Official Dispatch From Berlin Denies Rumor.

PREPARATIONS PROCEEDING

France, Britain, Italy and Belgium Expect Occupation Next Week.

London, May 4. - A German official dispatch from Berlin this afternoon says there is no foundation for the report that Germany has made a new reparations offer to the Allies.

RUMOR IS DENIED.

London, May 4.-Reports that German propositions relative to the reparations question had been received. which were current in this city last night, were denied this morning by Louis Loucheur, minister of liberated regions in the French cabinet and one of the principal figures in the French delegation attending the meeting of the Supreme Allied Council.

DEMANDS WILL BE IN COMPLIANCE WITH VERSAILLES TREATY

London, May 4.—The Allied govern-ments' financial plan for Germany, which seemed to be a completed docu-ment yesterday was being separated today by members of the reparations commission into two parts. One of these is the purely legal portion, con-forming to the treaty of Versailles while the other chiefly relates to the guarantee bonds, which it is planned to issue as security for the German payment, and the rates of interest upon these securities, these questions being outside the provisions of the treaty. It is not possible to determine yet pre-cisely what specifications will be pre-cented to Germany, but according to present intentions the reparations com-mission will send to the German Government Friday a bill of liabilities strictly in compliance with the peace reaty, while simultaneously the Allied Governments will send another part of the plan, as a modification of the treaty favorable to Germany, and which he can accept or not.

It was explained today that what was rin rather than of essentials.

GERMAN CABINET MEETS.

Berlin, May 4.-The German cabine tion was taken relative to the reparations problem.

Just how long the Fehrenbach cabinet will continue in office is believed to depend on the nature of the ultimatum being sent to Berlin by the Allies nd the attitude assumed by the Reichbeen wholly clarified last night.

While the Berlin Government was not nprepared for the refusal to transmit e German reparations proposal to the Allies, contained in the United States state department's reply to Foreign Min-ister Simons, received Tuesday, both the foreign minister and his colleagues In the cabinet had hoped that the answer would be a trifle more precise in indicating the United States' interpretation "clear, definite and adequate pro-als." To this extent the United tates' answer left the cabinet in a con fused state of mind, it was stated. Vesterday's cabinet meeting devoted hours to informal consideration of the United States' reply and the reports oming in from the London conference Speaking unofficially for the Govern ment, a cabinet official later stated the reply had left the cabinet in a quandary in that it failed to point out the direction in which the German counter-proposals were lacking or unsuitable for Germans Not Certain.,

Oppeln, Upper Silesia, May 4 .-Organized Polish forces, estimated at 20,000, have occupied all of Upper Silesia south of a line running from Kosel to Tarnowitz, with the ex-ception of a few large towns, and are moving further northward, ac-cording to information supplied by a member of the inter-allied representation here.

Warsaw, May 4 .- The insurrectionary ovement in Upper Silesia, begun sud denly Monday night, spread rapidly in the districts of Beuthen, Pless, Rybnik and Tarnowitz. According to the newspapers, a Polish civilian fighting organ-ization occupied Kattowitz and other owns after machine encounters with the Germans, but French troops finally con trolled the situation.

Newspaper extra* last evening reported eight Poles killed and sixteen wounded in the Kattowitz region in clashes with the Germans, in which the Poles attempted to gain control of the districts bordering upon the Polish fron-tier. #### SOMETHING WRONG

Warkworth, May 3 .- That there is something wrong with economic and industrial conditions in Canada is the opinion of a Seymour Township farmer who sold ten sheep skins, two calf skins and one cowhide, but did not realize enough from the total proceeds to buy a pair of boots. Between the producer, who sells the raw material, and the consumer, who buys the finished product, there is apparently an immense volume of profits, which is not by any means entirely due to high wages.

Harding Cheered But Wilson Goes Without Notice

Washington, May 4.—A tall, erect man walked into a playhouse here Saturday night. The audience rose and stood respectfully until the tall man and the members of his party were seated in a box. Necks were craned and there was a flutter of excitement through the house when the cheers had subsided. It was the president of the United States.

Across the street a big black limousine drove into an alley at the rear of a vaudeville house. A burly chauffeur opened the door, and aided a bent, faitering, grey-haired man from the car. Leaning heavily on his cane and walking slowly, the bent old man, with a pallor on his face, entered the theatre. He was unnoticed by the crowds rushing to their seats. The old man, who was closely watched by a fine-looking woman slipped into a rear seat.

There were no cheers none stood i respect until he was seated in the last row. With his hands folded on his cane the bent old man watched the antics of the vaudeville artists with a faint smile appearing on his drawn face not and then.

It was Woodrow Wilson former president of the United States.

GUILTY PARTY IN DIVORCE CASE CANNOT MARRY AGAIN

London Ministers Approve Attitude of Senator Power In Canadian Senate—Absolutely No Warrant in the Bible For Remarriage of Divorced Persons, Says Rev. A. C.

religious denominations expressed approval today of a suggestion made by Senator Power that the Canadian Senate place itself on record as considering desirable that the guilty party in divorce case shall not be permitted to marry again.

Rev. A. C. Bingham of the Egerton Street Baptist Church declared that the idea was quite in accordance with absolutely no warrant in the Bible for the remarriage of divorced persons, he said. He admitted that a citizen might have a different viewpoint if he did not take the Scriptures for a guide, but that this would hardly be proper in a Christian community.

While approving legislation to this effect Mr. Bingham expressed the view that the real solution to the divorce question was to be found in a more careful supervision of marriage.

Filed Three Days. "I would suggest that applications for marriage licenses should be filed at least three days before the license age who wished to get married even if their relatives objected.

"Flying Freighters" Manage To Get Back From Far North

Winnipeg, Man. May 4 .- (Canadian Press).-With a few dog sleigh Winnipeg, Man. May 4.—(Canadian Press).—With a few dog sleigh boards, glue made from raw moosehide and some crude blacksmith tools. W. M. Johnson, a Hudson Bay Company steamboat engineer at Fort Simpson, in the sub-Arctic, constructed propellers with which one of the two all-metal Imperial oil Company aeroplanes recently returned from Simpson to Peace River. The story is told this month in the Beaver, magazine of the Hudson Bay Company. The "flying freighters" broke their propellers at Simpson last month on their way to the Fort Norman oil fields, and but for the emergency repairs made by Mr. Johnson both of the machines would have been stranded until the opening of navigation on Slave Lake, about July 1. As it was, one of the machines, commanded by Capt. George Gorman, was enabled to return to Peace River, the starting point.

machines were reported to have arrived safely at Fort Simpson The machines were reported to have arrived safely at Fort Simpson, but the Beaver's correspondent, an eyewitness, states that both machines crashed there, smashing their big propellers. Wooden skis which had been substituted for the usual wheels, gave way under one of the machines as it came down on a four-foot snow bank.

The second plane, with four men, endeavored to continue the trip next day to Fort Norman. It had just taken the air when one ski dipped and the plane was spread-eagled on the snow with a broken under car rlage and a splintered propeller. None of the occupants suffered injury

So great was the amount of undeclared merchandise that the officials could not search the entire vessel, but posted guards pending a continuation today.

Bottles of whiskey and a num-ber of inner tire tubes were found hidden under coal in the bunkers of the Atlantic Fruit Company's liner Glendola. Many of the tubes were filled with contraband liquor. When the inspectors became suspicious of frosted ice cakes, they broke them open and discovered more bottles frozen in the centres of the cakes In all about 180 quart bottl were found, four in ice blocks.

FORMER PASTOR OF THIS CITY RECALLS VICTORIA DISASTER

Rev. Dr. J. Ross, Chief Speaker At Dundas Centre At Home.

The congregational "at home" of the Dundas Centre Methodist Church last evening was largely attended. The gathering was held in connection with the anniversary of the building of the present edifice. Rev. Dr. J. Ross, a former pastor of the old church, was the speaker of the evening. Dr Ross is completing his 54th year in the ministry. He was stationed here 41 years ago. In a reminiscent mood, he told of how he came to be pastor of the old church, and of several humorous incidents which happened during his

"While I was in charge of the old church there were only 230 members," he declared. "Looking over the present records I see there is an actual membership of over 800. The highest amount of money we ever raised for missionary purposes was $403, but last year you raised $3,600. These figures go to show that the church is ex-periencing a wonderful year.

Sad Recollections, Too. "I have many pleasant recollections, but there are always sad ones to darken our path. Probably the saddest of all happened 40 years ago this coming 24th of May, when the pleasure boat Victoria went down in the River Thames and 230 people were drowned. I was in Ingersoll when the word came to us that something terrible had hap-pened in London. A fellow pastor and I got the next train for London and immediately went to the scene of the accident. We tried to comfort the relatives of the victims. The week following the accident I buried as many as eleven people in one day."

Rev. Dr. Thomas Manning and Rev. E. B. Lanceley, two other former pastors, also spoke.

ONLY FIVE PER CENT PENALTY FOR LATE PAYMENTS OF TAXES

Order From Ottawa Will Mean Return of Many Fines.

Good tidings for all delinquent income taxpayers in this city or the surrounding district emanated from the district federal taxation office late Tuesday afternoon, when it was announced that according to instructions received from the commissioner of taxation in Ottawa. the order regarding penalties affixed for non-filing and nonpayment of 1919 and 1920 will be disregarded until further notice.

According to the orders received at the local tax offices the only fine which will be collected is a penalty of 5 per cent of the total amount of the tax for falling to file on or before April 30. Formerly the instructions provided for a fine of 25 per cent of the total tax for non-filing and a minimum of $5 for neglecting to pay the first installment.

If it is decided to impose the 25 per cent penalties for these omissions the amount of such penalties will appear on the official assessment notices which will be issued within a few months.

Taxpayers who paid the penalties in the London office on Monday or Tues-day should present their receipts im-"Buster" Wenige, Less Than

SKIRTMAKING SALE BEGINS TOMORROW

MAKING AND $2.69 TRIMMING...

Tomorrow (Thursday) we begin taking orders for skirts made to measure from materials in the Black and Colored Dress Goods Departments. The popularity of the separate skirt is confronted with the difficulty of having them made up. The beautiful sports skirtings are admired, but if I could only find a dressmaker. To overcome this difficulty, we have arranged to have skirts made to your measure at above very special price for a limited time.

THREE STYLES—We have selected three styles, the season's most popular models—two very smart sports models and one special model for over-stout figures. A splendid opportunity to choose from the many smart skirt materials and have your skirt made without any fuss or bother for this very low price. Skirts for traveling, motoring, holiday or general summer wear.

REFINED SUGAR IS REDUCED 50 CENTS

Prices Are Now on Same Basis as Month Ago.

The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs appears in Canadian Grocer this week: Prices of refined sugar dropped 50 cents per hundred the early part of the week, which brings the price to the same basis as before the advance of four weeks ago. This reduction will hardly affect the trade, as the majority of wholesalers have been selling at irregular prices and generally at the same level as before the last advance. The present reduction is the result of the lower and weak condition of the raw sugar market, and also the fact that refined sugar, in the United States has reached low levels. Raw sugars continue in a weak and unsettled condition and prices show a decline of one-quarter cent below last week's quotations.

Cereals are in a weak position, with lower prices named on rolled oats and cornmeal, Package oats and one brand of corn flakes are also quoted lower. Supplies of shelled French walnuts, both on spot and in primary markets are extremely small, with prices again advanced during the week. Almonds are also in a strong position, and although prices on spot are unchanged, higher prices are inevitable, as quotations are generally lower or close to replacement value. Brazils are weak and lower prices are in sight.

Teas and coffees continue to be strong, with prices in primary markets advanced on all grades. Prunes are easier and lower, but other dried fruits are ruling fairly steady to firm.

Rices are in an unsettled condition, and lower prices can be expected. and lower prices can be expected.

Butter and cheese are somewhat easier, with prices slightly reduced, and as the production is likely to be heavy this season, the tendency is for an easy market for some time. Eggs are in an unsettled condition, principally owing to the export conditions not being any too bright, which, to some extent, is curtailing storage operations.

LINSEED OIL AND TURPENTINE ADVANCE

In its market report for the we Hardware and Metal says: Reductions are noted this week in wrought pipe, wood handles, carpenters' and farriers' tools of various types, some makes of night latches, door bolts, plated butts, carriage hardware, mirrors, emery cloth and Canada plate.

There is an indication that price delines are slowing up on some lines and a somewhat firmer tone is visible on lead products, rope and glass. Linseed oil has stiffened and turpentine has advanced again this week. lines such as bar iron and steel, sheets be stabilized. Some reductions have been made in prices of rolled steel products by U. S. mills and railroad and boat spikes, chain, rivets, etc., are lower. No new developments are re ported on pig iron and the demand is still light. A steady increase is report ed by wholesalers in spring busines and paint manufacturers state that orders are very satisfactory. The demand for heavy hardware is light and fitful. # EVIDENCE AT

Husband of Shooting Victim Tells Different Story To Accused's Brother.

TORONTO, May 3 .- Albert Hallam, father of Stanley Hallam, who is on trial at the assizes here on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Ruby Cross from a bullet alleged to have been fired from a revolver in Stanley Hallam's hand on January 23 last, will be called as a witness in the case tomorrow. William Hallam, brother of the accused, and Mrs. William Hallam gave evidence day, also John Cross, husband of the oman who was shot. Cross' testimony was not the same s William Hallam's with regard to the circumstances connected with ragedy. He stated that Albert Hallam had offered to pay his fare to England if he, Cross, would not turn up at the inquest on Mrs. Cross.

Mrs. William Hallam's evidence was dissimilar in certain matters from that given by her at the inquest and she was crown counsel as an adverse witness.

Different Accounts.
TORONTO, May 3.—A different ac ount of the fight between Stanley and William Hallam, during which Ruby Cross was fatally shot, to that given by William Hallam was told to day by John Cross at the resumption of the trial for manslaughter of Stanley Hallam before Mr. Justice Masten and a jury in the assizes. Cross is the husband of the deceased woman, and witnessed the scuffle of the Hallams, in the house at 12 Wood street, on Janu-

According to William Hallam's story resterday the fight had taken place in he pushed his brother, but in witness' Stanley's bedroom, and there the shot had been fired. No mention of a secand trip downstairs was made, nor of Mrs. Stanley Hallam or the father.

"I don't agree with anything Hallam said." Cross told T. H. Lennox, K.C., counsel for accused. Cross, examined by Crown Counsel Waldron, said he had formerly lived in the Hallam home on Wood street. At the time of the shooting he was sitting in the front room of the house. His wife, her stepfather, Stanley Hallam and himself were together, while Hallam played the piano. Harold Stevenson went upstairs and returned, remarking that the bath-room door was locked. Stanley Hallam Stanley Hallam went upstairs; he heard Mrs. William Hallam crying, and then Stanley said:
"I do not care who is there, they are not going to wash clothes in there." William went to Stanley's bedroom, where witness heard William say to there were two scuffles, or that Wil-Stanley's wife: "Let him call my wife liam had run back from the stairs afte ames, and I'll put a 'keg' on his eye.'

Slipped Downstairs. Names were then passed from Mrs. Stanley Hallam to William, in loud William went upstairs, met Stanley at the top, where Stanley denied having called William's wife a name. The fight followed. Stanley on the senior, went to the scene and asked witness to intervene, but he refused, and went downstairs.

"Still scrapping, they slipped downstairs," said Cross. "At Stanley's bedroom door, they parted. William went back upstairs, and Stanley went to the bottom, where they continued an argument. Mrs. Stanley Hallam "butted in," said witness. "William threw a said witness. "William threw Judge Seeks Information.

"Mrs. Stanley Hallam said: 'If you ion't stop chewing the fat," said ness, "'I'll go and get the gun and shoot the pair of you." Mr. Justice Mastin: "Chew the fat?"
T. H. Lennox, K.C.: "A term used in the war, my lord." "William again went downstairs with his father, when Hallam senior said to Stanley: 'Put that gun away; what do you mean by having it there?' William ran into the room and grabbed his brother." Mr. Lennox objected.

"He said so after he came out," said
Cross. "Mrs. Stanley Hallam said: 'Here they come, William and his father Shoot them!" Witness next heard a scuffle, Stanley saying: "I'll fix him for this."

His wife was standing by his side with the baby in her arms, when she was shot. He felt the bullet go by him.
"She had just bent down to pick up the baby, and was just straightening up when she was shot," said Cross.

There had been no drinking, but Hallam senior had a little drink in him.

he would not show up at the inquest.
"Yesterday," continued the witness "he asked me, outside the courtroom to make it as easy as I could."

Mrs. William Hallam Called.

Mrs. Emily Hallam, wife of William Hallam, said two shots were fired, the first while her husband was holding Stanley by the throat, and thrusting bim against the dresser, and the sec shot while Hallam, senior had hold of Stanley's arm. She obtained possession of the weapon, but her husband tool it from her, saying: "That's loaded." She denied that anyone had said: "Ge the gun" or "shoot." She denied that Crown Prosecutor Waldron called attention to Mrs. Hallam's evidence as being different from that she had given at the inquest, where she stated that her husband had run upstairs and back again. He claimed that the witness was adverse, and suggested that she be taken in charge.

Justice Masten said the crux was whether she was hostile or not. It was doubtful, he said, if depositions made at the inquest could be referred to. T. H. Lennox, counsel for the accused submitted that the witness had told a story which was untrue. At this point court adjourned until afternoon, and Mrs. Hallam was taken in charge by the sheriff and kept apart

Brush teeth for ten days in this new way. We supply the test. See and feel the good effects. Compare them with the old ways.

It will be a pleasant test. And it may bring to you, as it has to millions, a new conception of clean Whiter teeth

One great object is to fight the film—that viscous film you feel. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

Old brushing methods do not effectively combat it. Much is left intact, forming a dingy coat. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Film is what discolors, not the teeth. It forms the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Fight it daily

Dental science has found two methods to effectively fight film. Many careful tests have proved them. Leading dentists everywhere now advise their daily use.

Acts like fruit acids

Pepsodent also brings three other effects, such as fruit acids would bring. It brings them regularly and at proper times.

It multiplies the salivary flow - Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the salivato neutralize mouth acids which cause tooth decay. Modern diet, rich in starch, makes these things

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing, or have head noises, go to your druggist and get i ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ½ pint of hot water, and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head acises should give this prescription a trial.—Advt.

WAR HELPS FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS

Remarkable Drop in Death Rate Due to Improved Conditions.

DECREASE SINCE 1918

Copeland Says Change Is Due Largely to Higher Wages Paid.

New York, May 3 .- The war was not altogether evil in its results, according to experts in tuberculosis, some of whom attribute the remarkable fall in the tuberculosis mortality rate recently announced partly to improved conditions brought about by the war. Tuberculosis mortality rates in New York city show a decrease of 31% per cent since 1918. In 1918 the deaths from this disease were 160 to 100,000 of the popula tion. In 1919 the rate dropped to 123 for 100,000 population, and in 1920 there was another drop to 109 for 100,000 population.

While it is everywhere agreed that the surprising decrease of the last two years is largely due to anti-tuberculosis campaigns and other efforts of health organizations, both public and private, to check the spread of the disease, it is also stated that undoubtedly the improved economic conditions which have prevailed fluring the last two years of high wages have been an important factor in the rather sensational fall of the mortality rate.

Dr. Royal Copeland, commissioner of health, said yesterday, when asked to what he attributed this sudden fall in the mortality rate, that he believed it to be due very largely to improved ecoconditions, based on higher wages.

"Conditions of living have been bet-ter," said Dr. Copeland. "Families have been better nourished, and hope and the awakening of ambition which came to many men and women with the ability to get good work at good prices during and after the war also helped a good deal. When a man is hopeful and ambi-tious, he takes a new lease of life." In 1886, when the fight against tu-berculosis was inaugurated, every seventh funeral in New York was that of a victim of tuberculosis, Dr. Copeland of the population.

Despite the optimistic outlook of the present, Dr. Copeland sounded a note "We must remember that the present good results in tuberculosis are in part cumulative," he said. "The general de-

JAPAN RUSHING NAVY TO EQUAL THAT OF U.S.

To Be On Even Basis in Six Years.

Washington, D. C., May 3 .- Is Japan preparing for war with the United States? This question has been brought to the fore of late by the feverish naval building activities of the Japanese that have developed concurrently with the increasing friction between Tokio and Washington, particularly in connection with the interests of the two nations in the Pacific.

The movement for curtailment of naval armament has been coldly re-ceived in Tokio, while all the available resources of the island empire have been concentrated on naval expansion. Japanese shipways teem with warships under construction, while numerous hattlecraft are being built in the Brit ish Isles for Japanese account. Japan has purchased hundreds of aeroplanes from England and British aviators are to train the Nipponese in the art of aerial warfare. Double Tonnage in Six Years.

To double its naval tonnage and make it nearly equal to the American navy within six years is believed to be the aim of Japan. Reports at the navy department indicate that the Japanese navy will be strengthened 50 per cent by 1924 while the American navy will have increased 19 per cent in that time. In 1927 the Japanese navy will be double its present strength, or nearly equal to the American navy. This does not take into account the secret navy construction in Japan, the extent of which is not

Boston, May 3.—Infielders of the Boston Red Sox think that Babe Ruth's hitting can be cut down. To this end they have worked out a defensive scheme of play that proved effective yesterday. The deployment, said to have been conceived by Stuffy McInnis, puts all the infielders back on the grass beyond the diamond. The third baseman plays a bit to the right of his usual position. The shortstop is almost back of second base, and the second and first basemen play what is virtually a short right field. The pitcher is assigned to cover first base.

In its first test yesterday, the scheme showed results as follows First time up Ruth hit hard to the right of second base. Pratt's position made possible a stop and throw that caught the runner. The next time Ruth struck out, but on his third turn at bat the new defence was tried again. Catching a low curve with a hard swing, Ruth smashed the ball towards right field. McInnis, from his deep a sensational stop, back-handed and continuing his dash beat Ruth by sliding for first base.

TRAIN NO. 30-28. Finding it impossible to pass the receded infield, Ruth, on his fourth time up, cracked a low curve into the right-field bleachers for his sixth home run of the season and his only hit of the Leonardo II., since his sensational race at Lexington, is on the tip of the tongue of most every one interested in the Derby. The son of Sweep is as racy a looking thoroughbred as has been seen on the turf in years and his admirers are counting him a sure winner. They point to his extreme speed and to the fact that he has never been defeated in his five starts. This is truly a wonderful record.

There are some, however, who argue fallible test, as Leonardo II. carried only 103 pounds, whereas the Derby weight is 126 pounds. Many stars of the track have cracked under such a heavy impost when pitted against such classy thoroughbreds as will contest for the $50,000 prize a week from to-

KITCHENER, May 3 .- The Kitchenes Beavers again beat the Hamilton Tigers, the score tonight being 6 to 1. The Tigers presented a rearranged lineup, many rookies being on the team, and the Kitchener team out-played them at all angles of the game. About a home-run. A base on balls, a sacrifice. Sharpe's three-bagger and Norris' single accounted for two more runs. Hamilton had gotten their lone tally in the first on Blair's single and Parker's double. In the fifth Hamilton trotted out a new pitcher, named Henderson, and the Reavers fell on him for derson, and the Beavers fell on him for five hits and three runs, the same being attributable to the dumb fielding on the part of the Hamilton infield. In the last three inning the Beavers went his-less. The second infield played for the home team. Hamilton got three Apprenticeship Needed. Dr. L. W. Gill. director of technical in the department of labor, addressed the conference at this afternoon's session, and laid special stress of young Canadians as long as possible A man's "spirit," he declared, was formed between the ages of 14 and 18. Dr. Gill spoke of the working of the Ontario adolescent school act. Under his act boys and girls were required to attend school during the period when their character was being formed. The ther English-speaking provinces of anada would soon follow Ontario's lead. Seventy per cent of Canadian city children stopped school at 14 years of age. The other 30 per cent continued their education at high school or else-where. So most Canadian children were out of school at the most important period of their lives. Any steps the conference took along the lines of apprenticeship or vocational education should be based on the Ontario act.

There had been no system of balancing supply and demand. Labor was always in favor of the setting up of national machinery to bring jobs and workers together. Out of the war had come a general demand for better organization; means of nationalizing the labor market. In 1918, Parliament had passed the employment offices co-ordination act. The operation of the act was workng out beneficially.

It was hoped to work in co-operation with the technical education department. Then young boys would be trained for the positions for which men were in demand. Junior employment offices were being opened, and boys and girls the lines of work they were best fitted

Check Immigration.

The employment office system would also be valuable in governing immigra-tion. Thus it would be possible to check the bringing of men to Canada when there was no work for them. The set-ting up of employment service councils, national, provincial and local, would also tend to reduce waste money and man power. The employment service was anxious to find a steady keel for the labor market. If things were unsettled, neither men nor employers got the best value for their work. The employment service offices had not yet reached the peak of their efficiency, but they were improved as rapidly as possible

Discuss Housing Problem McC. Quirk, who was in the chair, said the conference had now reached the deliberative stage of its proceedings. Tom Moore, leading the labor groun suggested that the employers submitthe first item on the agenda.

Flat On Its Back.

The building industry today "was practically flat on its back." For March, 1921, contracts let for building totalled only $36,800,000 in Canada, as against $55,700,000 last year. Construction con-tracts all over Canada in the three nonths of 1921 were 35 per cent lower than the same three months last year. The heaviest falling off was during March, when the building outlook should be at its rosiest.

The province of Quebec, where wages were considerably lower, was the only one to show an increase in building this year over the same period of 1920. Contractors found themselves withou work ahead. Unemployment in the building trades was practically 32 per cent in Canada at present. Material must be a general reduction to revive the industry. Workers must agree to a wage decrease to bring the industry to Lormal.

Better Housing the Need. A lower level and a fixed level were needed to revive the building trades. "We are not asking you (labor men) to make any sacrifice," said Mr. Piggott. "Living costs have been shown to be reduced."

OTTAWA, May 3. - By Canadian Press.)-A plea for hands off the wage question; an admission that the rail-ways were losing money owing to the lack of equipment, and the stated in-tention to call Lord Shaughnessy as a witness, were the outstanding features in the proceedings of the special par-liamentary committee on government. owned railways and shipping this vening.

The wage appeal came from B. B.

Problem of Distribution.

Bryce Steward, director of employment service of Canada, referred to the problem of distribution in Canada.

Workers and employers had previously been contending against zone conditions.

John Bruce, 1070HD, of the labor Railways, who said that this problem was opposed, not so much to wage reductions, as to reductions in the standard of living. More and more wages were going in rent. How could a man purchase a home been contending against zone conditions.

Mr. Hanna forecasted an immediate meeting of the railway executives and union heads, with a view to reaching an understooding on was opposed. The war, in many ways, had proved an understanding on wages. This was an eyeopener. England had realized the need of better housing. England was building houses at a rate hitherto unform Hon. A. K. MacLean that he had not been asked for a statement on the wage question.

Lack of Equipment.

The committee devoted a major share Traveling Toward Slums.

"Are we not fast traveling toward slums by compelling three or four families to crowd into a house which should held only a series of the sitting to the examination of E. S. Hungerford, vice-president and operating manager of the Canadian National Railways. Mr. Hungerford said government lines had lost money owing to the lack of equipment, but added that other railways were in the same position. Canadian National Railways had sufficient equipment for present needs. An interesting point, brought out through cross-examination, was that an average of from 16,000 to $2,000 Canadian cars were held in the United States during the last three years. This was partially responsible for the shortage of freight cars for moving the wheat. Another reason for the shortage was that there was heavy demand for cars to move coal.

No Cause for Despair.

C. A. Hayes, vice-president and traffic manager of the Canadian Railways, showed the growth of trade on the C.

N. R., and said the situation was not come to cause despair. one to cause despair.

The determination to call Lord Shaughnessy was voiced by Hon. Charles Murphy, who insisted that this action should be taken. While a definite decision was not taken, it is altogether probable that Lord Shaughnessy will be called for discussion of nessy will be called for discussion of exhausted nerves need to be revitalized. For this purpose there is nothing better than Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Over four million people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results. At all druggists.

Oats—May, $60½c; July, $3½c.

Chicago, May 4.—The market today showed a noticeable tendency to react from the advances which have been the rule of late. Transient gains which were scored were ascribed chiefly to buying on the part of several houses with eastern connections. On the bulges, however, selling pressure increased and the market went well below yesterday's finish. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged to 1c higher, were fellowed by moderate gains all around and then by a general setback.

Corn paralleled the action of wheat. After opening unchanged to ½c up, the market underwent a sag.
Oats were governed by the course of other grains, starting unchanged to %c up and then easing down.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, May 4.—Canada Steamships, at an advance of almost 4 points from last night's closing quotation, featured active trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. This was about the only issue to show a decidedly firmer trend, the general list displaying a tendency to weaken, with Dominion Steel Corporation and Bell Telcphone the worst offenders.

Steamships opened strongly 34 up at 22, and brisk bidding sent the price to 25, the closing being strong at the high mark. Over 200 shares of Steel Corporation were traded in, the stock opening mark. Over 200 Shirtes of Steel Colputer tion were traded in, the stock opening 1% points lower and closing % lower for a net loss of 2 points. Bell Telephone declined 1½ to 105.

CAN FILL BARREL EVERY MINUTE AT NORMAN GUSHER

Special Dispatch to The Vancouver Sun. WINNIPEG, April 16.—While Geological Departments of the Federal Government, of the Interior, and the Commission of Conservation are disposed to be extremely conservative in regard to oil prospects in the Far Northwest, yet it is more than apparent from the activities of the departments that the situation is regarded in a highly favorable light. It is stated that the Imperial Oil Company's well at Fort Norman is a real "gusher," and that out of a two-inch valve placed in the capping of the well an ordinary gasoline barrel can be filled with oil every minute, and that even then the valves have to be opened very slightly, owing to the enormous pressure of oil from beneath. It is the view of departmental experts and the Geological Survey, according to members of Parliament from the Far West, that there is in the northern area one of the greatest oil fields in the world only awaiting further proof by the sinking of wells, and that an area 250 miles in length, and about 35 miles in width, an area of 8,750 square miles, is believed to be underlaid with oil. A scientific machine, based upon gravity, which is said to have worked out successfully in determining oil locations in the California fields, is being tried out, it is to have worked out successions in determining oil locations in the Cali-fornia fields, is being tried out, it is stated, by the departmental experts, and it is understood that the invention will be secured for the practical test the prospentive oil fields. -Vancouver Sun.

The reproduction of a newspaper clipping opposite gives some idea of the extent and activity of the Fort Norman Oil Fields. It brings out the fact that there is oil there, and in vast quantities.

What does this mean? It means that Canada has at last struck oil-to those with sound judgment and foresight it means a chance of a lifetime to get in on the ground floor development of what well-known oil men claim to be the greatest oil fields in the world. Nine months ago the skeptics laughed at the idea of there being oil in quantities in the Canadian West-but the first well drilled in the Fort

Norman fields resulted in a 2,000 bbl. a day gusher. Then they claimed it was impossible to market the oil, due to distance and lack of transportation-today large river seamers run on regular schedule, gasoline launches, motor tractors and pack trains are being employed. Three railway companies have asked for charters to run into this territory, and a company has applied to the province for a pipe line charter. Hundreds of tons of the most modern machinery for development purposes are being rushed forward, and his summer will see the greatest period of activity ever experienced in the north.

IF THIS PROGRESS CAN BE MADE DURING THE WINTER MONTHS, WHAT WILL THE RESULTS BE THIS SUMMER?

Think this matter over very carefully, then you will understand why we advise you to grasp the opportunity to invest in this field before the boom, that is bound to come this summer, sets in.

We offer a limited amount of shares in THE FORT NORMAN OIL COMPANY, LTD.

A company having extensive acreage in the Fort Norman Fields, on the same structure and within one mile of the imperial Oil Company properties, where the big 2,000 barrel gusher referred to above was struck. This company also holds leases on 2,308 acres at Windy Point, on the Great Slave Lake, where the imperial Oil Company are now drilling, with every indication of success.

We offer these shares at

OFFERS BURIAL TO HERMIT, DOG AS "PARADISE"

Man's Love For Pet-Their Tragic End.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 2.-The story ASHDAND, Wis., may 2.—In the transfer of the tragic devotion of an aged recluse for his dog, master and pet, who died together rather than be separated when the dog was denied admission to the county poor farm with his master, has touched the heart of a New York financier. A letter received by Mayor Dhooge of Ashland from George E. financier of New York and London city, for from a street car one may see offers to pay all expenses of providing where John Smith, the hernit, and his pet may be interred to gether.

Smith killed his dog and then shot and killed himself when he was told he must part with his "only friend in the world" DR. R. C. Carter, a lover of animals, is owner of Pineburst, 36,000 acres of mountain ake, valley and stream in North Park,

Carter's letter to Mayor Dhooge fol that one John Smith applied to our county poor farm (Ashland County) for alms, bringing with him his old dog and only companion; that he was refused admittance with his best friend and sole companion-his dog-and that he subsequently shot the dog and then himself in despair.

"If such be the case, and it is possible,
I want to provide a modest but decent burial for him at my own expense, and I want his dog to be interred with him, since in life he could not find a friend among men with enough charity or de-cency to administer to his necessities or compare in affection with the love of his faithful dog friend, for it has beer my experience with dogs in every land inder the sun, that the yellowest dog ever knew was more loyal and devoted than the best man friend any mortal ever had.

"That I could not have belied him in ife does not make it impossible to beg of your honor to wire me at my expense, upon receipt of this letter, if I can serve the old man on his long, long ourney in unknown lands, and to that end keep his one and only faithful friend dog-with him, indentured to his existence for all time by the blood sacrifice for which no greater man on earth has ever been able to boast in all the ages.

"Have some undertaker place the man and dog side by side in two modest coffins and bury them in a lot, for which I will pay upon receipt of advices and information required.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3.—Radium is an illustration of how the magic wand of modern science has verified an ancient belief, that of the transmuta tion of metals, in a manner that upsets preconceived scientific theories, according to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell In connection with the visit to the United States of Mme. Marie Sklodow ska Curle, the National Geographic Society has issued the following bulle tin concerning her discovery of radium, "the great puzzle of the twentieth century." based on a communication from

"Radium has recently upset our mos cherished theories of matter and force," writes Dr. Bell. "The whole subject of chemistry has to be rewritten and our ideas of the constitution of matter entirely changed. Here is a substance which emits light and heat and electricity continuously without any apparent source of supply. It emits light in the dark, and in a cool room maintains itself constantly at a higher temperature than its environment. "It emits the Roentgen rays without any electrical machinery to produce them, and we have now discovered emanating from that substance several different kinds of rays of the unknown or X-ray variety; and we now recognize the Alpha, Beta and Gamma rays as distinct varieties, having different prop-"Though radium behaves like an ele-

"Our forefathers believed firmly in the transmutation of metals, one into the other, and vainly sought a means of transmuting the baser metals into gold. Radium shows that there is some foun. dation for the transmutation theory and that at least some of the so-called elements originate by a process of evo lution from other elements quite dis-tinct from themselves. The body expresses the mind and soul. Gestures, poses and expres-sions of the eyes betray to the cb-servant student of character the mental and spiritual state of any person, child or adult. It is strangely true, moreover, that the body can to a large extent cause a state of mind by just sees others express true reverence, kneeling in prayer, with closed eyes and folded hands, may not understand what he sees, but he feels an impu's to do the same thing, and as his little body takes on the impress of that feeling, his soul comes in time to share it.

You cannot teach your child any. thing about his instinct for reverence, unless you feel and express your ovn. He can best learn what you know of that noblest of human instincts sharing your expression of it. Empty expressed, will mold him inevitably

What Would Have Happened If You Couldn't Have Secured a Nurse?

You know what it is after days of sickness in the home-everyone tired out-everything going wrong and the patient needing more attention, and expert attention at that, daily.

It is then that the nurse is needed.

Yet there are hundreds of cases each year where a nurse cannot be afforded, where mothers, children must suffer needlessly because of insufficient care. Many of these cases are not serious enough for a hospital, yet there is suffering there and help needed.

It is for such cases that the Victorian Order of Nurses offer their services. These trained women make pre-natal visits, attend beds of suffering, answer night calls for those who cannot afford to pay the high fees of the professional nurse.

The Victorian Order of Nurses is one of the fourteen organizations that will be kept up during 1921 by the United Welfare Fund.
