TORONTONIANS SUCCESSFUL

A Local Firm Get a Contract on the Trent Canal.

THE CORNWALL CANAL BREAK

Tobique Valley Railway Affairs in the Courts.

An Ex-President of the Company Claims That His Name Was Forged to a Return

OTAWA, July 26.—The contract for the Peterboro' and Lakefield division of the Trent Canal has been finally awarded to Brown & Love, and Aylmer of Toronto, who are said to be the lowest tenders, the contract price being in the neighborhood of $300,000. The total length of this section is six and a half miles. As originally laid out, the canal was intended to run in a direct line, which gave a distance of about three and a half miles. Examination of the line showed, however, that the work could be much more economically done by following the Ottawa River, although it almost doubled the distance. Work is to be commenced at once, so that it may be completed simultaneously with the other section, which is under contract to A. Onderdonk.

Tobique Railway Affairs. The affairs of the Tobique Valley Railway of New Brunswick, which, incidentally, received some attention at the hands of the Public Accounts Committee this session, are likely to be further ventilated in the courts. That, at least, is the inference to be drawn from the mission upon which Mr. John E. Stewart, ex-president of the railway, is now in Ottawa. Mr. Stewart spent an hour or so at the Department of Railways and Canals this morning examining the official returns of the company. The complaint that he had to make against his late co-directors is a serious one. His statement is that he resigned the presidency of the road on the 18th Feb., 1892, having held the position from the organization of the company in 1886, that the return of the railway's business for the fiscal year 1891 is signed "John E. Stewart," and shown to have been duly sworn to before Ald. W. D. Morris of this city on the 5th of April, 1892, while Mr. Stewart claims that the signature appended to that return is not in his handwriting.

Stewart says that at the annual meeting in 1892, the statement of account submitted to the directors showed a sum of $25,000 as having been expended more than Mr. Stewart thought was actually disbursed on the works that year, and he accordingly refused to sign the report, and was accordingly expelled. His examination of the return in the department to-day showed him the report, which bears what he calls his forged signature, includes this amount, which he objected to certify in Feb., 1892.

Your correspondent was permitted by the Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals to investigate the records of the department this afternoon. The signature to the return for 1892 differs somewhat in appearance from the handwriting of the signature appended to the return for 1891. The expert opinion of the department is that it was not in or near Ottawa on the 5th April, 1892, the date on which the signature appears to have been attested to by Ald. Morris.

through not being accustomed to take notice of such notarial business as his civic duties impose upon him, has no record of the attestation, and, of course, at this date has no recollection of it whatever. As an evidence of his resignation at the time mentioned, Mr. Stewart shows a bill of injunction against the company, in a considerable amount of money which he had taken out and sworn to before a magistrate in St. John on the 18th Feb., 1892.

May Be Re-opened Monday. The Department of Railways and Canals to-day received a report from Cornwall announcing damage to the canal. A pair of gates were carried away by a barge belonging to the Montreal Transportation Company. The canal was accordingly closed for repairs, but it is expected to be reopened on Monday.

The Royal Commission Report Again. The Dominion Statistician has undertaken to compile an analytical index of the report of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Traffic, which consists of seven bulky volumes. It is quite a contract, but it is apparently necessary to make the report at all valuable for future reference.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Hon. T. Mayne Daly left to-day for the west, and this evening Hon. Mr. Foster and Mrs. Foster took their departure for Apohaqui, N.B.

Several handsome testimonials were expressed to-day from the Department of Marine and Fisheries to the British Board of Trade by means of a telegram, intended as awards to the captain and crew of the British steamship Ivan of Liverpool for their gallantry in rescuing the people of the brigantine Prusina, halting from Lunenburg, N.S. There is a spy-glass for Capt. Jennings, a gold watch for Mate Crosby, and silvers for the carpenter, the boatwain and the two quartermasters of the Ivan, who came to the assistance of the Government all bear appropriate inscriptions. The story of the wreck of the Nova Scotia vessel had a terrific time of it. She left City on the 22nd Jan., this year, laden with ore and mahogany, and when only seven days out-bound north for Philadelphia a gale sprang up, which followed her for several days, till on the 11th Feb. it left her a helpless, leaking wreck. It was then that the steamer Ivan in sight, lowered one of her lifeboats, and at a great risk to her master he succeeded in taking of the crew of the brigantine.

Cattle Shipments. The Allan Steamship Company have evidently not given up their contention for a change in the cattle-shipping regulations in regard to space on the lower deck. They have forwarded to W. L. Howland, the vice-consul at Liverpool, a circular, accompanied by a copy of their regulations for Liverpool and observe the changes in the proposed regulations in the stock during the voyage. This Mr. Hague will probably not be able to do, but it is likely that he will start about the 15th for Montreal and make the trip to Quebec or Father Point on one of their cattle vessels, which will serve the purpose of investigation equally as well as a transatlantic trip. The St. Lawrence being the most trying part of the voyage.

Gen. Herbert's Successor. The acceptance of Major-General Herbert's resignation has at last been officially announced. It is more than likely he will be succeeded by Col. Gascoigne, commander of the Scotch Grenadier Guards.

JONGAS HAS A ROD IN PICKLE. He is Not Enamored of Conservative Whip Taylor and Tells the World Correspondent Why. Montreal, July 26.—Mr. Jongas, M. P., seems to have a rod in pickle for the popular whip of the Conservative party. Referring to the recent presentation to Mr. Taylor at Ottawa, the member for Gaspé writes: "The value of this gentleman's services in matters of opinion, but for our part we think that Mr. Taylor, instead of receiving a rich present, should be dismissed from his position as Government whip. Taylor is one of those fanatics who opposed the introduction of Remedial Legislation at the last session, and in order to check the Ministerial policy in this question he went so far as to deceive his leader in the confidence of his care. Sir Mackenzie Bowell, wishing to know the views of the Ministerial Conservatives, charged Mr. Taylor to see them separately and ask them if they would vote for Remedial Legislation if it should be presented this session.

"This whip, however, judging it appropriate to put the question in quite a different manner, simply asked the Conservative members of Ontario if they would vote for Remedial Legislation in preference to the Government whip. The members of the Ontario caucus, in answer to the question, replied frankly that they were opposed to Remedial Legislation.

"Mr. Taylor, proud enough of the result of his mission, hastened to report to the Prime Minister that the English Conservative members would support the measure, which was false.

"On the occasion, no doubt, Mr. Taylor served the cause of his friends, the Ministerialists, but he failed to disclose the mission confided to him by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, and rendered himself unworthy of the position of whip of the Conservative party. This, therefore, why we state, and the majority of the French-Canadian deputations is with us, that Mr. Taylor merited dismissal rather than reward."

URGENT WITH A SUCTION PUMP. A Fall of the Pelvis Relieves a Depression of the Baby's Skull. New Haven, July 26.—A novel operation in surgery was performed by an Ansonia physician on the two-month-old child of Edward Ferry of the city of Ansonia, Conn. The child fell out of a hammock and its skull was badly injured, so that a portion of it was depressed nearly an inch. The doctor contrived a curious and powerful little suction pump, resembling a syringe, applied to the skull, and rendered the depressed portion of the skull flat, and the child is now recovering from the accident, and is rapidly getting well.

ANOTHER ARREST. Police Actively at Work on the Goldsmiths' Jewelry Robbery. Fred Root, 22 Catharine-street, was arrested by Detective Gully yesterday on suspicion of being implicated in the conspiracy to rob the Goldsmiths' Company, foot is a brother of one of the men previously arrested.

Seized One of Mr. Douglas's Letters. Mr. James Douglas was yesterday evening taking his customary walk with his favorite dog, when the ubiquitous dog-teachers overtook him and without ceremony seized one of the animals. Mr. Douglas protested that he had been licensed, the provisions of which permit of the owner's dogs going untagged. A policeman corroborated this statement, but the dog-teachers gave no heed to these representations and carried off the animal. Later, Mr. Douglas visited the pound, and when there he was told the dog must be detained and taken to come again in the morning. This was unexpected treatment and Mr. Douglas avers that he will sue the City Commissioner for damages. No bylaw, he says, was broken, and the detention of the dog is unjustifiable.

It is the belief of the Cigrand brothers that Miss Cigrand was murdered by Holmes, and that Robert E. Phelps was the murderer, but he would not examine Mrs. Holmes, the Wilmette wife of the murderer, to-day, but would probably put her through a severe course of questioning to-morrow morning.

Inspector Fitzpatrick said he would not examine Mrs. Holmes, the Wilmette wife of the murderer, to-day, but would probably put her through a severe course of questioning to-morrow morning.

William Capps of the firm of Capps & Cantor of Port Waukesha, Wis., has been in the interest of the heirs of the Williams sisters. He has obtained copies of deeds by which they transferred their property, and he claims that their wife of the murderer, to-day, but would probably put her through a severe course of questioning to-morrow morning.

HOLMES WILL BE TRIED HERE. Philadelphia Authorities Say They Will Surrender Him. He Will Resist EXTRADITION. His Lawyer Evidently Afraid of Canadian Justice.

More Warrants and Bonds—Continuation of the Search of the Chicago Channel House—Several New Murders Placed to Holmes' Account—One of His Suspected Victims Tells His Story.

Philadelphia, July 26.—The district attorney said to-day it would be at least a month before he would be able to state how the case against Holmes would proceed, but that in all probability he would be sent to Toronto, Canada, to answer the charge of killing the Pitzel children, and if a conviction falls he will be brought back here to be sentenced on the charge of conspiracy.

It is semi-officially stated that the chance of trying Holmes for murder in this jurisdiction is very remote.

Lawyer Shoemaker, the attorney for Holmes, said this afternoon that he was not aware of any important developments. He said that an effort to take Holmes from this jurisdiction would be futile, and that he would insist that he be sentenced here for the crime of conspiracy to defraud the insurance company, to which he pleaded guilty.

Quinlan Tells. Chicago, July 26.—Should Quinlan, the former janitor of the Holmes building, who is held for complicity in the many crimes with which Holmes is charged, escape punishment here, he will be taken to Texas, where he is wanted for swindling.

William Capps an attorney of Fort Worth, has arrived in Chicago without a warrant for Quinlan, who is charged with aiding Holmes in the many swindling schemes he perpetrated in that place. The deeds which Holmes had committed in Texas, where he was undoubtedly forged," said Mr. Capps to-day, "and we are ready to prove it." Holmes, Quinlan and Pitzel went down there together, and were recording their deeds, they were working right and left. The three were confidential with each other, knew all about this swindle, and I think were all confederates in the murders."

Holmes is at least guilty of the murder of little Cora Quinlan. To-day the following telegram was received by Inspector Fitzpatrick: "Lakota, Mich., July 26.—The late Mrs. Quinlan, who was killed by Holmes, and has been for about two weeks past, (Signed) N. S. Taylor, justice of the peace."

John Jones referred to are the grandparents of the little girl. Mrs. Quinlan, who has all along maintained an air of reserve, was forced to admit to-day that she had led to the officers on at the present time, and this had the effect of weakening her considerably. Her husband has also sent a large part of the day in the "sweat-box," and as a result of to-day's developments, she has decided to formally hold them both for trial on the charge of being implicated in various insurance swindles.

He also believes they are guilty of the crime of assisting Holmes, at least indirectly, in making away with some of his victims. The charge of fraud is sufficient to hold them, and no other will be made at the present time.

The missing girl whose name the police have been keeping from the press is Miss Widd, a Chicago girl, who has not been seen or heard from for two years. She was employed as a clerk for Holmes about two months before her disappearance in the spring of 1893. She was 16 years old then. She left her home to go to work, as usual, and never returned.

Impersonated a Dead Woman. Mrs. Quinlan was forced to admit during the examination that she had impersonated a dead woman, and was sending herself as the beneficiary of a fire insurance policy, in order to gain the money which went into Holmes' pocket.

The energies of the police, who are investigating the Holmes case, were devoted this morning to an inquiry into the fate of Miss Emeline Cigrand of Lafayette, Ind., who is supposed to be the latest victim.

Drs. E. J. and P. J. Cigrand, second cousins of the girl, were closeted with Chief Badenoch and Inspector Fitzpatrick all this forenoon. They took down their cousin's account of the disappearance of the girl, and how she was afterwards believed to have married a man named Robert E. Phelps, who was interested in a fake copying business down town, of which Holmes was the brains.

A careful search of the marriage records made by Clerk Salmonson fails to show any record of such a marriage in Cook County.

It is the belief of the Cigrand brothers that Miss Cigrand was murdered by Holmes, and that Robert E. Phelps was the murderer, but he would not examine Mrs. Holmes, the Wilmette wife of the murderer, to-day, but would probably put her through a severe course of questioning to-morrow morning.

NOTHING IN IT BUT IDLE TALK. Dr. Stevenson in No Way to Blame for the Death of the Boy of the Stone-road.

The inquest on the body of the late Mary Smith, who died under suspicious circumstances on the Stone-road, near Bradford, was concluded yesterday at Aurora. After hearing the testimony of Dr. Bringham of Toronto, who assisted in holding the post-mortem examination on the body, which was exhumed a few days since, the jury brought in a verdict that Mrs. Brown died from natural causes, and exonerated Dr. Stevenson, who performed the operation, from all blame.

AFTER 17 YEARS. Arrested for an Alleged Murder in Lambton County Committed Nearly Two Decades Since. Detroit, July 26.—Walter McDonald, an engineer, 35 years old, residing at New Haven, Mich., is confined in the Central Station and a charge of murder registered against him. The crime is said to have been committed in Port Lambton, Ont., 17 years ago. McDonald's version of the matter is that he and several other young men were fooling with one of their friends, Daniel McElmore, who threw a bag over his head and pulled him along. McElmore fell and sustained injuries which two days later resulted in his death. A coroner's inquest put the blame on McDonald, but he insists that, although he remained in Lambton over the week, he was not molested in any way. Patrolman Jacques, who knew of the occurrence and was personally acquainted with McDonald, met him on the street and arrested him. Superintendent Starkweather has written to the Port Lambton authorities, and the prisoner is held pending investigation.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN'S AIM. Increased Trade Between Britain and Colonies.

THE UNIONIST LEADER EXPLAINS Why He Became Secretary of State for the Colonies.

A Baroness's Widow Accused of Forgery—Lord Bufferyn Writes to the Hon. Mr. Chamberlain.

London, July 26.—The Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, has written a letter to one of his supporters, in which he says that he accepted his present post: (1) to see what can be done to bring the autonomous colonies and the Mother Country closer, and (2) to try to develop the resources of the Crown colonies, especially to increase the trade between Great Britain and all the efforts he adds, will be devoted to these ends.

Sallyburg Has a Plurality. London, July 26.—With all the contingencies except two heard from, the new House will consist of: 333 Conservatives, 72 Liberal Unionists, 164 Liberals, 65 Anti-Parliamentaries, 12 Parliamentaries. So the Salisbury Government has a plurality.

Another Pilgrim Train Wrecked, 13 Killed. Paris, July 26.—A railroad accident by which 13 persons lost their lives and 25 were more or less seriously injured, occurred to-day near St. Briceux, Dept. of Cotes du Nord. A train heavily laden with pilgrims returning from the shrine town of Lourdes, was in some manner not yet explained thrown from the track, and several cars were wrecked.

Wants to Be Released of His Wife. Montreal, July 26.—The readers of The World will remember the unfortunate escapade of the Rev. Abbe Guyhot, a popular member of the St. Sulpician priesthood, with the wife of a well-known lawyer in this city, and the clever young clerical's departure from the city some three years ago. To the surprise of all, the Rev. gentleman arrived in the city to-day on the way to the Maritimes Provinces.

Being asked how he was getting on in the States, he said he was a professor at a Philadelphia college, the fallen St. Sulpician said: "Very well; I earn my living, like yourself. I am still a priest, and will likely remain so to the end. I have a fine house in the States, and am, however, in correspondence with the Vatican, trying to be relieved of my vows, but I do not believe I will succeed. You can also say that half the forces told me about my wife were true."

Abbe Guyhot wears a long beard and a Roman collar and frock coat. He states that he will return to France next September.

The Gamist's Eye in Years. Bob, the new Mr. Fraser and his son Malcolm of New York were out with John Reid on Saturday, and had a wonderful experience. Mr. Malcolm hooked a mackerel weighing 18 pounds 8 ounces, and the gamist fish that has been taken in 75 years was twenty-five minutes of intense excitement landing him. Frequently he jumped at least four feet out of the water, and often 300 feet of line had to be run out. Mr. Fraser was not accustomed to so large a fish, and was considerably startled. A plaster cast was made from the fish, as a memento of the experience.

Where Is Byron Hall? The police yesterday received a communication from Canton, N.Y., asking for information of the whereabouts of Byron Hall. The letter says that Hall has been employed on a farm at that place for two days, when he was seized with convulsions resulting in insanity. He was taken to Willard Asylum, where he has been cared for. He told his name, and said his father, O. Hall, lived near Toronto, Ont., and that he had a sister Doris, a music teacher. Relatives are requested to write to the Willard Asylum, Canton, N.Y.

CUSTOMS OFFICER MISSING. Inspector Boultbee of This City Investigating a Shortage in the Berlin Customs Office.

Mr. A. Boultbee, Inspector of Customs, Toronto, and staff have been in Berlin the past week making an inspection of the books, vouchers, etc. of the Berlin port.

A number of startling rumors have been in circulation concerning the office. Mr. Boultbee said that some irregularities had been discovered, and that an investigation was in progress; further than that he had absolutely nothing to say.

It is reported, however, that the official implicated misappropriated a large sum of the Government's money, the defalcations dating back a number of years. He confessed his guilt to the inspector, or was immediately disposed, and has since left for parts unknown.

JAPAN'S NEW WEALTH. Has Tended to Establish Western Conditions Among Her Working Classes. Mr. Chamberlain's Englishman who is passing through here on his way from Japan, was at the Walker House yesterday. To a World reporter, in speaking of the condition of the working classes, he pointed out a curious object lesson in the laws of political economy. Since the war, payments have commenced to come in from defeated China, the Government is so rich that it does not know what to do with its money. It has started to construct railways and makes all sorts of improvements, and the result has been to establish accidental conditions between the wage earners and the capitalists. Goods who used to work for a man's pittance, now get a dollar a day on Government work. And with the increase in the price of everything, so that while the cost of living has risen, the price of the goods has fallen, the increase in the cost of living tends to put things on about an equal plane so far as commercial expediency goes.

HOLMES WILL BE TRIED HERE

 ed to the dead. He thinks they were put out of the way about July 4. He has been investigating the property at Wilmette, and says that it is still in the name of Minnie Williams.
 Thomas Freeman, agent of the Chicago Demonstrators' Association, said last night that in his opinion the bones of Holmes "castle" in Englewood were those of persons made away with on the premises, or else those of bodies that had been shipped to Chicago. He said that all the bodies of pauper dead in the county passed through his hands, and that it would have been impossible for Holmes to have obtained a cadaver without his knowledge.
 Quarters His Victim on a Bench.
 The police made no discovery in the case of H. H. Holmes this afternoon. In the store room where the alleged bloody rope was found last Sunday, it was discovered that the bench there is made of wood which is supposed to be blood. The bench had been seen by the police before, but no particular significance was attached to it. To-day it was more closely examined, and it is plain to be seen that the top of the bench is stained with red. It is presumed that this discoloration was caused by blood, and Holmes' quarters his four victims on the surface.
 Holmes Belies Graham.
 Philadelphia, July 26.—The last conference between Holmes and District Attorney Graham in the latter's office terminated in a very dramatic manner. Holmes was apparently discomfited, physically and mentally, when the conference was opened, but before he was taken from the room his spirits rose to an abnormal degree, and he gave an exhibition of his true temper to the district attorney and his colleagues.
 The examination into the correctness of Holmes' numerous statements was about being finished when Mr. Graham manifested his disappointment at the failure of the combined efforts of Mr. Barlow and himself to extract anything important from Holmes. Finally Mr. Graham exclaimed:
 "Well, Holmes, as you still persist in refusing to tell the whereabouts of Edward Pitzel, or this alleged individual Hatch, I am obliged to put you on trial for the murder of Benjamin Pitzel in the Callowhill-street house."
 Holmes did not will under this terrific threat, but rather calmly answered: "Go ahead; that's right in my line."
 "Yes, I will go ahead," said Mr. Graham, "and hang you for the murder of Pitzel."
 Holmes jumped to his feet, and fairly yelled with excitement: "I defy you to hang me for the murder of Pitzel. He may have been murdered, and he may not, but you know as well as I do that you cannot fix the crime on me, and I defy you to convict me of it. You think there is an absolute certainty of my conviction on the charge of murdering Nellie and Alice Pitzel in Toronto. Well, you are at liberty to send me there, and I am anxious to see I can easily establish my innocence of the charge of murder there, as well as in Philadelphia. Just send me to Toronto, and see how speedily I will be set free."
 With this last defiance, Holmes was led from the office by the two court officers who had brought him up from Moyamensing in the morning.
 Holmes shed tears.
 Another dramatic incident of the conference was the shedding of tears by Holmes. It was when the district attorney was picturing his bloodthirsty crime of murdering the Pitzel children in Toronto.
 The chief concern of Holmes now is whether his latest wife remains true to him after all the horrible charges that have been brought against him.
 It is a well-known fact that Holmes was passionately in love with the woman, at one time, and is apprehensive that she has turned against him. Mr. Shoemaker, counsel for Holmes, said yesterday that Mrs. Howard was never a woman of a demonstrative disposition, and that she never cares to display any evidence of affection when anybody is present.
 It was stated that there will be no difficulties in the way of Mrs. Howard testifying against the man she once believed to be her husband. District Attorney Graham said that the marriage between Holmes and Mrs. Howard is not binding, for she is not his legal wife, as he had others living when they were married. To offset this Mr. Shoemaker said that Holmes claims he was never married to any other woman but his present wife, and that even bigamy cannot be proved against him.
 Guilty of Twenty Murders.
 Philadelphia, July 26.—President Foose, of the Fidelity Union, is for a grand jury to-day made the remarkable assertion that H. H. Holmes, the arch-conspirator of the murder of B. F. Pitzel, is guilty of at least 20 murders. He estimates on what he said to me in an interview at the City Hall," said Mr. Foose, "in the course of a talk he broke into tears, and while greatly affected, exclaimed: 'I ought to hang 20 times.' It was necessary for him to get Pitzel out of the way as he knew too much of Holmes' misdeeds, and he then proceeded to exterminate the man who had succeeded in killing Mrs. Pitzel with the can of nitro-glycerine, nothing would be known to-day of the murder of the Pitzel children if it were not for the discovery that led to the horrible discovery in Toronto."
 In speaking of the conspiracy, Mr. Foose was unsparring against the out-of-town lawyer who had figured in the case lost sight of in public attention, which was centered on Holmes. Mr. Foose believed him deeply in the conspiracy, and says that had he expected to die, when that individual came with his original proposition, the Pitzel murders would not have followed. He says that the lawyer, if he could not surmise what would follow, but he should have turned Holmes over to the police in the first place.
 President Foose added with regard to Holmes' unparalleled career of crime: "He is the most heinous, discerning criminal son of whom I ever heard. The sharpest proceeded on the line of destroying evidence as he progressed, and used his knowledge of medical matters to even cut off the feet from the body of Nellie Pitzel as they were deformed and would have served as means of identification. No idea can be formed of the amount of sleep in his operations, for they were wide and varied."
 Holmes Breaking Down.
 "He didn't show any signs of breaking down after the finding of the bodies of the Pitzel children. Since that time he has run down rapidly, and shows plainly that the discovery of the past few days are telling on him."
 Holmes is said to be in a highly nervous and excited condition, and at the prison it is thought that he will have to be placed under a physician's care. It is known that negotiations have for several days been in progress for the sale of Holmes' Chicago property, "the castle," at Sixty-third-street. Lawyer Shoemaker, after acknowledging this fact, was confronted with the statement: "But there is a mortgage on that property."
 "Oh, that's no good," significantly explained the lawyer. "That mortgage is probably for the thousand and more fraudulent transactions with which Holmes has had to do—fill of wheels within wheels."
 Holmes' Family in Wilmette.
 Fled that he is believed to be, Mrs. Myrtle Holmes, Wilmette wife, loves her unmarried husband still. That was a forced conclusion yesterday, after a visit to the Wilmette home of H. H. Holmes, was the alleged murderer. Mrs. Holmes was watching the street from the balcony of an attractive red two-story house. Her face showed signs of trouble, and her eyes were red. When asked to make a statement concerning her life with Holmes, she replied:
 "No, I will not say a word."
 Murders charged against Holmes, she said, were "mostly newspaper talk," and when asked if she was in communication with Holmes, she replied: "Whose business is it? I should like to know what you are talking about. My affairs are my own, and the less that the public knows about them the better I am pleased," she finally said, as she disappeared into the house.
 Mrs. Holmes was found sitting in the Wilmette railroad depot, with a head resting on her hand and his face a picture of sorrow. He is Holmes' father-in-law, and is not proud of the distinction. He has an excellent record in the G.A.R. and United Veterans' Legion, and reads every paper I can get hold of regarding Holmes' doings," he said, "and I do not know what to think. My daughter, Mrs. Holmes, is nearly wild with grief, and my wife is greatly troubled. Myrtle now believes Holmes was false to her, and she has had nothing to do with him since he was arrested last November. Holmes was always kind to her, and it would not be strange if she loves him still, but her sense of dignity will not let her go to him at present."
 The title to the property in Wilmette is so tangled up we do not know who owns the place, and we may have to wait until the matter is cleared up for us. If Holmes is guilty he ought to be punished."
 Holmes' Mysterious Tracks.
 Muscatine, Iowa, July 26.—Mrs. William Beardsley of this city says that July 4, 1894, and her husband started four rooms of the second story of the "Castle" from Holmes. Shortly after they had been there she noticed a terrible stench. Holmes said it must be from dead rats in the basement.
 The next day two large trunks were taken downstairs from the third story and carted away. She heard the man bringing them down, and going to the hall door, met Holmes asking him if he was moving. He replied: "I am taking a few things away now, and in a short time will take away and sell everything."
 After this there was no further annoyance to her.
 About two or three weeks later she heard many peculiar noises in Holmes' rooms. It sounded like persons running around in their stocking feet and dragging something over the floor. One morning about 1 o'clock she was awakened by a smell. She aroused her husband to find that their bed was on fire, and almost before they could help themselves the entire interior was on fire.
 The day previous she had heard considerable moving upstairs, and saw Pitzel two or three times in the hall way with a strange man. For several days prior she had detected a tar smell near the air shaft, and the next day after the fire took hold that she thought it had been set on fire.
 Mrs. Beardsley ascertained the trunks contained corpses, if not of the Williams girls, some other persons. Her husband had seen the Williams girls and the place prior to their taking up a residence in the Castle, but neither saw them after that.
 Holmes' Letters Are Found.
 Davenport, Ia., July 24.—Tears came to Mrs. Smythe's eyes when she read a dispatch from Chicago this evening stating a body had been found in the Holmes building at Sixty-third and Wallace-streets, which was supposed to be that of her grandchild, Pearl Conner. "The poor child! the poor child!" she sobbed out.
 In her home at 1918 Le Clair-street, six days after her daughter's death, she was trying to console her and seeking signs of comfort from the "doubt" that H. H. Holmes had really murdered Mrs. Smythe's daughter and their sister, Mrs. Julia L. Conner, and her little girl, Pearl Conner was born March 15, 1885. When the Smythe family last saw her, in 1892, she was a slender girl, small for her age, and was very fair. She had blue eyes.
 Was a Clever Letter Writer.
 Mrs. Smythe has at last succeeded in finding the letters of H. H. Holmes to herself, written at the time when the murderer had either slain or was plotting the killing of Mrs. Julia L. Conner and her daughter Pearl. The letters Holmes wrote to Mrs. Smythe show the skill of the archfiend in covering traces of his crimes. By professing anxiety about the disappearance of Mrs. Conner he anticipates and heads off any suspicion that might be directed toward himself in case a search was to be made by her relatives.
 And yet, while he posed as a friend and wrote her letters, he was disposing of her body in his place at Sixty-third and Wallace-streets, Chicago, the missing Mrs. Conner was the youngest of seven daughters, and was called Pearl baby.
 LIVELY CHASE AFTER A THIEF.
 Sought Shelter Under a Sidewalk and Four Men Had All They Could Do to Biologize Him.
 While Mr. W. Davidson, proprietor of the Windsor Hotel, Minico, was absent from the hotel for a few minutes yesterday a burly stranger walked into the bar room, emptied the till of its contents, helped himself to a box of cigars and started for the door. Mrs. Davidson heard him and called her husband. The thief headed south. Davidson gave chase, County Constable Royce and several others joined in and a lively foot race was the result. When the fugitive reached the Lake-Shore road, he saw that he was cornered, and scrambled under the sidewalk. The combined efforts of four men (was necessary to dislodge and handcuff him, as he fought like a madman.)
 To Magistrate Ellis, before whom he was taken, he said his name is Elmore, and that his home is Little York. He was committed for trial.

THE CONGRESS WAS A FAKE

TWO-CENT PER MILE RAILWAY FARE AGAIN ENDOURED.
 Trades and Labor Delegates to the Dominion Congress - Continue on Non-Union Labor at the Musee and Academy of Music - Robert Gloeckling Elected President for the Fourth Time.
 President Tweed was in the chair at the half-yearly meeting of the Trades and Labor Council in Richmond Hall last evening. The principal business was the election of officers, Robert Gloeckling of the Bookbinders' Union being elected for the fourth time president. Mr. Macdonald's 2-cent per mile bill was again endorsed, and those members who voted against it concurred.
 An invitation was received from the Hamilton Trades and Labor Council, asking co-operation in the demonstration in Dundas Park on Labor Day. A reply was ordered to be sent wishing success to the Hamilton brethren, and stating that organized labor would be occupied with the Toronto celebration of Labor Day.
 Election of Officers.
 There were contests for all the offices for the next six months, following are the results:
 President—R. Gloeckling.
 Vice-President—W. J. Holmes.
 Cor. Secretary—A. D. G. Hesel.
 Treasurer—G. March.
 Entertainment Secretary—J. H. Gilmore.
 Sergeant-at-Arms—L. Gurulsky.
 Auditors—Delegates Hyton, Horwood, and Cashman.
 Trustees—Delegates Todd, Armstrong, O'Donoghue.
 Legislative Committee—Parr, O'Donoghue, Holmes, Callow, Sangster.
 Municipal Committee—Francis, Barker, Davis, Dovers, Gilmore.
 Disruptional—Hoy, Wagmore, Gurulsky, Hyton, Roy.
 Organization—R. Gloeckling, Czar, Beecher, Armstrong, Hask.
 Delegates to Dominion Trades Congress, which meets in London in September—D. O'Donoghue, J. March, D. A. Carey.
 President Tweed, in retiring, thanked the council for their assistance during the past six months.
 President Gloeckling occupied the chair during the remainder of the meeting. He was proud to say that unopposed he had been for the fourth time elected to the presidency. He spoke highly of the work of the delegates and the influence of the council.
 Sand Pump and Pile Driver.
 The Municipal Committee believed that the substitution of a sand pump and pile driver of wood would be advantageous at the court house, and the extra expense, $20,000, small when compared to the cost of the total expenditure of over $1,000,000. The committee endorsed the proposal of a sand pump and pile driver for use on Ontario's unsettled lands, believing that it would draw mechanical and labor from overcrowded centres. The committee hoped that the city would procure a sand-pump and pile driver for use on the island, especially on the Bayview road, and the advantage these would be in the improvement and protection of the island, especially on the Bayview road.
 The committee recommended that the City Engineer improve the Toronto Railway Company the necessary work on the island, power system, so that in the event of accidents or storms the street car service be not paralyzed.
 The Pan-American Congress.
 The report contained: The Pan-American Congress has come and gone, and that the citizens and merchants have been disappointed in the result. It is about time that the City Council and the business community consent to be imposed upon by every gang of fakirs who want to hold a convention in this city.
 The committee suggested to the Fire and Light Committee that the specifications for the supply of winter clothing for the fire brigade contain a clause providing for the use of the union label by the contractor.
 Non-Union Labor at the Musee.
 It was reported that in the renovation of the Musee in Yonge-street, non-union labor were being employed as painters and that unionists had been refused the union rate of wages.
 Delegate O'Donoghue said in such case it was the duty of organized labor to let the Musee and its surroundings severely alone. "It is easy for us to teach these people a lesson," said he, "we have force enough to do this, but we prefer to hit it strongly. It is the aggregation of working people's ten-cent pieces that makes it rich. Let us make them poor, and they will stop putting it in it, in flouting organized labor." (Applause.)
 A resolution embodying Delegate O'Donoghue's views was passed.
 Complaints were also made that union labor was not being properly recognized in the re-erection of the Academy of Music and on other contracts, especially in regard to laborers.
 Against H. P. Free Passes.
 Delegate O'Donoghue read the Legislative Committee's report, which reviewed several measures in the recent session at Ottawa. Mr. Macdonald's action regarding the two-cent-a-mile rate for other members who opposed it. Members' free passes were denounced and the railway two-cent-a-mile rate was recommended to be made to the Government against further influx of Chinese. Pleasure was expressed at the withdrawal of the objectionable clauses in the amendment of the Criminal Code, so far as related to the severe clauses for street railways, street railways, and the railway colony was once more decried. It was recommended that legislation be sought next session in regard to the use of union labels.
 Delegate Habel, in the Educational Committee's report maintained that the cause of labor would not suffer either by the speeches at the Pan-American Congress nor by the defeat of the Liberal party in the British elections.
 All the reports were adopted.
 Not Robust Enough.
 Rochester, July 26.—Ellen F. Siskola, aged 47, was riding on a bicycle in East-avenue this morning with T. P. Southwick. The two had just turned toward the city, when Miss Siskola called to her companion to help her. He caught her in his arms just as she was falling off her wheel. She fainted, and never recovered consciousness, passing away in his arms.
 Miss Siskola had been suffering from bronchial affection for some time, and Dr. Earl says the weakened condition of her lungs brought on a hemorrhage, which caused her death.
 Personal.
 Manager Hill of the Industrial Exhibition and family have gone to Avera-by-the-Sea for two weeks. While there Mr. Hill will visit all the resorts around New York for the purpose of securing the best attractions possible to complete his program for the coming fall.
 The remains of the late Murdoch Mead, claims agent of the G.T.R. at Montreal, passed through the city yesterday on route to Ouellet, where they were interred during the afternoon. A large number of representative Masons of this city accompanied the remains and were present at the burial services.

 This is to certify that I was ruptured, and for eighteen months tried trusses, without benefit. By advice of friends I tried one of yours, which has CURED me ENTIRELY. I was doing heavy work all the time. I am as well as if I had never been hurt, and have been so for the last year. I recommend your truss as the best in use.
