KENTVILLE WINS AT WOLFVILLE

Local Ball Team Loses After Making Splendid Start

A large crowd turned out to witness the baseball game on the Campus, Wednesday afternoon between the Kentville and Wolfville teams. In spite of numerous errors the game was most interesting, and although Kentville won by the score of 9 to 4, the play was more even than the score would indicate.

The local team got away to a good start and secured four runs in three innings, while their opponents were left blank. Then the tables turned and Kentville scored two in the fourth innings, four in the sixth, two in the seventh and one in the eighth, while Wolfville were unable to add to their score.

Burrell pitched a splendid game for the visitors, allowing only nine hits and having eight strike outs to his credit. Brown also did well, striking out seven men, and allowing twelve hits. Each pitcher allowed one walk. The Wolfville boys played a much better game in the field than in the game with Middleton, although errors were quite numerous. J. W. Williams and Mr. Wark, of Kentville, acted as umpires.

BASEBALL NOTES

We notice by the papers that a Junior Baseball League is being formed in the western part of the Valley. Why not such a league in eastern Kings? We would suggest teams representing Wolfville, Kentville, Canning and Hantsport, and if such a league could be arranged THE ACADIAN would be glad to put up a cup for competition.

Most of the ball players boosted up their averages in Wednesday's game, and they now stand as follows:

Batting Averages
Stanley West	308
Harold Evans	250
Cecil Langille	250
Blair Elderkin	182
Arthur Brown	166
Elmer Kenney	154
Gil Rand	100

Get out of the hole boys.

The game between the "All Stars" and the "Old Timers" last Friday evening caused a good deal of interest. The latter team put up a good game and the final score was 9 to 8 in their favor. Donald Munro pitched and M. C. Foster caught for the "Old Timers", while Elderkin pitched and Langille caught for the "All Stars". The teams were composed of the following players:

Old Timers: H. Baird, L. Baird, M. C. Foster, H. Ruffee, O. D. Porter, Geo. Waterbury, F. Lordy, Don. Munro, Rufus Burgess.

All Stars: Barteaux, Rand, Brown, West, Evans, Kenney, Langille, Elderkin, Annis.

A return game was played on Monday evening when the "All Stars" took revenge on their opponents who they defeated by the score of 9 to 0. These games are good practice and should be kept up.

SAYS CRIME IS DECREASING

Mrs. R. R. Jamieson, of Calgary, first woman Juvenile Court Judge in Canada, and in the world, says that she notes a decrease in crime. Prohibition and the general financial stringency are reasons given by her. "It is difficult to find an exact reason" she said, "prohibition has been a great factor of course."

MAN SHOT HIMSELF AT GREENFIELD

A shocking affair occurred at Greenfield on Tuesday afternoon when Lawrence Shunamon, of Beaver Bank, an employee in the saw-mill of Percy Jodrey, while in a fit of despondency, ended his life.

Shunamon was left in charge of the mill while his employer was attending a funeral and when Mr. Jodrey returned he found the mill closed and the man missing.

Subsequently Shunamon was found dead by the roadside with a discharged shotgun at his side. Although the tragedy occurred within a short distance of the church and not far from houses the report of the gun was heard by no one so far as known. The body was discovered by a young man named Keith Benjamin who passed the spot at dusk, and Coroners Barts, of Wolfville, and Fullerton, of Port Williams, were at once notified.

Permission was given to remove the body to the home of Percy Jodrey, where the inquest was held on Wednesday by Coroner Fullerton, the verdict being that it was a case of suicide, the conclusion being based upon the position of the shot-gun beside the body. Several possible reasons for the rash act are given, the most likely being that his mind became unbalanced in sorrow over the sudden death of his mother recently.

It is also said that he had been for some time paying attention to a young lady in the neighborhood who recently became tired of his attentions.

The deceased was a son of Joseph Shunamon, of Beaver Bank, Halifax county, and had been employed for some time at the mill in Greenfield. He was a frequent visitor to Wolfville, where those who knew him regarded him as a most unlikely person to become despondent. He was slightly lame.

PORT WILLIAMS HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Kenneth Hibbert, of Halifax, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chase.

The concert given last Friday evening in Temperance Hall, under the direction of Mrs. O. G. Cogswell, was most successful in every way. The proceeds amounted to $32.50. The entertainment will be repeated at Canning on June 30th.

A large number from here attended the marriage of Miss Greta Ogden Harvey, daughter of Mr. J. W. Harvey, to Mr. John C. Gilman, of Bradford, Mass., at St. Andrew's church, Wolfville, on Tuesday afternoon. A full account of the wedding is given on page one.

The work of painting the Baptist church has been started. Mr. Fred A. Forsythe is in charge of the work.

Mr. Geo. H. Gates has insured his barn against lightning by having a set of lightning rods installed. The centre rod is in the form of a very pretty weather vane.

Rev. and Mrs. O. N. Chipman are away on vacation, and will visit different parts of the province.

The pupils of Grade VIII are writing their examinations at Wolfville this week. The Grade IX and X pupils go to Wolfville to write next week.

HUGE LOAN

OTTAWA, June 20.—Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, intends to ask Parliament for authority to raise a loan of $350,000,000. The loan is needed to pay all maturing loans and obligations, inclusive, it is understood, of the $182,000,000 of five year Victory loan, issued in 1917 and falling due in December. It is probable that the new loan will, in part, at any rate, be raised in Canada.

JUNE BRIDES

Popular Girls Given in Marriage—Pretty Weddings This Week.

GILMAN-HARVEY

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, this town, was the scene of an interesting and very pretty ceremony on Tuesday afternoon when Miss Greta Ogden Harvey, second daughter of Mr. J. W. Harvey, of Port Williams, was united in marriage to Mr. John C. Gilman, of Bradford, Mass.

Friends of the bride, under the leadership of Mrs. Russell Forbes, artistically arranged the floral decorations for the occasion and the church presented a beautiful appearance dressed in green and white.

Miss Jean Foote, of Halifax, presided at the organ and rendered a delightful program during the assembling of the guests who practically filled the church. Misses Doris Chambers and Frances Stackhouse gracefully performed the office of ushers.

Shortly after 1 o'clock the groom, supported by Mr. Robert Starr, of Starr's Point, entered the church and took the place assigned him, and was soon joined by the bride who entered leaning on the arm of her father, preceded by her dainty little flower girls, Misses Don Elder Harvey and Stuart Lydiard, dressed in blue and white pongee silk, and attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Harvey, as bridesmaid.

The bride, who is most popular both at her home in Port Williams and in Wolfville where she is equally well known, looked decidedly charming, dressed in white Canton crepe de Chine, trimmed with pearls, and hand embroidered veil and orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid was attired in heavenly dew crepe de Chine and her bouquet was of gladioli.

Rev. G. W. Miller was the officiating minister and he was assisted by Rev. Thomas McFall, of Somerset, who offered the prayer. The impressive and beautiful double-ring service was used.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, where an opportunity was given the many friends to offer congratulations and best wishes. The decorations were in pink and yellow roses and Mrs. Harvey attired in orchid crepe de Chine, hand embroidered, was an ideal hostess. Dainty refreshments were served and a most enjoyable social time was spent. The display of wedding gifts was most extensive and beautiful and certified the esteem in which the bride is held in her old home.

The groom's present to the organist was a platinum bar-pin set with diamond, to the flower girls, pearl rings and to the ushers, silver vanity-cases, initialed.

The happy young couple took their departure by auto for Annapolis en route to their future home at Bradford, Mass., followed by heart-felt best wishes from a host of friends.

The bride's going-away dress was of navy blue tricotine with black hat.

MORINE-BRECKIN

A wedding of interest was solemnized in the Upper Canard Baptist Church on Wednesday, June 14th, when Harriette Roberts, daughter of Mrs. George Breckin, Upper Canard, became the bride of Frederick Howe Morine, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Morine, of Church Street, Cornwallis, Rev. A. J. Prosser officiating. The bride who was given away by her mother, was charming in a gown of white satin, with conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of pink bridal roses. The church was beautifully decorated by the girl friends of the bride and the wedding march was played by Mrs. William Harris. The bridesmaid, Miss Lillian Breckin, sister of the bride, looked lovely in a gown of canary organdie. Two little flower-girls, the wee daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Stanton Rockwell, and Mr. and Mrs. North, of Canning, wearing dainty gowns of white organdie with girdles of flowers, scattered flowers in the path of the bridal party. The gifts were many and beautiful. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Morine left on a motor trip through the province, and on their return will reside in Church Street, Cornwallis.

KEIRSTEAD-STACKHOUSE

An occasion looked forward to with real interest by their many friends was the marriage on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, of Margaret Bars Stackhouse, third daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Stackhouse, and Captain Ronald MacNeil Keirstead, only son of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Keirstead, of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Chute, D. D., and Rev. Dr. Keirstead was present and assisted. An interesting coincidence was the fact that Dr. Chute officiated at the marriage of the groom's parents, while Dr. Keirstead was the officiating clergyman at the wedding of the bride's parents.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride, one of the oldest and most picturesque residences of Wolfville, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white and yellow roses, blossoms and flowering plants, making a bower of summer loveliness. The bride wore an afternoon frock of blue and gray silk Canton crepe, with hat to correspond and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, maidenhair fern and snapdragon. She was attended by her sister, Frances, who wore taupe charmeuse satin with over-dress of georgette. The groom, who is well known in Wolfville, having spent his early boyhood here, was supported by his cousin, Arthur Parker.

The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Pope.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, and followed by hearty congratulations and best wishes Capt. and Mrs. Keirstead left by the afternoon train for their future home in Toronto.

The bride's going away suit was a handsome navy blue tricotine worn with blue hat, gray shoes and gloves.

The popularity of the young couple was evidenced by a large and beautiful collection of wedding gifts including linen, china, cut glass, silver and numerous cheques.

A number of out-of-town guests were present among whom were Dr. and Mrs. Keirstead, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Grant, Miss Frances Keirstead and Mrs. Rod MacDonald.

GERTRIDGE-COLDWELL

At 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 21, the Baptist church at Gasperau was the scene of a very pretty wedding, principals being Oda Hazel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Coldwell, and Mr. Glenn C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Gertridge.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. R. W. Bennett, D. D., the double ring ceremony being used.

The church was tastefully and beautifully decorated with ferns, potted plants and flowers, the bridal couple standing beneath an arch from which hung a daisy bell of exquisite workmanship. The color scheme being yellow, green and white.

Miss Coldwell was charmingly attired in a gown of bridal satin and georgette, embroidered with gold thread, and the conventional veil caught with orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, fern and snap dragon.

The bride was attended by Miss Frena Irvine, a cousin of the groom, who was attired in a gown of maize crepe de chine with a wreath of syringa. Miss

THE PASSING SHOW

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Dear Editor,—I read the letter of Mr. F. C. Churchill in your last issue concerning the action of the Social Service Council in attempting to lessen the number of orders given by the doctors to enable thirty ones to secure intoxicants.

It recalls to me the fact that his esteemed grand-father, the late Ezra Churchill, was a man who also had the courage of his convictions and at a time when the cause of temperance was less popular than it is today did much to prevent the sale and use of intoxicating liquors. The village of Hantsport, which owed its growth largely to his energy and enterprise had also to thank him for the firm stand which he took in the matter of keeping the community safe and respectable. How times have changed.

It is recorded of several recent criminals condemned to pay the death penalty that they "lighted a cigarette before mounting the scaffold". The action is evidently in keeping with the spirit of the time. A few days ago I saw a young lady accompanied by an equally young gentleman about to enter a popular local ice-cream resort. The young man paused at the door to light a cigarette before entering, and with no apology to his companion. How times have changed. It is not so long ago that it was thought necessary to ask permission before smoking in the presence of a non-smoker, especially in the case of a lady.

Given the facilities for transportation which the people of today enjoy how the churches would have been crowded on the Sunday mornings of the long ago. There comes before my mind as I write how the horses were harnessed to the big wagon to drive over miles of country road to the village church and how father, mother and all the children crowded in and made the outing the chief interest of the week. How the times change! Now the big car is rolled-out of the garage for a joy-ride to some distant point and the call of the church-bell too often falls upon deaf ears. Regular church attendance is a good habit. It did much to develop the rugged characters of the old time and its influence is still felt. Modern customs will also bear fruit.

JOHN WORDEN BECKWITH

Wolfville lost another aged and highly respected citizen on Tuesday morning when the death occurred of Mr. John Worden Beckwith. Mr. Beckwith had been in failing health for some time, and although the end was not unexpected it came very suddenly.

The deceased was born at Cornwallis about eighty years ago, a son of the late Joseph Beckwith, and was the last surviving member of a large family. He was a man of sterling qualities who contributed the full quota of community service during a long and useful life.

His early years were spent on a farm at Church Street and about thirty years ago he came with his family to make his home in Wolfville, where he has since continued to reside. For a number of years he and his good wife conducted the Royal Hotel which under their management, as now, was a most popular place of entertainment. During their occupation the building was burned and re-built in its present commodious form.

About twelve years ago he retired from the hotel business and purchased the property on Acadia street, where he ended his days.

Mr. Beckwith was a member of the Baptist church, which he joined in early life at Canard, and in politics an ardent supporter of the Liberal-Conservative party.

He is survived by his aged widow, who was formerly Miss Ellis, of Sheffield Mills, one son, Dr. Fred Beckwith, of Glace Bay, and three daughters, Miss Ada, at home; Mrs. W. C. B. Harris, of Wolfville; and Mrs. A. L. Daniel, of Brandon, Manitoba.

The funeral took place from his late home on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. MacDonald and Rev. Dr. Manning.

The two old favorite hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Rock of Ages", were rendered by a mixed quartette and Rev. Dr. Manning offered a most comforting prayer. The address by Dr. MacDonald paid a fitting tribute to the life and character of the departed. The interment was at Willow Bank Cemetery.

GREAT TEMPERANCE MEETING IN LONDON, G. B.

Temperance work in Great Britain enters a new phase with the representative gathering at the Westminster Central Hall on May 12.

For nine months the President of the Wesleyan Methodist Church (Rev. J. A. Sharp) and the denominational temperance secretaries (Revs. H. Carter and E. Benson Perkins) have conducted a vigorous campaign within the denomination.

The remarkable response to their appeals has suggested the widening of the campaign to include all the Churches. The Rev. H. Carter, to whom the task of explaining the new development fell, said that the Baptists and Presbyterians had agreed to cordial co-operation, as also had the Salvation Army.

The Congregational Union had through its President (Rev. T. Yates) expressed itself favorably. The temperance executive of the Primitive Methodists, the United Methodists, the Friends, the Moravians, and other religious bodies had promised co-operation.

Letters of interest and sympathy had been received from the Archbishops of Canterbury, York and Wales. The National Free Church Council had that afternoon decided to link up all the local federations and councils with the campaign.

All the fourteen constituent executives of the Temperance Council of the Christian Churches had given their adherence, and the fact, to him, signified that henceforth the Churches would move forward in unhesitating agreement in the fight to a finish against the drink evil.

Their policy for the moment was one of intensive education. The wider campaign would begin in the autumn in South Wales, where temperance forces were highly organized and ready for advance.

Next year the effort would be formally and strikingly inaugurated in England.

The hall had a large audience, and Mr. Gerald France, M. P., who presided, described the platform as an example of Christian unity.

Rev. J. A. Sharp, an abstainer for life and a "fighting abstainer" from his fifteenth year, had an upstanding reception, a testimony to foresight and daring in devoting his Presidential year to temperance advocacy.

The Bishop of Croydon, President of the Temperance Council of the Christian Churches, promised the full strength of that organization for the movement.

Mrs. Pereira, of the Church of England Temperance Society, said that the union should inspire them with temperance zeal as never before, and Lady Barlow, in a speech shot through with wit and human sympathy, reminded women that they were the guardians of young life.

A roar of cheering endorsed her closing

Is Now a Healthy Boy

"From a puny, delicate child, my little Johnny has become a strong sturdy boy."

One mother writes:—"If you had seen my little Johnny four months ago and you were to see him to-day, you would never believe that he is the same boy. Then he weighed only 49 pounds, almost double what he weighed four months ago. His trouble first started with a cold, which we never noticed because he was strong and like all boys of his age occasionally caught cold. After a while we began to notice that his cough, instead of getting better, was getting worse, that he was looking pale and losing weight. He seemed to be tired all the time, had no energy to do anything. Before he caught this cold he had no trouble with his lessons and remained at the head of his class without much study. But we began to notice a change. He didn't seem to care whether he knew his lessons or not and nothing seemed to interest him. He coughed so much and so hard at times that his face would become purple and we thought he would surely burst a blood vessel. Medicines and cough mixtures didn't do him any good. Finally, in desperation and as a last resort, we tried Carnol. In a short time his cough had almost disappeared. His appetite was returning and he was beginning to take an interest in his studies. And, thanks to Carnol, he has become a strong and healthy as he has ever been."

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it has not done you any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money. 1-122

ACADIAN ROMANCE IN MODERN FORM MAKES INTERESTING READING

"Jen of the Marshes" by John Frederic Herbin; The Cornhill Publishing Company, Boston, Mass.

(From the Montreal Daily Star)

Of all the spots in a land that teems with romance, there is perhaps none which lends itself better to the requirements of the novelist than the sunlit spaces of Acadia. The salt marshes, the wonderful meadows, the astounding tides, and the marvel of sunlight, moonlight, twilight, and every other variation of light upon land and water, combine to make this Acadian paradise an area of beauty and of everlasting pictorial loveliness. And when it is chosen for the background of a romance in which natural qualities replace the stilted, often turgid factors that all too often are submitted as human emotion, the beauty and the wonder are made all the more real.

John Frederic Herbin has chosen this ideal land of romance as the setting for a story as refreshing, as simple, and as charming as any that have claimed a place in the list of romances that ring true for several years past. He has made no attempt to surprise or to impress. He has been content to let his story speak for itself, and in this he has been fully justified by results. It is an invigorating sort of tale, in which the characters, clear-cut and convincing, tell their own story without any adventitious aids of decorative detail or elaborate description.

The impression left upon the reader is that although we live in a swiftly moving age, the spirit of romance is deathless still, and the beauty that lies in starlight and a woman's eyes can never be destroyed. If for nothing else, he would have earned our gratitude. There is far too much of brutalized realism in the world today. Mr. Herbin elects to ignore it. We are with him, heart and soul. S. M. P.

RASPBERRIES

(Experimental Farms Note.) At this season of the year continuous cultivation of the raspberry plantation should be practised, at least, up until the time the ripe fruit is hanging on the canes.

During this season of the year some attention will need to be paid to insect control, occasionally the raspberry sawfly will cause considerable damage to the foliage and when noticed can be controlled by the use of arsenical sprays, such as arsenate of lead or arsenate of lime, used at the rate of two pounds of the powdered form to forty gallons of water, and sprayed on the bushes. A couple of thorough sprayings will generally suffice to control this pest.

Every year there are numerous requests from growers, asking why the tips of their young canes are wilting. Upon close examination it will be seen that the cane has been girdled at the point where it has commenced to wilt. This is the work of the raspberry cane borer and when this wilting is first noticeable is the time to institute control. Cut well below the wilted portion and destroy the cut portion. If these are not removed the young larvae, hatching from the eggs laid in the girdle, will work down the cane and practically destroy it.

As soon as the fruiting season is over remove the old canes by cutting them off close to the ground, and destroy them. This gives the new canes a better chance and assists in insect and pest control. M. B. DAVIS, Pomologist, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

"WAY DOWN EAST"

It may seem a little unusual but this paper knows enough in advance about "Way Down East" to advise you that all lovers of the best in motion pictures see this production at the earliest opportunity because the record of "Way Down East" in every city where it has played is that it has done "turn-away" box office business.

From all reliable sources of information it is manifested that Griffith has outdone himself in "Way Down East". He has taken a simple story of a phase of New England life that is all but too swiftly passing from view and employed its plain people with their quaint characters and their rugged sense of the honest and the human and unfolded a series of adventures and restraints which illumine the ever troubled path of love. As Mr. Griffith himself likes to put it "Way Down East" is a tale of love and lovers in a frame of such exquisite charm and pastoral beauty the most capacious of critics have said many of its scenes are worthy to hang in the best art galleries of the world. Rising up from its charm and its humors in colorful contrasts it rushes to a climax in the powerful ice jam and the breaking up of the floe on the river which combines every element of stirring drama and becomes at once the most astounding and remarkable scene ever seen within a playhouse in all times.

In most cases it isn't what the young man earns that makes him rich; it's what the old man saved.

George W. Logan, was largely attended, the singing of the Conventer's Psalm, "The Lord's My Shepherd", adding to the impressive service. The floral offerings were very beautiful. The remains were laid to rest in Grafton.

HONEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1922

Let that neighbor of yours have health and a clear course on which to steer himself, and you need never ask him if he's happy. The average man is not lazy or a pessimist when he has those two things in his life. They bring him as much happiness as he cares to have or as he has reason to need.

"Can"

ADVERTISING is the public expression of a master's will and wish—his word of power.

We want to say this to the merchants of this community: You CAN make the public of this community buy more goods from you.

You CAN teach the public new customs, new tastes, new habits. You CAN make the public do what it is not in the habit of doing. Powerful and persistent advertising has revolutionized modern life. It sends people travelling. It has made them photographers. It has made the motor-car a necessity. It makes women change the fashion of their apparel twice or thrice a year. It selects the very food we eat.

A NOTE TO THE PUBLIC

Does not the publicly expressed will and wish of the merchants of this community influence you in your shopping? Do you not go where you are gulled? Are you not very attentive and responsive to the advertisements which appear each week in the columns of "The Acadian"?

NEWSPAPER'S SIDE OF FREE PUBLICITY

(From a Philadelphia paper.)

Were Philadelphia to pay at commercial rates for all the free advertising which the newspapers now contribute gratis, the annual outlay for that item would exceed the whole cost of the police department.

There is never a single copy of any of those papers printed on any day of the year which does not contain from one to twenty items, either so-called news or editorial, that is a gratuity handed out for the common welfare and from which the paper directly or indirectly receives not a penny of profit.

The people of this city never expect a shipyard to do anything but build ships. A locomotive plant has done its duty when it constructs railway engines. A hat factory, flour mill, clothing factory, bank, store, trolley road and telephone is not reckoned upon to give its time, service or capital for boosting any enterprise except its own.

But a newspaper has dozens of requests every day to print or to urge, to command or to damn, to beg or to promote something out of which the owner of the paper can derive no financial benefit. He is expected to employ his capital in that way for the common welfare.

A newspaper has but two possible sources of income. One is from the sale of the paper and the other from the sale of advertising space.

Whatever in the paper does not attract readers to buy is not a profitable thing for the owner financially.

Whatever in the paper takes up space where an advertisement might be printed is a direct and immediate loss. Very little of what is called "civic boosting" ever brings to a newspaper a single reader. Certainly no begging proposition does.

Armenians always require "relief," so it seems, and the papers are expected to print columns of appeals. But no person would ever think of buying a newspaper just to read an article asking him to contribute money to some one 6,000 miles away.

An account of a prize fight, baseball game, murder, election, elopement in high social circles, a horse race, a battle or a hot debate in parliament would sell papers. Readers would buy to see that sort of thing.

Keep Your Shoes Neat
2 IN 1
WHITE

CAKE OR LIQUID

Yet the Philadelphia papers give daily many columns of space on white paper that costs them dearly to the boosting or begging or promoting propositions. And let Philadelphians remember that such is not the case everywhere.

The journal which for a century and a quarter has been regarded in all parts of the world as the greatest newspaper published is The London Times. But so far as booming anything in London goes, the Times might as well be printed in Tokio. It devotes but little of its resources and capital to that sort of thing.

It may be contended that it is a newspaper's legitimate business to urge and beg and boost. But it is not more the function of a newspaper than of a magazine and magazines thrive by publishing only such articles as their editors believe the public wishes to read.

The magazine tries and does secure circulation by interesting its readers and so gets advertisements. It publishes no Belgian, no Polish, nor Armenian appeals; never urges better street paving and cleaning; does not coax people to contribute for the support of hospitals and colleges; makes no demonstration for saving babies, swatting the fly or any of those things which daily newspapers are constantly asked to help.

Every newspaper gives more of its service free than almost any other institution that is not an endowed charity, while at the same time it voluntarily, for what it deems to be the public good, refuses to accept profitable advertising. Who can estimate, therefore, the sum total of such a policy, day in and day out, adhered to by our newspapers?

DID THE DUCKS GET OUR APPLES?

The old negro was asking for credit at the village store.

"How comes it, Rastus, that you are asking for credit already; didn't you ship a carload of melons north just last week?"

"De ducks got 'bout all dose melons, sah," was the mournful reply.

"What do you mean the ducks got 'em?"

"Well, you see, exclaimed the old man, 'I sent dose melons up no'th an' dey deducks da freight, an' dey deducks da packin' charges, an' dey deducks da storage charges, an' dey deducks da commission, an' dey deducks da government tax—yes sah, de ducks got 'bout all dose melons; dat's how comes it!'"

In a small town there isn't much to do except wonder which of the local boys will marry this year's school teachers.

COSTUMES FOR BATHING SEASON

Amid the sparkle of the waves and the sand and the eyes of the beach-nymphs at Greater Boston beaches this summer will be a new sparkle—the sparkle of earrings.

Long drop earrings, oriental fashioned dangling from beneath the edges of bandana-like bathing caps, is the latest acquisition to the fashions at the beaches.

The early bathing girls who have braved the waters of Nantasket thus early have worn them. And fashion experts predict that earrings will prevail among all the women bathers this summer.

It would seem, however, that what the ears have gained in the nature of adornment has been lost to the torso—meaning, that early indications point to brevity, discreet brevity, in ladies' one-piece bathing suits.

With the foregoing theory in view, stern moralists are wearing an even sterner visage than usual because of the announcement the ladies' necks also will be adorned.

Necks, Dame Fashion tells us, will be adorned with scarfs, vari-colored scarfs, similar to those that adorn the necks of the Tremont St. flappers. The bathing scarfs will be made of thin rubber, however, but will be long and will trail fantastically in the water when the ladies swim.

Whether or not the torso part of the bathing costume will be deprived still further to provide the scarf isn't stated.

Dainty sandals, snappy garters to hold the equally snappy socks complete the bathing costume of fashion as revealed by the early comers at Nantasket.

"Bathing suits will be embroidered in bright shades, either of silk or wool," declares a fashion expert. "Usually they will be of wool, however, for it is more in keeping with jersey cloth. Large figures and large designs will give the 1922 bathing girl more of an oriental touch than ever."—Boston paper.

"Now, Tommy Smith," said the school-teacher one morning, "what is the half of eight?"

"Which way, teacher?" asked the youngster cautiously.

"Which way!" replied the astonished lady. "What do you mean?"

"Well, on top or sideways, teacher?" said Tommy.

"What difference does that make?"

"Why", Tommy explained, with pitying air, "half off the top of eight is nought, but half of it sideways is three."

CHIMES OF NORMANDY

(From The Windsor Tribune.)

The "Chimes of Normandy" by the Wolfville Opera Company was a success from every standpoint each artist taking the part assigned to them particularly well. Miss Evelyn Duncanson as Serpette was particularly pleasing. Her stage presence was unusually good. Of Messrs. Silver and Mason well known here no mention is needed as their fame is already established among us.

The part of Germaine taken by Miss Mona Parsons was well rendered while the part of Gaspard, the miser, Mr. Evans handled the difficult role with much skill. The dancing specialty was most enjoyable and received many encores.

The limited space does not allow special mention to each member. The Notary and Bailii parts were also well rendered by Mr. Rand and Stackhouse. Much could be said in praise of the chorus who showed marks of talent, grace and training.

The costumes were very attractive and the audience went to their homes well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

CRICKET

The earliest mention of cricket is in the writing of one John Derrick, who in 1593 wrote that "he and his fellows did runne and play at cricket." But in the Bodleian Library at Oxford there is an old picture of a monk bowling a ball to another monk, who is about to strike it, and the date of that is two hundred years earlier.

BEING BUSY

If you were busy being true To what you know you ought to do, You'd be so busy you'd forget The blunders of the folks you've met. If you were busy being right, You'd find yourself too busy quite To criticise your neighbour long, Because he's busy being wrong.

OUR GROUCH

Unlike most other towns in Nova Scotia the local printing establishment in Wolfville is to no extent protected from that annoying parasite on the country printer—the travelling salesman. The prices offered by these gentry are in no case lower than ours nor the grade of work any better. The intruder pays nothing to the upkeep of the town while THE ACADIAN pays taxes as do other legitimate businesses. The fact that he is a stranger enables the visitor often times to secure an appreciable share of the business which properly belongs to the home printer. The communities are so small that the printer man is not able to replace the business so lost—and we are the losers while the customer gains nothing either in price or service. A case in point came under our notice this week when the representative of a Toronto house visited our business men and solicited orders for the same lines of work that we are fully prepared to supply. The attention of the license committee was directed to the presence of the peddler but no action was taken either to prevent him pursuing his nefarious operations or to enrich the town treasury to the extent of a reasonable license fee.

This kind of practice has been going on in Wolfville for years and while there is ample protection along this line for "the butcher, the baker, the candle-stick maker, the local printer is obliged to hoe his own row. It would not be so bad if the outsider was required to remunerate the town for the privilege of doing business by a reasonable tax as what we lose on the one hand would then be partially compensated in the lessened tax we would be obliged to pay in order to keep the town machinery running. After due consideration of the matter from every conceivable angle we are led to the conclusion that an appeal to the fair-mindedness of the people is our only remedy. THE ACADIAN has made a large expenditure during recent years to provide an equipment that is creditable to itself and the community which it represents. We pay good wages to competent workmen who spend their money in Wolfville. Our practice is to buy so far as is possible all that we need from local merchants, and in return we ask that in so far as our work and prices compare favorably with the outsider our establishment be given the preference when anything in the line of up-to-date printing is required.

OUR MUNICIPAL RULERS

In the course of a few months the people of this county in common with their fellows throughout Nova Scotia, will have the privilege of electing municipal rulers for the transaction of the public affairs of the county during the coming term. The election of these Counsellors is an important matter and it is none too soon that it should have due consideration at the hands of the electors. Notwithstanding that the provincial legislature has taken over most of the powers which the Municipal Council formerly enjoyed there are still many avenues of usefulness open to its members. It is certainly time that the people of this county saw to it that public affairs were handled in a business-like manner, with due regard for the interests of those who are obliged to pay the bills. This does not mean necessarily that less money should be expected but that the expenditure be made along sound and reasonable lines and in keeping with the same business principles employed in the operation of private enterprises. In the conduct of our public undertakings, the care of our poor and unfortunate, the carrying out of modern ideas respecting our prison-life and in many other directions the Council should take the lead instead of standing in the way of anything of the nature of progress, as has too often been the policy in the past. THE ACADIAN would suggest that before any man is chosen as a candidate he should be required to state fully his attitude towards the various public matters likely to come up. Better provision should be had for the enforcement of law and the improvement of conditions under which many of our people live today. Municipal government should not continue to be a matter of routine but should receive the careful study of those who desire a hand in its conduct. There is no reason why Kings county should not have the same up-to-date principles applied to its public affairs that are apparent in the carrying on of private enterprises, and the present is a good time to see to it.

OUR COLONIZATION PROBLEM

Toronto is kicking at an alleged Mormon menace. Several parts of B. C. complain of Doukhobors. Other complaints are raised at the suggested settling of "The Tongues of Living Fire", another strange sect. And still other districts object to the colonization of Armenians. In the meantime, while all this clamor is going on about strange aliens who pursue racial and religious ways that are unusual to our way of thinking, the Mother Country has millions walking about looking for work, and her cities are crowded with others who are eking out a precarious living in congested quarters. Something seems wrong with the scheme of things. Canada has millions of acres of empty, arable land. Nova Scotia has some of the richest soil in the world lying idle. The Dominion and this province needs more settlers. We can use millions of them. Why don't they come? Why do we have to worry about a few thousand odd folk from other nations, when we have so much room for colonists of our own flesh and blood? Does the fault lie with the immigration scheme, or with the people of the Old Country, or with whom? This district can do with thousands more people. Wolfville would like to see its population doubled yearly for a long time to come. The same condition applies to every other city and town of Canada. Our resources are ample for all yet much of it lies unscratched. Canada's population is barely increasing by the natural order of births, and our influx of new comers is amazingly small, when our advantages are measured. What is the cause, anyway?

EDWARD CONERY

There passed away June 10th at his home at West Dover, Halifax County, after a long illness which he bore with patience, Edward Conery, aged 69 years. He leaves to mourn their loss his widow; two children by his first marriage, David at home, and Mrs. John Spencer, of Wolfville; and four grand-children, James and George Levy and Roxina May Spencer, of Wolfville, and Edward Levy, at Indian Harbor, a brother of James and George. The funeral services which were largely attended, were conducted by the rector of the parish, the Rev. Thos. Pilkington, of Indian Harbor.

WOLFVILLE SCHOOLS

The following list gives the amount raised by each of the departments in the Wolfville Schools for the Famine Fund in Russia: Grade I (a), $1.08; Grade I (b), $1.75; Grade II, $2.07; Grade III, $4.05; Grade IV, $8.00; Grade V, $5.30; Grade VI and VII, $5.92; Grade VIII, $1.30. Total for Common School, $29.47. Grade IX, $2.90; Grade X, $7.15; Grade XI, $6.75. Total for High School, $16.80. Total for School, $46.27.

This generous response on the part of the children is due to the splendid work which was done by Miss Mary Chesley, of Lunenburg, in the various grades.

The government examinations for Grade VIII started Thursday. Thirty-two candidates presented themselves for the test.

Monday, June 26th, the regular Provincial Examinations for the High School will begin. About ninety candidates intend writing, sixty of whom have been attending the Wolfville High School.

Parents having sons or daughters in the High School, should see that they use the time at their disposal in study. The schools close on June 30th.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

The annual meeting of the East Horton District Sunday School Association was held at the Baptist church on Monday evening with a fair attendance. Mr. Morgan Tamplin, the president, presided and the opening prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Cutten. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Elsie Smiley, who also gave an interesting report of the financial condition of the organization.

Regarding the work being done in the local schools, Mr. Tamplin reported for the Methodist school, Mr. E. Percy Brown for the Anglican school, Mr. L. E. Shaw for the Baptist school, Prof. Sutherland for the Presbyterian school, and Mr. C. A. Patriquin for the Tabernacle school, these being the only schools in the district represented.

An interesting address was given by Rev. W. C. Machum, Field Secretary for Sunday School and Young People's Work for the Baptist church, in which the operations of the Religious Education Council were fully explained.

The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:

President—C. A. Patriquin
Vice-President—E. Percy Brown
Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Helen Schurman.

These with the superintendants of the various schools of the district constitute the executive committee.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. Erb, of Philadelphia, one of the editors of the International Lessons and connected with the American Baptist Publication Society. Dr. Erb, who is a native of St. John, N. B., and formerly held a pastorate at Glace Bay, is a man of charming personality and fine gifts and his address was most interesting as well as instructive to all Sunday School workers. He is at present assisting Rev. Mr. Machum in promoting the interests of Sunday Schools and Young People's work generally and is doing excellent service, judging by his address on Monday evening.

BOARD OF TRADE

There was a very slim attendance at the meeting of the Board of Trade on Thursday evening of last week. Enough members turned up, however to form a quorum and some matters of business were transacted. The chief matter dealt with was the report of the committee appointed to erect suitable signs at the railway station. Mr. Edson Graham reported that permission had been secured and the proposed design was presented. Mr. Graham generously offered to do the work free of charge if the necessary materials were provided and his offer was gladly accepted by the Board.

MOTORS AND MOTORING: A Page Full of Interest to the Owner or Prospective Owner of an Automobile.

MISS CECIL LEITCH

Driving in the Ladies' Golf Championship, at Sandwich, England. She played a wonderful game, winning every hole except one, which was halved.

THE KING'S HIGHWAY AND THE AUTO

The most dangerous place on earth, according to Mark Twain is bed, because most people die there, but the genial humorist never saw the king's highway in these days of automobiles or he would admit that the road is a close rival.

Every year since the autos began to run the King's Highway has become more and more dangerous to life and limb. Death and accident on the King's Highway is in most cases caused by reckless drivers and reckless driving, by men who are either ignorant or wilfully reckless in speeding.

These roadhogs out "at large" believe the pedestrian has no right on the street, or the road, he must walk on the sidewalk or the side of the road and even some of these have a hazy idea that the pedestrian or tram has some little right on the road, he must get out of the way of the auto or be run over. All wrong. One of the highest legal authorities in England says: "The pedestrian is the chartered lifetime and free-holder of the road, and as a fact it is not his duty to avoid traffic. Traffic must look out for him and avoid him."

An English judge the other day, in a case of appeal before him said:

"Many motor drivers seem to suffer under the heresy that an ordinary member of the public has no right in the middle of the roadway. It is a heresy of the worst type and one that has been responsible for many accidents."

No motor man or auto man can legally challenge the pedestrian's ancient right which is as old as the road itself.

The reckless type of auto drivers is even a greater peril to the community than is the ignorant driver. This type takes fiendish pleasure careering along the roads on wheels like a kite in a gale of wind, killing poultry and dogs, terrifying men and women and children, and sometimes maiming and even killing any unfortunate person who happens to be in the way of their wild driving.

VASELINE FOR TERMINALS

The car owner should not forget that ordinary vaseline is perhaps the best medium available for coating battery terminals and connectors. The vaseline has the great advantage of preventing corrosion from acid or water that may have been spilled.

LITTLE DROPS OF GAS MAKE THE PISTONS FLY

How much "gas" does your car consume in travelling one mile? Or, to put the question in its most frequent form how many miles will it go on a gallon of "gas"?

Most any automobile owner can tell you—and does tell you, proudly—these statistics concerning his particular pet.

The amount of gasoline consumed by each explosion must naturally vary slightly with conditions, but the answer obtained by use of the figures is close enough to the correct one to answer the purpose. The example used is that a four-cylinder automobile with 34-inch wheels geared 3 to 1 and making fifteen miles to the wine gallon of gasoline.

34-inch equals 106.814 inches circumference.

One mile equals 5,280 feet, equals 63,360 inches.

60 x 128 x 8 equals 61,440 drops in one wine gallon.

61,440 drops in gallon equals 2.2 drops used at each one of the 2,669 revolutions of the engine; or about 1-25 teaspoonful to each explosion.

INTERESTING NOTES FOR AUTO CRANKS

Crank shaft end play causes a motor knock like a piston slap.

Tighten steering wheel mechanism.

Do not neglect oiling the speedometer driving shaft.

Mix graphite with oil for spring lubrication.

Soak squeaky springs in gasoline before oiling them.

When a front tire wears rapidly it is because the wheels are out of alignment.

Half and half mixture of kerosene and engine oil is a good cleaner and lubricant for small exposed parts.

One gallon of gasoline of 64 test weighs half an ounce more than six pounds.

For ball bearing the best lubricant is a fluid oil no thicker than the heavier machine oils.

If white lead is used to stop gasoline leaks the gasoline will dissolve it.

A tool in the kit is worth thousands in the garage.

An ounce of attention is worth a pound of overhaul.

An oiling a day keeps the repair man away.

Look before you back.

SPRING FLATTENING

It has often been remarked facetiously that a certain car has an alterable wheel base. As a matter of fact, this is literally true of almost every car, especially of those which have Hotchkiss drive. When the springs flatten and remain so, even to a slight extent, the axles are further separated and the wheel base is changed perhaps an inch or two. Measuring the distance from wheel centre to wheel centre is a good check on spring condition.

There are over 12,000 autos already licensed in Nova Scotia this year, besides about 1500 auto trucks. This is 2,000 more than were registered last year, and so there will be that much more money to expend on the roads.

Every proper father is worried lest his twelve-year-old son learn the things he knew at the age of twelve.—Stratford, Ont., Beacon.

CORD TIRES FABRIC

“There's something in the Quality of Dunlop Tires that's missing from other tires. Don't know what it is, but when I make that quick stop I know instantly I have Dunlop Tires on!”

One motorist thus spoke for himself. He really was speaking for thousands of car owners.

Live Rubber and Best Egyptian Cotton go into Dunlop Cords and Fabrics. No shoddy, no skimping. The day of the short-mileage tire is gone; the day of the high-mileage tire is here; and when "tire-mileage" is up for discussion now, you find the word "remarkable" generally precedes a reference to DUNLOP.

GASKET MATERIAL

Different locations demand different types of gasket material, depending on whether they are to be subject to the action of water, oil or gas. Gaskets in the water line should generally be of graphite asbestos, cut from a sheet and then spread with shellac. Care must be taken not to get too much shellac, because where there is an excess some of the shellac may be squeezed into the water jackets and make trouble. For oil joints use paper and for gas copper covered asbestos.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Petal trimming is in decided favor. For trimming the necks and sleeves of frocks, picot edged petals of self material are often seen.
 A beautiful gown of lilac-colored georgette has the long Moyen Age sleeve made of cerise georgette. Coral beads embroider the yoke, sleeves and belt.
 Cold rain water and soap will remove machine grease from washable fabrics.
 Fish may be scaled much easier if first dipped into boiling water a few minutes.
 Salt fish is more quickly and best freshened by soaking in sour milk.
 Clear boiling water will remove tea stains. Pour the water thru the stain and thus prevent its spreading over the fabric.
 A teaspoon of ammonia to a tea cup of water applied with a rag will clean silver or gold jewelry perfectly.
 Put a little powdered borax in the starch to make clothes shine like those that are laundered.
 Garbage can be handled more sanitarly if placed first—drained—into a paper bag, then deposited in the can.
 Papers can be kept in a rubbish burner, and burned easily out of doors.
 Kerosene and chloride of lime used in cans, outhouses and waste pipes are the best and cheapest disinfectants.
 Vegetable peeling is made easy by having a hole about 12 inches in diameter made into a small shelf over the garbage pail. Then instead of paring on a table of into papers, the parings can be dropped immediately into the container beneath, thus saving so much "wiping up".
 Knitted cloths of even shape are best for all work, not cast off clothing which becomes unsanitary and ragged.
 Towels of paper excellent for hands, for draining fried foods, for keeping lettuce, and for general "wiping up".
 White heavy paper in the exact width for shelves makes a neat appearance.
 Dish mops of string in two sizes, one for china, one for glass are more sanitary than "dishrags".
 Always keep a purse of small change downstairs to save go-getting and trotting.

HINTS FOR CAMPERS IN THE FOREST

Be sure your match is out. Pinch it before you throw it away.
 Build a small camp-fire. Build it in the open, not against a tree or log or near brush. Scrape away the trash from all around it.
 Never leave a camp-fire, even for a short time, without quenching it with water and then covering it with earth.
 If you find a fire, try to put it out. If you cannot extinguish it, send word of it to the nearest Forest Ranger.
 Throw pipe ashes and cigar or cigarette stumps in the dust of the road and stamp or pinch out the fire before leaving them. Don't throw pipe ashes and cigar or cigarette stumps into brush, leaves or pine needles.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ACKNOWLEDGED

Help to Relieve Terrible Suffering Caused by Russian Drought
 By an order-in-council of the Dominion government dated February 2nd, 1922, P. C. 232, there was established a national organization called "Save the Children Fund" committee for the purpose of co-ordinating the efforts of individuals, societies, churches, or other agencies directed towards the rendering of effective measures of relief for children in the famine areas of Russia.
 THE ACADIAN has been requested by the representative of this committee at present in Wolfville, Mr. F. Grierson, to open a subscription list to afford an opportunity to all those who may feel disposed to contribute to the saving of the lives of the children who are suffering from famine as the result of the terrible drought in the year 1921.
 All subscriptions will be acknowledged in this column which will then be forwarded by THE ACADIAN to Sir George Burn, treasurer of the fund at Ottawa.
 The following subscriptions have been received to date:

 Notwithstanding the fact that the total number of all automobiles sold (except Ford) was 40 per cent. less than in 1920, the total aggregate of sales for the Studebaker cars was 20 per cent. greater than in 1920—and in Canada 64 per cent. greater than in 1920.

Telephone Service Really Means Service
 Here is evidence of it.
 A call was received at Halifax the other evening for a ship captain whose ship was said to be at the Marine Slip. The call was said to be of extreme urgency.
 The Slip was called. The ship had been there, but had left.
 The various wharves were telephoned to, but no trace of the captain or his vessel could be got.
 The Signal Station was called and we were told the ship had sailed, and was lying held up by fog somewhere in the stream.
 On the chance that the captain might have gone ashore until the fog should lift, likely hotels and boarding houses on both sides of the Harbour were called.
 Ultimately, the fog having to a certain degree dispersed, the ship was found; the captain was informed of the telephone call awaiting his answer, and went to a telephone.
 What chances had a telegram or a letter of reaching the captain under such conditions?

Irvine's bouquet was syringa and yellow roses. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mr. Clyde Coldwell, cousin of the bride, attended as best man, while little Miss Eva Gertrude acted as ring bearer and her sister Jean as flower girl. These little girls made a very pretty picture dressed as they were in maize organdie.

The ushers were the Misses Bertha Norman and Lillian Bennett, both becomingly attired in Nile green silk.

Miss Leta Gertrude made a very efficient organist and played the Wedding March.

Mrs. Edwin Davidson, sister of the bride, very effectively rendered a solo, "O Promise me".

The organist and soloist were tastefully dressed in blue silk.

The esteem in which these young people are held in the town of their birth was attested to by the large congregation said to be the largest since the church was built in 1912.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, over one hundred guests being present.

The bridal party left amid showers of confetti and good wishes to Falmouth, proceeding on Friday to Boston.

The groom's gift to the bride was a very substantial check; to the bridesmaid a pendant of gold and pearls; to the best man gold initialed cuff links; the ushers gold and ring bearer, signet rings; the ushers gold and pearl brooches; the organist and soloist, broaches of gold and amethyst.

The collection of wedding gifts was large, varied and valuable, including cut glass, silver, linen and checks amounting to over $900. The bride's going away suit was of navy blue serge with hat to match.

There was no service at the Methodist church last Sunday owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, who was attending the Conference at Sydney.
