MURDER GAMBLER TO SAVE THE POLICE

Members of New York Force Among Suspects

SHOT DEAD IN STREET

Inquiry Into Police Protection of Crime Given Most Sensational Turn—Lured to Street and Shot From Auto, Two Occupants of Which Were Policemen

(Canadian Press)

New York, July 16—Herman Rosenthal, a well-known gambler, who was to have been the chief witness in a sweeping police graft inquiry beginning today, was shot and instantly killed in Times Square at 2 o'clock this morning. His assailants, six in number, escaped in a high powered automobile which had brought them to the spot a moment before. At least two witnesses agreed that one or more of the men in the automobile were policemen.

Rosenthal had been for some time, he said, the proprietor of a gambling establishment in West 44th street, which was closed on April 15 after a raid by Police Lieutenant Becker, head of the so-called strong-arm squad.

This raid Rosenthal declared, followed a understanding between himself and Becker. The latter, he alleged, was his partner in the profits of the establishment.

Specifically, Rosenthal's affidavit charged that Lieutenant Becker had loaned $25,000 to him.

PROTEST IN ALBERTA

Election of Hon. C. W. Cross in Edmonton to Be Contested

Edmonton, Alb., July 16—The return of Hon. C. W. Cross at the recent by-election in Edmonton will be protested by the Conservatives at the end of this week or the beginning of next.

The protest is to be made under the corrupt practices act. It will be alleged that persons not entitled to vote were placed on the list and that money and whiskey were given in consideration for votes.

Irregular practices will also be alleged against the returning officers and it will be charged that rigs were hired to take voters to the polls in contravention of the act.

DOCK STRIKE AT LIVERPOOL SHOWS SIGNS OF COLLAPSE

Liverpool, July 16—Upwards of 12,000 men engaged in the Liverpool docks have been brought out already by the management. At Birkenhead shipping is completely held up and the situation is most serious.

The leaders insist that the strikers will not accept the clearing house system under any circumstances.

Under this system in the course of the week the men deposit their cards at the clearing houses and the contributions pay, while under the insurance act by the firm employing them are duly apportioned there and the men receive their contribution.

Outside the big centres the first employer of a casual worker usually pays the requisite contribution and the men prefer this to going to a clearing house.

(LATER.) Liverpool, July 16—The dockers' strike already shows signs of collapse. The men employed by the White Star Line started work again in considerable numbers this morning under the protection of the police.

MR. CONNELLY'S ASSESSMENT TO REMAIN AS AT PRESENT

After the meeting of the council there will be a meeting of the hard labor committee.

Mrs. Green will now prepare herself for confirmation, to be conducted by Bishop Edwin S. Lines of the Newark diocese.

BRITISH PROTEST STRONGLY BACKED

TO MEET THE EXPANSIONS BY GERMANY

A Statement on The Negotiations Between Canadian Ministers and Defence Committee

(Canadian Press)

London, July 16—A statement regarding the progress of the negotiations between the Canadian ministers and the imperial defence committee given out by an apparently well posted informant states:

"If the Canadian ministers were in a position to speak, there is not the slightest doubt that they would say that the aims of Great Britain with regard to naval requirements are modeled to meet German expansion at sea. That has been the keynote of the representations made by the British ministers, which have been presented in such a conclusive manner that the Canadians are absolutely convinced of the danger in prospect.

"Mr. Borden particularly, it is learned, put a series of questions in order to elucidate the real inwardness of the naval menace and the requirements of the admiralty to meet it. He took nothing for granted, and as a result, voluminous vouchers for facts are now his possession, including technical explanations from many experts, dealing with the strategic position and structural recommendations with regard to type of ships required.

"It is generally believed in inner circles that the granting to Canada and the other dominions of a place in a remodelled committee of imperial defence has been practically settled as a matter of principle, but the details have still to be worked out. Just as the Canadian premier declared that Canada would not be an adjunct to the British empire, so has he insisted on representation of the same and especially in Canada, and the matter of the dominion's representation in the councils of war."

Dies of Blood Poisoning

Corwall, July 15—After pricking her finger with a needle with which she was sewing, Mrs. Cornelius Barnes of Racket River, went out and planted some flowers in her garden. Her finger was swollen and she died here this morning.

LIVELY NEWS OF ST. JOHN TODAY

AUTO REPORT. James Pullen and A. C. Smalley have been reported by the police for not having the rear lamps on their automobiles lighted as required by law.

JOE TARBELL. St. John fans have been anxiously awaiting word of Joe Tarbell's debut with the Cleveland Americans but as yet Joe has not been given a tryout in any of the games. According to a Cleveland dispatch he is out with the team practicing every day and looks good to the management.

DEED TODAY. At his home in Magazine street, North End, this morning, John C. McManus passed away after a few months' illness. He had been engaged as a coalman for years, and was well known about the city.

His brother, Francis, survives with two sisters, Misses Annie and Gertrude, at his home. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning to St. Peter's church, North End.

POLICE COURT. One lost prisoner, an Indian, was arraigned in the police court this morning. He pleaded guilty to drunkenness, and was fined $8 or two months in jail. He was allowed to go, as he told the court that his wife was very sick at home.

"Very well, said His Honor, you can go now and get back to your wigwam and your papoose just as fast as you can." The "big chief" accepted the invitation without any hesitation. A small boy, Edward O'Brien, charged with striking Mrs. Emma Botte with a ball, was fined $5.

A GOOD MARK. From the list of those passing the High School entrance examinations, the name of Miss Marion Curran was inadvertently omitted. She had the distinction of being well up in the honor list, having a total of 877 by her credit. Miss Curran is a pupil of St. Joseph's school, and it is worthy of note that out of the nine class of girls from this school, out of Sister Alphonsus' room, there was none who did not pass in the first division, and only four who did not make well above 80.

Several automobile owners were before the court today charged with different offences. George Hamm and W. A. Connor, charged with not having the rear lamps on their cars lighted, gave satisfactory explanations to the court and were allowed to go. J. A. Pugsley & Co. reported for having out cars which had dealers tags attached, contrary to law, pleaded not guilty. J. A. Pugsley and M. D. Coll said that they had no knowledge of any cars having gone out of their garage so tagged. Policeman Witters said that on the night of June 27 he saw a car in Charlotte street with dealer's tag No. 2 attached. This car, he said, belonged to the Pugsley garage, and was occupied by several local people. The chauffeur had given his name as Thomas. The latter appeared in court this morning and denied being in the car. He said that he was out of town on the night in question. The matter was allowed to stand over until tomorrow morning.

It is estimated that 3,000 people were made homeless. A dozen people reported missing are yet to be accounted for.

Senators Burton And Root Warn Their Colleagues

U. S. PLEDGE AT STAKE

"Equal Treatment" to All Was Promised—Former Secretary of State Says to Pass Bill Will Be "Unjustifiable Discrimination Against Other Nations"

(Canadian Press) Washington, D. C., July 16—Great Britain's protest that the United States has no rights, under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty to pass its own coastwise vessels free through the Panama canal while it collects tolls from British and other foreign ships, found emphatic support in the senate yesterday.

Opening the fight over the Panama Canal bill sent to the senate by the house and the free provision as an important feature Senators Burton of Ohio and Root of New York outlined a stand upon which the opponents of free tolls for American ships will fight their battle.

Both senators declared Great Britain had surrendered important rights at Panama held under the former Clayton-Bulwer treaty for the pledge of "equal treatment" to all ships given by the United States in the existing Hay-Pauncefote treaty. The controversy hinges on the question whether or not the United States is pledged to treat the ships of all nations equally to include vessels owned by its citizens.

Senator Root, former secretary of state unreservedly declared that the Hague convention would be called upon to settle the issue finally if the United States passed the bill with the free provisions, which he characterized as "unjustified discrimination against other nations."

A decision against the United States by the Hague court, he said, would indirectly involve this country in the repayment of millions of dollars to the owners of foreign ships, which might have been taken in as tolls at the canal.

It was expected by the state department officials yesterday that the details of the British statement of protest would arrive in New York within the next forty-eight hours.

PICNIC TODAY

The annual picnic of Ledge street Baptist Sunday school is being held today at Westfield.

PAVING STARTED. Men were put at work today on the paving to be done in Pond street. Granite blocks are used and quite a stretch is to be covered.

AGAIN ON ROUTE. The steamer Elaine and Victoria are again on the route between Indiantown and Fredericton. The Elaine went up this morning and had a fairly large crowd aboard, while the Victoria will leave tomorrow morning.

MORE BERRIES. The steamer May Queen brought down a fairly large shipment of strawberries yesterday and the price dropped to nine cents. It was up again to ten today. A few blueberries are being brought down and are selling at twelve cents a box while gooseberries are making their first appearance this season, bringing about the same price.

GOOD FOR FAIRVILLE. The C. P. R. branch of the St. John Ambulance Association, which was organized in Fairville for the benefit of train men a few weeks ago, has proved one of the most successful of the local classes. The attendance has been large and much interest has been displayed in the work. Mr. Shakespear of Montreal was again present at the meeting on Sunday afternoon and gave a lecture on anatomy illustrated by a skeleton. He will give another lecture next week.

REAL ESTATE. Alexandra Heights residential section on the Strait Shore off the foot of Alexandra street has been placed on the market in building lots and will be sold by Jardine & Rice. J. Tobin of Ottawa who has shown his faith in St. John real estate by several investments has secured an interest in this project.

Nordheim Heights, which was offered for sale yesterday by the same firm apparently has proved attractive to investors as half a dozen lots have already been sold.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL. William Foley, arrested some weeks ago on suspicion of breaking and entering a C. P. R. car and stealing a quantity of whisky was this morning committed to stand trial at the next sitting of the county court. The only witness this morning was Edgar Christopher, a packer in the employ of the National Drug & Chemical Company. He said that he had packed an order for E. W. Mayer of Woodstock consisting of two dozen bottles of brandy and two dozen bottles of whisky. The shipment was returned from the C. P. R. and two bottles of brandy and eleven bottles of whisky having been stolen. He identified a bottle produced in court as being similar to the ones shipped. This finishes the case for the prosecution.

The prisoner when asked to plead, replied that he had nothing to say. He was not represented by counsel in the police court, but will be the higher court.

The Hay—Pancefote Treaty and Panama Canal; An English City Owned by Two Men

Treaties duly made and ratified by the President and Senate of the United States are, according to the constitution, declared to be "the supreme law of the land." If the treaty in question runs counter to existing legislation of either country, then that legislation must be modified to conform with the treaty.

In 1816, after the commercial treaty with England was raised the question as to whether it was necessary to have a bill modifying American revenue laws, so as to conform to the treaty stipulations, or whether the treaty, as "the supreme law of the land," itself operated "retroactively." The point was solved by the passage of a declaration act (U. S. Statutes at Large, Vol. II, C. 334), emphasizing the fact that the terms of the treaty superseded the pre-existing revenue laws.

It is necessary to recall this in connection with the Hay-Pancefote treaty, now to be the force of account of the impending legislation at Washington with regard to the Panama Canal, and to bear in mind that the treaty in question must absolutely govern all projected legislation, and at the same time must be regarded as superseding all former American shipping laws, in any point where these may be in conflict with the treaty stipulations.

I refer to this matter because the action of Great Britain in taking exception to certain points of canal legislation now under consideration, as violations of the Hay-Pancefote treaty, is just at present the absorbing topic of the hour. It is a matter which in certain eventualities is calculated to affect unpleasantly the relations of the United States with all maritime powers, whose interests are identical with those of England.

Every foreign nation appreciates the fact that the great water-way will owe its existence to American enterprise and American money, and that therefore the United States has a right to demand any toll it pleases from ships using it in order to obtain some return for the vast outlay involved in its construction. But what all powers demand is that there shall be no discrimination. Denunciation of the Hay-Pancefote treaty should precede any legislation in violation thereof.

Emperor Nicholas has turned a deaf ear to the request of Emperor William that Count Benckendorff should be appointed to succeed the late Count Ostensacken as Muscovite ambassador at Berlin. The refusal is based on the same indication of Benckendorff to leave England, where he has represented his government for more than ten years, and where he is thoroughly at home, popular alike with the reigning house and in society.

Instead, Emperor Nicholas has promoted Sergius Sverbeff, who was minister at Athens, to be ambassador in the Kaiser's capital. Sverbeff, though more or less unknown to the British, has been a very successful diplomat, and spent many years as first secretary and counselor of the Russian embassy at Vienna, being charge d'affaires at the time when the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria brought that country to the verge of war with Russia. It was in fact largely owing to his tact, ability and conciliatory attitude that hostilities were averted, and the bitterness between the two governments finally smoothed over.

Previous to his post at Vienna, he was connected with the Czar's legations at Constantinople and at Munich. He belongs to an old patrician family, by considerable private means, was a general favorite at Athens as well as at Vienna, and is a close personal friend of M. Sazonoff, the Russian minister of foreign affairs. Very level-headed, and extremely active, he is likely to do well for his country at Berlin, where his predecessor, who was a very old man, was for many years a prey to the infirmities of his age, and kept on only at the pressing request of the Kaiser.

"Somerset Stone," consisting of a tall cross of Aberdeen granite and a ponderous slab of the same material. He intended it for his tombstone, and on it are carved his name, title, and armorial bearings, followed by these extraordinary lines:

"The tomb was the Sheridan Duke. He defrauded and nearly ruined the St. Maur family. This stone was prepared by the thirteenth duke in his lifetime, and was erected here in pursuance of his express directions.

The rectory of Berry-Pomeroy church, in whose graveyard most of the St. Maur family are buried, refused to allot a location for the monument, although the thirteenth duke had left a fund for its maintenance in perpetuo, and accordingly the executors of the will caused its erection in a corner of a field belonging to the entitled estates, near Tolness, in Devonshire, where it is the object of numerous pilgrimages on the part of the curious.

This impoverishment of the dukedom was owing to the Sheridan Duke's dislike of his brothers, who became his heirs through the death of his two sons, the Earl of St. Maur, and Lord Edward St. Maur. The latter mysteriously disappeared during a shooting expedition in the Himalayas in 1802.

Daily Hints For the Cook

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE.
Mix and sift two cupfuls of pastry flour, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and one half teaspoonful of salt. Work in one fourth cupful of butter, using the tips of the fingers; then add three fourths cupful of milk. Toss on a slightly floured board and divide into halves. Put each half separately, to fit a Washington pie or round layer cake tin. Put in a hot oven from 12 to 15 minutes. Pick over, wash, drain, and hull strawberries. Cut in quarters, put into an earthen dish, and sprinkle with sugar to taste; about one cupful is usually required for each box of strawberries, and one box of berries is required for each shortcake. Place on back of range until warmed, then crush slightly. Split shortcake, and spread out surface with butter. Put the berries between and on top of the layers, spreading each time on a cut surface. Cover with whipped cream, sweetened and flavored with vanilla, and garnish with whole selected berries.

An Obsolete Word

By RUTH CAMERON

A COLLEGE president who was lecturing on the type of girl who succeeds, and the type of girl who fails, declared that one of the most common members of that latter class is the girl who always tries to blame anything untoward that happens to her, upon someone else. This kind of girl, he said, if she was passing through a gate and there was nobody else in sight, and she should tear her gown, would still think that the accident was somebody's fault.

We all know people like that—people who regard every unfortunate happening in the home or outside of it as somebody's fault, and are perfectly frantic if they cannot find someone to blame for anything that disturbs or inconveniences them.

When anything disagreeable occurs, these folks must immediately let off steam by blaming someone, and when, as sometimes happens, the disagreeable occurrence cannot really be traced to anyone, these people become absolutely explosive with pent-up blame.

For instance, in an office in which I once worked, the head man was of this type. One summer day when all the windows were open as a matter of course, the whole office happened to be out of the room. One girl was at dinner, by her permission; another had gone downtown with him to take down an important interview; and the office boy had been sent on an errand. During this period a quick summer shower came up and some important papers were injured by the rain. It was really impossible for that man to blame anyone for this unfortunate happening, and we almost feared that his pent-up irritation would do him physical injury.

In as too many households, where some of the family have this desire to blame someone for everything that troubles them, the patient mother is the scape-goat of every accident and every irritation.

"Why wasn't the telephone answered today?" demands the son of the family. "I tried six times to get the house and they told me you didn't answer. It's too bad, mother. I don't see any use in our having a telephone if you can't answer it!" Whereupon the patient Mrs. Griselda attempts to palliate her son's irritation by explaining that it was the maid's afternoon out, that her daughter was making candy in the kitchen, and that she herself had gone out on an errand for father.

"Why can't we ever have dinner ready on time?" raves father. "The meat didn't come until late? Why didn't you tell him what time you wanted it? You did? I don't believe you made it very plain. You're always telling about some thing or other being late. I should think you could manage to have things delivered when we want them. I pay enough for them."

A great many things happen in this world that are nobody's fault—some things just plain happen, and others are unfortunate accidents or mistakes. It is a relief to have someone to blame when any of those things irritates one, but a relief of which only selfish and unjust people avail themselves, and in the truly generous person's dictionary, "fault" is an entirely obsolete word; the words "mistake" or "accident" have quite taken its place.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHAS

The annual decoration day of the Knights of Pythias will be held on August 20. Tomorrow night the ceremonies in New Brunswick Lodge No. 1 will be of an especially interesting character. No less than fourteen equires will be elevated to the rank of knight, the final and most elaborate of the Pythian degrees. This is a large class of candidates and it is expected the fraternity throughout the city will attend in large numbers. The lodge will be called to order a half hour earlier than usual so that the ceremonies and refreshments will be over at a convenient time. Grand Chancellor Ritchie of Halifax, head of the maritime province domain, will visit the St. John lodges on July 24. H. L. Garter of this city is one of the representatives to the supreme lodge and will leave in a few days to attend the annual session in Fort Worth, Texas. The grand lodge of the province will meet in Moncton on August 20 and 21.

TWO FATALITIES IN PROVINCE

A freight train driven by Wm. Weeks, aged thirty-five years, ran into a sand slide about four miles above Grand Falls yesterday morning and he was killed. The engine, tender and two cars left the rails. He was a native of Woodstock, and one of the youngest engineers on the road. He was at McDerm for quite a while and also worked at Brownville, Me., before going to Woodstock to work.

Edward McShane, a farmer living at Cedar Camp, some miles from Sussex, was killed yesterday by being kicked in the stomach by a horse which he was showing to some friends. Doctor McAlister performed an operation but the unfortunate man died. He was forty-five years old and survived by his wife and a large family.

A piece of stone, eighteen inches high, on which is roughly cut in bas-relief the figure of a woman, is the oldest known representation of the human form. It was discovered by Doctor Lantini in excavations in the grottoes of Laussel, France, and is thought to be 20,000 years old. Scientists believe that it comes between the ages of the mammoth and the reindeer, when the artist would have used sharpened flints as tools.

COLONEL ASTOR'S LAST DEBT

Dollar Paid in Bridge Game on Titanic Goes to Washington Memorial

Washington, July 16—The last debt paid by Colonel John Jacob Astor, a victim of the Titanic disaster, will help to build the great memorial in Washington to the men who died on the ill-fated liner.

Mrs. Archibald Forbes, a New York social leader, is the woman to whom the debt was paid. She has forwarded a dollar bill that was handed to her by Colonel Astor when the party of which they were members, settled up for the last bridge game played in the saloon before the Titanic sank.

Mrs. Forbes said that when Colonel Astor handed the dollar, he made a jesting remark about the lack of beginners. Mrs. Forbes' luck held, for a few hours later she was aloft in a lifeboat while Colonel Astor was drowned.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS

The report showed a general advance for the year as compared with previous years. The net gain of the Seventh Day Adventists throughout the world was 4,440 or more than four per cent. The world's contributions for evangelistic work aggregated $2,363,098.

The total valuation of 2,293 institutions conducted by the Adventists was approximately $11,000,000 and the total force of evangelists and industrial workers was 8,877.

PICTURE SUFFERS BY A $28,000 FIRE

Atlantic Milling Company's Plant Destroyed

Pictou, July 16—The plant of the Atlantic Milling Company was destroyed by fire on Sunday. The loss is placed at $28,000, with $15,000 insurance divided as follows:—

Western $3,000 Royal 2,000 Norwalk Union 2,000 Sweden Mutual 2,000 Nova Scotia 1,000

The fire had great headway before the company and the efforts of the firemen were concentrated on saving Fullerton's mill, which is situated on the opposite side of the mill race from the burning building. This business was started in Pictou five years ago by J. W. Smith of Durham, managing director of the company, who is now on a trip to Montreal.

The company will rebuild on a larger and probably more advantageous scale.

THE PANAMA CANAL

The proposal of the United States Congress to exempt American coastwise traffic from the payment of tolls in the Panama Canal is objected to by the British Government because of a clause of the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty says: "The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations observing these rules on terms of entire equality so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation or its citizens or subjects in respect to the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise."

Next the Governor General, and then the Exhibition. While charging the Times with fixing responsibility in connection with Old Home Week, the Standard proceeds to do the fixing itself. All the "knockers" are doing that.

Readers of the news of the day have of late become very familiar with tales of fatal accidents on railways and aeroplanes, or fatalities caused by lightning, tornado and flood. The council is proceeding with commendable promptitude to add to the proportion of permanent street paving in the city. King and Charlotte streets will be greatly improved.

Men financially interested in the big trusts will not be worried greatly by the action of Congress. John D. Rockefeller has added $70,000,000 to his fortune since the dissolution of the Standard Oil Trust.

Beware of annexation. King George has permitted himself to be photographed in company with the Assistant and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, and expresses pleasure at meeting them. Where are the flag flappers?

It is worthy of note that a number of the leading American papers are opposed to the action of Congress and declare that the British contention is the right one, and should be upheld. They assert that the proposed action of Congress would be a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and a distinct breach of faith.

ALFALFA CULTURE

It is announced that the provincial department of agriculture is interesting itself in demonstration work in connection with the cultivation of alfalfa, with Mr. C. W. MacDougall in charge of the experiments. Mr. MacDougall has rendered valuable service in this direction at Sussex, where alfalfa has not only been grown successfully from imported but from native seed.

CANADA'S PROSPERITY

The Montreal Shareholder remarks that the first six months of this year will probably go down to history as the most prosperous period in the history of the Dominion. There is a large increase in immigration, in the acreage in crops, in building permits, bank clearings, savings deposits, railroad earnings, manufacturing, railroad construction, with great activity in the stock and bond markets.

LOWERING DUTIES

An Ottawa despatch to the Standard says that the temporary reduction in the duty on cement has led to a large increase in the importations, 171,000 barrels in June compared with 50,000 barrels in June of last year, and that there has been great relief to the consumers. The despatch adds: "Thus the general effect is that the legitimate business of the cement manufacturer has not been impaired, while relief has been given to the eastern and western portions of the country which for

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

ARMOUR SAVED HIM

New York Business Man's Enemies Failed to Kill Him
New York, July 16—Benjamin Rukis, a prosperous fish dealer of East New York, with knowledge, he says, that business rivals had poisoned his horses, forcing him to buy an automobile which, as he expressed it, "they couldn't poison," has taken further protective measures against his enemies.
When a man lurking in a hallway fired three shots at Rukis as he was driving his car along Powell street, witnesses of the shooting expected to see the attacked man drop dead or seriously wounded. Instead he leaped from the machine and chased the holder of the revolver into the arms of a policeman, who had seen the shots fired.
Rukis offered no oral explanation of his escape, simply pulling off his coat, which set revealed a shining armor, corset-like, beneath his outer garment. All three bullets had found their mark, but had only dented the armor, which was of thick aluminum. Rukis' alleged assailant, who is a foreigner and said he lived in Hoboken, was held for examination.

RIVALS IN SEARCH FOR HIDDEN FORTUNE

London, July 16—A rival expedition to that organized by a syndicate to search for buried Spanish treasure on Cooc Island, which includes Mrs. Barri and Miss Till, two women, who took part in a previous expedition, is to be organized, and an effort made to reach the goal before that organized by the women.
The promoters are understood to be in possession of all the information and hope to be on the scene a fortnight before the Melmore, with the Barri-Till expedition arrives.

THE JAIL

The municipal council is to meet this afternoon and several matters of importance will likely come up. The building committee met yesterday afternoon in the Walker building. Commissioner McLellan was in the chair. It was decided to recommend to the council that $1,500 be expended in repairs to the jail building but the council will be asked to take no further action in regard to building another story on the jail annex, as it was stated that if the conditions in the police department were improved there would be no need of such extension.

SAYS POLICE DEPARTMENT INEFFICIENT

Commissioner McLellan Says it Has Been Used By An Organization

COMES OUT FOR A CHANGE

Will Not Accept Responsibility Under Present Conditions and Defers Action on Patrol System—Department Should Be Under City Control

At the regular meeting of the city commissioners yesterday afternoon Commissioner McLellan asked that no further action be taken just as present in the matter of providing the city with a police patrol system.

"At present," said Mr. McLellan, "there are conditions prevailing in the police department which should be cleared up. The chief of police is not responsible to any civic official for the proper conduct of the department and he has full power in hiring and discharging the men. I want the people to know that I will not assume the responsibility of conducting this department while such conditions exist."

"I am not making any charges and I may not be able at present to prove my statements, but the police department which has been handled by a political organization which has used the department to carry out its own aims, I believe that the department is not efficient and I believe it is not presided over by an efficient officer, and I would not recommend any extra expenditure under present conditions."

"Many of the policemen are not wise to their duty or do not intend doing their duty. There is too much disposition on some policemen's part to make arrests and even if a man is only staggering slightly he is liable to be locked up. The policemen should, if they know a drunken man, find out where he lives and take him home instead of to the lockup."

"If I am not satisfied with the police department, the chief, according to his own idea, is only responsible to the New Brunswick government but if the police come under civic control we could have a more efficient department."

Mr. McLellan said that he was not asking for a delay on account of some newspaper correspondents who had knocked the patrol system as these correspondents did not know what they were talking about.

Will Not Stand for It

Continuing, Mr. McLellan said: "An organization has operated the police department for the last fifteen years but I am not going to stand for it. I will hide my eyes and as a citizen will eventually have the department so that it will be under my control or under the control of my successor."

"Only yesterday a man was locked up, first in the station lockup and later taken to central station and some of his friends tried to get him out but the excuse was given that the magistrate had ordered that all arrested on Sunday for drunkenness should be brought before him on Monday morning and although $300 was offered as a guarantee for his appearance, he was not liberated. This man was never arrested before for drunkenness and aside from his falling in regard to drink he is a respectable citizen. Still two other prisoners, arrested Saturday, were allowed out on an $8 deposit and one of these was a particularly notorious character."

"I do not retract from my original statement that a police patrol system is needed in St. John but while this meddling with the police is going on I do not intend to close part of Nelson street, West End, and permit the dominion fisheries department to use it as requested at a former meeting of the council. The changes proposed will be advertised and action will not take place for thirty days. This will give those who object to the transaction a chance to protest."

Mr. Schofield asked how much it would cost to get the people's opinion in regard to the early closing bylaw and it was explained that the cost would be in the vicinity of $400.

No further business was to come up so the meeting adjourned.

SIR WILFRID ON SPEAKING TOUR OF EAST

Active Campaign Under Veteran Leader to Be Carried On By Liberals in Autumn

Ottawa, July 15—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Lady Laurier are to leave tomorrow morning for a few weeks quiet holiday at Sir Wilfrid's old home in Arthabaska, N.S. Sir Wilfrid is in splendid health and spirits and is greatly enjoying the opportunities of his first summer in more than fifteen years free from the constant cares and responsibilities of office.

During the autumn months he will probably visit various points in eastern Canada and address Liberal meetings on the present political issues. He has received many requests from all parts of the dominion asking him to speak at political meetings.

The Liberal leaders in every province are evidently prepared to lose no time in the work of organization and education preparatory to the next federal election which is expected to follow the passing of the redistribution bill next session of parliament.

Sir Wilfrid is ready to back up his lieutenants with his personal help and an active campaign will be undertaken next fall under his leadership. Many invitations have come to have him go to western Canada where he is assured of a reception that will surpass anything ever before accorded a political leader in the prairie provinces. The question of a western tour will be considered when Sir Wilfrid returns to the capital.

CO-OPERATIVE COMPANY STARTS CREAMERY IN CUMBERLAND COUNTY

Amherst, July 15—Another new creamery in the province started business last week, being known as "The Cumberland Co-Operative Creamery Co. Ltd., situated at Liver Hebert. It is entirely composed of farmers and has been organized with the idea of co-operation. It is incorporated under the laws of Nova Scotia by a special act passed at the last session. The system is copied as near as practical from the co-operative systems of the Danish farmers, which have made such a great success in that country. This is the first creamery organized on this basis in Nova Scotia.

A first class building and plant have been installed on modern principles and the company will co-operatively go into the wholesale manufacture of butter and ice-cream.

The work of organizing and operating is under the supervision of the provincial department of agriculture, but much of the credit is due to the energetic persistency of R. L. Rutherford, B. S. A., recently a graduate of the Nova Scotia Agricultural College and of the A. A. C. Quebec, and to the united untiring board of directors, who determined that the present system of marketing dairy products was not suitable to the country needs, and if co-operation could be made a success in other places the same would apply in this vicinity, and would serve as a beginning whereby all the products of the farm could be handled in this way.

Cream will be gathered by teams in the surrounding community and by train for a radius of fifty miles. The first day's make of butter amounted to 375 pounds. The ice-cream machinery will be installed at once. The work is being done under the supervision of W. A. McKay, dairy superintendent of the department of agriculture for Nova Scotia, and is in charge of competent operators. The establishment of this creamery is another mark of the progressive policy of the Nova Scotia administration, and the enterprise of the River Hebert farmers.

STREET PAVING BEGUN.

Work was commenced this morning on the new permanent pavements in King and Charlotte streets. As these are a couple of the busiest streets in the city and the street car service will be partially interrupted the work will be rushed. An important feature will be the widening of Charlotte street by the removal of the sidewalk and grass strip on the western side of King Square.

FOR WILSON AGAIN New York, July 15.—The name of Woodrow Wilson is not yet flying in its old place at the mast head of Harper's Weekly, but in the current issue Colonel George Harvey predicts Governor Wilson's election to the presidency, and seems as enthusiastic about him as he was in the days before Colonel Harvey's paper, at a hint from the governor, fell abruptly silent. If the Democrats cannot elect Governor Wilson, says Colonel Harvey, they could not elect anybody. He thinks the Baltimore convention, which he attended, elected the strongest candidate.
