BAD MAN AT BAY SHOOTS TO KILL

W. H. Bostwick Defies Arrest in Ocala, Georgia, and, With His Six Children, Barricades House—Troops Ordered Out and War of Factions is Feared

Ocala, Ga., June 27.—Barricaded in his home near here, W. H. Bostwick, who last night killed two policemen and seriously wounded three others, was successfully resisting the police and sheriff's posse today. His threats to kill anyone who ventured in range of the bullet-capped re- sistent and the deputies were inclined to await the arrival of the militia, who have been called out by Governor Brown.

With Bostwick in the house were six of his children, all small and some of them girls. Four policemen were sent last night to arrest Bostwick and he opened fire upon them as soon as they reached his home. Steve Davis, the chief of police, and Deputy Sheriff Sheffield were instantly killed. Chief Joseph McInnes was fatally wounded and Deputy T. C. Bass was shot and seriously hurt.

The information came today that the troops from Fitzgerald would reach Irwinville just as quickly as they could be rushed there on a special train. From there they were under orders to march rapidly to the scene of action. Troops were made by the posse to burn Bostwick out of his house, but when it was seen that nothing could be accomplished in that way the deputies began firing. It is not known whether any of the bullets found a human mark. It is known that one of the little girls in the house is ill. The posse have made careful plans to take the children if their drive Bostwick out.

It is stated that several months ago Bostwick shot his brother-in-law, C. G. Fiddie, and was arrested charged with assault with intent to murder. He was put under a peace bond but his bondsmen recently told the sheriff that they wanted to be released from responsibility. On Friday a deputy went to Bostwick's house to arrest him but Bostwick told him he would never submit to arrest, that he would die.

A large number of citizens have left Ocala for the scene of the shooting and all are well armed. Atlanta, Ga., June 27.—After learning that Sheriff McInnes was believed to be fatally injured, Adjutant General Scott at 2 o'clock this morning decided to order the Albany Guard to proceed on a special train to the scene of Sunday's battle with W. H. Bostwick. It is feared that trouble between the two political factions in that county may result from the shooting.

WOULD LEAVE OUT WORDS OFFENSIVE

Is'and Presbyterian Clergyman on Coronation Oath

SOME SENSATION CAUSED

Rev. Mr. Fulton in Charlottetown Gives His Opinion in Sermon—John Doucette Falls to Death Through Opening in Dredging Scow in Duluth

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 27.—A sensation was created here yesterday by a sermon on the coronation oath preached in St. James' Presbyterian church by the pastor Rev. T. F. Fulton. He favored the striking out of the words "worship of saints and the mass as idolatrous and superstitious" which were decidedly offensive to Roman Catholics, but he opposed any further change.

He gave a historical review of the struggle in England for religious freedom and held that freedom was obtained at great cost and to be tampered with. The succession to the throne should be carefully guarded. The disabilities formerly upon Catholics in Protestant countries, he said, grew out of previous intolerance when they had the power and a return thereto would be dangerous. This church was doing great good in many ways. They had a right to teach what they believed but not to encroach upon the lawful authority of the state or the rights of others.

The body of John Doucette, aged twenty-five of New Acadia, was brought to the island on Saturday. He was drowned in Duluth by falling through an opening in the centre of a scow when engaged in dredging work, as the load was being dumped. The body was not recovered till eleven days later.

COSGRAVE IS LOOKING WELL FOR SCULLS

London Paper Says Canadian Will Take a Lot of Beating-Heavy Wind at Henley Makes Practice Light

London, June 27.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that Cosgrave, the Canadian sculler, will take a lot of beating on his first race form. He is little, but very, very good, and, like Kelly, no record-holder of the diamond sculls is beautifully easy, and yet most effective in style. Whoever beat McCulloch should win.

SHE MUST GET TO WED THE $100,000

Winnipeg, June 27.—That she will inherit $100,000 if she wins a husband and only the income from that amount if she remains a spinster, is the odd provision in the will of Alma Naumann, formerly of Milwaukee, in the $500,000 will of Mrs. Henriette Friend, who dies tonight in Germany. It is young woman is a foster-daughter of his friend, whose action of life was that woman's place is the management of his home.

Mrs. MONTAGUE ELIOT

London, June 27.—For the present there will be a cessation of fashionable weddings, the last of the series of important ones having taken place in St. George's, Hanover Square, when Miss Nellie Post, only daughter of the late Arthur Post, of New York, and Lady Barrington, by his first marriage, was married to Montague Elliot, gentleman in waiting to the late king.

There is little news to be said about any of the weddings of the last week, as no colors could be introduced in the toilettes of the bridesmaids, and as one of the guests remarked, now that it is the fashion for bridal attendants not only to wear white dresses but also long tulle veils, surrounded by wreaths, there is very little to distinguish them from the bride herself.

NORTH STREET ITALIAN WAS SHOT IN HEAD

Andy Rose Captured By Detective—Killed At Welsford

Distinct traces of lead, found on the shattered bones of the skull of Diego Syracuse, in the General Public Hospital, are regarded as establishing it beyond doubt that the wound which is regarded as certain to cause his death, resulted from a revolver shot.

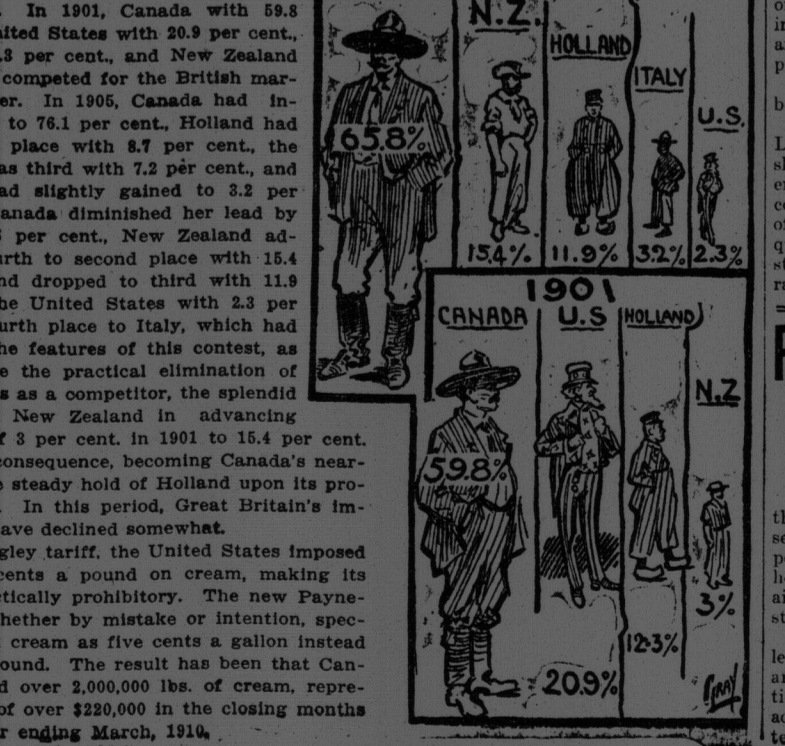

WE ARE FAR AHEAD BUT IT IS WELL TO KEEP AN EYE OPEN

Winnipeg, June 27.—The Pall Mall Gazette says that Cosgrave, the Canadian sculler, will take a lot of beating on his first race form. He is little, but very, very good, and, like Kelly, no record-holder of the diamond sculls is beautifully easy, and yet most effective in style. Whoever beat McCulloch should win.

FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES

W H I L L E Canada's supremacy as Great Britain's chief supplier of cheese is likely to be unquestioned for some time to come, it is always good policy to watch your competitors. In 1901, Canada with 59.3 per cent, the United States with 20.9 per cent, Holland with 13.8 per cent, and New Zealand with 3 per cent, competed for the British market in this order. In 1905, Canada had increased her lead to 76.1 per cent, Holland had captured second place with 8.1 per cent, the United States was third with 7.2 per cent, and New Zealand had slightly gained to 3.2 per cent. In 1909 Canada diminished her lead by dropping to 68.4 per cent, New Zealand advanced from fourth to second place with 15.4 per cent, Holland dropped to third with 11.9 per cent, and the United States with 2.3 per cent had lost fourth place to Italy, which had 3.5 per cent. The features of this contest, as will be seen, are the practical elimination of the United States as a competitor, the splendid achievement of New Zealand in advancing from a supply of 3 per cent, in 1901 to 15.4 per cent, in 1909, and, in consequence, becoming Canada's nearest rival, and the steady hold of Holland upon its proportionate share. In this period, Great Britain's imports of cheese have declined somewhat.

ROB EVERY PASSENGER ON TRAIN

THREE IN THE PARTY

Bandits Make it Known That They're Serious

Ogden, Utah, June 27.—Oregon short line passenger train No. 1 was held up at Five Points at 1:30 o'clock and every passenger on the train robbed of his valuables.

The robbers boarded the train at Ogden and held up the passengers as soon as the train left the city limits. The brakeman was shot at twice but escaped injury. A woman was badly beaten and an unknown man, a foreigner, was also severely beaten.

The bandits, three in number, struck down every one who offered the slightest resistance. The express messenger was compelled to give up his keys and the express car was searched. One of the robbers remarked that they knew there was no money in the car, but they would search anyhow. They said they had seen the money go out on the first section but they were unable to board it. Sheriff Wilson and posse is in pursuit.

FIVE THOUSAND SAILED FROM NEW YORK SATURDAY

New York, June 26.—All records for outgoing European travel were broken on Saturday when eleven great liners sailed with 5,000 cabin passengers from the port of New York. Most of these—in fact 90 per cent of them—are Americans, showing the increase of the wanderlust.

In passage money alone the fares ran for above $1,000,000. In addition to the cabin passengers more than 30,000 steerage passengers sailed for their former homes. Many of these carry tidy sums, and with letters of credit possessed by the cabin passengers there left the country, it is estimated, the equivalent of $25,000,000.

FELL 172 FEET AND IS BACK AT WORK AGAIN

Spokane, Wash., June 27.—David Danielson, twenty years of age, who fell from the top of the new Morrison theatre building here, a distance of 172 feet, without serious injury, on June 17, has returned to work on the structure. Danielson tripped over a coil of rope on the roof and pitched headlong to the pavement, where he landed in a wheelbarrow. Before those who saw the descent could rush to his aid, he arose to his feet and walked to the office of Dr. Stanley H. Titus, where he stretched out on an operating table to ascertain the extent of his injuries.

MURDER OR NEAR TO IT IN NORTH STREET

A man who is being eagerly sought by the police is an Italian named Andrew Rose, who is wanted on suspicion of having beaten almost to death M. Diego Syracuse, also an Italian, in the latter's home, 27 North street. Syracuse is not expected to live. He was taken to the hospital yesterday about 6 p. m., after having been found by Policeman Charles Rankine and a lad named Joseph Jones, lying unconscious in his bed, with blood oozing from a gaping wound in the back of his head, the hair of which was clogged with patches of dried blood. Dr. D. E. Berryman did all that was possible to better the man's condition, and ordered him to the hospital.

On Saturday evening the Jones had heard loud voices as though people were quarreling inside the house, and when he missed Syracuse yesterday from around the place, his suspicions became aroused, and with Policeman Rankine he forced admittance. They found that the man's watch and $15 which he was known to have had in his possession, were missing. They also learned that Rose, who was in the house the night before, was missing, and had been seen about the depot yesterday morning. He was also said to have been seen in Douglas avenue later.

THAT ACHING BACK

Will Promptly Get Well if You Help it a Little.

Father Morrissy's medical researches led him to evolve, out of Nature's laboratory, a Liniment of remarkable curative power. It had the merit of giving prescriptions of the kind, without their disadvantages, and contained other ingredients with unique value in relieving the pain.

The good price of this Liniment is due to its being made in a small factory, and for many kinds of aches and pains with most gratifying results. After his death it continues to relieve and cure suffering.

In cases of backache due to kidney trouble it is efficacious as a supplement to Father Morrissy's "No. 7." It is indispensable in rheumatism, strains, bruises and many similar affections. Taken with the Lung Tonic, it quickly cures colds on the chest.

The Liniment is clean, has an agreeable smell, and when rubbed in goes to the seat of the trouble and promptly gives relief. Nothing more widely useful has ever been compounded. Keep it in the house.

Ask your druggist to-day for a 25c bottle. Father Morrissy's Liniment, or get an honest Pound of Balance for every Pound of Weight on the Measuring Rod.

On the day succeeding the reservation rush she received the news that Mrs. Dick's, not only that Van had lost his claim, but that McOppet and Seale were its latest owners, but also that Van had run afoul that night after leaving himself.

Some vague half-remembered intuition that Seale was engaged in a lawless, retaliatory enterprise crept across her mind and rendered her intensely uneasy. Her own considerable sum of money might even be involved in—she could not fathom what. Something that lay behind it all would doubtless explain Van's extraordinary change. It was maddening, she thought, that she should be so ignorant of what was affecting Van. He had come unbidden into her life. He had swept her away with his riotous love. He had taught her new, almost frightening joys of existence. He had drawn upon her mind and resources of some infant, doubtless practiced on them both, there was nothing in the world she could do.

She wrote again to Glen and had the letter posted in the mail. She asked for information. "Was he better?" Could he come to Goldie soon? Had he met Mr. Van? Had he understood that confession in her letter? Had he really forgiven her strange meanness, concerned himself with the other in taking the "Laughing Water" claim?

She explained that she was wholly in the dark, that there was but only one way to see him. She begged him, to come, if traveling were possible, and told of her effort to see him.

That letter to Glen, suggesting that final reference to himself, she could never have dreamed. It is ignorance always that baffles, and she grope our way in the world. And Beth had not yet entirely lost all interest in Westwick himself.

Seale, in the meantime, having gone straight to Glenmore Kent, had remained there days away from Goldie and had taken no time to write. When he came at last the girl's suspicions were thoroughly aroused. The man was a dangerous trickster, a liar, and perhaps a scoundrel who was rapidly becoming convinced.

He arrived at the house in the late afternoon while Mrs. Dick and Beth were engaged together in the dining-room, sewing at a quiet one and Beth escaped any love-lit demonstrations he might otherwise have made.

A Matter of Pride
(Ottawa Citizen.)

It is always good to hear something pleasant about one's own country from abroad. Especially is it appreciated when it is justified, and in this connection an excerpt from the New York Evening Post seems to fulfill all the conditions. The Post publishes a despatch from Chicago as follows:

Law enforcement in Canada and the slow reform of court procedure in the United States, according to Chicago lawyers, are proving a force in the migration to the provinces of Western Canada. A letter written by a scold, they say, may give new impulse to the lagging efforts. A Minnesota who had bought a farm in Saskatchewan, after telling of the crops, the railways, elevators, and the influx of settlers, concluded:

"I'll tell you what it boils down to. Ever since the settlement of this country began it has been understood and recognized that the man who breaks the law is going to be jailed. It don't matter if he is as spry as a gopher or as lumpy as a buffalo. It don't make any odds if he can crawl into a prairie dog's hole. If he breaks the law he's going to be jailed, good and sure! He can have fifty guns and $50,000, he can have any sort of blame jail you like—but he is just going to be jailed. He may take a day, a week or a year, but he'll be jailed sure. May be he'll kill a Northwest policeman—may be he will. Well, then, he'll hang for a dead sure thing! He'll never buy a Northwest policeman, nor he'll never escape jail if he breaks the law. All Canada knows it, and we Americans know it, and that's why this country is a good country to live in."

This is the proper sort of advertising and Canada and the Northwest, in particular, cannot get too much of it. A guarantee of fair play and justice to all is surely an asset in the development of a new country. It should be zealously guarded.

Twenty-five railway men were killed and thirty-nine injured. Censuring the people for accepting this terrible waste of life with a heartless philosophy as if it were inevitable, the News goes on—

"The Canadian Manufacturers' Association spends valuable time seeking new markets, growing over railway rates and fighting the labor unions. Could it not do something to abate this daily manslaughter? Through the pressure of organized labor most of the provinces have factory inspectors, and at the demand of these officials safety devices of various kinds have been installed in many factory buildings.

But still there are manufacturers who look upon the government officials as busybodies, and neglect their instructions. In the report of the Ontario Inspectors of Factories for 1908 one of these cases is cited. The dangerous machinery had not been guarded, in spite of the instructions of the government official. A workman's hand was crushed to pulp, and the careless factory owner was condemned by the courts to pay damages of $4,000. The fact is that we on this continent are reckless of life.

It is a black shame to us. Perhaps a few prosecutions for manslaughter would wake up the manufacturers, and make them realize that the employer of labor bears, and ought to bear, responsibility for the safety of his operatives. The fact is recognized to the full in Europe. An industrial death-roll such as the one reported for May would not be tolerated in Great Britain. Armies have marched for a month in war-time without such a loss."

It is stated that the crops in New Brunswick never looked better at this season. From the wheat belt of the west comes word that timely rains have improved an already cheerful situation. In Ontario the outlook is particularly bright. A Toronto despatch says:

"Crops throughout London district are in magnificent shape and the outlook is for a record breaking harvest. "HEROES AND NEAR HEROES." The New York Press, which, until Governor Hughes agreed to the Hiram-Cobb Compromise Direct Primary bill, was the executive's staunchest supporter, is evidently disappointed in him, as the following editorial, entitled Heroes and Near-Heroes, from that paper will show:

"Always there have been men of high character but of feeble powers to oppose the baseness of others. Throughout history there have been men who would rather die struggling for the right than live surrendering to the wrong; there have been enough of them to be an inspiration to the human race.

"Then there was William of Orange. He was never happy unless, winning or losing, he was bearing the heaviest burden of battle for his principles. Waging three desperate campaigns against the grand Louis and badly defeated in all of them, one after the other, he could scarcely contain himself until he should know the joy of the next.

"Three times Louis has beaten us," said William; "but each time we have come out a little stronger, he a little weaker."

"On an avvil of that temper the principles which William of Orange prized, and for which he was eager to fight without flinching when they seemed most hopeless, were hammered into imperishable form. And like William there was our own Washington; like both of them there was our Lincoln.

"Great intellects, lacking something nobler, can win personal successes that are ephemeral. Great souls leave monuments for the generations that follow. The works of Charles Evans Hughes, governor of New York, a good man, a hard soldier, perish as he turns his back upon them.

"Failure of promising leadership, disappointments in mortal whose ideals are lofty, but whose hearts are not stout, will not discourage our race. By those who have made good, few though they be, is preserved the faith of a people in similar deeds to come."

FIRST CLOCK IN 1309. To the year 1309 the first clock known to the world was placed in the tower of San Estorgio, in Milan.

The greatest astonishment and admiration were manifested by crowds who came to see the timepiece. In 1344 a clock was installed in the palace of the nobles at Padua. This was a wonder of mechanism indeed, for besides indicating the hours it showed the course of the sun, the revolutions of the planets, the various phases of the moon, the months, and the fetes of the year.

The period of evolution from the clock to the watch was 71 years, not so very long all things considered, and the record of the first watch is 1380. Half a century later an alarm clock made its appearance. This, we are told, was looked upon by the people of that age as "an instrument prodigious."

The fortunate possessor of this clock was Andre Alicato, a councillor of Milan. The chronicles have placed on record that this clock sounded a bell at a stated hour, and at the same time a little wax candle was lighted automatically. How this was done we are not told, but it must not be overlooked that until about 70 years ago we had no means of obtaining a light other than the tinderbox, so that the Milanese must have been centuries ahead of us in this respect.

Not much progress was made with the watch until 1740, when the second hand was added.

NOT A SUDDEN DEATH. "There is consolation even in the bitterest cup," remarked the redoubtable Tim O'Leary, soliloquizing in his office this morning. "I have had some pretty close calls in my day; but yesterday two of my constituents from the Tenth Ward called upon me in the hour of their trouble, and of course I did what I could to help them. They were a deserving old pair.

"It appeared that a favorite son had died recently and the father had taken his loss much to heart. All the tender solicitations of the neighbors and the courtesies of his remaining large family failed to soothe the bereaved parent.

"The father, who is ninety years old, and the wife, who is somewhere near eighty-seven, had only returned from the funeral that afternoon, coming straight to my office from the cemetery. The dead son was more than sixty-five years of age. The fact that I tried my best to cheer the parents availed nothing.

"The father continued to sob and wail to and fro, when the wife, leaning over to him, placed her arm on his shoulder and whispered:

"No, it ain't so sudden, Rastus Johnson. No, it ain't after all. You 'member I allas said we'd never see dat child, don't you?" "Philadelphia Times.

CANADIAN WHO HAS BEEN KNIGHTED BY KING GEORGE

Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Bank of Commerce, who and the leading authority on banking in Canada, who has just been knighted. He is one of three Canadians who have been honored by King George. Sir Edmund was formerly known as Byron E. SEA KINGS The sea foam made us, The sea wind weighed us, And found us true and sturdy, so she teased us to the waves, The long swell swung us, The long surf flung us, The wind sprit flung us, Across the marching breakers as they sang their battle staves.

The mermaids sought us And wisely taught us, The roadways of the ocean that the starry heavens show, The moon hung o'er us, And set before us, The great law of the waters, how the tide ways ebb and flow.

The sea birds knew us, And whelming threw us, A softly dappled feather for the wings up on our helm, The deep sea called us, The ships installed us, And we followed, followed boldly, and the wide world was our realm! —By 1 Mail Gazette.

IN LIGHTER VEIN POP! "Let joy," he said, "be unconfined!"— "And then, same further talk, He took his pocket corker out, And firmly pulled the cork!"

AN IMPROVEMENT. "I suppose," said the party with the built-in habit, "you are bringing up your children to follow in your footsteps?" "Not me," replied the fond parent, "I'm making a strenuous effort to bring them up in the way I should have gone."

TRAITS OF HUMAN BEINGS Side by side they sat by the seaside, The ocean waves remind me of human beings," he said. "How's that?" she queried. "They come to the shore in great style," he replied, "and go awake broke."

SELLING A SHEEP. Two Highland farmers met on their way to church. "Man, said Donald, I was wondering what you will be askin' for your sheep over at your steading." "Man," replied Donald, "I was thinkin' I was be wantin' 50 shillings for that sheep." "I will tak' it at that," said Donald; "but, och, man, Dougal, I am awful surprised at you doin' business on the Saw-bath."

"Business!" exclaimed Dougal. "Man sellin' a sheep like that for 50 shillin' is not business at all; it's just charity!" —Ladies' Home Journal.

THE PRESSMAN. "May I print a kiss on your lips?" I said. And she nodded her sweet permission. So we went to press, and I rather guess we printed a full edition.

"But one edition is hardly enough," she said, with a charming pout; So again in the press the form was placed. And we got some "extras" out.

HIS ELOQUENCE WASTED A young pastor was asked to officiate at a christening in a small chapel in England. He eagerly accepted the opportunity to make his eloquence known, and when the child was brought forward, he had already prepared his address. "Brethren," he began, "this occasion is one of the most solemnity and importance. The name which this little one receives today will accompany him and be an inseparable part of him throughout his life. It will be with him in his triumphs, and will follow, perhaps, to the great heights of state-manship. In later life the name of—"

In his anxiety he had forgotten to learn the name, and he turned to the father, who imparted the information in a subdued whisper: "Her name is Mary Ann."

THE BOY PROBLEM The boy problem in St. John continues to thrust itself upon public attention. Nearly every morning boys charged with some offence are found in the police court, and the papers this morning tell of a daring robbery committed by boys said to be about 16 years of age. The police find it necessary very frequently to disperse groups of boys at certain street corners about the town, because they are giving great annoyance to people living in the neighborhood. No well considered effort is made to direct the activities of boys along right lines. They are largely left to their own resources, and under such circumstances it is only necessary for a shrewd and unscrupulous boy to take the lead, and offences, first of a minor character, but growing more serious as time passes, are committed. This paper has time and again pointed out the importance of surrounding boys with better influences than those of the street and alley. Primarily the responsibility rests upon parents, but where parental duty is not done, and the community pays no heed, the community in the end suffers the consequences. It ought to be possible in a city like St. John, so to organize the boys that they themselves would be the best guarantee of good behavior on the part of all boys. In some cities the boys of a district are organized into a kind of good conduct league, whose members patrol the district, know what is going on among the boys in general, and apply remedies of their own, which are generally found to be very effective. Could not something of the sort be done in St. John?

THE LATE DR. DOLE In the death of Dr. W. F. Dole St. John has lost a citizen of ripe scholarship, who was also a successful teacher, and a poet and essayist who possessed a remarkably fine gift of felicitous expression. The general public knew comparatively little of Dr. Dole, for he was a man of quiet and scholarly tastes, who shunned rather than sought publicity. His writings, however, were very highly appreciated by those most competent to judge their merits, and he was a contributor to periodicals of the highest class. Dr. Dole studied law, but had little taste for the practice of the legal profession. His life was largely devoted to teaching, and as a teacher he has done notable service through a long period of years. For a time he was an inspector of public schools, and teachers who remember him as he was then are grateful for the kindly sympathy shown by him in relation to the problems which vexed them. Dr. Dole lived to a ripe old age, and until within the last few months was a familiar figure on the streets of the city. By the few friends of his earlier years who still survive, he will be sincerely mourned, and universal sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family.

MR. ROGERS ANSWERED The Hon. Robert Rogers, one of the most reckless Conservative politicians in Manitoba, recently stated that he was informed that a friend of Sir Wilfrid Laurier had tried to sell a judgeship in Manitoba for $10,000. This is Sir Wilfrid's reply to Mr. Rogers:—

"The charge of a rake-off on contracts we are familiar with, and can be set aside without comment, but an attack upon the honor of the judiciary is too serious to be allowed to go unchallenged. I do not believe that there is the slightest foundation for the assertion of Mr. Rogers, and as far as the government may be concerned, I give it the most unqualified denial.

"On behalf of the government, I add that if it were true that a judge had paid a single dollar to anyone in connection with his appointment, that judge would not be fit to be on the bench, and the charge, if true, would warrant impeachment."

DAILY MANSLAUGHTER Noting the fact that human life is the greatest of our natural resources, the Toronto News makes a strong appeal for such action as will lessen the number of deaths in factories and on railroads. It points out that in the month of May throughout Canada one hundred and thirty-three deaths through accident occurred amongst employes in Canadian factories, and two hundred and forty-three individuals were injured more or less seriously. Twenty-five railway men were killed and thirty-nine injured. Censuring the people for accepting this terrible waste of life with a heartless philosophy as if it were inevitable, the News goes on—

"The Canadian Manufacturers' Association spends valuable time seeking new markets, growing over railway rates and fighting the labor unions. Could it not do something to abate this daily manslaughter? C. P. R. AND TRAINMEN MAY REACH COMPROMISE

Montreal, June 26.—(Special)—Having come to a point where they must either back up or fight, the C. P. R. and the representatives of the trainmen and conductors have apparently concluded that it would be wise to take a second look at the proposition before precipitating a conflict.

After each side announced an ultimatum, they will come together again tomorrow with a possibility that some way out of the difficulty will be arrived at without loss of dignity and without injustice to either side.

Toronto, Ont., June 26.—(Special)—Hon. Mackenzie King was the chief speaker at a big Liberal picnic held at Dundas on Saturday afternoon. More than 1,500 people were present. He said the work of the constitution board was so satisfactory that he did not think there would be any strike at the railway men.

SCENES DESCRIPTIVE OF ZEPPLIN'S RECENT PASSENGER AIRSHIP ACHIEVEMENT

Dusseldorf, June 26.—One of the greatest achievements in the history of aerial navigation was accomplished when the first regular airship passenger service was inaugurated by the Deutschland, the giant dirigible built after the Zeppelin model. With the veteran aviator himself at the steering wheel, the airship, carrying twenty passengers, travelled from Friedrichshafen, on Lake Constance, to this city, a distance of 300 miles, in nine hours.

The weather was perfect and the motors worked faultlessly. The average time maintained for the complete course was approximately thirty-three miles an hour, but the 124 miles between Friedrichshafen and Stuttgart were covered at an average rate of forty-one miles an hour. The best speed for a single hour was forty-three and a half miles.

The Evening Chit-Chat By RUTH CAMERON

It is not raining rain to me, It's raining daffodils; In every dimpled drop I see Will flowers on the hills.

The clouds of grey engulf the day, And overwhelm the town; It is not raining rain to me, It's raining roses down.

A health unto the happy, A lig for him who frets! It is not raining rain to me, It's raining joys.

It is pretty hard to see the daffodils in the rain, when that particular day on which you planned to go sky-riding turns out rainy, isn't it?

And yet the daffodils are pretty sure to be there, and often many more of them than you realize. This is a word for discouraged and rebellious people.

People to whom some wrench, some disappointment, some very unwelcome change in life has come.

Dear folks, it is hard for you to believe that in your particular change or disappointment there can be any preparation for the future. And, with all that had led to her, she saw the horror and emptiness of her life—saw it so plainly that she turned away from it forever.

There is help in the still places of life, its retreats, its withdrawals for communion with God and one's own soul. Bereavement is one of the still places of life; disappointment is another, pain is another. We come out of deep bereavements, out of all the sorrows, out of all the bewilderments and disappointments, out of all the sorrows, out of all the bewilderments and disappointments, out of all the sorrows, out of all the bewilderments and disappointments.

Wash well and boil with skins on. When cooked, let cool and remove skins, cut in thin slices, round up a layer of sweet potatoes, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and small bits of butter, then another layer of potato, and so on until you have what you wish to use; then pour milk over all and bake in a slow oven.

For Blue Mist—one egg, 1 cup of sugar, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder. Mix this well together, then take part in a bowl and add 2 teaspoons of cinnamon, then take the white part and put half in the pan and then the dark part and drop by spoonfuls into the white part in the pan, then put in the rest of the white. Bake 40 minutes.

IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY ON SUNDAY

Rev. Miss McCutcheon, who is supplying in Brussels street Baptist church, preached there at both services yesterday to large congregations. In the evening his subject was the Joy of Christian Service. He took for his text the words, "Who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame."

In Trinity church last evening Rev. W. B. Stewart appealed to those present to help the King's Daughters in their fresh air work. This week the committee expect to send a party of nine or ten children up the St. John river for a week's vacation. Now that the schools are closed, the committee are very anxious to get more children to the country.

Rev. Frank Baird, of Sussex, preached in St. Andrew's church at both services yesterday. In the evening his subject was Trust in the Lord and Go Good. During his discourse he criticized the action of those whose business it is to promote prize fights and deplored the fact that a ring battle was planned for the natal day of a great nation.

The Epworth League of Portland Methodist church on Friday evening presented to their pastor, Rev. Neil MacLachlan, a handsome gold handled silk umbrella, and an address of appreciation for his services.

The Presbyterian churches of the city yesterday observed the day as "Patriotic Sunday." Special programs were conducted, being given by the scholars in the Sunday schools.

John Murphy, painter, while returning from church yesterday morning, stepped into a ditch in a field, and broke his leg badly. He will be confined to his home in Somerset street for some time. Dr. Berryman attended him.

A little blaze at noon yesterday in the house occupied by James Love, 30 Brussels street, called the fire department out, but was extinguished without much difficulty.

On Friday next the Y. M. C. A. Harriers will commence their "hike" to Fredericton going in caravans and returning in canoes. On the way up they will give gypsy circuses at Westfield, Waldford, Fredericton Junction and Fredericton. The following have decided to go: Lawrence Dow, Chester Alexander, Fred McKel, John Hambro, Maurice Hambro, Roy Pendleton, A. M. Magee, Stanley Shucup, Paul Short, O. M. Loeb, P. Cunningham, C. W. Folking, Kenneth Magee, Roli, Melrose and C. L. Hay.

Capt. Brown, of the S. S. Orithia, was struck on the shoulder and had his collar bone dislocated on Saturday, while the steamer was loading deals at Sand Point. Dr. F. L. Kenney set the bone.

The Brussels street church picnic was held on Saturday at Westfield and was very successful. A good series of sports were held. Prizes were won by: Phyllis Waters, Eddie Straight, Chas. McFarlane, Mildred Brown, Sidney Chapman, Herbert Vail, Everett Hunt, S. Morrell, S. Gould, Wm. occupant and Messrs. McCutcheon and Dyleman.

A large number of new members were received into the churches in Fredericton yesterday, as a result of the recent campaign conducted by Evangelist Torrey. The total number was about one hundred and fifty.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Recall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general, and are certain of their great curative value that I promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Recall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quickly, and give a refreshing strengthening, being innocuous on the tire intestinal tract. They do not purge, grip, cause nervous headache, gas, or any looseness, diarrhoea, or any other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folk. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at my stores—The Recall Store, Chas. R. Watson, 100 King street.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Three persons were killed and seven seriously injured, about sixty miles from Moosejaw, Sask., on Thursday, as a result of a terrific cyclone and hail storm. Auguste Bellevue, of the Duke House, Moncton, was arrested thirteen times on Saturday, charged with violation of the Seditious Act. He was fined $50 for one offence and the other cases were adjourned. Should he be convicted of all charges, his fines would amount to $650, with the alternative of about three years in jail.

Rev. W. R. Robinson, of St. John, addressed the Freemasons of Moncton yesterday in the First Baptist church. The yacht Kingdom, of the Holy Ghost and U.S. Society, sailed from Halifax yesterday for some port unknown, perhaps in the Bay of Fundy.

The Sussex schools closed on Saturday for the summer vacation. Appropriate exercises were held and there was a large attendance. The principal, Mr. Lawson, who is leaving Sussex, received from the scholars a handsome watch fob, and the other teachers were also suitably remembered. Miss Kathleen Kirk received a gold brooch for the best work in the domestic science department.

Hon. Charles Murphy, secretary of state, is making a searching investigation into the affairs of the printing bureau at Ottawa. There is no definite due to the whereabouts of the missing superintendent, F. S. Gouldthrie.

IS THINNESS EMBARRASSING?

Undoubtedly it is to Many a Maiden and Youth—Wife Even Those Who Long in Years Prefer Well Rounded Figures

Prescription Increases Weight

A scrawny, gangling youth or maiden is almost invariably slighted, overlooked or ridiculed in any social gathering. There is something about a plump or well proportioned figure which attracts not only friendship, but love and admiration as well.

People with a proper amount of flesh are favored in all walks of life, while the thin are unloved, unadmired and frequently miserable for life. The difference lies in the power of the digestive functions and the ability of the blood and nerves to absorb and distribute over the body the nutrition extracted from the food eaten.

The thin person is unable to absorb the power to absorb and distribute the fish and fat elements which the gastric juices in the stomach and intestines should extract or separate from all kinds of food and drink.

A recent accidental discovery has proven that intricate cod-liver oil blends with certain other drugs to form a palatable one to three pounds of flesh per week during treatment, while the general health and strength also improves wonderfully.

Get in a half pint bottle, three ounces of essence of pepsin and three ounces of compound essence cod-liver oil and let stand two hours; then add one ounce tincture cod-liver oil (not cod-liver oil). Shake well and take a teaspoonful before and after meals, drinking plenty of water between meals and when retiring.

NOT EASY TO ADVISE A MAYOR

So Thirty Leading Citizens of Indianapolis Discover

Mayor Shank Appointed Them to Help Him With Their Counsel, But They Couldn't Agree

Indianapolis, June 26 - The experiment of Mayor Shank in seeking the help of an advisory commission of thirty leading citizens has not proved satisfactory to him or to the members of the board, and it is not improbable that the scheme will be abandoned.

When Mayor Shank was a candidate at the Republican primary was questioned as to his purposes by some leading members of the party. He replied in substance that he had no definite plan, but that he was going to get the advice of a board of thirty leading citizens and that he would be governed by the majority of that board.

The mayor and the council got into a controversy over the disposition of certain funds and the advisory body thought this was a good time to dip in and show the council that there was another power in the city as well as the elector body. Then there was trouble. The mayor thought he was competent to deal with the council and told the advisers to keep their hands off.

The city charter requires the mayor and the heads of departments to meet for conference once each month, and some one in the advisory body discovered that this provision was being ignored. A resolution was offered calling the mayor's attention to the requirement and asking him to conform to it. There was violent opposition to the suggestion, but it finally carried, and for once the advisory board got some pertinent advice.

But advising a mayor was attended with so many difficulties that the men who composed the body wearied of it and concluded to put themselves on record for something. That was where the brewer and the minister collided.

E. M. Barney, formerly a member of the Anti-Saloon League, offered a resolution recommending that it was the sense of the advisory body that saloons be confined to the mile square or business district. He asked that the resolution be referred to the committee on public morals. Another member moved that the resolution go to the committee on municipal welfare. It happens that the public morals committee is made up of preachers and the municipal welfare committee is made up of brewers and their sympathizers. The motion to refer the resolution to the latter committee was intended of course to kill it. There was long a contest and the resolution finally went to its death. The ministers are disgruntled in consequence.

What is regarded as the beginning of the end came in a letter from the mayor calling attention to the fact that certain members did not attend the meetings and asking that they be dropped. The request was complied with, and one or two labor representatives, one or two business men and a preacher or so left the board. The mayor says he will not fill the vacancies.

The Young Man who looks upon his Work much as a Little Shaver does upon School in Swimsuit Time may Change his Views eventually. Sometimes, though it takes a Request for his Resignation or a Wife to make him do so.

BUT ONE LOST TO THE FAITH IN 300 YEARS

In the Cathedral yesterday morning, at the 9 o'clock mass, the congregation followed closely and with great interest the remarks of His Lordship Bishop Casey, who returned on Saturday from St. Anne de Boisjocque, Quebec. He said he had been much edified during his attendance at the celebration at St. Anne in honor of the baptism of the first Indian, Membertou, the great chief. He with nineteen of his companions, was baptized into the Catholic church on June 24, 1600.

Like Champlain, and others, Membertou became a lay missionary, and he interpreted the words of the priests to the Indians. The church rapidly spread, his lordship said, and the tribe became wholly Catholic, and in all the 300 years since then, only one Micmac Indian had been lost to the Catholic faith.

His Lordship expressed regret that he had to be away from the city on the occasion of the unveiling of the Champlain monument, but he had promised some time ago to go to St. Anne and rejoice with the poor Indian because of the blessings which came to him 300 years ago. For the first time, he said, he heard a sermon preached in the Micmac language.

In reference to the Champlain monument, His Lordship again invited attention to the lessons to be learned from it. It was not a mere memorial, and as a tombstone, but was strikingly eloquent, with the majestic figure pointing to the river St. John, which it was Champlain's privilege to discover and name. There was in it a great lesson of the communion of saints. Why had Champlain's name been given to the river? Because of his Christian belief in the communion of saints; because he knew the day was the feast of St. John the Baptist and therefore, by Christian instinct, he called the river the St. John.

His Lordship spoke of Champlain's various qualities, and particularly of that missionary characteristic which marked him so strongly.

THIEVES AT WORK ON THE FELLAMA

Motor Boat at Marble Cove Broken Into and $15 Worth of Articles Stolen

The motor boat Fellama, the property of Fred A. Fleming, was burglarized late on Sunday night and the thieves stole about $15 worth of articles. The break was done, as the craft, which is one of the finest of the St. John Boat Club fleet, was lying among the other boats at the club anchorage, Marble Cove, but a short distance from a dredge on which the crew were busy.

The steward of the boat club is on duty up to 10 o'clock at night and the thieves chose a later hour for their work. About 11 o'clock those on the dredge heard hammering aboard the Fellama, but thought nothing of it, believing that the crew was aboard. Entrance had been made by prying open one of the cabin windows.

The missing articles consisted, among other things, of screw drivers, pump ratchets and other tools and fixtures of some value.

Commodore Gerooy of the St. John Boat Club, is out of the city, and Vice-Commodore Adam F. MacIntyre and other club officials spoken to were very indignant over the matter. They said that a stop should be put to this kind of work and this was one of the ends in view when the boat club was formed. They felt that it should not be possible that boats at the anchorage could be boarded in such a manner. The police have the matter in hand.

AMBULANCE TARDY IS COMPLAINT MADE

Man in Charge Says No—Mr. Straight Badly Hurt by Horse On Sunday

W. E. Straight, teamster, lies in the general public hospital with very serious injuries received yesterday morning while attending to his horse. It seems that Mr. Straight, who lives at 40 Wentworth street had gone to the barn alongside the horse to feed the horse and was seized with a fainting spell. His son heard the horse stamping and snorting in an excited manner, and went to the barn to see what was the matter. He found his father lying unconscious and bleeding under the horse's hoofs, and he immediately gave the alarm in the house.

After some difficulty, Mr. Straight was taken from his perilous position, and placed on some hay while word was sent to Dr. Mayes Case, who hurried to the scene. When the doctor had examined him he ordered his removal to the hospital and the ambulance was sent for. Two calls had to be sent in before the conveyance finally arrived, after a wait of about an hour.

On arriving at the hospital it was found that Mr. Straight had three ribs broken, the jaw was broken, and cuts in the head required twenty-five stitches. This morning Mr. Straight was reported to be resting well, and it thought he will recover. The family felt very indignant at what they claim was unnecessary delay in the ambulance being sent to the house.

It was also claimed that the ambulance did not respond promptly to the call sent in for the wounded Italian in North street in the afternoon.

A. W. Goding, who has charge of the vehicle, when asked about the matter, said that as soon as the call came in from Mr. Straight's, the ambulance was sent out at once. There was no unnecessary delay.

When the message was received from North street, the ambulance was in Fairville in response to a call, and it went directly to North street from the hospital.
