few minutes later.

Alarm No. 72 was rung, and the nearby apparatus was soon at the scene. By considerable cutting and wetting, the blaze was confined to the ell, though smoke and blistering heat had its effect through to the front of the house. The Morrissey household, unfortunately, suffered chiefly from the dripping water, although the Salvage Corps gave excellent service with rubber covers.

RECENTLY REBUILT.

Mr. Daley was crest-fallen, not only because his furniture was uninsured, but because his purchase of the house—the late Harry Roop property—last year had been followed by a complete rebuilding of the house into two flats, with the addition of double verandahs, a thorough redecorating, installation of new plumbing, house furnishing, etc. The Morrissey home, on the lower floor, was likewise nicely fitted up, and together the business co-workers labored after hours building and sodding an attractive lawn with ornamental enclosure and concrete walk. The property was greatly improved by the young householders, and became a beauty spot to the locality.

PARENTS THANKFUL.

Mr. Daley, who has some insurance on his house, though not fully covered, expressed thankfulness that his little children were not burned in the excitement. This thought was uppermost in the minds of himself and wife. It will probably be several weeks before the two households will be able to return to their quarters, as extensive repairs and redecorating will have to be done.

ORGANIZATION IN ROTHESAY PARISH

Liberals Elect E. S. Carter Chairman—Question of Place of Voting Arises.

The Liberals of Rothesay parish met last evening in the Consolidated School and organized for the political campaign. E. S. Carter was elected chairman, George Dobbin, vice-chairman, and B. Gilbert, secretary. One of the difficulties to contend with, it was said at the meeting, in Rothesay parish was the problem of the summer resident and whether he was entitled to vote in Rothesay or the City of Saint John.

Under the Dominion Elections Act, it was stated, one is entitled to vote in the electoral district in which he has resided for two months previous to the issue of the writ for the election. In this case the writ was issued on September 5 and any residing in the parish continuously from July 5 to September 5 would be entitled to have their name on the Kings County list.

Last evening, Dr. McAllister, the Liberal candidate in Royal, spoke at Cumberland Bay and this evening he will speak at Havelock.
