STREET RAILWAY PASSES.

While the interests of the city and the Street Railway Company are in any way inimical it is not right that men whom the citizens have elected to look after their welfare should, by accepting favors, place themselves under any obligation to the company.

Whether the aldermen look upon the passes offered by the street railway as bribes or not, there can be little doubt of the opinion of the company. Last year it sought new favors from the city and was, for the time, refused.

The passes which the aldermen and other civic officials had enjoyed for years were taken away. Now, as the company is preparing to renew its requests the passes are returned.

It is not likely that the directors of the company hope to purchase the passes of any one alderman for the price of a pass book, which if used to the full, is only worth about fifty dollars a year.

But those astute gentlemen have evidently studied human nature and know that, however independent a man may think he is, the feeling of personal obligation toward anyone who has done him a good turn unconsciously affects his thoughts and actions in matters where the source of that favor is concerned.

The intention of the company in sending out passes again at this time is so apparent that the city newspapers, which previously allowed their reporters to use them, as the aldermen then did, without a thought of dependence, have refused to accept them. In the interests of the city it is sincerely to be hoped that all the aldermen will come to look at the matter in the same light.

The St. John Street Railway Company enjoys enormous privileges in this city for which it does not even make the returns of providing a satisfactory service. It is seeking more privileges, which the city should not grant without adequate compensation. Under the circumstances no alderman who values his reputation for independence can afford to accept the gift of free rides on the street cars and then vote in favor of giving the men who own these cars further opportunities of getting rich at the city's expense.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP IN JAPAN.

The Star yesterday mentioned Japan as one of several countries which have adopted the principle of government ownership with marked success. A brief survey of the progress this remarkable nation has made along this line should be interesting to Canadians government ownership of their new transcontinental line.

When Japan a few years ago awoke to the benefits of modern civilization, emissaries were sent out to inspect the governmental and social systems of all the great nations and from the materials in their report the Japanese administration selected what they thought was best and adopted it. As a result Japan has, in addition to a splendid army and navy, a fine system of government railways, telegraphs, and telephones which give every satisfaction and pay both directly and indirectly.

She has 4,227 miles of railway, nearly three times what she had ten years ago. Last year these lines carried 11,000,000 passengers, a 500 per cent. increase in a decade, and 14,400,000 tons of freight, a 500 per cent. increase.
During the last year the profits were $14 per cent. on the people's capital invested.

During the last decade the expansion in other methods of communication was also extraordinary. The postal messages increased from 200,000,000 to 900, 000,000. The postal parcels increased from 40,000 to 10,000,000. The volume of telegraphic messages swelled from 5,500,000 to 17,000,000. Telephone messages rose from 3,000,000 to 11,000,000.

The postoffice of Japan employs a greater number of men than those of either Austria or Russia. More letters and parcels are transmitted by the post in Japan than in Italy or in Russia.

The telegraphic mileage in Japan is greater than that of Austria or Russia.

She sends more telegrams than do Russia, Austria and Italy. Her telephone service has more miles of wire than any to be found in Austria, Russia or Italy.

And notwithstanding that in each of these departments advancement has been made at a rate that would make a private and cautious company gasp, direct profits have been made on the people's investment.

OF COURSE.

A London Journal called "The New Age" is giving great comfort to the government organs in this country, by denouncing Lord Dundonald and commending the Canadian administration for dismissing him. The editor of "The New Age," who was in Canada last year, was one of the most blatant and offensive pro-Boers in England. He was worse than Gladstone, who publicly over and over again expressed his wish for the defeat of the British in Africa.

Naturally the well-wisher of Britain's enemies desires the suppression of men like Lord Dundonald. Since they could not see Lord Dundonald beaten in Africa they cheerfully accept the next best thing, his overthrow in Canada.

Supporters of Kruger against Britain are all supporters of Laurier against Dundonald.—Sun.

An exchange call to mind another incident where Lord Dundonald's aggressive militarism got the better of his respect for authority. At the first camp he attended there was a shortage of national and the general ordered a larger supply. "But there is no appropriation," reported the quartermaster. "Whereupon Lord Dundonald replied: 'Hang the appropriation! I'll pay for it.' The commander who thus interferes with the responsible government ought certainly to go.

SUMMER VACATION.

(Eugene Field.)

It seems to me I'd like to go Where bells don't ring, nor whistles howl.
Nor clocks don't strike, nor gongs don't sound.
And I'd have stillness all around.

Not really stillness, but just the "rest" of whistlers, or the hum of bees, Or brooks' faint babbling over stones in strangely, softly tangled tones.

Or maybe a cricket or katydid,
Or the songs of birds in the hedges high.
Or just some such sweet sounds as these
To fill a drear heart with ease.

If 'twere't for sight and sound and I'd like a city pretty well,
But when it comes to getting rest
I like the country lots the best.

Sometimes it seems to me I must Just quibble, by the hum of bees,
And get out where the sky is blue,
And say, now, how does it seem to you?

BASE BALL.

Clippers, 4; Portlands, 1.

Last night's game on the Victoria grounds was witnessed by a very small crowd and resulted in a win for the Marsh road boys by a score of 4 to 1. Treacrin was the star artist for the Portlands, while McEachran did the twirling for the Clippers. Both men were in splendid form, but their support was at times rather rocky. The Portlands had several bad balloon ascensions, and McDonald, while catching with one error, left his base uncovered at critical times. Treacrin was also guilty of slack work in not looking after that bag. The runs were all made on errors.

THE WELDON HOUSE.

James D. Weldon, the proprietor of the Weldon House at Shediac, was in town yesterday. This old and popular house has been thoroughly repaired after its recent damage by fire. Mr. Weldon reports that everything necessary has been completed to make the house not only as good but even better than it ever was. New sample room have been provided. The bath-room arrangements are first class, and the grounds near the hotel are most attractively fitted up. Shediac is becoming a most popular summer resort.

IN THE HARBOR.

Some changes were made in the harbor yesterday. The Manchester Corporation is at the upper I. C. R. berth. When the Norden sailed yesterday the Pynda moved over from No. 1 berth, Sand Point, to the lower government pier. This afforded the Mianca a berth, and the departure of the Norden opened up a chance for the Pontiac. The Italian bark Geni will secure a berth at Sand Point as well.

NEW CAR TRUCKS.

The Street Railway Co. have ordered three new motors and three trucks. These will be used in fitting up cars which are now lying idle in the sheds. There are at present 25 cars which can be called upon for service, and when the new trucks arrive this number will be increased to 28. Twenty cars are required for ordinary service, but there are usually several out of order, and the railway have none too many spare ones on hand.

THE BATTLE LINE.

Str. Plateau, from Hull, arrived at West Bay on the 6th.

Str. Phalaris arrived at Singapore from Cebu at 11 a. m. yesterday for Boston and New York.

Str. Pandora sailed from West Bay yesterday, bound for Manchester.

FLIGHT OF BIRDS.

(St. Joseph, Mo., News).

William W. Murphy, a locomotive engineer on the Burlington's fast express between Hannibal and St. Joseph, has been making observations on the speed of various birds and insects. Many birds, he says, make a practice of flying beside or in front of his engine, and when the weather is clear and there is no wind he opens the throttle and races with them.

He finds that a chicken hawk and a crow can make 25 miles an hour. A turkey buzzard flies at the rate of 21 miles an hour. The pigeon is one of the fastest birds in the United States. It makes a speed of 46 miles an hour with ease. When chased by an eagle it can beat the Burlington's St. Louis express. "The wild duck is travelling at the rate of 44 miles an hour while the hunter is pumping the contents of a repeating gun at it. The blackbird, robin, dove and other small birds, travel at a speed of 28 miles an hour. The humming bird can, and does, excel a speed of a mile per minute. Murphy says that a honey bee, the other day, flew in and out of his cab window while he was going at the rate of 63 miles an hour. The performance lasted while the engine travelled a half mile.

WORLD'S RICHEST CHILD.

With $2,000,000 in his own right, four-year-old John Nicholas Brown, of Providence, Rhode Island, is today the richest child in the world. There are several little boys and girls in the world who are prospectively richer than little John Nicholas Brown, including the infant child of John D. Rockefeller, Jun., the Vanderbilt and Gould children, and the youthful heirs-presumptive of some of the Royal houses, but there are none of his tender years who have in their own right anything like the fortune he possesses.

When his father and uncle died, four years ago last month, the property that they left this little boy was conservatively estimated at $2,000,000. This vast accumulation of wealth is being wisely managed and carefully invested. Much of it is gilt-edged real estate, millions of dollars of it are invested in high-class bonds, and it is a safe estimate that when the boy is 21 the property will have nearly trebled. If he lives to reach his majority—and he is quite a healthy boy—he will find upwards of $3,000,000 awaiting him.

TRAIN WILL BE HELD.

POLICE COURT.

Dorchester Threatens a Couple of Young Men—Fight Between Women—A Busy Day.

There was a lengthy session at the police court this morning and his honor was called upon to deal with a variety of cases that ranged from common drunks to violations of the dog license law, the board of health regulations, a scrap between several women and a more serious one, that may result in a couple of youths going to Dorchester for a term of years.

Two common drunks got the usual fine.

John Burns, arrested on a bastardy warrant, was remanded.

Geo. Kane, twelve years of age, was arrested last night by Officer Finlay, who took him to a room in a barn off Peters street. The officer had been informed that people had been in the habit of sleeping in the barn and he kept an eye on it. Young Kane explained to the officer that his parents living in Paradise Row, and that last evening after he had his supper there he accused him of stealing some money from the house and as his father was going to beat him he ran away. He knew that a certain milk man kept his wagon at the barn in question and went there as he was afraid to go home. This morning he was remanded.

Two young men who gave their names as "If after Leeman" and "John Quigley," aged 17, were arrested yesterday afternoon charged with being drunk on the C. P. R. track at foot of King street east, also with wilfully breaking windows in the Canadian Bank note Company's building, and with assaulting Frank Richardson on Erin street. The lads in question are considered bad characters by the police. Leeman's correct name is Walter Golding, while Quigley only recently got out of jail, having been arrested on the 17th, when he gave his name as Frank Quinn and his age as fifteen.

Frank Richardson took the stand and swore that Quigley and Leeman, as he calls himself, stopped him and assaulted him on Erin street and that he had to take shelter in a house to escape from them.

His honor gave them a severe reprimand and intimated that there would be a crusade this summer against all such characters who were altogether too plentiful in the Erin street district. Every time he drove through that street he met them there, dirty, filthy and of sneaking appearance. He felt that Dorchester was the proper place for their kind. On the charge of drunkenness he fined them $8 or two months with hard labor. On the other charges they were remanded before the grand jury when the two months in jail was finished.

Mrs. Mary Almon was brought to court this morning by Officer Henry on a warrant charging her with assaulting Constable Blair's daughter. Mrs. Almon had been notified to be in court the day before but as she did not appear the warrant was sworn out. Miss Blair swore that in company with Mrs. Sullivan she visited Mrs. Almon's house and Mrs. Almon hit her with a wet cloth and scratched her face. Mrs. Sullivan stated that Mrs. Almon also used unladylike language. A few questions asked by his honor brought out the fact that there had been some dispute among the women previous to the assault and he said witnesses should have used better judgment than to go near a woman who had such a tongue as Mrs. Almon. He imposed a fine of $8 which was allowed to stand for two weeks. If during that time there is any trouble the fine will be collected.

FOUND HEALING AT ST. ANNE'S.

St. John Pilgrims Who Came Home Cured.

Most of the pilgrims who went from New Brunswick to the shrine of Saint Anne de Beausure have returned. To some of them the pilgrimage to St. Anne de Beausure practically a cured man from St. John suffering from the effects of a very severe cold. Of the four hundred or more pilgrims who went from New Brunswick, a good proportion of them were sufferers from one sort of ailment or other. Some had borne their burdens for years, having sought in vain relief from the medical art, and journeyed to St. Anne as a last resort for alleviation from earthly suffering. The simple and enduring faith which impelled them to the shrine of the saint was rewarded in some cases with restoration to health.

There is abundant evidence of the cures wrought at the shrine of Saint Anne right within St. John. John Hayes, of Westmorland road, a young man well known about the city, who for nearly the past three years has been obliged to move about on crutches, returned on Tuesday from Saint Anne de Beausure practically a cured man. He left his crutches at the shrine and now can move about quite readily, requiring only the aid of a cane.

To a Star reporter this morning he gave the particulars of his case. About three years ago he was afflicted with a hip and knee trouble, a form of rheumatism, which deprived him of the use of his legs. He sought medical assistance, but could only obtain temporary relief. He had come to regard his crutches as indispensable accessories, never expecting to be able to go without them. He went along with other excursionists to the shrine of Saint Anne de Beausure and there he left his crutches and believes that never again shall he have use for them. Since his return he has been the constant recipient of congratulations from his many friends.

Another man whose pilgrimage to Saint Anne has done him a wonder of good is James McDermott, of Erin street. About a year ago he sustained a severe blow on his head, resulting in partial blindness. He was almost totally deprived of the power of sight and could only dimly make out objects. He returned from his pilgrimage yesterday almost wholly restored to sight, and this morning when called upon by a Star reporter very enthusiastically told of his cure.

He said that his journey to Saint Anne de Beausure was to him not the most pleasant, as he was unable to enjoy the beautiful scenery along the way. His return journey, however, was a most delightful one, as he was able to note every passing object of interest. He was accompanied to Saint Anne by Mrs. J. V. Holland, of St. Patrick street, as he could not possibly have taken the trip alone.

Both Mr. Hayes and Mr. McDermott say that they saw many miracles performed at the famous shrine. The thousand crutches which already line the walls of the massive church were added to in large numbers. They told of one cripple from Pembroke, Me., who was almost hopeless, but who walked away from the shrine unaided and in possession of strength which he had not been able to use.

The Star is informed that others who were benefited by their pilgrimage to Saint Anne de Beausure are Mrs. William Fitzpatrick and Master Richard Caples, both of this city. A Milford man, suffering from locomotor ataxia, was also benefited. About two hundred and fifty thousand pilgrims are expected to visit the shrine of St. Anne de Beausure during the summer. They come from all parts of the North American continent, including the West Indies.

THE COCAINE HABIT.

"The drug, cocaine has laid such a hold on the natives of India that the authorities are making strenuous efforts to prevent its unrestricted distribution," says the Daily Mail.

Within the last few years a shipment of cocaine worth a lac of rupees ($2,600) was shipped to Calcutta, and the excise department intervened with the result that the cocaine had to be sent back to England.

"The results of taking cocaine regularly for any length of time are dreadful. The immed. te effect is a delightful feeling of languor, the ultimate effect is the ruin of mind and body."

"In Europe and America the drug is usually taken by injection, but the Indian found another method. 'Pan supari' was already an institution. 'Pan supari' was a kind of native chewing gum. It consisted of a leaf smeared with lime and rubbed with areca nut, cloves, and various aromatics. Then the native added cocaine and found 'pan supari' an excellent means of taking the drug.

"The abuse of cocaine by the natives grew to such an alarming extent that two years ago a measure was introduced prohibiting the sale except by licensed persons. Native offenders against the law have been prosecuted in large numbers.

MANY TOURISTS.

The Eastern line steamer Calvin Austin arrived from Boston this morning with 513 passengers, not counting children, probably the largest crowd ever landed on a Boston steamer at this port. The Austin docked at 8.45 and it took the passengers fifty minutes to land. The Austin also had a large general cargo. Many of the passengers were for points east and for several hours there was quite a rush about the depot.

SAVED HIS BOOKS.

Farmer Dockbridge was hastily awakened in the dead of night by Alf, the hired man, who told him the barn was on fire. Instructing Alf to blindfold the horses and lead them out for the sake of saving a bit of k l i n g - w o o d * commented a neighbor had been awakened by the flames, had run over to see if he could be any use.

"Kindling-wood!" exclaimed Far Dockbridge, pointing to the penitents that covered the door. "See them gents? There's all my business account for the last six years. That door's more than the hull barn!"
