Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick at a complimentary dinner given him by his supporters in the legislature from St. John city and county. About 200 attended the banquet including local friends and political supporters, members of the local legislature from outside the city, members of the provincial government, Hon. Senator O. Turgeon of Bathurst, Hon. A. B. Copp, Secretary of State and Hon. Dr. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works in the Federal government.

Among the government's intentions announced by Premier Veniot were the following: Continuation of the progressive good roads policy of the government with the completion of the organization of the branch roads; the continuation of that system to some of their branch roads; the continuation of the agricultural school recently opened near Fredericton where short course in scientific farming will be given farmers and their sons at different times of the year; declaration against the open door to immigrants and the affirmation of a policy of selective immigration, the encouragement of New Brunswick people to remain in the province and inducing those who have left to return to the province; continuation of the aid for technical and vocational education; the support of a policy that will tend to beget more co-operation between labor and capital so that the Workmen's Compensation Act may be made more workable and beneficial the continuance of medical inspection of schools after the Rocketteller foundation withdraws its subsidy for this work next year; the reaffirmation of the recent offer to furnish diabetes sufferers in the province, with insulin, who are unable to pay for it; the declaration that the water powers of the province shall be developed by, and remain the property of the government, and that no private enterprise shall have any hold upon them; more aid for hospitals and better facilities for caring for the unfortunate insane; the prosecution of an investigation into some system of equalization if valuations that will be of use both for provincial and municipal purpose; the continuation of the inquiry into the question of mother's pensions, with a possibility of establishing some system here.

Basket Ball Game In Aid of Red Cross

A basket ball game between the Tigers and Athletics of the local C.G.I.T. was played in the Temperance Hall last Friday evening, before a good sized audience. Waldo McCormack refereed the game in an impartial manner and the Tigers were victorious over the Athletics by the score of 22 to 19.

The game was arranged for the benefit of the Red Cross Society which requires funds for a special cause and the receipts of the game were highly satisfactory. During intermission candy was sold.

The line up was as follows:

TIGERS		ATHLETICS
Centre
Jean Jardine		Katie Cassidy
Forwards
Helena Harris		Elizabeth Jardine
Katie Mutch		Margaret Murray
Defense
Jessie Harris		Florence Cassidy
Elizabeth Hill		Anna Palm

After the game the members of the teams and some of their friends spent the evening in St. James' Hall, where refreshments were served.

G.S. Hawkins of the local Royal Bank of Canada staff, who is visiting his home in Murray Harbor P.E.I., has been given a month's leave of absence and will not return until the latter part of December. Mr. J.C. Demers will remain until Mr. Hawkins returns.

MAE EDWARDS PLAYERS COMING

Open An Engagement At Opera House Next Monday

Mae Edwards and her popular company will open a two day's engagement next Monday at the Opera House with the big New York success, "Two Daddies of Mine," next Monday. Also they carry high class vaudeville which will be seen between the acts and as a special feature a eight piece jazz orchestra.

What the papers say about this company:

"Two Daddies of Mine," an exceedingly bright and entertaining Comedy-Drama, delights big audience."

"With a company far exceeding that of last year in every way and a repertoire of bright new dramatic successes and vaudeville of top notch variety and plenty of it, and a lively jazz band of eight pieces which rendered decidedly captivating music, the Mae Edwards company carried all before them as far as entertainment triumphs go.

"Mae Edwards certainly has succeeded this time in getting a first class aggregation of players, and in this breezy little drama which was devoid of all the questionable features of the modern problem play, the audience were as fully satisfied and it is safe to say far better pleased than they would have been had the play been of the other class named.

"A play which will furnish a large order of clean merriment is the kind which the public appreciates and the audience of last night certainly had their share of this, for Miss Edwards in "Two Daddies of Mine," furnished more laughs to the square yard than any player seen here for some time. Her acting was excellent and vivacity was portrayed in her every word and action.

The vaudeville and music by the orchestra was a big feature of the play and there were absolutely no dull moments.

Complete change of play and vaudeville each night.

Secure your seats in advance and avoid standing in line. Now on sale at Dickson & Sons Drug Store.

ABOUT $5,000,000

The British treasury will benefit to the extent of £1,000,000 from the duties payable on the estate of Nathaniel Rothschild, which has been provisionally valued at £2,250,000. Mr Rothschild, left most of his property and estates to his wife and relations, but his valuable collections of insects, birds, orchids and the like were bequeathed to the national museum of the public.

What Newspapers Correct

Speaking of complaints of misrepresentation of public men by newspapers, the Almonte Gazette shows that there is something to be placed on the other side of the account. It tells of a temperance meeting held in a church, in Ottawa, where the chairman, a well-known citizen, sat in the pulpit. He had dined not wisely but too well. He went asleep and snored audibly. "But the newspapers next day contained no story about a drunk chairman in a pulpit flanked by temperance orators. Of course, something might have been said if he hadn't really been a very excellent citizen and a good man.
In order to judge newspapers fairly, we must consider not only what they print, but what they refrain from printing. Not only is a good deal of charity exercised but by investigation, reporters often prevent the spread of wild rumors, which would otherwise grow bigger as they pass from one to another in conversation. Some of our readers may remember a poem telling of a story that

The Wonderful Fruit Medicine
Anyone who suffers with miserable health; who is tortured with Headaches; and who is unable to get any real pleasure out of life; will be interested in this letter of Mrs. Martha de Wolfe of East Ship Harbor, N.S.
Mrs. de Wolfe says, "For years I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicine seemed to help me. Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and the effect was splendid; and after taking only one box, I was completely relieved and now feel like a new person."

Quick Thinking Did Trick

A colored preacher in Alabama at one time served a short jail sentence and was fearful lest his congregation discover the fact, as in his later years he had been a model of rectitude. One Sunday, rising to begin his sermon, his heart sank to see a former cellmate sitting in the front row. Quick thinking was necessary. Fixing his eye on the unwelcome guest, the preacher announced solemnly. "Ah takes my text dis mo'nin' from de sixty-fifth chapter and fo'hundredth verse of de book of Job, which says 'Dem as sees and knows me, and says nothin' dem will Ah see later.'"

NEW BRUNSWICK
POTATO CROP

Reports received from New Brunswick indicate that the crop throughout that province is about 25 per cent less than that of 1922. In the Victoria district the potato acreage was 10 per cent less than that of 1922. The yield was 100 bbls per acre and for White potatoes, the average price has been $1.50 per barrel of 165 pounds. Red stock Bliss variety sell at $2.25 per bbl. of 165 pounds. The potatoes are all clean and sound and one-third of the crop has been marketed, leaving one third in storage and one-third still in the growers' hands. In the Fredericton district the acreage runs about 60 per cent of that of 1922 but the yield was 75 per cent greater than that of last year. 25 per cent of the crop has been marketed the balance being in the growers hands. The price received at the present time is $1.40 to $1.50 per barrel of 165 pounds.
East Centreville—The acreage planted to potatoes in this district is 70 per cent of that of last year; with a yield of around 100 barrels per acre; which is slightly more in the aggregate than the crop of 1922. The condition is good as regards quality and disease. 80 per cent of the potatoes are still in the hands of the grower. The price of potatoes at this time is $1.25 to $1.50 per barrel of 165 pounds.

Belgium To Quit
The Ruhr Region?

The Belgian government will raise in friendly conversations with France, the question of a partial withdrawal of the forces in the Ruhr. Now that active and passive resistance is considered ended the Belgians hope to bring back 5,000 of their men from the Ruhr by Christmas.

GERMANY CONFRONTED WITH BANKRUPTCY

Berlin, Niv. 28—Germany is immediately threatened with a plain case of bankruptcy and will no longer be able to meet her public payrolls, is the opinion of Dr. George Gothein, Democratic Reichstag leader, who to-day vigorously upbraided the Socialists and German Nationalists for having needlessly precipitated a parliamentary crisis.
Dr. Gothein declared Germany's only salvation in the present situation would be in the form of a foreign loan under allied supervision "similar to that applied in the case of Austria."

Sixteen and one-half million trillion of marks in new paper currency were floated by the Reich bank in the first week of November during which period its holdings of discounted treasury bills, private checks and drafts increased by twenty-six and one half million trillion.
The current return was the first reported this month, a circumstance which was the object of comment on today's dull and listless bourse.

Dr. Schacht, the newly appointed commissioner of currency hopes to have the entire issue of the rented mark ready for distribution by the middle of next month. He declares that the scarcity of the new money is wholly due to the fact that the printers are in arrears in their deliveries and that the initial output was placed at the disposal of the government to enable it to dispense with discounting bills.
Until the Renten mark is available in large quantities no attempt will be made to establish a parity between it and the paper mark, the legal status of which meanwhile remains unchanged. It is estimated that about 200,000,000 Renten marks now are in circulation chiefly devoted to meeting the federal payrolls. Dr. Schacht believes that some friction will be inevitable during the period of transition from one currency to the other.

Pathetic instances abound of the difficulties the humbler people of the older generation are having in trying to accommodate themselves to the bewildering currency figures of the present. To-day one old dame shopping at a street market was heard to confess that she could not understand the present prices, as at school she "only learned to count up to a million and could never get any further."

I also used to have weak spells. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am real well now. I shall always keep a box of the Nerve Food in the house, and recommend them to my friends; they are a wonderful medicine."

BEAVERBROOK VS. THE LABORITES

London, Nov. 29.—The Daily Express is having lively passages with the Labor organ the Herald and the Tory Morning Post concerning defence to guests of Lord Beaverbrook a few days ago before the reunion of the two wings of the Liberal party—Lloyd George, Chamberlain and Churchill—at Lord Beaverbrook's country house.

"The Herald drinks in all the Morning Post's moonshine about Lord Beaverbrook's private guests at Leatherhead, and the marvellous schemes they concocted," the Express says, and it declares that all this is purely the invention of the extreme Socialist and extreme Tory newspapers.

"British journalism, so far, has held itself above the method frequently employed in other countries shadowing political opponents and revealing the names of their guests"

SAVED BABY'S LIFE

Mrs. Alfred Tranchemontagne, St. Michel des Saints, Que., writes:—"Baby's Own Tablets are an excellent medicine. They saved my baby's life and I can highly recommend them to all mothers." Mrs. Tranchemontagne's experience is that of thousands of other mothers who have tested the worth of Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are a sure and safe medicine for little ones and never fail to regulate the bowels and stomach, thus relieving all the minor ills from which children suffer. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cts a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. yearly..

Music Should be Made to Appeal to Three Classes

In all high schools the students, both boys and girls, are divided into three groups:

1. Those who possess distinct interest and capacity in musical accomplishment.
2. Those who possess distinct interest and capacity in musical appreciation, but only a moderate interest or capacity for musical accomplishment.
3. Those who possess no interest or capacity in musical accomplishment and only a moderate interest or capacity for musical appreciation.

It is readily seen that there can be no well defined line of demarcation between groups two and one or two and three, and that students may, and should, pass readily from one group into the next. Any music curriculum which even approaches the ideal is one that makes adequate provision for all three groups of students: The professional musicians of the future must find it possible to carry on an intensive study of music during four years of high school.

The larger group, who, in the future will make up the ranks of amateur musicians, and appreciative listeners, the men and women who will so willingly support the symphony orchestras and other worthy musical enterprises, must have their interest sustained, their musical knowledge broadened, and their musical tastes and habits formed during the most formative years of their lives. The third group who up to the high school age, have evinced little, if any, real interest in music, must be led to realize what a socializing force music is, and what an important place it may occupy in the worthy use of leisure time.

"BUY AT HOME"

SCHOOLS COMPARED BY PREMIER BALDWIN

London, Nov. 27.—The assertion that the achievement of the schools of the United States is far below that of the British was made by Premier Baldwin last night in an election speech at Bristol. Replying to the statement of a Laborite speaker that the Conservatives were opposed to popular education the premier said:

"We hear a great deal about American education but from such opportunities as I have had of consulting those who have visited American schools I do not believe the actual achievement of those schools is comparable to that of our schools. That judgment has been endorsed by American educators themselves. I am told a highly competent observer has said that on the whole, an American boy of fifteen is in knowledge and achievement, about two years behind an English pupil of the same age."

SKEPTICAL OF PANTHER STORY

Fredericton Mail:—Uncle Henry Braithwaite, the famous guide when shown the Newcastle despatch telling about the shooting of a panther on the Sevole, said that he had his doubts about the animal being a real panther. The only panther he ever heard of in New Brunswick existed in the mind of Prof. C. G. D. Roberts, for many years. The animal visited the professor's home at Keswick when he was a boy and took considerable delight in writing stories about it at a fairly good price. After the subject had been pretty well exhausted, Uncle Henry and the professor met one day and they both concluded that the fierce animal was nothing more than a bob cat.

PRESBYTERIANS

Have You Read
THE BASIS OF UNION?

This document introduces such radical changes that every Presbyterian should read and study it

DO YOU KNOW?

- That:
1. The ministers will not be pledged to any system of Truth. It casts aside the great Fundamental Doctrines on which our church was founded and by which she has done her work. The new church will be really a creedless church.
 2. The ordained eldership will be dropped. No other church has such a company of ordained men, banded together by the most sacred vows for service in the work of the Lord. This sheet-anchor of Presbyterianism will be bartered away for the "Committee man" of the new church.
 3. The right of a congregation to "call" its own minister will be taken away. Instead there will be a "Settlement Committee" which may or may not grant the request or adhere to the wishes of a congregation. The right to "call" its own minister is a cherished right and privilege of Presbyterianism.
 4. The right of a Presbytery to ordain and induct its ministers will be taken away. This solemn and sacred privilege is highly prized by the Presbyterian Church.
 5. To exchange the Great Confession of Faith for this doctrinal compromise—the Basis of Union—is too big a price to pay for a so-called Union.

Re. Rev. L. H. MacLean's Criticism of the Advocate's Report

Elsewhere is published a letter from Rev. L. H. MacLean, in which he takes exception to the "Advocate's" report of last issue on the anti-union meeting held in St. James' Hall on Thursday, November 22nd.

The reverend gentleman says, "scarcely worth replying to" and yet he replies profusely.

It would appear as inconceivable that a Judge of the Supreme Court would read into a "bill" that which was not in it. Had the clergy submitted the "bill" to the people, would they not be better able to judge for themselves as to the correctness of the reverend gentleman's charge against Judge Crockett?

However, Judge Crockett will be apprised of the charge against him and he, no doubt, will be quite capable of defending himself.

The statements of "Ralph Connor" and Doctor Gandier, with which Judge Crockett took issue, have appeared time after time in the daily papers, at their own instance, and re-publishing them in the weekly press would simply be repetition of matter already analysed.

Mr. MacLean states, "What I understand Dr. Duncan did at that meeting, among other things, was to misrepresent the basis of Union by stating that congregations could not, in the United Church, call their ministers." It is to be hoped that Dr. Duncan, a minister of reputed character, is innocent of misrepresentation.

Rev. Dr. E. Scott, Editor of the Presbyterian Record, has the following to say in reference to the calling of a minister to the proposed United Church of Canada, "In the new Church, the people may get up a Call at one time of the year, when the far-off Settlement Committee meets, but that Settlement Committee can send to them and force upon them whom it will, regard less of their Call. This takes from Presbyterians a freedom and a right, won by many a struggle, and places them under a yoke of clerical and official domination, which their fathers ever refused to bear." Dr. Duncan's and Judge Crockett's statements in reference to the procedure of the Unionist ministers, were always prefaced with the quotations and actions which they opposed, Critics of the "Advocate's" report would be more convincing if they treated their side of the question in a like manner, rather than from information gleaned from other sources.

The meeting referred to was not a Unionist one but an anti-unionist meeting, and as such was reported by the "Advocate."

Newcastle, N. B.

Dear Sir,

It is not my intention to use much of your space or your reader's time in answer to an article captioned "Rises to Answer Anti-Union Orator," which appeared in the columns of the St. John Daily "Telegraph-Journal" of November 28th, dated Newcastle, November 27th, and dealing with the anti-unionist meeting held here at which Rev. Dr. Duncan and Judge Crockett were the speakers.

I do not know the author of such article but I would infer that a mistake has been made. The article says in part, "one of the most interesting features of the meeting was the intervention of Mrs. (Rev.) L. H. MacLean, who in a speech which was quite unexpected, etc." Intervention and unexpected is correct. The following words might also have been most appropriately added, viz:—"Unadorned," "Reproaching," "Ungovernable" and "Odious."

The writer of the article said nothing in the report concerning the gentlemanly and efficient reply which Dr. Duncan made, neither was anything said about how satisfactory Dr. Duncan's reply was to the audience, which showed its appreciation by loud applause after Dr. Duncan had concluded his remarks.

The article concludes thus, "Mrs. MacLean said that she felt herself constrained to speak her mind, especially when her husband was lying ill in bed at home and unable to be there to oppose the position of the anti-union leaders." Did it occur to the writer of the article in question that wives, whose husbands are ill in bed, usually remain at home with them during their sickness, and further that the meeting was not a joint meeting of Unionists and Anti-unionists but strictly an anti-unionist meeting, at which no person had the right to speak but those for whose purpose and cause the meeting was called. Surely the writer of this report must be in error.

It might be well, in future, for the party who is responsible for the authorship of this report to be careful, not to leave out words, when they are so important and also to give a full description of the facts bearing on the question. Really it is to be regretted that the reporter did not refrain from giving this incident the publicity which it has been given and allow the episode to pass unnoticed.

Yours very truly,
MRS. JAMES BAISLEY
P.S.—All newspapers in the province that published the above mentioned report would confer a favor, if they would give my letter similar publicity as that accorded the report.
Newcastle, N.B., Dec. 3, 1923.

To the Editor of the Advocate
Newcastle, N. B.

Dear Sir,

Kindly permit me the use of your columns to answer Rev. W. McN. Matthews' letter on "Church Union" in the Chatham Commercial" under date of Nov. 27th.

The reverend gentleman, in his opening remarks, says "one hesitates to discuss denominational differences in the public press." Since he has resorted to such, he will therefore be unable to criticise others for so doing.

It is all very well for Unionist clergymen to spread their propaganda from their own pulpits (where they are master of the situation) but when they attempt it in the public press, it gives those opposed, an opportunity to answer them and it is just what is required in such a vital question of his kind. One thing is certain and that is, that these Unionist clergymen will take good care that anti-unionists will have mighty little access to their pulpits for the explanation of the anti-union side of the question. And while on this phrase of the question—why should the anti-unionists not be given the privilege of presenting their case from the pulpits? These pulpits are Presbyterian Pulpits belonging to the Presbyterian people and not to the individual ministers, as some of them apparently think they do. And is it not the loyal Presbyterians who are opposed to Union and who are endeavoring to save their own Church? Notwithstanding—these unionist ministers are opposed, in some cases, to allowing Presbyterians the use of Presbyterian pulpits about which the Rev. Mr. Matthews says "this policy of Christian forbearance and patience is still being practised and is evidenced by the fact that men like Rev. Mr. Mackintosh and Rev. Dr. Duncan are given the privilege of Church buildings though they carry on a campaign in direct opposition to the decision of the church constitutionally expressed." Mr. Matthews thinks the Unionists are entitled to credit for allowing the Church property to be used in this effort against a "bill" which expressly provides for the extinction of the very church, whose pulpits Mr. Matthews and his colleagues are endeavoring to destroy. If this is not "Kaiserism" I would like to know what it is.

The truth of the matter is that they wanted a policy similar to that of the late Bonar Law's Policy carried out, but Bonar Law is dead and so is his policy of tranquility and the laymen of the Presbyterian Church in Canada do not propose for one moment to allow these so-called Unionist ministers to indulge in any such policy while they stand back and watch their church being swept to one side. This is what hurts these unionist clergymen and it is the last thing they ever contemplated would happen, and in consequence the shoe is pinching hard.

However, Mr. Matthews has taken up his pen for the columns of the public press, and he no doubt voices the sentiments of many of his brother clergymen. He and his confreres must now be like the women who mix up in politics and take the bitter with the sweet.

Kindly Mr. Matthews quotes instructions of the General Assembly of 1912, which were given to the Unionist clergymen, and that the Unionist clergymen were to be "in the front of the battle" and not to "stand back and watch their church being swept to one side."

and unjust.

In reply, I might ask the reverend gentleman, if such tactics as I have explained above are not coercive, then what are they? Why do these unionist clergymen not want a full and frank discussion of both sides of the question given before their congregations? Why do they want tranquility? Why do they go about with "A Holler than thou" propaganda? Why do they not want another vote of Presbyterians from coast to coast? Why do they make such misleading statements about there being no anti-unionists in the west, and why do they say that the question of Church Union is settled, when they know perfectly well that it is not settled?

These and many other questions which might be asked are conclusively proved that these unionists have made up their minds that the time has arrived when they must use force if they wish to succeed in destroying the Presbyterian Church, which they pledged themselves to uphold and sustain if they were satisfied that they could gain their objective by being up and above board there would be no necessity for them to adopt the methods of coercion, which they have adopted, and in so far as the General Assembly, which met in Port Arthur last June is concerned, it is a well known fact that this Assembly was nothing more or less than a packed convention of unionists, with minds fully made up to put the Union question through at all hazard. The politicians have nothing on these men. Any documentary evidence drawn up by such an Assembly as this and submitted to Presbyterians by Mr. Matthews or any other unionist clergyman, as proof that coercion is not being used will have very little weight with intelligent people. They must give better evidence than this to convince good, loyal Presbyterians.

Even Doctors Gandier and Pidgeon whom I have heard termed as "two line birds" are going through the country asking the people to smother their convictions and say nothing until the bill passed, but the fight is on and there is to be no squelching of free speech tolerated. Mr. Matthews or any other unionist minister of the Presbytery of Miramichi can have the opportunity at any time they wish, to meet on the same platform before a public meeting, one or more anti-unionists to discuss this matter of Church Union, and if they have nothing to fear from the result, they should be glad to accept the challenge and I am sure there are many members of the different Presbyterian congregations on this river who would be pleased to attend to hear the arguments pro and con. This would be a much better method to pursue than for ministers to go about among their people using their position and standing in the community to gain sympathy and support for their side of the question. In concluding his letter to the "Commercial" Mr. Matthews says "it gives him a feeling of sadness and disgust to see the discussion of a great religious issue cheapened and degraded by personal aspersions and baseless innuendo. Let us speak the truth in love." This is a worthy and most creditable statement and I trust that his unionist brethren will heed his words. It applies to them admirably and people nowadays want to see that which is preached—practised. In a great many instances it has become a lost art. With many thanks for the necessary space,

Respectfully yours,
A LOYAL PRESBYTERIAN

cut the name of a mayor who is very much in the limelight, but as to those who are serving their community faithfully, and this is true in the great majority of cases, we do not know who they are. This work is being prepared to answer just such questions.

The work is a very considerable undertaking as there are nearly fifty thousand municipal men in Canada. It will be published in Chapters, the first being devoted to Mayors of the Communities of one thousand or over, and this will be followed by other chapters which will include members of Councils and officials.

The data included will contain a wonderful amount of information of reference value, and as photographs of many of the principal mayors will accompany their biography the volume will have a touch of intimacy which would be lacking without these pictures.

The same ideas will be maintained throughout the work, which will include several chapters extending over several months.

The activities of the "Municipal Review" within the past year have been noteworthy, and it will shortly add considerably to its credit by the publication of the first Chapter of "Municipal Who's Who in Canada."

Electric Traffic Cop at Railway Intersections

From statistics which cover all railroads and cities on the North American Continent it has been adduced that pedestrians on city streets are much more liable to meet with an accident than are the travellers by train, yet few of those who rely upon the railroads to carry them with safety and despatch from one place to another appreciate the enormous amount of energy and money which is expended annually on the installation and maintenance of the myriad safety appliances and devices which insure the safe and quick handling of rail traffic. Because, with few exceptions, every industry contributes to the upkeep and operation of the railroads, science of late years has contributed more to railroad engineering than to anything other than medicine. As new appliances are evolved, so they are tested for their practicability, and being found serviceable are placed into use. That Canadian railroads are not behind those of other countries in the adoption of improved appliances is evidenced by the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway has recently installed electrical interlocking plants at all points where its rail crossings were unprotected along the line from Montreal to St. John, N.B., and at various points elsewhere. These electrically operated plants at points where the lines of two companies cross, eliminate all danger of trains crashing into one another at crossings, and considerably facilitate train movements. Electrically operated interlocking plants have been operated by this Company for many years, and although not actually revenue bearing they have afforded an additional degree of safety, which can hardly be reckoned in dollars and cents. As an instance of what these plants are and do--trains approaching Montreal from all over the continent, with a few exceptions, converge at Montreal West, and run over the same tracks from there to Windsor Street Station, a distance of 4.6 miles. Taking into consideration the empty open and of trains on the line, it is not surprising that these plants have been installed at Montreal West, Westmount, and the one at Westmount which controlled trains entering the hand lever system which controlled trains entering or leaving the Glen Yards and using the main lines. The signal tower, which houses most expensive apparatus, is entirely fire proof, and has two stories and a basement. The top floor contains the interlocking machine or levers by which the signals and switches are controlled, an illuminated plan of the tracks under control and telephones giving direct communication with the towers at Montreal West and Windsor Station and the train dispatcher and yardmaster at the Glen Yard. On the ground floor is the power apparatus, the switch boards, relays and other necessary apparatus, and the basement, specially ventilated, contains 55 cells of storage battery with a capacity of 160 amperes hours, or sufficient to operate the plant for one week without recharging. The track plan, directly over the levers, is electrically lighted, and by watching small light bulbs, the operator is able to mark the approach and progress of all trains. A bell rings when an approaching train is within one mile of the plant, and continues to ring until the signal-man clears the signals and sets the switches over the route. The levers operating the switches and signals are so interlocked that a signal cannot be given for a train to pass through the plant until a route for it has been set up, and it is impossible for a conflicting move to be made which would endanger it or any other train. When the operator has cleared a signal the switches are so locked that they cannot be changed until the train has passed over them. Should a train be required to travel over a route other than the one originally set up for it, the signal man cannot make the change without operating what is known as the "Time Release", a clockwork mechanism which opens and closes electric circuits, unlocking the levers after a time limit of from one to three minutes. The speed with which trains may travel over some routes is limited, and the object of the time release is to prevent the operator from changing the route so that a train would be required to travel at a slow pace. This safety apparatus, controlled by the trainmen, is operated by the signal-man, and the signal-man is not permitted to return for this except in a patch of his train.

WEDDINGS

FALCONER---HUCK

The marriage of Mr. Harry Falconer and Mrs. Laura Huck, both of Moose Jaw, was solemnized at St. Andrew's Manse, on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17, in the presence of intimate friends and relatives. Rev. J. A. MacKegan officiated. Miss Bernice La Barge, sister of the bride and Mr. Robert Falconer, brother of the groom, were the attendants. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue and grey cut velvet, with hat of grey model, and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. Her sister was attired in sand canton crepe, with velvet hat to correspond. Following the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Wisley, 1160 Second Avenue North-East, where supper was served. Covers were laid for sixteen. The happy couple left by the evening train for Minneapolis and St. Paul, the bride travelling in a suit of brown pique tulle, with hat to match, and coat of Hudson seal. The groom's gift to the bride was a rope of pearls, to the bridesmaid, kid gloves, and to the best man a tie-pin. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Falconer will make their home in Moose Jaw Times.

Comment On Anti-Union Meeting

The Union Advocate.

It is scarcely worth replying to but yet there are one or two statements in your report of the anti-union meeting held in St. James' Hall, Newcastle, on Thursday, November 22nd, inst. which probably should not be left with your readers without correction.

First, you say Judge Crockett, "literally tore the bill into shreds."

It would be quite a victory for the learned Judge to do that after one of the best law firms in Toronto drawing it up. What I am informed the Judge did was to read into the bill what is not in it, and then tore that to pieces, which would be an easy matter for any one to do.

Secondly, you are told he took "Ralph Connor," Dr. Gandier, etc., to task for their Union propaganda. I imagine your readers would like to know for what propaganda they were so severely dealt with, rather than have only this general statement made which conveys no idea of what "Ralph Connor" or Dr. Gandier may have been doing. He should have made specific charges. Turning to Dr. Duncan we find the same line followed. "He strongly denounced the attitude of the Presbyterian Unionist Ministers, and showed the audience the many inconsistent statements which the Unionists were indulging." Again, we would ask that these "inconsistent statements" be given to the public. For to make a general statement like the above is to generally misrepresent Union Ministers. What I understand Dr. Duncan did at that meeting, among other things, was to misrepresent the basis of Union by stating that congregations could not, in the United Church call their Ministers, when said basis says: "Any pastoral charge in view of a vacancy, may extend a call or invitation to any properly qualified minister or ministers" etc. Again, I am informed he stated the pastoral term was to be three years and in an uncalled for manner, belabored that statement, when the first clause on "The Ministry" says: "The Pastoral relation shall be without a time limit." If everything else these gentlemen said be in line with the statements to which I have above referred your readers will understand how to treat them.

In the pulpit of St. James' D.V., I intend discussing the whole Union question at the morning services beginning next Sabbath, December 11th, and to specially invite all those interested in the Union.

In No Danger Of Total Extinction

W.O. McGeehan Says That the Miramichi Moose can Look After Themselves

"Every now and then somebody sounds the alarm about the wild life of the country being threatened with extinction. It seems to me that these alarms are largely unwarranted, especially after a trip to the Miramichi country on the trail of the lonesome moose."

"The moose of the Miramichi is not scarce, if the signs are to be credited, but he is highly elusive. I have read that the high power rifles and the new methods of transportation have brought about conditions that make it seem probable that the moose will have disappeared within a decade or so."

"If you have been reading these things and are worrying about the coming extinction of the moose try and get one yourself. Of course, if you want to shoot one from call which is just as exciting as going into the barnyard and shooting a cow that never did any harm but furnish the milk for you to water, you can do it."

"Once upon a time this writer used to feel murderously inclined toward the moose of the Miramichi. Their profiles annoyed him. Everything about the moose seemed to arouse his sleeping homicidal mania, but after dragging his moaning dogs through one hundred and fifty miles of comparatively primeval Miramichi country the writer is ready to lay any differences between himself and the moose people before the League of Nations."

FREQUENT HEAD-ACHES

A Sure Sign the Blood is Watery and Impure

People with thin blood are more subject to headaches than full-blooded persons and the form of anaemia that afflicts growing girls is almost always accompanied by headaches, together with disturbances of the digestive organs.

Whenever you have constant or recurring headaches and pallor of the face, they show that the blood is thin and your efforts should be directed toward building up your blood. A fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do this, and the rich, red blood made by these pills banishes the headache.

More disturbances to the health are caused by their blood than most people have any idea of. When your blood is impoverished, the nerves suffer from lack of nourishment, and you may be troubled with insomnia, neuritis, neuralgia or sciatica. Muscles subject to strain are undernourished and you may have muscular rheumatism or lumbago. If your blood is thin and you begin to show symptoms of any of these disorders, try building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as the blood is restored to its normal condition the trouble will disappear. There are many people who owe their present state of good health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and most of them do not hesitate to say so.

If you are suffering from any condition due to poor, watery blood, or weak nerves, begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now, and note how your strength and health will improve.

You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail postpaid, at 50c a box, from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Irish Settlers Will Come to Canada

Inaugrating of a new winter service from the south of Ireland to Canada, the White Star-Dominion Line announces that the new steamship Doric, will make two special sailings in January from Liverpool to Halifax, via Queenstown, and that it is hoped to continue sailings during the succeeding months. This will be the first time that steamers on the North Atlantic Canadian service have called at the South Irish port. Many young farmers and others are believed to be anxious to emigrate to this country from the South of Ireland.

WOMAN IN P. E. I. DUPED IN WEST

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Nov. 27.—Calling upon a physician of a neighboring village whom she believed to be her father-in-law, a young woman, who, with a two-year old child arrived here a few days ago from the west, discovered that the man she had traveled across the continent to visit had no married son and had never heard of her. In her story to the local authorities the woman said that she was the wife of a school teacher in the west who lost his position and had, with the help of the school trustees, sent his wife to the home of his father in Prince Edward Island for shelter while he sought employment in the United States. She had left the west with her ticket and $15 in cash. So far as can be ascertained the woman has been heartlessly duped and the situation is made more more pathetic by the fact that immediate admission to a maternity hospital was necessary. She has been taken care of in the local hospital and her child sent to an orphanage.

A Pioneer Pension System

The Canadian Pacific Railway is this year celebrating the twentieth anniversary of the foundation of the Company's system of pensions for the employees.

It was in 1902 that the Board of Directors, under the Presidency of Lord Shaughnessy, looked into the future for the benefit of those who were laying the foundations of the service that was to take so large a part in the up-building of Canada.

In December, 1902, the directors passed a resolution stating that a time had come when provision should be made for officers and permanent employees who, after long years of faithful service, had reached an age when they were unequal to the further performance of their duties, and announcing that a plan of superannuation had been determined upon.

The plan was a generous one. The Company provided all the money necessary, and the employees were not called upon to contribute to it in any way whatever. In 1903 when it was first put into effect Canadian Pacific employees numbered about 40,000. To-day they approximate 90,000, and every one of them, from the humblest stenographer, office boy, or "track walker" or even the minor employee at some far-off outpost in China or in Europe, has old-age sustenance guaranteed so long as he or she stays with the Company.

Some Statistics
The Company's first contribution to the pension fund was $250,000 which was supplemented by annual grants starting at $80,000 which have, from time to time, been increased, until for some years past it has been $500,000 annually. To the end of 1922 the Company had contributed a total of $4,715,000 to the fund while payments on pensions had amounted to $3,857,802, leaving a balance to the credit of the fund of $1,644,103. In 1922 the total payments made amounted to $508,051, and at October 1st of this year the total number of the Company's pensioners was 1,182, each of whom was drawing an average of $35.92 per month. It is of interest to note that since the pension fund became operative, 877 pensions have become inoperative through the death of the beneficiaries.

Having in view conditions of increased living costs which then prevailed over the world, the Company in 1919 allowed the pensioners an additional bonus of twenty-five per cent. of their regular allowance. This went into effect on May 1st of that year, and continued until the end of 1922. In view of the modification of the pension fund means necessary, that bonus is this year set at twenty per cent.

Kept in Canada
By far the greater part of this money is of course distributed in Canada, just as is the case with the Company's vast payroll of over $100,000,000 annually, and the many millions it yearly spends on the purchase of supplies under the policy of distributing as much of its expenditure as is possible in the country it exists to serve.

The operation of the fund is simplicity itself. Upon reaching the age of 65 every employee who has joined the staff before reaching the age of forty is entitled to retirement if the Company so desires and can claim a pension of one per cent. of the average monthly pay received for the ten years preceding retirement for every year in which he has been in the Company's service. This is as the system was first devised twenty years ago, and there has been but one amendment to its provisions. It is of interest to note in some cases the amount of the pension so calculated was insufficient to protect the recipient against want as was intended, and it was provided that from thenceforth the minimum amount of pension paid would be $20 per month.

Fosters Efficiency
That this system has been a big factor in fostering the efficiency so largely identified with Canadian Pacific operation is undeniable. Mr. E. W. Beatty, President of the Company, speaks of it not only as a prime necessity in these days of sociological progress, and as an inherent right of those who give lives of faithful work to Canadian Pacific service, but also as one of the things that has helped to bring into existence the high standard of co-operation that exists between all branches of the Company's service. "It is helping to make contented employees," says Mr. Beatty, "and that is the first requisite of faithful, efficient service."

Rubbed on, Vicks Has a double effect

HERE is the last word in treating cold troubles—rub Vicks well in over throat and chest. Get into bed and leave the coverings loose about the neck. All night long you breathe in the healing vapors of camphor, menthol, eucalyptus, turpentine, etc. The application also acts like a heating liniment for plaster—almost sure to loosen the cold before morning.

Vicks is just as good, too, for inflammations, such as cuts, burns, bruises, sores, stings and skin itching.

To Extract Seed

The Department of Lands and Mines has decided to proceed with the erection of the seed extraction plant in nursery plot of the University of New Brunswick, in connection with the re-seeding of burned forest areas. Some time ago tenders were called for the erection of a concrete building for this purpose but the project proved too costly and was not undertaken. A second call for tenders has been issued and in this case the material for construction of this plant will be wood.

MANY UNITED STATES FARMERS COMING

Winnipeg, Nov. 28—Canada; and particularly the Western Prairie, will be the mecca for United States farmers next year, according to H. W. Clark, General Agent of the Canada Colonization Association at Trenton, Missouri, who was in Winnipeg Tuesday.

Mr. Clark, who has been out west with several United States farmers, looking over farm lands, said the industrial boom across the line was breaking and in the next six months it would result in a great industrial crisis. People who moved out of Canada this winter, with the intention of seeking work in cities of the South were making a big mistake.

Next year as a result of the Canadian Government Immigration policy, and with farming and general conditions good, there would be a heavy influx from the United States, said Mr. Clark.

The facts of the big western crop this year, had been thoroughly disseminated not only among the farming communities but also among the industrial population. As a result thousands were looking to Canada. Agents of the Colonization Association in the United States were not able to interest farmers there in moving from one state to another. Instead they favored Canada with its cheap lands and assured production.

The Value of a Guarantee lies not so much in its protective penalty as in its satisfying assurance. No firm selling goods with a guarantee attached, expects to be called upon to pay the penalty. For it is naturally the intention to so carefully guard the quality that dissatisfaction will be impossible.

Throughout its many years of service "King Cole" Tea has consistently been sold with a guarantee—a guarantee definite and substantial. It is printed on every "King Cole" package.

It carries to the buyer an evidence of good faith—a confidence in ability to serve—a determination to serve well.

SEWING CIRCLE GOSSIP
There was some discussion at the Circle this week about the recent defeat of prohibition in Alberta. The majority of our members denounced the change that had taken place in public opinion out there. But the wife of the radio operator took a different view. She said she believed in permitting people to drink whatever beverage they liked. As for herself, she said there was nothing she liked so well as LUXOR ORIENTAL COFFEE.

There was a large audience at the Opera House Wednesday night to hear the celebrated young artist, Arthur LeBlanc, and his associate musicians, Désire J. Bourque and Miss Gracia Desilets. A Wonderful Opportunity

The amazing story entitled "The Wonderful Heroine" which appeared in the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, has caused widespread speculation as to the identity of this young and beautiful woman, who by her heroism, self-sacrifice and abounding trust and faith in God, by her sweet purity and astounding courage in the face of unspeakable horrors, came to be regarded as a living saint and the wonder woman of a great Empire. Readers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star are indeed fortunate, because it is now announced that the publishers have secured a beautiful painting of "The Wonderful Heroine," and a reproduction in life original colors, size 18 x 24 inches, will be sent free to all subscribers, new and renewal, who remit in time. With this beautiful and inspiring picture added to the extraordinary value of that great national farm and home journal, it is the bargain of a life time. The subscription of the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is $2.00 a year.

The Canadian McIntosh red apple is the champion dessert apple in the British Empire, so judges at the Imperial Fruit Show, which opened in Manchester recently, adjudged. They also decided that Cox orange pippins, from British Columbia, on the whole, are the best of the sixteen exhibits from overseas, and winners, therefore, of the "Daily Mail's" fifty-guinea cup.

What is declared to be a world's record for the transportation of grain has just been achieved by the Canadian Pacific Railway. In one period of 24 hours there were moved from Winnipeg for the head of the lakes 1,776 loaded cars. The best previous record, also held by the Canadian Pacific Railway, was 1,579 cars, moved east on October 25th, 1921.

One thousand young buffalo will be taken from the Dominion park at Wainwright, Alberta, and turned loose in the north in the region in which wood buffalo are found, Hon. Details have just been announced concerning the "Empress," the new motor ship that is being built by the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand. The motorship is under construction at the Clyde yards of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Company and when completed will be the largest motorship in the world, having a displacement of 20,000 tons. On the Pacific she will be succeeded in size only by the "Empress of Australia," of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, which is her agent.
