WEDDING BELLS ARE KEPT BUSY

Many Marriages in City On First Wednesday of June

WEATHER IS KINDLY

Bright Sunshine for Happy Brides—All Sections of the City Represented in the Joyous Ceremonies of the Happy Day

The arrival of the first Wednesday in June set the wedding bells pealing merrily today. An unusually large number of nuptial ceremonies marked the day and from early morning to late afternoon and evening the busy conveyers of the bridal parties were seen on the highways leading to the various churches and to the railway stations and to the homes of the brides and grooms. The weather could not have been better if made to order and when the brides-to-be peeped through their curtains this morning to see if they were to share in the good fortune promised by the old adage which says: "Happy is the bride upon whom the sun shines," they were greeted by an ideal June day, as good an omen for the auspicious occasion as they could wish for.

O'Regan-Morgan.

In the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, in St. Peter's church at six o'clock this morning, James Morgan, of North End, gave in marriage his daughter, Miss Nan R., to Francis Leo O'Regan, and they were joined in wedlock by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Dale, C.S.R., with nuptial high mass. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Alice Morgan, as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by his brother, John O'Regan, as groomsmen. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests dined at the home of the bride, in Main street, where a sumptuous and tempting breakfast awaited their coming. Following this the bride and groom left by train for a honeymoon trip to various cities in the States. They will spend a little time in the White Mountains, and on their return will make their home at Kennebecasis Island for the summer months occupying their city residence in the fall.

At the wedding this morning the bride presented a charming appearance in a handsome costume of white duchess satin with lace trimmings. She wore a veil with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lily-of-the-valley. Her cousin was daintily attired in a gown of pale blue and pink silk. She wore a white picture hat. Her bouquet consisted of pink carnations. The ushers were Dr. J. H. Linnay and Francis Cronin.

Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Regan are deservedly popular and they will be in their new home pleasing reminders of the solemn and kindly wishes of a large circle of friends in a valued and varied assortment of wedding remembrances in cut glass, silverware, china and many other beautiful gifts.

Alan Garnett.

In Brussels street Baptist church on Monday morning next, June 10, at half past seven o'clock, the pastor, Rev. Miles McClellan will unite in marriage Miss Annie Edith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Garnett of Silver Falls, and Gordon C. Allan of St. John. Both young people have many friends who will wish them every happiness. Mr. Allan is a city traveler for Vaseco & Co., with whom he has been employed for ten years.

Northrup-Curie.

Two popular people of North End are to be united in marriage this evening. Miss Lillian Russell Currie, of Main street, and Alexander C. Northrup, a popular conductor on the street railway. The officiating clergyman will be Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, and the hour of the ceremony is 8:30 p. m. in the parsonage, Douglas avenue. After the wedding the bride and groom will drive to their new home, 92 Metcalf street, where luncheon will be served and at which friends and relatives will be present. Miss Currie will be attended in a very dainty gown of blue silk and will wear a large black and white picture hat with plumes.

The young couple enjoy the esteem of many friends and the latter showed their esteem and regard by making them the recipients of a large number of wedding remembrances in silverware, cut glass, china, and a wide variety of other useful and handsome household effects. The fellow employees of the groom on the street railway expressed their affection and best wishes in presenting to Mr. Northrup a beautiful and valuable remembrance.

McDermott-McGowan.

An early morning wedding of popular Miss Lillian Russell McGowan, of Main street, was solemnized at a quarter to five o'clock today, when Miss Margaret F. McGowan became the bride of Harry N. Grant Believed to Be Man Who Was Arrested at Auld's Cove on Charge of Break Into Antigonish Store

(Special to Times)

Halifax, June 5.—A woman has appeared in the Hubert Grant case and, according to communications received from Auld's Cove, N. S., the man accused of the murder of Thos. Donaldson, not long ago engaged to a girl at that place, which engagement was broken off when he was arrested on the charge of breaking into Bonnar's store in Antigonish, and stealing $80 and several watches.

Learning a description of Grant, citizens of Auld's Cove recognized him as a man who became acquainted with a young girl in that place, in December last, and who subsequently became his fiancé. Her name is Ella Forrester. Grant it is said went down there from Antigonish a little more than a month ago and proposed to her. Her parents looked with favor on the match.

Grant, it is further said, at that time spent money freely and gave it out, and had a large bank account. But the wedding never took place. A constable and sheriff appeared on the scene and took Grant out of his bed at five o'clock in the morning. He had, it is said, a revolver under his pillow. Grant at that time seemed to be a slave to the cigarette habit. He was arrested on the charge of stealing some $80 and eight or nine watches from T. J. Bonnar's store. The case was sent out of court, and Grant was ordered to leave the country. He was seen soon afterwards in Stellarton.

Brief Hints on Sanitary Living

Please remember that garbage can, should be burned in the kitchen range, and not thrown out.

That nothing is so liable to dangerous pollution as milk. It is very probable that in many cases, milk is more apt to be polluted after reaching the house of the consumer, than during its progress from the place of production up to that point. I should, therefore, be immediately covered after being received into the house, and kept as cool as possible.

That of all classes of the population young children under five years have the least robust health. Last year, in this city, over one-quarter of all who died were under this age, and during July, August and September of last year over forty per cent of the total deaths were of this class. Yet this city compares very favorably with many others in respect of child mortality. When it is remembered, therefore, that milk is so principally a food for (Continued on page 7, first column).

TRIUMPH OF WIRELESS TELEPHONY

Marcellise, Played in Algiers, is Heard on Yacht Nearly 500 Miles Away

London, June 5.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says remarkable experiments in wireless telephony are said to be proceeding at Toulon, on the yacht "Le Marcellise," in the hands of the Marquis de Marcellise.

By means of an apparatus invented by Yde Lepel, the Marcellise played in Algiers, was definitely heard aboard the "Hondelle." The application of the discovery, which is said to consist in registering sounds instead of merely conventional signs, will prevent, it is said, the interception of messages and will also simplify the operation of the transmitting and receiving apparatus.

PISTOL PLAY IN NEW YORK STREETS

Two Were Killed and Others Wounded In Chinatown Fighting Over The "Queen"

New York, June 5.—Two more attacks by the gang of fighters who figured in the recent Chinatown gun fight, the shooting of Big Jack Zelig near the Tombs and last night's attempt to assassinate "Chick" Fricker, made the lower east side unsafe for pedestrians early today.

Still pursuing their intended victims relentlessly, the gangs engaged two separate attacks in the hours between midnight and dawn. In the first battle a man, said by the police to be Dick Curley, a referee of boxing matches, was twice fired on from a big automobile. He escaped.

In the second affray a gun fighter succeeded in wounding two men. Three suspects were caught by the police. The wounded men said they were Antonia Anzorio, twenty-four years old and Charles Lewis, twenty-five a salesman. Anzorio had a bullet in his right leg. Lewis was shot in the left hip. Detectives working on the series of fights say that all the troubles are due to the feud over the "queen" that started in Chinatown Monday morning. Bombs, pistols and knives have figured in the fighting. One man was shot yesterday in the Bowery and one was killed in the Bronx.

DERBY WON TODAY BY HUNDRED TO EIGHT SHOT

King George's Horse Was Fourth—Great Throng at the Race

A heavy downpour of rain followed by occasional showers interfered with the day but at noon fine weather was experienced at the track, but with threats of more rain.

On the coaches leaving London, were many Canadians and tourists, including those who come annually to England to see the great race meeting.

The betting early today was Sweeper II the favorite, 12 to 1, with Newman's Jagger at 9 to 1. J. B. Todd's White Star 10 to 1 and the king's Pintadeu 16 to 1.

The crowd was quite up to the usual King George and Queen Mary, and the royal party, were early arrivals and received a tumultuous reception.

Sweeper II did a sharp burst of six furlongs during the morning, showing splendid action, but for some reason the horses were indicated to the disadvantage of the American horse, and the betting lengthened to 100 to 300.

Tudal, owned by W. Ragsdale was a hundred to eight shot. L. Newman's Jagger was eight to one in the betting and August Belmont's Tracey was at sixty-six to one.

Twenty horses started and the time for the race was 2:28 4/5. The winner, Sweeper, II, was never in the running, and finished seventh. The king's entry Pintadeu a sentimental choice that carried a fair chance of success, finished fourth.

Attorney-General Presses Question About His Conduct in Disaster

London, June 5.—J. Bruce Isaacs returned his testimony before the British Board of Trade into the loss of the Titanic today. For the most part his replies were terse expressions such as "I don't know" or "That's outside my province."

Toward the close of the session Sir Rufus Isaacs, the attorney-general, again reverted to the disaster. "You know that you had not boats enough on the Titanic to accommodate all the passengers and crew," asked Sir Rufus.

Duke of Leeds on Visit to the States is One of England's Most Interesting Men of the Aristocracy

The Duke of Leeds, who sailed on the Oceanic to visit America for the first time, though about fifty years old, is perhaps one of the most interesting men belonging to England's highest aristocracy.

The duchess, born Lady Catherine Frances Lambton, of the House of the Earle of Durham, is well known as a writer of pretty novelettes and dainty, if a little mystical, verses.

GOSSIP OF THE STAGE IN LONDON

Playrights Planning Combine Against Managers to Swell Their Profits. MRS. GRUNDY CONSIDERED

"Improper Peter" Becomes "Proper Peter" and There is Hope For Better Box Office Receipts—Sarah Bernhardt's Rush Trip to London for Titanic Benefit (Times Special Correspondence.) London, May 24—There appears to be a growing feeling among dramatists in London that it is about time they gave greater attention to the business aspects of their profession. Many of them, of course, do very well, but they are evidently haunted by the belief that they ought to do much better.

First, there comes the question of royalties, which every writer is left to settle for himself. Clearly a writer of the reputation and position of Pinero, Barrie or even Somerset Maugham can exact conditions infinitely superior to those willingly accepted by beginners. It is argued, however, that as a piece of art does not depend for success upon its author's name, but on its own drawing qualities, all plays should command the same terms.

Such a theory, doubtless, has its defects. Still, an effort is being made to equalize the present condition of things. The task has been undertaken by the dramatic committee of the Society of Authors whose members have drawn up and put into print what probably they consider to be an ideal agreement as between manager and playwright.

A copy lies before me, and I am bound to say the terms are hardly likely to have the approval of writers. But a contract generally accepted it would practically mean that managers would be deprived of large royalties, and hardly a step could be taken by them without first obtaining the sanction of the society.

Need scarcely say that I hold no brief for managers; if anything my sympathies are entirely with the authors. But a constitutional sense of fairness compels me to say that, unless the latter are induced to modify their conditions, they will inevitably create a situation which can only tend to their own destruction.

An instance of the existing unrest I will add this further construction. It appears that there is a scheme afoot, which has already been discovered by Charles Brookfield, the censor. It can only be brief and new, and then, it needs very little capital—three-halves will do. You take your stand near someone who is playing a high and drop your purse, and with enough in it to make a good deal of juggling on the spot. One is not in addition to poke about under tables at Monte Carlo, so you mention your misfortune to an official, who immediately summons assistants with brooms. These will sweep all around where you are standing, and with ordinary luck there is generally a good deal of fallen money on the floor—you will get a nice little pile of silver, and possibly gold coins, in addition to your original three-halves!

It is estimated that burglary in New York city cost $15,878,000 annually by the result of their notorious calling.

AN INALIENABLE SYSTEM. With the Monte Carlo system in full swing, one recalls the "invaluable" system for winning at the tables discovered by Charles Brookfield, the censor.

It can only be brief and new, and then, it needs very little capital—three-halves will do. You take your stand near someone who is playing a high and drop your purse, and with enough in it to make a good deal of juggling on the spot. One is not in addition to poke about under tables at Monte Carlo, so you mention your misfortune to an official, who immediately summons assistants with brooms. These will sweep all around where you are standing, and with ordinary luck there is generally a good deal of fallen money on the floor—you will get a nice little pile of silver, and possibly gold coins, in addition to your original three-halves!

A New Theatre. I have just received the prospectus of a new theatre which is proposed to erect in Shaftesbury avenue, with the title of the Casino. The building is to have a holding capacity of some 700 only. The entertainment will consist of singing and dancing, with the performance of operetta and vaudeville sketches, something, I take it, after the manner of the New Cabaret Theatre Club, which is to be opened in the West End within a few days. The promoters, however, make a frank appeal to the higher social circles; only Bohemians who have particularly refined and fastidious tastes will be welcome. Such places may thrive in Paris, but in an afraid London has no great liking for them, especially by performers that begin at midnight.

This week that wonderful woman, Sarah Bernhardt, has once more furnished us with matter for surprise and delight. On behalf of the Titanic fund, a monster matinee was given, last Tuesday at Covent Garden and nothing would satisfy Bernhardt but that she should cross the Atlantic and contribute to the programme. She started from Paris by the eight o'clock train in the morning, arrived at the theatre about four p. m., and caught the evening mail back to Paris. How many women nearly seventy years of age would care to attempt such a feat?

Beechergren conducted her on to the stage and, although the secretary, she came in her movements, her voice, which she takes to deliver her recitations, rang out with all the pristine force, beauty and tenderness. The famous diva confided to me that she was still suffering from a severe attack of influenza.

It will always be a mystery how she contrives to accomplish such feats, for it is impossible to ignore the fact, when you meet her in private, that age is at length telling upon her.

Tree himself was in high spirits, having had the opportunity of a chat with the king and queen, who occupied a box. Though Bohemian as he is, even Tree is amenable to the influence of royalty. He tells me that he has decided to produce Somerset Maugham's adaptation of Malherbe's "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme" in about three weeks from now. He has not yet determined what his autumn production will be, but, as I have already said, I fancy his choice will eventually fall on the Hungarian play "Prophet Perival."

What's in a Name? Arthur Bourchier, who recently produced at the Garrick a new comedy called "Improper Peter," by Monckton Halls, has suddenly made the discovery that the title has created a strong feeling of resentment among his suburban lady patrons. Perhaps apprehension would be a better word to use than resentment, for the notice of her daughters. Bourchier has suffered materially in consequence. Accordingly Bourchier has decided to change the name of the play to "Prophet Perival."

THE JUNIORS. The St. Rose's Juniors last evening defeated the Fairville Methodists by a score of 10 to 0. The battery for the winners was M. Mullin and M. McKee, and for the losers, D. McKee and H. Hettner. Last night there was no game in the Night Be League on Victoria Square.

mounting is beyond all reproach; it must have cost Courtesie a pretty penny. But the book is woefully dull and the score, although minutely and delightfully artistic, is distinctly wanting in melodic charm. Perhaps I should rather say that it hardly contains a number likely to be whistled in the street or played on the piano-organ. The first night performance was saved only by George Graces, who, aged by an extraordinary series of gaps and up-to-date allusions to keep the audience in good humor. Courtesie, however, is not the man to sit down under rebuff and even now he is hard at work cutting and altering in order to bring the libretto into acceptable shape.

At the moment of closing I have just received a copy of a most amusing squib manufactured by Gerald de Maurier in answer to the dramatist's pronouncement included to it. It is one of the drollest and most unphilosophical documents it has ever been my lot to see. De Maurier has a particularly caustic wit, and when he cares to use it I have only pity for his antagonist. His present efforts will not, of course, meet the eyes of those for whom it is intended. But, granting the possibility of such a thing happening, I would give a good deal to be present when it is brought to the notice of Pinero, Barrie and Bernard Shaw. My present efforts will not, of course, meet the eyes of those for whom it is intended. But, granting the possibility of such a thing happening, I would give a good deal to be present when it is brought to the notice of Pinero, Barrie and Bernard Shaw.

ACCIDENT ON THE TRANSCONTINENTAL

Six Cars Damaged and Five Men Hurt on Line in New Brunswick—Reported Elopement

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., June 5—A serious accident, resulting in five men sustaining injuries occurred on the Transcontinental Railway yesterday, seventeen miles east of McEwen Junction. A construction train, having on board a crew of men who were to engage in concrete work for the Moncton Construction Co., ran into a washout near a curve and jumped the track. Six box cars were piled up and badly damaged.

Austin Swift was pinned beneath the debris and remained there half an hour before being rescued. His arm was broken and he sustained other injuries. Fred Delaney had his head cut, and Wm. Thorne, of Coldbrook, had several ribs broken, while his son, George Thorne, was thrown so heavily into the mud that he had to be pulled out. Thomas R. Campbell was badly cut about the head.

The injured men were brought here last evening and admitted to the hospital. The water in the river has been falling quite rapidly since yesterday.

Fredericton will play the Houston team here tomorrow. Either Lamb or Bats will pitch for Fredericton. Manager Duggan is after four new pitchers.

A St. Mary's woman is reported to have eloped with a man from there. She first mortgaged some property. Since her signature the furniture has been seized under a bill of sale, so the husband now finds himself without home or wife.

THE CROWN LANDS

One of the most important planks in the platform which Mr. A. B. Copp has submitted to the electors of New Brunswick is that which relates to a survey of the crown lands of the province.

That is exactly what Mr. Copp proposes to do, and what the present government has utterly failed to do, although one of its pledges was to have such a survey made.

It will help us to understand more clearly the great need of such a survey in this province if we examine the report by Dr. Fernow of the forest survey of Nova Scotia.

At a convention of lumbermen in Nova Scotia in 1908 he pointed out the importance of such a survey, and in 1909 it was decided to proceed with the work.

"I have no doubt that the cheapness of the proposition made it attractive to the government. I offered to undertake a survey of the 21,000 sq. miles of the country for $40,000.

It must be intensely gratifying to Dr. Pugsley and to his friends to find that the latest effort to besmirch his record has ended as previous ones did in utter and complete failure.

Dr. Fernow in his report describes the method in which the information was secured at a cost of 25c. a sq. mile, a figure which, he says, seems almost a miracle.

But the most striking statement made by Dr. Fernow, and one which proves how important it is not only to have a survey of the crown lands of New Brunswick, but to prevent the cutting of small timber, is his declaration that the present mill capacity of Nova Scotia is capable of exhausting its merchantable timber in twenty years or less, and that it takes 120 years to grow a 12 inch spruce.

Senator Edwards: "Then they had better reduce the mill capacity right away." Dr. Fernow: "If they do not reduce it, it will reduce itself, because the timber will be gone. That is about the impression I would leave. We found that there is twenty years of stock on hand in Nova Scotia.

Natural reproduction will, of course fill some space, but it will not do it as fast as the Nova Scotia lumberman has believed."

Because of this condition of affairs Dr. Fernow urges the necessity of other provinces securing absolute and accurate information about their timber resources. Of course there is more timber in New Brunswick than in Nova Scotia, but if no proper survey of the crown lands is made, and the wasteful methods of the Flemming government are continued, it will not be many years until this province approaches the condition described by Dr. Fernow in regard to Nova Scotia.

Mr. C. M. Lezer was to have addressed a liberal meeting at Irishtown on Monday evening, but owing to bad roads it was found impossible for him to arrive in time. The roads in Moncton parish are said to be the worst in its history.

Dr. PUGSLEY VINDICATED

There has come to the notice of New Brunswick the shock of another great surprise. The first surprise came when Hon. Dr. Pugsley, as Liberal leader, swept the province of New Brunswick in the federal elections of 1908 in face of the most bitter and unscrupulous attacks, and open slanders by his opponents.

The second one came when the late federal government, at the instigation of Hon. Dr. Pugsley, took over the work of building wharves in St. John harbor. They did not think the government would do it.

The third surprise came when the Grand Trunk Pacific purchased a site for its terminals at the head of Courtenay Bay and Hon. Dr. Pugsley prepared plans for harbor development there.

But despite these various heart-breaking experiences, hope still lurked in the tory bosom, and when it was announced that a commission would be appointed to examine carefully into all contracts made by the late government there was an exultant shout that at last Pugsley would be found out.

And now comes the last awful surprise. The commission, of which that high souled patriot Mr. A. B. Morin was the head, until the exposure made by Mr. F. B. Caswell, compelled the government to ask for his resignation, has thoroughly examined all the contracts made by the late minister of public works, and found that Mr. Borden cannot do better than allow the contractors to go on and finish their work.

The saddest part of it all is that the tory contractors, who hoped all contracts would be cancelled and they would get the work to do, must now wait until the present government has contracts of its own to give out.

It must be intensely gratifying to Dr. Pugsley and to his friends to find that the latest effort to besmirch his record has ended as previous ones did in utter and complete failure. He is being viciously attacked and slanders are being repeated from the tory platforms at the present time because he is taking part, as the Liberal leader in New Brunswick, in the provincial campaign.

The virulence of the attacks made upon him is in proportion to the fear with which he is regarded by the tories of this province.

LIBERAL VICTORY COMING

Sunbury and Madawaska nominated strong Liberal candidates yesterday. Only York and Northumberland remain to put tickets in the field in support of Mr. Copp, and these counties will be heard from in a few days.

The Standard this morning says that Mr. Copp's statement about the increase of debt is wholly untrue. Hon. Mr. Maxwell declared last night that "the government had not denied increasing it."

Mr. George B. Jones last night admitted at Westfield that J. P. McAulay was a former employe of Jones Bros., and had then sold some supplies to the government. How about all the other supplies the same McAulay is credited in the accounts with supplying to the government? Mr. Jones must make a fuller explanation.

IF GEORGE HAD BEEN TWIN. The lad had a face bright and sunny and a pair of blue eyes like a girl's, and he had just put an end to the earthly existence of a fine ripe banana, in a manner remarkable for its neatness and despatch. Then he looked up at "daddy" and smiled the inquiring smile which meant trouble for the old man.

"Dad," he said softly, "supposing I'd been twin." Dad shuddered; but it is necessary to describe sometimes. "Well, George," he said, "supposing?" "You'd have bought the other boy a banana, too, wouldn't you? Fact, I don't see how you could have got out of it."

"I should certainly have bought the other boy, as you call him, a banana," said dad, astutely. "Well, dad," said the dear little fellow, "you surely ain't going to cheat me out of a banana 'cos I'm all in one piece, are you?"

POWER FROM REVERSING FALLS WAS HIS THEME

David J. McGrath, in Institute of Technology, Attacked Possibility of Utilizing It

Among the graduates at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology yesterday was David J. McGrath. A report of the proceedings says—

"David James McGrath of West Roxbury attacked in his thesis the possibility of utilizing for power the reversing falls at St. John. Here on account of the relations to the narrow mouth of the river and the tidal wave there is a falls which reverses its direction twice each day. The matter of utilizing tide for power has always been discussed and here the circumstances are peculiar. There is evidently much energy here in the reversing of the falls and it has been Mr. McGrath's study to consider possibilities. The story was illustrated by means of lantern views, from which it is evident that there are two falls—upper and lower—which by simultaneous observations give a head of water of about ten feet.

"The outcome of the investigation is that for the utilization of these falls there would be necessary a channel through soft rock of 1200 feet in length and there might then be used a turbine or an air-compressor of the bubble type. In competition with power now in use Mr. McGrath questions whether these falls will be useful and profitable till coal and river powers are passing. This thesis was the outcome of several weeks of study last summer.

"The thesis presented by Kenneth Cahill Robinson of Rosinville at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology commencement exercises in Huntington Hall on Tuesday last had for its subject one of the recent lines in which conservation manifests itself, in the proper consideration of timber. The special field which Mr. Robinson has investigated is what is termed, dry rot, a fungus effect which weakens the timber. Although very much construction has by no means passed, wood is often more resistant than steel. It is true, however, that wood is subject to the little investigated injury caused by fungi which are really in the nature of infectious disease. Lantern views showed how insidious the workings of the fungus while dormant for a long while may suddenly develop. It is a real problem to determine whether and to what extent timber is affected. In a series of experiments with southern pine Mr. Robinson discovered that sound timber will absorb but little water, and this increases as the timber becomes rotted. The absorption of water, therefore, affords an index of the condition of the timber.

CHATTY NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM

Florence Roberts an actress who had many admirers in St. John during frequent engagements while playing in support of her late husband, Lewis Morrison in "Pansy" and other successes has met with great success in the west.

Miss Roberts has attained a position as a producer on the Pacific coast similar to that enjoyed in the east by Mrs. Pike, and for a period of five years she starred in plays produced jointly by David Belasco and herself. During recent years, however, she has appeared in a number of John Cort's successes, and it is under his management that she is planning to produce a new play early in 1913.

"It is a curious fact," said Miss Roberts to a reporter, "that my vaudeville tour which I expect to interrupt my tour during July long enough to produce the play for one week at Belasco's theatre, the Alcazar, that city. My vaudeville tour will extend into December, and some time in January I expect to launch the new play in New York city. It is modern drama dealing with the tragic possibilities of hospital life, and I anticipate that my role as a trained nurse will give me excellent opportunities."

Paul Gilmore and company, travelling in motor cars, have proven the experiment so successful that Manager H. E. Stahler announces that the firm will put on four next season five theatrical companies, all travelling in autos. Mr. Gilmore will donate a percentage of receipts to the good road cause.

When played in St. John some years ago Chester deVonde raised quite a discussion by announcing that he would present a sensational drama, "The Great Medical Mystery," in the Opera House, and that all timid people should remain away. He is still doing the same thing in the states, or has been up to recently, and though the idea is rather shop-worn, namely warning patrons to keep away from a play in order to avoid their interest and curiosity, he has been drawing large crowds. In Camden, N. J., recently he was fatally injured while presenting this piece. Those who recall the piece will remember that in the course of the play Paul Webster, who plays the physician in the second act, drove water into the eye of DeVonde, who is supposed to be suffering from the bite of a vampire. Through an error, carbolic acid was used, and as a result Mr. DeVonde is in the Cooper Hospital, where it is feared that his right eye will be permanently injured.

The New York Hippodrome is said to have cleared more than a quarter of a million dollars with "Around the World." The management foretells a bigger and more brilliant show for next season.

Joseph Grimmer, an actor favorably recalled in St. John, who is now the Shepherd of the Lamb, said, on the night they had their entertainment in New York that the club expects to clear $100,000 on the 1912 all-star jambal, and when one stopped to look about the house, his contented prediction is rather shop-worn. Another feature of Mr. Grimmer's speech was the sale of a single automobile for $100,000. He stated that the last year's programme was purchased for $200 by the Henry Merritt.

The theatrical members taking part are well and pleasantly remembered in St. John, among them, Ed Bryant, Robert Mansfield, James O'Neill, Dustin Diamond, Wm. Farran and William Courtleigh.

Malloy, ever ready to gossip, says that Paderewski has declined even to smile upon Africa again because during his last tour in that benighted country, a disgruntled citizen wrote a caustic letter about his mediocrity to the Pretoria News. The aforesaid citizen inquired why anybody should pay homage or money to the Polish pianist simply because he could play the piano. This patron of the arts had recently seen another artist who had mastered seventeen other instruments, including the jewsbarg—besides the piano. Consequently the writer entertained no exacting opinion of Paderewski's value to the world.

Since her return to Paris, Madame Simeone has been saying something of the things about the United States. To the French reporters, she remarked: "I find myself making my own self if I would not rather live over there than here. Life in New York is so free, so inspiring to work so bright, so lively; its atmosphere so pure, so filled with sparkling sunshine, even in winter; society there is so cordial, the women are so considerate, one gets into a veritable passion for work at top speed, one feels lifted up, forced to do one's best. Here one is tempted to lie in bed half the day; there such temptation doesn't exist, one wants to be up, stirring, working all the time. It is in the atmosphere. It is in the hearts of the people, since one is never so happy as when working. I ask myself if these twenty-five weeks I spent in New York were not happier than any I ever spent in Europe."

London cables state that Oscar Hammerstein has intimated that he will dispose of his London Opera House in about six weeks, the reason being that there are not enough moneyed patrons of opera in London to support the venture.

Percy Haswell is making another fine impression in Toronto. She opened a season last week to big houses with a new company.

An unusual combination is that of proprietor, scenic writer, and leading man, but Gilbert M. Anderson is able to fill all the parts. He is secretary and one of the principal stockholders of the Essanay Film Company, directs the Los Angeles studio, and plays most of the leading parts. Mr. Anderson was formerly on the regular stage. At the very beginning of the dramatic picture business he became a director of the Vitagraph Company, leaving it to organize with George K. Spoor, the Essanay Film Company. That name, by the way, is another spelling for "S and A." Spoor and Anderson. For the last three years Mr. Anderson has been in charge of the Los Angeles studio, playing leads and writing most of the stories. Wigenhals and Kemper have re-entertained Henry Kolker for the title-roles of "The Greyhounds," which he has already played more than 100 times in Chicago and more than 200 times in the Astor Theatre, New York. It requires the largest baggage car

CANADA'S PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Some Criticism in "Builder," a British Trade Paper

(Times Special Correspondence)

London, May 21—The future development of Ottawa is dealt with in this month's "Builder." Speaking of the natural beauty of its situation, the writer states that "while not rivaling Quebec, perhaps, in the scale and grandeur of its natural setting, Ottawa has a unique charm and distinctive character of her own which at all costs should be preserved. No capital city in Europe, with the possible exception of Budapest, has finer natural advantages or more romantic possibilities, and it would be nothing short of a disaster if the most is not made of such a magnificent opportunity.

"It is, we believe, rather the custom in Canada to hold that the country is too busy in other directions, and is not yet rich enough to undertake great town planning schemes, but that later on, with more leisure and more wealth, they could be dealt with to greater advantage. If, however, we are to judge from the experience of this country, Canada will never be better able to afford them. Here such schemes are considered impossible because of the enormous value of the land and vested interests concerned, and it is customary to lament the fact that they were not carried out long ago when the land was cheaper and when, presumably, the country was poorer."

Some interesting things are said about public buildings produced by the Government Department of Public Works. "We do not believe in departmental art, here or elsewhere. If in this country the most that can be said for the best of such productions is that they are indifferently good, the most that can be said for the best of those produced in Canada is that they are indifferently bad. The worst are simply deplorable. This is not the fault of the officials, but of the system. "Although it might be possible to improve the standard of work by thoroughly reorganizing the department and offering salaries that would attract first-rate men, there is not the slightest doubt that the system is inherently vicious and that the government would be well advised to make a clean sweep of it and give all public work to the most competent architects in the domain.

"If a town-planning commission is to succeed it needs a free hand and undisturbed authority. The creation of such a commission would seem to be a good opportunity for closing the department and conducting the architectural affairs of the state by more efficient and up-to-date methods."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
The first degree was excellently conferred by Past Grand Master Charles A. Fyres and staff on several candidates at a meeting of St. John Council K. C. last evening. Afterwards an impromptu programme was enjoyed, including a cleverly given recitation by Fred J. Hogan of Montreal.

LANCASTER WON
On the golf links in Carleton last evening the Lancasters were victorious when they defeated the Stars in a five inning game by a score of 5 to 4. Steers and Scott were the battery for the winners. The Thistles, who were formerly the Bulldogs, will play against the Lancasters this evening.

FREE CARS FOR VISITORS
Among the other attractions for visitors during the Back to New Brunswick week an attractive feature has been arranged through the generosity of the St. John Railway Company. The company has promised to put two special cars at the disposal of the visitors free of charge, for one morning in the week and will run them all around the city to give the occupants a good opportunity to see the city. The cars will be specially decorated for the occasion.

WINTER HERE ON FRIDAY
The baseball situation remains unchanged today. George Winter, the new playing manager, will arrive here on Friday at noon and will probably figure in Friday afternoon's game. Joe Farbell and his brother have left Burlington, Vermont, and are now on their way here. The Marshalls will go to Woodstock tomorrow, and the Woodstock team will come here on Friday to play two games with the Greys, one on Saturday afternoon.

RIVER TRIP FOR BRITISHERS
Notice has been given that the party of British business men who are to tour Canada will be the guests of the New Brunswick government on Friday, June 14. The steamer May Queen has been chartered to convey them from St. John to Fredericton and will leave Indiantown at eight a. m. Saturday morning. The party will be accompanied by J. R. McCloskey, Jr. and others. A short programme of entertainment will be given during the trip. Luncheon will be served on board.

AT BEN LOMOND
Those who took part in the amateur production of Men and Women at the Opera House last evening were hosts to the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society at a dinner in the Ben Lomond House last night. There were more than forty present. After dinner, a very enjoyable musical and literary programme was carried out, and the evening was most enjoyable. Speeches were made by F. J. Casey, J. R. McCloskey, Jr. and others. A short programme of entertainment was also given. The party returned to the city early this morning.

DOKEYS HAD BIG TIME
The Dokey ceremonial in Keith's suite last evening was a huge success. A large class of tyros was put through a course of weird Arabian acts to a queer commingling of emotions. At midnight the whole party in full regalia repaired to the Nickel theatre quarters upstairs where a musical, vaudeville and memorial programme was put on, concluding with a merry song revue. The Nickel orchestra, Miss Margaret Pearson, George Coffin and others took part. A feature of the bill was the dancing bear act of Signor Walli Macklen and his chimpanzee pet, Frank. After the theatricals, etc., the banquet was held downstairs. There was not much time left for sleeping when the Dokeys started for home.

THE KING STREET BURGLAR

Three days have passed now since the bold daylight robbery and holdup took place in the store of C. & E. Everett in King street, and the guilty culprit has not been apprehended. It is still a matter of doubt as to whether he has left town, or is still hiding in the city. Mr. Smith, a brother of one of the men who was held up, happened to be at Coldbrook, on Monday night, and he says that a man, answering somewhat to the description of the hold-up man, asked him about the train. He later saw the man repeating on a freight car bound east. Another rumor is to the effect that both Mr. Smith and Mr. Doherty, the two men who were "entertained" at some length by the burglar, saw going in King street on Monday afternoon a man whom they were almost positive was the burglar.

The police have found the boots which were left behind by the burglar. They were in Thorne & Co.'s store. It has now been discovered that the burglar took a revolver, cartridges and several watches from the sporting goods department of Messrs. Thorne.

TODAY'S POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning Jane White, a middle aged woman, arrested on charge of wandering about in Brussels street and not giving a satisfactory account of herself, was remanded. One prisoner charged with drunkenness was fined $4 or ten days in jail.

Edwin Tracy, reported for washing windows in Joseph Wiesel's store in Union street during the hours contrary to law, was fined $2. The fine was allowed to stand.

The case against H. J. Fleming reported for driving an unlicensed car in the city, and also against William Lobb for acting as a chauffeur without a license, were allowed to stand over until tomorrow morning.

Meyer Budovitch, reported for encumbering the sidewalk in Pond street with junk, was fined $8. J. W. Morrison and Frederick Kinsman, reported for having defective conductors on their houses, were told that they would have to see to the matter at once.

Most of the meat dealers who have been reported to the court for doing business in the city without a license, have taken out the necessary papers and it is not likely that their cases will come before the court.

DOG SHOW IS TO BE HELD IN SEPTEMBER

Increased Interest Expected as Canadian Club Has Raised Local Exhibition to Two Point Show

St. John is to have a dog show again this year and exhibiting week is the time chosen and the Queen's Rink the place. The decision was reached at a meeting of the N. B. Kennel Club held last evening in the office of Vermer McLellan, the club's hustling secretary. In the absence of the chairman, Geo. J. Allen, vice-president presided.

This year's show will be either three or four days in the week, beginning on September 2. It will be held under the auspices of the Canadian Kennel Club and will be what is known as a two point show, in contrast with those of other years, which were but one point shows. This means that winners at the show of next fall will count two points towards a championship whereas in last year's exhibition only one point could be scored. The double scoring this year means much more general interest, and especially an influx of exhibitors from outside places.

The recently formed New Glasgow Kennel Club intends to send some dogs here to compete, and there will likely be entries from Montreal and other Upper Canadian cities.

It is planned on having two judges of experience come here to decide on the qualifications of the animals shown. The double judging system of last show was very satisfactory and is expected to be again. There will also be some new features. Three prizes are to be given for decoration of stalls—one for a single stall, one for double and one for a stall with three or more dogs. This will give the single exhibitor a chance as well as those engaging the larger spaces.

The meeting last night, which was very enthusiastic, left to the president the appointment of a committee to carry on the show.

WOODWORKING FACTORY BOUGHT

W. E. Lawton Purchases Property Near Fairville — Other Transactions

The woodworking factory formerly operated by Atkins Bros., near Fairville, on the C. P. R., has been purchased by W. E. Lawton from the assignees. The property includes 348 feet on the C. P. R., 170 feet in Hill street, and the factory itself is 133 feet in depth with a frontage of fifty feet. The factory is well equipped with machinery, and is thought that with careful management it could be successfully operated. It has a brick residence attached and thoroughly up-to-date. There is quite a quantity of lumber about the premises. Mr. Lawton, purchaser, has been in the employ of Hilliard Bros. for the last six years, and previous to that was with Sayre & Holley. It is understood that Mr. & Pateson may not erect their new building on the Short property in Union street for two or three years yet, as the lease of their present premises has still several years to run. Among the property transfers recorded during the last few days are the following:—

E. Frazer et al to The Anglo-Canadian Investment Co., Ltd., of Montreal, property in Union and Waterloo streets.

Hon. J. V. Ellis to Mrs. J. V. Ellis, property in Lanark.

Mrs. Margaret L. Hogan to Mrs. Philip Grannan, property in Main street.

A. F. Bentley & Son, Ltd., to A. E. Lair, $100, property in St. Martin's.

RAILWAY COMMISSION MEMBERS WERE IN CITY THIS MORNING

In the private case Arcadia, attached to the Atlantic express at noon, there arrived in the city today D'Arcy Scott and Dr. Mills, of the Dominion Railway Commission, with R. Richardson, secretary, and F. J. Agnew, official reporter, coming from Montreal. They left again on the Point du Chene express going to Nova Scotia, where they will spend a few days at Windsor in connection with reports concerning some crossings near that place.

Mr. Scott is acting as chairman of the commission at present. There was much speculation, Dr. Mills said, as to who would be the next chairman, but it was difficult to tell. He said he would like to see Hon. Mr. Hanna take the position.

COMMISSIONERS TAKE UP WORK IN STREETS

Will Continue Use of Oil, But With New Sprinkling Device

The city commissioners met at noon today to take up matters connected with the department of public works. The commissioners favor the continuance of the use of oil in the streets and discussed the advisability of purchasing new devices for sprinkling the oil. The device favored can be attached to the watering carts and thus save the cost of new carts. It was also decided to proceed as rapidly as possible with the work of filling up the holes in some of the streets and with the repairs to the sidewalks. The latter work has been delayed owing to the lack of asphalt, and some of the commissioners are inclined to blame the old council for not having ordered a stock of this material when they knew how long it takes to secure it.
