THE MOTHER BROKE DOWN

When She Learned That Her Young Son was Liable To Imprisonment

BOYS IN POLICE COURT

A bunch of youthful offenders, ranging from ten to fifteen years, all charged with theft, were up in Police Court this morning. All pleaded guilty. Some of them appeared to feel sorry, and others seemed to think it was all a big joke, and quite a novel thing to be brought up before the magistrate, under guard of a big policeman. The parents of the children, who were present, did not seem to think that it was all such a big joke, however, and once more this morning a mother's tears were added to the many that have been shed around the prisoners' pen.

Two young boys, aged 15 and 16 years respectively, were charged with stealing $10 from Jerry Couture. Both pleaded guilty, and were remanded till Tuesday morning for sentence. The mother of one of the boys when she heard that the youthful offender was liable to a term in penitentiary, broke down and cried as she left the court room.

The trio of culprits who next faced Judge Houston were rather bright looking boys, the oldest of whom was eleven years. The other two boys were only ten. The little chaps were charged with stealing two pillows, a lady's wrapper and a glass fruit dish from A. R. Allan's late residence on Queen street. These articles were the property of Duncan Vickery, who purchased them at Mr. Allan's sale Wednesday.

As soon as he missed the articles, Mr. Vickery informed the police, and shortly afterwards Officer Pete Dezella located the boys and the pillows. The boys told the magistrate that they took the articles to put their "shacks" which they are furnishing up for the summer months. They all pleaded guilty, and Judge Houston reserved sentence till this afternoon at five o'clock.

Quite a smooth piece of sneak thieving has been reported to the police by Mrs. Zakoor, who runs the fruit store in the Algonquin Block.

Yesterday was quite a busy day with Mrs. Zakoor, and in her hurry in the morning she forgot a purse containing $28 on one of the candy stands in the store. Later when she went to look for it, the purse was gone.

Two small boys who had been loitering around the store were suspected of taking the purse, but as Mrs. Zakoor did not know who they were she could not give any definite information to the police. While she was down laying an information, however, her little twelve-year-old daughter, who had seen the boys in the store, called forth on the street and played the role of detective so successfully that she located both the boys and the purse. When Mrs. Zakoor was leaving the Police Station, she saw her little girl had two boys cornered in front of the Miles Hotel, and when she later made a search of the boys' clothing she found the purse and the money on one of them. The boys, however, made themselves scarce before Mrs. Zakoor could return and get a policeman. She is quite satisfied in having got her purse and her money back.

Only One Suitable Application Received To Fill Vacancy In Collegiate—Special Meeting Of Educational Board

A special session of the Board of Education was held in the Council Chambers in Harrison Hall Thursday evening for the purpose of taking up a number of urgent matters before the Board. All were much pleased to see Dr. George T. McKeough resume his seat in the chair Thursday evening. On account of his recent illness, the doctor has had to absent himself from the Board meetings for some time. Those present were Dr. McKeough, Dr. Duncan, and Messrs. Morley, Richards, Somerville, McArthur, McCorvie, Brackin and Secretary Macnabb.

Mr. McArthur for the Internal Management committee, reported that only four applications had been received in reply to the advertisement placed in the Toronto papers for a junior master to take Mr. Jennings' place at the Collegiate. Of these four, only one could be considered. Two of the applicants were not qualified for the position, and the third was still attending Normal College, and wouldn't finish there till June. The one application which might be considered, was that from D. S. Fraser, of Kingston. Mr. Fraser claims to have finished his final year at Queen's University, to have had three years experience in Public School teaching, and three years in High School and University work. He is at present working in the science department of Queen's University, and he applied for the local position as a temporary one till June, when he will return to his present work. The salary asked for was $100 per month.

Mr. McArthur said Mr. Fraser is apparently a specialist in science, but he does not mention his qualifications as regards history and English. Dr. McKeough—He must, however, feel confident that he can teach these subjects or he would not apply.

Principal Twohey, who was asked for his opinion, said that it was evident that Mr. Fraser was specializing in science. He did not give any definite information as to his qualifications along the lines required at the local school.

It was moved by Mr. Morley, seconded by Mr. Richards, that the matter be left in the hands of the Internal Management committee and the Principal with power. Carried.

O. E. A. REPRESENTATIVE.

Dr. McKeough—The matter of appointing a representative to the Ontario Educational Association convention may be dealt with at tonight's meeting. Last year the Public School Board appointed Mr. Morley to represent the Board at this meeting, but Mr. Morley didn't think the city would get value received for the matter of attending this convention and he didn't go. However, this Board has the privilege of appointing a representative, and he knows that any member who may be senior or junior to the city which he represents.

Mr. Richards—It is well that the Board should be represented at this meeting, as I believe that the benefits which may be derived are well worth the expenditure. It was formerly the custom to send two representatives—one from each of the old Boards—but now that we are a combined body, I should think that one representative would be sufficient.

Mr. Brackin moved that Mr. Somerville be appointed. Mr. Somerville, however, begged to withdraw before Mr. Brackin's motion was seconded. Mr. Richards moved, seconded by Mr. McArthur, that Mr. McCorvie be appointed.

Dr. McKeough—Mr. McCorvie is the oldest member at the Board who has not previously had the honor.

Mr. Richards' motion when put to a vote was carried unanimously.

CENTRAL SCHOOL OVERCROWDED

Mr. McArthur drew attention to the fact that the attendance in the Part II classes in the Central school has increased very rapidly since the warm weather set in, and the attendance is at present as high as 55 in two of the rooms, and a number of pupils had to be removed into the Junior Second room. As a consequence the Junior Second teacher has two classes to attend to. The matter had been called to Mr. Mc-

THAW MAKES CALM REPLIES

His Answers to Members of Lunacy Commission Were Rational

UNDER FIRE TWO HOURS

New York, March 30.—Harry K. Thaw for two hours on Thursday submitted to a running fire of questions by the three men appointed by Justice Fitzgerald as a commission to lunacy to determine his present state of mind.

The examination was exhaustive and, when adjournment was taken until Saturday morning, no one connected with the hearing would discuss the details of the enquiry.

Thaw went willingly and confidently before the commission and, when the two-hour session was over, his attorneys appeared with smiling faces and declared they were more than satisfied with the course of the proceedings.

District Attorney Jerome hurried away from the criminal court building, declining to discuss the commission's work.

Limit Scope of Enquiry. The most important feature of the proceedings was the decision of the commission to limit the scope of its enquiry to the exact language of the statute—to determine solely the question whether or not Harry Thaw is able to understand the nature of the court proceedings against him and to advise his counsel rationally.

To put Thaw thoroughly at ease, the commissioners addressed their questions to him in a conversational tone and in a casual manner, as though he were in conference with them. Counsel Well Satisfied. It is said Thaw answered the questions calmly and went into lengthy explanations. Referring to the day's proceedings, Mr. Hartridge said: "Harry came out with flying colors. He remembered more about the case than I did. We are confident of the outcome."

It is said the commission purposes to make Thaw narrate the trial from its beginning to test his memory of what has occurred in court. To this end, it was said he was questioned about the part he took in the selection of the jury.

Report On Monday. The commission may finish its work to-day and be ready to report to Justice Fitzgerald by Monday. The jury will report in court once more at 10.30 o'clock Monday morning, and it is the hope of the presiding judge and that of the commission that the master of the defendant's sanity will be disposed of by that time.

If the commission should submit a report to the effect that Thaw fully understands the nature of the proceedings against him and has rationally advised his counsel, Justice Fitzgerald will simply direct that the trial proceed without making public the commission's findings.

If the report is against Thaw, Justice Fitzgerald will announce the fact from the bench, and if he deems the prisoner's release dangerous to the public peace and safety he will sign an order directing his confinement in some state hospital for the insane, probably Mattawan.

Yesterday being Good Friday, there was no session of the lunacy board, and Thaw spent a quiet day in the Tombs preparing for a renewal of his mental test this morning. The session of the commission will again be private.

Any medical advice which the commission may desire will come from Dr. Leopold Putzel, one of its members.

Thaw's counsel are so sanguine of the outcome of the lunacy enquiry that yesterday they were making plans for the resumption of the trial next week. It seems now that, if the trial is resumed, the defence will probably announce that it rests without further testimony.

If the trial goes on it should not last more than three or four days. Hamilton, Alienist, May Testify. From sources assumed to be authentic, it was announced late last night that Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, alienist, would be called upon to testify to-day before the lunacy commission which is to determine whether Harry K. Thaw is competent to understand the nature of the proceedings in his trial for killing Stanford White and to rationally advise his counsel.

KODAKS AND CAMERAS

Photography has worked wonders along the road of scientific research; but of what value is the photograph showing the flight of a comet compared with the Kodak of baby taking his first steps? The photographic record of so-called "seismic disturbances" may appeal to a few dry scientists, but it is insignificant in interest when alongside the Kodak of the four-year-old, proud in the possession of his first trousers with pockets.

Strongly as photography appeals in every phase of living interest, in science, history, travel, sport, 'tis in its home side that it touches most vitality. We not only sell the Kodak, but we show how pictures are taken and made.

Fred W. Toby Writes To The Planet From The North West—Great Deals Being Made In Real Estate—
Interesting Figures

Meota, March 11, 1907.
The Planet,
Chatham, Ont.:

Dear Planet,—It is some time since I wrote anything concerning the West to The Planet readers; the reasons I shall give later. In 1904 and 1905 I wrote letters to several papers and received a great number of letters from all over, most of which I answered personally. In fact, I wrote between 400 and 500 letters in those two years, and I'll take my oath that I never received enough from any one to pay for the postage stamps and stationery I used. However, I've never kicked about that, because it was a pleasure to me to write. In 1906 I was appointed county secretary-treasurer and assessor, and if ever I got tired of writing letters I did that year, and have not got over it yet for I hold the position for this year also.

I have received several letters lately from people asking me about North Battleford property, and I have determined to answer in a general way the questions through The Planet, and incidentally give the readers of the G. H. J. an idea how westerners do things.

In the first place I'll relate an incident that occurred which made me think I was wasting my fragrance on the desert air in trying to convince easterners that the west was worth anything. A certain reverend gentleman and a business man in Chatham ask my advice re investing in farm land at Jack Fish Lake. I replied in the affirmative. They then gave me power to buy a section between them. This I did, had agreements drawn up and forwarded to them for acceptance. They changed their mind before the papers reached them and backed out, and I was out three trips to town and my expenses. Three weeks after the half section that the business man was to get was sold at an advance of $3 an acre on the price he was to pay, and last summer the other half was sold for $14.50 an acre, and the reverend gentleman was paying $9.50 I think. Rev. Mr. Haist, from Stratford, didn't lose his nerve; bought section seven at $9 an acre and sold it to Mr. Peek for $15.50 an acre last summer. If any one doubts my statements write to the parties mentioned. This shows you that I wasn't giving the Chathamites any wrong advice when I said it would pay them to buy on speculation.

When in town the other day I picked out a couple of business lots for two Chathamites, and if they don't quadruple their investment in less than four years then I'm a Dutchman. In 1903, when we came up, you could buy business property in Saskatoon at $40 a foot on the best street. To-day what is it worth? The same business lots have changed hands at $2,000 a foot. To-day you can buy North Battleford business lots at from $20 to $100 a foot. What will it be in 1910? Saskatoon has no better agricultural country around it than North Battleford. The railroads are making Saskatoon what it is, and the railroads that are surveyed and being surveyed into North Battleford will make it a good town. It is an important divisional point on the C. N. R. and the C. P. R. have not gone to the expense of building such a fine station, freight sheds, roundhouse and coal hoist if they expected no more business at that station than they have now. The Imperial Bank, Bank of Commerce and Bank of B. N. A. are not buying new corner lots and letting the contracts for cement blocks if North Battleford has not a future. Had my brother Roy when he was here in 1905, invested $1,000 in Main street property then he could have turned it over for $10,000 now. He knows what the town looked like then—two hotels, a station, a couple of stores, lumber yard, blacksmith shop, and a great number of tents. What is it to-day? It is a busy town of over 1,000 inhabitants. Main and King streets have blocks of fine business buildings. Edward street has its fine residences and lumber yards, livery stables, etc., while houses small and large are to be seen on all the surveyed portion of the town—about 320 acres. Chisholm's subdivision, a mile out, has at least 25 substantial houses built there. There are four very large hotels; they have sidewalks, telephone, and they are installing an $80,000 waterworks and electric light system this coming spring and summer. They have a $5,000 skating rink, the finest I ever saw, and the contract is let for a $6,000 school, to be completed this summer for the fall term.

What makes me sure that North Battleford is going to be a big city is the fact that real estate is changing hands every day at increased prices. Winnipeg, Regina and Saskatoon business men in syndicates are buying blocks of Main and King street property. These men are western business men who know the present and future values of real estate in promising western towns. One block opposite the Bank of Commerce was bought by parties in Winnipeg at $900 a lot. They are on the market now at $900 to $200. (Mr. Millar, the blacksmith, bought a block and a half of lots last winter cheap. He turned over the half a block and cleared himself.

Just wait until the spring rush starts, North Battleford will be a distributing point for settlers for two or three years yet, and that means that the population will be increased by hundreds each year. Of those who leave their homes intending to homestead, a great number go no farther than the towns, especially those with money. They see opportunities to invest their pile without working and they act. All the land within three miles of North Battleford in one direction has been bought up at $125 an acre, in the west at $50 an acre. The C. P. R. own a section cornering the townsite that you can't buy at any price. The Hudson Bay Company put a small portion of their reserve on the market lately and the subdivided portion was bought up in a day. North Battleford is not like a mining town, with a life as lasting as the mine. It depends more on the rich agricultural country around it and the railroads heading for it.

The Neckband Shirt

Any NECKBAND Shirt is more comfortable than any ordinary shirt.

One reason is the care we take to fit the neckband properly. Shaped to support the collar without riding on the throat or shoulder muscles—true to size exactly—buttonholes accurately placed—doubly sewn to stand wear and laundry-racking.

Every NECKBAND Shirt is made throat with the same idea—to give you most for the money when you

Demand the Brand

NECKBAND

(In red script below the neckband.)

The growth will be rapid but permanent. Nearly all the new blocks on King and Main street that are being built are creditable cement block buildings. The Imperial Bank Building will be the finest building in the town. Chisholm's new cement block store will be an imposing structure. These men are not building for the present only, but for the future.

Summing up all I have said I can give these reasons for advising all who write, to invest in North Battleford real estate:

It is the chief divisional point on the main line of the Canadian Northern.

It now has a population of nearly 1,500 and is not two years old. It will have a population of 5,000 in less than two years more. Branch railroads are radiating from it, making it a distributing centre.

THE NORTHWAY CO., Limited

Real estate in distributing centres has made money for its investors, for that centre is bound to grow.

Business property is very cheap in North Battleford for its prospects. Prominent business men in Regina, Saskatoon and Winnipeg are buying business property here.

The surveyed portion of the town of North Battleford contains but 320 acres, that of Saskatoon 4,960 acres. North Battleford occupies a very similar position to Saskatoon in position, surrounding country and railroad facilities. What Saskatoon has made for its investors, North Battleford will make for them in a very few years. Don't think I'm paid for writing this letter, for I'm not. I'm just answering inquiries. If 99 per cent. of what I say isn't true, and doesn't come true, then remember me in your will.

You can buy lots from $60 to $2,000, according to location. In three years these same lots will be selling at from $300 to $10,000. In 1904 you could buy annex lots in Saskatoon at $75 each. To-day the same lots are worth from $150 to $300, with no sellers. To-day you can buy annex lots at from $60 to $100 in North Battleford. What will they sell at in 1910? If you have got any money to invest take my advice and put it in real estate. It's no thing to me one way or the other, but one thing I won't do again, and that is pick out lots or anything else until I know where I get off at.

Yours, etc.,
F. W. TOBEY.

P. S.—Since writing this letter I have found out definitely that I was way behind the times. North Battleford has actual population of 1,400. Dr. Sparling, the chairman of the Board of Trustees, told me the contract was let for a $23,000 school instead of a $6,000, as I said. Mr. Maher also told me the same. He is a trustee. There are five lumber yards instead of three; and a new $80,000 hotel to be built on King street.

DON'T USE GREASY LINIMENTS.
A century ago they were popular. To-day people want something easy to apply, certain in results, and, above all, a clean liniment. When Nerviline is applied aches and pains disappear, as the pores absorb its soothing, healing properties. Nerviline penetrates to the core of the pain, eases instantly, and leaves no oily, bad smelling memory behind. Good to take in, capital to rub on, and five times more powerful in destroying pain than any oily liniment. Don't fail to get a large 25c. bottle.

Miners Fail to Agree.
Calgary, March 28.—The failure of the operators and miners to reach an agreement after a prolonged conference makes it probable that there will be a strike. The conference is expected to end to-day.

King of Siam Goes to Europe.
Bangkok, Siam, March 28.—The King of Siam, Chulalongkorn I., started yesterday on his European trip. The crown prince, Chordia Maha Vajiravul, will act as regent during the King's absence.

SILVER BIRD is surrounded by the greatest producing mines in the Cobalt District.

SILVER BIRD is absolutely inside property, consisting of twenty acres (patented), being the west half of the northeast quarter of the north half of Lot 3, Concession 6, Coleman.

SILVER BIRD is a mine in full operation, with two 25 h.p. boilers, steam hoist, steam drills and all machinery and buildings necessary to complete an operating mine.

SILVER BIRD
WILL POSITIVELY
ADVANCE TO 50 CENTS
ON OR BEFORE
MAY 10TH.

Recent advice received from Superintendent Gauthier states that the shaft is now down 107 feet, that he has opened up two new veins showing much higher values, and that he will immediately commence drifting. He says he expects soon to encounter the Great O'Brien and La Rose vein.

SILVER BIRD

NOW 25 CENTS PER SHARE

Have you bought any SILVER BIRD? If not you had better buy it now. You must buy SILVER BIRD now if you want it at the bottom price. It was 15 cents per share last week. It is now 25 cents per share. It will be 50 cents per share shortly, and before long everybody will be buying it at from One Dollar to One Dollar and Fifty Cents per share. Take our advice and buy now.

SILVER BIRD has advanced to 25 cents per share. Didn't we tell you it would do so? We tell you now it will be selling at 50 cents per share within the next few weeks. Watch SILVER BIRD. It has started and will not stop till it gets above par. Buy it now at 25 cents per share before it advances again. It is sure to do so. Buy it and keep it and you will be able to get One Dollar per share for it within the present year—possibly within six months.

That is our advice. We are in a position to judge. This advance to 25 cents per share is a legitimate, meritorious advance, brought about by recent developments highly favorable to the SILVER BIRD MINE. We believe that SILVER BIRD is a better and safer purchase at 25 cents per share to-day than it has been in the past at 15 cents. If you have any SILVER BIRD shares hold on to them. Don't be induced to part from them. Buy more if you can. Hold them and reap the great profits that are coming to all holders of SILVER BIRD shares.

Remember what we tell you. Everybody will want SILVER BIRD before long, and will be glad to get it anywhere, at from One Dollar to One Dollar and Fifty Cents per share. Buy SILVER BIRD. Hold SILVER BIRD. Watch SILVER BIRD.

Considering the inside location of the property, development done, results obtained, low capitalization and the large amount of shares in the treasury, this is unquestionably one of the best bargains (if not the greatest bargain) that have been offered in Cobalt mining shares.

SILVER BIRD is working two shifts and is in full operation both day and night, sinking upon three veins and in the same formations identically as in the O'Brien, Timmins and Right of Way mines and lying immediately between these mines and the Green-Meehan, Red Rock, Cobalt Contact and Nipissing Extension. The veins are broadening out and are increasing in values with depth, now 107 feet in shaft.

SILVER BIRD has no indebtedness; there are no incumbrances against the property or stock of the company. The capitalization of The Silver Bird Cobalt Mines, Limited, is but $1,500,000.00, par value of the shares $1.00 each, fully paid and non-assessable, and no personal liability, with 500,000 shares in the treasury.

The Knock-out Blow.
 The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters.
 From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing hope to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ of the prize ring as well as in life. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr.
 Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.
 Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 31 cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps.
 Address Dr. Pierce as above.

INTERNATIONAL S. S. LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

Easter Lesson—I. Cor., 15, 12-21, 55-58.

Golden Text—"Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that are asleep."

From the 12th to the 20th verses of our lesson, Paul describes the pitiable condition we were in had our Lord Jesus Christ been only a man, and died in similar conditions of human weakness to our own, and with no power to conquer death. Were it so he never would have written
 "As in Adam all died, so in Christ shall all be made alive." Man loses the life of his body through sin, and all men have the life of their bodies restored by Christ.

Paul is inspired to tell us every member of Adam's family gets resurrection and endless existence whether he will or he won't. Whether this will be eternal life or "eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of His might," is conditional upon what man has done with that Jesus, who shall call him from the tomb.

To go out of life because we must is misery, to go out because our wills accept the necessity as the will of God, is victory. The one is death indeed, the latter is the life of entering and being entered by a larger life; we are only following our Lord within the veil where our forerunner hath for us entered, who said,
 "He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness." What a blessedness to have Him with us in spirit, when the stillness and loneliness of death, parts us from all other friends but Himself. He is but giving us an experience like His own on Calvary. "Father, into thy hands
 I commend my spirit"; or like martyred Stephen, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."

Our spirits reach out—as a babe for its mother's bosom—to be "safe in the arms of Jesus"; not to be in earth's cold clay or ocean's depths, but to be closer to Him than ever before, for we know whom we have believed, and it is He who hath made us ready—as He did the dying thief—for the paradise of God.
 Death, after all, is but sowing the seed for a great harvest of life, when all men shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. But thanks be to God who giveth us the victory, through our risen Lord; victory for steadfast, immovable, and abounding work.

HOW TWO BEAUTIFUL WOMEN CURED PELVIC CATARRH BY TAKING PE-RU-NA.

Headache, Backache and Weakness Are Symptoms of Pelvic Catarrh.

Recommends Pe-ru-na to Other Sufferers.

Miss Edith Reams, 723 North Main street,
 Dayton, Ohio, writes:
 "I suffered for some time with both lung and female troubles.
 "I had been under the treatment of a good physician for about nine months without obtaining any relief, when Peruna was recommended to me.
 "After taking twelve bottles of this medicine I have completely regained my health.
 "I am pleased to recommend Peruna to any one suffering from the above ailments."

The organs of the pelvis, like other internal organs of the body, are lined by mucous membranes.
 These membranes are liable to catarrh the same as the mucous membranes in any other part of the body.
 Pelvic catarrh may be caused by the extension of catarrh from other parts of the body.
 Or, it may be brought on by overwork,
 by irritating discharges and by excesses of various kinds.
 When the organs of the pelvis once become the seat of catarrh, various derangements arise which are called by different names.

A long list of diseases, which cannot be discussed in public print, some of them peculiar to the female sex, others common to both sexes, are caused by catarrh of the pelvic organs.
 Local treatment does not seem to be of any use.
 Some of the organs are so located as to be beyond reach.
 Peruna is an internal, systemic remedy.
 It relieves catarrh wherever located in the human body.
 Thousands of cases of pelvic catarrh have been relieved by the internal use of Peruna.

Peruna aims to relieve catarrh only.
 Peruna is not a cure-all, but can be relied upon to relieve catarrh in all its various phases, locations and stages.

Followed Dr. Hartman's Advice.
 Mrs. Lizzie Lohr, 1155 W. 18th street,
 Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I take pleasure in writing you, thinking there may be other women suffering as I did. I was run down so far that I had to sit down to do my cooking—I was so weak. The doctors wanted to operate on me. At last I wrote to Dr.
 Hartman, telling him how I was, and he told me how to take Peruna. I did as he told me, and now I am cured."

Doctored a Year With No Relief—Health Restored By Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. Sophia Caldwell, box 857, Nashville, Tenn., writes:
 "After doctoring for a year and finding no relief from leucorrhoea resulting from prolapsed uteri, and which was sapping my life force away, I finally tried Peruna, and when I found that it was helping me every day, it seemed almost too good to be true.
 "But, it not only helped me, it cured me and in a very short time. I am now enjoying the best of health.
 "I am strong and free from pain, and I certainly feel that all praise and honor are due to Peruna."

Peruna aims to relieve catarrh only.
 Peruna is not a cure-all, but can be relied upon to relieve catarrh in all its

MEN SWEEP OVERBOARD

C. P. R. Liner Manitoba Arrives At St. John In Safety

FIVE DAYS OVERDUE

St. John, N. B., March 30.—After a terrible experience in one of the worst storms of the winter, the C. P. R. liner Manitoba reached port Thursday forenoon from Liverpool nearly five days overdue. The Manitoba sailed from Liverpool on March 13, having on board 1,343 passengers, which included 69 saloon, 138 second cabin and 1,146 steerage. On the fourth day out from Liverpool the storm, the worst ever experienced by Captain Evans, was encountered. A fierce gale lashed the seas in fury, the passengers were deathly sick, and all on board put in a most miserable week. Seas continually broke over the steamer, and at times she was practically helpless. The Manitoba ran into a veritable field of icebergs and passed at close range no less than fifteen of them, the steamer during the storm having several narrow escapes. The weather cleared on Saturday last, and although Sunday was rather rough, no further hardships were experienced on the run to St. John.

On March 15, the third day out, one of the crew was lost overboard, falling from the bridge deck while engaged in cleaning. He was Richard Davies, a native of England. A repetition occurred on Wednesday night about 11.30 o'clock, while the Manitoba was off Brier Island. One of the sailors, named Crabtree, an Englishman, missed his footing and was never seen afterwards. A boat was quickly manned and beat about the vicinity for two hours, but without results. Of the total passenger list only 75 are for the United States.

With hardly an exception the passengers are English people of the right class, and look as if they would make valuable citizens.

On arrival here they presented a pitiable appearance, all showing effects of violent attacks of seasickness.

TRIED TO FOLLOW BABY.

Demented Mother Tries to Squeeze Through Port Hole into Sea.

New York, March 30.—A demented mother threw her 14-months old baby into the sea, and then attempted to follow, according to the officers of the steamer Konig Albert, which arrived here yesterday from Genoa.

Mrs. Florena Aquila embarked with her husband and five of her eleven children, at Naples. One son already was in America.

Early in the voyage Mrs. Aquila and the infant daughter contracted measles and were sent to the ship's hospital.

The mother's mind became affected, and Wednesday last she thrust the infant through a port hole and attempted to follow.

A seaman saw the body of the child fall from the port hole, and, while the ship was being stopped, attendants found Mrs. Aquila trying to force her body through the port hole. She was rescued.

No trace of the infant's body was found.

A BIG DEAL

The 2 T's have recently purchased a lease in Hamilton on one of the largest stores in that city. The lease has seven years more to run, and the 2 T's were successful in having it transferred. The city of Hamilton is growing very fast and rents are exceedingly high, the lease having cost $5,000.

Formerly the store was a billiard room and had a floor surface of 165 feet by 35 feet. Several inside fittings and front fixtures will be put in, and the store will be conducted on the same principle as the one in this city.

The most up-to-date clothing, furnishings, hats, shoes, etc., will be put in stock and the store will be one of the leading ones in Hamilton. It has not yet been decided as to whether Mr. Tobey or Mr. Trudell will take the management.

Hamilton is a progressive city. Stores that rented for $900 two years ago are now rented for $1,500. The city is on the boom and the 2 T's are in the game.

Twelve years ago on Feb. 15th, the 2 T's went into business, and were given by some merchants six months to last. They now have three of the most up-to-date stores on the continent. They have been very progressive and deserve credit. With their three stores, Hamilton, Wallaceburg and Chatham, they will be able to buy in such large quantities that extraordinary values will be given.

Hard work, perseverance and honest dealing has placed them where they are, and they are to be congratulated on their success.

Happiness cannot be measured from a monetary point of view.

OPEN PUBLICITY THE BEST GUARANTY OF MERIT.

When the matter of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on its bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full on its formula and that it will bear the most thorough investigation.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is a medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which takes his patients into his full confidence by open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed.

It interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. It's free for the asking.

TROOPS WILL OCCUPY OUDJA.

Germany Approves Action—Sultan Expected to Yield.

Oran, Algeria, March 28.—French occupation at Oudja is probable today, as Gen. Liautey, the commander of the column of occupation, has had to consult with Gen. Serriere, commander of the Nineteenth Army Corps, who is in the south of Algeria, in order to draw up a plan of action. Telegraphic communication with the south is slow. The French mission, now at Oudja, under Capt. Mangin, has been recalled.

Proper and Inevitable.

Berlin, March 28.—The occupation of Oudja, Morocco, by French troops is regarded at the Foreign Office here as being a proper and inevitable step, if it be confined simply to punitive measures for the murder of a French citizen, and is without ulterior objects. It is assumed here officially that France will fully observe her arrangements entered into at Algiers. The German attitude is one of alert observation. Any modification of that attitude will depend on the development of the French plans.

Sultan Expected to Yield.

Paris, March 28.—The Sultan of Morocco is expected to yield promptly to all the claims formulated by the commander of the French armored cruiser Jeanne D'Arc, now at Tangier, as soon as he is convinced that the French attitude is inflexible and that France has the unanimous support of the powers.

LANDLORDS ARE BURNED.

Revolting Cruelties By Peasants In the Balkans.

Bucharest, Roumania, March 28.—The measures proposed by the Government to meet the demands of the revolted peasantry, and end the civil war, which is devastating Moldavia and Wallachia, were announced in yesterday's issue of the official Gazette, in the shape of a proclamation issued in the name of King Charles. The royal proclamation appeals for the patriotic co-operation of the people to secure the re-establishment of tranquillity, and announces that the Sovereign has agreed to the immediate suppression of some of the heavy taxes, while hereafter the farm lands will be cultivated by the State, or leased direct to the peasants. Not one of the larger syndicates hitherto engaged in farming vast tracts of land will be allowed to hold more than 2,000 acres.

Burned Their Victims.

Forty peasants were killed March 25 in a hard fight with troops in the Mosaic district. The insurgents in that section cut to pieces and burned some of their victims.

A stubborn encounter occurred Tuesday at a point on the Guigevo road, about 60 miles from Bucharest, where 4,000 insurgents met a strong detachment of troops. The latter attacked the revolted peasants with cavalry, as well as infantry, but the military commander ultimately was obliged to use artillery before he was able to force the peasants to retreat.

Hacked to Pieces.

London, March 28.—A special despatch from Sofia, Bulgaria, says that, according to some of the Roumanian refugees who have arrived on the Bulgarian side of the Danube, the insurgent peasantry has been guilty of the same ruthless cruelties which usually mark the feuds in the Balkans. Many of the landlord class have been burned to death, after their bodies and limbs had first been rolled in thick twists of hay or straw. Even children, the refugees add, have been hacked to death by the revolted peasants.

Investigates Telephones.

Regina, Sask., March 28.—The following resolution, dealing with Government-owned telephones, has been adopted unanimously by the Legislature.

"That, while the House favors the principles of Government-ownership and control of a telephone system for the province, it is of the opinion that, before any active measures are taken for the inauguration of such a system, the province should make a thorough enquiry into the working out of a similar system in Canada and elsewhere, and the steps already taken by the Government with this object in view, should be continued in order that the Legislature, at its next session, may be in a position to deal with this important question."

New York Central Indicted.

New York, March 28.—Indictments charging manslaughter in the second degree were returned yesterday against the New York Central Railroad; Ira A. McCormick, general superintendent, and Alfred H. Smith, vice-president, in connection with the fatal wreck of the Brewster express on the Harlem division last month. McCormick and Smith entered pleas of not guilty, and were released on $10,000 bail each.

The grand jury also recommended many restrictions upon railroad operation in this state.

Falls Into Boiling Water.

Lindsay, March 28.—James Graham, an employee of the Rider & Kitchener Co., while working around a tank of boiling water, slipped and fell in. He is in the Ross Memorial Hospital, in a critical condition.

Floods Near Montreal.

Montreal, March 28.—The water in the Montreal harbor is rising rapidly. Harbor officials believe that this year the ice will break up rapidly, and in consequence it is anticipated that the water will reach a very great height, though hopes are entertained that there will be no flood. The little village of Chateauguay, farther up the river, and Chateauguay Basin, are already badly flooded.

Madibi Gold Fields Open.

Cape Town, March 28.—It is announced that a proclamation will be issued about the end of April opening the Madibi gold fields to public mining.

Explosion on Torpedo Boat.

Charlbury, March 28.—An explosion occurred yesterday on board torpedo boat No. 147. Two men were severely scalded.

John Murphy & Co.,

MONTREAL

THE CROMPTON CORSET CO.

Dear Sirs,—We have much pleasure in testifying to the increasing popularity of Crompton Corsets.

During the last two years they have rapidly advanced to the front rank. It is certainly a gratifying indication of our industrial progress to find corsets made in Canada, such as the "Crompton," competing successfully in style, fit and finish with the celebrated brands manufactured by the great firms of Paris and New York.

Lastly, its medium price brings within reach of almost every one a high-class corset, with all its manifold advantages to health and grace of figure.

On the whole, we consider Crompton Corsets the best product of the Canadian market.

Yours respectfully,

John Murphy & Co.

Moved by Clark and McCol, that the report of the Reeve on the J. H. Huggison agreement be adopted and the agreement be placed on file.—Carried.

Moved by Clark and Walters, that the application of William and Arthur Gardiner for a tile loan be accepted and the Clerk prepare a by-law in accordance with the same.—Carried.

Moved by Walters and Corlett, that the Treasurer charge the tyhurst Branch drain with $80.00 and credit the McKinley drain with the same, there having been an error made in the year 1905 in copying the order from the resolution.—Carried.

At 2 p. m. a large delegation from S. S. 6 and 11, Harwich, Union 1 and 7, Harwich and Howard, and 3, Howard, waited upon the Council.

Wm. Muckle and a number of others requested the Council to appoint an arbitrator, as allowed by statute, to get with two others to form a new union school section in the vicinity of Troy. The necessary petition had been filed with the Clerk, and they ably presented their claims for a school.

The opponents of the movement were the trustees of the four sections named, led by David Coughell. They pointed out what they considered would be the result should the section be formed, and strongly urged that an arbitrator be not appointed, as they were ready and determined to enter a suit to overthrow the award of the arbitrators. After all had spoken who wished, the Council promised later on in the day to consider the matter, and the delegation withdrew.

Moved by Clark and McCol, that By-law No. 826, appointing Jas. A. Bell, C. E., of the city of St. Thomas, as municipal engineer of Harwich, under the D. & W. Geo. Evans was appointed poundkeeper for Ward 4 Hugh Bawden pathmaster Div. 58, Solomon Fagan drain inspector, tile drain and drain-acts Ward 3.

Moved by McCol and Walters, that, after hearing the arguments for and against the formation of a new union school section in the vicinity of Troy, and after weighing the matter, we are of opinion that it would not be to the best interests of the sections concerned for this Council to appoint an arbitrator, and we therefore decline to appoint one.—Carried.

The following by-laws were given their required number of readings, finally passed, signed and sealed: No. 915, revoking the appointment of engineer by repealing By-law No. 826.

The Mouse and the Lion.

By Constance D'Arcy Mackay.

Copyright, 1905, by P. C. Eastman.

"My dear," said Grace Seward as she crossed the wide hotel veranda, "who do you think has come?"

Marion Page looked up brightly from the book she was reading. "The king of Patagonia," she suggested.

"Nonsense, Marion! Don't be silly! This is really somebody out of the ordinary—a real social lion! I give you three guesses. Take the first."

"But I'm no good at guessing," protested Marion. "You'll have to tell me."

"Well, then, hold your breath! It's Burton Sturgis!"

"Burton Sturgis!" repeated Marion slowly.

"Isn't that a sensation?" cried Miss Seward, sinking into a chair at Marion's side with a wish of beruffled skirts. "Fancy such a great explorer, writer and statesman as he is choosing to stop at Windmere for a day! I've always been taught to suppose that such people avoided hotels in the height of the season, haven't you? But it seems he lived some place near here when he was a boy, and he wants to stop and see it on his way through. I suppose famous people always want to visit the haunts of their early life, don't they? And Mrs. Barrington-Sells happens to know him, so she's going to give a tea for him in one of the hotel cottages this afternoon."

"A tea?"

"Yes, a tea. You might know she'd never let a lion escape. It's in the Farquhar cottage, I believe, and you are to serve fruit punch."

"I?" echoed Marion.

"Yes, you. Mrs. Sells told me to tell you. She was coming to ask you herself, only there isn't time. It's nearly half past 10 now, and you haven't the faintest idea how much there is to be done before this afternoon. I should be scurrying about this minute instead of gowns and pretty wearers, and in the center of them the portly figure and triumphant face of Mrs. Barrington-Sells. Beside her, immaculate in white flannels, stood Burton Sturgis, a tall, thin man with a commanding profile and dark hair lightly touched with gray.

"He's just as I imagined he would be," murmured Marion, "even to the little bored look that settles around his eyes and the quick way he has of throwing back his head."

Every now and then a group of girls would drift up to her table with little exclamations and thrills of laughter. "Oh, thank you, Miss Page! How cool and delicious! Oh, girls, isn't Burton Sturgis fascinating, and aren't his go back and talk to him again." And the group would break away from Marion and return to the ring that surrounded the great man. From time to time Marion caught snatches of their feminine chatter. "Your charming books, Mr. Sturgis! Adorable! Quaint! Delicious!"

Presently Mrs. Sells broke away from her circle and waddled up to Marion with Burton Sturgis in tow.

"My dear," she wheezed, "let me present Mr. Sturgis. Mr. Sturgis, Miss Page."

See that he has enough, Martion," and, playfully waving her pudgy hand at them, she went back to her other guests.

"It is a thirsty day," said Burton Sturgis, taking the sherbet cup that Marion held out to him. "Do you think you could manage to put in another cherry, Miss Page? I'm awfully fond of cherries."

"But they're so elusive," laughed Marion. "They always seem to slip out of the ladle. I just think I've caught one, and then it gets away."

"It's like the small boy and the minnow," agreed Burton Sturgis, his bored look giving place to a smile.

"There! You've missed it again!" as a refractory cherry with a little splash sank to the bottom of the bowl.

"I doubt if you could do as well!" cried Marion.

"What do you bet?" he said boyishly. "Two wafers and half a macaroon."

"Done!" He seized the ladle and was in the midst of an excited dipping when Mrs. Sells came toward him like a ship under full sail.

"They're calling for you, Mr. Sturgis," she said, "and this room is too small to hold them all. We shall be mobbed if we don't hurry."

He put down the ladle with a regretful look. "I suppose I'll have to, then," he said and followed her with lagging steps.

Marion leaned her chin on her hand and looked after him. Her moment of moments was over. She had met her idol face to face, and not one word had she spoken of all that his personality and work had meant to her in the past two years. A flush passed across her face.

"I might at least have told him that I had read his books," she said to herself, "but it's too late now. I've had my chance and lost it. What a little stupid he must think me if he thinks of me at all!"

Then the line of chattering guests began to thin. One by one they were departing. Mrs. Barrington-Sells' round face was lit with contentment. It had been a most successful afternoon.

"Even she had something to say to him," thought Marion disconsolately. There was a quick step at her side. She looked up. It was Burton Sturgis.

"Well, that's over!" he cried, with a shrug of delight. "And, heavens, but I'm glad to be back in this corner with you! Do you know, Miss Page, you're the only girl this afternoon who hasn't said 'Quaint, lovely, charming and delicious!' I'd like another cherry, please. And will you do me a favor?"

"Delighted," cried Marion gayly.

"I've decided to stay over another day, and there's a place near here I'd like to show you if you'd care to see it. Will you come driving with me to-morrow?"

For an instant his eyes held hers. Understanding, humor, camaraderie and a something deeper than all these passed between them.

"I should be glad to," said Marion.

"Mercy," laughed Marion, "I haven't had time to decide!"

"Well, then, I hope you'll choose your gray silk suit. It's perfectly fascinating. You look like a dear little mouse in it. I'm going to grace the occasion in pale blue. That's not a pun." And Miss Seward rushed across the lawn with the same impetuosity with which she had arrived.

A few moments later Marion drove briskly along the road, a scissors and garden knife on the seat beside her.

"To think," she mused, "that he should come today!"

For two years past Burton Sturgis had stood to her for an ideal, a hero to whom she had meted out a generous share of girlish hero worship. His books occupied a favorite corner of her bookshelf, and a picture of him, cut from a current magazine, was tucked away in a drawer of her desk. She had known that it was possible that she should some day meet him. Still she had not thought that it would be as soon as this. Indeed, she might have known him before had she made the effort to do so, but Grace Seward's description of her as a mouse suited her exactly.

"I'm afraid it doesn't take a gray gown to make me one either," she mourned as she stood cutting the vines, the sunlight glinting on her soft hair. "I'm not a bit good at gushing, like the other girls."

"A mere mouse," she repeated to herself that afternoon as she sat in a fern embowered corner of the tiny reception room behind a huge cut glass bowl filled with pineapple lemonade and its attendant sherbet cups and plates of delicate wafers. Beyond, in the drawing room, was a swirl of pink and white and blue, a mass of fluffy

It's The Tone That Proves the Quality Of A Piano . . .

In outward appearance one make of piano may resemble another very closely. The real difference lies in the tone, which is concealed within the case.

It's the tone every time that proves the quality of a piano. Run your fingers over the keyboard of a "Nordheimer" and just listen to the superb tone. No doubt about the quality of the "Nordheimer" piano with such a tone as it possesses.

Those who know the real value of tone-quality naturally select the "Nordheimer"—the unrivalled Canadian piano. Will you not come in and play over a selection and judge the quality of the "Nordheimer" tone from what your own ear tells you?

Our Mr. R. V. Carter will visit Chatham frequently in our interests, and will be pleased to furnish you with any information you may desire. Correspondence addressed to him, in care of the Garner House, will receive careful attention.

"BUT THEY'RE SO ELUSIVE," LAUGHED MARION.

of sitting here talking. There are oceans of people to be invited—all Mrs. Sells' friends—and the cottage to be put in order, and the decorations—

we've simply robbed the flower beds. And Mrs. Sells wants to know if you won't take the trap this morning and get her some ferns and trailing vines. There are a lot up the road by Benders'. You know the way. I'd come with you, but I have to fill the vases and half a dozen other things."

She skipped down the veranda steps and then paused. "What are you going to wear?" she asked.

"Mercy," laughed Marion, "I haven't had time to decide!"

"Well, then, I hope you'll choose your gray silk suit. It's perfectly fascinating. You look like a dear little mouse in it. I'm going to grace the occasion in pale blue. That's not a pun." And Miss Seward rushed across the lawn with the same impetuosity with which she had arrived.

A few moments later Marion drove briskly along the road, a scissors and garden knife on the seat beside her.

"To think," she mused, "that he should come today!"

For two years past Burton Sturgis had stood to her for an ideal, a hero to whom she had meted out a generous share of girlish hero worship. His books occupied a favorite corner of her bookshelf, and a picture of him, cut from a current magazine, was tucked away in a drawer of her desk. She had known that it was possible that she should some day meet him. Still she had not thought that it would be as soon as this. Indeed, she might have known him before had she made the effort to do so, but Grace Seward's description of her as a mouse suited her exactly.

"I'm afraid it doesn't take a gray gown to make me one either," she mourned as she stood cutting the vines, the sunlight glinting on her soft hair. "I'm not a bit good at gushing, like the other girls."

"A mere mouse," she repeated to herself that afternoon as she sat in a fern embowered corner of the tiny reception room behind a huge cut glass bowl filled with pineapple lemonade and its attendant sherbet cups and plates of delicate wafers. Beyond, in the drawing room, was a swirl of pink and white and blue, a mass of fluffy

High Priced Elections.

A century ago elections in England were costly affairs. In one case half a million pounds was spent on one election alone. This was the great contest for Yorkshire, in which the candidates were Viscount Milton, the Hon. Henry Lascelles and Mr. Wilberforce. Wilberforce won at a cost of £250,000, "with every resource of the most rigid economy and great voluntary assistance in labor."

Mrs. Fanny Kemble tells us of another Yorkshire contest, where the money seems to have been spent just as freely. Mrs. Wentworth Beaumont is the heroine. "She, then a very old lady, drove in her traveling carriage to Downing street, with whom she was well acquainted, accosted him thus: 'Well, my lord, are you quite determined to make your man stand for our seat?' 'Yes, Mrs. Beaumont, I think quite determined.' 'Very well,' replied the lady, 'I am on my way down to Yorkshire with £80,000 in the carriage for my man. Try and do better than that!'"—London Chronicle.

EXPERT METHODS.

Plan For Testing the Quality of Seed Corn.

Professor Holden, the western corn expert, has been making the rounds of the New England farm and New York state meetings, as reported in American Cultivator. Besides describing his method of selecting seed corn, the professor advances other ideas with regard to New England farm methods. He advocates growing the cattle feeds on the farm and insists that eastern farmers will grow more corn and that alfalfa will soon be considerably grown here if farmers will thoroughly drain the soil to a sufficient depth to make the soil sweet, thoroughly pulverize it and make a firm, solid seed bed, sowing the seed early in August.

Foes to the Corn Field.

Professor Holden told of his own work among the farmers of the west by taking them right into their fields and by personal inspection showing them how they were farming at the sacrifice, in that their fields were producing but a fractional part of what they might be producing if every hill were filled and every stalk were productive. He showed the difference in the acreage with one, two and three goods ears to a hill and thereby led up to the conclusion that the great source of loss in corn production is the poor seed which so many farmers use, either through carelessness or false economy.

Testing the Corn.

Coming down to the point in hand, he presented a plan for testing the quality of seed corn by determining its germinating power, showing those present the manner in which he was enabled to select the good ears and reject the bad by use of a germinating box, in which, in separate compartments, sample kernels from different ears were placed and their germinating power soon determined. The bottom of the box being filled with moist sawdust, a layer of this was placed over the kernels then placed in the different compartments, covered with another thin piece of muslin, with more sawdust on top, and again packed down. In due time examination shows the real germinating value of the samples from the different ears, and it is easy to decide which ears to use for seed and which to reject.

SCHISM IN INDIA.

English Church Converts Split in Two Camps.

A Rangoon correspondent describes a curious schism that has taken place among the English Church converts in the Karen Hills. Some time ago the Rev. Thomas Pellako, of the Anglican Church, inaugurated what is now called Kleeboism. Briefly put, he substituted the word Kleebo for Christ. In Paku dialect "Klee" means "bow," and "bo" means "dear," and the word Kleebo as applied to Christ probably refers to the rainbow as a type and outward visible sign of Jesus Christ. The idea was in itself harmless enough and at the same time not unpicturesque, and for this reason, no doubt, appealed to the imagination of this semi-civilized people, but the importance attached to it by the people was certainly unorthodox, and the Rev. Thomas Pellako was suspended by the bishop. The result has astonished the missionaries themselves. Practically every man, woman and child of the district has joined what some people termed the new religion, and Karens from other districts are following in their footsteps. Even in the villages of Bowmuder, which are under the Rev. Aquat of the Anglican Church, eighteen out of twenty-five households have adopted Kleeboism. Indeed, recently, Kleeboists held a festival in the village, within an enclosure constructed for the accommodation of 1,000 people, and situated within a few feet of the Anglican Church itself. The Bishop of Rangoon has proceeded to the scene of the conflict.

Church of England Receives Immense Sums in Voluntary Offerings.

During the year ending Easter, 1906, voluntary offerings towards the work of the Church of England totalled $7,768,410 9s. 10d.

Of this amount £2,450,541 11s. 2d. was contributed to central and diocesan societies and institutions, as follows:—

Home mission and educational work	727,569	19	3
Foreign missions	546,169	8	3
Educational work	89,418	0	10
The clergy	211,520	17	5
Philanthropic work	551,870	5	7

The funds raised by church collections for parochial machinery and administered for parochial purposes alone amounted to £5,217,863 18s. 8d. This sum was divided as follows:—

For the parochial clergy	840,853	4	7
For elementary education	41,711	19	10
For general parochial purposes	3,335,303	14	3

The last item included £49,759 4s. 3d., raised for the support of the poor. It is interesting to note that the total sum raised by voluntary offerings within the Church of England in the last ten years amounted to £77,506,644 16s. 2d.

Vigil in a Vault.

A weird vigil is being kept over the body of a young Russian married woman in one of the vaults of a church at San Remo, near Rome.

The woman suffered from consumption, and a fortnight ago was certified dead, and duly buried. Eleven days afterwards some of her relatives arrived from Russia, and had the coffin opened. To their surprise the body showed absolutely no traces of decomposition, the skin was soft, and retained its life tints, the lips were crimson, and the wide open eyes conveyed an uncanny impression that they saw. A watch kept night and day and night in case of a return of animation.

Two Stores and Two Hotels Burned—Loss About $40,000.

Morrisburg, March 28.—A disastrous fire broke out in the village of Iroquois at 10 o'clock Tuesday night, in the store of Assaly & Co., completely destroying the store and contents of Assaly's, as well as J. W. Lowe's general store, lately purchased from C. & M. Mills, the largest and oldest established business in town. The Powell House and Commercial Hotel and outbuildings were also consumed. The town hall and J. W. Tindale's block were saved with great difficulty. Estimated loss about $40,000.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

Doctor's said Female Trouble.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Complaint, and until twelve months ago doctors said I was suffering from 'Female Trouble.' Last November (1905) I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney troubles. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat resembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so changed and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Mr. Johnson's drug store, who told him to tell me he thought the pills were drawing something out of the blood, and to keep on taking them. I did so and after taking them a week, the swelling disappeared leaving me with a complexion free from pimples, tired, weary feeling gone, constipation from which I suffered for years, gone, pain in the back, gone, and a general feeling of joy and light heartedness. I have not felt since a child took place in me.

My sister-in-law (Mrs. Bryan), seeing the action of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the change for good they accomplished in me, sent for a box and they completely cured her. When what Doan's Kidney Pills did for us, we always take advantage of it, and tell them to give them a fair trial."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, for sale at all dealers or by mail on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Caribou Horns.

Not one out of every ten female caribou has horns. When they do have them, they are much smaller than those of the bull. The horns of the female have, however, in general many more branches than those of the bull, and they are much more regularly and finely formed. The cows carry their horns much longer than the bulls. They have been seen with their horns in the month of April. The old bulls shed their horns from the 10th to the last of November. They hardly ever carry them after the month of November. The young bulls shed theirs from the first of December until the middle of February. The younger the animal the longer he retains his horns.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is not a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments could ever be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The only deeds that it is wise to hoard up are those appertaining to real estate.

Being constantly conscious of one's own faults is punishment enough for anybody.

A heavy purse goes a long way toward making a light heart.

Most of us say that we are willing to be criticised, but we don't break our necks trying to find some one to do the job.

The only place where a good cook is of no account is where there is an empty larder.

By looking at the individuals it is often as hard to tell which is the baby of the family as it is to determine which is the head of the house.

If duties and desires were synonymous, we'd all look like a lot of little angels.

Hot air dries up the springs of sympathy when it is constantly blowing upon us.

A handsome face is usually acquainted with the best grade of mirrors.

Take good care of your family, and you will have no family cares.

Having a sense of humor is often as comforting to a man as it is discomfiting to his enemies.

Fame.
How can we reach into the skies
And pull down lasting fame?
How can we win that worthy prize,
A grand and honored name?
How can we make the people take
Some notice as we pass
And keep our memory as green
As anybody's grass?

Is there no smooth and patent way
To help us turn the trick?
And can we not the rules obey
And get there double quick?
Or must we spout our hands with toil
And turn the midnight lamp
Ere fame will decorate us with
Its rubber O. K. stamp?

Yes, there are short cuts to the height,
And all may tread the way.
You do not have to work all night
Or for the honor pay.
Get cured of ill by some one's pills,
By taking just a case,
And every paper in the land
Will gladly print your face.

And who shall say that kind is not
As good as any brand?
That you might scheme for, toll and plot
And work an age to land?
You may not find the lasting kind
That way, but plug ahead.
'Till you do every bit as good
To use when you are dead.

Beat Father Time.

"I notice your watch is fifteen minutes slow."

Other Point of View.

"The lot of the common soldier must be an enviable one."
"Why do you think so?"
"On account of a few general remarks by the general."
"Wait until you can get some private remarks from the private before making up your mind."

Small Addition.

"There goes a man who claims that he never told a lie."
"Is it true?"
"Not by a long ways."
"Then why does he claim it?"
"Thinks he might as well tell another one as not."

The Real Thing.

"You seem to be well up in love letter writing."
"Thank you."
"Where did you learn it?"
"Correspondence school."

At the Brisco Theatre—
Moving Pictures—Mar. 29-30.
King of Tramps—April 2.

"The King of Tramps," which comes to the Brisco Theatre on Tuesday, April 2, is a rollicking show of American fun and Yankee Doodle music. A vehicle to drive your cares and sorrows away; a show that you can bring your sweetheart, wives and mothers, also your mother-in-law, if you are on speaking terms, not forgetting the little ones. A performance that is lively, clean, wholesome and refreshing, entirely different from anything you have ever seen before; a show you have all been waiting for.

NEW STRIKE ON SILVER BIRD

Cobalt, March 29.—There is considerable talk here about the discovery of two new veins on the Silver Bird property. Superintendent Gauthier is very enthusiastic about the discovery and intends to commence drifting north and south at once. He feels quite confident that the big O'Brien and La Rose veins will be encountered within a short distance from where they are now working, as the shaft, which is down 107 feet, is full of highly materialized stringers and small veins which are widening and increasing in value with every shot. The development of the property is being watched with great interest in the camp, as it is so splendidly located, having the O'Brien, La Rose and Colonial mines as its neighbors. The force of men is being increased and it is the intention of the management to install another boiler, two steam drills and a compressor plant without delay.

The longest day soon comes to an end.
