Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. LELAND has recommended Aver's Sarsaparilla in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failare to effect a radical cure. Some years ago one of Mr. LELAND's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and ompletely restored the limb to use.

We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard AVER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him person ally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. IMPRESSIONS OF FREDERICTON

By a recent Visitor.

(Special correspondence of the FARMER.) TRURO, N. S., Sept. 26. You ask in common with scores of others what are my impressions of Fredericton? Having arrived late on Saturday night, my first impression on Sunday morning was, that I had struck an English garrison town, and as first impressions are generally lasting, I never got rightly over it. I first heard the "dress for parade" bugle, next the "fall in," then the band struck up an old famaliar quick step, in a manner that reminded me of the days of "auld lang syne," and like an old war horse I was on my metal, and repaired to the barrack parade ground. Old soldiers are naturally prejudiced against make believe soldiers, and I expected to see a very awkward squad, but was most agreeably surprised.
A more soldierly looking lot of men I have graphing and telephoning are carried on with one will seldom seen. Their appearance on parade, one wire. their movements in the ranks as well as their conduct on the streets, when off duty, speaks volumes for the discipline of the school, and the excellent military training it affords Marching with the band. If the lad calls this morning, I must apologize for my treatment of him last night. Only I must tell you, Evelyn, that you are not again to go out with him, or any one else, while we remain at Berlin."

When her father spoke of Frank so kindly, Evelyn had brightened up; but at the last words her face clouded, and she said:
