JAPS ALL SURROUND KUROPATKIN'S SPINNING OF EUROPEAN CRITICS

Should Have Begun Retreat Two Weeks Ago, and Present Position is Full of Peril.

St. Petersburg, May 22.—Private advices from Vladivostok confirm the report that the cruiser Bogatyri ran the rocks. Officials claim that they have no intimation regarding the incident, and it is not known whether or not the ship has yet been hauled off.

Tokio, May 22.—During the reconnaissance of Port Arthur, made by Admiral Togo on Friday of last week, a shell hit the torpedo boat destroyer Akatsuki, killing one officer and 24 men.

London, May 23.—The Daily Telegraph this morning prints the following despatch, dated May 19, from its correspondent at the Japanese headquarters, which the despatch does not locate. There has been no change in the position here for the past 10 days. Our advanced division is in touch with the enemy near Maotien Pass, where the Liaoyang road traverses the defile. The Russian line extends from Hancheng to the west of Maotien Pass.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—The emperor and Grand Duke Michael have arrived in St. Petersburg.

London, May 23.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at Kobe, Japan, cables the following: "Returning from Korea thru the Yellow Sea this (last week) I saw Japanese transports in every direction. They were travelling without escort. Sometimes as many as ten at a time were counted."

Tokio, May 23.—It is stated on good authority that the Japanese have captured Kalping, and are driving the Russians back in the direction of Yinhov. Kalping is on the railroad about fifty miles south of Newchwang.

London, May 23.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: "I am informed on good authority that Vice-Admiral Alexei Tsereteli has resigned as the reason for his desire to be relieved, but that the emperor persuaded him, in a gracious telegram, to remain at his post."

Vladivostok, May 23.—Vice-Admiral Skrydloff arrived here at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon. He was met at the Okansk station, 13 miles outside Vladivostok by Major-General Voronetz and deputations of the military, naval and municipal authorities as well as by an enthusiastic crowd and was presented with bread and salt.

KUROPATKIN'S DANGER. London, May 23.—While there is a good deal of confusion in the popular mind regarding the military situation in Manchuria, most European critics believe that, tho the advance guard on the Fengwangcheng road was repulsed, Japanese plans for enveloping Gen. Kuropatkin's army at Liaoyang has been relentlessly carried out.

TO AID KUROPATKIN. London, May 23.—The correspondent of The Times, on board that paper's steamer, Halmun, which is still in the Miao Straits against troops attacking Port Arthur for the passage of transports with the third army that the Hattusa met with disaster.

JAPS FUTURE POLICY. London, May 23.—The Standard's correspondent of Tokio, telegraphing under date of May 22, says: "Addressing a meeting of financiers to-day on the importance of securing the sympathy of the civilized world in the present momentous crisis, Marquis Ito strongly urged the importance of Japan being convinced to enforce her claims, never for a moment wavering in frank and broad-minded recognition of the legitimate claims and interests of other nations. The speech is considered significant, as foreshadowing Japan's future policy with regard to Korea and Manchuria."

FORTIFYING FENGWANGCHENG. St. Petersburg, May 22.—A despatch from Gen. Kuropatkin to the emperor is as follows: "Our patrols and cavalry detachments are reconnoitering this side of the Finchou range, 75 miles northeast of Fengwangcheng. The Japanese cover their dispositions by small advance guards consisting of as much as a regiment of infantry with artillery and cavalry posted along the high roads and as little as two companies at unimportant points. Japanese cavalry are seldom seen. From reports received yesterday I have concluded that the first Japanese army is concentrated as follows: "Two divisions are in Fengwangcheng and its environs and one division at Habalin, half way between Sinyen and Fengwangcheng. "It is stated that Fengwangcheng is being fortified."

"OLD 91" REJECTS MASTERS' OFFER PRINTERS' STRIKE NOW POSSIBLE

Decision Unanimous and Pres. Lynch Sent For—Employers Meanwhile Say Nothing.

The relations between the book and job printers of the city and their employers are much strained, and the only possible outcome is a strike. Negotiations have been going on for some time in reference to the renewal of the three-year working agreement, which expires on June 1. The compositors, who will be the only men affected, are now receiving $13.25 per week of 54 hours. The demand made some time ago that the rate should be increased to $15 for 48 hours' work, but the men were willing to make a compromise at $13 and 52 hours. The employers made an offer of $14 for a week of 54 hours, at all present, but at a meeting held in Richmond Hall on Saturday night, this was absolutely declined. The meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic in the history of the union, and there was not a dissenting voice when the resolution against accepting the terms was passed.

Send for Pres. Lynch. No vote was taken on the question of a strike, but it was decided to send for James Lynch, president of the International Typographical Union, and he will arrive here this week. Members of the union feel that they have been most considerate in awaiting the expiration of an agreement, which allowed them but a comparatively small wage, while the cost of living has been constantly increasing. The employers practically offer a raise of but 75 cents per week, as the men are asked to accept $14 for six months, $14.50 for the following six months, and $15 after the expiration of two years from June 1. The meeting was quiet, but the speakers were determined. Typographical Union, No. 91, has been known as the most conservative among labor organizations in the city, and the members will regret the necessity of a strike, but are firmly resolved against accepting less than $15 per week, or some 800 members, about 200 are in the newspaper offices and are not concerned.

Complete Tie-Up Threatened. The employers' committee in charge of the matter has been composed of A. C. Rutter, Rev. Dr. Briggs and Atwell Fleming. The latter two gentlemen declined to make a statement of any kind, but gave the impression that no further negotiations would be considered.

In case a strike is ordered, every job printing house in the city will be tied up, at least temporarily. The newspapers will not be affected. It is said that the printing houses are not united on the question, and if the matter becomes serious, the smaller houses and all but two of the larger ones will concede the demands of the men.

FRANCE BREAKS WITH POPE RECALLS HER AMBASSADOR

Vatican Authorities, However, Hope That M. Nisard Will Soon Return.

Rome, May 22.—Vatican authorities continue to be agitated over the conflict with the French government, growing out of the protest against President Loubet's visit to Rome and the recall of M. Nisard, the French ambassador to the Vatican. The Pope said mass this morning in the presence of 64 Italians and foreigners, and gave up the rest of the day to the consideration of the difficulties with France. He read a number of clippings from the newspapers on the subject. The Vatican authorities hope that M. Nisard will soon return to Rome.

The question as to how L'Humanite of Paris became possessed of the note of protest addressed to the other powers, which varied from that sent to the Vatican by Monaco because the Vatican's note to which was stronger than that addressed to the other Catholic states, in consequence of the fact that having been informed that Prince Albert of Monaco intended to visit the King of Italy.

It is said that Prince Albert was more emphatic, it is said at the Vatican, because Prince Albert was the friend of Captain Dreyfus, who had worked against the French government, and also because the clerico-imperialists were accusing if not in the same field, with M. Jaures, the socialist leader, who originated the present agitation.

Paris, May 22.—The retirement of M. Nisard, French ambassador to the Vatican, continues to be an absorbing topic. The ambassador is expected here to-morrow when he will confer with Foreign Minister Delcasse and go over the details of the rupture, proposed to be given out in the council of ministers Tuesday, when a further line of action will be determined. Contrary to general expectation, M. Nisard is expected to leave the Vatican to-night. A freight train in charge of Johnson and Adams, drawing thirty-two cars, pulled by engine No. 31 and another engine, was going west when the engines broke away from the cars shortly before reaching the ammunition car.

FENCED IN A TRAIL. Grand Rapids, Mich., May 22.—A very hot fight was being waged here today for a trip over the Halifax Southern Railway, announced that the contract for the Toronto and Sudbury section of the James Bay Railway would be given out almost at once, and that active construction would be begun in July. He held strongly to the theory that as the time for completing the C.P.R. expired in 1911, and as the Toronto and Sudbury branch was included in that charter, no legal authority had been given to the C.P.R. for its construction.

TIBETAN AFFAIR. London, May 22.—(Tribune Cable.)—The Tibetan affair offers fresh illustration of the feebleness of the Chinese government and the inconsequence and risks to which England is exposed. The British expedition is surrounded with superior mobile force, and is compelled to remain defensive until it can be strongly reinforced. Chinese influence is paralyzed, and apparently the British must choose between a hazardous advance to Lhasa and an ignominious retreat to the Indian frontier.

AMMUNITION CAR ON FIRE DROVE SPECTATORS BACK

Guelp, May 22.—(Special.)—A very bad wreck occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway one mile east of this city at 6.30 to-night. A freight train in charge of Johnson and Adams, drawing thirty-two cars, pulled by engine No. 31 and another engine, was going west when the engines broke away from the cars shortly before reaching the ammunition car.

TO AID WOOLEN INDUSTRY BUT NO TARIFF REVISION. Government to Go to Country With a Promise of Change After Election.

Ottawa, May 22.—(Special.)—In probably a week from next Thursday the finance minister will bring down his budget. It is not likely to be an elaborate effort. The policy of the government has been to subordinate all other public measures to the Grand Trunk Pacific deal, and it is not likely that its prospective will be altered by important fiscal announcements.

WHY GUELPH COMPLAINS. Guelp Herald: A report is current in local Grand Trunk circles that No. 1, the fast express from Montreal, which arrives in Guelp at 9.05 o'clock every morning, will be taken off this route and placed on the southern branch. The report is apparently well founded and some of the local officials have already been informed of the same. This early train has been the source of much convenience, not only to the business men of the city, but to the travelling public generally. It has been well patronized, which should be sufficient evidence that it has been appreciated.

ESSENTIALS TO SUCCESS ON FARM OR RANCH IN WEST

Homesteader Should Have at Least $500 and Year's Experience as Farm Hand.

Winnipeg, May 22.—(Staff Correspondence.)—Here is an expert's estimate of what a prospective settler for Western Canada should have in the way of cash and equipment and the preparations he should make if he would smooth the road to prosperity on ranch or farm. It is the opinion of W. S. Spark, the English live stock judge and general agricultural critic. Mr. Spark has been touring Canada for the past year. He was sent over at government expense to officiate in this capacity and give the agriculturists and especially the stock raisers the benefit of his vast experience.

Essential to Success. Mr. Spark undertakes to say from his experience with the homesteaders in success and failure in the territories to-day. He deals with the details and that is what is most interesting in settling the west are most anxious to impress upon the newcomers. Mr. Spark has enjoyed vast experience as a farmer and stock raiser. His hobby has been to produce the best that the soil or the herd is capable of. In this tool he bears down on the Canadian. Altogether his advice is worth considering, not only because he is a practical man, but because he is a man who possesses muscle and brains and a little patience.

"I have been traveling over Canada a year, and in that time have delivered probably fifty lectures or more, and presided at as many horse judging contests and am now in what I consider a position to speak intelligently on my conclusions with reference to those who propose to farm in the west. First I should say that that man who has some capital a man has or how broad his experience may have been with stock or agriculture in the west he should have not less than one year's employment as a farmer as a preliminary to starting out on his own. In the case of a young man I should say the highway to success should be scrutinized even more closely.

"A farmer or stock man from another section needs the technical knowledge of the west to thrive. He should know the conditions and they do differ differently here from the east. If a man does not adapt himself to these ways he cannot secure the full measure of profit. I will take the case of a man coming into the country to homestead. Mr. Spark says that he should think of beginning with, and I am not sure that a minimum ought not to be marked higher up, say $1000. For other farmer as nearly adjacent to the section he wishes to occupy he should keep his cash in the bank. Not infrequently, for one reason or another, a homesteader desires to borrow a nominal sum, even including his improvements, the man with a little ready money frequently starts out in this way with a clear conscience."

PROGRESSIVE IN IRELAND

Rev. C. M. Cruickshanks, Native of Cayuga, Ont., Recruits From Non-Church Goers' Ranks.

Rev. C. H. Cruickshanks, M. A., chairman of the Limerick (Ireland) Methodist district, who preached yesterday at the Metropolitan Central Methodist Church, is the delegate from the Irish conference to the general conference of the M. E. Church at Los Angeles. Mr. Cruickshanks was born at Cayuga, Hamilton County, but left Canada when five years old and went, in 1841, to Belfast. He spoke in a very cheerful tone of the prospects of the Methodist Church in Ireland, according to the last census, he said, it was the only church making progress. The total population had decreased a quarter of a million in ten years, and of these the loss fell upon the Roman Catholics to the extent of 247,000; the Church of Ireland, 30,000; the Presbyterians, 100, while the Methodists increased 200.

"Where did you get these people from?" asked the reporter. "From the non-church-goers," was the reply. "It is true," he said, "we got them from the other churches. The United Methodist Church of Methodism is the work done for other churches. I know one church with 200 members who were converted in the Methodist meetings. My son visited 90 houses in a street in the Shankill-road, in Belfast, and found 50 families who did not go to church or any place of worship. These were fair people. I have tickets which I send to people to fill up and send to the ministers of the churches they belong to."

Mr. Cruickshanks thinks the university question is a very serious one in Ireland. There are two or three proposed solutions of the difficulty. One is to form another university, consisting of the Queen's colleges and certain other Roman Catholic colleges, with a common board of examiners. "I cannot say I approve of it. Dublin is objected to on account of the fact that the Queen's colleges are on account of their irreligion. The Royal University now has Catholic fellowships and is open to all. There should be a national university for all Ireland that is what is wanted. There should be a widening out and enlarging of the Dublin University giving the Roman Catholics every opportunity to have colleges of their own, the government going in to support the education, and the churches becoming responsible for the religious education of their own people.

Maynooth was endowed with $30,000 a year, and this was capitalized twenty times the amount. It was intended for the education of the sons of those in orders, but the latter are not now admitted. Dr. O'Dwyer, the Roman Catholic bishop of Limerick, stated before the royal commission that the best educated and cleverest young priests come out of Maynooth, absolutely deficient in all classical disciplines, and above all, deficient in that undefinable thing that is not knowledge, but culture.

The temperance question is making much headway among the Roman Catholics, the League of the Cross, an anti-drinking movement in Tipperary, is doing much good. The pledge in Ireland is against giving or taking a treat.

TWOURED WOOD MILES AMONG MILLION LEPEERS OF INDIA

John Jackson, F.R.G.S., Tells of Mission Work to Heal That Country's Hideous Plague.

When John Jackson, F.R.G.S., organizing secretary of the Mission to Lepers in India and the east, who spoke in the city churches yesterday, saw five healthy children in the arms and clinging to the knees of two leprous mothers he was irresistibly reminded of Mrs. Browning's lines: "Do ye hear the children weeping, O my brothers, ere the sorrow come, They are leaving their young heads against their mother's, and that cannot stop their tears."

The leper mission is working in cooperation with all other missions, and with government recognition and support. It is building asylums in India, the missionaries of the various churches assist in carrying on the work. The mission is working in India, China and Japan. Mr. Jackson has traveled all thru the India leper districts and has been honored by the Royal Geographical Society for his work.

"Leprosy at present," said Mr. Jackson, "is less liable to be cured than it was in the past. Bacteriologists are experimenting and hope to find a cure. The disease is certainly contagious within certain limitations, owing to the absence of sanitation and the low physique of the natives. Fortunately, Europeans are not liable to become lepers because of their more hygienic habits and greater power of resistance.

The principal work of the society is the provision of asylums into which lepers are welcomed from their life of suffering. There are nearly 8000 Christian lepers, and the society is supporting or benefiting 4000 others. The value of the society's work from a public point of view is increasingly recognized by the government of India, which supplied two-thirds of the cost of the last asylum opened. It is recognized that what Lord Dufferin called the open sore of India might be healed by the work of the society.

One of Mr. Jackson's most interesting experiences in his 7000-mile tour in India was a visit paid to Miss Mary Reed at Chandigar, in the shadow of the Himalayas, which rise as high as 28,000 feet in view of the mountains. Miss Reed is the only English-speaking missionary who ever became a leper. While working in the Zanzibar mission, she contracted the disease. She was in the habit of giving alms to the lepers, and in some such way contracted the disease. On discovering the nature of it she resolved to give up her life to her fellow sufferers. "I found her presiding over a goodly number of lepers, and she had a number of her care, with comfortable houses both for the men and the women, the latter close to her own two-roomed dwelling. There are many lepers in the valley.

that surrounded her lonely out-post, on the frontiers of Tibet and Nepal, had happily held in check and has not either disabled nor disfigured her.

"The disease is the result of a combination of causes," said Mr. Jackson. "Dr. Hutchinson's theory, that it was due to a diet of diseased or badly cured fish has some acceptance, but Dr. Morson does not agree with him. It is insufficient food and unsanitary conditions. The extension of the work of leprosy includes the segregation of the work of leprosy in a million in India, the care of the children and training in social and sanitary conditions of living."

Thomas Sibbald, 120 West Queen-street, who fell or jumped from the Parkdale bridge, Saturday afternoon and broke his ankle, is progressing favorably. He told the police and the hospital authorities that he intended to commit suicide. Just how he intended to kill himself by lighting on his feet he does not explain. There is not much stock taken in his story.

CLEVER BOOTS IN THE RING

Opening of Canadian Championships - Saturday's Summary and Draw for To-Night.

The Canadian amateur boxing and wrestling championships opened on Saturday night at the Mutual-street rink before a fine crowd.

In the 115 lb. class Thomas Stone, New York, received the decision over Wm. Aiken, Ottawa. The bout was very even and in the opinion of the crowd they should have gone another round.

In the 125 lb. class Joe Cutt, Canada champion, and Theo. Lavery, New York, furnished a great bout. They went an extra period and Cutt got the decision.

The middleweight bout was stopped in the second round. Beckman of New York butted St. Mary's, Toronto, nearly out of the ring on stomach and a right cross to the jaw put Murray down and out.

The lightest bout between Jerry Flynn, New York, and Leo Lofort, Montreal, was a great one. Flynn had about 50 lbs. on O'Neill, but the latter was very clever.

Extra wrestling bouts were decided as follows: Edmund's school, secured a fall on Cameron of Montreal in the 143 lb. class.

In the 105 lb. class Sterling, Hamilton, threw Ben, Toronto, nearly out in four minutes. Gus Tarr, Buffalo, received the decision in the 150 lb. class over Leo Lofort, Montreal, on aggressiveness.

The two-mile run, King of Harvard won in 9 minutes 54 seconds, lowering the dual record by 1-3/4 seconds. In the hammer throw, Shevlin of Yale hurled the weight 132 feet 9 inches, 6 inches better than the dual record.

The St. Matthew's Lawn Tennis Club will hold a mixed double tournament on Tuesday for members only. Entries will be received by the secretary up to Monday night.

THEY LOST BY SINGLE RUNS ON SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Toronto Traveled All the Way to Newark Without Scoring a Run.

Toronto lost another ten-innings game Saturday to Newark. Light batting was again a feature. Montreal took the second game that Jersey City has lost this season.

Saturday was a perfect day for baseball and many loyal fans turned out to see Toronto and Newark play the last game to this series.

Gatins was first up in the sixth for Newark. He got four wide ones. Wagner hit to Gardner, forcing Gatins to bat.

The crowd began to get interested, and hoped to see the ball put out, but at this stage Gardner weakened. Wagner started out with a slinging two-bagger. Shea sent him along to third.

STRAITHCONAS AND ROYALS TWO RUNS EACH

Each—St. Clements Beat Wellesleys 3 to 2—All the Scores.

At Sunlight Park Saturday afternoon a fair sized crowd turned out to witness the games. Both contests were full of good and bad playing, but were decidedly interesting without, as they were evenly contested through.

The Royals and the Strathconas met on Monday; but the teams had been sent an extra innings to try and decide the game, but there was nothing doing and had to be called off. Bill O'Brien caught a clever game for the Royals and hit out of a field fly in the third inning.

ESSENTIALS TO SUCCESS

profit on the deal. Of course title can't pass, but being notified when the homestead will be abandoned he may file on some just as in the case of newly surveyed lands.

"After a year's experience the new owner knows the way of the west. Then he wants to make ready. He should have a team—a good team—of mares. If he buys geldings the time must come when the team must be replaced by drawing on the cash reserve. Not so with good brood mares. They give equally as good service, too, if not better. Not less than $100 each for the mares is the figure for stock—cheaper than that is not worth starting in business with. Altogether $500 must be invested in equipment.

"A reserve of $500 is indispensable, unless a new settler desires to immediately mortgage his place. If a man starts out with a mortgage, to fight he is handicapped severely. For the pace is fast in the west, and this margin between encumbrances and a clear title is the difference usually between failure and success. If the man starts with a mortgage his first crop failure means ruin. If he has a margin of cash, the first year may be tided over, in spite of grain shortage.

"If the farmer is a young man, he should have in view the course of the Guelph after he has farmed, say three years. I am a great believer in Guelph. Then, if he believes it is better for a young man to have several years' practical experience before going to Guelph. He can't afford to move readily, his instructions. He knows what he knows and the reasons for things. That is a big feature—the why and the wherefore of things. I have in mind a nephew of mine, who is farming at Verdun, just above Regina. He has been working alongside of a man trained at Guelph. He observes that this man can do everything around a farm infinitely better than the man without that training.

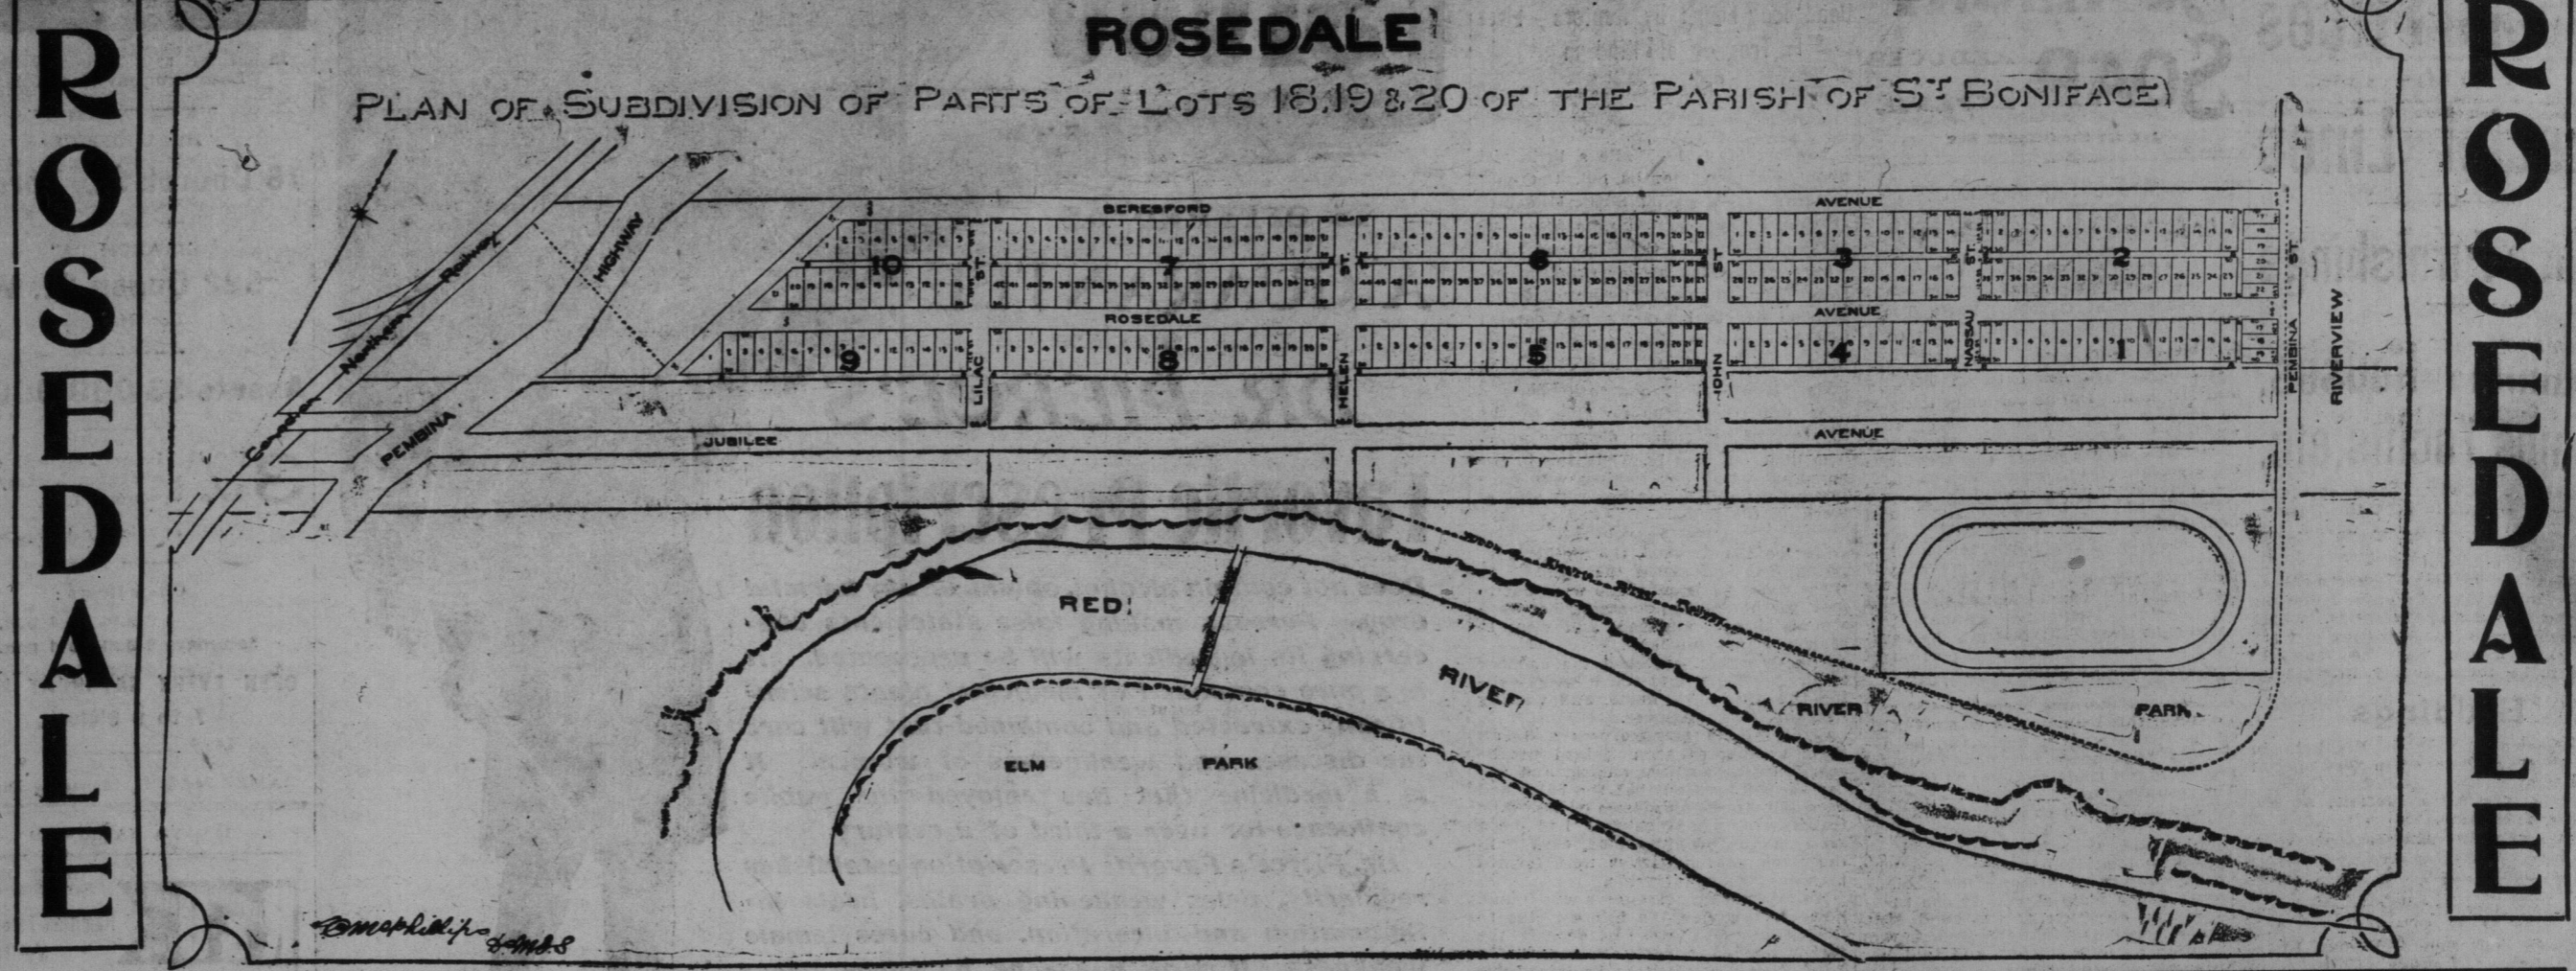

"Then, after the farm is acquired, the idea should be—and this applies to Ontario as well as to any part of the west—to aspire to a certain type in his herds. For instance, if a man is to breed any kind of a horse and a sheep he really has no definite purpose as a live stock producer. The idea should be to get a mark—will it be high one—and attempt to breed up to that mark always. A man might just as well be satisfied with a poor quality of live stock. The farmer who imagines he will breed a 'general purpose' horse is preparing to impoverish himself. There is really very little market for the 'general purpose' animal. But a farmer may have a high type of horse and, perhaps, a 'general purpose' animal, but if he is satisfied to breed merely to the average, and fails to reach that, his goal is valueless.

"I believe the time is approaching when the cavalry horses of the empire will be largely drawn from western Canada. We have inserted the thin edge of the wedge. This means a huge source of revenue. It means closer relations between the mother country and her chief colony. There are to-day a great many farmers and stock growers in England with a few thousand dollars who are anxious to invest in Canada. They believe in a high question of accurate information. Still, many others are anxious to send their sons over here, and to them to the extent of several thousand dollars. But it is accurate information these people want. I believe that Canada to-day is the best-titled country in the world. If these new settlers come to the west with accurate information, the chance of failure is minimized. The source of complaint is the class that are ill-advised and seek the west under the impression that they have only to buy their passage and then begin to pick gold from the shrubs.

Future Live Stock.
"From my observation, I should say the Canadian west is destined to lead the world in the production of live stock, as well as grain. The progress made by the stock growers is even more rapid than that of the farmer. The development of the live stock industry in that part of the Dominion west of Winnipeg is something tremendous. Of course, Ontario is far in advance of the west with her well selected herds, but Western Canada is being settled by the most alert class of the stock breeders and mixed farmers in the world. The material is good and the results must be of the same quality. This is my estimate of the west, and the advice that I would give those who would seek fortune here."

PRINCESS NOT ILL.
London, May 22.—Rumors are current that the health of the Princess of Wales is in such an unsatisfactory condition that it will cause the abandonment of the proposed trip to India and also the visit to St. Louis. At Marlborough House it was said that the princess was enjoying her usual good health. The postponement of the Indian visit is not due to the state of the princess's health. No definite plans have yet been made as to the visit to the St. Louis Exposition.

ONE OUT OF EIGHT.

Americans Get the Call Up at the Soo.
Sault Ste. Marie, May 22.—The Star says: The Alien Law certainly stands greatly in need of a little exercise of our good friends across the river are giving their law, after which the ship channel above the lock, the composition of the crews of Hickler Bros. dridges, just now widening out the ship channel above the lock. There are two dredges at work with some 14 or 16 men engaged. Out of the eight men employed on No. 8, there is only one solitary resident Canadian. Five of the crew are Americans, and two are said to be British born, but are residing in the United States. On the other dredge, No. 5, three of the crew are American citizens. There are a good many competent men in the Canadian Sault who have not had work for some time who would be glad to take the place of the Americans, who would easily be able to get jobs now that all the Canadians are being fired from the American Sault by the United States immigration officers. The agents of the Dominion government certainly should enforce the law here, as the officials across the river are doing.

ART CROWDS WIFE OUT.

Spouse of Late Mr. Hawkins Stayed Away for Years.
London, May 22.—A good story is being told of the late C. H. T. Hawkins, the sale of whose remarkable collection of objects of art has been attracting keen bidders to Christie's rooms lately.

"The great art connoisseur, he had no idea of an effective arrangement of his treasures. In fact, they were distributed about his house in a most haphazard fashion. Priceless antiques were to be found in odd corners, while masterpieces of painting stood stacked on the floor, with faces to the wall.

CROMWELL'S HEAD UNBURIED.

Now in Possession of Kenish Gentleman—Sold for $500.
London, May 22.—Oliver Cromwell's body, after suffering various indignities at the hands of royalists on the restoration of the monarchy, was buried at the foot of the gallows at Tyburn, which approximately is the site of the present Marble Arch, the principal northern entrance to Hyde Park. The head, however, was never buried, and now may become the centre of an animated discussion as to whether it ought or ought not to be interred.

This disorder gave rise some years ago to a curious incident in his domestic menage. There came a fine when the overflow of treasures pronounced Hawkins to suggest to his wife that she should stay one night at an hotel in order to avoid an inconvenient and a public nuisance. She acted upon the suggestion. Nor did she leave the hotel for the following sixteen years.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Princess Francis Wilson in "Ermoline."
Grand, Reeves-Smith in "The Tyranny of Tears."
Majestic, "The Lights of Gotham."
Shea's, Louis Gunning and vaudeville. Star, Fay Foster's Burlesques. Massey Hall, "Living Canada."

The Princess will have a notable attraction this week and it is likely that the audiences will be the largest that have seen a musical production this season. Francis Wilson's revival of the famous opera "Ermoline" is most complete. The cast is remarkable in its strength and the scenic investiture is on a grand scale.

IMPERIAL POLITICS.

Chamberlain Secures Complete Control of the Liberal Unionists.
London, May 22.—(Tribune Special.)—The political salons have been suspended for the Whitean holiday days after the failure of the free trade intrigue against the government. Devonshire House and Wimborne House are in hot haste to bring in a new coalition ministry, headed by the Duke of Devonshire, but there is no practical method of getting rid of the present government. There was an ingenious device for uniting the free trade forces against the government, but Mr. Balfour and Mr. Chamberlain put their heads together and thwarted it.

The free trade ministerialists, instead of standing together, broke up in three groups, one in each lobby and straggling walking out. Mr. Balfour, by adopting an English variant of the French procedure of passing to the order of the day, again displayed consummate skill as a tactician and increased his prestige as a leader. The political hostesses are disappointed, for they have arranged a new coalition ministry, distributed the minor offices and provided seats for sectionists from the government ranks, but the opinion among the keenest observers has been confirmed that there can be no general election before the autumn of next year.

GREEN PLAGUE OF WAR.

Russian Soldiers in Chinese Houses Afflicted by Disease.
Paris, May 22.—A despatch from Moscow to The Man says that one of the first horrors resulting from the war in the orient is a new disease, known as the "green plague," which is spreading among Russian soldiers who are quartered in Chinese houses. Undoubtedly the bacteria of this disease are always present in these houses, but the yellow race is immune to them, while Caucasians are easy victims. The first symptom of the plague is an affection of the eyes. Then the sufferer has frightful sweats and his body becomes covered with green spots. The army surgeons are totally at sea concerning this new disease and the soldiers are dying like flies.

The Japanese do not boast in face of their successes in winning the prize of the French press. The newspapers would scarcely believe that the Japanese were capable of such restraint and self-effacement.

THE LIGHTS OF GOTHAM.

A story dealing with life in New York at the present time, by the Metropolitan Theatre this week. The play is one of the season's melodramatic successes and is replete with sensational scenes and climaxes. In the working out of the plot plenty of opportunity is afforded for situations that appeal to lovers of melodrama. The usual matinees will be given daily with a special holiday matinee on Tuesday (Victoria Day).

The exhibition of moving pictures by the Living Canada Company beginning at Massey Hall to-night and continuing all this week, with matinees to-morrow (Victoria Day) and Thursday (Victoria Day) will be the most notable series of views ever exhibited here. On Saturday a very fine picture will be shown, another local picture will be a view of His Excellency the Governor-General at the Canadian Horse Show on April 29th last. The other views are of a most interesting and delightful character.

ALSO THE WEATHER.

Also the weather was threatening all day. It did not prevent the crowds from flocking to Hanlan's Point yesterday afternoon and evening. The rest of the popular band concert was given by the band of the Queen's Own Rifles. Between two and three hundred and fifty people were present. The stage of the free vaudeville theatre now faces the south, which is a big improvement. Owing to the backwardness of the season, the new iron roof has been erected in place. This will be the new opera chairs in place, this will be one of the finest open-air theatres in America.

Enslaved Bond to Lose?
London, May 22.—The publication of the full text of Sir Robert Hart's memorandum favors imposing a tax on Chinese land, and obtaining about $60,000,000 for the reorganization of the army and the navy. It attracts much attention here, where the truth is discerned by thoughtful public men that England stands to lose, whether Russia or Japan wins. Sir Robert Hart's idea is to provide ways and means for enabling the Chinese to defend their own empire, and not to accept conditions of dependence on either St. Petersburg or Tokio.

TAKING THEATRE DEADHEADS.
London, May 22.—The scheme for the taking of deadheads by New York theatres for the benefit of the Actors' Home calls attention to the fact that the system has been for some time in vogue in suburban and provincial theatres of England, the contributions not exist, however, in London, where, according to the manager of a West End theatre, it could not be imposed. Moreover, he added, it would never let to let the public know the large number of people who go to the theatre without paying.
