The Price Belgium Paid

Steve C. Hurley of St. John Electrifies a Large Audience in Opera House Sunday Night

A magnificent lecture on The Price Belgium Paid was delivered to a large audience in the Opera House Sunday night, the well-known speaker, Mr. Steve C. Hurley of St. John.

His Worship the Mayor presided, and with him on the platform were Rev. S. J. MacArthur, Judge Lawlor, Ex-Mayor Morrissey and W. A. Park.

Mr. Hurley, who was heard with great acceptance here one Sunday night in 1914, when he lectured on the life of Robert Emmett, came up to the audience's fullest expectations, holding them in closest attention for over an hour.

The lecturer graphically described the happy and prosperous state of Belgium, before the war, her busy hives of industry, her quiet villages, her beautiful churches and intense religious life, her past glories in commerce, painting and architecture, her great nineteenth century scholars, and her able royal diplomats.

Then the brutal attack of Germany and the heroic way in which little Belgium's citizen army had held off the invaders, thereby saving France, Britain and Canada from conquest.

Then the audience wept, as he held up to their gaze the ruined shrines, the desolated homes, outraged women and murdered children of the now unhappy, but gloriously firm and determined little country, led by a King who has risen to the summit of his opportunity as a leader of men.

Never were more stinging charges made against Germany than by Mr. Hurley, when in the most scathing terms he described and denounced the war usage of the German officers and soldiers in the helpless country. The worst features of ancient warfare had been received by the modern Barbarians. Old men had been shot to fall into the graves they had been forced to dig for themselves, young women raped, pregnant women brutally destroyed with their unborn children, and lovers fiendishly insulted and dishonored before being murdered--all to terrify the inhabitants and force the survivors to submit.

Mayor Fish, Rev. S. J. MacArthur and W. A. Park, spoke most appreciatively of the lecture, the latter thanking that carried with the most hearty unanimity.

Mr. Hurley explained that the reason he was not in khaki was that he had not yet sufficiently recovered from the effects of a surgical operation to pass the medical tests, but he hoped soon to be accepted, and hoped to return to Newcastle to announce victory for the allied arms.

Mr. Hurley will be warmly welcomed whenever he appears again before a Newcastle audience. About $30 was collected for the Belgian and Patriotic Funds.

Russians Join British on the Tigris
The news came on Sunday that the Russians have achieved in part one of their main objectives in Asiatic Turkey--the joining of hands with their British Allies fighting against the Turks on the Tigris River. Without any preliminary announcement, and apparently unexpectedly, a force of Russian cavalry, after a bold and adventurous ride, has formed a junction with the British General Goringe on the right bank of the Tigris in the region of Kut-el-Amar, where only recently a British force, under General Townshend, after a long siege, was forced to capitulate to the Turks.

How the Russians made their advance--whether along the Tigris Valley past Bagdad, or down through Persia--has not been made known. Coincident with their arrival, however, comes the report that the Turks have evacuated Bethulossa, their advanced position on the right bank of the Tigris.

Petrograd also says the Russians are keeping up their advance on Mosul.

Hullfax, May 22--The house of assembly of Nova Scotia was dissolved this afternoon and the writs for the general election were immediately issued. Nomination day will be on Tuesday, June 13, and polling day will be on Tuesday, June 20.

A Two-Night's Session of Town Council

Officers Appointed For Ensuing Year--Policeman J. J. Galliah Dismissed after Charges by Chief Finley and Investigation Before the Council--Council Holds Special Meeting Next Friday

Town Council met in regular session on the 18th instant, Mayor Fish presiding. All Aldermen present. Communications were read as follows: From Clement Ryan, applying for the position of Tax Collector. Moved by Ald. Miller, seconded by Ald. MacKay, that the communication be received and referred to the Finance Committee.

The Mayor thought that the appointment of an officer lay with the Police and Appointment to office Committee.

Ald. Miller, McGrath and McKay opposed.

Yea--Ald. McGrath, Miller, Kingston, MacKay.

Nay--Ald. Hayward, Scribner, Stables, Stuart and the Mayor.

Moved by Ald. Stuart and Stables that the communication be referred to the Police and Appointment to Office Committee.

Moved in amendment, by Ald. McGrath and Kingston, that the communication lie on the table for future reference.

Amendment carried by following vote: Yea--Ald. McGrath, Miller, MacKay, Kingston and the Mayor--5. Nay--Ald. Hayward, Scribner, Stables, Stuart.

From the Union of N. B. Municipalities notifying of convention in St. Stephen August 16th and 17th next, and asking for appointment of delegates.

The latter was laid on the table. Ald. Stables reported for the special committee (Ald. Kingston, Miller and himself) appointed at the last meeting to inquire into the question of the diversion of water on to the property of John Kingston, Sr., on School street. They had found that the water complained of came from a well, four feet square, in Mrs. Craig's field on King's Highway. This water used to run through Chas. Allen's property, across a corner of Kingston's lot and into School Street ditch. Someone had stopped it below Allen's. Then Allen built up his lot. If the latter had kept the drain open it would have been alright. Allen is willing that the town should reopen the old course. The question was shall the town put in a drain or make a sewer?

Ald. Kingston believed that the drain should be opened either by the town or by Allen. The course should not be turned aside. It is convenient for people who have no sewerage. The water had been diverted on to his father's property improperly.

Ald. McGrath asked if Allen were willing to have the drain reopened through his yard.

Ald. Stables said that Allen was quite willing that the Town should go onto his property to fix the drain. The town had no right to take care of people's slopwater.

Ald. McGrath thought that nature should be allowed to take its course. Ald. Stables said a drain should not be used as a sewer.

Mayor Fish said he had enquired of all parties and they were apparently satisfied to have town lay pipes through their property to take care of the water.

Ald. McGrath asked how people could be prevented from opening the pipe put in their ground and connecting sinks with it. They could prevent the town going back on their land.

The Mayor said a lease should be got by the town if it laid any pipes. Ald. McKay said the town had no right to go into private property. There were lots of springs on the hill, and the town could not take care of all of them.

The Mayor understood that the town had once got a lease of the right to lay pipes from late Wm. Falconer's (now Mrs. Craig's) field. Ald. Miller thought the lease was for 99 years. The town had not looked after it, and the pipes were now broken down, making a public nuisance.

Ald. McGrath said the town had nothing to do with it at all. They had no authority to put public money on private property. A wise man, also, would not give the town a perpetual lease for pipes on his property. What if he ever wished to build over the drain?

Ald. Miller said that to divert the water course down the street between Mrs. Hickson's and Mrs. Fish's would entail great expense. If the people could be accommodated by a drain to School street, where there is no possibility of sewerage for some years, it would be well to do so.

Ald. Scribner said that the water course having been diverted by private parties, it was up to the later to put it back where it had been.

Ald. Hayward agreed. Ald. Stables said that last year the Public Works Committee did divert the drain. The town men had gone on Allen's property and diverted the water back of his lot and through a new place on Kingston's. The natural waterway should have been respected.

Ald. Hayward said that Ex-Ald. Doyle had told him that the Public Works Committee of last year did not authorize any changes in the drain.

Ald. Kingston said that last year he had seen one of the town men digging on his father's property, saying he had been sent by the town.

Ald. Hayward said that Ex-Ald. Doyle had added that the work might have been done by the town men to take care of surface water to prevent a flood in the spring.

Ald. McGrath said that Allen had bought a brook and built it up. If he had diverted the water, the question was between him and his neighbors only.

Ald. Miller said that when the old Robinson's tank had been put in near the Leader Office, the fire wardens had been authorized by all the owners to lay the drain. The pipes had long since rotted.

The Mayor remembered when the drain came out on Pleasant Street between what is now Bethune's and the Opera House. Something must be done about it. Allen claimed that the water course had shifted of itself. The town might take care of it.

Ald. Stables said that $50 would put it back through Allen's.

Ald. Hayward said that it was like a brook through Chatham. Chatham had left it to the landowners to take care of.

Ald. McGrath, seconded by Ald. MacKay, moved the following: Resolved that the town has no right to spend money on private property and that the brook now in question be left as it is.

It was moved in amendment by Ald. Stuart and seconded by Ald. Kingston, that the Public Works Committee be authorized to rectify any changes the town has recently made in the water course in question.

Ald. McGrath objected to the amendment as out of order. The Mayor allowed the amendment.

Yea--Ald. Hayward, Kingston, Miller and Stuart. Nay--Ald. MacKay, McGrath, Scribner and Stables. The Mayor declared the amendment carried.

The following were appointed for the ensuing year: Police--Policeman J. J. Galliah. Chief of Police--Chief Finley.

Officers of Health--Geo. Stables, Chairman; J. H. Lindon, Dr. R. Nicholson, Edward Hickey, Andrew McCabe.

Chairman Police and Appointment to Office Committee.

The report was received, the name of J. J. Gallia was added to the list of constables, and the report was adopted.

Ald. Hayward, chairman P. & A. Committee, read a report of that committee, stating that charges had been laid against Police Officer Gallia of having been drinking while on duty, that the charges had been investigated before the full committee, and that officer Gallia had been suspended pending decision of the Council, and recommending that officer Gallia be dismissed.

Ald. McGrath seconded by Ald. Miller, moved, that all complaints against Policeman Gallia with dates of such, and all papers in the case be laid before the Council.

Carried.

Finance Bills

Following bills were introduced by Ald. McGrath:

Union Advocate	$19.25
National Typewriter Co.	12.00
Union of N. B. Municipalities	10.00
N. S. Leader	33.25

There was some discussion on the $10 annual fee to the U. of N. B. Municipalities.

Ald. McGrath and Mackay did not see the value of affiliation with the Union.

Continued affiliation was supported by Ald. Stuart and Miller and the Mayor.

All the items were adopted as read.

Following delegates were elected to the next convention of the U. of N. B. Municipalities: His Worship the Mayor, and Ald. Stuart, McGrath, Kingston and Stables. Ald. Miller, who had been nominated, said he would like to go, as all the meetings he had attended had been of great interest and value, but he would not be able to attend on the given date—August 16-17.

Re moving the Thompson house on George Street, in front of Campbell Street Ald. Stables reported that he had inspected the place, and found that Campbell Street could not very well be continued in a straight line without disarranging Mrs. Watt's survey. The matter was still under consideration between the Public Works Committee and Mrs. Watt's surveyor.

Ald. Stables' report was received and time allowed for further report.

Light and Water Bills

Following Light and Water bills were passed:

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. FINLEY,
Chief of Police and C. T. A. Inspector.

Police Magistrate

The Police Magistrate's report for quarter ending March 31st is as follows:

For drunkenness, 6; reckless driving, 2; assault, 1—total 9. One case was withdrawn. Fines collected, $21.00; magistrate's fees $18; balance to town treasurer $3.00.

J. J. Gallia's Case

The matter of Officer Gallia was then brought up.

Ald. McGrath demanded all papers bearing on the question.

Ald. Hayward read Chief Finley's charges, which were the basis of the P. & A. Committee's investigation.

Newcastle, N. B., May 16, 1916

To the chairman of Police Committee and members convened,

I regret to recommend that a new man be appointed in Officer J. J. Gallia's place to do patrol duty by night.

I have been forced to this conclusion by the intemperate habits of Officer Gallia, having found him drunk on duty Feb. 4th, 1916, and reprimanded by me; under the influence of liquor Feb. 28th, reprimanded and promised to do better; under the influence of liquor Sunday morning, May 7th, on this occasion he had been drinking several days. From what I have observed in the action of this man when drinking, I have lost confidence in him as a police officer hence this recommendation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. FINLEY,
C. of P. & C. T. A. Inspector.

W. H. FINLEY

Ald. McGrath asked Chief Finley why he had not reported such a serious matter to the Council before. Why had he left the safety of the town so long in the keeping of such an officer.

Mr. Ald. McGrath explained that he had reported to the Police Committee and that both he and they wished to give Officer Gallia a chance to do better.

Ald. McGrath—Will you take oath that your charge is true?

Mr. Finley—Certainly I will.

Ald. Kingston asked Mr. Finley if he had ever said that a certain citizen was drunk.

Mr. Finley—No; but I enquired if he were drinking.

Ald. McGrath—Has not Policeman Gallia always been in condition to assist you and do his duty?

Mr. Finley—Not always.

The Mayor—Nearly always, was he not? Was he not a good man generally?

Mr. Finley—Yes; but for the liquor, I had recommended to the Police Committee an increase of salary to $75 a month for him, but I found him drinking again.

Ald. McGrath—Has any citizen complained against Officer Gallia to you?

Mr. Finley—Yes.

Ald. McGrath—Who?

Mr. Finley—An officer of the 132nd The Mayor—This is not evidence. We have no right to attend to gossip.

Ald. McGrath—On what date did you visit Policeman Gallia's home, and why?

Mr. Finley—I can give pretty nearly the date from my report down stairs. R. Beckwith was doing duty in his place. My visit was on the second or third day he was sick. I went to see how he was, and if he needed anything.

Ald. McGrath—You had no other object in concealing or reserving information against Officer Gallia, except from sympathy for his family?

Mr. Finley—I did not conceal the facts. I reported to the Chairman of the Police Committee and recommended that Gallia be given another chance.

Ald. McGrath—What is the most recent date on which this Policeman has been drunk?

Mr. Finley—I think, May 7th.

On motion of Ald. Miller and Kingston, Officer Gallia was heard.

J. J. GALLIAH

Mr. Gallia denied Mr. Finley's charges in toto. On the certain morning Mr. Finley said he was under influence of liquor he met Mr. Finley coming down street with Charles Sargeant. Mr. Sargeant would prove that he (Gallia) was not drunk. It was false that Finley had asked him next night why he was late and gave him a calling down.

On May 7th Finley saw him coming on duty, but not going off. He had seen him going off duty only about three times.

He was late one night—ten minutes because of bad roads, but he made up the time. He had always been ready to assist the Chief.

Ald. Stables—Didn't that come up in this afternoon's committee meeting?

YOUNG WOMEN MAY AVOID PAIN

Need Only Trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, says Mrs. Kurtzweg.

Buffalo, N.Y.—"My daughter, whose picture is herewith, was much troubled with pains in her back and sides every month and they would sometimes be so bad that it would seem like acute inflammation of some organ. She read your advertisement in the newspapers and tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

She praises it highly as she has been relieved of all these pains by its use. All mothers should know of this remedy, and all young girls who suffer should try it.

—Mrs. MATILDA KURTZWEG, 523 High St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Young women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by this root and herb remedy.

If you know of any young woman who is sick and needs help, please ask her to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Only women will receive her letter, and it will be held in strictest confidence.

Ald. McGrath objected to this. Let everything be said in open Council.

Ald. Miller withdrew his motion, and Mr. Finley spoke.

Re Feb. 28 Mr. Finley said he came to the Police Station after tea, and from action of Officer Gallia he didn't appear to be all right. At about 11:50, he thought, a telephone message came to him, from an officer of the 132nd, saying the latter had sent a drunken soldier to the lockup and that Gallia had refused to take him in and had given the escort abuse. He (Finley) told the officer to take the man back. He found the outside police door locked, opened it and went through. He saw the liquor locker door unlocked and Gallia coming out. He noticed Gallia under the influence of liquor. He himself stayed on duty the rest of the night. Next day he got new locks for the places where the liquor was stored. He found in the closet the tinsel of a bottle. He found a champagne bottle on the bed. It was entrusted with mud. It was the same as the bottles containing liquor in the locker. Before the soldier came down Gallia and some other man were in the upper hall. After the soldier was locked up he found boxing gloves upstairs and a square face lying on top of them. Officer Gallia admitted having been drinking several days. He had reported the case to the Committee.

Mayor—Was the square face on the boxing gloves fresh or old?

Mr. Finley—Fresh. Re May 4th—He handed to Gallia a warrant of commitment at 6 o'clock to serve that night. At 9 o'clock he had asked Gallia if he had served it. Gallia replied that he had not. He would do it in the morning. Next morning he came down and found the warrant not executed. The warrant was still in Gallia's coat pocket. He saw Gallia 10 minutes to 6 next night and told him he need not serve the warrant as he had got someone else to serve it. Gallia's reports on May 5th and 6th were written unsteadily. Saw Gallia on Saturday May 6th and had conversation re man reported to be bringing liquor from Chatham, and asked him to stay and help him catch him. At 5:10 Sunday morning he (Finley) came down and found that Gallia had reported as having gone off duty at 6. He had left his uniform and gone in civilian clothes. About 7:10 Gallia came in upstairs, flushed, as with liquor. Gallia went downstairs out, and was unsteady, under the influence of liquor. He (Finley) stayed till 9:15 and saw no more of Gallia. Next night Gallia told him that the man from Chatham had not come. He told Gallia he (Gallia) had been "plastered."

Ald. McGrath—Do you refer to the Sunday morning you raided the hotel?

Mr. Finley—No. On May 4th, when Gallia wrote just one word—"reported," I found in corner of cell a wrapper off a whiskey bottle, and found a barrel of liquor of same quality tipped forward and a bottle gone. Ald. Kingston—Didn't you think it a bad place to store liquor in the police rooms? Wouldn't you expect a man to take a bottle now and again?

Finley—I'd call him a thief if he took anything that did not belong to him—liquor or groceries.

Mr. Sargeant—I couldn't say that he was. It was about 8:30. He did not appear drunk.

Ald. Kingston to Mr. Finley—Was Gallia on duty then?

Mr. Finley—Gallia was drunk. I was on duty. Went on at 7. I accidentally met Mr. Sargeant.

Ald. McGrath—Did you not consider it your duty to be on duty at 6 a. m.?

Mr. Finley—No; at 7.

Ald. McGrath—No protection for the town from 6 to 7 in the morning?

Ald. Stables—There never was any at that hour.

Ald. McGrath—Well, it is time there was. I propose that there shall be in future. It is our duty to thrash this matter out. I move we adjourn, to meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Carried.

FRIDAY'S MEETING

Town Council resumed session Friday evening, the full Board present, and some thirty citizen spectators.

Ald. Hayward presented the papers asked for, which included the daily reports made by Officer Gallia the last few months. Since Chief Finley went on the force the night man reports every morning on what he does during the night. On Feb. 4th Gallia's signature was much different from that of other times, showing very unsteady.

Ald. McGrath said he did not ask for Mr. Gallia's reports, but for all charges, etc., made against him.

Ald. Hayward—These are the papers used in the investigation. These reports support the charge. On Feb. 28th it appears that Gallia had been under the influence of liquor, had been reprimanded and promised to do better.

Chief Finley

It was moved that Chief Finley be heard.

It was moved by Ald. Miller and Kingston that Council go into committee of the whole.

number of barrels. Exact inventory should be taken and I propose taking such in future.

On motion of Ald. McGrath and Stables, Mr. Gallia was heard.

J. J. GALLIAH

Mr. Gallia referred to the first charge of Mr. Finley about the morning he met Finley with Mr. Sargeant. Also, Finley said that he found tinsel of champagne bottle and empty champagne bottle on desk. He (Gallia) did not see it. Finley pointed it out to him that a bottle of beer was standing on the floor. That bottle belonged to a certain citizen, and was of ginger ale.

Finley—I admit what you say about the bottle of ale.

Mr. Gallia—The other time I told Mr. C. I was going upstairs with a Mr. C. I stayed up there with him about ten minutes. Put the gloves under the counter. Saw no bottle. A gain, about that bottle in the pocket of coat it was a bottle initialed "W. H. P." in the pocket of an old coat of Chamberlain's. I don't think C—was back after I left him about the Sunday case, he told me of fellows whom he suspected of bringing in liquor. I made out my report at 5:30. I went out to watch for the fellows, and reported that I went off duty at 6, because I wasn't coming back.

Ald. Stables—Policeman Gallia says he left at 5:30 and was not coming back. Now, why did he come back?

Mr. Gallia—I wasn't coming back before 6 o'clock. I came back about 7 o'clock. I don't say that I had an agreement as to just where I should be in the morning. About the soldier racket—the soldiers came down to the lockup and gave loud whoops. I went for them for whooping. We had only one empty cell. I thought they could keep soldiers better in their guard room themselves. I was in the locker. I had a right to be here to look after it. Mr. Finley had key to some locker I had. I don't know who tipped the barrel. I imagine the barrel could tip without hands. I did not know it was tipped. He must have tried it himself to find out. The morning he says I was unsteady on my feet, I deny it. I never promised the Chief to do better. He never asked me. The bonded liquor was not the liquor charged to be touched.

Ald. McGrath—We hired Gallia last fall as policeman only—nothing to do with Scott Act.

Mr. Gallia—About the paper served. I could not find the man that night. I tried to next morning, about seven, but could not. I did not promise to serve it that night.

About the morning I marked just "reported" on the book. I explained to him why. I heard a racket outside and went out and forgot to finish report. I told him I would report that night.

Ald. Stables—What about that unsteady writing in the book?

Mr. Gallia—Sometimes I am nervous and cannot then write as well as at other times.

Ald. McGrath—How was Gallia hired?

Mr. Gallia—I was hired for night policeman at $60 a month, and as a constable. No connection with Scott Act.

The Mayor—All laws are to be enforced. You would if violation of Scott Act came in your way take notice of it as of any other law?

Mr. Finley—And on either duty, not as policeman but a constable?

Mr. Gallia—Yes.

Mr. Finley—Extra fee for constable duty.

Ald. McGrath—Were you not off duty at 6 o'clock?

The Mayor—You were not drinking on duty?

Mr. Gallia—No; sir.

The Mayor—Did you acknowledge to the chief that you were drinking about Feb 25 to 28th?

Mr. Gallia—No; sir. I deny that. He accused me of it, and I said he was wrong.

Ald. Hayward—You do drink, occasionally?

Mr. Gallia—I take it when I think I need it—when I'm not feeling well.

Ald. McGrath—Is the liquor seized all in your possession?

Mr. Gallia—I cannot say, since I let the Chief put locks on. I let him put them on to save talk. And, since that, he accuses me. I might as easily accuse him. That barrel could have tipped of itself.

Ald. McGrath—It might have been jarred by, say, a dance above.

All Hayward—Yes; by a gale of wind.

Mr. Gallia—I took a full inventory and gave him a copy of inventory. It was taken by barrels, etc.

That's it! Clean and—Free from Dust

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair-roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Mahoney in the bye-election made necessary by the latter's accepting the provincial portfolio of Public Works. Dr. Smith accepted the nomination. A. B. Copp, M. P., said he brought the personal greetings of the leader of the federal opposition, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and promised his best assistance to the party. Hon. C. W. Robinson was called on and pledged his support to the party and candidate in the coming campaign.

Electric Co. Forced to Resume Day Time Service The Board of Public Utilities delivered judgment Wednesday afternoon in the case of the Eastern Electric Co. of Sackville. After a very long review of the points presented the Board came to the conclusion that the expense of operation was 66 7/10 per cent. of its gross revenue, which they thought was not excessive or unreasonable. They found the plant value to be $41,000, thereby practically substantiating the company's contention on this point. The net income, averaged over five years, was found to be $4,917.29, or 9.73 per cent. on capitalization. Allowing eight per cent. for profit, the board found that this left an average of $747.29 for replacement over and above the usual and ordinary depreciation which is set out of revenue to six per cent. should be allowed for this purpose, but this amount the board thought would be too large and there was not sufficient data to determine the precise amount to be allowed. A reserve fund ought, in their opinion, to be kept intact and accumulated over a period of years. They found that the plant was not imprudently operated, not unduly installed. Finding that the company was able to earn an eight per cent. dividend on the operation as hitherto carried on, the board decided to order the restoration of the daytime service intending that if future results should not maintain the average of the last five years that it would then become necessary either to raise the rates or permit curtailment of the service.

Storekeeper Shoots his Clerk P. A. Chapman, general storekeeper at Newton, Kings Co., returning from Sussex Wednesday night, shot his clerk, Miss Holden. It seems that Chapman entered the store about 6 o'clock, and said to Miss Holden, "I understand you are going to leave me," and on being asked who told him, he replied "I had a dream last night and the Lord told me so." She replied, "He told you right, I am." He then said, "You are a lot, for I am going to shoot you and then kill myself." Chapman followed up his words by walking behind her and drawing a revolver he fired three shots in rapid succession. One of them missed his victim, the other causing a slight wound in the shoulder and the third entering the back near the spine. After a desperate struggle Miss Holden escaped out of the shop door only to be dragged back again where a further struggle ensued and finally Miss Holden got away again and ran to the home of R. D. Keth where she collapsed. Dr. D. H. McAllister, who was summoned by phone, made a record run in his auto and furnished the necessary medical aid. Chief Asbell also arrived shortly on the scene and placed Chapman under arrest and brought him to Sussex. The prisoner was taken before Stipendiary Magistrate Polkins who remanded him to Hampton jail for one week to await further developments as to the girl's condition. On Monday purchase of a revolver that afternoon in the hardware department of the Sussex Mercantile Co., and evidently had only put three cartridges in it. Jealousy is thought to be the cause of the attempted crime. Miss Holden, who is a native of Belfast, Ireland, intended to sail for England in the course of a few days to engage in nursing there.

145th Recruit Killed on Railway James Humphrey, 28 years of age, an employee of the Roger Miller Co. was found dead beside the I. C. R. track Friday night about half an hour after the arrival of the train from Moncton, due at Shediac at 10:45. From the bruises found on the body it was quite apparent that the unfortunate man was struck and killed by the train which arrived at Shediac at the time mentioned. The body was found by a man between Shediac and the stone quarry, about a mile east of the quarry, about half an hour after the express arrived at Shediac. The deceased, who was in the employ of the Roger Miller Co., was on his way from Shediac to the home of his sister, Mrs. Wallace Bank, who lives at the stone quarry. Just how he came to be run over by the train, of course, is not known. The unfortunate man had recently enlisted with the 145th Battalion, but had not yet reported for duty. In the pocket of the dead man was found a South African medal belonging to his brother who had lost his life in the South African war.

Food Getting Scarce in Berlin?

Doctors' Action Shows The Seriousness of The Food Situation in The German Capital

London, May 18—(The New York Times cable)—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Amsterdam yesterday says: The food question in Germany is at present in such a position that in the opinion of the physicians of greater Berlin, who recently considered the matter uniform regulation of the food supply is necessary in the interests of the health of the people. The committee decided to petition the imperial chancellor. A conference was held at the Prussian home office today to devise measures for feeding the population of Berlin.

Casement and Bailey To be Tried for Treason

In London Sir Roger Casement and Daniel J. Bailey were committed for trial last week for high treason. This decision was reached at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing of these men on the charge of participating in the Irish rebellion, which trial has been in progress since Monday. The date of the trial and the court before which it will be held have not yet been announced. At the preliminary examination as a private in the 73rd regiment for 1913 camp at Sussex. He had shown his papers to prove that he had formed a connection with the 73rd as instructor in that regiment. Chatham officers when asked about this statement said that a man giving his name as Bailey had enlisted as a private in the 73rd regiment for 1913 camp at Sussex. He had shown his papers to prove that he had formed a connection with the 73rd as instructor in that regiment. BIBLE SAVED THIS BOY'S LIFE

In the official report of operations at the front from the Canadian Eye-Witness, the following paragraph appears: "During the course of a bombardment on the positions of a New Brunswick battalion, Private F. Snelgrove, St. John, was slightly wounded. When his injury was being dressed at the clearing station it was discovered that he had had a narrow escape from far more serious hurt. Another bullet had struck him in a dangerous place, but had been stopped by a Bible given to him by his mother, which he carried in his early been in the Royal Irish Rifles in pocket."

THE HOSPITAL AT WORK

The first operation in the Miramichi Hospital was performed a few days ago by Dr. D. R. Moore, assisted by Drs. R. Nicholson and J. E. Park, and we understand it was quite successful and the patient is resting nicely.

The great advantage of our new hospital, which is so splendidly equipped, will become more evident to our citizens every day. This splendid institution will fill a long, felt want.

Town Council

Ald. Kingston—I am reporting now Mr. Finley—Yes; at the eleventh hour, if you say I was never up that way I shall be inclined to use a pretty strong term.

Ald. Kingston—I did not say you never were up. I never saw you up. Ald. McGrath—Impudence, for an employee of this Council to threaten a member of it!

Ald. Kingston—we have spent two nights ridiculing Gallah. Time we had a crack at the other man.

It was moved by Ald. Scribner, seconded by Ald. Stables, that the report of the Police Committee read last night be received and adopted.

Ald. McGrath—The facts are these. We have two officers. One charges the other. I should as well believe one as the other. Gallah should be believed as readily as one who received as little sympathy in St. John as he is giving to Gallah here.

The men are about on a balance. It was something new in Newcastle to have one officer charging another. He failed to see that this committee had succeeded in reforming the Police force. His opinion was that the day policeman was at fault.

He (McGrath) had come home from the country this morning and he had great difficulty getting through his own gate for men in uniform.

Ald. Hayward—we had trouble last year. The police committee were unanimous in this report. We ask for this to increase the efficiency of the force.

Ald. Miller said he had known one of the policemen all his life. The other was a stranger to us. There was no fault with Gallah. Some discussion between the two. None were more anxious for efficiency than himself.

This was the biggest crisis that had yet struck this town. This investigation should have been held under oath. He was afraid that some were biased against Gallah. He was not against anybody. Gallah should not be thrown down. Suppose he did get drunk. He wouldn't screen him for being drunk. But some of the premiers of Canada had got drunk. He felt confident that Gallah was given another trial he would do better. No doubt, according to the Chief's story, he was an noyed. But Gallah denies the charges. He hoped the Chief and the committee would reconsider the matter and if ever again the Chief has to make a charge he (Miller) would support him.

Ald. Stuart said that the Scott Act had never been thoroughly enforced here, but its enforcement had been some better since Chief Finley's taking hold of it, and appeared, now that most of the appeals to the supreme Court had been decided in the town's favor, most hopeful for the future. He had confidence in the Chief, and for the sake of greater efficiency in the police force, would be compelled to support the motion before the Council. But if anyone doubted the Chief's word and felt that justice was not being done, let him move to have the investigation held under oath and he (Stuart) would support such a motion. If the Chief had falsely accused officer Gallah, the latter could make him smart for it in the courts.

Ald. Miller moved in amendment, seconded by Ald. McGrath. That action re dismissal of J. J. Gallah be deferred for three months.

Ald. Stuart—Why didn't you move for an investigation under oath?
Ald. Miller—Why don't you move it yourself?

Ald. Stuart—I see no reason to doubt the Chief's word. It's for those who doubt it to make the motion.

Ald. Scribner said he had confidence in Chief Finley. Through his report the committee were led to investigate charges against Mr. Gallah, and he (Scribner) saw no reason for changing his opinion of the Chief's charges.

Ald. Hayward said that the Police Committee had had the matter under consideration several times.

Ald. Miller said that if Gallah didn't do right he would support the committee in dismissing him.

(The vote on the amendment stood: Yea—Ald. Kingston, McGrath and Miller.)

Nay—Ald. Hayward, Mackay, Scribner, Stables and Stuart.

Ald. McGrath said he would move a further amendment in favor of holding an investigation under oath.

The Mayor ruled that the time for such an amendment had gone by.

Mr. Gallah had a chance to get back at the Chief through the Courts if the Chief had made false charges against him.

Ald. Stables said it was up to officer Gallah to ask for an investigation under oath.

The motion to adopt the committee's report, recommending the dismissal of Policeman Gallah was then put and carried on the following vote:

Yea—Ald. Hayward, Mackay, Scribner, Stables and Stuart.
Nay—Ald. Kingston, McGrath and Miller.

An application for the office of collector of default taxes, from John H. Ashford, was read, and on motion of Aids. Mackay and Miller, it was referred to the Finance Committee.

Ald. McGrath asked that the Finance Committee be empowered to hire a man.

Ald. Miller said that before the man was hired there should be a recommendation from the committee.

Ald. Stuart agreed with Ald. Miller.

Ald. McGrath said it would be necessary to move quickly in matter of collecting taxes.

Ald. Miller—Bring in a report first and have a special meeting.
On motion adjourned to meet in special session next Friday night.

"IRON CLAW" RAGE

The Chicago Herald of April 24th, had the following to say of Pathe's serial success "The Iron Claw."

"The Iron Claw rage has struck Chicago and vicinity. Over 112 theatres in this locality are using the serial and daily requests for one episode or another are reaching the Chicago Pathe office. This is true also in New York and the West. Serials have a way of starting out bravely and coming to a sad end. The interest becomes indifferent and the story gets to a place where it lacks punch. "The Iron Claw" has been steadily gaining in favor ever since its first episode "The Perils of Pauline" and "The Exploits of Elaine," were both from the Pathe studio, and considered at the time of their release wonderful examples of successful serials, but those have faded into nothing as compared with the sale of "The Iron Claw." "The Iron Claw" has proved from the number of prints exhibited that it is up to date the most popular continued pictorial story ever made.

PEARL WHITE RE-

FUSED TO BE "DOUBLED"

Pathe Star Nearly Loses her Life in Consequences. "Iron Claw" Stunt too Strenuous Even for Her.

Pearl White, heroine of Pathe's "The Iron Claw" came very near to "double" for Pearl, but the lady wouldn't stand for it. "The scenario specifies me for that stunt going to it?" she asked. "Well it's going to be me!" Mr. Jose protested, but what's the use of arguing with a determined woman? The stunt was pulled off. The rehearsal was perfect, so, satisfied Mr. Jose called "camera" and the car came tearing down the road. Mr. Lewis was tired however, from the exertions of a day that would have taxed a dock wallop. He grabbed the lady and tried to hoist her into the car. His muscles cracked and the veins stood out on his forehead. Then his strength gave way and the blonde topped heroine fell to the ground under the wheels of the car which shot over her body. Cameron Ben Strickman turned his head to avoid seeing the apparently inevitable tragedy, but kept on grinding his camera. Miss White's gown caught on one of the wheels of the car, and in no time was twisted round and around, dragging her for yards along the road. When the automobile was finally stopped and Miss White helped to her feet, it was found that she had miraculously escaped serious injury, but it took a doctor to fix up her cuts and scratches. The filming of a "thriller" is certainly no gentle parlor sport.

"IRON CLAW" ACTORS GIVE NEW YORK CROWD A THRILL

Last Sunday, Park Row, one of New York's busiest streets, was the scene of an unwanted thrill. Passersby saw two men struggling for life on the top of the tower of the Park Row Building, which boasts a height of thirty-seven stories. A crowd gathered in no time and many turned their heads in horror when they saw one of the struggling figures lost his footing and fall headlong to the sidewalk. Several policemen held back the crowd while the others dashed into the building to apprehend the survivor. A foolish look came over the faces of everyone when the body was turned over on its back and it was discovered that it was a cleverly made dummy. The mystery was explained when Edward Jose, the Pathe producer, with Creighton Hale, the actor, left the building accompanied by a cameraman. Mr. Jose had obtained permission from the superintendent of the building to stage some scenes in the tower for the serial photoplay "The Iron Claw."

"IRON CLAW" ACTORS SHOW NERVE

Will Plunge in an Auto from Bridge into the Water

Edward Jose, who is producing the "Iron Claw," Pathe's serial, is lying awake at nights scheming the best ways to get some of the spectacular effects demanded by the scenario. Each episode presents new problems that are handled with the utmost difficulty. The latest requires him to drive a motor car containing five persons from a draw bridge heading into the water. Furthermore, he can't use dummies. The five unfortunates who must have the plunge includes Creighton Hale and Sheldon Lewis. The death-defying dip will be pulled off at Toms River, N. J.

The best way to lighten the burden of an oppressed man is to tell him not to worry.

Private Fishing Abolished in N. S.

Waters of Province Will Hereafter be Open to All Its Citizens, On Equal Terms

Halifax, N. S., May 16—The people of Nova Scotia in virtue of an act just passed by the Nova Scotia Legislature now have freedom to fish in any inland waters in this province, a privilege not enjoyed in the past. This comes as a result of a bill introduced by W. L. Hall, member for Kings in the provincial legislature. It will affect a large number of people who hitherto have had fishing pools for their exclusive use. As a result of an agitation some years ago the Government passed a bill giving the right of free fishing on all inland waters and the right of travel over all unencultivated lands for that purpose, but provided that municipal councils should have the right to pass by-laws and issue licenses, giving private owners on rivers the exclusive right to fish in their own waters. The act provided, however, that in the event of municipal councils not passing by-laws or issuing licenses in any county there should be no right of free fishing except over Crown lands and timber lands.

By an amendment introduced by Mr. Hall this act now has been changed so that all residents of the province shall have the right to fish in all rivers and lakes and tidal waters and to cross all unencultivated lands for the purpose of fishing, unless the owner, who claims exclusive rights has obtained a license from the municipal council.

The municipal councils of both Halifax and Queens counties have passed resolutions refusing to issue licenses and there is no doubt all the other counties will also refuse.

This deprives a large number of wealthy gentlemen of Halifax of fishing pools for their exclusive use. One of these for instance is J. Y. Paysant, president of the Bank of Nova Scotia, who has valuable pools on the Mersey river. These now are as free to the public as to him.

The argument is always hottest when both are wrong.

The Home Garden Now is The Time to Utilize All Vacant Plots and Thus Reduce The Cost of Living

Within the few weeks, the workman said that, while paying 60 time will be opportune for making cents per week additional rental, he home gardens out of even the most wretchedly neglected areas.

A backyard scene which is anything but attractive and beautiful.

The appearance of his surroundings is usually an index to a man's character. The work of the garden created a character.

Surroundings like these lend enchantment to the home and encourage industry.

is illustrated by the experience of a workman and his wife at a garden village in Hull, England.

Vacant Lot Gardens

Organization work for the promotion of vacant lot gardening should be taken up at once. Good work was done in many places last season, and this year should show a large increase.

Among the successes of last season, the results from vacant lot gardens in Ottawa may be cited. The enterprise consisted of 128 plots, fifty by one hundred feet, of which no fewer than 180 applications were received.

The cost of living continues to soar in Canada, entailing an added hardship on the head of a family in supplying food.

How Women Cleaned Up a Town in Texas

The following letter appears in the June issue of Pictorial Review and won the first prize in the section for club women in Pictorial Review's Clean-Up Day competition.

"Mart is a new town of about 3,500 people in central Texas. It was a very dirty town and though it had been cleaned up spasmodically it always went back to dirt.

Through a "Committee on Streets, Alleys and Vacant Lots," we cleaned up the town and are keeping it a great deal cleaner.

"BETTER MART CLUB To arrive at and maintain pure food standards we have a Pure Food Committee subdivided into several committees as "Grocery Store Committee," "Dairy Committee," and so on.

Every merchant responded, and now each month these committees grade each store according to a state score card.

We have other committees such as the "Beautifying Committee," "Finance Committee," "Social Committee," "Membership Committee," and so forth.

ALLIES' GREAT DRIVE PREPARING

Since shortly after the war began, there have been frequent predictions that the final move was about to be started.

The very recent transfer of Russian troops from the eastern battle front to France, at the time when Russia is driving the Turks out of Asia and completely closing the only open door of Germany and when France has completely felled the German attacks at Verdun, is very significant.

WINNIPEG MAYOR'S NOTE OF WARNING

Manufacturing, Rather Than Wholesale, Necessary to Build Up Community—Convincing Statistics

In a recent speech to the Canadian Credit Men's Association, at Winnipeg, Mayor R. D. Waugh gave some very interesting statistics showing the deterioration of Winnipeg as a manufacturing centre.

The mayor stated he might be too optimistic, yet he ventured the opinion that we in this favored land of Western Canada had passed through the critical period in the great economic crisis which the world is experiencing.

Table comparing 1914 and 1915 statistics for Winnipeg, including output of goods, wages, and total goods.

Working Day and Night It is a known fact that Eastern factories are working day and night to keep ahead of orders.

Table comparing 1914 and 1915 manufacturing statistics for Winnipeg, showing population, manufactured products, and wages.

This clearly shows that Eastern manufacturers are increasing their output tremendously per 100,000 population, while in Winnipeg we show a large decrease as compared with 1914.

Australia is the richest country per head on the earth. Its population is only 34,321,073, yet it has $28,918,204 in savings bank deposits and $174,479,236 deposited in banks of issue.

Sweden Becomes Peaceable

London, May 19.—It is learned from the foreign office that the tension between Sweden and the Entente Alliance has been ended, although no official statement is forthcoming at this time. Lord Robert Cecil, minister of trade, told the Associated Press an agreement had been reached today, but would give no details. He indicated that the controversy between Sweden and Russia over the Aland Islands was fictitious, saying Russia never intended to fortify the islands. Great Britain and Sweden became involved in a dispute several months ago as a result of detention of Swedish shipping by the British, and particularly interference with Swedish mails. In reprisal Sweden held up thousands of parcels in transit by mail from Russia to England.
