GERMANS LAUNCH ANOTHER DRIVE IN EAST WITH WARSAW AS THE OBJECTIVE

RUSSIANS FIGHTING HARD AS THEY RETREAT IN GALICIA

Covering Their Retreat by a Vigorous Defence Along Middle Course of the Dniester—Ground Where They Will Make Next Stand Offers Good Natural Defences.

Cologne, via London, June 27.—The Russians are covering the retreat of their armies from Galicia by a vigorous defence along the middle course of the Dniester, rather than to the north of Lemberg, because the ground in the district where they are now making a stand offers greater natural advantages, according to an explanation of the present situation printed by the Gazette.

A further barrier to the advance of the Austro-Germans is offered by strong fortifications thrown up by the Russians at Kamionka, north-east of Lemberg; at Busk, further south of the Bug river and at Zloczow, almost due east of Lemberg with which it is connected by rail. The Gazette says it is expected, however, that the advance of Gen. Von Boehm-Ermolli's army soon will result in a more rapid movement on the north bank of the Dniester.

Fighting in Caucasus Has Been Resumed

Petrograd, June 27, via London, June 28.—A Russian official statement given out here tonight admits that the Russian forces on the front between Bobrka and Zurawna, in Galicia, south of Lemberg, are falling back. The statement adds that in the Caucasus theatre, in the region of Van, Turkish Armenia, a battle between Russian troops and a great hostile force is in progress.

SIR WM. BECK DIRECTOR OF REMOUNTS

Appointment Announced by Minister of Militia—Will Purchase Horses for Canadian Army and Assist in Providing for Their Shipment.

Ottawa, June 27.—The Minister of Militia has announced that Sir William Beck, head of the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario, has been appointed Canadian director of remounts and subject to the regulations of the war purchasing commissioner, he will purchase in Canada from time to time, such horses as may be necessary to supply wastage or for further contingents. Sir William Beck will also cooperate with the department of militia and defence in providing for the transportation of horses from Canada.

PREPARE RESIDENCE FOR POPE IN EVENT OF HIS LEAVING ROME

Geneva, via Paris, June 27.—During the last few weeks the monastery at Einsiedeln, Canton of Schwitz, has been carefully repaired and modernized to make it ready, it is stated, in the eventuality of the pope going there to reside temporarily. The German and Austrian ministers to the Vatican, who now have headquarters at Lugano, Switzerland, are favoring by propaganda this change of residence for the Pope.

DORANDO, FAMOUS MARATHON RUNNER, NOW DRIVING ARMY AUTO

Rome, June 27, via Paris.—Dorando, who was disqualified in the spectacular Marathon race held at the London Olympic games in 1908, is now driving a military automobile at the Italian front. Some of the winners at the Olympic games held in Stockholm participated in the military operations which resulted in the capture by the Italians of Monte Nero.

ENEMY AGAIN CROSSES THE DNEISTER

Have Forced Back Russians and Taken Hills on Northern Bank Between Chodorow and Bukaszowice.

Berlin, via London, June 27.—German troops, after fierce fighting, have crossed the Dniester river between Bukaszowice and Chodorow, in Galicia and have taken by storm the hills on the northern bank, according to an official statement issued today by the German army headquarters staff. In France, the statement says, French artillery stationed near the Cathedral of Arras was bombarded by German batteries. In the Argonne a portion of a French trench was stormed by the Germans.

FAILS TO WIN SUPPORT OF BULGARIA

London, June 27.—Halli Bey, President of the Turkish Council, according to a special despatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, has left that city, where he had been on a special mission, without concluding an agreement regarding Bulgaria's attitude in the war. Negotiations between Roumania and Bulgaria on the same subject are progressing.

COL. CREELMAN READY TO RETURN TO FRONT

London, June 27.—Col. J. J. Creelman of the 2nd Artillery Brigade, after examination by the army medical board has been found fit for general service. He has returned from Scotland to London, and is awaiting orders to return to the front.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK, ONLY THREE OF CREW SAVED

Was on Way to the North Sea from Emden Last Tuesday When Accident Occurred—Cause of Explosion Not Known.

London, June 27.—A Reuter despatch from Amsterdam says word has been received there that a German submarine which left Emden for the North Sea sank last Tuesday near the island of Borkum after a severe explosion, the cause of which is not known.

The message, giving this report says that the officer in command and two members of the crew, who were in the turret, are thought to have been saved. The remainder of the crew were drowned.

RUSSIANS AGAIN IN RETREAT IN EAST

Germans Launch New Blow at Polish Capital in Form of Drive from Przasnyn—Claim They Have Again Crossed the Dniester—English Public Convinced War Will be a Long One.

London, June 27.—The Russians are again retreating in Galicia, both to the north and south of Lemberg, and in Poland the Germans have launched another attack against Warsaw in the form of a drive from the north through Przasnyn.

The new blow at the Polish capital has been preceded by a terrific artillery action. The fact is recorded by the Russians themselves, but it is too early to say whether it means a serious offensive, the first clash having developed a bayonet encounter, the result of which neither side records.

Neither Berlin nor Vienna makes reference to the conflict in this region, confining their statements to the Galician situation, where victories are claimed in various sectors, from the Bessarabian frontier to Rawka-Ruska, north of Lemberg.

What is more important, the Germans claim that the Teutonic forces have crossed the Dniester, northwest of Halicz, and have driven the Russians some miles into the hills.

Not since the war began has the English public seen a statement of this view months ago were called pessimistic, but now it is generally admitted that the Russian armies must fight for months to come under tremendous disadvantages, which, for the meantime the much-heralded big general movement on the western front must be indefinitely postponed, while the Entente powers thoroughly re-organize their methods.

While the campaign for munitions in Great Britain is at its height, it must be assumed that Germany is straining every fibre to the same end, and calling into play her inventive skill, so as to increase the deadly mechanisms of war to offset the inevitable and terrible drain on her men.

The present consensus of opinion among military writers in London is that Germany intends further to press her eastern victories with another battering ram stroke toward Warsaw, in an endeavor to seize that city and the whole line of the Vistula.

The line of offensive now directed from the Przasnyn region is along the valleys of the Omulew and Orzye, tributaries of the Narew river, which flows across North Poland and join the bend of the Vistula above Warsaw.

Russians Again in Retreat Austrian Report Says

Vienna, June 27, via London.—The Russian forces, which, for several days, made a determined stand at positions to the east of Lemberg were again in retreat this morning along the entire front in that region, according to an official statement issued today by the Austro-Hungarian general staff. Fighting on the Upper Dniester river, the statement says, continues.

The text of the statement follows: "After their defeat south of Lemberg the Russian main army retreated to the eastward, and with strong forces took up a position on the heights to the east of Mikolajow. On this front our troops, after several days fighting, captured the enemy's advanced positions, then proceeded to storm the enemy's main positions and finally penetrated the same at numerous points, throwing back the enemy, notably along the sector near and to the south of Bobrka."

"Since early this (Sunday) morning the Russians again have been in retreat along the entire front. They also are retreating north of Zoolkiew and north of Rawka-Ruska, where they are retiring before our pursuit.

"On the Upper Dniester fighting continues. "Below Halicz and along the Bessarabian frontier there is general quiet. "From June 21st until June 25th Gen. Von Boehm-Ermolli's army captured 170 officers and 14,100 men, and took twenty-six machine guns.

"In the Italian theatre: "An Italian attack made Saturday on the Montefiore Canal, south of Sagrado, was repulsed. On the other fronts in this zone there were only artillery duels.

London, June 27.—The official communication from Vienna received by Reuters' Telegram Company, by way of Amsterdam, says: "In the Russian war theatre near Dniester and Pruth, the eastern group of General Pfanner's army has again repulsed greatly superior Russian forces. The enemy succeeded in breaking through at one point on our positions. Our reinforcements came up quickly and after a severe battle the enemy was rejected. We took several hundred prisoners.

"During the day and last night the enemy repeated his attacks at several points on our front, but everywhere was repulsed with heavy losses.

"On the heights to the northeast of Zurawna and near Chodorow, fighting is proceeding.

"The allied troops stormed several villages and repulsed the Russian counter-attacks. Otherwise, the situation in Galicia is unchanged."

Vienna, via London, June 27.—An official announcement says: "One of our submarines on Sunday torpedoed and sank an Italian torpedo boat in the Northern Adriatic."

Another Galician Town Taken

Vienna, via Berlin and Amsterdam, June 26.—Chodorow, a town of Galicia, southeast of Lemberg, at which four railroad centres, has been captured by Austrian troops who are now proceeding down the Dniester river to assist the German troops of Gen. Von Linsinger near Halicz. Though the Russians have gained success near Halicz, forcing back to the south bank of the Dniester the German troops who had crossed, the arrival of the Austrians from Chodorow is expected to terminate the Dniester campaign.

DEMANDS HIS PASSPORTS

Turkish Ambassador to Italy Wants to Leave Rome, Although no Official Declaration of War Against Turkey Has Been Made.

London, June 27.—Naby Bey, the Turkish Ambassador to Italy, today went to the Italian foreign office and demanded that he be given his passports, says a despatch from Rome to the Exchange Telegraph Company. No declaration of war between Italy and Turkey has as yet been issued by either country.

WHOLE FIRST GERMAN LINE IS HELD BY FRENCH

Germans Sheltered by Fumes Caused by Flaming Liquid Attempt to Recover their Trenches from French.

Paris, June 27.—The following official communication was issued by the War Office tonight: "On the fronts to the north and the centre there has been no infantry action. A rather violent artillery engagement has occurred, particularly in Belgium and in the region to the north of Arras.

"In the Argonne there have been several local engagements, without modification, however, of the lines, either on one side or the other. "The fighting on June 26 and during the night of June 26-27 at the Calonne trench was very violent, developing in some cases into hand-to-hand encounters. The Germans made use of flaming liquid and, sheltered by clouds of fumes reached their former first line. They were repulsed with heavy losses.

"We hold all the former first German line, as well as those parts of the second line which we had previously conquered.

"To the east of the Grand trench on the ridge south of the ravine of Sonvaud the section of a trench on a front of about 120 metres, occupied last evening by the enemy, was retaken by us in the night with the exception of about thirty metres.

"The artillery action continued all this morning in that region and was very spirited; likewise to the north of Flirey and on our front of La Haye. "A German aeroplane dropped two bombs on Saint Die. A woman was killed."

CANADA GETS ANOTHER BIG WAR ORDER

Contract Closed by W. W. Butler for 5,000,000 Shells for Use of the Russian Army.

New York, June 27.—Wilson W. Butler, vice-president of the Canadian Steel Foundries Limited, and the Canadian Car and Foundry Company, who arrived here today from Liverpool on the steamship Philadelphia, declared that while abroad he closed a contract in Petrograd for five million artillery shells, for which he asserted is one of the largest contracts ever granted by Russia for foreign made ammunition. The shells will be manufactured in Canada, and will be delivered to the order of the Russian government at Canada.

While in England Mr. Butler conferred with the Booth Committee, an advisory organization to the War Department. He said that he objected to England's efforts to draw upon Canada and other British colonies for a large supply of skilled labor.

"Canada has already generously responded to the call of Great Britain with thousands of the best of her young men," said Mr. Butler. "The effort to also draw from us our skilled labor, I resent, for we need these men ourselves."

Mr. Butler confirmed an interview he gave before sailing in which he complained that Canadian firms were not given an equal opportunity with firms of the United States in supplying armament and war supplies. He de-

TRADE UNION LEADERS SEND OUT CALL FOR RECRUITS

Point Out Danger Which Threatens Empire and Call on All Skilled Workmen to Enroll in Industrial Army Without Delay—French Gov't Passes the Industrial Mobilization Bill.

London, June 27.—Trade union leaders have issued a manifesto addressed to their fellow trade unionists, saying: "We are faced with a great responsibility and at the same time are presented with a magnificent opportunity. We are called upon to assist in saving our nation and its Allies who are fighting for civilization and international law, as against barbarism and brute force."

After calling attention to the serious position of the British and Russian armies in the field, in consequence of the shortage of munitions, the manifesto appeals to "every skilled workman of the engineering and allied trades who is not at present engaged upon war work to enroll himself as a volunteer in this hour of need to demonstrate to his comrades in the trenches and to the whole world that the munition factories.

Paris, June 27.—The Industrial Mobilization Bill, introduced in the Chamber of Deputies by M. Dabizac, was passed yesterday. The Minister of War, the Minister of Public Works and various members debated the bill, which, among other things, provides for a mixed commission composed of workmen and employers to supervise the choice of men to be relieved from duty at the front for transference to the munition factories.

TELLS BERLIN U.S. IN NO MOOD FOR TRIFLING

Dr. Meyer-Gerhardt Reports to His Government on Sentiment at Washington over the Lusitania Affair.

Berlin, June 27, via London.—Ambassador James W. Gerard yesterday called at the German Foreign Office and presented the American note regarding the American ship William P. Frye, sunk by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich in the South Atlantic. The note finds the German conditions for delay in the payment of compensation until the case is passed upon by a prize court to be unconvincing, and asks that payment be made now.

It is learned that Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhardt's report to the officials charged with drafting the German answer to the American note indicated the serious nature of the situation.

Dr. Meyer-Gerhardt was sent to Berlin by the German Ambassador at Washington for the purpose of indicating to the German government the real attitude of the American government and people. He reported that the sentiment in the United States had been growing somewhat more favorable from the German viewpoint, and particularly more favorable regarding the prohibition of the export of munitions of war to the Allies. The sinking of the Lusitania, however, undid all this.

The state of feeling in the United States at the present time, he explained, was such that it would not be satisfied with unnecessary delay in the answer, nor with an answer which appeared to be evasive or failed to meet the issue squarely.

PREMIER BORDEN TO LEAVE SOON FOR ENGLAND

Ottawa, June 27.—Sir Robert Borden it is understood will leave for England shortly. There are several matters of importance upon which it is advisable that he should confer personally with British government.

It is further stated that the need of the Allies now was for shells of a character that would break down and destroy trenches constructed of reinforced concrete and steel, such as, he said, the Germans have built all along the western battle line.

FIVE LOSE LIVES IN ATTEMPT TO SHOOT LA MALINE RAPIDS

River Drivers Drowned When Boat Capsized—All Were Experienced Rivermen.

Ottawa, June 27.—Five river drivers in the employ of the W. C. Edwards Lumber Company, lost their lives on Friday evening through the capsizing of a boat, in which they were attempting to shoot the La Maline rapids on the Lepine river, situated about 160 miles north of Ottawa in the Gatineau district. The men, whose names are G. Gauthier, A. Gauthier and E. Donatien of Maniwaki; A. Lafreniere, Whitefish Lake, and A. Martel of Montclair, were experienced river men and had been with the Edwards company for some years.

ARRAIGNS RACE TRACKS, SPORTS AND MOVIES

Rev. Dr. Herridge Assails Amusements Which Attract Men Whose Time Should be Given to Helping Empire.

Ottawa, June 27.—In a powerful recruiting sermon, the text of which is to be used by the Military Department in booklet form, Colonel the Rev. Dr. W. T. Herridge, pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church, and Moderator of the General Assembly, tonight assailed "professional sports, race track courses, moving picture shows and such-like things," which "attract too many of our full grown men, who might well ask themselves just now whether their time could not be spent in a more useful way."

"I fear that many of our youth have not yet seriously considered whether they cannot do something, directly or indirectly, to strengthen our national resources in this epoch-making hour," continued Dr. Herridge. "Why should we not have a quarter of a million men in training for such emergencies as the future may unfold?"

Dr. Herridge's sermon was held in the presence of a large congregation, and was one of the most powerful recruiting sermons ever held in this city.

CASUALTIES AMONG THE CANADIAN FORCES HAVE REACHED THE TEN THOUSAND MARK

CANADIAN CASUALTIES UP TO YESTERDAY, 9,042

Lists Issued Yesterday by Militia Department Contain Names of Four New Brunswick Men.

Ottawa, June 26.—The casualties among the Canadians at the front now total almost 10,000, exclusive of those actually reported as prisoners of war. Up to today there are 1,484 reported killed, 5,947 wounded and 1,611 missing. Total 9,042.

The lists issued today are lengthy ones. The following are the names of Maritime Province men taken from the list of casualties issued by the war office last night. It will be noted that one of the names, that of Lieut. McFarlane of St. Stephen, N. B., is from the 26th Battalion. Lieut. McFarlane is reported as "dangerously ill." The others mentioned are: Wounded—Private W. J. Coholan, 3rd Battalion, 31 Somerset street, St. John, N. B.; Private Jas. W. Johnson, 2nd Battalion, Warrimount, N. S.; Private Joseph Dryden, Divisional Signal Company, 556 Chesley street, St. John, N. B. Previously reported missing, now reported prisoner of war—D. A. Simmons, Port Wood, P. I. E. The midnight list includes: Wounded—Pte. Daniel M. Nell, Big Baddeck, N. S. Reported Prisoner—James Flood, Pictou, N. S.; Harry Edgar Hamilton, 194 Paradise Row, St. John, N. B.

THREE KILLED IN TORNADO

Grassy Lake, Alb., June 27.—At least three persons are dead and three seriously injured, and property damage done to the extent of about $20,000 as the result of a tornado which swept over this town and district about six p.m. Friday. The dead are: Olaus Olsen, a farmer, who lived one mile north-west of the town; Mrs. Olsen and her ten year old daughter Florence. Three other children of the same family are in the hospital. Their house was lifted from its foundation and smashed to kindling wood. Buildings were destroyed and uprooted and their contents exposed to torrents of rain which accompanied the tornado. Four cars in the railway yard were blown from the track, blocking the line.

MARCONI JOINS ITALIAN FLYING CORPS

Rome, via Paris, June 27.—Giuglielmo Marconi, of wireless telegraphy fame, today began his duties as a lieutenant of aviation in the Italian army. The inventor received an enthusiastic reception at the barracks. When introduced to his brother officers by Col. onelli, Marconi said: "I am convinced that we shall work splendidly together for the protection of country and King."

FEARS ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO RESCUE GERMAN DYNAMITER

Windsor, Ont., June 27.—Governor John Harison of Essex county jail here has applied for a military guard for the prison fearing that an attempt may be made to rescue William Lauer, the Detroit German who is locked up in connection with the dynamiting outrages here and at Walkerville. The governor is of the opinion that the accomplices named by Lauer in his confession will stop at nothing, and considers an attempt to get the prisoner out of the way by killing him is by no means improbable. A military guard for the prisoners has also been applied for. Pending instructions from the Department, no action is being taken with a view to securing the other two Detroiters as their accomplices.

DESTROY CANAL UNDER HEAVY FIRE OF ENEMY

Italian Army's Advance Along Isonzo Frontier Continues—Austrian Plan to Invade Italy via Valley of the River Po.

Rome, June 28.—An official statement issued tonight follows: "On the Tyrol-Trentino frontier long-range artillery duels continued at several points. In Carnolia last night the usual vain attack on Frieswofel was repeated. West of the Monte Croce Pass our troops occupied the summit of Zellenkofel. "Along the Isonzo frontier our progress beyond the river is developing slowly, but without pause. To hasten the subsidence of the flood originating along Lower Isonzo the destruction was ordered of the Montefalco Canal at its mouth. The operation was conducted courageously by a detachment of engineers under a violent fire from the enemy. "Storms on the afternoon of the 25th and the night of the 26th hindered the action of our troops, especially in the mountainous part of the theatre of war. Invasion of Italy Through Valley of the River Po Brescia, Italy, June 27.—Handbooks giving instructions on how to invade Italy through the Valley of the River Po, thus reaching Verona, Mantua and Ferrara, cutting off Venice from the remainder of the Kingdom, have been found in the possession of Austrian officers who have been made prisoners. These booklets apparently were compiled by an officer of the Austrian general staff.

Rome, June 27, via Paris.—Reinforcements received both from the eastern and western fronts have brought the Austrian armies operating against Italy up to the point of efficiency desired by the general staff, according to information obtained from the frontier. The fortifications and defense works along the frontier now have been completed, and it is expected that operations at some points like the Lavarone and Folgaria plateaus, Malborghetto, Predil Pass, Tolmino and Gorizia will develop into siege warfare similar to that waged by Germany against the Belgian fortifications. On the remainder of the front the conflict is assuming the character of the struggle from trench to trench which is raging on the Franco-Belgian front.

FACTORIES IN ITALY WORKING DAY AND NIGHT

Running Overtime to Turn Out Enough War Munitions to Supply Army for Three Years War.

Rome, June 27, via Paris.—Italian military authorities today asserted that all the arms, ammunition and explosive factories in the kingdom are working day and night to secure not only what will be necessary for the war this summer and the coming autumn, but for the possibility of a continuance of the conflict for three years, including the supplies of arms which it will be necessary to replace.

QUARTER MILLION DOLLAR LOSS BY FLOODS IN CALGARY

Calgary, June 27.—The fierce storms and floods of Saturday at Calgary did three quarters of a million dollars damage in the city. The Bow and Elbow rivers, which rose eight feet in a few hours, carrying away two bridges, flooding scores of houses, carrying two men to death, cutting off natural gas supply of the city, and causing washouts on the C. P. R. south and west of the city, are subsiding just as rapidly, and will be back at normal tomorrow unless further storms develop.

Attempt to Launch New Revolution in Mexico Frustrated by U. S. Gov't

MEXICAN CHIEFS PLOTTING REVOLUTION IN NEW YORK

THE "STRONG MEN OF MEXICO," NOW IN NEW YORK. GENERAL MANUEL MONDRAGON, ARTILLERY AND CHIEF LIEUTENANT OF FELIX DIAZ IN THE OVERTHROW OF PRESIDENT MADRERO; GENERAL FELIX DIAZ, WHO IS THE CHIEF OF THE REVOLUTION; GENERAL VICTORIANO HUERTA, DEPOSED DICTATOR OF MEXICO.

Noted Mexican Leaders who Have Been in United States for the Purpose of Promoting a New Revolution in Mexico. Some of Them Have Been Detained by the U. S. Authorities and their Plans Frustrated.

Washington, June 27.—The United States government has frustrated, for the present, an attempt on the part of General Huerta and his associates to launch from American territory a new revolutionary movement in Mexico. Detention of the former Mexican dictator, with General Orozco and others, at El Paso today followed nearly three months of espionage by government agents. The Department of Justice had instructed United States Attorney Camp, of the western district of Texas, to take into custody those men, who, seemingly, were engaged in violations of American neutrality laws, which forbid the recruiting of men, the purchase of supplies and the organizing of a military expedition on the soil of the United States, to be used in operations against a people with whom this country is at peace. The developments at El Paso caused here, both the Carranza and Villa agencies issuing statements, rejoicing that the United States had checked an effort on the part of the so-called reactionary interests to regain control of Mexican affairs. Huerta Held at El Paso El Paso, Texas, June 27.—General Victoriano Huerta, arrived here today and he is virtually held prisoner, pending instructions from Washington. Gen. Huerta reached Newman, New Mexico, this morning, and anticipating his arrival Federal representatives were on hand to meet him, to see that there was no violation of Federal laws. Colonel Morgan, with a squad of twenty-five cavalry, also was at the station in Newman, and, escorted by the troops, Gen. Huerta and party were taken to El Paso. Later Gen. Huerta and Pascual Orozco, who had met Gen. Huerta at Newman and other members of the Mexican party, were taken to Fort Bliss, where they will be held temporarily by the military upon authorization of agents of the Department of Justice.

Berlin, June 26.—Included in the news items given out today by the Overseas News Agency, are the following: "The French government, for sanitary reasons, has removed from West Africa to North Africa, the German civil prisoners who have been in custody in Dahomey. German newspapers express the opinion that this move is a result of the recent announcement of retaliatory measures on French prisoners. "The Krieg Zeitung, in an editorial article, expresses the desire to continue negotiations with the United States, with the idea of reaching an

OFFICIAL REPORTS

GERMANY Berlin, June 26.—Via Paris.—The official communication issued today by the German army headquarters staff was as follows: "In the western theatre: "Close range fighting which had proceeded unintermittently for some days around the portion of our positions which remained in the hands of the enemy north of Souchez, and half way between Souchez and Neuville, has come to an end. During the night the last of the French soldiers were driven out of our trenches. So far the western district of the enemy received strong reinforcements at this point, as they also did on both sides of the Lorett hills. As they advanced to attack south of Souchez, they were driven off. "In the Champagne, near Souain, we blew up a portion of an enemy position. East of Perthes the French accidentally destroyed by a mine some of their own defensive works. On both sides of Detranches road the enemy brought up troops four deep over a front of three kilometres, ready for an attack. They everywhere broke up under our fire. Where the enemy pressed forward into our trenches he was beaten off with heavy losses, and driven back in the fray which followed. In an attack made by us afterwards we captured an enemy advance position east of Detranches. In this district the enemy still holds a small part of a trench which he captured on June 20. "Attacks made by advance patrols of the enemy near Lelentry, east of Luneville, failed. "Since the commencement of the great struggle near Arras our airmen have been struggling with those of the enemy for mastery in the air. This struggle has caused losses on both sides, but ours have not been in vain. For some days we apparently have had the upper hand. "In the eastern theatre:

"A Wurtemberger regiment stormed the eastern positions southeast of Oglenda, north of Prassnyk and on both sides of the Kurovka, and held the positions taken against several counter-attacks, even against those made at night. The booty amounted to 636 prisoners and four machine guns. "In the southeastern theatre: "The army of Gen. Von Linsingen is continuing its attacks on the northern bank of the River Dniester. The right bank near Halicz still is held by the enemy. Since the beginning of their attack on this river, on June 23rd, they have taken 3,500 prisoners. "Between the Dniester and the district east of Lemberg fighting continues."

FRENCH SOLDIER, TWICE BURIED ALIVE, RETURNS

PRIVATE PAUL GILLOT, FRENCH INFANTRY.

This French infantryman left New York for France at the outbreak of the war and has now returned with an honorable discharge from the French military service, due to illness contracted in the trenches before Verdun, where he served nine months. In relating his grim experiences on the firing line, most of the time less than a hundred yards from the German first line of trenches, he said he was twice buried alive—ben two shells of heavy caliber exploded in the trench where he was on duty. On several occasions he was in "bayonet" contact with the invaders. He spoke of being buried alive as if it were the most ordinary occurrence in the life of a French soldier.

The following is a verbatim transcript of the extremely interesting speech delivered by the Right Hon. Winston Churchill at the meeting of the House of Commons on June 27th, 1915. The speech is a masterpiece of statesmanship and is one of the most brilliant ever delivered in the House of Commons. It is a study in the art of public speaking and is a model of clear, logical, and forceful argument. SUCCESS IN THE DARDANELLES WILL BE A VICTORY IN THE FULLEST SENSE OF THE WORD

Winston Churchill's Speech at Dundee on June 5 — Must Expect Losses in Dardanelles, but Prize is Great — Ships Being Used Would Otherwise Have Been Idle — Does Not Think Government Will Have to Resort to Conscription — England's Navy Growing Day by Day and No Hostile Flag Flies on Whole Surface of World's High Seas.

The following is a verbatim report of the extremely interesting speech delivered by the Right Hon. Winston Churchill at the meeting of his constituents in Dundee on June 5th, brief extracts from which have been already published in Canada.

Mr. Churchill said: I thought it right to take an opportunity of coming here to you, in view of the events which have recently taken place and also of the fact that considerably more than a year has passed since I have had the opportunity of speaking in Dundee. I have not come here to trouble you with personal matters—(hear, hear)—or embark on explanations, or to indulge in reproaches or reprimands. (Hear, hear.) In war time a man must do his duty as he sees it and take his luck as it comes or goes. (Hear, hear and cheers.) I will not say a word here or in Parliament which I cannot truly feel will have a useful bearing on the only thing that matters, on the only thing I care about, and the only thing I want you to think about, namely, the waging of victorious war upon the enemy. (Cheers.) I was sent to the Admiralty in 1911 after the Agadir crisis had nearly brought us into war, and I was sent with the express duty laid upon me by the Prime Minister to put the fleet in a state of instant and constant readiness for war in case we were attacked by Germany. (Cheers.) Since then, for nearly four years I have borne the heavy burden of being, according to the time-honored language of my patent, "responsible to Crown and Parliament for all the business of the Admiralty," and when I say responsible, I have been responsible in the real sense, that I have had the blame for everything that has gone wrong. (Laughter and cheers.)

WARM TRIBUTES FOR HEROIC AIRMAN

Warm tributes are being paid to the heroism of Lieutenant Warneford, the brave British aviator, who succeeded in destroying a Zeppelin by dropping bombs from a perilous height, only to meet his death a few days later on a practice flight with an American newspaper correspondent. The young hero was buried with full naval honors. Between forty and fifty thousand persons gathered at the cemetery. The royal naval division furnished an escort to the cemetery and a firing party, which gave the last salute to the aviator.

taken, and not only mistakes, they are presumptuous.

My second point is this. In looking at your losses squarely and soberly you must not forget at the same time the prizes for which you are contending. The army of Sir Ian Hamilton, the fleet of Admiral de Robeck are separated only by a few miles from a victory such as this war has not yet seen. When I speak of victory I am not referring to those victories which crowd the daily placards of our newspapers. I am speaking of victory in the sense of a brilliant and formidable fact shaping the destinies of nations and shortening the duration of the war. Beyond those few miles of ridge and scrub on which our soldiers, our French comrades, our gallant Australian and New Zealand fellow-subjects are now battling, lie the downfall of a hostile Empire, the destruction of an enemy's fleet and army, the fall of a world-wasting capital, and probably the accession of powerful allies. The struggle will be heavy, the risks numerous, the losses cruel, but victory when it comes will make amends for all. There never was a great subsidiary operation of war in which a more complete harmony of strategic, political, and economic advantages were combined, or which stood in truer relation to the main theatre, which is in the central theatre, through the Narrows of the Dardanelles and across the ridges of the Gallipoli peninsula lies some of the shortest paths to a triumphant peace. That is all I say upon that subject this afternoon, but later on, perhaps, when the concluding chapters in this famous story have been written, I may be allowed to return again to the subject.

No, gentlemen, I am not with the croakers. (Cheers.) I see some of our newspaper friends reproaching themselves and reproaching others for having been too optimistic. Let them lay their conscience to rest. It is the general duty of the press, for the most part faithfully discharged, to sustain the public confidence and spirit in time of war. All the great commanders of the past, the rulers of the states in times of crisis, have always laboured to discourage pessimism by every means in their power. (Cheers.) Our Allies, the French, have a recent saying that pessimism in the civilian is the counterpart of cowardice in the soldier. That does not mean you must not face facts, but surely from the facts of our situation in this famous peaceful civilian nation, that no part of our national life, excepting always the navy—(Cheers)—the British navy was as ready as the German army—(loud cheers)—and has proved itself more equal to its task—(Cheers)—but when we remember that no part of our national life except the navy was adapted to war on a great scale, have we not in all that has happened since much to be proud of and much to be thankful for? (Cheers.) Isn't it wonderful, for instance, that after so many years of peace we should have found ready to hand a Kitchener to recruit and organize our armies—(Cheers)—a dauntless leader like Sir John French to command them—(Cheers)—skilful generals like Sir Douglas Haig and Sir Ian Hamilton, a

Fierce Battle Raging Around Przasnysz

German advance stopped by Russians and heavy fighting continues — Czar's forces take 3,000 prisoners—Inflict heavy losses on the enemy.

Petrograd, June 26.—The following official statement was issued today at the headquarters of the Russian general staff:

"As the result of a strong German offensive in the direction of Przasnysz a desperate battle, which continues, began in that region.

"The enemy attacked Friday in the region of Rakowka.

"The Russians took two thousand prisoners during counter attacks in the direction of Zookiew and Lemberg Thursday, and a thousand prisoners in repelling the desperate attacks of great forces on the Dniester.

"On the Narew front an attempted offensive by the enemy on the 24th, in the Omulew Valley, cost him severe losses. Rows of bodies were left in front of our trenches and the number of prisoners was increased to 150.

"In the Orzyo Valley, on the night of the 24th-25th, we repulsed a fresh offensive by great enemy forces. Then following a counter-attack we captured a work we lost the day before, and took five machine guns.

"Northwest of the town of Zawichwo an enemy battalion which imprudently approached our entanglements was annihilated by our cross-fire."

In Warsaw June 28, Was Hindenburg's Promise

Papers found on German and Austrian prisoners show men were assured by Field Marshall they would enter Polish capital today.

London, June 27.—A Reuter despatch from Petrograd says:

"Papers found on Austrian and German prisoners show that the troops under Field Marshal Von Hindenburg were assured by their commander that 'We shall enter Warsaw, June 28; Galicia will be entirely cleared of Russians by June 30, and after that peace can be concluded with Russia.' 'Virtually all males between the ages of fifteen and fifty left Lemberg before that city fell. Besides supplies of grain, oil, copper and other commodities, the Russians removed the valuable historical contents of the museum and art galleries before the evacuation.'

SOCIALISTS ISSUE APPEAL FOR PEACE

Socialist Democratic Party calls on Gov't to begin Peace Talk with other Belligerents.

Amsterdam, June 26.—The Berlin Socialist paper Vorwaerts prints an appeal, signed by the Social Democratic party, calling upon the government to convey to other powers its willingness to discuss peace terms, according to Berlin despatches today. The appeal declares that German Socialists, from the start, have opposed war for purposes of annexation, and will support a peace agreement on those terms. It concludes by urging Socialists in other belligerent countries to use their efforts to end the war.

FORMER RESIDENT OF FREDERICTON DIES IN ENGLAND

Special to The Standard.

Fredricton, June 27.—Ex-Ald W. W. Boyce has received a cable conveying the sad intelligence of the death of his father, Wm. H. Boyce, which occurred at Kingslynn, Eng., after a long illness of internal trouble. Deceased, who was 76 years of age, was a former resident of this city, having made Fredricton his home about 15 years ago. He returned to his native land and since resided at Kingslynn. During one of the early Zeppelin raids on the English coast towns, a bomb was dropped in front of the house occupied by the late Mr. Boyce, and the shock of this affair no doubt hastened his death.

Besides his widow he is survived by five sons, Walter, of this city, Arthur of Connecticut, Ernest of N. Y. State, Thomas of Edmondston, N. B., Herbert H. of Australia, and seven daughters, Mrs. Ashenboller of New York State, Mrs. Hastings of Pennsylvania, Mrs. McManis and Mrs. Campbell of Connecticut, and Misses Grace and Edith at home. Two brothers, Fred and Charles, both of England, also survive.

AUCTION SALE IN AID OF PATRIOTIC FUNDS

Sum of $2,300 realized at sale on Saturday — Railway men observe Memorial Day.

Fredricton, June 27.—Dr. Pierre Crockett of St. John was here Saturday in his power yacht the Meredith. He was accompanied by Mrs. Crockett, Mrs. O. Smith and Mr. John Tillotson, and the trim craft is in charge of Engineer Wm. O'Leary.

The patriotic auction sale which was conducted in the Arctic ring on Saturday was a grand success in every way and as a result upwards of $2,300 has already been realized to be added to the funds of the Fredricton branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, while there still remains articles worth probably close to $500 which will be disposed of at auctions to be held during the present week. Almost every business concern in Fredricton donated from his stock towards the auction, while citizens also gave articles which brought high prices and a number of farmers in York, Sunbury and Queens also donated farm produce and live stock. (Crows were at the rink from early in the morning until late at night, selling being carried on continually and pretty near market price and in some cases more than regular prices being realized for standard articles. A gentleman with J. J. McCaffery as general manager were in charge and in their efforts had hearty co-operation of the people generally. Celestial Lodge No. 454, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Barker Lodge No. 738, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, held their annual memorial day observance today. In the morning graves of departed members of the order in various cemeteries were decorated and this afternoon a memorial service was held at the Opera House, the lodges accompanied by members of other unions and Fredricton labor unions, and headed by Fredricton brass band parading from Union Hall in a heavy shower of rain to the Opera House for the meeting. In addition to musical numbers of the programme of memorial service there were short addresses by a number of city pastors including Rev. Dr. W. H. Smith, Rev. Thomas Marshall and Rev. J. E. Wilson.

Twenty-one Deaths

At the Board of Health offices last week twenty-one deaths were recorded. The causes were: Phthisis, 3; senility and inanition, 2 each; and one each from pneumonia, asthma, cancer, meningitis, endocarditis, hydrocephalus, heart disease, heart failure, premature birth, acute bronchitis, senile gangrene, broncho-pneumonia, and congestion of lungs.

Indiantown Ferry Disabled

While making the noon trip yesterday, the ferryboat E. Ross, running between Indiantown and Milford, in backing out for her wharf at Indiantown ran foul of a submerged log with the result that her propeller shaft was broken. A motor boat towed the disabled craft through the falls in the afternoon and she is now on Hilgard's blocks awaiting repairs.

The ferry will probably be out of commission for two days, during which time the service will be carried on by a large motor boat belonging to Thos. Carter.

His Honor Judge Armstrong was presented with a handsome case of pipes by officials of the board of health on Saturday. Judge Armstrong has been solicitor for the board during the last thirteen years. The presentation of pipes was made by T. M. Burns, secretary of the board of health in the rooms, Princess street,

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H. M. The King.
TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

THE WAR SITUATION

The defeat of the Russian army must not be looked for as the result of the fall of Lemberg or even from the fact that Austro-German forces are now practically in control of Galicia and are making a strong bid for the capture of Warsaw. Even if Warsaw should fall the result could not be pointed to as proof that the Russian offensive power was done. Recent achievements of the enemy in the eastern field have merely strengthened the impression that this is to be a long and costly war in which the united efforts of all parts of the British Empire will be necessary if it is to end in the sweeping victory for which we all hope.

Probably, by their victory in the east, the Germans will now be able to divert large forces to the western line and to make so much more difficult the general offensive movement which the Allies must meet and carry out before victory can crown their efforts. But that is the only effect it can have. This is not to be won by the capture of cities or the subjugation of fortified positions on the eastern frontier; the scope of operations is too vast to allow such successes to be construed into the advance agents of sweeping general victory. Neither can the recapture of Przemyśl or Lemberg, or even the capture of Warsaw, be held to mean that the Russians have been utterly routed. The Germans, it must be remembered, overran Belgium, captured Liege, Namur, Brussels and Antwerp, yet the Belgian army is still fighting and a force to be reckoned with.

THE TELEGRAPH'S CONVERSION

The esteemed Telegraph has seen a great light. In an editorial on Saturday morning, it concludes with the words: "The thing to think about, early and late, is the work of placing at the disposal of the Empire's leaders in this hour the full fighting strength of this great Dominion. Politics is but politics after all." When the Telegraph is prepared to concede that much there is still some hope that in order to do its little part in bringing a united Canada to the support of the Empire's leaders, it might withdraw some of the unwarranted criticisms it made regarding the Canadian government's war measures. It might admit that the "boot scandal," which it turned on its tongue as a choice morsel, was altogether uncalled for; that the government had provided very good boots and that the "scandal" existed mainly in the desire of some would-be trouble makers in the Liberal party. It might even use its influence on its colleague, the Times, and point out that the publication of such rotten articles as that printed on Saturday evening from the Fredericton Mail, is hardly consistent with the name of "no politics." It might, in time, even come to the point where it could admit that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's slurring reference to "the highbrows of Downing street" or Mr. Carvell's attack upon Sir John French and the Canadian militia were hardly in good taste.

There is in fact a large field for the services of the Telegraph if it desires to drop party politics and rebuke those who deal in it. As that newspaper philosophically observes, doubtless from the wealth of experience acquired on both sides of the party fence, "politics is but politics after all," and this is a time when the country has heavier questions to consider. There surely is hope for the services of the Telegraph if it continues in its present frame of mind; the pity of it is that so many people, judging from that newspaper's record, will be wont to look for the ulterior design behind its sudden affection or broad patriotic motives, so many will be inclined to recall the words of Rabelais: "The devil was sick, the devil a saint would be." "The devil was well, the devil a saint was he."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier had his faults but not even his greatest enemies can point out that he was ever so weak as to yield to a demand for investigation of any of the allegations of graft made against members of his government. No, indeed Sir Wilfrid did not do business that way. And if investigation came despite him he always had ready some nice handy soul like Mr. Carvell to sit on the lid.

Liberal newspapers are making great capital out of revelations in Manitoba. At the same time they are strenuously trying to forget that Hon. Frank Oliver, of the Laurier party, keeps his seat, his leader's confidence and the Grand Trunk Pacific's $15,000 all at the same time. Surely this feat is worthy of some attention from the press supporting him.

And now the New York Herald has taken to referring to Mr. Bryan as "Sweet William." Bearing in mind another distinguished gentleman to whom that appellation was more than once fastened leads to the opinion that the Herald has gone the limit.

Whatever trophies the Germans may have taken in Lemberg it will soon be shown that the claws of the Russian bear were not among them.

Hon. W. T. White correctly sized up the Grit attitude in regard to an election when he said they were "willing to wound but yet afraid to strike."

English Opinion

Give Them a Chance. (London Saturday Review.) It is time to stop at once all this foolish and dangerous snapping and snarling and irresponsible and totally useless girding at the new government; and to give ministers a fair trial of a few months. We fully recognize the immense difficulties of a coalition, in this case accentuated by the question of National Service. It is playing the game of Germany to make mischief now. It is disgusting, if not discouraging, our devoted sailors and soldiers and it contrasts disgracefully with the united front which our Allies, France, Russia and Italy, are showing the enemy. We must close up to a man and support the new national government, which includes some of the most practiced political ability in the country.

Labor Conscripted. (London Daily Chronicle.) Labor conscription would be far more difficult than military conscription. Compulsion in the latter case is a single step; you force a man to join the army; and he then undergoes the same well established regime, whether he is a conscript or a volunteer. But the essence of labor conscription would be that it would be a continuing operation, whose rules and penalties would be novel, and whose irritations would be endless. To attempt such an experiment in Yorkshire, in Glasgow, or on Tyne-side, where the best men have been working hard for nearly a year under war conditions, would be courting disaster. You can keep an artisan at work for a prescribed number of hours by compulsion; but one cannot visualize the compulsion which would compel him to work at the same rate of speed or with the same degree of skill or attention.

The Younger Son

(Punch.) The younger son he's earned his bread in ways both hard and easy. From Paramatta to the Pole, from Yukon to Zambesi; For young blood is roving blood, and a far road's best compass, where the And when you're tired of roving there'll be time enough to rest! And it's "Hello!" and "How d'ye do?"—"Who'd ha' thought of meeting you!" Thought you were in Turkestan, or "China, or Peru!"— It's a long trail in peace-time where the roving Britons stray; But in war-time, in war-time, it's just across the way! He's left the bronchos to be bust by who in thunder chooses; He's left the pois to wash themselves in Canada's caboosees; He's left the mine and logging camp, the peavy, pick and plow, For young blood is fighting blood, and England needs him now. And it's "Hello!" and "How d'ye do?"— How's the world been using you? What's the news of Calgary, Quebec and Cariboo? It's a long trail in peace-time where the roving Britons stray; But in war-time, in war-time, it's just across the way! He's travelled far by many a trail, he's rambled here and yonder; No road too rough for him to tread, no land too wide to wander; For young blood is roving blood, and the spring life is best, And when all the fighting's done, lad, there's time enough to rest. And it's good-bye, tired and true, here's a long farewell to you, (Rolling stone from Mexico, Shaughal or Timbuctoo! Young blood is roving blood but the last sleep is best, When the fighting all is done, lad, and it's time to rest!

Liberal politicians and newspapers are calling for an election in Manitoba. And a few months ago the bought and paid for Grit organs in this province were demanding an election in New Brunswick. At the same time they declare that a general election would be ruinous to Canada. Curious how they figure it, is it not?

Ex-President Huerta and several of his co-conspirators, all veterans of former Mexican revolutions, who were planning another attempt to gain power, have been arrested by United States officers and placed in prison in El Paso. If they had been permitted to go into Mexico they might have found the situation there even more uncomfortable.

While mourning over German successes in the East it is well to remember that the French postal authorities are now maintaining control over ninety towns and villages in Alsace. General Joffre seems to be progressing surely though slowly.

Norddeutsche Zeitung, of Berlin, in chronicling the suspension of the Vorwaerts, comments on the Socialist pronouncement as follows: "The manifesto is greatly to be regretted, because it will create a highly undesirable impression abroad. The manifesto may be interpreted as war weariness on the part of Germany, which does not exist. Military events and the political situation offer prospects of a successful peace. The German government, on its own accord, will do what is necessary. Until then there is only one watchword for Germany—Hold through."

HAVE YOU EVER noticed the number of men who are wearing tan boots this year? The shoe shiners say that every other man wears tan. DO YOU? Say what you will, they are the ideal shoe for summer. Cooler than black, and their wearing qualities are proverbial. Our range of shapes, styles, weights and colors cannot but prove attractive.

BOY SCOUTS' ANNUAL CAMP AT CHIPMAN

The activities of the city troops during the spring and summer--Where they are located.

The boy scouts of the province are diligently preparing for the big camp to be held at Chipman in August. Scouts from all parts of New Brunswick will be present and the camp promises to be one of the big features of the scout movement.

The members of the city troops are especially active. At the present time there are 275 scouts in the city divided among nine troops. One hundred and fifty of these have passed the tenderfoot stage, seventy-five the second class and one the first class. Following is a list of the troops with their number and scoutmaster:

City Troops.

Waterloo street Baptist troop No. 1 has twenty-nine scouts under Scoutmaster M. W. Galley.

St. Paul's troop No. 2 has forty scouts under Scoutmaster R. J. McPherson.

St. James' troop No. 3 has forty scouts under Scoutmaster Gordon Holder.

German street Baptist troop No. 4 has twenty-four scouts under Scoutmaster R. Ingleton.

Queen Square Methodist troop No. 5 has eighteen scouts under Scoutmaster H. P. Robertson.

St. Jude's troop No. 6 has twenty-four scouts under Scoutmaster Rev. G. F. Scovill.

Lancaster troop No. 7 has thirty scouts under Scoutmaster G. H. Allen.

Rothsay Collegiate School troop No. 8 has thirty scouts under Scoutmaster Sergt. Dooe.

Calvin Presbyterian troop No. 9 has eight scouts under Scoutmaster Rev. F. W. Thompson.

Boy Activities.

Troop No. 1 had twelve boys act as pall-bearers at the funeral of Donald Clayton, recently drowned in the Marsh Creek. S. Richardson of the troop won a compass donated by Commissioner Ingleton for quickest and best reading of the compass points. Seven scouts and the scoutmaster of this troop will go to Camp Chipman in August.

Troop No. 4 has the only first class scout in St. John, Paul Cross, son of W. C. Cross. He has won even proficiency badges, which gives him the all-round cord. Several scouts from this troop along with those of troop 5 took a first aid course last winter and spring under Dr. Bishop. They were recently examined by Dr. Skinner and all but one passed the examinations.

Dr. Skinner was presented with a silver scout swatika pin for his valued services in this connection.

Troop No. 4 will send four scouts, assistant scoutmaster and scoutmaster to Camp Chipman.

Troop No. 5 has a baseball team entered in the Sunday school baseball league, and will hold its own camp at Oak Point July 17 to 27. Scoutmaster Holder will represent the troop at Camp Chipman.

The Province Generally.

In the province generally there are about 1,000 scouts, the great majority of whom have passed the tenderfoot tests and divided into 40 troops.

Provincial Secretary McGuire of McAdam Junction, is now touring the province in the interests of the coming scout camp to be held at Chipman in August. According to his reports there will be a large delegation on hand for the opening. Representatives will be there from every troop. Valuable information will be given, during the camp, to scouts and scoutmasters by some of the leading men in the scout movement in Canada. Dominion Secretary Frederick Perrot will be director in charge of the camp.

George Wilson

The death of George Wilson took place Saturday. He was seventy-three years of age and is survived by one son, A. A. Wilson, high sheriff of St. John. The funeral will take place this afternoon from Powers' undertaking rooms, Princess street, at three o'clock.

Want More Socks

Lieutenant Don Skinner, with the 24th (Victoria) Rifles in France, in a letter to his sister here, says the soldiers are in need of socks. Mrs. A. O. Skinner, 34 Colberg street, would be pleased to receive donations of socks for the soldiers.

A St. John Man's Success.

Arthur E. Cox, of this city, at present in Halifax on his wedding trip, received a pleasant surprise in the sister city on Saturday when he was informed that he was the sole successful candidate in the final examinations under the auspices of the Nova Scotia Institute of Chartered accountants. Mr. Cox is now a full-fledged chartered accountant with membership in the Nova Scotia Institute and the Dominion Association.

A ST. JOHN SIGNALLER WRITES OF WAR SCENES

George H. Estabrooks of the First Contingent tells of sights after Battle of Ypres -- Soldiers favor the English Chocolate.

P. J. Lagoe of the Y. M. C. A. has received a letter from George H. Estabrooks with the second division signalling company, first Canadian division of the overseas expeditionary force. The letter is dated from "headquarters." He says:

"Here am I at the hour of two a.m. writing letters in the signalling office which proves conclusively there must be something wrong with my thinking apparatus.

"There is a small branch of the Y. M. quite handy where one can buy English chocolate, etc., which is a godsend as the French trash would poison a mahogany idol. It certainly looks as though it had had an effect on the inhabitants of this waterlogged country, for a morsel of miserable, dirty looking chocolate I never saw. Graham is in charge of the said branch. I have not located him personally. I don't know just where the other Y. M. fellows are. I have lost all trace of Tom McKee and haven't seen Dick Day lately, though I have a fair idea where he is. Went to visit him the other day and found them having a spirited argument with the Germans, so I postponed the call. Haven't come through so far so good looking for a smash-up.

SUCCESSFUL CONFERENCE CONCLUDED

Congregational Annual Meeting Held Last Session Here Yesterday--An Ordination.

The 68th annual meeting of the Congregational Union of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia concluded its sessions yesterday with three services.

An ordination service, in which Geo. E. Miller of Kingsport, N. S., was received into the Union, took place last evening.

Among the ministers who officiated were Rev. J. W. Cox, who acted as moderator, Rev. B. H. Pennwooden, who took the Scripture reading, Rev. Dr. Gunn offered the ordination prayer, Rev. W. J. D. Gibson delivered the charge to the ministers, and Rev. R. J. Haughton the charge to the people. At the evening service immediately before Rev. J. W. Cox conducted the service and Rev. E. J. Thompson preached the sermon.

A mass social meeting was held at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon presided over by Capt. Geo. W. Doty.

The Point of View.

Rev. W. T. Gunn, D.D., of Toronto, delivered an excellent address on "The Point of View." He said there were four stages in a man's life, each one broader and greater than the one below. First, there was the individual life in which no one can live alone. There must be some degree of relationship. Second, there was the family life in which one loses selfishness and gets a broader view of life through his efforts. The third was the life of the nation. Through sacrifices today the thought of the nation's progress and honor is brought nearer home. "We are developing a broader national viewpoint which is not provincial," said the preacher. "A year ago we were self-centered but today we realize that only with unity and co-operation are we able to redeem ourselves from calamity and ruin."

"The fourth is the Kingdom of God which is the highest and most Christ-like to look forward to. Only with prayer and sacrifice can we hope to attain communion with God. Our humanity must be governed by our national and foreign relations. We have to be thankful that we have such a man as Sir Edward Grey and his colleagues at the helm, for it will be no easy task to guide the destinies of our Empire in the continuation and after the result of the present world's great calamity."

Rev. Geo. Miller followed with an address entitled "Grasping Life's Opportunity."

The annual Union sermon was very efficiently preached yesterday morning by Rev. W. J. D. Gibson. Rev. R. J. Haughton officiated at the communion service.

These meetings concluded the synod and the delegates will leave for their homes today. The synod was marked by the very admirable addresses presented and all those who heard them were delighted with the success attained.

2nd Vice-president--Mrs. Henry Tupper, Milton, N. B.

Secretary--Mrs. Geo. Miller, Kingsport, N. B.

Superintendent of Mission Boards--Mrs. Ashby Harrison, Sheffield, N. B.

Superintendent of Missions--Mrs. Jenkin, Yarmouth, N. S.

Superintendent of Associate Members--Mrs. William Godfrey, Brooklyn, N. S.

THE PICNIC SEASON

The picnics on Saturday proved quite enjoyable up to the time when the rain began and made conditions disagreeable. Members of St. John's (Stone) Church Sunday school went to South Bay Park, the Moose had an outing at Moosepath. Both had to be curtailed on account of the rain.

At South Bay Park a large crowd was present and the usual picnic sports were indulged in, but during the afternoon rain came up and the crowd had to seek shelter in the cars, which were waiting to bring them back to the city. The train arrived in St. John about nine o'clock.

At Moosepath park the picnic crowd was just settling down to enjoy the afternoon when the rain came up and the outing was called off. It will likely take place in two weeks. One event in the list of sports was carried out. This was the hundred yard dash and was won by Atwood Bridges.

A large crowd of people attended the Church of England picnic held in Hampton on Saturday. The usual picnic sports were indulged in and the Hampton brass band furnished an excellent programme of music during the afternoon.

ITALY HAS NOT SENT FLEET TO DARDANELLES

Rome, June 27 (via Paris)--The report current in some quarters that Italy had sent a fleet of warships to join the Anglo-French fleet in the operations against the Dardanelles was semi-officially denied here today. The statement says that the report "at least is premature."

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL IN GEORGIA

Lifted from the obscurity of a desk in a florist's shop to the renown of "the most beautiful girl in Georgia," Alameda Holcombe, winner of a nationwide beauty contest, embarks soon upon a cross-continent trip to the San Francisco Exposition, Universal City and other points in the Far West. Miss Holcombe certainly deserves to be called "the luckiest girl in Georgia." The rosiest dream of ambition is on the eye of realization. A girl of dreams and ambition, she finds the doorway open to artistic achievement, and one of the most wonderful journeys imaginable. Such is the Atlanta girl who has won the beauty contest.

BICYCLE RIDER HIT BY AUTO, FATALY HURT

Everett Antone, of Pembroke, Me., victim - Unseen by auto party until too late to avoid collision.

Special to The Standard.

St. Stephen, June 27.—A fatal accident happened at Red Beach, seven miles below Calais, early Saturday evening. W. Todd Murchie, of Calais, was returning from Eastport with a party of young people in his auto. At Red Beach, a steep hill drops down to a brook and immediately across a little brook another steep hill ascends. At the foot of the hill, on the Eastport side of the bridge, a side road leads in from a small mill, its conjunction with the highway being blinded by a number of sheds.

Mr. Murchie's large car, which he was driving himself, had coasted down the first hill and was getting up speed for the ascent of the big hill across the brook when a young man on a bicycle shot suddenly and swiftly out from the side road. It was impossible to avoid a collision which occurred with fatal effect. The bicycle was struck by the mid guard of the auto and thrown into the air, the wheel and its rider coming down in the hood of the car. It was found that the young bicycle rider was Everett E. Antone, aged nineteen years, of Pembroke, Me. He was alive when the car was stopped and was taken at once to the residence of Dr. Carand nearby where it was found that his skull had been fractured and his shoulder dislocated. Mr. Murchie telephoned for two other physicians from Calais, but before their arrival life was extinct.

With his father, Wm. Antone, the young man had been employed in a small granite mill just back of Red Beach. The father in a team and the son on the bicycle were just starting for their home at Pembroke to spend Sunday and the father was to spend 21 last, and since then the President has been one of her constant admirers. Mr. Wilson has two grandchildren, Francis Woodrow Sayre, born last January to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre, of Williamstown, Mass., is winning just as much devotion from the President as Miss Ellen Wilson McAdoo.

PRESIDENT WILSON ADMIRING HIS SECOND GRANDCHILD

One of the greatest joys of President Wilson is Miss Ellen Wilson McAdoo, his one-month-old grandchild, whose picture is shown above. Affairs of state almost are second in importance to the welfare of the youngster, who is the daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. William G. McAdoo, who is Mr. Wilson's daughter. The baby named Ellen Wilson for the President's wife, who died last August after a lingering illness. She was born on May 21 last, and since then the President has been one of her constant admirers. Mr. Wilson has two grandchildren, Francis Woodrow Sayre, born last January to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre, of Williamstown, Mass., is winning just as much devotion from the President as Miss Ellen Wilson McAdoo.

A WOMAN'S CHALLENGE TO THE MEN OF N. B.

A lady correspondent, whose husband is a member of the 55th Battalion, writes the following to the men of New Brunswick calling on them to rally to the colors and also asking the women not to keep the men from the part of duty.

"Hall Loyalist! Raise your drooping standard! 'Loyalist to your King! 'Loyalist to your fathers! 'Go! Go! Go! 'Give! Give! Give! 'Supply the need! 'More men! More men! More men! 'See yourself as a link in a great divine plan! Each with his part to play! Play up to that part! Withhold nothing. 'Mothers! Withhold not your sons! Prove your equality with your man-kind! Be worthy mothers of worthy sons! Let your courage, your sacrifice equal theirs! Other mothers love their sons as dearly—and send them 'Wives! Withhold no longer your consent! For what are you created? To be a help meet—not a hold back—to man. 'You—who are staying at home for no vital cause! Men are fighting that you may have that home! They are doing for you what you are doing neither for them nor for yourself! 'Would you brand yourself as mentally unfit? Since there must be the willing mind, as physically unfit? Since otherwise you should not be here. As morally unfit? Since the issues of this war are moral. As spiritually unfit? Since with our spirits we see the right. Then 'Go! Go! Go!'"

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, June 26, 1915.—A cablegram was received by W. T. Wright yesterday from his son, S. C. Wright, private in the 26th Battalion, from Devonport, England, informing him of his safe arrival after a pleasant trip across the Atlantic. Mrs. Clarke returned yesterday from an enjoyable visit with friends in Covedale and Moncton. Mrs. W. R. Peck is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. K. Goss, Moncton. WELSFORD NEWS

Welsford, June 25.—Mrs. James Cassidy is very ill. Nurse McKenna of St. John and Dr. Lewin are in attendance. The last report is that she is slightly better. On Monday evening last Loyal Orange (Metcalfe) Lodge No. 28 at Oliville was resuscitated. There was a good attendance and four new members were initiated. Mr. S. I. Wilson, representative of the Grand Lodge, addressed the meeting. Four members were present from Lodge No. 111 and three were present from Lodge No. 4.

The many friends of Mr. Thomas Howells of Clarendon will be glad to know that he is much better from his recent attack of rheumatism and is able to do light work. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Charters (nee Howell of Clarendon) of St. John West are receiving congratulatory upon the arrival of a baby boy at their home. Mr. Wm. Brittain is repairing the road at Eagle Rock and wharving it up with granite blocks. Mr. William Simpson of Jerusalem passed away on Tuesday evening at a ripe age. On Wednesday afternoon the marriage took place of Mr. Harold Simpson of Jerusalem and Miss Bertha Jones. The bride, who was dressed in white satin with bridal veil, and in white satin with carnations, was given away by her brother, Mr. Arthur Jones. Three nieces of the bride acted as flower girls. Rev. J. S. Gregg officiated. The weekly meeting of the S. of T. Lodge No. 426 was held at the Victoria Hall, Welsford, on Wednesday evening. There were twelve members present. After the routine business was over, bandages were made for the soldiers. At the next meeting the election of officers for the ensuing quarter will take place. Miss Kathleen Woods (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woods, M. L. A.) and Miss Nora McKenzie (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKenzie) returned from St. John this evening, where they have been daily since Monday, writing the examination papers for High School entrance. A severe thunderstorm passed over the neighborhood last Sunday with vivid lightning, accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain. The continuous rain daily ever since makes it very hard for the farmers and hinders road repairing operations.

SUCCESS IN THE DARDANELLES WILL BE A VICTORY IN THE FULLEST SENSE OF THE WORD

memorable in our home affairs is ended; its work, whether in South Africa or Ireland, has passed for good or ill into history. I know that there are gathered here this afternoon many of those who were its opponents, and that we are going to work together on a different basis now. (Laughter and cheers.)

But before I come to the new Government and its prospects I must ask you to leave and your courtesy to say a few words in justice to the old. (Laughter and cheers.) There was a Government which sought peace long and faithfully and to the end, but which nevertheless, maintained our naval defence so that all the needs and dangers were provided against. There was a Government which placed in the field six times as many divisions of soldiers as had ever been contemplated by any party in the state at any time in our history. There was a Government which fulfilled in your name, in the name of the nation, every obligation of duty and of honor to France and to Belgium. (Hear, hear and cheers.)

There was a Government which brought us into the war as a united people, and with such a record that in future times, when the wounded world looks back with its searching scrutiny upon all the events which have led up to this great catastrophe, will leave us such a record as will show to all time that Britain was absolutely guiltless of the slightest stain. (Loud cheers.)

I thought you would permit me to say these few words about the Liberal administration which I have had the honor to remain for so many years a member, and that I might say them in justice to those who compose it, to the chief who led it—(cheers)—and to the great party which so faithfully sustained it.

Don't Believe Government Will Have To Resort To Conscription

As to the rights of the State in the hour of supreme need over all its subjects, there can be no dispute. They are absolute. Nothing matters but that the nation lives and preserves that freedom without which life would be odious. The only question which arises is as to the degree to which it is necessary to exercise these indisputable rights. Now, I say frankly to you that it were not possible to win this war without taking men by compulsion and sending them into the field. I should support such a measure. But I do not believe that it will be necessary—(cheers)—and I am sure it is not necessary now. On the contrary, such as the character of our people that the only places which will never lack volunteers are the bloody trenches of France and Flanders. (Cheers.) No nation has ever at any time in history found such a spirit of daring and sacrifice widespread, almost universal, in the masses of the people. The French Revolution could not defend the soil of France without compulsion. The American Commonwealth could not maintain the integrity of its State without compulsion, but modern Britain has found millions of citizens who, of their own free will, have eagerly or soberly resolved to fight and die for the principles at stake—(cheers)—and to fight and die in the hardest, the cruellest, and the least rewarded of all the wars that men have fought. Why, that is one of the most wonderful and inspiring facts in the whole history of this wonderful island, and in after days, depend upon it, it will be taken as a splendid signal of the manhood of our race and of the soundness of our institutions. (Cheers.) Having got so far—being now on the high road to three millions of men in the service of the Crown as volunteers—having gone so far, to cast away this great moral advantage which adds to the honor of our arms and to the dignity of our State, simply for the purpose of hustling into the firing line a comparatively small proportion of persons, themselves not perhaps the best suited to the job, who even when taken could not be for many months equipped, to do that, after all that has happened, would, it seems to me, be unwise in the extreme. (Cheers.)

But service at home, service for home defence, and to keep our fighting men abroad properly supplied and maintained—that seems to me to stand on a different footing. (Hear, hear.) Remember we are confronted with a foe who would without the slightest scruple extirpate us, man, woman and child, by any method open to him if he had the opportunity. (Hear, hear.) We are fighting a foe who would not hesitate one moment to obliterate every single soul in this great country this afternoon if it could be done by pressing a button. We are fighting a foe who would think as little of that as a gardener would think of smoking out a wasp's nest. Let us recognize that this is a new fact in the history of the world—(loud cheers)—or, rather, it is an old fact sprung up out of the horrible abysses of the past. (Hear, hear.) We are fighting with a foe of that kind and we, looked in mortal struggle as we are, to fail is to be enslaved or at the very best to be destroyed. Not to win decisively is to have all this misery over again—(hear, hear)—after an uneasy truce, and to fight it over again probably under less favorable circumstances and perhaps longer. Why, gentlemen, after what has happened there could never be peace in Europe until the German military system has been so shattered and torn—(cheers)—and trampled that it is unable to resist by any means the will and decision of the conquering power. (Loud cheers.) For this purpose our whole nation must be organized—(cheers)—must be socialized if you like the word—must be organized and mobilized, and I think there must be asserted in some form or other—I do not attempt to prejudge that—but I think there must be asserted in some form or other by the government of a reserve power to give the necessary control and organizing authority and to make sure that every one of every rank and condition of men and women

MR. ASQUITH AND SIR JOHN FRENCH CONVERSE WITH FRENCH STAFF OFFICERS. Mr. Asquith, England's Prime Minister, is shown in the above picture, with Sir John French, commander in chief of Britain's army, at the entrance to the British headquarters in France. During his visit he not only inspected many of the most interesting sections of the line but he also had a conference in the chief's house with General Joffre, General Foch and Mr. Millerand and subsequently obtained an excellent impression of the Allies' lines to the north by a drive which he took to Dunkirk and Reims.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OPEN

Dedication of New Edifice at Westfield Beach Took Place Yesterday.

The dedication of the new Presbyterian church at Westfield Beach took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large congregation. H. L. Somers, student of Princeton Seminary, N.Y., who will be in charge of the work this summer conducted the service.

Among the city ministers present were Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, St. John's Presbyterian church, who took the Scripture reading and offered prayer; Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, St. David's church, who preached an eloquent and forceful sermon, taking his text from the 9th Psalm, "Strength and Beauty are the Sanctuaries."

The service was greatly augmented by the presence of a fine choir, whose beautiful singing brightened the service in no small degree, also a quartette consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacNeil, Miss Creighton and E. Bowdler. Mrs. Sancton officiated at the organ.

Before I leave if I would ask you to leave to say a word about a great friend of mine, well known to you in Scotland, and passed now out of public life—Lord Haldane. (Cheers.) I have deeply admired. No more sincere patriot has served the Crown. (Hear, hear and cheers.) There never has been an occasion in the cabinets of the last several years when I have not sat that, as the need arose, Lord Haldane has not, from his great knowledge of the German government system, warned us to be on our guard against the dangerous side of their nature. (Cheers.) There never has been a time when he has not supported every provision for the defence of this country, military or naval. He it was who entered into these intricate arrangements with France which enabled our army to be so swiftly brought to the scene of action just in the nick of time. He it was who prepared that Expeditionary army in the face of so much opposition and in days when every penny was hard to get. (Cheers.) He it was who organized the Territorial Force—(cheers)—which has so splendidly vindicated itself and its founder and upon whose gallantry, discipline, and numbers the weight, and even the success of the military operations hitherto have notably, if not mainly, depended. (Cheers.) Till a few months ago all the land forces engaged in this war were by him in the field were the product of Lord Haldane's organization—(Cheers)—and in the fateful convulsive days before Great Britain drew the sword of honor, when the chill of doubt struck into many hearts whether we should act as we were bound—in those days no man stood closer to Sir Edwy Greig and no man saw more clearly where our duty led us. (Cheers.)

But I leave it to a new government has been formed. Old opponents have laid aside their differences, personal interests and party interests have been adjusted or suppressed for the national good. We now stand to represent the political system and abilities and to command the loyalties of a united nation. (Cheers.) To support that government, to make it a success, to make it an efficient instrument for national war, to be loyal to it, to treat it fairly and judiciously with consideration and respect is not a matter of likes or dislikes, not a matter of ordinary political choice or opinion—it is for all of us a matter of self preservation. (Cheers.) For nearly three weeks the country has had its attention diverted for the war by the business of cabinet-making and the dividing of offices and honours, and all these commonplace but necessary details of our political system which are so entertaining in time of peace. (Laughter.) Now that is all over. It has taken long enough, but it is over and I ask myself this question—what does the nation expect of the new National Government? I can answer my question. I am going to answer it in one word—action. (Loud cheers.) That is the need, that is the only justification—that there should be a stronger national sentiment, a more powerful driving force, a greater measure of consent in the people. A greater element of leadership and design in the rules. That is what all parties expect and require in return for the many sacrifices which all parties have, after due consideration, made from their particular interests and ideals. Action, gentlemen; action, not hesitation; action, not words; action, not agitation. The nation waits for its orders. Act with faith and courage. Trust the people. They have never failed you yet.

As well do in their own way their fair share. (Cheers.) Democratic principles enjoin it, social justice requires it, national safety demands it, and I shall take back to London with your authority the message—let the government act according to its faith. (Cheers.)

Above all, let us be of good cheer. (Hear, hear, and a voice: "Shame the devil and to hell with the Hun!" (Laughter.) Let us be of good cheer. I have told you how the navy's business has been discharged. You see for yourselves how your economic life and energy have been maintained without the slightest check, so that it is certain you can realize the full strength of this vast community. The valor of our soldiers has won general respect in all the armies of Europe. (Cheers.) The word of Britain is now taken as the symbol and the hall mark of international good faith—(cheers)—the loyalty of our Dominions and Colonies vindicates our civilization—(hear, hear)—and the hate of our enemies proves the effectiveness of our warfare. (Cheers.) Yet I would advise you from time to time, when you are anxious or depressed, to dwell a little on the color and light of the terrible war pictures now presented to the eye. See Australia and New Zealand smiling down in the last and finest crusade the combined barbarians of Prussia and Turkey—(cheers)—General Louis Botha—(loud cheers)—holding South Africa for the King. (Cheers.) See Canada defending to the death the last few miles of shattered Belgium. Look further and across the smoke and carnage of the immense battlefield, look forward to the vision of a united British Empire on the calm background of a liberated Europe. (Cheers.) Then turn again to your task. Look forward, do not look backward. Gather afresh in heart and spirit all the energies of your being, bend anew together for a supreme effort. The times are harsh, need is dire, the agony of Europe is infinite. But the might of Britain, buried united into the conflict will be irresistible. We are the grand reserve of the Allied cause, and that grand reserve must now march forward as one man. (Loud and prolonged cheers.)

POLICE COURT

In the police court Saturday five boys were charged with stealing a quantity of lead pipe from the Jewish Synagogue and selling it to a Hebrew junk dealer. They were allowed to go with the understanding that they report next Saturday. Five other boys were charged with stealing candy from a box car off Mill street. They were all allowed to go with a caution.

Two drunks, who had previous good reputations, were allowed to go, while two others, who did not bear a previous good standing, were sentenced to a fine of eight dollars each or two months in jail.

Rosa Makelo, charged with street walking, was remanded to jail.

James Covey, a youth, pleaded guilty to stealing $14 from his employer, John Douglas, of Golden Grove, 26th Battalion. The message follows: "Davenport, Ont.—Arrived safely All well. Pleasant trip. Hopewell Hill boys."

S. S. WRIGHT.

The many friends of the boys who are on the firing line are pleased to hear that they have arrived safely and believe they will give a good account of themselves when they have a chance to get on the firing line.

HOPEWELL HILL BOYS SEND WORD OF THEIR ARRIVAL IN ENGLAND

Hopewell Hill, June 27.—A cablegram has been received by Temple Wright of this place from one of his three sons who left here with the 26th Battalion. The message follows: "Davenport, Ont.—Arrived safely All well. Pleasant trip. Hopewell Hill boys."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Leslie Somerville.

Stewarton, June 23.—This community was greatly shocked on Saturday last when word was passed from her to her mother, Mrs. Leslie Somerville had passed away.

The deceased had been ill a short while ago and thinking that she had fully recovered had again gone to work as usual. A few days ago she was taken quite suddenly ill. Her condition was in the end so grave that Mrs. Somerville was only 33 years of age and besides a sorrow-stricken husband she leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother four small children, the youngest of whom is only about two weeks old. The funeral was held on Sunday last. The services were conducted by Rev. R. H. Stavert. Interment was in the People's cemetery at Hatfield's Point.

Two New Competitions For Boys and Girls

On Saturday I published a picture which I want all boys and girls who are not over 15 years of age to color with either water colors or chalk.

To the young artist who does it the best I will give a first prize of a dollar.

It is a simple competition, no hard rules, no entrance fees, just cut the picture out, paint or color it the way you think best, save three coupons the same as the one shown on this page, cut from The Standard, fill them up, pin them to the painting and send them all addressed to

UNCLE DICK,
THE STANDARD, St. John, N. B.

Closing Date of Contest, July 1st, 1915

Coupon to be Used in Both Contests

STANDARD COMPETITION FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Special Sewing Contest

In Aid of the Red Cross Society (St. John Branch.)

This week I am letting you have a special sewing contest, and I want you all to enter for the prize, as the work you send in will be given to the above society, and the poor wounded soldiers will be greatly comforted by your efforts. Here are the particulars: Make a face cloth measuring ten inches by ten inches, using three ply of ordinary cheese cloth, hand stitched across from corner to corner, and round the edges. Then pin the above coupon to same and forward not later than Wednesday, July 7th, 1915 to

UNCLE DICK,
The Standard Office,
St. John, N. B.

This contest is open to both girls and boys, as I want you to make as many face cloths as possible, knowing that they are to be used for the wounded soldiers.

To the girl or boy who makes the best I shall award a valuable story book.

SAYS FEDS ARE IN GAME TO STICK

ROBERT B. WARD, vice president of the Federal League and probably the biggest man financially with that organization, says that the new organization is in baseball to stay. He further says that the league will establish itself in New York city and that the so-called organized baseball might just as well understand now that there is not the slightest idea in the minds of the Federal League officials to quit.

The School League. A very interesting baseball game was played on Saturday morning at the Barrack Green between Alexander School and Winter Street School teams. As these two teams were tied for first place in the School League a very large crowd witnessed the match. It went eleven innings and ended by a score of 5 to 4 in favor of Winter Street School team.

The Dixie Wins. In the R.Y.C. race on Wednesday last for the Trask cup the Bonnel, owned by Gandy Brothers, finished first, with the Dixie owned by John Frodsham, second. It was learned after the race that the Bonnel was disqualified owing to some alterations that had been made to her, and the cup was accordingly awarded to the Dixie which finished second.

When the gross receipts for one game do not exceed $136 and a club experiences this kind of business every week day except Saturday and Sunday it is hard to understand how the backers can keep on paying out money forever. One of the Eastern clubs in the Federal League is experiencing this meager patronage and is said to be losing an average of $2,000 a day. The salary list exceeds $120,000 for the year, while other expenses will bring the total up to $200,000.

WITH THE BIG LEAGUE PLAYERS

Boston's students of baseball figure that the Red Sox will win the American League bag. They argue that the Red Sox are stronger in the box than the Tigers and White Sox. They say that Bill Carrigan has the best pitching staff in the league in Wood, Shore, Ruth, Foster, Leonard and Mays, with Collins and Gregg yet to be heard from. Hub critics insist that the Tigers have only three first class pitchers in Daus, Dubuc and Covaleskie, while the White Sox have four, Scott, Russell, Benz and Faber. Bostonians believe that the Red Sox excel in the infield except at second base. They do not see the Detroit infield at all, and are positive that Speaker, Lewis and Hooper outclass Veach, Cunnigham, Nat., and the White Sox. In this respect, receiving little consideration: The Red Sox, by the way, have begun to draw large crowds at Fenway park.

Although they have lost more games than they have won to date, the Boston Braves are cocksure of capturing another pennant. Other ball clubs in the National League say that the Braves are overconfident, but Stallings and his players seem to have a poor opinion of their antagonists. Stallings declares that as soon as Evers puts on the spangles the Braves will make a victorious push to the front. The Miracle Man points to the undeniable fact that James and Tyler have not yet displayed last year's effectiveness, but he predicts that it will not be long before they are winning their games. There is no doubt that the accident to Evers has greatly handicapped the world's champions, but it also must be remembered that the Braves are in the cellar to be hopelessly lodged in the cellar. The Braves did not begin their wonderful brace until July 6, after which nothing stop them. For these reasons Stallings willingly plays the role of prophet.

Although Birmingham recently was deposed from the management of the Cleveland he still draws a large salary from Owen Somers for the reason that he holds a contract with the club for the rest of the year. In 1913 Birmingham landed the Cleveland in third place and he was a hero with the First City fans. The team that year included Johnson, LaLoe, Turner, Olson and Chapman, infielders Ryan, Graney, Leibold and Jackson, outfielders; O'Neill, Carlisch and Lani, catchers; with Cullop, Mitchell, Steen, Falkenberg, Gregg, Blauding and Kahler to look after the pitching. Of these players Turner, Chapman, Graney, Leibold, Jackson and O'Neill still are members of the team. Johnson is playing first base for the Pirates, LaLoe is the regular second baseman of the Athletics, Olson is with the Reds, Gregg is pitching for Detroit, while Falkenberg, Cullop and Lani are drawing salaries in the Federal League. Ryan, Carlisch and Kahler have been sent to the minors, while the others have dropped out of the limelight.

Occasionally the oldest inhabitants begin "shrinking" to the time when pitchers worked every other day and played in the outfield when not performing in the box. It is asked, "Why is the modern flinger able to work but once in four or five days, resting from all labor in the interim?" The answer is easy. Pitching requirements are entirely different. Here are some of the conditions under which the hurler worked in 1876, the first year of the National League's existence: Pitching distance, forty-five feet. Three strikes out, nine balls allowed. Pitcher's box six feet square. Pitcher could take more than one step in delivering the ball. Batter could not take first base when hit by pitched ball. No balk existed for felints toward first base. Walter Johnson shooting his treball at a batsman only forty-five feet distant, and with practically no restriction on the movements of his body in delivering the same. Imagine the efforts of a batsman to "wait them out" until Walter wasted nine balls. And picture the chance a runner would have to get a lead if there were no penalty on the pitcher for a false motion to first. The miracle would be if any batsman ever got to first at all if such pitching conditions existed today. Handicapped in almost every way, pitching from a fifteen foot greater distance, and laboring under increased strain, due to more scientifically developed attack at bat and on the base lines, it is no wonder the modern hurler is not able to work more than once in four days.

ST. JOHN POWER BOAT CLUB CRUISE

The first club run of the season is appointed to be held on Thursday, July 1st, next. The fleet will proceed to Craig's Point and spend the day there. Rain or shine the fleet will depart from the club anchorage at 9 o'clock, a. m., on a signal of one gun fired from the flagship. On arrival, after the crews have disembarked, a baseball match will be played between two picked teams. In the afternoon general sports will be held on land and water, about as follows: 100 yards dash, 50 yards dash, old men, 50 yards upwads; 100 yards dash, running, fat men; sack race, potato race. On the river: Tender race, race to Belyea's Point and return, 5 h. p. Board race, bang and go back race, match race, Capt. Colwell and Reynolds'. Magnificent prizes are offered in each event. All that is needed to make this outing a success is for you to be there with your boat, and it is to be hoped that you will arrange to cooperate with the club. Don't leave it to someone else to go. You go, and show your interest in your club. The return will be made at 6 p. m., so as to arrive in good season. The races will be under the direction of the Rear Commodore, F. W. Tapley. W. L. BAGNELL, S. P. GEROW, Fleet Captain, Commodore.

WORLD'S RECORDS BROKEN

Chicago, June 26.—All competitive speedway automobile records of the world from fifty miles to five hundred were shattered in the running of the first Chicago 500 mile Derby. They were not only beaten by Dario Resta, who won with a French car, and captured more than $20,000 in prize money, but by the nine other drivers who finished in the money. Resta's official time was 5:07.26. The previous record, made by Ralph De Palma at Indianapolis recently, was at the rate of 89.84 miles per hour. Resta averaged 87.6 over the same distance, and J. Cooper, who finished tenth, bettered the De Palma mark, averaging 90.3 miles. Eighty thousand persons witnessed the race. The veteran Harry Grant drove the entire race without a stop, and finished in fifth position, averaging 95.06 miles an hour. The previous non-stop record in competition was 205 miles. Twenty-one cars started, and eight dropped out in the course of the grind.

DEMAND LEVY FROM TWO FRENCH CITIES

London, June 27.—A Reuter despatch from Amsterdam says it is officially announced at Berlin that in retaliation for the bombardment of German consulates in open Turkish territory the French towns of Valenciennes and Roubaix have been ordered to pay a contribution of $30,000 cash.

CANADIAN BOOTS SUPERIOR TO ANY OF IMPERIAL ISSUE

Sergeant-Major Patchell of St. John Praises Clothing Issued to the Canadian Troops—Has Seen Many St. John Men—The Work of Captain Sturdee and Captain McAvity.

Sergeant Major Holly H. Patchell, son of R. R. Patchell, now with the second overseas battery at Shorncliffe, England, in a letter to his brother, Louis L. Patchell, makes particular mention of the Canadian clothing issued the soldiers and pays particular compliment to the Canadian boots.

Sergeant Major Patchell says: "Our clothes are, I think, much superior to any other army's. Our khaki has real wool and wears like iron. The underwear the Canadians are supplied with is the first quality, just the same as sold in the best stores at home.

The Best Boots

"The tan boots we have are by far the best. A Canadian pair of boots weighs much less than the English, but ours are made with some shape and fit better. They wear just as well if not better. Our men have been issued with both so we can judge. I never wear my Imperials at all. I have had three pairs of Canadians issued me since I enlisted and all three are in first-class condition and I have always had dry feet.

"Here in camp we are fed on the Imperial ration system, which permits of a greater variety of food for the men.

"Our officers are all young, energetic, hardworking fellows. The artillery officers, particularly, have stuck right to their posts and have become efficient and painstaking of their duties. Major McKay is an outstanding artillery officer. He is A1 on tactical work.

"Some of the Canadians are under canvas and others are in tin (galvanized iron) huts. All are very comfortable and the natural elevation and formation of the ground makes it very healthy.

FLOOR OF NEW BRIDGE HAS BEEN COMPLETED

A. R. C. Clark & Son finished contract Saturday—Approaches under way.

A. R. C. Clark and Son completed the flooring of the new steel bridge at the Falls on Saturday and removed their equipment from the site. The flooring and sidewalks are in place and J. McVey and Son will complete the approaches. Messrs. Clark finished their contract considerably within the time limit and their work has come in for much favorable comment.

Messrs. McVey have already started building the approaches and the flooring will be rushed. As soon as possible the approaches will be made ready so the traffic may be taken off the Suspension Bridge and the roadway to the new structure made permanent. It is understood that before the street railway can run their lines into the new bridge the cables supporting the Suspension Bridge will have to be removed from the western side. It is probable, however, that one track may be used until the old structure is taken down.

Around the City

Police Called In

Saturday afternoon Policeman Storm was called into John Murphy's house on North street to quell a disturbance.

Arrived Safely

Mrs. H. D. Smith received a cablegram on Saturday from her husband, who is with the Construction Corps, saying he and his comrades had arrived safely at Plymouth.

Dog Destroyed

The police were summoned to Erin street Saturday afternoon where Officer Barrett found a dog suffering badly from the mange. The animal was placed in a bag and drowned.

Found By Police

Saturday evening Detective Barrett found a boy's coat in the King Square. A man's shirt was found on the street Saturday night and the articles can be procured by the owners calling at the police headquarters.

Policeman Lost Revolver

Mounted Policeman Moore lost his revolver on Saturday either in the park or on the way from the park to police headquarters. The finder of the same will confer a favor by leaving the gun at the central police station.

Exhibition Poster

Secretary W. S. Hooper of the Fredericton exhibition is sending out a very attractive hanger, advertising the show which takes place September 20th to 25th. The lithograph gives an excellent illustration of a Canadian mounted soldier carrying the good old Union Jack.

Few Arrests

At 12:40 o'clock yesterday morning Policeman Armstrong was called from headquarters to Canterbury street, where he found a man named John Birch intoxicated. Birch was all alone and was singing at the top of his voice "It's a long way to Tipperary." Only one other drunk was gathered in by the police Saturday and matters in police circles are reported very quiet.

A Verdict of Guilty

In the case of Stanley Brown, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Matilda Blakeney, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty on the first count. It is likely that the prisoner will be sentenced within the next few days. The case was begun on Friday morning and the jury was kept together during Friday night. Attorney-General Baxter prosecuted and B. L. Gerow acted for the prisoner.

From Harry Pike

A letter received Saturday from Harry Pike, who is with the Canadian Heavy Artillery fighting in France, says that he is well and so far has escaped injury. He and his comrades are kept very busy day and night fighting the Germans, and the latter frequently show that they are quite handy when they throw one of the "smoke boxes" into the lines. Gunner Pike says he believes this war will be a long drawn out fight.

Mail at McAdam

McAdam was visited by a hail storm yesterday accompanied by plenty of rain. On two nights last week the weather was so cold that viticulture that frost was reported. While farmers wish a certain amount of rain to make their crops grow, some farmers report that the recent rain was rather too heavy, and one man says the heavy downpour washed the earth away from about his potatoes and destroyed about twenty acres.

Gift To Fellow Member

A special meeting of the St. John Rifle Club was held Saturday afternoon, when the captain, N. J. Morrison, in a very appropriate speech on behalf of the club, presented a gentleman's travelling bag to their fellow member, Rev. J. J. Pelkington, as a small mark of their appreciation. In making the presentation Captain Morrison spoke of Mr. Pelkington as having been a good comrade, a good sport and a gentleman whom they were sorry to part with and wished him every success in his new field of labor at Chatham.

Escaped but Returned

One of the boys, who is serving a term in the Industrial Home, made his escape from that institution several days ago. He was located at his home, his father finding him one morning asleep on a couch in the kitchen. The father told the boy he must return to the Industrial Home and gave him money for his passage to St. John. He appeared at the home on Friday and gave himself up to those in charge.

THE BEST BOOTS

"The tan boots we have are by far the best. A Canadian pair of boots weighs much less than the English, but ours are made with some shape and fit better. They wear just as well if not better. Our men have been issued with both so we can judge. I never wear my Imperials at all. I have had three pairs of Canadians issued me since I enlisted and all three are in first-class condition and I have always had dry feet.

"Here in camp we are fed on the Imperial ration system, which permits of a greater variety of food for the men.

"Our officers are all young, energetic, hardworking fellows. The artillery officers, particularly, have stuck right to their posts and have become efficient and painstaking of their duties. Major McKay is an outstanding artillery officer. He is A1 on tactical work.

"Some of the Canadians are under canvas and others are in tin (galvanized iron) huts. All are very comfortable and the natural elevation and formation of the ground makes it very healthy.

Fine Motor Trucks

"I wish you could see the mechanical transport sections of the Canadian Army Service Corps. They are equipped with three-ton motor trucks and they are dandies. They certainly have the traction engine system beaten by miles. Every truck has 'Canada' in large letters on both sides. I have talked with many of the chauffeurs and they say they could not wish for better trucks. They have had practically no engine trouble and no repairs, and they have to get around to some hard places, too. The grades on some of the roads are fierce so these cars are proving a big ad for their makers. They have surely put the Canadian Transport Department right up at New-In-Green. I saw Dave Pidgeon, Andrew Rahnne, Bill Ross, Roy Hardin, Bobby Friars, Charlie Compton, in fact all the St. John boys in that corps. They are well situated about five minutes' walk from West-inhanger (railway) station.

"I also saw Ernest Earle. He is driving a motor ambulance at the Moore Barracks (McGill University Corps) Hospital.

"As you know we are now in Ross Artillery Barracks. Everything here has been built permanent years ago as it was formerly a depot of the Royal Field Artillery.

"The 12th reserve Battalion is now a school of infantry and men are being sent here for instruction. The best fighting instructors are known as the finest in camp. Lieutenant Ryder of St. Stephen (now in France) brought that department up to a very high state of efficiency.

Captain Sturdee

"I have had several long talks with Colonel H. F. McLeod, now on the general staff in France. He spoke in the highest terms of his officers. Captain Deeds and Captain Sturdee he mentioned as being exceptionally fine officers. Captain Sturdee certainly had a fine record and although not just an idol of the rank and file on account of his strict disciplinary qualities, he had every N. C. O. in his company strong for him and it was with sincere regret they saw him leave for France. I was in the sergeant's mess the night he went away.

Yesterday I saw Captain McAvity (quartermaster). He is a hard worker and has made good. He has had a hard job on account of the great amount of moving the regiment has done. He is looking fine and has shown he is of the right stock from which good soldiers are made.

"Frank Jennings is quartermaster sergeant and the head-quarters' staff. He has also done good work."

CARLETON MASONS PARADE TO CHURCH

The members of Carleton Union Lodge, F. and A. M., with members of sister lodges observed St. John's Day by a club parade to the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, yesterday morning. The Carleton Cornet Band accompanied the Masons to and from the church.

Rev. Walter P. Dunham delivered an eloquent sermon, taking for his text the passage: "Behold I build a house unto the name of the Lord my God and dedicate it to Him."

Mrs. Hoffman and children arrived in the city on the Atlantic Express Saturday from Montreal and are visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Poyas, 53 Douglas Avenue.

Mrs. Smith, a sister of Dr. Case, arrived in the city from San Francisco on the Atlantic Express Saturday for a visit.

A. J. Walker, of Ottawa, was registered at the Royal yesterday.

EDMUND MACGRATH DIED YESTERDAY

Was Proprietor of Union Station Restaurant and Well Known in Province

Edmund D. MacGrath, who for the last seventeen years conducted the restaurant in the Union Station, passed away at an early hour yesterday morning. He was suddenly stricken with heart failure.

Mr. MacGrath was well known to the travelling public and had many friends both in the city and throughout the province who will hear with regret of his death.

Mr. MacGrath had been proprietor of the restaurant at the Union Depot. He was of general disposition and many instances might be mentioned of kindly acts performed by him in a quiet way.

He, on many occasions, had people stranded at the depot by providing food without thought of recompense.

A brother, John of this city and two sisters survive. The latter are Mrs. Alice Gallagher, who resided with the deceased, and Mrs. Catherine Dustin of Titusville, Pennsylvania. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence.

FROM CHICAGO TO ST. JOHN BY AUTO

E. L. Barker and party arrived here Saturday—Will tour province.

E. L. Barker, with his wife, three daughters, two sons and a chauffeur, of Chicago, arrived in the city Saturday afternoon in a large touring car. The party of eight are making an extensive tour of the country in the automobile. They were eleven days coming to St. John from Chicago, Ill. They have been travelling along the high-roads during the day and stopping at hotels during the nights and for meals.

On Friday they toured from Machias, Me., to St. George and came to St. John from the latter place on Saturday. Yesterday the party left for Sussex where they spent last night, and today will tour farther through the country.

E. L. Barker and party intend going to Prince Edward Island.

Bentham Camp meeting will be held July 2-12. Rev. Joseph H. Smith of Chicago, Ill., an evangelist and writer of national reputation and one of the leading preachers of scriptural holiness in the world at the present time, will preach twice daily. This will be a rare opportunity for ministers and people to spend ten days listening to this gifted teacher.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE IN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Annual St. John's Day celebration—Sermon by Rev. Walter P. Dunham.

Yesterday afternoon the Sunday school of Portland Methodist church carried out an interesting programme of a patriotic character. There was a large attendance of scholars and members and friends of the church.

The schoolroom was decorated with flags of the allies and bunting. The programme was as follows:

Recitation, "The Salute".....School Kipling's Recessional.....Miss Laura Spence

Recitation, "The Maple Leaf".....James Monroe Solo and chorus, "The Maple Leaf Forever".....Greenville Ring and School Recitation, "The Flag".....Charles Jenkins

Recitation, "Our Flag".....Robert Hayes Recitation, "Faith of Our Fathers".....Mildred Killam

Address, "Loyalty, Its Meaning, Cost and Reward".....Rev. W. J. Bevis, Sheboque, N. S.

GIRLS' CLUB NEW HOME WILL OPEN TOMORROW

Fine New Quarters in Princess Street have been fitted up.

The new home of the Girls' Club and Travellers Aid of the Playgrounds Association will be formally opened tomorrow. A public reception and tea will be held in the afternoon and in the evening an entertainment will be given by the girls.

The new quarters, which are located on Princess street, are most attractively arranged and considerable pleasure it is expected will be had by the girls in their new home.

The building in which the rooms are located has been given over for the use of the girls by F. E. Williams, free for one year. The work of the remodelling has been done by the association. There will be a sufficient amount of room to accommodate a number of permanent boarders.

In addition to one large room which can be used as a gymnasium and recreation hall, there will be a large sitting room, dining-room, kitchen, bath and an office.
