Looks Like a Case Where a Rawhide Would Improve a Boy's Memory -A Peculiar Incident.

A two-year-old baby boy crying in a little go-cart in front of the Majestic Theatre on Dundas street, attracted the attention of a good many people who happened to be in the vicinity last night after 10 o'clock.

Five minutes, ten minutes and fifteen minutes passed, and still the child remained out in front of the theatre all alone and crying loudly. Then someone mentioned the matter to P. C. Holden, who was on duty. He went over and looked around for someone who might be in charge of the child, but finding no one and thinking that probably its guardian was in the theatre, he pushed the gocart into a doorway and decided to wait until the theatre crowd came out.

FISHERIES CASE

London, Aug. 18.—Chandler P. Both will return to The Hague to answer any questions wanted by the court, which will hold a preiminary conference tomorrow.

While it is impossible to predict the esult, the American commission is confident that the court will decide in favor of the United States or the chief question in dispute, namely, regarding he right of Newfoundland to enforce regulations against American fishernen, which has been the most important grievance during recent years. It is considered probable that the court will decide that the United States had the right to object to what it holds are unreasonable regulations, with the decision as to their reasonableness left to some competent authority.

As the counsel in the case have resented such elaborate arguments it as not been possible to judge of their effect upon the court concerning the more intricate questions. The decision of the court, it is expected, will be rendered about the middle of Sep-

SIR WILFRID AT VANCOUVER.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been wonderfully welcomed in British Columbia, a province which rejected all but one of his supporters in the last election, during a wave of anti-Japanese feeling, which has since subsided. Moral courage always pays in the long run, in politics as in other spheres. The Government is stronger today in the Coast Province than it would have been had it sacrificed justice and right to the exigencies of an election.

The statement of Mr. Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, that the population of the Emerald Isle had increased by one hundred and fifteen souls in the year 1908-9 is more significant than appears at a glance.

Since the dread visitation of the famine in 1845, that country has been steadily losing population, not because Columbia organized the Laurier reof a failure of births, for the Irish are a most prolific people, but because of lose nothing by this chivalry, and he immigration, due to politico-economic

It was in 1800 that the Act of Union was passed. In the year following Ireland's population was 5,216,000, while that of England and Wales was only 8,893,000. Until the year of the famine Ireland continued to increase in population, but failed to increase in prosperity at the rate of the other divisions of the United Kingdom. In 1841, the year of the last decennial census of Great Britain before the Irish famine, the populations of the three countries were as follows: England and Wales, 16,038,000; Scotland, 2.620,000; Ireland, 8,195,000. It is believed that in 1845, when the Irish famine began, the population of Ireland was considerably above nine

The famine made awful ravages, but the loss of life was less than purse was brought in by an honest man the loss of population through emigration. The famine ceased, but the emigration continued, and Ireland became, as Macaulay expressed it, "the withered arm of the Empire." In 1851 the population was 6,552,000; in 1861, 5.800.000; in 1871, 5,387,000; in 1881, 5,160,000, or less than at the beginning of the century. In 1901 it had shrunk to 4,458,755. Meanwhile the population of Scotland had risen to 4,472,103, and that of England and Wales to 32,527,843. In 1902-3 the loss of population in Ireland was about 18,000. In 1903 came the enactment of the Wyndham land purchase ual loss was, successively, 11,000, loss was, sucessively, 11,000, 11.000 and 6,000. The year sequently may be regarded as a redletter year in Irish history.

With the improved conditions in country, due mainly to the operation of wise land laws which enable the agricultural laborer to become his own landlord, there is reason to hope that the days of decline are past, and that a new and brighter era has dawned.

In the political history of Canada, there has been nothing equal to the series of demonstrations attending Sir IRELAND'S BRIGHTER OUTLOOK, Wilfrid Laurier's progress in the west.

The Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria was 80 years old yesterday. His longevity is amazing, considering the burden of political and domestic trouble he has had to carry since his early youth.

Reports of labor conditions in Japan show that that country is going through the industrial phase which England passed through before the era of the factory acts. The so-called progress of Japan is of the juggernaut kind.

Canada got 127,000 and the United States 172,000 of the emigrants from Europe in the past seven months. Relative to population, this is nearly ten to one in Canada's favor. The digestive powers of the Republic were never taxed as Canada's are being.

THE PROPER IMPERIALISM.

[Ottawa Free Press.] It was Laurier who introduced the prin ciple of the British preference, which has now become a fixed part of the tariff legislation of all the daughter nations. It was Laurier who sent Canadian troops to the aid of the mother land in her hour of need.

It was Laurier who first entered upon

The difficulty seems to be that our Conservative friends on both sides of the Atlantic fail to realize that there are two forms of imperialism-one which would make Canadian interests secondary to those of Great Britain; the other that which places Canadian interests first, always, however, with the view of cooperating with the mother country, and retaining that free partnership which is the glory and the pride of the British Empire. Toronto, Aug. 19 .- "There are too many Englishmen having wives in England coming to Canada posing as single men, marrying again and letting their families and wives in England look after themselves. #### Administration and Woodruff in Plot to Turn Down Colonel.

Ovster Bay, L. While the victory was a matter of some joy in the Tiger camp, it was also disheartening owing to the fact that Oscar Stanage, who has been doing most of the Tiger backstopping during the year, was added to the hospital list of the champions, and will be out of the game for some time. In the eighth inning, with Stahl at bat, Oscar caught a foul tip on his ungloved hand, breaking his finger.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Cleveland's batting was poor today, and Washington won handily, 6 to 1. Feature plays were made by McBride, Birmingham and Niles, while Killifer's batting and base-running brought forth applause. The score:

The Test

On April 7, 1909, the famous test of the Knight Motor, by the Royal Automobile Club of Great Britain, was held. This test involved the running of both 38 and 22 horsepower Knight engines six days and nights without stopping, and resulted in the development of 40 per cent over their rated horsepower throughout without any sign of burning or wear at the end. It constituted the greatest engine test ever attempted.

Immediately the Daimler Company challenged the automobile manufacturers of the world to equal this performance under a similar test, and deposited £250 as a wager.

This challenge has been renewed several times.

It is still open-and still no taker.

The Conclusion

WE LEAVE TO THE READER. Knight Motors are the leading feature of the Russell cars for 1911. They are controlled exclusively in Canada by the Russell. As the result of the success of the Russell-Knight cars in 1910, one million dollars has been invested in Knight Motors for Russell 1911 cars. More would have been secured had they been available. Great care has been taken to make every part of these cars conform with the undisputed high-grade quality of the Knight

The 1911 Russell-Knight cars, the finest ever sold in Canada, will be shown at the Canadian National Exhibition, Aug. 27 to Sept. 12.

I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood and I looked about in vain for some medi-

QUIET FOR THE PRESENT

Will Neither Criticise Nor Indorse His Successor at Present-May Run in 1912 If Necessary to Keep His Policies in Effect.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 18.-Theodore Roosevelt spent today in what was probably the most important political conference he has held since he left the White House. He gathered about him a group of his close friends and talked over with them the situation, which is best expressed in the reports that relations between President Taft and himself are strained to the breaking point. William Loeb, jun., collector of the port of New York; Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the New York Republican county committee; Representative William M. Calder, of Brooklyn; Frederick J. H. Kracke, of Brooklyn. and Representative W. W. Cocks, of Col. Roostvelt's home district, took part in the conference.

From what was said by some the visitors it was learned that the ex-president and his friends have agreed on a plan of action which will hold until the situation shapes itself more clearly. Briefly stated, it is: Col. Roosevelt is to stand aside in the New York State campaign and to let the "old guard" fight its own fight and thus shoulder all the responsibility for the conduct and result of the nor criticize the Taft administration. as the peacemaker. He is to keep out all around if he

His associates believe that the only reason which might lead him to consider becoming a candidate for the presidential nomination would be the conviction that he must seek another term successfully to carry on the work he began while President.

The conference broke up late today without any definite agreement as to when another will be held. Col. Roosevelt is to start for the west Tuesday, and probably there will be no more consultations of this nature until after he returns. Most of the time today was given to consideration of the New York situation, which is regarded as the one thing which may develop in such a way as to force Col. Roosevelt to make the fight within

MANY ENGLISHMEN WILL MEET IN MONTREAL

English,

Convention of St. George's Societies To Be Held in the Metropolis.

At a largely-attended meeting of St. George's Society held last night President John Nutkins was appointed a delegate to go to Montreal in September to attend a convention of members of St. George's Society from all over Canada.

The object of the convention will be to try and bring about an affiliation of all the St. George's Societies in Canada with a head office. It is not at all unlikely that London may be chosen as the headquarters, as the society here is one of the oldest and strongest in Canada, having been organized in 1867. If the affiliation of the societies can be brought to a successful conclusion it is likely that the society may seek affiliation with the Royal St. George's Society of England, the object being to strengthen the ties which bind Englishmen together throughout the Empire.

"Of course, the whole thing is merely in embryo yet," said a member of the society to The Advertiser today, "but if it goes through it may have a world-wide influence." In the event of President Nutkins not being able to attend the convention, Mr. James Wilkins was chose

IN TAGGART'S BED

Hamilton Asylum Escape.

Hamilton, Aug. 19 .- The interest- the conspiracy. ng feature today about the escape of the two murderers from the asylum, Moir and Taggart, is the statement that the tools which Moir used to effect the escape were found in Taggart's bed. Some screws that were taken from the window of Moir's room, a saw, some string, and some chisels, were included in the outfit. and their discovery leads to the belief that Moir, and not Taggart, engineered the whole affair, and that he simply made use of Taggart when he was denied permission to write to the outside world. Detective Miller, who has the case in hand, could not be seen regarding this.

Beyond this there appears to be nothing new in the matter. The police are still working on the automobile theory, but have not been able Capt. #### NO HEAD ENGINEER FOR CITY THIS YEAR

This is partly due to the fact that the water commissioners, not enamor-Dr. Jarvis for treatment. His injuries partment that they are independent of the city council, and can produce the most satisfactory results. They are also not so willing not to contribute $1,000 or more towards the support of a head engineer as they were when the matter was first broached. In addition there are divisions in the council. Those who are advocating the selection of a head engineer are not very popular with their colleagues, and there will be no stampede to support their selection. Many of them are strong for economy, and cannot see the advantage of a high priced engineer now.

The matter was slated to be discussed last night at the meeting of the ten weeks ago, is still confined to his board of works, but in the afternoon married to Dean Louis Brooks, of Erbena, Illinois. The marriage was performed by the Rev. J. W. Baird, Issued by the Magistrate.

MAGISTRATE LOVE IS WITH THE LAWYERS

The move made by the lawyers of Hamilton to have summonses issued by others than magistrates, is of considerable interest to legal gentlemen in this city.

Magistrate Love, when asked regarding the matter today, stated that "In some cases," he said, "it is, of course, necessary, but not very often.

I do not think it desirable at all as a general rule, for the simple reason that a magistrate is liable to have a one-sided view by hearing only one side of a question. He should have his mind free from knowledge of the case, so that he may decide fairly for both parties."

Magistrate Jelfs, of Hamilton, argues that the magistrate should issue the summons, as in that way many unimportant cases are prevented from being dragged into court.

During luncheon great excitement arose among the ladies, for a real live mouse actually appeared and attempted to carry off one of the best roasted weiners. Then a chase began, neither party being aware which was the hound or the hare. The most enjoyable evening was
