In the cash transactions of the Savings Banks the withdrawals, $11,280,040.96, exceeded the deposits, $11,224,195.15, by $55,845.81; there was added, however, to the various accounts accrued interest to the extent of $1,470,332.34. On the 30th June the total balance at the credit of the depositors was $44,450,498.85, or an increase of $1,414,486.53 over the balance held at the same time last year.

The amount of Dominion notes in circulation on the 30th June was $19,520,233.12.

Sums aggregating $2,002,311.36 were invested in the course of the year on account of the Sinking Funds of the various loans. On the 30th June, the amount of these funds in our hands was $34,359,088.01. The amount of debt of various kinds redeemed was $2,616,181.01.

The operations of the year resulted in an increase of $6,891,897.61 in the net debt, which on the 30th June stood in our books at $253,074,927.09. The increase is accounted for as follows:—

Public Accounts.

The net rate of interest paid on the gross debt averaged for the year $3.29 per cent against $3.31 per cent in 1893-4. The net rate of interest paid on the debt was $2.93 per cent against $2.91 per cent the previous year.

Since the issue of last year's Public Accounts, the Arbitrators on the disputed transactions between the Dominion and the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec have had several meetings, and have given decisions on various points. The first and most important was that with respect to the increased annuities payable to the Indians on the north shores of Lakes Huron and Superior. In this the main contention of the Dominion was sustained by the arbitrators, but an appeal from their award was taken to the Supreme Court of Canada by the provincial authorities. It is understood that by the decision of that court given a few days ago, the award of the arbitrators has been changed and that the province of Quebec has been made liable for the payment of its proportion of the augmented annuities since Confederation, which by the award was to be charged solely to Ontario, only affecting the position of the Dominion to this extent. For the amount claimed by the Dominion from Ontario with respect to certain expenditure for the transport of immigrants in the years 1878, 1879 and 1880, an award was given. With respect to the claim made by the Province of Ontario against the Dominion for the sum of $21,488.74, the amount of defalcation in connection with the Upper Canada Municipalities Fund, the arbitrators awarded $15,732.76 to be credited to the Province on 1st July, 1872, and the Dominion was discharged from any liability as to the balance. With respect to the claim of the Dominion against the Province of Ontario for $16,781.35 paid to the latter by the city of Hamilton, the arbitrators decided that the amount should be charged to the Province of Ontario on 31st Dec., 1892.

A question arose as to whether or not the validity of all entries made in the Province of Canada Debt Account up to 30th June, 1872, was established by the operation of the Dominion Act of 1873, 36 Vic., cap. 30, or whether these entries were examinable on their merits. It was decided by the Board that each and every of the items found in the Province of Canada Account as shown in the statement of account prepared for the arbitration was examinable on its merits, and was not finally established by the operation of the above cited Act, or otherwise.

The decision of the Supreme Court of Canada, on the appeal referred to in my last year's report, was against the Dominion.

The Common School Fund, in which, however, the Dominion is not greatly interested, formed the subject of a lengthy sitting of the board in July last. Owing to the many complicated questions arising in connection therewith no decision has as yet been rendered.

There are a number of subjects in dispute that have not yet been brought before the arbitrators, but it is hoped these will be reached during the coming year.

The total cost of the management of the Department, including the salary of the Minister of Finance, was $66,824.44, or a reduction of $699.18 on that of last year. The details of the expenditure are as follows :—

Minister's salary.....	$ 7,000 00
Salaries of staff.....	49,690 00
Expenditure in Charges of management.....	4,530 75
Contingencies.....	5,603 69
	$66,824 44

From the table on page lxxxvi it will be seen that the salaries of the staff for the year 1894-5 were some $800 less than for the previous year, and with one exception were lower than for any year since 1878-9. This saving is chiefly due to a reduction in the staff.

The economy that has marked the management of the department is very largely attributable to the efficiency of its officers. An additional cause will be found in the working out of the principles of the Superannuation Act.

This will no doubt be apparent from a study of the voluminous return called for by parliament during its last session, which return is now about ready. In addition however to what is comprised therein, and in order to more fully understand the operations of the Act, I would venture to suggest that I am of opinion that it is desirable that supplementary returns should be prepared to show the amounts of abatements deducted for superannuation purposes from the salaries of past members of the public service who, from death, resignation or other causes were never placed upon the retired list, and also from the salaries of those now in the service who through good health or not being sufficiently aged have not as yet been retired.

In connection with the information contained in the return it should be borne in mind that the disparity in some instances between the amounts contributed as abatements and the payments drawn for retired allowances is accounted for by the fact, that those who were placed on the retired list during the earlier years the Act was in force were those who, from long service, had contributed little or nothing for the purposes of the Act when the time came for their retirement. The Act only came into force in 1870.

For the further understanding of the operations of the Act I have had prepared and append two tables, the first showing the number and salaries of officials employed in the public service who were subject to the Act on the 1st July, 1892, 1893 and 1894, and the second exhibiting the number of employees, according to their ages, on 1st July, 1894. From the former table a steady decline will be observed to have taken place each year in the number of those subject to the old Act, and this decrease will no doubt go on with an accelerated ratio until, within no very great distance of time, the obligations entailed by it will very largely be removed.

I cannot conclude this report without referring, as I have so often done, to the able assistance I have received from the members of the department during the year.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. M. COURTNEY,
Deputy Minister of Finance.
