Better quality serge suits at $10.00 and $12.00. We have all the sizes 36 to 42.

Our tweed suits start at $5.00, for a good strong serviceable suit.

At $5.75, $6.50, $6.75 and $8.25 we have a very fine range of strong durable suits that look well and will give good satisfaction.

But for real nobby dressy suits see ours at $10.00 to $12.50.

No use to try and describe them, they need to be seen.

The patterns have been selected with the special view of Suiting the dressy young man. The tailoring is excellent.

The most of them are single breasted, but we have one line of black clay worsted, double breasted, silk faced at $12.50. A beauty. Youth suits in tweeds and serges. Boys suits all sizes 4 to 16 years.

It is only a few weeks since we got in our stock of small boys suits and already we have had to reorder to fill up the gaps which goes to show that the public appreciate our prices and goods.

BLACKVILLE.

Serious Fire at That Prosperous Village.

OLD DIVISION HALL

Destroyed. Coun. Brophy had a Narrow Escape From Suffocation.

BLACKVILLE, N. B., May 5.—(Special)—About noon to-day fire broke out in the building known as the old division hall, but lately used as the Methodist church, down stairs and a gymnasium in the upper portion, which was formerly used as the public hall. A large crowd was soon on hand and it was made to save the building. The fire had got so well under way that it was found to be impossible to check as it appeared to be in every portion of the building and rapidly increasing in volume. The crowd abandoned the doomed building and tended their attention to Mr. Bean's new residence which stood in close proximity to the burning building on the one side, and the residence of John B. Curtis, section foreman, on the other.

Mr. Curtis' property stood in most danger however, as the wind blew hard in the men who were protecting these buildings and staying on the house top with the flames almost in their faces. Mr. Curtis' premises were saved. Councillor Brophy, in endeavoring to save some furniture from the burning hall, had a narrow escape from suffocation. The origin of the fire is not known but is supposed to have been caused by a spark from a chimney in Mr. Bean's house.

RECORD-BREAKING INFLUX TO CANADA.

Never so Many Immigrants Coming as Now—More than 7,000 in Last Fortnight.

OTTAWA, May 4.—Never in the history of immigration has there been such an influx of settlers to Canada by ocean ports. During the past two weeks the following arrivals have been reported:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Number of Arrivals. S. S. Lake Simcoe 1,533; S. S. Canada 1,497; S. S. Parliam 717; S. S. Sarmatian 300; S. S. Pretorian 380; S. S. Bulgarian 1,760; S. S. Lake Manitoba 1,423; Total 7,302.

In addition to these were 330 British mariners, who were on Board the Lake Manitoba.

The great bulk of these passengers, possibly 6,000, were for the Northwest. The department of the interior has now such a system of receiving and caring for arrivals to our shore that no difficulty has been experienced in looking after this large number of new settlers.

During the next few weeks there will probably be quite as large a proportion of arrivals as during the past two weeks.

Wouldn't Give up his Charge.

Plucky Officer in Charge of the British Garrison at Olkiep.

LONDON, May 4.—Advice has been received here describing the siege of the British garrison at Olkiep, in western Cape Colony. These advices show that early in April the Boers, under Smuts, had pretty much their own way in the north-western corner of Cape Colony. They destroyed miles of railroad, burned the sleepers and dynamited the blockhouses in the district, compelling the evacuation of many small garrisons and block houses and the concentration of the British at Olkiep while the small garrison at Springbokfontein and Concordia surrendered. The former garrison gave up only after a stiff fight, in which the British had four men killed and six wounded. The refugees from the outlying places poured into port Nelloth, to which point two British guns were sent to protect the place. General Smuts demanded the surrender of Olkiep April 4th although he had 6,000 to feed and provision for only three weeks, Colonel Stelton firmly declined to give up.

Will try to Prorogue Parliament by Saturday.

OTTAWA, May 4.—Morning sessions in the house of commons will commence to-morrow and a strong effort will be made to get through by Saturday. It is doubtful, however, if this can be accomplished as there is a good deal of business before parliament.

It is understood that D'Arcy Scotts will withdraw his name as a candidate to-morrow and this will leave the field clear for Bingham and Lunan in the local legislative election.

PRESENTATIONS.

Mrs. McLean of Douglastown and the Rev. Geo. Anderson, Somerville, Mass., a native of Douglastown, having presented beautiful pulpit Bibles to the Douglastown Presbyterian church, the following thanksgiving addresses from the congregation have been sent to them:

To Mrs. McLean, Douglastown, N. B. In the name of the Kirk Session, trustees and congregation of St. Marks' church, Douglastown.

We, the undersigned, beg hereby to tender you our warmest thanks for your gift of the Pulpit Bible, and we assure you, the gift is not the less esteemed by us, that it is a memorial of your affection for the church and congregation, and of your continued interest in its services. And we would take this opportunity of expressing our sincerest sympathy with you in the long abiding infirmity that has enforced your seclusion from public worship; and our prayer is that He who is not confined to temples made with hands, may dwell where you dwell, and make your home his habitation—a very house of God, a gate of Heaven.

Your beautiful gift will retain its place on the platform of the church, in sight of the worshippers till it is needed in the pulpit and it will thus be an everpresent memorial of your affection—a memorial that will show that our church is rich in the beauty that is made with hands and far richer still in the love that you and many other absent friends cherish for—a love that wreaths and adorns it with a beauty that will never grow dim.

HUGH LAMONT, Rev. D. MacINTOSH, Secy. to Trustees. Minister. To the Rev. Mr. Anderson of Somerville, Mass.

We, the undersigned, in the name of the Kirk Session, trustees and congregation of St. Marks' Presbyterian church, Douglastown, N. B., beg hereby to tender you our sincerest thanks for your gift of the Pulpit Bible. We are much pleased to discern in the rare beauty and perfection of its workmanship, your anxiety to express your deep affection for the church of your earliest years and your unflinching interest in its well being.

We desire to assure you that it adds not a little to the pride with which we regard your gift, that "one of the boys" should place in our pulpit a testimonial that we hope may long here witness to his sense of the blessed influence of the church's work on his own opening life, on each rising generation, and on the community at large; that will thus be an everpresent encouragement to preacher and people, to teacher and taught, not to weary in work or in well doing, for in due season they will reap if they faint not.

HUGH LAMONT, Rev. D. MacINTOSH, Secy. to Trustees. Minister.

A number of the congregation of Derby Presbyterian church met at the home of Miss Bryenton on the 2nd inst. and made the following presentation:

Dear Miss Bryenton, We, as representatives of the congregation of Derby Presbyterian Church take much pleasure in presenting you with this small token of esteem and appreciation of your services as organist.

We trust you will accept this small present in the spirit in which it is intended, not as a remuneration but as a mark of love and esteem for the amiableness of character and persistent care of others that has led you for many years, through storm and sunshine to punctually attend Divine Service and work in the cause of the church.

Yours truly, CYNTHIA CARNAHAN, MAY BELL.

PRESENTATION TO MISS GERTRUDE JARDINE.

On Monday evening April 28th the Misses Gertrude and Mable Jardine entertained about forty of their young friends in an informal social evening. Miss Jardine expects shortly to leave to take a situation in Brooklyn N. Y.

The evening was largely given up to dancing which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. During the evening the gathering being called to order, Miss A. B. Mowat assisted by Miss Mattie Richards in the presentation read the following address:—

DEAR GERTRUDE:— It is with very mingled feelings that we meet this evening. We have all spent many happy hours under the roof, and the great kindness of your mother and yourself and indeed of the whole family have come to mean very much to us. We could always count on help from "the Waverly" in any undertaking whether for public or our own amusement. We shall try however to seek our own sense of loss in the hope that a larger field will afford you all a greater measure of prosperity than our little town could offer, but let us assure you once more that wherever you may go, you will carry with you our very best wishes for yourself and family. May you all live long and prosper.

Campbellton, N. B. April 28th, 1902. The gift was a large sterling silver pocket watch attached to a dainty small linked chain. On one side the heart has the neatly executed hand-engraving "Gertrude Jardine" and on the other side was the monogram. Miss Jardine was delightfully surprised and a precious gift to the kindly remembrance of her fair associates.—Events.

THE OULTON CASE.

Detective Killen has a letter which he found among the late Isaac G. Gulton's effects which even if it is not accepted as usual in finding out more concerning the old man's death, is at least interesting.

This missive bears the date of Oak Point, King's county, March 10, 1901 and the post-mark date March 20, ten days later.

All the way through the letter threatens the old man's life. It says "Tom London," of Wickham, intends going to the city to murder Oulton. Every paragraph, and in some instances in every sentence, the defilement is made that the aforesaid London will wreak his vengeance on the harmless hermit.

Mrs. Emma A. Wells, of 83 Simonds street, and her family were living in Oulton's apartments at the time the mysterious and unsigned communication arrived. She read it to the old man.

I think the stamp on the envelope was marked Wickham, said Mrs. Wells to a reporter. Mr. Oulton asked me to open it and read it to him. The letter inside was dated at Oak Point somewhere along the last of March. It was addressed "Dear Friend, Mr. Isaac Oulton," and was written by a woman who said she was a friend of Mr. Oulton's and wanted to warn him that Tom London was coming to St. John.

According to Mrs. Wells, the old man was very frightened.

He carefully put the letter away at her (Mrs. Wells) suggestion. Detective Killen was told of it, and after a search the identical envelope and its contents were found.

WILL IT BE IMPORTANT This is a question Coroner Roberts, L. P. D. Tilley, Detective Killen and other officials have been seriously considering all day concerning the letter.

In the first place, the communication is anonymous. Secondly, it mentions Thos. London's name. London once lived at Oulton's and is said to have had some trouble with the man.

Whether or not London will be summoned to appear a Friday night's session of the coroner's court is not definitely known, but there is a probability of such action.

L. P. D. Tilley, acting in behalf of Thos. Gillespie, thinks the matter should be gone into, and would very much like to see the anonymous letter put in evidence.

LONDON'S SISTER-IN-LAW TALKS

A Globe reporter called at the home of A. J. London, 197 Chesley street, familiarly known as the Strait man, London, who it was understood was there for a few days.

London said the man asked wasn't in just then. He had gone a little while before. The woman of the reporter's errand.

A Globe man informed her of the held by Detective Killen.

Don't you mind that, she said, "poor Tom wouldn't kill a man. Why, he's in his dotage."

Then Mrs. London reassured the reporter her brother-in-law and Oulton had always been on the most friendly terms as far as she was aware. There was no hard feeling between them until a girl from up river came down to Oulton's and said London had a thousand dollars and was buying land, building houses and purchasing live stock valere.

Oulton then imagined London had robbed him, and went up river to find out just what he (London) was doing. But Oulton didn't miss any money, said Mrs. London, with certainty.

After a little questioning it was learned Thos. London and his brother's family were not on the very best of terms in their country homes.

The other Londons wanted to go to Thomas and his family off the land they occupied, and Mrs. London of Strait Shore asserts one of the disgruntled relatives came to town with the report of the aforesaid land and cattle purchases by Thomas.

Naturally suspicious, Mrs. London figures out, Oulton accepted the relative's story and took action against her brother-in-law.

Tom came down to town only last Tuesday, said Mrs. London, and before that he hadn't been in the city for a whole year; so I don't see how he can be dragged into the scrape. As I said before, he is a big soft-natured man, and would not even kill his own chickens.

Before the newspaper man left, Mrs. London felt quite certain the letter referred to was the work of an unfriendly party in the country, who had before tried to involve Oulton and London into serious trouble.

MRS. WELLS TELLS OF LONDON.

When Mrs. Emma A. Wells was seen at her home to-day she was carefully reading the newspaper reports of the coroner's enquiry proceedings. She had not read in the papers of the mysterious letter, but knew considerable about it.

The Londons lived with Mr. Oulton for a while during the winter before I lived with him, she answered a query.

Oulton told me at different times that while London stayed with him he put him to sleep and robbed him and he (London) appropriated considerable of his (Oulton's) belonging's which were sold as junk.

Some of the things Oulton thought London had taken were found afterwards, including the mineral rod.

The reporter remarked that the self-same mineral rod was thought by some to have been the instrument through which London came to his death, as it was found in the rubbish after the fire the night of the old man's death.

On, no, that could not be, was the reply, it wouldn't kill anybody; know what it's like. Many's the time Mr. Oulton showed me how it worked. It would always bend in the direction of money, gold or silver. He said he brought it from California, and at one time he also showed me a leath-er coat he wore when he was digging gold out there.

It was the Gillespie family that sent Secretary Wetmore, of the S. P. C. A., and the police to Oulton's house about me when I was there, Mrs. Wells told the newspaper man with frankness.

They did not want to have me there, I know it, and Mr. Oulton said Gillespie told him he was going to poison us!

This somewhat startling announcement was followed by a still more sensational one.

One day Mr. Oulton thought he was dying, said Mrs. Wells, and he commenced telling me of himself and Gillespie. He said Gillespie quarreled with him on one occasion and that Gillespie choked him!

DETECTIVE AND CORONER SEEN.

Neither of these officials had much to tell to-day. They were told what had been gleaned from Mrs. London and Mrs. Wells as above quoted, but could not say what action, if any, would be taken in the matter.

Mrs. Wells may be recalled to the witness stand Friday night, but there is no certainty of it.

WELL DONE, CANADA

Not since Paderberg have the wires borne to Canada news at once so glorious and so mournful as yesterday—glorious in that they once more assured us that the honor of the country is safe in the keeping of the lads who are making the maple leaf known in South Africa; mournful in that the toll of blood was so heavy. That it was not sacrificed in vain is apparent from the fact that the enemy's attack was repulsed and that even the adventurous Dillery's contingent had been repulsed.

NATURE SMILING. OVER THE WIRES.

WHILE THOUSANDS SUFFER.

PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND.

The Great Spring Health Giver Makes Sick People Well.

When spring comes with its gentle showing of blue sky and its high, sunshine and bustling air, it too often brings to our homes scenes of suffering and physical decay.

The seeds of disease which were imperceptibly germinating during the winter months, have developed and planted in the system dangers that now demand our instant care and attention. Neglect and procrastination will only deepen existing perils and lead to death.

Before the advent of spring, you must have noted symptoms, perhaps of rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, kidney disease, liver complaint, functional irregularities or nervous disorders.

If you have experienced pains in the joints, muscles or limbs, lacerating pains in face or head, stomach derangements, bile, dislike of food, pains in back and loins, sweating of hands or feet, frequent urinating, with highly colored urine, loss of energy, torpid liver, vomiting or impure blood—any of these are warnings of disease.

Take warning sufferers! Delay not another day; hesitation and indecision on your part may forever seal your fate. If you have already made efforts to banish your troubles by the use of other medicines and the treatment of physicians and these have failed, we counsel you to put your full trust in that never-failing disease banisher, Paine's Celery Compound.

Use it for a week or two will convince you that you have truly commenced a new existence; it will assuredly give you the health you need for the enjoyment of true life. Mr. A. Duggan, St. Hyacinthe, Que., writes as follows:

"I desire to say, that had it not been for Paine's Celery Compound I would not be living to-day. Five years ago I was taken sick, and suffered from dyspepsia and catarrh. For three years I was unable to do any work, and would lose consciousness several times a day. I was tired of life and could realize that death was my only deliverance from suffering. At that time one of my friends urged me to use Paine's Celery Compound, as all other medicines had failed. After the use of six bottles I am as well as ever before. My life and can do all day's work. My friends say my cure is a miracle, as I was surely condemned to die. I thank you for your wonderful life-giving medicine."

To say silly things is about as bad as to do them.

Canadian and Britishers. The despatches state that the enemy advanced within 200 yards of the position held by Lieut Carruthers and his men, but were driven back by the steady fire the Canadian lads maintained. In the little group of car countrymen were some of the Northwest Mounted Police, and it is quite unlikely that the Boer horsemen came within 200 yards of the muzzle of their rifles without suffering for their temerity. How fierce the assault was indicated by the fact that every man of Lieut Carruthers' little party was either killed or wounded.

It is not a time for vainglorious boasts, but it is worth pointing out that these Canadian who stood the heat of battle like the seasoned veterans of a hundred fights have but just arrived in South Africa. They could scarcely as yet have been shook into shape; nevertheless, under their courageous young officer they lie down on the bare veldt, shut their teeth, and repel the withering assault of the best light horsemen and riflemen in the world to-day. It would be singular indeed if every Canadian man and woman did not experience a thrill of pride at this glowing page added to the annals of the people who are creating in the west this greatest outpost of the British race.

Headache, Biliousness and Liver Complaint.

Troublesome and Obstinate Affections Which Yield Promptly to the Searching and Thorough Action of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

In nearly every family there is more or less suffering from liver disorders, biliousness and headaches, and no home should be without a cure for such derangements. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are wonderfully prompt and effective for all such disorders as well as for dyspepsia and constipation. They are the greatest family medicine ever discovered, as is testified to by thousands of people.

Mrs. Pauline, 8 Gildersleeve place, Toronto, says: "After doctoring without success for biliousness, liver complaint and sick headache for over three years I am glad to testify to the efficacy of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. At first they seemed a little strong, but being both searching and thorough in their action, simply repay any inconvenience by after results. I am feeling better in every way, and my headaches have entirely disappeared. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are certainly the best I have ever used, and I freely recommend them."

South American Earthquake

New York, April 20.—The earthquake which caused such destruction in Central America last Friday extended as far north as Baltimore, says a despatch from that city to the Tribune. At the Johns Hopkins University observatory the film has just been taken off the seismograph, and it was found to indicate the heaviest earth disturbance recorded since the machine was put in operation. After he had prepared the film for examination, Dr. Harry Reeling from the record, said: "The first measurable shock reached Baltimore about 9:30 o'clock last Friday night. For about four minutes the disturbance was slight; then it suddenly became stronger. The heaviest shock was recorded about 9:40 o'clock. It soon subsided to a lower degree of violence, but the disturbance was comparatively strong for an hour and a half. The whole disturbance was apparent over a space of two hours and a half. The shocks were not strong enough to be generally perceptible."

SOME ADVERTISING IDEAS.

Business Comes to Him Who Advertises.

The most general trouble with advertising has been that many men have never gone at it except in a hit or miss way, with the chances strongly in favor of miss. Spasmodic advertising is as foolish as spasmodic eating.

You wouldn't think of eating a dinner today, a supper tomorrow, skip a day, then crowd in two breakfasts and so on. No more should you jump about with your advertising and expect much of it.

The very best advertisers—the ones who have put the most time and thought and money into it—say advertise and keep at it. They found that continuous advertising is in the long run, really cheaper than the hit or miss kind, that in return for the all the year round investment it brings the best all the year round results. Nowadays fierce competition allows the progressive advertiser no time to leave off advertising. It is now one of two things. Advertise continuously or get out of business.

Good advertising is the oil that eases the claps on a good many pocket books.

The only way to get customers is to go after them.

You don't have to guess the newspaper is a good advertising medium. It has been proved time and again to be the very best all-round publicity proposition that an advertiser can take up with.

The reason why the newspapers are the best mediums for reaching the people and securing business is that they come into closer touch with the public than any kind of publications. They greet the reader's eye regularly all through the year. It is persistency, if we may so call it, of the newspaper that gives it value. Every issue is new and must be read, and each time the advertiser is making a direct appeal to the reader for his patronage. It is the constant dropping of water that wears away the hardest stone.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimore, Md., March 20, 1902. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and today, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 226 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

SOMETHING NEW IN SILOS.

Much has been written in regard to silos and silo building, and numerous plans have been published, but in actual experience none of them has proved entirely satisfactory. Some are too expensive for ordinary farmers, others are cheap, but last only a few years. The round stave silo is one of the cheapest sorts, and if it were not liable to collapse on account of shrinkage of the staves, and the expansion of the iron hoops, it would be very satisfactory.

There is now a prospect of these disadvantages being overcome. A number of farmers in the United States have adopted the plan of using wooden hoops, which cannot shrink or lengthen endwise. The inside sheeting is of one inch Georgia pine, which seems to be the best kind of lumber for silos, on account of its non-shrinkable character. It is so full of pitch that moisture has practically no effect upon it. This lumber has been recently laid down at Ottawa for $27 per M., and at that price should be one of the most economical our farmers could use.

The foundation of this new sort of silo is in its wooden hoops, six inches wide, and made of half inch elm lumber, sprung around a form, and built up with well lapped joints, using a trifle longer nail each time, until the hoop has a thickness for the three bottom hoops of five layers. The remaining five top hoops require only four layers each. The average silo does not require more than 500 lb. of lumber and 20 pounds of nails, for the hoops which are easily and quickly made and should not cost more than $2.25 each, or $10. for the lot. This is a good deal less than the cost of the usual iron hoops and lugs. A three cornered frame is erected at the exact outside circumference of the silo, and the hoops placed in a position and fastened.

The lining of the silo is then put on, and should be of inch Georgia pine lumber 3 inches wide, matched and nailed to the hoops the same as the flooring. When the lining is on within 20 inches of the starting place, stop, and put in 2x4 studding, up and down between the hoops on each side of the door for door stays and jambs. Make the doors of the same lumber as the walls, entire them into joints on the inside of the hoops.

If the silo is outside the barn, it can be covered with tarred paper, and cheap siding, run both up and down as a protection against frost. The roof and foundation is the same as for any silo, and the outside covering would be of any sort the owner wished, or it might go without siding, the same as any other tub silo. If protected from the weather the wooden hoops should last for years, and if at any time the inside lining became dory it might be lined with tarred paper and then sheeting, thereby making it serviceable again for a number of years at small cost.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF CO-OPERATIVE PORK PACKING HOUSES.

Everyone is familiar with the history of the wonderful development of export bacon trade in Canada during the past ten or twelve years. I 1890 our export of bacon lard, hams, pork, &c., amounted to less than 8,000,000 lbs.; in 1900 it had risen to about 136,000,000 lbs. The Province of Ontario has been the chief exporter, but the time has come when we may expect to see a change in this respect. Much of Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island is admirably adapted to dairying, a branch of farming which is rapidly extending from Montreal eastward, as well as in Ontario. The dairy districts produce the class of hog from which the finest Wiltshire bacon is made, and in these districts hogs are put on the market at as low a cost per pound as in any part of Canada. General dairying and hog growing should go together, as neither will reach its highest paying condition without the other. The eastern and northern sections of Ontario produce a better class of hog than the corn belt of Western Ontario, or in other words, the section of Ontario which more nearly resembles

Quebec and the maritime Provinces in climate and grain products produce the best class of bacon. In some respects these provinces are better suited than Ontario for the development of this industry. Land is generally cheaper, pasturage surer, and roots and other crops easily raised. Two conditions are necessary in order to develop this industry in Quebec and the Eastern Provinces, especially the latter, an abundance of coarse grains, which by attention to Agriculture can be profitably produced, and the establishment of packing Companies; (or the extension of those already established), which will fully meet the requirements of the best markets, both at home and abroad.

During the past year or two, I have had frequent requests from other provinces for information regarding the establishment of co-operative packing factories, such as have recently been put up at several points in Ontario. The practical results of these co-operative movements has been demonstrated by the Danish farmers, who are becoming more and more interested in improving the quality and shape of the pig, as through this medium alone they have succeeded in placing their bacon and pork in a foremost position, both for quality and shapeliness of side, on the London market, while the fact of these co-operative factories being established all over Denmark, shows to what a success they have been brought.

There are several points however that should always be observed in connection with the establishing of these pork packing industries on the co-operative plan. In the first place, they should be installed as nearly as possible along the Danish lines, with only farmers as stockholders, and each one allowed to hold only a limited amount of stock. No speculators should be allowed to invest in the company. In the next place, it is absolutely necessary that the individual subscriber shall have faith in his own company. The practice of farmers subscribing stock in these movements, and then selling their hogs to the highest bidder, often to firms competing against their own company, is all wrong and entirely different from the "modus operandi" in Denmark. The success of Canadian co-operative factories is absolutely regulated and controlled by the loyalty of the farmer, who has as yet, scarcely realized the importance of operating along truly co-operative lines. Still another necessary feature is that all profits should be concentrated in the hands of a council of not more than seven, preferably five in the very best men among them, brainy, practical business men who are not likely to be led away by fads, or driven from wise business principles by factious opposition.

It is of the first importance that behind the business management of the concern there shall be a thoroughly practical and experienced curer, who will send forward only uniform goods of the highest quality, that will when tested on the British market, grade with the best Irish and Danish bacon. To turn out this class of goods particular attention must be given to the sort of pig grown, and the method of the same. To produce the highest grade of Wiltshire sides, the packers require a long, deep, smooth pig, possessing a light head and shoulder, an even back, not too broad, but well covered with fine flesh, not fat; at the same time he must not be a razor back. The sides from ham to back of shoulder must be long and deep, the under-line straight and free from flabbing, the ham smooth and tapering, with the greatest amount of flesh on the outside. The pig should be healthy, vigorous and a good feeder, weighing when ready for market from 175 to 200 lbs. It is generally conceded that Yorkshires produce the greatest proportion of pigs of this type, with the Tamworth next. The thick fat American or land breeds are not wanted by packers. Pigs should be fed on food which was never and carefully selected food—skimmed milk, potatoes, root, green food, barley, peas, &c.—in a properly balanced ration, without any undue stuffing. If farmers do not intend to observe these conditions they had better leave the business entirely alone, as otherwise they are only retarding the efforts of other Canadians who are striving to place our bacon on the market in the highest possible condition in competition with the Irish and Danish products. A good deal of money has been lost during the past year on hogs, the English market not justifying prices paid in Canada. For instance, we have had pigs for a whole year ranging in price from $6.50 to $7.50. Such a condition of affairs was never before known in the trade. The farmers have, however, received the benefit and the packing companies have suffered largely because they have been climbing over one another to get pigs irrespective of cost, doing no culling, and taking undesirable breeds, just as they would the best. This sort of thing will right itself in course of time, but not before the packing house lose a lot of money.

A co-operative packing factory should not be started until a capital of at least $250,000 has been subscribed, which will be sufficient to ensure a killing capacity of two to three thousand per week. Small plants are objectionable because the refrigerating system costs very little less, and the management and expenses are the same, minimum production always being the most expensive. Such a factory cannot be put up for less than $100,000 to $125,000. Farmers holding stock in such a company should deliver their hogs at the factory, take an advance of sixty or eighty per cent. have them slaughtered, cured, branded with the name of the factory and sent forward and realized on through the medium of a first class English Agency.

Eastern Canada has for some time shown a good deal of interest in the subject of co-operative packing houses, but so far as I am aware, Manitoba, the North West Territories, and British Columbia have not given it much consideration. Possibly the information above given may prove of value to the people of the West as well as the East. Any community interested in the co-operative system outlined above should send a representative committee to visit and carefully inspect the operations of a working factory, such as the Farmer's Co-operative Packing Co., Limited, Brantford, Ont. They will find Mr. Jos. Stratford, both able and willing to give the fullest information in regard to the co-operative movement in all its phases.

True Economy in Well Regulated Home.

The Preacher, The Dam and the Fish.

You must be on your good behavior this evening, George, for the minister is to take dinner with us, said a Hyattsville lady to her poorer half, as he got home from his office in the City last Thursday. What have you for dinner? enquired the husband. Well, I know he is fond of fish, so I bought quite a string of small river fish and several large ones from the dam. I'm not much at doing honors when we have a minister at the table, said George; but I guess we can get through with it all right. Half an hour later they were seated at the table, and a blessing had been asked by the minister. A little nervously the head of the family began dishing out the vegetables, and turning to his guest, said: Will you have some of the little river fish, or would you prefer some of the dam big fish? The warning kick under the table from his wife was not necessary. He knew he had blundered, and cold beads of perspiration started out on his forehead. I mean, trying to repair the error, will you have some of the dam river fish or some of the big fish? Worse and more of it. His daughter shyly pulled his coat tail to bring him to his senses. That is, would you like some of the river fish or some of the other dam fish? The deep earnest spreading over the good lady's face didn't mend matters a bit, and with a gasp, he plunged in once more: Ahmen! Which of the dam fish do you prefer anyway?

OUR SOUVENIR ISSUE.

In order to advertise the Miramichi and bring it prominently before tourists and sportsmen, we have made arrangements for the publication of a finely illustrated edition, which will be known as "The Advocate Souvenir Edition" and we expect it to be a work of art when ready for distribution.

We have selected a large number of beautiful photographs of scenery, fishing and hunting resorts, etc., also a number of views of the Miramichi, Chatham and other places along the river, and have had engravings made from them. This will make a handsome souvenir, and will be something worth preserving. We have allotted a limited space for advertisements and trust the business men of the Miramichi will honor us with their announcements. Our adv. solicitor will call on you in the course of a few days and we hope all will receive him courteously and give him the encouragement this undertaking merits. The expense of bringing out such an edition is naturally heavy, but we are confident we have the well wishes of all in this section, and with the help of our business men, hope to make it a success.

The issue will comprise 5,000 copies, about twenty pages, size 12 1/2 X 16, and will be sold for the modest sum of 10c.

We request all the Miramichi people to lend us their aid in this good work as they are the ones who will be most benefited by such an advertisement.

ECONOMY DEMANDED.

The two sets of supplementary estimates which have been submitted to the House of Commons of Canada in session, with the amount voted in session, will bring the total appropriation for the year ending June 30, 1902, up to $65,472,660. It is not likely that the actual expenditure will reach this sum, but while it may fall short some millions, it will be very large, the largest probably in Canadian history. Of course, the figures include both expenditure on capital and on ordinary revenue accounts. Last year—1901—the total expenditure on account of consolidated fund, was $46,866,367, and the amount was nearly four millions more than the expenditure on ordinary account of the previous year. The year ending June 30, 1901, there was a surplus of $5,648,333 on ordinary account, but so far as the consolidated fund is concerned this surplus is an illusory concern, for it was all swallowed up in a capital expenditure. Notwithstanding the surplus, the debt of Canada increased in 1901, 1902, and the net debt on the 30th June, 1901, was $268,480,003. There is every reason to believe that the entire appropriation in the new estimates for 1902 may not be needed, the total expenditure will be considerably beyond the appropriation, capital and ordinary. This journal has constantly pointed out that the country is making a great mistake in steadily expending as it receives more than it receives. It is not a good provision against the future, and it is steadily increasing the strengthening habits of extravagance which will be difficult to repress, and when conditions demand it, the country is justified in spending beyond its income as it is doing; and "time" justifies the expenditure, there is no economy would be made in the

The adoption of Imperial penny postage by the Australian Commonwealth brings all the self-governing British Dominions into line in this matter, in which Canada led the way. It was Mr. Mulock, Canada's Postmaster-General, who first aroused the people of Great Britain to the value of accepting for themselves Imperial penny postage. As the Duke of Norfolk, the Postmaster-General of Great Britain, said in September, 1898, "the credit was entirely due to the progressive spirit of Canada," adding that "it would be unfair, if he did not at once shift the credit from his shoulders to his brother postmaster-general of Canada."

The Boston Herald, returning to some figures lately published regarding the number of Canadians in the state of Massachusetts, says that the United States census of 1900 shows that there are 158,753 English and 134,416 French-Canadians in the state. This makes a total of 293,169 persons of Canadian origin, and is the largest group of foreign residents in Massachusetts.

If Pierpont Morgan keeps on, the people of the United States will elect him President out of sheer admiration, whether he be willing or not. Even the man who charged up San Juan Hill would have little show against the man who is charging up everything to the trust.

To organize is the latest addition to the English vocabulary.

AN AGED RESIDENT DEAD.
Janelle, N. B. May 1st.—Death has paid us an unwelcome visit, and took from amongst us an old and highly esteemed resident, Mrs. D. Murphy, relict of the late Dennis Murphy, who died at her home at Mansfield, N. B., Monday, April 29th. Although only called upon to pay the common debt of nature, at the advanced age of 87 years of age and more than 60 years of generous heart she could in the grave, and the memory of her merits must still remain warm in the midst of the funeral community. Deceased maiden name was Mary Clifford formerly of Bathurst. At the time of her marriage the roads were newly opened up between Tracadie and Bathurst and she was one of the few who were in consequence of which made the trips through from Tracadie and Bathurst very tedious and sometimes perilous, how many weary travellers sought and received refuge under her hospitable roof, her home was always the scene of cheer and plenty, a sumptuous table always waited all those that occasion sent that way. Her kind and generous hand was always ready to relieve all those of whom fortune laid a heavy hand, if such has laid up treasure in heaven we must expect that her reward is great. In her life she was diligent and industrious, a model to be looked upon. On Wednesday April 29th her remains were removed from her home to the R. C. Church, Grand Anse cemetery, followed by a large and sorrowing concourse of relatives and friends. Services were conducted by Rev. S. J. Doucet. She leaves two sons, William and John both living in Salmon Beach and also two daughters, Mrs. E. Taylor of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. M. Halton of Ashland, Wis., to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother. The pall-bearers were, Messrs. Thomas Willis, Thomas O'Donnell, Edward McCarty, Wm. J. Scott, Ephraim Scott, and William Daley.

In the death of Mrs. John Niven the beloved wife of Police Magistrate Niven, Newcastle has lost a respected and estimable lady.

Mrs. Niven, while attending a meeting of the Missionary Society at the Presbyterian Manse last Thursday afternoon was taken suddenly ill and became unconscious, in which state she remained until her death shortly after noon on Saturday at the Manse, it being impossible to remove her to her home.

The deceased, before her marriage was a Miss Harris, a native of Gloucester Co. Her husband and two sisters survive her. The sisters are Mrs. Malcolm Patterson.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers. The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right. All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment. Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about it, and will tell you it is the best blood purifier we will be satisfied with.

Luxury, Economy, Safety

This is the verdict of the million leaders who have used the Canton "one match" lamp since its famous generator was patented May 1900.

Absolutely no smoke, cleaning, flame odor or pipes. One qt. of 74° Gasoline (65 cents) will give you ten times the light of the best Electric Lamp for 20 hours. A 10-year-old child with ordinary intelligence can use the lamp in less than 10 seconds. Is not a quarter of the danger to your home, of an ordinary Gasol "vacuum" for a light? Get a Canton and if you are troubled with spots or prejudice, the "Light of the Century" will likely cure you of both. Best Copper Oxide styles and supplies at Trade List.
