The Ladies' League placed on the offertory on Easter Day for the Women's Pier $1025, which has since been increased to $1060. The Children's offerings for their Pier were also presented, the amount being $79.72. This makes the fund up to $3250.

In his sermon on Easter Day, Canon Macnab spoke very strongly on the subject of "Rolling away the Stone" of debt from the Cathedral, and suggested the adoption of a form of intercession to be used throughout the Diocese, praying for Divine aid and relief. It is hoped that so excellent a suggestion will not be allowed to pass unnoticed.

The Confirmation is appointed to take place on Wednesday evening, 13th May, at 8 p.m. when it is expected that there will be an unusually large number of candidates. This will be the last service to be held here by the Archbishop prior to his departure for the Pan-Anglican Conference. He leaves on the 14th.

It is not so many years ago that the site of the Cathedral was selected, and was strongly criticised as being far too remote; yet we have arrived at a time when a site for a public institution having been selected near Yage Street has been so strongly objected to that it has been abandoned, the objectors insisting that a central site should be secured, which, in a public discussion on the subject, was declared by one speaker to be in the neighbourhood of St. Alban's Cathedral.

ANNUAL CHOIR GUILD REPORT.

The Guild held its Annual Meeting on Tuesday, March 31st, when the following officers were elected.

- President*—Mrs. Macnab.
Vice-President—Mrs. McCollum.
Sec.-Treas.—Miss Ethel Rounthwaite.
Committee—Mrs. Vanzant, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Canavan.

The work during the year has been chiefly mending Cassocks and Surplices, but six surplices and three cassocks have been made; also a surplice for Canon Macnab as an Easter present.

The receipts for the year $72.86, Expenses, $53.16, leaving a balance of $19.70.

Although it is a small matter, perhaps we may venture to remind envelope contributors that the management of these envelopes, firstly, opening them and counting the contents, and subsequently checking them off by the register, is a task not quite so simple as it may seem, and that those who cheerfully undertake it should not be required to do more than is necessary. Therefore, please, 1. Do not omit to mark on the outside contained within. Your omission to do so practically trebles the work. 2. Do not enclose one or more envelopes inside another, but give each separately, with its proper amount enclosed, or at least, when two or more envelopes are given together and it is not convenient to divide the total amount, attach them with a thread or rubber band, or with a pin. N.B. when the latter method is used the unwary opener usually pricks his finger with the pin, but that is a thing of very trifling importance in comparison with the annoyance of having to disengage infolded envelopes.

The Girls' Auxiliary desire to remind the congregation that on Monday evening, May 4th, they will give in the Crypt their splendid Stage Entertainment, consisting of a new set of Tableaux, Music, Recitations, by Mrs. Macnab, and the charming Dialogue entitled "A man in the Case."

ADULTS, 25c. CHILDREN, 15c.

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

The members and friends of St. Alban's Cathedral League will no doubt be glad to hear that the united Easter Offering amounted to the sum of $1060. This represented the result of the Sylvan Fête held at "Ravenswood" last June, as well as the direct contributions of the members.

The League has now accumulated about $2400 towards the cost of the Women's Pier

While as yet no progress has been made towards enlargement of the Cathedral, and much anxiety is felt regarding the debt. It is gratifying to find that the members have shown continued loyalty to the League and with notably few exceptions have made up their obligations.

It is earnestly hoped that the effort now being made to pay off the debt will be successful, and that there will be in the near future a large increase in the membership and interest of the League among the Churchwardens of the Diocese.

The Annual Meeting of the League will probably take place before the end of May.

Copies of the photograph of His Grace the Archbishop issued with this number, 10 x 12 in size, ready for framing, may be obtained of the Cathedral League for 75 cents.
