BRITISH AVIATORS MAKE RAID ON ZEEBRUGGE, DROP 27 BOMBS AND INFLECT HEAVY DAMAGE

Wounded Seven
German Aeroplanes, and Accompanied by Lieut.
Pearse, Dropped Bombs on Submarines and Guns on Stronghold at the Mole.

SUBMARINE DAMAGED
Crews of Guns Mounted to Prevent Attacks From the Sea, at New German Base, Either Were Killed or Wounded, Say Officials.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Jan. 24.—While German airmen on Friday morning were dropping bombs on Dunkirk, one of which damaged the American consulate two British aviators paid a visit to Zeebrugge and succeeded in damaging a submarine and killing or wounding the crews of the guns mounted on the mole to prevent attacks from the sea on that new German base.

The British official report, issued Saturday night, says that apart from the breaking of the windows and the smashing of furniture of the American consulate, no particular damage was done.

It makes no reference whatever to the Paris report that six persons were killed and a number of others wounded at Dunkirk, and it is therefore not known whether this report covers completely the attack of the German airmen, who, according to unofficial despatches, dropped as many as 30 bombs on the French port.

Escaped From Seven
German Airmen

One of the British aviators was Squadron Commander R. B. Davies, who recently made a night flight over Bruges, dropping bombs on the railway station there. Prior to reaching Zeebrugge, Commander Davies was surrounded by seven German airmen and, although slightly wounded, succeeded in making his flight along the coast and returning safely.

"One of the twelve or thirteen bombs dropped by German aviators on Dunkirk Friday fell just outside the American consulate, breaking all the windows and smashing furniture," says an official report issued by the press bureau. "Outside of this no particular damage was done."

"French and British naval and military airmen over the German aeroplanes, one of which was brought down by a British military machine just over the Belgian frontier, and the pilot and observer captured."

The report describes the dropping of bombs by British airmen at Zeebrugge.
27 Bombs Dropped,
One Submarine Damaged

"During the day," it says, "visits were paid to Zeebrugge by Squadron Commander R. B. Davies and Flight Lieut. R. Pearse, and 27 bombs were dropped on two submarines and guns on the Mole. It is believed that one submarine was damaged considerably, and that many casualties were caused among the guns' crews."

"In reconnoitering before this, Commander Davies was on one occasion surrounded by seven German airmen, but he was able to elude them. He was slightly wounded in the side on the way to Zeebrugge, but continued his flight, accomplished his mission, and is now progressing satisfactorily."

Poor Men Are Given Work

Howard Park Methodist Young Men Say Sabbath Was Desecrated When Unemployed Were Cleaning Snow.

While the warmly-clad and well-to-do members of the Young Men's Brotherhood of Howard Park Methodist Church were holding their usual Sunday afternoon meeting yesterday, a gang of unemployed, with tennis who had been given a day's work by the city in order to hide them over the next few days and buy them some bread, were cleaning the snow from Roncevalles avenue and Howard Park avenue. This action led the warmly-clad and well-fed young men to pass the following resolution for presentation to the mayor and board of control:

"We, the Brotherhood of Howard Park Methodist Church, in session Jan. 24, 1915, do hereby express our unqualified disapproval of the desecration of the Sabbath exhibited today in the unnecessary snow shoveling by the city forces, and in the most emphatic way condemn whoever is responsible."

Erzerum—Distress Preva-

PETROGRAD, Jan. 24.—Comparative quiet has settled down on the Caucasus front, as what now remains to be done belongs only to the minor operations of warfare. It is unlikely that the Russians will hasten their advance upon Erzerum for several reasons. At Van and other points where they are now on the banks of the retreating forces, as also in the Ghuron region. The work of breaking up the remaining fragments of the Turkish army can be accomplished without approaching Erzerum.
The roads by which supplies and reinforcements can reach the fortress are commanded by the Russians.
Time, therefore, does not press. On the other hand, the Turkish army is now ragged. It will be necessary for troops entering the region and neighborhood of Erzerum, where infectious diseases, especially typhoid, are now raging. It will be necessary to disinfect the villages in this region before it is safe to take any army forward into the Russian territory.
The immediate future will take the direction of advancing on other fronts against the Turks than Erzerum.

The nomad Kirghiz and Turcoman tribes of Central Asia, who pending the winter have been driven from the mountains to the plains, are now admitted into the ranks of the Russian armies, are petitioning to be allowed to volunteer for the front, and have jointly presented to the commander-in-chief of the Caucasus the useful gift of a thousand camels for war purposes.
A money subscription for the same purpose was also started among these wild tribes, who intend to present £2500 for war purposes.

NO CONFERENCE
TILL AFTER WAR

Imperial Authorities After Exchange of Views, Decide Not to Hold It This Year.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 24.—It is learned here on high authority that the Imperial conference which had been suggested by certain Australian politicians and in some quarters in Great Britain will not be held this year.
Communications have passed between the Canadian and Imperial Governments on the subject and after a free exchange of views it is understood that it was decided that the conference should be postponed till after the war, or at least for the present year. This decision is believed to be largely due to the fact that the conditions after the war will be so changed that an imperial conference could not at the present time make any definite decision as to the imperial defence policy which the new circumstances will demand.

COL. V. WILLIAMS

Officer Appointed to Com-

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—It is reported from Salisbury Plain that Col. Victor Williams, who was to have gone to Egypt in command of the Canadian mounted troops, is ill of meningitis.
Col. Williams is adjutant general of the Canadian militia and was in command of the Valcartier camp. He commanded the Canadian troops until General Alderson took charge and he is at present on the staff of that officer. He is a highly accomplished officer and there is the keenest regret that in all probability his illness will prevent him from going to Egypt.
It is again rumored that the meningitis among the troops was taken to England from the Valcartier camp.

NAVAL BATTLE
PROVES VALUE
OF LARGE SHIP

Sunday's Fight in North Sea Far Biggest of Present War.

BLUCHER SACRIFICED

Command of Sea Rests With Dreadnoughts and Not Submarines.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.
LONDON, Jan. 25.—The Daily News naval experts say: "Yesterday's fight by far the biggest of the war, and its results, even if none of the enemy's light craft was accounted for, were certainly not the least important.
Once again the battle cruiser as a type has distinguished itself and with it Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, who thus for the second time, has made a significant use of the splendid vessels under his command. The fight must have been a terrible one, owing to the enormous size, power and speed of the vessels engaged. No action between Dreadnoughts has ever been fought before, and while we may regret that our success, measured by ships sunk, is not greater, it must be admitted that we came out of it exceedingly well. Although the full story is not yet available, what happened would seem to be fairly obvious. The Germans were coming over with the intention, presumably, of bombarding more undefended towns. As soon as they sighted a force capable of giving them battle they made off. The Blucher was three knots slower than her consort, and, instead of staying to protect her, the bigger vessels made off and left her to her fate. Nearly 1000 men most assuredly have shared her fate."

Blucher Saved Others.
As it was, the Blucher, by allowing them to make off while the British ships were setting their account, but it was nearly 1000 men most assuredly have shared her fate."

A battle also occurred between the light cruisers and destroyers accompanying the bigger ships, but the result of this engagement has not yet reached the admiralty.

GERMANS SAVED THEMSELVES

The British were superior in ships engaged, weight of armament and speed, and the flight of the German ships into the mine and submarine infested field possibly saved them from further losses.

The Blucher was a cruiser of 15,550 tons displacement, and also complicated in 1908 was completely re-eriged last year. She was not classed as a battle cruiser but was in the next class to these formidable fighters. With her were the Derflinger, Germany's latest battle cruiser, which had just left the builder's hands, and the battle cruiser Seydlitz and Moltke, the latter a sister ship of the Goeben, formerly of the German but now of the Turkish fleet, which was recently reported damaged by the Russians in the Black Sea.

Five British Cruisers

The British squadron, commanded by Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, who also was in command at the battle of Heligoland last August, consisted of the battle cruisers, Tiger, Lion, Princess Royal, New Zealand and Indomitable.
The first three of these cruisers mount eight 13.5-inch guns each, and carry 12-inch guns, which are equal to those of the Derflinger, the only one of the German ships that had better than 11-inch guns.

Official Report of Fight

The official report issued by the press bureau gives the following account of the engagement:
"Early this morning a British patrolling squadron of battle cruisers and light cruisers, under Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, with a destroyer flotilla under Commander Tyrwhitt, sighted four German battle cruisers and several light cruisers and a number of destroyers, steering westward and apparently making for the English coast at high speed. They were at once pursued, and at about 9.30 a.m. action was joined between the battle cruisers Tiger, Lion, Princess Royal, New Zealand and Indomitable on the one hand, and the Derflinger, Seydlitz, Moltke and Blucher on the other. A well-contested running fight ensued.
Shortly after one o'clock the Blucher, which had previously fallen out of line, captured and sank."

other battle cruisers were seriously

Strong German Squadron Started Out to Raid More English Coast

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—An attempt by a German cruiser squadron to repeat the attack recently made on Scarborough, the Hartlepool and other British coast towns was frustrated today by the British patrolling squadron, and in a running fight the German armored cruiser Blucher was sunk and two German battle cruisers were seriously damaged.

The British ships suffered only slight injury, and so far as known only 123 of the Blucher's crew of 838 were saved.

light cruisers and destroyers accompanying the bigger ships, but the result of this engagement has not yet

Fled to Mine Area

"Admiral Beatty reports that two other battle cruisers were seriously damaged. They were, however, able to continue their flight and reached an area where dangers from German submarines and mines prevented further pursuit.

"No British ships have been lost and our casualties in personnel as at present reported are slight, the Lion, which led the line, having only eleven wounded and no killed.
"One hundred and twenty-three survivors have been rescued from the Blucher's crew of 838, and it is possible that others have been saved by some of our destroyers. No reports of any destroyer or light cruiser fighting have yet been received at the admiralty, the some has apparently taken place."

"Their lordships have expressed their satisfaction to Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty."

Blucher Comparatively New

The German armored cruiser Blucher was a comparatively new vessel. She was built at the Kiel yards in 1909 at a cost of $4,500,000, and three years later most of her big guns were replaced.
The Blucher was 489 feet, 80.1-3 feet beam, and her complement consisted of 877 officers and men.

The Blucher carried twelve 5.2 guns, eight 6-inch guns, and sixteen 24-pounder shells. She also was equipped with three torpedo tubes. The Blucher was capable of traveling a little more than 26 knots an hour.

Commodore Reginald Y. Tyrwhitt, who also took part in the battle off Heligoland, commanded the light cruisers and destroyers which accompanied Vice-Admiral Beatty's battle cruisers.

Full Speed for Home

The Germans were observed some time after dawn proceeding in the direction of the British coast. When they sighted the superior British fleet they turned and made at full speed for home waters, and it was only after a stern chase that the faster British ships got within range of them. For more than four hours the running battle lasted, the firing being plainly heard in North Holland, where it was judged the fight took place north of the islands of Ameland and Schiermonnikoog.

The Blucher which was slower than the other German cruisers, fell behind and succumbed to the heavier guns of the Lion, which was leading the British squadron. The other German ships got within the mine and submarine area, two of them in a badly damaged condition and it was uncertain for the big British battle cru-sers to follow.

The fact that only 11 men were wounded aboard the Lion, which seemed to have sustained the most serious casualties, was noted. It is possible that some of the Blucher's crew were picked up by the British destroyers.

Two Cruisers Described

The Derflinger is a 20,000 ton ship, which was completed July 14 of last year. She is armed with eight 12-inch and 12 6-inch guns and 12 24-pounder shells. Her displacement is 24,500 tons. She carried ten 11-inch and 12 6-inch guns and 12 24-
pounder shells, four 14-pounder anti-aircraft guns, and also is equipped with torpedo tubes. There is no record available of her speed.

The Seydlitz is somewhat smaller than the Derflinger, her displacement being 22,400 tons. She carried ten 11-inch and 12 6-inch guns and 12 24-
pounder shells, four 14-pounder anti-aircraft guns, and also is equipped with torpedo tubes. There is no record available of her speed.

The Moltke is a 22,000-ton boat and has a speed of about 27 knots. She is a sister to the famous Goeben, which once belonged to Germany, but which now flies the Turkish flag. The Moltke has the same gun power as the Seydlitz, except that she is not equipped with anti-aircraft rifles.

Princess Royal and Lion

The Lion, which was in the van of the fighting, and the Princess Royal, are sister ships of 20,415 tons and each carries a complement of 1000 officers and men. They are 850 feet long and have a speed of about 21 knots, altho, in their time trials the Lion attained 21 knots and the Princess Royal 22.

The vessels are armed with eight 13.5-inch and 10 4-inch guns. The Lion was built in 1910 and the Princess Royal the following year.

It was reported at the time that the Lion was in the naval engagement of the Falkland Islands, in which a British squadron under Rear Admiral Sir Frederick Sturdee sank the German cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Nurnberg and Leipzig.

The Tiger is a 27,000-ton ship, and was built in 1913. Her armament, however, is the same as that of the Lion and Princess Royal, viz., eight 13.5-inch and ten 4-inch guns and three torpedo tubes.

A trifle lighter in tonnage, but carrying the same armament as the New Zealand, is the Indomitable, which was built in 1907, and has a speed of 23 knots.

Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, who was in command of the British forces in this fight, also commanded the same cruiser squadron in the engagement of Heligoland August 28 last, in which three German light cruisers and two German torpedo boat destroyers were sunk. The cruisers were the Moltke, Arminde and Koenig.

Unbounded Satisfaction
The present time the admiralty has issued no further details of the naval battle. The London morning papers editorially express unbounded satisfaction with what they describe as a retribution for Germany's raids on the east coast of England.
In Dover, Harwich and other naval ports the news created great joy among the naval men.

Many of the units engaged in the naval battle appeared, as there are no further particulars. It is considered a victory for the heavy gun and the torpedo tubes. The report is pointed to the fact that while Great Britain still retains intact ten such battle cruisers, which she had at the outbreak of the war, Germany, which has sacrificed the Goeben to Turkey, now has only four, including the Derflinger.

The Blucher was at the beginning of the war Prince Henry of Prussia's flagship in the Baltic, but it is understood that at the coming of winter he was hauled down his flag.

Out for Big Fight

The Times' naval correspondent, in a review of the naval fight, assumes that from the composition of the German squadron, as announced by the British official press bureau, it was intended that the adventure should be on a large scale and at a long distance from the German base.

"Probably," the correspondent adds,
"the squadron met in the early morning of a hundred miles or more occurred at 30 miles an hour. It does not credit to the seamanship of the British gunners that at such a rate of speed they should have inflicted such serious damage on the retreating enemy."

"The names of the four German cruisers include all the effective vessels of this class in German waters, except the Von der Tann, which recently was reported to have sustained an injury of some sort. Thus, with the Blucher sunk and two others damaged, the strength of the German battle fleet in this respect has been reduced to a small number of ships. Probably if the Derflinger was leading it may have been the Seydlitz, and Moltke which were damaged. By this action, the Germans are deprived of the services of the fast wing of their battle fleet if ever they challenge for a decisive fight for sea command."

Crews, Times and Speed

The Times, in an editorial this morning on the naval engagement in the North Sea, points out that the moral of every sea fight in the present war has been "guns, guns, guns, coupled with speed."

The editorial declares the Blucher was one of the German ships which combed Scarborough and says it is interesting to remember that she was "Germany's reply to England's first dreadnought."

NEUTRALITY OBSERVED

Canada Not Allowed to Ship War Equipment Across Alaska.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The United States Government today issued a lengthy declaration of its interpretation of the rights and duties of a neutral in the European war.

It is the business of a belligerent operating on the high seas not the duty of a neutral to prevent contraband from reaching an enemy. Those in this country who are sympathetic with Germany and Austria-Hungary appear to assume that some obligation rests upon this government in the performance of its neutrality duty to prevent all trade in contraband, and thus to equalize the difference due to the relative naval strength of the belligerents. No such obligation exists, it would be an unequal act, an act of partiality to the part of the belligerents to adopt such a policy if they executive had the power to do so.

Belgium Clergyman Will Receive Pay

Must Sign Agreement to Abstain From Showing Any Form of Prejudice.

Canadian Press Despatch. AMSTERDAM, Jan. 24.—(Via London.)—The Measdale today publishes a statement, the accuracy of which, the newspaper declares, is beyond question. It is the effect that the members of the Belgian clergy yesterday were informed by the American government that their salaries would be paid by the German people, provided they signed an agreement to abstain from showing any prejudice to Germany.

Canada's Equivocal Policy on Nickel

How long is the failure of Canada to prohibit the export of her nickel to the United States to be a source of comfort to the pro-German party in that country and to be openly described there as evidence of their claim that they "need things in Canada"? What we said in these columns the other day, we repeat, that in New York mining circles the common talk is and has been for weeks that the International Nickel Company can do anything it likes with the politicians of Canada. Our informant on this effect knows what he is talking about.

Will someone give us a good reason for not putting on the prohibition? Can the Globe and all its high talk about the last man and the last penny for a nickel in her hour of trouble? Or those who were intent on diminishing the German nickel who defend our nickel going to the States? What reason have they to give? What reason has Mr. Hearst for not demanding it, and what reason has the Hon. Mr. Cochrane for not insisting on the prohibition? Is profit for the shareholders the reason? And do our Canadian public men take the word of an American company that has been so active in our affairs and that has spent so much money in Canada? Can't it be refined in Canada? We say it can.

That there is somebody in Sudbury and in Toronto and Ottawa bent on sending our nickel into the States is evidenced by these strong words in a Sudbury paper: Sudbury Mining News. The idea advanced by a section of the people that the government should investigate the question of refining nickel in Canada, is advanced in some instances honestly, but in others it is merely in the hope of averting the inevitable. There are no the slightest grounds for an investigation, as anyone who is at all conversant with the situation is convinced beyond doubt that nickel can be refined right here quite as well as anywhere else, and all the efforts, eloquent, eloquent, pleadings, or blusterings of opposing parties cannot turn the plain fact that Canada's nickel can and must be refined in the Dominion. What a pitiful example we give to the world when we stand up in public and attempt to inculcate their fellows with the fear which consumes themselves—a fear of the possibility of a small reposition like the refining of nickel! Why should the Canadian Pacific Railway would have been built had Strathcona and Angus and Van Horne and associates, or been so much heartened by a few of our Sudbury politicians? Their public efforts may somewhat have been checked, but their private efforts will continue, and the demand for nickel in the few months will become so insistent that even the blockaders will not stem the avalanche.

EXTRACTS AND LETTERS.

Canadian Miller: That Canada should be assisting the enemy in any way at the present time is an impossible thing to most of us, and yet this seems to be the case. It is a proven fact that a considerable part of our nickel exports have been going to Germany, and now comes the information, or at least a report, that the German government has applied to Germany. During the past three months or so the trade between Copenhagen and New York has increased many times over.

DR. KOHLMAN DEFOVED

FORT AT KINGSTON

Made Application to Authorities and Taken With Other Aliens Last Night.

Dr. C. E. Kohlman, the German who resigned from the city engineer's department at the city hall, and has since been confined to Stanley barracks, was removed to Kingston last night by the eleven o'clock train, in company with three Austrian prisoners. The party was in charge of Lieut. Stagg and four men, who arrived at the evening brought two cars of about 30 Austrians up as far as Toronto on their way to New Ontario, where they will be put on government construction work. Dr. Kohlman had made application to the authorities to be removed to Fort York, the concentration camp near Kingston.

Britain to cut off all supplies from Germany and Austria-Hungary. Again the letter of the United States to the Dec. 26 to the British Government, contending for the principle of freedom of trade in articles of conditional contraband, not destined to the belligerent forces.

Export of Munitions.

The United States has not interfered with the sale to Great Britain and her allies of arms, ammunition, horses, uniforms and other munitions of war, although such sale prolongs the conflict. No obligation, it is contended, exists either in international law or in the domestic law of the United States to prohibit private trade in these articles.

Interruption of Cruisers.

Treatment and final interment of German-ownership Gole and the collier Lockport at Honolulu. The circumstances are reviewed, and the action taken is held to be in accordance with the usual international practice.

Unfairness to Germany in Rules Regarding the Panama Canal Zone.

Although the regulations were not proclaimed until November 18, no belligerent vessel has been allowed to pass through the zone, and the action was taken without the slightest reference to the belligerents. The belligerents are held to be in violation of the declaration of London by the British Government. The notice of this declaration, which could not accept piecemeal adoption of the declaration of London is recalled with the statement also that the modification by the belligerents in that code of naval warfare "are of no concern to the United States," except as they adversely affect the rights of American citizens as defined by international law. In so far as these rights have been infringed, the department has made every effort to obtain redress for the losses sustained.

Canadian Contingents Should Ultimately Total Three Hundred Thousand Men.

Special to The Toronto World. HAMILTON, Jan. 24.—That a census might be taken of those men who, for various reasons, are not free to go with any of the contingents being mobilized in Canada at present, but who at some time during the war, if conditions require their service, are ready to enlist, was a suggestion made by N. W. Rowell, K.C., M.L.A., at a meeting of the South Westworth Liberal Association held on Saturday at St. Catharines. Mr. Rowell said that this course was being planned in England, and that a similar plan, if adopted here and if successful, would result in the mobilization of tens of thousands of Canadians were still ready to go if needed, and their services could be relied on in all contingencies, whether the source of great encouragement, not only to our own country, but to Great Britain and the allies.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

LARGE AUDIENCES HEAR JOHN R. MOTT

Importance of the Will in Religious Matters Emphasized.

MAN WHO WINS OUT One Who Uses Reasoning Powers When Confronted With Difficulties.

The desirability of more thinking on the religious questions of the day was the message forced home upon the students of Toronto and McMaster Universities by John R. Mott in his sermon yesterday morning in Convocation Hall.

"There is a universal danger that religion will pass away from having a large place in this generation," said Dr. Mott. "We are content to take our opinions second-hand anywhere except from our own thinking."

"There is no earnest, honest-minded man," said the speaker, "who has not long discovered that with power alone never completely conquered temptation."

"There is no earnest, honest-minded man," said the speaker, "who has not long discovered that with power alone never completely conquered temptation."

Yesterday afternoon a large audience of women and women-students gathered in Convocation Hall to hear an address from John R. Mott.

"The world," said Mr. Mott, in his opening remarks, "is becoming increasingly impatient with unreality."

"To realize this one should study the life of Christ. He was a great reality to Chinese Gordon, who took some time during the beginning of the day to study unburiedly Christ and His teachings."

"It is psychologically true," said the speaker, "that if one meditates upon himself he becomes selfish, if he thinks upon Christ, he becomes unselfish."

"The New Association was recommended by Mr. Mott as a reminder for prayer. Stonewall Jackson carried the saintliness of the cloister into the turmoil of the camp, and this because he had a vivid realization of the presence of Christ."

"None selfish in Europe. During a late visit to Europe, the speaker had been told by the French ambassador at London that he would not find a selfish person on the continent, and this had afterwards proved correct."

"The arrangements for the recruiting, mobilization, quartering, instruction and training of the units is receiving special attention, and extra good care is being taken as to the qualification capacity and general fitness for service of the officers of such units."

"The clothing, arms, ammunition, equipment, horses, etc. are being thoroughly examined, and the board takes special note of the state of discipline in each unit. Unless perfect discipline is apparent the troops showing, any lack of such discipline will not be allowed to go."

"The new hospital has just been opened at Exhibition Camp, and the Toronto Ladies' Liberal Association have just finished the furnishing of it."

"The Toronto Ladies' Liberal Association when they were requested to fit up the second hospital embraced the opportunity of calling upon the sister Liberal Associations of Ontario to help in the work."

"The new hospital has been carpeted with matting and mats placed at every bedside. Dainty curtains soften the light of the innumerable windows."

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM ENDS PRESENT SEASON

Senior and Advanced Pupils of Hambourg Conservatory Entertain Large Audience.

Foresters' Hall was filled to the doors Saturday afternoon long before the hour set for the third and last program of a series being given by the pupils of the Hambourg Conservatory.

The enthusiastic reception accorded the young artists was sufficient proof of the success of their efforts. Misses Nellye and Isabel Gill, pupils of Miss Laura Homuth, rendered a very delightful vocal duet, completing one of the most enjoyable programs of the season.

THIS WEEK'S ATTRACTIONS AT THE THEATRES

Lillian Fitzgerald, with "The Vesta Lockhard, with "Girls From Roseland Girls" at the Gayety. the Follies," at the Star Theatre

A scene in "The Yellow Ticket," at the Princess.

"A Pair of Sixes" Quite the most successful attraction which has been seen in Toronto in many years, will be presented at the Alexandra Theatre tonight, when H. H. France will appear for the first time here. His original company, direct from its years' run in the Longacre Theatre in "A Pair of Sixes. This is the farce by Edward Peppé, author of "The Prince Chap" and "The Little Rebel," which scores such an electrical overnight success last spring, and which continued to add capacity audiences to the Longacre Theatre throughout the entire run there. Its laughable situations are unique and the comedy conceits are of a high order. The play concerns the quarrel of two business partners engaged in the manufacture of a digestive pill, who, failing to agree as to the credit of the success of the business, decided to separate commercially. From this premise, Mr. France has managed to supply a human story, full of excitement, laughs and splendid characterizations, not the least of which is the English serving maid, "Coddies," played by Marion Ballou, who gives to the theatre an entirely new idea of a plain girl.

Loew's Roof Garden The well-known legitimate star, Mrs. Louie James, well known in Toronto where she has frequently starred with her husband, the late Louis James, in Shakespearean and high-class productions, will head the bill at Loew's Roof Garden at the theatre this week in a comedy sketch, "Holding a Husband." Mrs. James tops one of the best bills of the season, which will include a number of unusual features. Margaret Farrell, the Irish song beauty, who was such a hit in the popular revue, "Back from Nowhere," will appear in a new array of character songs and fetching songs. Barnardo's well-known acrobatic originators of "A Day in Dogville," will present their pantomime novelty, one of the best of the kind, "The Merry Magician and Comedian," with new stunts with cards. The Cervino Troupe, acrobatic dancers, will present something absolutely new in their line.

The Roseland Bill Lovers of that popular form of entertainment known as burlesque, may look forward to a big treat this week, when Blutch Cooper's new edition of "The Roseland Girls" comes to the Gayety Theatre for a week's engagement, opening at the matinee today. Solly Ward and Lillian Fitzgerald are at the head of the company of merry-makers, which includes such popular favorites as Eddie Schwartz, Ed Markey, Brad Sutton, Julia Swartz-Caprice, Mills' Pav, Stella Ward and a lively chorus of twenty voices.

Eugenie Blair Coming Eugenie Blair, recognized as one of the leading emotional actresses of the day, will be seen next week at the Grand Opera House in "A Fool There Was," supported by Albert Phillips, a Toronto favorite, and a big New York cast.

Girls From the Follies Manager Pierce of the Star Theatre will offer this week a number of numbers of "The Girls from the Follies," headed by Harry Steppé. They present a number of extraordinary in variety, including Harry Fisher and his eight cycling models introducing the prettiest formed women before the public.

The Hippocrome One of the most popular members of Miss Percy Haswell's stock company, last summer was Miss Sylvia Starr, who will be seen in James K. McCurdy's sketch, "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet," the headline attraction at the Hippocrome.

Mark Smith, Mary Harper and Ione Bright in the third act of "A Pair of Sixes" at the Alexandra.

Mary Turner and Richard Gilder in Act III, "Within the Law," at the Grand.

The Yellow Ticket The company which will present "The Yellow Ticket" at the Princess Theatre this week, opening the engagement tonight, arrived in Toronto this morning on a special train from Pittsburgh. All the members of the original cast, which shared honors during the long career of this play in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, will be present and the opening performance promises to be the social and artistic theatrical treat of the season. Beautiful Florence Reed will give this city the first glimpse of the character in "The Yellow Ticket" which she established here as one of the foremost emotional actresses of the present day. Edwin Arden will appear as Baron Stepan, a role which has added new laurels to his many triumphs. Supporting Miss Reed and Mr. Arden are such sterling artists as Edw. Booth, David Tarrance, Edward Mawson, Edw. Maxwell, Harry Hilliard, Maud Leslie and others. The play deals with the efforts of a young innocent girl to travel to her dying father in St. Petersburg. She has no money and is forced to apply for a yellow ticket. The advance sale is the largest of the season at the Princess.

Within the Law "Within the Law," with Letha Walters in the role of "Mary Turner," will be the offering at the Grand Opera House all this week. The first presentation in this city of less than a dollar-fifty scale of prices. "Within the Law" is aptly described as a drama of daring in which the heroine is forced to begin warfare upon the law to protect herself from the machinations of a villainous man. The play is a story of a girl who is accused of a crime, but who is actually innocent. She is imprisoned, but she escapes and is sentenced to three years' imprisonment. No amount of protest, no amount of logical, obviously truthful defence saves her. She serves her term, but she is still innocent. She tries to support herself honestly, but the police harass her. When they have forced her out of several places by recalling her imprisonment, she stays "within the law," too. The play is a series of thrilling scenes and gripping climaxes and is not merely one of the most vivid and stirring, but without exception the most satisfying melodramas ever written. During the week at the Grand the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

At Shea's The headline attraction at Shea's this week will be Joseph Howard and Mabel McCann, the popular composer and the charming singing comedienne. Artists are well known here, and with a new repertoire, including the newest songs successes, should meet with hearty reception. Nan Halperin, a newcomer to Toronto, sings some attractive songs in a manner all her own. The Orlan Sisters are clever athletes, who will offer many amusing feats different from the usual athletic exhibition. J. C. Nugent has an interesting playlet which he calls "The Regular." It shows a side-light on the night life of Gotham. The Italian troupe of Italian street singers and musicians provides some pleasing music, while Edw. McDougall sings some original songs. Chester Johnston is a comedy cyclist with some clever stunts, while Edw. Whittaker are clever jugglers. A 25-cent bill will complete the bill.

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS TODAY. The ladies of the Rosary Hall Sewing Circle will meet today at 3 o'clock at St. Joseph's Convent, to sew for the Belgians, the soldiers and the poor of the city.

The third contingent quota from the 86th (Pee) Regiment, comprising nearly 150 officers and men, marched from their quarters near the corner of Dundas street and Royce avenue to St. John's Church yesterday morning. The service was conducted by the rector, Rev. T. Beverley Smith, assisted by Rev. Mr. Simpson.

Special preachers occupied the pulpit at both services of the Davenport Methodist Church, yesterday. In the morning Mr. C. E. Burt conducted the service and Rev. Dr. Cliphamp was the special preacher at the evening service.

Rev. A. L. Birch of Vancouver preached yesterday morning at the Toronto Presbyterian Church and Rev. D. T. McKerrall in the evening. The annual congregational meeting will be held on Wednesday evening.

R. T. of T. Concert. The Templars' Hall was crowded at the entertainment given by the members of Toronto Junction Council, R. T. of T. The program was a long and varied one, including the "Drill of the Allies," a feature carried out in costume by the members of the council.

A sketch entitled "From Pumpkin Ridge" and an excellent program of music were also rendered. In the comedy, Miss M. Pearce and Clara Henley had the leading parts, and the large audience acknowledged their excellent acting with frequent applause.

The training in the various elocution contests was a great service to the young people of Toronto Junction Council, who gave the entire entertainment.

On Friday evening of this week the Ladies Aid Society of High Park Methodist Church are giving a supper to the company of the second contingent now camped at the Exhibition grounds. After the supper the soldiers will be entertained by the evening, and an excellent program has been prepared by the ladies.

Under the auspices of the Patriotic League, the women of Newmarket held a talent sale in the Mallard Block on Saturday afternoon in aid of the Red Cross. Receipts totalled $210. A similar sale will be held on Feb. 5 in the town hall.

At its regular meeting tonight, the town council will consider a bylaw authorizing an agreement with the Metropolitan Railway Company for a supply of electric power. The proposed arrangement will necessitate an expenditure of $15,000 on improvements to the existing plant.

STOUFFVILLE

FARMER KILLED AT LEVEL CROSSING

William Roshier Fatally Injured When Express Hit Cutter.

BRAMPTON, Jan. 24.—A fatal accident occurred last night, when William Roshier lost his life, at the first level crossing. Roshier was coming to town in a cutter with his maid, Miss Florence Arnold, and when crossing the Grand Trunk tracks the express struck the horse, hurling it into an adjoining field. Roshier was instantly killed, his right arm being severed and the top of his skull almost lifted from the head. Miss Arnold escaped by jumping. The train was stopped and the body was wrapped in horse blankets and brought to the Grand Trunk depot. Miss Arnold was carried into Arthur Fletcher's farm-house in a state of nervous collapse. Up to the present time she has not recovered enough to give any light on the fatality. The body of Roshier was placed in the baggage room and Coroner J. A. Lawson summoned. A jury was immediately empaneled with John Speers as foreman. After the jury viewed the body the coroner adjourned the inquest until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when an inquest will be held in the council chamber. Roshier lived on the old Foynts farm and for some years ran a dairy route in town. He leaves a widow and one child.

HOLD LAST MEETING.

BRITISH AIRMAN ATTACKS GERMAN

Brings Enemy Down After Exciting Duel Lasting Some Time.

Mrs. Charles Dawson, 122 Morrison avenue, Earlscourt, received the following interesting letter from her brother, Pte. Robert Gray, of the 13th Hussars, and orderly to Gen. Smith-Dorrien. The place is not mentioned from which the communication was received, but simply states somewhere in northern France. He says: "Well, just to give you a little news as to what is happening out here. As you probably know we are not allowed to say where we are exactly, but I may say it is very cold in the north of France. This place where we are staying at now is a big asylum, one of the finest I have seen. It has lovely grounds, and the women (Scotch) is not to be compared with it. The Germans were here two or three days before we arrived, but they have since had to vacate the place. Have helped themselves. The Germans have been in all the shops here and helped themselves, as is their usual custom. You see all these sweet shops with nothing but empty sweet bottles in the windows. "It makes one laugh to see it, but it is a sin all the same. There were some big sweet shops and I am sure there were about fifty empty bottles in the shop window, not a sweet of any kind left in them. "I went into another little place, a hardware store, for an article. The old woman could speak fairly good English, and she was telling me that the Germans—that is what the French call the Germans—were in her shop all worst of all, they took a little cash-box from out of her kitchen, with all her life's savings in it—100 francs in all. A proper disgrace I call it, but what could the poor old defenceless woman do? They were going to shoot her down for daring to interfere with them. Let Patients Go. "They got into this big asylum, which has accommodation for about 1,500 or 1,600 male and female patients and the Germans let loose about fifty of the patients and got into the beds themselves, big dirty boots and everything. Some of the patients were only half dressed, some only in sleeping attire. Anyway, the greater number were found dead about a week afterwards in the wood close by. "The poor things had died of exposure and other causes. Of course the superintendent was helpless to stop them. Had he objected he would have been killed. "But this is only a few of the doings of Mr. German. I could let you know a lot more things of his doings, but you would hardly believe it, and also it is not fit to be written. "Duel in Mid Air. "We witnessed a fine duel in mid-air here on the morning of the 20th, between one of our airmen and one of the German airmen. The German was well over our heads and had just been in the town here and dropped a bomb straight onto the hospital buildings, doing great damage to the building and killing one of our soldiers who was being wounded on a stretcher waiting to be carried down during the evening. A Pearson, president of the league, will preside. On Thursday evening of this week, a grand fancy dress carnival will be held at the covered skating rink at Weston. Appropriate music will be rendered by the Weston Prize Band. The carnival will open at 7:30 p.m., and the adjudication of the awards will be made at 9 p.m. On Friday, Jan. 29, a patriotic dance, in aid of the relief fund, will be given by the Town Tennis Club of Weston, in the Eagle House. THE LANDOWNE CAR LINE. Editor World: Kindly allow me to correct the statement made by Mr. Farley at the B. I. A. meeting as reported in your paper today. Mr. Farley is in a position to state that the money voted on Jan. 1, would not be sufficient to build a car line on Dufferin street as Comptroller Hearn had not yet reported the cost of a line on this street. Mr. Farley also said that the opposition to the Dufferin street route, which was the whole of the northwest section, whereas the Lansdowne line would only serve a few who are located west of Prospect street, some of whom live outside the city limits. ## SWANSEA RELIEF WORK TEMPORARILY DELAYED Relief work will not be started at Swansea today as a few of the property owners on Durie street have not yet agreed to the grading there. The council proposes to carry out the relief work on Durie street as the Swansea Association held a special meeting to discuss the matter and decided to urge the council to order the work to be done on the initiative. In conversation with the World staff, Mr. Griffith said that unless the property owners consented it was "impossible" for the council to do the work as a local improvement. "There is nothing definite yet, however," said the reeve. "They are just considering the matter and as the matter will be patriotic in nature, we will just have to make other arrangements for the relief work for the unemployed in the district."
