BY 10-YEAR-OLD
SAVES 3 LIVES

Dinghy at Blue Rock, N. S., Upsets and Two Are Drowned

NEAR SHORE

Fatality Makes Total of 8 for Settlement, 6 Being on "Sylvia Mosher"

LUNenburg, N. S., Aug. 17.—Two young men were drowned and three others owe their lives to the prompt action of a ten-year-old boy, Elsworth Greek, who went to their assistance in a dory when their dinghy overturned at a point 50 yards from shore at Blue Rock, near here last night.

Fenton Mosher had a group of four out for a trip in his motor boat, his eight-year-old nephew being one of the party. When they returned to the mooring buoy at 6 o'clock, all five entered a small dinghy being used as a tender. In some way it overturned. Fenton Weaver, 26, and Currie Greek, 28, set out at once to swim to shore, while the three others clung to the overturned boat.

SWIMMERS COLLAPSED

The two swimmers had not gone far before they collapsed in the water and disappeared. Mosher, his nephew and Heik, the fifth person in the party, sought for help, and were answered by ten-year-old Elsworth who was dragging fish on a nearby wharf. He sprang into a dory and paddled to the overturned dinghy, where with great difficulty he managed to get the almost exhausted trio into the rescue boat. Mosher was in a critical condition from swallowing salt water, but was said this morning to be out of danger. The bodies of the drowned men were recovered last evening.

The double drowning of last night made a total of eight young men of the Blue Rocks settlement to be lost in the past fortnight, six others having been members of the ill-fated Sylvia Mosher, Lunenburg fishing schooner, lost near Sable Island a week ago.

ARTILLERY MEN HERE REGARDING ANNUAL

ARE OFFICERS OF MOST FAMED MILITARY BODY

Trio Belong to Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co. OLD GRAVES HERE CONTAIN KINDRED Visitors Are Impressed With City Attractions; Will Go to Montreal

LIKE the biblical characters sent to spy out the Land of Canaan, Major Charles A. Malley, Captain Commander; First Lieutenant Paul O. Curtis, Second Lieutenant Harry E. Gleason and Adjutant Henry D. Cormerais of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, the most distinctive military body in the American Union and a sister organization to one of the same name in England, arrived in the city by boat yesterday and are stopping at the Admiral Beatty Hotel. The errand of these officers is the fulfillment of a regulation which demands that the next annual meeting place of the company be personally inspected by the leading executives and reported made at a full meeting subsequently.

Therefore upon the description to be submitted by the aforementioned officers as pertaining to Saint John, its attractive features, hotel accommodations, historic connections and the quality of its hospitality—with Montreal as an alternative proposition—will rest the decision of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery governing their pilgrimage in early October. Should the vote of the Company favor this city, Saint John will be in line for one of the most colorful visitations ever made to the Maritime Provinces—a party numbering from 250 to 335 American citizens occupying positions high in the business, professional, military and social life of the nation. They will come in their famous ten-bucket helmets and picturesque uniforms of the 1812 period, though according to the rules of the Company, a member justly entitled to wear military habiliments of later issues may appear on parade so dressed.

CHANCES GOOD. None of the officers now in the city would be untruthful enough in an interview granted a Times-Star reporter to give expression to any opinion they might hold concerning the altitudes of Saint John or its suitability to the purposes of their organization. This information is only for the ears of the Company assembled at headquarters in historic Faneuil Hall, Boston, known in historic parlance over the boundary as "The Cradle of Liberty." Major Malley and his comrades were kind enough, however, to say that during their brief stay in the city they had already seen and heard drumhead election of officers in the springtime in full view of the public on Boston Common and at which the government of the state—always an ex-officio command—formally inducts the new staff. The fall field day is a pilgrimage and already the distinguished body has visited nearly every interesting point on the North American continent. Outside places such as England, Bermuda and Cuba have enjoyed their visits also. Canadian places already visited have included Quebec City, Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal. A solid train or a steamer is exclusively engaged for such trips and the body of men—citizens of affluence and distinction—spare neither expense nor trouble to ensure every comfort and luxury.

DISTINCTIVE BODY. Outside some of the old and illustrious regiments of the mother countries of British people or on the mainland of Europe, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery is perhaps the world's most distinctive military organization, its charter dating back to 1588, an offspring of the original Honorable Artillery Company of London, England, instituted just one hundred years previously with Captain Robert Keyne as the Nestor of the old training school for officers. The original name for the organization was simply "The Artillery Company," but after the American Revolution, the colonial branch of the London body preferred the name of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery, which has been the name ever since.

ARISTOCRATIC COMPANY. Therefore the Ancient and Honorable Artillery has grown to be an aristocratic body in military annals. Adhering to its original formation as a Company, its highest ranking officer is merely a Captain, although generals, colonels and other high dignitaries in regular military circles are included in its ranks and glad to accept subaltern stripes in so distinguished an organization. The Company is divided into wings, the infantry wing bearing rifles, the artillery wing bearing sabres. It is an interesting fact that at the present time the Adjutant is not less a personage than the Inspector-General of the military forces of the State, Lieut. Colonel Henry D. Cormerais, a wounded hero of the late war. The King of England, the President of the United States, and two American generals are honorary members, while Vice-President Davies is a private in the ranks. He sought membership to extend, as it were, the lineal descent of his famous ancestor Paul Revere, who for twenty years was secretary of the Company in Boston. Lieutenant-governors of the American Union, Senators and eminent Americans throughout the Union are included in the membership of nearly 800. One of the earlier commanders was General Winslow, who allied himself on the side of the Loyalist body at the time of the American Revolutionary War and came to New Brunswick to cast in his lot with those who would not strike a blow against the flag of Old England.

WILL MEET THE MAYOR. The officers of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery now in the city were visited at the hotel by Lieut.-Col. George Keefe, of the 62nd Fusiliers, Lieut.-Col. Norman MacLeod, other military officers and some leading citizens, all of whom naturally bent every effort to win the claims of this city as the convention place for the Company's October trip. Today the Bostonians will be received by Mayor White at City Hall and receive their public attention at the hands of the local officials.

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED. The party is being personally conducted by W. N. Bennett, of the Passenger Department of the American Express Company. Mr. Bennett has for the last five years personally looked

HOAX OVER BODY OF LORD KITCHENER STIRRING ENGLAND

Empty Coffin Proves Great Surprise; Police Seek Author PAPERS CONDEMN ACT AS GHOULISH Declare Perpetration of Deed as Repugnant to Decent Feeling

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The British nation, in the midst of a week of a particularly unpleasant character, when the investigation of the hoax of a body of the late British Field Marshal Lord Kitchener, was empty. Frank Power, a British newspaper man, was responsible for the story that he had found Kitchener's body in Norway, which he brought to London and delivered at the Waterloo station.

OFFICIALS PRESENT. Officials from the Home Office and Coroner Oddie were present when the case was opened this morning with great secrecy, and shortly afterwards the Home Office issued the following statement: "The packing case, alleged to contain a coffin and human body, which on Saturday night was removed by the police from an undertaker's on Waterloo Road, to the Lambeth Coroner's Court, was this morning opened in the presence of a jury consisting of the Hon. Sir Bernard Spilbury (noted pathologist). The packing case was found to contain an empty coffin. The coffin was new and obviously had not contained a human body."

MYTH EXPLODED. The government recently made public a detailed statement which had convinced a majority of the people of the groundlessness of many of the published Kitchener myths. But such myths have been accepted as facts and certain doubts respecting the fact of the national hero. These doubts are now being set at rest after today's revelations.

In the meantime the police are looking for the author of the hoax, which seems, for the time being, at any rate, to have disappeared. Power's name is mentioned in his Arthur Vee's Freeman, and he is said to have been a student of criminology at the University of Glasgow.

POWER SURPRISED. Frank Power, who brought to London the case alleged to contain the body of Lord Kitchener, declared in a statement to a Press Association representative tonight that naturally he was very surprised to read that the coffin within the case was empty and wished that he had been present.

THE HAD BEEN PRESENT. The Scotland Yard officers, he went on, informed him that he would not be wanted today and that he could keep an appointment in the country. He was very sorry they did not want him and decided to keep the appointment, but before he went he visited the Lambeth Mortuary and tried to get in. The authorities, however, ignored his request to be present.

after the routing and the tours of the Artillery Company and has conducted them in their celebration trips to Cuba, Washington, Montreal and up the Saguenay River. Mr. Bennett is an old countryman by birth but served during the war in the Canadian forces, to use his own words, "as a buck private in the machine gunners."

SHIPMENTS OF CATTLE NOT SO MANY IN AUGUST

Cattle shipments from Montreal, Saint John and Halifax to the United Kingdom this month, in point of numbers of boats to carry the live stock have dropped to their lowest figure for any month this year, and are eleven less than the August shipments last year.

Eighteen vessels were originally scheduled to take cattle from Canadian Atlantic ports to England, Scotland and Wales, but two of these were cancelled, the Carina and Salica. In August last year there were 28 sailings of cattle boats from the Atlantic ports of the Dominion, fifteen of these being from Montreal. Last month May, when there were 21 sailings, and June came second with only 18.

So far this month, three steamers have sailed from Montreal with cattle and one from Saint John, the latter being the Winona County, of the Oriole Lines (American) for Liverpool. The Montreal sailings were the Manchester Brigade for Manchester, Moveria for Liverpool and Concordia for Glasgow. Including the Devonian, leaving Halifax, August 16, for Liverpool, the following are scheduled for the rest of August: Aug. 18—Manchester Corporation, Manchester Line, Montreal to Manchester. Aug. 19—Gracia, Donaldson Line, Montreal to Liverpool. Aug. 21—West Noska, Oriole Lines, Saint John to Liverpool. Aug. 22—Manchester Hero, Manchester Line, Montreal to Manchester. Aug. 23—Canadian Commander, G. M. M., Montreal to Cardiff. Aug. 28—Huronian, Leyland Line, Montreal to Liverpool. Aug. 29—Kearney, Oriole Lines, Saint John to Liverpool.

TOUR OF EUROPE IS TOLD OF BY SAINT JOHN MAN

W. A. Steiper Returns After Visit to British Isles and Continent

W. A. Steiper, local auctioneer, has returned home after an extended tour of England and the continent, during which he visited all the large cities and other places of interest. Speaking yesterday of his observations of commercial conditions in the countries which he visited, Mr. Steiper said that in England the protracted coal strike is having a depressing influence on business and is leading to the curtailment and in some cases to the closing down of several industries, the public, however, he says, are quietly making the best of the situation and are waiting with patience and confidence for the settlement of the strike.

In France, he states, the people are highly excited and much concerned over the uncertainty surrounding the falling value of the franc. In Belgium business, he claims, is being done under somewhat discouraging conditions with much uncertainty prevailing.

IN ITALY. Mr. Steiper says that in Italy the methods adopted by Premier Mussolini are producing most remarkable results and the Italian people seem possessed of more confidence and working longer and harder than for some years. He stated conditions in Switzerland as prosperous and thriving. Germany as a nation has settled down to work. The population, he says, complain considerably about taxation but are working steadily.

Mr. Steiper says that Monaco with its Monte Carlo, surrounded with all its gorgeous glories and splendor, is going at top speed. Holland is experiencing a boom in business. Every body seems busy, contented and happy. There are more than 45,000 new buildings in the course of erection there, Mr. Steiper says, this year.

Scotland, while feeling the effects of the coal strike, is prospering steadily. While there he placed a small spray of French roses on each 20th grave and on some of the other Canadian grave plots also.

Mr. Steiper says that he enjoyed the tour immensely and is feeling very fit after his trip.

CATCHES 500 CROWS AT A TIME. As means of exterminating crows, Jack Miner, internationally known for his feats in attracting wild geese and ducks to his Kinrossville, Ontario, home, has invented a crow trap by which he has caught more than 500 crows at one time. All the birds necessary was to know more than the crows do. Mr. Miner explained. His efforts were directed to Western Canada where he saw the ineffective methods of the farmers there to combat the birds.

The coldest temperature on record—500 degrees below freezing point, Fahrenheit, was registered recently in a scientific laboratory. Von Hindenburg's salary as president is about $12,000 a year.

POEMS

"Song from a Drama," by E. C. Steadman.

EDMUND CLARENCE STEADMAN had done nothing else, he would be remembered as the editor of "An American Anthology."

GOOD MORNING.

Two foot jacksays say: "Get this dope, We're tied together with a piece of rope."

"I won't," said the other. "You come with me, For I, too, have some hay, you see."

And, oh, by golly! that rope did hurt!

Then they faced about, these stubborn mules.

And said: "We're just like human fools; Let's put together, I'll go your way."

Then you come with me, and we'll both eat hay."

Well, they ate their hay, and they liked it, too.

And swore to be comrades, good and true.

As the sun went down they were heard to say,

"Ah, this is the end of a perfect day."

Now, get this lesson, don't let it slip!

STONE ALMANACS TELL OF CIVILIZATION OF ANCIENT MAYAS

DISCOVERIES MADE TELL OF EARLY HISTORY

Findings May Solve Riddle Regarding These People

By HERBERT MOORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 17—Almanacs of stone discovered at the ruins of the ancient Maya city of Coba in Yucatan show that the Maya occupation of Yucatan took place at least a century and a quarter earlier than supposed, according to statements made by Dr. Sylvanus Morley, director of the Carnegie Institute excavation expedition.

It is now fairly certain that the ancient Maya had begun to colonize the peninsula during the early part of the fourth century, A. D., rather than at the close of the fifth century as native accounts indicate. The discovery is expected to lead to startling results in the Yucatan puzzle.

During May two members of the expedition operating at Chichen Itza in northern Yucatan, plunged through 40 miles of the tropical jungle lying to the southeast of the modern city of Valladolid and came upon a raised stone terrace, several acres in extent, marking the site of the ancient city of Coba.

In the centre of this terrace stood a magnificent stone monument, 10 feet high and 4 feet wide, elaborately sculptured on all four sides, with figures of rulers and their slaves and columns of hieroglyphics. This discovery led to the finding of seven other similar monuments nearby.

The discovery is especially significant because of the fact that never before in Yucatan has more than a single monument ever been found at a single site. In northern Guatemala, in what is known as the "Old Empire region" of the Maya, some hundred miles southwest, groups of monuments have been located.

Dr. Morley deciphered these monuments and found that the Mayas used a system of calendar chronology which is amazingly accurate within a period of 374,000 years which, he said, "is a remarkable achievement for any people whether ancient or modern. Hence the name of almanacs have been applied to the monuments.

Although nothing is known of the origin of the Mayas, who possessed the highest aboriginal civilization of the New World, it has been definitely ascertained that these people emerged from barbarism in the first ten centuries before Christ.

During the six centuries after Christ, the Mayas developed an immense population and built a number of great cities extending from the Gulf of Mexico to the Bay of Honduras. Then, for some inexplicable reason, these cities were abandoned and millions of people moved westward, northward and eastward into Yucatan.

Archaeologists are confident that the riddle of the Mayas will be solved when all the hieroglyphics on the monuments are completely deciphered and studied. Excavation work will be resumed this fall when the season of rain period ends, Dr. Morley said, predicting startling discoveries for the coming year.

COMMISSION AT AMHERST

Royal Probe Hears Two Witnesses at Nova Scotia Centre

AMHERST, Aug. 16—Brief evidence was taken here today by the Royal Commission, Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, chairman, Judge Wallace and Professor MacMillan, spent the greater part of the afternoon visiting local industries and ascertaining reasons why many of the leading ones were in idleness and virtually abandoned. In a brief statement made before manufacturers and business men of the town, Sir Andrew expressed astonishment at the diversified manufacturing operations that had existed.

The only evidence of length presented before the commission was that given by D. W. Robb, of the Robb Engineering Company. Mr. Robb traced the growth and decline of this industry over a period of 50 years.

FATE OF FACTORY. He referred in particular to the manufacture of tractors commenced here some years ago, stating that the factory was forced to suspend this work through a decrease in duties between Canada and the United States, and an increase in freight rates. Mr. Robb stated that while 600 men were employed at their plant up until 1920, only 50 men were on the payroll today. The majority of the men, highly skilled mechanics, having moved to the United States.

POPULATION DROPS. Mayor Biden, in calling attention to the industrial condition of the town, declared that in 1921 the population of Amherst was ten thousand, and that today it was only 7,000. He added that these citizens were all willing to return providing they could secure fitting employment. The mayor told the commission that Amherst was in a similar position to that of other towns in Nova Scotia, and that nothing new could be added to the brief already presented before the Royal Commission.

PORT OF QUEBEC HARBOR FIGURES

The Quebec Harbor Commission issued a report yesterday showing that 392,910 tons of goods had been received during the month of July and 385,504 tons shipped, showing a decrease of 60,000 tons from July, 1925. Fifty British vessels arrived in port during the month and 53 sailed. During the month 1,208,028 bushels of wheat were shipped from the port. The business of the cold storage warehouse shows an increase of 40 per cent over the respective month last year.

STILL CHANCE TO GET ON VOTERS' LIST

Judge J. A. Barry to Hear Applicants Between August 24 and 30

The preparatory compilation of the lists of eligible voters in the various polling divisions of the constituency of Saint John-Albert was completed by the registrars on Saturday, according to a statement made by Hon. John A. Barry, Judge of the County Court, revising officer for the constituency, last night. Judge Barry said that these lists, which were based on the lists of those eligible to cast a ballot in the last provincial election, will be posted in the different polling stations soon. Those whose names do not appear on the lists should apply to Judge Barry between August 24 and August 30. If their names are not already on the lists, Judge Barry will see that this is done as soon as he is satisfied of the voting eligibility of the applicant.

SEE LISTS, IS ADVICE. The Judge remarked last night that doubtless several people who had moved since May 1 would fail to see their names on the lists posted in the wards in which they are residing at the present time. He said it would be advisable for these people to glance at the lists posted in the headquarters of the ward from which they had removed before applying to him as this would save a great deal of unnecessary trouble. Judge Barry said that the entire list of names will be examined by him between August 30 and September 2. They will then be submitted to the printers. Each political party will be given 48 copies of the lists in order that their workers may have them for reference.

FINED $200. Perre Leclair, charged with keeping overstrength beer in his beer shop, was fined $200 by Magistrate Henderson in the police court yesterday afternoon.

MAN IS KILLED IN OWN OFFICE

Was W. J. Antonio Beaudry, Publisher of "Le Prix Courant"

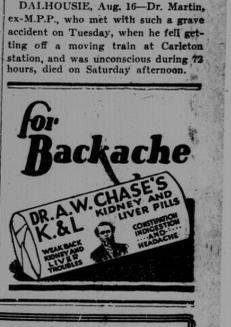

MONTREAL, Aug. 16—J. Antonio Beaudry, 49, well known Montreal business man and publisher of Le Prix Courant, a Montreal weekly review, was found shot to death in his office today. It was at first thought that he had died a natural death but an examination at the morgue led to the discovery of a bullet in his back. Medical evidence showed that Beaudry had been dead since Saturday. A revolver out of which one shot had been fired was found in the pocket of a coat identified as his hanging on a hook in the office. The police were informed that the revolver belonged to the dead man. No clue as to who did the shooting was found by the police, who are now certain that the shooting could not have been done by Beaudry. There were no signs of a fight and no blood on the victim's chair.

Joseph Antonio Beaudry was born in Richelieu, Rouville county, Quebec, on Dec. 8, 1877. He was proprietor and editor of Le Prix Courant which has offices at 198 Notre Dame street east. He was one of the organizers of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, 1904-17. Mr. Beaudry ran unsuccessfully for a place on the city board of control in 1914 and 1916. Mr. Beaudry was a past president of the Club St. Denis, being replaced recently by the Hon. Athanas David. He was a member of the Montreal Club, the Montreal Reform Club, the Laval Sur Le Lac Golf Club, the National Amateur Athletic Club and the Inter-Allied Club of Paris, France. In politics he was a Liberal.

Why Do Men Expect the Girls They Marry to Become Totally Different After the Ceremony?—Why Do Young Men, Living With Widowed Mothers, Seldom Marry?—The Girl Whose Fiance is Not Tall Enough.

DEAR MISS DIX—Before my marriage my husband was so kind and considerate of me and never criticized my little faults. You see, I am a real flapper. But now when I act kitchen and flapperish it makes him furious. What shall I do? Must I make myself over? Why does he want to change me? A FLAPPER WIFE.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER: My dear child, why men pick out a wife for one thing and after they are married want her to be the opposite thing is one of the mysteries of the masculine psychology that nobody can solve. It just is, that's all.

You think that an ordinarily sane man, with the common, or garden variety, of intelligence, would select a woman to marry who had the qualities that he most desired. You would think that a man who wanted a domestic wife would look about him until he found a girl who was a blue-ribbon cook, that he would pop the question to her and that they would live happily ever after, surrounded by the savory odors from things roasting and stewing. But he does no such thing. He marries a girl who hasn't even a speaking acquaintance with the kitchen range and then he knocks her because the bread is heavy and the meat is burned.

You would think that a cultivated man, with literary tastes, would pick out a college graduate for a wife, and that they would have a grand time discussing high-brow stuff together of an evening. On the contrary, he marries one of the beautiful but dumb, and to his amazement he is bored to tears.

You would think that the man who wants a quiet, dignified wife, who will be a freestone companion to him, would select a girl who took a serious view of life and whose tastes were domestic. Instead, he falls for a girl who likes to jazz and run around to cabarets, who paints her face and rolls her stockings, and then he expects her at once to settle down into being the sort of a woman his mother was.

Funny, isn't it? For not one of these men would buy a gas range and expect to find it converted into a radio when they got it home. Nor would they select a jockey and depend upon its being changed into a limousine as soon as they got it installed in their own garage. Yet they seem to think that there is some magic in the marriage ceremony that changes a woman from the kind of a creature she was before marriage into something diametrically different as soon as she is married.

That is why so many men are disappointed in their wives, for the poor creatures go on being after their marriage just what they were before, and, to their surprise, they find that their line of charms no longer lures.

The man who thought it so cute for his wife to ask him silly questions before marriage tells her not to be a fool when she asks these same questions after marriage. The man who raved over a girl's pretty clothes before marriage berates her for her extravagance after marriage. The man who bought drinks and smiles for a flapper and took her on wild parties wants her to be dignified and discreet when she is his wife.

And so it goes. Every man wants to cut his wife over according to his little pattern, but mighty few ever succeed in the attempt. Hence the rending of so many marital bonds.

DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—Why is it that young men living with widowed mothers very seldom marry?

ANSWER: I had not observed that young men living with widowed mothers were less apt to marry than other men. If it is true, it may be for one of three reasons.

First, lack of money. In these days of the high cost of living very few young men can afford to support more than one woman, and in the case where the mother is dependent on the son it is very easy to see why he should feel that he cannot take upon himself the burden of a family.

Second, there is the mother-in-law bugaboo. Most young men have seen enough of life to know that it is a hazardous experiment to put any two women living under the same roof. They have seen their friends torn to pieces in the lights of their wives and mothers, and they are too prudent to risk such an unpleasant fate for themselves.

Moreover, many young women flatly refuse to go to live with a mother-in-law.

Often it is a case of deciding between taking a wife or taking care of their mother, and from a sense of duty they steer clear of matrimony.

Thirdly, most mothers spoil their sons and surround them with so much physical comfort that the man who is battling around hotels and boarding houses.

Probably the great majority of men marry for a home. They want somebody who will cook them the things they like, who will darn their socks and sew on their buttons, and make a place for them in which they can take their ease. And when mother does this and supplies this need they are more apt to drift into bachelorhood than the man who has no woman to coddle him.

To these reasons one may add the fact that the average widow who lives with her son does try to quarantine him against matrimony and keep him for herself. She sends away all girls as well as she can.

Sometimes a mother makes her backbone so too stiff to marry, and sometimes she does not marry because she sacrifices his life to his mother's selfishness. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—Do you think it would be a mistake for a girl to marry a man who, unless she wears the flattest of heels, is an inch shorter than she is? Do you think it makes them look ridiculous and that strangers would comment on it? Do you think it puts a man in a humiliating position? This girl and the man are perfectly suited to each other except in the matter of height. QWERTY.

ANSWER: This is silly question No. 999. I never heard of anything so foolish as a girl seriously considering giving up the man she loves because he isn't quite as tall as she would like him to be.

If he was short on brains or morals or manners that would be another thing, but to be short physically is about the least disability he could possibly have.

Some of the tallest men in the world have been the biggest men, Qwerty so if your sweetheart is all right in every other way take him and be happy, and pray God to give you a little more common sense. DOROTHY DIX

BEHIND THE SCREEN

HARRY LANGDON.

It seems to be a yearning common to screen comedians to incorporate into pictures certain phases of their own life about which recollection dwells with a sort of bitter-sweet fondness. It is no doubt a form of homesickness to which the professional funmakers, most sentimental of all the movie clan, are peculiarly susceptible.

Harry Langdon succumbs to this cinematic retrospect in "The Strong Man," his second feature comedy for First National, weaving much of the action about his music hall experience which introduced him to the stage.

IN VAUDEVILLE. Not many years ago a shy young amateur tried out his comic wares in Mickey Miller's Music Hall in Omaha, a gathering place for farmers and tradesmen of that region. It was there that Langdon's comic, fustian screen grin was coined from his experience as assistant to a non-toilette German weight lifter. Dancing, singing and timid wise-cracking were also included in his premier in the amusement world.

Not many years ago, these honkey-tonk rule days—when Langdon reproduces in "The Strong Man"—that he got the rudiments of that pantomime which has placed him among the best of film funsters.

Tough days, those, for Harry. Not much chance to develop an illusion of grandeur. And in this respect, too, he shares something common to the little group of our foremost screen comedians—the hard buffeting in youth which eventually molds its own drab lot by utilizing it for laughter.

SOMETHING NEW. The essence of Langdon's effective pantomime is the illusion of childhood in the manner of most comedians. Men assume the child mind. But Langdon's characteristic gestures are based upon the grouping bewilderment, the pathetic eagerness to please, the naive wonderment of a boy of four or five years of age. His screen self is the youngest of all the film playboys. This gives him that peculiar quality of pathos, the bid for quick sympathy, and appeal to the maternal in feminine audiences.

Evidence of this assumed baby mind, of childish helplessness, in the awkward antics of the grown man, was marked in Langdon's first comedy feature "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp." It also keynotes "The Strong Man," in which he gropes back toward that actual youth which he has learned to dramatize so whimsically and about which his recollection plays a bit sadly.

Add the well beaten pinks of the eggs and the sugar if it is necessary, depending on the sweetness of the chocolate and one's taste. Cook for a few moments in a double boiler. Remove from the fire, add the whites of the eggs well beaten and the vanilla. Line a mixing bowl or round deep baking dish with wax paper. Halve all of the ladyfingers and line the dish with these. Pour in half of the chocolate mixture and put the ladyfingers over it. Add the rest of the chocolate and cover with ladyfingers. Cover the whole with a wax paper, and then a plate of the right diameter to use as a press with a weight on top (a large size can of tomatoes makes an excellent weight for this). Leave in the refrigerator at least two hours or all night. Unmold at dinner time, remove the wax paper and cover with whipped cream.

Another way of molding this dessert is to put only a thick layer of chocolate over the ladyfingers, continuing to make several layers.

Little Joe Baked Fish—Wash and wipe the fish dry, place in dripping pan and fill the inside with a dressing of bread crumbs soaked in water and seasoned with onion juice, salt, pepper and a tablespoon of butter. Put a little water around the fish. Serve with drawn butter gravy with hard boiled eggs chopped up in it. Garnish fish with parsley and slices of lemon. Bake an hour.

Cucumber Relish for Fish—Chop a good sized cucumber and put in a strainer to drain, then set on the ice to cool. Just before using mix with mayonnaise dressing.

Ice Box Cake—One-half pound sweet chocolate, four eggs, two dozen ladyfingers, one-half teaspoon vanilla. (One-third cup of confectioner's sugar if necessary.) Melt the chocolate over hot water.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

About me pressed the shapes of night, vague shapes that crawled and crept, gaunt hands upraised to mourn the light, and sombre eyes that wept. About me pressed a dismal train and Fear was at my side; I watched the pallid twilight wane long after day had died. I walked through meadows hushed and dim, through shades the dusk unbars, and found upon the woodland's rim a pool brimful of stars! The little pool was girt about with shadows deepening fast, that shut the falling daylight out and like grim spectres passed. But bravely through the dimness gleamed the tender, starry light, until the shining water seemed a pool of promise bright. How good to make life gleam and glow, unheeding bonds and bars, though shadows ring it round, to show a pool brimful of stars.

A CURTAIN TRICK

Your voile curtains will be laundered more successfully and be less apt to sag if you fold the material with the salvage ends together, and iron double, on each side instead of trying to stretch the material out straight.

NO INDIAN MOTHER-IN-LAW JOKES

Among certain tribes of North American Indians it is considered a breach of etiquette for a man to speak to his mother-in-law under any consideration. He can raise the taboo if he does so, especially worth-while feat or at the invitation of the mother-in-law who does so by presenting a valuable gift to the man. The Indians of these tribes may jokingly refer to almost any other relatives by marriage or otherwise, but it is not done in the case of mothers-in-law.

SEE-SAWING DOWN BROADWAY

THERE are as many "hang-outs" in Manhattan as there are people to "hang out." Which means thousands. The hours of "hanging out" vary with the groups, as does the neighborhood. Sometimes it is a cafe, sometimes a book shop, sometimes a park corner and sometimes a crowded thoroughfare. Some of them have constituted, and still do, many of New York's most colorful and romantic gathering places; others have been, and still are, drab, tawdry, sordid, placidly conservative, or dramatically radical.

NONE was more favored than Joel's before he gave up the ghost. Here gathered the writing army of the metropolis and the gay and witty Broadway folk; writers and wits and Bohemians. They furnished but a laugh-ten-filled foreground.

The background seethed with unwritten melodrama. Here came the fearless adventurers and plotters of South American revolutions; of coar soldiers of fortune; weavers of European intrigue, spies and romantic dare-devils. They would hatch their plots and their adventures over their wine.

When prohibition spelled the end, Joel hung up a sign announcing that it hadn't been a particularly profitable enterprise, but he had learned much.

ON East Tenth Street is a little cafe, the "hang-out" of poets and artists "in revolt" against the old conventions. In Macdougall street is another little cafe where one may find the young radical writers and editors. The trail-blazers of the old "Masses," many of them now claimed by time and changing tides, have followed Floyd Dell and the young firebrands of yesterday into the quiet seclusion of Hudson river cottages. The book stores of Eighth street lure groups of "bookish" folk; literary followers of all levels. The Band school is a "hang-out" for those who would talk the newer philosophies, economic or abstract. The more prosperous go to their "summer hang-outs" in Provincetown, an art colony; St. Sonasset, where they have a school of psycho-analysis in summer, the Maine coast, Woodstock and Mystic, Conn.

THE "arrivals" of the popular magazines and the stage "hang-out" in New Rochelle, Great Neck, Mamaroneck and way points. For years one could find a certain theatrical group at Dirty Moore's corner, but it was made in the early morning when theaters are closed. Radio fans gather in the maris near Cortland street; musicians of note gather back of Carnegie Hall; jazz players and hand musicians clog the sidewalk at 4th Street and Broadway; ham and egg fighters have a doorway two blocks down; vaudeville and tent show folk congregate around the offices of Billboard and Variety.

STREET makers have a club-room. Actors go to the Lamba Club, the Green Room or the Players. Press agents hang out at the "Cheese Club." Coffee houses draw the talkers and dream spinners of the foreign quarters. Manhattan is the most "groupy" city in the world.

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion

By FRANCINE Nosed Beauty Advisor

The Folly

Of using just "any good soap" on your face

The kind beauty experts use themselves and how used

A SOAP may be good for any number of things, yet not be at all suited to the skin. The only kind of soap to use on your face is a soap made basically for that purpose. A good complexion is too precious for experiment.

Before Palmolive came, women were told, "use no soap on your face." All soaps then were judged too harsh.

Then came this famous beauty creation. A soap made by experts in beauty of rare cosmetic oils—and made solely for one purpose: to safeguard the complexion. A soap that changed the beauty methods of the world.

Leading skin authorities urge it. It has brought natural skin loveliness to more women than any other method known. In your own interest, use it according to the following rule for one week. Note the improvement your complexion shows:

Nature's rule to "Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion" Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that's all. Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge, if you wish. But never leave foam on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and blemishes often follow. They must be washed away. Just do this and keep your skin soft and lovely—wrinkles will be less a problem as the years advance.

Get Real Palmolive Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or represented as of palm and olive oils, is the same as Palmolive. It costs but 10c the cake!—so little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for the face. Obtain Palmolive today. Then note what an amazing difference one week makes. FURTHER BIDS IN VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OPENED

Contracts for Equipment Totalling $4,829 Are Awarded

STATEMENT MADE ON EXPENDITURE

Day School to Open on Sept. 7—Applications Made

Tenders for equipment for the vocational school totalling $4,829.46 were accepted at the meeting of the Saint John Vocational Committee yesterday afternoon and these latest authorized expenditures brought the total outlay for equipment to $37,400 at the present time.

There is a small proportion of the equipment yet unprocured, but it was said yesterday by members of the committee that the expenditure for equipment would be considerably below the amount estimated and authorized, which was $100,000. It was also said that the total cost of the building, site and equipment would possibly be within the total estimate.

The day school courses at the school will open on Sept. 7 and it was reported that there was already a growing enrollment. Authority was given for the distribution of information regarding the classes.

Dr. L. M. Curran, chairman, presided. Others present were T. H. Carter, E. H. W. Ingraham, Alex. Wilson, Fletcher Peacock, director of the vocational school, and Dr. S. A. Worrell, superintendent of city schools, and Miss E. Reed, acting secretary.

Mr. Peacock said that since 2 o'clock that afternoon there had been a steady stream of applicants at the vocational school seeking to register for attendance in the day classes. As registration will not commence officially until Aug. 30 the rush of applicants seemed to indicate an eagerness to enroll.

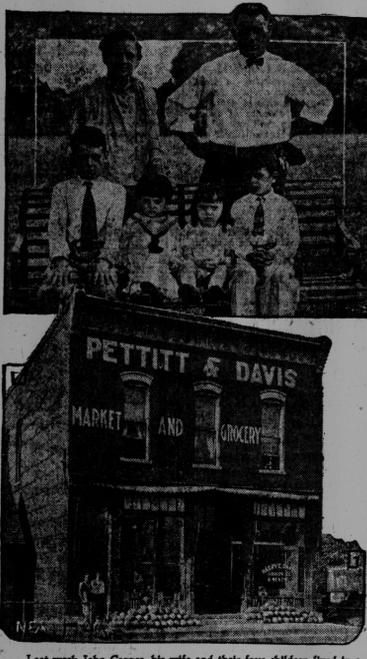

TENDERS DEALT WITH. Tenders for equipment for the school and for wiring were dealt with and accepted as recommended by the advisory committee.

For 202 small tools for the machine shop, total of accepted tenders was $2,029.86, including W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., $629.84; T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., $715.70; Canadian Fairbanks-Morse, $387.14 and A. R. Williams Co., $297.22.

For woodworking small tools the total was $695.98 and included the following tenders: T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., $309.36; W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., $219.98; Simons Saw Co., Ltd., $88.71 and A. R. Williams, $87.93.

MOTOR MECHANICS. Motor mechanics small tools accepted tenders totalling $404.09 and included Canadian Fairbanks-Morse, $200.10; T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., $161.40; W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., $87.49; Emerson

Iron Worker Inherits $5,000,000

Last week John Cooper, his wife and their four children lived in a flat over a store in Kewanee, Ill., where Cooper worked as an iron worker. But this week he is worth $5,000,000. Cooper's grandmother, a wealthy Virginia landowner, died and left him that amount. The Coopers are shown above; below is the flat which they will soon leave for a thirty-room mansion in the Shenandoah Valley.

Peacock said, would include eight chemistry tables to be made locally, typewriters and the art department needs.

The gymnasium and sheet and metal department equipment was to stand over for the present. Outside of these items there would be no large expenditure. He did not propose to fit up the physics room this year. Authority was given for calling for tenders for the chemistry room. The other equipment for the chemistry room would be comparatively small, Mr. Peacock said.

When the question of obtaining suitable prizes for the courses was discussed it was said this would be considered after the success had been demonstrated.

TO SEND OUT LETTERS. Mr. Peacock was authorized to send out personal letters to possible applicants for attendance at the school and to undertake a vigorous campaign of press publicity. Authority was given for the purchase of a duplicating machine for use both in the office and the commercial department of the school.

As the school day courses are to commence on Sept. 6, it was decided to request the contractor installing the steel lockers to hasten the work which is now far behind, and which the contractor was to have completed in June. It was decided to have the representative of the three typewriter companies, which have most machines in use in the city, attend a later meeting when the purchase of typewriters will be considered.

FIXES FEES. The laboratory fee was fixed at $2 for the seniors and $1 for the juniors, and was to be returnable, but held to cover the cost of possible breakages.

Two sinks for the mechanics department have still to be installed, and authority was given for employing a plumber to install them.

The meeting ordered the installation of a ventilating system for the machine shop. The material is already on the ground.

Authority was given for wiring the lighting of the standards on the main entrance terrace. The mechanical department will erect the standards which have already been ordered.

Mr. Peacock reported that the Jones Electric Co. had installed, without charge, the Moffatt electric range, which was a free gift to the school from the manufacturers.

Dr. Curran asked for information as to what household staff would be required to run the school, and if more than the engineer and the caretaker now working on the premises, would be required. He thought there should be co-operation between these two men. At present both are working on cleaning up the building.

Several Socials Held at St. Martins

ST. MARTINS, Aug. 16—The ladies of the United church of this village recently held a strawberry festival and ice cream sale on the maine grounds. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, the sum of over $80 was realized.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Baptist church held a splendid picnic on the beach on Thursday afternoon. After partaking of a delicious tea an interesting game of camps confined to Bible subjects was much enjoyed. The leaders of the opposing teams were Mrs. S. E. Vaughan and Michael Kelly. Each side made a score of 20 points.

In Germany the American idea of establishing summer schools in the universities and colleges is taking hold with the result that a German Institute for Foresters has been established at the University of Berlin. The courses will be given in the summer months and will embrace the conventional academic studies and in addition, sociology, economy and social history. Graduates may work for their higher degree at the institute.

DOMINION EXPRESS COMPANY CHANGES NAME SEPTEMBER 1

Will Be Canadian Pacific Express Co. After That Date

SERVICE EXTENDS TO WORLD LIMITS

Alteration in Style Adopted Because of Railway's Prestige

TORONTO, Aug. 16.—Announcement was made at Dominion express headquarters here today that the change of this company's name, recently authorized by act of Parliament, will be effective Sept. 1. From that date the Dominion Express Company will, with the present directors, officers and staff, operate its transportation and financial services under the name of the Canadian Pacific Express Company.

The official announcement, issued by W. Stout, president, is as follows: "Incorporated in 1873 the Dominion Express Company commenced express transportation service in 1882 over the lines then being operated in what is now the Canadian Pacific Railway. Half a dozen loyal and enthusiastic employees and one horse and second-hand wagon enabled the company at that time to serve the Canadian public at seven small agencies.

Today its goods transportation and financial services extend from coast to coast in Canada to the United States and to far distant corners of the world.

ESSENTIALLY CANADIAN

The Dominion Express Company is essentially Canadian. It was originated in Canada, owes its success to the good-will of the Canadian people and to that development of Canadian economic life to which it has contributed in some measure as an arm of Canadian Pacific service, and Sept. 1, 1926, will assume a distinctive Canadian name, the Canadian Pacific Express Company. In this identifying itself the company hopes that the prestige of the name of the world's greatest transportation system will enable it to be even more successful in serving its patrons in Canada and abroad, and in making Canadian services and Canadian efficiency better and more favorably known throughout the world.

Commenting on the change of name this morning, W. S. Stoen, who has been the active head of the organization since its commencement, stated that although the Dominion Express has been for a great many years owned by the Canadian Pacific Railway, its prestige in the transportation and financial circles of the Dominion has been such that more definite identification with the railway system was not called for. In his opinion the name Canadian Pacific Express will not prove a great advantage and where so far as business originating in Canada is concerned, he anticipates that in overseas and foreign countries where the name and the services of the Canadian Pacific are better known and more extensively advertised and where to a very large extent the credit of Canada is one with that of the transportation system, such good-will as is held by the railway and steamship company will reflect to the advantage of Canada and the express companies, particularly in those countries where the name Dominion does not necessarily refer to Canada.

The history of the Dominion Express Company, which is covered in booklet form by T. E. MacDonnell, vice-president and general manager, is a remarkable record of initiative, persistence and progress. The nucleus of this gigantic organization, with its world-wide ramifications and tremendous international business, was formed by six employees, seven offices and one horse and second-hand wagon. Its initial mileage was 448. Today the Dominion Express operates over 17,761 land and 14,181 ocean miles. It owns and operates over 1,000 street vehicles and has developed a money order business with 4,675 selling agencies. The Toronto staff alone numbers over 600.

Easy to Gain With Yeast and Iron

New Combination of Yeast with Vegetable Iron Quick Way to Build Up Weight

This new combination of yeast vitamins with vegetable iron, renews the action of sluggish blood cells, drives out dangerous body poisons, increases energy and endurance and supplies the system with the vitamins that build up weight. For years yeast has been known as a rich vitamin food, but not until now has it been possible to take yeast and iron in the right proportions to build up weight. Vegetable "iron" when combined with yeast is quite easy to digest, therefore better for the system. And "yeast" when ironized, becomes just as beneficial as ordinary fresh or cake yeast. Ironized Yeast tablets are composed of concentrated food elements, therefore, they are pleasant to take and free from drug-like effects. If you are under weight, do not enjoy good health, lacking in energy and force, "ironized yeast" tablets will pick you right up, and if they fail, you get your money back. Sold by druggists at $1.00 for a large 40-tablet package or sent direct from laboratory on receipt of price. Ironized Yeast Co., Fort Erie, Ontario, Canada.

Who Says Train Wrecks Are Calamities?

Train wrecks are generally considered calamities—but not by this colored boy, who lives on the outskirts of Toledo, O. A freight car loaded with ripe watermelons, as shown at the right, was one of the cars split open in a wreck near his home, and he lost no time in making the most of an opportunity that seemed too good to be true. Others followed suit, too, and the railroad salvaged very little of the car's contents.

SENSATION FAILS TO RISE IN BRITISH MURDER INQUEST

Coroner Limits Evidence to Establish Identity of Body

WOMAN IS EXPECTED TO TELL OF DISPUTE

International and Internal Triangle Involved in Case

WHITSTABLE, Eng., Aug. 16.—The coroner's inquest into the death of John Adam Derham, alleged to have been shot by Alphonse Francis Austin Smith, was adjourned this afternoon until Aug. 30, without revealing any of the mysterious and sensational details expected, which had attracted a large crowd.

The coroner took only sufficient evidence to establish the identity of the dead man so as to permit the burial of the body.

The dead man's father, Walter Derham, attended the inquest, but declined to answer questions asked by the coroner regarding statements that his son is supposed to have made before he died. Mrs. Smith, the former Catherine White, and wife of the accused man, also was in attendance with her sister. She is Smith's second wife and seemingly not more than 21 years of age. A jealous quarrel over her husband is advanced by police as the cause of the shooting.

Derham was the grandson of a noted British army officer, Brigadier-General Tyler, holder of the Victoria Cross. He was married some years ago to Constance, daughter of the Marquis and Marquess De Torre Hermosa, but they were not living together.

Derham was a popular ice hockey player and was familiarly known as "Dick" Derham. Besides the "eternal triangle" aspect, there is an international triangle since Smith's antecedents, nor do they know anything of his marriage to Ruth Wynne, daughter of the late Robert J. Wynne, once United States postmaster-general and consul-general in London, who divorced Smith in 1922.

Most of his time was spent in London, police state. When the police were summoned to Stella Maris villa, occupied by Smith and his wife and three children, Derham was in a dying condition from a bullet wound in his abdomen and Smith was badly battered about the face and head and streaming with blood. That a fierce struggle had taken place was indicated by the great disorder in the drawing room.

The estate of J. P. Morgan and other wealthy New Yorkers are located nearby, but it was reported they were untouched.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 16.—Ominous warnings of death and threats of violence over the telephone, purporting to come from the Ku Klux Klan, have been reported by several Winnipeg aldermen and other prominent citizens.

An hour later a doctor called at the Blumberg residence and announced that he had been told something serious had happened.

HEAVY RAINFALL HOLDS UP HARVEST WORK ON PRAIRIES

Considerable Cutting is Already Done Along C. P. Main Line

WHEAT YIELD GOOD AND GRADE IS FAIR

Manitoba Gives Indications of Average Crop; Little Rust Reported

WINNIPEG, Aug. 16.—About 50 per cent of the wheat, oats, barley and rye south of the main C. P. R. line in the Saskatchewan boundary has been cut in the prairie provinces and from 15 to 25 per cent in more central and northern areas, according to the weekly crop report of the Canadian Pacific Railway, issued from the offices of D. C. Coleman, vice-president in charge of western lines, here today.

GOOD AVERAGE CROP.

Manitoba—The province gives indication of a good average wheat crop with heavier yields to the south. Very little rust is reported and it is now too late to anticipate damage from this source. The labor situation is normal. Saskatchewan—Light to heavy showers over most of the province early in the week did not materially retard cutting operations, enabling harvesting to become general in the southwest, where along the Shaunavon-Vanguard and Expanse sub-divisions, to 75 per cent of wheat is cut and from 25 to 40 per cent of rye and barley. In the central and northern areas these conditions remaining favorable. All points indicate uniformly excellent yield of wheat and other grains. But for rain during the week cutting would now be fairly general and it is anticipated that with favorable weather it will resume in the middle of the week.

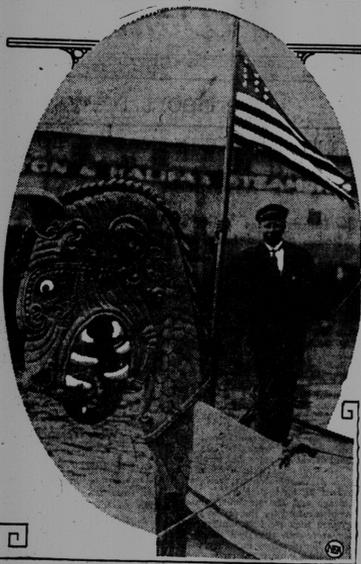

BETTER THAN AVERAGE.

Present indications are that better than average wheat yields will obtain in entire area adjacent to and south of the main line of Moose Jaw east to Manitoba boundary and due south of Moose Jaw to the international boundary together with territory west to Shaunavon. Other central and northern parts will be fair to good, making exceptions of the Outlook subdivision and the area north, west and southwest of Swift Current where the crop will prove a low yielding one. Rains which have been general in the past 48 hours will delay harvesting a day or so.

ROBERT McLAUGHLIN, MAKER OF AXE HELVES

Sixty Years of Service to Canada and Canadians

From a pinch of living insignificance springs that exultant shout of glory which men call a maple tree. From the brain of Robert McLaughlin, a farm lad whittling axe helves for his neighbors, sprang Canada's greatest automotive industry, General Motors of Canada.

A Canadian institution, founded by a Canadian, staffed by Canadians, employing Canadian workmen and using Canadian materials, General Motors of Canada has been for sixty years a paramount factor in the Dominion's prosperity and progress.

It sells to Canadians through Canadian dealers and, in addition, distributes Canadian-built cars wherever the flag of Britain flies.

It uses lumber from Canadian forests and steel made in Canadian mills from Canadian ore, smelted by Canadian foundrymen. It purchases from Canadian sources vast quantities of brass and copper, of wire and glass, of nickel and fabrics, oils, paints and Duco finishes — and all that heterogeneous mass of materials which enter into the making of a modern automobile — and which have entered into the building of a total of more than 325,000 General Motors of Canada cars and trucks.

Building cars to suit every purse and purpose, to meet every need and condition of Canadian life and travel, General Motors of Canada is one of the great institutions that is acquiring for Canada a higher and yet higher place at the world's council table.

Now at the height of its sixty years of service to the Dominion, it is helping to make Canada an even greater Canada for Canadians.

THE women folk only began to realize the pleasures of real cooking and baking when Moffats developed their range to its present mark of efficiency.

The Moffat Range is so scientifically constructed as to assure the preservation of the valuable juices in the dinners roasted and the pies, etc., baked.

The Moffat is the most imitated electric range on the market, yet it enjoys the preference in over seventy thousand homes.

MOFFATS LIMITED, WESTON, ONTARIO

The elements in a Moffat oven are the same as are used in Moffats huge electric furnaces, where they burn day and night at 1600 degrees Fahrenheit — no greater proof of quality than this is necessary.

The Heat Deflector found in the Moffat oven assures uniform heat at the front, back, sides, top and bottom of the oven — in no other electric range will you find this feature.

YANKS MUST WIN HALF OF GAMES
Miller Huggins Sees Travelling Rough Toward Later Part of Season
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Miller Huggins, little manager of the New York Yanks, feels that he has a big job in front of him, despite his team's long lead in the American League.
"We must win half of our remaining 36 games to be safe," he argues, "and the way we went last week, even that is going to be hard. Cleveland can't have many beatings, that's true, but we'll have to fight every team all the way to be sure of the flag."
San Jose, the sad server, has come into his own during the last month. He had the setback in a contest he finished at Washington last week, when Ben Tate hit for the circuit.
Chicago and Detroit held up somewhat of a record for the season yesterday when they went 10 innings without a run. The previous day they played the Red Sox a 7 to 1 victory over St. Louis in the second game of a double-header, after the Bostonians had been outscored for a 1 to 0 leading in the first.
The St. Louis Cardinals gained half a point on Pittsburgh by beating Chicago, 5 to 4, in a ninth inning rally. The Cardinals now are only a game and a half behind New York.
No International League games were played.
NATIONAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT STARTED
Keen Competition Among Women for Crown Relinquished by Helen Wills
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 16.—More than 50 players today drew their equalities in quest of the national women's tennis crown relinquished by Helen Wills, with six seeded stars scoring decisive, straight-set triumphs.
Elizabeth Ryan, the 38-year-old chopper, triumphed over Miss Wills last Friday, after she vanquished Miss Wills in straight sets at 6-0, 6-2.
Eleanor Goss, of New York; Martha Bayard, of Short Hills, N. J.; Mrs. A. H. Chapin, of Springfield, Mass.; and Miss Fenelope Anderson, of Richmond, Va., were other seeded stars to advance without being pressed.
CLAIM CHAMPIONSHIP.
The St. Rose's of the western section of the Boy Scout League, claim the championship of their section as a result of the failure of the Victoria street Baptist team to show up last night for their scheduled game with the St. Rose's of the Nashwak diamond.
THIS MOTHER GLAD DAUGHTER IS WELL
Mrs. Parks Tells How Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health
Toronto, Ontario.—"My daughter is 16 now and has been an invalid ever since she was six months old. She has been compelled to remain out of school the greater part of the time. We have tried different kinds of medicine, but none helped her much. I had taken Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound when I was run-down, and it had helped me so much that I thought it might help her at this time. She has gained ever since she began taking it. She attends school every day now and goes skating, and does other outdoor sports. I recommend this medicine to any one who is run-down and nervous and weak."—Mrs. PARKS, 108 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario.
Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for young women's troubles.

AT MONTREAL
MONTREAL, Aug. 17.—Trading during the first half hour this morning, on the local stock exchange, was very brisk in a wide range of issues, with prices retaining a firm to slightly upward trend. New Power and New Power Pfd. were by far the most active issues over 8,000 shares of the former changing hands while the latter was traded in a total of 1,000 shares. These two issues displayed an irregular trend but both scored fractional gains for the short period. The New common opened at 62 3/4, up 1/4, advanced to 62 7/8, eased back to 62 1/2, last night's close and in subsequent trading, sold at the opening price for a net advance of 1/2 point. The price advanced the day with a gain of 1/4 at 49 1/2, reacted to 49, and in later trading recovered a fraction of its loss to sell at 49 1/8; Laurette was third in point of activity scoring a gain of 1/4 at 8 1/2. Brasillan was in good demand. This issue came out unchanged at 112 and sold steadily at that level. The paper issues were also active and strong. The feature of this group was Spanish River. Morning Stock Letter
NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The quality of the leadership is the having grade of this market. The advance so far has been large and the price level is so high that one would be forced to suggest the sale of stocks at market, were it not for the fact that the best of the list are the strongest. Yesterday some of the best rails and U. S. Steel were the leaders. We see no immediate change in the market and look for higher prices in the best stocks. Steel continues to surge ahead into new high ground. The rumors of the steel are correct and there is good reason to believe that steel will declare a 40 per cent stock dividend and continue to present a usual cash rate on the new stock which will be at the high price for 17 stock. The values of steel behind it. We believe steel will sell at a higher price. Bethlehem Steel made new high for movement yesterday and is still purchase. Steel made new high for movement yesterday and is still purchase. We expect Youngtown Steel and Tube to do better again. Pittsburgh Tel. and Tel. is a stock which may earn two and two-thirds times 100.

Meighen Tells of Australian Treaty

"We don't believe you, that's the trouble," came a voice far back in the hall.
"If you don't, perhaps you would be better in another place than here," Mr. Meighen returned.
OLD AGE PENSIONS
"We favor old age pensions legislation," Mr. Meighen declared. "We intend to pass old age pensions legislation, but we are going to get the provinces together first. We are going to see that we get something that will go into effect. It is the operation that must be looked after and we will make sure that ours will operate before we put it on the statute books. We will get the concurrence of the provinces. We will get something practicable, something which will be acceptable to the provinces and to this whole Dominion."
"How soon," the heckler questioned. "Just as soon as you give us a mandate to do it," swiftly replied the premier.

END OF HECTIC DAY

The meeting in Royston closed a hectic day of speechmaking and traveling for the premier. From the moment he landed by boat at Vancouver from Prince Rupert, he was almost constantly on the move. An automobile parade through Vancouver was followed by a hurried meeting at New Westminster. From New Westminster Mr. Meighen sped to Nanaimo, and from Nanaimo to Royston in the constituency of Comox-Alberni represented in the last parliament by A. W. Neil, Independent.

Brokers' Opinions

"We remain bullish on the market, especially rails, steel, good copper and selected industrials," Brumley Chamberlain—"On account of our recovery in the market, we would desire caution in making commitments. Elmer Maloney—"Various high grade stocks will probably be carried higher in anticipation of special distributions. This is one of the moving forces in the market. In some time we think it will not to follow the market up."
Houseman—"We expect to show more positive and individual evidence with expectations and we would continue long of them."

Liberal Leader In Attack On Bennett

long do you think the throne would remain as strong as it is today," he asked. It was the action of the Commons which determined the ministry that would advise the Crown.
"That is British constitutional practice, the minute you begin to depart from those rules, the 14th Empire will begin to suffer a shock. The Empire will last as long as constitutional practice is carried on without the Dominion," said Mr. King.
An abrupt attack was made on Mr. R. Bennett in the course of Mr. King's address. A press report from Woodstock, Ontario, quoting a speech made there by Mr. Bennett, was read. Mr. King said that he had read Mr. Bennett's address and that he was sorry to hear that the greatest coward who ever held the office of Prime Minister of Canada.
"That means that others—Mr. Meighen and Sir Robert Borden—have been cowards, but I happen to be the greatest of the lot," said Mr. King. "I think you know the type of man Mr. Bennett is. Any person who speaks like that on a public platform of a fellow member of the House of Commons—there is one name you cannot apply to him and that is the name of gentleman."
"When you want to test a coin you rub the surface and see whether it is pure or alloy; it is the same with a man. You have to do it to find out. Mr. Bennett to get him irritated and annoyed. Then wait and see what happens. He is a man who speaks who continued to say that public distrust of his public men, that they attempt to do things before they get your go before the people of Canada."

MERITS OF EDERLE SWIM QUESTIONED

English Coast Papers Support French on Value of Tug's Aid

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Doubts cast by certain French newspapers on the merits of Gertrude Ederle's cross-Channel swim have found an echo in England. The Dover Express and East Kent News says: "So far little information has been given of the details of Miss Ederle's swim—the most extraordinary thing about it being that she made no westward drift with the ebb tide which on the day in question, ran westward for nearly seven hours at an average speed of nearly two knots. Her craft never came in front of Dover and she seems to have kept, according to what details have been published, the swim, in sight of the South Goodwins all this period."

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Doubts cast by certain French newspapers on the merits of Gertrude Ederle's cross-Channel swim have found an echo in England. The Dover Express and East Kent News says: "So far little information has been given of the details of Miss Ederle's swim—the most extraordinary thing about it being that she made no westward drift with the ebb tide which on the day in question, ran westward for nearly seven hours at an average speed of nearly two knots. Her craft never came in front of Dover and she seems to have kept, according to what details have been published, the swim, in sight of the South Goodwins all this period."

FRED THOMSON ON SCREEN AT GAIETY

Athletic Leading Man and the Famous Horse "Silver King" in Good Picture

The multitude of picture patrons who within the last year have become admirers of the wholesome broadness and dynamic personality of Fred Thomson will be delighted in his latest production which was shown at the Gaiety theatre yesterday.

"The Wild Bull's Lair" is the title of the most recent Thomson vehicle; and like many others which have made this young star nationally famous it is from the pen of Marion Jackson.

The production proves one of the most thrilling and delightful in which this athletic star has ever appeared. It is well cast throughout, and gives Silver King, Fred's wonder horse, a chance to go through every pace in his large repertoire.

The story differs materially from the average western. It sweeps on to a stirring climax. With Fred, as Dan Allen, in a death struggle with the "wild bull"—a hand-to-horn contest in which the hero is tossed in the air, only eventually to overcome the big animal—the suspense of the fate of Eleanor Harrison and her father is tensely held until the very last.

Eagle Eye, a renegade Indian, is one of the motivating impulses of the picture. His plan to breed a vicious and devastating strain by crossing old Harrison's wild bull with the lion blood is woven skilfully into the legends of the supernatural influences at work on "The Wild Bull's Lair." The result is a picture distinctly "different" and very much worth while, without any loss of fast action and comedy.

Granddad's March

That's probably what Lieut. Com. John Philip Sousa, famous bandmaster and "March King," is humming to Jane Priscilla Abert, his youngest grandchild, at Port Washington, L. I. You know, it goes, "Rock-a-bye, baby—On-a-tree-top!"

LITTLE SOIL NOT TILLED In Guatemala and Salvador, the two most populous countries in Central America, the population is so dense that there is very little waste land. Guatemala has 2,000,000 people and Salvador with an area of only 7,225 square miles, 1,040,000 or 144 persons to the square mile. This is the densest population in the Western hemisphere. These countries are rich in sugar, coffee, minerals, rice, hemp, cotton and bananas.

LEATRICE JOY AT QUEEN SQ. THEATRE

Star Has Delightful Role in Cecil B. DeMille Picture

Scoring an emphatic hit, Leatrice Joy was seen in her new star picture, "Eve's Leaves," at the Queen Square theatre yesterday. A more delightful photoplay has not been seen there this season. The dainty star gave an excellent performance and proved herself a comedienne of no insignificant powers.

William Boyd, a popular Cecil B. DeMille star, featured as her leading man, shared stellar honors. The scenes of the picture are laid in

KENNETH HARLAN LEADS IN "THE SAP"

Gripping Story is Featured in Opening Bill of Week at Unique Theatre

Kenneth Harlan, last seen amid the sizzling melodramatics of "The Fighting Edge," triumphs in a new field in the title role of "The Sap," the Warner picture which opened at the Unique theatre yesterday for a run of three days.

This picture is so accurately true to life that it grips with more tenacity than a melodrama. It is a portrait of a man's soul, done with marvelous dramatic power, and Kenneth Harlan turns it into a mighty achievement. From the thundering war scenes in France, the action moves into a small American town, and the warfare is then concentrated within the heart of the ex-soldier, who knows he is not a hero, in spite of his decorations. It is

PALACE PICTURE EXCELLENT STORY

"The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted"—Huntley Gordon and Irene Rich

Audiences at the Palace Theatre yesterday found "The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted" the production has a brilliant cast headed by Irene Rich and Huntley Gordon. The story concerns John Manning, district attorney (Rich) and their son (John Harrow). Bob has always been a model son and for killing a woman his parents are distraught. Manning refuses to use the power of his office to do to to save another man's son; and his wife pleads for him.

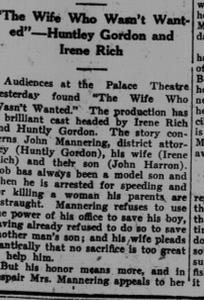

But his honor means more, and in despair Mrs. Manning appeals to her old-time sweetheart, Jerome Wallace (Gayne Whitman). Wallace is her husband's opponent for office and still loves her. He promises that if her husband is defeated and he elected, he will save Bob. Manning and his wife are estranged when he mistrusts her sudden intimacy with Wallace, and Mrs. Manning is involved in a scandal.

She finds Diane (Elinor Fair), who had been driving Bob's car at the time of the accident and who confesses to Bob's mother. In a big fire at their hotel the girl is killed, but Mrs. Manning hurries back to save Bob with her confession. The parents are reconciled, Manning is re-elected and Bob is freed from prison to find pretty Marjorie Patterson (June Marlowe) awaiting him with a wedding ring.

SIBERIAN DOGS DON'T BARK The Siberian sledge dogs, which are reported to be very efficient in spite of the fact that many of them are on the verge of starvation from time to time, do not bark as do domesticated dogs. They have a manner of howling something akin to the wolf. In the summer time they subsist on frozen fish, but in winter they are hard put to it to get enough to eat.

BERLENBACH vs. JACK DELANEY For the Light Heavyweight Championship of the World THE FACT THAT JACK DELANEY is really Orville Chappelaine (Chap-de-lain-ty), a French lad from one of the Quebec villages, lends particular interest to the fight picture we have purchased at great cost for the last three days of this week. This Canuck lad is now the light heavyweight champion, having laid low the brilliant colors of the wonderful Berlenbach. (Now for Dempsey!) The pictures taken at the ringside in Ebbett's Field, Brooklyn, are marvelously clear and gripping. Every blow, every feint, every grimace of the boxers is clearly shown. It is a marvel of pictorial recording and in New York the boxing fans have gone wild over the picture, some seeing it several times. The Imperial will show these four reels EXTRA to the usual programme, making a tremendous bill of ten reels of entertainment. Nobody need stay away because a boxing bout is on the programme, for the usual run of pictures is there too. BUT it is safe to say everybody will sit the whole marvelous show through. It is like sitting at the ringside where the price was $25.00 per chair.

FINE $8 FOR DESTRUCTION IN CITY PARK

Court Severe in Matter in Case of Charles Harvey

Charles Harvey, arrested last evening on a charge of destroying flowers in King Square and allowed out on a deposit of $8, appeared before Magistrate Henderson in the Police Court this morning, was severely reprimanded by the magistrate and fined $8. The magistrate said that it was due to a misunderstanding that Harvey had been allowed out on an $8 deposit, as the offence was a serious one and a deposit of at least $25 should be made in such cases. Where willful destruction took place, no freedom on deposit should be permitted.

The magistrate spoke very strongly against destroying flowers and shrubbery in the public parks and said that willful destruction a penalty of five years' imprisonment could be imposed. As Harvey had been ill and started working only recently, a fine of only $8 was imposed, but Magistrate Henderson said that in the next case of a like nature brought before him he would carry out the law to its fullest extent.

He wished the public to take notice of the fact that the only place to walk while in the squares was on the paths and that it was a violation of the law to walk on the grass.

GOES TO NEW YORK

Miss Kathryn Gallivan Leaves Halifax to Resume Big City Engagement

Miss Kathryn Gallivan, of Saint John, who has been studying in Halifax, has concluded her engagement there and has gone to New York to resume her professional work. She is one of the leading theatres for the winter season. The Halifax Recorder says of Miss Gallivan's program: "Miss Gallivan's programs are always so varied as to delight any audience. Her first solo, 'The Little Girl', number, displayed the range and quality of her voice as to show its great capabilities, and was a perfect gem. 'Ever Knew', one of the popular ballads of Irving Berlin, was rendered with great sweetness and expression, and many of the singing of the 'Songs of Songs' that even exceeded the others. It is a magnificent selection, with appealing words, and music interpreted by Miss Gallivan to the highest degree with both voice and expression."

Gifts Presented to Miss M. Davidson

About 60 friends gathered last evening at the Little River Community hall to say farewell to Miss Mildred Davidson, who is soon to leave for the United States to take up her residence. During the evening E. Garnett, on behalf of Miss Davidson's former fellow employees at the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills, presented to her a handsome club bag and purse and a gift from the organization. Dancing was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served.

SEE THE FALLS

As high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge of the Falls, creating a "fall" running up river.

At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay.

At half tide, when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the falls disappear entirely, and the water at the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake.

To fully appreciate this wonder of the world it should be seen at all three stages.

FINDS BOY HIT BY AUTOMOBILE IS HIS OWN SON

Particulars of Killing of Jerome Kent in Boston Received

In reporting the fatal auto accident in which Jerome Kent, a former Saint John boy met his death in Boston, referred to in The Times-Star yesterday, the Boston Post of Monday published the following:

"Dennis Kent of 9 East College street picked up a dying boy in front of his home at 8:30 Sunday night, to be informed by his hysterical wife that it was his son Jerome, aged four, who had been struck by an auto operated by Lawrence E. Donlan, of 50 Lockstead street, Jamaica Plain. The boy died 10 minutes after entering City Hospital, from a fracture of the skull. Donlan was arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

"The child was playing in the street when Donlan's machine turned into the road from Dudley street. Donlan after the car struck the boy went a distance of 75 feet before the yells of Stephen Navick of 17 East Cottage street brought him to a halt, according to the police. The boy's mother and father were sitting on the doorstep of their home. The father says he was attracted to the accident by the noise of the auto hitting his son, and he failed to recognize the bleeding and crushed victim as his own boy."

The lad, as stated yesterday, was a nephew of Frank Garnett, Saint John speed skater.
