GERMANS BEATEN Twenty-five Divisions Defeated by British on 30-Mile Front--Six-Mile Advance Made by French on Sambre River--Germans Driven Everywhere Back on 75-Mile Front From Scheldt River to Argonne Forest.

GERMANS DRIVEN IN FLIGHT FROM SCHELDT TO ARGONNE

Three Hundred Thousand of Enemy Defeated by British With Severe Losses--French Take Guise With Four Thousand Prisoners.

London, Nov. 5.—Field Marshal Haig reports from headquarters to-night:

"In the great battle opened by us yesterday between the Sambre and the Scheldt the troops of the fourth, third and first British armies, composed chiefly of men from English towns and counties, engaged heavily and defeated with severe loss in killed, wounded, prisoners, guns and material no less than 25 German divisions (200,000 men)."

"The German defence was thus broken on a front of thirty miles. Owing to this brilliant success the enemy today is in retreat on the whole battlefield."

"In spite of heavy and continuous rain our troops have pressed the retreating enemy forces closely throughout the day, driving in the rearwards wherever they have sought to oppose our advance and taking a number of prisoners."

"Our troops have passed thru Morval Forest and have reached the general line of Hazy-Grand Fayt, Beaumont, west of Bavay, Roisin and Fresnes."

"In the haste of his enforced withdrawal yesterday and today, the enemy has abandoned complete batteries and large quantities of material of every description."

Retreat Gains Impetus. Paris, Nov. 5.—The war office announcement tonight says:

"Along the whole French front, from the Sambre Canal to the Argonne, the retreat of the enemy continued during the day, reaching at certain points a depth of ten kilometers."

"Because of the advantages gained by the difficult battle fought Sunday for the crossing of the Sambre Canal, the first army completely defeated six German divisions which opposed it and took 4,000 prisoners and sixty guns."

Guise Occupied. Paris, Nov. 5.—The advance continued without respite.

"At the end of today we had reached the outskirts of Barzy, Eschrechen, Lavareze, Grapilly, Malzy, Romery, Wiegé-Fayé and Colomfay, Sains, Richaumont and Coussart, freeing in the occupied villages numerous civilians."

"Further to the right we hold Neuville-Housset, Marle and the Marie-Mont-Cornet road as far east as Neuville-Bosmont, Ebouleux, Bussy-lez-Pierrepont and Dizy-le-Gros."

"In the region to the southwest of Chateau Porcien the severe fighting in the last few days has likewise terminated in a general driving back of the Germans. Our line runs to the north of Waleppe and Hannogne and west of Chaudun and St. Fermeux."

"Henry, Condé, Henry and eight Chateau Porcien are in our hands. We have gained a footing on the heights west of the road between Seralcourt and Eclay. Some of our elements succeeded in crossing the Aisne near Nampcel."

"In the Argonne our troops have brilliantly carried out a surprise crossing of the Ardennes Canal and the Aisne near Montgon and Lecluse. These two places have been shelled considerably, and we have taken the villages of Louvergny and Souville, as well as the outskirts of Mont Dieu Wood."

RETRACTING ON FRONT OF SEVENTY-FIVE MILES London, Nov. 5.—The Germans are retreating on a 75-mile front from the River Scheldt to the River Aisne.

Roughly, the allies have crossed the Franco-Belgian frontier between Valenciennes and Bavay, which is eight miles west of the fortress of Mauberge. The allies are within two miles of Bavay.

AUSTRIA PROTESTS ARMISTICE CLAUSE Vienna Objects to Use of Territory to Attack Germany.

Amsterdam, Nov. 5.—Austria will protest against the interpretation of any clause in the armistice as meaning that enemy armies are entitled to attack Germany thru Austria, according to advices from Vienna.

SERBIAN CAVALRY INVADES BOSNIA AUSTRIANS ON SAVE CROSS BORDER

Enemy Soldiers on Danube Return to Homes, Pillaging Whole Way--Allies Occupy Clabatz.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Operations in the eastern theatre on Nov. 4 are described in the official communication tonight as follows:

"On the Save the Austrians have crossed the frontier. The Town of Clabatz was occupied. On the Danube our artillery fire brought an enemy monitor to a stop. Before Belgrade Serbian cavalry penetrated Bosnia, where they occupied Vardiste. In the direction of Visegrad the Austrians were driven back in disorder. The soldiers are returning to their homes, engaged in pillage along the whole way."

SHOW EIGHT GAINS FOR REPUBLICANS But Figures for U. S. Elections Are Little More Than Half In.

FORD RUNNING SECOND Democratic Leaders in Congress and Republican House Leader Re-elected.

New York, Nov. 5.—At midnight the congressional election returns were in the figures then at hand showed a gain of eight seats in the house and three seats in the senate for the Republicans.

The Democratic leaders in congress, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, and Representative Kitchin of North Carolina, were re-elected as were the house Republican leader, Representative Mann of Illinois, and the acting Republican leader, Representative Gillette of Massachusetts.

Former Speaker Cannon of Illinois was re-elected to what will be his 22nd term in congress, a record of service interrupted by only two defeats.

Meyer London, the only Socialist in the house of representatives, was defeated by Henry M. Goldfogge, a Republican, running with Democratic support, but the Socialist retained representation by electing Victor Berle of Wisconsin, a former member of the house, now under indictment on charges of violating the espionage law. Other Socialist candidates were defeated, among them Morris Hillquit, candidate for mayor of New York a year ago.

Senatorial returns at midnight showed Representative McCorw of Illinois, Republican, running ahead of James Hamilton of Illinois, Democrat, and Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer, running on the Democratic ticket in Michigan, behind Truman H. Newberry, former assistant secretary of the navy, the Republican candidate.

Returns tabulated from one-fourth of the precincts in Michigan gave Newberry a lead of approximately 15,000 over Ford. Republican state headquarters claim Newberry's election by at least 40,000 majority over Ford.

The only complete governorship returns at hand at midnight showed the Republican tickets elected in Pennsylvania and Connecticut and Governor Whitman of New York coming down state with a heavy plurality which promised to wipe out the advantage of Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic candidate, in Greater New York.

In Other States. Republicans in Indiana claimed a safe lead on the state ticket. Lieutenant Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, Republican, was claiming his election. The first returns from the senatorial contest in Nebraska showed Senator Frank P. O'Connor, took the Republican lead, and John H. Morehead, the Democratic candidate, running very close. The election of the Republican ticket in Rhode Island and Vermont was indicated and it also was claimed in South Dakota. The Republican governor of Wisconsin claimed re-election.

The congressional returns at midnight were too incomplete to indicate whether the complexion of the next congress would be changed to Republican.

SPANDAU WORKS DESTROYED. Amsterdam, Nov. 5.—The destruction of the great Spandau artillery works by an explosion and fire is reported by The Weser Zeitung. No lives were lost. Spandau is a fortified town of Prussia, nine miles from Berlin.

SHAKE THE PIVOT OF GERMAN RETREAT

Armies West of Meuse Cut Off From Direct Communication With Metz.

With the French Army in France, Nov. 5.—The Franco-American operations west of the Meuse since Nov. 1 have shaken the pivot upon which the entire German retreat turns. The Germans are still making a stout resistance, without modifying the salient feature of the situation, which is that their armies west of the Meuse are practically cut off from direct communication with Metz.

The main reliance of the Germans now is on the line of the Meuse, which they appear determined to defend, while west of the river their principal resistance is along the Ardennes Canal. French troops have reached this obstacle from Rilly-aux-Bois, at the bend of the Aisne to the Rivièr Bar. Here they have encountered sustained artillery, machine-gun and musketry fire.

The Germans are still holding along the Aisne between Barzy and Chateau Porcien, while farther west indications of a retreat were noticed last evening. The French in pursuit maintained contact with the enemy's rearwards, and this morning reached Herpy and Banogne, as well as Heiltz 98, southeast of Montigny-le-Cotonnet.

East of the Oise River French troops on the heels of the retreating enemy have reached Audigny and La Herie in the vicinity of Valenciennes.

GERMANY MUST ACCEPT ARMISTICE FROM FOCH

Secretary Lansing Notifies Berlin That Allied Commander-in-Chief Has Terms--World May Know in Forty-Eight Hours if Immediate End of War is Near.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Marshal Foch has the terms of armistice for Germany, and awaits application for them by the German military command in the field.

The government at Berlin is so informed in a note which Secretary Lansing handed to Minister Sulzer of Switzerland tonight, announcing that the allies have declared their willingness to make peace on the principles enunciated by President Wilson. The note is now on the cables. In twenty-four hours it should be in the hands of the Germans, in forty-eight hours of the world may know whether an immediate end of the war is at hand.

Publication of details of the armistice terms still is withheld. They may not be made known until the Germans have accepted or rejected them, as in the course followed by the allies in dealing with Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria. Only the details are in doubt, however, and no one questions that acceptance means abject surrender.

The statement has been authorized that the drastic conditions under which Austria passed out of the war have been followed closely, and in answer to queries for further information, officials said tonight the statement of Premier Clemenceau, cabled from Paris by the Associated Press, told the story.

"The terms," said M. Clemenceau, "are what President Wilson himself recommended to us for the security of our troops, the maintenance of our superiority and the disarmament of the enemy, insofar as that is necessary to prevent a resumption of hostilities."

The text of Secretary Lansing's note follows: "I have the honor to request you to transmit the following communication to the German Government: 'In my note of Oct. 23, 1918, I advised you that the president had transmitted his correspondence with the German authorities to the government with which the Government of the United States is associated as aelligent, with the suggestion that, if those governments were disposed to accept peace upon the terms and principles indicated, their military advisers and the military advisers of the United States be asked to submit to the governments associated against Germany the necessary terms of such an armistice as would fully protect the interests of the peoples involved and insure to the associated governments the unrestricted power to safeguard and enforce the details of

"Further, in the conditions of peace laid down in his address to congress of Jan. 8, 1918, the president declared that invaded territories must be freed, the allied governments must be free to use the sea as open to them, subject to the usual laws of navigation, complete freedom on this subject when they enter the peace conference."

"I am instructed by the president to say that he is in agreement with the interpretation set forth in the last paragraph of the memorandum above quoted. I am further instructed by the president to request you to notify the German Government that the allied governments maintain their heavy pressure against the crumbling enemy defenses. The British this morning were nearly two-thirds of the way thru the forest of Monreal, the infantry being east of a line thru Loqueux and Les Grandes Patures."

This advance means that the British had got thru the very formidable fringe of defenses along the western side of the forest. Before them they now have only hurriedly improvised machine-gun posts.

A great feat of the battle was the taking of Le Quesnoy by the New Zealanders. This town had immensely strong ramparts, with deep moats. The New Zealanders surrounded the fortifications, while the soldiers joined in the attack, wheeling over the town and attacking the garrison with their machine guns.

Under cover of a smoke screen, the New Zealanders crept up to the town, which the Germans were keeping open as a life of retreat. Then followed confusion and desperate fighting, and the entrance was secured. More than a thousand prisoners were taken.

Meanwhile the British advanced to a line three miles east of the town. A remarkable sight was the spectacle of several German field batteries, with teams harnessed, their drivers and gunners all mounted and sitting snarling at attention, making their way back to the prison camps.

The great capture in guns was due to the rapid advance over at least two miles, where enemy artillery had been concentrated.

Wood, provincial chairman, handed out the following comments on the campaign in Ontario: "Today's total of $17,230,950 is, with one exception, the best we have had from the province. This, with the $90,645,200 previously reported, makes a grand total up to 11 o'clock tonight of $107,879,150. "Ontario has issued a challenge to the rest of the Dominion that she will equal the combined total of all the other provinces. As their total tonight is $93,150,000, we are maintaining our position but from this out the other provinces will be forging ahead and in Ontario we must strain every nerve or we won't make good our challenge. "Of today's total, $8,493,450 is from canvassing teams and $8,737,500 from special subscriptions. With 44 per cent. of the time gone, the canvassing teams' average for the province is only 37 per cent. Next to Toronto, Essex gave us the best return today, with a magnificent total of $1,938,000, bringing their combined percentage up to 63.18. Honor flags have been won today by fourteen places, including the City of St. Catharines and the district of Algoma, the 800 being the second city in Ontario to win the flag. The following wire received today from D. J. McDougall, the divisional organizer for the Ottawa Valley division, shows the splendid spirit of the men in his division, and this spirit prevails throughout the entire organization: "We are up to our necks in 'flu' mud, funerals, difficulties and work, but you may rely upon getting from twenty-two to twenty-four million dollars from the Ottawa Valley divisions before the curtain drops."

British navy. He then introduced Hon. W. J. Hanna, formerly food controller of Canada. Mr. Hanna said as an outsider he had watched the progress of the 1918 Victory Loan campaign. He referred to the war news as "the future would call a shocking change in affairs lately and emphasized the need for passing the objective now, saying that it was just as important as a year ago. "I was then revealing in the position of food controller, he said, "and I was in a position to know the need." He spoke of the food situation at that time, and said that the Victory Loan of 1917 sold the food supplies from this side of the Atlantic to an extent that people here little realized. "There must be an increase on this side in bacon this year," he said, giving a concrete example. "The United States fell short in 1917, and the Canada did well, production in both countries must be stimulated by propaganda for 1918." He told of the financial situation that arose in 1917 through the allied countries lacking the necessary money to buy the products here, and how the Victory Loan of 1917 had saved the whole situation. To Conclude the War. He touched the right spot when he said, "For the purposes on concluding the war and bringing the boys back to a country that is getting back to normal conditions the Victory Loan is needed. They will be glad to get back to a country that is able to hold its own on cash furnished on its own credit."

The teams reported for the day and the honor flags were won by district D for the daily standing and district A for the standing to date. The chairman referred to the wonderful help the press was giving the campaign, and in a few remarks W. J. Taylor of the Canadian Press thanked him, saying, "The effect of what Toronto does today in the Victory Loan is felt all over Canada tomorrow."

Toronto General Trusts Subscribes for Three Million Dollars' Worth.

The special subscriptions committee report $3,000,000' subscription from the Toronto General Trusts Corporation, which is the largest subscription so far received in Toronto, with the exception of the Canada Life's $2,250,000. This subscription is particularly gratifying, as it is practically double the amount subscribed by the Toronto General Trusts Corporation last year. The special subscriptions received yesterday are: The Toronto General Trusts Corporation $3,000,000. Massey-Harris Co. Ltd. $1,250,000. Mackay Companies $500,000. Beardmore & Company $1,000,000. Wm. Davies Company $500,000. Wm. H. Banfield & Sons $200,000. The above subscriptions represent an increase of $2,100,000 over the amount subscribed by the same people last year.

The women at the booths of the Victory Loan are doing their part in the distribution of literature. They are also making some sales. The Municipal Chapter secured a $10,000 bond in the early days of the loan. So also did Rosary Hall Association booth at the Queen's Hotel. The Queen Mary Circle of the St. Henry Bellait Chapter sold $47,650 worth of bonds. St. Joseph's Alumnae Association report sales to be $7,000.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

Within a few hours Berlin will receive instructions from the allies to apply to Marshal Foch for the terms of armistice. President Wilson dispatched a note yesterday to the German Government to inform it of the allied decision. The peace terms will adhere in general to the outlines laid down by the president in former declarations, but the allies reserve their own interpretation of freedom of the seas. This means, of course, that they will refuse to tie up their navies in future wars. As to indemnities, Germany must fully compensate the inhabitants of occupied territories for damages to their persons and properties. The leaving of the armistice negotiations to Marshal Foch assures military guarantees that Germany will be unable to practice any treachery towards the allies. Meanwhile, her armies, in the greatest battle of the war, are rolling backward on a front of 15 miles. She has been trying to check the allied advance, and has failed. The British attack against the German line between the Scheldt and the Sambre Rivers, a stretch of 30 miles, overwhelmed 25 German divisions, or 300,000 men. As a result the British experienced an uninterrupted advance yesterday, when they cleared the whole of the large Mormal Forest and emerged on the eastern side. In the afternoon they reached the general line of Barzy-Grand Fayt-Berlaincourt-Roisin-Frenes. One of their many exploits was the capture of Le Queenois, a walled town of medieval aspect. The enemy had to retreat so hastily as to throw away a large quantity of war material, and even men. The British gained this victory over an enemy determined to resist their advance at all hazards, and it was a fair test of strength and fighting power between Britain and Germany. While the British were thus breaking into the German front on their right wing, the Belgians, close to the Dutch frontier on the extreme left, were steadily closing in on Ghent. They were investing the suburbs and the town seems doomed in a few hours. On the 45 miles of front between the Sambre Canal and the Argonne, the French also drove the defeated Germans

These marks on Rubber Footwear distinguish a Dominion Rubber System Product.

Modern Efficiency Says: Wear Rubbers and Keep Fit. Get them NOW—so you'll be ready for bad weather. A sick man, or a sick woman, slows up the whole machinery of business. If a man, his work is neglected. If a woman, her household is disarranged and the bread-winner of the family made less efficient by worry. If a child, the progress in school is retarded—sometimes the whole school year lost—because of some serious illness which might have been prevented had Rubbers been worn.

Let's all stay well this winter, by wearing rubbers. Let's avoid the epidemics of colds, sore throats, gripe, pneumonia that upset business and homes in previous years. The cost of rubbers is so reasonable compared with other needs, that you can well afford to buy more than one pair. These six brands of reliable rubbers—"Jacques Cartier" "Merchants" "Maple Leaf" "Granby" "Dominion" "Daisy"—enable you to obtain from the leading shoe stores a style and shape for every shoe for men, women and children. Ask for these brands—they give the best wear.

FOCH WILL GIVE ARMISTICE TERMS

Germany Told She Must Apply to Him, Says Lloyd George.

IN SUPREME COMMAND

Marshal Will Have Directing of Campaign on All the Fronts.

London, Nov. 5.—In the house of commons today, Premier Lloyd George stated the allies had decided that Germany must apply to Marshal Foch for an armistice.

He said that the supreme war council had considered the answer they should make to President Wilson's proposals, and had arrived at a complete agreement regarding the conditions. They had been transmitted to the president with a request that he inform the German Government that if they wished to know these conditions they should apply to Marshal Foch in the usual military form.

Lloyd cheers greeted this announcement by the prime minister.

Continuing, Lloyd George said that if the application was made, it had been decided that the British naval representatives would be associated with Marshal Foch at the conference. Whatever Germany's reply might be, the associated powers awaited the issue with perfect confidence.

Another outbreak of cheering marked this part of the premier's speech. The premier said he was unable to give the house detailed information concerning the "complete agreement" the allies had reached on the armistice terms to be submitted to Germany.

Lloyd George said that the Versailles conference had decided that Marshal Foch should be placed in supreme direction of the forces operating against Germany on all fronts.

The premier referred to the recent British successes on the western front, and assured the Czech-Slavs and the Jugo-Slavs that their allies intended to come to their aid as fast as they could.

Converging Attack. Lloyd George paid a tribute to the Italian army and to Gen. Diaz, the Italian commander-in-chief, for the victory which saw the final removal of a danger that had threatened Italian security and liberty for many centuries.

Commenting on the Austrian armistice terms, the premier said the most important point was that they gave to the allies free use of Austro-Hungarian territory and communications for operations of war.

When it was considered that the events of the past few weeks had liberated all the allied forces operating against Turkey, Bulgaria and Austria-Hungary, and that these forces were to be used in a great converging final attack upon Germany, the full significance of the terms would be apparent.

GHEENT'S SIEGE BEGUN; QUEEN SEES ASSAULT

With the Allied armies in France and Belgium, Nov. 5.—Allied troops today began the siege of the City of Ghent, already surrounded virtually on three sides. The assault on the city was witnessed by Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, and hundreds of her non-combatant subjects.

Belgian, French and American soldiers this afternoon had pushed up to the eastern outskirts of the beleaguered city with comparatively light resistance from the enemy, who apparently has evacuated the place.

FRENCH AIR OPERATIONS REACH BIG PROPORTIONS

Paris, Nov. 5.—The official communication on aerial operations issued tonight says:

"During the day of November 4 bombing machines dropped more than 38 tons of projectiles and fired 16,000 cartridges of convoys and troop concentrations in the region of Vendresse and Daucourt; 10,350 kilos of projectiles were dropped on the railway stations at Metziers, Monon, Lunnes, Triage, Sedan, Polx-Terron and Vendresse.

"Since November 2 Lieut. Fench (the premier French ace) has downed six enemy machines which brought the number of victories for this pilot up to 75."

FALL WHEAT DOES WELL IN OCTOBER

Report on Conditions in Ontario Says It Will Winter Well.

The following is a summary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture:

Fall wheat has done so well during the latter part of October that in most instances it will be ready for winter with a good top and a thrifty appearance generally. From heavy comes the only complaint of insect injury, the Hessian fly having appeared in some places in that county.

Potato digging is practically thru. Rot has already done much injury in Dundas.

This week has been most favorable for sugar beet lifting. Some remarkably good tonnage are reported from Lambton.

Turnips have done better than was expected. A farmer in Peterboro reports 25 tons to the acre. Prices for turnips have fallen in Brant; only from 16c to 18c a bushel now being paid, as dealers fear a shortage of cars for shipping during the winter.

Ontario reports that apples are being marketed freely, the inferior fruit going to the evaporators and cider mills, with but little waste.

Pastures up to very recently have been good, but are now well eaten off. Live stock are being stabled in good condition. About the usual number of that more young stock than usual will be fed this winter. It is stated from Grey that sales of live hogs have been rather unsatisfactory this fall, as with the exception of pure-bred shorthorns, cattle, sheep and hogs have been selling at low figures compared with sales held last year. On the other hand a herd of grade Holsteins were sold in Brant last week at an average of $135, including an old cow which went at only $50, while some spring calves brought $42 each. Dairy cows have continued in fair milking condition.

Hogs have been going to market in good numbers despite falling prices. Small pigs have not been so much in demand during the week.

Marketing of grain has been slow, with some attribute to the epidemic hitting both buyers and sellers.

Hay is in much demand, but comparatively little is now changing hands. It has been selling at auction sales in York at from $20 to $25 a ton.

Feeder supplies otherwise are fully sufficient for the winter, the clean straw making up considerably for the scarcity of hay. Coarse grains are plentiful and there is a good supply of ensilage.

Fall plowing is nearly completed in most of the county, but winter weather has prevented any work there is more back-

The Bad Man of Europe is groggy. The hell-hounds he loosed in Belgium are backing away, cringing, snarling, scared.

Now, while his legions totter; while his only hope is to dodge, to retreat, to evade the knockout blow that he knows must fall, now is the time to strike and to put everything we have behind the blow.

If you were planning to buy a $100 Victory Bond you can surely hit harder. Make it $200 or $500.

If you were thinking of a $500 Bond, can't you strike a $1,000 blow?

The full weight of Canada's fighting strength must go into that crushing stroke—our great resources, our industries, our agriculture, our fisheries, our surplus wealth, every dollar we can spare, every dollar we can rake and scrape.

For this is the knockout—the blow that must strike the demon down and send his broken war hordes hurtling back across the Rhine.

J. S. GILES QUILTS AS LIQUOR VENDOR

John Cornell Appointed to Vacancy and Starts Next Monday.

STRAIN TOO HEAVY

Rush of Last Few Weeks Given as Cause of Retirement.

J. S. Giles, the Church street government liquor vendor, has surrendered his license following trouble with the board of license commissioners, and John Cornell, a well known local conservative worker, has been given his appointment, which is probably the most valuable in the gift of the government. Mr. Cornell was not a license holder under the old regime, and surprise is expressed that he should have been given the monopoly in view of his lack of experience in the liquor business. It is said, however, that a former licensed shopkeeper is behind Mr. Cornell, whose appointment was made by the Ontario Government itself, and over the heads of the members of the license board, who took office on the understanding that they would not be interfered with in the administration of the Ontario Temperance Act.

Free of Politics.
When the board was appointed, it was announced that the liquor license laws of the province would be administered free from politics. The new appointment, it would seem, indicates that the government still intends to have its finger in the pie. It is common talk on the street that a member of the government has declared that no license holder who was in business at the time of the election of Hartley Dewar would ever receive a vendor's license because Mr. Dewar's successful campaign was attributed to the aid he received from the liquor people. But those who claim to know what took place at that time declare that there were many licensees who took absolutely no part in the election.

To properly conduct a liquor vendor's business it is necessary to carry a stock of about $50,000 on hand and in bond. Beyond fixing the price of Canadian whiskies the license holder stands at the vendor's free hand and their profits during the "flu" outbreak were estimated as high as $1500 a day. The license they charge for Scotch, Irish, gin and other imported liquors is said to be higher than is charged by Montreal dealers who, besides their heavy overhead expenses, have a license fee to pay. The vendors here pay no license fee.

All Played Out.
When asked if it was a fact that he had given up his appointment, Mr. Giles stated last night, "Yes, sir." When asked the reason, he said, "We've been played out here. We've been working until two and three o'clock in the mornings, and we can't stand the strain. I haven't a leg to stand on, and I'm in my stocking feet now." "There should have been four or five more vendors for the city," he said, "and then it wouldn't have been so bad, and if we hadn't had to look after the country business we could have given the city better service, but there are eight men here now packing for shipment to the country." "As far as the license board is concerned, I can only say that they have used me all. They have been fair in everything, and have always consulted me on matters regarding the business in Toronto. Anyone who tries to do the right thing will get a square deal from the board."

Mr. Giles stated that he is stepping out immediately, and that John Cornell would take over the work on Monday.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain.
How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not, as some believe, to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any drugstore a few ounces of Bursted Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bursted Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 6.

The Labor Party's Convention.

On Saturday next the Independent Labor Party of Greater Toronto is to meet in convention. The old line politicians are still in the jeering stage but this is not to be expected. There was warning and reproach when the Labor party set up opposition at the recent by-elections, but as the Labor party was defeated, the political managers hauled down the danger signals and have relapsed into the usual mood of self-satisfaction. Most people are conscious personally that the war has made a great change in all social, economic and political conditions, but men as men and men as politicians appear to take different views of facts.

If there is any real difference between the Labor party and the old line parties it is in the acute consciousness of the Labor men that a change has occurred in earthly affairs and that the change must be recognized and prepared for.

On the part of the old line political parties, while individuals admit that a change has occurred, the parties as parties remain as they were. The union party is generally regarded as a bridge to carry things over until the war is ended, peace declared, and the old political parties can resume their old political warfare in the ancient manner of the machine. They do not admit to themselves that the war has cleared the ground, and that a new tillage must take the place of the old timber. Much less do they recognize that following the clearing there must be a stumping-bee. The old stumps must be removed if the country is to make progress.

All these things are vividly present in the mind of the Labor party. The Labor party, it must be remembered, is not composed of artisans and mechanics only; they have their proper and equal place in the ranks of the party, but membership is open to all "who labor with hand or brain." It is not a sectional party, but a general, national and practical movement embracing every class and condition of society.

Moreover, it is a constructive movement. Most political parties are content to be oppositional. But it is only the party with a constructive program that has anything useful to offer the country at this crisis. The Labor party has a definite constructive program covering all the problems of the after-war situation, and in this respect leads all other political movements.

Germany to Sue for Terms.

It has been decided that the dog of the German Government in dogging the attempt to sidestep France and Great Britain by appealing for terms to President Wilson, should not be allowed to pass, and President Wilson has agreed. If Germany wants terms she must apply to Marshal Foch, who represents the powers with whom Germany first commenced hostilities as well as President Wilson.

The German Government will not be permitted to say that it surrendered to the United States and to tell its people that it was only the power of the western republic that compelled it to submit. If Germany wants terms of surrender she must ask Marshal Foch for them. This change may delay the cessation of hostilities by a few days, but we believe, not longer. The troops of the entente can go thru any point of the German front which they choose to attack and the capture of men and materials grows in importance daily.

Various rumors are afloat about the reluctance of the Kaiser and the military party to surrender or accept what they regard as harsh terms. They should have considered all this before they started the war. These imperial gamblers are bad losers. Their stake is lost and willy-nilly they must pay. There is going to be no pleasant gentlemen's agreement among a party of kings, and I.O.T.'s will not pass current in these final transactions. The Kaiser put it to the touch to win or lose, and he must abide by the dice of fate. The world is thru with gambling kings.

The people of Germany are no longer under the hypnotic spell of imperial rule and militarism. The counter-spell of democracy has scattered all the glamor, and they are beginning to see the sordid realities without illusion. It is stated that General von Winterfelt, formerly military attaché at Paris, has been appointed by the German Government to carry on negotiations with Marshal Foch. The German Government is very well aware of what the terms will be, and unless disposed to accept them, would not formally ask for their enunciation. We do not think acceptance and surrender will be long in following the presentation of the terms.

A Centre of Empire.

Lord Charnwood is the second distinguished Briton who in the last few months has expressed his preparedness to see without surprise the centre of the empire moved from the banks of the Thames and established on the shores of Lake Ontario. Perhaps Hamilton may claim the honor of being the prospective centre, but we incline to think that while Hamilton may be the centre it will be as the prosperous suburb of the greater city further east.

When some of us made this suggestion twenty-five years ago, it was met with more or less derision. But the world has a way of developing, and the growth of the Dominion, and the spread of Toronto in the last quarter of a century indicates that it may not take three hundred years to change it into a metropolis like London. Three hundred years ago London was a small place compared with Toronto of today.

But it isn't bricks and mortar nor streets and houses that make a city, much less an empire centre. We need men and women who see the world in perspective and who see it whole. The little, narrow-minded, parochial people develop more or less into czars and kaisers, and the world wants no more of them. They think only of their own interests and not at all of other people's. The empire of the future must be much more considerate of others than has ever yet been the case.

There is no reason why, looking forward 300 years, or even less, we should not conceive a city great as London established in these familiar areas. The Bloor street viaduct may yet be famous as Holborn, and the Don as occult as the Fleet. But it takes men to do great things and make history and cities. We must lay the foundations now as the men of 300 years ago laid them in London. They had no such hinterland as Toronto has to develop. But what they had they used, and their brains and their big hearts went out over the world. We shall not have the competition and the hostility to contend with which they had, but we shall have our own difficulties, and they should be met as promptly, as bravely, as ingeniously and as unswervingly for liberty, justice and honor. Only so can empires grow in future.

Other People's Opinions

She Will Sing the Doxology.

Editor World: My ideas as to how we should at first greet news of Germany's surrender are in accord with Mr. Williams, whose letter was published in this morning's paper. Surely when the knowledge of absolute peace reaches our first feeling will be one of thankfulness. And surely there is nothing that could be as expressive of all we will feel as the beautiful Doxology. I for one intend to follow Mr. Williams' splendid suggestion.

Finance Minister Considering Issue of New One-Cent Piece

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The minister of finance is considering the design for a new one-cent copper coin. The new coin will be slightly larger and slightly thicker than a ten-cent piece, so as to be readily distinguishable to the touch. It will take some time to have the die and the coins issued for circulation.

"YOUR SWORD, SIR!"

Ida and the School Teachers

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

Years ago a wise man drifted out of the east or the west and exclaimed for the benefit of the world that "every day brings forth its own knowledge." Certainly the old fellow, whoever he was, told the truth, and there is no one in this city better able to believe it than ourselves.

For instance, we learned yesterday for the first time that "separate" school teachers do not get paid only by the day, as one might say, but that they are just as well to mention the fact that by separate we are not referring to the physical characteristics of the persons in question, simply to their classification in the department.

Well, then, providing that such is the case, and it is, these people who are not being paid for the time when they are forced to lay off (if we may use that expression in dealing with school teachers) during this epidemic.

It might be quite interesting to know how the members of the school board expect them to live. In this day and age it is not possible for people to eat and walk on weather, nor is it possible to kick the landlady out of the just reward, which in some cases is quite an amount, especially when the ghost has not walked for some time. We now speak absolutely from experience and do not wish to be argued with.

Most of the occasional teachers are young women, who, in many instances, have come in from outside points, and are earning, or attempting to earn, their livelihood. They cannot be expected that they have any too much money with which to finance themselves, and the foresight of trustees have apparently never taken the trouble to ascertain how they manage to keep their bodies and souls together.

There are women on the school board, and everyone knows that the female of the species is so protective of her sisters, not particularly when the sisters do not happen to be holding the same lofty positions as themselves. This being true, why have the ladies of the board not taken it upon themselves to rectify this very grievous error? Surely they would not like to think that any member of the teaching staff of the Toronto schools would slip off the "straight and narrow," but at the same time, what else are they doing when they take the opportunity of doing?

A Line of Cheer Each Day of the Year

By John Kendrick Bangs.

I've never truly known
Just what it meant to be alone,
Because each tree I see
Is friendly unto me,
And every rose I pass
That in the garden grows,
And wild-flowers in the grass,
Nods at me as I pass.

FELLOWSHIP.

I've never truly known
Just what it meant to be alone,
Because each tree I see
Is friendly unto me,
And every rose I pass
That in the garden grows,
And wild-flowers in the grass,
Nods at me as I pass.

THE OFFICE BOY SOLILOQUIZES.

Oh happy is the man whose time
Is spent up on the motor cars,
No so his, but joy and bliss,
And here the things that mars
The happiness of office boys,
He dreads always to be asked
When his boss yells like an angry wild,
But to the show, the swell dainties take,
Ah, yes, them shufflers has a sinch,
They sit an' smoke an' read,
An' when the high-brow James comes out
They crank him up an' off they speed,
We use our poor off's boys, an' him
For all the off's stuffs, an' bust
How think he is the cheese; 'You bat
Be a shuff; my chins ain't allin',
Its eze for a guy to squat
An' pull them little rig-a-jigs,
An' mook along the city streets,
Apast the street cars an' the trolleys,
Poor off's boys is ment to work,
An' sweet an' talk the bosses gab,
Wile them fine sinks jiet takes thare eez,
When I grow up that job I nab.

THE WIFE

By JANE PHELPS

Mrs. Clayborne at Last Decides to Visit Ruth.

CHAPTER LXXXI.

All day Ruth thought of Brian's unappreciative remarks at the breakfast table. Often her eyes filled as she recalled the almost sneering tone in which he had belittled her work, and called her a "know-it-all" sort of person. Then, too, she had constantly in her mind that question:

Where had he spent the time after his lesson? Was it with Mollie King? And if it was, why didn't he tell her frankly, she never nagged, never scolded him, regardless of what he had said. Perhaps if she would scold once in a while, talk to him about his duty to her, she might have won his wife—he might do differently. But no sooner had the thought arisen than it was dismissed. Brian would not be criticizing Mollie. And then she might do—propose to meet him after his lesson and have a little supper at some gay, but never nagged, never scolded him, regardless of what he had said. Perhaps if she would scold once in a while, talk to him about his duty to her, she might have won his wife—he might do differently. But no sooner had the thought arisen than it was dismissed. CAPT. KAIN'S WIFE HEARD AT INQUEST

Thought Hospital Not Quiet Enough for a Nervous Patient.

Denial that Captain L. H. Kain's last alleged utterance was that "Canada needs to be achieved of the way she has treated her soldiers" was made by Captain H. C. Wales, medical officer to sick officers in the base hospital at the morgue last night during the seventh sitting of the inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of Cadet E. N. Davidson, who died in that institution from the effects of influenza.

After being asked just what he insinuated by Crown Attorney R. Greer, Capt. Wales stated that Capt. Kain's last utterances were curses, and not the above statement as it had appeared in the press. He was of the opinion that it threw a slur on the medical officer at the base hospital.

Mr. Greer: "When did your husband first complain of the hospital conditions?" "The first time I visited him."

TRYING PROBLEMS NEEDING SOLUTION

True Either in War or Peace, Says Lord Charnwood.

Introducing Lord Charnwood at Convocation Hall yesterday afternoon, Sir Robert Falconer referred to the number of visitors traveling between the countries overseas and the United States for the purpose of creating a spirit of friendliness. Canada was sharing in these visits. He also spoke of the Life of Lincoln written by Lord Charnwood, whom he said he was pleased to welcome because of his personal character and the high standing he had in Great Britain.

In opening his address the distinguished visitor expressed the opinion that none knew whether the war would come to an end at once or would continue stern and sanguinary thru the winter. In either case there would be trying problems to settle. In doing this, he said, the aim should be not for peace alone, but for justice and peace for future generations.

A special responsibility would rest upon the two great powers which speak the same language, the United States and the British Empire, continued Lord Charnwood, as he proceeded to draw a parallel between the common law of both, he said, elaborates the principle that in a certain respect all men were equal. This was the germ of equality, and side by side with it went the idea of self-government.

Speaking of the civil war of 1776, the speaker said that he was aware of the ugly side of it, still as an Englishman he could speak of it as a great epoch, because it was a tremendous impetus to free government.

Showing how the principle of justice was worked out in the procedure of the British Parliament, Lord Charnwood said the doctrine had been followed in the case of India that whenever the rights of the empire and those of the native population of India were concerned the British Government of India found itself bound to respect the interests of the so-called subject races. Slavery was also abolished by the taxpayer when the people of Canada made a claim that they should not be consulted as to taxation but that they should have responsible government. It was accorded. Later Canada was given freedom to impose taxes upon British imports.

Coming to the war of today, the speaker said it was with singular stupidity as far as danger to themselves was concerned that the English had taken up what was considered by Germany the matter of "a scrap of paper." The people of the United States had braced themselves by our side late, but with magnificent and astonishing energy. It had slowly come home to them that the Hun was the enemy, and when it did they went fighting mad.

Referring to the league of nations, so much talked about, the speaker said that the league should be looked at from the right point of view. The point that justice and not peace alone was the objective was pointed out, and he emphasized only.

In the first quarter St. Michaels forced U.T.S. on the defensive. When a U.T.S. man dropped the ball, St. Michaels seized their chance, and Dunne kicked for a goal.

McPherson was injured early in the second quarter and had to retire. Munro kicked to the dead end for a single point. A minute later he forced Dunne to rouse Dunne from his stupor.

St. Michaels forced the early play in the third quarter, but an onside kick failed and gave U.T.S. possession. An offside gave the ball back to St. Michaels.

SPERMOZONE For Nervous Debility, Nervousness and accompanying ailments, $1.00 per box.

NEVER MIND THE PEACE RUMORS

WE have the same barbaric Germany to fight until it surrenders. Germany expected to collect indemnities from the Allies, including Canada, to cover her expense of the war.

Now that Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria have been eliminated, and Germany is suffering from weeks of continuous defeat, Victory is in the air. It can only be assured by maintaining the terrific energy of our Army. Our fighters must be provided with all needed weapons and supplies. We must continue until the last submarine has disappeared. How can any patriotic Canadian hesitate to furnish the money the Government must have with which to do all this?

Subscribing to Victory Bonds is not giving our money away never to be returned, as in the cases of taxes, but the untaxable privileges of these Victory Bonds offer a rare opportunity to make not only one of the safest but the very best investment in the world.

If Germany Accepts--- Before this is in type Germany may have accepted the Allies' terms of armistice. ---But that would not mean that the Victory Loan would not be needed. Canada would still need the Victory Loan when fighting ceases, just as she has needed the money to carry on the war. After fighting ceases it will cost hundreds of millions of dollars to maintain Canada's soldiers until they can be demobilized. Canada may have to keep her quota of men in occupied enemy territory. Canada will have to transport her army home. For some time to come Canada must continue to finance the supply of foodstuffs for Britain and her allies --- on credit. War or no war, Canada must continue to finance her shipbuilding programme to replace lost tonnage and to establish and maintain her proper place in the sea-carrying commerce of the world. All this will have to be financed through the Victory Loan 1918. So whether or not Germany accepts the Allies' terms, the Victory Loan 1918 must be subscribed and over-subscribed. Nothing less than this will enable Canada to complete her war effort, and to maintain her agricultural and industrial prosperity. And, remember, this may be your last chance to buy Canadian Government bonds bearing 5 1/2% interest. So Buy Victory Bonds and Buy More and More Bonds

It was stated yesterday that no less than five offers had been submitted during the last few days for the control of Wasapika, and in some cases the price bid for the stock was above that of the present market.

The International Petroleum Company has discontinued active work in the Peruvian oil fields. This company is the most important oil concern operating in these fields, and the stopping of work is due to the failure of negotiations with the Peruvian Government which have been going on for some time with the object of settling a controversy regarding taxation. This agreement involves claims on a tract of oil lands situated in the northern part of Peru.
