J. C. ROCKWELL'S NEW SUNNY SOUTH CO.

After years of experience with all the greatest colored shows of recent times and years of endeavor as a manager of his own aggregation, J. C. Rockwell has reached a secure place on the recognition of the theatre going public. Today it is a conceded fact that his new Sunny South Company, which will appear in the Music Hall, Watford, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13th is one of the strongest and most complete colored shows ever sent on the road. Mr. Rockwell does not believe in putting the greater part of his salary allotment into one or two acts and allowing the balance of the performance to suffer through the employment of cheap ones, which always disgust the experienced patron, but he has found that the expenditure of money for the purpose of making each act and detail complete pays twice over in the box office receipts. This explains why the Sunny South Company always gives unbounded satisfaction.

The company is the largest of its kind on the road, being composed of twenty-five colored people, each and everyone an expert in specialty work, who do everything funny that daries can do so well and keep the audience in a constant state of laughter and excitement from start to finish. The high-class solo concert band which accompanies the organization will head the "Koon" town parade at 4 p. m. Seats are now on sale at McLaren's drug store. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. To some this may seem an excessive price, but if those people will take into consideration the high expense of moving an organization of twenty-five people, they will see that the price is not all unreasonable.

A union service will be held in the Methodist Church, Watford, on Sunday evening next to further the cause of moral and social reform and the development of a higher standard of Christian Citizenship in the nation. CONSUMPTION.

A Life Saving Battle Against a Dread
 Foe, Says Dr. Osler.

Dublin, Oct. 29.—A tuberculosis exhibition in the grounds of the international Exhibition Society at Ball's Bridge was opened by the Lord Lieutenant, due largely to the suggestions of the Countess of Aberdeen, who is keenly alive to the necessity of enabling even the poorest to help in a scientific way the movement against consumption.

Professor Osler, of Oxford, delivered a lecture in connection with the exhibition, his subject being "What the Public can do in the fight against Tuberculosis." The Lord Lieutenant presided, and there was a large attendance. The lecturer said they were asked to join in a campaign to promote a human efficiency of education, and this was a campaign in which all might join. Mr. Birrell and Mr. Long, Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Redmond, the archbishops and the prelate, for it was a life-saving battle against one of the most dreadful foes the race had ever met.

And if doctors were to get at the disease they should know where it existed. He meant that the medical staff should know where the disease was, and that did not mean publicity nor any great inconvenience to the relatives or friends of the sufferers. In the first place they should have full control over these cases, so that proper measures for disinfection could be carried out. It was most important that a house in which tuberculosis existed should be under the absolute control of the medical attendant, particularly in cases of the dwellings of the poor, as in Ireland many people lived in hovels. When he saw those wretched hovels in parts of Ireland it made his blood boil; it was simply awful to think of their fellow creatures living in such hovels. Proper provision for the care and treatment of these cases in hospital should be made. As regarded nursing, it was no doubt good in their hospitals, but they should establish sanatoria for the treatment of this disease, and he would not recommend that these should be costly buildings, as their demolition every five or six years would be an advantage. District nurses were angels on earth, and he would prefer to be a district nurse to anything else. (Laughter.) With enthusiasm and perseverance they would win the fight.

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

Increase in British Magazine.

It is announced by the Dominion Post office Department that there has been a very great increase in the number of British magazines and newspapers coming into Canada since the inauguration of the new regulation reducing the postage on British periodicals and increasing that on American publications. During July and August the increase for Canada over last year was 192 per cent. In Toronto the increase was 151 per cent.; in Montreal 132 per cent.; and in Winnipeg, 251 per cent. These figures are proof of the effectiveness of the "intellectual preference."

The Homework Evil.

Hon. G. P. Graham, when leader of the opposition in Ontario, pronounced himself as favorable to the abolition of home-work for public school pupils. The Minister of Education stated at Brantford that he had in mind a proposition to abolish it among the pupils. There is but one opinion as to the necessity of stopping it but there are many opinions as to the cause of it, and the best methods by which it should be stopped. The proposal, so far as we can learn, is to limit the number of competitive examinations. Our own view is that there should be a minimum age for those who are allowed to try the entrance examination say thirteen years. A few pass at ten—that means that the public school course is only a matter of four years, assuming that the child started to school at six (and no child should be allowed to start at an earlier age). Some more pass at eleven or twelve. That makes the public school course all too short. It is the basis of a person's education, and no such basis can be properly laid in so brief a time. Undoubtedly there are some pupils brighter than others but the bright ones should be held back for their own good as well as the good of those who are not so bright. The fact that the younger pupil has "passed the entrance" has always a discouraging effect upon the older pupil who has not passed. If none of them could try that examination before twelve or thirteen years, the public school course would automatically lengthen and the homework evil would remedy itself. It is always the bright pupil who is injuriously affected by homework and with him the necessity for, or rather the incentive to, over-study would be eliminated by a lengthening of the public school period.—Kincaid Review.

A Freak Year.

Truly 1907 has been, and is, a freak year. There has been a combination of circumstances with almost contradictory conditions prevailing in adjacent counties in Canada. The world too, seems to have felt the same touch. Everywhere agricultural conditions are peculiar. Live stock prices have been on a high level for some time. In many quarters farmers have received more ready cash this year from the sales of products than for many years past. Where farms had to be taken on shares to get a cultivation last year at all the tenants have sold off barley, wheat, oats, hay and clover seeds to more than pay all expenses of rent, taxes, operation and leave a big margin besides for the farmer. The world needs live stock just as much today as ever. Prices have fallen solely today because feed is high-priced. The farmer wants to handle only those animals that will repay a liberal feed or that will make a quick turnover of the funds, for cereals have gone up to war prices in Canada.

Strange to say, and yet a logical outcome of the forcing of much meat upon the market, all meats are cheaper. Hogs are away below the cost of feeding. Beef is a glut on the markets, while fowl are under last year's prices, although the latter are at good paying prices yet.

These conditions, while they cause much conjecturing on the part of farmers, are not really fundamentally alarming to the feeder, because it is only a question of securing the most money for his products. A good return he is certain of in the most cases.

See the Shams.

One of the greatest trials of the newspaper profession is that it's members are compelled to see more of the shams of the world than any profession. Through every newspaper office day after day or week after week go all the weaknesses of the world, all the vanities that want to be puffed, all the revenges that want to be heaped, the mistakes that want to be corrected, all the dull speakers that want to be thought eloquent, all the meanness that wants to get its wares noticed gratis in the editorial columns in order to save the tax of the advertising columns, all the men who want to get set right where never right, all the crack brained philosophers with stories as long as their hair and as gloomy as their finger nails in mourning because bereft of soap, all the bores who come to stay five minutes and stay five hours. Through the editorial and reportorial rooms all the follies and shams of the world are seen day after day, and the temptation is to believe in neither God, man nor woman. It is no surprise that in this profession there are skeptical men. I wonder that journalists believe anything.—Talmage.

PIMPLES

Facial Blemishes,
 Blackheads, Eruptions.

They Have One Common Cause. An Improved Condition of the Blood.

Make the blood normal and you cure the
 pimples.

But unless elimination is perfect the blood can't be normal, can't be anything but foul.

In elimination nothing plays a more important part than the skin, and if it gets too much work it becomes diseased, and pimples, blotches and eruptions are the result.

Not a bit of use to try external applications. The fountain of life, the blood, must be purified.

More than that, the blood must be supplied with the elements necessary to furnish the organs with increased power to do their work.

Ferrozone supplies exactly these system elements. It stimulates through the nervous system all the eliminative functions of the body.

By stimulating the kidneys and liver the skin is relieved of an excessive work, and it soon resumes its normal mode of action.

Ferrozone destroys the poisons in the blood, gives it new and rich material
 through the thorough digestion of food.

The skin resumes its normal, rich color.
 Every vestige of blotch, pimple or eruption
 then disappears.

You see then that Ferrozone is not only a blood purifier, but a blood fortifier, and when your blood is pure and strong, not only will the skin be freed from blemishes and pimples, but the whole body will be rejuvenated and fortified, and given the power of endurance, vim, the natural outcome of health. Ferrozone is sold by all dealers in 50c boxes.

ZAM-BUK

SUCCEEDS

The following remarkable cures are convincing proof that Zam-Buk is the most wonderful skin cure known. Zam-Buk succeeds when all else fails, and no home is complete without it.

ECZEMA. 25 long years Mr. T. M. March, 101 Dolorator Ave., Montreal, wore gloves day and night—his hands were so bad with Eczema. 5 Doctors failed to cure him, but Zam-Buk triumphed. Ask him about it.

CHRONIC ULCERS. 40 years suffering from Ulcers which covered her body made Mrs. Jane Beers of L'Original (Ont.), long for death. A few weeks' trial of Zam-Buk brought complete restoration. If you suffer like Mrs. Beers and received such a wonderful healing, you too would say as she did:—"The like of Zam-Buk has not been seen since the Great Healer left the earth."

RHEUMATISM. 13 hospitals received Mr. Alfred Brown of Toronto, and 13 hospitals dismissed him as incurable. Zam-Buk stepped in when doctors had failed. Zam-Buk rubbed Rheumatism out. He is now well and strong. See Mr. Brown's sworn declaration in Zam-Buk Book of Prophecy for 1907. Free sample will be sent you on application. Mention this advert.

FREE ADVICE. We can only give you a few of the ailments Zam-Buk cures here, but if you are suffering we invite you to state your case to us. Mark your envelope "Advice." Address to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, and we will give you advice free. Zam-Buk is 50 cents a box, at all druggists and stores.

PANDORA RANGE

The Pandora oven is perfectly ventilated. The air in the oven is constantly being renewed with fresh air drawn through three vents between oven and fire-pot doors, and the cooking fumes carried out through another set of vents in back end of oven, as shown by illustration.

Pandora

oven never smells close and stuffy, as do the majority of range ovens. Food cooked in it is more healthful, as well as more appetizing and satisfying. If your local dealer cannot give you complete information about the Pandora, write direct for free booklet.

Drainage Appeals.

On Monday evening the Forest Court of Appeal on the Dejersey drain met in the Council Chamber. Present, Mayor Bell, Rev. McLean, Councillors Scott and Stitt and Town Clerk Karr.

The Warwick Council appealed on the ground that the lands in Warwick are assessed too high compared with lands in Forest.

Isaac Mercier appealed on the ground that the lands in Forest were assessed too high, compared with the lands in Warwick; also that his lands were too high compared with Mr. Dejersey's lands.

J. McLellan appealed that his lot was assessed too high, compared with lots owned by Tom and John Maylor.

Max Jamieson appealed to have earth from the new drain put in the old drain.

The evidence taken showed that the rate on Warwick lands was about 27 1/2 cents per acre, while that of Forest lands was $7.95 per acre, charges against roads and streets included.

Mr. McLellan said that Tom and John Maylor should be assessed $10 to $15 on his lot.

Mr. Mercier said the engineer should have assessed the lands in Warwick and Forest alike acre for acre, as just as much rain and snow fell on an acre in one place as in another.

All the appeals were discussed in an informal way.

Moved by Mr. McLean, sec. by Mr. Scott, that the engineers report be confirmed.—Carried.

Court then adjourned.

There will not likely be any appeal to the Judge.—Forest Free Press.

A WARNING TO MOTHERS.

There are unscrupulous dealers who for the sake of a trifling gain are willing to sacrifice the health—perhaps the lives—of little ones. This is proved by the fact that there are a number of imitations of Baby's Own Tablets offered. The mother can protect her child by seeing that the full name Baby's Own Tablets and the four-leaf clover with child's head on each leaf, is found on the outside wrapper around each box. Do not take anything else as you may endanger your child's life. If you cannot get the genuine Tablets from your dealer send 25 cents to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and get a box by mail post paid.

Brigden Young Man Shoots Himself.

Brigden, Nov. 2.—Discouraged by not being able to obtain work, and through family differences, Elgin Bechtel, aged 19, of Brigden, shot himself through the heart last night at 5 o'clock.

Bechtel was married on October 24th to a Miss Matthews, of Brigden. Losing his job he vainly applied for work. Finally he went to his mother's house in Brigden to get a double-barrelled shot gun, saying he was going shooting. Before he left the town his sister was startled to hear the gun discharged, and looked up in time to see her brother drop. His aged father, who is partially blind, was only 15 feet distant from his son at the time.

The deceased was quite an athlete, and won the long distance foot race at Brigden Fair.

PARLOR SUITES

People like an idea of uniformity to prevail in their parlor. Some want but a touch, others seek to have it in everything. Hence the popularity of the suite and also the fact of it being made in from two pieces to seven to suit the various ideas of uniformity. The suites of three pieces and of five are the most popular. We have a nice variety, ranging from a neat five-piece suite to a three-piece one at very easy prices. Our prices will bear comparison. Always think before you buy but don't think too long.

Penmanship

Anybody who has the "determination" can become a good penman if he or she will intelligently follow our instructions and practice an hour or so a day for a few months. Penmanship is of far greater importance than most young people realize. We know from intimate acquaintance with business men that there isn't anything that creates a more favorable impression on an employer than the neatness and legibility of an applicant's handwriting. Write for our large, illustrated free catalogue. It explains our Business and Shorthand Courses in detail. Shows the value of an education in a school which is a member of the Business Educators' Association. The demand for graduates is greater than we can supply.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.
Miss Anna Strangway Becomes the Bride of Walter J. Finch.

A high noon Oct 30th at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Strangway, George street, Sarnia, their daughter, Anna May,
was united in marriage to Walter J.
Finch, of Sarnia Tunnel. The groom was attended by Wilfrid F. Strangway, brother of the bride, and Miss Ethel May Poster assisted as bridesmaid. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Geo.
Strangway. The company took their places to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Eya Finch. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. J.
W. Baird, pastor of Devine street Methodist church in the presence of about 35 guests, mostly intimate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride looked winsome and charming attired in a dress of white organdie and carrying a bouquet of bridal roses. The ceremony and congratulations over the company sat down to an elaborate wedding breakfast at the conclusion of which the happy couple left on the afternoon express on a trip to Buffalo and other eastern cities.

A handsome array of costly and beautiful wedding tokens amply testified to the esteem in which both bride and groom are held by their many friends, all of whom unite in hearty congratulations.

When Your Back Hurts.
Of course it's hard to work. Stooping over hurts, lifting is tedious, and you wonder what to do. Ever try Nerviline?
Nothing like it for weak or lame back. It penetrates to the core of the pain, eases from the first application, brings cure that defies a relapse. No liniment is so clean, so soothing, so certain to kill muscular, rheumatic or sciatic pains. Your dealer sells Poison's Nerviline in large 25c bottles.
Why not try it?

Fireman Succumbs to Head Injuries.
Fireman John Robertson, who was so badly injured in the explosion of Engine 446 at Newbury Tuesday night died Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Victoria Hospital. His death was not unexpected, as the attending physicians, Dr. Drake and Dr. Seaborn, did not think he could survive when they first saw him.

His injuries were terrible, and he suffered fearful agony. He began to sink early yesterday morning, and gradually weakened until he died.
His wife was with him when the end came. Although he was under the influence of opiates he was conscious at the last.

Deceased is survived by a widow and also by his father and mother, who live in Hamilton.
It is alleged that during his delirium
he repeated the words:
"There's plenty of water, Bob."
This would indicate, if the story is true, that it was not the turning on of cold water on the hot flues that caused the explosion or that the water gauge was blocked, and showed water in the glass
when there was none in the boiler.

No Liniment Can Cure It.
That pain between the eyes isn't neuralgia. Many think so, but it is catarrh, plain ordinary catarrh that needs attention right now. Your proper lead is to use "Catarrh-ozone." Doctors recognize it as a cure that surpasses all others. Sure, because it does reach the trouble; safe, because no drugs to take, you breathe its healing vapor direct to the cause of the trouble, and it is guaranteed. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00.

THE DEMON, DYSPEPSIA.—In olden times
it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air, seeking to enter into them and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him. He that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are ever ready for the trial.

Burglars Visit Toronto.
Toronto, Nov. 1.—Burglars are again busy here. Stanner's jewelry store had the plate glass window broken while the constable was making his rounds on the beat, and when he returned he found some of the articles on the sidewalk. A furnishings store was entered from the rear, and the men got a complete new outfit from the stock, beside stealing all the stick pins and cuff links. They left a pair of dirty socks behind.

PRESIDENT CREELMAN, of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, states that about 300 students, of whom 55 are freshmen, are taking the long course of four years, and 800 more the short courses at the O. A. C. About 20 students came from Great Britain, and about as many more from Germany and other parts of the continent.

HICKS, in his October forecasts, predicts an early spell of unseasonable cold and frost during the first half of October.
He believes the last half of October and all of November will bring a spell of open weather, favoring out door work, and bringing as little general exposure to orchards, gardens and fields as the reactions to cold and frost during much of September and early October.

A SCOTCHMAN went to London for a holiday. Walking along one of the streets, he noticed a bald-headed chemist at his shop door, and inquired if he had any hair restorer. "Yes, sir," said the chemist. "Step inside, please, that's article I can highly recommend. Testimonials from great men who have used it. It makes the hair grow in twenty-four hours." "Aweel," said the Scott, "ye can gie the top o' your head a bit rub w't, and I'll look back the morn
and see if ye've tellin' the truth."

THE New York State Department of Health has supplied teachers in all the incorporated villages of that State with a complete set of forms and accompanying instructions to secure a test of the eyes and ears of all children in the Public Schools, with a view to the establishment of some means of remedy. Out of 41-000 children whose eyes were examined at the instance of the Vermont State Board of Education 14,000 pairs of eyes were found defective. One child out of every three whose sight was tested stood in need of medical attention. Similar stories come from almost every city where inspection has been made.

Pitch in on G.T.R. at Wyoming.
A serious accident was narrowly averted on the G.T.R. near Wyoming Thursday morning, when Engine No. 330 crashed into a couple of passenger coaches standing on the tracks of the Petrolia division.

The accident occurred while some switching was being done, and the passenger coaches were the coach waiting to be taken down to Petrolia, were shaken up severely.

Mr. William Tackaberry, of this city, was possibly the worst injured.
He was standing near the stove at the time, and was hurled against the coal box, sustaining several severe cuts about the head.

In addition Mr. Tackaberry was severely bruised and shaken up, and will be confined to his house for several days.
The 3-year-old daughter of Mr. L. D.
Caldwell, of Watford, was thrown against the corner of the seat, and had her head badly cut.

It was thought for some time that she had been seriously injured, but later she recovered.
All the passengers sustained more or less bruises from being thrown violently about the car.
The accident was the result of the engine skidding when the brakes were applied. The platform of the passenger coach was completely wrecked, and the smoke box of the engine was considerably damaged.

Well Known Ball Player Badly Hurt.

Strathroy, Nov. 1.—Charles Barnes, who lives on the town line between Williams and Lobo, met with a serious accident while attending a threshing at Arch McDougall's, concession 9, Caradoc, and received injuries which may result fatally.

Barnes was working near a pile of rails when they suddenly tumbled over and buried him.
When rescued it was found that he was frantically injured, his spine being fractured. Dr. Glass, of Poplar Hill, was summoned, and stated that Barnes' chances for recovery were very slight. Barnes is well known in and around Strathroy as a baseball enthusiast and pitched for several seasons with the local teams here.

Good Class of Immigrants.
Ottawa, Oct. 27.—"Immigrants who have gone into the west this year excel both in point of numbers and in point of quality and adaptability for agricultural pursuits, the new settlers of any previous year," said Mr. J. Obed Smith, commissioner of immigration, at Winnipeg. He noted that the great majority of the immigrants to the west this year already had practical experience of farming in Great Britain, the United States or in Eastern Canada. A large proportion of them were also well supplied with money, and the immigration department is anticipating little or no call to help the new arrivals through the coming winter or until they had broken up their land and realized on the first crop.

Fruit Has The Scale.
On a report sent to the department of agriculture by some Grimsby fruit growers, a seizure of five carloads of Kiffer pears, brought from Maryland, was made on Saturday last, at the Grimsby canning factory, for being infected with the San Jose scale, and two other cars of the same fruit are daily expected.

This is said to be the first occasion on which fruit so infected has been sent into this province. Although under the Dominion Act all nursery stock imported must be fumigated at the Falls, no provision appears in it for the treatment of fruit.

It is probable that the fruit in question will be peeled under careful supervision and canned, while the peelings will be destroyed, as answering all practical purposes.

Shipments of Maryland fruit are also expected at other canneries under the control of the trust.
A final decision as to what will be done
with this fruit will be made by the minister of agriculture this morning.

Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics
Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach?
It cures because the air rendered strongly anti-every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

AS A WORKING TOOL

for the student and the writer, as an authoritative reference book for schools, teachers, families, business and professional men, there is one book which offers superior advantages in the solid value of its information, and the ease with which it is obtained.

One's admiration for Webster's International Dictionary increases daily as it comes to be better known. It never refuses the information sought and it never overwhelms one with a mass of misinformation illogically arranged.

The St. James Gazette of London, England, says: "For the teacher, the pupil, the student and the litterateur, there is nothing better; it covers everything."

The New and Enlarged Edition recently issued has 25,000 new words, a revised Biographical Dictionary and a revised Gazetteer of the World, 2380 pages and 5000 illustrations. It has just received

THE GRAND PRIZE
 (Highest Award) at the World's Fair, St. Louis.

 Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla;

Mixed and taken in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, is pronounced by a prominent physician to be the best mixture for the cure of the kidney, bladder, and all urinary troubles.

This says the doctor, is the most simple though remarkable prescription ever written to cleanse the system of impurities and waste matter. It acts as a powerful tonic to the kidneys, forcing them to filter out the acids and poisons, overcoming rheumatism, lame back, sciatica and other afflictions arising from sour, impure blood.

The ingredients can be procured at any good drug store, and being purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can easily be mixed at home.

If you have a suffering friend show this to him, as he will undoubtedly be pleased to learn of so simple and highly recommended a remedy.

Impudence
 VERSUS Heroism.

By JANE LEWIS.....

Copyright, 1907, by Mary McKeon.

Bakersville was like any other hamlet. It had a store, a postoffice, a blacksmith's shop and a ruined old sawmill. It had a river and a dam, and there were fish in the river. The latter fact was told to Bessie Foster, niece of Uncle Joe and Aunt Mary Warner, who had come from the city for a vacation and who was looking about for a new diversion.

The girl was rigged out with a pole, hook, line and bait, and Uncle Joe went with her to point out the spot where he once had a bite from something almost as big as a whale, and for half an hour she was so intent on her surroundings. Then a cough from a human throat startled her, and she looked up to see a young man fishing in the same waters and not over twenty feet away.

At first glance she saw that he was a stranger to the hamlet. As she looked up he raised his cap and bowed. How long he had been there she could not determine, but his action in sneaking up in the first place and in making the bow in the second irritated her. She at once gave a vicious jerk to her line, intending to quit the spot at once, but she was naturally defiant and changed her mind in an instant. She would not be driven away. She had simply stared at him in a haughty manner when he had lifted his cap, and should he attempt to push matters further he would get a rebuff to freeze his blood.

For the next quarter of an hour the two fished in silence. Now and then the young man reeled in his line and made a new cast and hummed or whistled to show that he had not been snubbed. Now and then the girl gave her head a toss just to prove that she thought herself alone. During this interval the suckers in the river had remained quiet or had business elsewhere. All of a sudden, however, one of them found the girl's hook and gulped it down. There was a mighty tug from the captive and a scream from the girl. It was the first time the sucker had ever been hooked and the first time the girl had ever hooked a fish. The young man saw the situation and came running up to call out:

"You've got him! You've got him! Don't handle him that way or you'll lose him. Play him! Play him!"

Miss Bessie Foster was excited, but she didn't lose her presence of mind. She realized what the situation called for, and she gave the young man one awful look and then threw her fish pole into the water and turned and walked away. In that one awful look she noticed that he was rather good looking and had certain hall marks of a gentleman, but despite that she continued to toss her head, and her cheeks kept getting redder and redder as she left him behind.

"For the land's sake, what has happened to you?" exclaimed Aunt Mary as the girl entered the house on a half run and plumped down into the rocking chair.

"I—I've found an impudent man," was the reply.

"Found a what? I've lived in Bakersville ever since I was knee high to a grasshopper, and I've never run across an impudent man yet. How was he impudent?"

"He looked at me. He raised his cap and bowed. He sang and whistled. When I had hooked a fish, he came and wanted to boss things. And, oh, aunty, it was such a lovely fish and such a big one, and he was so willing to be caught!"

When Aunt Mary had extracted all the information possible, she went to the kitchen door and blew the horn for dinner, though it was half an hour ahead of time. Uncle Joe came up from the lot in which he was working, and in answer to the surprised look on his face Bessie told her story over again. When she had finished, Aunt Mary drew herself up and added:

"And now, Joseph Warner, you will eat your dinner and then start out and find that impudent young man and give him a piece of your mind. He has got to be talked to good and hard, and if you are not the man to do it I am."

An hour later Uncle Joe went down to the postoffice to make inquiries concerning the strange and cheeky young man. All he could find out was that the newcomer was stopping at White's, at the other end of the hamlet, and was thought to be a college student on his vacation. The old mill was next visited, and there it was found that Bessie's pole and line had been recovered and left in a conspicuous position. Uncle Joe carried them home and told his story, and Aunt Mary threw up her arms and exclaimed:

"Did any one in all this world ever see such a case of impudence! Joseph, if you were a man you'd go up to White's and take that young man by the ear and make him beg Bessie's pardon. She can't go fishing again as long as he is hanging around here."

"But I will!" declared the girl as she flared up and stuck her chin in the air. "I'll show him, whoever he is, that he can't scare me off. I'll be right there tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, and if he dares speak to me again I'll—I'll—well, after I have given him a look he won't dare to, that's all."

And Miss Bessie Foster was there at the hour named. She saw nothing of the impudent young man, but a board had been placed across two logs to make a seat for her, and she instantly suspected that it was his work. She refused to sit down. For ten minutes, or while she was getting real mad, she wouldn't go within fifteen feet of the seat. Then the stranger suddenly made his appearance from behind the old mill, and to show him what she thought of him she laid down her pole and picked up the board and pushed it into the water. To her chagrin the young man didn't seem to be aware of her presence. He was catching all the fish, and she wasn't getting a nibble. He made a great fuss every time he caught one, and presently the girl found herself wishing that he would tumble in. He could have told her that her line was in only two feet of water and that a crab had eaten off her bait as soon as the hook touched the bottom, but he had nothing to say. He even grinned because he had nothing to say.

Half an hour had passed away when Miss Bessie changed her position. It did not seem to be a secure one, but in her defiance and chagrin she was willing to take chances. She rebuffed and cast in her hook, and within a minute something seized it. She repressed a cry and was taking firmer grip on her pole when the planks under her feet gave way, and she went into the pond with a shriek and a splash. She rose to the surface, gurgling and gasping, to find the impudent young man beside her and saying in her ear:

"I expected it. Don't struggle and you'll be all right. We have got to go over the dam, but I can swim ashore below with you."

The girl ought to have given him "one of her looks," but she did not take advantage of the occasion. The water was very cold and the fall over the dam ten feet. She gasped with fright and clutched the young man, and then night seemed to have come. She had fainted away. When she opened her eyes again she was in bed at Aunt Mary's and the doctor was saying:

"She will do nicely now. I happened to be driving by the old mill and saw it all. That young fellow managed like a hero. There was no boat, and I could render no assistance, and two or three times I thought they were gone."

"Aunty," asked the girl after the doctor had gone, "did I fall into the mill pond?"

"Yes, dear."

"And go over the dam?"

"Yes."

"And how—how was I saved?"

"Why, that impudent young fellow had the impudence to jump in after you and bring you ashore. If things are to go on this way, I don't know where they will stop. I'll bet he'll have the nerve to call here and ask after you."

Aunt Mary was right. That evening the young man did call and make inquiries and leave his card, and twenty-four hours later he was again ushered into the parlor, to find the rescued maiden able to be about. Aunt Mary heard a great deal of talking and some laughing, and at the end of half an hour, when the caller withdrew, she was ready with the remark:

"Well, I s'pose it's some more of his impudence?"

"I—I think I must have been mistaken all the time, aunty," replied the girl, with a blush.

"What? Wasn't it impudence?"

"N-o-o. I guess he knew more about fishing than I did."

Aunt Mary looked at her for a long minute and then sagely shook her head and turned away with the observation:

"I don't know about that, young lady. I should say it was right the other way. You may not have caught a whale, but that ain't saying you haven't caught something else."

There may be good fishing in the Bakersville mill pond again this year, but there will be no further impudence on the one hand nor indignation on the other. Affairs have progressed too far and too agreeably for that. In the language of Aunt Mary:

"A girl comes a-visiting—she goes out to fish—she meets an impudent fellow—she falls into the pond—he saves her life—they—"

"They what?" asked Uncle Joe.

"None o' your business! You go out and see if that pie in the oven has burned all to a cinder while I've been thinking of things."

Tumors Conquered
 Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive monthly periods accompanied by unusual pain extending from the abdomen through the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)
 "In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures Tumors. I have been to a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."
 Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)
 "I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine."
 "Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician, and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation."
 "I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been examined by the physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my periods around once more; and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."
 Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa.

Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
 "About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor."
 "I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very disheartened. I spent hundred of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing, till the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my great relief that my general health began to improve, and after three months I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and using no medicine but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words fail to express how grateful I am for the good it has done me."
 Miss Luella Adams, Colonnade Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice.

BROOKE COUNCIL.

Alvinston, 26th October, 1907. Council met pursuant to adjournment. Members all present.

Minutes of previous meeting read and on motion of Mr. Spearman, seconded by Mr. Munroe, were approved.—Carried.

Mr. Wm. Maidment complained that no action had been taken on his request to clean out the 12, 13 con. and townline drain, other than sending on the engineer. Commissioner of division was authorized to make some repairs to drain where slides had taken place.

Mr. Ebenezer Ross applied in writing to have the 12, 13 sideline drain cleaned out, south from the blind line between the 7th and 8th concessions. Action postponed.

Mr. Wm. Annett complained that the new channel for creek on his farm at Navoo bridge, had not been completed according to agreement and claimed $50 damages.—Carried.

James Acton applied for remuneration for one lamb killed by dogs, valued at $6.00. Alex. Kennedy for three sheep worried, damages placed at $15.00; Wm. Johnson for one ewe killed valued at $7.00, and James Kelly one lamb killed valued at $6.00.

Kelly—Bonnie, that Mr. Acton be paid the sum of $4.00. Mr. Kennedy the sum of $10.00. Mr. Johnson the sum of $4.66, and Mr. Kelly the sum of $4.00.—Carried.

Bylaw introduced and read to authorize the construction of a new drain in the centre of the lots in the 9th con., from lot 9 westward to lot 22 in Enniskillen. Estimated cost $6970.00.

Darvill—Spearman, that bylaw be provisionally adopted, ordered to be printed in pamphlet form, and a copy served on each party assessed with notice that a Court of Revision on same would be held in the Orange Hall in the Village of Inwood on Saturday the 30th day of November, 1907, to open at 2 o'clock p.m. Councillor Munroe to be commissioner over drain and to serve bylaws.—Carried.

Bourne—Spearman, that council open as a Court of Revision on the assessment in bylaw for the construction of the 13th concession outlet drain. The reeve in the chair.—Carried.

Declarations taken before clerk. 50 appeals.

John Ravecraft said water from his land runs southwest, no ditch on lot, unimproved land no right to be assessed. Richard Edgar, drain no benefit four miles away.

John Edgar, drain no benefit to our lands whatever.

Robert Coristine cannot see why we should be assessed at all. Durham Creek is large enough as it is. No complaints.

Wm. W. Lucas, drain no benefit and does not improve our outlet.

D. McEachren, assessment is the most unfair one I ever seen.

Wm. Rowland, we have paid for cleaning out Durham Creek and need no other outlet.

Wellington Lucas, we are already paying heavily for drains, this proposed outlet will do us no good.

D. L. McLean, drain no use to me. Drains do not flood my land.

Henry Melton, drain not much good to me.

George Swan, think we should not be assessed at all, we have plenty of outlet.

W. J. Higgins' assessment is a charge we have no right to pay.

Herbert Holbrook, my assessment on lot in 13th con. is too high, higher than others. (In this case engineer stated an error had been made in type-writing the report and that where lot was charged $50.00 it should only be $20.30.)

Duncan Campbell, Chester Coristine, John Coristine, James Kelly, James Griffith, Richard Lucas, Henckiah Lett, James Acton, R. J. Lucas, John Bowby, Walter Annett, Alex. Kennedy, Albert Sutton, Wallace Watson, Albert Lucas, Jacob and Thomas Saunders, Wm. Morris, James Higgins and Joseph Acton all opposed the construction of proposed outlet stating they had paid for the im-

line outlet that these outlets were quite sufficient that they did not want to pay for a second one.

James Coke said I think we have no right to pay for this outlet in the 13th con., but as the engineer assures us, we will not again be assessed for the proposed drain, neither for outlet nor damages, I will not oppose its construction.

Court of Revision decided to reduce the lands assessed in the 11th concession at the rate of 2 cents per acre, excepting 5 or 12 which was reduced 6 cents per acre, the total of these reductions to be added to amount payable by township.

Bourne—Moore, that Court of Revision bylaw, stand adjourned till 5 o'clock p.m. of next meeting of council.—Carried.

Thomas Saunders asked council to pay for the tile to remove water from road by means of a drain through the fields estimated at 80 rods in length. Council offered 5 rods of 5 inch tile.

Tenders opened for the construction of the repairs to the 6, 7 con. road drain and found as follows:—Donald McCallum $474, Richard Burgess $429, Lloyd Bourne $399.00.

Monroe—Kelly, that the tender of Lloyd Bourne be accepted.—Carried.

Letter read received from Clerk of Metcalf council, asking for the payment of Brooke's share of the assessment for the Hardy Creek Drain repairs. Payment postponed.

Account of Messrs. Bell & McCulbin presented amounting to $92.00 for services on survey of Parker-Lucas outlet drain, Cook drain and Inwood sidewalks. Ordered to be paid.

Orders on Treasurer were also issued in payment of Brooke's share of the assessment for the 4, 5 con. drain in Enniskillen and the Dawn and Enniskillen townline drain.

Bourne—Bourne, that council do now adjourn to meet in the Village of Inwood on Saturday, the 30th day of November, 1907.—Carried.

W. G. WILLOUGHBY, Clerk.

A FARMER'S TRIALS.

Weak and Worn Out Through Overwork and Long Hours

The farmer's life is always a hard one, but if he is weak or suffering it is almost unbearable. The hours are long and the work so hard that none but the strongest can stand it. An illustration of the effect of hard work on the system is given by Mr. Geo. Huntsberg, a farmer of Spry, Ont. He says:—“I have lived nearly all my life in the Bruce peninsula. I am a farmer and have always had my share of hard work and like a good many other men I thought there was no wearout to my system. In this I was mistaken for about a year and a half ago I began to go gradually downhill. I would tire at the least exertion, my appetite failed me; I had a severe pain in my side and around my heart. The doctor told me I was suffering from pernicious anaemia; that I was almost bloodless. I doctored for six months but instead of improving I grew so weak that I could hardly move without assistance. I lost flesh till I was almost a skeleton. A friend from Stokes Bay told me of the great benefit she had derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and advised me to try them. My sister-in-law had also received great benefit from their use so I decided to give them a trial. After using the pills about a month I began to gain strength and from that on I improved rapidly. New blood seemed to course through my veins my appetite improved; the pain left my side and heart and I gained in weight. After using about a dozen boxes of pills I was again enjoying the best of health. I have nothing but praise for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they cured me after medical treatment had failed—I really believe they saved my life.”

Good blood is the secret of health. Keep the blood pure and such diseases as anaemia, rheumatism, sciatica, indigestion, heart palpitation, eczema, and the secret filis not exist. The most perfect blood tonic and nerve restorer in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

J. C. ROCKWELL'S NEW SUNNY SOUTH OO.

Those of our citizens who want to see a really first-class colored show will be glad to hear that J. C. Rockwell's World Famous New Sunny South Company will appear in the Music Hall, Watford, Wednesday evening, Nov. 13th. There isn't much to say about this company save that it is a good strong one, composed of twenty-five colored people, each and everyone an expert in specialty work. It is recognized as one of the biggest, strongest and best colored attractions on the road. There is a complete elimination of all that is coarse and horse play is conspicuous by its absence. The performance is a decided novelty, nothing like it ever having been seen in this town before. It is guaranteed to be one of the most pleasing ever produced on the local stage. The following item is clipped from The Bruce Times, of Walkerton, Ont., dated Oct. 24th, 1907: “The J. C. Rockwell Sunny South Company played to a crowded house here on Saturday night, and the brand of entertainment put up was of the laughter provoking kind. The big parade at noon did much to introduce the troupe, bringing as it did, into bold relief the large organization of colored people. The programme was more refined than colored people usually put up, and on this score the company proved a pleasant surprise to the large audience. The admission fee was a shade higher, and the show considerably better than is generally played on the local boards. The company made money, the people saw a good show and got the worth of their money, and we believe, all hands were satisfied.”

The high-class solo concert band which accompanies this organization will lead the “Koon” town parade at 4 p.m. Seats are now on sale at McLaren's drug store. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. To some this price may seem a little high, but if they will take into consideration the number of people carried they will readily see that the admission is more than reasonable.

On Thursday evening of last week a number of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williamson assembled at their home in Kingscourt to say good-bye before the family left for their new home in Brooke. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of the following address, accompanied by a pair of easy chairs:—

Kingscourt, Oct. 30th, 1907.

To MR. AND MRS. WILLIAMSON:—

Your friends and neighbors have assembled here this evening previous to your departure to your new home to express to you our deep regret at your departure from our midst. We have always found in you kind friends and neighbors who always were willing to lend a helping hand in time of trouble. As a slight token of our esteem for you we ask you, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, to accept these easy chairs and we hope that you and yours may long be spared to use them. We all unite in wishing you prosperity and happiness in your new home. Signed in behalf of the trackmen and neighbors,

J. A. Lamont
W. Weedmark
J. Maher
N. McNece

The address was read by Miss Gertrude Weedmark, and Mr. Williamson returned thanks for the kindly sentiments expressed, and the handsome gifts accompanying. The balance of the evening was pleasantly spent in social amusements.

The Strathroy town clock keeps rag instead of standard time, and the citizens think it is time for a change.
