U. S. Would Bargain Modification of Law Against Liquor on Ships

Say They Bargained With a White Man in Havana to Land Them in U. S., But He Deserted Them—Five Die as Stowaways on the Vessel.

Wants Right to Search 12 Miles Off Shore in Exchange

London Daily News Criticizes Washington Suggestion and Favors General Conference as Proposed by British—Paris Supplies Week's Outfit to Departing Travelers.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Washington, June 14.—Modification of the effect of prohibition enforcement regulations as they apply to sealed liquors in transit through U. S. territory or in ships' stores has been referred to various maritime powers by the State Department as a solution for present inconveniences occasioned foreign shipping.

The project, it was learned on high authority, contemplates exercises of a treaty-making power to amend existing statutes, which means that Senate ratification would have to be obtained in order to recognize the U. S. right of search within 12 miles off shore in carrying on the war against rum smugglers operating under foreign flags.

The offer also is contingent upon a reciprocal agreement in treaty form by the powers involved, which would give the United States the right of search within 12 miles off shore in carrying on the war against rum smugglers operating under foreign flags.

Customs authorities were notified, an interpreter summoned and the strange story unfolded.

Twenty Chinese had bargained with the owner of the schooner, a white man, to take them aboard and land them somewhere on the U. S. coast. Each Chinese paid $500 to the owner. On May 8 last they set out from Havana, twenty Chinese, two white men and a negro. They cruised. The food supply ran low. They begged the tall sailor man who owned the boat to carry out his promises and land them. He growled and chased them to their quarters. That night, just a little more than a week ago, he took the schooner's only small boat and abandoned the Mary Beatrice and its passengers. The Chinese, realizing their predicament, hoping he would return. Then impelled by the pangs of hunger, they turned the schooner toward land.

The mystery of the seven missing was not fully explained. The Chinese spokesman, replying to questions about them, pointed over the side. He would not say whether they fell or were thrown.

Stowaways Suffocated.

Marcus Hock, Pa., June 14.—The sugar freighter Santa Theresa, brought a tragic story when it dropped anchor off Gloucester immigration station here yesterday. During the voyage from Havana, five stowaways died of heat and coal gas. Four other stowaways were taken to the immigration station. The survivors were Jose Rainhides, Varnado Fernandez, Antonio Ferrin and Michael Sanchez.

The five dead men, said Rainhides, the only one who spoke English, "were no familiar with ships. Otherwise they would never have hidden away where they did. They were buried at sea last Monday. The captain read the funeral service over them and the sailors lined up along the side. The men had been roasted to death by the heat and choked by the coal gas."

The Santa Theresa sailed from Cuba on Friday. The five men had crawled into the bunkers next to the boilers. The stokers told us later that after the ship had been at sea two days, they noticed a peculiar odor. When they shoveled away the coal, they found us. They kept on going until they reached the boiler. The bulkhead next to the boilers, where they stowed over one of the dead men. They then found the four others lying close together."

Great Falls, Mont., June 14.—Payment tomorrow of $100,000, the second installment of the $300,000 purse guaranteed Jack Dempsey for his fight with Tommy Gibbons at Shelby, Mont., July 4, will remove the last trace of uneasiness existing here of the Shelby promoters' ability to go through with their enterprise.

Jack Kearns, manager of the heavy-weight champion, today professed an assurance that the money would be paid. When the money is tendered Kearns, the promoters will be in a position in which it will be cheaper for them to go ahead with the fight than to call it off, as some skeptics feared they would.

Dempsey, judging from the work-out yesterday, is through nursing his sparring partners. He knocked down George Godfrey, 225-pound negro, and also knocked out Harry Drake, English heavy-weight. Drake left the ring dazed and bleeding after being knocked into the ropes.

Troon, June 14.—A. A. Whitcombe, a twenty year old professional from Bath, led the field with a score of 70 when all the players in the British open golf championship here had completed the first half of the round at noon today.

Last year at Sandwich Whitcombe finished fifth in the open championship with a score of 80. For the 72 holes and in the qualifying round for this tournament he was one of three who led the field with aggregates of 146 for the 36 holes.

Mexico City, June 14.—Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine boxer, is expected to arrive here tomorrow for a bout on Sunday with Jim Hubbard of Buffalo, N. Y.

RAIN COMES TO HELP STAY RAVAGES OF FOREST FIRES

Plaster Rock, Grand Falls and Part of North Shore Get Welcome Downpour—Maine Also Enjoyed It—Two Quebec Settlements Wiped Out.

(Canadian Press)

Fredericton, N. B., June 14.—Early reports received today by the department of lands and mines stated that a rainfall had commenced at Plaster Rock and Grand Falls this morning, while a heavy rain had fallen at Juniper, which was of great benefit in view of the continued drought conditions and the seriousness of the forest fires.

Rain was also reported from Bathurst, Red Pine and Newcastle, relieving the situation in the northeastern section considerably. At Campbellton rain fell for an hour during the night, but this morning's drought conditions were not relieved. At Millers on the head waters of the Tobique River, a heavy mist was said to exist.

One new fire was reported six miles east of Hartland and was being fought by a crew of men organized in Hartland. Forest fires were within a mile of the outskirts of the town of Grand Falls yesterday and today were burned at St. Thomas Settlement, Burgess Settlement and Bluebell. A mill was destroyed at Bluebell. Fires on the Portage Road leading out of Grand Falls were so bad that it was impassable. The fire which was burning from Stockholm, Me., toward the St. John River, was within two or three miles of the New Brunswick boundary yesterday afternoon.

Fredericton, June 14.—(Later) Rains early this morning have halted the forest fires in Northern New Brunswick. The rains were fairly heavy, but did not last long enough to bring permanent relief to the situation. They stopped the fires from spreading for the time being, however, and may enable the fire fighting crews to gain control of the fire.

Maine Also Gets Rain.

Presque Isle, Me., June 14.—Rain was falling today, thus relieving temporarily the critical forest fire situation in Aroostook county, and along the New Brunswick border, particularly at Masardis, the centre of fires at points extending for 25 miles along the Ashland branch of the U. S. & A. Railway. There has been no rain in this section for nearly three weeks.

Quebec, Q., June 14.—Two villages completely wiped out, several saw mills, probably a couple of dozen or more houses burnt down, farms ruined, barns and sheds by the score reduced to smouldering heaps of ash, farm implements lost and immense tracts of valuable timber land laid waste represent yesterday's partial loss due to forest fires in the province of Quebec.

The situation in Temiscouata county, it was said last night was "frightful." The two prosperous villages of Glenora and Sully which were completely destroyed were thriving colonization settlements in Temiscouata and the mills and other buildings which went up in smoke were also situated in the same district.

Nomination Day In Ontario Elections

Toronto, June 14.—(Canadian Press)—Official nomination of candidates for the Ontario Legislature will take place today, with the election set for June 25. Nominations will be received from noon until two p. m., standard time. It is expected that approximately 300 persons will be nominated for 111 seats in the Legislature, with Conservative candidates in the majority.

The U. F. O. representatives, it is expected, will be next in line, followed by Liberals, Laborites and a good sprinkling of Independents. There will be numerous three-cornered contests and in one or two constituencies four candidates are in the running.

The standing of the parties at the close of the last Legislature was as follows: Official Farmer, 45; Labor, 9; Conservatives, 25; Liberals, 28; Independents, 3; vacant, 1. From present indications there will be acclamations in three ridings. Peter Heenan, Labor, is without opposition in Kenora; W. P. Nicke, K. C. Conservative, in Kingston; and E. J. Callagan, Conservative, in Ratny River.

FREE HIGH SCHOOL COURSE FOR ALL

Institutes Hear Canada's Only Woman School Inspector

Call to Parents of Children in the Rural Districts—Says Consolidated School is Proper Thing and Day of One-Teacher School Has Passed.

(Canadian Press)

Fredericton, N. B., June 14.—A free high school education for every child in Canada, similar to the plan in Ontario, New Zealand and the U. S., was advocated by Dr. Marty of Toronto, only woman school inspector in Canada and convener of the National Committee on Education of the Federated Institutes of Canada, at this morning's session of the convention of the organization here today.

"Much had to be accomplished toward this end," she said. "If parents of rural children realized to what extent their children are being deprived of the educational opportunities offered them, they would insist and do something instead of retarding progress. She cited the situation in Ontario, where the government has allowed the suspension of the Adolescent School Attendance Act, which raises the school age from 14 to 16 years of age, in the rural districts where there are no schools."

"The urban centres there were wiser," she continued. "They realized the advantages to their children of raising the school age to 16. It was this that gave us free high schools."

"The only solution of the rural school problem today is the consolidation of the National Council of Women's Institutes do all they could to get women on school boards—placing the proportion at fifty per cent. She advised changes in the provincial curriculum in reference to the former restricted academic one. This should include vocational, commercial and industrial courses, the study of the social sciences, and the culture as well as the training in more varied lines."

Dr. Marty then reviewed the educational work done in the provinces and the financial tributes paid by those engaged in administering departments of education.

Mrs. W. V. Lawlor suggested a resolution from the Federation asking for uniform legislation in all provinces to allow women to be school trustees. Mrs. David Watt of Manitoba, pointed out the advantage of the Consolidated Schools in Manitoba. Children were brought in heated vans and served hot lunches.

Miss Annie Stuart, of Grand Pre, N. S., a member of the Board of School Commissioners in her province, spoke of the fine work done by women clubs, with four exceptions, are playing hustling ball, giving all they have against the leaders and tearing at each other like small boys.

Concluding she appealed to the women to take greater interest in the League of Nations and International questions.

It had been agreed that the United States would be a party in a test case in the Canadian courts if it was decided to make one. It was the intention of the Government to proceed with the matter along these lines.

Sir Lomer Gouin, Minister of Justice, regarding his recent visit to Washington. Sir Lomer said that the object was to press for the settlement of Canada's claims against the United States in reference to the seizure of Canadian properties by the custodian. The Canadian Government had been advised to try to settle the matter without litigation and, with this end in view, the Canadian representatives had conferred with the secretary of State of the United States.

"It was agreed," said Sir Lomer, "that, to expedite matters, we were to institute one or two cases in Canada, assigning one or two companies to appear before such courts to be instructed to deliver to the Canadian Government certificates for these same stocks. The American Government would appear so that the judgment would be binding upon the American Government and upon the companies. This we found most satisfactory."

"On the whole," Sir Lomer concluded, "we consider that we have accomplished something and we hope that after a rather short delay we shall get the securities to which we are entitled."

As Hiram Sees It

"Don't it strike you as a strange thing," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "that with all these fires burnin' up property to the value of hundreds of thousands o' dollars there ain't nobody in jail? If a man burnt my barn an' was found out he'd hev a chance to learn a trade up in Dorchester. Well, sir, them there woods that's bein' burnt up is part o' my property—an' you see an' everybody else's. We all own 'em. Why don't we hev a few jail sentences list to it everybody who it aint safe to start fires? Kin it be that with all the fires that's sot in a year nobody kin tell who sot 'em? One o' them there frebugees burnt a boiler to ketch that a bootlegger. Well, sir, we got to wake up. I mind when you'd see the rivers runnin' full in the spring with logs most as big round as a bar'l. Now you don't see nothin' but boom-pops. In a little while you wont see them. We'll be lookin' for bribe bushes to make firewood. Yes, sir—I'd say it's time somebody was sent across the flats—as they used to say in old times in St. John—for startin' fires in the dry season. I would—By Hen!"

Hamilton, Ont., June 14.—Russell T. Kelley of Hamilton was elected president of the Canadian Good Roads Association yesterday, when central Ontario delegates out-voted representatives of all provinces in the Dominion 28 to 24, defeating Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, whose name the nomination committee submitted to the convention without Premier Veniot's consent. Ontario also carried the position of first vice-president, when central Ontario delegates out-voted representatives of all provinces in the Dominion 28 to 24, defeating Hon. P. J. ALL ON EDGE IN THE BIG LEAGUES

Competition Keener Than at Any Time This Season

(Canadian Press)

New York, June 14.—Competition in major league baseball is keener now than it has been at any time so far this season and the edge is getting sharper in both leagues every day as all the teams string out their first victories.

Before the season opened it appeared that there would be a lively fight in the American, but mostly for second place. In the National most critics conceded New York the pennant hands down all except Manager McGraw, who repeated that old saw: "You never can tell in baseball."

The season is approximately one third finished and both New York teams are at the top of the heap but no one would predict how long they will remain there, or even that they will stick. Both teams are in a slump down all except Manager McGraw, who repeated that old saw: "You never can tell in baseball."

The Pirates won their game with a timely clout by "Red" Russell. Chicago, gaining recognition after weeks of obscurity, met the enemy, saw the red flag and curled up. Chicago could have been in third place today if it had not been for a wallop Brooklyn uncorked just when it appeared the wallop was over for the day. The score was 8 to 4, and by the Robins kept on a tie with the Reds for third place. Chicago had won seven consecutive games.

Hornsbury's return to the game after an absence of three weeks was stimulating to St. Louis, and Boston, which is keeping out of last place only because Philadelphia is worse, took another tumble, 3 to 2. Hornsbury got three hits in five times up and scored one run.

In the American the battle is being fought very hard but the candidates are not running as evenly as in the National, though only four games separate first and third places. New York shook its jinx and took the opener from St. Louis 2 to 0, mostly because Joe Bush led the Browns to four hits, but Philadelphia also won and still is only three contests behind the head of the parade.

An interesting series will get under way in the American today when Philadelphia receives Cleveland in an out-and-out struggle for second place. If the former comes out on top they are as nearly sure of getting into first place within a short time as things can be. Cleveland lost half a game by being idle with Washington, but is only one full game behind the Athletics as the bell rings.

Boston took advantage of the Senators' day off and climbed a notch by downing Chicago again, 10 to 9 and are within a game of St. Louis. George Burns, the third heaviest hitter in the league, got five hits in five times up.

China's Christian General Drove Li Out of Peking

President of Republic Held Prisoner at Tien Tsin Because He Holds Government Seals.

Peking, June 14.—China's "Christian general," Feng Yu Hsiang, was the active military power behind the plot which yesterday ousted President Li Yuan Hung out of office and sent him in flight to Tien Tsin.

General Feng, with Wang Hual Cheng, head of the metropolitan police force of Peking, handed their resignations to President Li on Tuesday, declaring they no longer could hold office while their troops and patrolmen were unpaid.

President Li countered with a request that they withdraw their resignations and that he would determine whether he would hold the presidency. He issued his ultimatum that unless Li vacated, Feng's troops would enter the capital. Then followed Li's flight to Tien Tsin.

Ten Tsin, June 14.—Li Yuan Hung was being taken to Tien Tsin by special train here yesterday afternoon. The British consul was forcibly prevented from approaching the train. The president is being held, it is said, because he has possession of the Government seals.

Special Fund For Church Union Work

Money Will Not be Taken From The Presbyterian Treasury.

Port Arthur, Ont., June 14.—The Presbyterian General Assembly decided yesterday that in future any money which is needed for the expense of the meetings of the committee on union would be raised from devoted friends of union and that nothing would be taken from the ordinary funds of the church for this purpose.

It was decided that in the coming year many friends of the church might decline to make contributions including home and foreign missions, etc., on the ground that some small part of this money would be used to pay the expenses of the meetings of the new union committee. It was therefore decided to create a special fund for this purpose.

The amount is very small. It was said that since church union was first mooted in 1904, up to the present time, the sum advanced for this purpose had been only $28,853 or about $1,700 per annum.

Düsseldorf, June 14.—The French have taken drastic measures to curb the wave of terrorism in the Ruhr. Two of the principal police officials at Recklinghausen were arrested as hostages because of the killing of two French soldiers on Monday night. The population is forbidden now to go upon the streets after nine o'clock at night and also night attacks upon the French soldiers. A German arrested in Dortmund in connection with the killing of two French non-commissioned officers on Saturday night was shot and killed when he tried to escape.

SAVE THE KIDDIES FOR CANADA.

Forty thousand Canadian children die each year under ten, largely due to maternal ignorance. The greatest ignorance exists in the matter of feeding. Most mothers consult only the child's desires, to their own sorrow and Canada's loss. Most children today live upon "Excess Acid" white flour, refined cereals, fats, meats, and white sugar sweets, all lacking in repair substances and alkaline salts. This lack lowers vitality and turns the blood acid. Children so fed are fit subjects for disease germs, always in the air, to fasten upon, multiply themselves by billions, and produce in the child disease and death. This could not happen to a child fed upon natural alkaline (opposite of acid) foods; whole grains, milk, eggs, nuts, beans, peas, leafy vegetables and fruits, honey, and brown sugar sweets. All are the unrefined products of nature and the most important are whole grains. Such a diet is all important in hot weather. It keeps the blood in its natural alkaline state and carries the child into the dangers of winter fortified against disease.
Roman Meal is the only alkaline cereal. It is 400 parts in each 1,000 parts "Excess Alkali," alkaline enough to correct the acids of "Excess Acid" foods. If used some way once every day with milk. It can be made a child's summer delight by following the new "Ice-Cold" recipe. BROSE-O, CHOCOL-O, and JELL-E, any of which can be prepared in ten minutes. Your child needs Roman Meal, because it has four times as much bone-forming materials as even milk, essential to well-formed bones and good teeth. At grocers.

Grandmother Who Slew Son-in-Law Gets Reformatory

New York, June 14.—Mrs. Antonietta Fiorena, humble and bewildered, a grandmother, was sentenced in Newark County Court by Judge Edwin Caffrey to an indefinite term in the Clinton Reformatory for manslaughter. A marmoset of pity and remonstrance pleaded the court room when the old woman made her sturdy departure. There was no vagueness about the charge on which Mrs. Fiorena was convicted. She shot her son-in-law, Salvatore Juliano, a laborer, on the night of April 20, after her granddaughter, Louisa Juliano, ten years old, burst into the room, frantic and sobbing, fleeing from her father. The man stumbled heavily into Mrs. Fiorena's room, in pursuit. She drew a pistol from her bureau. Juliano turned, and as he ran away down the dark hall the grandmother's anger tightened on the trigger and the pistol exploded. The bullet killed him. Newark has been extraordinarily stirred by the case. The county prosecutor declined to bring in a heavier charge than manslaughter. Hundreds of citizens, drawn from the city's business, social and philanthropic life, signed a petition urging clemency.

CERTO
Mother Nature's year-round jell maker

ALL the goodness of your fruit!

Your jams and jellies made the old-fashioned way were delicious—but, after all your risk and hard toil, they contained only part of the goodness of the fruit.
That half-hour or more of boiling stole away the flavor and color that you now can save by using Certo.
The Certo process requires only one minute of boiling. That is why Certo-made jellies and jam have a richness of flavor never possible the old way. Simply because none is boiled away. And they keep perfectly.
Certo is economical. It makes 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit. Certo is pectin—"Mother Nature's Jell Maker."

Greet New Warden With Fires In Cells

Convicts in Pennsylvania Penitentiary Burn Bedding When Col. Groome Takes Charge.

Philadelphia, June 14—Colonel John C. Groome, organizer and first superintendent of the Pennsylvania State penitentiary, who was appointed warden of the Eastern State Penitentiary here last Saturday, had a "warm" reception from the convicts when he entered the grim institution for the first time. Eighteen prisoners in the tier were narcotic drug addicts and continued set fire to their mattresses in their cells yesterday, and it was only by the greatest effort that the flames were beaten out and the prisoners saved from injury. Colonel Groome made known today. Some of the prisoners first hung their bed blankets across the cell doors before starting the fires.

Cells and showers from the inmates, Colonel Groome said, joined in the clamor made by the big fire gangs of the penitentiary. The noise was kept up for some time and stopped only when the prisoners became too tired to make a racket.

Colonel Groome, who has a reputation as a strict disciplinarian, was selected as warden to succeed Robert J. McKenty, who resigned recently while conditions at the institution were under investigation by a Philadelphia Grand Jury. The jury reported that generally lax discipline prevailed in the big prison, which houses approximately 1,700 convicts.

MAN CRUSHED BY ELEVATOR. FIREMEN RAISE CAR, SAVE HIM

New York, June 14—Firemen worked for half an hour to extricate Owen Carville of 824 West Seventeenth Street from beneath an elevator in the basement of the warehouse at 892 West 17th Street.

Carville, who operated the elevator, was being crushed to death when his predicament was discovered by Samuel Little, a foreman, who sent in a fire alarm.

Firemen chopped a hole in the wall of the shaft, jacked up the car and released Carville, who was unconscious. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, suffering from a fractured right arm and internal injuries. The cause of the accident is not known.

JOKE LEADS TO SERIOUS QUARREL

Man Hacked Fatally With Hatchet, Found Jammed in a Trunk.

New York, June 14.—A feeling that all was not well at home caused Mrs. Kate Pananko to leave work Tuesday afternoon and hasten to her apartment at 515 East Fifteenth Street. She found her husband, Henry Pananko, seated astride a big green trunk, waving a hatchet in each hand, and shouting excitedly.

"I've got him—I've got him!" She ran to the street for Patrolman John Harkins and together they returned to the house. Pananko was subdued quickly and the trunk opened. Inside they found John Possaki, 44 years old, of 248 Avenue B, his skull fractured, his nose cut off and his face and neck hacked.

The wounded man was lying on his back, his knees doubled up under his chin, and his wrists and ankles bound with fragments of cord. Dr. Rose C. Boyer, who took him to Bellevue, said that he probably would die.

Mrs. Pananko said her husband had been acting queerly for some time. About eighteen months ago, he was released from the Ward's Island Insane Asylum where he had been confined two years. He had not been able to work since, but apparently had fully recovered his faculties.

Sunday, Mrs. Pananko said, she noticed her husband acting queerly. He was unusually quarrelsome and so violent that she spent Sunday night with a friend, being afraid to return home. In the morning she went to work in a restaurant where she is employed as a cook. But all the time, she felt that something was wrong. By three o'clock she could stand it no longer so she went home. Pananko told several conflicting stories about the affair, the police say. One version was that he left home early in the morning and returned to find Possaki rummaging through his trunk. He said that he kept $150 in cash in the trunk and accused Possaki of trying to rob him. This, he said, provoked a fight in which he struck Possaki with the hatchet several times.

But, according to neighbors, Pananko left the house about 10 o'clock and was seen returning with Possaki shortly before noon. Both men, they said, appeared to have been drinking, and were heard quarrelling in the Pananko apartment. According to the janitor of the house, "Pananko was a model neighbor and never beat anyone but his wife."

Possaki regained consciousness at the hospital and was questioned. He is said to have told detectives that he and Pananko were "only fooling" and that the whole thing grew out of a joke.

Pananko was locked up, charged with felonious assault. Should Possaki die, the charge will be changed to manslaughter.

TOMBS PRISONER BARS DOOR TO 5 AFTER 2 ESCAPE

Laborer, Held in Shooting of Chief Inspector Lutz, Fights Cell Mates After Failing to Catch Fugitives

New York, June 14.—Two prisoners being held for examination in Tombs Court detention pen escaped from jail when the keeper's key broke in the lock instead of forcing the bolt home. The keeper, returning a few moments later, discovered James Comerford, the laborer who is charged with shooting Albert Lutz, chief inspector of the Bureau of Weights and Measures, last Thursday, standing a righteous guard at the door and barring the way to freedom to five other prisoners.

The two men who escaped were Henry Libera, twenty-eight years old, and William Schneider, twenty-four years old. They were arraigned in Tombs Court as fugitives from justice from Hudson County, New Jersey, in connection with the robbery of an automobile trucked of silk valued at $22,000.

Two other occupants of the detention pen with Comerford were Christian Wolf and Carl Bothner, who were arrested Saturday and held in $50,000 bail each for further examination in the loss of $1,000 worth of securities by C. D. Barney & Co. on June 5. Beszech Their Freedom.

The youths, with the three other mutineers, were clustered about Comerford, beseeching and threatening him, when Keeper William Reynolds came back down the corridor. "Break the law, will you?" Comerford, a burly man, was thundering. "Hop out of jail, will you! You just want to get some cigarettes, is it? I'll show you—stand back!"

His heavy arm came down like a fall on the shoulder of one of the youths, and the fire retreated before his wrath. Comerford, almost weeping with rage, confided to Reynolds how he caught hold of the coat of one of the escaping men and almost managed to hold him back. The two who escaped fled down the corridor to a passageway to Lafayette street, opened a door there that had a key in it, and vanished.

Reynolds called court attendants to guard the men and hurried to report to Warden John J. Hanley. What occurred there is best recorded in Hanley's words. "Keeper J. Speckles. "I was sitting in my office," said the warden, "when Reynolds came bursting in. His eyes were starting from his head. His face was covered with sweat. He didn't speak. He couldn't. He ran across the office and fell heavily into a chair panting.

This was rather bewildering to me, but in a few moments Reynolds was able to enlighten me that two prisoners had escaped." A general alarm was sent out by police for the two men and Keeper Reynolds was given a new and extra strong key.

Lancaster Fire Alarms Residents

Matter of Protection Brought to Fore by Serious Blaze Yesterday — Meeting soon on Question.

A dwelling owned by Merritt Craft, a paint shop owned by George West and B. Flewelling were destroyed and a house owned by the Church of the Assumption and destroyed by a fire which at times threatened to assume serious proportions owing to the fact that repairs were being made on a pipe from Spruce Lake and the water was turned off. The fire broke out in the Craft house soon before four o'clock and it soon was a mass of flames. The firemen arrived but could do little with the feeble stream from the chemical engine. About half an hour later water came and the blaze was soon under control. Mr. Craft placed his loss at $1,200 with $800 insurance; The Martello Auto Painting Company (West & Flewelling) at about $1,500 with $400 insurance. The damage to the house occupied by Mr. Morris will be about $100.

It is probable that there will be a meeting of the residents of Beaconsfield soon to take up again the matter of fire protection.

Synod Committees In Session Here

His Lordship Bishop Richardson presided yesterday afternoon at the meetings of the diocesan synod committees in the Church of England Institute. At the Board of Education sessions in the afternoon, the resignation of A. C. Skelton from the Rothersey Collegiate School board of governors was regretfully accepted.

In the evening the board of missions met and transacted much business. His Lordship announced the appointments of student missionaries for the summer months as follows: Eldon, C. LeRoy Moore; New Bedford, W. I. Goodwin; Richibucto, H. L. Best; Land's End, G. I. Edsforth; Gordon and Lorne, J. M. Sherlock; Rothersey, H. Coleman; Devon, E. B. Bridgewater; Canning and Chipman, James Alexander; St. Mary's in St. John, A. L. D. Gardner; Albert county, A. S. Coster.

A grant was made for work in the General Public Hospital, St. John, and the East St. John hospital and Rev. E. Taylor McKim was appointed to have charge of this work.

Deputations were appointed to visit the following missions: Upham, Richmond, Wilton, Wicklow and Peel, Queensbury and Southampton.

The Bishop announced that Rev. J. Stead was leaving Wilton to return to England and that Rev. J. Bennett had been appointed to Gagetown parish. He also announced that Rev. E. Trueman was leaving Prince William to assist Rev. Dr. C. F. Wiggins at Dorchester and Sackville.

A sub-committee of the board was appointed to prepare the budget for 1924. The sub-committee was named as follows: Ven. Archdeacon O. S. Newnham, Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong, Rev. Canon A. W. Smithers, Rev. W. F. Dunham, Charles Coster, J. H. A. L. Fairweather and H. Usher Miller.

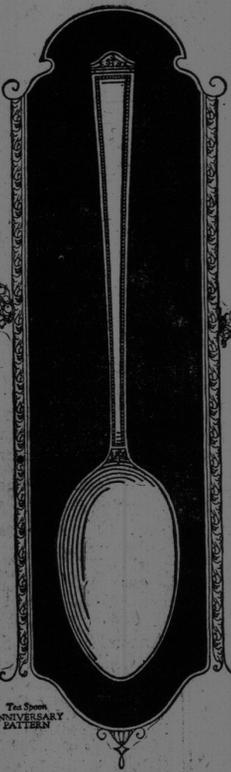

RED CROSS MATTERS.

Mrs. Harold Lawrence has been acting as their guide. This morning they visited the hospitals in East St. John and Lancaster.

There is a new sign over the society depot in Prince William street that will enable it to be recognized at a distance. Miss Jessie Lawson, Junior Red Cross supervisor, will be in Moncton today. She has visited Sussex, Caraquet, Upper Caraquet and Bathurst and will go to Hillsboro, making plans for the junior branch closing exercises and distributing awards.

FORESHORE CASES UP TOMORROW

A session of the Exchequer Court of Canada will be held here opening tomorrow morning with Mr. Justice Addette presiding. There are three cases concerning land expropriation to come before the court. One is the King against the Municipal Home and concerns foreshore rights at Courtney Bay. The Government ran a spur out to the plant of the St. John Drydock and Ship Building Company. The Government has offered a sum as compensation for damages, while maintaining that the Home has no foreshore rights. H. A. Powell, K. C., and J. King Kelly, K. C., will handle the case for the county, while Inches, Weyman and Hazen will represent the Government. The case of the King against Foley is a similar case. In the case of the King against Walter Magee and Frederick P. Magee, the cause refers to the expropriation of about twenty acres of land for use in the construction of a new island yard by the C. N. R. This land was taken over in March, 1920, while the land at Courtney Bay was taken over in June, 1919.

A jury has been empanelled to hold an inquest into the death of Alexander L. Law, fatally injured in a street car accident on Thursday. The jury members were sworn in yesterday afternoon and viewed the body at Brecken's undertakers rooms. They will meet again Friday evening at 7:30 in the court house. Coroner A. F. Emery is conducting the inquest. The members of the jury are: E. J. Todd, foreman, Dennis Burke, Stanley A. Williams, William Craft, Wilfred M. Barlow, George H. Kaye and R. W. Seely.

Miss M. H. McCloskey, president of the Catholic Women's League, St. John North sub-division; Miss K. Kane, treasurer of the St. John sub-division, and Mrs. John E. Owens, national vice-president, left last evening for Halifax to attend the national convention of the Catholic Women's League which begins there today. Miss McCloskey is the diocesan delegate and Mrs. John Burke, representing the St. John North sub-division, will leave for Halifax today.

JUDGMENTS IN APPEALS COURT

Argument was finished yesterday afternoon in the case of the Workmen's Compensation Board vs. the Bathurst Lumber Company before the Appeal Division of the Supreme Court in Fredericton and the court considers the case. In Young vs. Richards, judgment by Mr. Justice Barry read by Chief Justice Hazen was that appeal should be dismissed with costs. This concerned the issue of a mining lease in the Grand Lake coal area. Young was appellant. In McKay vs. Royal Exchange Assurance Co., Mr. Justice Grimmer read judgment dismissing appeal with costs. In New Brunswick and Canada Railway Co. vs. New Brunswick Railway Co., Mr. Justice White delivered judgment for the defendant with costs. In ex-parte, Charles W. Lewis, Mr. Justice Grimmer read judgment. Mandamus refused with costs. In George Noble vs. Thomas McA. Stewart, Chief Justice Hazen read judgment of the court. Appeal dismissed with costs. In Journey, appellant, vs. Railway Passengers Assurance Co., respondent, Chief Justice Hazen read judgment of the court. Appeal dismissed with costs.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE SESSION

At the session yesterday afternoon of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, in Fredericton, Mrs. William Todd, of Orillia, Ont., the president, reviewed the work of the last two years. She stressed the need of a national outlook. This was a national address by Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, New Brunswick Minister of Health. Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, convener of the national standing committee on public health and child welfare, gave a very interesting report on this branch of the institute work.

THE OLD COURT HOUSE.

Percy Nobbs of Montreal, architect, was present last evening at a meeting of the sub-committee of the buildings committee of the Municipal Council, held in the office of the County Secretary, at which the matter of the reconstruction of the old Court House building was discussed. He had been taken over the site yesterday by Warden Thornton. He expressed the opinion that to blast the rock for the purpose of making a basement under the building would weaken the walls. He remarked on the beauty of the design of the old ruin. Plans for calling for competitive designs for the construction of a municipal building on the site of the old one were discussed.

At the social service held last night in the Waterloo street Baptist church there was a large attendance. The young people's choir under the able leadership of Deacon John Mott rendered special music, including a duet by Mott and Eugene Mott and a solo by Mrs. Harry Coggin. The pastor, Rev. J. A. Swetnam, gave a discourse on the danger of drifting.

Two more of the cases resulting from the liquor seizures made last before the holiday came up in the police court yesterday afternoon. George Marshall pleaded guilty to having liquor for sale in his beer shop in Water Street while John McCusland pleaded guilty to the same charge in connection with his beer shop in Mill street. Each man was fined $200. K. J. MacIsaac appeared for the accused while W. M. Ryan conducted the prosecution.

PIERRE LOTI, 73, DIES; ACCREDITED PRINCE OF PROSE

Sailor, Author and Patriot Succumbs in Basque Home

Surrounded by Kin and Friends—Suspended from French Navy for a Year After Exposing the Scandals of Tonkin War.

Hendaye, France, June 10—(By the Associated Press)—Pierre Loti, French novelist, died at his home here today at the age of seventy-three. His end was peaceful. His children and a few friends were at his bedside.

"Loti" was the pen name taken by Julien Viaud, who retired as a captain of the French navy in 1910. He had been in frail health for some time, and returned to his beloved Basque country only last Tuesday. He sank rapidly. He will be buried in a tomb he built on the island of Oleron, in the Atlantic Ocean, off the coast of Charente-Inférieure.

Loti—Unique Literary Master. "Last, loneliest, dearest, exquisite, apart"—these words might not be applied unfittingly to Pierre Loti for the sheer artistic beauty of his work. He belonged to no school and founded none. His was genius without an exemplar and without a successor, standing unique among the literary masters of the age.

Born on January 14, 1850, at Rochefort, on the lower reaches of the Charente, he came from sturdy and resolute Huguenot stock, which at nearby Rochelle so long withstood the might of Richelieu. Like his parents, he clung loyally to the faith of his ancestors, and for a time inclined, in accordance with his parents' wishes, to enter the ministry. But the Charente flowed into the Pertuis d'Antioche, and that opened in to the Bay of Biscay and the open Atlantic, and the call of the sea was too strong to be resisted. So, at the age of seventeen, he entered the naval school of the training ship Le Borda, and on leaving it he spent forty years in active service under the French tri-color. In that time he visited the most interesting regions of the world.

Nicknamed After Blush of Lotus. He did more than visit them. He absorbed their spirit and entered into their most life to a degree which few others have approximated. Then he wrote about them with matchless charm and power.

His real name, Louis Marie Julien Viaud, he laid aside for purposes of authorship in favor of Pierre Loti, the latter part a nickname given to him in his midshipman days because his extreme shyness and reserve moved his comrades to liken him to a lotus flower, which is reputed to "blush unseen."

His literary genius was the more extraordinary because he was never a student or a reader of books. When, in the fullness of his fame, he was received into the French Academy, he said frankly, "Loti ne sait pas lire." ("Loti doesn't know how to read.") Emphatically in his case the style is the man himself. He was not precocious, either, not beginning to write until he was twenty-six years old. Then he set down some of his curious experiences at Constantinople in "Aziyade," a book half romance, half autobiography. Next he went to the South Seas and in 1880 charmed and bewitched the world with his "Rarahu," also known as "Le Mariage de Loti," which many have even considered his masterpiece and which certainly is one of the most remarkable pieces both of natural description and psychological analysis in literature.

The next year he published "Le Roman d'un Spahi," the story of a French soldier in Senegambia; in 1882 came

"Fleurs d'Ennui," a collection of sketches, and in 1888 "Mon Frère Yves," a novel portraying the experiences of a bluejacket in all parts of the world.

In the latter year he attained much publicity of another, but equally creditable, character. This was the exposure, in a series of articles in "Le Figaro," of the scandals of the Tonkin war, and particularly those which followed the capture of Hue. In this he was absolutely right, and as he had served with conspicuous gallantry in that war he knew whereof he wrote. But he gave offense in high places by his valiant truth-telling, and for a year was suspended from the service.

His next work, in 1886, perhaps was the most widely read of all: "Pecheur d'Islande," a romance of the Icelandic fishermen. The next year he produced a volume of bilingual worth, which for some reason has never been fully appreciated: "Propos d'Exil," semi-autobiographical sketches of life in many strange places.

Vogue of "Madame Chrysantheme." Perhaps it was eclipsed in popular esteem by another work which appeared at almost the same time. This was "Madame Chrysantheme," which had enormous vogue upon the dramatic and operatic stages and which vies with "Pecheur d'Islande" as his most famous work, though most judicious critics rank it as decidedly below "Rarahu."

"Au Maroc" the story of an official journey to Fez, appeared in 1890, and in 1891 "Le Livre de la Pitié et de la Mort," a volume of confidential and sentimental reminiscences, largely autobiographical.

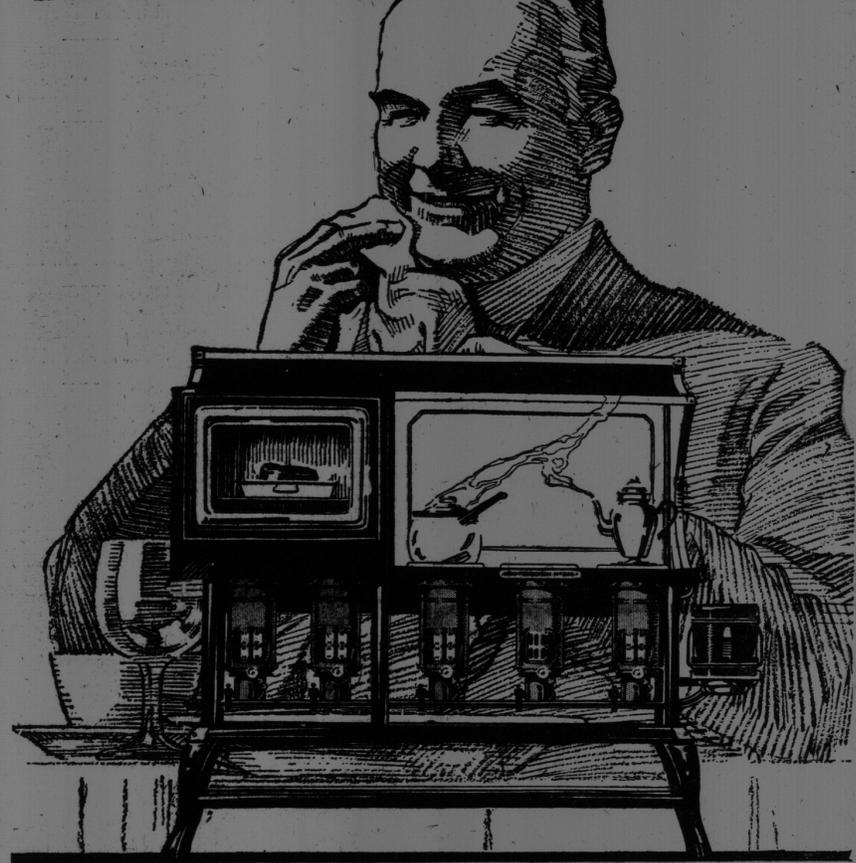

It was just after the appearance of the latter work, and as he was serving on the ship at Algiers, that word came to him of his election to the French Academy. That incident produced scarcely a ripple upon the current of his career. The next year he published a sequel to "Aziyade," entitled "Fantome d'Orient"; in 1895-'96 he wrote a three-volume account of a visit to Palestine, and in 1897 a superb masterpiece, "Ramuntcho," a romance of the mysterious Basques.

Visited New York in 1912.

In 1900 he visited India, and three years later issued "L'Inde" ("Sans les Anglais"). Then followed "Le Trolandse," a Japanese story, "France" in 1905, "Les Desenchantées" in 1906 and "La Mort de Philae" in 1908. He also essayed his hand at plays, and produced at the Theatre Antoine in 1904 "Judith Renaudin," a five-act historical drama, and at the same house in the same year a translation of "King Lear," in collaboration with Emile Vedel. In 1910 he was placed on the retired list of the navy for age, having some time previously attained the rank of captain.

In September, 1912, he came to New York to superintend the production of "The Daughter of Heaven," a Chinese play which he had written in collaboration with Judith Gautier. The outbreak of the World War found him chafing in retirement. He implored the Government to let him return to active service, but could get no further than duty in one of the dockyards. This was important, and indeed essential, but unsatisfying to his ardent and passionate spirit.

Served in World War. "I should accept with joy and pride," he wrote to the Minister of Marine, "any position whatever that would bring me nearer to the fighting line, even if it were a very subordinate post." His wish was in a measure gratified, and he was sent to the front on special missions to the King and Queen of the Belgians.

He thus saw the ruins of Ypres and other scenes of nameless tragedy, and the result was his volume "War," a compilation of sketches of marvelous power, pathos and beauty. In that little volume, written as with his heart's blood, he compressed an epitome of all the Protan genius which had illumined his entire bibliography.

He was married in 1886, and made his home at his native Rochefort, in a mansion richly adorned with artistic treasures from the Orient. He read little save the Bible and the works of Gustave Flaubert and Alphonse Daudet, in which he steeped himself. Three more unlike works it would be difficult to imagine. The Bible was the only one of them which in any degree influenced his literary style.

Was Painter and Pianist. He was a clever painter in oils and an accomplished pianist, with a special fondness for Handel and Bach. He was a master of the Turkish language, knew a little English and Spanish and some Arabic and Japanese. He seldom read the newspapers and utterly eschewed politics.

He frankly confessed the autobiographical character of his writings, saying, with what in a less modest and retiring man would have seemed insufferable egotism but in him seemed self-deprecatory, "In all my books there are only three things: Loti, the landscape and the impression made upon Loti by the landscape."

NOTE TO HIMSELF BETRAYS SLAYER

Filipino Youth Sends Anonymous Letter - Killed Girl With Pocket Knife.

Youngstown, Ohio, June 14—Chris Connell, who, the police say, is the author of an anonymous letter threatening him if he did not cease his attentions to Miss Helena Drachmann, and a note addressed to the police directing them to the culvert where Miss Drachmann's body was found, confessed slaying the girl, the police have announced. Connell's frank confession came after several hours of questioning and after handwriting experts identified the writing of the two notes as that of Connell's. He is said to have killed the girl with a pocket knife. There were eight stab wounds in her body when it was found in a culvert on a road between Hubbard and Youngstown Friday.

Connell, a Filipino, and chauffeur for a Youngstown millionaire, was arrested on suspicion Saturday morning. He is said to have admitted committing the crime because Miss Drachmann refused to marry him. He said they were to have been married in October.

No formal charge has been placed against Connell. He was taken to Warren and locked up in the Trumbull County Jail there, as the culvert where the body was found is located in that county. Discovery of the girl's body followed receipt by the Youngstown police of a note directing them to go to the culvert, where they would find "a dead person." They found the body jammed three feet in the tunnel. Miss Drachmann, a twenty-one-year-old Danish girl, disappeared May 31.

TRIES TO KILL HIS WIFE; HIS OWN BLOOD SAVES HER

Chicago, June 14—In the midst of a quarrel with his wife Theodore Marfy drew a knife and slashed her across the throat. Now he sits in a cell, having been forced, despite his resistance, to save the life he had tried to take by the sacrifice of his own blood in an operation. When Mrs. Marfy was taken to St. Mary's Hospital doctors declared that only an immediate blood transfusion could save her life. Detectives had just arrived with Marfy.

"All right," they said, "here's your man." Struggling and protesting, Marfy was carried to the operating table and compelled to give up a pint and a half of his own blood to save the woman he had tried to kill. It was said that Mrs. Marfy would live.

Third Generation is Using Syrup Pepsin

No other Laxative can replace Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin in the confidence of those who use it. ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE. Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone, in the family, can use when constipated?" I urge you to try my Laxative Syrup Pepsin. It will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address: Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 23 Caldwell Building, Toronto, Ont. Do it now! Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Henry Ricker, Chippewa, Ont., says it is the best medicine they have ever used, and Mrs. M. Martin of Massey, Ont., uses it herself and recommends it to her friends. There is scarcely a day that someone in a family does not need it for constipation, flatulence, auto-intoxication, biliousness, intestinal poisoning, headaches, colic and cramps, and to break up fevers and colds. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a scientifically-balanced compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. The formula is on the package. As the popularity of this natural vegetable laxative increases, the public discards the harsher physics like calomel, castor in candy form, salt water and powders. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin empties the bowels more cleanly and without any danger.

Mr. Nobbs expressed his keen admiration of the architecture of the old building, but was of the opinion that the building to be erected on the site would be costly and endanger the structure.

WORD OF IT HERE

Norwegian Vice-Consul Notified of Plans for Silver Jubilee of Wilhelmina.

The people of the Netherlands are putting on foot a scheme to fittingly celebrate the silver jubilee of Queen Wilhelmina, which will be held on September 6, twenty-five years since she ascended the throne, and for this purpose are raising funds by subscription. This news was contained in a letter received by Thomas Nagle, vice-consul of the Netherlands here, from W. N. Meen, consul-general in Montreal.

As a token of their love and gratitude to their queen, the Dutch people intend to make a two-fold showing of their appreciation of the way in which they have been governed for the last twenty-five years. Their first object is the restoration of the Choir of the Nieuwe Kerk in Delft, well known for its association with the Stadholders and Kings of Holland, and which is greatly in need of repairs. This proposal is said to have met with the entire approval of Queen Wilhelmina. The second object of the people is to make Her Majesty a personal gift of a simple character on her request.

Circular letters have been sent to the different representatives of the Netherlands in Canada in order that any of the Dutch people living in this country may have an opportunity of helping in the work of raising the funds. A special committee has been appointed in the home country and the consul-general in Montreal is the representative of that committee in Canada.

THREE MEMBERS TO BE QUORUM FOR OPENING TENDERS

Resolution Passed by Common Council Today—Conference on Hydro Bill—Expect Word Soon Regarding Magistrate's Retirement.

A resolution, presented by Mayor Fisher by which a quorum at committee meetings of the Common Council would be four members, except at regular meetings when three shall constitute a quorum for the opening of tenders and official papers, was recommended to council at a committee of Common Council this morning. No objection was made by any of the commissioners.

Reporting on the matter of an investigation to determine whether the city was liable to the payment of a bill for $10,000 for electrical current contracted for with the N. B. Power Commission, the Mayor said that he had requested a conference with the members of the N. B. Commission and had received a reply in which he was informed that the chair would not be in the city for two or three days. When he arrived the council would be notified.

The Mayor said that he had up with the city engineer the matter of the Musquash plant, but no definite decision had been arrived at.

Notice that Dr. J. C. Webster of Shediac would be heard at Tuesday's meeting in connection with the placing of historical monuments was given to the members.

The Mayor announced that he had written the Provincial Government regarding the C. P. R. bridge matter at the falls but had not yet received a reply. He also said that there was no reply in the matter of the magistrate's retirement, but that the Government was in session in Fredericton and he was expecting some word on both matters to result.

HONORS IN MUSIC

Grandsons of Robt. A. Johnson Win Medals at Alberta Musical Festival.

Two sons of Mrs. Wyman, who was formerly Miss Nelle Johnston, daughter of Robert A. Johnston of this city, won distinction at the Alberta Musical Festival in Edmonton last month. William E. Wyman won the gold medal for violin and R. A. Wyman the silver medal for cornet. In his extensive participation of the festival, which is a very notable annual event, with contestants from many places in Alberta, the Edmontonian of Mr. 16 says:—

"In the cello competition William E. Wyman, of 7224 106th street, gave a very pleasing interpretation of 'Arioso' by John Sebastian Bach, winning high commendation from the adjudicator, who gave him 95 marks. He was the only competitor and Mr. Bantock expressed regret that time did not permit the audience hearing him play for a quarter of an hour, as he was sure it would have given everyone great pleasure. The player, he said, showed a natural aptitude for the cello, which he played with deep sympathy. His phrasing was broad and sympathetic and his playing was very effective, in fact was beyond reproach."

"Two competitors, R. A. Wyman and Harry McAnish, of Edmonton, competed in the cornet solo class, the former winning with 90 marks and being commended for his expression and control. The latter contestant was awarded 88 marks. A cornet solo, 'Calvary,' by Rodney, was given by R. A. Wyman, winner of the silver medal for cornet playing. Mrs. Wyman accompanied him on the piano. This was also a thoroughly enjoyable number."

"W. E. Wyman, winner of the gold medal of cello playing, then gave a charming solo."

The same issue of the Journal contains a report of the Sixth Edmonton Boy Scout Troop, written by Bruce Wyman, secretary. St. John friends of Mrs. Wyman will congratulate her on her clever sons.

Mixed Emotions Greet Ford Idea Of Dry Blockade

Employees of Prohibition Fear Use of Army and Navy Would Cancel Jobs; Neither Service Anxious.

Washington, June 14.—Demand of Henry Ford that the government turn over to the army and navy has excited mixed emotions in Washington.

It is in the first place, the idea is by no means original with Mr. Ford. For months the extremists among the dry leaders, especially the chiefs of the Anti-Saloon League, have been insisting that the government ought to sell the navy to prevent rum running.

Little has been said about such use of the army, but it is a fact that President's has repeatedly been urged by dries to employ the navy in prohibition law enforcement.

As is well known, this demand has been omitted in part, and Coast Guard vessels which are practically a part of the navy, have been active of late in trying to halt rum smuggling.

Opposed by Dry Employees. If the idea of Mr. Ford that the job of enforcement be intrusted to the army and navy were literally carried out the prohibition unit and the great corps of civilian employees under it virtually would be put out of business.

It is hardly necessary to say that this idea is received with anything but vigorous acclaim among the employees of the prohibition unit.

The idea of being required to do what amounts to police duty in the enforcement of the dry laws is distasteful to both army and navy.

The idea of the army and navy "haven't anything to do in peace time" the fact is that both services have much to do in the way of keeping pace with the necessary preparations.

It is entirely unlikely that either the President or Congress will take seriously the suggestion of Mr. Ford. The business of enforcing the dry laws will continue to be primarily a civilian proposition, just as the enforcement of other laws is a matter of civilian officials.

The view is expressed here by competent authorities that the work of the army and navy from now on is to be primarily, or even in large part, that of enforcement of the dry laws.

Morals of both services would fall off, callings would be reduced and it would be impossible to keep either force up to present standards.

Appeals have been made to Congress from time to time to require that the army be used for the building of roads and other improvement purposes.

It is regarded here as entirely unlikely that Congress will assent to Mr. Ford's plan to appropriate money for an army and navy which would be primarily organizations for dry law enforcement instead of organizations for preparation for defence by land and sea.

Sifton Forsees Exodus of People By Ruin of Forests

(Written especially by Hon. Sir Clifford Sifton for Canadian Forestry Association.)

It seems self-evident that if the plague of forest fires in Canada is permitted to continue, the exodus of population from our timber growing areas cannot very well be prevented.

We have a large percentage of Canada's habitable area under forest cover. This percentage must produce timber and mines or be eliminated from our slate of assets.

As the situation now stands, Canada should gain enormously from the simple fact of possessing great spruce areas with excellent water powers to make utilization effective and relatively cheap.

As to the south we have a partially deforested nation, exhibiting an insatiable demand for the products of a spruce forest, chiefly newspaper paper.

Even as England's coal served to enrich her during the last century or more, so Canada's spruce and pine forests should be taken as representing a commercial resource almost unmined for anything else we possess except agricultural land.

Are we to tolerate a condition where, with every forest area on a rising market, our own citizens with a false notion of personal license, shall continue to start four thousand forest fires a year, killing the very resource from which the industrial workers of Canada stand to profit most?

I believe the provincial governments could well afford to spend on forest fire prevention every dollar of their forest revenues up to a point where the forest capital ceases to show an annual depletion.

War Disaster That Cost 350 Lives Is Told Public Now

French Train Was Wrecked With 500 Soldiers on Leave After Fighting

Paris, June 14.—A railroad accident which cost 350 lives and yet remained unknown to the general public will be commemorated on Sunday at St. Michael-En-Maurienne, when Minister of War Maginot will unveil a monument to the dead.

A train load of 800 soldiers, on leave after fighting on the Plave beside their Italian allies, left Modane, a town in Savoy, on November 12, 1917.

The engineer said the train was too heavy to cross the mountains and refused to start until he received an order from his military superintendent.

His fear proved to be well founded, and his engine went wild in descending into the valley. The only effect of the airbrakes was to set the cars on fire, and the train crashed into a stone bridge near the entrance to the station.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

MANCHESTER TAX RATE IS THE WORLD'S HIGHEST

London, May 22.—(A. P. by mail.)—The debt of the city of Manchester is the largest municipal debt in the British Empire. The debt at the present time is estimated at thirty million pounds sterling and the assets of the city at forty-six million pounds sterling.

To raise the necessary funds for municipal expenses and interest on the debt, the City Council recently passed a bill providing for a rate of twelve shillings in the pound, or sixty per cent., for taxes for the coming year. The assessable value in English cities, however, is not based on the value of the property, but on the annual rental value. In the case of the city of Manchester its assessable value is higher than any city in Great Britain, which means that the inhabitants of Manchester are paying more taxes than any other people in the British Empire and therefore probably more than any other people in the world.

NEWS NOTES OF STOCK INTEREST

(McDougall & Cowan's Private Wire) New York, June 14.—Bank of England rate unchanged at 4 per cent. Fisher Body Ohio Co. year ended April 30 net earnings $1,508,519 after expenses and depreciation after $728,078 for interest, taxes, expenses, etc. Net profits of $2,982,489 were available for dividends.

OPINIONS ON THE STOCK MARKET

New York, June 14.—Evans.—"The market came back pretty well after its decline yesterday. In fact most of this decline was caused by short selling, and the short interest is once more being built up to large proportions. It is easy to put prices down because the buying of public is very small at present. Liquidation, on the other hand, has not been heavy."

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

(McDougall & Cowan's Private Wire) New York, June 14.—Sentiment after the close yesterday was very mixed. The professional sentiment is almost universally bearish but in view of the action of New York Central and excellent rail earnings that are being made through the country, commission houses are somewhat inclined to recommend purchases of rails. The disappointing feature of the total supply on the part of the public. Under ordinary circumstances such good news items as we have had yesterday would have brought in a flood of buying orders from the outside. Over-production of oil continues and the attempt in the Mid-Cont. field to maintain an unwarranted price has been abandoned. According to the Iron Age, shipments of finished steel product are running ahead of the receipts of orders. Of the low priced rails So. Ry. is the favorite. This road is doing so well that there is even some talk of it being placed on a dividend basis before the end of the year.

LIVINGSTON & CO.

COPPER NOW AT LOW PRICE. New York, June 14.—A few large orders for copper were placed last week at 14.75c delivered, this being the lowest price reached for electrolytic copper of standard shape, says this week's issue of "The Engineering and Mining Journal." At that level sufficient buying support was received to absorb all the metal offered and the price has reacted upward so that today practically all producers are asking 15c. delivered. However, consumers are not yet anxious to buy, and although business has been done at each of the last three days at 15c, it has been confined principally to lots of 25 to 100 tons.

New York, June 14.—Stock prices continued to yield to selling pressure at the opening of today's stock market. Most of the leaders, including Baldwin, Studebaker, U. S. Steel, American Can and American Smelting opened fractionally lower. Pressed Steel Car dropped 3 points and Marine Pfd. also went down a point.

NOON REPORT.

New York, June 14.—Encouraged by their recent success in promoting liquidation in the oil and rubber shares, professional traders widened their operations during the forenoon, many representative industrials being pushed down a point or more, including Studebaker, American Locomotive and United States Steel. Fifteen stocks again touched new low figures for the year. Stability of the railroad shares influenced a sharp rebound about noon. Corn Products rose 2 1/2 and American Can, American Sunatra Tobacco, Crucible, Pan-American B. Atchison and St. Paul advanced 1 to 1 1/2 points above yesterday's close. ARTIFICIAL SILK PRODUCTION.

Italian production of artificial silk during the fiscal year ending June 30 will approximate 2,500 metric tons, with a value estimated at 150,000,000 lire, Consul General J. B. Osborne, Genoa, reports. Italy has four artificial silk factories employing about 10,000 workmen and having a capacity of more than 8,000 metric tons annually. Two new mills are soon to enter the field. About one-half of the entire Italian output of artificial silk is exported, which would make the annual consumption of Italy between 1,200 and 1,500 metric tons. Local demand is said to have tripled in the last ten years, and the tendency is to increase still further.

"See, George, dear!" said the young bride, "I baked my first cake today, and I want you to eat some of it." "I am willing," said hubby, as he looked suspiciously at the cake, "but I've just had my life insured." "Why, that's all the better, isn't it?" laughed the bride merrily. "I don't know about that," he replied. "They might think you baked the cake on purpose and refuse to pay the policy."

"The Torch of Verified Circulation"

Lights up the way for the Advertiser

The Telegraph and The Evening Times, with a combined daily net paid circulation exceeding 30,000 copies, are the only A. B. C. (Audit Bureau of Circulation) papers in the province of New Brunswick. These newspapers alone give the advertiser a verified circulation whose extent is absolutely known and established beyond question.

Mr. Advertiser, do you realize what this means?

All of the principal Canadian dailies are members of the A. B. C. That is, they give their advertisers, present and prospective, circulation figures which are audited, certified and approved by an independent court whose standing is recognized in business circles throughout Canada and the United States.

Mr. Advertiser, Look at this:

The Following Canadian Newspapers are members of the A. B. C.:

- St. John—The Telegraph and The Evening Times (the only A. B. C. papers in New Brunswick). Halifax—The Chronicle and Echo, The Herald and Mail. Charlottetown—The Guardian. Quebec City—Le Soleil, L'Evenement. Montreal—The Gazette, The Star, The Herald, La Presse, La Patrie, Le Canada, Le Devoir, The Standard. Ottawa—The Citizen, The Journal, Le Droit. Toronto—The Globe, The Star, The Mail and Empire and Sunday World, The Telegram. London—The Advertiser, The Free Press. Brantford—The Expositor.

- Brockville—The Recorder and Times. Fort William—The Times-Journal. Hamilton—The Spectator. Kingston—The British Whig, The Standard. Windsor—The Border Cities' Star. Winnipeg—The Manitoba Free Press, The Tribune. Saskatoon—The Star, The Phoenix. Regina—The Leader, The Post. Calgary—The Morning Albertan, The Herald. Edmonton—The Bulletin, The Journal. Vancouver—The Province, The Sun, The World. Victoria—The Colonist, The Times.

Mr. Advertiser, in that list you have the chief newspapers of Canada. They give you an independent audit of their circulation by a universally recognized authority.

"Net Paid" circulation does not mean old lists of doubtful value. "Net Paid" means that every subscriber included in the figures is either paid in advance or does not owe for more than six months. The Telegraph and Times, remember, have a combined "net paid" daily circulation of more than 30,000 copies.

Figuring by circulation The Telegraph and Times rates are the lowest in the Maritime Provinces.

By putting the same ad in both papers you cover the city of St. John and the province of New Brunswick as with a blanket, so far as prospective buyers of your goods are concerned, for these two papers reach to a really wonderful extent the people in this city and this province who are in a position to purchase the goods that local or national advertisers offer for sale, be these goods bonds or toothpicks, razors or mowing machines, diamonds or medicines, shoes or silks.

Think over the facts, Mr. Advertiser. Just ask yourself quietly and thoughtfully what that chain of leading Canadian newspapers means. Their verified circulation is their greatest advertising solicitor. Think about "the torch of verified circulation."

GIBBONS BEGINS TO DISPLAY FORM

Challenger Impresses With His Work in Training at Shelby Camp.

Shelby, Mont., June 14.—Tommy Gibbons began his first week of strenuous training for his bout with Jack Dempsey on July 4 here this week and mauling three sparring partners around the ring in the course of his first afternoon workout. He began with Bud Gorman, and although Gorman had orders to carry the milling to Gibbons, he found himself on the defensive for the greater part of the two shorted rounds in which he paced the challenger.

Gorman weighs over 200 pounds and is fast with it, but his weight and speed availed him little, and Gibbons drove him back against the ropes time after time. On several occasions Gibbons beat down Gorman's defense and had him wide open if he had cared to put over a knockout punch, but unlike Dempsey, the St. Paul boxer rarely tries to stop one of his sparring partners. Only at the end of his training will he really open up, although he never complains when his sparring mates give him the best they have, as he figures if he can't take it he has no business in the ring with the champion.

After Gorman was out of the ring, Gibbons worked two fast rounds with Ernie Sales, a Coast middleweight, and when the session was over the Californian admitted that Gibbons had shown him more boxing gloves in four minutes than he had seen in the rest of his boxing career combined. Sales is willing, but he will scarcely do a permanent sparring partner for Gibbons, and if Tommy continues to travel at the same speed he did today, Manager Kane must get some small, fast men here to keep him company. There is not a boxer in Gibbons' camp yet capable of matching speed with him. Gibbons has begun to display form and has impressed with his work.

The afternoon workout was concluded with another lively session against Hocco Tramaglia, who is wide open for the challenger's left hook, and consequently spends most of his time in the ring running away from his opponent. Gibbons began the afternoon session with the usual rope skipping and bag punching exercises. Part of this work he did in the sun, but still insists on keeping the cover over the boxing ring.

Roadwork Increased.

Gibbons increased his road work this morning, adding three miles to the five he has been doing each day since he has begun training. Gorman, who followed him over the hot and dusty trail today, said afterward that the challenger's wind was in fine shape now that he had become accustomed to the altitude here. This was interesting, because many of those who saw Gibbons on his recent exhibition tour and in his first workouts here had remarked that he was short of wind. They were mistaken.

All boxers have their peculiarities, and one of Gibbons' is that he puffs and blows like a wind-broken horse while he is training. He does this purposefully to increase his lung capacity, and believes it invaluable in improving his wind. This habit is not so noticeable in a real bout, but even then his breathing is noisy, and this has often fooled his opponent and ring-side spectators as well, into thinking that he was short of wind.

He never has smoked in his life and is an outdoor man. He spends much of his time hunting, and tramping over the rolling foothills on the Little Rockies is no novelty for him. When he's not boxing he is pretty sure to be found hunting somewhere in this part of the Northwest.

Manager Eddie Kane will leave here tomorrow for Great Falls, where he will spend a day or two watching Dempsey train. In Kane's absence Buck Pae, head trainer for Gibbons, will have charge of the camp. Willie Herman, a welterweight, reported here tonight.

in checks and money orders from individual purchasers and receipts of such size from a single mail are not unusual. Each incoming train also can be counted on to boost the population of the town. Sleeping accommodations are still at a premium, but Shelby is determined that every visitor shall have a place to sleep and now hotels under canvas spring up daily. These provide cots at an average cost of $1 a night, and there must be close to 5,000 such beds here now.

There are now amusement places, too, and the girl and music shows are now running the original movie house a close second in the matter of popularity.

The soft drink stands seem to increase at the ratio of one stand for each new comer, and there could not be more pink lemonade if Shelby was preparing for a year-round world's fair instead of a 45-minute boxing bout.

DEMPSEY READY TO RESUME BOXING

Injured Eye is Healing and He Expects to Start Sparring This Week.

Great Falls, Mont., June 14.—Preparatory exercise in the life of Jack Dempsey at the first of the week was conspicuous by its absence. The world's heavyweight champion, in accordance with the plan to give his injured left eye plenty of opportunity to heal, spent one day on a fishing expedition at a stream some fifty miles from here, which location was guarded carefully from all except those in the party. Dempsey left his camp accompanied by Mike Trant and burdened with fishing rods and bait. The trip was a one-day affair. Clear skies and on July 4, and again asserted that after the Independence Day battle he would be prepared to sign Dempsey for matches against any other aspiring heavyweights. A battle between Dempsey and Harry Wills was mentioned specifically as one of the most desirable on the list of prospective matches for Dempsey. Kearns said he was ready to sign just as soon as a reputable club came forward with an agreement. To accept the champion's financial demands and with a guarantee that the bout could be conducted without interference. While Kearns would not disclose the sum he thought Dempsey should receive, it is known that the champion's demand will be for $500,000, with an option of a percentage of gate receipts, under an agreement by which the guaranteed sum will be in Dempsey's possession before he enters the ring.

The training camp family of Dempsey here was further decreased today by the departure of three of the champion's boxing mates. Joe Benjamin and Lee Moore, California lightweight and featherweight, respectively, left for Portland, Ore., where Benjamin is scheduled to box Bobby Harper on June 30. Frank Power, New York boxer, who last week received his unconditional release as a sparring partner of Dempsey, left for the East.

Manager Kearns, according to present plans, will leave for Butte, where he will handle Bermonstey Billy Wells in a bout against Joe Simonth. Returning here, Kearns plan immediately to go to Shelby to collect the second instalment of his $300,000 guarantee for the July 4 battle.

ARE IMPRESSED WITH NEW SLUGGER Lou Gehrig Said to be Best College Player Since Joe Sisler was Found. New York, June 14—Lou Gehrig, Columbia pitcher, first baseman and outfielder, called by Coach Gerris of Pennsylvania and other critics the 'best college player since George Sisler,' has signed a contract with the Yankees. He practiced at first base in the fielding workout at the Yankee Stadium, and the announcement of his signing with the American League champions was made after the game with the Indians. At the same time it was revealed that the Yanks have signed Mike Galletta, star infielder of the Lafayette College nine, and Edward Vanderbach, former Fordham catcher. Galletta, a well-known football player, is also one of the best infielders in college baseball—a hard hitter and a fine fielder. His 1922 batting average is over .400. Gehrig's coming to the Yanks, however, will arouse most interest, and his work in fast company will be watched closely. He is easily the longest hitter that ever played at Columbia, and his sobriquet is "the Babe Ruth of colleges." He holds all long distance records for South Field, having hit one ball over the centre field fence and against the Journalism Building at the corner of 116th street and Broadway and another one clear over 116th street and into the open space before the library. As a pitcher Gehrig has won six games and lost three. His latest bat-ing average was .440 and he has hit seven home runs. He is 23, 5 feet 10 1/2 inches and weighs 210. Gehrig is only a sophomore at Columbia, meaning that he has sacrificed two years of academic study to join the Yankees.

Pancho Villa Will Meet Jimmy Wilde. On Saturday New York, June 14—(Associated Press)—Pancho Villa, born Francisco Guilledo, the tiny Filipino who will meet Jimmy Wilde the Welshman in a fifteen-round contest at the Polo Grounds next Saturday in an attempt to win Wilde's world flyweight title, is one of the greatest little warriors the ring game has known. The terror of all the youths in his native island home of Iloilo, in the Philippines, Villa was fashioned into a boxer in 1918 by an American patron of the game of fistcuffs. Villa was then seventeen years old. He entered the professional game in the Philippines in 1919, and for three years he fought without losing a single contest. His early opponents were bantams in four and six round bouts. Terrible Pondong, the ugliest and heaviest hitting little man in the islands, Stiff Prince and Battling Balarino, two of the smartest bantams, were unable to defeat Villa. Balarino tried no less than ten times, and the best he ever got was a draw. George Mendez, the Australian flyweight title-holder, was knocked out by Villa in three rounds in 1921. Villa has had unusual success in the United States. He knocked out the veteran Johnny Buff in the eleventh round of a terrific fight in Brooklyn last September, and won the American fly-weight title. But he lost this bit of treasure several months later to Frankie Genaro, New York Italian. Genaro and Villa fought toe to toe for fifteen rounds, and Genaro was awarded the judges' decision. Some newspaper boxing experts declared, however, that Villa should have received the verdict. Villa lost but two contests before coming to the United States, one a decision to Francisco Concepcion in four rounds, and one a foul to Eddie Moore. Genaro was the only man to draw an official decision over the Filipino in this country. Villa's fighting weight is 110 pounds. He is a tireless, offensive fighter with the diamond chilled the arbor of the ring. His best work has been done at close quarters.

ST. PETERS AND QUINCY IN TIE Play a Winning Game to a 4-4 Result—Errors Responsible for Runs. The game between St. Peter's and Quincy in the Two-League last evening resulted in a tie, each team having secured four runs when the game was called at the end of the ninth inning. A cold raw wind sweeping over the diamond chilled the arbor of the fans and players alike, but despite this the game was keenly contested, although there were a few loose spots, and was enjoyed by all. The majority of the runs on both sides resulted from errors as both pitchers were repeatedly put in a hole by loose playing. Although unable to find the plate at times Stafford pitched exceptionally well and made a most favorable impression. McCarthy's hitting was a feature and he is apparently a good choice for lead-off, Giffillan, who was on short for the visitors, played a snappy game and had only one slip in eight chances. GRAFFIE HAS SORE THROAT. And London Zoo Keeper Finds It No Fun to Care for Her. London, June 14—One of the giraffes in the London Zoo has a sore throat. This condition of affairs has long tickled the imagination of humorists and cartoonists, but it is no fun for the boss of the giraffe house. Every day and every night he has to wade yards and yards of blankets and wrap them around the shivering Maudie, which is the name of this afflicted giraffe. Maudie caught cold coming across the English Channel the other day on the way into town from her old home down in Africa. Her mate also became sick and died, but they are pulling the boss back.

Ottawa, June 13.—After ten weeks of deliberation and amending the Bank Act revision was virtually completed this afternoon by the Committee on Banking and Commerce and a motion to reprint the bill as amended was passed. Minister of Finance this afternoon "it will be given priority over practically all other business," so it should be finally disposed of in the House at the end of next week and sent on to the Senate.

Two or three amendments were dealt with this afternoon, notably that of J. S. Woodsworth, Labor, Centre Winnipeg, providing for recognition by the banks of the right of its employ to association for all lawful purposes. This was finally defeated by a vote of nine for and sixteen against.

In moving the amendment, Mr. Woodsworth said it would be simply carrying out a provision of the Treaty of Versailles. Whenever bank clerks had sought to organize for mutual benefit they were discouraged and obstructed by their employing banks. Salaries paid to clerks were too low. In a large number of cases they were less than $100 a month. "We cannot insist by law upon the banks paying a decent wage but we can give those clerks the right to organize. The principle is recognized internationally," he said.

I. O. D. E. DISCUSSES CHILD WELFARE

Much Easier to Get "Big Brothers" For Boys Than "Big Sisters" For Girls, Committee Convener Tells Convention.

(By Canadian Press) Quebec, June 13.—"It is easier to get big brothers for the little brothers than it is to get big sisters for the little sisters," said Miss Charlotte Whitton, of Ottawa, convener of the committee on child welfare, in addressing the afternoon session of the annual convention of the Imperial Order of Daughters of the Empire, in session here today.

Miss Whitton was speaking on child welfare work as carried on throughout the Dominion by chapters of the order, and was making a plea for more interest in and sympathy with the delinquent girl. Among the suggestions offered to chapters as to possible ways of helping to better conditions or lower the infant death rate was one to the effect that prosperous urban chapters should adopt outlying areas and provide the services of a doctor or nurse. It was said that in 1920 one district in Alberta had had an infant death rate of 180.4 per 1,000 and upon examination it had been found that of 226 births in the year there had been no physician present at 467.

Special reference was made to the importance of play in the life of the child, and the speaker urged the women to insure the children of their respective communities against lagged habits and aimless idleness by providing recreation facilities in the community.

FULLER MAY TELL OF BUCKETING RING ALLEGED TO EXIST

New York Broker Says He May be Able to Give Valuable Information Regarding Own Company and Other Persons.

(By Canadian Press) New York, June 13.—Possibility of important disclosures concerning the operation of bucket shops in the Wall Street district loomed as imminent tonight. Edward M. Fuller, and William Frank McGee, partners in the most spectacular bucket shop failure of recent years, went before General Sessions Judge Mott today and pleaded guilty of bucketing. This afternoon,

Fuller was taken under guard to the offices of Harold Coffin, referee in bankruptcy for further examination concerning the affairs of his house.

He pleaded for and obtained an adjournment until tomorrow, however, at which time he said he might be able to give "valuable information not only concerning the assets of E. M. Fuller and Company, but with reference to various persons who might be responsible for the obligations of Fuller and Company."

This was taken in some quarters as an indication that he might reveal connections of the Fuller firm with a huge bucket shop "ring," existence of which has been a matter of gossip in Wall Street for months.

How far Fuller would go in an attempt to win clemency from the court when he comes up for sentence, however, was problematical. His partner, McGee, in announcing his decision to plead guilty, said this morning that they had decided on that course to "save innocent friends from further embarrassment." Fuller, while he did not contradict McGee's statement, made no such statement himself.

Judge Mott let it be known shortly after Fuller's and McGee's plea had been entered that he had not made up his mind what punishment should be meted out. The maximum he could impose is five years.

GAY RIDERS FLUSH SKUNK, AND FOX HUNT BREAKS UP Greenbrier Party Returns by Freight Elevators and Swimming Pool.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., June 14.—Fashionable fox hunters unexpectedly flushed a skunk here and several of the riders were forced to return to the Greenbrier by way of the freight elevators and swimming pool. More than a dozen gathered early for what was to have been one of the first runs of the summer season. Laurence Dixon, master of hounds, had planned to drag out through the meadows and back through the proposed new golf course. The hunters got off in the form, the hounds picking up the scent just past the race-track. A half a mile run and the scent doubled back through some laurel, and the whip, racking in the head, came down on a skunk which the baying of the hounds had put in a fighting mood. There was no time for warning and the riders plunged pell mell into range and confusion. The incident broke up the party.
