He will leave this evening for Montreal to consult with the officers of the Canada-West India League, who have been made honorary members of the organization of which he is head.

MURRAY AND FOSTER

(Fredericton Mail.) Small-bore politicians from St. John who take delight in sneering at the premier of New Brunswick, because of the fact that he was twice defeated in the polls before securing office as premier, might do well to examine the record of the leader of the Nova Scotia government. Were they to do this, they would find that the gentleman who has given the sister province such brilliant service as leader of the government, was defeated at the polls in five different contests prior to 1896, and like Premier Foster, never held a seat in the popular branch of the legislature until after he took over the premiership.

TO ANY FRONT AT ANY TIME

Canadian Soldiers Preserve at Home Institutions They Fought In Battle, Says U. S. Journal

Chicago, June 10.—The Chicago Tribune publishes the following editorial: "Canadian soldiers present a united front to the wild and lawless clamor for the overthrow of majority institutions. It is only another evidence of the defenseless and lawless character of the soldiers' return to their homes. The inviolability of the home is being trampled upon by the return of the soldiers. They are not only not being welcomed, but they are being treated as intruders by the very men who would not inspire by them. An unshakable conviction of true heroism for the patriotic Canadians; they did not pass through the baptism of fire for nothing. Defense of country means to them but one thing, whether it be plunging through shell-fire in Flanders, or in standing firm for national ideals at home. It is one and the same thing. The good citizen can be depended upon. The Canadians have demonstrated that they are not merely loyal in spots, but that they will go to the front for their country, any front, any time."

Champion Spark Plug Salesmen in Convention

Toledo, Ohio, June 9—One hundred and twenty-five salesmen, constituting the sales force of the Champion Spark Plug Company, are gathered at the home offices in Toledo, for their semi-annual convention. They come from all parts of the United States and Canada and according to the programme mapped out by sales manager, F. B. Caswell, the convention promises to be the biggest and most interesting ever held by the Toledo concern.

Owing to the war and the fact that so many of its salesmen were in the service, the Spark Plug Company did not hold its regular January convention. But in the last few months, twenty-eight men have returned to the sales force so that the event now in progress brings together many members of the sales organization who have not seen each other for more than two years.

The jobbers' salesmen assembled on Thursday for a three day preliminary session. Monday will see all of the company's travelling representatives in Toledo, including those in charge of the thirty-five advertising cars who are now driving cross country on a schedule that will bring them to Toledo in time for the meeting.

Merchants Bank Makes New Records; Shows Gains In Every Department

At the annual meeting of the Merchants Bank held at the head office on Wednesday, the 4th of June, the shareholders were treated to a very gratifying report. An examination of the statement shows that progress was made in every department of the bank's activities. Large gains were made in deposits, both interest bearing and non-interest bearing, as well as in liquid assets, current loans, total assets and net profits. The gain in interest bearing deposits was unusually large amounting to almost $16,000,000 bringing the present total to nearly $91,000,000. Total deposits now stand at $188,000,000 as compared with $118,000,000 a year ago. The bank as usual has taken the precaution to keep a large proportion of its assets in a quickly available form, thus furnishing additional evidence of its conservatism and good management. These stand at $62,700,000 or 33,000,000 greater than a year ago. That the bank has not by any means been standing still is shown by the fact that current loans now stand at over $85,874,000, a gain of almost $20,000,000 during the year and this indicates that the bank is doing its full share in catering to the requirements of the country. The total assets now stand at $166,725,000 as compared with $140,987,000 for the previous year. Further evidence of the

THE STRIKE SITUATION.

The Dominion executive of the Great War Veterans' Association has declared its opposition to the "one big union." The hope of the Reds had been that returned soldiers would join in their attempt to bring about a revolution and introduce Soviet rule in Canada. They met their first disappointment in Winnipeg, for though several hundreds of veterans are in sympathy with the strikers many thousands are on the side of law and order and against the one big union. There is a report that the militant active of the Winnipeg revolutionaries will be arrested and deported. The general situation in Winnipeg appears to have improved, and like news comes from Saskatoon and Vancouver. In Toronto threats of a strike of the street railway system are causing anxiety. In Montreal striking textile workers have been given a forty-four-hour week and increased pay and have returned to work. In regard to the Amherst strike an interesting statement was made by D. W. Robb of the engineering plant. He told the Industrial Relations Commission yesterday that he showed his men his accounts and showed them exactly how much the company was making, and the urgency of the contracts in hand; and as a result the men remained at work. The general feeling throughout the country is manifestly against the one big union and against collective bargaining as it is interpreted by the strikers in Winnipeg. On the other hand, as a result of the general agitation and unrest there is a more general demand that something practical be done to reduce the cost of living.

A GREAT CANADIAN.

Congratulations to Hon. George H. Murray, who has been premier of Nova Scotia for twenty-third year, a most remarkable record of political success and of public confidence in a public man. Premier Murray was fifty-eight years old on Saturday last, and the Halifax Chronicle today, according to review, his career, which it summarized as follows: Born at Grand Narrows June 7, 1861; called to the bar of Nova Scotia, 1883; appointed to the legislative council, 1889; member of the Fielding government without portfolio, 1891; created a queen's council, 1893; premier of Nova Scotia, 1896; elected for Victoria county, 1896; victorious in general elections, 1897, 1901, 1906, 1911, 1916; prime minister of Nova Scotia, twenty-three years. Eight years ago, at a banquet in Halifax, at which Premier Murray was the guest, this tribute from Sir Wilfrid Laurier was read:—

"The man who now is in charge of the destinies of Nova Scotia does not belong to that province alone. He is a national figure and the pride all over the country of the Liberal party, who one and all recognize in him a pattern of quiet and patient courage, of wise and broad tolerance and far-seeing statesmanship."

To this tribute by the great Liberal chief in 1911 may properly be added that of the Halifax Chronicle eight years later, remembering that Mr. Murray is still the premier of Nova Scotia. The Chronicle of Saturday says:—

"Mr. Murray's public life and political record are written large in the statute books of this province. It is written within the memory of his political foes. Never a breath of scandal has touched his good name, and he is today the outstanding and unrivalled political leader of the maritime provinces. Outlasting the reasons for his success, it is found that above all things he is a man—mainly man, unadorned by defeat and unspiced by success; a modest man, content to let his deeds speak for themselves; a sincere man, testing all his actions and serving his people to the best of his really great ability; an unselfish man, asking nothing for himself save an opportunity for useful public service; a sympathetic man, with a heart big enough to embrace all humanity. Taken all in all, a really great Nova Scotian who will rank high when his record of accomplishment and that of his predecessors come to be written."

Rev. J. A. MacGlashen, who wrote the review of Mr. Murray's career for the Chronicle, notes the fact that while in every other province there have been grave public scandals there has not been one in Nova Scotia during the twenty-three years of Mr. Murray's tenure of the premiership. It is worthy of note that Mr. Murray twice declined knighthood. Of the progressive measures adopted by the legislature of Nova Scotia in his time are those providing for an agricultural college and for technical education, prohibition, woman suffrage, workmen's compensation, and others of a far-reaching importance. A Liberal of the Liberal, Premier Murray has himself given this definition of Liberalism:—

"True Liberalism wherever you find it, whether in the city or in the province, in the government of this Dominion or in the administration of the affairs of the Empire, should always rest upon one foundation, that of caring for the interests of the democracy, of safeguarding the rights of the masses as against the classes, and preventing the encroachment of selfish greed and special privilege. The principle of equal rights for all should be recognized at every stage."

THE DEFECTIVES.

A recent article on the defective immigrant presents some facts of such serious import that the attention of the government should be directed to them with a demand for a more careful scrutiny of all new-comers to this country. We quote: "Dr. C. K. Clarke, medical director, Canadian National Committee for Mental Hygiene, pointed out in the Toronto Globe of Jan. 27, 1916, that out of nineteen girls introduced into Canada by one society fifteen were mothers of illegitimate children—that was the case in one community. Out of four hundred admissions to jail in one western province only 23 per cent were of Canadian birth. The Austrians contributed 33 per cent, although their normal proportion should have been but eight per cent. Of 226 cases of unmarried mothers which have passed through one Ontario hospital 191 were feeble-minded, four were insane, 45 were border-line cases, and only 26 were normal. In Manitoba and Ontario the proportion of unmarried mothers was but slightly over 20 per cent Canadian." The same authority says of immigrants from England: "It is no criticism of the British people to say that a large proportion of the immigrants, even from the old country, are not good stock from which to build up a new citizenship. The truth is that a large percentage of those who are brought into Canada from England are failures at home, and are often so because of congenital defects. Their progeny may rise above their own level, but they never cease to suffer from their misfortunes of birth."

In justice to the immigrant, however, it must be confessed that there is quite too much ignorance, feeble-mindedness and idleness among those whose parents even were not immigrants but native born. Those who are interested in child welfare and come into contact with home conditions in a great number of families do not need to be told that we have a problem of the feeble-minded, morally weak and the generally shiftless among our own people which calls for remedial action of a drastic nature.

The budget debate develops three different groups, the protectionists, the moderate tariff men and the radical western group. Indeed there are radicals in the east. The United Farmers of Ontario, their secretary says, are as much dissatisfied as the westerners with the tariff as proposed. The debate will be followed with unusual interest. It is clear that quite a number of western members will support the budget on the ground that too great concessions cannot be expected at the present time.

Many children in St. John are better fitted to pursue their studies at school because medical inspection has been introduced, but the city must go farther and provide the eye-testing and dental work recommended by Dr. Mabel Huntington, and her suggestion of a special class for pupils with defective speech should not be overlooked. Indeed there is also need for special classes for pupils who show mental defects.

The labor department at Ottawa is flatly contradicted by Toronto and Hamilton manufacturers and wholesalers in regard to the price of cotton and woollen goods. Here's a chance for the cost of living commission to decide who is right.

A number of Canadians in England joined a detachment of troops which left yesterday for Murmansk, in North Russia. They are not yet weary of the life of danger and adventure.

SOLDIERS BACK FROM FRONT HAVE MISSING EARS RE-MADE.

A practical demonstration of the effectiveness and benefits to be derived from modern surgery was furnished when military trainees passed through Montreal with returned soldiers from the hospital transport Araguay. One hundred and seventy soldiers were for months in hospitals at St. Anne de Bellevue the others being for Ontario and the West.

The majority of the men were surgical cases, some of whom had been hit in the head or face, and who had been for months in hospitals of Great Britain having their faces reconstructed where they had been mutilated by shrapnel and shell.

There were several men who passed through Montreal with rebuilt noses, the originals having been either completely or partially shot away. Some had lost ears and had new ones constructed by grafting and reconstruction work. Others had suffered severe injuries to their cheek bones and jaws, but under the skillful hands of the surgeons their faces had been restored to almost normal conditions.

Nine years ago Frederick L. Finkle of Washington consented to the adoption of his infant daughter, Jeanette M. by Ecks McDearman, and the change of her name to Jeanette M. McDearman. The child is now twelve years old, and her foster mother is dead, so that her foster father has consented to her adoption by her own father, and a court order has given her her original name, Jeanette M. Finkle.

Meaty Holes. "Aren't you afraid the moths will get into this summer stuff?" "They'll find poor pickings if they do. Nothing in that lot but a couple of hammocks, some openwork stockings and four or five peacocko waits."—Kansas City Journal.

At Psychological Moment. "Father," said the small boy, "what is psychology?" "Psychology, my son, is a word of four syllables that you ring in to distract attention when the explaining gets difficult."—Washington Star.

Playing Safe. Daughter—"But, ma, I don't like him." Mother—"He's an only son and his father is very rich." "Well, as to that, his father is a widower and may marry again." "True! I didn't think of that. Perhaps you'd better marry the father."—Kansas City Journal.

Not Jealous. "Won't you marry me?" "But I am wedded to my art," said the grand opera singer. "I won't be jealous. You can keep on working after we are married."—Pittsburg Sun.

Saved Much Trouble. "Who is your favorite composer?" "Wagner," replied Mr. Cameron. "You must be a student of music." "No, I mention Wagner for the sake of relieving myself of conversational strain. If the other man doesn't like Wagner, he won't want to hear me say another word." "And if he does?" "He'll want to do all the talking himself."—

Playing Safe. Little Annie had been having trouble with her lessons and had turned for assistance to her big brother. He did the sums for her, reading her the paper and assuming his heading. She was soon back at his side, however, and he inquired: "What's the matter; aren't they all right?" "O, yes, indeed. They are ever so nice; but you've made a few mistakes here, so, to be sure, I'll think I did it?"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Sufficient Reason. Admiral Sims was speaking about the high qualities boasted by the American Jackie, and added: "He developed a positive genius for inventing reasons for securing shore leave. I call to mind able seaman Murphy."

"What on earth do you want shore leave for this time?" demanded his captain as our hero made his oft-repeated request. "I ain't your great aunt's funeral is it?"

"Faith, no, sorr," replied Murphy with a grin, "it's not so bad as that. It's—well, I had to tell you, sorr."

"Out with it," roared the captain, now fortified for whatever new one Murphy might spring. "I'll try and stand the shock."

"Well, sorr, it's lok this intirely: I had the misfortune, sorr, to have a brother born blind. Heaven be praised, sorr, but the ither day his sight was restored, an' bedad, he wants to see me, sorr."

"Leave granted," snapped the captain as he burst into a fit of laughter. "—Los Angeles Times."

Fruits of Romance. "What do you consider the best fruits of romance?" "I should say the wedding date and the bridal party!"

HOLD UP MEN GET $15,000

Take Diamonds and Jewelry in Robbery Below Dead Line in New York

New York, June 10.—Money, diamonds and jewelry to the value of about $15,000 were taken from Cuban and Syrian robbers in the coffee house of Joseph Nunnari, 95 Washington street, when six gunmen successfully made their getaway after one of the boldest daylight hold-ups recorded in recent months. Thomas Donohue, said to be one of the robbers, who gave his address as 289 Willis avenue, was caught by the crowd and had to call for the protection of the police as some of the rough treatment the robbers resorted to was being given to him.

The street was crowded with late afternoon shoppers when the six young hold-up men entered the basement cafe. They ordered Natnair and his customers to the rear at the point of revolvers. They forced them to deliver their money and jewelry and when any of the thirty men who were robbed did not have enough valuables to satisfy the robbers they received a blow on the head from a black-jack. When they collected all the valuables they rubbed the street pursued by the men who had been robbed.

The thieves dodged into hallways and buildings. Patrolman Kinne followed a man from the scene of the hold-up to 69 Washington street. The robber climbed the stairs to the roof of the building and just as Kinne was about to collar him he jumped across a six-foot air shaft to the roof of the adjoining building. On the other side, he told the policeman what he thought of the New York police department.

The robbers were evidently familiar with the Washington street vice district, they had Nunnari's customers spotted. When the robbers backed the men to the rear one of them stood on a chair and picked out the men the valuables.

"Get that man; he's got the diamonds," said one of the bandits, pointing to Antonio Stomba, a Cuban diamond merchant of 105 East Fifteenth street. They relieved him of $5,000.

WILL CARSON RESIGN?

His Candidate is Defeated in Election in East Antrim, Ireland

(Rev. J. A. MacGlashen, B. A.) One can readily imagine the conspicuous place Premier Murray occupied at his unassuming residence at the time of his unassuming tenure of office and the unchallenged purity of his personality. One of the most outstanding public functions of his career was his official visit to the Motherland on the occasion of the coronation of King Edward VII. We do not need to say that he represented with commanding credit and dignity the province of his birth and love. On that occasion he and Mrs. Murray were presented to King Edward at St. James Palace. He was, of course, one of the guests of the nation and was entertained at the famous castle of Lord Londside, who entertained the now notorious ex-Kaiser.

The writer heard this story from the lips of the late Premier Tweedie, of New Brunswick, who was also a guest at the address of the castle. Mr. Murray was dressing for dinner when Mr. Tweedie came into his room in a state of strong excitement. In some way Mr. Tweedie's baggage, containing the appropriate dinner togs, had not come to hand. What was to be done? Tweedie proposed that Murray should share with him the humiliation of appearing at dinner in the conventional swallowtail regalia. With his accustomed civility Mr. Murray responded to the cry of distress from his brother premier, and braved the loudly dinner table with ordinary every-day dress. Mr. Tweedie said that he could never forget the chivalrous self-denial of Mr. Murray, an act that was all the more meritorious, because of the well-known punctiliousness of the premier in his attention to proper form.

In the last parliamentary election for East Antrim, Brig-General C. A. McCalmont, Unionist, polled 15,206 votes as compared with 8,881 votes for D. Dunigan, Sinn Fein candidate. General McCalmont and Mr. Dunigan were the only candidates.

SEAMAN'S LEG CUT OFF BY FALLING HATCH. Abdul Akin, a native of Calcutta, who was working on the steamer Finglin at West St. John, was severely injured about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a steel hatch cover fell severing his right leg above the knee. The ferry boat was held for a few minutes in order that the unfortunate man might be hurried to the hospital.

FAVORS PENSIONS FOR THE MOTHERS

The Women's Institute meeting last night was very largely attended and most enthusiastic. Mrs. J. V. V. Lawlor, the president, was in the chair and letters were read from Premier Foster and Hon. Dr. Roberts. Premier Foster expressed his entire sympathy with the scheme for mothers' pensions regarding which the institute had sent him a resolution, and said the matter would receive his favorable attention in the house. Dr. Roberts expressed sympathy in this matter also, and on behalf of the board of health said that the wrapping of bread would be made compulsory in due time.

Announcement was made that the classes in cooking and dressmaking would be continued under the direction of Miss Roach and would commence next week and that the community work of the institute would commence with a special meeting of the mothers of the children attending the free kindergartens at which meeting a lecture would be given and the women helped if necessary with their sewing. Arrangements were made for holding an "Evening with Moore" when Mrs. A. D. C. Wilson will have charge of the programme, and Mrs. Lalachur, Fred Hazel and the ladies' orchestra will take part.

Mrs. T. N. Vincent gave a very interesting account of what she had seen of community work and kindergarten work in New York and Boston and an article was read from the Women's Century entitled "The Yellow Peril Not Chinese," that dealt in a forcible way with matters of serious interest to women.

Miss Waterbury sang two highly appreciated songs with Miss Marion Hogan acting as accompanist, and after a general discussion of the future work of the institute the meeting closed with the singing of O Canada and the National Anthem.

Liberal Women Are Preparing To Vote

(Toronto Star)

"For Canada's service, and for the world's peace the Ontario Women's Liberal Association with its loyal inheritance from the great Laurier takes its stand for a new year, unshaken and unafraid," said Mrs. J. A. Macdonald, who after eighteen months' tour of the Orient gave her presidential address before the 2nd annual meeting of the O. W. L. A., at Foresters' Hall, this morning.

Delegates from Brantford, London, Hamilton and many other parts of the province were present.

"Millions of women have now the right of the franchise, but as Liberal women let us not forget the wonderful example which has been set us, nor our motto, 'Service.' By true service our society will be saved from hurtful paralyzation and from ignorant boasting, and from corrupting Bolshevism. Let service be a beacon light for all."

"The Attorney-General of Ontario has announced that a general election will be held soon. We must therefore be prepared for the first Provincial and possibly the first Dominion election, in which women in great numbers have the right to cast their vote."

"Since the formation of the association two years ago, our programme has been full of study, and has been enlarged to meet the needs of the next few years. In the social problems of special interest to women, we have education, child and female labor. Juvenile and women's courts; public health, financial help for families, including mothers' pensions, current topics, development of Canadian nationality with the empire, the tariff; the high cost of living, temperance, the nationalization of railways, the purification of elections, the patronage system, good roads, immigration, Provincial institutions. Besides these we have historical study of Canadian Liberalism and 'Fundamental Principles of Liberalism.'"

OPENING SHOT FIRED IN QUEBEC ELECTION
 Quebec, June 9.—Accompanied by several of his ministers and members of the assembly for the city and district, Sir Lomer Gouin, prime minister of the province, fired the opening shot of his campaign for the provincial election of June 23 in the Liberal stronghold of Quebec East, tonight, when he held his inaugural meeting in the Imperial Theatre. The hall was crowded to the doors and the premier and his ministers were given a rousing reception.

ONTARIO FARMERS NOT SATISFIED WITH BUDGET

Toronto, June 9.—J. J. Morrison, secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario says the farmers of Ontario are as much dissatisfied with the budget as are the farmers of the west.

"Our attitude in Ontario towards the budget is identically the same as that which I understand the farmers of the west have maintained, which is the abolition of the duty on farm machinery altogether."

"Nothing short of that will satisfy the farmers."

MAINE COURT BARS GINGER.

Samples Up to 95 Per Cent Alcohol Used as Beverage There.

Augusta, Me. June 10.—Jamaica ginger is declared to be an intoxicant, and its sale or possession unlawful, in an opinion handed down by the Supreme Court of Maine.

The evidence showed that Jamaica ginger could be and was used by ordinary persons as a beverage, and in such quantities as to produce intoxication, said the court. Three different grades containing respectively 90, 28, and 65 per cent. of alcohol were in the lot seized a year ago on which the decision was based.

CATHOLIC DIRECTORY OUT

1919 Book Shows 17,549,324 Members of Church in United States.

(New York Times).
There are 17,549,324 Catholics in continental United States, according to the 1919 edition of "The Official Catholic Directory" just published and copyrighted by P. J. Kenedy & Sons of Barclay street. This shows a net increase of 188,021 over the preceding year. Only nine dioceses showed decreases.

According to Joseph H. Meier, who has compiled the directory for the last fourteen years, if the "floating" Catholic population could be recorded, and if every diocese in the country had taken a new 1918 census, the total would exceed 19,500,000.

The directory announces that the increase in the number of Catholics in the last twenty-five years has amounted to 3,471,629. It also shows that altogether there are 25,822,650 Catholics under the protection of the United States flag, as there are 8,788,805 in Alaska, the Canal Zone, the Virgin Islands, Guam, Samoa, the Hawaiian Islands, Porto Rico, and in the Philippines.

Other figures from the copyrighted summary, show there are in the United States proper: Archbishops, fourteen; bishops, ninety-seven; Catholic priests, 20,588; secular clergymen, 15,022; fathers

A NATION OF GENTLEMEN.

The custom of wearing a flower in the buttonhole is a very pretty one and marks the man wearing it at least a lover of the beautiful and to a certain extent a man who is careful of his personal appearance. But to appreciate this flower-wearing custom at its best one should see a Samoan gentleman. His everyday costume consists of a most engaging smile, a garland of gardenias worn over one shoulder, a tunic of green leaves, and over all a close-fitting garment in bronze. Their features are strikingly handsome, splendidly open fellows, and are courteous, hospitable, honest and affectionate. Many of them are six feet tall, straight and graceful, with the figure and form of Greek gods done in bronze. Their features are regular and their faces expressive of a high degree of intelligence. Their manner is stately and deliberate, best described by what we naturally expect from a "gentleman of the old school," and in striking contrast with the quick, restless ways of many dwellers of the "Isles of the Sea." Travelers have spoken of them as a nation of gentlemen. Think of it not a nation with a gentleman here and there, but a nation where every voter is a gentleman.

FACES TRIAL ON TWO CHARGES OF MURDER

Mrs. Sheels Married While in Hospital and Husband Accompanies Her to Trial.

Lawrence, Mass., June 9.—Mrs. Bessie M. (Sheels) Lundgren was put on trial for alleged murder by poisoning in December, 1917, of Miss Florence Gay, of Andover, for whom she had acted as nurse. The defendant, still convalescing after an operation two months ago, was brought from her home at Andover to the court house. She has been at liberty under nominal bonds. Her husband, Alfred J. Lundgren, who married Mrs. Sheels at a hospital when she appeared in danger of death, attended her in court. Mrs. Sheels is also involved in charges of poisoning in New Jersey, where a grand jury has indicted her for murder in connection with the death of her brother, Albert J. Wilkins, of Bayonne. Witnesses from that city will be called by both the defence and prosecution. The trial is expected to last about two weeks.

DOCTOR PRESCRIBES VINOL

For Schoolboy to Create Strength After Sickness.

Vineland, N. J.—"I am a schoolboy, seventeen years of age and typhoid fever left me weak and debilitated, so I had to stay out of school three months—my doctor prescribed Vinol. It has built up my strength and now I am feeling fine."—S. E. Dunce.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this boy's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich red blood and create strength. Watson's Drug Store, The Ross Drug Co., St. John, Vinol is sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, and at the best drug store in every town and city in the country.

GUTHRIE MAY BE JUDGE

Ottawa, June 8.—There is a strong possibility that in the near future, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, solicitor-general, will be appointed as an additional judge to the exchequer court. Of the present exchequer court judges, Hon. Walter G. P. Cassels is seventy-four years of age and Hon. L. A. Anetie is sixty-one years of age. In the course of time the retirement of Judge Cassels on a pension can be expected on account of his advanced age.

CATHOLIC WAR COUNCIL

Bulletin Issued Giving Features of Work Being Done

Washington, June 10.—The National Catholic War Council, composed of the fourteen archbishops of the United States, and functioning through an administrative committee composed of Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, D. D., Bishop of Rockford, Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, D. D., Bishop of Toledo, Rt. Rev. William T. Russell, D. D., Bishop of Charleston, and Rt. Rev. Joseph S. Glass, C. M. D. D., Bishop of Salt Lake Utah, and a committee on special war activities, which Rev. John J. Burke, C. S. P., editor of the Catholic World, is chairman, and Walter G. Hooker is executive secretary, has issued the first number of a monthly bulletin, of which Michael Williams is editor. Nearly 2000 organizations of Catholic laymen and laywomen have been co-ordinated and are now directed by this organization.

The bulletin records the chief features of the work of the council, which acts in close co-operation with the United States government, and with other welfare organizations.

The varied nature of the work is shown by the articles in this first number. The Rt. Rev. Peter J. Muldoon, Bishop of Rockford, chairman of the administrative committee, is the author of the leading article, which reviews the past work of the council and outlines the important activities in the field of reconstruction which lie ahead. In the course of his article he quotes from the recent letter of Pope Benedict XV. to the American bishops, in which they are exhorted to carry on the work, and place it on a permanent basis through two commissions, to be appointed at the annual meeting of the bishops. One of these commissions is to deal with social questions and the other with educational problems. "So urgent is the call to a zealous and persistent economic-social activity," writes the Pope, "that we need not further exhort you in this matter. Be watchful, however, lest your efforts, carried away by vain opinions and noisy agitation, abandon to their detriment the Christian principles established by our predecessor of happy memory, Leo XIII, in his encyclical letter, Rerum Novarum. More perilous than ever would this be at the present moment, when the whole structure of human society is in danger, and all civic charity swept by storms and evens hale, seems like to shrivel up and disappear."

Chicago, June 10.—Amelita Galli-Curci, opera singer, through her attorney has denied all charges against her character made in a recent answer to her bill for divorce, which was filed by her husband.

At the same time she filed in the Superior Court an affidavit alleging that Curci has $25,000 in Italian securities which rightfully belong to her. She asked that $15,000 of this amount be paid her at once as her support pending determination of her suit, the remaining $10,000 to be paid when the case comes to final settlement. The case will come for hearing on June 17.

Christian Science

Address Given Here on Sunday by Frank Bell

A large number gathered in the Imperial Theatre Sunday afternoon to hear Frank Bell deliver his thoughtful address on Christian Science, W. K. Casey presiding, and in his introductory remarks said:

"When Jesus was on this plane he taught and practiced Truth in healing all manner of diseases and casting out devils and He said to his followers 'Ye shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free.' Plato asked Jesus what is truth, but did not wait for an answer. All down the ages since Jesus' time men have been asking what is Truth without getting a satisfactory answer. Our revered leader, Mary Baker Eddy, through the diligent study of the Bible has rediscovered this great Truth and has given the world the benefit of this great discovery in her text book Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures. It is to give as many as possible a chance to share this great blessing that this lecture is being delivered this afternoon by a gentleman fully qualified to speak on this subject. Therefore it affords me great pleasure on behalf of Christian Science Society, 141 Union street, to welcome you to Mr. Frank Bell, C. S., member of the board of lecturers of 'The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ Scientists, Boston, Mass.'"

Mr. Bell, in his lecture, said Christian Science had been called the science of right thinking, because the practice of Christian Science is by the activity by which wrong thoughts give place to right thoughts, that the fruits of right thinking may appear instead of the fruits of wrong thinking.

DOMINION G. W. V. A. AGAINST ONE BIG UNION IDEA

Ottawa, June 9.—The Dominion executive of the Great War Veterans of Canada meeting here has made a declaration of principles which include opposition to the underlying principles of the "one big union" with its accord of Russian bolshevism and German spartacans. The memorial has been handed to Premier Borden.

monthly and weekly periodicals, and a daily newspaper, and other literature in eleven languages.

Thirty American legislatures have recognized the practice of Christian Science by providing that it shall not be subject to medical interference or regulation, and this recognition has stood the test in courts of law. There is no lack of legal right to practice Christian Science in the other states.

Religion and War

"Good citizenship is a natural product of right thinking," said the speaker. "One would search the teachings of Christian Science in vain for justification for the slightest default in one's support of a righteous government in a just cause." He then explained that Christian Scientists are doing their full share in the great war, but that they had been spared much of the mental burden of the times by reason of the effect of their religion in dissolving doubt and allaying fear. When war came, the Christian Scientist did not have to "lower his concepts of duty by assenting to the wicked theory that a righteous God must needs use evil to accomplish good, nor 'stutify his spiritual sense with that discarded, thinking, the familiar theological, narcotic, that the ways of providence are inscrutable." Christian Science, the speaker said gave its adherents a rational explanation of all things. He added that the "Christianity that is Christian Science" is practiced universally, "war will be no more, because fear and false theology, phases of wrong thinking that promote and permit war, will have been deprived of their claim to dominion over

The Authentic Textbook

The book, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, was described as the textbook of the Christian Science, which are set forth "the rule and method of the science of right thinking, what it is and how it may be learned and applied." Persons who studied this book in the hope of learning how to practice hypnotism or mesmerism, to conquer pain with mental suggestion or will power, to heal disease by calling it names, to overcome evil by ignoring it, or to do anything else, natural or unnatural, declared the speaker, were bound to be disappointed. He said the title of the book showed that its purpose was to prove not only that health is a matter of science or knowledge, that is to say mental, but that the knowledge that is synonymous with health is religious knowledge, to be found in the Bible, and that "the mentality that truly heals is not the human mind, but the Infinite Intelligence, God." The book, he said, sets forth not a theory to be argued, but a method to be tried and judged by results, the keynote of Christian Science being demonstration.

Helpful in Business

Business men find the solution of their business troubles in Christian Science, the speaker declared; that is, provided they are willing to give up trying to gain seemingly worth while ends by means of wrong acts. The lecturer quoted a "man of world-wide reputation for business success" as saying: "My experience has taught me that the effort to make a man buy something he does not need, in the long run defeats its own purpose." This was cited as illustrating the fact that the modern business man "is catching a glimpse of the operation of divine law in business." Christian Science helps the business man to see this more clearly, according to the lecturer, "and to avail himself of the operation of divine law in business in constantly increasing degree." Christian Science teaches him that a right result never is due to chance; that the presence of such qualities as justice, truth and love, in a business transaction, are "certain signs of the presence of the true God, a presence necessarily active and good, assuring a direct relation to ultimate success." The "Christian Scientist in business was described as "a trained observer of mental conditions" possessing all the attendant legitimate advantages of being able to think right.

A Substantial Movement

The activities of the Christian Science Church were described by the speaker. It has 1800 branches in all parts of the world, and new ones being organized at an average rate of one per week. There are six thousand registered practitioners of Christian Science, devoting all their time to the work. The lectures last year were heard by one million, three hundred thousand persons.

The church gives liberally in public emergencies and its members do their share in support of worthy charities. A steady stream of money and supplies has gone through the church to war sufferers in all lands since the war began. This church "makes no demands on the community." It builds handsome church edifices without solicitation of funds from outsiders, and dedicates them free from debt. Its up-to-date publishing house employs seven hundred persons, issues Mrs. Eddy's works; also quarterly,

You can keep your skin free from hair or fuzz by the occasional use of plain deodorant and in using it you need have no fear of marring or injuring the skin. A thick paste is made by mixing some of the powdered deodorant with water. Then spread on the hair and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real deodorant.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoo or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifield coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifield coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

It should earn talent money during the summer and make articles for the Christmas sale.

School Board Ready To Adopt Vocational Training

Will Take Action on Request of Common Council Expect Lower Prices

Hard Coal Orders Held up For This Season — Dr. Mabel Hanington Tells of Medical Inspection in the Schools

Tenders for coal were discussed at the meeting of the school board last evening, and only one was accepted, that of the Colwell Fuel Company for soft coal for the West Side schools, the board being of the opinion that prices were likely to be lower than those offered. A large amount of routine business was transacted and Dr. Mabel Hanington gave an excellent account of her work as medical inspector under the school board and the probable course of action should be appointed to the same office under the board of health this month. Suggestions were made that framed pictures of the St. John units should be placed in the vestibules of the schools as a war memorial and it was moved that a rebate of the equivalent of the government grant deducted from teachers in the La Four school for time lost on account of the accident at the school should be asked for from the board of education. In regard to a resolution sent by a citizens' meeting asking the board to take action in the matter of vocational training, a motion was passed expressing the board's willingness to do so when asked to by the common council.

The chairman, Dr. A. F. Emery, presided and other members present were Mrs. Dever, G. H. Green, H. C. Smith, G. E. Day, M. Coll, E. R. W. Ingraham, T. Nagle, J. P. D. Lewis.

Applications for positions on the teaching staff were received from the following: Miss Delilah G. Campbell, Gordon A. Titus, Elva Kirkpatrick, F. V. Hornok, Miss Marion W. Thompson, Gunner Eckman, Miss M. M. Manning, R. G. Warman, Olivia A. Kingston, Mary L. Short, Jean A. MacAfee, R. G. Mowatt, Miss Mona R. MacGraw. Resignations were accepted from Miss Dorothy M. Mitten, Miss Edna C. Tufts, Miss Elizabeth Adams and Miss Alberta McLeod. In view of the fact that Miss McLeod was resigning after teaching for a period of thirty-nine and a half years during which time she had given most faithful and efficient service, it was moved by Mr. Coll, seconded by Mr. Day and carried unanimously, that the resignation be accepted with great regret, that the secretary be asked to convey the expression of the board's appreciation to Miss McLeod and that some suitable recognition of her work be given her, such recognition to be decided upon by the chairman and secretary.

Four months leave of absence with half pay was granted to Miss Bertha E. Forbes and one year's leave of absence to Miss Dorothy P. Smith.

Appointments were made as follows on the recommendation of Dr. Bridges: as teacher, Miss Delilah Campbell, to the reserve of the teaching staff, Miss Marion Thompson, Miss Florence Coster, Miss Kathleen Falkens and Miss Genevieve Barry to St. Peter's school.

Mr. Day reported that on investigation it had been found that the boy injured when that school was closed for the repair of an exploded boiler and on the motion of Mr. Nagle seconded by Mr. Ingraham it was decided that the board should assume the responsibility for the payment of the grant and that the secretary should write to the board of education asking for a rebate of the amount.

Mr. Day made the suggestion that framed photographs of the St. John units should be placed in the vestibules of the city schools as a war memorial and a committee consisting of Trustees Day, Nagle and Green was appointed to look into the matter and present a detailed report. It was said by Mr. Green that each picture would cost six dollars.

The buildings committee submitted a report on tenders received for coal and recommended that those of the Colwell Fuel Company be accepted for the West Side schools, the J. S. Gibson & Co. offer of hard coal at $18 per ton broken and $12.75 egg, be accepted for the East Side and the Dominion Coal Company's tender for soft coal for the East Side. After some discussion as to the prices likely to prevail and the nature of the coal offered it was decided on the motion of Mr. Green seconded by Mr. Day that the Colwell Fuel Company's tender of soft coal for the West Side schools at eight dollars per ton be accepted and that all other tenders be referred back to the buildings committee.

The finance committee was appointed to deal with the matter of deductions of teachers' salary for time lost. Deduc-

Medical Inspection.

Dr. Mabel Hanington as her office of medical inspector of schools was on the eve of being transferred to the board of health appeared before the board to state what she had accomplished while under its authority. She told of the complete physical examinations made of the Grade XI children and of about four hundred special cases examined. She referred to the fact that hospital treatment was available for the poor except for eye-testing and dental work and said that she hoped these two branches would be taken up by the board of health next year. Dr. Hanington suggested that the school board might assist in providing a trained teacher to give special classes to the children of defective speech to instruct them regarding the development of the muscles of lips and tongue. She had found sixteen such cases and the mothers of eight of the children were willing to pay one dollar each towards the instruction and if the board would pay fifty cents for each child it would be possible to arrange the class. Dr. Hanington said she thought it likely that under the board of health medical inspection would follow the same lines as she had outlined and she asked the board to furnish boxes for keeping individual physical records in, this being the only expense of the inspection that would not come under the board of health.

Mr. Day in moving that the secretary should have authority to procure all necessary supplies for Dr. Hanington spoke in praise of her work for the board and hoped that the same happy relations would continue though she was ill to sever her connection with it. Mr. Graham seconded the motion which carried unanimously. On the motion of Mr. Day the building committee was given power to regarding the repairs of buildings.

The Maxwell puts pep and profit into hauling work

It costs four times as much to haul with horses as with a Maxwell Truck. It takes three teams to cover the same ground and haul the same load.

And the Maxwell gets there faster and in more business-like style. Gives the rock-bottom cost for hauling.

That's the reason why of the Maxwell's big success in Canada.

Farm produce or furniture, food or feathers, lumber or scrap iron, milk or machinery—the Maxwell is the most economical investment in the Dominion for any freight-carrying problem.

It costs from 100 to 400 per cent less than heavier trucks which may do only ten to twenty per cent more work. It costs only a little more than lighter trucks and (apart from being completely equipped) does much more work—in less time. It costs several hundred dollars less than any other truck of similar capacity.

The Maxwell is made in Canada. It embodies the full fruits of the Maxwell manufacturing facilities and record. A scientific engineering job—not a mere assembled mechanism.

Low cost for upkeep means that the Maxwell will earn extra profits for you. And there's real service available on this speedy ton-and-a-half truck anywhere in Canada.

Chapter 16—"The Knockout"—Chapter 16

STREIN'D DAY AT BIG MEN'S CAMP
Dempsy Has Old Eye Wound Opened and Willard Gets Big Bump on Cheek Bone
Toledo, June 9.—Jess Willard and Jack Dempsy tonight are nursing bruised heads as a result of spirited workouts today. While boxing with the champion, Dempsy's left eye was opened when the challenger's sparring partner landed a grazing left hook. The blood streamed from the wound and for fear of further damage Manager Kearns called a halt on the glove work for the afternoon. The cut may prevent Dempsy from boxing for several days as it is feared the wound may keep opening up.
Willard received a bump as big as a door knob on the left cheek bone as a result of a right hand swing landed by Jack Hempel in the first round. The champion increased his boxing to eight rounds after doing five miles of road work in the morning. He went three rounds each with Hempel and Walter Monahan, and two with Soldier Stanton, who was all but knocked out yesterday. The champion was apparently afraid to hit Stanton. Willard limited the style of Dempsy while following Stanton around the ring, much to the amusement of a big Monday crowd. "Big Jess" crouched as Dempsy does and shifted and feinted his way into close quarters.
Dempsy opened his workout facing Jack Ross, a 200 pound youth from Winnipeg, who claims the heavyweight championship of Canada. Within thirty seconds Ross was on the canvas, knocked out. Dempsy felled him after ten seconds of boxing with a short, right hand punch to the chin. After Ross staggered to his feet, the challenger slipped over a left hook which finished him.
The challenger then stepped two figures with the champion while following Stanton around the ring, much to the amusement of a big Monday crowd. "Big Jess" crouched as Dempsy does and shifted and feinted his way into close quarters.

KITCHEN SHOWER
An enjoyable time was spent on last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Smiler, 87 Chesley street, when about thirty of the friends of Miss Ferris gathered and tendered her a kitchen shower. A good time was enjoyed by all present, and many gifts were received by Miss Ferris, whose marriage will take place this month.

June Brides

McDermott-Bradley
A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at an early hour this morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception when Gregory T. McDermott was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Bradley, daughter of the late John and Katherine Bradley, also of this city, with nuptial mass by Rev. William M. Duke. The bride who was given away by her brother, John J. Bradley of Montreal, was charmingly gowned in white tulle with overdress of georgette crepe and pearl trimmings. Her hat was of white tulle with wheat trimmings and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Katherine Bradley, wore a green georgette with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Daniel J. McDermott. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family of the bride only relatives and a few immediate friends were present. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bradley of Montreal, Mrs. W. G. Swadlow of New York and Mrs. Arthur V. Callaghan of St. George.

Mr. and Mrs. McDermott left on the early train for New York and Washington and will return via Montreal. The bride's traveling costume was a suit of black satin with oyster trimmed hat and a corsage bouquet of violets. Many beautiful gifts were received. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl necklace and to the groomsmen a signet ring.

McKee-Galley
The home of Milton W. Galley, 182 Princess street was the scene of an interesting event at a quarter after six o'clock this morning when his daughter, Miss Hilda Maud, was united in marriage to Aubrey S. McKee, also of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Goodwin in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride looked very charming in a traveling costume of gray. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McKee left for Charlottetown and after a trip through the lower provinces will return to the city where they will reside at 182 Princess street. Many beautiful gifts testified to the popularity of the young people.

Cromwell-Leek
Harold Cromwell of Nova Scotia and Miss Daisy Leek of Fredericton, were united in marriage on Wednesday in St. John's Episcopal church, Bangor, J. Edward Hand officiating. Miss Louise Leek, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Ernest Huddleston was best man. The bride wore a pretty dress of white chiffon, wore a veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore pink crepe chiffon and last to match and carried a bouquet of Day-begon pinks. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the young couple at the home of Mrs. Raymond Talbot of Carroll street. They were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts and they have hosts of friends who extend to them their best wishes. Mr. Cromwell is employed by the Eastern Paper Co. They will reside on Center street.

HIGH SCHOOL THIS YEAR IS TO GRADUATE ABOUT 80

The closing examinations in the city schools will be commenced next Monday with the exception of a few of the classes in the High School, which will begin on Friday of this week. In all classes the numbers taking the examinations are well up to and in some cases exceeding the average. In the High School there will be a graduation class of about eighty, which, while not establishing a record, is a large class. The medal examinations in Grades IX and X will commence on Wednesday of next week. The matriculation and normal school entrance examination are slated for the first Tuesday in July and although this falls on the first day of the month and a holiday, those scholars who have elected to take these examinations will be compelled to forego their usual respite on Canada's natal day.

HOPE TO START GAMES EARLY IN NEXT WEEK

It is hoped to have ball playing in progress on the South End playground early next week. Much will depend, however, on the interest shown by south end people. The executive of the South End Improvement League, the members of the games committee, the representatives of ball teams and any others interested are to meet on the grounds tomorrow evening at eight o'clock daylight time to discuss the season's games, and plan for sport in general. There is still a good deal of work to do but it can be done in a week or less time, so far as the baseball diamond is concerned, if the people, especially the young people, take hold. Chairman C. M. Finlay is very anxious to see sport in full swing as quickly as possible and asks the south end people to lend a hand at once.

SIXTY COME ON THE CHAUDIERE

Soldiers From Bermuda and St. Lucia—Major General MacDougall Arrives

Sixty men arrived this morning from Bermuda and St. Lucia on the S. S. Chaudiere. They were met by Charles Robinson, who is always on hand to give the men a welcome and any necessary information they need. Among those who arrived were two imperial officers, Major Thorne and Captain Mitchell, of the Royal Service Artillery, who have been doing duty in St. Lucia; five officers and forty-six men from the Royal Canadian Garrison Artillery; one officer and four men from the Royal Canadian Engineers; one officer and three men from the Canadian Army Medical Corps and one officer from the Canadian Army Dental Corps. These men, who were in charge of Lieut.-Colonel Harris, were dispersed at the armories today and were given transportation to their destinations. The majority of the men will go to the permanent force in Halifax for duty.

A distinguished passenger on the Chaudiere this morning was Major-General Charles MacDougall, who came from Bermuda, having spent the last two months there on leave. He has been in the Canadian army for thirty-six years, only retiring on April 1, after having finished a distinguished career. He was through the South African war, and is the possessor of the King's South African medal, and was also decorated with the C. M. G. medal. For some years he was commander of the Royal Canadian Regiment, until about 1912, when he was appointed judge advocate general on the staff in Ottawa, which position he held until he went overseas and was appointed commander of the Canadian troops in Shorncliffe, England. Major-General MacDougall was at local military headquarters this morning shaking hands with Brigadier-General A. H. Macdonnell, G. O. C. for this district. Major Keith W. A. MacDougall, who was officer in charge of transport for this district for some time, but now in Halifax, is a son. Major-General MacDougall will leave for Ottawa on the Montreal train this evening and will be on business there for a few days after which he will proceed to his home in Toronto.

MEN FROM THE LAPLAND HOME

A Welcome at the Depot For More Returned Soldiers Early This Morning

The men for military district No. 7, arriving in Halifax yesterday on the S. S. Lapland, reached St. John this morning at six o'clock on the Halifax train. They were met by Chief Robinson, secretary of the New Brunswick Returned Soldiers' Commission; R. E. Armstrong and other members of the citizens reception committee; A. E. O'Leary, and other representatives of the Knights of Columbus Army Hats; Mrs. Powell and others. Light refreshments and cigarettes were passed around to the boys. The electric "Welcome" sign was illuminated and for such an early hour in the morning the Union Station and surroundings presented a welcome appearance to the lads who have spent three and four years in service overseas. Relatives and friends were at the station and each one was eagerly watching for the first glimpse of loved ones or friends. The men were in good spirits and their sun-kissed faces were evidence that they were glad to be home. After greetings and salutations the soldiers were further marshaled down to the armories for breakfast. They were discharged this morning. As in the past when the men came to the city on the early trains, those whose homes are in the city have been allowed to have breakfast at their homes.

MRS. S. J. MANN, WIFE OF BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA MANAGER, FOUND DEAD

Moncton, June 10.—Mrs. Mann, wife of Samuel J. Mann, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at River Hebert, N. S., was found dead at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nelson Rand, Campbell street, this morning. Her father, the late Nelson Rand, was a prominent official on the Canadian Government Railways. She is survived by her mother and one sister, at home. Another sister, Mrs. Thel, is living in Dorchester. Ivan Rand, barrister of Medicine Hat, and Charles W., who served in the Canadian artillery overseas, are brothers.

The inquest into the death of Blair Belliveau, who died suddenly at the Moncton speedway on Sunday evening, was further adjourned this morning until this afternoon to await the arrival of Dr. Landry, who was called out of town on professional business.

IN GOOD HEALTH AGAIN.
Among those returning to the city from overseas today was Lieut. Joseph F. Soucie of St. Leonards Junction, who has been about nine months in hospital in England and France following a severe shaking up in the Cambrai show. Mr. Soucie is well known about the city and through the province. He was with the traveling staff of Brock & Paterson Co., Ltd., before enlisting. On going to France he joined the 22nd French-Canadian and served through much of the heavy fighting in which they participated. His many friends are giving him a hearty reception, and are glad to see him looking so well.
